FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

HENRY CLAY.

NEW-ORLEANS:
FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 25, 1843.

NATURALIZATION.
CLAY CLUB ROOM.
(EXCHANGE PLACE.)
August 21, 1843.

At a meeting of the Club, held this day, it was on motion Resolved, That a suitable and competent person be appointed by the Clay Club, for the purpose of giving the necessary legal information to Foreigners, preparatory to their becoming naturalized citizens of the United States. All such persons members of the Whig party as may desire the advantage of such information, are respectfully invited to call at the office of Colonel WM. CHRISTY, No. 21 St. Charles street, who will take much pleasure in affording them any facilities required.

A. ROUSSEAU,
C. C. WILLIAMS, } Secretaries.
A. CANONGE,

CLAY CLUB ROOM.
(25 EXCHANGE PLACE.)
August 14th, 1843.

The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the DEMOCRATIC WHIG PARTY in this city for the sale of REAL ESTATE, respectfully give notice to such persons as may feel the importance of voting at our next MUNICIPAL STATE and PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS, and have not the PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS required by law, that we are now prepared, on the most reasonable terms, to place them in the lawful possession of that inestimable privilege, by their making IMMEDIATE APPLICATION to the Secretary at our office as above, between the hours of 9 and 3.

By order of the Committee.
(Signed) S. W. DALTON, Chairman.
J. CHARLES GUENET, Secretary.

☞ By special favor we received two full mails yesterday, bringing dates from New York to the 16th, from Washington to the 17th and from Charleston to the 19th. The Hibernia steamer had not arrived. She left Liverpool on the 4th, and probably arrives at Boston between the 16th and 18th. We shall probably obtain news by her on Saturday or Sunday.

A late number of the New York Courier & Enquirer contains an article on the prospects of the locofoco party, in which the opinion is advanced that Mr. VAN BUREN stands no chance of a nomination and that he is decidedly the weakest of all the locofoco candidates for the presidency. We differ from our cotemporary in these points. First in regard to Mr. VAN BUREN's strength. He is confessedly the first choice of the northern locofocos, save in Pennsylvania, and there HUCMANAN and JOHNSON—neither of whom can be considered prominent candidates—are stronger than he. But as the Kentuckian and Pennsylvanian will probably be put aside in the convention, Mr. VAN BUREN will get the vote of the Key Stone State. In the west the sage of Lindenwold can concentrate the party votes—not as thoroughly perhaps as CASS and JOHNSON, but far more so than CALHOUN. In the south alone he is positively weak. On the other hand CALHOUN has no strength any where north of the Potomac. In Virginia and Maryland even his superior popularity over VAN BUREN is highly problematical. In the west he has no earthly chance. Any other candidate, whig or loco, would beat him out of sight. CASS and JOHNSON could rally their partizans in the west and might carry Indiana, and Ohio, and Missouri, and Illinois, but beyond that section they are powerless. So that all things considered, Mr. VAN BUREN is the most available of the locofoco aspirants to the presidency.

We should like to see CALHOUN nominated by the locos for several reasons. Firstly, he is a gentleman, a man of honor, on whose public and private career no stain of dishonor rests. But the locofocos are far too sagacious to encounter certain defeat under such a leader. Next, Mr. CALHOUN, like Mr. CLAY, is a slave holder and a devoted supporter of the domestic institutions of the south. Neither of them would obtain the votes of that pestilent faction—the abolitionists, who by these nominations, would be disarmed of their strength, and forced to regard the contest with impotent rage. But there very consideration will effect the defeat of Mr. CALHOUN in the national convention. Mr. VAN BUREN was a Missouri restrictionist, and is a believer in the constitutional power of congress to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia. Hence between him and Mr. CLAY the abolitionists will not hesitate to sustain Mr. VAN BUREN. The force of this faction will be respected in the convention. The locos will nominate no slave holder, for they want the abolition vote against Mr. CLAY.

It is our belief that VAN is the forlorn hope of locofocoism. He will be taken up by them almost to a certainty, and he will be discomfitted beyond a doubt. Mr. CALHOUN stands no chance. His friends are young and ardent; but the wary and wily leaders of the party will give them ten in the game, and then out-wit them.—There is one contingency alone against Mr. VAN BUREN, and it is the possibility of a breach in the party in the event of his nomination. Such an apprehension might induce the convention to discard both the prominent candidates, and rally under CASS or JOHNSON—the first probably, because he is moderate in his views, as popular in the west as Col. DICK, and will not have to encounter in the south the deep rooted prejudice existing against JOHNSON. As matters stand, however, we look upon the nomination of Mr. VAN BUREN as extremely likely, and upon his defeat as absolutely certain.

☞ The Bee asserts that North Carolina is a whig state, and that the whig have gained from 1,000 to 2,000 votes over the election of last year, which went to prove of a whig governor by 4,700 majority. This the Bee can prove to the satisfaction of any candid mind.

The election in North Carolina this year was for members of congress. Last winter the locofocos having a heavy majority in both branches of the legislature districted the state as they thought proper. In the first district they put 3,702 whig majority. This the locos did not contest. In the second 496 whig majority. This has been carried by Dan'l. Barringer (w.) by about 400 majority. In the third, they placed 280 loco majority, and their candidate, Reid, has succeeded by about this vote. In the fourth, they piled up 4,905 whig majority. No locofoco candidate ran in this district. In the fifth they threw 745 locofoco majority, and Saunders (loco) is chosen by 159 majority—showing a whig gain of 588 votes. In the sixth there was a heavy loco majority and McKay ran without opposition. In the seventh they heaped 550 loco majority, and Daniel (loco) succeeded by 193 votes—whig gain 727. In the eighth they put 727 locofoco majority (Stanley's district,) and Arrington (loco) is elected by 500 votes—whig gain 200. In the ninth, they allowed the whigs 471 majority, and Rayner has 840—whig gain 366. Is the Courier answered?

It is true the locos have carried five out of the nine members, because they carved the districts so as to render such a result more than probable. But look at the popular vote in the contested districts. The whig lose 93 votes in the second, and gain in the 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th, just 1,679—net gain 1,786 votes, over the governor's election last year, which went for the whigs by a majority of 5,000 majority. The popular majority in North Carolina cannot be less than from 6,500 to 7,000 in favor of the whigs. Is the Courier answered!

INDIANA.—The latest returns from Indiana we receive by way of New York. They embrace about one third the State, and show a majority of 40 votes for WHITCOMB, the locofoco candidate for Governor. The whig loss in these counties renders the election of BIGGER, very doubtful if not absolutely hopeless. In the strong whig county of Wayne, the locofoco vote has fallen off less than 100, and the whig vote upwards of 1,300—this is a sample of the manner in which the election has been conducted.

For Congress the returns show thus far, the election of two whigs and three locos. The whigs are Caleb B. Smith and Samuel C. Sample—the locos are Henley, Owen and probably Thomas Smith in the Franklin district.

For the Legislature, so far, the whigs are ahead, but politics seem but little regarded. The chances are in favor of a whig Legislature.

☞ It seems, if we may believe the Alton Telegraph, that Joe Smith, the Prophet and High Priest of the Mormons, has resigned his office and nominated his brother as a proper person to exercise the sacerdotal functions in the latter Saint having been duly and canonically ordained for the purpose.

HUM-BUGGED EXPLOSION.—A grand sub-marine explosion took place in New York harbor on the 16th, in the presence of about 3,000 spectators. Mr. TAYLOR was the sub-marine navigator on the occasion. A sloop was blown into thousands of fragments.

YUCATAN AND TABASCO.

By the schooner Dorie, arrived yesterday from Mobile, we have received intelligence from that place to the 10th inst. We are indebted to the politeness of a merchant of this city for some information respecting the events which have occurred in Tabasco, and concerning Gen'l SENTMANAT.

After the departure of this officer for Yucatan, his partizans fell back on La Palizada, where they entrenched themselves. ARPUDIA met against them a detachment of 300 Mexicans, who were warmly received by the insurgents, and were compelled to retreat with considerable loss.

From what we learn, it would appear that SENTMANAT has not abandoned all intention of raising a hostile flag in Mexico. He has gone to Yucatan for the purpose of levying new forces, to enable him to meet ARPUDIA. He is enlisting soldiers with great activity, and as soon as his numbers become respectable, he will return to Tabasco and recommence hostilities.

NEW COTTON ARRIVED.—The Mobile Herald of Wednesday says: "Three bales of new cotton were brought down on the Native yesterday evening,—one from Montgomery—one from Selma—and one from Captain M. Sturges' plantation, Wilcox county. The quality we have not heard as classed. Two of the three bales are consigned to Messrs. E. L. Andrews & Co., who we learn, intend commencing the cotton business on a specie basis—of course, these two bales will be sold for specie only. Glad to hear it."

☞ The National Intelligencer, in the course of an article on "whig prospects," has the following remarks, in which we entirely concur:

"For ourselves, we have not the least doubt that the Whig Party is at this moment stronger than it was four years ago; more powerful because more united and compacted; and better prepared than ever it has been for conflict with its adversaries, because animated by the double motive of redressing injury which it has itself sustained, and accomplishing good for the country.—We look forward, then, with cheerful and abiding confidence to a victory for the Whigs in November, 1844, hardly inferior in brilliance and decisiveness to that which it won in November, 1840. We do not now doubt, and we never have doubted of this result."

THAT TOAST.—The toast respecting WASHINGTON, which we published some weeks since from an account of a celebration of the Nashville Association of Pittsburgh, and which was considered so happy as to be very generally copied, is declared by a correspondent of the New York Courier, to be a rank plagiarism. The toast was delivered in nearly the identical language employed by Mr. Fitzsimmons at the Nashville celebration, many years ago by Col. Samuel L. Knapp.—At least thus saith the correspondent of the Courier & Enquirer.

☞ A quarrel took place in a porter house in New York, on the 15th last, between two negro named Bleaney and Cullen, in the course of which Blaney seized Cullen by the throat and stabbed him in the side and arm with a clasp knife—the first wound being mortal. Cullen died a few hours after, and Blaney was arrested and taken to prison.

☞ The Charleston Mercury, a paper which allows deeply imbued with locofoco principles, generally tells the truth fairly and openly, thus speaks of the North Carolina elections:

"In the aggregate popular vote, the whigs have a considerable majority, though the exact amount of it cannot be stated, because on three congressional districts—two whig and one democrat—there was no regular party opposition."

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Raleigh Register of the 15th inst., thus sums up the final result in the glorious old North State:—

THE FINAL RESULT.—We have at length ascertained the final result of our recent election for Members of Congress, though we are yet without the details of each district. Notwithstanding the gerrymandering of the locofoco legislature last winter, the whigs have elected four out of nine Representatives to which we are entitled in this State, and have carried the State by a tremendous popular majority. This will fully appear from a comparison of the respective majorities in each district, a table of which we shall prepare as soon as all the returns come in. We have been forced to yield to the force of her principles—true to the cause to which she has been so long pledged—true to the nation—true to the good whig faith!

Let it be trumpeted from one end of the Union to the other that the whig majority in Rayner's district alone, which was arranged expressly with a view to elect a locofoco representative, if distributed properly, would have secured the election of Miller in that district, Nash in the Orange district, Mitchell in the Caswell district, and, possibly, Stanly in the Edgecomb district!

The members elected to the next Congress from this State are as follows:

Whigs.	Locofocos.
Thomas L. Clingman,	David S. Reid,
Daniel M. Barringer,	R. R. J. Daniel,
Edmund Deberry,	R. M. Saunders,
Kenneth Rayner.	A. H. Arrington,
	J. J. McKay.

☞ The New Haven Herald gives the particulars of the death of Charlotte Fridsten, an interesting little girl of 14, by her clothes taking fire at Hamden, on Saturday, the 12th inst. She had been up during the night previous, watching with a sick sister, when sitting by a fire which she had built for cooking, she fell asleep and awoke not till her clothes were on a blaze. No one was in the house but the two sisters, and before their cries brought any one to their assistance the sufferer was so badly burnt that she died the next day.—It was an afflicting and distressing scene, in such a sister suffering almost an equal agony with the other from her inability to afford the necessary aid, having fainted and fallen in the street in her endeavors to call for help. This has been a very afflicted family, Deacon Fridsten having died about three years since, a daughter aged 14 about three weeks after, an aged grandmother the last January, a sister quite long afflicted with severe disease, and this calamity, leaving a widowed mother to mourn these distressing dispensations of Providence.

TROTTING ON THE BEACON COURSE—FASHION AND ONEIDA VICTORIOUS.

The greatest race of the season came off yesterday afternoon, agreeably to announcement, on the Beacon course. The day was delightful, for although the sun dispensed its fiery rays in an exceedingly liberal manner, there was a charming breeze to neutralize its effects. Hundreds of thousands of spectators flocked to the course at an early hour in the afternoon, and the numbers were continually increased up to the time of the last race. The course was in tip top order, and every thing gave promise of fine sport.

The first race was between Woodruff's black horse Cottage Boy, and bay mare Fashion, for a purse of $1,000. Two mile heats in harness, repeat.

Both sides backed capitally. At about half-past 3 they started, Fashion leading at a steady trot during the first quarter. Cottage Boy broke up repeatedly, and was cut inside the course. Fashion was the first heat in very good time, keeping up a steady trot and not breaking once. The second heat was won by the mare alone, by several lengths.

Time—1st heat, 5 minutes 29 seconds; 2d heat, 5 minutes 29½ seconds.

The second race was the principal feature of the day. It was anticipated that Lady Suffolk would "knock into fits" the great mare owned by Dutchman, but these anticipations were doomed to be "knocked into fits." The race was for a purse of $200, by Bryant's grey mare Lady Suffolk, and the old Oneida Chief—three mile heats under saddle, and repeat.

Both horses were in splendid condition, but the Lady was evidently the favorite, although the Chief found plenty of backers, and great confidence was placed in his chances.

Ludlow rode Oneida Chief, and Bryant his own Lady Suffolk.

At 5 o'clock precisely, they both started, the Chief having the inside of the course. Lady Suffolk shot ahead in the first quarter, and in the second put a gap of an eighth between her and the horse, which he filled up a little in the first round, two-thirds in the second, and in the last quarter which filled it up completely, and overhauled her about half way between the gate and the quarter pole, and came in a length ahead.

The second heat was more equally run, the Chief having the inside of the course. Lady Suffolk shot ahead in the last round the whole way, and the last eighth labored heavily, and was beaten by the Chief coming in several rods ahead, amid tremendous cheering.

Time—1st heat, won by Oneida Chief in 7 minutes 44 seconds.

2d heat, won by Oneida Chief in 7 minutes 52 sec.

FIVE LORD CHANCELLORS IN AN IRISH MAD HOUSE.—The following amusing anecdote was related by Mr. O'Connell at a recent meeting at the Corn Exchange: The present Lord Chancellor in the interim of making out the writs of supersedeas for the repeal magistrates, was very fond of investigating into the management of lunatic asylums, and made an agreement with the Surgeon General to visit, without any previous intimation, a lunatic asylum, kept by Dr. Duncan, in this city. Some days after he sent word to the asylum that a patient was to be sent there in a carriage that day, who was a smart little man, and thought himself one of the judges of the Queen's bench. The patient was to be retained by them. [Laughter.] Dr. Duncan was out when Sir Edward Sugden came there in about half an hour afterwards, and on knocking at the door he was admitted and received by the keeper.—He appeared to be very talkative, but the attendants humored him, and answered all his questions. He asked if the Attorney General had arrived, and the keeper answered that he was not yet come, but that he would be there immediately. "Well," said he, "I will inspect some of the rooms until he arrives." "O, sir," said the keeper, "we could not permit that at all." "Then I will walk outside in the garden," said his lordship, "while I am waiting for him." "We cannot let you go out either," said the keeper. [Laughter.] "What," said he, "don't you know that I am the Lord
