Subject: GHQ Communications to Japanese Officials

Note No.	From:	To:	Date:
(1)	Chief of Staff	All Staff Sections, GHQ, SCAP and FEC	18 March 1952

1. A recent incident has occurred in which a staff officer of this Headquarters sent a letter to two Japanese Government officials expressing at some length dissatisfaction with conditions in an area of public service primarily of interest to the officials addressed and the Japanese public, but secondarily of interest to officials and individuals of the Security Forces. The communication, although no doubt factual, contained much which could be expected to incur resentment among the Japanese.

2. It is fully realized that differences in customs and standards existing between the Security Forces and the Japanese will present problems requiring adjustment. In making such adjustments, however, care must be exercised to avoid attitudes causing resentment. Official communications must be worded with full consideration of the dignity and self-respect of the Japanese recipient. The more delicate subjects can usually be handled by informal, friendly oral discussions.

3. It is desired to emphasize that accomplishment of the missions of the Allied Powers now and of the Security Forces in the future depends on mutual regard and confidence between these groups and the Japanese. It is especially important that officials of this Headquarters, representing as they do the leadership of the Allied Powers and the Security Forces, display a tactful, friendly spirit in order to foster good relations with the Japanese officials and public.

A. Same considerations cited DA 90678 apply. State and Defense desire to emphasize possible adverse effect on multilateral ratification peace treaty. Extension proposed would permit Japanese fishing in areas adjacent to not only Far Eastern Countries but also United Kingdom (since new area would include Gilbert Islands and other British possessions in vicinity Equator) and US (since new area would include Hawaiian Islands where US Fisheries Industry has indicated considerable interest in Tuna Fishing prospects) agreed to say out of certain specific security areas. In reply to Jap assertion that proclamation destroys necessary basis forthcoming negots and casts doubt on good faith Korean Govt note will state that on contrary proclamation issued to smooth way for talks, that Korea looking forward to cordial relations with Japan and has no intention of prejudicing negots, though Jap view of proclamation is disturbing factor which does not augur well for success of talks. Finally, note will dismiss Jap claims to Liancourt Rocks by referring to SCAP in 677, Jan 29, 46, which clearly established islands not Jap territory.

Part 3. Emb unable ascertain definitely from Pyun, other officials, whether instrs give to Korean vessels to intercept Jap fishing craft crossing newly-proclaimed line. On basis info available, however, we believe no drastic action east of MacArthur Line intended (or possible, with vessels available), that proclamation issued largely for bargaining purposes. President and Pyun evidently consider proclamation shrewd diplomatic move, which confronts Japs with fait accompli.

Part 4. After more than week of relatively objective treatment, proclamation and Jap protest are receiving increasing attention in local press, with Jap assertion to sovereignty over Lian court rocks major source of protest. However, proclamation has aroused little enthusiasm among officials (other than Pyun) with whom emb officers have spoken last few days. In private conversation top legal auths, including JAG ROK Army, admitted assertion ROK sovereignty has little legal basis, expressed fear presidents unilateral action will jeopardize Korean-Jap negots. According another source close to govt, president probably issued proclamation without consulting govt leaders outside foreign ministry.

accord with our directive to establish a foreign exchange prog "with the ultimate objective of free convertibility". The marked economic improvement dur the past year would in no way have been possible except by the direction of the counterpart funds for the above stated purposes. Level of lifting improving but still substantially below prewar.

Counterpart fund income to be derived dur FY 53 is problematical but is currently estimated at one billion one hundred million Yen. Of this, some 700 million Yen will be required to continue the current RRFF long term loan prog. It is expected that admin costs of the govt other than those required by the presence of the mil, such as police and public health, will be met from tax resources. Central govt tax revenue is expected to amt to one billion Yen dur FY 53 compared to the combined PCG and Gunto revenues of 283,968,000 Yen in FY 51 and 759,500,000 in FY 52. The above figs do not include local govt taxes. The grant in aid prog for excessive admin costs occasioned by the presence of the mil and for the continuation of the public works rehabilitation prog will require a min of 400 million Yen in substantially the same categories as existed in FY 52.

The current estimate of the cost of land presently required by the mil forces is 1,440,000,000 Yen. This is valuation being used for rental. No counterpart funds have been earmarked from FY 51 or FY 52 for purchase of land.

Use of counterpart fund in manner described above is believed to be the key to successful establishment of the economy of the Ryukyus which is of prime concern from long term view of US appropriations. It is therefor firmly believed here that counterpart funds should not be used for procurement of land for the US Mil Forces. In fact, such use may be

TO : SEC STATE WASH DC, CINCFE TOKYO JAPAN

There follows Elizalde's opening conversations with Japanese negotiators Jan 28:

"Your Excellency and Members of the Japanese Delegation: It gives me pleasure to declare this meeting open.

"This occasion is indeed of historic importance because whatever we accomplish here will vitally affect our peoples of this generation and of future generations.

"We are happy to know that you have come in fulfillment of the promise made by your distinguished Prime Minister at San Francisco last year. We take your presence here today as evidence of the desire of your government to carry out the assurance given by the Japanese Delegation to the San Francisco Peace Conference that the Japanese government is prepared to enter into negotiations promptly with the Philippines with a view to finding a satisfactory formula of agreement to meet Philippine claims. As emphasized by the Philippine government on that occasion, the Filipino People were not in full accord with the provisions in the peace treaty regarding reparations. For this reason, the Philippine Delegation expressed the hope that in the course of the bilateral negotiations on reparations between the Philippines and Japan, it would be possible to make those provisions conform more closely to the wishes of the Filipino People. Your Prime Minister expressed the belief that this would be done and that the Japanese people and government would be ready to do all that is humanly possible to meet Philippine claims.

"We appreciate your desire for the early establishment of cordial relations between the Philippines and Japan. Because of geographical propinquity, Japan and the Philippines should live harmoniously in the interest of their common welfare and the peace and stability of this part of the world.
