Disasters.

KEY WEST, Feb 8—The ship Nashua, Sawyer, from New Orleans, bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo of lumber, is now on the 5th bank, between the Dry Tortugas and Key West, in charge of the Pilots, with 4 feet of water in the Pilots, which is quite smooth, raging attached, have declined to take her off, but have left a boat of Key West and every prospect of her being soon floated and stove the bank. Under a favorable change she can be taken to Key West, or to the Dry Tortugas, and be easily repaired, in fact, she is not badly injured. The Pilots report the Nashua as having 1 foot water in her hold, and consequently her temporary repairs.

MATANZAS, Feb 20—The Jas Calder, Wright, of and for Liverpool, from New Orleans, with lard, before reported, reported ashore near here, during the night of the 8th instant, went to pieces and all the cargo was lost, about the beach—but it is nearly ill-dried.
