KYOTO PREFECTURAL GOVERNMENT OFFICE

July 27, 1946

The Commanding Officer
Kyoto Military Government Team.

Re application for permission of removal of machines.

Kawanishi Aircraft Co., Ltd., Fukuchiyama Plant has presented an application for your permit to move machines subject to reparations, as per the application attached herewith.

The reparation machines written in the application were during the war time dispersed to Miwa-Village or Yoshimi-village, Hikami-gun, Hyogo-Pref., or lent to the subcontractors, and now Fukuchiyama Plant is eager to move them to its own plant in order to keep them in good condition with proper care and attention.

Such being the case, please give your permit to the plant.

T. Nishioka
Chief of the Second Section of Commerce & Industry.

AG 004 - BA 11 February 1946

SUBJECT: Reconversion Permit for Kawanishi Aircraft Company, Fukuchiyama Plant

To : Commanding Officer, 107th Military Government Group, APO 660

1. The subject plant, located at 32 Shimoshin-machi, Fukuchiyama-shi, Kyoto-fu, has been granted a permit for reconversion by the Sixth Army Headquarters under date of 26 November 1945.

2. In expectation of a forthcoming SCAP Directive, prohibiting reconversion of plants which during the war manufactured aircraft, this headquarters denied their application under date of 14 January 1946.

3. In accordance with Operational Directive Number 5, this headquarters has no further objection to their reconversion. Their original permit (Sixth Army, MG-101) will be considered as effective and their operation may continue.

4. Inform the company of this decision.
