Whitehall, No. 44 St. Louis street,

NEW ORLEANS COFFEE HOUSE, &c.—The undersigned will open on Saturday, 1st December, in St. Louis st., opposite the Exchange, an establishment, the want of which has long been felt in the First Municipality. A Saloon has been fitted up comprehending at once the convenancies and luxuries of a coffee room and oyster house, the arrangements for the gratification of the taste of the public, are have spared no expense, neglected no measure which will tend to give perfection to a establishment of a nature superiority over all others of the same kind in New Orleans. A union of knowledge, patience and skill has been secured to the first objects that can be had, and the liquors will always be of the choicest quality.

The oysters will be constantly on hand at all hours throughout the establishment, and supplied to private families or parties on agreeable terms during the winter months.

A small forest Ballard room is fitted up for those who prefer it so that ladies may attend.

The Saloon will be richly decorated and splendid lighted. Attention of the first merit are employed to give to it an appearance of beautiful simplicity which cannot fail to please the eye of taste.

The waiters will be polite and prompt.

Prices rates, are as moderate, now here excelled for skill in his profession.

Most respectfully we solicit the public patronage for his new and unrivalled establishment, and invite our friends and fellow citizens that no sacrifice will be avoided that may contribute to the pleasure and enjoyment of those who may favor us with their visits. n24 J. VIOSCA & CO.
