BY ISAAC L. MOON.

WILL be sold at public auction, at Bank's Arcade, Magazine street.

Sale to commence at a quarter before 12 o'clock, M. on Wednesday, the 25th of January, 1837, the following Building Lots, comprised in the property, now divided into 4 squares, being that purchased last year by a company of Gentlemen, from D. P. Bouden, Esq., and on which Mr. Bouden has built, and for years, a plan showing the dimensions and situation of said lots, may be seen at the Arcade, till the day of sale. These 68 Lots were surveyed and distinct purchases, and Notes issued separately for the payment of each one; there is an amount varying from $1000 to $3300, due on each lot, payable in two annual instalments, of equal amounts, viz—on lot No 1, $3000; on lot No 2, $3000; on lot No 3, $3000; on lot No 4, $3000; on lots Nos 5, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 25, 27, 28, 29, 30, 37, and 38, $2000 each; and on lots Nos. 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47 and 48, $2500 each, the purchasers of which will be designated on the day of sale. The first years payment, which must be mortgaged for a per cent, falls due on the 15th day of May 1837, and the payment of interest thereon, bearing only 5 per cent per annum, falls due at the same period of each successive year, till the 15th of May 1840, which will be the last. The purchasers will have the advantage of selecting their lots, payment, without losing at the moment of giving notes, or presenting endorsers. For the bonus of the purchase money, which will be lost will bring over and above what it is to be assessed on them, as above stated, a credit of 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years, will be given, from the 15th of May next, 1837, upon any sum exceeding $100 and under $500, such as will be approved of by the sellers, and in sumsum to suit their convenience, and to be secured by mortgage until paid. The note of sales to be passed before Jules Massy, Esq. and David L. M'Kay, Esq., Notaries Public, at the expense of the purchasers. The public may be assured that this sale will be actual and unreserved, the property being owned by six proprietors, who have not only entered into written obligation, that the sale of the entire 68 lots are to be positive, let them sell for what they may. New Hour quarters are now being made, (and will be finished immediately,) round the square of lots, two storyed, with 4 feet of pavement outside, and to be finished top with the best kind of Lake Brick. It is unlike superfluous to call the attention of those wishing to secure eligible and delightful locations for fashionable and comfortable dwelling houses, to this sale; indeed no part of the city presents such an extensive and splendid body of unsold valuable lots, which are so near to the public, situated as it is, between Camp and Magazine streets, only a short distance from the river and St. Mary's Market and the Upper Cotton Presses, having also a front on Delord street, opposite to which, there of the largest ships will soon be moored, with the new canal, close by, on the other side, and also that extended Promenade Elysii Conde, and the wise within convenient distance, (on foot, in sight,) of the heaviest and most extensive Mercantile Establishments, Hotels and Banking Houses of the Southern St. Mary, and will soon be of the New Market House, about to be directed, in Poydras street, in its vicinity; so that those who wish to become purchasers of any part of the property, for the purpose of increasing part of the Second Municipality, will not easily be rather meet with so good an opportunity of making investments, on so favorable terms as now offered.
