What is underneath the surface?

Few tools to help editing and proofreading
Bad quality or no OCR engines
Some people use AutoWikiBrowser

Mediawiki and most tools are not adapted for transcribing and dealing with documents which are Wikisource core activities

Intense use of Extension:Proofread
Maintained by only one volunteer developer

One of the biggest and richest digital library but one of the less known
Internet Archive has 3 million books and is the 284th most visited website, Wikisource is the 3,676th (and dropping)
Only a few partnerships and actions

Around 2,000 active users in total

Only 24 languages with more than 20 users

Number of users is not correlated to the number of texts
