Summary Progress Weapons Section

I. Principle mission of Weapons Section NPR during the 1st year has been to review, consolidate, translate into Budget, and initiate procurement on basic organization and training items required by established T/O & E's. These initial supplies had to be phased as to organization requirements for immediate field activity and further to fill the equally urgent longer range requirements of higher echelon units such as depots, maintenance and supply units for vehicles, weapons and ammunition.

This activity has been an unusually difficult one in that items not obtainable from central procurement such as Rifles, Carbines, Machine Guns, Rocket Launchers, Mortars, and pertinent ammunition supplies have been received through Foreign Support requisitioning channels. This program is well underway (See Inclosure # 2 Foreign Support Segment).

Other items procureble locally, such as general purpose vehicles, shop trucks, tools, and tool sets, after establishing Budgeted funds, have been listed accordingly to priority of developing needs for procurement through Japanese manufacturing.

The accomplishment of this activity has required a high type of technical assistance to NPR by the advisory group. At the outset, 1650 general purpose trucks of Japanese design were obtained to fill early temporary requirements. Replacement of these vehicles and the supply of other equipment such as Shop Trucks, Dump, Trailer and special purpose vehicles are in varying stages of local procurement depending on the speed with which NPR, with advisory and technical assistance, is able to draw up blueprints and specifications based on U.S. design. Direct contact is made with local depots for technical assistance and inspection of U.S. equipment.

Planning is underway for additional supplies and equipment for the organization of a rear echelon central school for maintenance, repair and supply of equipment and ammunition. This program will entail future procurement of instruction vehicles, tools, training aids and technical manuals.

Concurrent with the above mentioned supply and training program, progress has been made in the editing and translation into Japanese pertinent Ordnance training manuals for instruction use in the field. This project is a continuing one.

To date the Weapons Section U.S. Advisory Staff has been operating with an extremely minimum staff. This is being currently alleviated by an increase in officer personnel from 3 to 15.

On the Region and Service levels, NPR Weapons maintenance and supply units have been filled to 66% of authorized strength with present strength 1954 versus 2933 authorized. On the GCHQ level the staff has been filled to 77% extent, with present strength 34 versus 44 authorized. Attached temporarily, to expedite procurement activity, are 3 officers and 5 sergents. The NPR civilian counterpart is staffed with 3 men each in the arms and vehicle sections.

Regarding Weapons Section's budget expenditures, during JFY '50-'51 a total of 2,115,755,138 Yen was spent in following type procurement:

	Yen
Vehicles, etc.	1,961,053,224
Weapons	154,701,914
Total	2,115,755,138

Inclosure # 1

The JFY '51-'52 Weapons Section Budget calls for an estimated outlay of 1,408,197,800 Yen of which 50 million has been committed by procurement contracts. NPR anticipates completing specifications and requirements on remainder of budgeted items by October and expenditure of the bulk of unused balance by the end of the JFY.

Civilian Personnel

I. There are no civilian personnel on the GGHQ level of NPR. The Weapons Section of GGHQ is subordinate to the Equipment Bureau of NPR Hq. whose Chief is Mr. Masuhara. This Equipment Bureau is staffed by 6 civilians, 3 each in the Arms and Vehicle Sections (See organization chart following). Since its beginning the staff has remained unchanged.

Generally speaking, the function of the 6 civilians in the Equipment Bureau is top policy planning and supervision of the procurement distribution, and management activities of the Weapons Section of GGHQ. This staff is also subject to such other duties as may be assigned by the Director-General or Director of the Equipment Bureau.

Note on following page a brief organization-relation and personnel chart.

Training

I. During the 1st year there has been negligible training of Weapons service and supply units. Indirectly, the Weapons Section has been assisting in training of other field units by the procurement of weapons, ammunition, targets, training aids, translated TM's, etc., for unit training now underway.

Small arms inspection and technical instruction teams have been sent to all Regions, with 80 % of this program completed by Aug '51. Various instructions have been issued by this Section on the subjects of Ammo handling and storage, security and maintenance of vehicles, security for ammunition and explosive dumps.

Preliminary plans have been worked out for the organization of a central vehicle, weapons, and ammunition supply and maintenance school. This school is tentatively planned to cover regional and service training needs and its purpose will be to develope specialists in 2nd and 3rd echelon repair as well as unit and depot supply. Subject to later revision, the school will include the following:

Course	Weeks Duration	Student Output per year
Wheeled Vehicles	10	450
Small Arms Repair	8	325
Supply (Including Salvage, Reclamation and Classification)	15	350
Service (Machinists, Welding, Blacksmiths, Batteries, etc.)	12-16	300
Instruments	10	60
Ammunition	3	375

Actual progress of operation of this school will be dependent on the rate that T/O & E units are supplied with required vehicles, tool sets, shop trucks and special purpose equipment. The school itself will require the following scope of instruction items:

Shop Type School Bldg. Appx. 100' x 300'
Appx. 20 Vehicles and Shop Trucks
Appx. 95 various Tool Sets for Specialist Instruction
Appropriate TM's
Training Aids
Housing and Logistics for Appx. 365 Trainees.

Central Procurement

I. Except for arms, ammunition and certain special vehicles and specialist tool sets not economically procurable from indiginous sources, all T/O & E items and others in the category of expendables and camp post and station type equipment, are contracted locally.

Commercial type items such as common tools, tires, batteries, cleaning and lubricating materials are quickly obtainable because no technical manufacturing problems exist. However, other items such as trucks, trailers, tractors, special tool chests, rifle racks, etc., present a more difficult procurement problem because specifications must conform to accepted foreign design. Manufacture of these items, particularly vehicles, must be preceded by satisfactory road performance and endurance tests.

To date the following quantities of vehicles have been either actually manufactured and issued or being manufactured under contract.

Vehicle	Quantity Each
Cargo, 2½T	1930 (1650 in use)
Truck, 2½T 700 Gal water	13
" Machine Shop M16A2	5
" Inst. Repair M10A1	5
" 2½T Dump 6x6	50 (50 in use)
" 4T Wrecking 6x6	20
" 4T Dump	20
Trailer 1T cargo	1000
Trailer 250 Gal water	60
Sedans	112 (40 in use)

Reference to the chart in Finance Segment of this report will show that 60 % has been expended through procurement of all approved budget money for the Weapons Section (considering JFY 50-51 and JFY 51-52 budgets and not including JFY 51-52 Suppl. Budget, not yet approved).

From a line-item point of view, slightly less than 20 % of the 270 line items budgeted for procurement have been contracted for, either in whole or in part.

8

From a Yen-expended viewpoint the following has been accomplished:

	Budget	Expended	% Expended
JFY 50-51	2,115,755,138	2,115,755,138
JFY 51-52	1,408,197,800	50,000,000
Total	3,523,952,938	2,165,755,138	60 %

Inclosure # 8

NPR expects that, with priority action being given, requirements and specifications will be completed by October and, accordingly, the bulk of approved JFY 51-52 funds will be expended in procurement by the end of the fiscal year and items actually in hands of using units by midsummer 1952.
