To : Colonel J.P. Napier, Government Section, General Headquarters

Subject: In regard to Nobutaka Kanaya and the Special Higher Police

From : Noboru Saito, Director-General, National Rural Police Headquarters

In the curriculum vitae which is filed in this office of the National Rural Police Headquarters, Tokyo, the fact that Kanaya was employed with the Special Higher Police is not recorded. This bears witness to the fact that ~~under the circumstances of those days~~ the point was not a part of great importance in so far as his personal vitae was officially concerned. At the time that he was appointed as a staff official apprentice of Home Ministry secretary, he was engaged in learning as an apprentice the general administration of the prefecture, moving from Section to Section from time to time. Although it is true that during that time Kanaya had his name contemporaneously enrolled with the Special Higher Police Section, that he was not engaged in the so-called Special Higher Police activities ~~of the Special Higher Police~~ is just as it is given in his testimony (addendum).

Consequently, not only were there hardly any among his colleagues or superiors who believed that Kanaya had Special Higher Police record but also I can vouch for the fact that he has not even a trace of the bad "aroma" of the Special Higher Police.

STATEMENT

April 19, 1951

I served at the Nagasaki Prefectural Office from April, 1934, to July, 1937, during which time I learned the local administration in general as a staff official apprentice.

During that period, from January to April, 1936, I was assigned as a Nagasaki-ken police inspector to the Peace Preservation Section of the Police Department, holding at the same time an additional post in the Special Higher Police Section of the same Department.

From April to July, 1936, I was assigned as a junior secretary and concurrently a police inspector of Nagasaki-ken to the local Section of General Affairs Department, holding at the same time an additional post in the Special Higher Police Section of the Police Department.

However, I did not attend exclusively to the duty of the Special Higher Police, for my post held in the Special Higher Police Section was always a concurrent one. Moreover, being a staff official apprentice, I did not belong to any particular Branch, and learned the work in general. ~~administration.~~ Besides I was engaged chiefly in the study and research of labor-farmer problems. So I was not engaged in any activity as such of the so-called special higher police.

I hereby declare that every statement given above is correct and true.
