NATIONAL PERSONNEL AUTHORITY

Announcement of Examination as Provided by Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions of the National Public Service Law (Police Personnel)

June 10, 1950

National Personnel Authority's Secretariat
2, 1-chome, Kasumigaseki, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo-To

This examination will be administered in accordance with Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions of the National Public ServiceLaw, and will have the same purpose as the "Examination as Provided by Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions of the National Public Service Law" published in the extra edition, No 132 of the Official Gazette dated November 12, 1949 hereinafter referred to as "the last examination under Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions"). However, this examination will be held only in respect to those positions belonging to the police occupation as referred to in the last examination under Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions, for which it was not possible to secure a necessary number of eligibles by certification from the employment eligible lists prepared as a result of that examination.

The examination will be conducted on an open and competitive basis in the same way as the last examination under Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions and is open to anyone having the necessary qualifications. When an employment eligible list is prepared as a result of this examination, it will be cominded with the employment eligible list prepared as a result of the last examnation under Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions, and the combined list will be used, during the effective period of the list, for appointment to the positions concerned as well as for filling the future vacancies.

1. Positions for which this examination is to be held.
   They are given in the appended table
2. Qualifications for taking Examination:
   a. Age
      Persons who are over 30 years of age on the deadline date for applications. However, those who are actually holding on the deadline date for applications the positions for which this examination is given may take the examination even if under 30 years of age.

   b. Personal Record:
      Persons who have the personal records required as qualifications for appointment to any one of the positions enumerated in the appended table.

3. Disqualifying Provisions:
   Any person coming under one of the items mentioned in Article 38 of the National Public Service Law.
   a. Any person coming under one of the items mentioned in Article 38 of the National Public Service Law.
   b. Any person who was designated as falling under the application of the Memorandum pursuant to the "Imperial Ordinance concerning Removal and Exclusion from Public Office" (Imperial Ordinance No 1 of 1947), or any person considered to have been designated as a person falling under the application of the Memorandum according to the "Organization Control Order (Cabinet Order No 64 of 1949).

c. A person who took the first and second written examination of the examination under Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions.

4. Qualfications:

Although persons possessing the qualifications for appointment to any position for which this examination is given may take the examination, appointments to specific positions will be limited only to those who have the qualifications for appointment to these positions.

a. General Qualifications:

In addition to the requirement that the candidates must have the status of a police officer of the National Rural Police of a city having a population of over 400,000 they are required to possess, as general qualifications for appointment to the positions for which this examination is given, the experience set forth in the appended table.

b. Special Qualifications:
In addition to the abovementioned general qualifications, the special qualifications enumerated in the appended table are required according to the type of the positions involved.

c. Treatment of Experience:
With respect to the treatment of the general and special qualifications, experiences in private and governmental offices will be given equal treatment whenever they are considered to be of the same type and degree.
In the computation of years of experience the date December 24, 1949 will be taken as the basis thereof.

d. Exceptions to those who are actually holding the positions:
Persons holding, on the deadline date for applications, a position for which this examination is given are considered as eligible to that position or any position requiring the same qualifications for appointment notwithstanding the provisions of "a" and "b" above.

5. Method of Examination:
The examination will consist of a written examination and character test.

a. Written Examination:
(1) Contents of Written Examination:
The written examination is to test general administrative ability and technical knowledge involved in police work.

(2) Date of Written Examination
The written examination will be conducted on June 27, 1950.

(3) Examination Centers:
Tokyo and Osaka

b. Character Test:
This will be based on the evaluation of the result of investigations made by the National Personnel Authority on each candidate.

(1) Content of Character Test:
This test is to evaluate each candidate as to whether or not he is fit for such top-level position as is subject to this examnation.

(2) Time of Character Test:
The character test will be conducted during the period form the day on which applications for examination begin to be accepted until the employment eligible list is established.

6. Method of Application:
Persons who wish to take this examination are requested to submit one of the application centres given below an application, in duplicate, and a statement of personal preferences with necessary particulars duly filled in:

Examination Section, Bureau of Recruitment, National Personnel Authority NPA Building, 2, 1-chome, Kasumigaseki, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo-to.

NATIONAL PERSONNEL AUTHORITY

Announcement of Follow-up Examination as Provided by Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions of the National Public Service Law

13 May 1950
Secretariat of National Personnal Authority
NPA Bldg, 2, 1-chome, Kasumigaseki, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo-to

This examination will be administered on the persons who were not able to take the examination as provided by Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions of the National Public Service Law (to be hereinafter referred to as "the examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions") which was announced in the Official Gazette of 12 November 1949.

1. Qualifications for Taking Examination: Persons who come under one of the items a, b and c given below:

a. Incumbents of positions for which the examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions was given who, for illness or other cause considered unavoidable by the National Personnel Authority, were unable to take its written examination; provided that they have filed a request to the National Personnel Authority's Secretariat or its regional office within 20 days of the completion of the written examination of the examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions and have obtained the approval.

b. Persons who come under each of the items given below:

(1) Persons who were unable to take the examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions due to their travel abroad or fire in their office building; provided that they have submitted an application to the National Personnel Authority's Secretariat by 23 May 1950, and have been approved by the National Personnel Authority.

(2) Age: Persons who were full 30 years of age on 24 December 1949; provided that persons holding on the said date the position for which the examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions was given (vide Annex No 1 of the Announcement of Examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions) may take this examination even if under 30 years of age.

(3) Personal Records: Persons who have the personal records required as qualifications for appointment to any one of the positions within the kind of occupation given in Annex No 2 of the Announcement of Examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions for which they intend to take the examination; provided that persons occupying on 24 December 1949 a position for which the examination of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions was given will be considered as being eligible for appointment to that position or any position requiring the same qualifications for appointment.

c. Persons who have been appointed to any of the designated positions (including the positions considered as the designated positions under the provisions of paragraph 3 of the NPA Directive No 18 of 12 November 1949 and the positions additionally designated under the provision of paragraph 4 of the same Directive - hereinafter to be referred to as "the additional designated positions") after the deadline date for applications are actually holding such position on 15 May 1950, and who, moreover, did not take the examination for the kind of occupation to which the said designated position belongs; provided that they have submitted an application to the National Personnel Authority's Secretariat by 23 May 1950 and been approved by the National Personnel Authority. In this case, however, the taking of examination will be recognized only for the kind of occupation to which the said designated position belongs.

As to the qualifications for appointment to the additional designated positions and the kinds of occupation to which such position belong, please refer to the Annex of this announcement.

2. Method of Examination: The examination will consist of a written examination and character test.

1. Duties:

Police personnel are to be engaged in such duties as the protection of lives, bodies and properties of the people, prevention and investigation of crimes, apprehension of suspected persons, maintenance of public security, etc. While some persons will be applinted as police employees of the municipal police when they have received their training after appointment as police personnel, their duties are not much different from those of police personnel of the National Rural Police. (The National Rural Police will be hereinafter referred to as the National Police and police personnel of the National Rural Police and police employees of the municipal police as police personnel.

2. Qualifications for taking examination:

(1) Age and sex: Males over full 20 (Over 19 for graduates of high schools of the new system and of senior middle schools of the former system) but under full 30 years of age on the deadline date of the applications.

(2) Scholarship: Same as or higher than the graduates of the high schools of the new system or of the senior middle schools of the former system.

(3) Any person falling under any of the following shall be disqualified to take the examination:

a. Any person who has not the Japanese nationality.
b. Any person who has been adjudicated imcompetent or quasi-incompetent.
c. Any person who has been sentenced to a penalty heavier than imprisonment without hard labor.
d. Any person who was dismissed by disciplinary decision and for whom a period of two years has not expired since the date of dismissal.
e. Any person who, on and after the date of the enforcement of the Constitution of Japan, formed or belonged to a political party or other organization which advocated the overthrow by force of the Constitution of Japan or the government existing thereunder.
f. Any person who is designated as a person falling under the application of the Memorandum pursuant to the "Imperial Ordinance concerning Removal and Exclusion from Public Office" (Imperial Ordinance No. 1 of 1947), or any person considered to have been designated as a person falling under the application of the Memorandum according to the "Organization Control Order" (Cabinet Order 64 of 1949).

3. Date and Method of Examination and Announcement of the Result:

The examination is divided into the first and second examinations and also the personel investigation. The second examination will be given to the successful candidates of the first examination.

(1) First Examination:

a. Date: One day of May 19, 21 and 23, 1950 will be designated as the date of examination for each examination center. The examination will commence from 8:30 a.m. of the designated day and finish on that day. (Vide the annexed table of examination centers, examination halls and dates).

b. Content of the Examination:

1) Written Examination: This will have for its primary object the testing of intelligence and common sense necessary for a police officer.
2) Physical Examination: This will be administered to discover the candidate's fitness with respect to the following particulars:

(a) Height approximately 1.60 meters or more and girth of the chest half of the height or more.
(b) Both eyes of naked eye sight of over 0.6 (those of corrected eye sight of over 1.0 will have naked eye sight of over 0.1) and perfect discrimination power of colors.

(3) Reception Period of Applications:

From 10 April 1950 to 5 p.m. of 2 May 1950.
No such applicationforwarded by mail arriving at the office concerned after 5 p.m. of 2 May 1950 will be accepted.

(4) The applicant is requested to mention on the application blank, in the column "desired examination center", the desired examination center for the first examination and, in the column "Desired place of work", only one of the twenty (20) prefectures where the desired place of work is located. Moreover, the applicant is required to carry on his person a photograph taken recently (approximately 4 c.m. x 3 c.m.) mounted on the admission card on the days of the examination. No applicant without a photograph is permitted to take the examination.

6. Appointment and Promotion:

Under the new police system, while everyone must start his career as a policeman, he will be given the opportunity, according to his ability, to enter the regional police school or the Police College to receive education for higher positions, and the way is open for him, for example, in the National Police, to be promoted to the police sergeant, police inspector, police superintendent, or even to the Director-General.

(1) Successful candidates of this examination will be entered on the entrance eligible list for policemen (by each of the twenty (20) prefectures where the desired place of work is located), and certified in the order of their examination scores upon requisition of the To, Fu or prefectural headquarters of the National Police, after which appointment will be decided.

While the appointment will be effected after the middle part of July, the entrance eligible list is in principle effective for one year. Again, in case where another examination is held before the date of expiration of the existing list, those candidates who have not yet been appointed before the date of establishment of the new list on the basis of the result of the new examination may be incorporated in the new entrance eligible list, and appointment will be effected thereafter from the new list. However, even in such a case, the names of these candidates will be removed from the list when the period prescribed by the National Personnel Authority has expired.

(2) After the appointment has been decided, a candidate will be appointed as a policeman and required to enter the To, Fu or prefectural police school as a police probationer to receive initial training for six (6) months. After graduation from the school, he will be assigned to work as a policeman of the National Police or the municipal police, taking his preference into consideration.

7. Compensation:

As soon as a candidate is appointed a policeman (as well as during the period of a police probationer), he will be paid in addition to the third pay step, the first grade of the Police Salary Schedule (base pay ¥ 3,772), area allowance, family allowance and others. Policemen of the municipal police will be compensated in the same manner during the probational period, but there may be some difference after the graduation.

Remarks:

(1) Although an entrance examination for police personnel and Imperial Guards are as a principle held twice a year in the To, Do, Fu and each prefecture in which appointment is expected to be made, an entrance examination for police personnel of Tokyo Metropolis, Hokkaido and prefectures of Kanagawa, Aichi, Kyoto, Osaka, Hyogo, Fukuoka, etc, may in some cases be held four times a year.

(2) For further information, please make inquiries at the Personnel and Equipment Section, Police Affairs Division of the To, Fu and Prefectural Headquarters and the various area Headquarters in Hokkaido of National Rural Police, the Police Affairs Division, and the Examination Section, Recruitment Bureau, Secretariat of the National Personnel Authority and its Regional Offices.

The entrance eligible list is in principle effective for one year. However, in case where another examination is held before the date of expiration of the existing list, those candidates who have not yet been employed before the date of establishment of the new list on the basis of the result of the new examination may be incorporated in the new entrance eligible list, and appointment will be effected thereafter from the new list. However, even in such a case, the names of these candidates will be removed from the list when the prescribed period has expired.

b. After the appointment is decided, a candidate will be appointed as a policeman and required to enter the To, Do or prefectural police school as a police probationer to redeive initial training for six months. After graduation from the school, he will be assigned to work as a policeman of the national rural police or the municipal police, taking his preference into consideration.

(2) Imperial Guards

a. Successful candidates of this examination will be entered on the entrance eligible list for policemen with preference for Imperial Guards (one for the whole country), and certified in the order of their examination scores upon requisition of the appointing officer, after which appointment will be decided. In other respects they will be treated correspondingly to the instances of police personnel.

b. After appointment is decided, a candidate will be appointed as a policeman and required to enter the police school as a police probationer in order to receive initial training for six months. After graduation from the school, he will be appointed as an Imperial Guardman, and, after receiving further training necessary for an Imperial Guardman as an Imperial Guard trainee, will be assigned to duty.

Under the new police system, while everyone must start his carreer as a policeman, he will be given the opportunity, according to his ability, to enter the regional police school or the Police College to receive education for higher positions and the way is open for him to be promoted to the police sergeant, police inspector, police superintendent, or even to the Director-General.

8. Compensation

As soon as a candidate is appointed a policeman (as well as during the period of a police probationer), he will be paid the 3rd pay step first grade of the Police Salary Schedule (base pay ¥3,772). In addition, he will be given area allowance, family allowance and others. Policemen of the municipal police will be compensated in the same manner during the probational period, but there may be some differences after the graduation.

Remarks

a. Entrance examinations for police personnel of Tokyo, Kanagawa, Aichi, Kyoto, Osaka, Hyogo, Fukuoka and Hokkaido, may in some cases be held four times a year.

b. For further information, please make inquiries at the Personnel and Equipment Section, Police Affairs Division of the To and Prefectural Headquarters and the various Area Headquarters in Hokkaido of National Rural Police, and the Police Affairs Division, Headquarters of the Imperial Guard, and the Examination Section, Recruitment Bureau, Secretariat of the National Personnel Authority and its Regional Offices.

Public Notice on Examination for Tax Service Individuals

Tax Administration Agency
No. 1-2, Uchisaiwai-cho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo-to.

This examination for tax service officials is an examination by the Rax Administration Agency with the National Public Authority's approval, in order to employ tax officials graduated from colleges or higher professional schools, etc.

Successful candidates of this examination will be employes, as a rule, as tax officials graded at tax step 2 or 3.

Tax officials are excluded from the examination for the Governmental service officials (5 or 6 step officials) executed by the National Public Authority on account of their special business. Tax officials' positions are, at present classified into 9 steps, from tax step 1 to 9, based upon a different standard, from that of the regular governmental officials.

They are higher paid, based upon the special salary schedule, than regular governmentan officials.

I. Kinds of examinations:

There are two examinations for service, one for tax step 2 officials and another one for tax step 3 officials, and each of the examinations is divided into classes A and B.

Candidates can select either of examinations for tax step 2 or 3 officials according to qualifications and then pick up an examination, class A or B, according to their professional knowledge and ability.

II. Place of work and duties:

Tax officials to be employed from successful candidates of these examinations will be assigned, as a rule, to either a Tax Administration Bureau or a Local Taxation Office throughout the country, and will take care of assessment and collection of internal taxes. (The name, location and jurisdiction of Tax Administration Bureaus are given below).

There is little difference between duties of tax step 2 officials and those of tax step 3 officials, But successful candidates of the examination class A will, in general, engage in general administration of national taxes and those of the examination Class B will, in general, engage in actual tax assessment and collection according to their professional knowledge and ability.

VII. List of candidates to be employed, proposed number of persons to be employed, how to employ and rewards.

1. Successful candidates of these examinations will be enrolled on lists of candidates to be employed, which will be based separately upon each of the examinations, classes A and B, after division into step 2 tax official group and step 3 tax officials group. Each list of candidates to be employed will cover all successful candidates throughout the country, and successful candidates will be employed according to vacant situations at Tax Administration Bureaus and Local Taxation Offices, after inquiring into their antecedents. Their employment will be made from about January 1950, but successful candidates anticipating graduation in March 1950 will be employed about April, after their graduation. Their employment will also be made according to the order of examination results, however, succesful candidates who designate a place to work will be employed late in case there is no vacancy at governmental offices (Tax Administration Bureau or Local Taxation Office) at the designated place. Persons employed will be assigned to work at each office after a certain term of training in taxation after receiving employment in principle.

2. The proposed number of persons to be employed is about 500 altogether of step 2 and 3 tax officials. About 100 persons will be apportioned to successful candidates of the examination class A, and about 400 persons to those of the examination class B.

In addition, the lists of candidates to be employed from these examinations will be effective until they are renewed by the next examinations. In case some vacancies are found before the next examinations, therefore they will be filled by successful candidates enrolled on such lists.

3. Pay grades for persons to be employed are, in principle, 2 step 3 grade (3,777 yen) based upon tax officials' schedule for successful candidates for step 2 tax officials, and 3 step 3 grade (4,727 yen) based upon tax officials'schedule for those for step 3 tax officials. (The starting pay grades for regular governmental service officials are 5 step-1 grade (3,565 yen) on regular officials' schedule, which corresponds to the former and 6 step-1 grade (4,233 yen) on regular officials' schedule, which corresponds to the latter).

The pay grades mentioned above are standard grades to be applied to persons who will be employed soon after their graduation.

If there are any dependent relatives, family allowance (600 yen for spouse and for one chile, 400 yen for others) will be paid additionally.

And, area allowance computed by multiplying the monthly total of base pay and family allowance by certain established rates (for instance, 30 percent additional pay in case of six large cities), and other additional pay, all of which are included taxes will be paid.

Remarks: Tax officials' services are classified in 9 steps, from tax step 1 to 9, and pay grades for tax officials are from 1 step, 1 grade-2 (2,844 yen) the minimum based upon tax officials' pay schedule to 9 step, 6 grade, (11,998 yen) the maximum, based upon that pay schedule.
