10. The insurer has failed to pay within sixty days after due date any obligation to any state or any subdivision thereof or any judgment entered in any state, if the court in which the judgment was entered had jurisdiction over the subject matter except that the nonpayment shall not be a ground until sixty days after any good faith effort by the insurer to contest the obligation has been terminated, whether it is before the commissioner or in the courts, or the insurer has systematically attempted to compromise or renegotiate previously agreed settlements with its creditors on the ground that it is financially unable to pay its obligations in full.
11. The insurer has failed to file its annual report or other financial report required by statute within the time allowed by law and, after written demand by the commissioner, has failed to immediately respond with an adequate explanation.
12. The board of directors or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, or a majority of those individuals entitled to the control of those entities, request or consent to rehabilitation under this chapter.

13. Has been found after examination that, in the case of a stock insurance company, its minimum basic paid-in capital required by section 26.1-05-04 is impaired, or that, in the case of a domestic mutual insurance company, its surplus required by sections 26.1-12-08 and 26.1-12-10 is impaired.

26.1-06.1-12. Rehabilitation orders.

1. An order to rehabilitate the business of a domestic insurer, or an alien insurer domiciled in this state, shall appoint the commissioner and successor commissioners in office the rehabilitator, and shall direct the rehabilitator forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer, and to administer them under the general supervision of the court. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the district court or register of deeds of the county in which the principal business of the company is conducted, or the county in which its principal office or place of business is located, shall impart the same notice as a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds. The order to rehabilitate the insurer shall by operation of law vest title to all assets of the insurer in the rehabilitator.
2. Any order issued under this section shall require accounting to the court by the rehabilitator. Accounting shall be at such intervals as the court specifies in its order, but no less frequently than semiannually. Each accounting shall include a report concerning the rehabilitator's opinion as to the likelihood that a plan under subsection 4 of section 26.1-06.1-13 will be prepared by the rehabilitator and the timetable for doing so.
3. Entry of an order of rehabilitation shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contracts of the insurer nor shall it be grounds for retroactive revocation or retroactive cancellation of any contracts of the insurer, unless such revocation or cancellation is done by the rehabilitator pursuant to section 26.1-06.1-13.

26.1-06.1-13. Powers and duties of the rehabilitator.

1. The commissioner as rehabilitator may appoint one or more special deputies, who shall have all the powers and responsibilities of the rehabilitator granted under this section, and the commissioner may employ such counsel, clerks, and assistants as deemed necessary. The compensation of the special deputy, counsel, clerks, and assistants and all expenses of taking possession of the insurer and of conducting the proceedings shall be fixed by the commissioner, with the approval of the court and shall be paid out of the funds or assets of the insurer. The commissioner, as rehabilitator, may, with the approval of the court, appoint an advisory committee of policyholders, claimants, or other creditors, including guaranty associations, should such a committee be deemed necessary. The committee shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner and shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for reasonable travel and per diem living expenses. No other committee of any nature shall be appointed by the commissioner or the court in rehabilitation proceedings conducted under this chapter.

2. In the event that the property of the insurer does not contain sufficient cash or liquid assets to defray the costs incurred, the commissioner may advance the costs so incurred out of any appropriation for the maintenance of the insurance department. Any amounts so advanced for expenses of administration shall be repaid to the commissioner for the use of the insurance department out of the first available money of the insurer.
3. The rehabilitator may take such action deemed necessary or appropriate to reform and revitalize the insurer. The rehabilitator shall have all the powers of the directors, officers, and managers, whose authority shall be suspended, except as they are redelegated by the rehabilitator. The rehabilitator shall have full power to direct and manage, to hire, and discharge employees subject to any contract rights they may have, and to deal with the property and business of the insurer.
4. If it appears to the rehabilitator that there has been criminal or tortious conduct, or breach of any contractual or fiduciary obligation detrimental to the insurer by any officer, manager, agent, broker, employee, or other person, the rehabilitator may pursue all appropriate legal remedies on behalf of the insurer.
5. If it is determined that reorganization, consolidation, conversion, reinsurance, merger, or other transformation of the insurer is appropriate, the rehabilitator shall prepare a plan to effect such changes. Upon application of the rehabilitator for approval of the plan, and after such notice and hearings as the court may prescribe, the court may either approve or disapprove the plan proposed, or may modify it and approve it as modified. Any plan approved under this section shall be, in the judgment of the court, fair and equitable to all parties concerned. If the plan is approved, the rehabilitator shall carry out the plan. In the case of a life insurer, the plan proposed may include the imposition of liens upon the policies of the company, if all rights of shareholders are first relinquished. A plan for a life insurer may also propose imposition of a moratorium upon loan and cash surrender rights under policies, for such period, and to such an extent as may be necessary.
6. The rehabilitator shall have the power under sections 26.1-06.1-25 and 26.1-06.1-26 to avoid fraudulent transfers.

26.1-06.1-14. Actions by and against rehabilitator.

1. Whenever any action or proceeding in which the insurer is a party, or is obligated to defend a party, is pending at the time a rehabilitation order against the insurer is entered, the court before which the action or proceeding is pending shall stay the action or proceeding for ninety days and such additional time as is necessary for the rehabilitator to obtain proper representation and prepare for further proceedings. The rehabilitator shall take such action respecting the pending litigation as deemed necessary in the interests of justice and for the protection of creditors, policyholders, and the public. The rehabilitator shall immediately consider all litigation pending outside this state and shall petition the courts having jurisdiction over that litigation for stays whenever necessary to protect the estate of the insurer.

2. No statute of limitations or defense of laches shall run with respect to any action by or against an insurer between the filing of a petition for appointment of a rehabilitator for that insurer and the order granting or denying that petition. Any action against the insurer that might have been commenced when the petition was filed may be commenced for at least sixty days after the order of rehabilitation is entered or the petition is denied. The rehabilitator may, upon an order for rehabilitation, within one year or such other longer time as applicable law may permit, institute an action or proceeding on behalf of the insurer upon any cause of action against which the period of limitation fixed by applicable law has not expired at the time of the filing of the petition upon which such order is entered.
3. Any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association covering life or health insurance or annuities shall have standing to appear in any court proceeding concerning the rehabilitation of a life or health insurer if such association is or may become liable to act as a result of the rehabilitation.

26.1-06.1-15. Termination of rehabilitation.

1. Whenever the commissioner believes further attempts to rehabilitate an insurer would substantially increase the risk of loss to creditors, policyholders, or the public, or would be futile, the commissioner may petition the district court for an order of liquidation. A petition under this subsection shall have the same effect as a petition under section 26.1-06.1-16. The district court shall permit the directors of the insurer to take such actions as are reasonably necessary to defend against the petition and may order payment from the estate of the insurer of such costs and other expenses of defense as justice may require.
2. The protection of the interests of insureds, claimants, and the public requires the timely performance of all insurance policy obligations. If the payment of policy obligations is suspended in substantial part for a period of six months at any time after the appointment of the rehabilitator and the rehabilitator has not filed an application for approval of a plan under subsection 4 of section 26.1-06.1-13, the rehabilitator shall petition the court for an order of liquidation on grounds of insolvency.
3. The rehabilitator may at any time petition the district court for an order terminating rehabilitation of an insurer. The court shall also permit the directors of the insurer to petition the court for an order terminating rehabilitation of the insurer and may order payment from the estate of the insurer of such costs and other expenses of such petition as justice may require. If the district court finds that rehabilitation has been accomplished and that grounds for rehabilitation under section 26.1-06.1-11 no longer exist, it shall order that the insurer be restored to possession of its property and the control of the business. The district court may also make that finding and issue that order at any time upon its own motion.

26.1-06.1-16. Grounds for liquidation. The commissioner may petition the district court for an order directing the liquidation of a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state on the basis:

1. Of any ground for an order of rehabilitation as specified in section 26.1-06.1-11, whether or not there has been a prior order directing the rehabilitation of the insurer;
2. That the insurer is insolvent; or
3. That the insurer is in such condition that the further transaction of business would be hazardous, financially or otherwise, to its policyholders, its creditors, or the public.

26.1-06.1-17. Liquidation orders.

1. An order to liquidate the business of a domestic insurer shall appoint the commissioner and successor commissioners in office as liquidator and shall direct the liquidator forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer and to administer them under the general supervision of the court. The liquidator shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts, and rights of action, and all of the books and records of the insurer, wherever located, as of the entry of the final order of liquidation. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the district court and the register of deeds of the county in which its principal office or place of business is located or, in the case of real estate, with the register of deeds of the county where the property is located, shall impart the same notice as a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds.
2. Upon issuance of the order, the rights and liabilities of any such insurer and of its creditors, policyholders, shareholders, members, and all other persons interested in its estate shall become fixed as of the date of entry of the order of liquidation, except as provided in sections 26.1-06.1-18 and 26.1-06.1-36.
3. An order to liquidate the business of an alien insurer domiciled in this state shall be in the same terms and have the same legal effect as an order to liquidate a domestic insurer, except that the assets and the business in the United States shall be the only assets and business included therein.
4. At the time of petitioning for an order of liquidation, or at any time thereafter, the commissioner, after making appropriate findings of an insurer's insolvency, may petition the court for a judicial declaration of such insolvency. After providing such notice and hearing as it deems proper, the court may make the declaration.
5. Any order issued under this section shall require financial reports to the court by the liquidator. Financial reports must include the assets and liabilities of the insurer and all funds received or disbursed by the liquidator during the current period. Financial reports must be filed within one year of the liquidation order and at least annually thereafter.

6. a. Within five days of the effective date of this section, or, if later, within five days after the initiation of an appeal of an order of liquidation, which order has not been stayed, the commissioner shall present for the court's approval a plan for the continued performance of the defendant company's policy claims obligations, including the duty to defend insureds under liability insurance policies, during the pendency of an appeal. Such plan shall provide for the continued performance and payment of policy claims obligations in the normal course of events, notwithstanding the grounds alleged in support of the order of liquidation including the ground of insolvency. In the event the defendant company's financial condition will not, in the judgment of the commissioner, support the full performance of all policy claims obligations during the appeal pendency period, the plan may prefer the claims of certain policyholders and claimants over creditors and interested parties as well as other policyholders and claimants, as the commissioner finds to be fair and equitable considering the relative circumstances of such policyholders and claimants. The court shall examine the plan submitted by the commissioner and if it finds the plan to be in the best interests of the parties, the court shall approve the plan. No action shall lie against the commissioner, or any deputies, agents, clerks, assistants, or attorneys employed or appointed by the commissioner by any party based on preference in an appeal pendency plan approved by the court.
- b. The appeal pendency plan shall not supersede or affect the obligations of any insurance guaranty association.
- c. Any such plans shall provide for equitable adjustments to be made by the liquidator to any distributions of assets to guaranty associations, in the event that the liquidator pays claims from assets of the estate, which would otherwise be the obligations of any particular guaranty association but for the appeal of the order of liquidation, such that all guaranty associations equally benefit on a pro rata basis from the assets of the estate. Further, in the event an order of liquidation is set aside upon any appeal, the company shall not be released from delinquency proceedings unless and until all funds advanced by any guaranty association, including reasonable administrative expenses in connection therewith relating to obligations of the company, shall be repaid in full, together with interest at the judgment rate of interest or unless an arrangement for repayment thereof has been made with the consent of all applicable guaranty association.

26.1-06.1-18. Continuance of coverage.

1. All policies, including bonds and other noncancelable business, other than life or health insurance or annuities, in effect at the time of issuance of an order of liquidation shall continue in force only until the earlier of:
- a. Thirty days from the date of entry of the liquidation orders;
- b. The expiration of the policy coverage;

- c. The date when the insured has replaced the insurance coverage with equivalent insurance in another insurer or otherwise terminated the policy;
  - d. The liquidator has effected a transfer of the policy obligation pursuant to subdivision i of subsection 1 of section 26.1-06.1-20; or
  - e. The date proposed by the liquidator and approved by the court to cancel coverage.
2. An order of liquidation under section 26.1-06.1-17 shall terminate coverages at the time specified in subsection 1 for purposes of any other statute.
  3. Policies of life or health insurance or annuities shall continue in force for such period and under such terms as provided for by any applicable guaranty association or foreign guaranty association.
  4. Policies of life or health insurance or annuities, or any period or coverage of such policies, not covered by a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association shall terminate under subsections 1 and 2.

26.1-06.1-19. Dissolution of insurer. The commissioner may petition for an order dissolving the corporate existence of a domestic insurer or the United States branch of an alien insurer domiciled in this state at the time of application for a liquidation order. The court shall order dissolution of the corporation upon petition by the commissioner upon or after the granting of a liquidation order. If the dissolution has not previously been ordered, it shall be effected by operation of law upon the discharge of the liquidator if the insurer is insolvent but may be ordered by the court upon the discharge of the liquidator if the insurer is under a liquidation order for some other reason.

26.1-06.1-20. Powers of liquidator.

1. The liquidator shall have the power:
  - a. To appoint a special deputy or deputies and to determine their reasonable compensation. The special deputy shall have all powers of the liquidator granted by this section.
  - b. To employ employees and agents, legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, appraisers, consultants, and such other personnel as the liquidator may deem necessary to assist in the liquidation.
  - c. To appoint, with the approval of the court, an advisory committee of policyholders, claimants, or other creditors including guaranty associations should such a committee be deemed necessary. The committee shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for reasonable travel and per diem living expenses. No other committee of any nature shall be appointed by the commissioner or the court in liquidation proceedings conducted under this chapter.

- d. To fix the reasonable compensation of employees and agents, legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, appraisers, and consultants with the approval of the court.
- e. To pay reasonable compensation to persons appointed and to defray from the funds or assets of the insurer all expenses of taking possession of, conserving, conducting, liquidating, disposing of, or otherwise dealing with the business and property of the insurer. In the event that the property of the insurer does not contain sufficient cash or liquid assets to defray the costs incurred, the commissioner may advance the costs so incurred out of any appropriation for the maintenance of the insurance department. Any amounts so advanced for expenses of administration shall be repaid to the commissioner for the use of the insurance department out of the first available moneys of the insurer.
- f. To hold hearings, to subpoena witnesses to compel their attendance, to administer oaths, to examine any person under oath, and to compel any person to subscribe to their testimony after it has been correctly reduced to writing; and in connection therewith to require the production of any books, papers, records, or other documents the liquidator deems relevant to the inquiry.
- g. To audit the books and records of all agents of the insurer insofar as those records relate to the business activities of the insurer.
- h. To collect all debts and moneys due and claims belonging to the insurer, wherever located, and for the following purposes:
  - (1) To institute timely action in other jurisdictions, in order to forestall garnishment and attachment proceedings against such debts;
  - (2) To do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to collect, conserve, or protect its assets or property, including the power to sell, compound, compromise, or assign debts for purposes of collection upon such terms and conditions as deemed best; and
  - (3) To pursue any creditor's remedies available to enforce his claims.
- i. To conduct public and private sales of the property of the insurer.
- j. To use assets of the estate of an insurer under a liquidation order to transfer policy obligations to a solvent assuming insurer, if the transfer can be arranged without prejudice to applicable priorities under section 26.1-06.1-41.
- k. To acquire, hypothecate, encumber, lease, improve, sell, transfer, abandon, or otherwise dispose of or deal with, any property of the insurer at its market value or upon such terms and conditions as are fair and reasonable. The liquidator shall also have power to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all deeds, assignments, releases, and other instruments necessary or proper to effectuate any sale of property or other transaction in connection with the liquidation.

- l. To borrow money on the security of the insurer's assets or without security and to execute and deliver all documents necessary to that transaction for the purpose of facilitating the liquidation. Any such funds borrowed may be repaid as an administrative expense and have priority over any other claims in class one under the priority of distribution.
- m. To enter into such contracts as are necessary to carry out the order to liquidate, and to affirm or disavow any contracts to which the insurer is a party.
- n. To continue to prosecute and to institute in the name of the insurer or in the name of the liquidator, any and all suits and other legal proceedings, in this state or elsewhere, and to abandon the prosecution of claims the liquidator deems unprofitable to pursue further. If the insurer is dissolved under section 26.1-06.1-19, the liquidator shall have the power to apply to any court in this state or elsewhere for leave to substitute the liquidator for the insurer as plaintiff.
- o. To prosecute any action which may exist in behalf of the creditors, members, policyholders, or shareholders of the insurer against any officer of the insurer, or any other person.
- p. To remove any or all records and property of the insurer to the offices of the commissioner or to another place as may be convenient for the purposes of efficient and orderly execution of the liquidation. Guaranty associations and foreign guaranty associations shall have such reasonable access to the records of the insurer as is necessary for them to carry out their statutory obligations.
- q. To deposit in one or more banks in this state any amounts of money required for meeting current administration expenses and dividend distributions.
- r. To invest all moneys not currently needed, unless the court orders otherwise.
- s. To file any necessary documents for record in the office of any register of deeds or record office in this state or elsewhere where property of the insurer is located.
- t. To assert all defenses available to the insurer as against third persons, including statutes of limitation, statutes of fraud, and the defense of usury. A waiver of any defense by the insurer after a petition in liquidation has been filed shall not bind the liquidator. Whenever a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association has an obligation to defend any suit, the liquidator shall give precedence to such obligation and may defend only in the absence of a defense by such guaranty associations.

- u. To exercise and enforce all the rights, remedies, and powers of any creditor, shareholder, policyholder, or member, including any power to avoid any transfer or lien that may be given by the general law and that is not included in section 26.1-06.1-25, 26.1-06.1-26, or 26.1-06.1-27.
  - v. To intervene in any proceeding, wherever instituted, that might lead to the appointment of a receiver or trustee, and to act as the receiver or trustee whenever the appointment is offered.
  - w. To enter into agreements with any receiver or commissioner of any other state relating to the rehabilitation, liquidation, conservation, or dissolution of an insurer doing business in both states.
  - x. To exercise all powers now held or hereafter conferred upon receivers by the laws of this state not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.
2. a. If a company placed in liquidation issued liability policies on a claims-made basis, which provided an option to purchase an extended period to report claims, then the liquidator may make available to holders of such policies, for a charge, an extended period to report claims as stated herein. The extended reporting period shall be made available only to those insureds who have not secured substitute coverage. The extended period made available by the liquidator shall begin upon termination of any extended period to report claims in the basic policy and shall end at the earlier of the final date for filing of claims in the liquidation proceeding or eighteen months from the order of liquidation.
- b. The extended period to report claims made available by the liquidator shall be subject to the terms of the policy to which it relates. The liquidator shall make available such extended period within sixty days after the order of liquidation at a charge to be determined by the liquidator subject to approval of the court. The offer shall be deemed rejected unless the offer is accepted in writing and the charge is paid within ninety days after the order of liquidation. No commissions, premium taxes, assessments, or other fees shall be due on the charge pertaining to the extended period to report claims.
3. The enumeration of the powers and authority of the liquidator in this section shall not be construed as a limitation upon the liquidator, nor shall it exclude in any manner the liquidator's right to do such other acts not herein specifically enumerated or otherwise provided for, as may be necessary or appropriate for the accomplishment of or in aid of the purpose of liquidation.
4. Notwithstanding the powers of the liquidator as stated in subsections 1 and 2, the liquidator shall have no obligation to defend claims or to continue to defend claims subsequent to the entry of a liquidation order.

26.1-06.1-21. Notice to creditors and others.

1. Unless the court otherwise directs, the liquidator shall give or cause to be given notice of the liquidation order as soon as possible:
  - a. By first-class mail and either by telegram or telephone to the insurance commissioner of each jurisdiction in which the insurer is doing business;
  - b. By first-class mail to any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association which is or may become obligated as a result of the liquidation;
  - c. By first-class mail to all insurance agents of the insurer;
  - d. By first-class mail to all persons known or reasonably expected to have claims against the insurer including all policyholders, at their last known address as indicated by the records of the insurer; and
  - e. By publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business and in such other locations as the liquidator deems appropriate.
2. Except as otherwise established by the liquidator with approval of the court, notice to potential claimants under subsection 1 shall require claimants to file with the liquidator their claims together with proper proofs thereof under section 26.1-06.1-35, on or before a date the liquidator shall specify in the notice. The liquidator need not require persons claiming cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance and annuities to file a claim. All claimants shall have a duty to keep the liquidator informed of any changes of address.
3. a. Notice under subsection 1 to agents of the insurer and to potential claimants who are policyholders must include, where applicable, notice that coverage by state guaranty associations may be available for all or part of policy benefits in accordance with applicable state guaranty laws.
  - b. The liquidator shall promptly provide to the guaranty associations any information concerning the identities and addresses of the policyholders and their policy coverages in the liquidator's possession or control, and otherwise cooperate with guaranty associations to assist them in providing to the policyholders timely notice of the guaranty associations' coverage of policy benefits, including, as applicable, coverage of claims and continuation or termination of coverages.
4. If notice is given in accordance with this section, the distribution of assets of the insurer under this chapter shall be conclusive with respect to all claimants, whether or not they received notice.

26.1-06.1-22. Duties of agents.

1. Every agent who receives notice in the form prescribed in section 26.1-06.1-21 that an insurer represented by that agent is the subject of a liquidation order, shall within thirty days of such notice provide to the liquidator, in addition to the information the agent may be required to provide pursuant to section 26.1-06.1-06, the information in the agent's records related to any policy issued by the insurer through the agent, and, if the agent is a general agent, the information in the general agent's records related to any policy issued by the insurer through a subagent under contract with the agent, including the name and address of the subagent. A policy shall be deemed issued through an agent if the agent has a property interest in the expiration of the policy, or if the agent has had possession of a copy of the declarations of the policy at any time during the life of the policy, except where the ownership of the expiration of the policy has been transferred to another.
2. Any agent failing to provide information to the liquidator as required in subsection 1 may, following a hearing held by the commissioner, be subject to license suspension and payment of a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars.

26.1-06.1-23. Actions by and against liquidator.

1. Upon issuance of an order appointing a liquidator of a domestic insurer or of an alien insurer domiciled in this state, no action at law or equity or in arbitration shall be brought against the insurer or liquidator, whether in this state or elsewhere, nor shall any existing actions be maintained or further presented after issuance of the order. The courts of this state shall give full faith and credit to injunctions against the liquidator or the company or the continuation of existing actions against the liquidator or the company, when the injunctions are included in an order to liquidate an insurer issued pursuant to corresponding provisions in other states. Whenever, in the liquidator's judgment, protection of the estate of the insurer necessitates intervention in an action against the insurer that is pending outside this state, the liquidator may intervene in the action. In any action in which the liquidator intervenes under this section, the liquidator may defend the action at the expense of the estate of the insurer.
2. The liquidator may, upon or after an order for liquidation, within two years or such other longer time as applicable law may permit, institute an action or proceeding on behalf of the estate of the insurer upon any cause of action against which the period of limitation fixed by applicable law has not expired at the time of the filing of the petition upon which such order is entered. Where, by any agreement, a period of limitation is fixed for instituting a suit or proceeding upon any claim, or for filing any claim, proof of claim, proof of loss, demand, notice, or the like, or where in any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, a period of limitation is fixed, either in the proceeding or by applicable law, for taking any action, filing any claim or pleading, or doing any act, and where in any such case the period had not expired at the date of the filing of the petition, the liquidator may, for the benefit of the estate, take any action or do any act, required of or permitted to the insurer, within a period of one hundred eighty days subsequent to the entry of an order for liquidation, or within such further period as is shown to the satisfaction of the court not to be unfairly prejudicial to the other party.

3. No statute of limitation or defense of laches shall run with respect to any action against an insurer between the filing of a petition for liquidation against an insurer and the denial of the petition. Any action against the insurer that might have been commenced when the petition was filed may be commenced for at least sixty days after the petition is denied.
4. Any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association shall have standing to appear in any court proceeding concerning the liquidation of an insurer if the association is or may become liable to act as a result of the liquidation.

26.1-06.1-24. Collection and list of assets.

1. As soon as practicable after the liquidation order, but not later than one hundred twenty days thereafter, unless extended by order of the court, the liquidator shall prepare in duplicate a list of the insurer's assets. The list shall be amended or supplemented from time to time as the liquidator may determine. One copy shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court and one copy shall be retained for the liquidator's files. All amendments and supplements shall be similarly filed.
2. The liquidator shall reduce the assets to a degree of liquidity that is consistent with the effective execution of the liquidation.
3. A submission to the court for disbursement of assets in accordance with section 26.1-06.1-33 fulfills the requirements of subsection 1 of this section.

26.1-06.1-25. Fraudulent transfers prior to petition.

1. Every transfer made or suffered and every obligation incurred by an insurer within one year prior to the filing of a successful petition for rehabilitation or liquidation under this chapter is fraudulent as to then existing and future creditors if made or incurred without fair consideration, or with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud either existing or future creditors. A transfer made or an obligation incurred by an insurer ordered to be rehabilitated or liquidated under this chapter, which is fraudulent under this section, may be avoided by the receiver, except as to a person who in good faith is a purchaser, lienor, or obligee for a present fair equivalent value, and except that any purchaser, lienor, or obligee, who in good faith has given a consideration less than fair for such transfer, lien, or obligation, may retain the property, lien, or obligation as security for repayment. The court may, on due notice, order any such transfer or obligation to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, and in that event, the receiver shall succeed to and may enforce the rights of the purchaser, lienor, or obligee.

  - a. A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee under subsection 3 of section 26.1-06.1-27.
  - b. A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.
  - c. A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.
  - d. Any transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.
  - e. The provisions of this subsection apply whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained any liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.
3. Any transaction of the insurer with a reinsurer shall be deemed fraudulent and may be avoided by the receiver under subsection 1 if:
  - a. The transaction consists of the termination, adjustment, or settlement of a reinsurance contract in which the reinsurer is released from any part of its duty to pay the originally specified share of losses that had occurred prior to the time of the transactions, unless the reinsurer gives a present fair equivalent value for the release; and
  - b. Any part of the transaction took place within one year prior to the date of filing of the petition through which the receivership was commenced.
4. Every person receiving any property from the insurer or any benefit thereof which is a fraudulent transfer under subsection 1 shall be personally liable therefore and shall be bound to account to the liquidator.

26.1-06.1-26. Fraudulent transfer after petition.

1. After a petition for rehabilitation or liquidation has been filed, a transfer of any of the real property of the insurer made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value. If the transfer is not made for a present fair equivalent value, then the transfer is valid to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefore, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred. The commencement of a proceeding in rehabilitation or liquidation shall be constructive notice upon the recording of a copy of the petition for or order of rehabilitation or liquidation with the register of deeds in the county where any real property in question is located. The exercise by a court of

- the United States or any state or jurisdiction to authorize or effect a judicial sale of real property of the insurer within any county in any state shall not be impaired by the pendency of such a proceeding unless the copy is recorded in the county prior to the consummation of the judicial sale.
2. After a petition for rehabilitation or liquidation has been filed and before either the receiver takes possession of the property of the insurer or an order of rehabilitation or liquidation is granted:
- a. A transfer of any of the property of the insurer, other than real property, made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value. If the transfer is not made for a present fair equivalent value, then the transfer is valid to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefore, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred.
  - b. A person indebted to the insurer or holding property of the insurer may, if acting in good faith, pay the indebtedness or deliver the property, or any part thereof, to the insurer or upon his order, with the same effect as if the petition were not pending.
  - c. A person having actual knowledge of the pending rehabilitation or liquidation shall be deemed not to act in good faith.
  - d. A person asserting the validity of a transfer under this section shall have the burden of proof. Except as elsewhere provided in this section, no transfer by or on behalf of the insurer after the date of the petition for liquidation by any person other than the liquidator shall be valid against the liquidator.
3. Every person receiving any property from the insurer or any benefit thereof which is a fraudulent transfer under subsection 1 shall be personally liable therefore and shall be bound to account to the liquidator.
4. Nothing in this chapter shall impair the negotiability of currency or negotiable instruments.

26.1-06.1-27. Voidable preferences and liens.

1. a. A preference is a transfer of any of the property of an insurer to or for the benefit of a creditor, for or on account of an antecedent debt, made or suffered by the insurer within one year before the filing of a successful petition for liquidation under this chapter, the effect of which transfer may be to enable the creditor to obtain a greater percentage of this debt than another creditor of the same class would receive. If a liquidation order is entered while the insurer is already subject to a rehabilitation order, then such transfers shall be deemed preferences if made or suffered within one year before the filing of the successful petition for rehabilitation, or within two years before the filing of the successful petition for liquidation, whichever time is shorter.

b. Any preference may be avoided by the liquidator if:

- (1) The insurer was insolvent at the time of the transfer;
- (2) The transfer was made within four months before the filing of the petition;
- (3) The creditor receiving it or to be benefited thereby or the creditor's agent acting with reference thereto had, at the time when the transfer was made, reasonable cause to believe that the insurer was insolvent or was about to become insolvent; or
- (4) The creditor receiving it was an officer, or any employee or attorney or other person who was in fact in a position of comparable influence in the insurer to an officer, whether or not that person held such position, or any shareholder holding directly or indirectly more than five percent of any class of any equity security issued by the insurer, or any other person, firm, corporation, association, or aggregation of persons with whom the insurer did not deal at arm's length.

c. Where the preference is voidable, the liquidator may recover the property or, if it has been converted, the liquidator may recover its value from any person who has received or converted the property; except where a bona fide purchaser or lienor has given less than fair equivalent value, he shall have a lien upon the property to the extent of the consideration actually given by him. Where a preference by way of lien or security title is voidable, the court may on due notice order the lien or title to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, in which event the lien or title shall pass to the liquidator.

2. a. A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee.
- b. A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.
- c. A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.
- d. A transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

- e. The provisions of this subsection apply whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.
3. a. A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings upon a simple contract is one arising in the ordinary course of such proceedings upon the entry or docketing of a judgment or decree, or upon attachment, garnishment, execution, or like process, whether before, upon, or after judgment or decree and whether before or upon levy. It does not include liens which under applicable law are given a special priority over other liens which are prior in time.
- b. A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings could become superior to the rights of a transferee, or a purchaser could obtain rights superior to the rights of a transferee within the meaning of subsection 2, if such consequences would follow only from the lien or purchase itself, or from the lien or purchase followed by any step wholly within the control of the respective lienholder or purchaser, with or without the aid of ministerial action by public officials. Such a lien could not, however, become superior and such a purchase could not create superior rights for the purpose of subsection 2 through any acts subsequent to the obtaining of such a lien or subsequent to such a purchase which require the agreement or concurrence of any third party or which require any further judicial action or ruling.
4. A transfer of property for or on account of a new and contemporaneous consideration which is deemed under subsection 2 to be made or suffered after the transfer because of delay in perfecting it, does not thereby become a transfer for or on account of an antecedent debt if any acts required by the applicable law to be performed in order to perfect the transfer as against liens or bona fide purchasers' rights are performed within twenty-one days or any period expressly allowed by the law, whichever is less. A transfer to secure a future loan, if such a loan is actually made, or a transfer which becomes security for a future loan, shall have the same effect as a transfer for or on account of a new and contemporaneous consideration.
5. If any lien deemed voidable under subdivision b of subsection 1 has been dissolved by the furnishing of a bond or other obligation, the surety on which has been indemnified directly or indirectly by the transfer of or the creation of a lien upon any property of an insurer before the filing of a petition under this chapter which results in a liquidation order, the indemnifying transfer or lien shall also be deemed voidable.
6. The property affected by any lien deemed voidable under subsections 1 and 5 shall be discharged from the lien, and that property and any of the indemnifying property transferred to or for the benefit of a surety shall pass to the liquidator, except that the court may on due notice order any such lien to be preserved for the benefit of the estate and the court may direct that such conveyance be executed as may be proper or adequate to evidence the title of the liquidator.

7. The district court shall have summary jurisdiction of any proceeding by the liquidator to hear and determine the rights of any parties under this section. Reasonable notice of any hearing in the proceeding shall be given to all parties in interest, including the obligee of a releasing bond or other like obligation. Where an order is entered for the recovery of indemnifying property in kind or for the avoidance of an indemnifying lien, the court, upon application of any party in interest, shall in the same proceeding ascertain the value of the property or lien, and if the value is less than the amount for which the property is indemnity or less than the amount of the lien, the transferee or lienholder may elect to retain the property or lien upon payment to the liquidator of its value, as ascertained by the court, within such reasonable times as the court shall fix.
8. The liability of the surety under a releasing bond or other like obligation shall be discharged to the extent of the value of the indemnifying property recovered or the indemnifying lien nullified and avoided by the liquidator, or, where the property is retained under subsection 7, to the extent of the amount paid to the liquidator.
9. If a creditor has been preferred, and afterward in good faith gives the insurer further credit, without security of any kind, for property which becomes a part of the insurer's estate, the amount of the new credit remaining unpaid at the time of the petition may be set off against the preference which would otherwise be recoverable from the creditor.
10. If an insurer, directly or indirectly, within four months before the filing of a successful petition for liquidation under this chapter, or at any time in contemplation of a proceeding to liquidate it, pays money or transfers property to an attorney at law for services rendered or to be rendered, the transactions may be examined by the court on its own motion or shall be examined by the court on petition of the liquidator and shall be held valid only to the extent of the reasonable amount to be determined by the court, and the excess may be recovered by the liquidator for the benefits of the estate provided that where the attorney is in a position of influence in the insurer or an affiliate thereof, payment of any money or the transfer of any property to the attorney at law for services rendered or to be rendered shall be governed by the provision of subparagraph 4 of subdivision b of subsection 1.
11. a. Every officer, manager, employee, shareholder, member, subscriber, attorney, or any other person acting on behalf of the insurer who knowingly participates in giving any preference when that person has reasonable cause to believe the insurer is insolvent or is about to become insolvent at the time of the preference shall be personally liable to the liquidator for the amount of the preference. It is permissible to infer that there is a reasonable cause to believe the insurer is insolvent or is about to become insolvent if the transfer was made within four months prior to the date of filing of the successful petition for liquidation.

b. Every person receiving any property from the insurer or the benefit thereof as a preference voidable under subsection 1 shall be personally liable therefor and shall be bound to account to the liquidator.

c. Nothing in this subsection shall prejudice any other claim by the liquidator against any person.

26.1-06.1-28. Claims of holders of void or voidable rights.

1. No claims of a creditor who has received or acquired a preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or encumbrance voidable under this chapter shall be allowed unless the creditor surrenders the preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or encumbrance. If the avoidance is effected by a proceeding in which a final judgment has been entered, the claim shall not be allowed unless the money is paid or the property is delivered to the liquidator within thirty days from the date of the entering of the final judgment, except that the court having jurisdiction over the liquidation may allow further time if there is an appeal or other continuation of the proceeding.

2. A claim allowable under subsection 1 by reason of the avoidance, whether voluntary or involuntary, or a preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or encumbrance, may be filed as an excused last filing under section 26.1-06.1-34 if filed within thirty days from the date of the avoidance, or within the further time allowed by the court under subsection 1.

26.1-06.1-29. Setoffs.

1. Mutual debts or mutual credits, whether arising out of one or more contracts between the insurer and another person in connection with any action or proceeding under this chapter, shall be set off and the balance only shall be allowed or paid, except as provided in subsections 2, 3, and 4 and section 26.1-06.1-32.

2. No setoff shall be allowed in favor of any person where:

a. The obligation of the insurer to the person would not at the date of filing of a petition for liquidation entitle the person to share as a claimant in the assets of the insurer;

b. The obligation of the insurer to the person was purchased by or transferred to the person with a view to its being used as a setoff;

c. The obligation of the insurer is owed to an affiliate of the person, or any other entity or association other than the person;

d. The obligation of the person is owed to an affiliate of the insurer, or any other entity or association other than the insurer;

e. The obligation of the person is to pay an assessment levied against the members or subscribers of the insurer, or is to pay a balance upon a subscription to the capital stock of the insurer, or is in any other way in the nature of a capital contribution; or

- f. The obligations between the person and the insurer arise from business which is both ceded to and assumed from the insurer except that the rehabilitator may, with regard to such business, allow certain setoffs in rehabilitation if the liquidator finds the allowance of the setoffs appropriate.
3. The liquidator shall provide persons that assumed business from the insurer with accounting statements identifying debts which are currently due and payable. Such persons may set off against such debts only mutual credits which are currently due and payable by the insurer to such persons for the period covered by the accounting statement.
4. A person that ceded business to the insurer may set off debts due the insurer against only those mutual credits which the person has paid or which have been allowed in the insurer's delinquency proceeding.
5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a setoff of sums due on obligations in the nature of those set forth in subdivision f of subsection 2 shall be allowed for those sums accruing from business written where the contracts were entered into, renewed, or extended with the express written approval of the commissioner of insurance of the state of domicile of the now insolvent insurer, when in the judgment of such commissioner it was necessary to provide reinsurance in order to prevent or mitigate a threatened impairment or insolvency of a domiciliary insurer in connection with the exercise of the commissioner's regulatory responsibilities.
6. These amendments shall become effective six months from the date of enactment and shall apply to all contracts entered into, renewed, extended, or amended on or after that date, and to debts or credits arising from any business written or transactions occurring after the effective date pursuant to any contract including those in existence prior to the effective date, and shall supersede any agreements or contractual provisions which might be construed to enlarge the setoff rights of any person under any contract with the insurer. For purposes of this section, any change in the terms of, or consideration for, any such contract shall be deemed an amendment.

26.1-06.1-30. Assessments.

1. As soon as practicable but not more than two years from the date of an order of liquidation under section 26.1-06.1-17 of an insurer issuing assessable policies, the liquidator shall make a report to the court setting forth:
  - a. The reasonable value of the assets of the insurer;
  - b. The insurer's probable total liabilities;

- c. The probable aggregate amount of the assessment necessary to pay all claims of creditors and expenses in full, including expenses of administration and costs of collecting the assessment; and
  - d. A recommendation as to whether or not an assessment should be made and in what amount.
- 2. a. Upon the basis of the report provided in subsection 1, including any supplements and amendments thereto, the district court may levy one or more assessments against all members of the insurer who are subject to assessment.
- b. Subject to any applicable legal limits on assessability, the aggregate assessment shall be for the amount that the sum of the probable liabilities, the expenses of administration, and the estimated cost of collection of the assessment, exceeds the value of existing assets, with due regard being given to assessments that cannot be collected economically.
- 3. After levy of assessment under subsection 2, the liquidator shall issue an order directing each member who has not paid the assessment pursuant to the order, to show cause why the liquidator should not pursue a judgment therefor.
- 4. The liquidator shall give notice of the order to show cause by publication and by first-class mail to each member liable thereunder mailed to the member's last known address as it appears on the insurer's records, at least twenty days before the return day of the order to show cause.
- 5. a. If a member does not appear and serve duly verified objections upon the liquidator on or before the return day of the order to show cause under subsection 3, the court shall make an order adjudging the member liable for the amount of the assessment against the member pursuant to subsection 3, together with costs, and the liquidator shall have a judgment against the member therefor.
- b. If, on or before the return day, the member appears and serves duly verified objections upon the liquidator, the commissioner may hear and determine the matter or may appoint a referee to hear it and make such order as the facts warrant. In the event that the commissioner determines that such objections do not warrant relief from assessment, the member may request the court to review the matter and vacate the order to show cause.
- 6. The liquidator may enforce any order or collect any judgment under subsection 5 by any lawful means.

26.1-06.1-31. Reinsurer's liability. The amount recoverable by the liquidator from reinsurers shall not be reduced as a result of the delinquency proceedings, regardless of any provision in the reinsurance contract or other agreement. Payment made directly to an insured or other creditor shall not diminish the reinsurer's obligation to the insurer's estate except when the reinsurance contract provided for direct coverage of a named insured and the payment was made in discharge of that obligation.

1. a. An agent, broker, premium finance company, or any other person, other than the insured, responsible for the payment of a premium shall be obligated to pay any unpaid premium for the full policy term due the insurer at the time of the declaration of insolvency, whether earned or unearned, as shown on the records of the insurer. The liquidator shall also have the right to recover from such person any part of an unearned premium that represents commission of such person. Credits or setoffs, or both, shall not be allowed to an agent, broker, or premium finance company for any amounts advanced to the insurer by the agent, broker, or premium finance company on behalf of, but in the absence of a payment by, the insured.
  - b. An insured shall be obligated to pay any unpaid earned premium due the insurer at the time of the declaration of insolvency, as shown on the records of the insurer.
  2. Upon satisfactory evidence of a violation of this section, the commissioner may pursue either one or both of the following courses of action:
    - a. Suspend or revoke or refuse to renew the licenses of such offending party or parties.
    - b. Impose a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each and every act in violation of this section by said party or parties.
  3. Before taking any action as set forth in subsection 2, the commissioner shall give written notice to the person, company, association, or exchange accused of violating the law, stating specifically the nature of the alleged violation and fixing a time and place, at least ten days thereafter, when a hearing on the matter shall be held. After the hearing, or upon failure of the accused to appear at the hearing, if a violation is found to have been made, the commissioner shall impose any of the penalties under subsection 2 as deemed advisable.
  4. When the commissioner takes action in any or all of the ways set out in subsection 2, the party aggrieved may appeal from said action to the district court.
- 26.1-06.1-33. Domiciliary liquidator's proposal to distribute assets.
1. Within one hundred twenty days of a final determination of insolvency of an insurer by the district court, the liquidator shall make application to the court for approval of a proposal to disburse assets out of marshaled assets, from time to time as the assets become available, to a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association having obligations because of the insolvency. If the liquidator determines that there are insufficient assets to disburse, the application required by this section shall be considered satisfied by a filing by the liquidator stating the reasons for this determination.

2. The proposal to disburse assets referred to in subsection 1 shall at least include provisions for:
  - a. Reserving amounts for the payment of expenses of administration and the payment of claims of secured creditors, to the extent of the value of the security held, and the payment of claims falling within the priorities established in section 26.1-06.1-41, classes one and two;
  - b. Disbursement of the assets marshaled to date and subsequent disbursement of assets as they become available;
  - c. Equitable allocation of disbursements to each of the guaranty associations and foreign guaranty associations entitled thereto;
  - d. The securing by the liquidator from each of the associations entitled to disbursements pursuant to this section of an agreement to return to the liquidator such assets, together with income earned on assets previously disbursed, as may be required to pay claims of secured creditors and claims falling within the priorities established in section 26.1-06.1-41 in accordance with such priorities. No bond shall be required of any such association; and
  - e. A full report to be made by each association to the liquidator accounting for all assets so disbursed to the association, all disbursements made therefrom, any interest earned by the association on such assets, and any other matter as the court may direct.
3. The liquidator's proposal shall provide for disbursements to the associations in amounts estimated at least equal to the claim payments made or to be made thereby for which such associations could assert a claim against the liquidator, and shall further provide that if the assets available for disbursement from time to time do not equal or exceed the amount of such claim payments made or to be made by the association, then disbursements shall be in the amount of available assets.
4. The liquidator's proposal shall, with respect to an insolvent insurer writing life or health insurance or annuities, provide for disbursements of assets to any guaranty association or any foreign guaranty association covering life or health insurance or annuities or to any other entity or organization reinsuring, assuming, or guaranteeing policies or contracts of insurance under the acts creating such associations.
5. Notice of such application shall be given to the association in and to the commissioners of insurance of each of the states. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the United States certified mail, first-class postage prepaid, at least thirty days prior to submission of the application to the court. Action on the application may be taken by the court provided the above required notice has been given and provided further that the liquidator's proposal complies with subdivisions a and b of subsection 2.

26.1-06.1-34. Filing of claims.

1. Proof of all claims shall be filed with the liquidator in the form required by section 26.1-06.1-35 on or before the last day for filing specified in the notice required under section 26.1-06.1-21, except that proof of claims for cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance and annuities need not be filed unless the liquidator expressly so requires.
2. The liquidator may permit a claimant making a late filing to share in distributions, whether past or future, as if the claimant did not file late, to the extent that any such payment will not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation, under any of the following circumstances:
  - a. The existence of the claim was not known to the claimant and the claim was filed promptly once the claim became known to the claimant.
  - b. A transfer to a creditor was avoided under sections 26.1-06.1-25, 26.1-06.1-26, and 26.1-06.1-27, or was voluntarily surrendered under section 26.1-06.1-28, and the filing satisfies the conditions of section 26.1-06.1-28.
  - c. The valuation under section 26.1-06.1-40, of security held by a secured creditor shows a deficiency, which is filed within thirty days after the valuation.
3. The liquidator shall permit late filing claims to share in distribution, whether past or future, as if the claims were not filed late, if the claims are claims of a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association for reimbursement of covered claims paid or expenses incurred, or both, subsequent to the last day for filing where such payments were made and expenses incurred as provided by law.
4. The liquidator may consider any claim filed late which is not covered by subsection 2, and permit it to receive distributions which are subsequently declared on any claims of the same or lower priority if the payment does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation. The late filing claimant shall receive, at each distribution, the same percentage of the amount allowed on the late filed claim as is then being paid to claimants of any lower priority. This shall continue until the late filed claim has been paid in full.

26.1-06.1-35. Proof of claim.

1. Proof of claim shall consist of a statement signed by the claimant that includes all of the following that are applicable:
  - a. The particulars of the claim including the consideration given for it;
  - b. The identity and amount of the security on the claim;
  - c. The payments made on the debt, if any;

- d. That the sum claimed is justly owing and that there is no setoff, counterclaim, or defense to the claim;
  - e. Any right of priority of payment or other specific right asserted by the claimants;
  - f. A copy of the written instrument which is the foundation of the claim; and
  - g. The name and address of the claimant and the attorney who represents the claimant, if any.
2. No claim need be considered or allowed if it does not contain all the information in subsection 1 which may be applicable. The liquidator may require that a prescribed form be used, and may require that other information and documents be included.
  3. At any time the liquidator may request the claimant to present information or evidence supplementary to that required under subsection 1 and may take testimony under oath, require production of affidavits or depositions, or otherwise obtain additional information or evidence.
  4. No judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered after the date of filing of a successful petition for liquidation, and no judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered at any time by default or by collusion need be considered as evidence of liability or of the amount of damages. No judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered within four months before the filing of the petition need be considered as evidence of liability or of the amount of damages.
  5. All claims of a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association shall be in such form and contain such substantiation as may be agreed to by the association and the liquidator.

26.1-06.1-36. Special claims.

1. The claim of a third party which is contingent only on first obtaining a judgment against the insured shall be considered and allowed as if there were no such contingency.
2. A claim may be allowed even if contingent, if it is filed in accordance with section 26.1-06.1-34. It may be allowed and may participate in all distributions declared after it is filed to the extent that it does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation.
3. Claims that are due except for the passage of time shall be treated as absolute claims are treated, except that such claims may be discounted at the legal rate of interest.
4. Claims made under employment contracts by directors, principal officers, or persons in fact performing similar functions or having similar powers are limited to payment for services rendered prior to the issuance of any order of rehabilitation or liquidation under section 26.1-06.1-12 or 26.1-06.1-17.

26.1-06.1-37. Special provisions for third party claims.

1. Whenever any third party asserts a cause of action against an insured of an insurer in liquidation, the third party may file a claim with the liquidator.
2. Whether or not the third party files a claim, the insured may file a claim in the liquidation. If the insured fails to file a claim by the date for filing claims specified in the order of liquidation or within sixty days after mailing of the notice required by section 26.1-06.1-21, whichever is later, the insured is an unexcused late filer.
3. The liquidator shall make recommendations to the court under section 26.1-06.1-41, for the allowance of an insured's claim under subsection 2 after consideration of the probable outcome of any pending action against the insured on which the claim is based, the probable damages recoverable in the action, and the probable costs and expenses of defense. After allowance by the court, the liquidator shall withhold any dividends payable on the claim, pending the outcome of litigation and negotiation with the insured. Whenever it seems appropriate, the liquidator shall reconsider the claim on the basis of additional information and amend recommendations made to the court. The insured shall be afforded the same notice and opportunity to be heard on all changes in the recommendation as in its initial determination. The court may amend its allowance as it deems appropriate. As claims against the insured are settled or barred, the insured shall be paid from the amount withheld the same percentage dividend as was paid on other claims of like property, based on the lesser of:
  - a. The amount actually recovered from the insured by action or paid by agreement plus the reasonable costs and expenses of defense; or
  - b. The amount allowed on the claims by the court.

After all claims are settled or barred, any sum remaining from the amount withheld shall revert to the undistributed assets of the insurer. Delay in final payment under this subsection shall not be a reason for unreasonable delay of final distribution and discharge of the liquidator.

4. If several claims founded upon one policy are filed, whether by third parties or as claims by the insured under this section, and the aggregate allowed amount of the claims to which the same limit of liability in the policy is applicable exceeds that limit, each claim as allowed shall be reduced in the same proportion so that the total equals the policy limit. Claims by the insured shall be evaluated as in subsection 3. If any insured's claim is subsequently reduced under subsection 3, the amount thus freed shall be apportioned ratably among the claims which have been reduced under this subsection.
5. No claim may be presented under this section if it is or may be covered by any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association.

26.1-06.1-38. Disputed claims.

1. When a claim is denied in whole or in part by the liquidator, written notice of the determination shall be given to the claimant or the claimant's attorney by first-class mail at the address shown in the proof of claim. Within sixty days from the mailing of the notice, the claimant may file objections to the determination with the liquidator. If no such filing is made, the claimant may not further object to the determination.
2. Whenever objections are filed with the liquidator and the liquidator does not alter the denial of the claim as a result of the objections, the liquidator shall ask the court for a hearing as soon as practicable and give notice of the hearing by first-class mail to the claimant or the claimant's attorney and to any other persons directly affected, not less than ten nor more than thirty days before the date of the hearing. The matter may be heard by the court or by a court-appointed referee who shall submit findings of fact along with a recommendation.

26.1-06.1-39. Claims of surety. Whenever a creditor whose claim against an insurer is secured, in whole or in part, by the undertaking of another person, fails to prove and file that claim, the other person may do so in the creditor's name, and shall be subrogated to the rights of the creditor, whether the claim has been filed by the creditor or by the other person in the creditor's name, to the extent that the other person discharges the undertaking. In the absence of an agreement with the creditor to the contrary, the other person shall not be entitled to any distribution; however, until the amount paid to the creditor on the undertaking plus the distributions paid on the claim from the insurer's estate to the creditor equals the amount of the entire claim of the creditor. Any excess received by the creditor shall be held by him in trust for such other person. The term "other person" as used in this section is not intended to apply to a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association.

26.1-06.1-40. Secured creditor's claims.

1. The value of any security held by a secured creditor shall be determined in one of the following ways, as the court may direct:
  - a. By converting the same into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which the security was delivered to such creditors; or
  - b. By agreement, arbitration, compromise, or litigation between the creditor and the liquidator.
2. The determination shall be under the supervision and control of the court with due regard for the recommendation of the liquidator. The amount so determined shall be credited upon the secured claim, and any deficiency shall be treated as an unsecured claim. If the claimant surrenders the security to the liquidator, the entire claim shall be allowed as if unsecured.

26.1-06.1-41. Priority of distribution. The priority of distribution of claims from the insurer's estate shall be in accordance with the order in which each class of claims is herein set forth. Every claim in each class shall be paid in full or adequate funds retained for such payment before the members of the next class receive any payment. No subclasses shall be established within any class. The order of distribution of claims shall be:

1. Class 1. The costs and expenses of administration during rehabilitation and liquidation, including the following:
  - a. The actual and necessary costs of preserving or recovering the assets of the insurer;
  - b. Compensation for all authorized services rendered in the rehabilitation and liquidation;
  - c. Any necessary filing fees;
  - d. The fees and mileage payable to witnesses;
  - e. Authorized reasonable attorney's fees and other professional services rendered in the rehabilitation and liquidation; and
  - f. The reasonable expenses of a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association for unallocated loss adjustment expenses.
2. Class 2. Reasonable compensation to employees for services performed to the extent that they do not exceed two months of monetary compensation and represent payment for service performed within one year before the filing of the petition for liquidation or, if rehabilitation preceded liquidation, within one year before the filing of the petition for rehabilitation. Principal officers and directors shall not be entitled to the benefit of this priority except as otherwise approved by the liquidator and the court. Such priority shall be in lieu of any other similar priority which may be authorized by law as to wages or compensation of employees.
3. Class 3. All claims under policies including such claims of the federal or any state or local government for losses incurred, ("loss claims") including third party claims and all claims of a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association. All claims under life insurance and annuity policies, whether for death proceeds, annuity proceeds, or investment values shall be treated as loss claims. That portion of any loss, indemnification for which is provided by other benefits, or advantages recovered by the claimant, shall not be included in this class, other than benefits or advantages recovered or recoverable in discharge of familial obligation of support or by way of succession at death or as proceeds of life insurance, or as gratuities. No payment by an employer to employees shall be treated as a gratuity.
4. Class 4. Claims under nonassessable policies for unearned premium or other premium refunds and claims of general creditors including claims of ceding and assuming companies in their capacity as such.
5. Class 5. Claims of the federal or any state or local government except those under class 3 above. Claims, including those of any governmental body for a penalty or forfeiture, shall be allowed in this class only to the extent of the pecuniary loss sustained from the act, transaction, or proceeding out of which the penalty or forfeiture arose, with reasonable and actual costs occasioned thereby. The remainder of such claims shall be postponed to the class of claims under subsection 8.

6. Class 6. Claims filed late or any other claims other than claims under subsections 7 and 8.
7. Class 7. Surplus or contribution notes, or similar obligations, and premium funds on assessable policies. Payments to members of domestic mutual insurance companies shall be limited in accordance with law.
8. Class 8. The claims of shareholders or other owners in their capacity as shareholders.

26.1-06.1-42. Liquidator's recommendations to the court.

1. The liquidator shall review all claims duly filed in the liquidation and shall make such further investigation as deemed necessary. The liquidator may compound, compromise, or in any other manner negotiate the amount for which claims will be recommended to the court except where the liquidator is required by law to accept claims as settled by any person or organization, including any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association. Unresolved disputes shall be determined under section 26.1-06.1-38. As soon as practicable, the liquidator shall present to the court a report of the claims against the insurer along with the recommendations of the liquidator. The report shall include the name and address of each claimant and the amount of the claim finally recommended, if any. If the insurer has issued annuities or life insurance policies, the liquidator shall report the persons to whom, according to the records of the insurer, amounts are owed as cash surrender values or other investment value and the amounts owed.
2. The court may approve, disapprove, or modify the report on claims by the liquidator. The reports which are not modified by the court within a period of sixty days following submission by the liquidator shall be treated by the liquidator as allowed claims, subject thereafter to later modification or to rulings made by the court pursuant to section 26.1-06.1-38. No claim under a policy of insurance shall be allowed for an amount in excess of the applicable policy limits.

26.1-06.1-43. Distribution of assets. Under the direction of the court, the liquidator shall pay distributions in a manner that will assure the proper recognition of priorities and a reasonable balance between the expeditious completion of the liquidation and the protection of unliquidated and undetermined claims, including third party claims. Distribution of assets in kind may be made at valuations set by agreement between the liquidator and the creditor and approved by the court.

26.1-06.1-44. Unclaimed and withheld funds.

1. All unclaimed funds subject to distribution remaining under the liquidator's control when the liquidator is ready to apply to the court for discharge, including the amount distributable to any creditor, shareholder, member, or other person who is unknown or cannot be found, shall be deposited with the state treasurer, and shall be paid without interest except in accordance with section 26.1-06.1-41 to the person entitled thereto or the person's legal representative upon proof satisfactory to the state treasurer of the person's right thereto. Any amount on deposit not claimed within six years from the discharge of the liquidator shall be deemed to have been abandoned and shall be escheated without formal escheat proceedings and be deposited with the general fund.

2. All funds withheld under section 26.1-06.1-36 and not distributed shall upon discharge of the liquidator be deposited with the state treasurer and paid out in accordance with section 26.1-06.1-41. Any sums remaining which under section 26.1-06.1-41 would revert to the undistributed assets of the insurer shall be transferred to the state treasurer and become the property of the state under subsection 1, unless the commissioner petitions the court to reopen the liquidation under section 26.1-06.1-46.

26.1-06.1-45. Termination of proceedings.

1. When all assets justifying the expense of collection and distribution have been collected and distributed under this chapter, the liquidator shall apply to the court for discharge. The court may grant the discharge and make any other orders, including an order to transfer any remaining funds that are uneconomic to distribute, as may be deemed appropriate.
2. Any other person may apply to the court at any time for an order under subsection 1. If the application is denied, the applicant shall pay the costs and expenses of the liquidator in resisting the application, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

26.1-06.1-46. Reopening liquidation. After the liquidation proceeding has been terminated and the liquidator discharged, the commissioner or other interested party may at any time petition the district court to reopen the proceedings for good cause, including the discovery of additional assets. If the court is satisfied that there is justification for reopening, it shall so order.

26.1-06.1-47. Disposition of records during and after termination of liquidation. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that the records of any liquidated insurer or any insurer in the process of liquidation are no longer useful, the commissioner may recommend to the court and the court direct which records should be retained for future reference and which records should be destroyed.

26.1-06.1-48. External audit of the receiver's books. The district court may, as it deems necessary, cause audits to be made of the books of the commissioner relating to any receivership established under this chapter, and a report of each audit shall be filed with the commissioner and with the court. The books, records, and other documents of the receivership shall be made available to the auditor at any time without notice. The expense of each audit shall be considered a cost of administration of the receivership.

26.1-06.1-49. Conservation of property of foreign or alien insurers found in this state.

1. If a domiciliary liquidator has not been appointed, the commissioner may apply to the district court by verified petition for an order directing the commissioner to act as conservator to conserve the property of an alien insurer not domiciled in this state or a foreign insurer on any one or more of the following grounds:
  - a. Any of the grounds in section 26.1-06.1-11;
  - b. That any of its property has been sequestered by official action in its domiciliary state, or in any other state;
  - c. That enough of its property has been sequestered in a foreign country to give reasonable cause to fear that the insurer is or may become insolvent; and
  - d. (1) That its certificate of authority to do business in this state has been revoked or that none was ever issued; and
(2) That there are residents of this state with outstanding claims or outstanding policies.
2. When an order is sought under subsection 1, the court shall cause the insurer to be given such notice and time to respond thereto as is reasonable under the circumstances.
3. The court may issue the order in whatever terms it deems appropriate. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the district court or the register of deeds of the county in which the principal business of the company is located, shall impart the same notice as a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds.
4. The conservator may at any time petition for and the court may grant an order under section 26.1-06.1-50 to liquidate assets of a foreign or alien insurer under conservation, or, if appropriate, an order to be appointed ancillary receiver under section 26.1-06.1-52.
5. The conservator may at any time petition the court for an order terminating conservation of an insurer. If the court finds that the conservation is no longer necessary, it shall order that the insurer be restored to possession of its property and the control of its business. The court may also make such finding and issue such order at any time upon motion of any interested party, but if the motion is denied, all costs shall be assessed against the moving party.

26.1-06.1-50. Liquidation of property of foreign or alien insurers found in this state.

1. If no domiciliary receiver has been appointed, the commissioner may apply to the district court by verified petition for an order directing the commissioner to liquidate the assets found in this state of a foreign insurer or an alien insurer not domiciled in this state, on any of the following grounds:

- a. Any of the grounds in section 26.1-06.1-11 or 26.1-06.1-16; or
  - b. Any of the grounds specified in subdivisions b, c, and d of subsection 1 of section 26.1-06.1-49.
2. When an order is sought under subsection 1, the court shall cause the insurer to be given such notice and time to respond thereto as is reasonable under the circumstances.
  3. If it shall appear to the court that the best interests of creditors, policyholders, and the public require, the court may issue an order to liquidate in whatever terms it deems appropriate. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the district court or the register of deeds of the county in which the principal business of the company is located or the county in which its principal office or place of business is located, shall impart the same notice as a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds.
  4. If a domiciliary liquidator is appointed in a reciprocal state while a liquidation is proceeding under this section, the liquidator under this section shall thereafter act as ancillary receiver under section 26.1-06.1-52. If a domiciliary liquidator is appointed in a nonreciprocal state while a liquidation is proceeding under this section, the liquidator under this section may petition the court for permission to act as ancillary receiver under section 26.1-06.1-52.
  5. On the same grounds as are specified in subsection 1, the commissioner may petition any appropriate federal district court to be appointed receiver to liquidate that portion of the insurer's assets and business over which the court will exercise jurisdiction, or any lesser part thereof that the commissioner deems desirable for the protection of the policyholders and creditors in this state.
  6. Once the assets of a foreign or alien insurer have been liquidated by the commissioner under this section, the court may order the commissioner to pay claims or residents of this state against the insurer under such rules as to the liquidation of insurers under this chapter as are otherwise compatible with the provisions of this section.

26.1-06.1-51. Domiciliary liquidators in other states.

1. The domiciliary liquidator of an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state shall, except as to special deposits and security on secured claims under subsection 3 of section 26.1-06.1-52, be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the assets, property, contracts and rights of action, agents' balances, and all of the books, accounts, and other records of the insurer located in this state. The date of vesting shall be the date of the filing of the petition, if that date is specified by the domiciliary law for the vesting or property in the domiciliary state. Otherwise, the date of vesting shall be the date of entry of the order directing possession to be taken. The domiciliary liquidator shall have the immediate right to recover balances due from agents and to obtain possession of the books, accounts, and other records of the insurer located in this state. The domiciliary liquidator shall also have the right to recover all other assets of the insurer located in this state, subject to section 26.1-06.1-52.

2. If a domiciliary liquidator is appointed for an insurer not domiciled in a reciprocal state, the commissioner of this state shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts and right of action, and all of the books, accounts, and other records of the insurer located in this state, at the same time that the domiciliary liquidator is vested with title in the domicile. The commissioner of this state may petition for a conservation or liquidation order under section 26.1-06.1-49 or 26.1-06.1-50, or for an ancillary receivership under section 26.1-06.1-52, or after approval by the district court may transfer title to the domiciliary liquidator, as the interests of justice and the equitable distribution of the assets require.
3. Claimants residing in this state may file claims with the liquidator or ancillary receiver, if any, in this state or with the domiciliary liquidator, if the domiciliary law permits. The claims must be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidation proceedings.

26.1-06.1-52. Ancillary formal proceedings.

1. If a domiciliary liquidator has been appointed for an insurer not domiciled in this state, the commissioner may file a petition with the district court requesting appointment as ancillary receiver in this state:
  - a. If the commissioner finds that there are sufficient assets of the insurer located in this state to justify the appointment of an ancillary receiver; or
  - b. If the protection of creditors or policyholders in this state so requires.
2. The court may issue an order appointing an ancillary receiver in whatever terms it shall deem appropriate. The filing or recording of the order with the register of deeds in this state imparts that same notice as a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that register of deeds.
3. When a domiciliary liquidator has been appointed in a reciprocal state, the ancillary receiver appointed in this state may, whenever necessary, aid and assist the domiciliary liquidator in recovering assets of the insurer located in this state. The ancillary receiver shall, as soon as practicable, liquidate from their respective securities those special deposit claims and secured claims which are proved and allowed in the ancillary proceedings in this state, and shall pay the necessary expenses of the proceedings. The ancillary receiver shall promptly transfer all remaining assets, books, accounts, and records to the domiciliary liquidator. Subject to this section, the ancillary receiver and deputies of the ancillary receiver shall have the same powers and be subject to the same duties with respect to the administration of assets as a liquidator of an insurer domiciled in this state.

4. When a domiciliary liquidator has been appointed in this state, ancillary receivers appointed in reciprocal states shall have, as to assets and books, accounts, and other records in their respective states, corresponding rights, duties, and powers to those provided in subsection 3 for ancillary receivers appointed in this state.

26.1-06.1-53. Ancillary summary proceedings. The commissioner has sole discretion to institute proceedings under sections 26.1-06.1-09 and 26.1-06.1-10 at the request of the commissioner or other appropriate insurance official of the domiciliary state of any foreign or alien insurer having property located in this state.

26.1-06.1-54. Claims of nonresidents against insurers domiciled in this state.

1. In a liquidation proceeding begun in this state against an insurer domiciled in this state, claimants residing in foreign countries or in states not reciprocal states must file claims in this state, and claimants residing in reciprocal states may file claims either with the ancillary receivers, if any, in their respective states, or with the domiciliary liquidator. Claims must be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidation proceeding.
2. Claims belonging to claimants residing in reciprocal states may be proved either in the liquidation proceeding in this state as provided in this chapter, or in ancillary proceedings, if any, in the reciprocal states. If notice of the claims and opportunity to appear and be heard is afforded the domiciliary liquidator of this state as provided in subsection 2 of section 26.1-06.1-55 with respect to ancillary proceedings, the final allowance of claims by the courts in ancillary proceedings in reciprocal states shall be conclusive as to amount and as to priority against special deposits or other security located in such ancillary states, but shall not be conclusive with respect to priorities against general assets under section 26.1-06.1-41.

26.1-06.1-55. Claims of residents against insurers domiciled in reciprocal states.

1. In a liquidation proceeding in a reciprocal state against an insurer domiciled in that state, claimants against the insurer who reside within this state may file claims either with the ancillary receiver, if any, in this state, or with the domiciliary liquidator. Claims must be filed on or before the last dates fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidation proceeding.
2. Claims belonging to claimants residing in this state may be proved either in the domiciliary state under the law of that state, or in ancillary proceedings, if any, in this state. If a claimant elects to prove a claim in this state, the claimant shall file the claim with the liquidator in the manner provided in sections 26.1-06.1-34 and 26.1-06.1-35. The ancillary receiver shall make a recommendation to the court as under section 26.1-06.1-42. The ancillary receiver shall also arrange a date for hearing if necessary under section 26.1-06.1-38 and shall give notice to the liquidator in the domiciliary state, either by certified mail or by personal service at least forty days prior to the date set for hearing. If the domiciliary liquidator, within thirty days after the giving of such notice, gives notice in writing to the ancillary receiver and to the claimant, either by certified mail or by personal service, of intention to contest the claim, the domiciliary liquidator shall be entitled to appear or to be represented in any proceeding in this state involving the adjudication of the claim.

3. The final allowance of the claim by the courts of this state shall be accepted as conclusive as to amount and as to priority against special deposits or other security located in this state.

26.1-06.1-56. Attachment, garnishment, and levy of execution. During the pendency of a liquidation proceeding in this or any other state, whether the liquidation proceeding is identified as such or not, no action or proceeding in the nature of an attachment, garnishment, or levy of execution shall be commenced or maintained in this state against the delinquent insurer or its assets.

26.1-06.1-57. Interstate priorities.

1. In a liquidation proceeding in this state involving one or more reciprocal states, the order of distribution of the domiciliary state shall control as to all claims of residents of this and reciprocal states. All claims of residents of reciprocal states shall be given equal priority of payment from general assets regardless of where such assets are located.
2. The owners of special deposit claims against an insurer for which a liquidator is appointed in this or any other state shall be given priority against the special deposits in accordance with the statutes governing the creation and maintenance of the deposits. If there is a deficiency in any deposit, so that the claims secured by it are not fully discharged from it, the claimants may share in the general assets, but the sharing shall be deferred until general creditors, and claimants against other special deposits who have received smaller percentages from their respective special deposits, have been paid percentages of their claims equal to the percentage paid from the special deposit.
3. The owner of a secured claim against an insurer for which a liquidator has been appointed in this or any other state may surrender the security and file a claim as a general creditor, or the claim may be discharged by resort to the security in accordance with section 26.1-06.1-40, in which case the deficiency, if any, shall be treated as a claim against the general assets of the insurer on the same basis as claims of unsecured creditors.

26.1-06.1-58. Subordination of claims for noncooperation. If an ancillary receiver in another state or foreign country, whether called by that name or not, fails to transfer to the domiciliary liquidator in this state any assets within the control of the ancillary receiver, other than special deposits, diminished only by the expenses of the ancillary receivership, if any, the claims filed in the ancillary receivership, other than special deposit claims or secured claims, shall be placed in the class of claims under subsection 7 of section 26.1-06.1-41.

26.1-06.1-59. Separability. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is for any reason held to be invalid, the remainder of the chapter and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

* SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsections 2 and 4 of section 26.1-10-02 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

2. In addition to investments in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities permitted under all other sections, a domestic insurance company may also:

a. Invest, in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries, amounts which do not exceed the lesser of five percent of the insurance company's admitted assets or fifty percent of the company's surplus as regards policyholders; provided, that after the investments the company's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the company's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs. In calculating the amount of the investments, there must be included:

(1) Total net moneys or other consideration expended and obligations assumed in the acquisition or formation of a subsidiary, including all organizational expenses and contributions to capital and surplus of such subsidiary whether or not represented by the purchase of capital stock or issuance of other securities.

(2) All amounts expended in acquiring additional common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations and other securities, and all contributions to the capital or surplus, of a subsidiary subsequent to its acquisition or formation.

b. ~~If the insurance company's total liabilities, as calculated for national association of insurance commissioners annual statement purposes, are less than ten percent of assets, invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries; provided, that after the investment the company's surplus as regards policyholders, considering the investment as if it were a disallowed asset, will be reasonable in relation to the company's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs.~~

c. Invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries; provided, that each subsidiary agrees to limit its investments in any asset so that the investments will not cause the amount of the total investment of the insurance company to exceed any of the investment limitations specified in subsection 1 and subdivision a of subsection 2. "The total investment of the insurance company" includes:

- (1) Any direct investment by the company in an asset.
- (2) The company's proportionate share of any investment in an asset by any subsidiary of the company, which must be calculated by multiplying the amount of the subsidiary's investment by the percentage of the company's ownership of such subsidiary.

~~d. c.~~ With the approval of the commissioner, invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of one or more subsidiaries; provided, that after such investment the insurance company's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the company's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs.

~~e.~~ Invest any amount in the common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of any subsidiary exclusively engaged in holding title to and managing or developing real or personal property, if after considering as a disallowed asset so much of the investment as is represented by subsidiary assets which if held directly by the insurance company would be considered as a disallowed asset, the company's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the company's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs, and if following the investment all voting securities of the subsidiary would be owned by the company.

4. Whether any investment pursuant to subsection 2 meets the applicable requirements thereof is to be determined immediately after such investment is made, taking into account the then outstanding principal balance on all previous investments in debt obligations, and the value of all previous investments in equity securities as of the date they were made net of any return of capital invested, not including dividends.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsections 4 and 5 of section 26.1-10-03 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

4. The commissioner shall approve any merger or other acquisition of control referred to in subsection 1 unless, after a public hearing, the commissioner finds that:
  - a. After the change of control, the domestic insurance company referred to in subsection 1 would not be able to satisfy the requirements for the issuance of a certificate of authority to write the lines of insurance for which it is presently licensed.
  - b. The effect of the merger or other acquisition of control would be substantially to lessen competition in insurance in this state or tend to create a monopoly therein.
  - c. The financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the insurance company, or prejudice the interest of its policyholders or the interests of any remaining securityholders who are unaffiliated with the acquiring party.

- d. ~~The terms of the offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition referred to in subsection 1 are unfair and unreasonable to the securityholders of the insurance company.~~
- e- The plans or proposals which the acquiring party has to liquidate the insurance company, sell its assets or consolidate or merge it with any person, or to make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management, are unfair and unreasonable to policyholders of the company and not in the public interest.
- f. e. The competence, experience, and integrity of those persons who would control the operation of the insurance company are such that it would not be in the interest of policyholders of the company and of the public to permit the merger or other acquisition of control.
- f. The acquisition is likely to be hazardous or prejudicial to the insurance buying public.

The commissioner shall hold the public hearing referred to in this subsection within thirty days after the statement required by subsection 1 is filed, and shall give at least twenty days' notice to the person filing the statement. Not less than seven days' notice of the hearing must be given by the person filing the statement to the insurance company and to other persons designated by the commissioner. ~~The insurance company shall give notice to its securityholders.~~ The commissioner shall make a determination within thirty days after the conclusion of the hearing. At the hearing, the person filing the statement, the insurance company, any person to whom notice of hearing was sent, and any other person whose interests may be affected have the right to present evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and offer oral and written arguments and in connection therewith are entitled to conduct discovery proceedings in the same manner allowed in district court of this state. All discovery proceedings must be concluded not later than three days prior to the hearing. The commissioner may retain at the acquiring person's expense any attorneys, actuaries, accountants, and other experts not otherwise a part of the commissioner's staff as may be reasonably necessary to assist the commissioner in reviewing the proposed acquisition of control.

- 5- ~~The insurance company shall mail all statements, amendments, or other material filed pursuant to subsection 1 or 2, and all notices of public hearings held pursuant to subsection 4, to its shareholders within five business days after receipt by the company. The person making the filing shall bear the expenses of mailing. As security for the payment of the expenses, the person shall file with the commissioner an acceptable bond or other deposit in an amount determined by the commissioner.~~

26.1-10-03.1. Acquisitions involving insurance companies not otherwise covered.

1. For the purpose of this section:
  - a. "Acquisition" means any agreement, arrangement, or activity the consummation of which results in a person acquiring directly or indirectly the control of another person, and includes the acquisition of voting securities, the acquisition of assets, bulk reinsurance, and mergers.
  - b. An "involved insurance company" includes an insurance company which either acquires or is acquired, is affiliated with an acquirer or acquired, or is the result of a merger.
  - a. Except as exempted in subdivision b of this subsection, this section applies to any acquisition in which there is a change in control of an insurance company authorized to do business in this state.
  - b. This section does not apply to the following:
    - (1) An acquisition subject to approval or disapproval by the commissioner pursuant to section 26.1-10-03;
    - (2) A purchase of securities solely for investment purposes so long as the securities are not used by voting or otherwise to cause or attempt to cause the substantial lessening of competition in any insurance market in this state. If a purchase of securities results in a presumption of control under subsection 2 of section 26.1-10-01, it is not solely for investment purposes unless the commissioner of the insurance company's state of domicile accepts a disclaimer of control or affirmatively finds that control does not exist and such disclaimer action or affirmative finding is communicated by the domiciliary commissioner to the commissioner of this state;
    - (3) The acquisition of a person by another person when both persons are neither directly nor through affiliates primarily engaged in the business of insurance, if preacquisition notification is filed with the commissioner in accordance with subdivision 1 of subsection 3 thirty days prior to the proposed effective date of the acquisition. However, the preacquisition notification is not required for exclusion from this section if the acquisition would otherwise be excluded from this section by any other paragraph of this subdivision;
    - (4) The acquisition of already affiliated persons;
    - (5) An acquisition if, as an immediate result of the acquisition:
      - (a) In no market would the combined market share of the involved insurance companies exceed five percent of the total market;

- (b) There would be no increase in any market share; or
- (c) In no market would the combined market share of the involved insurance companies exceed twelve percent of the total market, and in no market would the market share increase by more than two percent of the total market.

For the purpose of paragraph 5 of subdivision b, a "market" means direct written insurance premium in this state for a line of business as contained in the annual statement required to be filed by insurance companies licensed to do business in this state;

- (6) An acquisition for which a preacquisition notification would be required pursuant to this section due solely to the resulting effect on the ocean marine insurance line of business;
- (7) An acquisition of an insurance company whose domiciliary commissioner affirmatively finds that the insurance company is in failing condition; there is a lack of feasible alternative to improving the insurance company's condition; the public benefits of improving the insurance company's condition through the acquisition exceed the public benefits that would arise from not lessening competition; and such findings are communicated by the domiciliary commissioner to the commissioner of this state.

3. An acquisition covered by subsection 2 may be subject to an order pursuant to subsection 5 unless the acquiring person files a preacquisition notification and the waiting period has expired. The acquired person may file a preacquisition notification. The commissioner shall give confidential treatment to information submitted under this subsection in the same manner as provided in section 26.1-10-07.

- a. The preacquisition notification must be in the form and contain the information prescribed by the national association of insurance commissioners relating to those markets which, under paragraph 5 of subdivision b of subsection 2, cause the acquisition not to be exempted from the provisions of this section. The commissioner may require additional material and information as he deems necessary to determine whether the proposed acquisition, if consummated, would violate the competitive standard of subsection 4. The required information may include an opinion of an economist as to the competitive impact of the acquisition in this state accompanied by a summary of the education and experience of such person indicating that person's ability to render an informed opinion.
- b. The waiting period required begins on the date of receipt of the commissioner of a preacquisition notification and ends on the earlier of the thirtieth day after the date of its receipt, or termination of the waiting period by the commissioner. Prior to the end of the waiting period, the commissioner on a one-time basis may require the submission of additional needed information relevant to the proposed acquisition, in which event the waiting period ends on the earlier of the thirtieth day after receipt of the additional information by the commissioner or termination of the waiting period by the commissioner.

4. a. The commissioner may enter an order under subdivision a of subsection 5 with respect to an acquisition if there is substantial evidence that the effect of the acquisition may be substantially to lessen competition in any line of insurance in this state or tend to create a monopoly therein or if the insurance company fails to file adequate information in compliance with subsection 3.
- b. In determining whether a proposed acquisition would violate the competitive standard of subdivision a of this subsection, the commissioner shall consider the following:

- (1) Any acquisition covered under subsection 2 involving two or more insurance companies competing in the same market is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standards:

- (a) If the market is highly concentrated and the involved insurance companies possess the following shares of the market:

Insurer A	Insurer B
4%	4% or more
10%	2% or more
15%	1% or more

- (b) Or, if the market is not highly concentrated and the involved insurance companies possess the following shares of the market:

Insurer A	Insurer B
5%	5% or more
10%	4% or more
15%	3% or more
19%	1% or more

A highly concentrated market is one in which the share of the four largest insurance companies is seventy-five percent or more of the market. Percentages not shown in the tables are interpolated proportionately to the percentages that are shown. If more than two insurance companies are involved, exceeding the total of the two columns in the table is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard in subdivision a of this subsection. For the purpose of this paragraph, the insurance company with the largest share of the market shall be deemed to be insurer A.

- (2) There is a significant trend toward increased concentration when the aggregate market share of any grouping of the largest insurance companies in the market, from the two largest to the eight largest, has increased by seven percent or more of the market over a period of time extending from any base year five to ten years prior to the acquisition up to the time of the acquisition. Any acquisition or merger covered under subsection 2 involving two or more insurance companies competing in the same market is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard in subdivision a of this subsection if:

- (a) There is a significant trend toward increased concentration in the market;
  - (b) One of the insurance companies involved is one of the insurance companies in a grouping of large insurance companies showing the requisite increase in the market share; and
  - (c) Another involved insurance company's market is two percent or more.
- (3) For the purposes of subdivision b of subsection 4:
- (a) The term "insurance company" includes any company or group of companies under common management, ownership, or control;
  - (b) The term "market" means the relevant product and geographical markets. In determining the relevant product and geographical markets, the commissioner shall give due consideration to, among other things, the definitions or guidelines, if any, promulgated by the national association of insurance commissioners and to information, if any, submitted by parties to the acquisition. In the absence of sufficient information to the contrary, the relevant product market is assumed to be the direct written insurance premium for a line of business, such line being that used in the annual statement required to be filed by insurance companies doing business in this state, and the relevant geographical market is assumed to be this state.
  - (c) The burden of showing prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard rests upon the commissioner.
- (4) Even though an acquisition is not prima facie violative of the competitive standard under paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subdivision, the commissioner may establish the requisite anticompetitive effect based upon other substantial evidence. Even though an acquisition is prima facie violative of the competitive standard under paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subdivision, a party may establish the absence of the requisite anticompetitive effect based upon other substantial evidence. Relevant factors in making a determination under this paragraph include, but are not limited to, the following: market shares, volatility of ranking of market leaders, number of competitors, concentration, trend of concentration in the industry, and ease of entry into and exit from the market.

- c. An order may not be entered under subdivision a of subsection 5 if:
- (1) The acquisition will yield substantial economies of scale or economies in resource utilization that cannot be feasibly achieved in any other way, and the public benefits which would arise from such economies exceed the public benefits which would arise from not lessening competition; or
  - (2) The acquisition will substantially increase the availability of insurance, and the public benefits of such increase exceed the public benefits which would arise from not lessening competition.
5. a. If an acquisition violates the standards of this section, the commissioner may enter an order:
- (1) Requiring an involved insurance company to cease and desist from doing business in this state with respect to the line or lines of insurance involved in the violation, or
  - (2) Denying the application of an acquired or acquiring insurance company for a license to do business in this state.
- b. The order may not be entered unless there is a hearing, notice of such hearing is issued prior to the end of the waiting period and not less than fifteen days prior to the hearing, and the hearing is concluded and the order is issued no later than sixty days after the end of the waiting period. Every order must be accompanied by a written decision of the commissioner setting forth findings of fact and conclusions of law.
- c. An order entered under this subsection may not become final sooner than thirty days after it is issued, during which time the involved insurance company may submit a plan to remedy the anticompetitive impact of the acquisition within a reasonable time. Based upon the plan or other information, the commissioner shall specify the conditions, if any, under the time period during which the aspects of the acquisition causing a violation of the standards of this section would be remedied and the order vacated or modified.
- d. An order pursuant to this subsection does not apply if the acquisition is not consummated.
- e. Any person who violates a cease and desist order of the commissioner under this subsection and while the order is in effect, may after notice and hearing and upon order of the commissioner, be subject at the discretion of the commissioner to any one or both of the following:

- (1) A monetary penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for every day of violation.
  - (2) Suspension or revocation of such person's license.
- f. Any insurance company or other person who fails to make any filing required by this section and who also fails to demonstrate a good faith effort to comply with any such filing requirement, shall be subject to a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars.
- g. Subsections 2 and 3 of section 26.1-10-08 and section 26.1-10-10 do not apply to acquisitions covered under subsection 2.

26.1-10-04. Registration - Amendments - Termination - Alternative registration - Exceptions - Disclaimer - Violation.

1. Every insurance company which is authorized to do business in this state and which is a member of an insurance holding company system shall register with the commissioner, except a foreign insurance company subject to disclosure requirements and standards adopted by statute or rule in the jurisdiction of its domicile which are substantially similar to those contained in this section and section 26.1-10-05. Any insurance company subject to registration under this section shall register before August 31, 1981, or fifteen days after it becomes subject to registration, whichever is later, unless the commissioner for good cause shown extends the time for registration, and then within the extended time. The commissioner may require any authorized insurance company which is a member of a holding company system not subject to registration under this section to furnish a copy of the registration statement or other information filed by the insurance company with the insurance regulatory authority of the domiciliary jurisdiction.
2. Every insurance company subject to registration shall file a registration statement on a form approved by the commissioner, which must contain current information about:
  - a. The capital structure, general financial condition, ownership, and management of the insurance company and any person in control of the insurance company.
  - b. The identity of every member of the insurance holding company system.
  - c. The following agreements in force, relationships subsisting, and transactions currently outstanding between the insurance company and its affiliates:

- (1) Loans, other investments, or purchases, sales, or exchanges of securities of the affiliates by the insurance company or of the insurance company by its affiliates.
  - (2) Purchases, sales, or exchange of assets.
  - (3) Transactions not in the ordinary course of business.
  - (4) Guarantees or undertakings for the benefit of an affiliate which result in an actual contingent exposure of the insurance company's assets to liability, other than insurance contracts entered into in the ordinary course of the insurance company's business.
  - (5) All management and service contracts and all cost-sharing arrangements, ~~other than cost allocation arrangements based upon generally accepted accounting principles.~~
  - (6) Reinsurance agreements ~~covering all or substantially all of one or more lines of insurance of the ceding company.~~
  - (7) Dividends and other distributions to shareholders.
  - (8) Consolidated tax allocation agreements.
- d. Any pledge of the insurance company's stock, including stock of any subsidiary or controlling affiliate, for a loan made to any member of the insurance holding company system.
- e. Other matters concerning transactions between registered insurance companies and any affiliates as may be included from time to time in any registration forms adopted or approved by the commissioner.
3. No information need be disclosed on the registration statement filed pursuant to subsection 2 if the information is not material for the purposes of this section. Unless the commissioner by rule or order provides otherwise, sales, purchases, exchanges, loans or extensions of credit, or investments, involving one-half of one percent or less of an insurance company's admitted assets as of December thirty-first next preceding are not material for purposes of this section.
  4. Each registered insurance company shall keep current the information required to be disclosed in its registration statement by reporting all material changes or additions on amendment forms approved by the commissioner within fifteen days after the end of the month in which it learns of each change or addition; provided, however, that subject to subsection 3 of section 26.1-10-05, each registered insurance company shall report all dividends and other distributions to shareholders within ~~two~~ ten business days following the declaration thereof.
  5. The commissioner shall terminate the registration of any insurance company which demonstrates that it no longer is a member of an insurance holding company system.

6. The commissioner may require or allow two or more affiliated insurance companies subject to registration hereunder to file a consolidated registration statement or consolidated reports amending their consolidated registration statement or their individual registration statements.
7. The commissioner may allow an insurance company which is authorized to do business in this state and which is part of an insurance holding company system to register on behalf of any affiliated insurance company which is required to register under subsection 1 to file all information and material required to be filed under this section.
8. This section does not apply to any insurance company, information, or transaction if and to the extent excepted by the commissioner by rule or order.
9. Any person may file with the commissioner a disclaimer of affiliation with any authorized insurance company or a disclaimer may be filed by the insurance company or any member of an insurance holding company system. The disclaimer must fully disclose all material relationships and bases for affiliation between the person and the insurance company as well as the basis for disclaiming the affiliation. After a disclaimer has been filed, the insurance company is relieved of any duty to register or report under this section which arises out of the insurance company's relationship with the person unless and until the commissioner disallows the disclaimer. The commissioner shall disallow the disclaimer only after furnishing all parties in interest with notice and opportunity to be heard and after making specific findings of fact to support the disallowance.
10. All registration statements must contain a summary outlining all items in the current registration statement representing changes from the prior registration statement.
11. Any person within an insurance holding company system subject to registration must provide complete and accurate information to an insurance company, where the information is reasonably necessary to enable the insurance company to comply with the provisions of this chapter.
12. The failure to file a registration statement or any amendment summary of the registration statement thereto required by this section within the time specified for the filing is a violation of this section.

26.1-10-05. Standards - Transactions with affiliates - Adequacy of surplus - Dividends and other distributions.

1. Material transactions by registered insurance companies with their affiliates are transactions within a holding company system to which an insurance company subject to registration is a party shall be subject to the following standards:

- a. The terms must be fair and reasonable.
  - b. The books, accounts, and records of each party must clearly and accurately disclose the precise nature and details of the transactions.
  - c. The insurance company's surplus as regards to policyholders following any dividends or distributions to shareholder affiliates must be reasonable in relation to the insurance company's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs.
  - d. Charges or fees for services performed must be reasonable.
  - e. Expenses incurred and payment received must be allocated to the insurance company in conformity with customary insurance accounting practices consistently applied.
2. The following transactions involving a domestic insurance company and any person in its holding company system may not be entered into unless the insurance company has notified the commissioner in writing of its intention to enter into the transaction at least thirty days prior thereto, or a shorter period as the commissioner may permit, and the commissioner has not disapproved it within that period.
- a. Sales, purchases, exchanges, loans, or extensions of credit, guarantees, or investments provided the transactions are equal to or exceed:
    - (1) With respect to nonlife insurance companies, the lesser of three percent of the insurance company's admitted assets or twenty-five percent of surplus as regards policyholders as of December thirty-first next preceding.
    - (2) With respect to life insurance companies, three percent of the insurance company's admitted assets as of December thirty-first next preceding.
  - b. Loans or extensions of credit to any person who is not an affiliate, where the insurance company makes the loans or extensions of credit with the agreement or understanding that the proceeds of the transactions, in whole or in substantial part, are to be used to make loans or extensions of credit to, to purchase assets of, or to make investments in any affiliate of the insurance company making the loans or extensions of credit provided the transactions are equal to or exceed:
    - (1) With respect to nonlife insurance companies, the lesser of three percent of the insurance company's admitted assets or twenty-five percent of surplus as regards policyholders as of December thirty-first next preceding.
    - (2) With respect to life insurance companies, three percent of the insurance company's admitted assets as of December thirty-first next preceding.

- c. Reinsurance agreements or modifications thereto in which the reinsurance premium or a change in the insurance company's liabilities equals or exceeds five percent of the insurance company's surplus as regards policyholders, as of December thirty-first next preceding, including those agreements which may require as consideration the transfer of assets from an insurance company to a nonaffiliate, if an agreement or understanding exists between the insurance company and nonaffiliate that any portion of such assets will be transferred to one or more affiliates of the insurance company.
- d. All management agreements, service contracts, and all cost-sharing arrangements.
- e. Any material transactions, specified by rule, which the commissioner determines may adversely affect the interests of the insurance company's policyholders.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit any transactions which, in the case of an insurance company which is not a member of the same holding company system, would be otherwise contrary to law.

- 3. A domestic insurance company may not enter into transactions which are part of a plan or series of like transactions with persons within the holding company system if the purpose of those separate transactions is to avoid the statutory threshold amount and thus avoid the review that would occur otherwise. If the commissioner determines that the separate transactions were entered into over any twelve-month period for that purpose, he may exercise his authority under the penalty sections of this chapter.
- 4. The commissioner, in reviewing transactions pursuant to subsection 2 shall consider whether the transactions comply with the standards set forth in subsection 1 and whether they may adversely affect the interests of the policyholders.
- 5. The commissioner must be notified within thirty days of any investment of the domestic insurance company in any one corporation if the total investment in that corporation by the insurance holding company system exceeds ten percent of the corporation's voting securities.
- ~~2-~~ 6. For purposes of this chapter, in determining whether an insurance company's surplus as regards policyholders is reasonable in relation to the insurance company's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs, the following factors, among others, must be considered:
  - a. The size of the insurance company as measured by its assets, capital and surplus, reserves, premium writings, insurance in force, and other appropriate criteria.
  - b. The extent to which the insurance company's business is diversified among the several lines of insurance.
  - c. The number and size of risks insured in each line of business.

- d. The extent of the geographical dispersion of the insurance company's insured risks.
  - e. The nature and extent of the insurance company's reinsurance program.
  - f. The quality, diversification, and liquidity of the insurance company's investment portfolio.
  - g. The recent past and projected future trend in the size of the insurance company's surplus as regards policyholders investment portfolio.
  - h. The surplus as regards policyholders maintained by other comparable insurance companies.
  - i. The adequacy of the insurance company's reserves.
  - j. The quality and liquidity of investments in subsidiaries made pursuant to section 26.1-10-02. The commissioner may treat the investment as a disallowed asset for purposes of determining the adequacy of surplus as regards policyholders whenever in the commissioner's judgment the investment so warrants.
- ~~3-~~ 7. An insurance company subject to registration under section 26.1-10-04 may not pay any extraordinary dividend or make any other extraordinary distribution to its shareholders until:
- a. Thirty days after the commissioner has received notice of the declaration thereof and has not within such period disapproved the payment; or
  - b. The commissioner has approved the payment within the thirty-day period.
- ~~4-~~ 8. For purposes of this section, an extraordinary dividend or distribution includes any dividend or distribution of cash or other property, where the fair market value together with that of other dividends or distributions made within the preceding twelve months exceeds the greater of:
- a. Ten percent of the insurance company's surplus as regards policyholders as of December thirty-first next preceding; or
  - b. The net gain from operations of the insurance company, if the company is a life insurance company, or the net investment income, if the company is not a life insurance company, for the twelve-month period ending December thirty-first next preceding, but may not include pro rata distributions of any class of the insurance company's own securities.

In determining whether a dividend or distribution is extraordinary, an insurance company other than a life insurance company may carry forward net income from the previous two calendar years that has not already been paid out as dividends. This carryforward shall be computed by taking the net income from the second and third preceding calendar years, not including realized capital gains, less dividends paid in the second and immediate preceding calendar years.

- 5- 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an insurance company may declare an extraordinary dividend or distribution which is conditional upon the commissioner's approval thereof, and the declaration confers no rights upon shareholders until:
- a. The commissioner has approved the payment of the dividend or distribution; or
  - b. The commissioner has not disapproved the payment within the thirty-day period referred to in subsection 3.

26.1-10-10. Receivership. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed a violation of this chapter which so impairs the financial condition of a domestic insurance company as to threaten insolvency or make the further transaction of business by it hazardous to its policyholders, creditors, shareholders, or the public, then the commissioner may proceed as provided in chapter ~~26-1-07~~ 26.1-06.1 to take possession of the property of the insurance company and to carry on its business.

SECTION 8. Section 26.1-10-10.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

26.1-10-10.1. Recovery.

1. Subject to other limitations of this section, if an order for liquidation, conservation, or rehabilitation of a domestic insurance company has been entered, and if distribution of payment identified in subdivisions a or b are made at any time during the one year preceding the petition for liquidation, conservation, or rehabilitation, the receiver appointed under the order may recover on behalf of the insurance company:
  - a. From any parent corporation or holding company or person or affiliate who otherwise controlled the insurance company, the amount of distributions other than distributions of shares of the same class of stock, paid by the insurance company on its capital stock; or
  - b. Any payment in the form of a bonus, termination settlement, or extraordinary lump sum salary adjustment made by the insurance company or its subsidiaries to a director, officer, or employee.
2. A distribution may not be recovered if the parent or affiliate shows that, when paid, the distribution was lawful and reasonable, and that the insurance company did not know and could not reasonably have known that the distribution might adversely affect the ability of the insurance company to fulfill its contractual obligations.

3. Any person who was a parent corporation or holding company or a person who otherwise controlled the insurance company or affiliate at the time the distributions were paid is liable up to the amount of distributions or payments under subsection 1 the person received. Any person who otherwise controlled the insurance company at the time the distributions were declared is liable up to the amount of distributions the person would have received if the person had been paid immediately. If two or more persons are liable with respect to the same distributions, they shall be jointly and severally liable.
4. The maximum amount recoverable under this subsection is the amount needed in excess of all other available assets of the impaired or insolvent insurance company to pay the contractual obligations of the impaired or insolvent insurance company and to reimburse any guaranty funds.
5. To the extent that any person liable under subsection 3 is insolvent or otherwise fails to pay claims due from it pursuant to subsection 3, its parent corporation or holding company or person who otherwise controlled it at the time the distribution was paid, shall be jointly and severally liable for any resulting deficiency in the amount recovered from the parent corporation or holding company or person who otherwise controlled it.

26.1-10-11. Criminal proceedings - Penalty.

1. Any insurance company failing, without just cause, to file any registration statement as required in this chapter shall be required, after notice and hearing, to pay a penalty of one hundred dollars for each day's delay. The commissioner may reduce the penalty if the insurance company demonstrates to the commissioner that the imposition of the penalty would constitute a financial hardship to the insurance company.
2. Every director or officer of an insurance holding company system who knowingly violates, participates in, or assents to, or who knowingly permits any of the officers or agents of the insurance company to engage in transactions or make investments which have not been properly reported or submitted pursuant to sections 26.1-10-04 and 26.1-10-05, or which violate this chapter, shall pay, in their individual capacity, a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars per violation, after notice and hearing before the commissioner. In determining the amount of the civil penalty, the commissioner shall take into account the appropriateness of the penalty with respect to the gravity of the violation, the history of previous violations, and such other matters as justice may require.
3. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any insurance company subject to this chapter or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof has engaged in any transaction or entered into a contract which is subject to section 26.1-10-05 and which would not have been approved had such approval been requested, the commissioner may order the insurance company to cease and desist immediately any further activity under that transaction or contract. After notice and hearing, the commissioner may also order the insurance company to void the contracts and restore the status quo it if is in the best interest of the policyholders, creditors, or the public.

4. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any insurance company or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof has committed a willful violation of this chapter, the commissioner may institute criminal proceedings in the district court of the county in which the principal office of the insurance company is located or if the insurance company has no principal office in the state, then in the district court of Burleigh County against the insurance company or the responsible director, officer, employee, or agent of the company. Any insurance company ~~which~~ that willfully violates this chapter is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. Any individual who willfully violates this chapter is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.
5. Any officer, director, or employee of an insurance holding company system who willfully and knowingly subscribes to or makes or causes to be made any false statements or false reports or false filings with the intent to deceive the commissioner in the performance of his duties under this chapter, may have criminal proceedings instituted against them. Any individual who violates this chapter is guilty of a class A misdemeanor. Any fines imposed shall be paid by the officer, director, or employee in their individual capacity.

26.1-26.2-01. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "Affiliate" means a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is under the control of, or is under common control with, the person specified.
2. "Control" or "controlled" means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise. No person may be deemed to control another person solely by reason of being an officer or director of that person.
  - a. Control is presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing ten percent or more of the voting securities of any other person. This presumption may be rebutted upon filing with the commissioner by any person a disclaimer of control of any authorized insurance company. The disclaimer must fully disclose all material relationships and basis for affiliation between the person and the insurance company as well as the basis for disclaiming control. After a disclaimer has been filed, the person is relieved of any duty

- to register or report under this chapter which arises out of the person's relationship with the insurance company unless and until the commissioner disallows the disclaimer. The commissioner shall disallow the disclaimer only after furnishing all parties in interest with notice and opportunity to be heard and after making specific findings of fact to support the disallowance.
- b. The commissioner may determine, after furnishing all persons in interest notice and opportunity to be heard and making specific findings of fact to support the determination, that control exists in fact, notwithstanding the absence of a presumption to that effect. The commissioner may prospectively revoke or modify the determination after notice and opportunity to be heard, whenever in the commissioner's judgment, revocation or modification is consistent with this chapter.
3. "Independent casualty actuary" means a casualty actuary who is a member of the American academy of actuaries and who is not affiliated with, nor an employee, principal, nor the direct or indirect owner of, or in any way controlled by the insurer or insurance broker.
4. "Licensed property/casualty insurer" or "insurer" means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed to transact a property/casualty insurance business in this state and which issues policies covered by chapter 26.1-42. The following, inter alia, are not licensed property/casualty insurers for the purposes of this chapter:
- a. All nonadmitted insurers;
- b. All risk retention groups as defined in the Superfund Amendments Reauthorization Act of 1986 [Pub. L. No. 99-499, 100 Stat. 1613 (1986)], the Risk Retention Act [15 U.S.C. section 3901 et seq. (1982 & Supp. 1986)], and chapter 26.1-46;
- c. All residual market pools and joint underwriting authorities or associations; and
- d. All captive insurers including insurance companies owned by another organization whose exclusive purpose is to insure risks of the parent organization and affiliated companies or, in the case of groups and associations, insurance organizations owned by the insureds whose exclusive purpose is to insure risks of member organizations or group members and their affiliates.
5. "Reinsurance intermediary" means any person, firm, association, or corporation who acts as an insurance broker in soliciting, negotiating, or procuring the making of any reinsurance contract or binder on behalf of a ceding insurer or acts as an insurance broker in accepting any reinsurance contract or binder on behalf of an assuming insurer.
6. "Violation" means a finding by the commissioner that:

- a. The controlling insurance broker did not materially comply with section 26.1-26.2-02;
- b. The controlled insurer, with respect to business placed by the controlling insurance broker, engaged in a pattern of charging premiums that were lower than those being charged by the insurer or other insurers for similar risks written during the same period and placed by noncontrolling insurance brokers. When determining whether premiums were lower than those prevailing in the market, the commissioner shall take into consideration applicable industry or actuarial standards at the time the business was written;
- c. The controlling insurance broker failed to maintain records, sufficient:
  - (1) To demonstrate that the insurance broker's dealings with its controlled insurer were fair and equitable and in compliance with chapter 26.1-10; and
  - (2) To accurately disclose the nature and details of its transactions with the controlled insurer, including information as is necessary to support the charges or fees to the respective parties;
- d. The controlled insurer, with respect to business placed by the controlling insurance broker, either failed to establish or deviated from its underwriting procedures;
- e. The controlled insurer's capitalization, at the time the business was placed by the controlling insurance broker, was not in compliance with the requirements of this title; or
- f. The controlling insurance broker or the controlled insurer failed to substantially comply with chapter 26.1-10 and any rules relative thereto.

26.1-26.2-02. Limitation on business placed with controlled insurer.

1. No insurance broker which has control of a licensed property/casualty insurer may directly or indirectly place business with that insurer in any transaction in which the insurance broker, at the time the business is placed, is acting as such on behalf of the insured for any compensation, commission, or other thing of value, unless:
  - a. There is a written contract between the controlling insurance broker and the insurer, which contract has been approved by the board of directors of the insurer;
  - b. The insurance broker, prior to the effective date of the policy, delivers written notice to the prospective insured disclosing the relationship between the insurance broker and the controlling insurer and obtains the prospective insured's signature on the disclosure. The signed disclosure must be retained in the underwriting file until the filing of the report on examination covering the period in which the coverage

- is in effect. Except that, if the business is placed through a subinsurance broker who is not a controlling insurance broker, the controlling insurance broker shall retain a signed commitment from the subinsurance broker that the subinsurance broker is aware of the relationship between the insurer and the insurance broker and that the subinsurance broker has or will notify the insured;
- c. All funds collected for the account of the insurer by the controlling insurance broker must be paid, net of commissions, cancellations, and other adjustments, to the insurer no less often than quarterly;
  - d. In addition to any other required loss reserve certification, the controlled insurer shall annually, on March first of each year, file with the commissioner an opinion of an independent casualty actuary, or other independent loss reserve specialist acceptable to the commissioner, reporting loss ratios for each line of business written and attesting to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding as of year end on business placed by the insurance broker;
  - e. The controlled insurer shall annually report to the commissioner the amount of commissions paid to the insurance broker, the percentage that amount represents of the net premiums written, and comparable amounts and percentage paid to noncontrolling insurance brokers for placements of the same kinds of insurance; and
  - f. Every controlled insurer shall have an audit committee of the board of directors composed of independent directors. Prior to approval of the annual financial statement, the audit committee shall meet with management, the insurer's independent certified public accountants, and an independent casualty actuary, or other independent loss reserve specialist acceptable to the commissioner to review the adequacy of the insurer's loss reserves.
2. No reinsurance intermediary which has control of an assuming insurer may directly or indirectly place business with the insurer in any transaction in which the reinsurance intermediary is acting as a broker on behalf of the ceding insurer. No reinsurance intermediary which has control of a ceding insurer may directly or indirectly accept business from that insurer in any transaction in which the reinsurance intermediary is acting as an insurance broker on behalf of the assuming insurer. The prohibitions in this subsection do not apply to a reinsurance intermediary which makes a full and complete written disclosure to the parties of its relationship with the assuming or ceding insurer prior to completion of the transaction.

26.1-26.2-03. Liability of controlling insurance broker in the event of insolvency of controlled insurer.

If the commissioner has reason to believe that a controlling insurance broker has committed or is committing an act which could be determined to be a violation, and that the violation substantially contributed to the insolvency of a controlled insurer, the commissioner or receiver may maintain a civil action against the controlling insurance broker for all damages caused by the insurance broker's acts.

26.1-26.2-04. Administrative penalties. In addition to any other remedies provided herein, whenever it appears to the commissioner that a person has committed or is committing an act that could be determined to be a violation, the commissioner may institute a proceeding under chapter 28-32. After the hearing, the commissioner may order one or both of the following:

1. That the person permanently cease and desist from committing the acts found to be in violation of this chapter.
2. Payment of a penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each and every act or violation.

This Section does not affect the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided for in title 26.1.

26.1-26.2-05. Third party remedies unaffected.

1. This chapter is not intended to and does not in any manner alter or affect the rights of policyholders, claimants, creditors, or other third parties.
2. This chapter is not intended to and does not in any manner create a defense to any claim of, or alter or affect the rights of, a receiver, existing in law or otherwise, to maintain a civil action against any person for all damages caused by that person's acts.

SECTION 11. Chapter 26.1-26.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

26.1-26.3-01. Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. "Actuary" means a person who is a member in good standing of the American academy of actuaries.
2. "Insurer" means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed in this state as an insurance company pursuant to this title.
3. "Managing general agent" means any individual, partnership, or corporation which:
  - a. Negotiates and binds ceding reinsurance contracts on behalf of an insurer or manages all or part of the insurance business of an insurer including the management of a separate division, department, or underwriting office, and acts as an agent for the insurer whether known as a managing general agent, manager, or other similar term, who, with or without the authority, either separately or together with affiliates, produces, directly or indirectly, and underwrites an amount of gross direct written premium equal to or more than five percent of the policyholder surplus as reported in the last annual statement of the insurer in any one quarter or year, and who either:

- (1) Adjusts or pays claims in excess of an amount determined by the commissioner; or
- (2) Negotiates reinsurance on behalf of the insurer.

b. Notwithstanding the above, the following persons will not be considered as managing general agents for the purposes of this chapter:

- (1) An employee of the insurer.
- (2) A United States manager of the United States branch of an alien insurer.
- (3) An underwriting manager which, pursuant to contract, manages all the insurance operations of the insurer, is under common control with the insurer, subject to chapter 26.1-10, and whose compensation is not based on the volume of premiums written.
- (4) The attorney-in-fact authorized by and acting for the subscribers of a reciprocal insurer or interinsurance exchange under powers of attorney.

4. "Underwrite" means the authority to accept or reject risk on behalf of the insurer.

26.1-26.3-02. Licensure.

1. No individual, partnership, or corporation may act in the capacity of a managing general agent with respect to risks located in this state for an insurer licensed in this state unless the individual, partnership, or corporation is licensed as an insurance agent in this state.
2. An individual, partnership, or corporation may not act in the capacity of a managing general agent representing an insurer domiciled in this state with respect to risks located outside this state unless the individual, partnership, or corporation is licensed as either a resident or nonresident insurance agent in this state pursuant to the provisions of this title.
3. The commissioner may require a bond in an amount acceptable to him for the protection of the insurer.
4. The commissioner may require the managing general agent to maintain an adequate errors and omissions policy.

26.1-26.3-03. Required contract provisions. No individual, partnership, or corporation acting in the capacity of a managing general agent shall place business with an insurer unless there is in force a written contract between the parties which sets forth the responsibilities of each party and where both parties share responsibility for a particular function, specifies the division of the responsibilities, and which contains the following minimum provisions:

1. The insurer may terminate the contract for cause upon written notice to the managing general agent. The insurer may suspend the underwriting authority of the managing general agent during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.
2. The managing general agent will render accounts to the insurer detailing all transactions and remit all funds due under the contract to the insurer on not less than a monthly basis.
3. All funds collected for the account of an insurer will be held by the managing general agent in a fiduciary capacity in a bank which is a member of the federal reserve system. This account must be used for all payments on behalf of the insurer. The managing general agent may retain no more than three months estimated claims payments and allocated loss adjustment expenses.
4. Separate records of business written by the managing general agent will be maintained. The insurer shall have access and right to copy all accounts and records related to its business in a form usable by the insurer and the commissioner shall have access to all books, bank accounts, and records of the managing general agent in a form usable to the commissioner.
5. The contract may not be assigned in whole or in part by the managing general agent.
6. Appropriate underwriting guidelines including:
  - a. The maximum annual premium volume;
  - b. The basis of the rates to be charges;
  - c. The types of risks which may be written;
  - d. Maximum limits of liability;
  - e. Applicable exclusions;
  - f. Territorial limitations;
  - g. Policy cancellation provisions; and
  - h. The maximum policy period.
7. If the contract permits the managing general agent to settle claims on behalf of the insurer:
  - a. All claims must be reported to the company in a timely manner.
  - b. A copy of the claim file must be sent to the insurer at its request or as soon as it becomes known that the claim:

- (1) Has the potential to exceed an amount determined by the commissioner or exceeds the limit set by the company, whichever is less;
    - (2) Involves a coverage dispute;
    - (3) May exceed the managing general agent's claims settlement authority;
    - (4) Is open for more than six months; or
    - (5) Is closed by payment of an amount set by the commissioner or an amount set by the company, whichever is less.
  - c. All claims files will be the joint property of the insurer and managing general agent. However, upon an order of liquidation of the insurer, the files shall become the sole property of the insurer or its estate; the managing general agent shall have reasonable access to and the right to copy the files on a timely basis.
  - d. Any settlement authority granted to the managing general agent may be terminated for cause upon the insurer's written notice to the managing general agent or upon the termination of the contract. The insurer may suspend the settlement authority during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.
8. Where electronic claims files are in existence, the contract must address the timely transmission of the data.
9. If the contract provides for a sharing of interim profits by the managing general agent, and the managing general agent has the authority to determine the amount of the interim profits by establishing loss reserves or controlling claim payments, or in any other manner, interim profits will not be paid to the managing general agent until one year after they are earned for property insurance business and five years after they are earned on casualty business and not until the profits have been verified pursuant to section 26.1-26.3-04.
10. The managing general agent may not:
- a. Bind reinsurance or retrocessions on behalf of the insurer, except that the managing general agent may bind facultative reinsurance contracts pursuant to obligatory facultative agreements if the contract with the insurer contains reinsurance underwriting guidelines including, for both reinsurance assumed and ceded, a list of reinsurers with which such automatic agreements are in effect, the coverages, and amounts or percentages that may be reinsured and commission schedules.
  - b. Commit the insurer to participate in insurance or reinsurance syndicates.

- c. Appoint any agent without assuring that the agent is licensed in the appropriate lines of insurance.
- d. Without prior approval of the insurer, pay or commit the insurer to pay a claim over a specified amount, net of reinsurance, which may not exceed one percent of the insurer's policyholder's surplus as of December thirty-first of the last completed calendar year.
- e. Collect any payment from a reinsurer or commit the insurer to any claim settlement with a reinsurer without prior approval of the insurer. If prior approval is given, a report must be promptly forwarded to the insurer.
- f. Permit its subagent to serve on the insurer's board of directors.
- g. Jointly employ an individual who is employed with the insurer.
- h. Appoint a submanaging general agent.

26.1-26.3-04. Duties of insurers.

1. The insurer must have on file, in a form acceptable to the commissioner, an independent financial examination of each managing general agent with which it has done business.
2. If a managing general agent establishes loss reserves, the insurer must annually obtain the opinion of an actuary attesting to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding on business produced by the managing general agent. This is in addition to any other required loss reserve certification.
3. The insurer must periodically and at least semiannually conduct an onsite review of the underwriting and claims processing operations of the managing general agent.
4. Binding authority for all reinsurance contracts or participation in insurance or reinsurance syndicates shall rest with an officer of the insurer, who may not be affiliated with the managing general agent.
5. Within thirty days of entering into or termination of a contract with a managing general agent, the insurer must provide written notification of the appointment or termination to the commissioner. Notices of appointment of a managing general agent must include a statement of duties which the applicant is expected to perform on behalf of the insurer, the lines of insurance for which the applicant is to be authorized to act, and any other information the commissioner may request.
6. An insurer shall review its books and records each quarter to determine if any of its agents have become, by operation of subsection 3 of section 26.1-26.3-01, a managing general agent as defined in that section. If the insurer determines that an agent has become a managing general agent pursuant to the above, the insurer shall promptly notify the agent and the commissioner of the determination and the insurer and agent must fully comply with the provisions of this Act within thirty days.

7. An insurer may not appoint to its board of directors an officer, director, employee, subagent, or controlling shareholder of its managing general agents. This subsection does not apply to relationships governed by chapter 26.1-10.

26.1-26.3-05. Examination authority. The acts of the managing general agent are considered to be the acts of the insurer on whose behalf it is acting. A managing general agent may be examined as if it were the insurer.

26.1-26.3-06. Penalties and liabilities.

1. If the commissioner finds after a hearing conducted in accordance with chapter 28-32 that any person has violated any provision of this chapter, the commissioner may order:
  - a. For each separate violation, a penalty in an amount of one thousand dollars;
  - b. Revocation or suspension of the agent's license; and
  - c. The managing general agent to reimburse the insurer, the rehabilitator, or liquidator of the insurer for any losses incurred by the insurer caused by a violation of this chapter committed by the managing general agent.
2. Nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided for in the insurance law.
3. Nothing contained in this chapter is intended to or shall in any manner limit or restrict the rights of policyholders, claimants, and auditors.

26.1-26.3-07. Rulemaking authority. The commissioner of insurance may adopt reasonable rules for the implementation and administration of the provisions of this chapter.

SECTION 12. Chapter 26.1-31.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

26.1-31.1-01. Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. "Actuary" means a person who is a member in good standing of the American academy of actuaries.
2. "Controlling person" means any person, firm, association, or corporation who directly or indirectly has the power to direct or cause to be directed, the management, control, or activities of the reinsurance intermediary.
3. "Insurer" means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed in this state pursuant to the applicable provisions of the insurance law as an insurer.

4. "Licensed producer" means an agent, broker, or reinsurance intermediary licensed pursuant to the applicable provision of this title.
5. "Qualified United States financial institution" means an institution that:
  - a. Is organized or in the case of a United States office of a foreign banking organization, is licensed, under the laws of the United States or any state thereof;
  - b. Is regulated, supervised, and examined by United States federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies; and
  - c. Has been determined by either the commissioner, or the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners, to meet standards of financial condition and standing considered necessary and appropriate to regulate the quality of financial institutions whose letters of credit will be acceptable to the commissioner.
6. "Reinsurance intermediary" means a reinsurance intermediary-broker or a reinsurance intermediary-manager as these terms are defined in subsections 7 and 8 of this section.
7. "Reinsurance intermediary-broker" means any person, other than an officer or employee of the ceding insurer, firm, association, or corporation who solicits, negotiates, or places reinsurance cessions or retrocessions on behalf of a ceding insurer without the authority or power to bind reinsurance on behalf of such insurer.
8. "Reinsurance intermediary-manager" means any person, firm, association, or corporation who has authority to bind or manages all or part of the assumed reinsurance business of a reinsurer including the management of a separate division, department, or underwriting office, and acts as an agent for the reinsurer whether known as a reinsurance intermediary-manager, manager, or other similar term. Notwithstanding this definition, the following persons shall not be considered a reinsurance intermediary-manager, with respect to such reinsurer, for the purposes of this chapter:
  - a. An employee of the reinsurer.
  - b. A United States manager of the United States branch of an alien reinsurer.
  - c. An underwriting manager which, pursuant to contract, manages all the reinsurance operations of the reinsurer, is under common control with the reinsurer and be subject to chapter 26.1-10, and whose compensation is not based on the volume of premiums written.
  - d. The manager of a group, association, pool, or organization of insurers which engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance and who are subject to examination by the insurance commissioner of the state in which the manager's principal business office is located.

9. "Reinsurer" means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed in this state pursuant to the applicable provisions of this title as an insurer with the authority to assume reinsurance.

10. "To be in violation" means that the reinsurance intermediary, insurer, or reinsurer for whom the reinsurance intermediary was acting failed to substantially comply with the provisions of this chapter.

26.1-31.1-02. Licensure.

1. No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act as a reinsurance intermediary-broker in this state if the reinsurance intermediary-broker maintains an office either directly or as a member or employee of a firm or association, or an officer, director, or employee of a corporation:

a. In this state, unless the reinsurance intermediary-broker is a licensed producer in this state; or

b. In another state, unless the reinsurance intermediary-broker is a licensed producer in this state or another state having a law substantially similar to this law or such reinsurance intermediary-broker is licensed in this state as a nonresident reinsurance intermediary.

2. No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act as a reinsurance intermediary-manager:

a. For a reinsurer domiciled in this state, unless the reinsurance intermediary-manager is a licensed producer in this state.

b. In this state, if the reinsurance intermediary-manager maintains an office either directly or as a member or employee of a firm or association, or as an officer, director or employee of a corporation in this state, unless the reinsurance intermediary-manager is a licensed producer in this state.

c. In another state for a nondomestic insurer, unless the reinsurance intermediary-manager is a licensed producer in this state or another state having a law substantially similar to this law or the person is licensed in this state as a nonresident reinsurance intermediary.

3. The commissioner may require a reinsurance intermediary-manager subject to subsection 2 to:

a. File a bond in an amount from an insurer acceptable to the commissioner for the protection of the reinsurer; and

b. Maintain an errors and omissions policy in an amount acceptable to the commissioner.

4. a. The commissioner may issue a reinsurance intermediary license to any person, firm, association, or corporation who has complied with the requirements of this chapter. Any such license issued to a firm or association will authorize all the members of the firm or association and any designated employees to act as reinsurance intermediaries under the license, and all such persons shall be named in the application and any supplements thereto. Any such license issued to a corporation shall authorize all of the officers and any designated employees and directors thereof to act as reinsurance intermediaries on behalf of the corporation, and all such persons shall be named in the application and any supplements thereto.
- b. If the applicant for a reinsurance intermediary license is a nonresident, the applicant, as a condition precedent to receiving or holding a license, shall designate the commissioner as agent for service of process in the manner, and with the same legal effect, provided for by this title for designation of service of process upon unauthorized insurers. The applicant shall also furnish the commissioner with the name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting the nonresident reinsurance intermediary may be served. The licensee shall promptly notify the commissioner in writing of every change in its designated agent for service of process, and the changes shall not become effective until acknowledged by the commissioner.
5. The commissioner may refuse to issue a reinsurance intermediary license if, in the commissioner's judgment, the applicant, any one named on the application, or any member, principal, officer or director of the applicant, is not trustworthy, or that any controlling person of the applicant is not trustworthy to act as a reinsurance intermediary, or that any of the foregoing has given cause for revocation or suspension of the license, or has failed to comply with any prerequisite for the issuance of such license. Upon written request therefor, the commissioner will furnish a summary of the basis for refusal to issue a license.

26.1-31.1-03. Required contract provisions - Reinsurance intermediary-brokers. Transactions between a reinsurance intermediary-broker and the insurer it represents in such capacity shall only be entered into, pursuant to a written authorization, specifying the responsibilities of each party. The authorization shall, at a minimum, contain provisions that:

1. The insurer may terminate the reinsurance intermediary-broker's authority at any time.
2. The reinsurance intermediary-broker will render accounts to the insurer accurately detailing all material transactions, including information necessary to support all commissions, charges, and other fees received by, or owing, to the reinsurance intermediary-broker, and remit all funds due to the insurer within thirty days of receipt.

3. All funds collected for the insurer's account will be held by the reinsurance intermediary-broker in a fiduciary capacity in a bank which is a qualified United States financial institution as defined by this chapter.
4. The reinsurance intermediary-broker will comply with section 26.1-31.1-04 of this chapter.
5. The reinsurance intermediary-broker will comply with the written standards established by the insurer for the cessions or retrocession of all risks.
6. The reinsurance intermediary-broker will disclose to the insurer any relationship with any reinsurer to which business will be ceded or retroceded.

26.1-31.1-04. Books and records - Reinsurance intermediary-brokers.

1. For at least ten years after expiration of each contract of reinsurance transacted by the reinsurance intermediary-broker, the reinsurance intermediary-broker will keep a complete record for each transaction showing:
  - a. The type of contract, limits, underwriting restrictions, classes or risks and territory;
  - b. Period of coverage, including the effective date and the expiration date, cancellation provisions and notice required of cancellation;
  - c. Reporting and settlement requirements of balances;
  - d. Rate used to compute the reinsurance premium;
  - e. Names and addresses of assuming reinsurers;
  - f. Rates of all reinsurance commissions, including the commissions on any retrocessions handled by the reinsurance intermediary-broker;
  - g. Related correspondence and memoranda;
  - h. Proof of placement;
  - i. Details regarding retrocessions handled by the reinsurance intermediary-broker including the identity of retrocessionaires and percentage of each contract assumed or ceded;
  - j. Financial records, including but not limited to, premium and loss accounts; and
  - k. When the reinsurance intermediary-broker procures a reinsurance contract on behalf of a licensed ceding insurer:
    - (1) Directly from any assuming reinsurer, written evidence that the assuming reinsurer has agreed to assume the risk; or

(2) If placed through a representative of the assuming reinsurer, other than an employee, written evidence that the reinsurer has delegated binding authority to the representative.

2. The insurer will have access and the right to copy and audit all accounts and records maintained by the reinsurance intermediary-broker related to its business in a form usable by the insurer.

26.1-31.1-05. Duties of insurers utilizing the services of reinsurance intermediary-broker.

1. An insurer shall not engage the services of any person, firm, association, or corporation to act as a reinsurance intermediary-broker on its behalf unless the person, firm, association, or corporation is licensed as required by subsection 1 of section 26.1-31.1-02.

2. An insurer may not employ an individual who is employed by a reinsurance intermediary-broker with which it transacts business, unless the reinsurance intermediary-broker is under common control with the insurer and subject to chapter 26.1-10.

3. The insurer shall annually obtain a copy of statements of the financial condition of each reinsurance intermediary-broker with which it transacts business.

26.1-31.1-06. Required contract provisions - Reinsurance intermediary-managers. Transactions between a reinsurance intermediary-manager and the reinsurer it represents in that capacity shall only be entered into pursuant to a written contract, approved by the reinsurer's board of directors, which specifies the responsibilities of each party. At least thirty days before the reinsurer assumes or cedes business through the producer, a true copy of the approved contract shall be filed with the commissioner for approval. The contract shall, at a minimum, contain provisions that:

1. The reinsurer may terminate the contract for cause upon written notice to the reinsurance intermediary-manager. The reinsurer may suspend the authority of the reinsurance intermediary-manager to assume or cede business during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.

2. The reinsurance intermediary-manager will render accounts to the reinsurer accurately detailing all material transactions, including information necessary to support all commissions, charges, and other fees received by, or owing to the reinsurance intermediary-manager, and remit all funds due under the contract to the reinsurer on not less than a monthly basis.

3. All funds collected for the reinsurer's account will be held by the reinsurance intermediary-manager in a fiduciary capacity in a bank which is a qualified United States financial institution as defined by this chapter. The reinsurance intermediary-manager may retain no more than three months estimated claims payments and allocated loss adjustment expenses. The reinsurance intermediary-manager

- shall maintain a separate bank account for each reinsurer that it represents.
4. For at least ten years after expiration of each contract of reinsurance transacted by the reinsurance intermediary-manager, the reinsurance intermediary-manager will keep a complete record for each transaction showing:
    - a. The type of contract, limits, underwriting restrictions, classes or risks, and territory;
    - b. Period of coverage, including the effective date and the expiration date, cancellation provisions and notice required of cancellation, and disposition of outstanding reserves on covered risks;
    - c. Reporting and settlement requirements of balances;
    - d. Rate used to compute the reinsurance premium;
    - e. Names and addresses of reinsurers;
    - f. Rate of all reinsurance commissions, including the commissions on any retrocessions handled by the reinsurance intermediary-manager;
    - g. Related correspondence and memoranda;
    - h. Proof of placement;
    - i. Details regarding retrocessions handled by the reinsurance intermediary-manager, as permitted by subsection 4 of section 26.1-31.1-08, including the identity of retrocessionaires and percentage of each contract assumed or ceded;
    - j. Financial records, including but not limited to, premium and loss accounts; and
    - k. When the reinsurance intermediary-manager places a reinsurance contract on behalf of a ceding insurer:
      - (1) Directly from any assuming reinsurer, written evidence that the assuming reinsurer has agreed to assume the risk; or
      - (2) If placed through a representative of the assuming reinsurer, other than an employee, written evidence that the reinsurer has delegated binding authority to the representative.
  5. The reinsurer will have access and the right to copy all accounts and records maintained by the reinsurance intermediary-manager related to its business in a form usable by the reinsurer.
  6. The contract cannot be assigned in whole or in part by the reinsurance intermediary-manager.

7. The reinsurance intermediary-manager will comply with the written underwriting and rating standards established by the insurer for the acceptance, rejection, or cession of all risks.
8. Set forth the rates, terms, and purposes of commissions, charges, and other fees which the reinsurance intermediary-manager may levy against the reinsurer.
9. If the contract permits the reinsurance intermediary-manager to settle claims on behalf of the reinsurer:
  - a. All claims will be reported to the reinsurer in a timely manner.
  - b. A copy of the claim file will be sent to the reinsurer at its request or as soon as it becomes known that the claim:
    - (1) Has the potential to exceed the lesser of an amount determined by the commissioner or the limit set by the reinsurer;
    - (2) Involves a coverage dispute;
    - (3) May exceed the reinsurance intermediary-manager's claims settlement authority;
    - (4) Is open for more than six months; or
    - (5) Is closed by payment of the lesser of an amount set by the commissioner or an amount set by the reinsurer.
  - c. All claim files will be the joint property of the reinsurer and reinsurance intermediary-manager. However, upon an order of liquidation of the reinsurer the files shall become the sole property of the reinsurer or its estate; the reinsurance intermediary-manager shall have reasonable access to and the right to copy the files on a timely basis.
  - d. Any settlement authority granted to the reinsurance intermediary-manager may be terminated for cause upon the reinsurer's written notice to the reinsurance intermediary-manager or upon the termination of the contract. The reinsurer may suspend the settlement authority during the pendency of the dispute regarding the cause of termination.
10. If the contract provides for a sharing of interim profits by the reinsurance intermediary-manager, the interim profits will not be paid until one year after the end of each underwriting period for property business and five years after the end of each underwriting period for casualty business, or a later period set by the commissioner for specified lines of insurance, and not until the adequacy of reserves on remaining claims has been verified pursuant to subsection 3 of section 26.1-31.1-08.
11. The reinsurance intermediary-manager will annually provide the reinsurer with a statement of its financial condition prepared by an independent certified public accountant.

12. The reinsurer shall periodically and at least semiannually conduct an onsite review of the underwriting and claims processing operations of the reinsurance intermediary-manager.
13. The reinsurance intermediary-manager will disclose to the reinsurer any relationship it has with any insurer prior to ceding or assuming any business with the insurer pursuant to this contract.
14. The acts of the reinsurance intermediary-manager shall be deemed to be the acts of the reinsurer on whose behalf it is acting.

26.1-31.1-07. Prohibited acts. The reinsurance intermediary-manager shall not:

1. Bind retrocessions on behalf of the reinsurer, except that the reinsurance intermediary-manager may bind facultative retrocessions pursuant to obligatory facultative agreements if the contract with the reinsurer contains reinsurance underwriting guidelines for such retrocessions. The guidelines shall include a list of reinsurers with which the automatic agreements are in effect, and for each such reinsurer, the coverages and amounts or percentages that may be reinsured, and commission schedules.
2. Commit the reinsurer to participate in reinsurance syndicates.
3. Appoint any producer without assuring that the producer is lawfully licensed to transact the type of reinsurance for which he is appointed.
4. Without prior approval of the reinsurer, pay or commit the reinsurer to pay a claim, net of retrocessions, that exceeds the lesser of an amount specified by the reinsurer or one percent of the reinsurer's policyholder's surplus as of December thirty-first of the last complete calendar year.
5. Collect any payment from a retrocessionaire or commit the reinsurer to any claim settlement with a retrocessionaire, without prior approval of the reinsurer. If prior approval is given, a report must be promptly forwarded to the reinsurer.
6. Jointly employ an individual who is employed by the reinsurer.
7. Appoint a subreinsurance intermediary-manager.

26.1-31.1-08. Duties of reinsurers utilizing the services of a reinsurance intermediary-manager.

1. A reinsurer shall not engage the services of any person, firm, association, or corporation to act as a reinsurance intermediary-manager on its behalf unless such person, firm, association, or corporation is licensed as required by subsection 2 of section 26.1-31.1-02 of this chapter.
2. The reinsurer shall annually obtain a copy of statements of the financial condition of each reinsurance intermediary-manager which the reinsurer has engaged, prepared by an independent certified public accountant, in a form acceptable to the commissioner.

3. If a reinsurance intermediary-manager establishes loss reserves, the reinsurer shall annually obtain the opinion of an actuary attesting to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding on business produced by the reinsurance intermediary-manager. This opinion shall be in addition to any other required loss reserve certification.
4. Binding authority for all retrocessional contracts or participation in reinsurance syndicates shall rest with an officer of the reinsurer who shall not be affiliated with the reinsurance intermediary-manager.
5. Within thirty days of termination of a contract with a reinsurance intermediary-manager, the reinsurer shall provide written notification of its termination to the commissioner.
6. A reinsurer shall not appoint to its board of directors, any officer, director, employee, controlling shareholder, or subproducer of its reinsurance intermediary-manager. This subsection shall not apply to relationships governed by chapter 26.1-10.

26.1-31.1-09. Examination authority.

1. A reinsurance intermediary shall be subject to examination by the commissioner. The commissioner shall have access to all books, bank accounts, and records of the reinsurance intermediary in a form usable to the commissioner.
2. A reinsurance intermediary-manager may be examined as if it were the reinsurer.

26.1-31.1-10. Penalties and liabilities.

1. A reinsurance intermediary, insurer, or reinsurer found by the commissioner, after a hearing, to be in violation of any provision of this chapter, shall:
  - a. For each separate violation, pay a penalty in an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars;
  - b. Be subject to revocation or suspension of its license; and
  - c. If a violation was committed by the reinsurance intermediary, the reinsurance intermediary shall make restitution to the insurer, reinsurer, rehabilitator, or liquidator of the insurer or reinsurer for the net losses incurred by the insurer or reinsurer attributable to the violation.
2. Nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided in the insurance law.
3. Nothing contained in this chapter is intended to or shall in any manner limit or restrict the rights of policyholders, claimants, creditors, or other third parties or confer any rights to such persons.

26.1-31.1-11. Rules. The commissioner may adopt reasonable rules for the implementation and administration of the provisions of this chapter.

26.1-31.1-12. Effective date. No insurer or reinsurer may continue to utilize the services of a reinsurance intermediary after the effective date of this chapter unless utilization is in compliance with this chapter.

SECTION 13. Chapter 26.1-31.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

26.1-31.2-01. Credit allowed a domestic ceding insurer. Credit for reinsurance shall be allowed a domestic ceding insurer as either an asset or a deduction from liability on account of reinsurance ceded only when the reinsurer meets the requirements of either subsection 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5. If meeting the requirements of subsection 3 or 4, the requirements of subsection 6 must also be met.

1. Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer which is licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state.
2. Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer which is accredited as a reinsurer in this state. An accredited reinsurer is one which:
  - a. Files with the commissioner evidence of its submission to this state's jurisdiction;
  - b. Submits to this state's authority to examine its books and records;
  - c. Is licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in at least one state, or, in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer, is entered through and licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in at least one state; and
  - d. Files each year by March first with the commissioner a copy of its annual statement filed with the insurance department of its state of domicile and a copy of its most recent audited financial statement; and either
    - (1) Maintains a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount which is not less than twenty million dollars and whose accreditation has not been denied by the commissioner within ninety days of its submission; or
    - (2) Maintains a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount less than twenty million dollars and whose accreditation has been approved by the commissioner.

No credit shall be allowed a domestic ceding insurer if the assuming insurer's accreditation has been revoked by the commissioner after notice and hearing.

3. Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer which is domiciled and licensed in, or in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer, is entered through, a state which employs standards regarding credit for reinsurance substantially similar to those applicable under this statute and the assuming insurer or United States branch of an alien assuming insurer:

- a. Maintains a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount not less than twenty million dollars; and
- b. Submits to the authority of this state to examine its books and records.

Provided, however, that the requirement of subdivision a of subsection 3 does not apply to reinsurance ceded and assumed pursuant to pooling arrangements among insurers in the same holding company system.

4. a. Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer which maintains a trust fund in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in subsection 2 of section 26.1-31.2-03, for the payment of a valid claims of its United States policyholders and ceding insurers, their assigns, and successors in interest. The assuming insurer shall report annually to the commissioner information substantially the same as that required to be reported on the national association of insurance commissioners annual statement form by licensed insurers to enable the commissioner to determine the sufficiency of the trust fund. In the case of a single assuming insurer, the trust shall consist of a trustee account representing the assuming insurer's liabilities attributable to business written in the United States and, in addition, the assuming insurer shall maintain a trustee surplus of not less than twenty million dollars. In the case of a group of individual unincorporated underwriters, the trust shall consist of a trustee account representing the group's liabilities attributable to business written in the United States and, in addition, the group shall maintain a trustee surplus of which one hundred million dollars shall be held jointly for the benefit of United States ceding insurers of any member of the group; and the group shall make available to the commissioner an annual certification of the solvency of each underwriter by the group's domiciliary regulator and its independent public accountants.
- b. In the case of a group of incorporated insurers under common administration which complies with the filing requirements contained in subdivision a, and which is under the supervision of the department of trade and industry of the United Kingdom and submits to this state's authority to examine its books and records and bears the expense of the examination, and which has aggregate policyholders' surplus of ten million dollars; the trust shall be in an amount equal to the group's several liabilities attributable to business written in the United States plus the group shall maintain a joint trustee surplus of which one hundred million dollars shall be held jointly for the benefit of United States ceding insurers of any member of the group, and each member of the group shall make available to the commissioner an annual certification of the member's solvency by the member's domiciliary regulator and its independent public accountant.

- c. The trust must be established in a form approved by the commissioner of insurance. The trust instrument must provide that contested claims must be valid and enforceable upon the final order of any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States. The trust must vest legal title to its assets in the trustees of the trust for its United States policyholders and ceding insurers, their assigns, and successors in interest. The trust and the assuming insurer shall be subject to examination as determined by the commissioner. The trust described herein must remain in effect for as long as the assuming insurer has outstanding obligations due under the reinsurance agreements subject to the trust.
- d. No later than March first of each year the trustees of the trust shall report to the commissioner in writing setting forth the balance of the trust and listing the trust's investments at the preceding year end and shall certify the date of termination of the trust, if so planned, or certify that the trust will not expire prior to the next following December thirty-first.
5. Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4 but only with respect to the insurance of risks located in jurisdictions where the reinsurance is required by applicable law or regulation of that jurisdiction.
6. If the assuming insurer is not licensed or accredited to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state, the credit permitted by subsections 3 and 4 of section 26.1-31.2-01 shall not be allowed unless the assuming insurer agrees in the reinsurance agreements:
- a. In the event of the failure of the assuming insurer to perform its obligations under the terms of the reinsurance agreement, the assuming insurer, at the request of the ceding insurer, shall submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction in any state of the United States, will comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction, and will abide by the final decision of such court or of any appellate court in the event of an appeal; and
  - b. To designate the commissioner or a designated attorney as its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served any lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of the ceding company.

This provision is not intended to conflict with or override the obligation of the parties to a reinsurance agreement to arbitrate their disputes, if such an obligation is created in the agreement.

26.1-31.2-02. Reduction from liability for reinsurance ceded by a domestic insurer to an assuming insurer. A reduction from liability for the reinsurance ceded by a domestic insurer to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of section 26.1-31.2-01 shall be allowed in an amount not exceeding the liabilities carried by the ceding insurer and such reduction shall be in the amount of funds held by or on behalf of the ceding insurer, including funds held in trust for the ceding insurer, under a reinsurance contract with the assuming insurer as security for the payment of obligations thereunder, if the security is held in the United States subject to withdrawal solely by, and under the exclusive control of, the ceding insurer; or, in the case of a trust, held in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in subsection 2 of section 26.1-31.2-03. This security may be in the form of:

1. Cash.
2. Securities listed by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners and qualifying as admitted assets under this state's investment statutes.
3. Clean, irrevocable, and unconditional letters of credit, as defined in subsection 1 of section 26.1-31.2-03, issued or confirmed by a qualified United States institution no later than December thirty-first in respect of the year for which filing is being made, and in the possession of the ceding company on or before the filing date of its annual statement. Letters of credit meeting applicable standards of issuer acceptability as of the dates of their issuance or confirmation shall, notwithstanding the issuing or confirming institution's subsequent failure to meet applicable standards of issuer acceptability, continue to be acceptable as security until their expiration, extension, renewal, modification, or amendment, whichever first occurs.

4. Any other form of security acceptable to the commissioner.

26.1-31.2-03. Qualified United States financial institutions.

1. For purposes of subsection 3 of section 26.1-31.2-02, a "qualified United States financial institution" means an institution that:
  - a. Is organized, or in case of a United States office of a foreign banking organization, is licensed, under the laws of the United States or any state thereof;
  - b. Is regulated, supervised, and examined by United States federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies;
  - c. Has been determined by either the commissioner, or the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners, to meet such standards of financial condition and standing as are considered necessary and appropriate to regulate the quality of financial institutions whose letters of credit will be acceptable to the commissioner.
2. A "qualified United States financial institution" means, for purposes of those provisions of this chapter specifying those institutions that are eligible to act as a fiduciary of a trust, an institution that:

- a. Is organized, or in the case of a United States branch or agency office of a foreign banking organization, is licensed, under the laws of the United States or any state thereof and has been granted authority to operate with fiduciary powers; and
- b. Is regulated, supervised, and examined by federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies.

26.1-31.2-04. Rulemaking authority. The commissioner may adopt reasonable rules for the implementation and administration of this chapter.

26.1-31.2-05. Reinsurance agreements affected. Sections 26.1-31.2-01, 26.1-31.2-02, 26.1-31.2-03, and 26.1-31.2-04 of this chapter apply to all cessions after the effective date of this chapter under reinsurance agreements which have had an inception, anniversary, or renewal date not less than six months after the effective date of this chapter.

SECTION 14. REPEAL. Sections 26.1-07-08, 26.1-07-09, 26.1-07-10, 26.1-07-11, 26.1-07-12, 26.1-07-13, 26.1-07-14, 26.1-07-15, 26.1-07-16, 26.1-07-17, 26.1-07-18, 26.1-07-19, and 26.1-07-20 of the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

COUNTY MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANIES

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 26.1-13-01, 26.1-13-02, and 26.1-13-15 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to organization and territorial limits of a county mutual insurance company.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

26.1-13-01. County mutual insurance company - Organization. A corporation for mutual insurance may be formed in accordance with this chapter by any number of persons, not less than fifty, residing in not more than ~~fifteen~~ twenty counties in this state, who collectively own property of not less than one hundred thousand dollars in value which they desire to insure; or any number of persons, not less than twenty-five, residing in any one county in this state, who collectively own property of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars in value which they desire to insure.

26.1-13-02. Articles of incorporation - Territory of operation - Insurance applications required. Persons desiring to form a county mutual insurance company shall submit to the commissioner a description of the territory of operation and shall submit to the commissioner and to the attorney general the articles of incorporation of the proposed company. The territory of operation is subject to the review and approval of the commissioner. An existing county mutual insurance company that desires to expand its territory of operation shall submit a description of the current territory of operation and proposed territory of operation to the commissioner for review and approval. If merger of two or more county mutual insurance companies is proposed, the commissioner shall determine the territory of operation of the merged company. If the articles are found to comply with this chapter, the commissioner shall approve the articles and the articles must be filed in the office of the secretary of state and a certified copy must be filed with the commissioner. The articles must be signed by the number of persons required to incorporate the company and must be accompanied by sufficient evidence of the execution of bona fide applications for insurance to the number and in the amount stated in section 26.1-13-01. The articles of incorporation must set forth:

1. The name of the company.

2. The name of the city in or near which the business office of the company is to be located.
3. The intended duration of the company, which is perpetual.

26.1-13-15. Territorial limits of county mutual company's operations - Terms of policies - Property insurable. A county mutual insurance company may not insure any property beyond ~~the limits of the~~ its authorized territory ~~comprised in the formation of the company~~ of operation except as provided in subsection 3 of section 26.1-13-12 and except that this territorial limitation does not apply to reinsurance contracts. A policy may not be issued to exceed five years. A policy may not be issued covering property located within the platted limits of any incorporated city in this state unless:

1. The policy issued provides coverage on the actual place of residence occupied by the policyholder and appurtenant structures and the contents thereof as specified in sections 26.1-13-14 and 26.1-13-16 to existing members within the platted limits of any incorporated city in this state; or
2. The policy issued provides coverage specified in sections 26.1-13-14 and 26.1-13-16 on property located within the platted limits of any incorporated city with a population of less than ~~two~~ ~~ten~~ thousand ~~five hundred~~ located within the territory comprised in the formation of the company.

The company may insure all property located outside of incorporated cities within the limits of the territory comprised in the formation of the company. Policies issued on property located within the platted limits of any incorporated city may only cover the actual place of residence occupied by the policyholder and appurtenant structures and the contents thereof and must conform to rules adopted by the commissioner establishing requirements for underwriting risks and safeguarding financial solvency.

A policy issued by the company, if it so provides, may cover loss or damage to livestock, personal property, vehicles, and farm machinery while temporarily removed from the premises of the insured to other locations.

NONPROFIT HEALTH SERVICE CORPORATION DIRECTORS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 26.1-17-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the board of directors for nonprofit health service corporations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

26.1-17-04. Directors - Responsibilities. A board of directors shall manage the business and affairs of a health service corporation. The board is to consist of at least nine members. At least a majority of the directors of a health service corporation writing hospital or medical service contracts under this chapter must be at all times subscribers.

A subscriber director is a director who is a subscriber and who is not a provider of health care, a person who has a material financial or fiduciary interest in the delivery of health care services or a related industry, an employee of an institution that provides health care services, or a spouse or a member of the immediate family of such a person. Nominations for the replacement of subscriber directors must be made by the existing subscriber directors.

A director may serve on the board of only one corporation subject to this chapter at a time.

Population factors, representation of different geographic regions, and the demography of the service area of the corporation subject to this chapter must be considered when making nominations for the board of directors of a corporation subject to this chapter.

A health service corporation may not reimburse or compensate a director for more than necessary and actual expenses for service as a member of the board of directors.

HEALTH SERVICE CORPORATION PRACTITIONER CONTRACTS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 26.1-17-12 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to contract limitations of a health service corporation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

26.1-17-12. Contract limitations. Every Except as provided in this section, every physician, oral surgeon, dentist, or practitioner licensed and registered in the state of North Dakota has the right to contract with any health service corporation for furnishing general or special medical care, dental care, or optometric care, as the case may be, but the governing board of a corporation may refuse to contract or may terminate a contract if the board determines that a physician, oral surgeon, dentist, or practitioner is providing inappropriate or substandard care to the corporation's subscribers. A corporation may not impose any restriction as to the methods of diagnosis or treatment. The private relationship of physician and patient, dentist and patient, or practitioner and patient is to be maintained at all times and the subscriber has the right of free choice in selecting any physician, oral surgeon, dentist, or practitioner.

A health service corporation may, in its discretion, by its articles of incorporation, articles of association, or bylaws, and in its contract with its subscribers, limit the benefits that the corporation will furnish, and may provide for a division of benefits it agrees to furnish into classes or kinds. In the absence of any limitation or division of services, a corporation may provide both general and special medical and surgical, dental, or optometric care benefits, including such service as may necessarily be incident to such care. A corporation may, in its discretion, limit the issuance of contracts as specified in its bylaws.

A dental or optometric service contract by a health service corporation may not provide the payment of any cash indemnification by the corporation to the subscriber or the subscriber's estate on account of death, illness, or other injury.

DENTAL AND OPTOMETRIC SERVICE CONTRACTS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 26.1-17-21 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to limitations on dental and optometric service contracts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

26.1-17-21. Limitations on dental and optometric service contracts. Every subscriber under a dental or optometric service plan must receive a copy of the contract. The contract must clearly state the care, appliances, materials, and supplies to be provided under the contract and the rate charged the subscriber. Every subscriber must have, at all times, free choice of the dentist or practitioner who is to treat the subscriber, and this right must be prominently printed in the contract. Every optometric service contract must provide that a subscriber has the freedom of choice to have the materials and supplies furnished by any practitioner or optician, the cost for which is to be covered in accordance with the terms of the contract. ~~A health service corporation may not enter into any contract, agreement, or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any dentist or practitioner whereby the dentist or practitioner is to render any services to any subscriber, but all such services must be a matter of agreement directly between the patient and the dentist or practitioner selected by the patient to treat the patient.~~

HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATIONS

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsections 14 and 16 of section 26.1-18-03, sections 26.1-18-06, 26.1-18-17, 26.1-18-18, 26.1-18-27, 26.1-18-28, and 26.1-18-30 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the role of the department of health and consolidated laboratories in the review and issuance of certificates of authority for health maintenance organizations' complaint systems, annual reports, examinations, suspensions or revocations, and administrative procedures; and to repeal sections 26.1-18-05 and 26.1-18-33 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to applications for certificate of authority for health maintenance organizations and the department of health and consolidated laboratories' authority to contract.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsections 14 and 16 of section 26.1-18-03 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

14. A description of the procedures and programs to be implemented to meet the quality of health care requirements in subsection 7 of section ~~26.1-18-05~~ 26.1-18-06.
16. Any other information the commissioner requires to make the determinations required under sections ~~26.1-18-05~~ and section 26.1-18-06.

26.1-18-06. Review of application by commissioner - Issuance of certificate of authority. The commissioner shall issue or deny a certificate of authority to any person filing an application pursuant to section 26.1-18-03 within ninety days following receipt of the certification from the state department of health and consolidated laboratories given pursuant to section ~~26.1-18-05~~ application. The certificate of authority must be issued upon payment of the application fee prescribed if the commissioner is satisfied that the following conditions are met:

1. The persons responsible for the conduct of the affairs of the applicant are honest, competent, and trustworthy.
2. The state department of health and consolidated laboratories certifies, in accordance with section ~~26.1-18-05~~, that the health maintenance organization's proposed plan of operation meets the requirements of that section health maintenance organization has demonstrated the willingness and potential ability to assure that the health care services will be provided in a manner to assure both availability and accessibility of adequate personnel and facilities and in a manner enhancing availability, accessibility, and continuity of service.

3. The health care plan constitutes an appropriate mechanism whereby the health maintenance organization will effectively provide or arrange for the provision of basic health care services on a prepaid basis, through insurance or otherwise, except to the extent of reasonable requirements for copayments.
4. The health maintenance organization is financially responsible and may reasonably be expected to meet its obligations to enrollees and prospective enrollees. In making this determination, the commissioner may consider:
  - a. The financial soundness of the health care plan's arrangements for health care services.
  - b. A schedule of premium rates with supporting actuarial and other data.
  - c. The adequacy of working capital.
  - d. Any agreement with an insurer, a health service corporation, a government, or any other organization for insuring the payment of the cost of health care services or the provision for automatic applicability of an alternative coverage in the event of discontinuance of the plan.
  - e. Any agreement with providers for the provision of health care services. This subsection does not apply to agreements between individual providers, groups of providers, individual providers and groups of providers, or between other persons who are not applicants.
  - f. Any surety bond or deposit of cash or securities submitted in accordance with section 26.1-18-23 as a guarantee that the obligations will be duly performed.
5. The enrollees will be afforded an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation pursuant to section 26.1-18-08.
6. Nothing in the proposed method of operation, as shown by the information submitted pursuant to section 26.1-18-03 or by independent investigation, is contrary to the public interest.
7. Any deficiencies certified by the state department of health and consolidated laboratories have been corrected. The health maintenance organization has established arrangements, in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner, for an ongoing quality of health care assurance program concerning health care processes and outcomes.

8. The health maintenance organization has established a procedure, in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner, to develop, compile, evaluate, and report statistics relating to the cost of its operations, the pattern of utilization of its services, the availability and accessibility of its services, and any other matters reasonably required by the commissioner.

Denial of a certificate of authority is effective only after compliance with the requirements of section 26.1-18-30.

26.1-18-17. Complaint system - Approval of commissioner - Annual report - Contents - Examinations.

1. A health maintenance organization shall establish and maintain a complaint system which has been approved by the commissioner, ~~after consultation with the state department of health and consolidated laboratories,~~ to provide reasonable procedures for the resolution of written complaints initiated by enrollees concerning health care services.
2. A health maintenance organization shall submit to the commissioner ~~and the state department of health and consolidated laboratories~~ an annual report in a form prescribed by the commissioner, ~~after consultation with the state department of health and consolidated laboratories,~~ which must include:
  - a. A description of the procedures of the complaint system.
  - b. The total number of complaints handled through the complaint system and a compilation of causes underlying the complaints filed.
  - c. The number, amount, and disposition of malpractice claims during the year filed by enrollees of the health maintenance organization against the health maintenance organization and any of the providers used by it.
3. A health maintenance organization shall maintain records of written complaints filed with it concerning other than health care services and shall submit to the commissioner a summary report at the times and in the format required by the commissioner. The complaints involving other persons must be referred to the persons with a copy to the commissioner.
4. The commissioner ~~or the state department of health and consolidated laboratories,~~ ~~or both,~~ may examine the complaint system.

26.1-18-18. Annual report - Form prescribed by commissioner. Every health maintenance organization shall annually, on or before March first, file a report, verified by at least two principal officers, with the commissioner ~~with a copy to the state department of health and consolidated~~ laboratories covering the preceding calendar year. The report must be on forms prescribed by the commissioner and must include:

1. A financial statement of the organization, including its balance sheet and receipts and disbursements for the preceding year certified by an independent public accountant.
2. Any material changes in the information submitted pursuant to section 26.1-18-03.
3. The number of persons enrolled during the year, the number of enrollees terminated during the year, and the number of enrollees as of the end of the year.
4. A summary of information compiled pursuant to subsection 8 of section 26.1-18-05 26.1-18-06 in the form required by the state department of health and consolidated laboratories commissioner.
5. Any other information relating to the performance of the health maintenance organization necessary to enable the commissioner to carry out the commissioner's duties under this chapter.

26.1-18-27. Examinations by commissioner and state department of health and consolidated laboratories - Expenses - Acceptance of other examinations. The commissioner may examine the affairs of any health maintenance organization as often as necessary for the protection of the interests of the people of this state but not less frequently than once every three years.

The state department of health and consolidated laboratories may make an examination concerning the quality of health care services of any health maintenance organization as often as necessary for the protection of the interests of the people of this state but not less frequently than once every three years.

For the purpose of examinations, the commissioner and the state department of health and consolidated laboratories may administer oaths to, and examine, the officers and agents of the health maintenance organization and the principals of providers with whom the organization has contracts, agreements, or other arrangements pursuant to its health care plan. To the extent that examinations may require the disclosure of personally identifying information relating to either financial transactions or medical information concerning a plan enrollee in the records of the health maintenance organization or the records of a provider with whom the organization has contracts, agreements, or other arrangements pursuant to its health care plan, the information ~~is to~~ must be used for the sole purpose of assessing the quality of care provided and the degree of compliance with provisions of this chapter. The information ~~is to~~ must be held in confidence and may not be disclosed except upon the express consent of the enrollee, or pursuant to a court order for the production or discovery of evidence, or in the event of a claim or litigation between the enrollee and the health maintenance organization when the information is pertinent.

The expenses of examinations under this section must be assessed against the organization being examined and remitted to the commissioner or the state department of health and consolidated laboratories for whom the examination is being conducted.

The commissioner or the state department of health and consolidated laboratories may accept an examination or the report of an examination made by the commissioner or the state department of health of another state, the federal government, or an approved independent accrediting organization.

26.1-18-28. Suspension or revocation of certificate of authority - Grounds - Procedure - Duty of organization. The commissioner may suspend or revoke any certificate of authority issued to a health maintenance organization under this chapter if the commissioner finds that any of the following exist:

1. The health maintenance organization is operating significantly in contravention of its basic organizational document, its health care plan, or in a manner contrary to that described in and reasonably inferred from any other information submitted under sections 26.1-18-02, 26.1-18-03, and 26.1-18-04, unless amendments to the submissions have been filed with and approved by the commissioner.
2. The health maintenance organization issues evidence of coverage or uses a schedule of charges for health care services which do not comply with the requirements of sections 26.1-18-12 and 26.1-18-14.
3. The health care plan does not provide or arrange for basic health care services or the health maintenance organization is unable to fulfill its obligations to furnish health care services as required under its health care plan.
4. The state department of health and consolidated laboratories certifies to the commissioner that:
  - a. The health maintenance organization does not meet the requirements of subsection 8 of section ~~26.1-18-05~~; or
  - b. The health maintenance organization is unable to fulfill its obligations to furnish health care services as required under its health care plan 26.1-18-06.
5. The health maintenance organization is no longer financially responsible and may reasonably be expected to be unable to meet its obligations to enrollees or prospective enrollees.
6. The health maintenance organization has failed to implement a mechanism affording the enrollees an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation under section 26.1-18-08.
7. The health maintenance organization has failed to implement the complaint system required by section 26.1-18-17 in a manner to reasonably resolve valid complaints.

8. The health maintenance organization, or any person on its behalf, has advertised or merchandised its services in an untrue, misrepresentative, misleading, deceptive, or unfair manner.
9. The continued operation of the health maintenance organization would be hazardous to its enrollees.
10. The health maintenance organization has otherwise failed to substantially comply with this chapter.

A certificate of authority may be suspended or revoked only after compliance with the requirements of section 26.1-18-30.

When the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization is suspended, the health maintenance organization may not, during the period of suspension, enroll any additional enrollees except newborn children or other newly acquired dependents of existing enrollees, and may not engage in any advertising or solicitation.

When the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization is revoked, the organization must proceed, immediately following the effective date of the order of revocation, to wind up its affairs, and may conduct no further business except as may be essential to the orderly conclusion of the affairs of ~~such the~~ organization. It may not engage in any further advertising or solicitation ~~whatsoever~~. The commissioner may, by written order, permit any further operation of the organization as the commissioner finds to be in the best interest of enrollees, to the end that enrollees will be afforded the greatest practical opportunity to obtain continuing health care coverage.

26.1-18-30. Administrative procedures. When the commissioner has cause to believe that grounds for the denial of an application for a certificate of authority exist, or that grounds for the suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority exist, the commissioner shall notify the health maintenance organization and the state department of health and consolidated laboratories in writing specifically stating the grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation and fixing a time for a hearing on the matter as provided in chapter 28-32.

~~The state department of health and consolidated laboratories, or its designated representative, must be in attendance at the hearing and shall participate in the proceedings. The recommendation and findings of the department with respect to matters relating to the quality of health care services provided in connection with any decision regarding denial, suspension, or revocation of a certificate of authority, are conclusive and binding upon the commissioner. After the hearing, or upon the failure of the health maintenance organization to appear at the hearing, the commissioner shall take action as is deemed advisable on written findings which must be mailed to the health maintenance organization with a copy to the state department of health and consolidated laboratories.~~

FIRE AND TORNADO AND BONDING FUND

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 26.1-21-09.1, 26.1-22-06, 26.1-22-13, and 26.1-22-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the fire and tornado fund and the state bonding fund.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

26.1-21-09.1. Bonds of agents appointed to distribute hunting and fishing licenses or stamps - Premiums - Determination of eligibility. The annual premium for a bond of an agent appointed by a county auditor to distribute hunting and fishing licenses or stamps pursuant to section 20.1-03-17 is ten dollars. The premium must be paid to the state treasurer fund pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner. The commissioner shall deposit the premiums with the state treasurer to the credit of the fund. The commissioner may reduce or waive the premium if it is determined that funds received pursuant to this section are sufficient to cover potential claims on the bonds of agents appointed to distribute hunting and fishing licenses or stamps. The commissioner shall determine the conditions and qualifications of agents bonded under this section. The amount of coverage afforded under this section is limited to five thousand dollars per agent per year.

26.1-22-06. Commissioner to adopt guidelines on insurable values for property. The commissioner shall adopt guidelines to be used by state agencies, departments, offices, officers, boards, commissions, international peace gardens, and winter shows for the purpose of determining insurable values of state-owned property and property belonging to an international peace garden or a winter show for insurance coverage as authorized by law. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the expenses for necessary rating inspections for the purpose of determining the proper premium rate to be applied to the property insured by the fund must be paid out of the fund.

26.1-22-13. Reserve balance - Payment of loss. All assessments, interest, and profits on investments and all other income of the fund must be added to a reserve balance within the fund. All losses incurred including loss adjustment expenses and operating expenses appropriated by the legislative assembly must be paid from the reserve balance in the manner provided by law.

26.1-22-17. Loss - How paid. All losses occasioned by the hazards provided for by this chapter must be paid out of the fund in an amount not exceeding the amount of the insurance upon any particular risk. The loss upon any building or property insured in the fund, whether totally destroyed or partially damaged by reason of the hazards, must be adjusted by the commissioner or a duly authorized adjuster or adjusting company. All necessary loss adjustment expenses must be included as a component of the loss and be paid out of the fund. Immediately upon the happening or occasion of any such loss or damage, the officer, board, or agency having charge or control of the property destroyed or damaged shall notify the commissioner by telegram or in writing, giving the description of the property, the amount of insurance carried, the probable amount of loss or damage, and the probable cause of loss or damage. The officer, board, or agency having control of the damaged property may not disturb the property except as provided in the policy until the commissioner or the commissioner's agent has adjusted the loss or has given notice that the information on which the adjustment is to be made has been secured. Allowances for loss and damage to insured property must be paid out of the fund upon warrants drawn by the office of management and budget upon the state treasurer against the fund after the submission of a voucher prepared by the commissioner to the office of management and budget specifying the amount to be paid and the payee to whom the warrants must be drawn. However, if at any time due to a catastrophe or disaster, or a succession of catastrophes or disasters, the reserve balance has been depleted below two million dollars, the commissioner may, with the approval of the industrial commission, issue premium anticipation certificates in an amount sufficient to bring the reserve balance up to two million dollars. The premium anticipation certificates must be issued for a period of from ten to twenty years, as determined by the commissioner with the approval of the industrial commission, and the interest and principal must be paid and retired by assessments levied on all policies in force with the fund. To retire these premium anticipation certificates, the commissioner shall levy a special assessment against all property insured in the fund; however, the total of all assessments and premiums provided for in section 26.1-22-14 may not exceed the full ~~bureau~~ rate as developed by an advisory organization at the direction of the commissioner. Any state department may invest its funds in the purchase of the premium anticipation certificates.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1477
(DeMers, Svedjan, Clayburgh)

HEALTH CARE SERVICE REVIEW

AN ACT to provide for utilization review of health care services; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Purpose. The purpose of this Act is to:

1. Promote the delivery of quality health care in a cost-effective manner;
2. Assure that utilization review agents adhere to reasonable standards for conducting utilization review;
3. Foster greater coordination and cooperation between health care providers and utilization review agents;
4. Improve communications and knowledge of benefits among all parties concerned before expenses are incurred; and
5. Ensure that utilization review agents maintain the confidentiality of medical records in accordance with applicable laws.

SECTION 2. Definitions. For purposes of this Act, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.
2. "Enrollee" means an individual who has contracted for or who participates in coverage under an insurance policy, a health maintenance organization contract, a health service corporation contract, an employee welfare benefit plan, a hospital or medical services plan, or any other benefit program providing payment, reimbursement, or indemnification for health care costs for the individual or the individual's eligible dependents.
3. "Provider of record" means the physician or other licensed practitioner identified to the utilization review agent as having primary responsibility for the care, treatment, and services rendered to an individual.
4. "Utilization review" means a system for prospective and concurrent review of the necessity and appropriateness in the allocation of health care resources and services given or proposed to be given to an individual within this state. Utilization review does not include elective requests for clarification of coverage.

5. "Utilization review agent" means any person or entity performing utilization review, except:
  - a. An agency of the federal government; or
  - b. An agent acting on behalf of the federal government, but only to the extent that the agent is providing services to the federal government.

SECTION 3. Certification. A utilization review agent may not conduct utilization review in this state unless the utilization review agent has certified to the commissioner in writing that the agent is in compliance with section 4 of this Act. Certification must be made annually on or before March first of each calendar year. In addition, a certification review agent must file the following information:

1. The name, address, telephone number, and normal business hours of the utilization review agent;
2. The name and telephone number of a person for the commissioner to contact; and
3. A description of the appeal procedures for utilization review determinations.

Any material changes in the information filed in accordance with this section must be filed with the commissioner within thirty days of the change.

SECTION 4. Minimum standards of utilization review agents. All utilization review agents must meet the following minimum standards:

1. Notification of a determination by the utilization review agent must be mailed or otherwise communicated to the provider of record or the enrollee or other appropriate individual within two business days of the receipt of the request for determination and the receipt of all information necessary to complete the review.
2. Any determination by a utilization review agent as to the necessity or appropriateness of an admission, service, or procedure must be reviewed by a physician or, if appropriate, a licensed psychologist, or determined in accordance with standards or guidelines approved by a physician or licensed psychologist.
3. Any notification of a determination not to certify an admission or service or procedure must include the principal reason for the determination and the procedures to initiate an appeal of the determination.
4. Utilization review agents shall maintain and make available a written description of the appeal procedure by which enrollees or the provider of record may seek review of determinations by the utilization review agent. The appeal procedure must provide for the following:
  - a. On appeal, all determinations not to certify an admission, service, or procedure as being necessary or appropriate must be - made by a physician or, if appropriate, a licensed psychologist.

- b. Utilization review agents shall complete the adjudication of appeals of determinations not to certify admissions, services, and procedures no later than thirty days from the date the appeal is filed and the receipt of all information necessary to complete the appeal.
  - c. Utilization review agents shall provide for an expedited appeals process for emergency or life-threatening situations. Utilization review agents shall complete the adjudication of expedited appeals within forty-eight hours of the date the appeal is filed and the receipt of all information necessary to complete the appeal.
5. Utilization review agents shall make staff available by toll-free telephone at least forty hours per week during normal business hours.
  6. Utilization review agents shall have a telephone system capable of accepting or recording incoming telephone calls during other than normal business hours and shall respond to these calls within two working days.
  7. Utilization review agents shall comply with all applicable laws to protect confidentiality of individual medical records.
  8. Physicians or psychologists making utilization review determinations shall have current licenses from a state licensing agency in the United States.
  9. Utilization review agents shall allow a minimum of twenty-four hours following an emergency admission, service, or procedure for an enrollee or the enrollee's representative to notify the utilization review agent and request certification or continuing treatment for that condition.

However, the commissioner may find that the standards in this section have been met if the utilization review agent has received approval or accreditation by a utilization review accreditation organization.

SECTION 5. Utilization review agent violations - Penalty. Whenever the commissioner has reason to believe that a utilization review agent subject to this Act has been or is engaged in conduct that violates section 3 or 4 of this Act, the commissioner shall notify the utilization review agent of the alleged violation. The utilization review agent has thirty days from the date the notice is received to respond to the alleged violation.

If the commissioner believes that the utilization review agent has violated this Act, or is not satisfied that the alleged violation has been corrected, the commissioner shall conduct a hearing on the alleged violation in accordance with chapter 28-32.

If, after the hearing, the commissioner determines that the utilization review agent has engaged in violations of this Act, the commissioner shall reduce the findings to writing and shall issue and cause to be served upon the utilization review agent a copy of the findings and an order requiring the utilization review agent to cease and desist from engaging in the violations. The commissioner may also, at the commissioner's discretion, order:

1. Payment of a penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for a violation that occurred with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice; or
2. Suspension or revocation of the authority to do business in this state as a utilization review agent if the utilization review agent knew that the act was in violation of this Act.

ANNUITY AND INSURANCE CANCELLATION RIGHTS

AN ACT to create and enact sections 26.1-34-01.1 and 26.1-36-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to a "free-look" provision for annuity and accident and health policies and certificates.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Section 26.1-34-01.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

26.1-34-01.1. Annuity policies and certificates - Right to return. A person who purchases an annuity policy or certificate issued or delivered in this state may return the policy within twenty days of delivery to the purchaser. If a policy or certificate is returned, the purchaser is entitled to a refund of the premium, except in the sale of variable annuities where the purchaser is entitled to the value of the annuity plus all expense charges. Every annuity, policy, or certificate issued or delivered in this state must have a notice prominently printed on or attached to the first page of the policy or certificate stating in substance that the purchaser may return the policy or certificate within twenty days of its delivery and have the premium, or such other amount as specified above, refunded if, after examination of the policy or certificate, the applicant is not satisfied for any reason.

SECTION 2. Section 26.1-36-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

26.1-36-02.1. Accident and health policies and certificates - Notice of free examination. Accident and health policies and certificates must have a notice prominently printed on or attached to the first page of the policy or certificate stating in substance that the applicant may return the policy or certificate within ten days of its delivery and have the premium refunded if, after examination of the policy or certificate, the applicant is not satisfied for any reason.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITIES

AN ACT to create and enact chapter 26.1-34.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to creating an exemption that may be granted by the commissioner of insurance for the issuance of charitable gift annuities.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Chapter 26.1-34.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

26.1-34.1-01. Application for certificate of exemption to issue gift annuities. A domestic or foreign corporation organized and operated exclusively as, or for the purpose of aiding, an educational, religious, charitable, scientific, or philanthropic institution and which is organized as a nonprofit organization without profit to any person, may apply to the commissioner for a certificate of exemption to receive gifts of money or other property conditioned upon, or in return for, its agreement to pay an annuity to a donor or nominee or both. The corporation shall include with its application any documents or information the commissioner reasonably requires, including:

1. Its name, location, and organization;
2. Evidence that it possesses a current tax-exempt status under the laws of the United States;
3. A designation form appointing the commissioner as its attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of an annuitant or beneficiary arising out of any annuity contract;
4. A statement of the financial condition, management, and affairs of the organization including an accurate and complete financial statement consisting of a balance sheet and income and expense statement, showing the current financial condition of the corporation and sworn to by the officer of the corporation having the responsibility for preparing such statement; and
5. A filing fee of one hundred dollars coincident with its application.

26.1-34.1-02. Issuance of certificate of exemption to issue gift annuities. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of exemption if:

1. All requirements of this chapter have been met; and
2. The commissioner is satisfied that the corporation is in a position to competently execute its responsibilities relative to such annuity contracts.

26.1-34.1-03. Segregated account.

1. Every corporation possessing a certificate of exemption shall maintain a segregated account for all of its gift annuity liabilities.
2. The assets of the segregated account are not liable for any debts of the corporation other than those incurred pursuant to this chapter.
3. The segregated account must be adequate to meet the future payments under all outstanding annuity agreements.

26.1-34.1-04. Contents of annuity contract or policy form. Each charitable annuity contract or policy form used or issued by the corporation must include at least the following information:

1. The value of the property to be transferred;
2. The amount of the periodic annuity benefits to be paid;
3. The manner in which and the intervals at which payment is to be made;
4. The age of the person during whose life payment is to be made; and
5. The reasonable value as of the date of the agreement of the benefits thereby created.

26.1-34.1-05. Continued compliance. The commissioner may require that a corporation possessing a certificate of exemption submit periodically any report the commissioner determines to be desirable or necessary to ascertain compliance with requirements of this chapter. The commissioner, whenever the commissioner determines it to be expedient, may make or cause to be made an examination of the assets and liabilities and other affairs of the corporation as the same pertains to annuity agreements entered into pursuant to this chapter. The reasonable expenses incurred for any such examination must be fixed and paid in accordance with section 26.1-03-20.

26.1-34.1-06. Grounds for denial, revocation, or suspension of certificate of exemption. The commissioner may refuse to grant, or may revoke or suspend, a certificate of exemption if the commissioner finds that the corporation does not meet or continue to meet the requirements of this chapter or that the corporation has violated this chapter or chapter 26.1-04.

26.1-34.1-07. Other applicable code provisions. Except as prescribed in this chapter, the corporation is otherwise exempt from the provisions of this code and other insurance laws.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1042
(Legislative Council)
(Interim Industry and Business Committee)

BASIC HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 26.1-36 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to providing basic health insurance coverage for individuals and certain employers; to provide for reports to the legislative council; and to provide an expiration date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 26.1-36 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Basic health insurance coverage - Exception to required coverages. An insurance company, a nonprofit health service corporation, or a health maintenance organization may deliver, issue, execute, or renew a basic health insurance policy, health service contract, or evidence of coverage on an individual basis or an employer group, blanket, franchise, or association basis for employers with fewer than twenty-five employees. The basic policy, contract, or evidence of coverage is not subject to sections 26.1-36-08, 26.1-36-09, 26.1-36-09.1, 26.1-36-09.3, 26.1-36-12.1, and 43-13-31. The insurance company, nonprofit health service corporation, or health maintenance organization shall make the coverages required under those sections available at the option of the individual or employer and may charge an additional premium for each coverage provided. The basic policy, contract, or agreement authorized under this section is not available to an individual or employer unless that individual or employer has not had any health insurance coverage in force for at least twelve months preceding the date of application for the basic policy, contract, or agreement.

SECTION 2. COMMISSIONER'S REPORT ON BASIC HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE. The commissioner shall collect data from insurance companies, nonprofit health service corporations, and health maintenance organizations relating to coverage provided under section 1 of this Act. The data must include the number of groups and individuals purchasing coverage, the number of insureds, subscribers, members, and their dependents, under coverage, and the rates and rate increases or decreases for the coverage. The commissioner shall assemble a written report concerning this data and shall submit the report to the legislative council during the 1991-92 and 1993-94 interims. The commissioner shall submit a final report along with the commissioner's recommendation regarding the advisability of continuing the coverage provided under section 1 of this Act to the legislative council during the 1995-96 interim.

SECTION 3. EXPIRATION DATE. This Act is effective through June 30, 1997, and after that date is ineffective.

HEALTH INSURANCE CONTESTED CLAIM NOTICE

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 26.1-36-37.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to health insurance proof of loss forms and claim payment time limits.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

26.1-36-37.1. Standard health insurance proof of loss form - Claim payment time limits. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule a standard health insurance proof of loss and claim form ~~to be supplied by every insurer and health service corporation upon request~~ for use in filing proof of loss and a claim. After receipt of a health insurance proof of loss form, the insurer shall, within fifteen business days, pay the claim or that portion of the claim that is not contested, deny the claim, or make an initial request for additional information. If a claim or a portion of a claim is contested, the insured or the insured's assignee must be notified in writing that the claim is contested and the reasons for the contest. Nothing in this notification precludes the insurer from denying the claim in whole or in part, for other reasons at a later date. Within fifteen business days of the receipt of ~~additional~~ the information initially requested, the insurer shall pay or deny the claim.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1539
(Gabrielson)

SMALL EMPLOYER INSURANCE COVERAGE

AN ACT relating to health insurance coverage to small employers.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Actuarial certification" means a written statement by a member of the American academy of actuaries or other individual acceptable to the commissioner that a small employer carrier is in compliance with section 3 of this Act, based upon the person's examination, including a review of the appropriate records and of the actuarial assumptions and methods utilized by the carrier in establishing premium rates for applicable health benefit plans.
2. "Base premium rate" means, for each class of business as to a rating period, the lowest premium rate charged or which could have been charged under a rating system for that class of business, by the small employer carrier to small employers with similar case characteristics for health benefit plans with the same or similar coverage.
3. "Carrier" means any person who provides health insurance in this state. The term includes an insurance company, a nonprofit health service corporation, a health maintenance organization, a multiple employer welfare arrangement, or any other person providing a plan of health insurance subject to regulation by the commissioner.
4. "Case characteristics" include demographic or other relevant characteristics of a small employer, as determined by a small employer carrier, which are considered by the carrier in the determination of premium rates for the small employer. The term does not include claim experience, health status, and duration of coverage since issue.
5. "Class of business" means all or a distinct grouping of small employers as shown on the records of the small employer carrier.
  - a. A distinct grouping may only be established by the small employer carrier on the basis that the applicable health benefit plans:
    - (1) Are marketed and sold through individuals and organizations that are not participating in the marketing

- or sale of other distinct groupings of small employers for such small employer carrier;
- (2) Have been acquired from another small employer carrier as a distinct grouping of plans;
  - (3) Are provided through an association with membership of not less than ten small employers which has been formed for purposes other than obtaining insurance; or
  - (4) Are in a class of business that meets the requirements for exception to the restrictions related to premium rates provided in paragraph 1 of subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 3 of this Act.
- b. A small employer carrier may establish no more than two additional groupings under each grouping in subdivision a on the basis of underwriting criteria which are expected to produce substantial variation in the health care costs.
  - c. The commissioner may approve the establishment of additional distinct groupings upon application to the commissioner and a finding by the commissioner that such action would enhance the efficiency and fairness of the small employer insurance marketplace.
6. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.
  7. "Health benefit plan" or "plan" means any hospital or medical expense incurred policy or certificate, health service plan contract, or health maintenance organization subscriber contract. The term does not include accident-only, credit, dental, or disability income insurance; coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance; workers' compensation or similar insurance; or automobile medical-payment insurance.
  8. "Index rate" means for each class of business for small employers with similar case characteristics the arithmetic average of the applicable base premium rate and the corresponding highest premium rate.
  9. "New business premium rate" means, for each class of business as to a rating period, the premium rate charged or offered by the small employer carrier to small employers with similar case characteristics for newly issued health benefit plans with the same or similar coverage.
  10. "Rating period" means the calendar period for which premium rates established by a small employer carrier are assumed to be in effect, as determined by the small employer carrier.
  11. "Small employer" means any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or association actively engaged in business who, on at least fifty percent of its working days during the preceding year, employed no more than twenty-five eligible employees. In determining the number of eligible employees, companies that are affiliated companies or that are eligible to file a combined tax return for purposes of state taxation are considered one employer.

12. "Small employer carrier" means any carrier that offers health benefit plans covering the employees of a small employer.

SECTION 2. Health insurance plans subject to Act. Except as provided in this section, this Act applies to any health benefit plan that provides coverage to one or more employees of a small employer. This Act does not apply to individual health insurance policies that are subject to policy form and premium rate approval by the commissioner.

SECTION 3. Restrictions relating to premium rates.

1. Premium rates for health benefit plans subject to this Act are subject to the following:

- a. The index rate for a rating period for any class of business may not exceed the index rate for any other class of business by more than twenty percent. This subdivision does not apply to a class of business if:

- (1) The class of business is one for which the carrier does not reject, and never has rejected, small employers included within the definition of employers eligible for the class of business or otherwise eligible employees and dependents who enroll on a timely basis, based upon their claim experience or health status;
- (2) The carrier does not involuntarily transfer, and never has involuntarily transferred, a health benefit plan into or out of the class of business; and
- (3) The class of business is currently available for purchase.

- b. For a class of business, the premium rates charged during a rating period to small employers with similar case characteristics for the same or similar coverage, or the rates which could be charged to such employers under the rating system for that class of business, may not vary from the index rate by more than twenty-five percent.

- c. The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to a small employer for a new rating period may not exceed the sum of:

- (1) The percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period. In the case of a class of business for which the small employer carrier is not issuing new policies, the carrier shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate;
- (2) An adjustment, not to exceed fifteen percent annually and adjusted pro rata for rating periods of less than one year, due to the claim experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the employees or dependents of the small employer as determined from the carrier's rate manual for the class of business; and

- (3) Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the small employer as determined from the carrier's rate manual for the class of business.
- d. In the case of health benefit plans issued before the effective date of this Act, a premium rate for a rating period may exceed the ranges described in subdivisions a and b of subsection 1 for a period of five years following the effective date of this Act. In that case, the percentage increase in the premium rate charged to a small employer in such a class of business for a new rating period may not exceed the sum of:
    - (1) The percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period. In the case of a class of business for which the small employer carrier is not issuing new policies, the carrier shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate; and
    - (2) Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the small employer as determined from the carrier's rate manual for the class of business.
2. This section does not affect the use by a small employer carrier of legitimate rating factors other than claim experience, health status, or duration of coverage in the determination of premium rates. Small employer carriers shall apply rating factors, including case characteristics, consistently with respect to all small employers in a class of business.
  3. A small employer carrier may not involuntarily transfer a small employer into or out of a class of business. A small employer carrier may not offer to transfer a small employer into or out of a class of business unless the offer is made to transfer all small employers in the class of business without regard to case characteristics, claim experience, health status, or duration since issue.

SECTION 4. Renewability of coverage.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, a health benefit plan subject to this Act must be renewable to all eligible employees and dependents at the option of the small employer, except for the following reasons:
  - a. Nonpayment of required premiums;
  - b. Fraud or misrepresentation of the small employer, or with respect to coverage of an insured individual, fraud or misrepresentation by the insured individual or the individual's representative;
  - c. Noncompliance with plan provisions;

- d. The number of individuals covered under the plan is less than the number or percentage of eligible individuals required by percentage requirements under the plan; or
  - e. The small employer is no longer actively engaged in the business in which it was engaged on the effective date of the plan.
2. A small employer carrier may cease to renew all plans under a class of business. The carrier shall provide notice to all affected health benefit plans and to the commissioner in each state in which an affected insured individual is known to reside at least ninety days before termination of coverage. A carrier that exercises its right to cease to renew all plans in a class of business may not:
    - a. Establish a new class of business for a period of five years after the nonrenewal of the plans without prior approval of the commissioner; or
    - b. Transfer or otherwise provide coverage to any of the employers from the nonrenewed class of business unless the carrier offers to transfer or provide coverage to all affected employers and eligible employees and dependents without regard to case characteristics, claim experience, health status, or duration of coverage.

SECTION 5. Disclosure of rating practices and renewability provisions.

Each small employer carrier shall make reasonable disclosure in solicitation and sales materials provided to small employers, the following:

1. The extent to which premium rates for a specific small employer are established or adjusted due to the claim experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the employees or dependents of the small employer;
2. The provisions concerning the carrier's right to change premium rates and the factors, including case characteristics, that affect changes in premium rates;
3. A description of the class of business in which the small employer is or will be included, including the applicable grouping of plans; and
4. The provisions relating to renewability of coverage.

SECTION 6. Maintenance of records.

1. Each small employer carrier shall maintain at its principal place of business a complete and detailed description of its rating practices and renewal underwriting practices, including information and documentation that demonstrate that its rating methods and practices are based upon commonly accepted actuarial assumptions and are in accordance with sound actuarial principles.
2. Each small employer carrier shall file, by March first of each year, with the commissioner an actuarial certification that the carrier is in compliance with this section and that the rating methods of the carrier are actuarially sound. A copy of the certification must be retained by the carrier at its principal place of business.

3. A small employer carrier shall make the information and documentation described in subsection 1 available to the commissioner upon request. The information is considered proprietary and trade secret information. The commissioner may not disclose the information except as agreed to by the carrier or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 7. Discretion of the commissioner. The commissioner may suspend all or any part of section 3 as to the premium rates applicable to one or more small employers for one or more rating periods upon a filing by the small employer carrier and a finding by the commissioner that either the suspension is reasonable in light of the financial condition of the carrier or that the suspension would enhance the efficiency and fairness of the marketplace for small employer health insurance.

SECTION 8. Applicability of the Act. This Act applies to each health benefit plan for a small employer that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, or continued in this state after the effective date of this Act. For purposes of this section, the date a plan is continued is the first rating period that commences after the effective date of this Act.

NO-FAULT INSURANCE FUNERAL BENEFITS

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 2 of section 26.1-41-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to basic no-fault insurance funeral benefits.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 26.1-41-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. "Basic no-fault benefits" means benefits for economic loss resulting from accidental bodily injury. The maximum amount of basic no-fault benefits payable for all economic loss incurred and resulting from accidental bodily injury to any one person as the result of any one accident may not exceed thirty thousand dollars, regardless of the number of persons entitled to the benefits or the number of basic no-fault insurers obligated to pay the benefits. Basic no-fault benefits payable may not exceed one hundred fifty dollars per week per person prorated for any lesser period for work loss or survivors' income loss, or ~~one~~ three thousand five hundred dollars for funeral, cremation, and burial expenses.

AUTO ACCIDENT LOSS ALLOCATION

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 3 of section 26.1-41-13 and section 26.1-41-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the coordination of benefits under the Auto Accident Reparations Act and the equitable allocation of losses between insurance companies under the Auto Accident Reparations Act.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 26.1-41-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. An insurer, health maintenance organization, or nonprofit health service corporation, other than a basic no-fault insurer, authorized to do business in this state may coordinate any benefits it is obligated to pay for economic loss incurred as a result of accidental bodily injury, with the first five thousand dollars of basic no-fault benefits. A basic no-fault insurer authorized to do business in this state may coordinate any benefits it is obligated to pay for medical expenses incurred as a result of accidental bodily injury in excess of five thousand dollars. An insurer, health maintenance organization, or nonprofit health service corporation, other than a basic no-fault insurer, may not coordinate benefits unless it provides those persons who purchase benefits from it with an equitable reduction or savings in the direct or indirect cost of purchased benefits. The commissioner shall approve any coordination of benefits plan.

26.1-41-17. Equitable allocation of losses among insurers. A basic no-fault insurer may recover ~~basic~~ no-fault benefits paid to or for the benefit of an injured person from the motor vehicle liability insurer of a secured person if:

1. The injured person has sustained a serious injury; or
2. The injury results from an accident involving two or more motor vehicles, at least one of which is a motor vehicle weighing more than six thousand five hundred pounds [2,948.35 kilograms] unloaded.

The right of recovery and the amount thereof must be determined on the basis of tort law without regard to section 26.1-41-08 by agreement between the ~~basic no-fault~~ insurers involved, or, if they fail to agree, by binding intercompany arbitration under procedures approved by the commissioner. The amount of recovery under this section may not exceed the limits of liability of the secured person's motor vehicle liability insurance policy or other security, reduced by the amount of the liability for tort claims against the secured person covered by the policy or other security.

CLAIMS AGAINST INSOLVENT INSURERS

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 3 of section 26.1-42-02 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of covered claim under the Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 26.1-42-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. "Covered claim" means an unpaid claim, including one for unearned premiums, within the coverage of an insurance policy to which this chapter applies issued by an insurer if the insurer becomes insolvent after July 1, 1971. The claimant or insured must be a resident of this state at the time of the insured event or the insured property must be permanently located in this state. "Covered claim" does not include any amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association, as subrogation recoveries or otherwise. A reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association that has paid a claim, and become subrogated to the amount of that claim, may assert that claim against the liquidator of the insolvent insurer, but not against the insured of the insolvent insurer.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. County courts abolished - Election of additional district court judges - Case file transition - Budget and property considerations.

1. Following the completion on January 1, 1995, of the terms of the judges of all county courts, the county court and office of judge of the county court in each county are abolished.
2. District court judgeships are established on January 2, 1995, in number equal to the number of county judges serving the county courts on January 1, 1991, or the number of county judges serving the county courts on January 1, 1994, whichever is the lesser number. The district court judgeships established pursuant to this subsection must be filled by election at the general election in 1994. All statutes relating to the district court apply to the district court judgeships established pursuant to this subsection, except as otherwise provided by this section.
3. The supreme court shall designate by rule, prior to January 1, 1994, the judicial district for each additional district court judgeship established pursuant to subsection 2. The judicial district designated by the supreme court for each district court judgeship established pursuant to subsection 2 is the area of election for that office at the general election in 1994. The supreme court shall designate, prior to January 1, 1994, staggered terms for each district court judgeship established pursuant to subsection 2 in a manner that results in approximately one-third of those offices with initial terms of two years, one-third with initial terms of four years, and one-third with initial terms of six years. Any judge elected pursuant to subsection 2 shall take office on January 2, 1995, and shall hold office until completion of the designated initial term or until a successor is elected and has qualified. Subsequent to these initial terms, a judge elected to a judgeship established by subsection 2 shall hold office for the term provided in section 27-05-02.

4. All case files, untried cases, or any other unfinished business of each county court abolished pursuant to subsection 1 must be considered case files, untried cases, and other unfinished business of the district court of the judicial district in which that county is located.
5. Beginning in 1992, the budget for the district courts submitted to the legislative assembly pursuant to section 27-01-01.1 and to the director of the budget for informational purposes pursuant to section 54-44.1-13 must include all salaries and expenses for the district court judgeships established pursuant to subsection 2. Any equipment, furnishings, and law libraries in the control and custody of the county courts on January 1, 1991, and any property acquired by county courts from that date until January 1, 1995, must be transferred on January 2, 1995, to the custody and control of the district court of the county in which each county court is located until the state court administrator determines that these items are no longer needed by the district court. Upon that determination, custody and control of the property must revert to the county.

4-33-06. Authority for inspections - Warrants. To effectuate the purposes of this chapter, the commissioner may with a warrant or the consent of the owner make reasonable inspection of any premises in this state and any property therein or thereon and may without a warrant with the assistance of any law enforcement agency provided for in this code stop and inspect, in a reasonable manner, any means of conveyance moving within this state upon probable cause to believe it contains or carries any pest, host, or other article subject to this chapter, and may make any other reasonable inspection of any premises or means of conveyance for which, under the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of North Dakota, no warrant is required.

The appropriate county district courts in this state ~~have authority to~~ may issue warrants for such inspections upon a showing by the commissioner that there is probable cause to believe that there exists in or on the property to be inspected a pest, host, or other article subject to this chapter.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 6-05.1-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

5. On such date of hearing, upon finding that due notice has been given as required by this section and upon finding that the applicant subsidiary trust company has been duly authorized to commence the business for which it is organized by the state banking board, or by the comptroller of the currency if the applicant is a national banking association, and that the applicant has made such deposit of securities as may be required by law, the district court shall enter an order substituting the applicant in every fiduciary capacity for each of its specified affiliated banks, excepting as may be otherwise specified in the application, and excepting fiduciary capacities in any account with respect to which a person entitled to receive mailed notice pursuant to this section has filed objection to substitution and has appeared and been heard in support thereof. Upon entry of such order, or at such later date as may be specified in such order, the applicant subsidiary trust company must, without further act, be substituted in every such fiduciary capacity. ~~Such~~ The substitution may be made a matter of record in any county of this state by filing a certified copy of the order of substitution in the office of the clerk of any district court in this state; ~~or in the office of the clerk of any county court in this state;~~ or by filing a certified copy of such order in the office of the register of deeds of any county of this state to be recorded and indexed in like manner and with like effect as other orders and decrees of court are recorded and indexed.

11-03-08. Board of county commissioners to appoint county officers - Exception. The board of county commissioners appointed by the governor, after the members thereof have qualified, shall appoint all the county officers of the newly organized county. Such officers, after having qualified, shall hold their offices until the first general election thereafter and until their successors are elected and qualified. ~~Any county judge in office within the boundaries of a county organized under this chapter shall continue to hold office in the new county during the remainder of the term and shall give bond to the new county as required by law.~~

Within the ability of the electronic counting machine to accurately do so, all ballots not containing write-in votes may be counted by the machine prior to the counting and recording of the ballots containing write-in votes. The county auditor shall designate the public place or places where electronic voting system ballots and ballots to be counted on electronic counting machines must be delivered by the election inspector and the two election judges to be counted in the presence of the election inspector and the two election judges. All such counting centers used for counting electronic voting system ballots shall have tabulating equipment which has an element which generates a printed record at the beginning of its operation which verifies that the tabulating elements for each candidate position and each question and the public counter are all set at zero. The tabulating equipment must also be equipped with an element which generates a printed record at the end of its operation of the total number of voters whose ballots have been tabulated, the total number of votes cast for each candidate on the ballot, and the total number of votes cast for or against any measure appearing on the ballot. Both printed records must be certified by the election inspector and the two election judges.

If any electronic voting system ballot or a ballot counted by an electronic counting machine is damaged or defective so that it cannot be properly counted by the automatic tabulating or electronic counting equipment, a true duplicate copy must be made by election officials of opposed interests and substituted for the damaged or defective ballot. All duplicate ballots must be clearly labeled duplicate, must bear a serial number which must be recorded on the damaged or defective ballot, and must be wrapped and delivered with other ballots to the county district judge or to the a magistrate for the county appointed and assigned under section 27-07.1-07 by the presiding judge of the judicial district.

16.1-15-11. Locking and examination of voting machines - Tally of voting machine votes - Certification to county district judge or magistrate. Voting machines must remain locked for ten days next following use at an election and as much longer thereafter as necessary or advisable because of any existing or probable contest over the results of the election. They may be opened and all data and figures therein examined upon the order of any court of competent jurisdiction. A complete record of the tally of votes from each voting machine must be made by the inspector and the election judges at the time votes are tallied. This record shall agree in every respect with the pollbooks and the original reports of the total votes cast for each candidate or measure. The record shall then be certified by the inspector and the election judges, and one copy shall be delivered to the county district judge or to the a magistrate of the county appointed and assigned under section 27-07.1-07 by the presiding judge of the judicial district at the same time as the ballots are delivered to him pursuant to section 16.1-15-08. The records may be opened and all data and figures therein examined upon the order of any court of competent jurisdiction in the event of any existing or probable contest over the results of the election.

16.1-15-13. County District judge or magistrate to keep ballots forty-five days - Exception - Use of ballots as evidence. Immediately upon receiving the ballots as provided in section 16.1-15-08, the county district judge or the magistrate shall give receipt therefor to the election judges and shall place the ballots properly arranged in the order of the precinct number in boxes which shall be securely locked. The boxes must be placed in a fireproof vault and must be kept securely for forty-five days. They may not be opened nor inspected, except upon court order in a contested election, when it is necessary to produce them at a trial for any offense committed at an election, or to permit election officials to complete their duties. Forty-five days after the election, upon determination by the county district judge or the magistrate that no contest is pending, the ballots must be destroyed. If any contest of the election of any officer voted for at the election or a prosecution under the provisions of this title is pending at the expiration of such time, the ballots may not be destroyed until the contest or prosecution is finally determined. The ballots returned to the county district judge or the a magistrate as provided in this section must be received in evidence without introducing further foundation.

16.1-16-07. Contest involving irregularity of ballots - Preservation of ballots. Either the contestant or the contestee, within the time provided by this title for the preservation of ballots, may give notice by certified mail to the county district judge or to the a magistrate for the county appointed and assigned under section 27-07.1-07 by the presiding judge of the judicial district of any county where ~~he~~ the contestant or the contestee desires the ballots preserved, that an election contest is pending in a designated court. Thereupon, it is the duty of the county district judge or the magistrate to preserve all the paper ballots, electronic voting system ballots, and voting machine records until the contest has been finally determined.

23-05-06. Removal of nuisance - Complaint to county district judge - When warrant issued. Whenever a local board of health deems it necessary for the preservation of the public health to enter any building within its jurisdiction to examine, destroy, remove, or prevent any nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness and is refused entrance into such building, any member of the board may make complaint under oath to a county district judge within the jurisdiction of the board, stating the facts in the case so far as ~~he~~ the member of the board has knowledge thereof. The judge thereupon shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff or other peace officer commanding ~~him~~ the sheriff or peace officer to destroy, remove, or prevent, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, the nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness, under the direction of such members of the local board of health as accompany ~~him~~ the sheriff or peace officer.

23-07.1-08. Hearing - Order. Unless waived by the alleged tubercular person, a hearing ~~shall~~ must be held by the county district judge of serving the county in which the alleged tubercular person resides within one hundred twenty hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, after the date of the state health officer's temporary order. The court may consider all relevant evidence, including the results of a physical examination made pursuant to section 23-07.1-06, and the state health officer and the alleged tubercular person shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present and cross-examine witnesses, and to be represented by counsel. Upon the request of the state health officer, the state's attorney of the county wherein the hearing is held shall represent the state health officer without additional compensation.

If, upon completion of the hearing, the court finds that the allegation that the person has active, infectious tuberculosis in a communicable and contagious stage has not been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall dismiss the case and order that the alleged tubercular be discharged if he had been in custody prior to the hearing. If the court finds that the allegation has been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall issue an order which shall:

1. State its findings that the person does have active, infectious tuberculosis in a communicable and contagious stage and is dangerous to public health; and
2. Authorize the medical facility specified in the order to receive and keep such person in its facility for necessary and appropriate care, treatment, quarantine, and isolation for so long as the disease remains in a communicable and contagious stage and the danger to public health exists.

23-07.1-09. Appeal to ~~district supreme~~ court - Habeas corpus - Hearing. An appeal from an order of the judge of a ~~county~~ district court authorizing a specified medical facility to receive a person for care, treatment, quarantine, and isolation may be taken to the ~~district supreme~~ court ~~of the county~~. In such a proceeding, the state's attorney of the county wherein the appeal is taken, without additional compensation, shall represent the state health officer. The clerk of the ~~district~~ court of the county ~~in from~~ which the appeal is taken shall notify the state's attorney of the filing of such appeal. The ~~hearing~~ appeal shall be limited to a review of the procedures, findings, and conclusions of the lower court. All persons placed in the custody of the state health officer under the provisions of this chapter for care, treatment, quarantine, and isolation shall be entitled to the benefit of the writ of habeas corpus and a determination as to whether a person in such custody has active, infectious tuberculosis in a communicable and contagious stage and is dangerous to public health shall be made at the hearing. If the court shall decide that the person does have active, infectious tuberculosis and is dangerous to public health, such decision shall not preclude a subsequent application for a writ or the issuing of a writ upon a subsequent application, if it shall be alleged that such person shall have been restored to health.

23-07.1-10. Discharge - Release. All orders of the state health officer or of a judge of a ~~county~~ district court authorizing the reception and retention in custody for care, treatment, quarantine, and isolation of persons having active and infectious tuberculosis endangering public health ~~shall be~~ are effective only during the continuation of such condition and any person who is cured or who no longer has tuberculosis in a communicable and contagious stage ~~shall must~~ be discharged immediately from custody. ~~Such~~ The discharge shall be made by the state health officer or ~~his~~ designee, under the guidelines of the state health council. The person in charge of a medical facility may also release any person admitted to the medical facility under the provisions of this chapter at such times and under such conditions as deemed advisable after consultation with the state health officer or ~~his~~ designee.

SECTION 63. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 23-07.4-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4. Upon issuance of any order under subsection 2 or 3, the state health officer or a designee of the state health officer shall promptly, personally, and confidentially notify the person who is the subject of the order, stating the grounds and provisions of the order and the right to contest the order, the right to be present at a judicial hearing in the ~~county~~ district court ~~in~~ serving the county in which the person resides to review the order, and the right to be represented by counsel during the hearing. If the person who is the subject of the order refuses to comply with the order and refuses to cooperate voluntarily with the state health officer or a designee of the state health officer, the state health officer or designee may petition the ~~county~~ district court ~~in~~ serving the county in which the person resides for an order of compliance. The state health officer or designee shall request the state's attorney in the county in which the person resides to file the petition in the county district court. If an order of compliance is requested, the court shall hear the matter within ten days after the request. Notice of the place, date, and time of the court hearing must be made by personal service or, if the person is not available, must be mailed to the person who is the subject of the order by certified mail at the person's last known address. Proof of mailing by the state health officer or designee is sufficient notice under this section. The burden of proof is on the state health officer or designee to show by clear and convincing evidence that the specified grounds exist for the issuance of the order and for the need for compliance and that the terms and conditions imposed in the order are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue appropriate orders affirming, modifying, or dismissing the order. If the court dismisses the order, the fact that the order was issued must be expunged from the records of the state department of health and consolidated laboratories. If the court affirms or modifies the order and the person subject to the order is infected with the human immunodeficiency virus, the court shall require the person to disclose the names and addresses, if known, of persons with whom the person has had contact that poses an epidemiologically demonstrated risk of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus. Failure to comply with court-ordered disclosure constitutes contempt of court.

23-07.4-02. Emergency public health procedures.

1. When the procedures under section 23-07.4-01 have been exhausted or cannot be satisfied and the state health officer or designee knows or has reason to believe, because of medical or epidemiological information, that a person within that official's jurisdiction has human immunodeficiency virus infection and that the person continues to engage in behavior that presents an imminent danger to the public health, the state health officer or designee may bring an action in county district court in serving the county in which the person resides to enjoin the person from engaging in or continuing to engage in such behavior. The state health officer or designee shall request the state's attorney to file the action in county district court.
2. In addition to issuance of an injunction order requested under subsection 1, the court may issue other appropriate orders including an order to take the person into custody, for a period not to exceed ninety days and place the person in a facility designated or approved by the state health officer. A custody order issued for the purpose of counseling and testing to determine whether the person has human immunodeficiency virus infection must provide for the immediate release from custody and from the facility for any person whose confirmed test results are negative and may provide for counseling or other appropriate measures to be imposed on any person whose confirmed test results are positive. The person who is the subject of the order must be given prompt, personal, and confidential notice of the order stating the grounds and provisions of the order and notifying the person of the right to contest the order, the right to be present at a judicial hearing in the county district court ~~in~~ in serving the county in which the person resides to review the order, and the right to be represented by counsel during the hearing. If the person contests testing or treatment, no invasive medical procedures may be carried out before a hearing is held under subsection 3.

3. Any order issued by the county district court under subsection 2 is subject to review in a court hearing. Prompt, personal, and confidential notice of the place, date, and time of the court hearing and of the person's right to be present at the hearing and the right to representation by counsel during the hearing must be given to the person who is the subject of the court order. The hearing must be conducted by the court within forty-eight hours after the order is issued. The burden of proof is on the state health officer or designee to show by clear and convincing evidence that grounds exist for the order issued by the court under subsection 2 and that the terms and conditions imposed in the order are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue appropriate orders affirming, modifying, or dismissing the order. If the court dismisses the order, the fact that the order was issued must be expunged from the records of the state department of health and consolidated laboratories. If the court affirms or modifies the order and the person subject to the order is infected with the human immunodeficiency virus, the court shall require the person to disclose the names and addresses, if known, of persons with whom the person subject to the order has had contact that poses an epidemiologically demonstrated risk of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus. Failure to comply with court-ordered disclosure constitutes contempt of court.
4. A person who is the subject of an order authorized under this section is entitled to representation by legal counsel during any hearing to review the issuance of the order.

23-07.6-05. Court hearing. A respondent has the right to a court hearing in the county district court ~~of~~ in serving the county in which the respondent resides. The respondent or the respondent's representative has a right to be present at the hearing. The respondent has a right to counsel and if the respondent is indigent or otherwise unable to pay for or obtain counsel, the respondent has the right to have counsel appointed. The respondent, respondent's representative, or respondent's counsel has the right to cross-examine witnesses testifying at the hearing. If the respondent, respondent's representative, or respondent's counsel requests, in writing, a hearing, the hearing must be held within seventy-two hours of receipt of the request, excluding Saturdays and holidays. A request for a hearing does not stay the order of confinement. The court shall determine if the respondent is infected with a communicable disease, is unable or unwilling to behave in a manner as not to expose other persons to danger of infection, poses a substantial threat to the public health, and confinement is necessary and is the least restrictive alternative to protect or preserve the public health. If the order is issued by a local board, the state health officer has the right to be made a party to the proceedings.

23-07.6-12. Right of appeal. Any party aggrieved by an order of the county district court under this section may appeal to the supreme court.

24-06-05. Overseer responsible for machinery. Each overseer of highways ~~shall be~~ is responsible personally for the proper use and care of all implements while in ~~his~~ the overseer's charge, or in use in ~~his~~ the overseer's district, and any overseer of highways, or other person who, through negligence or willfully ~~shall injure~~ injures or ~~damage~~ damages such implements or ~~permit~~ permits them to be injured, ~~shall be~~ is liable for such damage to ~~such the~~ township, in an action to be brought in district court by the chairman of the board of township supervisors ~~before any county judge~~ in the township or any adjoining township.

24-07-22. Appeals - When and where taken. Any person who feels aggrieved by any determination or award of damages made by the board having jurisdiction, either in laying out, altering, or discontinuing, or in refusing to lay out, alter, or discontinue, any highway or cartway, within thirty days after the filing of such determination or award of damages, as provided in this chapter, may appeal therefrom to the district court in accordance with the procedure provided in section 28-34-01. ~~If the amount of damages claimed by appellant does not exceed one hundred dollars, the appeal must be taken to the county judge. If the damages claimed exceed one hundred dollars, the appeal must be taken to the district court.~~

24-07-24. Appeals - Filing - Approval of undertaking - Service. ~~If the appeal is taken to a county judge, the notice of appeal and undertaking shall be filed with him and the undertaking must be approved by him. If the appeal is taken to the district court, the~~ The notice of appeal and undertaking ~~shall to the district court must be~~ filed with the clerk of such the court and the undertaking must be approved by the judge thereof or by the county auditor. ~~In either case, the~~ The notice of appeal ~~shall must be~~ served upon some member of the board by which the determination was made.

24-07-28. Judgment - Copy filed - Payment of costs. When judgment has been entered upon an appeal taken as provided in this chapter, ~~the county judge or~~ the clerk of the district court, ~~as the case may be,~~ shall file with the county auditor or clerk of the township a certified copy of ~~such~~ the judgment.

SECTION 71. AMENDMENT. Subsections 2 and 7 of section 25-03.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

2. "Court" means, except where otherwise indicated, the county district court of serving the county wherein the respondent resides.
7. "Magistrate" means the judge of the appropriate county district or juvenile court or a judge assigned by the presiding judge of the judicial district.

25-03.1-03. Jurisdiction. The county district courts have original jurisdiction over the proceedings governed by this chapter; ~~except as provided in this section. They have concurrent jurisdiction with the juvenile court for the commitment of juveniles for treatment or evaluation.~~

SECTION 73. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 25-03.1-21 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. If the respondent is not complying with the alternative treatment order or the alternative treatment has not been sufficient to prevent harm or injuries that the individual may be inflicting upon himself or others, the department, a representative of the treatment program involved in the alternative treatment order, the petitioner's retained attorney, or the state's attorney may apply to the court or to the county district court of the a different county judicial district in which the respondent is located to modify the alternative treatment order. The court shall hold a hearing within seven days after the application is filed. Based upon the evidence presented at hearing and other available information, the court may:
  - a. Continue the alternative treatment order;
  - b. Consider other alternatives to hospitalization, modify the court's original order, and direct the individual to undergo another program of alternative treatment for the remainder of the ninety-day period; or
  - c. Enter a new order directing that the individual be hospitalized until discharged from the hospital under section 25-03.1-30. If the individual refuses to comply with this hospitalization order, the court may direct a peace officer to take the individual into protective custody and transport the respondent to a treatment facility.

25-03.1-38. Expenses of district court serving Stutsman County court. All expenses of the county district court of serving Stutsman County involving patients in residence at the state hospital must be paid by the state hospital under the direction of the department.

25-03.1-46. Rules and regulations - Preparation of forms. The department shall, under chapter 28-32, adopt and enforce such rules as may be necessary for the implementation of this chapter. The supreme court, in consultation with the department, the associations of county district judges and state's attorneys, and other affected organizations, is responsible for the preparation and the department is responsible for distribution of the necessary and appropriate forms to enable compliance with this chapter.

SECTION 76. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 25-04-05.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. The superintendent may authorize the temporary release of any resident to the custody of the resident's parent or guardian of the person, or to another person designated by the parent or such guardian. In the absence of such authorization any parent or guardian of the person of any resident may formally request, in writing, the resident's temporary release. The release must be granted at the earliest reasonable opportunity, but not more than thirty days after receipt of a written application. If a release is, or would be, effected contrary to the advice of the superintendent based on a recent comprehensive evaluation of the individual, the superintendent shall so advise the parent or such guardian in writing. If in the opinion of the superintendent the health, safety, welfare, or morals of the resident or society are seriously endangered by release, the superintendent shall so advise the department of human services, which may thereupon apply to the proper county district court to have ~~such~~ the adult resident adjudged a defective delinquent in the manner provided in section 25-04-07, or in the case of a minor, the department of human services may apply to the proper juvenile court to have ~~such~~ the minor declared a ward of the court.

SECTION 77. AMENDMENT. Subsections 2 and 3 of section 25-04-15 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

2. No real property belonging to the estate may be sold during the lifetime of the patient except for the maintenance and support of the patient's dependents, unless it is shown that the sale of the property will not result in undue hardship to those dependents, and it may be sold only upon the order of the county district court having jurisdiction of the estate, with the consent of the department of human services.
3. No personal property belonging to the estate may be sold within five years from the date upon which the patient was sent to the developmental center unless the property is ordered sold by the county district court having jurisdiction of the estate for the reason that the property is likely to deteriorate in value during the time herein specified.

25-11-05. Transfer of patients - Approval of court. The compact administrator is hereby directed to consult with the immediate family of any proposed transferee and, in the case of a proposed transferee from an institution in this state to an institution in another party state, to take no final action without approval of the county district court which committed ~~such~~ the patient, or if ~~such~~ the patient was not committed, then without approval of the county district court of serving Stutsman County.

27-01-01. Courts composing judicial system of state - Those constituting courts of record. The following are the courts of justice of this state:

1. The supreme court;
2. The district courts; and
3. ~~The county courts; and~~
4. Such other courts as are or may be created by law for cities.

Of these the supreme court and the district ~~and county~~ courts are courts of record.

27-01-01.1. Budgeting and financing of the supreme court and district courts. The state court administrator shall submit a comprehensive budget for the supreme court and the district courts to the legislative assembly. An informational copy of the budget must be delivered to the director of the budget pursuant to section 54-44.1-13. The budget for the district courts must include all salary and expenses for the district courts, including the juvenile courts, and their employees except the clerks of district courts and their deputies and employees, whose salaries and expenses must be paid by the counties unless the county has properly exercised its option pursuant to section 11-17-11. Each county shall provide the district court in that county with adequate chamber, court, and law library quarters, and lights and fuel and appropriate facilities for clerk of court services ~~which that~~ are state funded pursuant to section 11-17-11. Any equipment, furnishings, and law libraries in the control and custody of the district court on January 1, 1980, and any such property acquired from that date until July 1, 1981, must continue to be in district court's custody and control until the state court administrator determines such items are no longer needed by the court. Any equipment and furnishings in the control and custody of a clerk of district court on the date of the exercise of the county option pursuant to section 11-17-11, and any such property acquired from that date until the beginning of the next state biennium, must continue in the district court's custody and control until the state court administrator determines such items are no longer needed by the judicial system. Upon that determination custody and control of the property must revert back to the county. Each district court law library maintained by the state must be available for use by the county court in that county-

27-01-09. Reciprocal recognition of certain state and tribal court judgments, decrees, and orders - Conditions. The district courts ~~and county courts~~ shall recognize and cause to be enforced any judgment, decree, or order of the tribal court of the Three Affiliated Tribes of the Fort Berthold Reservation in any case involving the dissolution of marriage, the distribution of property upon divorce, child custody, adoption, an adult abuse protection order, or an adjudication of the delinquency, dependency, or neglect of Indian children if the tribal court had jurisdiction over the subject matter of the judgment, decree, or order. The tribal court judgment, decree, or order must be rendered by a judge who is a graduate of an accredited law school and holds a current valid license to practice law in at least one state. A state court may inquire as to the facts of the case or tribal law only to the extent necessary to determine whether the tribal court had jurisdiction over the subject matter of the judgment, decree, or order and personal jurisdiction over the parties to the action. Recognition and enforcement of tribal court judgments, decrees, and orders under this section is conditioned upon recognition and enforcement of state court judgments, decrees, and orders by the tribal court of the Three Affiliated Tribes and tribal law enforcement agencies under the same limitations provided by this section for recognition and enforcement of tribal court judgments, decrees, and orders by state courts.

SECTION 82. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 3 of section 27-01-10 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

1. The governing body of a county may, by resolution, authorize a ~~county district judge~~ the district judges serving that county to assess a fee under subsection 3 of not more than twenty-five dollars as part of a sentence imposed on a defendant who pleads guilty to or is convicted of a criminal offense or of violating a municipal ordinance for which the maximum penalty that may be imposed by law for the offense or violation includes imprisonment.
3. The governing body of the county or city may determine the amount of the fee to be assessed in all cases or it may authorize the ~~county district~~ or municipal judge to determine the amount of the fee to be assessed in each case. The fee assessed under this section is in addition to any fine, penalty, costs, or administrative fee prescribed by law. The county or municipal judge may assess the fee when sentence is imposed or when sentence is suspended or imposition of sentence is deferred, unless the defendant is indigent and unable to pay the fee. All fees paid to a county or municipal court under this section must be deposited monthly in the county or city treasury for allocation by the governing body of the county or city to one or more of the following programs as determined by the governing body:
  - a. A private, nonprofit domestic violence or sexual assault program.

- b. A victim and witness advocacy program of which the primary function is to provide direct services to victims of and witnesses to crime.

27-05-01. Judicial districts - Number of judges.

1. The judicial districts in this state are as designated by rule of the supreme court. The number of judges in each of the judicial districts is as follows:

- ~~1-~~ a. The northwest judicial district shall have five judges.
- ~~2-~~ b. The northeast judicial district shall have three judges.
- ~~3-~~ c. The northeast central judicial district shall have four judges.
- ~~4-~~ d. The east central judicial district shall have four judges.
- ~~5-~~ e. The southeast judicial district shall have three judges.
- ~~6-~~ f. The south central judicial district shall have five judges.
- ~~7-~~ g. The southwest judicial district shall have three judges.

2. Each judicial district has that number of additional judges as designated by rule of the supreme court pursuant to subsection 3 of section 1 of this Act. The supreme court shall reduce the number of district judges pursuant to section 86 to forty-two before January 2, 2001.

27-05-06. Jurisdiction of district courts. The district courts of this state have the general jurisdiction conferred upon them by the constitution, and in the exercise of such jurisdiction they have power to issue all writs, process, and commissions provided therein or by law or which may be necessary for the due execution of the powers with which they are vested. Such courts shall have:

1. Common-law jurisdiction and authority within their respective judicial districts for the redress of all wrongs committed against the laws of this state affecting persons or property.
2. Power to hear and determine all civil actions and proceedings.
3. All the powers, according to the usages of courts of law and equity, necessary to the full and complete jurisdiction of the causes and parties and the full and complete administration of justice, and to carrying into effect their judgments, orders, and other determinations, subject to a reexamination by the supreme court as provided by law.

4. Jurisdiction of appeals from all final judgments of municipal judges and from the determinations of inferior officers, boards, or tribunals, in such cases and pursuant to such regulations as may be prescribed by law.
- 5- ~~Jurisdiction over actions by game and fish officials involving the confiscation of materials determined to be in excess of one thousand dollars in value.~~

SECTION 85. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 27-05-08 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. The locations of the chambers of the district judges in each of the respective districts shall be as determined by rule of the supreme court. However, not more than seventy percent of the chambers of the district judges may be located in cities with a population of more than seven thousand five hundred.

SECTION 86. A new section to chapter 27-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Vacancy in office of district judge - Abolition of offices - Hearing.

1. Notwithstanding section 44-02-03, when a vacancy occurs in the office of district court judge, the supreme court shall determine, within ninety days of receiving notice of the vacancy from the governor and in consultation with district court judges and attorneys in the affected judicial district, whether or not that office is necessary for effective judicial administration. The supreme court may, consistent with that determination, order that:
  - a. The vacancy be filled in the manner provided pursuant to chapter 27-25;
  - b. The vacant office be abolished; or
  - c. The vacant office be transferred to a judicial district in which an additional judge is necessary for effective judicial administration, and that the vacancy be filled in the manner provided pursuant to chapter 27-25 with respect to that judicial district.
2. Subject to subsection 3, the supreme court may, after consultation with district court judges and attorneys in the affected judicial district, abolish one or more offices of district court judge if the supreme court determines that the office is not necessary for effective judicial administration and abolition of the office is necessary to reduce the number of district court judges as required in subsection 2 of section 27-05-01. At least one year before the end of the term of office of a district court judge holding the judgeship, the supreme court shall notify the judges of the affected judicial district of a determination that the judgeship will be abolished. The abolition of an office of district court judge under this subsection is effective at the end of the term of office of the district court judge holding that judgeship. The district court judge holding the judgeship to be abolished may petition the supreme court, within thirty days after receiving notice that the judgeship will be abolished, for a hearing on the determination. The supreme court shall hold the hearing within thirty days after receipt of the petition. Within thirty days after the hearing, the supreme court shall affirm, reverse, or modify its previous determination.

3. The authority conferred upon the supreme court in subsection 2 may be exercised:
  - a. From July 1, 1995, until June 30, 1997, if on July 1, 1995, the number of district court judges is more than forty-eight;
  - b. From July 1, 1997, until June 30, 1999, if on July 1, 1997, the number of district court judges is more than forty-six; and
  - c. From July 1, 1999, until December 31, 2000, if on July 1, 1999, the number of district court judges is more than forty-four.
4. The supreme court shall notify the governor of its determinations made pursuant to this section.

SECTION 87. A new section to chapter 27-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Magistrates - Appointment - Salary - Authority. The presiding judge of a judicial district may appoint, subject to rules adopted by the supreme court, any qualified person, including a clerk of the district court, to serve as magistrate. A magistrate appointed pursuant to this section may be paid a salary as determined by the supreme court and has that authority performable by a district court judge as assigned by the presiding judge. The supreme court may adopt rules for the qualifications of magistrates, the extent and assignment of authority, and the conduct of the office, including rules relating to training sessions and continuing education.

2. If a reporter is appointed, the order of appointment must be filed in the office of the clerk and entered upon the records of the court in each county of the district. The person so appointed shall take and subscribe the oath required of other civil officers and shall file the same in the office of the secretary of state. The reporter shall hold office and discharge the duties thereof in person. If the reporter shall be incapacitated from acting, the judge may appoint some other qualified shorthand reporter to act, whose notes, transcripts, and certificates shall have the same force and effect as though made by the official reporter, but the certificates made by the person must be under oath. A qualified shorthand reporter shall be a person who is the holder of a registered professional reporter certificate issued by the national shorthand reporters association or an official shorthand reporter appointed on or before July 1, 1979.

27-07.1-02. Multicounty agreements to share services of judges. The boards of county commissioners of any two or more counties may enter into an agreement to provide for the election of a single judge or any number of judges to serve the county courts of the several counties entering into the agreement. Any county entering into such an agreement shall retain its own county court which shall be located in the county seat and each action shall be venued in the county court of any county in which venue is proper under other provisions of law or rule of the supreme court. The agreement shall set forth the number of judges to be elected, the manner in which the salary and expenses of the judge or judges and any court reporters will be divided by the various counties, and the manner in which services will be provided to the various counties. Any such agreement must be entered into at least one hundred twenty days prior to the primary election in any year in which a general election is to be held, except a county in which no candidate is elected and qualified or in which a vacancy occurs may enter into an agreement with another county for the services of a judge at any time. Any agreement must remain effective for the duration of the term to which the county judge is to be elected, or, in the event of a vacancy which occurs after the agreement is entered into, until the vacancy is filled by election and the person elected takes office or the counties enter into an agreement for the provision of judicial services pursuant to subsection 4 of section 27-07.1-03. The candidates nominated or candidates elected as county judge shall be determined in both the primary and general elections by using the total combined votes in those counties which have entered into a multicounty agreement for judicial services. The candidate elected as judge of the county court in those counties which have agreed to share the services of a county judge is exempt from the requirement of section 11-10-04, but must be a resident of this state at the time of nomination. Any agreement or change to any agreement made under this section is subject to the prior approval of the supreme court.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, any vacancy in the office of county judge shall be filled by the board of county commissioners pursuant to chapter 27-26, unless the board, by resolution, determines to fill the vacancy in accordance with section 44-02-04.
2. When a vacancy occurs in the office of county court judge, the supreme court shall determine, within ninety days of receiving notice of the vacancy from the board of county commissioners, whether or not that office is necessary for effective judicial administration. The supreme court's determination must be made in consultation with the board of county commissioners, judges, and attorneys of each affected county. The supreme court may, consistent with its determination, order that:

- a. The vacancy be filled, at the discretion of the county, in either the manner provided pursuant to chapter 27-26 or through an agreement described in subdivision a or b of subsection 4; or
  - b. The vacant office be abolished and that county court services be provided pursuant to subsection 4.
3. The supreme court shall notify the board of county commissioners of each affected county of its determination made pursuant to subsection 2.
4. If the supreme court orders that a vacant office be abolished pursuant to subsection 2, the board of county commissioners of each affected county shall:
- a. Enter into an agreement with the supreme court for the provision of judicial services by the state judicial system until such time as the county courts are abolished and additional district court judgeships are established pursuant to section 1 of this Act; or
  - b. Enter into an agreement with a county that has an office of county court judge for the provision of county court services, notwithstanding the limitations imposed by section 27-07.1-02. Any county entering into such an agreement shall have a county court which must be located in the county seat and each action must be venued in the county in which venue is proper under other provisions of law or rule of the supreme court. The agreement must set forth the manner in which the salary and expenses of the judges and any court reporters will be divided by the counties, and the manner in which services will be provided to each county. The agreement may remain effective until such time as the county courts are abolished and additional district court judgeships are established pursuant to section 1 of this Act.

SECTION 91. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 27-08.1-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. All judges of the county district courts ~~shall~~ may exercise the jurisdiction conferred by this chapter, and while sitting in the exercise of ~~said~~ that jurisdiction shall be known and referred to as the "small claims court". SECTION 118. AMENDMENT. Subdivision c of subsection 2 of section 30.1-10-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- c. The renunciation ~~shall~~ must be filed in the county district court of serving the county in which proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the estate of the deceased owner or deceased donee of the power or, if they have not been commenced, in which they could be commenced. A copy of the renunciation ~~shall~~ must be delivered in person or mailed by registered or certified mail to any personal representative, or other fiduciary of the decedent or donee of the power. If real property or an interest therein is renounced, a copy of the renunciation may be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the real estate is situated.

30.1-32-01. (7-101) Duty to register trusts. The trustee of a trust having its principal place of administration in this state shall register the trust in a district or county court of this state in serving the county encompassing the principal place of administration. Unless otherwise designated in the trust instrument, the principal place of administration of a trust is the trustee's usual place of business where the records pertaining to the trust are kept, or at the trustee's residence if he has no such place of business. In the case of cotrustees, the principal place of administration, if not otherwise designated in the trust instrument, is:

1. The usual place of business of the corporate trustee if there is but one corporate cotrustee; or
2. The usual place of business or residence of the individual trustee who is a professional fiduciary if there is but one such person and no corporate cotrustee; and otherwise
3. The usual place of business or residence of any of the cotrustees as agreed upon by them.

The duty to register under this chapter does not apply to the trustee of a trust if registration would be inconsistent with the retained jurisdiction of a foreign court from which the trustee cannot obtain release. The clerk of the district ~~or county~~ court shall keep a record of all trust registrations ~~in his county~~, and of any orders, or responses relating thereto, by the district ~~or county~~ court, and shall establish and maintain a system for indexing, filing, or recording which is sufficient to enable users of the records to obtain adequate information.

30.1-32-03. (7-103) Effect of registration.

1. By registering a trust, or accepting the trusteeship of a registered trust, the trustee submits personally to the jurisdiction of the district ~~or county~~ court in any proceeding under section 30.1-33-01 relating to the trust that may be initiated by any interested person while the trust remains registered. Notice of any proceeding ~~shall~~ must be delivered to the trustee, or mailed to ~~him~~ the trustee by ordinary first-class mail, at ~~his~~ the trustee's address as listed in the registration or as thereafter reported to the district ~~or county~~ court and to ~~his~~ the trustee's address as then known to the petitioner.
2. To the extent of their interests in the trust, all beneficiaries of a trust properly registered in this state are subject to the jurisdiction of the district ~~or county~~ court of registration for the purposes of proceedings under section 30.1-33-01, provided notice is given pursuant to section 30.1-03-01.

30.1-32-04. (7-104) Effect of failure to register. A trustee who fails to register a trust in a proper place as required by this chapter, for purposes of any proceedings initiated by a beneficiary of the trust prior to registration, is subject to the personal jurisdiction of any district ~~or county~~ court in which the trust could have been registered. In addition, any trustee who, within thirty days after receipt of a written demand by a settlor or beneficiary of the trust, fails to register a trust as required by this chapter is subject to removal and denial of compensation or to surcharge as the district ~~or county~~ court may direct. A provision in the terms of the trust purporting to excuse the trustee from the duty to register, or directing that the trust or trustee ~~shall~~ is not ~~be~~ subject to the jurisdiction of the district ~~or county~~ court, is ineffective.

30.1-33-01. (7-201) District ~~and county courts concurrent court~~ jurisdiction of trusts.

1. The district ~~and county~~ courts have ~~concurrent~~ jurisdiction of proceedings initiated by interested parties concerning the internal affairs of trusts. Proceedings which may be maintained under this section are those concerning the administration and distribution of trusts, the declaration of rights, and the determination of other matters involving trustees and beneficiaries of trust, ~~except for the proceedings over which the county court has exclusive jurisdiction as provided in section 30.1-02-02. These include, but are not limited to,~~ proceedings to:
  - a. Appoint or remove a trustee.
  - b. Review trustees' fees and to review and settle interim or final accounts.
  - c. Ascertain beneficiaries, determine any question arising in the administration or distribution of any trust including questions of construction instruments, instruct trustees, and determine the existence or nonexistence of any immunity, power, privilege, duty, or right.
  - d. Release registration of a trust.
2. Neither registration of a trust nor a proceeding under this section result in continuing supervisory proceedings. The management and distribution of a trust estate, submission of accounts and reports to beneficiaries, payment of trustee's fees and other obligations of a trust, acceptance and change of trusteeship, and other aspects of the administration of a trust shall proceed expeditiously consistent with the terms of the trust, free of judicial intervention and without order, approval, or other action of any court, subject to the jurisdiction of the district ~~or county~~ court invoked by interested parties or as otherwise exercised as provided by law.

30.1-33-03. (7-203) Trust proceedings - Dismissal of matters relating to foreign trusts. The district ~~or county~~ court will not, over the objection of a party, entertain proceedings under section 30.1-33-01 involving a trust registered or having its principal place of administration in another state, unless:

1. All appropriate parties could not be bound by litigation in the courts of the state where the trust is registered or has its principal place of administration; or
2. The interests of justice otherwise would seriously be impaired.

The district ~~or county~~ court may condition a stay or dismissal of a proceeding under this section on the consent of any party to jurisdiction of the state in which the trust is registered or has its principal place of business, or the district ~~or county~~ court may grant a continuance or enter any other appropriate order.

30.1-33-04. (7-204) District ~~and county~~ court —~~Concurrent~~ jurisdiction of litigation involving trusts and third parties. The district ~~or county~~ court of the place in which the trust is registered has concurrent jurisdiction with other district ~~or county~~ courts of this state of actions and proceedings to determine the existence or nonexistence of trusts created other than by will, of actions by or against creditors or debtors of trusts, and of other actions and proceedings involving trustees and third parties. Venue is determined by the rules generally applicable to civil actions.

30.1-33-05. (7-205) Proceedings for review of employment of agents and review of compensation of trustee and employees of trust. On petition of an interested person, after notice to all interested persons, the district ~~or county~~ court may review the propriety of employment of any person by a trustee, including any attorney, auditor, investment adviser, or other specialized agent or assistant, and the reasonableness of the compensation of any person so employed, and the reasonableness of the compensation determined by the trustee for his own services. Any person who has received excessive compensation from a trust may be ordered to make appropriate refunds.

30.1-33-06. (7-206) Trust proceedings - Initiation by notice - Necessary parties. Proceedings under section 30.1-33-01 are initiated by filing a petition in the district ~~or county~~ court and giving notice pursuant to section 30.1-03-01 to interested parties. The district ~~or county~~ court may order notification of additional persons. A decree is valid as to all who are given notice of the proceeding though fewer than all interested parties are notified.

SECTION 127. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 30.1-34-03 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Within thirty days after ~~his~~ the trustee's acceptance of the trust, the trustee shall inform, in writing, the current beneficiaries and if possible, one or more persons who under section 30.1-03-03 may represent beneficiaries with future interests, of the district ~~or~~ county court in which the trust is registered and of his the trustee's name and address.

30.1-34-04. (7-304) Duty to provide bond. A trustee shall provide bond to secure performance of his the trustee's duties unless the terms of the trust expressly excuse the trustee from furnishing bond. On petition of the trustee or other interested person, the district or county court may excuse a requirement of bond, reduce the amount of the bond, release the surety, or permit the substitution of another bond with the same or different sureties. If bond is required, it ~~shall~~ must be filed in the court of registration or other appropriate court in amounts and with the sureties and liabilities as provided in sections 30.1-17-04 and 30.1-17-06 relating to bonds of personal representatives.

30.1-34-05. (7-305) Trustee's duties - Appropriate place of administration - Deviation. A trustee is under a continuing duty to administer the trust at a place appropriate to the purposes of the trust and to its sound, efficient management. If the principal place of administration becomes inappropriate for any reason, the district or county court may enter any order furthering efficient administration and the interests of beneficiaries, including, if appropriate, release of registration, removal of the trustee, and appointment of a trustee in another state. Trust provisions relating to the place of administration and to changes in the place of administration or of trustee control unless compliance would be contrary to efficient administration or the purposes of the trust. Views of adult beneficiaries ~~shall~~ must be given weight in determining the suitability of the trustee and the place of administration.

31-01-16. Compensation and mileage and travel expense of witness - County to pay fees except for district court fees in criminal action. A witness in a civil or criminal case is entitled to receive:

1. A sum of twenty-five dollars for each day necessarily in attendance before the district or county court or before any other ~~court,~~ board, or tribunal, except municipal court.
2. A sum for mileage and travel expense reimbursement equal to the reimbursement rates provided for state employees in sections 44-08-04 and 54-06-09.

In all criminal cases such, witness fees and expenses on the part of the state must be paid out of the county treasury of the proper county except that in district court cases the attorney general shall pay prosecution witness fees and expenses, and the supreme court shall pay other witness fees for indigents and expenses. Prisoners may not be compensated as witnesses under this section.

31-01-18. Expenses of witness paid by city, ~~county,~~ or state upon court order in criminal or municipal court action. When a person, as a witness in a criminal or municipal court action, appears before a magistrate, grand jury, or court, upon a subpoena or in pursuance of an undertaking and it appears that the person:

1. Has come from a place outside the county; or
2. Is poor and unable to pay the expenses of such attendance, the court, if the attendance of the witness is upon a trial, by order upon its minutes, or in any other case, the judge, by a written order, may direct the state in district court cases, ~~the county in county court cases,~~ or the city in municipal court cases to pay the witness a reasonable sum to be specified in the order for the necessary expenses of the witness's attendance. Upon the production of the order or a certified copy thereof, the state, ~~county,~~ or city, to whichever entity the order is directed, must pay the witness the sum specified. In district court cases, the attorney general shall pay prosecution witness expenses and the supreme court shall pay other witness expenses.

32-19-23. When notice not required. If the record title to real estate is in the name of a deceased person, no notice before foreclosure need be served unless an administrator or executor of the estate of ~~such the~~ deceased person has been appointed by the ~~county~~ district court of ~~of serving~~ the county in which ~~such the~~ real estate is situated. The certificate of the judge or clerk of the ~~county~~ district court of ~~of serving~~ the county in which the real estate is situated stating that no such administrator or executor has been appointed in that county may be recorded in the office of the register of deeds and ~~shall be~~ is sufficient evidence of that fact.

32-19-24. Service of notice on administrator or executor. If an administrator or executor of the estate of the deceased owner has been appointed in the county where the real estate is situated, the notice before foreclosure ~~shall~~ must be served upon ~~him~~ the administrator or executor. Service may be made by registered or certified mail addressed to ~~him at his~~ the administrator's or executor's post-office address as shown by the records of the ~~county~~ district court by which ~~he~~ the administrator or executor was appointed.

32-19-30. Service by publication - How made. Service of the summons may be made by publication if the plaintiff files a verified complaint in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county where the action is commenced, setting forth a claim for relief in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendants, for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien upon real estate, and when the plaintiff files in said that office an affidavit signed by the plaintiff or ~~his~~ the plaintiff's attorney substantially in the following form:

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA            ) ) ss.
County of ----- )

Affiant further says that the defendants (naming them) ----- appear to have an interest in or lien or encumbrance upon the real estate described in the complaint in this action, that such interest or lien is subject and inferior to the lien of the plaintiff being foreclosed; that plaintiff seeks no personal judgment against the defendants, if any, (naming them) ----- and seeks only to bar and exclude said the defendants from any interest in or lien or encumbrance upon the real estate described in the complaint, save and except the right of redemption as provided by law; that the residences of the defendants, if any, (naming them) ----- are not shown upon the records of the office of the register of deeds, county auditor, or clerk of the district court of ----- County, that being the county in which the real estate involved in this action is situated; that the residences of the defendants, if any, (naming them) ----- are as follows: -----; that affiant does not know the residences of the defendants, if any, (naming them) -----; that the defendants, if any, (naming them) ----- are deceased, and it does not appear by the records in the office of the judge of the county district court in and for serving ----- County, that being the county in which the real estate described in the complaint in the action is situated, that any administration upon the estate of said defendant is now pending; and that the defendants, if any, (naming them) ----- are deceased, and that ----- of ----- is the duly appointed, qualified, and acting administrator or executor, as the case may be, of the estate of said the deceased.

32-22-18. Informal commitment from county district judge. If the person is committed to prison, or is in custody of an officer on a criminal charge, by virtue of a warrant of commitment of a county district judge, such the person must not be discharged on the ground of any mere defect of form in the warrant of commitment.

32-24-01. When question may be certified. Where any cause is at issue, civil or criminal, in any district court or county court in this state and the issue of the same will depend principally or wholly on the construction of the law applicable thereto, and such construction or interpretation is in doubt and vital, or of great moment in the cause, the judge of any such court, on the application of the attorney for the plaintiff or defendant in a civil cause, and upon the application of the attorneys for the plaintiff and defendant in a criminal cause, may halt all proceedings until such the question shall have been certified to and determined by the supreme court and by it determined.

33-06-01. When eviction maintainable. An action of eviction to recover the possession of real estate is maintainable in the proper county district court when:

1. A party, by force, intimidation, fraud, or stealth, has entered upon the prior actual possession of real property of another and detains the same.
2. A party, after entering peaceably upon real property, turns out by force, threats, or menacing conduct the party in possession.
3. A party, by force or by menaces and threats of violence, unlawfully holds and keeps the possession of any real property, whether the same was acquired peaceably or otherwise.
4. A lessee, in person or by subtenant, holds over after the termination of his the lease or expiration of his the lessee's term, or fails to pay his rent for three days after the same shall be rent is due.
5. A party continues in possession after a sale of the real property under mortgage, execution, order, or any judicial process and after the expiration of the time fixed by law for redemption, or after the execution and delivery of a deed, or after the cancellation and termination of any contract for deed, bond for deed, or other instrument for the future conveyance of real estate or equity therein.
6. A party continues wrongfully in possession after a judgment in partition or after a sale under an order or decree of a county district court.

33-06-03. Legal representatives may bring eviction actions. Executors and administrators may bring actions of eviction in the county district courts in the same manner as their testators and intestates, as the case may be.

33-06-04. Eviction actions not joinable with other actions - Exception - When counterclaims only interposable. An action of eviction cannot be brought in a county district court in connection with any other action, except for rents and profits accrued or for damages arising by reason of the defendant's possession. No counterclaim can be interposed in such action, except as a setoff to a demand made for damages or for rents and profits.

36-01-18. Inspection of livestock in transit - Penalty. The state veterinarian and authorized agents and representatives of the state board of animal health, for purposes of inspecting livestock in transit for health or ownership identification, may stop vehicles transporting livestock on public highways of this state. When signaled by the state veterinarian or an authorized agent or representative of the board to stop, the operator of any vehicle shall stop the vehicle, show any health or identification forms which are required to be carried in transportation of livestock, and permit the inspector to make an inspection of the livestock being transported if deemed by the inspector to be necessary. Failure to stop when so directed is a class A misdemeanor. The inspector is authorized to use a stop signal.

The state board of animal health, the state veterinarian, or any authorized agent or representative of the board, may call any sheriff or deputy sheriff, police officer, or highway patrol officer, to execute its orders, and those officers must obey. Any law enforcement officer may arrest and take before any county district judge of serving the county any person found violating any of the provisions of this chapter. The law enforcement officer shall immediately notify the state's attorney of the county of the arrest, and the state's attorney shall prosecute the person found violating any provision of this chapter.

36-11-10. Trespassing animals may be distrained - Notice to owner - Security for release. The person suffering damages by reason of the trespass of any livestock may take up the offending animal or animals. He The person suffering damages shall notify the owner, or the person in possession of the livestock at the time of the trespass, of the seizure of such animal or animals without unnecessary delay, if the owner or person in possession is known to him the person suffering damages and is a resident of, and present within, the county in which the trespass occurred. He The person suffering damages may retain such animal or animals in his that person's custody until:

1. The damages sustained by reason of such trespass and the costs in the action to recover such damages have been paid; or
2. Good and sufficient security for the payment of such the damages and costs is given, such security to be approved by a county district judge of serving the county in which the livestock is taken up.

If the owner of the offending animal or animals elects to give security, he the owner shall give to the person holding the livestock notice that security will be given and the date and hour when such security will be submitted to the county district judge for approval. Such The notice must be given at least one day prior to the date set for the submission of the security to the judge. The cost of serving notices required under this section may be taxed as costs in the action. Where applicable, the provisions of section 36-11-07 may be raised as an affirmative defense in any proceedings under this section, and the owner or person entitled to possession of such livestock may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the return of the livestock. If the court finds that such the livestock have been wrongfully distrained, the person who causes such the livestock to be wrongfully distrained is liable for all damages suffered by the owner or person entitled to possession of such the livestock, together with the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees.

36-11-11. Procedure when security given. When security for the payment of damages and costs is approved by the county district judge, the judge shall issue an order directed to the person holding the livestock to deliver such the stock to the person entitled thereto, and the officer receiving such the order shall take such the livestock and deliver the same it to such the person. The cost of the proceedings may be charged as a part of the costs in the action to determine the rights of the parties regarding the livestock distrained for the trespass.

37-15-18. Commandant as administrator - Bond not required - Fees - Allowance of fees by county district court. Upon becoming administrator of any estate as provided in section 37-15-17, the commandant is not required to give bond, and ~~he~~ is not entitled to charge or receive any compensation for ~~his~~ the commandant's services as administrator. The county district court of servicing the county where the administration proceedings are had shall not make nor allow any charge or fee in connection with the administration proceedings other than the actual disbursements of the administrator.

37-16-04. Officers of political subdivisions to furnish data to adjutant general upon request. Upon the request of the adjutant general, the executive officer of each city, the supervisors of each township, and ~~the~~ county a district judge of servicing each county in this state shall furnish data to the adjutant general relative to unmarked graves of soldiers, sailors, and marines by giving a list of the sites of such unmarked graves in their respective subdivisions.

SECTION 145. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 38-10-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. "County District court" means the county district court having jurisdiction of the estate of which the personal representative involved is administrator, executor, or guardian, as the case may be.

38-10-03. Term of lease for production - Conditions and limitations in lease. A lease for production made by a personal representative may be made subject to the confirmation of the county district court, for a period of not more than ten years, and it may be extended thereafter as long as oil or gas is produced from such land by the lessee or ~~his~~ the lessee's assigns or the lessee or ~~his~~ the lessee's assigns is engaged in continuous drilling or reworking operations. Such a lease must be made upon such terms and in consideration of such bonuses, royalties, rentals, and payments as may be agreed upon except that in no case may the royalty be:

1. Less than equal to a one-eighth part of all oil produced and saved from the leased premises;
2. Less than equal to a one-eighth part of the gross proceeds at the prevailing market rate at the well for all gas used off the premises, when gas only is found on the leased premises; nor
3. Less than one-eighth of the gross proceeds at the prevailing market rate at the well for gas, during all times that such gas is used, when gas is produced from any oil well and used off the premises or for the manufacture of casinghead gasoline or dry commercial gas.

No lease for production is effective for a period of more than two years from its date unless mining or a well is commenced on such land within such time, except that the lease may provide that the lessee may pay a delay rental in an amount that may be specified in the lease. Such payment operates as a rental and covers the privilege of deferring the commencement of mining or of a well for one year. A lease may provide for the payment of successive delay rentals which defers the commencement of mining or of a well for like successive periods. Any lease made by a personal representative under the authority of this section may provide for the pooling or unitization of the lease land, or any part or parts thereof, and of any mineral or royalty interest therein, with land adjoining or in the vicinity of the leased land, or any mineral or royalty interest therein, so as to form a unit for development and purpose of operation. Operations or production on any such unitized area shall have the same effect as operations or production on the leased land. The lease may provide for payment of a proportionate part of the royalties on production from any such unitized area to the personal representative in lieu of the royalties provided in the lease as to the area so unitized. A personal representative, upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter, may also enter into agreements pooling or unitizing existing leases. Upon the execution, approval, and delivery of a production lease, all persons interested in the estate are bound thereby during the entire period thereof.

38-10-05. Personal representative may sell mineral, oil, and gas rights separately from surface rights. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the county district court that it is necessary for the payment of the family allowance or of claims, expenses of administration, or legacies, or that it is for the advantage, benefit, or best interests of the estate of a decedent, minor, or incompetent, and of the persons interested therein, that the whole or some undivided fractional part of the oil, gas, or other minerals in or under, or that may be produced from, land belonging to the estate should be sold separately from the surface rights, the personal representative may sell the same, upon order of the county district court.

38-10-06. Petition required to obtain order of license - Contents of petition - Citation issued on petition. To obtain an order of the county district court for the sale of oil, gas, or other mineral rights, a verified petition must be presented to and filed with the court setting forth the matters required by law to be contained in a petition for the sale of real estate and in addition thereto setting forth the quantity of the interest in the oil, gas, or other minerals desired to be sold and the probable amount to be realized on the sale thereof. A citation must be issued on the petition and served in the manner provided by this code law for the service of citations in county district court. If all persons interested in the estate join in the petition or signify in writing their assent thereto or waive service of notice thereof, the hearing may be had at any time.

38-10-08. Order of license to sell oil, gas, or mineral rights and procedure thereafter. If it appears to the county district court, after the hearing provided for in this chapter, that it is necessary, or for the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the estate and of the persons interested therein, to sell the whole or some fractional part of the oil, gas, or minerals in and under, and that may be produced from, land belonging to the estate, the court may enter its order of license authorizing the sale of the whole or any fractional part thereof separately from the surface rights. Thereafter, further proceedings must be had and conducted in compliance with the provisions of sections 30.1-13-04, 30.1-18-03, 30.1-18-04, 30.1-18-11, 30.1-18-15, and 30.1-19-08.

39-06-16. License to be carried and exhibited on demand. Every licensee shall have his the licensee's operator's license or permit in his the licensee's immediate possession at all times when operating a motor vehicle and shall display the same, upon demand of any district court, municipal court, county court, a patrolman, peace officer, or a field deputy or inspector of the highway department. However, no person charged with violating this section may be convicted or assessed any court costs if he the person produces in court, to the chief of police or in the office of the arresting officer an operator's license or permit theretofore issued to him that person and valid and not under suspension, revocation, or cancellation at the time of his the person's arrest.

SECTION 151. AMENDMENT. Subdivision a of subsection 5 and subsection 7 of section 39-06.1-03 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

5. a. If a person is aggrieved by a finding that he the person committed the violation, he the person may, without payment of a filing fee, appeal that finding to the district court or county court for trial anew. If, after trial in the appellate court, the person is again found to have committed the violation, there may be no further appeal. Notice of appeal under this subsection must be given within thirty days after a finding of commission of a violation is entered by the official. Oral notice of appeal may be given to the official at the time that the official adjudges that a violation has been committed. Otherwise, notice of appeal must be in writing and filed with the official, and a copy of the notice must be served upon the prosecuting attorney. An appeal taken under this subsection may not operate to stay the reporting requirement of subsection 4, nor to stay appropriate action by the licensing authority upon receipt of that report.

7. As used in sections 39-06.1-02, 39-06.1-03, and 39-06.1-04, the word "official" means a district judge, a judge of a county court, a municipal judge, or, when provided by statute, a person appointed by a district judge to serve as such official for all or a specified part of a judicial district.

40-02-16. Arbitration of differences between township and newly organized municipality upon division of property and indebtedness. If the officers of a township and of a municipality which has been organized from territory situated therein cannot agree upon the valuation of any real estate, or of any indivisible property which is held jointly, or upon the just apportionment of the joint indebtedness, the officers of the township or municipality, upon five days' notice of the time and place, may apply to the county judge district court serving the county in which the township or municipality is located for arbitration of such differences. Thereupon, the county district judge shall appoint three freeholders of the county, not residents or taxpayers of the municipality or township involved, to act as arbitrators. After being duly sworn to perform the duties imposed upon them, the arbitrators shall view and appraise the property and fix the valuation thereof for the purpose of making the division. If the property to be divided is personal property and no satisfactory arrangement can be made otherwise, it ~~shall~~ must be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, and the municipality and township may bid at ~~such~~ the sale.

40-09-16. Board may summon and compel attendance of witnesses and books - Punish for contempt - Process. Whenever it is necessary for the more effective discharge of its duties, the board of city commissioners may summon and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers before it. The board may punish for contempt of the board with the same fines and penalties as the county a district judge may inflict for contempt of the county district court. All process necessary to enforce the powers conferred by this section ~~shall~~ must be signed by the president of the board, attested by the city auditor, and served by any member of the police force of the city.

40-11-13. Fines and forfeitures for violation of ordinances paid into treasury. All fines, penalties, and forfeitures collected for offenses against the ordinances of a city, including those fines, penalties, and forfeitures collected as a result of a judgment of a county district court rendered pursuant to section 40-18-19, ~~shall~~ must be paid into the city's treasury at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by ordinance.

1. The municipal judge within a city having a population of five thousand or more must be licensed to practice law in this state, unless no person so licensed is available in the city. In a city with a population of less than five thousand, the municipal judge need not be licensed to practice law in this state, nor may the judge be required to be a resident of the city. ~~The offices of municipal judge and county judge may not be held by the same person, except pursuant to assignment of the presiding judge of the judicial district.~~ The municipal judge has jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine offenses against the ordinances of the city.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the municipal court has no jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine an offense which would be a violation of section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance, if the person charged with the offense has twice previously been convicted of violation of section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance within the five years preceding the commission of the offense charged or if the person charged with the offense has three times previously been convicted of violation of section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance within the seven years preceding the commission of the offense charged. If such an offense is charged in the municipal court and the municipal judge has notice of violation of section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance twice within the five years, or three times within the seven years, preceding the commission of the offense charged, the municipal judge shall dismiss the charge, without prejudice, and direct that the charge be filed against the person in the county district court.

40-18-06.2. Transfer of municipal ordinance cases to county court - Abolition of office of municipal judge. With the agreement of the governing body of the county, or the counties of the multicounty agreement area pursuant to section 27-07.1-02, the governing body of a city may, by ordinance, transfer some or all of the cases of the municipal court to the county court of the county in which the city is located. These cases are deemed county court cases for purposes of appeal. The governing body of a city with a population of less than five thousand, upon transferring all municipal court cases to the county, may abolish, by resolution, the office of municipal judge. The term of office of the municipal judge elected to serve that city terminates upon the date the governing body of the city abolishes the office of municipal judge.

40-18-06.2. Transfer of municipal ordinance cases to county district court - Abolition of office of municipal judge. With the agreement of the governing body of the county, or the counties of the multicounty agreement area pursuant to section 27-07.1-02 the presiding judge of the judicial district in which the city is located, and the state court administrator, the governing body of a city may, by ordinance, transfer some or all of the cases of the municipal court to the county district court of serving the county in which the city is located. These cases are deemed county district court cases for purposes of appeal. The governing body of a city with a population of less than five thousand, upon transferring all municipal court cases to the district court, may abolish, by resolution, the office of municipal judge. The term of office of the municipal judge elected to serve that city terminates upon the date the governing body of the city abolishes the office of municipal judge.

40-18-15. Trials in nonjury cases arising under the ordinances of a city. An action for the violation of a city ordinance for which the right to a jury trial does not otherwise exist or in which the defendant has timely and appropriately waived a right to a jury trial in writing pursuant to rules of the supreme court, may be tried and determined by the municipal judge without the intervention of a jury. In the event of an adverse verdict in a municipal court trial, a defendant may appeal as provided in section 40-18-19, but a waiver of jury trial in the municipal court proceeding also constitutes a waiver of jury trial in the county district court.

40-18-15.1. Transfer to county district court if jury trial not waived - Expenses of prosecution - Division of funds between city and county, and state. If within twenty-eight days after arraignment a defendant has not waived in writing the defendant's right to a jury trial in a case where it otherwise exists, the matter must be transferred to the county district court for trial. The city shall provide a prosecuting attorney and, in the case of any indigent defendant, a defense attorney. The city may contract with the county, state, or any individual or entity for prosecution or defense services. In the contract, the city and the county, and state may agree by resolutions of the respective governing bodies, to a division of all fees, fines, costs, forfeitures, and any other monetary consideration collected from cases transferred under this section. ~~The share of fees, fines, costs, forfeitures, and any other monetary consideration due to the city, which must be paid to the city and county treasury at least once each quarter, while the share due to the county must be paid to the county general fund at least once each quarter.~~ At the time of payment, the county district court shall account under oath to the city auditor and county for all money collected.

40-18-19. Appeals from determinations of municipal judge. An appeal may be taken to the county district court from a judgment of conviction or order deferring imposition of sentence in a municipal court in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Criminal Procedure. An appeal is perfected by notice of appeal. A perfected appeal to the county district court transfers the action to such county district court for trial anew. On all appeals from a determination in a municipal court, the appellate district court shall take judicial notice of all of the ordinances of the city. No filing fee may be required in ~~county~~ district court for the filing of an appeal from a judgment of conviction for the violation of a municipal ordinance. Expenses necessary for the adequate defense of a needy person in an appeal to district ~~or county~~ court from a judgment of conviction for the violation of a municipal ordinance, as approved by the presiding district ~~or county~~ judge, must be paid by the city wherein the alleged offense took place.

59-05-55. District ~~or county~~ court acts if testator omits to designate trustee. When a power in trust is created by will and the testator has omitted to designate, expressly or by necessary implication, by whom the power is to be executed, its execution devolves on the district ~~or county~~ court.

SECTION 203. REPEAL. Sections 11-09-22, 11-09-23, 11-11-12, and 11-15-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, and sections 24-07-25, 27-01-04, 27-01-05, chapters 27-07.1 and 27-08.2, sections 27-09.1-21 and 27-20-04, chapter 27-26, and section 31-09-07 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

SECTION 204. EFFECTIVE DATE. Sections 2 through 82, 84, 85, 87, 88, 91 through 155, and 157 through 203 of this Act become effective on January 2, 1995.

SECTION 205. EXPIRATION DATE. Section 156 of this Act is effective through January 1, 1995, and after that date is ineffective.

SECTION 206. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The legislative assembly recognizes that this Act to implement article VI, section 1, of the Constitution of North Dakota, while it makes no present statutory change in the current distribution of court revenue, will result in the transfer of responsibility for certain court expenditures beginning January 2, 1995, from the counties to the state, including judicial compensation expenditures associated with the transition from county court judgeships to district court judgeships. The counties will remain responsible for all county court services until January 1, 1995, and thereafter will remain responsible for all other substantial court expenditures, including costs associated with the provision of courthouse facilities and the office and staff of clerk of district court in each county.

The legislative assembly also recognizes that the present allocation of court revenue will change substantially, without the need for statutory revision, due to anticipated changes in judicial practices associated with the imposition of fines and the assessment of court costs, thereby subjecting counties to diminished court revenues and the state to increased fine revenues to the common schools trust fund. Although it is difficult to assess the precise fiscal impact of the transition from county court judgeships to district court judgeships, the legislative assembly recognizes that the required reduction in the present number of judges under this Act will result in a substantial cost savings to all taxpayers of North Dakota through the judicial reductions that will occur, regardless of whether the court expenditures are borne by the counties or the state.

Therefore, it is the intent of the legislative assembly that the interim legislative council committee assigned to review and monitor the implementation of this Act pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4043, as approved by the fifty-second legislative assembly, in conjunction with the office of the state court administrator, perform a detailed analysis of the fiscal implications of this Act prior to the convening of the fifty-third legislative assembly and the fifty-fourth legislative assembly. It is the intent of the legislative assembly that the transition to a single trial court of general jurisdiction include revision of the distribution of court revenues and legislative appropriations from the state general fund to provide a fair and equitable allocation of expenditures between the counties and the state.

COUNTY JUDGE COMPENSATION COMMISSION

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 27-07.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the creation of a county court judge compensation commission; and to provide an expiration date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 27-07.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

County court judge compensation commission - Creation - Duties. There is hereby created a county court judge compensation commission. The commission must be composed of two county court judges, two county commissioners, one county auditor, and an attorney in private practice. None of the six members of the commission may reside in the same county. The commission members serve from July first of odd-numbered years until June 30 of the following odd-numbered year and may succeed themselves upon reappointment by their respective appointing authorities. At the initial meeting of the commission, it shall select one of the county judge members as its presiding official.

The county judge members must be appointed by the judicial conference, the county commission members and the county auditor member must be appointed by the association of counties and the attorney must be appointed by the state bar association. Each member must currently hold the office qualifying the member for appointment to the commission. One county court judge member must currently serve as a county court judge of a multi-county district and one must currently serve a single county.

Commission members shall serve without compensation. The expenses of commission members are the responsibility of the appointing authorities.

The commission shall meet no later than December of each even-numbered year for the purpose of studying and recommending county judges' compensation to the legislative assembly. The commission shall submit its written report with supporting documentation to the legislative assembly, through the director of the legislative council and to the respective appointing authorities no later than the day upon which the legislative assembly convenes. The report of the commission is not binding upon the legislative assembly.

The commission or its designee shall, if requested by any committee of the legislative assembly, appear before such committee and give testimony regarding the commission's recommendations.

SECTION 2. EXPIRATION DATE. This Act is effective through June 30, 1995, and after that date is ineffective.

SENATE BILL NO. 2335
(Senators Nalewaja, Jerome, Traynor)
(Representatives Mahoney, Schmidt, Trautman)

SMALL CLAIMS COURT JURISDICTION

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 27-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to dismissal of a case without prejudice; and to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 27-08.1-01 and section 27-08.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the jurisdictional limit and amount of counterclaims in small claims courts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 27-08.1-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. All judges of the county courts shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred by this chapter, and while sitting in the exercise of said jurisdiction shall be known and referred to as the "small claims court". The jurisdiction of such court is confined to cases for recovery of money, or the cancellation of any agreement involving material fraud, deception, misrepresentation, or false promise, where the value of the agreement or the amount claimed by the plaintiff or the defendant does not exceed ~~two~~ three thousand dollars.

27-08.1-03. Informal hearing - Answer and counterclaim - Filing and service fees - Examination of debtor. No formal pleadings other than the claim affidavit and order for appearance shall be required, and the hearing and disposition of actions shall be informal. No court reporter shall be required to be present to take the testimony unless arranged for and paid for by one of the parties to the action. The defendant may file an answer, and file a claim affidavit setting forth any new matter constituting a counterclaim, not to exceed ~~two~~ three thousand dollars, which must be served upon the plaintiff by a person of legal age not a party to or interested in the action, or mailed to him by certified mail, not later than forty-eight hours before the hearing set for the appearance of the defendant. The compulsory counterclaim rule does not apply to counterclaims in excess of ~~two~~ three thousand dollars. At the hearing, the plaintiff and the defendant may appear without counsel. The court will conduct the proceedings and may make its own inquiry before, during, or after the hearing. After the court has found that money is owing by any party to the proceeding, the court may, in the presence of the prevailing party, inquire of the debtor as to plans for payment of the debt. The court may examine the debtor concerning the property owned by the debtor, at the hearing, as would be made under chapter 28-25. The examination may be made without first having issued an execution against the property of the debtor and without further notice as otherwise provided in chapter 28-25. A trial by jury shall not be allowed in small claims court. A fee as prescribed in subsection 2 of section 11-17-04 must be charged for filing the claim affidavit.

SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 27-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Dismissal without prejudice. If the judge determines at any stage of the proceedings that the case may not be fairly disposed of in small claims court, the judge may dismiss the case without prejudice. A determination that a case may not be fairly disposed of in small claims court must be based on complexity of factual or legal issues or a determination that relief other than money damages or cancellation of an agreement is necessary to dispose of the case. If a case is dismissed under this section, the filing fee must be refunded to the plaintiff.

JURY SELECTION AND SERVICE

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 27-09.1-03, 27-09.1-05, 27-09.1-07, subsection 1 of section 27-09.1-08, sections 27-09.1-09, 27-09.1-12, 27-09.1-13, and subsection 1 of section 27-09.1-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to juries; and to repeal sections 27-09.1-04 and 27-09.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to uniform jury selection and service.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

27-09.1-03. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Court" means the district court of this state, and includes, when the context requires, any judge of the court;
2. "Clerk" and "clerk of court" include any deputy clerk;
3. "Master list" means the list of actual voters for the county which shall be supplemented with names from other sources prescribed pursuant to this chapter (section 27-09.1-05) in order to foster the policy and protect the rights secured by this chapter (sections 27-09.1-01 and 27-09.1-02);
4. "Lists of actual voters" means the official records of persons actually voting in the most recent general election;
5. "Jury wheel" means any physical device or electronic system for the storage of the names or identifying numbers of prospective jurors;
6. "Master jury wheel" means the jury wheel in which are placed names or identifying numbers of prospective jurors taken from the master list (section 27-09.1-06);
7. "Qualified jury wheel" means the jury wheel in which are placed the names or identifying numbers of prospective jurors whose names are drawn at random from the master jury wheel (section 27-09.1-07) and who are not disqualified (section 27-09.1-08).

27-09.1-05. Master list.

* NOTE: Section 27-09.1-05 was also amended by section 17 of Senate Bill No. 2068, chapter 54.

1. The jury commission clerk for each county shall compile and maintain a master list consisting of all lists of actual voters for the county supplemented with names from other lists of persons resident therein, such as lists of utility customers, property taxpayers, motor vehicle registrations, and driver's licenses, which the supreme court of this state from time to time designates. ~~The supreme court shall initially designate the other lists within ninety days following the effective date of this chapter and exercise the authority to designate from time to time in order to foster the policy of and protect the rights secured by this chapter (sections 27-09.1-01 and 27-09.1-02).~~ In compiling the master list the jury commission clerk shall avoid duplication of names.
2. Whoever has custody, possession, or control of any of the lists making up or used in compiling the master list, including those designated under subsection 1 by the supreme court as supplementary sources of names, shall make the list available to the jury commission clerk for inspection, reproduction, and copying at all reasonable times.
3. The master list shall be open to the public for examination.

27-09.1-07. ~~Drawings from master jury wheel~~— Juror qualification form.

1. From time to time and in a manner prescribed by the court, the jury commission publicly shall draw at random from the master jury wheel the names or identifying numbers of as many prospective jurors as the court by order requires. ~~The clerk shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names drawn. Neither the names drawn nor the list shall be disclosed to any person other than pursuant to this chapter or specific order of the court. The clerk shall mail to every the prospective juror whose name is drawn from the master jury wheel a juror a qualification form accompanied by instructions to fill out and return the form by mail to the clerk within ten days after its receipt. The juror qualification form shall be subject to approval by the state court administrator as to matters of form and shall elicit the name, address of residence, and age of the prospective juror and whether the prospective juror:~~
  - a. Is a citizen of the United States and a resident of the county;
  - b. Is able with reasonable accommodation to communicate and understand the English language;
  - c. Has any physical or mental disability impairing ~~his~~ the prospective juror's capacity to render satisfactory jury service; and
  - d. Has lost the right to vote because of imprisonment resulting from conviction of a felony (section 27-09.1-08).

The juror qualification form shall contain the prospective juror's declaration that ~~his~~ the responses are true to the best of ~~his~~ the prospective juror's knowledge and ~~his~~ the prospective juror's acknowledgment that a willful misrepresentation of a material fact may be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both. Notarization of the juror qualification form shall not be required. If the prospective juror is unable to fill out the form, another person may do it for ~~him~~ the prospective juror and shall indicate that ~~he has done so~~ fact and the reason therefor. If it appears there is an omission, ambiguity, or error in a returned form, the clerk shall again send the form with instructions to the prospective juror to make the necessary addition, clarification, or correction and to return the form to the jury commission clerk within ten days after its second receipt.

2. Any prospective juror who fails to return a completed juror qualification form as instructed shall be directed by the jury commission clerk to appear forthwith before the clerk to fill out the juror qualification form. At the time of ~~his~~ the prospective juror's appearance for jury service, or at the time of any interview before the court or clerk, ~~any~~ the prospective juror may be required to fill out another juror qualification form in the presence of the court or clerk, at which time the prospective juror may be questioned, but only with regard to ~~his~~ responses to questions contained on the form and grounds for ~~his~~ excuse or disqualification. Any information thus acquired by the court or clerk shall be noted on the juror qualification form.
3. A prospective juror who fails to appear as directed by the commission clerk pursuant to subsection 1 shall be ordered by the court to appear and show cause for ~~his~~ failure to appear as directed. If the prospective juror fails to appear pursuant to the court's order or fails to show good cause for ~~his~~ failure to appear as directed by the jury commission clerk, ~~he~~ the prospective juror is guilty of criminal contempt and upon conviction may be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than three days, or both.
4. Any person who willfully misrepresents a material fact on a juror qualification form for the purpose of avoiding or securing service as a juror is guilty of a class B misdemeanor and upon conviction may be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 27-09.1-08 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. The court, upon request of the jury commission clerk of court or a prospective juror or on its own initiative, shall determine on the basis of information provided on the juror qualification form or interview with the prospective juror or other competent evidence whether the prospective juror is disqualified for jury service. The clerk shall enter this determination in the space provided on the juror qualification form and on the alphabetical list of names drawn from the master jury wheel as otherwise directed by the state court administrator.

27-09.1-09. Qualified jury wheel - Selection and summoning Summoning of jury panels.

1. The jury commission shall maintain a qualified jury wheel and shall place therein the names or identifying numbers of all prospective jurors drawn from the master jury wheel who are not disqualified ~~(section 27-09.1-08)~~.
2. A judge of any court or any other state or county official having authority to conduct a trial or hearing with a jury within the county may direct the jury commission to draw and assign to that court or official the number of qualified jurors he deems necessary for one or more jury panels or as required by law for a grand jury. Upon receipt of the direction and in a manner prescribed by the court, the jury commission shall publicly draw at random from the qualified jury wheel the number of qualified jurors specified. The qualified jurors drawn for jury service shall be assigned at random by the clerk to each jury panel in a manner prescribed by the court.
3. If a grand, petit, or other jury is ordered to be drawn, the clerk thereafter shall cause each person drawn for jury service to be served with a summons either personally or by first-class mail, addressed to the person at his or her that person's usual residence, business, or post-office address, requiring the person to report for jury service at a specified time and place.
4. 2. If there is an unanticipated shortage of available petit jurors ~~drawn from a qualified jury wheel~~, the court may require the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of petit jurors selected at random by the clerk ~~from the qualified jury wheel~~ in a manner prescribed by the court.
5. 3. A written procedure by which persons' names are drawn for jury service must be available for public review. The names of qualified jurors ~~drawn from the qualified jury wheel~~ and the contents of jury qualification forms completed by those jurors shall be made available to the public unless the court determines in any instance that this information in the interest of justice should be kept confidential or its use limited in whole or in part.

27-09.1-12. Challenging compliance with selection procedures.

1. Within seven days after the moving party discovered or by the exercise of diligence could have discovered the grounds therefor, and in any event before the petit jury is sworn to try the case, a party may move to stay the proceedings, and in a criminal case to quash the indictment or information, or for other appropriate relief, on the ground of a substantial failure to comply with this chapter in selecting the grand or petit jury.

2. Upon motion filed under subsection 1 containing a sworn statement of facts which, if true, would constitute a substantial failure to comply with this chapter, the moving party is entitled to present in support of the motion the testimony of the ~~jury commissioner or the clerk~~, any relevant records and papers not public or otherwise available used by the ~~jury commissioner or the clerk~~, and any other relevant evidence. If the court determines that in selecting either a grand jury or a petit jury there has been a substantial failure to comply with this chapter, the court shall stay the proceedings pending the selection of the jury in conformity with this chapter, quash an indictment or information, or grant other appropriate relief.
3. The procedures prescribed by this section are the exclusive means by which a person accused of a crime, the state, or a party in a civil case may challenge a jury on the ground that the jury was not selected in conformity with this chapter.
4. The contents of any records or papers used by ~~the jury commissioner or the clerk~~ in connection with the selection process and not made public under this chapter shall not be disclosed, except in connection with the preparation or presentation of a motion under subsection 1, until after ~~the master jury wheel has been emptied and refilled~~ and all persons selected to serve as jurors ~~before the master jury wheel was emptied~~ have been discharged. The parties in a case may inspect, reproduce, and copy the records or papers at all reasonable times during the preparation and pendency of a motion under subsection 1.

27-09.1-13. Preservation of records. All records and papers compiled and maintained by the ~~jury commissioner or the clerk~~ in connection with selection and service of jurors shall be preserved by the clerk ~~after the master jury wheel used in their selection is emptied and refilled~~ ~~(section 27-09.1-06)~~ as ordered by the ~~supreme court~~ state court administrator.

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 27-09.1-17 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. An employer may not deprive an employee of employment, ~~or lay off,~~ penalize, threaten or otherwise coerce an employee with respect thereto, because the employee receives a summons or subpoena, responds thereto, serves as a juror or witness, or attends court for jury service or to give testimony pursuant to a subpoena.

SECTION 9. REPEAL. Section 27-09.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code and section 27-09.1-06 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

JUDICIAL PROCESS EXEMPTIONS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 28-22-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to property exempt from judicial process.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

28-22-03.1. Additional absolute exemptions for residents. In addition to the exemptions from all attachment or process, levy and sale upon execution, and any other final process issued from any court, otherwise provided by law, a resident of the state may select:

1. In lieu of the homestead exemption, up to seven thousand five hundred dollars.
2. A motor vehicle exemption not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars.
3. Pensions, annuity policies or plans, and life insurance policies which, upon the death of the insured, would be payable to the spouse, children, or any relative of the insured dependent, or likely to be dependent, upon the insured for support and which have been in effect for a period of at least one year; individual retirement accounts; Keogh plans and simplified employee pension plans; and all other plans qualified under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code [Pub. L. 83-591; 68A Stat. 134; 26 U.S.C. 401] and section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code [Pub. L. 93-406; 88 Stat. 959; 26 U.S.C. 408], and proceeds, surrender values, payments, and withdrawals from such pensions, policies, plans, and accounts, up to one hundred thousand dollars for each pension, policy, plan, and account with an aggregate limitation of two hundred thousand dollars for all pensions, policies, plans, and accounts. The dollar limit does not apply to the extent this property is reasonably necessary for the support of the resident and that resident's dependents, except that the pensions, policies, plans, and accounts or proceeds, surrender values, payments, and withdrawals are not exempt from enforcement of any order to pay spousal support or child support, or a qualified domestic relations order under sections 15-39.1-12.2, 39-03.1-14.2, and 54-52-17.6. As used in this subsection, "reasonably necessary for the support" means required to meet present and future needs, as determined by the court after consideration of the resident's responsibilities and all the present and anticipated property and income of the resident, including that which is exempt.

4. The debtor's right to receive, or property that is traceable to:
  - a. A payment, not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars, on account of the wrongful death of an individual of whom the debtor was a dependent, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor.
  - b. A payment, not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars, on account of personal bodily injury, not including pain and suffering or compensation for actual pecuniary loss, of the debtor or an individual of whom the debtor is a dependent.
  - c. A social security benefit, except that the benefit is not exempt for enforcement of any order for the support of a dependent child.
  - d. Veteran's disability pension benefits, not including military retirement pay, except that the benefits are not exempt from process levy or sale for enforcement of any order for the support of a dependent child.

ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

AN ACT to create and enact five new subsections to section 28-32-01 and twelve new sections to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to practices and procedures in administrative proceedings; to amend and reenact subsection 3 of section 4-18.1-18, subsection 2 of section 15-47-38, subsection 5 of section 28-32-03, sections 28-32-05, 28-32-06, 28-32-07, 28-32-08, 28-32-09, 28-32-11, 28-32-12, 28-32-13, 28-32-14, 28-32-15, 28-32-17, 28-32-18, 28-32-19, 28-32-20, 28-32-21, 28-32-21.1, 38-08-11, 38-08-13, 38-08-14, subsection 3 of section 38-14.1-30, and subsection 3 of section 43-23-11.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to administrative practices and procedures; to repeal section 28-32-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to proceedings when subpoenas are disobeyed; and to provide an appropriation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 4-18.1-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. The proceedings authorized or required by subsections 1 and 2 must be in strict conformity with ~~sections 28-32-04 through 28-32-14 and rules of practice that are issued by the board and that are not inconsistent with said statutes~~ chapter 28-32, any rules adopted under chapter 28-32, and any other rules of administrative practice or procedure adopted by the board.

* SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 15-47-38 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. The school board of any school district contemplating discharging a teacher for cause prior to the expiration of the term of the teacher's contract shall notify the teacher in writing of that fact at least ten days prior to the date of contemplated discharge. The teacher ~~shall~~ must be informed in writing of the time and place for a special meeting of the school board to be held on the question of the teacher's discharge prior to a final decision on the matter. The teacher ~~shall~~ must also be informed in writing of ~~his~~ the right to demand a specification of the reasons for discharge, which must, upon receipt of the demand of the teacher, be furnished not less than five days prior to the meeting to be held on the question of the teacher's discharge. The reasons ~~shall~~ must be sufficient to justify the contemplated action of the board and ~~shall~~ may not be frivolous or arbitrary. At the meeting with the board, if the teacher has informed the board in writing at least two days prior thereto that ~~he~~ the teacher will contest the charges brought against ~~him~~ the teacher, the board must sustain the charges with evidence produced at the hearing with witnesses who ~~shall be~~ are subject to cross-examination by the teacher or ~~his~~ the teacher's representative. A witness, if a minor, ~~shall~~ must be accompanied by a parent or parents, legal guardian, or legal counsel, if requested by the minor or the minor's parents. The teacher may then produce ~~such~~ such witnesses as may be necessary to refute the charges, which witnesses ~~shall be~~ are subject to cross-examination. All procedures relative to evidence, subpoena of witnesses, oaths, record of testimony, decision, rehearing, appeals, certification of record, scope and procedure for appeals, ~~and~~ and appeals to the supreme court ~~shall~~, and other administrative procedures must be conducted in accordance with the provisions of ~~sections 28-32-06, 28-32-07, 28-32-09, 28-32-10, 28-32-11, 28-32-12, 28-32-13, 28-32-14, 28-32-15, 28-32-16, 28-32-17, 28-32-18, 28-32-19, 28-32-20, and 28-32-21~~ chapter 28-32. The meeting ~~shall~~ must be an executive session of the board unless both the school board and the teacher requesting the meeting shall agree that it ~~shall~~ is to be open to other persons or the public. The teacher may be represented at the meeting by two representatives of ~~his~~ the teacher's own choosing; and the teacher's spouse, or one other family member of the teacher's choice, may also attend the meeting if the teacher so desires. In addition to board members, the business manager of the school district, and the superintendent, the school board may be represented by two other representatives of its own choosing at ~~such~~ the executive session. If the teacher so requests ~~he shall be granted,~~ the board must grant a continuance of not to exceed seven days ~~by the board unless for~~ is otherwise shown. No cause of action for libel or slander ~~shall~~ may be brought for any statement expressed either orally or in writing at any executive session of the school board held for the purposes provided for in this section.

SECTION 3. Five new subsections to section 28-32-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are created and enacted as follows:

"Agency head" means an individual or body of individuals in whom the ultimate legal authority of the agency is vested by law.

"Hearing officer" means any agency head or one or more members of the agency head when presiding in an administrative proceeding, or, unless prohibited by law, one or more other persons designated by the agency head to preside in an administrative proceeding, or any other person duly assigned, appointed, or designated to preside in an administrative proceeding pursuant to statute or rule.

"License" means a franchise, permit, certification, approval, registration, charter, or similar form of authorization required by law.

"Order" means any agency action of particular applicability that determines the legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities, or other legal interests of one or more specific persons, but does not mean an executive order issued by the governor.

"Relevant evidence" means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the administrative action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 28-32-03 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

5. A rule is invalid unless adopted in substantial compliance with section 28-32-02. However, inadvertent failure to supply any person with a notice required by section 28-32-02 does not invalidate a rule. An action to contest the validity of a rule on the grounds of noncompliance with section 28-32-02 must be commenced within two years of the effective date of the rule.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-05 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-05. Rules of practice or procedure - Complaint - Notice of hearing - Filing and service Contested case proceedings - Emergency proceedings - Other proceedings. The following rules of procedure shall be observed by all administrative agencies in proceedings in which the same are applicable:

1. a. The For contested cases involving a complaint and a specific-named respondent, a complainant shall prepare and file a clear and concise complaint with the agency having subject matter jurisdiction of a proceeding. The complaint shall contain a concise statement of the claims or charges upon which the complainant relies including reference to the statute or rule alleged to be violated, and the relief sought.
2. b. Upon filing of the When a complaint is filed, the appropriate administrative agency shall serve a copy of the complaint and a notice for hearing upon the respondent personally or by certified mail, as the agency may direct, at least forty-five days before the time specified for a hearing on the complaint. Unless a statute or rule otherwise requires or specifically provides for suspension or revocation without a hearing, the administrative agency shall designate the time and place for the hearing. Service may be waived in writing by the respondent, or the parties may agree upon on a definite time and place for hearing with the consent of the agency having jurisdiction. A notice for hearing on a complaint may be served less than forty-five days before the time specified for hearing if otherwise authorized by statute. However, no administrative hearing regarding the renewal, suspension, or revocation of a license may be held fewer than ten days after the licensee has been served, personally or by certified mail, with a copy of a notice for hearing along with an affidavit, complaint, specification of issues, or other document alleging violations upon which the license hearing is based.

- 3- c. The notice for hearing shall ~~fix~~ state the time and place for trial upon the hearing on the merits, and shall ~~complaint.~~ The notice for hearing may inform the respondent that an answer to the complaint must be served upon the complainant and agency giving the notice within twenty days after service of the complaint and notice for hearing, or the agency may deem the complaint will to be deemed admitted, and. If the respondent fails to answer as requested within twenty days after service of the complaint and notice for hearing, the agency will may enter such an order in default as the facts and law may warrant. Service by certified mail is complete as of the date of certification. If a respondent is given less than forty-five days' notice before a hearing pursuant to another statute, the notice may allow less than twenty days to answer the complaint, but no respondent may be required to answer a complaint in less than five days and an answer must be served on the agency giving the notice at least two days before the hearing on the complaint.
- 4- d. In an emergency the agency, in its discretion, may notice a proceeding for contested case hearing upon the merits upon on a complaint by giving less than forty-five days' notice. Every party to such an emergency proceeding shall be given a reasonable time within which to serve an answer and to prepare for the hearing, which may be extended by the agency upon good cause being shown.
- 5- 2. At the any contested case hearing, the respondent, applicant, appellant, or other party shall be afforded the same opportunity to present evidence and to examine and cross-examine witnesses as is permitted under section 28-32-06 and section 16 of this Act.
- 6- Unless otherwise precluded by law, informal disposition may be made of any contested case, or any issue therein, by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default subject to agency approval.
- 7- 3. a. If the nature of the administrative action does not involve a complaint and a specific-named respondents respondent or is not a contested case, the above rules shall provisions of subsection 1 of this section do not apply. Unless specific provision for notice is otherwise provided for in this code or the rules of the agency, public notice of the hearing shall be given by publication in the official newspaper in the county or counties in which the subject matter involved is located. All rules must provide for at least fourteen days' notice before the hearing except in cases of emergency.
- b. An administrative agency may adopt rules establishing practices or procedures for proceedings which do not involve a complaint and a specific-minded respondent or which are not contested cases, including agency hearings on applications seeking some right, privilege, or authorization from an agency, or appeals to the agency of some other agency action. All noncontested case proceedings or proceedings which do not involve a complaint and a specific-named respondent must comply with another statute or rules of practice or procedure adopted pursuant to statute by an administrative agency. Notice pursuant to a rule must provide for at least fifteen days' notice before the hearing except in cases of emergency or when a shorter notice period is necessary to comply with the requirements of federal statutes, rules, or standards.

SECTION 6. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Informal disposition. Unless otherwise prohibited by statute or rule, informal disposition may be made of any contested case, noncontested case, or other administrative proceeding, or any part or issue thereof, by stipulation, settlement, waiver of hearing, consent order, default, alternative dispute resolution, or other informal disposition, subject to agency approval. Any administrative agency may adopt rules of practice or procedure for informal disposition if such rules do not substantially prejudice the rights of any party. Such rules may establish procedures for converting an administrative hearing from one type of proceeding to another type of proceeding.

28-32-06. Evidence to be considered by agency - Official notice.

1. The admissibility of evidence in any proceeding before an administrative agency shall be determined, insofar as circumstances will permit, in accordance with the practice in the district court North Dakota Rules of Evidence. An administrative agency, or any person conducting an investigation or hearing proceedings for it, may waive application of the usual common law or statutory North Dakota Rules of Evidence if such a waiver is necessary to ascertain the substantial rights of all the parties a party to the proceeding, but only relevant evidence of probative value shall be accepted admitted. The waiver must be specifically stated, orally or in writing, either prior to or at a hearing or other proceeding. All objections offered to evidence shall be noted in the record of the proceeding. No information or evidence except such as shall have that which has been offered, admitted, and made a part of the official record of the hearing proceeding shall be considered by the administrative agency, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.
2. Upon proper objection, evidence that is irrelevant, immaterial, unduly repetitious, or excludable on constitutional or statutory grounds, or on the basis of evidentiary privilege recognized in the courts of this state, may be excluded. In the absence of proper objection, the agency or any person conducting an investigation or proceeding for it may exclude objectionable evidence. The North Dakota Rules of Evidence in regard to privileges apply at all stages of an administrative proceeding under this chapter.
3. All testimony must be made under oath or affirmation. Relevant statements presented by nonparties may be received as evidence if all parties are given an opportunity to cross-examine the nonparty witness or to otherwise challenge or rebut the statements. Nonparties may not examine or cross-examine witnesses except pursuant to a grant of intervention.

4. Evidence may be received in written form if doing so will expedite the proceeding without substantial prejudice to the interests of any party.
5. Official notice may be taken of any facts that could be judicially noticed in the courts of this state. Additionally, official notice may be taken of any facts as authorized in agency rules.

28-32-07. Consideration of information not presented at a formal hearing. ~~If an~~ An administrative agency ~~desires to~~ may avail itself of competent and relevant information or evidence in its possession or furnished by members of its staff, or secured from any person in the course of an independent investigation conducted by such the agency, in addition to the evidence presented at any formal hearing, ~~it.~~ It may do so after first transmitting a copy of such the information or evidence or an abstract thereof to each party of record in the proceeding, ~~and after affording.~~ The agency must afford each such party, upon written request, an opportunity to examine such the information or evidence and to present its own information or evidence ~~in connection therewith~~ and to cross-examine the person furnishing such the information ~~at a~~ or evidence. Any further ~~public~~ testimony that is necessary shall be taken at a hearing to be called and held upon at least ten days' notice given by registered personal service or certified mail. ~~Nothing contained in this section prevents any administrative agency from taking notice of any fact or facts set forth in its duly adopted rules or any facts which are judicially noticed by the courts of this state.~~ This section also applies to information officially noticed after the hearing when the issuance of any initial or final order is based in whole or in part on the facts or material noticed.

28-32-08. Investigations - Hearings - Specifications of any issues to be furnished by agency - Costs of investigation.

1. An administrative agency may hold investigatory hearings to which the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of section 28-32-05 and any rules adopted establishing practices or procedures for a contested or noncontested case proceeding do not apply. An administrative agency may adopt rules of practice or procedure for investigatory hearings. No investigatory hearing may be held except pursuant to statute or rules of practice or procedure adopted by an agency. No investigatory hearing may be held unless the agency gives at least five days' notice to all parties involved in the hearing.
2. Whenever an administrative agency, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by law, institutes an investigation upon its own motion or upon the claim or request of any person, without the filing of a specified complaint, or holds any contested case hearing or makes any independent investigation upon its own motion or the claim or request of any person, without the filing of a specified complaint, no decision final order may be made issued by the agency until all parties in interest have been furnished with a written specification of the issues which are to be considered and determined, nor until an opportunity has been afforded to such all parties to present evidence and to be heard upon the precise issues so specified pursuant to notice being issued as required by section 28-32-05, unless the final order is issued pursuant to informal disposition in accordance with section 6 of this Act. The director of the workers compensation bureau may make initial determinations without giving the notice provided by this section, but the director is subject to the requirements of section 28-32-13.

3. An agency may assess the costs of an investigation to a person found to be in violation of a statute or rule as a result of a hearing or informal disposition. The total costs assessed and any civil penalty that may be imposed as a result of violation may not exceed the statutorily authorized civil penalty for the violation. For the purposes of this subsection, costs mean reasonable out-of-pocket agency costs, not including any attorney's fees, actually incurred in conducting the investigation for which they may be assessed. Any such costs paid must be paid into the general fund and are hereby appropriated as a refund to the agency for the purposes of defraying the costs of undertaking the investigation.

SECTION 10. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Hearing officer - Disqualification - Substitution.

1. Any person or persons presiding for the agency in an administrative proceeding must be referred to individually or collectively as hearing officer.
2. Any hearing officer is subject to disqualification for good cause shown.
3. Any party may petition for the disqualification of any person presiding as a hearing officer upon discovering facts establishing grounds for disqualification.
4. A person whose disqualification is requested shall determine whether to grant the petition, stating facts and reasons for the determination.
5. If a substitute is required for a person who is disqualified or becomes unavailable for any other reason, the substitute may be appointed by:
  - a. The attorney general, if the disqualified or unavailable person is an assistant attorney general;
  - b. The agency head, if the disqualified or unavailable person is one or more members of the agency head or one or more other persons designated by the agency head;

- c. A supervising hearings officer, if the disqualified or unavailable person is a hearing officer designated from an office, pool, panel, or division of hearings officers; or
  - d. The governor, in all other cases.
6. Any action taken by a duly appointed substitute for a disqualified or unavailable person is as effective as if taken by the disqualified or unavailable person.
  7. Any hearing officer in an administrative proceeding, from the time of appointment or designation, may exercise any authority granted by law or rule. A hearing officer may be designated to preside over the entire administrative proceeding and may issue orders accordingly. A procedural hearing officer may only issue orders in regard to the course and conduct of the hearing under statute or rule, and to otherwise effect an orderly hearing. If a procedural hearing officer is designated the agency head must be present at the hearing and the agency head shall issue findings of fact and conclusions of law, as well as any order resulting from the hearing.

SECTION 11. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Intervention. An administrative agency may grant intervention in an administrative proceeding to promote the interest of justice if intervention will not impair the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings and if the petitioning intervenor demonstrates that the petitioner's legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities, or other legal interests may be substantially affected by the proceeding or that the petitioner qualifies as an intervenor under any provision of statute or rule. The agency may impose conditions and limitations upon intervention. The agency shall give reasonable notice of the intervention to all parties. An administrative agency may adopt rules relating to intervention in an administrative proceeding.

SECTION 12. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Prehearing conference. Prior to a hearing, an administrative agency may conduct a prehearing conference after giving reasonable notice to all parties and other interested persons. A prehearing conference may be conducted in total or in part by making use of telephone, fax services, television, or other electronic means, as long as such use does not substantially prejudice or infringe on the rights and interests of any party. An administrative agency may adopt rules regarding the availability of, notice of, and procedures for prehearing conferences.

SECTION 13. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Default.

1. If a party fails to attend or participate in a prehearing conference, hearing, or other stage of a contested case administrative proceeding, the agency may serve upon all parties written notice of default and a default order, including a statement of the grounds for default.

2. Within seven days after service of the default notice, order, and grounds, the party against whom default was ordered may file a written motion requesting that the default order be vacated and stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party may file a written motion under this section, or at the time of issuing notice and the default order, the agency may adjourn the proceedings or conduct them without the participation of the party against whom a default order was issued, having due regard for the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings. If an agency conducts further proceedings necessary to complete the administrative action without the participation of a party in default, it shall determine all the issues involved, including those affecting the defaulting party.

28-32-09. Subpoena and attendance of witnesses Subpoenas - Discovery - Protective orders. Any officer, examiner, chairman, or acting chairman of any administrative agency, upon request of any party to a hearing conducted by it, or upon his own motion on behalf of the agency, shall require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of the documents and other objects described in such subpoena at such hearing or proceeding, and the cost of serving such subpoena shall be paid by the person or agency requesting it. A subpoena to compel a witness to produce documentary evidence will be issued to a party other than the agency only upon petition showing general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought, which petition must also specify with particularity the books, papers, or documents desired. The deposition of a witness or party in any proceeding before an agency may be taken in the same manner and on the same notice as in a civil action pending in the district court. Interrogatories may be sent to any witness or party in any proceeding in the same manner and on the same notice as in an action pending in the district court.

1. Any hearing officer may issue subpoenas, discovery orders, and protective orders in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure.
2. Any hearing officer may require, upon the request of any party to the proceedings conducted by the agency, or upon the agency's or the hearing officer's own motion on behalf of the agency, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documents and other objects described in a subpoena at a hearing or other part of the proceedings. The cost of issuing and serving a subpoena must be paid by the person or agency requesting it. A party, except an administrative agency, must first show general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought, by written petition, and obtain the written approval of the agency or the person presiding, before a subpoena to compel a witness to produce documentary evidence will be issued for the party.
3. The deposition of a witness or any party in proceedings before an agency may be taken in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure.

4. Interrogatories and requests for production of documents may be sent to any witness or party in proceedings before an agency in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure.
5. A party, ~~other than the~~ except an administrative agency, must first show good cause, by written petition, and obtain the written approval of the agency or the presiding hearing officer, before undertaking discovery proceedings, including depositions and interrogatories.
6. Any witness who is subpoenaed under the provisions of this section and who appears at ~~the~~ a hearing or other proceeding, or whose deposition is taken, shall receive the same fees and mileage as a witness in a civil case in the district court, ~~and such.~~ Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party or agency at whose instance the witness appears ~~or his deposition is taken.~~ Any hearing officer may order the payment of witness fees or mileage by the appropriate party or agency.
7. Subpoenas, discovery orders, protective orders, and other orders issued under this section may be enforced by applying to any judge of the district court for an order requiring the attendance of a witness, the production of all documents and objects described in the subpoena, or otherwise enforcing an order. Failure of a witness or other person to comply with the order of the district court is contempt of court which is punishable by the district court, upon application.

28-32-11. Administration of oaths - Parties to be advised of perjury provisions. The officer, special examiner, chairman, or acting chairman of an administrative agency before which a Any hearing officer in an administrative proceeding or hearing is held has the power to examine witnesses and records and to administer oaths to witnesses. At the time the officer conducting the proceeding or hearing person presiding administers the oath to a witness, the officer person shall advise the witness of the provisions of subsection 1 of section 12.1-11-01 and of the maximum penalty for perjury.

SECTION 16. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Procedure at hearing. The person presiding at a hearing shall regulate the course of the hearing in conformity with this chapter and any rules adopted under this chapter by an administrative agency, any other applicable laws, and any prehearing order. To the extent necessary for full disclosure of all relevant facts and issues, the person presiding at the hearing shall afford to all parties and other persons allowed to participate the opportunity to respond, present evidence and argument, conduct cross-examination, and submit rebuttal evidence, except as restricted or conditioned by a grant of intervention or by a prehearing order. A hearing may be conducted in total or in part by making use of telephone, television, fax services, or other electronic means if each participant in the hearing has an opportunity to participate in, to hear, and, if practicable, to see the entire proceeding while it is taking place, and if such use does not substantially prejudice or infringe on the rights and interests of any party.

28-32-12. Record to be made of testimony Agency to make record. A An administrative agency shall make a record ~~shall be made~~ of all testimony adduced, written statements, documents, exhibits, and other evidence presented at any hearing before an administrative agency contested case proceeding, noncontested case proceeding, or other administrative proceeding heard by it. Such Oral testimony may be taken by a court reporter, by a stenographer, or by use of an electronic recording device. An agency may contract with any person or another agency to prepare a record, or a part thereof, of any proceeding before the agency.

SECTION 18. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Ex parte communications.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2 or unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters specifically authorized by another statute, an agency head or hearing officer in a contested case proceeding may not communicate, directly or indirectly, regarding any issue in the proceeding, while the proceeding is pending, with any party, with any person who has a direct or indirect interest in the outcome of the proceeding, with any other person allowed to participate in the proceeding, or with any person who presided at a previous stage of the proceeding, without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate in the communication.
2. When more than one person is the hearing officer in a contested case proceeding, those persons may communicate with each other regarding a matter pending before the panel. An agency head or hearing officer may communicate with or receive aid from staff assistants if the assistants do not furnish, augment, diminish, or modify the evidence in the record.
3. Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters specifically authorized by statute, no party to a contested case proceeding, no person who has a direct or indirect interest in the outcome of the proceeding, no person allowed to participate in the proceeding, and no person who presided at a previous stage in the proceeding may communicate directly or indirectly in connection with any issue in that proceeding, while the proceeding is pending,

- with any agency head or hearing officer in the proceeding without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate in the communication.
4. If, before being assigned, designated, or appointed to preside in a contested case proceeding, a person receives an ex parte communication of a type that could not properly be received while presiding, the person, promptly after being assigned, designated, or appointed, shall disclose the communication in the manner prescribed in subsection 5.
  5. An agency head or hearing officer in a contested case proceeding who receives an ex parte communication in violation of this section shall place on the record of the pending matter all written communications received, all written responses to the communications, or a memorandum stating the substance of all oral communications received, all responses made, and the identity of each person from whom the person received an ex parte oral communication, and shall advise all parties, interested persons, and other persons allowed to participate that these matters have been placed on the record. Any person desiring to rebut the ex parte communication must be allowed to do so, upon requesting the opportunity for rebuttal. A request for rebuttal must be made within ten days after notice of the communication.
  6. If necessary to eliminate the effect of an ex parte communication received in violation of this section, an agency head or hearing officer in a contested case proceeding who receives the communication may be disqualified, upon good cause being shown in writing to the hearing officer or to the agency. The portions of the record pertaining to the communication may be sealed by protective order issued by the agency.
  7. The agency shall, and any party may, report any willful violation of this section to the appropriate authorities for any disciplinary proceedings provided by law. In addition, an administrative agency may, by rule, provide for appropriate sanctions, including default, for any violations of this section.
  8. Nothing in this section prohibits a member of the general public, not acting on behalf or at the request of any party, from communicating with an agency in cases of general interest. The agency shall disclose such written communications in contested cases.

SECTION 19. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Separation of functions.

1. No person who has served as investigator, prosecutor, or advocate in the investigatory or prehearing stage of a contested case proceeding may serve as hearing officer.
2. No person who is subject to the direct authority of one who has served as an investigator, prosecutor, or advocate in the investigatory or prehearing stage of a contested case proceeding may serve as hearing officer.

3. Any other person may serve as hearing officer in a contested case hearing, unless a party demonstrates grounds for disqualification.
4. Any person may serve as hearing officer at successive stages of the same contested case proceeding, unless a party demonstrates grounds for disqualification.

28-32-13. Findings of fact, conclusions of law, and decision order of agency - Notice.

1. Within thirty days after the evidence has been received, briefs filed, and arguments closed in a proceeding before an administrative agency, or as soon thereafter as possible, the agency shall make and state concisely and explicitly its findings of fact and its separate conclusions of law, and the decision order of the agency based upon such its findings and conclusions.
2. If the agency head, or another person authorized by the agency head or by law to issue a final order, is presiding, the order issued is the final order.
3. If the agency head, or another person authorized by the agency head or by law to issue a final order, is not presiding, then the person presiding shall issue a recommended order which becomes final unless specifically amended or rejected by the agency head. The agency head may adopt a recommended order as the final order. The agency may allow petitions for review of a recommended order and may allow oral argument pending issuance of a final order. An administrative agency may adopt rules regarding the review of recommended orders and other procedures for issuance of a final order by the agency.
4. The agency shall must give notice of its decision or determination an order issued in any proceeding heard by it by delivering a copy of such decision or determination the order, and the findings and conclusions upon which it is based, to all the parties to the proceeding either personally or by registered or certified mail, and if such. If notice is given by registered or certified mail, the notice shall be deemed given as of the date of the registry or certification. Pursuant to agency rule, in circumstances requiring it, an agency may give notice of an order by mailing the order, and the findings and conclusions upon which it is based, to all the parties by regular mail, provided it files an affidavit of service by mail indicating upon whom the order was served.

28-32-14. Petition for rehearing reconsideration.

7. If the notice of appeal shall specify specifies that no exception or objection is made to the agency's findings of fact, and that the appeal is concerned only with the agency's conclusions of law based on the facts found by it, the evidence submitted at the hearing before such agency shall be omitted agency may submit an abstract of the record along with such portions of the record as the agency deems necessary, to be supplemented by those portions of the record requested to be submitted by the appellant.
8. The court may permit amendments or additions to the record thus filed by the administrative agency in order to complete the same record.

28-32-18. Consideration of additional or excluded evidence. If an application for leave to ~~adduce~~ offer additional testimony, written statements, documents, exhibits, or other evidence is made to the court in which an appeal from a determination of an administrative agency is pending, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that ~~such~~ the additional evidence is relevant and material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to ~~adduce such~~ offer the evidence in the hearing or proceeding ~~had before the administrative agency~~, or that ~~such~~ the evidence is relevant and material to the issues involved and was rejected or excluded by the agency, the court may order that ~~such~~ the additional evidence be taken, heard, and considered by ~~such~~ the agency on ~~such~~ terms and conditions as the court may deem proper. After considering ~~such~~ the additional evidence, the administrative agency may amend or ~~modify~~ reject its findings of fact, conclusions of law, and ~~decision~~ order, and shall file with the court a transcript of ~~such~~ the additional evidence together with its new or ~~modified~~ ~~amended~~ findings of fact, conclusions of law, and ~~decision~~ order, if any, which constitute a part of the record with the court.

28-32-19. Scope of and procedure on appeal from determination of administrative agency. ~~The A judge of the district court shall try and hear must review an appeal from the determination of an administrative agency without a jury and the evidence considered by the court shall be confined to based only on the record filed with the court. If additional testimony is taken by the administrative agency or if additional findings of fact, conclusions of law, or a new decision shall be filed pursuant to section 28-32-18, such evidence, findings, conclusions, and decision shall constitute a part of the record filed with the court. After such a hearing, the filing of briefs, or other disposition of the matter as the judge may reasonably require, the court shall must affirm the decision order of the agency unless it shall find that any of the following are present:~~

1. The ~~decision or determination~~ order is not in accordance with the law.
2. The ~~decision~~ order is in violation of the constitutional rights of the appellant.
3. Provisions of this chapter have not been complied with in the proceedings before the agency.
4. The rules or procedure of the agency have not afforded the appellant a fair hearing.
5. The findings of fact made by the agency are not supported by a preponderance of the evidence.
6. The conclusions ~~and decision~~ of law and order of the agency are not supported by its findings of fact.

If the ~~decision~~ order of the agency is not affirmed by the court, it shall be modified or reversed, and the case shall be remanded to the agency for disposition in accordance with the ~~decision~~ order of the court.

SECTION 27. A new section to chapter 28-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Scope of and procedure on appeal from agency rulemaking. A judge of the district court shall review an appeal from an administrative agency's rulemaking action based only on the record filed with the court. If an appellant requests documents to be included in the record but the agency does not include them, the court, upon application by the appellant, may compel their inclusion. After a hearing, the filing of briefs, or other disposition of the matter as the judge may reasonably require, the court shall affirm the agency's rulemaking action unless it finds that any of the following are present:

1. The provisions of this chapter have not been substantially complied with in the agency's rulemaking actions.
2. A rule published as a result of the rulemaking action appealed is unconstitutional on the face of the language adopted.
3. A rule published as a result of the rulemaking action appealed is beyond the scope of the agency's authority to adopt.
4. A rule published as a result of the rulemaking action appealed is on the face of the language adopted an arbitrary or capricious application of authority granted by statute.

If the rulemaking action of the agency is not affirmed by the court, it must be remanded to the agency for disposition in accordance with the order of the court, or the rule or a portion of the rule resulting from the rulemaking action of the agency must be declared invalid for reasons stated by the court.

28-32-20. An appeal from a determination of an administrative agency does not stay proceedings Appeal - Stay of proceedings. An appeal from a determination or decision an order or the rulemaking action of an administrative agency shall not stay the enforcement of such decision or determination the order or the effect of a published rule unless the court to which the appeal is taken, upon application and after a hearing or the submission of briefs, shall order a stay. The court may impose such terms and conditions for a stay of the enforcement of the determination or decision appealed from as it shall deem proper order or for a stay in the effect of a published rule. The provisions of this section do not prohibit the operation of an automatic stay upon the enforcement of an administrative order as may be required by another statute.

28-32-21. Review in supreme court. The judgment of the district court in an appeal from a decision an order or rulemaking action of an administrative agency may be reviewed in the supreme court on appeal in the same manner as provided in section 28-32-19 or section 27 of this Act, except that the appeal to the supreme court must be taken within sixty days after the service of the notice of entry of judgment in the district court. Any party of record, including the agency, may take an appeal from the final judgment of the district court to the supreme court. If an appeal from the judgment of the district court is taken by an agency, the agency may not be required to pay a docket fee or file a bond for costs or equivalent security.

38-08-13. Person adversely affected may apply for rehearing reconsideration. Any person adversely affected by any order of the commission may within thirty days after the entry of such order file in writing a petition for rehearing reconsideration in accordance with the procedures of section 28-32-14. The petition must state with particularity the evidence, facts, points of law, or newly discovered evidence which in the opinion of the petitioner indicate the order of the commission is erroneous. The commission shall grant or deny any such petition in whole or in part within thirty days after the same is filed. If a petition for rehearing is granted, the rehearing must be held without undue delay in accordance with the provisions of section 28-32-14 or rules adopted pursuant to it.

38-08-14. Person adversely affected may appeal to district court - Procedure of appeal.

1. Any person adversely affected by an order entered by the commission may appeal, pursuant to chapter 28-32, from such the order to the district court for the county in which the oil or gas well or the affected property is located. However, if the oil or gas well or the property affected by the order is located in or underlies more than one county, any appeal must may be taken to the district court for any county in or under which any part of the affected property is located. Notice of appeal must be filed by such person with the commission within thirty days after the entry of the order complained of by the appellant, or in the event a petition for rehearing has been filed as provided herein within thirty days following the entry of the order either sustaining or overruling the original order, or within thirty days after the day upon which a petition for rehearing is denied. A copy of the notice of appeal must be filed with the district court for the county in which the appeal is taken at the same time the notice of appeal is filed with the commission. The notice of appeal must identify the order and the grounds of appeal, and reasonably specify that portion of the record which the appellant desires included in the transcript upon appeal. Immediately upon the filing of the notice of appeal the commission shall certify to the appellant the estimated cost of preparing the transcript of appeal of the proceedings upon which the order complained of was entered. The amount of the estimated cost must be deposited with the commission within ten days after the mailing of the certification of the costs to the appellant. Upon the deposit of the costs the commission shall prepare and certify under its seal the transcript. The transcript must be delivered to the district court for the county in which the appeal is taken within sixty days after the filing of the notice of appeal. A copy of the transcript must be delivered to the appellant, or his designated attorney, upon deposit of the cost of preparing same with the commission. Fees charged and collected for the transcript of evidence may be paid to the person preparing such transcript.
2. An appeal must be perfected by filing the notice of appeal with the commission within the specified thirty-day period. The appeal may be dismissed by the district court for failure of the appellant to make the required cost deposit unless for good cause shown the time

~~is extended by order of the district court. If the district court deems the transcript insufficient, the court may return the transcript to the commission for proper additions, and thereafter assess such further costs against the appellant as the court in its discretion deems sufficient.~~

- ~~3- 2.~~ At the time of filing of the notice of appeal, if an application for the suspension of the order is filed, the commission may enter an order suspending the order complained of and fixing the amount of ~~the~~ a supersedeas bond. Within ten days after the entry of an order by the commission which suspends the order complained of and fixes the amount of the bond, the appellant shall file with the commission a supersedeas bond in the required amount and with proper surety. Upon approval of the bond, the order of the commission suspending the order complained of is effective until its final disposition upon appeal. The bond must run in favor of the commission for the use and benefit of any person who may suffer damage by reason of the suspension of the order in the event the same is affirmed by the district court. If the order of the commission is not superseded, it must continue in force and effect as if no appeal was pending, unless a stay is ordered by the court to which the appeal is taken under section 28-32-20.
- ~~4- 3.~~ The district court shall, insofar as is practicable, give precedence to appeals from orders of the commission. Upon the appeal of such an order the district court shall review the proceedings before the commission as disclosed by the transcript upon appeal, and thereafter enter its judgment affirming or reversing the order appealed. Orders of the commission must be sustained by the district court if the commission has regularly pursued its authority and its findings and conclusions are sustained by the law and by substantial and credible evidence.
- ~~5-~~ No court other than the district court, or the supreme court upon appeal from the final judgment or order entered in the district court, has jurisdiction to review the rules, regulations, or orders of the commission, or to enjoin or otherwise interfere with the commission in the exercise of the authority conferred upon it by this chapter.

SECTION 36. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 38-14.1-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. Administrative hearings pursuant to this section must be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 28-32 and the following procedures:
- a. A hearing must be held within thirty days of a request for a formal hearing under subsection 1 or the issuance of an order to show cause under subsection 2.
  - b. The commission shall cause ~~such an~~ investigation to be made as it deems appropriate in connection with any hearing under this section. Evidence taken at a hearing under this section held in connection with a permit application ruling under section 38-14.1-20 may include, but is not ~~be~~ limited to, site inspections of the land to be affected and other surface coal mining operations carried on by the applicant for a permit in the general vicinity of the proposed operation.

- c. Hearings held pursuant to this section ~~must be conducted in accordance with appropriate procedures in chapter 28-32 and are subject to judicial review in accordance with that the provisions of chapter 28-32. However, any time Any requirements or other, procedural requirements or otherwise, specifically imposed under this section which are in conflict with requirements in the provisions of chapter 28-32 shall supersede the provisions of chapter 28-32.~~
- d. All parties to any informal conference held in reference to a permit application or application for release of performance bond under section 38-14.1-19, and all persons who submitted comments or written objections to the application for release of performance bond or the permit application under sections 38-14.1-17 and 38-14.1-18 respectively, and the permittee and other interested parties in hearings to review enforcement actions taken pursuant to section 38-14.1-28 must be given written notice of the date, place, and time of the hearing at least twenty days prior to ~~such the hearing under this section. In case of an emergency, such the notification period may be shortened, but in no event may notice be given less than five days prior to the hearing. Time periods as provided in section 28-32-05 for any pleadings or filing of other papers before the commission in connection with the hearing must be adjusted to accommodate time periods set by this subdivision.~~
- e. In addition to any notice required by chapter 28-32, notice of hearings under this section must be published in the official newspaper of each county in which the subject matter of the hearing is located and in other daily newspapers of general circulation in the general vicinity of such counties, at least once a week for two successive weeks prior to the hearing. In case of an emergency, ~~such the publication period may be shortened, but in no event may notice be published less than five days prior to the hearing in daily newspapers of general circulation in the general locality of the subject matter involved.~~
- f. No person, except a commissioner, who presides at any informal conference under section 38-14.1-19 in reference to a permit application may preside at a formal administrative hearing under this section or participate in making the final administrative decision pursuant to ~~section 28-32-13 chapter 28-32.~~
- g. All final orders of the commission under this section, except those issued under subsection 4, must be issued pursuant to the following procedures:
- (1) Whenever a formal hearing has been held, the commission shall issue a written decision order pursuant to ~~section 28-32-13 chapter 28-32,~~ provided that the ~~findings, conclusion, and~~ decision must be issued within thirty days after the hearing. The commission shall have no discretion to increase such time period.

- (2) In the event that no one with standing to request an administrative hearing under subsection 1 ~~avails himself of the right to~~ requests such a hearing as provided therein, the commission shall establish whether or not a permit should be granted or suspended or revoked; or, in enforcement proceedings, whether the violation has in fact occurred; or, in connection with an application for release of a bond, whether such the application should be approved or denied, in whole or in part; and shall issue a final decision order as appropriate pursuant to regulations established rules adopted by the commission.

SECTION 37. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 43-23-11.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. No license may be revoked or suspended, no monetary fine imposed, nor any letter of reprimand issued except after hearing before the commission with a copy of the charges having been duly served upon the licensee and upon sustaining of the charges for suspension, revocation, fine, or reprimand. The provisions of chapter 28-32, ~~including but not limited to procedures for service of process, hearing, rules, evidence, findings, and appeals,~~ apply to and govern all proceedings for suspension, revocation, fine, or reprimand of licenses or licensees, ~~except where inconsistent with this chapter or rules of the commission.~~

SECTION 38. REPEAL. Section 28-32-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is repealed.

    - (2) Facilitate disregard of requirements imposed by law; or
    - (3) Give a clearly improper advantage to persons who are in an adverse position to the state.
  - c. A rule establishing specific prices to be charged for particular goods or services sold by an agency.
  - d. A rule concerning only the physical servicing, maintenance, or care of agency owned or operated facilities or property.
  - e. A rule relating only to the use of a particular facility or property owned, operated, or maintained by the state or any of its subdivisions, if the substance of the rule is adequately

- indicated by means of signs or signals to persons who use the facility or property.
- f. A rule concerning only inmates of a correctional or detention facility, students enrolled in an educational institution, or patients admitted to a hospital, if adopted by that facility, institution, or hospital.
  - g. A form whose contents or substantive requirements are prescribed by rule or statute or are instructions for the execution or use of the form.
  - h. An agency budget.
  - i. An opinion of the attorney general.
  - j. A rule adopted by an agency selection committee under section 54-44.7-03.
  - k. ~~Interpretive statements; general statements of policy; or statements of agency organization; procedure; or practice.~~
  - l. ~~Guidelines; manuals; brochures; pamphlets; and similar statements of policy intended to advise or guide the agency or the public concerning activities of the agency which are otherwise prescribed by rule or statute.~~
  - m. ~~Statements of policy intended to implement federal statutes; rules; or requirements with which compliance by the agency is necessary to secure appropriated revenues; or to avoid the loss of otherwise available federal revenues.~~
  - n. A contract. Any material, including a guideline, interpretive statement, statement of general policy, manual, brochure, or pamphlet, that is merely explanatory and not intended to have the force and effect of law.

FOREIGN PEACE OFFICERS

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 29-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to foreign peace officers providing transportation for law enforcement purposes; and to amend and reenact sections 29-06-05, 29-06-06, and 29-06-07 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to foreign officers in fresh pursuit; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

29-06-05. Foreign peace officer in fresh pursuit may arrest in state. Any member of a duly organized state, county, or municipal peace law enforcement unit of another state of the United States who enters this state in fresh pursuit, and continues within this state in such fresh pursuit of a person in order to arrest ~~him~~ the person on the ground that ~~he~~ the person is believed to have committed a felony, misdemeanor, or traffic violation in such other state, shall have the same authority to arrest and hold such person in custody as has any member of any duly organized state, county, or municipal peace law enforcement unit of this state to arrest and hold in custody a person on the ground that ~~he~~ the person is believed to have committed a felony, misdemeanor, or traffic violation in this state.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 29-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Foreign officer providing transportation for law enforcement purposes. Any member of a duly organized state, county, or municipal law enforcement unit of another state of the United States who enters this state to perform an assigned duty of transporting persons in legal custody for law enforcement purposes has the same authority to transport persons in legal custody as any member of any duly organized state, county, or municipal law enforcement unit of this state if a reciprocal right to transport persons in legal custody is extended to North Dakota peace officers in the peace officer's state or local jurisdiction.

29-06-06. Hearing before local magistrate and order thereon.

1. If an arrest is made in this state by an officer of another state in accordance with the provisions of section 29-06-05, he, without unnecessary delay, shall take the person arrested before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, who shall conduct a hearing for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the arrest. If the magistrate determines that the arrest was lawful he shall commit the person arrested to await for a reasonable time the issuance of an extradition warrant by the governor of this state, or shall admit him to bail for such purpose. If the magistrate determines that the arrest was unlawful he shall discharge the person arrested.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 29-30.3 and subsection 1, a person arrested for a misdemeanor or traffic violation pursuant to section 29-06-05 may voluntarily return to the foreign state without a hearing before a magistrate.

29-06-07. Definition of fresh pursuit. As used in section 29-06-05, the term "fresh pursuit" shall include fresh pursuit as defined by the common law, and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a ~~felony~~ or who is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony, misdemeanor, or traffic violation. It also shall include the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony, misdemeanor, or traffic violation, though no felony, misdemeanor, or traffic violation has been actually committed, if there is reasonable ground for believing that a felony, misdemeanor, or traffic violation has been committed. Fresh pursuit, as the term is used in this chapter, shall not necessarily imply instant pursuit, but pursuit without unreasonable delay.

SECTION 5. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.

SENATE BILL NO. 2214
(Committee on Judiciary)
(At the request of the Attorney General)

FORFEITABLE PROPERTY

AN ACT to create and enact a new chapter to title 29 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to proceedings for the forfeiture and disposition of property obtained by law enforcement agencies; to amend and reenact subdivision c of subsection 5 of section 12.1-28-02 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the forfeiture of gambling devices; and to repeal chapter 29-31 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to confiscation of equipment used in the commission of a crime.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subdivision c of subsection 5 of section 12.1-28-02 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- c. A law enforcement officer may seize any device described in subdivision a upon probable cause to believe that the device was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter or chapter 53-06.1. The court shall order the device forfeited in the same manner and according to the same procedure as provided under ~~chapter 19-03~~ section 2 of this Act.

SECTION 2. A new chapter to title 29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Definitions. In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

1. "Forfeitable property" means any of the following:
  - a. Property that is illegally possessed or is contraband.
  - b. Property that has been used or is intended to be used to facilitate the commission of a criminal offense or to avoid detection or apprehension of a person committing a criminal offense. For purposes of this subdivision, property does not include a residence or other real estate where a coowner, whether by joint tenancy, tenancy in common, or tenancy by the entirety, of the residence or other real estate, has not been convicted of the criminal offense that was facilitated by the use or intended use of the property.
  - c. Property that is acquired as or from the proceeds of a criminal offense.

- d. Property offered or given to another as an inducement for the commission of a criminal offense.
  - e. A vehicle or other means of transportation used in the commission of a felony, the escape from the scene of the commission of a felony, or in the transportation of property that is the subject matter of a felony.
  - f. Personal property used in the theft of livestock or the transportation of stolen livestock.
2. "Seized property" means property taken or held by any law enforcement agency in the course of that agency's official duties with or without the consent of the person, if any, who had possession or a right to possession of the property at the time it was taken into custody.
3. "Seizing agency" is the law enforcement agency that has taken possession of, or seized, property in the course of that agency's official duties.

Disposition of nonforfeitable property. Seized property that is not required as evidence or for use in an investigation may be returned to the owner without the requirement of a hearing, if the person's possession of the property is not prohibited by law, the property is not forfeitable property, and there is no forfeiture proceeding filed on behalf of the seizing agency. The seizing agency shall send notice by regular mail, if the value of the property is less than fifty dollars, or certified mail, if the value of the property is equal to or greater than fifty dollars, to the last known address of any person having an ownership or possessory right in the property stating that the property is released and must be claimed within thirty days. Notice is deemed to have been made upon the mailing of the notice. The notice must state that if no written claim for the property is made upon the seizing agency within thirty days after the mailing of the notice, the property will be deemed abandoned and disposed of accordingly. If there is more than one party who may assert a right to possession or ownership of the property, the seizing agency may not release the property to any party until the expiration of the date for filing claims unless all other claimants execute a written waiver. If there is more than one claim filed for the return of property under this section, at the expiration of the period for filing claims the seizing agency shall file a copy of all such claims with the clerk of the district court and deposit the property with the court in accordance with the provisions of chapter 32-11. If no owner can be located or no claim is filed under this section, the property is deemed abandoned and the seizing agency becomes the owner of the property and may dispose of it in any reasonable manner.

Seizure of forfeitable property. Forfeitable property may be seized whenever and wherever the property is found within this state. Forfeitable property may be seized by taking custody of the property or by serving upon the person in possession of the property a notice of forfeiture and seizure. If the court finds that the forfeiture is warranted, an order transferring ownership to the seizing agency must be entered and the property must be delivered to the seizing agency for disposition as directed by the court. Property that has been seized for forfeiture, and is not already secured as evidence in a criminal case, must be safely secured or stored by the agency that caused its seizure.

Forfeiture proceedings.

1. Forfeiture is a civil proceeding not dependent upon a prosecution for, or conviction of, a criminal offense and forfeiture proceedings are separate and distinct from any related criminal action.
2. Forfeiture proceedings brought under this chapter must be conducted in accordance with the procedures established for the forfeiture of property in sections 19-03.1-36.1 through 19-03.1-36.7.

Transfer of forfeitable property. Title to, and responsibility for, forfeitable property vests with the seizing agency at the time of the seizure. Once forfeitable property is seized, no right to the property may be transferred by anyone other than the seizing agency unless the seizure and forfeiture is declared by the court to be a nullity or as otherwise ordered by the court.

Disposition of forfeited property. When property is forfeited under this chapter, the seizing agency may:

1. Retain the property for official use or transfer the custody or ownership of any forfeited property to any federal, state, or local agency.
2. Sell the forfeited property that is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds from the sale, together with any monetary funds ordered to be forfeited, must be used first for the payment of all proper costs and expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, and court costs with any remaining proceeds to be deposited, subject to section 54-12-14, in the appropriate state, county, or city general fund.
3. Dispose of the property in accordance with the order of the court if the property cannot be retained, used, or sold by the seizing agency.

Nonforfeitable interest - Purchase of forfeitable interest.

1. Property may not be forfeited under this chapter to the extent of an interest of an owner who had no part in the commission of the crime and who had no knowledge of the criminal use or intended use of the property. However, if it is established that the owner permitted the use of the property under circumstances in which a reasonable person should have inquired into the intended use of the property and that the owner failed to do so, there is a rebuttable presumption that the owner knew that the property was intended to be used in the commission of a crime.
2. Upon receipt of forfeited property, the seizing agency shall permit any owner or lienholder of record having a nonforfeitable property interest in the property the opportunity to purchase the property interest forfeited. If the owner or lienholder does not exercise the option under this subsection within sixty days of mailing of written notice to such person of such option, the option is terminated unless the time for exercising the option is extended by the seizing agency.

3. A person having a valid, recorded lien or property interest in forfeited property, which has not been repurchased pursuant to subsection 2, must either be reimbursed to the extent of the nonforfeitable property interest or to the extent of the amount raised by the sale of the item, whichever amount is less. The sale of forfeited property must be conducted in a manner that is commercially reasonable and calculated to provide a sufficient return to cover the cost of the sale and reimburse any nonforfeitable interest. The validity of a lien or property interest is determined as of the date the property is seized. All costs and expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, and court costs, must be first deducted from the sale proceeds and paid to the party incurring such costs and expenses.
4. This section does not preclude a civil suit by an owner of an interest in forfeited property against the party who, by criminal use, caused the property to become forfeited to the seizing agency.

Retention of forfeited property. If property forfeitable under this chapter is needed as evidence in a criminal proceeding, it must be retained under the control of the prosecuting attorney, or the prosecuting attorney's designee, until such time as its use as evidence is no longer required.

Disposition of forfeitable property held as evidence in criminal proceeding. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, in the case of forfeitable property seized and held as evidence of the commission of a criminal offense, the court in which a criminal prosecution was commenced may issue its order, upon motion and after hearing unless waived, for disposition of the property in accordance with this chapter. Notice of the motion must be served in accordance with the rules of civil procedure upon the owner and all persons known to be claiming an interest in the property to be forfeited. The notice must be served at least twenty days before a hearing on the motion unless the time period is waived by all parties claiming an interest in the property. The motion must contain the information required in a complaint as set forth in section 19-03.1-36.3. Although no separate forfeiture proceeding is required to be instituted under this section, all other provisions of this chapter apply to proceedings commenced pursuant to this section.

Inapplicability of chapter. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to forfeiture proceedings commenced under other specific provisions of law including chapters 12.1-06.1, 19-03.1, and 20.1-10.

SECTION 3. REPEAL. Chapter 29-31 of the North Dakota Century Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 351

HOUSE BILL NO. 1102

(Committee on Judiciary)

(At the request of the Commission on Uniform State Laws)

NONPROBATE TRANSFERS ON DEATH

AN ACT to create and enact chapter 30.1-31 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to nonprobate transfers on death; to amend and reenact sections 6-03-67 and 30.1-17-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to protection of financial institutions and bonds of personal representatives; to repeal the present chapter 30.1-31 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to nonprobate transfers; and to provide for application of this Act.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

6-03-67. Appropriation of deposits unlawful - Exception - Liability therefor. Except as provided in sections 6-07-52 and ~~30.1-31-13~~ 30.1-31-20, it is unlawful for any banking association to charge any claim which it might have, or the claim of any other person, against a deposit made with the association, or to appropriate a deposit or any part of the deposit to the payment of any debt to the association, without legal process or the consent of the depositor. Any banking association which ~~that~~ violates this section is liable to the party aggrieved for any damages caused by the violation.

30.1-17-04. (3-604) Bond amount - Security - Procedure - Reduction. If bond is required and the provisions of the will or order do not specify the amount, unless stated in his ~~his~~ that person's application or petition, the person qualifying shall file a statement under oath with the court indicating his ~~his~~ that person's best estimate of the value of the personal estate of the decedent and of the income expected from the personal and real estate during the next year, and ~~he~~ shall execute and file a bond with the court, or give other suitable security, in an amount not less than the estimate. The court shall determine that the bond is duly executed by a corporate surety, or one or more individual sureties whose performance is secured by pledge of personal property, mortgage on real property, or other adequate security. The court may permit the amount of the bond to be reduced by the value of assets of the estate deposited with a domestic financial institution (as defined in section ~~30.1-31-01~~ 30.1-31-02) in a manner that prevents their unauthorized disposition. On petition of the personal representative or another interested person, the court may excuse a requirement of bond, increase or reduce the amount of the bond, release sureties, or permit the substitution of another bond with the same or different sureties.

30.1-31-01. (6-101) Nonprobate transfers on death.

1. A provision for a nonprobate transfer on death in an insurance policy, contract of employment, bond, mortgage, promissory note, certificated or uncertificated security, account agreement, custodial agreement, deposit agreement, compensation plan, pension plan, individual retirement plan, employee benefit plan, trust, conveyance, deed of gift, marital property agreement, or other written instrument of a similar nature is nontestamentary. This subsection includes a written provision that:

- a. Money or other benefits due to, controlled by, or owned by a decedent before death must be paid after the decedent's death to a person whom the decedent designates either in the instrument or in a separate writing, including a will, executed either before or at the same time as the instrument, or later;
- b. Money due or to become due under the instrument ceases to be payable in the event of death of the promisee or the promisor before payment or demand; or
- c. Any property controlled by or owned by the decedent before death which is the subject of the instrument passes to a person the decedent designates either in the instrument or in a separate writing, including a will, executed either before or at the same time as the instrument, or later.

2. Subsection 1 does not limit rights of creditors under other laws of this state.

30.1-31-02. (6-201) Definitions. As used in sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20:

1. "Account" means a contract of deposit between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, and share account.
2. "Agent" means a person authorized to make account transactions for a party.
3. "Beneficiary" means a person named as one to whom sums on deposit in an account are payable on request after death of all parties or for whom a party is named as trustee.
4. "Financial institution" means an organization authorized to do business under state or federal laws relating to financial institutions, and includes a bank, trust company, savings bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association, and credit union.
5. "Multiple-party account" means an account payable on request to one or more of two or more parties, whether or not a right of survivorship is mentioned.

6. "Party" means a person who, by the terms of an account, has a present right, subject to request, to payment from the account other than as a beneficiary or agent.
7. "Payment" of sums on deposit includes withdrawal, payment to a party or third person pursuant to check or other request, and a pledge of sums on deposit by a party, or a setoff, reduction, or other disposition of all or part of an account pursuant to a pledge.
8. "P.O.D. designation" means the designation of:
  - a. A beneficiary in an account payable on request to one party during the party's lifetime and on the party's death to one or more beneficiaries, or to one or more parties during their lifetimes and on death of all of them to one or more beneficiaries; or
  - b. A beneficiary in an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more beneficiaries if the relationship is established by the terms of the account and there is no subject of the trust other than the sums on deposit in the account, whether or not payment to the beneficiary is mentioned.
9. "Receive", as it relates to notice to a financial institution, means receipt in the office or branch office of the financial institution in which the account is established, but if the terms of the account require notice at a particular place, in the place required.
10. "Request" means a request for payment complying with all terms of the account, including special requirements concerning necessary signatures and regulations of the financial institution; but, for purposes of sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20, if terms of the account condition payment on advance notice, a request for payment is treated as immediately effective and a notice of intent to withdraw is treated as a request for payment.
11. "Sums on deposit" means the balance payable on an account, including interest and dividends earned, whether or not included in the current balance, and any deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of death of a party.
12. "Terms of the account" includes the deposit agreement and other terms and conditions, including the form, of the contract of deposit.

30.1-31-03. (6-202) Limitation on scope of sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20. Sections 30.1-31-03 through 30.1-31-20 do not apply to:

1. An account established for a partnership, joint venture, or other organization for a business purpose;
2. An account controlled by one or more persons as an agent or trustee for a corporation, unincorporated association, or charitable or civic organization; or

3. A fiduciary or trust account in which the relationship is established other than by the terms of the account.

30.1-31-04. (6-203) Types of account - Existing accounts.

1. An account may be for a single party or multiple parties. A multiple-party account may be with or without a right of survivorship between the parties. Subject to subsection 3 of section 30.1-31-09, either a single-party account or a multiple-party account may have a P.O.D. designation, an agency designation, or both.

2. An account established before, on, or after the effective date of sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20, whether in the form prescribed in section 30.1-31-05 or in any other form, is either a single-party account or a multiple-party account, with or without right of survivorship, and with or without a P.O.D. designation or an agency designation, within the meaning of sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20, and is governed by sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20.

30.1-31-05. (6-204) Forms.

1. A contract of deposit that contains provisions in substantially the following form establishes the type of account provided, and the account is governed by the provisions of sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20 applicable to an account of that type:

UNIFORM SINGLE- OR MULTIPLE-PARTY ACCOUNT FORM
PARTIES [name one or more parties]:

-----

OWNERSHIP [select one and initial]:

--- SINGLE-PARTY ACCOUNT

--- MULTIPLE-PARTY ACCOUNT

Parties own account in proportion to net contributions unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent.

RIGHTS AT DEATH [select one and initial]:

--- SINGLE-PARTY ACCOUNT

At death of party, ownership passes as part of party's estate.

--- SINGLE-PARTY ACCOUNT WITH P.O.D. (PAY ON DEATH) DESIGNATION

[name one or more beneficiaries]:

-----

At death of party, ownership passes to P.O.D. beneficiaries and is not part of party's estate.

--- MULTIPLE-PARTY ACCOUNT WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP

At death of party, ownership passes to surviving parties.

--- MULTIPLE-PARTY ACCOUNT WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP AND P.O.D. (PAY ON DEATH) DESIGNATION

[name one or more beneficiaries]:

-----

At death of last surviving party, ownership passes to P.O.D. beneficiaries and is not part of last surviving party's estate.

--- MULTIPLE-PARTY ACCOUNT WITHOUT RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP

At death of party, deceased party's ownership passes as part of deceased party's estate.

AGENCY (POWER OF ATTORNEY) DESIGNATION [optional]

Agents may make account transactions for parties but have no ownership or rights at death unless named as P.O.D. beneficiaries.

[to add agency designation to account, name one or more agents]:

-----

[select one and initial]:

--- AGENCY DESIGNATION SURVIVES DISABILITY OR INCAPACITY OF PARTIES

--- AGENCY DESIGNATION TERMINATES ON DISABILITY OR INCAPACITY OF PARTIES

2. A contract of deposit that does not contain provisions in substantially the form provided in section 1 is governed by sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20 applicable to the type of account that most nearly conforms to the depositor's intent.

30.1-31-06. (6-205) Designation of agent.

1. By a writing signed by all parties, the parties may designate as agent of all parties on an account a person other than a party.

2. Unless the terms of an agency designation provide that the authority of the agent terminates on disability or incapacity of a party, the agent's authority survives disability and incapacity. The agent may act for a disabled or incapacitated party until the authority of the agent is terminated.

3. Death of the sole party or last surviving party terminates the authority of an agent.

30.1-31-07. (6-206) Applicability of sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20. The provisions of sections 30.1-31-08 through 30.1-31-13 concerning beneficial ownership as between parties or as between parties and beneficiaries apply only to controversies between those persons and their creditors and other successors, and do not apply to the right of those persons to payment as determined by the terms of the account. Sections 30.1-31-14 through 30.1-31-20 govern the liability and setoff rights of financial institutions that make payments pursuant to it.

30.1-31-08. (6-211) Ownership during lifetime.

1. In this section, "net contribution" of a party means the sum of all deposits to an account made by or for the party, less all payments from the account made to or for the party which have not been paid to or applied to the use of another party and a proportionate share of any charges deducted from the account, plus a proportionate share of any interest or dividends earned, whether or not included in the current balance. The term includes deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of death of the party whose net contribution is in question.
2. During the lifetime of all parties, an account belongs to the parties in proportion to the net contribution of each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent. As between parties married to each other, in the absence of proof otherwise, the net contribution of each is presumed to be an equal amount.
3. A beneficiary in an account having a P.O.D. designation has no right to sums on deposit during the lifetime of any party.
4. An agent in an account with an agency designation has no beneficial right to sums on deposit.

30.1-31-09. (6-212) Rights at death.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, on death of a party sums on deposit in a multiple-party account belong to the surviving party or parties. If two or more parties survive and one is the surviving spouse of the decedent, the amount to which the decedent, immediately before death, was beneficially entitled under section 30.1-31-08 belongs to the surviving spouse. If two or more parties survive and none is the surviving spouse of the decedent, the amount to which the decedent, immediately before death, was beneficially entitled under section 30.1-31-08 belongs to the surviving parties in equal shares, and augments the proportion to which each survivor, immediately before the decedent's death, was beneficially entitled under section 30.1-31-08, and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.
2. In an account with a P.O.D. designation:
  - a. On death of one of two or more parties, the rights in sums on deposit are governed by subsection 1.
  - b. On death of the sole party or the last survivor of two or more parties, sums on deposit belong to the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries. If two or more beneficiaries survive, sums on deposit belong to them in equal and undivided shares, and there is no right of survivorship in the event of death of a beneficiary thereafter. If no beneficiary survives, sums on deposit belong to the estate of the last surviving party.

3. Sums on deposit in a single-party account without a P.O.D. designation, or in a multiple-party account that, by the terms of the account, is without right of survivorship, are not affected by death of a party, but the amount to which the decedent, immediately before death, was beneficially entitled under section 30.1-31-08 is transferred as part of the decedent's estate. A P.O.D. designation in a multiple-party account without right of survivorship is ineffective. For purposes of this section, designation of an account as a tenancy in common establishes that the account is without right of survivorship.

4. The ownership right of a surviving party or beneficiary, or of the decedent's estate, in sums on deposit is subject to requests for payment made by a party before the party's death, whether paid by the financial institution before or after death, or unpaid. The surviving party or beneficiary, or the decedent's estate, is liable to the payee of an unpaid request for payment. The liability is limited to a proportionate share of the amount transferred under this section, to the extent necessary to discharge the request for payment.

30.1-31-10. (6-213) Alteration of rights.

1. Rights at death under section 30.1-31-09 are determined by the type of account at the death of a party. The type of account may be altered by written notice given by a party to the financial institution to change the type of account or to stop or vary payment under the terms of the account. The notice must be signed by a party and received by the financial institution during the party's lifetime.

2. A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account, section 30.1-31-09, or a P.O.D. designation, may not be altered by will.

30.1-31-11. (6-214) Accounts and transfers nontestamentary. Except as provided in chapter 30.1-05 or as a consequence of, and to the extent directed by, section 30.1-31-12, a transfer resulting from the application of section 30.1-31-09 is effective by reason of the terms of the account involved and this part and is not testamentary or subject to chapters 30.1-01 through 30.1-25.

30.1-31-12. (6-215) Rights of creditors and others.

1. If other assets of the estate are insufficient, a transfer resulting from a right of survivorship or P.O.D. designation under sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20 is not effective against the estate of a deceased party to the extent needed to pay claims against the estate and statutory allowances to the surviving spouse and children.

2. A surviving party or beneficiary who receives payment from an account after death of a party is liable to account to the personal representative of the decedent for a proportionate share of the amount received to the extent necessary to discharge the claims and allowances described in subsection 1 remaining unpaid after application of the decedent's estate. A proceeding to assert the liability may not be commenced unless the personal representative has received a written demand by the surviving spouse, a creditor, a child, or a person acting for a child of the decedent. The proceeding must be commenced within one year after death of the decedent.

3. A surviving party or beneficiary against whom a proceeding to account is brought may join as a party to the proceeding a surviving party or beneficiary of any other account of the decedent.
4. Sums recovered by the personal representative must be administered as part of the decedent's estate. This section does not affect the protection from claims of the personal representative or estate of a deceased party provided in section 30.1-31-19 for a financial institution that makes payment in accordance with the terms of the account.

30.1-31-13. (6-216) Community property and tenancy by the entireties.

1. A deposit of community property in an account does not alter the community character of the property or community rights in the property, but a right of survivorship between parties married to each other arising from the express terms of the account or section 30.1-31-09 may not be altered by will.
2. Sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20 do not affect the law governing tenancy by the entireties.

30.1-31-14. (6-221) Authority of financial institution. A financial institution may enter into a contract of deposit for a multiple-party account to the same extent it may enter into a contract of deposit for a single-party account, and may provide for a P.O.D. designation and an agency designation in either a single-party account or a multiple-party account. A financial institution need not inquire as to the source of a deposit to an account or as to the proposed application of a payment from an account.

30.1-31-15. (6-222) Payment on multiple-party account. A financial institution, on request, may pay sums on deposit in a multiple-party account to:

1. One or more of the parties, whether or not another party is disabled, incapacitated, or deceased when payment is requested and whether or not the party making the request survives another party; or
2. The personal representative, if any, or, if there is none, the heirs or devisees of a deceased party if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased party was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as a party or beneficiary, unless the account is without right of survivorship under section 30.1-31-09.

30.1-31-16. (6-223) Payment on P.O.D. designation. A financial institution, on request, may pay sums on deposit in an account with a P.O.D. designation to:

1. One or more of the parties, whether or not another party is disabled, incapacitated, or deceased when the payment is requested and whether or not a party survives another party;
2. The beneficiary or beneficiaries, if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the beneficiary or beneficiaries survived all persons named as parties; or
3. The personal representative, if any, or, if there is none, the heirs or devisees of a deceased party, if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased party was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as a party or beneficiary.

30.1-31-17. (6-224) Payment to designated agent. A financial institution, on request of an agent under an agency designation for an account, may pay to the agent sums on deposit in the account, whether or not a party is disabled, incapacitated, or deceased when the request is made or received, and whether or not the authority of the agent terminates on the disability or incapacity of a party.

30.1-31-18. (6-225) Payment to minor. If a financial institution is required or permitted to make payment pursuant to sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20 to a minor designated as a beneficiary, payment may be made pursuant to chapter 47-24.1.

30.1-31-19. (6-226) Discharge.

1. Payment made pursuant to sections 30.1-31-02 through 30.1-31-20 in accordance with the type of account discharges the financial institution from all claims for amounts so paid, whether or not the payment is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the account as between parties, beneficiaries, or their successors. Payment may be made whether or not a party, beneficiary, or agent is disabled, incapacitated, or deceased when payment is requested, received, or made.
2. Protection under this section does not extend to payments made after a financial institution has received written notice from a party, or from the personal representative, surviving spouse, or heir or devisee of a deceased party, to the effect that payments in accordance with the terms of the account, including one having an agency designation, should not be permitted, and the financial institution has had a reasonable opportunity to act on it when the payment is made. Unless the notice is withdrawn by the person giving it, the successor of any deceased party must concur in a request for payment if the financial institution is to be protected under this section. Unless a financial institution has been served with process in an action or proceeding, no other notice or other information shown to have been available to the financial institution affects its right to protection under this section.
3. A financial institution that receives written notice pursuant to this section or otherwise has reason to believe that a dispute exists as to the rights of the parties may refuse, without liability, to make payments in accordance with the terms of the account.

4. Protection of a financial institution under this section does not affect the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of sums on deposit in accounts or payments made from accounts.

30.1-31-20. (6-227) Setoff. Without qualifying any other statutory right to setoff or lien and subject to any contractual provision, if a party is indebted to a financial institution, the financial institution has a right to setoff against the account. The amount of the account subject to setoff is the proportion to which the party is, or immediately before death was, beneficially entitled under section 30.1-31-08 or, in the absence of proof of that proportion, an equal share with all parties.

30.1-31-21. (6-301) Definitions. As used in sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30:

1. "Beneficiary form" means a registration of a security which indicates the present owner of the security and the intention of the owner regarding the person who will become the owner of the security upon the death of the owner.
2. "Register", including its derivatives, means to issue a certificate showing the ownership of a certificated security or, in the case of an uncertificated security, to initiate or transfer an account showing ownership of securities.
3. "Registering entity" means a person who originates or transfers a security title by registration, and includes a broker maintaining security accounts for customers and a transfer agent or other person acting for or as an issuer of securities.
4. "Security" means a share, participation, or other interest in property, in a business, or in an obligation of an enterprise or other issuer, and includes a certificated security, an uncertificated security, and a security account.
5. "Security account" means a reinvestment account associated with a security, a securities account with a broker, a cash balance in a brokerage account, cash, interest, earnings, or dividends earned or declared on a security in an account, a reinvestment account, or a brokerage account, whether or not credited to the account before the owner's death; or a cash balance or other property held for or due to the owner of a security as a replacement for or product of an account security, whether or not credited to the account before the owner's death.

30.1-31-22. (6-302) Registration in beneficiary form - Sole or joint tenancy ownership. Only individuals whose registration of a security shows sole ownership by one individual or multiple ownership by two or more with right of survivorship, rather than as tenants in common, may obtain registration in beneficiary form. Multiple owners of a security registered in beneficiary form hold as joint tenants with right of survivorship, as tenants by the entireties, or as owners of community property held in survivorship form, and not as tenants in common.

30.1-31-23. (6-303) Registration in beneficiary form - Applicable law. A security may be registered in beneficiary form if the form is authorized by this or a similar statute of the state of organization of the issuer or registering entity, the location of the registering entity's principal office, the office of its transfer agent or its office making the registration, or by this or a similar statute of the law of the state listed as the owner's address at the time of registration. A registration governed by the law of a jurisdiction in which this or similar legislation is not in force or was not in force when a registration in beneficiary form was made is nevertheless presumed to be valid and authorized as a matter of contract law.

30.1-31-24. (6-304) Origination of registration in beneficiary form. A security, whether evidenced by certificate or account, is registered in beneficiary form when the registration includes a designation of a beneficiary to take the ownership at the death of the owner or the deaths of all multiple owners.

30.1-31-25. (6-305) Form of registration in beneficiary form. Registration in beneficiary form may be shown by the words "transfer on death" or the abbreviation "T.O.D.", or by the words "pay on death" or the abbreviation "P.O.D.", after the name of the registered owner and before the name of a beneficiary.

30.1-31-26. (6-306) Effect of registration in beneficiary form. The designation of a T.O.D. beneficiary on a registration in beneficiary form has no effect on ownership until the owner's death. A registration of a security in beneficiary form may be canceled or changed at any time by the sole owner or all then surviving owners without the consent of the beneficiary.

30.1-31-27. (6-307) Ownership on death of owner. On death of a sole owner or the last to die of all multiple owners, ownership of securities registered in beneficiary form passes to the beneficiary or beneficiaries who survive all owners. On proof of death of all owners and compliance with any applicable requirements of the registering entity, a security registered in beneficiary form may be reregistered in the name of the beneficiary or beneficiaries who survived the death of all owners. Until division of the security after the death of all owners, multiple beneficiaries surviving the death of all owners hold their interests as tenants in common. If no beneficiary survives the death of all owners, the security belongs to the estate of the deceased sole owner or the estate of the last to die of all multiple owners.

30.1-31-28. (6-308) Protection of registering entity.

1. A registering entity is not required to offer or to accept a request for security registration in beneficiary form. If a registration in beneficiary form is offered by a registering entity, the owner requesting registration in beneficiary form assents to the protections given to the registering entity by sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30.
2. By accepting a request for registration of a security in beneficiary form, the registering entity agrees that the registration will be implemented on death of the deceased owner as provided in sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30.
3. A registering entity is discharged from all claims to a security by the estate, creditors, heirs, or devisees of a deceased owner if it registers a transfer of the security in accordance with section

30.1-31-27 and does so in good faith reliance on the registration, on sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30, and on information provided to it by affidavit of the personal representative of the deceased owner, or by the surviving beneficiary or by the surviving beneficiary's representatives, or other information available to the registering entity. The protections of sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30 do not extend to a reregistration or payment made after a registering entity has received written notice from any claimant to any interest in the security objecting to implementation of a registration in beneficiary form. No other notice or other information available to the registering entity affects its right to protection under sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30.

4. The protection provided by sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30 to the registering entity of a security does not affect the rights of beneficiaries in disputes between themselves and other claimants to ownership of the security transferred or its value or proceeds.

30.1-31-29. (6-309) Nontestamentary transfer on death.

1. A transfer on death resulting from a registration in beneficiary form is effective by reason of the contract regarding the registration between the owner and the registering entity and sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30 and is not testamentary.
2. Sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30 do not limit the rights of creditors of security owners against beneficiaries and other transferees under other laws of this state.

30.1-31-30. (6-310) Terms, conditions, and forms for registration.

1. A registering entity offering to accept registrations in beneficiary form may establish the terms and conditions under which it will receive requests for registrations in beneficiary form and for implementation of registrations in beneficiary form, including requests for cancellation of previously registered T.O.D. beneficiary designations and requests for reregistration to effect a change of beneficiary. The terms and conditions so established may provide for proving death, avoiding or resolving any problems concerning fractional shares, designating primary and contingent beneficiaries, and substituting a named beneficiary's descendants to take in the place of the named beneficiary in the event of the beneficiary's death. Substitution may be indicated by appending to the name of the primary beneficiary the letters L.D.P.S., standing for "lineal descendants per stirpes". This designation substitutes a deceased beneficiary's descendants who survive the owner for a beneficiary who fails to so survive, the descendants to be identified and to share in accordance with the law of the beneficiary's domicile at the owner's death governing inheritance by descendants of an intestate. Other forms of identifying beneficiaries who are to take on one or more contingencies, and rules for providing proofs and assurances needed to satisfy reasonable concerns by registering entities regarding conditions and identities relevant to accurate implementation of registrations in beneficiary form, may be contained in a registering entity's terms and conditions.

2. The following are illustrations of registrations in beneficiary form which a registering entity may authorize:

- a. Sole owner - sole beneficiary: John S. Brown T.O.D. (or P.O.D.) John S. Brown Jr.
- b. Multiple owners - sole beneficiary: John S. Brown Mary B. Brown JT. TEN. T.O.D. John S. Brown Jr.
- c. Multiple owners - primary and secondary (substituted) beneficiaries: John S. Brown Mary B. Brown JT. TEN. T.O.D. John S. Brown Jr. SUB. BENE. Peter Q. Brown or John S. Brown Mary B. Brown JT. TEN. T.O.D. John S. Brown Jr. L.D.P.S.

SECTION 4. REPEAL. Chapter 30.1-31 of the North Dakota Century Code is repealed.

SECTION 5. APPLICATION OF ACT. Sections 30.1-31-21 through 30.1-31-30 apply to registrations of securities in beneficiary form made before or after the effective date of this Act by decedents dying on or after the effective date of this Act.

VIDEOTAPED TESTIMONY

AN ACT to provide for the admission as evidence of the videotaped statement of the child victim of certain sexual offenses.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Videotaped statement of child sexual offense victim - Criteria for admission as evidence.

1. In any prosecution for a violation of section 12.1-20-03, 12.1-20-04, 12.1-20-05, 12.1-20-06, 12.1-20-07, or 12.1-20-11 in which the victim is less than fifteen years of age, the oral statement of the child victim may be recorded before trial and, subject to subsection 2, is admissible as evidence in any court proceeding regarding the offense if the following conditions are satisfied:
  - a. The accused must be given reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the videotaped statement;
  - b. The accused must be afforded the opportunity to hear and view the testimony from outside the presence of the child by means of a two-way mirror or other similar method that will ensure that the child cannot hear or see the accused;
  - c. The accused must have the opportunity to communicate orally with counsel by electronic means while the videotaped statement is being made; and
  - d. All questioning must be done by attorneys for the prosecution and the defense; however, upon request of any of the parties or upon the determination of the court that it would be appropriate, the court may appoint a person who is qualified as an expert and who has dealt with the child in a therapeutic setting to aid the court throughout proceedings conducted under this section and the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to protect the interests of the child.
2. A child victim's videotaped statement is admissible pursuant to subsection 1 if the court finds that the child is unavailable as a witness to testify at trial and, upon viewing the videotape recording before it is shown to the jury, determines that it is sufficiently reliable and trustworthy and that the interests of justice will best be served by admission of the statement into evidence. For purposes of this subsection, "unavailable" includes a determination, based on medical or psychological evidence or expert testimony, that the child would suffer serious emotional or psychological strain if required to testify at trial. The court, in making its findings and determinations under this subsection, shall consider at least the following:

- a. The nature of the offense;
- b. The significance of the child's testimony to the case;
- c. The child's age;
- d. The child's psychological maturity and understanding; and
- e. The nature, degree, and duration of potential injury to the child from testifying.

FREE CLINIC VOLUNTEER IMMUNITY

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 32-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to providing immunity to licensed health care providers who render medical care on a voluntary basis at free clinics.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 32-03.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Immunity for a licensed health care provider who provides volunteer medical care at free clinics. A health care provider licensed under title 43 who renders medical care on a voluntary basis at a free clinic is not liable in any personal injury civil action for acts or omissions resulting in the rendering of that care unless it is plainly alleged in the complaint and later proven that the health care provider's acts or omissions constituted intentional misconduct or gross negligence. For purposes of this section, "voluntary" is defined as without receiving remuneration of any sort. "Free clinic" is defined as a clinic that is established to provide primary health care to persons who are otherwise unable to obtain medical services due to their lack of access to health insurance or medical assistance.

ATTACHMENT PROCEDURES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 32-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the prehearing attachment of property; and to amend and reenact section 32-08.1-02, subsection 1 of section 32-08.1-03, and section 32-08.1-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the issuance of writs of attachment.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

32-08.1-02. Writ Issuance of writ - Hearing and notice requirement - Form and contents. ~~The~~ A writ of attachment ~~shall~~ may be issued on the request of the plaintiff ~~at any time~~ before final judgment and after a summons and a complaint is filed. ~~It shall~~ Except as provided in section 2 of this Act, the writ may only be issued following a hearing at which the plaintiff shall present the affidavit described in section 32-08.1-03. The court may issue the writ of attachment only if the plaintiff has provided the required affidavit, has executed a sufficient bond as required under sections 32-08.1-03 and 32-08.1-05, and has made a prima facie showing of the right to attachment. The plaintiff shall provide the defendant with a copy of the request for the writ and the accompanying affidavit and notice of the time of the hearing. The writ if issued must be directed to the sheriff of some county in which the property of the defendant is supposed to be, and ~~shall~~ must require ~~him~~ the sheriff to attach all the property of the defendant within ~~his~~ the sheriff's county or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, together with costs and expenses. ~~It shall~~ The writ must be in the name of the court and be sealed with its seal and signed by its judge.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 32-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Prehearing attachment - Issuance of order - Notice of hearing. A writ of attachment may be issued on the plaintiff's request and prior to the hearing required under section 32-08.1-02 if the plaintiff's request is accompanied by an affidavit stating the basis and amount of claim against the defendant and describing facts that constitute grounds for attachment under subdivision a, b, c, or d of subsection 1 of section 32-08.1-03. The court may issue the writ prior to the hearing required under section 32-08.1-02 only if the plaintiff demonstrates the probability of success on the merits, the existence of one or more of the grounds specified in subdivision a, b, c, or d of subsection 1 of section 32-08.1-03, and that, due to extraordinary circumstances, the plaintiff's interests cannot be protected by an appropriate order of the court, other than by directing the prehearing attachment of property. The defendant must be served immediately after the attachment is completed with a copy of the plaintiff's request for the writ, a copy of the affidavit and all other documents offered in support of the request, and a notice of the availability of a hearing under section 32-08.1-17.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 32-08.1-03 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Before any writ of attachment ~~shall~~ may be executed, the plaintiff or someone on ~~his~~ the plaintiff's behalf shall make and attach thereto an affidavit stating ~~that~~ the basis and amount of the claim against the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in a sum exceeding fifty dollars specifying the amount above all setoffs, and that the same is due upon contract or upon a judgment, and that the affiant knows or has good reason to believe any of the following:
  - a. The defendant is absent from this state, or is concealed therein so that summons cannot be served on him.
  - b. The defendant has disposed of or concealed or is about to dispose of or conceal his property or some part thereof with intent to defraud his creditors.
  - c. The defendant has removed or is about to remove property out of this state with intent to defraud his creditors.
  - d. The defendant fraudulently incurred the obligation respecting which the action is brought.
  - e. The defendant is not a resident of this state.
  - f. The defendant is a foreign corporation; or ~~if~~ is a domestic ~~that~~ corporation and no officer or agent thereof on whom to serve the summons exists or resides in this state or can be found.
  - g. The action is against a defendant as principal on an official bond to recover money due the state or to some political subdivision thereof, or that the action is against the defendant as principal upon a bond or other instrument given as evidence of debt for or to secure the payment of money embezzled or misappropriated by such defendant as an officer of the state or of a political subdivision thereof.
  - h. The action is against a defendant to recover purchase money for personal property sold to the defendant, in which case the property must be specifically described, if one of the conditions under subdivision a, e, or i and one of the conditions under subdivision b or c is also alleged.
  - i. ~~The defendant is about to remove his residence from the county where he resides with the intention of permanently changing the~~ ~~same, and fails or neglects on demand to give security for the debt upon which the action is commenced.~~

- j. The action is against the owner of any motor vehicle for damages alleged to have been caused by the negligence of such owner or his duly authorized agent, the motor vehicle alleged to have been driven, occupied, or owned by a negligent driver or owner thereof, at the time of such accident, may be attached, if one of the conditions under subdivision a or e and one of the conditions under subdivision b or c is also alleged.

32-08.1-17. Answer to writ - Trial. Within ten days after notice of the issuing of a writ of attachment against ~~his~~ the defendant's property, the defendant may, by special answer, deny the existence, at the time of the making of the attachment affidavit, of the material facts stated ~~therein except the alleged liability and the amount thereof, in the affidavit~~ and may assert undue hardship as a defense. The court shall try the issue so raised shall be tried by the court, before the trial of the action and the affirmative shall be upon the plaintiff, but in no event later than fourteen days after the writ of attachment is issued. The plaintiff has the burden of proving the conditions for issuance of the prehearing writ of attachment as described in section 2 of this Act. If the defendant has made an assignment for the benefit of ~~his~~ the defendant's creditors ~~his~~ the defendant's assignee may answer and defend pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 362

HOUSE BILL NO. 1101

(Committee on Judiciary)

(At the request of the Commission on Uniform State Laws)

UNIFORM FOREIGN-MONEY CLAIMS ACT

AN ACT to adopt the Uniform Foreign-Money Claims Act; to provide for transition; and to provide an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Action" means a judicial proceeding or arbitration in which a payment in money may be awarded or enforced with respect to a foreign-money claim.
2. "Bank-offered spot rate" means the spot rate of exchange at which a bank will sell foreign money at a spot rate.
3. "Conversion date" means the banking day before the date on which money, in accordance with this Act, is:
  - a. Paid to a claimant in an action or distribution proceeding;
  - b. Paid to the official designated by law to enforce a judgment or award on behalf of a claimant; or
  - c. Used to recoup, set off, or counterclaim in different moneys in an action or distribution proceeding.
4. "Distribution proceeding" means a judicial or nonjudicial proceeding for the distribution of a fund in which one or more foreign-money claims is asserted and includes an accounting, an assignment for the benefit of creditors, a foreclosure, the liquidation or rehabilitation of a corporation or other entity, and the distribution of an estate, trust, or other fund.
5. "Foreign money" means money other than money of the United States.
6. "Foreign-money claim" means a claim upon an obligation to pay, or a claim for recovery of a loss, expressed in or measured by a foreign money.
7. "Money" means a medium of exchange for the payment of obligations or a store of value authorized or adopted by a government or by intergovernmental agreement.

8. "Money of the claim" means the money determined as proper pursuant to section 4 of this Act.
9. "Rate of exchange" means the rate at which money of one country may be converted into money of another country in a free financial market convenient to or reasonably usable by a person obligated to pay or to state a rate of conversion. If separate rates of exchange apply to different kinds of transactions, the term means the rate applicable to the particular transaction giving rise to the foreign-money claim.
10. "Spot rate" means the rate of exchange at which foreign money is sold by a bank or other dealer in foreign exchange for immediate or next day availability or for settlement by immediate payment in cash or equivalent, by charge to an account, or by an agreed delayed settlement not exceeding two days.
11. "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

SECTION 2. Scope. This Act applies only to a foreign-money claim in an action or distribution proceeding. This Act applies to foreign-money issues even if other law under the conflict of laws rules of this state applies to other issues in the action or distribution proceeding.

SECTION 3. Variation by agreement. The effect of this Act may be varied by agreement of the parties made before or after commencement of an action or distribution proceeding or the entry of judgment. Parties to a transaction may agree upon the money to be used in a transaction giving rise to a foreign-money claim and may agree to use different moneys for different aspects of the transaction. Stating the price in a foreign money for one aspect of a transaction does not alone require the use of that money for other aspects of the transaction.

SECTION 4. Determining money of the claim. The money in which the parties to a transaction have agreed that payment is to be made is the proper money of the claim for payment. If the parties to a transaction have not otherwise agreed, the proper money of the claim, as in each case may be appropriate, is the money:

1. Regularly used between the parties as a matter of usage or course of dealing;
2. Used at the time of a transaction in international trade, by trade usage or common practice, for valuing or settling transactions in the particular commodity or service involved; or
3. In which the loss was ultimately felt or will be incurred by the party claimant.

SECTION 5. Determining amount of the money of certain contract claims.

1. If an amount contracted to be paid in a foreign money is measured by a specified amount of a different money, the amount to be paid is determined on the conversion date.

2. If an amount contracted to be paid in a foreign money is to be measured by a different money at the rate of exchange prevailing on a date before default, that rate of exchange applies only to payments made within a reasonable time after default, not exceeding thirty days. Thereafter, conversion is made at the bank-offered spot rate on the conversion date.
3. A monetary claim is neither usurious nor unconscionable because the agreement on which it is based provides that the amount of the debtor's obligation to be paid in the debtor's money, when received by the creditor, must equal a specified amount of the foreign money of the country of the creditor. If, because of unexcused delay in payment of a judgment or award, the amount received by the creditor does not equal the amount of the foreign money specified in the agreement, the court or arbitrator shall amend the judgment or award accordingly.

SECTION 6. Asserting and defending foreign-money claim.

1. A person may assert a claim in a specified foreign money. If a foreign-money claim is not asserted, the claim is in United States dollars.
2. An opposing party may allege and prove that a claim, in whole or in part, is in a different money than that asserted by the claimant.
3. A person may assert a defense, setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim in any money without regard to the money of other claims.
4. The determination of the proper money of the claim is a question of law.

SECTION 7. Judgments and awards on foreign-money claims - Times of money conversion - Form of judgment.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, a judgment or award on a foreign-money claim must be stated in an amount of the money of the claim.
2. A judgment or award on a foreign-money claim is payable in that foreign money or, at the option of the debtor, in the amount of United States dollars which will purchase that foreign money on the conversion date at a bank-offered spot rate.
3. Assessed costs must be entered in United States dollars.
4. Each payment in United States dollars must be accepted and credited on a judgment or award on a foreign-money claim in the amount of the foreign money that could be purchased by the dollars at a bank-offered spot rate of exchange at or near the close of business on the conversion date for that payment.
5. A judgment or award made in an action or distribution proceeding on both a defense, setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim and the adverse party's claim, must be netted by converting the money of the smaller into the money of the larger, and by subtracting the smaller from the larger, and must specify the rates of exchange used.

6. A judgment substantially in the following form complies with subsection 1:

IT IS ADJUDGED AND ORDERED, that defendant (insert name) pay to plaintiff (insert name) the sum of (insert amount in the foreign money) plus interest on that sum at the rate of (insert rate) percent a year or, at the option of the judgment debtor, the number of United States dollars which will purchase the (insert name of foreign money) with interest due, at a bank-offered spot rate at or near the close of business on the banking day next before the day of payment, together with assessed costs of (insert amount) United States dollars.

7. If a contract claim is of the type covered by section 5 of this Act, the judgment or award must be entered for the amount of money stated to measure the obligation to be paid in the money specified for payment or, at the option of the debtor, the number of United States dollars which will purchase the computed amount of the money of payment on the conversion date at a bank-offered spot rate.
8. A judgment must be docketed and indexed in foreign money in the same manner, and has the same effect as a lien, as other judgments. A judgment may be discharged by payment.

SECTION 8. Conversions of foreign money in distribution proceeding. The rate of exchange prevailing at or near the close of business on the day the distribution proceeding is initiated governs all exchanges of foreign money in a distribution proceeding. A foreign-money claimant in a distribution proceeding shall assert its claim in the named foreign money and show the amount of United States dollars resulting from a conversion as of the date the proceeding was initiated.

SECTION 9. Prejudgment and judgment interest.

1. With respect to a foreign-money claim, recovery of prejudgment or pre-award interest and the rate of interest to be applied in the action or distribution proceeding, except as provided in subsection 2, are matters of the substantive law governing the right to recovery under the conflict-of-laws rules of this state.
2. The court or arbitrator shall increase or decrease the amount of prejudgment or pre-award interest otherwise payable in a judgment or award in foreign money to the extent required by the law of this state governing a failure to make or accept an offer of settlement or offer of judgment, or conduct by a party, or its attorney causing undue delay or expense.
3. A judgment or award on a foreign-money claim bears interest at the rate applicable to judgments of this state.

SECTION 10. Enforcement of foreign judgments.

1. If an action is brought to enforce a judgment of another jurisdiction expressed in a foreign money and the judgment is recognized in this state as enforceable, the enforcing judgment must be entered as provided in section 7 of this Act, whether or not the foreign judgment confers an option to pay in an equivalent amount of United States dollars.
2. A foreign judgment may be docketed in accordance with any rule or statute of this state providing a procedure for its recognition and enforcement.
3. A satisfaction or partial payment made upon the foreign judgment, on proof thereof, must be credited against the amount of foreign money specified in the judgment, notwithstanding the entry of judgment in this state.
4. A judgment entered on a foreign-money claim only in United States dollars in another state must be enforced in this state in United States dollars only.

SECTION 11. Determining United States dollar value of foreign-money claims for limited purposes.

1. Computations under this section are for the limited purposes of the section and do not affect computation of the United States dollar equivalent of the money of the judgment for the purpose of payment.
2. For the limited purpose of facilitating the enforcement of provisional remedies in an action, the value in United States dollars of assets to be seized or restrained pursuant to a writ of attachment, garnishment, execution, or other legal process, the amount of United States dollars at issue for assessing costs, or the amount of United States dollars involved for a surety bond or other court-required undertaking, must be ascertained as provided in subsections 3 and 4.
3. A party seeking process, costs, bond, or other undertaking under subsection 2 shall compute in United States dollars the amount of the foreign money claimed from a bank-offered spot rate prevailing at or near the close of business on the banking day before the filing of a request or application for the issuance of process or for the determination of costs, or an application for a bond or other court-required undertaking.
4. A party seeking the process, costs, bond, or other undertaking under subsection 2 shall file with each request or application an affidavit or certificate executed in good faith by its counsel or a bank officer, stating the market quotation used and how it was obtained, and setting forth the calculation. Affected court officials incur no liability, after a filing of the affidavit or certificate, for acting as if the judgment were in the amount of United States dollars stated in the affidavit or certificate.

SECTION 12. Effect of currency revalorization. If, after an obligation is expressed or a loss is incurred in a foreign money, the country issuing or adopting that money substitutes a new money in place of that money, the obligation or the loss is treated as if expressed or incurred in the new money at the rate of conversion the issuing country establishes for the payment of like obligations or losses denominated in the former money. If the substitution occurs after a judgment or award is entered on a foreign-money claim, the court or arbitrator shall amend the judgment or award by a like conversion of the former money.

SECTION 13. Supplementary general principles of law. Unless displaced by this Act, the principles of law and equity, including the law merchant, and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating causes supplement this Act.

SECTION 14. TRANSITIONAL PROVISION. This Act applies to actions and distribution proceedings commenced after the effective date of this Act.

SECTION 15. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act becomes effective on January 1, 1992.

COLLATERAL REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE DURATION

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 35-03-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to collateral real estate mortgages.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

35-03-17. Collateral real estate mortgages. A mortgage which contains the following statement in printed or typed capital letters: "THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THIS MORTGAGE CONSTITUTES A COLLATERAL REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE PURSUANT TO NORTH DAKOTA CENTURY CODE CHAPTER 35-03", is subject to the provisions of this section. A mortgage executed pursuant to this section must be entitled in printed or typed capital letters: "MORTGAGE - COLLATERAL REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE". A mortgage made pursuant to this section, notwithstanding the fact that from time to time during the term thereof no indebtedness is due from the mortgagor to the mortgagee, constitutes a continuing lien against the real property covered thereby for the amount stated in the mortgage. Any sums not exceeding the face amount of the mortgage, together with interest thereon as provided in the instrument secured by the mortgage, advanced by the mortgagee during the term of the mortgage have a lien priority as of the date the mortgage was filed. At any time the indebtedness due the mortgagee is zero, the mortgagor may demand in writing that the mortgage be satisfied, and the mortgagee shall within ten days thereafter execute and record a satisfaction thereof. Collateral real estate mortgages may be used to secure commercial, agricultural, or consumer loans or lines of credit including, but not limited to, revolving notes and credits and overdraft checking plans.

A filed collateral real estate mortgage which states a maturity date of the instrument secured thereby of five years or less is effective until such maturity date and thereafter for a period of sixty days. Any other filed collateral real estate mortgage is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing and thereafter for a period of sixty days. A filed collateral real estate mortgage which states that the instrument secured thereby is payable on demand is effective for five years from the date of filing and thereafter for a period of sixty days. The effectiveness of a filed collateral real estate mortgage lapses upon the expiration of the sixty-day period unless an addendum to the collateral real estate mortgage extending its effective date is filed prior to the lapse. If a filed collateral real estate mortgage exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the mortgage remains effective until sixty days after termination of the insolvency proceeding or until expiration of the five-year period, whichever occurs later. Upon such lapse, the lien created by the collateral real estate mortgage terminates. An addendum continuing the effectiveness of the lien of the collateral real estate mortgage may be filed by the mortgagee:

1. Within six months before and sixty days after a stated maturity date of five years or less; and
2. Otherwise within six months before and sixty days after the expiration of the five-year effective date period.

An addendum to a collateral real estate mortgage for the sole purpose of continuing the effectiveness of its lien need be signed only by the mortgagee. Upon the timely filing of such an addendum to a collateral real estate mortgage, the effectiveness of the collateral real estate mortgage will be continued for five years after the stated maturity date in those instances where the original collateral real estate mortgage provided a maturity date or for five years after the expiration of the five-year period whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided above unless another addendum to the collateral real estate mortgage continuing the effectiveness of its lien is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding addendums to collateral real estate mortgages may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the lien of the collateral real estate mortgage.

RESIDENTIAL MORTGAGE INFORMATION

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 35-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the responsibility of mortgagees to provide information necessary to satisfy loans secured by mortgages on residential real property that is being sold; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 35-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Request for information concerning payoff and escrow amounts - Penalty - Venue. Unless otherwise stated in the loan or mortgage, within seven business days after receipt of a written request that specifies the name of the owner of the property and the loan number assigned to a loan secured by a mortgage on residential real property and that indicates the information is necessary to close a sale of the property, the servicer of a loan secured by a mortgage on residential real property shall provide to the owner of the property or to that person's representative full information concerning the amount necessary on a date specified in the request to pay off the loan and of any amount held in escrow for payment of insurance premiums, taxes, and other costs relating to the real property. The servicer of the loan secured by a mortgage may not charge any fee for providing the information.

If the servicer of the loan fails to deposit with the United States postal service, facsimile, or deliver personally the information requested within seven business days after receipt of the written request for information and the closing date for sale of the property is postponed as a result of the delay, the servicer of the loan is liable to the owner of the property for all damages sustained because of the delay. Notwithstanding any other law, an action brought to recover damages under this section must be heard in the county where the real property is located or where the plaintiff resides if the residence is within this state.

REPAIRMEN'S LIENS

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 35-13-01, 35-13-02, 35-13-03, and 35-13-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to repairmen's liens.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

35-13-01. Repairman's lien authorized. Any blacksmith, machinist, farm equipment dealer, welder, garage keeper, mechanic, or aviation operator, having an established place of business within this state who makes, alters, or repairs any automobile, truck, engine, combine, tractor, farm equipment, well machine, aircraft, or watercraft at the request of the owner or legal possessor of the property has a lien thereon, and on any accessories and parts placed upon the property, for reasonable charges for work done and materials furnished, until the charges are paid. If the cost of repair would exceed one thousand dollars or twenty-five percent or, two thousand five hundred dollars or twenty-five percent for property used for agricultural purposes, of the value of the property, in its repaired condition, whichever is greater, and the repairman intends to have the entire repair bill constitute a lien with priority over the mortgage or financing statement of record, the repairman shall give notice by registered or certified mail to the recordholder of the mortgage or financing statement of the proposed repair, the estimated cost of repair, and the estimated value of the property in its repaired condition.

35-13-02. Lien statement - Contents - When required - Filing. A person entitled to a lien under this chapter who retains possession of the property made, altered, or repaired is not required to file any statement to perfect the lien. If the possession of the property so made, altered, or repaired is relinquished, the person shall file, within ninety days, or if the property is used for agricultural purposes within one hundred twenty days, or in the exploration for or the production of oil or gas within six months, after the materials are furnished or the labor is completed, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the owner or legal possessor of the property resides, a verified written statement showing:

1. The labor performed.
2. The materials furnished.

3. The price agreed upon for the labor performed or materials furnished, or, if no price was agreed upon, the reasonable value thereof.
4. The name of the person for whom the labor was performed or to whom the materials were furnished.
5. A description of the property upon which the lien is claimed.

A person filing a verified statement shall within twenty three days serve notice of the filing, by registered mail, upon the owner or legal possessor of the property. A person entitled to the lien who fails to file a verified statement within the time limited in this section is deemed to have waived the right to a lien.

35-13-03. Separate articles of personal property may be included in one lien statement. Any person entitled to a lien under this chapter who makes, alters, or repairs more than one article of personal property for the same owner or legal possessor may include all the articles of personal property so made, altered, or repaired within ninety days, or if the property is used for agricultural purposes within one hundred twenty days, or in the exploration for or the production of oil or gas within six months, preceding the filing of the lien statement in the same statement, and the statement has the same force and effect as though a separate statement had been filed for each article.

35-13-04. Priority of lien. A lien obtained under this chapter has priority over all other liens, chattel mortgages, or encumbrances against the personal property upon which the lien is secured, but if the repairman has failed to notify the recordholder of the mortgage or financing statement as provided in section 35-13-01, or if such notice was given and the holder of the mortgage or financing statement, within five days after receiving such notice, communicated in writing to the repairman an objection to all the proposed repair costs becoming a lien against the property with priority over the mortgage or financing statement, then only that portion of the mechanic's repairman's lien up to one thousand dollars or twenty-five percent or, two thousand five hundred dollars or twenty-five percent for property used for agricultural purposes, of the retail value, whichever is greater, in its repaired condition, has priority over the mortgage or financing statement.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Aircraft repair and maintenance lien authorized. Any person who repairs or performs maintenance work on an aircraft has a lien on the aircraft for:

1. The amount due under a contract for the repairs or maintenance work; or
2. If no amount is specified by contract, the reasonable and usual compensation for the repairs or maintenance work.

SECTION 2. Possession of aircraft.

1. A holder of a lien under this chapter may retain possession of the aircraft subject to the lien until the amount due is paid.
2. Except as provided in subsection 3, if the holder of a lien under this chapter relinquishes possession of the aircraft before the amount due is paid, that person may retake possession of the aircraft as provided by section 41-09-49.
3. The holder of a lien under this chapter may not retake possession of the aircraft from a bona fide purchaser for value who, before the date the lien is recorded under section 3 of this Act, purchases the aircraft without knowledge of the lien.

SECTION 3. Recording of lien. The holder of a lien under this chapter may record the lien on the aircraft by filing with the federal aviation administration aircraft registry not later than the ninetieth day after the date of performance of the last repair or maintenance a verified document in the form and manner required by applicable federal laws and regulations. The document must include:

1. The name, address, and telephone number of the holder of the lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act.
2. The amount due for repairs or maintenance.
3. A complete description of the aircraft.

4. The name and address of the owner of the aircraft and the number assigned the aircraft by the federal aviation administration, if known.

SECTION 4. Notice to owner and lienholders.

1. The holder of a lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act who retains possession of the aircraft shall notify the owner shown on the certificate of registration and each holder of a lien on the aircraft as shown on the records maintained for that purpose by the federal aviation administration aircraft registry not later than the thirtieth day after the date or performance of the last repair or maintenance. This notice must include:
  - a. The name, address, and telephone number of the holder of the lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act.
  - b. The amount due for repairs or maintenance.
  - c. A complete description of the aircraft.
  - d. A statement describing the legal right of the holder of the lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act to sell the aircraft at public auction and apply the proceeds to the amount due.
2. The notice must be delivered by registered mail.

SECTION 5. Sale of aircraft authorized. If the holder of a lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act provides the notice required by section 4 of this Act and the amount due remains unpaid after the sixtieth day after the date of performance of the last repair or maintenance, the holder of the lien may sell the aircraft at a public sale if the court finds that the amount due is the amount specified by contract or the reasonable and usual compensation for the repairs or maintenance work performed and the holder may then apply the proceeds to the amount due. The lienholder shall pay any excess proceeds to the person entitled to them.

SECTION 6. Attorneys' fees. The court in a suit brought under sections 1 through 6 of this Act may award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party.

CHAPTER 371

SENATE BILL NO. 2221

(Committee on Agriculture)

(At the request of the State Board of Animal Health)

ANIMAL HEALTH DUTIES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 36-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to definitions; and to amend and reenact sections 36-01-08, 36-01-12, 36-01-13, 36-01-14, 36-01-17, and 36-01-19 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to duties of the state board of animal health, powers of the state board of animal health over contagious and infectious diseases, diseased animals to be reported to the board, protest of killing of diseased animals, oaths and examinations, and the emergency fund in case of epizootic.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 36-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Definitions. In this chapter unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

1. "Captive wildlife" means any wildlife held in a cage, fence, enclosure, or other manmade means of confinement that limits its movement within definite boundaries or an animal that is physically altered to limit movement and facilitate capture.
2. "Domestic animal" means dog, cat, horse, bovine animal, sheep, goat, bison, or swine.

36-01-08. Duties of board - Rules. The state board of animal health shall protect the health of the domestic animals and captive wildlife of this state and shall determine and employ the most efficient and practical means for the prevention, suppression, control, and eradication of dangerous, contagious, and infectious diseases among the domestic animals and captive wildlife of this state. The board may make rules for the conduct of its business and to carry into effect the purposes of this chapter and other duties prescribed in this title. The rules of the state board of animal health must be adopted in accordance with chapter 28-32.

36-01-12. Powers of board over contagious and infectious diseases. The state board of animal health may take such steps as it may deem necessary to control, suppress, and eradicate any and all contagious and infectious diseases among any of the domestic animals and captive wildlife of this state. For this purpose, the board may quarantine any domestic animal or captive wildlife which is infected, or may be infected, with any such disease or which has been exposed, or may be exposed, to infection, cause any animal so infected to be killed, regulate or prohibit the arrival in or departure from this state of any such exposed or infected animal, and at the cost of the owner thereof, it may detain any domestic animal or captive wildlife found to be in violation of any such regulation or prohibition. The board may also quarantine any city, civil township, or county or areas within a county in this state and any enclosure, building, or any domestic animal or captive wildlife therein which is or may be infected or exposed or may be exposed to any contagious or infectious disease.

36-01-13. Diseased animal to be reported to board. Any person who discovers, suspects, or has reason to believe that any domestic animal or captive wildlife belonging to that person or belonging to any other person, is affected by any contagious disease, shall report such knowledge, suspicion, or belief to:

1. The state board of animal health or any member of the board;
2. The state veterinarian or any other agent or representative of the state board of animal health; or
3. Any law enforcement officer of the county or city in which the animal is present. If a report is made to a law enforcement officer under this subsection, the officer shall report the facts immediately to the state board of animal health, the state veterinarian, or another agent or representative of the state board of animal health and failure to do so constitutes a violation of the provisions of this chapter.

36-01-14. Protest against killing of diseased animal - Examination of animal by experts - Appointment of experts. Whenever a domestic animal or captive wildlife has been determined to be affected with a contagious or infectious disease and has been ordered killed by the state board of animal health, the state veterinarian, or an agent or representative of the state board of animal health, the owner or keeper of the animal must be notified of the order. Notice may be accomplished by sending, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the order to the owner or keeper of the animal, or by having an agent or representative of the board, or a law enforcement officer, serve a copy of the order upon the owner or keeper of the animal. Within twenty-four hours after receiving notice of the order, the owner or keeper may file a protest against the killing of the animal with the board or with the person who has ordered the animal killed. The protest must state under oath, that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making the protest, the animal is not infected with any contagious or infectious disease. An examination of the animal involved then must be made by three experts, one of whom must be appointed by the board, one by the person making the protest, and the third by the two thus appointed. All the experts must be persons learned in veterinary medicine and surgery and graduates of the veterinary course of a recognized college or university.

36-01-17. Oaths and examinations. The state board of animal health, any member of the board, the state veterinarian, or any authorized agent or representative of the board, may examine or cause to be examined under oath all persons believed to possess knowledge of material facts concerning the existence or dissemination, or the danger of dissemination, of disease among domestic animals or captive wildlife. For this purpose, the board, members of the board, the state veterinarian, and any authorized agent or representative of the board, shall have the power to take depositions, to compel witnesses to attend and testify, and to administer oaths. Such witnesses shall receive the same fees for attendance and travel as witnesses before the district courts, and the fees must be paid by the board from moneys appropriated to it.

36-01-19. Emergency fund in case of epizootic. In case of any serious outbreak of any contagious, infectious, or epizootic diseases among domestic animals or captive wildlife, which cannot be controlled with the funds at the disposal of the state board of animal health, the board shall notify the governor at once, and the governor thereupon shall call a meeting of the emergency commission, and such commission may authorize money to be drawn from the state treasury to meet the emergency.

LIVESTOCK DEALER LICENSE AND BOND

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 36-04-03 and 36-04-05 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to licensing and bonds of livestock dealers.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

36-04-03. Dealer's license required - Agent designation and licensure - Suitability for licensure - Liability of owner for agent's acts.

1. All dealers and agents must be licensed as provided in this chapter.
2. No agent may act for any dealer unless the dealer is licensed and has designated such agent to act in the dealer's behalf and has notified the department of the appointment in the dealer's application for a license or in a separate written instrument and requested the department to issue to such agent an agent's license in such form as may be prescribed by the commissioner and has signed a statement in substantially the following form:

I, the undersigned applicant for a North Dakota livestock dealer's license, understand that I am strictly responsible for and will be held strictly liable for all acts, omissions, or failures arising out of livestock dealings of the agent(s) listed above, whether or not the dealings have been personally authorized by me.

3. No dealer may designate as an agent any person who has been denied a dealer's or agent's license or has had a dealer's or agent's license revoked for any reason or has otherwise acted in a manner which would be in violation of this chapter, except upon a determination by the commissioner that the person is sufficiently rehabilitated to serve the public as a dealer's agent and that the person does not owe any debt to any livestock seller or auction market. Conviction of an offense as defined by section 12.1-01-04, does not disqualify a person from licensure unless the commissioner determines that the offense has a direct bearing upon a person's ability to serve the public as a dealer's agent or that the person is not at present sufficiently rehabilitated under section 12.1-33-02.1.

4. Agents may not deal in their own names or issue a check or any other commercial paper except in the name of their principals when acting as an agent. A dealer is accountable and responsible for all the acts arising out of livestock dealings of a designated agent, whether authorized or unauthorized by the dealer.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 36-04-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

36-04-05. Dealer to file bond with department - Additional bond may be required. Each applicant for a license under this chapter shall file with the application a bond issued by an approved surety company. The department must be named as the obligee in each bond but the bond will be held for the purpose of protecting and for the benefit of any person selling livestock or wool, as the case may be, to the licensed dealer or the dealer's agent. The bond must be conditioned for:

1. The faithful performance by the dealer and the dealer's designated agent of the duties as such;
2. The compliance by the dealer and the dealer's designated agent with all of the provisions of this code relating to the purchase of livestock or wool, as the case may be;
3. The full and complete payment to the seller for all livestock or wool purchased by the dealer or the dealer's designated agent; and
4. The full protection of any person who deals with the dealer or the dealer's designated agent.

Each bond must cover the license period of the dealer or such greater time as the commissioner may prescribe and must be approved as to amount, form, and sufficiency by the department. The minimum amount of bond is ten thousand dollars, and must be for any greater amount as may be determined by computing the amount of bond on the same basis as prescribed for dealers subject to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921 [Pub. L. 67-51; 42 Stat. 159; 7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.]. The department may demand an additional or increased bond whenever in its judgment the volume of business of the principal warrants such demand.

In lieu of the bond required of dealers under this section, the applicant may file with the department the dealer's bond filed by that applicant with the United States department of agriculture and in effect pursuant to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, naming the commissioner as the trustee of such bond. Bonds from out-of-state applicants may be in favor of a trustee who is a financially responsible, disinterested person satisfactory to the commissioner. The minimum amount of such bond is ten thousand dollars, unless the department determines that the amount of such bond is insufficient in any instance, in which event the department shall require the reasonable amount of the bond required to protect the public interest.

LIVESTOCK DEALER PENALTIES

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 36-04-21 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to adjudication of civil penalties for violations of livestock dealers laws.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

36-04-21. Penalties - Criminal - Civil - Injunctions.

1. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.
2. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars for each violation. The civil penalty may be adjudicated by the courts or by the commissioner through an administrative hearing under chapter 28-32.
3. The department may, in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions and other process, maintain an action in the name of the state against any person violating any provision of this chapter.

LIVESTOCK BRANDS AND AUCTION MARKETS

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 36-05-05, 36-09-02.1, and 36-09-23 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the expiration and renewal of livestock auction market licenses, standards for recording livestock brands or marks, and brand inspections; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 36-05-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

36-05-05. Expiration and renewal of license - Fee returned upon failure to issue or renew license. Each license issued under this chapter expires on the thirty-first day of ~~January~~ March next following the date of issuance ~~thereof~~. Each license must be renewed annually on or before ~~January~~ March thirty-first. The fee for a renewal license is the same as that prescribed for an original license. If the commissioner does not issue a requested original license or renewal license, the fee paid must be refunded to the applicant. Licenses issued in 1991 extend until March 1992.

36-09-02.1. Standards for recording brands or marks. The commissioner shall record the brand or mark described in the application except that the commissioner shall refuse to record any brand or mark:

1. That has been previously recorded in favor of another person or one that is deceptively similar to any previously recorded livestock brand or mark. The same or similar livestock brand or mark which is to be placed on a different part of the animal from that described in the previous record may be recorded.
2. That contains less than two characters, except that a single character brand may be recorded for sheep and goats, or one that contains any of the following characters:
  - a. The letters "g" or "q" or letters that are not in the gothic style.
  - b. The Arabic numerals "o" or "l" or any non-Arabic numerals.
  - c. Any symbols other than permissible symbols. Permissible symbols are limited to the following: diamond, half-diamond, arrow, mill iron, cross, heart, box, triangle, quarter circle, bar, or star.

3. That involves any letters, numerals, or symbols within another letter, numeral, or symbol.
4. That is illegible when placed on the livestock.
5. That indicates placement upon each kind of livestock in other than a permissible location. Permissible locations for cattle are the left and right shoulder, the left and right rib, and the left and right hip. Permissible locations for horses and mules are the left and right jaw, the left and right shoulder, and the left and right hip. Permissible locations for buffalo are the left and right rib, and the left and right hip. The permissible locations for other types of livestock must be established by the commissioner as necessary. The determination of permissible locations under this section may not be considered as a rule under chapter 28-32.

Notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary, the commissioner shall accept for rerecording under section 36-09-09 any previously recorded livestock brand or mark.

36-09-23. Removal of livestock from state - Brand inspection - Penalty. No person may remove cattle, horses, or mules from this state or to within a mile [1.61 kilometers] of any boundary of the state for the purpose of removal unless ~~such~~ the livestock has been inspected for marks and brands by an official brand inspector of the North Dakota stockmen's association and a certificate of inspection must accompany ~~such~~ the livestock to destination. In lieu of ~~such~~ the inspection, the owner or possessor may make and sign an invoice or waybill covering ~~such~~ the stock showing marks and brands, number, sex and kind of the stock and the consignee and market destination where official brand inspection is provided by or for the ~~said~~ stockmen's association and mail a copy of ~~such~~ the invoice or waybill to the association before the stock leaves the state.

It is unlawful for the owner or possessor to remove any ~~such~~ livestock from any place of ~~such~~ regular official brand inspection unless and until official brand inspection has been made and the brand inspection certificate issued.

Any violation of A person who violates this section constitutes is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. A person who violates this section a second time within fifteen years or violates this section three or more times is guilty of a class C felony.

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to unattended animals in motor vehicles; to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 36-21.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to removing an unattended animal from a motor vehicle; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Unattended dog or cat in motor vehicle. No person may leave a dog or cat unattended in a stationary or parked motor vehicle in a manner that endangers the animal's health or safety. Any person who violates this section is guilty of an infraction.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 36-21.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Any sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, or investigator may take custody of, and care for any animal found abandoned, unjustifiably exposed to cold or inclement weather, or not properly fed and watered. Any sheriff or police officer may use reasonable means to enter a motor vehicle and remove an animal that has been left in the vehicle in violation of section 1 of this Act. It is a responsibility of such sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, or investigator to care for the same until it is redeemed by the owner, and when necessary may deliver the animal to another person to be sheltered, cared for, and furnished suitable food and drink. In all cases the owner, if known, must be immediately notified, or if the owner is unknown, notice must be given by publication in the manner prescribed by law. Such notice must inform the owner that such animal may be sold pursuant to court order if the animal is not redeemed within five days after receiving the notice or after publication.

MEAT INSPECTION PILOT PROJECT

AN ACT relating to state meat inspection; to repeal chapter 36-23.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to meat inspection; and to provide an expiration date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Joint state and federal meat inspection service - Pilot project - Contracts. The commissioner of agriculture, in consultation with the board of animal health and the state department of health and consolidated laboratories, shall design and, if appropriate, implement a pilot project to institute a joint state and federal meat inspection service. The service must provide for the inspection of custom-exempt, retail-exempt, and distributor-exempt facilities not under full-time federal inspection. The commissioner may enter into contractual arrangements with the United States department of agriculture governing inspection personnel, salaries, benefits, travel reimbursements, equipment, and any other matters necessary for this section, but any contractual arrangement must expire on or before June 30, 1993.

SECTION 2. Project evaluation - Proposed legislation. By December 1, 1992, the commissioner shall determine whether the pilot project designed under section 1 of this Act should be continued or modified. If the determination is for continuance or modification, by December 10, 1992, the commissioner shall prepare and prefile for introduction appropriate legislation for consideration by the fifty-third legislative assembly.

SECTION 3. REPEAL. Chapter 36-23.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is repealed.

COLLATERAL REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE DURATION

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 35-03-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to collateral real estate mortgages.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

35-03-17. Collateral real estate mortgages. A mortgage which contains the following statement in printed or typed capital letters: "THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THIS MORTGAGE CONSTITUTES A COLLATERAL REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE PURSUANT TO NORTH DAKOTA CENTURY CODE CHAPTER 35-03", is subject to the provisions of this section. A mortgage executed pursuant to this section must be entitled in printed or typed capital letters: "MORTGAGE - COLLATERAL REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE". A mortgage made pursuant to this section, notwithstanding the fact that from time to time during the term thereof no indebtedness is due from the mortgagor to the mortgagee, constitutes a continuing lien against the real property covered thereby for the amount stated in the mortgage. Any sums not exceeding the face amount of the mortgage, together with interest thereon as provided in the instrument secured by the mortgage, advanced by the mortgagee during the term of the mortgage have a lien priority as of the date the mortgage was filed. At any time the indebtedness due the mortgagee is zero, the mortgagor may demand in writing that the mortgage be satisfied, and the mortgagee shall within ten days thereafter execute and record a satisfaction thereof. Collateral real estate mortgages may be used to secure commercial, agricultural, or consumer loans or lines of credit including, but not limited to, revolving notes and credits and overdraft checking plans.

A filed collateral real estate mortgage which states a maturity date of the instrument secured thereby of five years or less is effective until such maturity date and thereafter for a period of sixty days. Any other filed collateral real estate mortgage is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing and thereafter for a period of sixty days. A filed collateral real estate mortgage which states that the instrument secured thereby is payable on demand is effective for five years from the date of filing and thereafter for a period of sixty days. The effectiveness of a filed collateral real estate mortgage lapses upon the expiration of the sixty-day period unless an addendum to the collateral real estate mortgage extending its effective date is filed prior to the lapse. If a filed collateral real estate mortgage exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the mortgage remains effective until sixty days after termination of the insolvency proceeding or until expiration of the five-year period, whichever occurs later. Upon such lapse, the lien created by the collateral real estate mortgage terminates. An addendum continuing the effectiveness of the lien of the collateral real estate mortgage may be filed by the mortgagee:

1. Within six months before and sixty days after a stated maturity date of five years or less; and
2. Otherwise within six months before and sixty days after the expiration of the five-year effective date period.

An addendum to a collateral real estate mortgage for the sole purpose of continuing the effectiveness of its lien need be signed only by the mortgagee. Upon the timely filing of such an addendum to a collateral real estate mortgage, the effectiveness of the collateral real estate mortgage will be continued for five years after the stated maturity date in those instances where the original collateral real estate mortgage provided a maturity date or for five years after the expiration of the five-year period whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided above unless another addendum to the collateral real estate mortgage continuing the effectiveness of its lien is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding addendums to collateral real estate mortgages may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the lien of the collateral real estate mortgage.

RESIDENTIAL MORTGAGE INFORMATION

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 35-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the responsibility of mortgagees to provide information necessary to satisfy loans secured by mortgages on residential real property that is being sold; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 35-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Request for information concerning payoff and escrow amounts - Penalty - Venue. Unless otherwise stated in the loan or mortgage, within seven business days after receipt of a written request that specifies the name of the owner of the property and the loan number assigned to a loan secured by a mortgage on residential real property and that indicates the information is necessary to close a sale of the property, the servicer of a loan secured by a mortgage on residential real property shall provide to the owner of the property or to that person's representative full information concerning the amount necessary on a date specified in the request to pay off the loan and of any amount held in escrow for payment of insurance premiums, taxes, and other costs relating to the real property. The servicer of the loan secured by a mortgage may not charge any fee for providing the information.

If the servicer of the loan fails to deposit with the United States postal service, facsimile, or deliver personally the information requested within seven business days after receipt of the written request for information and the closing date for sale of the property is postponed as a result of the delay, the servicer of the loan is liable to the owner of the property for all damages sustained because of the delay. Notwithstanding any other law, an action brought to recover damages under this section must be heard in the county where the real property is located or where the plaintiff resides if the residence is within this state.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1526
(Laughlin)

REPAIRMEN'S LIENS

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 35-13-01, 35-13-02, 35-13-03, and 35-13-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to repairmen's liens.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

35-13-01. Repairman's lien authorized. Any blacksmith, machinist, farm equipment dealer, welder, garage keeper, mechanic, or aviation operator, having an established place of business within this state who makes, alters, or repairs any automobile, truck, engine, combine, tractor, farm equipment, well machine, aircraft, or watercraft at the request of the owner or legal possessor of the property has a lien thereon, and on any accessories and parts placed upon the property, for reasonable charges for work done and materials furnished, until the charges are paid. If the cost of repair would exceed one thousand dollars or twenty-five percent or, two thousand five hundred dollars or twenty-five percent for property used for agricultural purposes, of the value of the property, in its repaired condition, whichever is greater, and the repairman intends to have the entire repair bill constitute a lien with priority over the mortgage or financing statement of record, the repairman shall give notice by registered or certified mail to the recordholder of the mortgage or financing statement of the proposed repair, the estimated cost of repair, and the estimated value of the property in its repaired condition.

35-13-02. Lien statement - Contents - When required - Filing. A person entitled to a lien under this chapter who retains possession of the property made, altered, or repaired is not required to file any statement to perfect the lien. If the possession of the property so made, altered, or repaired is relinquished, the person shall file, within ninety days, or if the property is used for agricultural purposes within one hundred twenty days, or in the exploration for or the production of oil or gas within six months, after the materials are furnished or the labor is completed, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the owner or legal possessor of the property resides, a verified written statement showing:

1. The labor performed.
2. The materials furnished.

3. The price agreed upon for the labor performed or materials furnished, or, if no price was agreed upon, the reasonable value thereof.
4. The name of the person for whom the labor was performed or to whom the materials were furnished.
5. A description of the property upon which the lien is claimed.

A person filing a verified statement shall within ~~twenty~~ thirty days serve notice of the filing, by registered mail, upon the owner or legal possessor of the property. A person entitled to the lien who fails to file a verified statement within the time limited in this section is deemed to have waived the right to a lien.

35-13-03. Separate articles of personal property may be included in one lien statement. Any person entitled to a lien under this chapter who makes, alters, or repairs more than one article of personal property for the same owner or legal possessor may include all the articles of personal property so made, altered, or repaired within ninety days, or if the property is used for agricultural purposes within one hundred twenty days, or in the exploration for or the production of oil or gas within six months, preceding the filing of the lien statement in the same statement, and the statement has the same force and effect as though a separate statement had been filed for each article.

35-13-04. Priority of lien. A lien obtained under this chapter has priority over all other liens, chattel mortgages, or encumbrances against the personal property upon which the lien is secured, but if the repairman has failed to notify the recordholder of the mortgage or financing statement as provided in section 35-13-01, or if such notice was given and the holder of the mortgage or financing statement, within five days after receiving such notice, communicated in writing to the repairman an objection to all the proposed repair costs becoming a lien against the property with priority over the mortgage or financing statement, then only that portion of the mechanic's repairman's lien up to one thousand dollars or twenty-five percent or, ~~two thousand five hundred dollars or twenty-five percent~~ for property used for agricultural purposes, of the retail value, whichever is greater, in its repaired condition, has priority over the mortgage or financing statement.

AGRICULTURAL SUPPLIERS' LIENS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 35-31-02 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to filing of agricultural supplier's lien statements.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

35-31-02. Procedure to obtain lien. To obtain an agricultural supplier's lien, the person entitled to the lien, within ~~ninety~~ one hundred twenty days after the supplies are furnished or the services performed, shall file a verified statement in the office of the register of deeds of the county or counties in which the crop, agricultural product, or livestock was grown. The statement must contain the following information:

1. The name and address of the person to whom the supplies were furnished.
2. The name and address of the supplier.
3. A description of the crops, agricultural products, or livestock and their amount or number, if known, subject to the lien together with the legal description as to the location of the crops, agricultural products, or livestock.
4. A description and value of the supplies furnished.

Approved April 8, 1991

* NOTE: Section 35-31-02 was also amended by section 10 of Senate Bill No. 2024, chapter 449.

CHAPTER 370

HOUSE BILL NO. 1383
(Rennerfeldt, Schmidt, Porter)

AIRCRAFT REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE LIENS

AN ACT to provide for the creation of an aircraft repair and maintenance lien.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Aircraft repair and maintenance lien authorized. Any person who repairs or performs maintenance work on an aircraft has a lien on the aircraft for:

1. The amount due under a contract for the repairs or maintenance work; or
2. If no amount is specified by contract, the reasonable and usual compensation for the repairs or maintenance work.

SECTION 2. Possession of aircraft.

1. A holder of a lien under this chapter may retain possession of the aircraft subject to the lien until the amount due is paid.
2. Except as provided in subsection 3, if the holder of a lien under this chapter relinquishes possession of the aircraft before the amount due is paid, that person may retake possession of the aircraft as provided by section 41-09-49.
3. The holder of a lien under this chapter may not retake possession of the aircraft from a bona fide purchaser for value who, before the date the lien is recorded under section 3 of this Act, purchases the aircraft without knowledge of the lien.

SECTION 3. Recording of lien. The holder of a lien under this chapter may record the lien on the aircraft by filing with the federal aviation administration aircraft registry not later than the ninetieth day after the date of performance of the last repair or maintenance a verified document in the form and manner required by applicable federal laws and regulations. The document must include:

1. The name, address, and telephone number of the holder of the lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act.
2. The amount due for repairs or maintenance.
3. A complete description of the aircraft.

4. The name and address of the owner of the aircraft and the number assigned the aircraft by the federal aviation administration, if known.

SECTION 4. Notice to owner and lienholders.

1. The holder of a lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act who retains possession of the aircraft shall notify the owner shown on the certificate of registration and each holder of a lien on the aircraft as shown on the records maintained for that purpose by the federal aviation administration aircraft registry not later than the thirtieth day after the date or performance of the last repair or maintenance. This notice must include:
  - a. The name, address, and telephone number of the holder of the lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act.
  - b. The amount due for repairs or maintenance.
  - c. A complete description of the aircraft.
  - d. A statement describing the legal right of the holder of the lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act to sell the aircraft at public auction and apply the proceeds to the amount due.
2. The notice must be delivered by registered mail.

SECTION 5. Sale of aircraft authorized. If the holder of a lien under sections 1 through 6 of this Act provides the notice required by section 4 of this Act and the amount due remains unpaid after the sixtieth day after the date of performance of the last repair or maintenance, the holder of the lien may sell the aircraft at a public sale if the court finds that the amount due is the amount specified by contract or the reasonable and usual compensation for the repairs or maintenance work performed and the holder may then apply the proceeds to the amount due. The lienholder shall pay any excess proceeds to the person entitled to them.

SECTION 6. Attorneys' fees. The court in a suit brought under sections 1 through 6 of this Act may award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party.

CHAPTER 371

SENATE BILL NO. 2221

(Committee on Agriculture)

(At the request of the State Board of Animal Health)

ANIMAL HEALTH DUTIES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 36-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to definitions; and to amend and reenact sections 36-01-08, 36-01-12, 36-01-13, 36-01-14, 36-01-17, and 36-01-19 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to duties of the state board of animal health, powers of the state board of animal health over contagious and infectious diseases, diseased animals to be reported to the board, protest of killing of diseased animals, oaths and examinations, and the emergency fund in case of epizootic.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 36-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Definitions. In this chapter unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

1. "Captive wildlife" means any wildlife held in a cage, fence, enclosure, or other manmade means of confinement that limits its movement within definite boundaries or an animal that is physically altered to limit movement and facilitate capture.
2. "Domestic animal" means dog, cat, horse, bovine animal, sheep, goat, bison, or swine.

36-01-08. Duties of board - Rules. The state board of animal health shall protect the health of the domestic animals and captive wildlife of this state and shall determine and employ the most efficient and practical means for the prevention, suppression, control, and eradication of dangerous, contagious, and infectious diseases among the domestic animals and captive wildlife of this state. The board may make rules for the conduct of its business and to carry into effect the purposes of this chapter and other duties prescribed in this title. The rules of the state board of animal health must be adopted in accordance with chapter 28-32.

36-01-12. Powers of board over contagious and infectious diseases. The state board of animal health may take such steps as it may deem necessary to control, suppress, and eradicate any and all contagious and infectious diseases among any of the domestic animals and captive wildlife of this state. For this purpose, the board may quarantine any domestic animal or captive wildlife which is infected, or may be infected, with any such disease or which has been exposed, or may be exposed, to infection, cause any animal so infected to be killed, regulate or prohibit the arrival in or departure from this state of any such exposed or infected animal, and at the cost of the owner thereof, it may detain any domestic animal or captive wildlife found to be in violation of any such regulation or prohibition. The board may also quarantine any city, civil township, or county or areas within a county in this state and any enclosure, building, or any domestic animal or captive wildlife therein which is or may be infected or exposed or may be exposed to any contagious or infectious disease.

36-01-13. Diseased animal to be reported to board. Any person who discovers, suspects, or has reason to believe that any domestic animal or captive wildlife belonging to that person or belonging to any other person, is affected by any contagious disease, shall report such knowledge, suspicion, or belief to:

1. The state board of animal health or any member of the board;
2. The state veterinarian or any other agent or representative of the state board of animal health; or
3. Any law enforcement officer of the county or city in which the animal is present. If a report is made to a law enforcement officer under this subsection, the officer shall report the facts immediately to the state board of animal health, the state veterinarian, or another agent or representative of the state board of animal health and failure to do so constitutes a violation of the provisions of this chapter.

36-01-14. Protest against killing of diseased animal - Examination of animal by experts - Appointment of experts. Whenever a domestic animal or captive wildlife has been determined to be affected with a contagious or infectious disease and has been ordered killed by the state board of animal health, the state veterinarian, or an agent or representative of the state board of animal health, the owner or keeper of the animal must be notified of the order. Notice may be accomplished by sending, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the order to the owner or keeper of the animal, or by having an agent or representative of the board, or a law enforcement officer, serve a copy of the order upon the owner or keeper of the animal. Within twenty-four hours after receiving notice of the order, the owner or keeper may file a protest against the killing of the animal with the board or with the person who has ordered the animal killed. The protest must state under oath, that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making the protest, the animal is not infected with any contagious or infectious disease. An examination of the animal involved then must be made by three experts, one of whom must be appointed by the board, one by the person making the protest, and the third by the two thus appointed. All the experts must be persons learned in veterinary medicine and surgery and graduates of the veterinary course of a recognized college or university.

36-01-17. Oaths and examinations. The state board of animal health, any member of the board, the state veterinarian, or any authorized agent or representative of the board, may examine or cause to be examined under oath all persons believed to possess knowledge of material facts concerning the existence or dissemination, or the danger of dissemination, of disease among domestic animals or captive wildlife. For this purpose, the board, members of the board, the state veterinarian, and any authorized agent or representative of the board, shall have the power to take depositions, to compel witnesses to attend and testify, and to administer oaths. Such witnesses shall receive the same fees for attendance and travel as witnesses before the district courts, and the fees must be paid by the board from moneys appropriated to it.

36-01-19. Emergency fund in case of epizootic. In case of any serious outbreak of any contagious, infectious, or epizootic diseases among domestic animals or captive wildlife, which cannot be controlled with the funds at the disposal of the state board of animal health, the board shall notify the governor at once, and the governor thereupon shall call a meeting of the emergency commission, and such commission may authorize money to be drawn from the state treasury to meet the emergency.

LIVESTOCK DEALER LICENSE AND BOND

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 36-04-03 and 36-04-05 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to licensing and bonds of livestock dealers.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

36-04-03. Dealer's license required - Agent designation and licensure - Suitability for licensure - Liability of owner for agent's acts.

1. All dealers and agents must be licensed as provided in this chapter.
2. No agent may act for any dealer unless the dealer is licensed and has designated such agent to act in the dealer's behalf and has notified the department of the appointment in the dealer's application for a license or in a separate written instrument and requested the department to issue to such agent an agent's license in such form as may be prescribed by the commissioner and has signed a statement in substantially the following form:

I, the undersigned applicant for a North Dakota livestock dealer's license, understand that I am strictly responsible for and will be held strictly liable for all acts, omissions, or failures arising out of livestock dealings of the agent(s) listed above, whether or not the dealings have been personally authorized by me.

3. No dealer may designate as an agent any person who has been denied a dealer's or agent's license or has had a dealer's or agent's license revoked for any reason or has otherwise acted in a manner which would be in violation of this chapter, except upon a determination by the commissioner that the person is sufficiently rehabilitated to serve the public as a dealer's agent and that the person does not owe any debt to any livestock seller or auction market. Conviction of an offense as defined by section 12.1-01-04, does not disqualify a person from licensure unless the commissioner determines that the offense has a direct bearing upon a person's ability to serve the public as a dealer's agent or that the person is not at present sufficiently rehabilitated under section 12.1-33-02.1.

4. Agents may not deal in their own names or issue a check or any other commercial paper except in the name of their principals when acting as an agent. A dealer is accountable and responsible for all the acts arising out of livestock dealings of a designated agent, whether authorized or unauthorized by the dealer.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 36-04-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

36-04-05. Dealer to file bond with department - Additional bond may be required. Each applicant for a license under this chapter shall file with the application a bond issued by an approved surety company. The department must be named as the obligee in each bond but the bond will be held for the purpose of protecting and for the benefit of any person selling livestock or wool, as the case may be, to the licensed dealer or the dealer's agent. The bond must be conditioned for:

1. The faithful performance by the dealer and the dealer's designated agent of the duties as such;
2. The compliance by the dealer and the dealer's designated agent with all of the provisions of this code relating to the purchase of livestock or wool, as the case may be;
3. The full and complete payment to the seller for all livestock or wool purchased by the dealer or the dealer's designated agent; and
4. The full protection of any person who deals with the dealer or the dealer's designated agent.

Each bond must cover the license period of the dealer or such greater time as the commissioner may prescribe and must be approved as to amount, form, and sufficiency by the department. The minimum amount of bond is ten thousand dollars, and must be for any greater amount as may be determined by computing the amount of bond on the same basis as prescribed for dealers subject to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921 [Pub. L. 67-51; 42 Stat. 159; 7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.]. The department may demand an additional or increased bond whenever in its judgment the volume of business of the principal warrants such demand.

In lieu of the bond required of dealers under this section, the applicant may file with the department the dealer's bond filed by that applicant with the United States department of agriculture and in effect pursuant to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, naming the commissioner as the trustee of such bond. Bonds from out-of-state applicants may be in favor of a trustee who is a financially responsible, disinterested person satisfactory to the commissioner. The minimum amount of such bond is ten thousand dollars, unless the department determines that the amount of such bond is insufficient in any instance, in which event the department shall require the reasonable amount of the bond required to protect the public interest.

LIVESTOCK DEALER PENALTIES

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 36-04-21 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to adjudication of civil penalties for violations of livestock dealers laws.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

36-04-21. Penalties - Criminal - Civil - Injunctions.

1. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.
2. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars for each violation. The civil penalty may be adjudicated by the courts or by the commissioner through an administrative hearing under chapter 28-32.
3. The department may, in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions and other process, maintain an action in the name of the state against any person violating any provision of this chapter.

LIVESTOCK BRANDS AND AUCTION MARKETS

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 36-05-05, 36-09-02.1, and 36-09-23 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the expiration and renewal of livestock auction market licenses, standards for recording livestock brands or marks, and brand inspections; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 36-05-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

36-05-05. Expiration and renewal of license - Fee returned upon failure to issue or renew license. Each license issued under this chapter expires on the thirty-first day of ~~January~~ March next following the date of issuance ~~thereof~~. Each license must be renewed annually on or before ~~January~~ March thirty-first. The fee for a renewal license is the same as that prescribed for an original license. If the commissioner does not issue a requested original license or renewal license, the fee paid must be refunded to the applicant. Licenses issued in 1991 extend until March 1992.

36-09-02.1. Standards for recording brands or marks. The commissioner shall record the brand or mark described in the application except that the commissioner shall refuse to record any brand or mark:

1. That has been previously recorded in favor of another person or one that is deceptively similar to any previously recorded livestock brand or mark. The same or similar livestock brand or mark which is to be placed on a different part of the animal from that described in the previous record may be recorded.
2. That contains less than two characters, except that a single character brand may be recorded for sheep and goats, or one that contains any of the following characters:
  - a. The letters "g" or "q" or letters that are not in the gothic style.
  - b. The Arabic numerals "o" or "l" or any non-Arabic numerals.
  - c. Any symbols other than permissible symbols. Permissible symbols are limited to the following: diamond, half-diamond, arrow, mill iron, cross, heart, box, triangle, quarter circle, bar, or star.

3. That involves any letters, numerals, or symbols within another letter, numeral, or symbol.
4. That is illegible when placed on the livestock.
5. That indicates placement upon each kind of livestock in other than a permissible location. Permissible locations for cattle are the left and right shoulder, the left and right rib, and the left and right hip. Permissible locations for horses and mules are the left and right jaw, the left and right shoulder, and the left and right hip. Permissible locations for buffalo are the left and right rib, and the left and right hip. The permissible locations for other types of livestock must be established by the commissioner as necessary. The determination of permissible locations under this section may not be considered as a rule under chapter 28-32.

Notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary, the commissioner shall accept for rerecording under section 36-09-09 any previously recorded livestock brand or mark.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 36-09-23 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

36-09-23. Removal of livestock from state - Brand inspection - Penalty. No person may remove cattle, horses, or mules from this state or to within a mile [1.61 kilometers] of any boundary of the state for the purpose of removal unless ~~such~~ the livestock has been inspected for marks and brands by an official brand inspector of the North Dakota stockmen's association and a certificate of inspection must accompany ~~such~~ the livestock to destination. In lieu of ~~such~~ the inspection, the owner or possessor may make and sign an invoice or waybill covering ~~such~~ the stock showing marks and brands, number, sex and kind of the stock and the consignee and market destination where official brand inspection is provided by or for the ~~said~~ stockmen's association and mail a copy of ~~such~~ the invoice or waybill to the association before the stock leaves the state.

It is unlawful for the owner or possessor to remove any ~~such~~ livestock from any place of ~~such~~ regular official brand inspection unless and until official brand inspection has been made and the brand inspection certificate issued.

Any violation of A person who violates this section constitutes is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. A person who violates this section a second time within fifteen years or violates this section three or more times is guilty of a class C felony.

UNATTENDED ANIMALS IN VEHICLES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to unattended animals in motor vehicles; to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 36-21.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to removing an unattended animal from a motor vehicle; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Unattended dog or cat in motor vehicle. No person may leave a dog or cat unattended in a stationary or parked motor vehicle in a manner that endangers the animal's health or safety. Any person who violates this section is guilty of an infraction.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 36-21.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Any sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, or investigator may take custody of, and care for any animal found abandoned, unjustifiably exposed to cold or inclement weather, or not properly fed and watered. Any sheriff or police officer may use reasonable means to enter a motor vehicle and remove an animal that has been left in the vehicle in violation of section 1 of this Act. It is a responsibility of such sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, or investigator to care for the same until it is redeemed by the owner, and when necessary may deliver the animal to another person to be sheltered, cared for, and furnished suitable food and drink. In all cases the owner, if known, must be immediately notified, or if the owner is unknown, notice must be given by publication in the manner prescribed by law. Such notice must inform the owner that such animal may be sold pursuant to court order if the animal is not redeemed within five days after receiving the notice or after publication.

MEAT INSPECTION PILOT PROJECT

AN ACT relating to state meat inspection; to repeal chapter 36-23.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to meat inspection; and to provide an expiration date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Joint state and federal meat inspection service - Pilot project - Contracts. The commissioner of agriculture, in consultation with the board of animal health and the state department of health and consolidated laboratories, shall design and, if appropriate, implement a pilot project to institute a joint state and federal meat inspection service. The service must provide for the inspection of custom-exempt, retail-exempt, and distributor-exempt facilities not under full-time federal inspection. The commissioner may enter into contractual arrangements with the United States department of agriculture governing inspection personnel, salaries, benefits, travel reimbursements, equipment, and any other matters necessary for this section, but any contractual arrangement must expire on or before June 30, 1993.

SECTION 2. Project evaluation - Proposed legislation. By December 1, 1992, the commissioner shall determine whether the pilot project designed under section 1 of this Act should be continued or modified. If the determination is for continuance or modification, by December 10, 1992, the commissioner shall prepare and prefile for introduction appropriate legislation for consideration by the fifty-third legislative assembly.

SECTION 3. REPEAL. Chapter 36-23.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is repealed.

SECTION 4. EXPIRATION DATE. Sections 1 and 2 of this Act are effective through June 30, 1993, and after that date are ineffective.

DISASTER RECOVERY FUNDING

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 37-17 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the establishment of a method to fund the state match required to assist state and local governments to recover from a major disaster or emergency, expanded duties and responsibilities of the division of emergency management and the emergency commission, and a loan from the Bank of North Dakota.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 37-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Disaster or emergency recovery funding - Loan authorization. When approved by the emergency commission, the division of emergency management is authorized to borrow from the Bank of North Dakota, to match federal funds under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Emergency Assistance Act [Public Law 93-288, as amended]. In addition to the principal repayment, the Bank of North Dakota shall receive interest on the loan at a rate equal to other state agency borrowings. On behalf of the state, the division of emergency management shall administer the disaster or emergency recovery program according to state procedures based on federal laws or regulations. After a county or group of counties have been declared a major disaster or emergency area by the president, the division shall submit a request to the emergency commission for:

1. Approval to make an application for a loan from the Bank of North Dakota;
2. Approval for additional personnel required to perform the anticipated recovery activities; and
3. Authority to spend additional state and federal funds for the recovery program.

If the request is acceptable, the emergency commission shall approve the request and issue a notice of their action to the division, Bank of North Dakota, and the office of management and budget. The division shall keep the emergency commission apprised of the progress of the recovery operation and submit a final report upon completion of the project. The emergency commission is responsible to repay any loan, including accrued interest, from the Bank of North Dakota which is provided under this section. The emergency commission is authorized to repay the loan utilizing federal recovery administrative reimbursements to the state under Public Law 93-288, as amended, and any other moneys remaining in the contingency fund. If at the end of the biennium a balance exists on the loan, the emergency commission shall request the legislative assembly for a deficiency appropriation to repay the loan.

CHAPTER 381

SENATE BILL NO. 2152
(Committee on State and Federal Government)
(At the request of the Division of Emergency Management)

MUTUAL AID AGREEMENTS

AN ACT to create and enact four new sections to chapter 37-17.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to mutual aid agreements between political subdivisions and between North Dakota and other states or provinces in times of an actual or potential disaster or emergency situation or incident.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 37-17.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Mutual aid - Cooperation.

1. The division of emergency management shall encourage and assist political subdivisions to enter mutual aid agreements with other public and private agencies within the state for reciprocal aid and assistance in responding to and recovering from actual and potential disasters or emergencies.
2. In reviewing emergency operations plans and programs of political subdivisions, the division of emergency management shall consider whether they contain adequate provisions for mutual aid.
3. Local emergency management organizations may assist in negotiation of mutual aid agreements between the governor and an adjoining state or province or a political subdivision of an adjoining state or province and shall carry out arrangements of any such agreements relating to the local political subdivision.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 37-17.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Interstate mutual aid agreements.

1. This state may enter into an interstate mutual aid agreement or compact with any state that has enacted or shall enact the compact substantially in the form contained in section 4 of this Act.
2. The governor may enter into an interstate agreement with any state if the governor finds that joint action with that state is desirable in meeting common intergovernmental problems of emergency or disaster preparedness, mitigation, response, and recovery.

3. The governor may deny the request of a requesting state as the governor determines necessary.
4. All interstate mutual aid compacts and other interstate agreements to which this state is a party dealing with disaster or emergency preparedness, response, recovery, or mitigation must be reviewed and made current every four years.
5. If a person holds a license, certificate, or other permit issued by any state or political subdivision evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical, or other skills, the person may render aid involving that skill in this state to meet an emergency or disaster, and this state shall give due recognition to the license, certificate, or other permit.
6. When considered of mutual benefit, the governor may, subject to the limitations of law, enter into intergovernmental arrangements with neighboring provinces of Canada for the purpose of exchanging disaster or emergency resources.

SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 37-17.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Authority to join interstate mutual aid agreements - Interstate compacts.

1. The governor, in the name of the state, may join with other states in the interstate mutual aid agreement or compact.
2. The governor may negotiate and execute such supplemental agreements as may be necessary and proper to fully carry out the terms and provisions of the interstate mutual aid agreement or compact as set forth in section 4 of this Act.

SECTION 4. A new section to chapter 37-17.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Text of the mutual aid agreement or compact. The interstate mutual aid agreement or compact referred to in sections 2 and 3 of this Act reads as follows:

INTERSTATE MUTUAL AID AGREEMENT OR COMPACT

Article I

The purpose of this agreement or compact is to provide voluntary assistance among participating states in responding to any disaster or imminent disaster or emergency that overextends the ability of local and state governments to reduce, counteract, or remove the threat to lives, property, or the environment. Assistance may include rescue, fire, law enforcement, health and medical, communications, and transportation resources to cope with problems that require use of special equipment, trained personnel, or personnel in large numbers not locally available.

Article II

Article I, section 10, of the Constitution of the United States permits a state to enter into an agreement or compact with other states, subject to the consent of Congress. Congress, through enactment of 50 U.S.C. 2281(g) and 2283 and the executive branch, by issuance of Executive Order No. 10186 of December 1, 1950, encourage states to enter into emergency, disaster, and civil defense mutual aid agreements or pacts.

Article III

It is agreed by participating states that the following conditions will guide implementation of the mutual aid agreement or compact:

1. Participating states through their designated officials are authorized to request and receive assistance from a participating state. Requests will be granted only if the requesting state is committed to the mitigation of the disaster or emergency and other resources are not immediately available and the governor of the aiding state agrees to the request.
2. Requests for assistance may be verbal or in writing. If the request is made by other than written communication, it must be confirmed in writing as soon as practical after the request. A written request must provide an itemization of equipment and operators, types of expertise, and personnel or other resources needed. Each request must be signed by an authorized official.
3. Personnel and equipment of the aiding state made available to the requesting state must, whenever possible, remain under the control and direction of the aiding state. The activities of personnel and equipment of the aiding state must be coordinated by the requesting state.
4. An aiding state has the right to withdraw some or all of its personnel and equipment whenever the personnel and equipment are needed by that state. Notice of intention to withdraw should be communicated to the requesting state as soon as possible.

Article IV

1. The requesting state shall reimburse the aiding state as soon as possible after the receipt by the requesting state of an itemized voucher requesting reimbursement of costs.
2. Any state rendering aid pursuant to the mutual aid agreement must be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for any damage to, loss of, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment used in responding to a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such request.
3. Any state rendering aid pursuant to this agreement or compact must be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for the cost of compensation and death benefits to injured officers, agents, or employees and their dependents or representatives if such officers, agents, or employees sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this arrangement and such payments must be made in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death was sustained within the aiding state.

Article V

1. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinance, and rules and all pension, disability relief, workers' compensation, and other benefits that apply to the activity of officers, agents, or employees when performing their respective functions within territorial limits of their respective political subdivisions apply to them to the same extent while engaged in the performance of any of their functions and duties extraterritorially under the provisions of this agreement.

2. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinances, and rules and workers' compensation and other benefits that apply to duly enrolled or registered volunteers when performing their respective functions at the request of their state and within its territorial limits apply to the same extent while performing their functions extraterritorially under the provisions of this agreement or compact. "Volunteers", as used in this subsection, includes physicians, surgeons, nurses, dentists, structural engineers, and trained search and rescue or hazardous materials teams, volunteers, or personnel.
3. The signatory states, their political subdivisions, municipal corporations, and other public agencies shall hold harmless the corresponding entities and personnel thereof from the other state with respect to the acts and omissions of its own agents and employees that occur while providing assistance pursuant to the common plan.
4. Nothing in this agreement may be construed as repealing or impairing any existing interstate mutual aid agreements.
5. Upon enactment of this agreement by two or more states, and annually by each January thereafter, the participating states will exchange with each other the names of officials designated to request and provide service under this arrangement. In accordance with the cooperative nature of this agreement, it is permissible and desirable for states to exchange operational procedures to be followed in requesting assistance and reimbursing expenses.
6. This agreement becomes effective and is binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Therefore, this agreement becomes effective and binding on any other state upon similar action by such state.
7. This agreement remains binding upon a party state until it enacts a law repealing the agreement and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the agreement to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal may not take effect until the thirtieth consecutive day after the notice has been sent. Such withdrawal does not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed under this agreement prior to the effective date of the withdrawal.

CHAPTER 382

SENATE BILL NO. 2188
(Committee on Natural Resources)
(At the request of the Division of Emergency Management)

HAZARDOUS CHEMICALS PREPAREDNESS

AN ACT to provide for the establishment of a program to carry out the provisions of the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986, expanded duties of the division of emergency management, a facility fee system, a state and local hazardous chemicals fund or account, and the expenditure of special funds; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Hazardous chemicals preparedness and response program.

1. Program components.

- a. State emergency response commission. The governor shall appoint members of the state emergency response commission to carry out the commission's responsibilities as outlined in Public Law 99-499, 42 U.S.C. 11001, et seq., also referred to as SARA title III, and the responsibilities of the commission members as outlined in the North Dakota emergency operations plan.
- b. In conjunction with the state emergency response commission, the local emergency planning committees, and the local emergency management organizations, the division of emergency management shall coordinate the development and maintenance of a state hazardous chemicals preparedness and response program.
- c. The director of the division of emergency management shall serve as the chairperson of the state emergency response commission. In the absence of the chairperson, the designated vice chairperson shall serve as chairperson. The chairperson shall recognize the assignment of representatives to the commission who are designated through a delegation of authority by a member. The chairperson shall designate a commission secretary, solely for the purpose of documenting and distributing clerical proceedings, from the staff of the division of emergency management.
- d. Facility reporting. For the purpose of complying with the reporting requirements set forth in sections 302, 304, 311, 312, and 313 of Public Law 99-499, 42 U.S.C. 11001, et seq., also referred to as SARA title III, the owner and operator of any facility, as defined in SARA title III, shall submit those reports to the North Dakota division of emergency management as required by SARA title III, which shall establish and maintain the state repository for these reports.

2. Establishment of funds.

- a. State hazardous chemicals preparedness and response fund. There is hereby created in the state treasury a nonlapsing restricted account to be known as a state hazardous chemicals preparedness and response fund. The fund consists of revenue collected from the state hazardous chemical fee system and funds appropriated by the general assembly. Moneys in the fund shall be appropriated biennially to the division of emergency management for carrying out the purposes, goals, and objectives of SARA title III, and the state hazardous chemicals preparedness and response program.
- b. County hazardous chemicals preparedness and response account. The county treasurer of each county shall establish a nonlapsing restricted account, to be known as the county hazardous chemicals preparedness and response account. The county hazardous chemicals preparedness and response account consists of revenue from the state hazardous chemicals fee system, county, federal or state funds, grants, and any private donations provided to finance the county hazardous chemicals preparedness and response program.
- c. Facility fee system. Each owner and operator of a facility, as defined in SARA title III, shall pay an annual hazardous chemicals fee to the division of emergency management by March first of each year. The fee is twenty-five dollars for each chemical within the meaning of 40 CFR 355.20 or its successor which is required under section 312 of SARA, title III, to be listed on the hazardous chemical inventory form (tier II) which the owner or operator must submit to the division. The federal requirements must be used for completing the tier II form, including the threshold amounts, as outlined in 40 CFR Section 370.20. The maximum fee for a facility under this section is one hundred fifty dollars. The division of emergency management shall transfer to the county hazardous chemicals preparedness and response account one-half of the funds collected from the state's hazardous chemicals fee system.
- d. Exemptions. The owners or operators of family farm enterprises that are not engaged in the retail or wholesale of hazardous chemicals and facilities owned by the state or local governments are exempt from the fee under subdivision c. For purposes of this section, the terms "family farm" and "farmer" have the same meaning as set forth in section 6-09.11-01.
- e. Accept funding. The state and county governments are authorized to accept and may deposit grants, gifts, and federal funds into the hazardous chemicals preparedness and response fund and accounts for the purpose of carrying out the hazardous chemicals preparedness and response program.
- f. Definition. "Hazardous chemical" means as defined in 40 CFR 355.20 and 29 CFR 1910.1200.

- g. Termination of fee system. The fee system in this section terminates ten years after the effective date of this Act unless reestablished by the legislative assembly by statute.
  - h. City fee system. The state hazardous chemicals fee system does not supersede a city fee system for hazardous chemicals.
3. Recovery of response costs.
- a. General rule. A person who causes a release, as defined in 40 CFR 355.20, of a hazardous chemical in excess of the reportable quantity of that chemical, as defined in 40 CFR 355.20, is liable for the response costs incurred by state or local hazardous chemical response personnel. The state agency, local agency, volunteer organization, or hazardous chemical response personnel, as identified in the state or local emergency operations plan, which undertakes a response action may recover those response costs in an action brought before a court of competent jurisdiction. If more than one jurisdiction, organization, or agency incurs response costs for the same hazardous chemical release or incident, those hazardous chemical response jurisdictions, agencies, organizations, or personnel may file a joint action and may designate one entity to represent the others in the action.
  - b. Amount. In the action to recover reasonable and necessary response costs, state agencies, local agencies, or volunteer organizations may include operational, administrative, personnel, and legal costs incurred from its initial response action up to the time that it recovers its cost. Reasonable and necessary costs are those additional costs incurred that are a result of the responsible party's failure or inability to implement or initiate the necessary actions to protect life, property, and the environment.
4. Penalties and fines.
- a. Civil fines. A person who violates any of the reporting, planning, or notification requirements outlined in the provisions of the Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986 [title III of Public Law 99-499, 42 U.S.C. 11001 et seq.], or fails to pay a state hazardous chemicals fee is subject to a civil fine of not more than fifteen thousand dollars for each separate offense. For purposes of this subdivision, each day of continued violation constitutes a separate offense. All civil fines collected under this subdivision must be deposited in the state general fund. The state and its political subdivisions and employees of the state or a political subdivision acting within the scope of their employment are not subject to the civil fines established in this subdivision.
  - b. Criminal penalty. Any person who knowingly falsifies information or who intentionally obstructs or impairs, by force, violence, physical interference, or obstacle, a representative of state or local government or state or local hazardous chemicals response personnel attempting to perform duties and functions in state or local emergency operations plans or complying with Public Law 99-499, SARA title III, is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. The state and its political subdivisions and employees of the state or a political subdivision acting within the scope of their employment are not subject to the penalty established in this subdivision.

5. Enforcement.

- a. If the director of the division of emergency management determines that a violation of this chapter has occurred, the director shall make all evidence available to the attorney general for use in any remedial action the attorney general's office determines appropriate, including injunctive relief.
- b. Nothing in this section may be construed to deny use of the remedies authorized under chapter 32-40.

VETERANS COMPENSATION

AN ACT to provide for adjusted compensation for eligible veterans of Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm and for the method of filing and payment of claims, duties of the adjutant general, and exemption from taxation and execution for such payments; to provide a penalty; to provide an appropriation; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Statement of public purpose. In order to ease the financial hardships and personal and family sacrifices sustained by those North Dakota members of the national guard and reserve component personnel who were activated for Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm in the Persian Gulf, it is the intent of the legislative assembly that additional compensation be provided to those resident veterans of North Dakota who were activated under 10 U.S.C. 673 or 10 U.S.C. 673(b), and payment of that compensation is declared to be a public purpose. It is the further intent of the legislative assembly to encourage those North Dakota resident veterans of Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm to continue their voluntary membership in the national guard and other reserve components.

SECTION 2. Definitions. As used in this Act:

1. "Adjutant general" means the adjutant general of North Dakota.
2. "Beneficiary" in relation to a deceased veteran, means, in the order named:
  - a. The surviving unremarried husband or wife as of the date of signing the application;
  - b. The surviving child or children and the lawful issue of a deceased child or children by right of representation;
  - c. The surviving person standing in loco parentis; or
  - d. The surviving parent or parents.
3. "Domestic service" means service by a veteran during the period of service which is not foreign service.
4. "Foreign service" means service by a veteran during the period of service anywhere in the Persian Gulf theatre.

5. "Honorable and faithful" means service evidenced by:
  - a. An honorable discharge, or its equivalent;
  - b. In the case of an officer, a certificate of service; and
  - c. In the case of a veteran who has not been discharged, a certificate from appropriate service authority that the veteran's service was honorable and faithful.
6. "Period of service" means the period of time beginning August 2, 1990, and ending on a date prescribed by the president or the Congress for the cessation of hostilities in the Persian Gulf.
7. "Resident" means a person who:
  - a. Was born in and lived in the state of North Dakota until entrance into the armed forces of the United States;
  - b. Was born in, but was temporarily living outside the state of North Dakota, not having abandoned North Dakota residence at the time of entrance into the armed forces of the United States; or
  - c. Was born elsewhere but had resided within the state of North Dakota for the last six months before entrance into military service and had prior to or during that six-month period:
    - (1) Voted in the state of North Dakota;
    - (2) Was an emancipated minor during such period of residence or had lived with a parent or person standing in loco parentis who was a resident; or
    - (3) Was not registered for voting in another state after being a resident.
  - d. "Resident" also means a veteran who was a bona fide resident of the state of North Dakota at the time of entering the armed forces, as determined under the rules of the adjutant general and the laws of this state. A person is not a resident of North Dakota for the purpose of receiving any benefits under this Act if the person was on continuous active duty in the armed forces, immediately prior to August 2, 1990, and has not established actual abode in North Dakota prior to the effective date of this Act.
8. "Veteran" means a member of the national guard or reserve component who was activated under 10 U.S.C. 673 or 10 U.S.C. 673(b) and who completed honorable and faithful service of more than thirty days on active duty in the armed forces of the United States at any time during the period of service, who was a resident of the state of North Dakota, and who has not received bonus or adjusted compensation from another state for the period of service.

SECTION 3. Payment of adjusted compensation for domestic and foreign service. Each veteran is entitled to fifty dollars for each month or major fraction thereof for domestic service and one hundred dollars for each month or major fraction thereof for foreign service. If the veteran received a Purple Heart for foreign service, the veteran is entitled to a payment of two thousand five hundred dollars in lieu of monthly payments for adjusted compensation. If the veteran is deceased, the veteran's beneficiary is entitled to any payments under this Act to which the veteran would have been entitled. Applications for adjusted compensation may be filed with the adjutant general after April 1, 1991, but not later than six months after the end of the period of service.

SECTION 4. Payment to beneficiary of veteran who died in active service. In the case of a veteran who died as a result of active service during the period of service, the beneficiary of such veteran is entitled to a payment of two thousand five hundred dollars in lieu of any other compensation under this Act.

SECTION 5. Application. Each veteran or veteran's beneficiary entitled to payment under this Act shall make application to the adjutant general of the state of North Dakota upon a form prescribed by the adjutant general. If the veteran is incompetent or the veteran's beneficiary is incompetent or a minor, application may be made by the guardian of the veteran or beneficiary, and if there is no guardian the person determined by the adjutant general to have assumed the major responsibility for the care of the veteran or beneficiary and to be a proper person to receive payment for the veteran or beneficiary may make the application. If a veteran is hospitalized in a state, county, or federal institution and no application has otherwise been approved by the adjutant general the person in charge of such institution may make the application with the approval of the adjutant general. For the purpose of this section, the word "minor" does not include the unremarried spouse of a veteran. Each application must be accompanied by a certified copy of honorable discharge or other evidence of honorable and faithful service. Each application must be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant in such manner as may be prescribed by the adjutant general. The adjutant general shall provide by rule for an endorsement of the evidence of honorable and faithful service if application for payment has been made.

SECTION 6. Method of payment - Deduction of sums due veterans aid fund. Upon submission of satisfactory proof that the applicant is entitled to payment under this Act, the adjutant general shall compute the amount of payment due the applicant, make a record thereof, and forward a voucher for the payment to the office of management and budget, which shall cause the warrant-check to be issued for the amount of the claim. Payment must be made from funds appropriated by the legislative assembly. If the veteran or the applicant for payment under this Act is indebted to the veterans' aid fund of the state of North Dakota, the adjutant general shall determine the amount of such indebtedness and certify such determination to the office of management and budget together with the record of payment due. Within the limits of the payment due, the amount of such indebtedness must be paid to the veterans' aid fund and the applicant must be paid any remainder to which the veteran is entitled.

SECTION 7. Payments exempt from taxation and from execution - Assignments void - Debts to state and political subdivisions not deducted. Payments under this Act are exempt from all state and local taxes and from levy, garnishment, attachment, and sale on execution. Any pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment, or transfer of any right, claim, or interest in any claim or payment under this Act is void and payment to the veteran may not be denied because of any sums owed to the state or any political subdivisions except as provided in section 6 of this Act.

SECTION 8. Duty of adjutant general - Finality of decisions - Questions of residence subject to court review. The adjutant general shall administer this Act. The adjutant general shall prepare and distribute application blanks and investigate all claims and applications filed. If the adjutant general is satisfied of the proof of a claim and application, the adjutant general shall approve and direct payment of the claim. The adjutant general may adopt any rules necessary to the efficient administration of this Act. The necessary books, papers, records, cases, and equipment used in the administration of this Act shall become a part of the permanent records of the office of the adjutant general. The adjutant general may determine any claim in any case if doubt arises as to the eligibility of an applicant to receive payment and the decision of the adjutant general in such case is final, except on questions or residence which are subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction. The adjutant general shall authorize payment for prisoners of war upon their release and return.

SECTION 9. Penalty for false statement. Any person who willfully makes a false statement in the application for benefits under this Act is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

SECTION 10. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $600,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to make payment of adjusted compensation to veterans in accordance with the provisions of this Act, for the period from the effective date of this Act through June 30, 1993.

SECTION 11. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.

CHAPTER 386

SENATE BILL NO. 2303
(Senators Keller, Freborg)
(Representatives Bodine, Urlacher)

COAL MINING ROAD CLOSURE

AN ACT to create and enact two new sections to chapter 38-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the closing of roads for surface coal mining operations; and to repeal sections 38-01-06 and 38-01-07 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to condemnation of roads for mining operations and to damages for condemnation of roads for mining operations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Two new sections to chapter 38-01 of the North Dakota Century Code are created and enacted as follows:

Road may be closed for surface coal mining operations. A surface coal mining operator may petition the board of county commissioners to temporarily close or relocate a section line road or other road if the road interferes with the operator's conduct of surface coal mining operations. The board of county commissioners, if so petitioned, may, after notice and public hearing, temporarily close or relocate the section line road or other road, providing the road is not required due to readily accessible alternate routes of travel and the closing or relocation does not deprive adjacent landowners access to their property. If a road is closed as provided for in this section, the board of county commissioners may require that after completion of surface coal mining operations the operator restore the road to as good a condition as existed prior to the closing of the road.

Notice required. Within thirty days after the board of county commissioners receives a petition to temporarily close or relocate a section line road or other road, the board shall fix a time and place for hearing, and the petitioner, at least ten days prior to the time fixed for the hearing, shall cause notice to be served personally or by mail on all surface owners of the land through which the road passes. The petitioner shall also cause notice to be published once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county in which the road is located, with the last publication being at least ten days prior to the time fixed for hearing.

SECTION 2. REPEAL. Sections 38-01-06 and 38-01-07 of the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

Approved March 14, 1991

HOUSE BILL NO. 1115
(Committee on Natural Resources)
(At the request of the State Industrial Commission)

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION OIL AND GAS DIRECTOR

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 38-08-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the industrial commission's appointment of a director of oil and gas; and to repeal section 38-08-04.3 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the state geologist's duty to assist the industrial commission.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 38-08-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

~~38-08-04.2. Industrial commission - Personnel - Equipment transfer Director of oil and gas. The industrial commission is authorized to appoint a chief enforcement officer director of oil and gas and to set his the director's salary within the limits of legislative appropriations. The industrial commission may designate the state geologist as the chief enforcement officer director of oil and gas. With the approval of the industrial commission, the state geologist may appoint an assistant to have primary responsibility for rule enforcement. The industrial commission, within the limits of legislative appropriations, may make arrangements with the board of higher education, subject to the approval of the emergency commission, to transfer equipment, personnel, and material between the commission and the state geologist as necessary to carry out this chapter.~~

SECTION 2. REPEAL. Section 38-08-04.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is repealed.

DRILLING RISK PENALTY

AN ACT to create and enact a new subsection to section 38-08-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the imposition of a risk penalty on leasehold owners who elect not to pay in advance their proportionate share of the costs of drilling an oil or gas well.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new subsection to section 38-08-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

In addition to any costs and charges recoverable under subsection 1 and 2, if a lessee owning an interest in a spacing unit elects not to participate in the risk and cost of drilling a well thereon, the owner paying for the nonparticipating lessee's share of the drilling and operation of a well may recover from the nonparticipating lessee a risk penalty for the risk involved in drilling the well. The risk penalty is one hundred percent of the nonparticipating lessee's share of the reasonable actual costs of drilling and completing the well and may be recovered out of, and only out of, production from the pooled spacing unit, as provided by section 38-08-10, exclusive of any royalty or overriding royalty. No risk penalty may be assessed against an unleased mineral interest.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1333
(Representatives A. Olson, Mahoney)
(Senator Keller)

UNITIZATION PLAN APPROVAL

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 38-08-09.5 and 38-08-09.9 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to ratification or approval of unitization plans.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

38-08-09.5. Ratification or approval of plan by lessees and owners. At the time of filing of the petition for the approval of a unit agreement and the filing of the unit agreement, the commission shall set a time and place for the hearing. At least forty-five days prior to the hearing, the applicant or someone under his direction and control, shall give notice of the time and place of said hearing and shall mail, postage prepaid, a copy of the application and the proposed plan of unitization to each affected person owning an interest of record in the unit outline, at such person's last known post-office address. In addition, such applicant shall file with the commission engineering, geological, and all other technical exhibits to be used at said hearing, and further, the notice must so specify that such material is filed and is available for inspection. Service is complete in the mailing of the notice of hearing and unit agreement to each interest owner as hereinbefore prescribed at his last known address and the filing of an affidavit of mailing with the commission. No order of the commission creating a unit and prescribing the plan of unitization applicable thereto becomes effective unless and until the plan of unitization has been signed, or in writing ratified or approved by those persons who, under the commission's order, will be required to pay at least ~~eighty~~ seventy percent of the costs of the unit operation and also by the owners of at least ~~eighty~~ seventy percent of the royalty interests under the commission's order, excluding overriding royalties, production payments, and other interests carved out of the working interest, and in addition it shall be required that when there is more than one person who will be obligated to pay costs of the unit operation, at least two nonaffiliated such persons and at least two royalty interest owners, shall be required as voluntary parties, and the commission has made a finding either in the order creating the unit or in a supplemental order that the plan of unitization has been so signed, ratified, or approved by lessees and royalty owners owning the required percentage interest in and to the unit area. Where the plan of unitization has not been so signed, ratified, or approved by lessees and royalty owners owning the required percentage interest in and to the unit area at the time the order creating the unit is made, the commission shall, upon petition and notice, hold such additional and supplemental hearings as may be requested or required to determine if and when the plan of unitization has been so signed, ratified, or approved by lessees and royalty owners owning the required percentage interest in and to the unit area and shall, in respect to such hearings, make and enter a finding of its determination in such regard. In the event lessees and royalty owners, or either, owning the required percentage interest in and to the unit area have not so signed, ratified, or approved the plan of unitization within a period of six months from and after the date on which the order creating the unit is made, the order creating the unit ceases to be of further force and effect and shall be revoked by the commission.

38-08-09.9. Enlargement of area - Creation of new units - Amendment of plan. The unit area of a unit may be enlarged at any time by the commission, subject to the limitations hereinbefore provided to include adjoining portions of the same common source of supply, including the unit area of another unit, and a new unit created for the unitized management, operation, and further development of such enlarged unit area, or the plan of unitization may be otherwise amended, all in the same manner, upon the same conditions and subject to the same limitations as provided with respect to the creation of a unit in the first instance, except, that where an amendment to a plan of unitization relates only to the rights and obligations as between lessees, or the amendment to a plan of unitization or the enlargement of a unit area is found by the commission to be reasonably necessary in order to effectively carry on the joint effort, to prevent waste, and to protect correlative rights, and that such will result in the general advantage of the owners of the oil and gas rights within the unit area and the proposed enlarged unit area, and the persons and owners in the proposed added unit area have ratified or approved the plan of unitization as required by section 38-08-09.5, then such amendment to a plan of unitization or the enlargement of a unit area need not be ratified or approved by royalty owners of record in the existing unit area provided that written notice thereof is mailed to such royalty owners by the operator of a unit not more than forty days nor less than thirty days prior to the commission hearing. The notice must describe the plan for the unit amendment or enlargement together with the participation factor to be given each tract in the unit area and in the proposed area and must contain the time and place of the commission hearing. An affidavit of mailing verifying such notice must be filed with the commission. Said notice must further provide that in the event ten percent of the royalty interests or working interests in the existing unit area file with the commission at least ten days prior to the commission proceeding an objection to the plan of enlargement, the commission shall require that the unit amendment or enlargement be approved by ~~eighty~~ seventy percent of all royalty interests and working interests in the existing and proposed areas.

OIL AND GAS WELLHEAD WELDER CERTIFICATION

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 38-08-22 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to regulation of welders; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

38-08-22. Regulation of welders by oil and gas division of industrial commission - Continuing appropriation. No person may weld on an oil and gas wellhead unless that person is certified. A welder shall submit to the oil and gas division of the industrial commission for verification sufficient data to show satisfactory performance in a qualification test for American society of mechanical engineers section nine position six-G. The test of a welded specimen must be made by a certified testing laboratory. Before welding on an oil and gas wellhead, the welder shall furnish a statement to the person for whom the work is performed showing that the welder's certification has been verified by the commission. A person who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty to be imposed by the commission not to exceed five hundred dollars for each violation and shall pay all legal, administrative, and other costs incurred by the commission in investigating and litigating a violation. The commission may charge ~~an annual~~ a fee of twenty-five dollars for verifying a certification. ~~Annual~~ A certification must be verified every three years. The fees collected under this section must be deposited into the state treasury in a special revolving fund. All moneys in the fund are hereby appropriated to the commission on a continuing basis to be used in administering this section.

COAL EXPLORATION ACTIVITIES

AN ACT to create and enact a new subdivision to subsection 2 of section 38-12.1-05, relating to requirements for a coal exploration permit; and to amend and reenact subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 38-12.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of "coal exploration".

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 38-12.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- b. Environmental data gathering activities which substantially disturb the natural land surface and which are conducted for the purpose of establishing the conditions of an area prior to applying for a permit under chapter 38-14.1. The provisions of sections 38-12.1-04 and 38-12.1-05 are not applicable to such environmental data gathering activities unless the natural land surface will be substantially disturbed or such activities are located on lands designated unsuitable for mining under section 38-14.1-05.

SECTION 2. A new subdivision to subsection 2 of section 38-12.1-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

For environmental data gathering activities that do not substantially disturb the land, unless the environmental data gathering activities are located on land designated unsuitable for mining under section 38-14.1-05.

COAL MINING AND EXPLOSIVES NOTICE

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 33 of section 38-14.1-02 and subsection 13 of section 38-14.1-24 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of surface coal mining operations and notice of the use of explosives.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 33 of section 38-14.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

33. "Surface coal mining operations" means:

- a. Activities affecting the surface of lands in connection with a surface coal mine. Such activities include extraction of coal from coal refuse piles, excavation for the purpose of obtaining coal including such common methods as contour, strip, auger, box cut, open pit, and area mining, the uses of explosives and blasting, and in situ distillation or retorting, leaching or other chemical or physical processing, and the cleaning, concentrating, or other processing or preparation, and loading of coal at or near the minesite: except that such activities do not include ~~the extraction of coal incidental to the extraction of other minerals where coal does not exceed sixteen and two-thirds per centum of the tonnage of minerals removed for purposes of commercial use or sale,~~ coal exploration subject to chapter 38-12.1, or the extraction of coal incidental to reclamation operations under chapter 38-14.2; and
- b. The areas upon which such activities occur or where such activities disturb the natural land surface. Such areas shall also include any adjacent land the use of which is incidental to any such activities, all adjacent lands affected by the construction of new roads or the improvement or use of existing roads to gain access to the site of such activities and for haulage, and excavations, workings, impoundments, dams, refuse banks, dumps, stockpiles, overburden piles, spoil banks, culm banks, tailings, holes or depressions, repair areas, storage areas, processing areas, shipping areas, and other areas upon which are sited structures, facilities, or other property or materials on the surface, resulting from or incident to such activities.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 13 of section 38-14.1-24 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

13. Ensure that explosives are used only in accordance with existing state law and the regulations promulgated by the commission, which must include provisions to:
- a. Provide adequate advance written notice to local governments and residents who might be affected by the use of such explosives by the publication of the planned blasting schedule in ~~the official newspaper of each county wherein the surface coal mining operation is located and in other daily newspapers~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the locality, by mailing a copy of the proposed blasting schedule to every resident living within one-half mile [804.67 meters] of the proposed blasting site, and by providing daily notice to residents in such areas prior to any blasting.
  - b. Maintain for a period of at least three years and make available for public inspection upon request a log detailing the location of the blasts, the pattern and depth of the drill holes, the amount of explosives used per hole, and the order and length of delay in the blasts.
  - c. Limit the type of explosives and detonating equipment, the size, the timing, and the frequency of blasts based upon the physical conditions of the site so as to prevent:
    - (1) Injury to persons.
    - (2) Damage to public and private property outside the permit area.
    - (3) Change in the course, channel, or availability of ground or surface water outside the permit area.
  - d. Require that all blasting operations be conducted by trained and competent persons as certified by the commission.
  - e. Provide that upon the request of a resident or owner of a manmade dwelling or structure within one-half mile [804.67 meters] of any portion of the permitted area the permittee shall conduct a preblasting survey of such structures and submit the survey to the commission and a copy to the resident or owner making the request. The area of the survey must be decided by the commission and must include such provisions as the commission may promulgate.

ABANDONED MINE RECLAMATION FUND

AN ACT to create and enact a new subsection to section 38-14.2-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to creation of an abandoned mine reclamation set-aside trust account.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new subsection to section 38-14.2-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

There is created a special fund in the state treasury called the state abandoned mine reclamation fund set-aside trust account. Revenue to the set-aside trust account must be ten percent of the amount granted by the secretary of the interior under Title IV of P.L. 95-87 as provided by P.L. 100-34. This account must be interest bearing and all interest must be credited to the set-aside trust account. No funds from this account may be expended prior to September 30, 1995. After September 30, 1995, the funds may be expended as provided in this subsection. The legislature shall authorize expenditure by appropriation from the account as necessary to defray the administrative expenses of the program. The remaining funds in the account may only be used in accordance with section 38-14.2-07. The liability of the state to fulfill the requirements of this subsection is limited to the amount of funds available in the account established in this subsection. The state has no obligations under this subsection except to the extent of federal funds deposited in the coal mine mitigation account and the interest thereon to operate the program.

DRIVING RECORDS AND LICENSE PLATES

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 39-01-02, 39-06-21, 39-06-22, 39-06-32, subsections 1 and 2 of section 39-06-33, and subsection 3 of section 39-08-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the display of official number plates and window decals on state vehicles, the filing of application records for drivers' licenses and related actions, the maintenance of driving records of licensees and the deletion of record retention requirements, the authority to suspend operator licenses and to provide an effective date for such suspensions, and to have number plates impounded by courts returned to the director; and to require a legislative council study of vehicles used by the board of higher education and institutions under its jurisdiction.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-01-02. Motor vehicles owned or leased by the state to display name on side of vehicles - Exceptions - Penalty. All motor vehicles owned and operated by the state, except vehicles under the control of the central vehicle management system and the official vehicle for use by the governor, must have displayed on each front door the words NORTH DAKOTA. The words must be in letters four inches [10.16 centimeters] in height. Two and one-half inches [6.35 centimeters] directly below those words there must be printed in letters one and one-half inches [3.81 centimeters] in height the name of the state agency owning or leasing the motor vehicle. The width of the display required by this section must be proportionate to the required height. The color of the lettering must be in clear and sharp contrast to the background. ~~The state highway patrol and all peace officers of this state shall enforce this section. The state auditor, in the course of spot checking or verifying the inventory of any state agency, shall include in the auditor's report to the governor and the legislative assembly any instance of noncompliance with this section that comes to the auditor's attention. The above requirements do not apply to vehicles operated by the attorney general's office, the bureau of criminal investigation, or the highway patrol, vehicles used for drivers education at state institutions, vehicles used principally in juvenile, parole, and placement service, selected cars or vehicles of the state penitentiary approved by the director of institutions, vehicles owned and operated by any entity located upon the international boundary line between the United States of America and Canada used and maintained as a memorial to commemorate the long-existing relationship of peace and good will between the people and the governments of the United States of America and Canada and to further international peace among the nations of the world, or to any truck owned by any state agency. A passenger~~ motor vehicle bearing official plates must be in compliance with this section. The administrator of any state agency who uses or authorizes the use of a motor vehicle which is not marked as required by this section is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. The central vehicle management system vehicles must display a window decal designed by the director. The state highway patrol and all peace officers of this state shall enforce this section.

39-06-21. Filing application records. The commissioner director shall file every application for a license and shall maintain individual records of convictions and adjudications of traffic offenses, suspensions, revocations, cancellations, restrictions, and traffic accidents in which they have been involved. The commissioner may destroy such records provided the required information has been microfilmed each application for a license received and shall maintain suitable indexes containing:

1. All applications denied and on each such application note the reason for the denial;
2. All applications granted; and
3. The name of every licensee whose license has been suspended, revoked, canceled, or restricted by the department and after each such name state the reasons for such actions.

39-06-22. Driving records of licensees. The commissioner director shall also file all accident reports and, abstracts of court records of convictions received by him the director under the laws of this state and in connection therewith maintain convenient records or make suitable notations in order that an individual record of each licensee showing the convictions of such licensee and the traffic accidents in which he has been involved shall be readily ascertainable and available for the consideration of the commissioner director upon any application for renewal of license and at other suitable times. Such accident reports may be destroyed after six years and abstracts of court records may be destroyed after four years; provided the required information has been transferred to microfilm.

39-06-32. Authority to suspend licenses. The commissioner director may suspend the license of an operator, after hearing, upon proof by a fair preponderance of the evidence, that any of the following apply to the licensee:

1. Commission of an offense for which mandatory revocation of license is required upon conviction.
2. Incompetence to drive a motor vehicle.
3. Unlawful or fraudulent use of an operator's license.

* NOTE: Section 39-06-32 was also amended by section 1 of House Bill No. 1446, chapter 412.

4. Refusal to submit to an implied consent chemical alcohol test in another state. For purposes of this subsection the specific requirements for establishing a refusal used in the other state may not be considered, and photostatic copies of the records of the other state's drivers licensing authority are sufficient evidence of the refusal whether or not those copies are certified. The suspension must be for the same length of time as the revocation in section 39-20-04. If the refusal arose out of an arrest or stop of a person while operating a commercial motor vehicle, the period of suspension must be the same as the period of revocation provided in section 39-20-04.
5. Failure, as shown by the certificate of the court, to pay a fine or serve any other sentence as ordered by a court upon conviction for any criminal traffic offense.
6. Failure, as shown by the certificate of the court, to appear in court or post and forfeit bond after signing a promise to appear, in violation of section 39-06.1-04, or willful violation of a written promise to appear in court, in violation of section 39-07-08.
7. An administrative decision in another state that the licensee's privilege to drive in that state is suspended or revoked because of a violation of that state's law forbidding motor vehicle operation with an alcohol concentration of at least ten one-hundredths of one percent by weight. The specific requirements for establishing the violation in the other state may not be considered and certified copies of the records of the other state's drivers licensing authority are sufficient evidence of the violation. The suspension must be for the same duration as the suspension in section 39-20-04.1.
8. Conviction of an offense under this title and it appears from the ~~commissioner's~~ director's records that the offense contributed to causing an accident which resulted in death or serious personal injury or serious property damage. No suspension may be imposed if the person has been sanctioned for the same offense under section 39-06-31.

An order of suspension issued under this section is effective twenty days after the date of mailing of the notice of opportunity for hearing.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 2 of section 39-06-33 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

1. In matters of driver's license suspension or revocation arising under ~~chapter 39-06, section sections 39-06-32 and 39-06.1-10, and chapter chapters 39-16 and 39-16.1~~, the ~~commissioner~~ director shall ~~first~~ give notice of intention to suspend to the licensee by mailing the notice to the licensee at the address of record in the department under section 39-06-20. Actual notice of the opportunity for a hearing under this section must be deemed to have occurred ~~forty eight~~ ~~seventy-two~~ hours after the notice is mailed by regular mail. The licensee has ten days after the date of mailing of the notice to request, in writing, a hearing on the intended suspension or revocation.

2. Any hearing conducted under this section and any appeal from the decision of the hearing must be conducted under ~~chapter 20-32~~ rules adopted by the director, except the hearing must be heard within sixty days of the receipt of the request for hearing and in the county of the licensee's residence, unless the parties agree to a different time and place for the hearing. At the hearing, the regularly kept records of the ~~commissioner~~ director may be introduced and are prima facie evidence of their content without further foundation.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 39-08-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. Upon conviction, the court may order the motor vehicle number plates of the motor vehicle owned and operated by the offender at the time of the offense to be impounded by ~~the sheriff or the chief law enforcement officer of the city, as is appropriate,~~ for the duration of the period of suspension or revocation of the offender's ~~driver's license or driving privilege~~ by the licensing authority. The impounded motor vehicle number plates may be released, upon the order of the court, to a bona fide purchaser of the offender's motor vehicle, if that purchaser produces a new certificate of title issued by the director must be sent to the director who must retain them for the period of suspension or revocation, subject to their disposition by the court.

SECTION 7. LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL STUDY OF VEHICLES USED BY THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND INSTITUTIONS UNDER ITS JURISDICTION. The legislative council shall study the feasibility and desirability of requiring vehicles used by the board of higher education and institutions under its jurisdiction to be under the control of the central vehicle management system. The legislative council shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation necessary to implement the recommendations, to the fifty-third legislative assembly.

MOBILITY-IMPAIRED PARKING CERTIFICATES

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsections 4, 5, 9, and 10 of section 39-01-15 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to parking privileges for mobility-impaired persons; to provide for a study on the issuance of mobility-impaired certificates; to provide a penalty; and to provide a continuing appropriation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsections 4, 5, 9, and 10 of section 39-01-15 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

4. The director may issue, for a fee of three dollars per year or part of a year, a special identifying certificate to any mobility-impaired applicant upon submission by the applicant of a completed application and a written statement issued by a qualified physician to the director that the applicant is a mobility-impaired person within the criteria of subsection 2. The application must include the information required by the director. The physician's statement must describe how the impairment limits the applicant's mobility and daily life functions of the applicant. The certificate is valid for a period, not to exceed three years, as determined by the director. A physician who provides a false statement that a person is mobility impaired for the purpose of that person obtaining a certificate under this subsection is guilty of an infraction for which a minimum fine of one hundred dollars must be imposed. A certificate issued under this subsection must be at least five and one-half inches [13.97 centimeters] in height and eight and one-half inches [21.59 centimeters] in width and must bear, in blue on white, the internationally accepted symbol of access for the mobility impaired. The certificate must bear the expiration date and registration number assigned by the director. The director shall adopt rules governing the issuance of the certificate. A temporary certificate, valid for an initial period not to exceed three months, may be issued by the director for a fee of three dollars upon application supported by a physician's statement. The temporary certificate may be extended an additional period, not to exceed three months, upon application supported by a physician's statement that the extension is warranted. The director shall determine the form and size of the temporary certificate. The director may issue a maximum of two additional certificates, for a fee of six dollars per certificate, to a mobility-impaired person to whom a certificate has been issued under this subsection. The additional certificates may only be used by or on behalf of the mobility-impaired person.

5. ~~Two~~ Except as provided in this subsection, two dollars of each fee for issuance of a certificate and one dollar of each fee for issuance of an additional certificate under this section must be deposited in the state highway department fund for purposes of defraying the cost of issuing the certificate. The rest of the fee, and the five-dollar fee received for the issuance of an additional certificate under subsection 4, must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the employment of people with disabilities fund. The fees deposited in the fund are hereby appropriated on a continuing basis to the committee on employment of people with disabilities of the governor's council on human resources for development of job opportunities for disabled individuals in this state. If a certificate is lost, mutilated, or destroyed, the person to whom the certificate was issued is entitled to a replacement. The person shall furnish proof satisfactory to the director that the certificate has been lost, mutilated, or destroyed, and shall pay a replacement fee of three dollars.

9. Whenever any public or private agency or authority designates parking spaces for use by motor vehicles operated by mobility-impaired persons, those reserved spaces ~~shall~~ must comply with the requirements of American National Standards A117.1-1986 and must be indicated by blue paint on the curb or edge of the paved portion of the street or parking lot adjacent to the space. In addition to blue paint, the spaces reserved must also be indicated by official signs approved by the director bearing the internationally accepted symbol of access for the mobility impaired which indicate, through the use of arrows, the total width of the reserved area. The sign must indicate that unauthorized use of the space is an infraction for which a fine of one hundred dollars must be imposed. For particular events, a public or a private agency may reserve additional parking spaces for use by motor vehicles operated by mobility-impaired persons. In that case, the temporarily reserved spaces must be indicated by signs or other suitable means. A sign indicating that a space is reserved for the mobility impaired and blue paint on the curb or edge of the paved portion of the street or parking lot adjacent to the space, unless the space is a temporary mobility-impaired parking space, is sufficient basis for the enforcement of this section. A law enforcement officer ~~may~~ shall enforce this section in any parking lot or parking facility, whether publicly or privately owned.

10. A person may not stop, stand, or park any vehicle in any designated parking space that is reserved for the mobility impaired unless the vehicle displays a mobility-impaired identification certificate issued by the director to a mobility-impaired person. A mobility-impaired person may not permit the use of a certificate issued under this section by a person who is not mobility impaired when that use is not in connection with the transport of the mobility-impaired person. A vehicle may temporarily use a space reserved for mobility-impaired persons without a mobility-impaired certificate for the purpose of loading and unloading mobility-impaired persons. A violation of this subsection is ~~an~~ infraction a nonmoving violation for which a fine fee of one hundred dollars must be imposed. Notwithstanding section 29-27-02.1, fifty percent of the fee imposed and collected under this subsection is appropriated on a continuing basis to the local committee on persons with disabilities, if one exists in the city in which the violation occurred, for the development of job opportunities for disabled individuals in the community.

SECTION 2. STUDY OF ISSUANCE OF MOBILITY-IMPAIRED CERTIFICATES. The department of transportation and the committee on employment of people with disabilities of the governor's council on human resources shall conduct a study to determine the feasibility and desirability of providing for the issuance of identifying certificates to mobility-impaired persons for parking privilege purposes by the committee rather than by the department. The department and the committee shall report their findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the fifty-third legislative assembly.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1187
(Committee on State and Federal Government)
(At the request of the Public Employees Retirement System)

HIGHWAY PATROLMEN'S RETIREMENT BENEFITS

AN ACT to create and enact two new sections to chapter 39-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to federal limitations on retirement benefits under the highway patrolmen's retirement system; to amend and reenact section 39-03.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to retirement benefits under the highway patrolmen's retirement system; and to provide for application of this Act.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-03.1-11. Retirement benefit. Each contributor whose employment with the patrol has been terminated may apply to the board for retirement benefits according to this section and rules adopted by the board consistent with this chapter. The following procedures apply:

1. A contributor is entitled to credit for permanent employment or its equivalent from the date eligibility is attained until normal or postponed retirement date, as described in subsection 3.
2. Retirement benefits are based on the contributor's final average salary. Final average salary is the average of the highest salary received by the contributor for any thirty-six consecutive months employed during the last one hundred twenty months of employment. Months not employed or months in which employment was not as a permanent employee are excluded in arriving at the thirty-six months to be used for the purpose of computing an average. If the contributor has worked for less than thirty-six months at the postponed retirement date, the final average salary is the average salary for all months of employment.
3. Retirement dates are as follows:
  - a. Early retirement date is the first day of the month next following the month in which the contributor attains the age of fifty years and has completed at least ten years of eligible employment.
  - b. Normal retirement date is ~~the~~ (1) The first day of the month next following the month in which the contributor attains the age of fifty-five years and has completed at least ten years of eligible employment; or

(2) When the contributor has a combined total of years of service credit and years of age equal to eighty and has not received a retirement benefit under this chapter.

- c. Postponed retirement date is the first day of the month next following the month in which the contributor attains the age of sixty years.
  - d. Disability retirement date is the first day of the month after a contributor becomes permanently and totally disabled, according to medical evidence called for under the rules of the board, and has completed at least one hundred eighty days of employment.
4. The board shall calculate retirement benefits as follows:
- a. Normal retirement benefits for all contributors reaching the normal retirement date are payable monthly, and are:
    - (1) The first twenty-five years of credited service multiplied by two and ~~three-fourths~~ eighty-three hundredths percent of final average salary.
    - (2) All years in excess of twenty-five years of credited service multiplied by one and three-fourths percent of final average salary.
    - (3) All contributors who retired before July 1, ~~1989~~ 1991, are entitled to receive benefits equal to two and ~~three-fourths~~ eighty-three hundredths percent of final average salary multiplied by the first twenty-five years of credited service, plus one and three-fourths percent of final average salary multiplied by credited service in excess of twenty-five years, with the increased benefits payable beginning July 1, 1991.
  - b. Early retirement benefits are normal retirement benefits accrued to the date of termination of employment, but actuarially reduced to account for benefit payments beginning before the normal retirement date.
  - c. Postponed retirement benefits, for all contributors reaching the postponed retirement date, are calculated in the same manner as normal retirement benefits.
  - d. Disability retirement benefits are seventy percent of the contributor's final average salary, reduced by any workers' compensation benefits paid. The minimum monthly disability retirement benefit under this section is one hundred dollars.
5. On termination of employment after completing ten years of eligible employment but before the normal retirement date, a contributor who does not elect to receive early retirement benefits is eligible to receive deferred vested retirement benefits. The deferred benefits are payable beginning on the contributor's normal retirement date and are one hundred percent of the contributor's normal retirement benefits. The final average salary used for calculating deferred vested retirement benefits must be increased annually, from the later of the date of termination of employment or July 1, 1991, until the date the contributor begins to receive retirement benefits from the fund, at a rate as determined by the board not to exceed a rate that would be approximately equal to annual salary increased provided state employees pursuant to action by the legislative assembly.

6. If before retiring a contributor dies after completing ten years of eligible employment, the board shall pay the contributor's accumulated deductions to any beneficiary designated by the contributor with the written consent of the contributor's spouse, if any. If the contributor has not designated any beneficiary under this section, the surviving spouse of the contributor may select one of the following optional forms of payment:
  - a. A lump sum payment of the contributor's accumulated deductions as of the date of death.
  - b. Payments for sixty months as calculated for the deceased contributor as if the contributor was age fifty-five at the date of death.
  - c. Payment of a monthly retirement benefit equal to fifty percent of the deceased contributor's accrued normal retirement benefits until the spouse dies.
7. If a contributor not eligible for the benefits of subsection 6 terminates employment for any reason before retirement, the contributor or the contributor's designated beneficiary is entitled to the contributor's accumulated deductions at termination.
8. If a contributor who is receiving retirement benefits, or a contributor's surviving spouse who is receiving retirement benefits, dies before the total amount of benefits paid to them equals the amount of the contributor's accumulated deductions at retirement, the difference must be paid to that spouse's estate, to the surviving beneficiary, or to the contributor's estate.
9. The board shall adopt rules providing for the receipt of retirement benefits in the following optional forms:
  - a. ~~Joint~~ A joint and survivor, with fifty percent or one hundred percent options option.
  - b. Life with five-year or ten-year certain options.

Unless a contributor requests that the contributor receive benefits according to one of these options at the time of applying for retirement, all retirement benefits must be in the form of a lifetime monthly pension, with a fifty percent option to the surviving spouse.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 39-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Benefit limitations. Benefits with respect to a patrol member who first became a member of the highway patrolmen's retirement system on or after January 1, 1990, may not exceed the maximum benefits specified under section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 415] for governmental plans. This section constitutes an election under section 415(b)(10)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 415(b)(10)(C)] with respect to a patrol member who first became a contributor before January 1, 1990.

SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 39-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Savings clause - Plan modifications. If the board determines that any section of this chapter does not comply with applicable federal statutes or rules, the board shall adopt appropriate terminology with respect to that section as will comply with those federal statutes or rules, subject to the approval of the committee on public employees retirement programs. Any plan modifications made by the board pursuant to this section are effective until the effective date of any measure enacted by the legislative assembly providing the necessary amendments to this chapter to ensure compliance with the federal statutes or rules.

SECTION 4. APPLICATION OF ACT. The change in the definition of final average salary provided in section 1 of this Act applies to retirement benefits payable after June 30, 1991, but does not apply to contributors who retired before July 1, 1991.

NATIONAL GUARD MOTOR VEHICLE PLATES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 39-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to issuance of distinctive motor vehicle number plates to national guard members.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 39-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

National guard number plates. The director, in cooperation with the adjutant general, shall issue distinctive number plates to members of the national guard. A plate issued under this section must bear the national guard insignia designated by the adjutant general and the letters "NG" before the number. The director may issue the plates to the owner of a passenger motor vehicle or a truck the gross weight of which does not exceed ten thousand pounds [4535.92 kilograms]. On request of the director, the adjutant general shall certify those members of the national guard eligible to receive the plates. On payment of all other fees required under this chapter for registration of the motor vehicle, and payment of an additional fee of not more than five dollars to cover the cost of issuing the distinctive number plates, the applicant is entitled to issuance of the distinctive number plates. A registrant is eligible for distinctive number plates under this section if the registrant is a member of the national guard or if the registrant has retired from the national guard after twenty years or more of military service. On termination of the registrant's eligibility, the registrant shall return the distinctive number plates to the director, who shall reissue for a fee of not more than five dollars another number plate to which that registrant is entitled under this chapter. The registrar and adjutant general shall cooperate in establishing procedures to implement this section.

c. Motorcycles, fifteen dollars.

3. Motor vehicles acquired by disabled veterans under the provisions of Public Law 79-663 [38 U.S.C. 1901] are exempt from the payment of state sales or use tax and, if paid, such veterans are entitled to a refund. This exemption also applies to any passenger motor vehicle or pickup truck not exceeding ten thousand pounds [4535.92 kilograms] gross weight but shall apply to no more than two such motor vehicles owned by a disabled veteran at any one time.
4. Every trailer, semitrailer, and farm trailer required to be registered under this chapter must be furnished registration plates upon the payment of a twenty dollar annual fee. Every trailer, semitrailer, or farm trailer not required to be registered under this chapter must be furnished an identification plate upon the payment of a fee of five dollars.
5. Trucks or combinations of trucks and trailers weighing more than twenty thousand but not more than one hundred five thousand five hundred pounds [more than 9071.84 but not more than 47854.00 kilograms] which are used as farm vehicles only, are entitled to registration under the following fee schedule and the provisions of this subsection. Farm vehicles are considered, for the purpose of this subsection, as trucks or combinations of trucks and trailers weighing more than twenty thousand but not more than one hundred five thousand five hundred pounds [more than 9071.84 but not more than 47854.00 kilograms] owned, or leased for at least one year by a bona fide resident farmer who uses the vehicles exclusively for transporting the farmer's own property or other property on a farm work exchange basis with other farmers between farms and the usual local trading places but not in connection with any commercial retail or wholesale business being conducted from those farms, nor otherwise for hire. In addition to the penalty provided in section 39-04-41, any person violating this subsection shall license for the entire license period the farm vehicle at the higher commercial vehicle rate in accordance with the weight carried by the farm vehicle at the time of the violation.

6. A motor vehicle registered in subsection 5 may be used for custom combining operations by displaying identification issued by the department and upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 57-43.1-02 of the 1990 Special Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

57-43.1-02. Tax imposed on motor vehicle fuels —Tax reduced for certain alcohol blended fuels.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a tax of seventeen cents per gallon [3.79 liters] is imposed on all motor vehicle fuel sold or used in this state.
2. ~~The tax imposed on gasoline sold which contains a minimum ten percent blend of a qualifying alcohol whose purity is at least ninety-nine percent alcohol is reduced in accordance with this~~ subsection and subsection 3-. An alcohol is a qualifying alcohol if it is methanol produced from coal or if the taxpayer certifies that it is derived from agricultural products produced entirely in the United States. For qualifying alcohols, the tax is:

- a. From July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1987, eight cents per gallon [3.79 liters] less than the tax imposed under subsection 1-
- b. From July 1, 1987, through December 31, 1992, four cents per gallon [3.79 liters] less than the tax imposed under subsection 1-
- c. After December 31, 1992, at the same rate as the tax imposed under subsection 1-

3- The tax reduction allowed on gasoline under this section does not apply to gasoline which contains qualifying alcohol manufactured or distilled outside this state, unless the state where the alcohol is manufactured or distilled provides a specific reduction, exemption, credit, or refund from that state's motor vehicle fuels tax for what would be a qualifying alcohol manufactured or distilled in this state. Qualifying alcohols manufactured or distilled in another state are eligible for the tax reduction allowed by this section, but only to the extent that state's specific reduction, exemption, credit, or refund allowance applies to qualifying alcohol manufactured or distilled in this state. The tax reduction allowed by this subsection qualifying alcohol manufactured or distilled in another state cannot exceed the amount specified in subsection 2-

4- The dealer shall collect the tax imposed by this section from the consumer on all sales.

5- 3. Sales of fuel in the original package may be made to a licensed dealer, and the dealer may collect the tax imposed by this chapter, but on sales in the original package to persons other than licensed dealers, the dealer is liable for the tax.

57-43.1-03.1. Refund of tax for fuel used for agricultural purposes - Reduction for agricultural fuel tax fund. Any person who buys or uses any motor vehicle fuel for agricultural purposes, except motor vehicle fuel used in motor vehicles operated or intended to be operated in whole or in part upon any of the public highways of this state on which the motor vehicle fuel tax has been paid, must be reimbursed or repaid within the time provided in this chapter, the amount of the tax paid upon the presentation to and the approval of the commissioner of a claim for refund. The amount of the tax refund provided for in this section must be reduced by ~~two~~ four cents per gallon [3.79 liters] except for those fuels used in aircraft or with respect to refunds claimed by aircraft fuel users, ~~and the~~ two cents per gallon [3.79 liters] withheld from the refund must be deposited in the agricultural fuel tax fund, and two cents per gallon [3.79 liters] withheld from the refund must be retained in the highway tax distribution fund. Those persons who have a valid tax assignment permit issued by the commissioner under section

57-43.1-11 must be charged ~~two~~ four cents per gallon [3.79 liters] by the dealer and the ~~two~~ four cents charged must be remitted to the commissioner by the dealer when the dealer submits the tax assigned invoices for credit.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 57-43.2-02 of the 1990 Special Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

57-43.2-02. Tax imposed - Exemptions.

1. An excise tax of seventeen cents per gallon [3.79 liters] is imposed on the sale or delivery of special fuel to any special fuel user, except that special fuel to be used for heating, agricultural, or railroad purposes or for industrial purposes other than in the performance of a contract with any unit of government is exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter, provided that the sale or delivery of special fuel for use in a motor vehicle is not exempt. For the purpose of determining the tax upon compressed natural gas under this section, one hundred twenty cubic feet [3.40 cubic meters] of compressed natural gas is equal to one gallon [3.79 liters] of other special fuel.
2. The tax on agriculturally derived alcohol if used in a pure state or if blended with another agriculturally derived liquid is:
  - a. Through December 31, 1983, four cents per gallon [3.79 liters] less than the tax imposed under subsection 1.
  - b. From January 1, 1984, through December 31, 1984, five cents per gallon [3.79 liters] less than the tax imposed under subsection 1.
  - c. From January 1, 1985, through December 31, 1985, six cents per gallon [3.79 liters] less than the tax imposed under subsection 1.
  - d. From January 1, 1986, through June 30, 1992, four cents per gallon [3.79 liters] less than the tax imposed under subsection 1.
  - e. After June 30, 1992, at the same rate as the tax imposed under subsection 1.
3. The tax attaches at the time of sale, delivery, or transfer of title of such special fuel to a special fuel user or unlicensed dealer. The special fuel dealer shall collect the tax from the special fuel user and pay the tax to the commissioner as provided in this chapter.
4. ~~3.~~ Except as prohibited by section 57-43.1-09 the tax is refundable when used for nonhighway purposes, and the provisions and procedures of chapter 57-43.1 relating to the refund of motor fuel taxes apply to the tax imposed by this chapter, provided that the amount refunded for any special fuel does not include the amount of tax imposed by section 57-43.2-03 on the sale of that fuel.

SECTION 5. APPROPRIATION - TRANSFER - AUDIT REPORTS. The amount of $3,650,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from the highway tax distribution fund to the agricultural products utilization commission for the purpose of providing production incentives to North Dakota ethanol plants during the biennium beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993. It is the intent of the legislative assembly that, of the amount appropriated in this section, $2,400,000 is added revenue from the amendment in section 1 of this Act and $1,250,000 is added revenue from the amendment in section 3 of this Act, and that this added revenue is to be used to provide production incentives to North Dakota ethanol plants through June 30, 1993. Distribution from the appropriation in this section to the producers of agriculturally derived fuel must be at the rate of forty cents for each gallon of agriculturally derived fuel produced in the state which is marketed by the producing plant to a distributor or wholesaler for sale within North Dakota. For purposes of this section "gallon of agriculturally derived fuel" means a gallon of fuel that qualifies for the alcohol credit under 26 U.S.C. 40, specifically including fuel to which a denaturant has been added. Payment to the producing plant must be approved by the agricultural products utilization commission upon presentation by the plant of an affidavit to the effect that the ethanol sold from the plant and for which the producers credit is being sought is to be sold at retail to consumers in North Dakota. The affidavit of the producer of the ethanol must be accompanied by an affidavit from the wholesaler or retailer to the same effect. If two or more ethanol production plants are in operation in this state throughout the 1991-93 biennium, a single plant may not receive incentive payments of more than nine hundred fifty thousand dollars for production in either fiscal year of the 1991-93 biennium. However, during any time one of the plants eligible for production incentives is not in operation for thirty or more consecutive days, any other ethanol production plant that is in operation may receive up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars per thirty calendar days in incentive payments for production during such time and the annual incentive payment limitation is waived to the extent of payments received under the authority of this sentence. Within ninety days after the end of each fiscal year of the ethanol plant beginning after December 31, 1990, any North Dakota ethanol plant receiving production incentives from the state shall file with the budget section of the legislative council a statement, certified by a certified public accountant, as to whether or not the plant produced a profit from its operation in the preceding fiscal year, after deducting the payments received from this incentive program.

SECTION 6. EFFECTIVE DATE - EXPIRATION DATE. Section 1 of this Act is effective from July 1, 1991, through June 30, 1995, and is thereafter ineffective. Section 3 of this Act is effective for motor vehicle fuel taxes paid from January 1, 1991, through December 31, 1994, and is thereafter ineffective.

ABANDONED VEHICLE NUMBER PLATES

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 39-04-36, section 39-26-05, and subsection 1 of section 39-26-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the removal of license plates prior to purchase of an abandoned vehicle.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 39-04-36 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Whenever the owner of a vehicle registered under the provisions of this chapter transfers or assigns his title thereto or interest therein, the registration of the vehicle, together with the number plates originally assigned thereto, must be transferred to the transferee as provided in this chapter. The number plates originally assigned to the vehicle must remain attached thereto until the end of the current registration year except as provided in this chapter or as provided by sections 2 and 3 of this Act.

39-26-05. Conditions under which an abandoned vehicle may be sold immediately. When an abandoned motor vehicle is more than seven model years of age, is lacking vital component parts, and does not display a license plate currently valid in North Dakota or any other state or foreign country, it is immediately eligible for disposition and must be disposed of to a scrap iron processor licensed under section 39-26-10, and is not subject to the notification, reclamation, or title provisions of this chapter. Any license plate displayed on an abandoned vehicle must be removed and destroyed prior to the purchaser taking possession of the vehicle.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 39-26-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. An abandoned motor vehicle not more than seven model years of age taken into custody and not reclaimed under section 39-26-07 must be sold to the highest bidder at public auction or sale, following reasonable published notice thereof. The purchaser must be given a receipt in a form prescribed by the department which shall be sufficient title to dispose of the vehicle. The receipt also entitles the purchaser to register the vehicle and receive a certificate of title, free and clear of all liens and claims of ownership. The license plates displayed on an abandoned vehicle must be removed and destroyed prior to the purchaser taking possession of the vehicle.

MOTOR VEHICLE TITLE SIGNATURE

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 39-05-09 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to contents of certificate of title to a motor vehicle.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 39-05-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. After checking the application for a certificate as provided in section 39-05-08, the department, if it is satisfied that the applicant is the person entitled to the possession of the vehicle, shall issue a certificate of title which must contain:

HOUSE BILL NO. 1070
(Representative Dorso)
(Senators Lindgren, Tennesfos)

MOTOR VEHICLE DAMAGE DISCLOSURE

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 39-05 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the adoption of rules by the department of transportation with respect to body damage disclosures on motor vehicle certificates of title; to amend and reenact section 39-05-20.2 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the issuance of salvage certificates of title; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 39-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Body damage disclosure - Rules - Penalty. Before January 1, 1992, the department shall adopt rules relating to the manner and form of disclosing motor vehicle body damage on the certificate of title to a motor vehicle. The rules must provide for a damage disclosure statement from the transferor to the transferee at the time ownership of a motor vehicle is transferred and provide that the department must refuse to transfer the title without the required damage disclosure statement. A person who violates rules adopted pursuant to this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

39-05-20.2. Issuance of salvage certificate of title. Any person or organization who completely destroys or completely dismantles a vehicle so as to cause that vehicle to lose its identity shall forward the title for that vehicle to the department within ten days and the department shall issue a salvage certificate of title.

If a vehicle for which a salvage certificate of title has been issued is reconstructed, a regular certificate of title may be obtained by completing an application for the certificate. The applicant shall include with the application must be accompanied by a certificate of inspection in the form and with the contents specified required by the department, surrender of the salvage certificate of title, and the payment of a five dollar fee. The department shall place on the regular certificate of title and on all subsequent certificates of title issued for the vehicle, a notation that damage disclosure information is available from the department. The department may not issue a new certificate unless the vehicle identification number of the vehicle has been inspected and found to conform to the description given in the application, or unless other proof of the identity of the vehicle has been provided to the satisfaction of the department.

DRIVERS' LICENSE SUSPENSION EXPUNGEMENT

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 39-06-32 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to expungement from drivers' records of certain drivers' license suspensions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-06-32. Authority to suspend licenses. The commissioner may suspend the license of an operator, after hearing, upon proof by a fair preponderance of the evidence, that any of the following apply to the licensee:

1. Commission of an offense for which mandatory revocation of license is required upon conviction.
2. Incompetence to drive a motor vehicle.
3. Unlawful or fraudulent use of an operator's license.
4. Refusal to submit to an implied consent chemical alcohol test in another state. For purposes of this subsection the specific requirements for establishing a refusal used in the other state may not be considered, and photostatic copies of the records of the other state's drivers licensing authority are sufficient evidence of the refusal whether or not those copies are certified. The suspension must be for the same length of time as the revocation in section 39-20-04. If the refusal arose out of an arrest or stop of a person while operating a commercial motor vehicle, the period of suspension must be the same as the period of revocation provided in section 39-20-04.
5. Failure, as shown by the certificate of the court, to pay a fine or serve any other sentence as ordered by a court upon conviction for any criminal traffic offense.
6. Failure, as shown by the certificate of the court, to appear in court or post and forfeit bond after signing a promise to appear, in violation of section 39-06.1-04, or willful violation of a written promise to appear in court, in violation of section 39-07-08. Upon resolution by the operator of the underlying cause for a suspension under this subsection, as shown by the certificate of the court, the commissioner shall record the suspension separately on the driving record. This separate record is not available to the public.

7. An administrative decision in another state that the licensee's privilege to drive in that state is suspended or revoked because of a violation of that state's law forbidding motor vehicle operation with an alcohol concentration of at least ten one-hundredths of one percent by weight. The specific requirements for establishing the violation in the other state may not be considered and certified copies of the records of the other state's drivers licensing authority are sufficient evidence of the violation. The suspension must be for the same duration as the suspension in section 39-20-04.1.
8. Conviction of an offense under this title and it appears from the commissioner's records that the offense contributed to causing an accident which resulted in death or serious personal injury or serious property damage. No suspension may be imposed if the person has been sanctioned for the same offense under section 39-06-31.

MOTOR VEHICLE SUSPENSIONS, INSURANCE, AND ABSTRACTS

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 39-06-42, sections 39-08-20 and 39-16-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to suspension of driving privileges, the owner's responsibility for liability insurance, and the fee requirement for copies of operating record abstracts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 39-06-42 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Except as provided in chapters 39-16 and 39-16.1 and section 39-06.1-11, any person who drives a motor vehicle on a highway or on public or private areas to which the public has a right of access for vehicular use in this state while that person's license or privilege so to do is suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 39-08-20 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

39-08-20. Driving without liability insurance prohibited - Penalty. A person may not drive, or the owner may not cause or knowingly permit to be driven, a motor vehicle in this state without a valid policy of liability insurance in effect in order to respond in damages for liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of that motor vehicle in the amount required by chapter 39-16.1. Upon being stopped by a law enforcement officer for the purpose of enforcing or investigating the possible violation of an ordinance or state law or during the investigation of an accident, the person driving the motor vehicle shall provide to the officer upon request satisfactory evidence of the policy required under this section. If unable to comply with the request, that person may not be charged with a violation of this section if that person submits such evidence to the officer or the officer's agency within twenty days of the date of the request. Violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor and the sentence imposed must include a fine of at least one hundred fifty dollars.

39-16-03. Abstract - Not admissible in evidence - Fee. The commissioner upon request shall furnish any person a certified abstract of the operating record of any person subject to the provisions of this chapter which must include the convictions, adjudications, and admissions of commission of traffic offenses of any driver and suspensions, revocations, and restrictions of a person's driving privileges. Any person, except law enforcement or judicial officers functioning in their official capacity, requesting the abstract shall indicate in writing the reason for the request and shall identify the person or firm for whom or which the request is made and the intended recipient of the abstract.

Copies of abstracts are not admissible as evidence in any civil or criminal trial arising out of a motor vehicle accident.

A fee of three dollars must be paid for each abstract of any operating record, except no fee will be assessed to law enforcement agencies. The commissioner shall send an additional copy of the abstract to the driver whose abstract was requested, accompanied by a statement identifying the person making the request, identifying the person or firm for whom or which the request is made, identifying the intended recipient of the abstract, and providing the reason for the request. No abstract or statement may be sent to a driver where the request for the driver's abstract was made by the federal bureau of investigation or the United States central intelligence agency, or their agents, or by any law enforcement agency of this state, or of its political subdivisions.

OPERATOR'S LICENSE SUSPENSION PERIODS

AN ACT to create and enact a new subsection to section 39-06.1-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the suspension of operators' licenses; to amend and reenact section 39-06-43 and subsection 5 of section 39-06.1-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the extension of an operator's license suspension or revocation and the constructive delivery of a notice of suspension of a person's driving privilege; and to repeal paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 of subdivision b of subsection 3 of section 39-06.1-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the assessments of points for convictions of driving under the influence or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-06-43. Extension of license suspension or revocation. The ~~commissioner~~ director upon receiving a record of the conviction of any person upon a charge of driving a vehicle while the license or driving privileges of the person was suspended shall extend the period of that suspension for an additional ~~like period and if the original suspension was for an indefinite or unstated period of time; the additional suspension must be for a period of six months on and after the date the person would otherwise have been entitled to the return of license or privileges. If, however, the original suspension of driving privileges resulted solely from failure to appear in court or to post and forfeit bond on noncriminal traffic violations, there may be no additional period of suspension.~~

1. Like period not to exceed ninety days if the operator's record for the three years preceding the most recent violation of section 39-06-42 or equivalent ordinance shows the person's operator's license or privilege has not been suspended, revoked, or denied for a prior violation of section 39-06-42 or equivalent ordinance;
2. One hundred eighty days if the operator's record for the three years preceding the most recent violation of section 39-06-42 or equivalent ordinance shows the person's operator's license or privilege has been once suspended, revoked, or denied for a prior violation of section 39-06-42 or equivalent ordinance;
3. One year if the operator's record for the three-year period preceding the most recent violation of section 39-06-42 or equivalent ordinance shows the person's operator's license or privilege has been at least twice suspended, revoked, or denied for a prior violation of section 39-06-42 or equivalent ordinance.

If the suspension of driving privileges resulted solely from failure to appear in court or to post and forfeit bond on noncriminal traffic violations, there may be no additional period of suspension. Suspension periods for failure to appear or to post and forfeit bond on noncriminal traffic violations may be for an indefinite duration. If the conviction was upon a charge of driving while a license or driving privileges was revoked, the ~~commissioner~~ director may not issue a new license for an additional period of one year from and after the date the person would otherwise have been entitled to apply for a new license. Upon a conviction of a person for violating a restricted license issued under section 39-06.1-11 and in which the underlying suspension was imposed for violating section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance or is governed by chapter 39-20, the ~~commissioner~~ director shall extend the period of the underlying suspension in accordance with subsection 5 of section 39-06-17.

SECTION 2. A new subsection to section 39-06.1-10 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

The period of suspension imposed for a violation of section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance is:

- a. Ninety-one days if the operator's record shows the person has not violated section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance within the five years preceding the last violation.
- b. Three hundred sixty-four days if the operator's record shows the person has once violated section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance within the five years preceding the last violation.
- c. Two years if the operator's record shows the person has at least twice violated section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance within the five years preceding the last violation.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 39-06.1-10 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

5. A suspension must be deemed to have commenced ~~when~~ twenty days after the order of suspension is delivered to the licensee at his address of record in the department. Constructive delivery under this section must be considered as occurring ~~forty-eight~~ seventy-two hours after proper deposit in the mails.

SECTION 4. REPEAL. Paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 of subdivision b of subsection 3 of section 39-06.1-10 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

FUNERAL PROCESSION TRAFFIC RULES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 39-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to traffic regulations governing funeral processions; to amend and reenact paragraph 16 of subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 39-06.1-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to point assessments for noncriminal traffic violations; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Paragraph 16 of subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 39-06.1-10 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- |  |          |
|--|----------|
| (16) Failing to yield right of way in violation of section 39-10-20, 39-10-22 through 39-10-26, 39-10-28, 39-10-33.3, or 39-10-44, or section 2 of this Act, or equivalent ordinances | 2 points |
|--|----------|

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 39-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Funeral processions - Traffic regulations.

1. Notwithstanding any traffic control device, a law enforcement officer leading a funeral procession may proceed through any intersection or make any turns or other movements necessary while leading the procession. The officer, without regard to any traffic control device, may direct other drivers not in the funeral procession to stop, turn, proceed, or make other movements. When leading the funeral procession, the officer shall be in a marked patrol vehicle and the vehicle's lighted headlamps, taillamps, and top- and grill-mounted signal lamps must be displayed at all times during the procession.
2. Notwithstanding any traffic control device or provision governing the right of way, whenever a law enforcement officer leading a funeral procession enters an intersection, the remainder of the vehicles in the funeral procession may follow through the intersection. Each vehicle in the procession, however, must exercise reasonable care toward any other vehicle or pedestrian on the roadway.

* NOTE: Subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 39-06.1-10 was also amended by section 2 of Senate Bill No. 2558, chapter 416.

3. Notwithstanding any traffic control device or provision governing rights of way and subject to the following conditions, vehicles in funeral procession have the right of way.
- a. All vehicles in a funeral procession must display lighted headlamps, taillamps, and flashing emergency lamps.
  - b. All vehicles in a funeral procession must follow the preceding vehicle in the procession as closely as is safe and practicable.
  - c. The driver of a vehicle in a funeral procession shall yield the right of way to an approaching emergency vehicle when directed to do so by a law enforcement officer or when the vehicle is giving an audible or visual signal.
  - d. A vehicle that becomes separated from the funeral procession and the law enforcement escort, so that the procession is no longer continuous, must proceed to its destination in a safe and prudent manner obeying all traffic signals and general rules of the road.
4. Other vehicles shall conform to the following rules:
- a. The driver of a vehicle may not drive between the vehicles comprising a funeral procession while those vehicles are in motion, except when authorized to do so by a law enforcement officer or when such vehicle is an emergency vehicle giving an audible or visible signal.
  - b. The driver of a vehicle not part of a funeral procession may not join a funeral procession for the purpose of securing the right of way granted under subsection 3.
  - c. The driver of a vehicle not in a funeral procession may not pass vehicles in such a procession on a two-lane highway or roadway.
  - d. The driver of a vehicle may pass a funeral procession on its left side on any multiple-lane highway whenever such passing can be done safely, unless the procession is in the farthest left lane, in which case passing is permissible on the right.
  - e. When a funeral procession is proceeding through a red signal as permitted by subsection 3, a vehicle that is not in the procession may not enter the intersection unless it can do so without crossing the path of the funeral procession. If the red signal changes to green while the funeral procession is still within the intersection, a vehicle facing a green signal may proceed, but the funeral procession has the right of way.

SECTION 3. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.

TRAFFIC OFFENSE ALTERNATIVE DISPOSITION

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 39-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to alternative disposition of traffic offenses.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 39-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Alternative disposition - Driver training course - Exceptions. A person issued a summons or notice to appear under section 39-07-07 may appear before the court and elect to attend a driver training course approved by the director in lieu of entry of points on the licensee's driving record. A person who elects to attend the course must so notify the court at the time of posting the bond, which is forfeited even though an election is made under this section. The person who makes the election shall pay the driver training course fee to the driver training course sponsor. When a person elects to attend the course, the point penalty of five points or fewer as provided for the violation by section 39-06.1-10 may not be assessed; provided, that proof of completion of the course is presented to the department within thirty days after the person notifies the court of the election. A person may not make an election under this section if (1) that person has made an election under this section within the twelve months preceding the date of issuance of the summons or notice to appear; (2) the offense is assigned six or more points; or (3) the offense is an offense listed in section 39-06.1-05. A person making an election under this section forfeits any point reduction option under section 39-06.1-13.

TEMPORARY RESTRICTED LICENSES

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 2 of section 39-06.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to temporary restricted licenses; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 39-06.1-11 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. If the licensing authority has suspended a license under chapter 39-20, or after a violation of section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance, the authority may, in accordance with this section, for good cause, and upon written application of the offender, issue a temporary restricted license which takes effect after thirty days of the suspension have been served after a first offense under section 39-08-01 or chapter 39-20. The licensing authority may not issue a temporary restricted license to any offender whose operator's license ~~is under suspension~~ has been suspended upon a second or subsequent offense under section 39-08-01 or chapter 39-20, except that a temporary restricted license may be issued for good cause if no offenses have been committed for a period of two years before the date of the filing of a written application accompanied by a report from an addiction facility. The commissioner may conduct a hearing for the purposes of obtaining information, reports, and evaluations from courts, law enforcement, and citizens to determine the offender's conduct and driving behavior for the two-year period. The commissioner may also require that an ignition interlock device be installed in the offender's vehicle. The licensing authority may not issue a temporary restricted license for a period of license revocation or suspension imposed under subsection 5 of section 39-06-17, section 39-06-31, subsection 3.1 of section 39-06.1-10, or section 39-20-04, ~~or imposed for an alcohol-related offense under section 39-06-43.~~ A temporary restricted license may be issued for suspensions ordered under subsection 7 of section 39-06-32 if it could have been issued had the suspension resulted from in-state conduct, but no temporary restricted license may be issued for suspensions ordered under subsection 4 of section 39-06-32.

DRIVER COURSE CERTIFICATE ISSUANCE

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 2 of section 39-06.1-13 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to certification of successful completion of a driver training course.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 39-06.1-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. The point total shown on a licensee's driving record must, during any twelve-month period, be reduced by three points when the licensee mails or delivers a certificate to the licensing authority indicating successful completion of instruction in a driver training course approved by the licensing authority. Successful completion of instruction must be certified to by the instructor sponsoring agency or organization of the driver training course. The reduction in points authorized by this subsection must only be from a point total accumulated prior to completion of the necessary hours of driver training instruction, and may not exceed nine points during any three-year period commencing on the date of entry of the last points against the person's driving record. If on the date the licensing authority receives the certificate of completion of the driver training course from the licensee, that licensee's driving record contains twelve or more points, the point reduction authorized by this subsection must be applied only after the period of suspension required by the number of points then on the driver's record has been served.

TRAFFIC OFFENSE COURT HEARINGS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 39-07-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to scheduling of court hearings for certain traffic offenders.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-07-08. Hearing - Time - Promise of defendant to appear - Failure to appear - Penalty. The time to be specified in the summons or notice provided for in section 39-07-07 must be within ~~ten days~~ thirty-five days after the issuance of the summons or notice ~~unless~~ or earlier if so ordered by the magistrate of the city or county having jurisdiction over the offense or if the person halted demands an earlier hearing, and, if the person halted desires, the person may have the right, at a convenient hour, to an immediate hearing or to a hearing within twenty-four hours. The hearing must be before a magistrate of the city or county in which the offense was committed. If an immediate hearing is demanded, a county judge serving more than one county, may, with the consent of the respective prosecuting attorneys, order the hearing to be held in any of the counties in which the county judge has jurisdiction, rather than in the county where the offense was allegedly committed. Upon the receipt from the person halted of a written promise to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons or notice, the officer shall release the person from custody. Any person refusing to give a written promise to appear must be taken immediately by the halting officer before the nearest or most accessible magistrate, or to such other place or before such other person as may be provided by a statute or ordinance authorizing the giving of bail. Any person willfully violating the person's written promise to appear is guilty of a class B misdemeanor, regardless of the disposition of the charge upon which the person originally was halted. The time limitations for a hearing as provided by this section do not preclude a recharging of the alleged violation if the person being charged receives a new summons or notice subject to the provisions of this section.

INTRASTATE COMMERCIAL DRIVERS' QUALIFICATIONS

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 39-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to a medical qualifications exemption for intrastate drivers of commercial motor vehicles; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 39-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Medical qualifications exemption for intrastate drivers. Notwithstanding the adoption by the superintendent of the state highway patrol of federal motor carrier safety regulations pursuant to subsection 2 of section 39-21-46, the provisions of 49 CFR Section 391.41(b)(1)-(11) do not apply to a person who:

1. Is otherwise qualified to operate a commercial motor vehicle and who possesses, on the effective date of this Act, a class 1 license issued pursuant to section 39-06-14, as that section existed on June 30, 1989, or a class A license issued pursuant to chapter 39-06.2;
2. Operates a commercial motor vehicle only within the boundaries of this state;
3. Does not operate a motor vehicle used in the transportation of hazardous materials in a quantity requiring placarding under regulations issued pursuant to the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act [49 U.S.C. App. 1801 et seq.]; and
4. Has a medical or physical condition which:
  - a. Would prevent such person from operating a commercial motor vehicle under federal motor carrier safety regulations contained in 49 CFR, Chapter III, subchapter B;
  - b. Existed on the effective date of this Act or at the time of the first required physical examination after that date; and
  - c. An examining physician has determined has not substantially worsened since the effective date of this Act or the time of the first required physical examination after that date.

RAILROAD CROSSING STOPS

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 24-09-05 and 39-10-43 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to exemptions from required stops at railroad grade crossings.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

24-09-05. Stop signs may be required. At each grade crossing where, because of the dangers attendant upon its use, the reasonable protection to life and property makes it necessary for all persons approaching the same to stop before crossing the railroad tracks thereat, stop signs shall be installed. The department, after performing an engineering study of the crossing, may designate any crossing requiring such additional protection as a stop crossing, and shall notify the railway company operating the railroad thereat road authority with jurisdiction over the roadway of such designation and of the location where the stop sign is to be installed. Within thirty days after such notification the railway company road authority shall erect uniform stop crossing signs in conspicuous places on separate posts at the designated location on each side of said crossing.

39-10-43. Certain vehicles must stop at all railroad grade crossings.

1. The driver of a bus carrying passengers, or of any schoolbus, or of any vehicle carrying any chlorine, empty or loaded cargo tank vehicles used to transport dangerous articles or any liquid having a flashpoint below two hundred degrees Fahrenheit [93.33 degrees Celsius], cargo tank vehicles transporting a commodity having a temperature above its flashpoint at the time of loading, certain cargo tank vehicles transporting commodities under special permits issued by the hazardous materials regulations board, and every motor vehicle which must have the following placards: "explosives", "poison", "flammable oxidizers", "compressed gas", "corrosives", "flammable gas", "radioactive", or "dangerous", before crossing at grade any track or tracks of a railroad, shall stop such vehicle within fifty feet [15.24 meters] but not less than fifteen feet [4.57 meters] from the nearest rail of such railroad and while so stopped shall listen and look in both directions along such track for any approaching train, and for signals indicating the approach of a train and may not proceed until the driver can do so safely. After stopping as required herein and upon proceeding when it is safe to do so, the driver of any said vehicle shall cross only in such gear of the vehicle that there will be no necessity for manually changing gears while traversing such crossing and the driver may not manually shift gears while crossing the track or tracks.

2. No stop need be made at any such crossing at which traffic is controlled by a police officer. For the purposes of this section, a United States marshal must be considered a police officer.
3. No stop need be made at a crossing that the director has designated as an out-of-service crossing and which is clearly marked by signs bearing the words "Tracks out of service" in conspicuous places on each side of the crossing.
4. The designation must be limited to use at crossings where track has been abandoned or its use discontinued.
5. The director shall notify the road authority and any railway company of a crossing under the jurisdiction of that railway company which the director has designated as an out-of-service crossing under this section and the road authority shall erect signs bearing the words "Tracks out of service" in conspicuous places on each side of the crossing. The railway company shall remove the crossbucks.

PARKING VIOLATION RESPONSIBILITY

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 39-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the responsibility of motor vehicle lessors for parking violations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 39-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Parking violations - Lessor responsibility. The registered owner of a motor vehicle stopped, stood, or parked in violation of this chapter or section 39-01-15 or an equivalent ordinance is not responsible for the violation if the owner furnishes an affidavit indicating that the vehicle was at the time of the violation in the care, custody, or control of another person pursuant to a lease or rental agreement. The affidavit must contain the name, address, and operator's license number of the person to whom the vehicle was leased or rented at the time of the violation and must be submitted to the appropriate clerk of court within thirty days of notification to the owner of the violation. The owner is responsible for the violation and the payment of any fees or fines if the affidavit is not submitted within the thirty-day period.

OVERSIZE VEHICLE SPECIAL PERMIT

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 39-12-02 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to obtaining special permits for vehicles of excessive size and weight.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-12-02. Special permits for vehicles of excessive size and weight issued - Contents - Fees. The highway patrol and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions, upon application and payment of the appropriate charges and for good cause shown, may issue a special written permit authorizing the applicant to operate or move a vehicle, mobile home or modular unit of a size or weight exceeding the maximum specified by this chapter, upon a highway under the jurisdiction of the body granting the permit. Every such permit may designate the route to be traversed, and may contain any other restrictions or conditions deemed necessary by the body granting such permit. Every such permit must be carried in the vehicle to which it refers and must be opened to inspection by any peace officer or agent of the superintendent of the highway patrol unless prior approval is obtained from the highway patrol. It is a violation of the provisions of this chapter for any person to violate any of the terms or conditions of such special permit. All permits for the movement of excessive size and weight on state highways must be single trips only. The highway patrol and local authorities may adopt rules governing the movement of oversize and overweight vehicles.

An appropriate charge must be made for each permit and all funds collected hereunder by the highway patrol must be deposited in the state highway fund and are hereby appropriated for use in the construction and maintenance of highways and operating expenses of the highway department of transportation. For each permit for the movement of a mobile home or modular unit, the fee is ten dollars. Official or publicly owned vehicles may not be required to pay charges for permits. The director of tax equalization of the county of destination must be furnished a copy of the permit for the movement of an overdimensional mobile home.

HAY MOVERS HOURS OF MOVEMENT

AN ACT to amend and reenact subdivision d of subsection 1 of section 39-12-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to commercial movement of haystacks or hay bales during daylight hours on any day of the week.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subdivision d of subsection 1 of section 39-12-04 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- d. Commercial movement of haystacks or hay bales with vehicles designed specifically for hauling hay, overwidth self-propelled fertilizer spreaders, and overwidth hay grinders, which may be operated on the highway after obtaining a permit issued by the highway patrol. The highway patrol shall issue permits that are valid during daylight hours on any day of the week to any commercial mover otherwise qualified under this subdivision. The permit is in lieu of registration requirements for the permit period. No permit may be issued, unless proof of financial responsibility in a minimum of three hundred thousand dollars is filed and the appropriate permit fee is paid. The permit may also be issued for hauling hay bales with vehicles or vehicle combinations other than those designed specifically for hauling haystacks. This permit, however, will not be in lieu of registration requirements. All permit fees must be deposited in the state highway distribution fund.

DIRECTIONAL SIGNS

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 39-13 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to tourist-oriented directional signs on state highway right of way.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 39-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Tourist-oriented directional signs.

1. In this section:

- a. "Tourist-oriented directional sign" means a sign providing identification of and directional information for tourist-related businesses, services, or activities.
- b. "Tourist-related business, service, or activity" means destination tourism attractions, including recreation, historical sites, festival and cultural events, lodging and food services which are singularly and uniquely related to historical, cultural, or recreational tourist attractions, and guide services, but does not include any business operated under a franchise agreement.

2. Notwithstanding section 24-01-12, the department shall establish by rule standards for the erection and maintenance of tourist-oriented directional signs. The rules must conform to federal standards for tourist-oriented directional signs adopted under 23 U.S.C. 131(q) as of the effective date of this Act and with the manual of uniform traffic-control devices adopted by the department under section 39-13-06 except that the rules must provide that logos may not be used on tourist-oriented directional signs. The rules must require that each sign must be seventy-two inches wide and sixteen inches high. The rules must include all of the following:

- a. Criteria for eligibility for signing.
- b. Criteria for limiting or excluding businesses, services, and activities that maintain signs that do not conform to requirements under 23 U.S.C. 131.

- c. Provisions for fees to cover costs of sign manufacture, erection, and maintenance to be collected through a permit system.
  - d. Provisions specifying sign design and composition.
  - e. Criteria for determining when to permit advance signing.
  - f. Criteria for determining when to permit signing for facilities that are not located on a crossroad of a highway upon which tourist-oriented directional signs are permitted.
  - g. Criteria for signing at at-grade intersections of expressways.
  - h. Provisions specifying conditions under which the time of operation of a business, service, or activity is shown.
  - i. Provisions for covering or removing signs during off seasons for businesses, services, and activities operated on a seasonal basis.
  - j. Provisions specifying the maximum number of signs permitted per intersection.
  - k. Provisions for limiting the number of signs.
3. Upon the request of any person, a local authority that has adopted an ordinance permitting the erection of tourist-oriented directional signs may authorize their erection within the right of way of any highway under the jurisdiction of the local authority except that tourist-oriented directional signs may not be erected within the right of way of the interstate highway system. No tourist-oriented directional sign may be erected unless it is erected in compliance with rules adopted by the department for such signs.
  4. The department shall contract for the erection, installation, and maintenance of tourist-oriented directional signs within the right of way of any highway under the jurisdiction of the department except that tourist-oriented directional signs may not be erected within the right of way of the interstate highway system. No tourist-oriented directional sign may be erected unless it is erected in compliance with rules adopted by the department for such signs.

ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR ALCOHOL OFFENSES

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 2 of section 39-20-04 and subsection 1 of section 39-20-05 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the time for entering a notice of intent to enter a guilty plea to a driving under the influence charge in lieu of a revocation of driving privileges and the time for scheduling an implied consent administrative hearing.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 39-20-04 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. A person's driving privileges are not subject to revocation under this section if all of the following criteria are met:
  - a. No administrative hearing request is made under section 39-20-05;
  - b. The person mails an affidavit to the ~~commissioner~~ director within ~~ten~~ twenty-five days after the temporary operator's permit is issued. The affidavit must state that the person:
    - (1) Intends to voluntarily plead guilty to violating section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance within twenty-five days after the temporary operator's permit is issued;
    - (2) Agrees that the person's driving privileges must be suspended as provided under section 39-06.1-10;
    - (3) Acknowledges the right to a section 39-20-05 administrative hearing and section 39-20-06 judicial review and voluntarily and knowingly waives these rights; and
    - (4) Agrees that the person's driving privileges must be revoked as provided under this section without an administrative hearing or judicial review, if the person does not plead guilty within twenty-five days after the temporary operator's permit is issued, or the court does not accept the guilty plea, or the guilty plea is withdrawn.

- c. The person pleads guilty to violating section 39-08-01 or equivalent ordinance within twenty-five days after the temporary operator's permit is issued;
- d. The court accepts the person's guilty plea and a notice of that fact is mailed to the commissioner within twenty-five days after the temporary operator's permit is issued; and
- e. A copy of the final order or judgment of conviction evidencing the acceptance of the person's guilty plea is received by the commissioner prior to the return or reinstatement of the person's driving privileges.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 39-20-05 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Before issuing an order of suspension, revocation, or denial under section 39-20-04 or 39-20-04.1, the ~~commissioner~~ director shall afford that person an opportunity for a hearing if the person mails a request for the hearing to the ~~commissioner~~ director within ten days after the date of issuance of the temporary operator's permit. The hearing must be held within twenty-five days after the date of issuance of the temporary operator's permit, but the hearing officer may extend the hearing to within thirty-five days after the issuance of the temporary operator's permit if good cause is shown to accommodate the efficient scheduling of hearings. Upon a showing of good cause by the operator, or upon learning of the unavailability of the operator, or the operator's attorney, or a witness, the hearing officer may schedule the hearing on a date within forty-five days of the date of the operator's arrest. If the hearing date is extended beyond twenty-five days from the issuance of the temporary operator's permit, the ~~commissioner~~ director shall provide extended temporary operator's privileges to the date of the hearing. If no hearing is requested within the time limits in this section, and no affidavit is submitted within the time limits under subsection 2 of section 39-20-04, the expiration of the temporary operator's permit serves as the ~~commissioner's~~ director's official notification to the person of the revocation, suspension, or denial of driving privileges in this state.

CHILD RESTRAINTS IN MOTOR VEHICLES

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 39-21-41.2 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the required use of child restraint devices in motor vehicles.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 39-21-41.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. If a child, under three years of age, is present in any motor vehicle, that motor vehicle must be equipped with at least one child restraint system for each such child. The child restraint system must meet the standards adopted by the United States department of transportation for those systems [49 CFR 571.213]. While the motor vehicle is in motion, each such child must be properly secured in the child restraint system in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions. While the motor vehicle is moving, each child of three ~~to five~~ through ten years of age who is in the motor vehicle must be in an approved child restraint system or buckled in a seatbelt. Use of child restraint systems and seatbelts is not required in motor vehicles that were not equipped with seatbelts when manufactured. If all of the seatbelts are used by other family members in the vehicle, this section does not apply.

CHILD RESTRAINT DEVICE EXCEPTION

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 39-21-41.2 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the required use of child restraint devices in motor vehicles.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-21-41.2. Child restraint devices - Penalty - Evidence.

1. If a child, under three years of age, is present in any motor vehicle, that motor vehicle must be equipped with at least one child restraint system for each such child. The child restraint system must meet the standards adopted by the United States department of transportation for those systems [49 CFR 571.213]. While the motor vehicle is in motion, each such child must be properly secured in the child restraint system in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions. While the motor vehicle is moving, each child of three to five years of age who is in the motor vehicle must be in an approved child restraint system or buckled in a seatbelt. Use of child restraint systems and seatbelts is not required in motor vehicles that were not equipped with seatbelts when manufactured. If all of the seatbelts are used by other family members in the vehicle or if a child is being transported in an emergency situation, this section does not apply.
2. Violation of this section is punishable by a fine not to exceed twenty dollars.
3. Violation of this section is not, in itself, evidence of negligence. The fact of a violation of this section is not admissible in any proceeding other than one charging the violation.

Approved April 5, 1991
Filed April 8, 1991

* NOTE: Section 39-21-41.2 was also amended by section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2251, chapter 431.

SNOWMOBILE REGISTRATION TIMES

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 39-24-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to registration of snowmobiles.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-24-03. Registration - Application - Issuance - Fees - Renewal. Application for registration must be made to the department in a form as the department shall prescribe and furnish, and must state the name and address of every owner of the snowmobile and be signed by at least one owner. A copy of the application must be carried on the person when operating and shall serve as evidence of registration for a period of not more than thirty days from the date of application.

Upon receipt of the application and the appropriate fee as hereinafter provided, the snowmobile must be registered and a registration number and a certificate of registration assigned. The registration number must be at least one and one-half inches [3.81 centimeters] in height and of a reflectorized material, and must be securely affixed on each side of the forward half of the snowmobile in such position as to provide clear legibility for identification. The certificate of registration must include information regarding the make, year, serial number, and name and address of the owner.

The fee for registration of each snowmobile must be three dollars for a registration period of two years beginning ~~January~~ October first of each ~~even-numbered~~ odd-numbered year effective ~~January 1, 1991~~ October 1, 1991. To implement this Act, on January 1, 1992, the department shall register each snowmobile registered before the effective date of this Act for a one-time period of twenty-one months. The fee for initial registration of each snowmobile registered on and after ~~January~~ January ~~October~~ first of the second year of the two-year registration period must also be three dollars. The fee for a duplicate or replacement registration number or registration card which is lost, mutilated, or becomes illegible may not exceed three dollars. In addition, in each year that fees are collected for the unsatisfied judgment fund there must be assessed a fee of one dollar per year for each snowmobile registered, which must be placed in the unsatisfied judgment fund. For each snowmobile registered under the provisions of this chapter, there must be assessed a snowmobile trail tax in the amount of seventeen dollars.

Every owner of a snowmobile shall renew the registration in a manner as the department shall prescribe, upon payment of the same registration fees provided in this section.

Upon application for registration as prescribed in this section, any snowmobile dealer as defined in section 39-24-01 must be issued registration numbers distinctively marked as dealer's registration numbers upon payment of the appropriate fee as prescribed in this section. The dealer's registration numbers must be used only on snowmobiles owned by the dealership.

SNOWMOBILE FUND TRANSFER

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 39-24-05 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the disposition of snowmobile registration and trail tax fees, and providing for an annual transfer of highway tax distribution fund moneys to the snowmobile fund; and to provide an expiration date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-24-05. Disposition of registration fees and trail tax - Transfer from highway tax distribution fund. Fees from registration of snowmobiles must be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the motor vehicle registrar fund. The snowmobile trail tax must be deposited in a state snowmobile fund in the state treasury. Additionally, an amount equal to the tax collected on thirty gallons of motor vehicle fuel multiplied by the number of snowmobiles registered under this chapter must be transferred annually from the highway tax distribution fund, before allocation of the fund under section 54-27-19, and credited to the state snowmobile fund. The state parks and recreation department may, upon appropriation by the legislative assembly, expend from such fund moneys it deems necessary for purposes of administering snowmobile safety programs and administering, establishing, and maintaining snowmobile facilities and programs.

SECTION 2. EXPIRATION DATE. This Act is effective through June 30, 1993, and after that date is ineffective.

SNOWMOBILE TRESPASSING

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 39-24-11 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to penalties for failure to register ownership of snowmobiles and for trespassing with a snowmobile on posted land.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-24-11. Penalties. Any person who violates subdivision b ~~or~~, c, or g of subsection 5 of section 39-24-09 is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. Any person who violates any other provision of section 39-24-09 must be assessed a fee of twenty dollars. Any person, unless specifically exempted, who fails to register as required by section 39-24-02 must be assessed a fee of twenty-five dollars. A person who operates an unregistered snowmobile on land owned, leased, or managed by the parks and recreation department must be assessed a fee of fifty dollars; however, if the person provides proof of registration since the violation, the fee may be reduced by one-half. Any person who violates any other provision of this chapter for which a specific penalty is not provided must be assessed a fee of ten dollars.

MOTORCYCLE SAFETY ADMINISTRATION

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 39-28-02 and 39-28-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to transferring responsibility for motorcycle safety courses and reimbursement for the cost of those courses from the superintendent of public instruction to the director of the department of transportation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

39-28-02. ~~Superintendent of public instruction~~ Director to establish standards for motorcycle safety courses. The ~~superintendent of public instruction~~ director shall establish requirements for instructional standards, course approval, and teacher certification standards for motorcycle safety courses required by this chapter. Motorcycle safety courses may be offered by public schools and by approved organizations which meet instruction, course, and teacher certification requirements. The ~~superintendent~~ director may adopt rules governing the operation of motorcycle safety courses, administer moneys pursuant to this chapter, conduct audits and otherwise examine the records and accounts of approved motorcycle safety courses, and require other information as may be necessary to monitor the quality of motorcycle safety courses.

39-28-03. Reimbursement for motorcycle safety courses. The ~~superintendent~~ director shall reimburse public schools and organizations offering approved motorcycle safety courses for the actual cost of the courses. The amount of reimbursement for each student may not exceed the actual per-pupil cost for the motorcycle safety program.

CHAPTER 439

SENATE BILL NO. 2410
(Stenehjem)

CHOP SHOPS

AN ACT to provide for a model act relating to motor vehicle chop shops and stolen and altered motor vehicles; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

1. "Chop shop" means any building, lot, or other premises where one or more persons knowingly, as defined by section 12.1-02-02, engage in altering, destroying, disassembling, dismantling, reassembling, or storing any motor vehicle, or motor vehicle part known to be illegally obtained by theft, fraud, or conspiracy to defraud, in order to either:
  - a. Alter, counterfeit, deface, destroy, disguise, falsify, forge, obliterate, or remove the identity, including the vehicle identification number of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, in order to misrepresent the identity of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, or to prevent the identification of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part; or
  - b. Sell or dispose of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part.
2. "Motor vehicle" includes every device in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, which is self-propelled or which may be connected to and towed by a self-propelled device, and includes any and all other land-based devices that are self-propelled but which are not designed for use upon a highway, including farm machinery and construction equipment.
3. "Person" includes a natural person, company, corporation, unincorporated association, partnership, professional corporation, and any other legal entity.
4. "Unidentifiable" means that the uniqueness of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part cannot be established by either expert law enforcement investigative personnel specially trained and experienced in motor vehicle theft investigative procedures and motor vehicle identification examination techniques, or by expert employees of not-for-profit motor vehicle theft prevention agencies specially trained and experienced in motor vehicle theft investigation procedures and motor vehicle identification examination techniques.

5. "Vehicle identification number" means a number or numbers, a letter or letters, a character or characters, a datum or data, a derivative or derivatives, or a combination or combinations thereof, used by the manufacturer or the department of motor vehicles for the purposes of uniquely identifying a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part. The term includes a number or numbers, a letter or letters, a character or characters, a datum or data, a derivative or derivatives, or a combination or combinations thereof.

SECTION 2. Violations and penalties.

1. It is a class B felony if any person knowingly, as defined in section 12.1-02-02, and with intent that a violation of subsection 2 be committed:
  - a. Owns, operates, or conducts a chop shop;
  - b. Transports any motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to or from a location knowing it to be a chop shop; or
  - c. Sells, transfers, purchases, or receives any motor vehicle or motor vehicle part either to or from a location knowing it to be a chop shop.
2. Any person who knowingly, as defined in section 12.1-02-02, alters, counterfeits, defaces, destroys, disguises, falsifies, forges, obliterates, or knowingly removes a vehicle identification number, with the intent to misrepresent the identity or prevent the identification of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, is guilty of a class B felony.
  - a. Any person who buys, disposes, sells, transfers, or possesses a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, with knowledge that the vehicle identification number of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has been altered, counterfeited, defaced, destroyed, disguised, falsified, forged, obliterated, or removed, is guilty of a class B felony.
  - b. The provisions of subdivision a do not apply to a motor vehicle scrap processor who, in the normal legal course of business and in good faith, processes a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part by crushing, compacting, or other similar methods, provided that any vehicle identification number is not removed from the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part prior to or during any such processing.
  - c. The provisions of subdivision a do not apply to any owner or authorized possessor of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part which has been recovered by law enforcement authorities after having been stolen or where the condition of the vehicle identification number of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part is known to or has been reported to law enforcement authorities. It is presumed that law enforcement authorities have knowledge of all vehicle identification numbers on a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part which are altered, counterfeited, defaced, disguised, falsified, forged, obliterated, or removed, when law enforcement authorities deliver or return the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to its owner or authorized possessor after it has been recovered by law enforcement authorities after having been reported stolen.

4. No prosecution may be brought, and no person may be convicted, of any violation under this section, if acts of the person otherwise constituting a violation were done in good faith in order to comply with the laws or regulations of any state or territory of the United States, or of the federal government of the United States.
5. The sentence imposed upon a person convicted of any violation of this section may not be reduced to less than four years imprisonment for a second conviction of any violation of this section, or less than eight years for a third or subsequent conviction of any violation of this section, and no sentence imposed upon a person for a second or subsequent conviction of any violation of this section may be suspended or reduced until the person has served the minimum period of imprisonment provided in this section. A person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this section is not eligible for probation, parole, furlough, or work release.
6. a. In addition to any punishment, a person who violates this section, must be ordered to make restitution to the lawful owner or owners of the stolen motor vehicle or vehicles or the stolen motor vehicle part or parts, or to the owner's insurer to the extent that the owner has been compensated by the insurer, and to any other person for any financial loss sustained as a result of a violation of this section.

As used in this section, "financial loss" includes loss of earnings, out-of-pocket and other expenses, repair and replacement costs, and claims payments. As used in this section, "lawful owner" includes an innocent bona fide purchaser for value of a stolen motor vehicle part who does not know that the motor vehicle or part is stolen, or an insurer to the extent that the insurer has compensated a bona fide purchaser for value.

- b. The court shall determine the extent and method of restitution. In an extraordinary case, the court may determine that the best interests of the victim and justice would not be served by ordering restitution. In any such case, the court shall make and enter specific written findings on the record concerning the extraordinary circumstances presented which militated against restitution.

SECTION 3. Seizure of equipment.

1. Any tool, implement, or instrumentality including a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, used or possessed in connection with any violation of section 2 of this Act may be seized by a member of a state or local law enforcement agency upon process issued by any court of competent jurisdiction.

2. Seizure of property described in subsection 1 may be made by a member of a state or local law enforcement agency without process:
  - a. If in accordance with any applicable law or regulation;
  - b. If the seizure is incident to inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;
  - c. If the seizure is incident to search made under a search warrant;
  - d. If the seizure is incident to a lawful arrest;
  - e. If the seizure is made pursuant to a valid consent to search;
  - f. If the property seized has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal proceeding, or in an injunction or forfeiture proceeding under section 5; or
  - g. If there are reasonable grounds to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety.
3. When property is seized under this section, the seizing agency may:
  - a. Place the property under seal; or
  - b. Remove the property to a place selected and designated by the seizing party.

SECTION 4. Forfeiture of property.

1. The following are subject to forfeiture unless obtained by theft, fraud, or conspiracy to defraud and the rightful owner is known or can be identified and located:
  - a. Any tool;
  - b. Any implement; or
  - c. Any instrumentality, including any motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, whether owned or unowned by the person from whose possession or control it was seized, which is used or possessed either in violation of section 2 of this Act or to promote or facilitate a violation of section 2 of this Act.
2. Any motor vehicle, other conveyance, or motor vehicle part used by any person as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section if the owner or other person in charge of the motor vehicle, other conveyance, or motor vehicle part is a consenting party to a violation of section 2 of this Act.
3. Any motor vehicle, motor vehicle part, other conveyance, tool, implement, or instrumentality is not subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission that the owner proves to have been committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent.

4. a. Seizing agencies shall utilize their best efforts to identify any seized motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to determine ownership or the identity of any other person having a right or interest in it. In its reasonable identification and owner location attempts, the seizing agency shall cause the stolen motor vehicle files of all law enforcement agencies to be searched for stolen or wanted information on motor vehicles similar to the seized motor vehicle or consistent with the seized motor vehicle part.
- b. If a motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has an apparent value in excess of one thousand dollars:
  - (1) The seizing agency shall consult with an expert of the type specified in subsection 4 of section 1 of this Act; and
  - (2) The seizing party shall request searches of the on-line and off-line files of the national crime information center and the national automobile theft bureau when files have been searched with negative results.
5. A forfeiture of a motor vehicle, motor vehicle part, or other conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission forming the ground for the forfeiture.
6. Property, described in subsection 1, seized and held for forfeiture, is not subject to replevin and is subject only to the order and judgments of a court of competent jurisdiction hearing the forfeiture proceedings.
7. a. A states attorney in the county where the seizure occurs shall bring an action for forfeiture in a court of competent jurisdiction. The forfeiture action must be brought within sixty days from the date of seizure except when the states attorney in the sound exercise of discretion determines that no forfeiture action should be brought because of the rights of property owners, lienholders, or secured creditors, or because of exculpatory, exonerating, or mitigating facts and circumstances.
- b. The states attorney shall give notice of the forfeiture proceeding by mailing a copy of the complaint in the forfeiture proceeding to each person whose right, title, or interest is of record maintained in the department of transportation, or any other department of the state, or any other state or territory of the United States, or of the federal government if the property is required to be registered in any such department.
- c. Notice of the proceeding must be given to any other person as may appear, from the facts and circumstances, to have any right, title, or interest in or to the property.
- d. The owner of the property, or any person having, or claiming, right, title, or interest in the property may within sixty days

- after the mailing of such notice file a verified answer to the complaint and may appear at the hearing on the action for forfeiture.
- e. The states attorney must show at a forfeiture hearing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the property was used in the commission of a violation of section 2 of this Act, or was used or possessed to facilitate such violation.
  - f. The owner of property may show by a preponderance of the evidence that the owner did not know, and did not have reason to know, that the property was to be used or possessed in the commission of any violation or that any of the exceptions to forfeiture are applicable.
  - g. Unless the states attorney makes the required showing, the court shall order the property released to the owner. If the states attorney has made such a showing, the court may order:
    - (1) The property be destroyed by the agency that seized it or some other agency designated by the court;
    - (2) The property be delivered and retained for use by the agency that seized it or some other agency designated by the court; or
    - (3) The property be sold at public sale.
8. A copy of a forfeiture order must be filed with the sheriff of the county in which the forfeiture occurs and with each federal or state department with which the property is required to be registered. The order, when filed, constitutes authority for the issuance to the agency to which the property is delivered and retained for use or to any purchaser of the property of a title certificate, registration certificate, or other special certificate as may be required by law considering the condition of the property.
  9. Proceeds from the sale at public auction, after payment of all reasonable charges and expenses incurred by the agency designated by the court to conduct the sale in storing and selling the property, must be paid to the general fund of the county of seizure.
  10. No motor vehicle, either seized under section 3 of this Act or forfeited under this section, may be released by the seizing agency or used or sold by an agency designated by the court unless any altered, counterfeited, defaced, destroyed, disguised, falsified, forged, obliterated, or removed vehicle identification number is corrected by the issuance and affixing of either assigned or replacement vehicle identification number plates as may be appropriate under laws of this state.
  11. No motor vehicle part having any altered, counterfeited, defaced, destroyed, disguised, falsified, forged, obliterated, or removed vehicle identification number may be disposed of upon forfeiture except by destruction. This subsection does not apply to any motor vehicle part that is assembled with and constitutes part of a motor vehicle.

12. No motor vehicle or motor vehicle part may be forfeited under this section solely on the basis that it is unidentifiable. Instead of forfeiture, any seized motor vehicle or motor vehicle part that is unidentifiable must be the subject of a written report sent by the seizing agency to the department of transportation. The report must include a description of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, its color, if any, the date, time, and place of its seizure, the name of the person from whose possession or control it was seized, the grounds for its seizure, and the location where it is held or stored.
13. When a seized unidentifiable motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has been held for sixty days or more after the notice to the department of transportation specified in subsection 12 has been given, the seizing agency, or its agent, shall cause the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to be sold at public sale to the highest bidder. Notice of the time and place of sale must be posted in a conspicuous place for at least thirty days prior to the sale on the premises where the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has been stored.
14. If a seized unidentifiable motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has an apparent value of one thousand dollars or less, the seizing agency shall authorize the disposal of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, provided that no such disposition may be made less than sixty days after the date of seizure.
15. The proceeds of the public sale of an unidentifiable motor vehicle or motor vehicle part must be deposited in the general fund of the state or other governmental unit after deduction of any reasonable and necessary towing and storage charges.
16. Seizing agencies shall utilize their best efforts to arrange for the towing and storing of motor vehicles and motor vehicle parts in the most economical manner possible. The owner of a motor vehicle or a motor vehicle part may not be required to pay more than the minimum reasonable costs of towing and storage.
17. A seized motor vehicle or motor vehicle part that is neither forfeited nor unidentifiable must be held subject to the order of the court in which the criminal action is pending or, if a request for its release from such custody is made, until the states attorney has notified the defendant or the defendant's attorney of such request and both the prosecution and defense have been afforded a reasonable opportunity for an examination of the property to determine its true value and to produce or reproduce, by photographs or other identifying techniques, legally sufficient evidence for introduction at trial or other criminal proceedings. Upon expiration of a reasonable time for the completion of the examination, which may not exceed fourteen days from the date of service upon the defense of the notice of request for return of property, the property must be released to the person making such request after satisfactory proof of the person's entitlement to possession. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon application by either party with notice to the other, the court may order retention of the property if it determines that retention is necessary in the furtherance of justice.

18. When a seized vehicle is forfeited, restored to its owner, or disposed of as unidentifiable, the seizing agency shall retain a report of the transaction for a period of at least one year from the date of the transaction.
19. When an applicant for a certificate of title or salvage certificate presents to the department of transportation proof that the applicant purchased or acquired a motor vehicle at a public sale conducted pursuant to this section and such fact is attested to by the seizing agency, the department of transportation shall issue a certificate of title, salvage certificate for the motor vehicle upon receipt of the statutory fee, properly executed application for a certificate of title, or other certificate of ownership, and the affidavit of the seizing agency that a state-assigned number was applied for and affixed to the motor vehicle prior to the time that the motor vehicle was released by the seizing agency to the purchaser.

SECTION 5. Civil proceedings and remedies.

1. The attorney general, any states attorney, or any aggrieved person may institute civil proceedings against any person in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking relief from conduct constituting a violation of any provision of this Act. If the plaintiff in such a proceeding proves the alleged violation, or its threat, by a preponderance of the evidence, any court of competent jurisdiction after due provision for the rights of innocent persons, shall grant relief by entering any appropriate order or judgement, including:
  - a. Ordering any defendant to be divested of any interest in any property;
  - b. Imposing reasonable restrictions upon the future activities or investments of any defendant, including prohibiting any defendant from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the defendant was engaged in previously;
  - c. Ordering the suspension or revocation of a license, permit, or prior approval granted by any public agency or any other public authority; or
  - d. Ordering the surrender of the charter of a corporation organized under the laws of the state or the revocation of a certificate authorizing a foreign corporation to conduct business within the state upon finding that the board of directors or a managerial agent acting on behalf of the corporation, in conducting the affairs of the corporation, has authorized or engaged in conduct made unlawful by this Act and that, for the prevention of future criminal conduct, the public interest requires the charter of the corporation be surrendered and the corporation dissolved or the certificate revoked.

2. In a proceeding under this section, injunctive relief must be granted in conformity with the principles that govern the granting of relief from injury or threatened injury in other cases, but no showing of special or irreparable injury must be made. Pending final determination of a proceeding under this section, a temporary restraining order or a preliminary injunction may be issued upon a showing of immediate danger of significant injury, including the possibility that any judgment for money damages might be difficult to execute, and, in a proceeding initiated by an aggrieved person, upon the execution of proper bond against injury for an injunction improvidently granted.
3. Any person injured, directly or indirectly, by conduct constituting a violation by any person of section 2 of this Act, in addition to any other relief, has a cause of action for threefold the actual damages sustained by the person.
4. A final judgment or decree rendered against the defendant in any civil or criminal proceeding estops the defendant in any subsequent civil action or proceeding brought by any person as to all matters to which the judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties to the civil or criminal proceeding.
5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law providing a shorter period of limitations, a civil action under this section may be commenced at any time within five years after the conduct made unlawful under section 2 of this Act terminates or the cause of action accrues or within any longer statutory period that may be applicable. If any action is brought by a states attorney to punish, prevent, or restrain any activity made unlawful under section 2 of this Act, the running of the period of limitations is suspended during the pendency of such action and for two years following its termination.
6. Personal service of any process in any action under this section may be made upon any person outside the state if the person has engaged in any conduct constituting a violation of section 2 of this Act in this state. The person is deemed to have thereby submitted to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state for the purposes of this provision.
7. Obtaining any civil remedy under this section does not preclude obtaining any other civil or criminal remedy under either this Act or any other provision of law. Civil remedies under this section are supplemental and not mutually exclusive.

SECTION 6. Venue. A criminal prosecution for any violation may be commenced in any county, without regard to place of occurrence.

INDUSTRY TAX EXEMPTIONS

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 40-57.1-01, 40-57.1-02, 40-57.1-03, 40-57.1-04, 40-57.1-04.1, 40-57.1-04.3, 40-57.1-05, 40-57.1-06, and 40-57.1-07 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to tax exemptions for new and expanding industries; and to repeal section 40-57.1-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of a local development corporation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

40-57.1-01. Declaration and finding of public purpose. The legislative assembly of the state of North Dakota hereby declares and finds that it is and has been its purpose in preparing and adopting the provisions of this chapter to sanction, authorize, and encourage activities in the public interest and for the welfare of the state of North Dakota, its subdivisions and people by assisting in the establishment of additional industrial plants, the expansion and retention of existing business, and promotion of economic activities within the state, and thereby increasing production of wealth, and adding to the volume of employment, particularly during those seasons when employment in farming and ranching is slack, thus alleviating unemployment among the people of the state.

It is the intent of the legislative assembly that political subdivisions and the state board of equalization in their determination of whether the tax exemptions authorized by this chapter shall be granted, shall give due weight to their impact and effect upon existing industry and business to the end that an unfair advantage shall not be given to new or expanded enterprises which is to the substantial detriment of existing enterprises.

40-57.1-02. "Project" and "municipality" defined Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context, the term "municipality" includes counties as well as municipalities of the types listed in subsection 4 of section 40-01-01; and the term "project" means any real property, buildings and improvements on real property or the buildings thereon, and any equipment permanently located on such real property or in such buildings, which are used or useful in connection with revenue producing enterprises, or any combination of two or more such enterprises:

1. "Local development corporation", as used in section 40-57.1-04.3, means a profit or nonprofit corporation incorporated under the laws of this state, formed for the purpose of furthering the economic development of its community and environs, with authority to promote and assist the growth and development of business concerns in the areas covered by its operations. The operations of the corporation must be limited to a specified area in this state. The controlling interest in the corporation must be held by at least twenty-five persons residing or doing business in the community or its environs. These persons must control not less than seventy-five percent of the voting control of the corporation. No shareholder or member of the corporation may own in excess of twenty-five percent of the voting control in the corporation if that shareholder or member has a direct pecuniary interest in any project or business concern which will occupy the property of the corporation. The primary objective of the corporation must be to benefit the community through increased employment, payroll, business volume, and corresponding factors rather than monetary profits to its shareholders or members. Any monetary profits or other benefits going to the shareholders or members must be merely incidental to the primary objective of the corporation.
2. "Municipality" means counties as well as municipalities of the types listed in subsection 4 of section 40-01-01.
3. "Primary sector business" means an individual, corporation, partnership, or association which through the employment of knowledge or labor adds value to a product, process, or service that results in the creation of new wealth.
4. "Project" means any revenue-producing enterprise, or any combination of two or more of these enterprises. For the purpose of the income tax exemption, "project" means both "primary sector business" and "tourism" as defined by this section.
5. "Tourism" means all tourism-related businesses and activities including recreation, historical and cultural events, guide services, and unique lodging and food services which serve as destination attractions.

40-57.1-03. Municipalities' authority to grant tax exemption - Notice to competitors - Limitations. Municipalities are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, as limited hereafter, to grant, after negotiation with a potential project operator, partial or complete exemption from ad valorem taxation on all tangible property used in or necessary to the operation of a project for a period not exceeding five years from the date of commencement of project operations. ~~Provided, however, that the A~~ municipality may also grant a partial exemption from ad valorem taxation on tangible property used in or necessary to the operation of a project that produces or manufactures a product from agricultural commodities grown in this state of up to one hundred percent in the sixth year from the date of commencement of project operations, eighty percent in the seventh year from the date of commencement of project operations, sixty percent in the eighth year from the date of commencement of project operations, forty percent in the ninth year from the date of commencement of project operations, and twenty percent in the tenth year from the date of commencement of project operations. An exemption granted under this chapter applies only to the valuation over and above the taxable valuation placed upon buildings, structures, and improvements on the property for the last assessment period immediately preceding the date of application for exemption. Negotiations with potential project operators for tax exemption must be carried on by the city council or commission if the project is proposed to be located within the boundaries of a city, and by the board of county commissioners if such project is proposed to be located outside the corporate limits of any city. A partial exemption must be stated as a percentage of the total ad valorem taxes assessed against the property. The potential project operator shall publish two notices, the form of which must be prescribed by the tax commissioner, to competitors of the application for tax exemption in the official newspaper of the municipality at least one week apart. The publications must be completed not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days before the governing body of the municipality is to consider the application. The municipality shall determine whether the granting of the exemption is in the best interest of the municipality, and if it so determines, shall give its approval.

40-57.1-04. Exemption from income tax - Notice to competitors - Limitations. The Upon application by a project operator to the state board of equalization, the net income of any a project granted an exemption from ad valorem taxation may be exempt from state income tax for a like period, provided not exceeding five years from commencement of project operations. The application for the exemption is made must be reviewed as to the eligibility of the project by the municipality on behalf of the project department of economic development and finance and its recommendations forwarded to the state board of equalization, and the. The project operator shall provide notice to competitors in the manner prescribed by the state board of equalization. The board, after full investigation, determines shall determine whether the granting of the exemption is in the best interest of the people of North Dakota and approves, if it so determines, approve the exemption. The board shall, after making its determination, certify the findings back to the applicant and to the tax commissioner. Nothing contained herein shall have the effect of exempting the project from filing an annual income tax return.

40-57.1-04.1. Ad valorem and income tax exemption for existing structures - Requirements. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a project operator who otherwise qualifies under this chapter may, upon application consistent with the provisions of this chapter, receive a partial or complete exemption from income taxation and ad valorem taxation on any existing structure used in or necessary to the operation of the project for a period not exceeding five years from the date of commencement of project operations in the structure. No structure qualifies for this exemption unless it has been vacant for at least the twelve months prior to the commencement of project operations, except that in cities with a population of three thousand or less the vacancy period does not apply and the project operator may occupy the structure immediately after it is vacated by the previous occupant. Notwithstanding the vacancy requirement, for For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988, the governing body of a municipality may grant additional exemptions of property under this section during a period not exceeding ten years from the date of commencement of project operations in the structure if the structure is owned by the United States, the state, or a political subdivision of the state and leased to the project operator. The project operator shall apply to the governing body of the municipality annually for the exemption and the governing body of the municipality may grant the exemption for only one year at a time.

40-57.1-04.3. Property tax exemption on speculative industrial buildings and properties owned by a local development corporation. A municipality may, in its discretion, grant partial or complete exemption from ad valorem taxation on buildings, structures, and improvements constructed and owned by a local development corporation for the express purpose of attracting new industry to this state. This exemption from ad valorem taxation is only available on new buildings, structures, and improvements while they remain unoccupied. Once the building, structure, or improvement is occupied, the exemption continues until the next annual assessment date following the first occupancy. This section does not affect the eligibility for property and income tax exemption of a new business or industry available under other provisions of this chapter, provided application for those the tax exemptions exemption is made prior to occupancy. A written request for the exemption is to be filed by the local development corporation with the municipality. The request will be reviewed at an official meeting of the governing body and will be placed on the agenda for final action at the next official meeting. The governing body of the municipality shall notify the county director of tax equalization with respect to any exemption granted under this section.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 40-57.1-05 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

40-57.1-05. Reapplication for tax exemption - Discretion of board of equalization. The municipality or the state board of equalization, in its discretion, upon the presentation of additional facts and circumstances which were not presented or discovered at the time of the original application for tax exemption under the provisions of this chapter, accept reapplications from project operators at any time if the project operators first publish notice of application for tax exemption as required by this chapter.

40-57.1-06. Change in value, new location, or change in project operator or use requiring reapplication for tax exemption. If at any time the value of the property exempted from taxation under the provisions of this chapter exceeds the original valuation by more than ten percent, the project operator must reapply in order to receive an exemption on the added value of such the property. If he the project operator does not reapply, or if his the reapplication is disapproved, the increased valuation will be subject to ad valorem taxation. If at any time a project operator who is exempt from taxation under this chapter moves the business to a new location within this state, such the project operator must either reapply to retain the remaining balance of the property tax exemption or he may elect to make application as a new business; but ~~such the~~ move shall have no effect on the income tax exemption of ~~such the~~ project operator if it is shown by the project operator to the satisfaction of the state board of equalization that the nature of the business has not been changed by ~~such the~~ move and that the effect of the business upon competitors has not been changed by ~~such the~~ move. In addition, the property tax exemption provided by this chapter shall apply only to the project operator to which it is granted and shall be valid only so long as the property is used for the purposes stated in the application. If there is a change in use of the property, or if a new project operator takes possession of the property, the property tax exemption shall terminate and the project operator must file a new application with the municipality if ~~he the~~ project operator wishes consideration for a tax exemption for the remainder of the exemption period provided pursuant to section 40-57.1-03.

40-57.1-07. Exemptions - Time for making application.

1. No property tax exemption shall be granted under this chapter unless the application for it is granted as provided in this chapter prior to the commencement of construction of the project as that term is defined in section 40-57.1-02 or prior to occupancy by the project operator if the project is an existing building.
2. Application for an income tax exemption as provided in this chapter must be made by the project operator no later than one year after the commencement of project operations.

SECTION 10. REPEAL. Section 40-57.1-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is repealed.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsections 20, 24, 37, 43, and 44 of section 41-01-11 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

- 20. "Holder" means a person who is in possession of a document of title, an instrument, or a certificated investment security drawn, issued, or endorsed to him, to his order, to bearer, or in blank with respect to an instrument, certificated security, or document of title means the person in possession if, in the case of an instrument, it is payable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession; in the case of a security, the person in possession is the registered owner, the security has been endorsed to the person in possession by the registered owner, or the security is in bearer form; or, in the case of a document of title, the goods are deliverable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession.
- 24. "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency or by an intergovernmental organization.
- 37. a. "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (section 41-02-46) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest". The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to chapter 41-09. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such those goods to a contract for sale under section 41-02-46 is not a "security interest", but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with chapter 41-09. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest", but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (section 41-02-43). Whether a transaction creates a lease is intended as or security interest is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security; and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security a transaction creates a security interest if the consideration the lessee is to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is an obligation for the term of the lease not subject to termination by the lessee, and (1) the original term of the lease is equal to or greater than the remaining economic life of the goods; (2) the lessee is bound to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods or is bound to become the owner of the goods; (3) the lessee has an option to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement; or (4) the lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement.

- b. A transaction does not create a security interest merely because it provides that (1) the present value of the consideration the lessee is obligated to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is substantially equal to or is greater than the fair market value of the goods at the time the lease is entered into; (2) the lessee assumes risk of loss of the goods, or agrees to pay taxes, insurance, filing, reporting, or registration fees, or service or maintenance costs with respect to the goods; (3) the lessee has an option to renew the lease or to become the owner of the goods; (4) the lessee has an option to renew the lease for a fixed rent that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal at the time the option is to be performed; or (5) the lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for a fixed price that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market value of the goods at the time the option is to be performed.
- c. For purposes of this subsection: Additional consideration is not nominal if when the option to renew the lease is granted to the lessee the rent is stated to be the fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal determined at the time the option is to be performed, or when the option to become the owner of the goods is granted to the lessee the price is stated to be the fair market value of the goods determined at the time the option is to be performed. Additional consideration is nominal if it is less than the lessee's reasonably predictable cost of performing under the lease agreement if the option is not exercised. "Reasonably predictable" and "remaining economic life of the goods" are to be determined with reference to the facts and circumstances at the time the transaction is entered into. "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate is not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction is entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.

43. "Unauthorized" signature or endorsement means one made without actual, implied or apparent authority and includes a forgery.
44. "Value". Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (sections ~~41-03-33~~ 41-03-29, ~~41-04-18~~ 41-04-22, and ~~41-04-19~~ 41-04-23) a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them:
- In return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection;
  - As security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a preexisting claim;
  - By accepting delivery pursuant to a preexisting contract for purchase; or
  - Generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

41-01-17. (1-207) Performance or acceptance under reservation of rights.

1. A party who with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice", "under protest", or the like are sufficient.
2. Subsection 1 does not apply to an accord and satisfaction governed by section 41-03-37.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 41-02-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- The following definitions in other chapters apply to this chapter:
  - a. "Check". Section 41-03-04.
  - b. "Consignee". Section 41-07-02.
  - c. "Consignor". Section 41-07-02.

- d. "Consumer goods". Section 41-09-09.
- e. "Dishonor". Section ~~41-03-63~~ 41-03-59.
- f. "Draft". Section 41-03-04.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 41-02-48 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 4. The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the chapters on secured transactions (chapter 41-09), ~~bulk transfers (chapter 41-06)~~, and documents of title (chapter 41-07).

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 41-02-59 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 3. Subject to the provisions of this title on the effect of an instrument on an obligation (section ~~41-03-76~~ 41-03-36), payment by check is conditional and is defeated as between the parties by dishonor of the check on due presentment.

SECTION 9. Chapter 41-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

41-02.1-01. (2A-101) Short title. This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Commercial Code - leases.

41-02.1-02. (2A-102) Scope. This chapter applies to any transaction, regardless of form, that creates a lease.

41-02.1-03. (2A-103) Definitions and index of definitions.

1. In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

- a. "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a preexisting contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.
- b. "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the lease contract for default by the other party.
- c. "Commercial unit" means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of lease and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article, as a machine, or a set of articles, as a suite of furniture or a line of machinery, or a quantity, as a gross or carload, or any - other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

- d. "Conforming" goods or performance under a lease contract means goods or performance that is in accordance with the obligations under the lease contract.
- e. "Consumer lease" means a lease that a lessor regularly engaged in the business of leasing or selling makes to a lessee who is an individual and who takes under the lease primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose if the total payments to be made under the lease contract, excluding payments for options to renew or buy, do not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.
- f. "Fault" means wrongful act, omission, breach, or default.
- g. "Finance lease" means a lease in which (1) the lessor does not select, manufacture, or supply the goods; (2) the lessor acquires the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods in connection with the lease; and (3)(a) the lessee receives a copy of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods before signing the lease contract; (b) the lessee's approval of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods is a condition to effectiveness of the lease contract; (c) the lessee, before signing the lease contract, receives an accurate and complete statement designating the promises and warranties, and any disclaimers of warranties, limitations, or modifications of remedies, or liquidated damages, including those of any third party such as the manufacturer of the goods, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods; or (d) only if the lease is not a consumer lease, before the lessee signs the lease contract the lessor informs the lessee in writing of the identity of the person supplying the goods to the lessor, unless the lessee has selected that person and directed the lessor to acquire the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods from that person, that the lessee is entitled under this chapter to the promises and warranties, including those of any third party, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods, and that the lessee may contact the person supplying the goods to the lessor and receive an accurate and complete statement of those promises and warranties, including any disclaimers and limitations of them or of remedies.
- h. "Goods" means all things that are movable at the time of identification to the lease contract, or are fixtures (section 41-02.1-39), but the term does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like, including oil and gas, before extraction. The term also includes the unborn young of animals.

- i. "Installment lease contract" means a lease contract that authorizes or requires the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the lease contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate lease" or its equivalent.
- j. "Lease" means a transfer of the right to possession and use of goods for a term in return for consideration, but a sale, including a sale on approval or a sale or return, or retention or creation of a security interest is not a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease.
- k. "Lease agreement" means the bargain, with respect to the lease, of the lessor and the lessee in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance (as provided in this chapter). Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease agreement.
- l. "Lease contract" means the total legal obligation that results from the lease agreement as affected by this chapter and any other applicable rules of law. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease contract.
- m. "Leasehold interest" means the interest of the lessor or the lessee under a lease contract.
- n. "Lessee" means a person who acquires the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessee.
- o. "Lessee in ordinary course of business" means a person who, in good faith and without knowledge that the lease is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods, leases in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling or leasing goods of that kind, but does not include a pawnbroker. "Leasing" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a preexisting lease contract but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.
- p. "Lessor" means a person who transfers the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessor.
- q. "Lessor's residual interest" means the lessor's interest in the goods after expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease contract.
- r. "Lien" means a charge against or interest in goods to secure payment of a debt or performance of an obligation, but the term does not include a security interest.

- s. "Lot" means a parcel or a single article that is the subject matter of a separate lease or delivery, regardless of whether it is sufficient to perform the lease contract.
  - t. "Merchant lessee" means a lessee that is a merchant with respect to goods of the kind subject to the lease.
  - u. "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate was not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction was entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.
  - v. "Purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, pledge, gift, or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in goods.
  - w. "Sublease" means a lease of goods the right to possession and use of which was acquired by the lessor as a lessee under an existing lease.
  - x. "Supplier" means a person from whom a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased under a finance lease.
  - y. "Supply contract" means a contract under which a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased.
  - z. "Termination" occurs when either party under a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the lease contract otherwise than for default.
2. Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

  - q. "Sale or return". Subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 41-02-43.
  - r. "Seller". Subdivision d of subsection 1 of section 41-02-03.
4. In addition, chapter 41-01 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.
- 41-02.1-04. (2A-104) Leases subject to other laws.
- 1. A lease, although subject to this chapter, is also subject to any applicable:
    - a. Certificate of title statute of this state;
    - b. Certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction (section 41-02.1-05); or

- c. Consumer protection law of this state, both decisional and statutory.
2. In case of conflict between the provisions of this chapter, other than section 41-02.1-05 or subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-34 or subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-35, and any statute or decision referred to in subsection 1, the provisions of that statute control.
  3. Failure to comply with any applicable law has only the effect specified therein.

41-02.1-05. (2A-105) Territorial application of article to goods covered by certificate of title. Subject to subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-34 and subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-35, with respect to goods covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction, compliance and the effect of compliance or noncompliance with a certificate of title statute are governed by the law, including the conflict of laws rules, of the jurisdiction issuing the certificate until the earlier of surrender of the certificate or four months after the goods are removed from that jurisdiction and thereafter until a new certificate of title is issued by another jurisdiction.

41-02.1-06. (2A-106) Limitation on power of parties to consumer lease to choose applicable law and judicial forum.

1. If the law chosen by the parties to a consumer lease is that of a jurisdiction other than a jurisdiction in which the lessee resides at the time the lease agreement becomes enforceable or within thirty days thereafter or in which the goods are to be used, the choice is not enforceable.
2. If the judicial forum chosen by the parties to a consumer lease is a forum that would not otherwise have jurisdiction over the lessee, the choice is not enforceable.

41-02.1-07. (2A-107) Waiver or renunciation of claim or right after default. Any claim or right arising out of an alleged default or breach of warranty may be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party.

41-02.1-08. (2A-108) Unconscionability.

1. If the court as a matter of law finds a lease contract or any clause of a lease contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made, the court may refuse to enforce the lease contract, or it may enforce the remainder of the lease contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.
2. With respect to a consumer lease, if the court as a matter of law finds that a lease contract or any clause of a lease contract has been induced by unconscionable conduct or that unconscionable conduct has occurred in the collection of a claim arising from a lease contract, the court may grant appropriate relief.

3. Before making a finding of unconscionability under subsection 1 or 2, the court, on its own motion or that of a party, shall afford the parties a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose, and effect of the lease contract or clause thereof, or of the conduct.
4. In an action in which the lessee claims unconscionability with respect to a consumer lease:
  - a. If the court finds unconscionability under subsection 1 or 2, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the lessee.
  - b. If the court does not find unconscionability and the lessee claiming unconscionability has brought or maintained an action the claimant knew to be groundless, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the party against whom the claim is made.
  - c. In determining attorney's fees, the amount of the recovery on behalf of the claimant under subsections 1 and 2 is not controlling.

41-02.1-09. (2A-109) Option to accelerate at will.

1. A term providing that one party or that party's successor in interest may accelerate payment or performance or require collateral or additional collateral "at will" or "when he or she deems himself or herself insecure" or in words of similar import must be construed to mean that the party has power to do so only if the party in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired.
2. With respect to a consumer lease, the burden of establishing good faith under subsection 1 is on the party who exercised the power; otherwise the burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against whom the power has been exercised.

41-02.1-10. (2A-201) Statute of frauds.

1. A lease contract is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless:
  - a. The total payments to be made under the lease contract, excluding payments for options to renew or buy, are less than one thousand dollars; or
  - b. There is a writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent, sufficient to indicate that a lease contract has been made between the parties and to describe the goods leased and the lease term.
2. Any description of leased goods or of the lease term is sufficient and satisfies subdivision b of subsection 1, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.

3. A writing is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon, but the lease contract is not enforceable under subdivision b of subsection 1 beyond the lease term and the quantity of goods shown in the writing.
4. A lease contract that does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 1, but which is valid in other respects, is enforceable:
  - a. If the goods are to be specially manufactured or obtained for the lessee and are not suitable for lease or sale to others in the ordinary course of the lessor's business, and the lessor, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances that reasonably indicate that the goods are for the lessee, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement;
  - b. If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court that a lease contract was made, but the lease contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or
  - c. With respect to goods that have been received and accepted by the lessee.
5. The lease term under a lease contract referred to in subsection 4 is:
  - a. If there is a writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent specifying the lease term, the term so specified;
  - b. If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court a lease term, the term so admitted; or
  - c. A reasonable lease term.

41-02.1-11. (2A-202) Final written expression - Parol or extrinsic evidence. Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writing intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented by course of dealing or usage of trade or by course of performance; and by evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writing to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

41-02.1-12. (2A-203) Seals inoperative. The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a lease contract or an offer to enter into a lease contract does not render the writing a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to the lease contract or offer.

41-02.1-13. (2A-204) Formation in general.

1. A lease contract may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a lease contract.
2. An agreement sufficient to constitute a lease contract may be found although the moment of its making is undetermined.
3. Although one or more terms are left open, a lease contract does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a lease contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy.

41-02.1-14. (2A-205) Firm offers. An offer by a merchant to lease goods to or from another person in a signed writing that by its terms gives assurance it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or, if no time is stated, for a reasonable time, but in no event may the period of irrevocability exceed three months. Any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror.

41-02.1-15. (2A-206) Offer and acceptance in formation of lease contract.

1. Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances, an offer to make a lease contract must be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonable in the circumstances.
2. If the beginning of a requested performance is a reasonable mode of acceptance, an offeror who is not notified of acceptance within a reasonable time may treat the offer as having lapsed before acceptance.

41-02.1-16. (2A-207) Course of performance or practical construction.

1. If a lease contract involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in without objection is relevant to determine the meaning of the lease agreement.
2. The express terms of a lease agreement and any course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, must be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but if that construction is unreasonable, express terms control course of performance, course of performance controls both course of dealing and usage of trade, and course of dealing controls usage of trade.
3. Subject to section 41-02.1-17, course of performance is relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with the course of performance.

41-02.1-17. (2A-208) Modification, rescission, and waiver.

1. An agreement modifying a lease contract needs no consideration to be binding.

2. A signed lease agreement that excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing may not be otherwise modified or rescinded, but, except as between merchants, such a requirement on a form supplied by a merchant must be separately signed by the other party.
3. Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 2, it may operate as a waiver.
4. A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of a lease contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

41-02.1-18. (2A-209) Lessee under finance lease as beneficiary of supply contract.

1. The benefit of the supplier's promises to the lessor under the supply contract and of all warranties, whether express or implied, including those of any third party provided in connection with or as part of the supply contract, extends to the lessee to the extent of the lessee's leasehold interest under a finance lease related to the supply contract, but subject to the terms of the warranty and of the supply contract and all of the supplier's defenses or claims arising therefrom.
2. The extension of the benefit of the supplier's promises and warranties to the lessee (subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-09) does not modify the rights and obligations of the parties to the supply contract, or impose any duty or liability under the supply contract on the lessee.
3. Any modification or rescission of the supply contract by the supplier and the lessor is effective between the supplier and the lessee unless, before the modification or rescission, the supplier has received notice that the lessee has entered into a finance lease related to the supply contract. Whenever a modification or rescission of the supply contract is effective between the supplier and the lessee, the lessor, in addition to the obligations of the lessor under the lease contract, is treated as having assumed all obligations of the supplier and warranties which were so modified or rescinded as they existed or were available to the lessee prior to modification or rescission.
4. In addition to the extension of the benefit of the supplier's promises and of warranties to the lessee under subsection 1, the lessee retains all rights that the lessee may have against the supplier which arise from any agreement between the lessee and the supplier or from any other law.

41-02.1-19. (2A-210) Express warranties.

1. Express warranties by the lessor are created as follows:
  - a. Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the lessor to the lessee which relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods will conform to the affirmation or promise.

- b. Any description of the goods which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods will conform to the description.
  - c. Any sample or model that is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods will conform to the sample or model.
2. It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the lessor use formal words, such as "warrant" or "guarantee", or that the lessor have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the lessor's opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

41-02.1-20. (2A-211) Warranties against interference and against infringement - Lessee's obligation against infringement.

1. There is in a lease contract a warranty that for the lease term no person holds a claim to or interest in the goods that arose from an act or omission of the lessor, other than a claim by way of infringement or the like, which will interfere with the lessee's enjoyment of its leasehold interest.
2. Except in a finance lease there is in a lease contract by a lessor who is a merchant regularly dealing in goods of the kind a warranty that the goods are delivered free of the rightful claim of any person by way of infringement or the like.
3. A lessee who furnishes specifications to a lessor or a supplier shall hold the lessor and the supplier harmless against any claim by way of infringement or the like that arises out of compliance with the specifications.

41-02.1-21. (2A-212) Implied warranty of merchantability.

1. Except in a finance lease, a warranty that the goods will be merchantable is implied in a lease contract if the lessor is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind.
2. Goods to be merchantable must:
  - a. Pass without objection in the trade under the description in the lease agreement;
  - b. In the case of fungible goods, be of fair average quality within the description;
  - c. Be fit for the ordinary purposes for which goods of that type are used;
  - d. Run, within the variation permitted by the lease agreement, of even kind, quality, and quantity within each unit and among all units involved;

- e. Be adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the lease agreement may require; and
  - f. Conform to any promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label.
3. Other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.

41-02.1-22. (2A-213) Implied warranty of fitness for particular purpose. Except in a finance lease, if the lessor at the time the lease contract is made has reason to know of any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the lessee is relying on the lessor's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is in the lease contract an implied warranty that the goods will be fit for that purpose.

41-02.1-23. (2A-214) Exclusion or modification of warranties.

1. Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit a warranty must be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but, subject to the provisions of section 41-02.1-11 on parol or extrinsic evidence, negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that the construction is unreasonable.
2. Subject to subsection 3, to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it the language must mention "merchantability", be by a writing, and be conspicuous. Subject to subsection 3, to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness the exclusion must be by a writing and be conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it is in writing, is conspicuous and states, for example, "There is no warranty that the goods will be fit for a particular purpose".
3. Notwithstanding subsection 2, but subject to subsection 4:
  - a. Unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions like "as is", or "with all faults", or by other language that in common understanding calls the lessee's attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty, if in writing and conspicuous;
  - b. If the lessee before entering into the lease contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as desired or has refused to examine the goods, there is no implied warranty with regard to defects that an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed; and
  - c. An implied warranty may also be excluded or modified by course of dealing, course of performance, or usage of trade.
4. To exclude or modify a warranty against interference or against infringement (section 41-02.1-20) or any part of it, the language must be specific, be by a writing, and be conspicuous, unless the circumstances, including course of performance, course of dealing, or usage of trade, give the lessee reason to know that the goods are being leased subject to a claim or interest of any person.

41-02.1-24. (2A-215) Cumulation and conflict of warranties express or implied. Warranties, whether express or implied, must be construed as consistent with each other and as cumulative, but if that construction is unreasonable, the intention of the parties determines which warranty is dominant. In ascertaining that intention the following rules apply:

1. Exact or technical specifications displace an inconsistent sample or model or general language of description.
2. A sample from an existing bulk displaces inconsistent general language of description.
3. Express warranties displace inconsistent implied warranties other than an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

41-02.1-25. (2A-216) Third-party beneficiaries of express and implied warranties. A warranty to or for the benefit of a lessee under this chapter, whether express or implied, extends to any person who may reasonably be expected to use, consume, or be affected by the goods and who is injured by breach of the warranty. The operation of this section may not be excluded, modified, or limited with respect to injury to the person of an individual to whom the warranty extends, but an exclusion, modification, or limitation of the warranty, including any with respect to rights and remedies, effective against the lessee is also effective against the beneficiary designated under this section.

41-02.1-26. (2A-217) Identification. Identification of goods as goods to which a lease contract refers may be made at any time and in any manner explicitly agreed to by the parties. In the absence of explicit agreement, identification occurs:

1. When the lease contract is made, if the lease contract is for a lease of goods that are existing and identified.
2. When the goods are shipped, marked, or otherwise designated by the lessor as goods to which the lease contract refers, if the lease contract is for a lease of goods that are not existing and identified.
3. When the young are conceived, if the lease contract is for a lease of unborn young of animals.

41-02.1-27. (2A-218) Insurance and proceeds.

1. A lessee obtains an insurable interest when existing goods are identified to the lease contract even though the goods identified are nonconforming and the lessee has an option to reject them.
2. If a lessee has an insurable interest only by reason of the lessor's identification of the goods, the lessor, until default or insolvency or notification to the lessee that identification is final, may substitute other goods for those identified.

3. Notwithstanding a lessee's insurable interest under subsections 1 and 2, the lessor retains an insurable interest until an option to buy has been exercised by the lessee and risk of loss has passed to the lessee.
4. Nothing in this section impairs any insurable interest recognized under any other statute or rule of law.
5. The parties by agreement may determine that one or more parties have an obligation to obtain and pay for insurance covering the goods and by agreement may determine the beneficiary of the proceeds of the insurance.

41-02.1-28. (2A-219) Risk of loss.

1. Except in the case of a finance lease, risk of loss is retained by the lessor and does not pass to the lessee. In the case of a finance lease, risk of loss passes to the lessee.
2. Subject to section 41-02.1-29, if risk of loss is to pass to the lessee and the time of passage is not stated, the following rules apply:
  - a. If the lease contract requires or authorizes the goods to be shipped by carrier:
    - (1) And it does not require delivery at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the lessee when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier; but
    - (2) If it does require delivery at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the lessee when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the lessee to take delivery.
  - b. If the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the lessee on acknowledgement by the bailee of the lessee's right to possession of the goods.
  - c. In any case not within subdivision a or b, the risk of loss passes to the lessee on the lessee's receipt of the goods if the lessor, or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier, is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the lessee on tender of delivery.

41-02.1-29. (2A-220) Effect of default on risk of loss.

1. Where risk of loss is to pass to the lessee and the time of passage is not stated:
  - a. If a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the lease contract as to give a right of rejection, the risk of loss remains with the lessor, or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier, until cure or acceptance.

b. If the lessee rightfully revokes acceptance, the lessee, to the extent of any deficiency in the lessee's effective insurance coverage, may treat the risk of loss as having remained with the lessor from the beginning.

2. Whether or not risk of loss is to pass to the lessee, if the lessee as to conforming goods already identified to a lease contract repudiates or is otherwise in default under the lease contract, the lessor, or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier, to the extent of any deficiency in lessor or supplier's effective insurance coverage may treat the risk of loss as resting on the lessee for a commercially reasonable time.

41-02.1-30. (2A-221) Casualty to identified goods. If a lease contract requires goods identified when the lease contract is made, and the goods suffer casualty without fault of the lessee, the lessor or the supplier before delivery, or the goods suffer casualty before risk of loss passes to the lessee under the lease agreement or section 41-02.1-28, then:

1. If the loss is total, the lease contract is avoided.
2. If the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as to no longer conform to the lease contract, the lessee may nevertheless demand inspection and at the lessee's option either treat the lease contract as avoided or, except in a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, accept the goods with due allowance from the rent payable for the balance of the lease term for the deterioration or the deficiency in quantity but without further right against the lessor.

41-02.1-31. (2A-301) Enforceability of lease contract. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a lease contract is effective and enforceable according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the goods and against creditors of the parties.

41-02.1-32. (2A-302) Title to and possession of goods. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, each provision of this chapter applies whether the lessor or a third party has title to the goods, and whether the lessor, the lessee, or a third party has possession of the goods, notwithstanding any statute or rule of law that possession or the absence of possession is fraudulent.

41-02.1-33. (2A-303) Alienability of party's interest under lease contract or of lessor's residual interest in goods - Delegation of performance - Transfer of rights.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3, a provision in a lease agreement that prohibits the voluntary or involuntary transfer, including a transfer by sale, sublease, creation or enforcement of a security interest, or attachment, levy, or other judicial process, of an interest of a party under the lease contract or of the lessor's residual interest in the goods, or that makes such a transfer an event of default, is enforceable as provided in subsection 4, but a transfer that is prohibited or is an event of default under the lease agreement is otherwise effective. "Creation of a security interest" as used in this section includes the sale of a lease contract that is subject to chapter 41-09.

2. A provision in a lease agreement that prohibits the creation or enforcement of a security interest in an interest of a party under the lease contract, or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods or that makes such a transfer an event of default is not enforceable unless, and then only to the extent that, there is an actual transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the provision or delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the provision.
3. A transfer of a right to damages for default with respect to the whole lease contract or a transfer of a right to payment arising out of the transferor's due performance of the transferor's entire obligation, which includes the creation of a security interest in the right to future payment under a lease contract that is granted by a lessor who has no remaining performance under the lease contract, may not be prohibited or made an event of default and is not a transfer that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the other party to the lease contract within subsection 4 of this section.
4. Subject to subsections 2 and 3, if a transfer is made that is prohibited or is an event of default under a lease agreement, or if a transfer is made that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the other party to the lease contract, unless the party prejudiced by the transfer agrees at any time to the transfer in the lease contract or otherwise, then that party has, if the transfer is made an event of default, the rights and remedies provided under subsection 2 of section 41-02.1-48. In all other cases, except as limited by contract, the transferor is liable to the prejudiced party for damages caused by the transfer to the extent the damages could not reasonably be prevented by the prejudiced party. A court having jurisdiction may grant other appropriate relief, including cancellation of the lease contract or an injunction against the transfer.
5. A transfer of "the lease" or of "all my rights under the lease" or a transfer in similar general terms is a transfer of rights, and unless the language or the circumstances, as in a transfer for security, indicate the contrary, the transfer is a delegation of duties by the transferor to the transferee and acceptance by the transferee constitutes a promise by the transferee to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the transferor or the other party to the lease contract.
6. Unless otherwise agreed by the lessor and the lessee, no delegation of performance relieves the transferor as against the other party of any duty to perform or any liability for default.
7. To prohibit the transfer of an interest of a party under a consumer lease contract or to make a transfer an event of default, the language must be specific, by a writing, and conspicuous.

41-02.1-34. (2A-304) Subsequent lease of goods by lessor.

1. Subject to section 41-02.1-33, a subsequent lessee from a lessor of goods under an existing lease contract obtains, to the extent of the leasehold interest transferred, the leasehold interest in the goods that the lessor had or had power to transfer, and except as provided in subsections 2 and 4 of section 41-02.1-75, takes subject to the existing lease contract. A lessor with voidable title has power to transfer a good leasehold interest to a good faith subsequent lessee for value, but only to the extent set forth in the preceding sentence. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the lessor has that power even though any of the following are met:
  - a. The lessor's transferor was deceived as to the identity of the lessor.
  - b. The delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored.
  - c. It was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale".
  - d. The delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.
2. A subsequent lessee in the ordinary course of business from a lessor who is a merchant dealing in goods of that kind to whom the goods were entrusted by the existing lessee of that lessor before the interest of the subsequent lessee became enforceable against that lessor obtains, to the extent of the leasehold interest transferred, all of the lessor's and the existing lessee's rights to the goods, and takes free of the existing lease contract.
3. A subsequent lessee from the lessor of goods that are subject to an existing lease contract and are covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction takes no greater rights than those provided both by this section and by the certificate of title statute.

41-02.1-35. (2A-305) Sale or sublease of goods by lessee.

1. Subject to section 41-02.1-33, a buyer or sublessee from the lessee of goods under an existing lease contract obtains, to the extent of the interest transferred, the leasehold interest in the goods that the lessee had or had power to transfer, and except as provided in subsections 2 and 4 of section 41-02.1-59, takes subject to the existing lease contract. A lessee with a voidable leasehold interest has power to transfer a good leasehold interest to a good faith buyer for value or a good faith sublessee for value, but only to the extent set forth in the preceding sentence. When goods have been delivered under a transfer of lease, the lessee has that power even though any of the following are met:
  - a. The lessor was deceived as to the identity of the lessee.
  - b. The delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored.

- c. The delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.
2. A buyer in the ordinary course of business or a sublessee in the ordinary course of business from a lessee who is a merchant dealing in goods of that kind to whom the goods were entrusted by the lessor obtains, to the extent of the interest transferred, all of the lessor's and lessee's rights to the goods, and takes free of the existing lease contract.
3. A buyer or sublessee from the lessee of goods that are subject to an existing lease contract and are covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction takes no greater rights than those provided both by this section and by the certificate of title statute.

41-02.1-36. (2A-306) Priority of certain liens arising by operation of law. If a person in the ordinary course of business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a lease contract, a lien upon those goods in the possession of that person given by statute or rule of law for those materials or services takes priority over any interest of the lessor or lessee under the lease contract or this chapter unless the lien is created by statute and the statute provides otherwise or unless the lien is created by rule of law and the rule of law provides otherwise.

41-02.1-37. (2A-307) Priority of liens arising by attachment or levy on, security interests in, and other claims to goods.

1. Except as otherwise provided in section 41-02.1-36, a creditor of a lessee takes subject to the lease contract.
2. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 4 of this section and in sections 41-02.1-36 and 41-02.1-38, a creditor of a lessor takes subject to the lease contract unless any of the following is met:
- a. The creditor holds a lien that attached to the goods before the lease contract became enforceable.
- b. The creditor holds a security interest in the goods and the lessee did not give value and receive delivery of the goods without knowledge of the security interest.
- c. The creditor holds a security interest in the goods was perfected (section 41-09-24) before the lease contract became enforceable.
3. A lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold free of a security interest is perfected and the lessee knows of its existence.
4. A lessee other than a lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the lease or more than forty-five days after the lease contract becomes enforceable, whichever first occurs, unless the future advances are made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lease and before the expiration of the forty-five-day period.

41-02.1-38. (2A-308) Special rights of creditors.

1. A creditor of a lessor in possession of goods subject to a lease contract may treat the lease contract as void if as against the creditor retention of possession by the lessor is fraudulent under any statute or rule of law, but retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by the lessor for a commercially reasonable time after the lease contract becomes enforceable is not fraudulent.
2. Nothing in this chapter impairs the rights of creditors of a lessor if the lease contract becomes enforceable, not in current course of trade but in satisfaction of or as security for a preexisting claim for money, security, or the like, and the lease contract is made under circumstances which under any statute or rule of law apart from this chapter would constitute a fraudulent transfer or voidable preference.
3. A creditor of a seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to contract for sale as void if as against the creditor retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any statute or rule of law, but retention of possession of the goods under a lease contract entered into by the seller as lessee and the buyer as lessor in connection with the sale or identification of the goods is not fraudulent if the buyer bought for value and in good faith.

41-02.1-39. (2A-309) Lessor's and lessee's rights when goods become fixtures.

1. In this section:

- a. Goods are "fixtures" when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under real estate law.
- b. A "fixture filing" is the filing, in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be recorded, of a financing statement covering goods that are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of subsection 5 of section 41-09-41.
- c. A lease is a "purchase money lease" unless the lessee has possession or use of the goods or the right to possession or use of the goods before the lease agreement is enforceable.
- d. A mortgage is a "construction mortgage" to the extent it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates.
- e. "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests.

2. Under this chapter a lease may be of goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures, but no lease exists under this chapter of ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.
3. This chapter does not prevent creation of a lease of fixtures under real estate law.
4. The perfected interest of a lessor of fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if either of the following exists:
  - a. The lease is a purchase money lease, the conflicting interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within ten days thereafter, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate.
  - b. The interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the lessor's interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate.
5. The interest of a lessor of fixtures has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if any of the following are met:
  - a. The fixtures are readily removable factory or office machines, readily removable equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real estate, or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances that are goods subject to a consumer lease, and before the goods become fixtures the lease contract is enforceable.
  - b. The conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the lease contract is enforceable.
  - c. The encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the lease or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures.
  - d. The lessee has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the lessee's right to remove terminates, the priority of the interest of the lessor continues for a reasonable time.
6. Notwithstanding subdivision a of subsection 4 but otherwise subject to subsections 4 and 5, the interest of a lessor of fixtures including the lessor's residual interest is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrance of the real estate under a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent given to refinance a construction mortgage, the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer of the real estate under a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the encumbrancer of the real estate under the construction mortgage.

7. In cases not within the preceding subsections, priority between the interest of a lessor of fixtures including the lessor's residual interest and the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee is determined by the priority rules governing conflicting interests in real estate.
8. If the interest of a lessor of fixtures including the lessor's residual interest has priority over all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, the lessor or the lessee may on default, expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease agreement by the other party but subject to the provisions of the lease agreement and this chapter, or if necessary to enforce other rights and remedies under this chapter of the lessor or the lessee, remove the goods from the real estate, free and clear of all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, but the party removing the goods must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the party seeking removal gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.
9. Even though the lease agreement does not create a security interest, the interest of a lessor of fixtures including the lessor's residual interest is perfected by filing a financing statement as a fixture filing for leased goods that are or are to become fixtures in accordance with the relevant provisions of the chapter on secured transactions (chapter 41-09).

41-02.1-40. (2A-310) Lessor's and lessee's rights when goods become accessions.

1. Goods are "accessions" when they are installed in or affixed to other goods.
2. The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract entered into before the goods became accessions is superior to all interests in the whole except as stated in subsection 4.
3. The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract entered into at the time or after the goods became accessions is superior to all subsequently acquired interests in the whole except as stated in subsection 4 but is subordinate to interests in the whole existing at the time the lease contract was made unless the holders of such interests in the whole have in writing consented to the lease or disclaimed an interest in the goods as part of the whole.
4. The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract described in subsection 2 or 3 is subordinate to the interest of:

- a. A buyer in the ordinary course of business or a lessee in the ordinary course of business of any interest in the whole acquired after the goods became accessions.
  - b. A creditor with a security interest in the whole perfected before the lease contract was made to the extent that the creditor makes subsequent advances without knowledge of the lease contract.
5. When under subsection 2 or 3 a lessor or a lessee of accessions holds an interest that is superior to all interests in the whole, the lessor or the lessee may on default, expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease contract by the other party, but subject to the provisions of the lease contract and this chapter, or if necessary to enforce his or her other rights and remedies under this chapter, remove the goods from the whole, free and clear of all interests in the whole. However, the lessor or the lessee must reimburse any holder of an interest in the whole, who is not the lessee and who has not otherwise agreed, for the cost of repair of any physical injury but not for any diminution in value of the whole caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity for replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the party seeking removal gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

41-02.1-41. (2A-311) Priority subject to subordination. Nothing in this chapter prevents subordination by agreement by any person entitled to priority.

41-02.1-42. (2A-401) Insecurity - Adequate assurance of performance.

1. A lease contract imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired.
2. If reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance of either party, the insecure party may demand in writing adequate assurance of due performance. Until the insecure party receives that assurance, if commercially reasonable the insecure party may suspend any performance for which the insecure party has not already received the agreed return.
3. A repudiation of the lease contract occurs if assurance of due performance adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is not provided to the insecure party within a reasonable time, not to exceed thirty days after receipt of a demand by the other party.
4. Between merchants, the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered must be determined according to commercial standards.
5. Acceptance of any nonconforming delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.

41-02.1-43. (2A-402) Anticipatory repudiation. If either party repudiates a lease contract with respect to a performance not yet due under the lease contract, the loss of which performance will substantially impair the value of the lease contract to the other, the aggrieved party may:

1. For a commercially reasonable time, await retraction of repudiation and performance by the repudiating party.
2. Make demand under section 41-02.1-42 and await assurance of future performance adequate under the circumstances of the particular case.
3. Resort to any right or remedy upon default under the lease contract or this chapter, even though the aggrieved party has notified the repudiating party that the aggrieved party would await the repudiating party's performance and assurance and has urged retraction.

In addition, the aggrieved party may suspend performance or, if the aggrieved party is the lessor, proceed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter on the lessor's right to identify goods to the lease contract notwithstanding default or to salvage unfinished goods (section 41-02.1-71).

41-02.1-44. (2A-403) Retraction of anticipatory repudiation.

1. Until the repudiating party's next performance is due, the repudiating party can retract the repudiation unless the aggrieved party has canceled the lease contract or materially changed the aggrieved party's position or otherwise indicated that the aggrieved party considers the repudiation final.
2. Retraction may be by any method that clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform under the lease contract and includes any assurance demanded under section 41-02.1-42.
3. Retraction reinstates a repudiating party's rights under a lease contract with due excuse and allowance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation.

41-02.1-45. (2A-404) Substituted performance.

1. If without fault of the lessee, the lessor, or the supplier, the agreed berthing, loading, or unloading facilities fail or the agreed type of carrier becomes unavailable or the agreed manner of delivery otherwise becomes commercially impracticable, but a commercially reasonable substitute is available, the substitute performance must be tendered and accepted.
2. If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation:
  - a. The lessor may withhold or stop delivery or cause the supplier to withhold or stop delivery unless the lessee provides a means or manner of payment that is commercially a substantial equivalent.
  - b. If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the lessee's obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive, or predatory.

41-02.1-46. (2A-405) Excused performance.

Subject to section 41-02.1-45 on substituted performance, the following rules apply:

1. Delay in delivery or nondelivery in whole or in part by a lessor or a supplier who complies with subsections 2 and 3 is not a default under the lease contract if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the nonoccurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the lease contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order, regardless of whether the regulation or order later proves to be invalid.
2. If the causes mentioned in subsection 1 affect only part of the lessor's or the supplier's capacity to perform, the lessor or supplier shall allocate production and deliveries among its customers but at its option may include regular customers not then under contract for sale or lease as well as its own requirements for further manufacture. The lessor or supplier may so allocate in any manner that is fair and reasonable.
3. The lessor seasonably shall notify the lessee and, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier seasonably shall notify the lessor and the lessee, if known, that there will be delay or nondelivery and, if allocation is required under subsection 2, of the estimated quote thus made available for the lessee.

41-02.1-47. (2A-406) Procedure on excused performance.

1. If the lessee receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under section 41-02.1-46, the lessee may by written notification to the lessor as to any goods involved, and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired (section 41-02.1-58), either:
  - a. Terminate the lease contract (subsection 2 of section 41-02.1-53).
  - b. Except in a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, modify the lease contract by accepting the available quote in substitution, with due allowance from the rent payable for the balance of the lease term for the deficiency but without further right against the lessor.
2. If, after receipt of a notification from the lessor under section 41-02.1-46, the lessee fails so to modify the lease agreement within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days, the lease contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

41-02.1-48. (2A-407) Irrevocable promises - Finance leases.

1. In the case of a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, the lessee's promises under the lease contract become irrevocable and independent upon the lessee's acceptance of the goods.
2. A promise that has become irrevocable and independent under subsection 1:
  - a. Is effective and enforceable between the parties and by or against third parties including assignees of the parties.
  - b. Is not subject to cancellation, termination, modification, repudiation, excuse, or substitution without the consent of the party to whom the promise runs.
3. This section does not affect the validity under any other law of a covenant in any lease contract making the lessee's promises irrevocable and independent upon the lessee's acceptance of the goods.

41-02.1-49. (2A-501) Default - Procedure.

1. Whether the lessor or the lessee is in default under a lease contract is determined by the lease agreement and this chapter.
2. If the lessor or the lessee is in default under the lease contract, the party seeking enforcement has rights and remedies as provided in this chapter and, except as limited by this chapter, as provided in the lease agreement.
3. If the lessor or the lessee is in default under the lease contract, the party seeking enforcement may reduce the party's claim to judgment, or otherwise enforce the lease contract by self-help or any available judicial procedure or nonjudicial procedure, including administrative proceeding, arbitration, or the like, under this chapter.
4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 1 of section 41-01-06, this chapter, or the lease agreement, the rights and remedies referred to in subsections 2 and 3 are cumulative.
5. If the lease agreement covers both real property and goods, the party seeking enforcement may proceed under this part as to the goods, or under other applicable law as to both the real property and the goods in accordance with the party's rights and remedies in respect of the real property, in which case this part does not apply.

41-02.1-50. (2A-502) Notice after default. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or the lease agreement, the lessor or lessee in default under the lease contract is not entitled to notice of default or notice of enforcement from the other party to the lease agreement.

41-02.1-51. (2A-503) Modification or impairment of rights and remedies.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the lease agreement may include rights and remedies for default in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this chapter and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this chapter.

2. Resort to a remedy provided under this chapter or in the lease agreement is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive. If circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, or provision for an exclusive remedy is unconscionable, remedy may be had as provided in this chapter.
3. Consequential damages may be liquidated under section 41-02.1-52, or may otherwise be limited, altered, or excluded unless the limitation, alteration, or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation, alteration, or exclusion of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima facie unconscionable but limitation, alteration, or exclusion of damages where the loss is commercial is not prima facie unconscionable.
4. Rights and remedies on default by the lessor or the lessee with respect to any obligation or promise collateral or ancillary to the lease contract are not impaired by this chapter.

41-02.1-52. (2A-504) Liquidation of damages.

1. Damages payable by either party for default, or any other act or omission, including indemnity for loss or diminution of anticipated tax benefits or loss or damage to lessor's residual interest, may be liquidated in the lease agreement but only at an amount or by a formula that is reasonable in light of the then anticipated harm caused by the default or other act or omission.
2. If the lease agreement provides for liquidation of damages, and the provision does not comply with subsection 1, or the provision is an exclusive or limited remedy that circumstances cause to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this chapter.
3. If the lessor justifiably withholds or stops delivery of goods because of the lessee's default or insolvency (section 41-02.1-73 or 41-02.1-74), the lessee is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of the lessee's payments exceeds:
  - a. The amount to which the lessor is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the lessor's damages under subsection 1; or
  - b. In the absence of those terms, twenty percent of the then present value of the total rent the lessee was obligated to pay for the balance of the lease term, or, in the case of a consumer lease, the lesser of that amount or five hundred dollars.
4. A lessee's right to restitution under subsection 3 is subject to offset to the extent the lessor establishes:
  - a. A right to recover damages under the provisions of this chapter other than subsection 1; and

- b. The amount or value of any benefits received by the lessee directly or indirectly by reason of the lease contract.

41-02.1-53. (2A-505) Cancellation and termination and effect of cancellation, termination, rescission, or fraud on rights and remedies.

1. On cancellation of the lease contract, all obligations that are still executory on both sides are discharged, but any right based on prior default or performance survives, and the canceling party also retains any remedy for default of the whole lease contract or any unperformed balance.
2. On termination of the lease contract, all obligations that are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior default or performance survives.
3. Unless the contrary intention clearly appears, expressions of "cancellation", "rescission", or the like of the lease contract may not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent default.
4. Rights and remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all rights and remedies available under this chapter for default.
5. Neither rescission nor a claim for rescission of the lease contract nor rejection or return of the goods may bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or other right or remedy.

41-02.1-54. (2A-506) Statute of limitations.

1. An action for default under a lease contract, including breach of warranty or indemnity, must be commenced within four years after the cause of action accrued. By the original lease contract the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than one year.
2. A cause of action for default accrues when the act or omission on which the default or breach of warranty is based is or should have been discovered by the aggrieved party, or when the default occurs, whichever is later. A cause of action for indemnity accrues when the act or omission on which the claim for indemnity is based is or should have been discovered by the indemnified party, whichever is later.
3. If an action commenced within the time limited by subsection 1 is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same default or breach of warranty or indemnity, the other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.
4. This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations nor does it apply to causes of action that have accrued before this chapter becomes effective.

41-02.1-55. (2A-507) Proof of market rent - Time and place.

1. Damages based on market rent (section 41-02.1-67 or 41-02.1-76) are determined according to the rent for the use of the goods concerned for a lease term identical to the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement and prevailing at the time of the default.
2. If evidence of rent for the use of the goods concerned for a lease term identical to the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement and prevailing at the times or places described in this chapter is not readily available, the rent prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place or for a different lease term which in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the difference, including the cost of transporting the goods to or from the other place.
3. Evidence of a relevant rent prevailing at a time or place or for a lease term other than the one described in this chapter offered by one party is not admissible unless and until the party has given the other party notice that the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise.
4. If the prevailing rent or value of any goods regularly leased in any established market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of that market are admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of the report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility.

41-02.1-56. (2A-508) Lessee's remedies.

1. If a lessor fails to deliver the goods in conformity to the lease contract (section 41-02.1-57) or repudiates the lease contract (section 41-02.1-43), or a lessee rightfully rejects the goods (section 41-02.1-57) or justifiably revokes acceptance of the goods (section 41-02.1-65), then with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired (section 41-02.1-58), the lessor is in default under the lease contract and the lessee may:
  - a. Cancel the lease contract (subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-53).
  - b. Recover so much of the rent and security as has been paid as is just under the circumstances.
  - c. Cover and recover damages as to all goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the lease contract (sections 41-02.1-66 and 41-02.1-68), or recover damages for nondelivery (sections 41-02.1-67 and 41-02.1-68).
  - d. Exercise any other rights or remedies provided in the lease contract.
2. If a lessor fails to deliver the goods in conformity to the lease contract or repudiates the lease contract, the lessee may also:

- a. If the goods have been identified, recover them (section 41-02.1-70); or
  - b. In a proper case, obtain specific performance or replevy the goods (section 41-02.1-80).
3. If a lessor is otherwise in default under a lease contract, the lessee may exercise the rights and remedies provided in the lease contract, which may include a right to cancel the lease, and under subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-67.
  4. If a lessor has breached a warranty, whether express or implied, the lessee may recover damages (subsection 4 of section 41-02.1-67).
  5. On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance, a lessee has a security interest in goods in the lessee's possession or control for any rent and security that has been paid and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, and care and custody and may hold those goods and dispose of them in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, subject to the provisions of subsection 5 of section 41-02.1-75.
  6. Subject to the provisions of section 41-02.1-48, a lessee, on notifying the lessor of the lessee's intention to do so, may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any default under the lease contract from any part of the rent still due under the same lease contract.

41-02.1-57. (2A-509) Lessee's rights on improper delivery - Rightful rejection.

1. Subject to the provisions of section 41-02.1-58 on default in installment lease contracts, if the goods or the tender or delivery fail in any respect to conform to the lease contract, the lessee may reject or accept the goods or accept any commercial unit or units and reject the rest of the goods.
2. Rejection of goods is ineffective unless it is within a reasonable time after tender or delivery of the goods and the lessee seasonably notifies the lessor.

41-02.1-58. (2A-510) Installment lease contracts - Rejection and default.

1. Under an installment lease contract, a lessee may reject any delivery that is nonconforming if the nonconformity substantially impairs the value of that delivery and cannot be cured or the nonconformity is a defect in the required documents. If, however, the nonconformity does not fall within subsection 2 and the lessor or the supplier gives adequate assurance of its cure, the lessee must accept that delivery.
2. Whenever nonconformity or default with respect to one or more deliveries substantially impairs the value of the installment lease contract as a whole, there is a default with respect to the whole.

But, the aggrieved party reinstates the installment lease contract as a whole if the aggrieved party accepts a nonconforming delivery without seasonably notifying of cancellation or brings an action with respect only to past deliveries or demands performance as to future deliveries.

41-02.1-59. (2A-511) Merchant lessee's duties as to rightfully rejected goods.

1. Subject to any security interest of a lessee (subsection 5 of section 41-02.1-56), if a lessor or a supplier has no agent or place of business at the market of rejection, a merchant lessee, after rejection of goods in the merchant lessee's possession or control, shall follow any reasonable instructions received from the lessor or the supplier with respect to the goods. In the absence of those instructions, a merchant lessee shall make reasonable efforts to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the goods for the lessor's account if they threaten to decline in value speedily. Instructions are not reasonable if on demand indemnity for expenses is not forthcoming.
2. If a merchant lessee or any other lessee (section 41-02.1-60) disposes of goods, the lessee is entitled to reimbursement either from the lessor or the supplier or out of the proceeds for reasonable expenses of caring for and disposing of the goods and, if the expenses include no disposition commission, to such commission as is usual in the trade, or if there is none, to a reasonable sum not exceeding ten percent of the gross proceeds.
3. In complying with this section or section 41-02.1-60, the lessee is held only to good faith. Good faith conduct hereunder is neither acceptance or conversion nor the basis of an action for damages.
4. A purchaser who purchases in good faith from a lessee under this section or section 41-02.1-60 takes the goods free of any rights of the lessor and the supplier even though the lessee fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this chapter.

41-02.1-60. (2A-512) Lessee's duties as to rightfully rejected goods.

1. Except as otherwise provided with respect to goods that threaten to decline in value speedily (section 41-02.1-59) and subject to any security interest of a lessee (subsection 5 of section 41-02.1-56):
  - a. The lessee, after rejection of goods in the lessee's possession, shall hold them with reasonable care at the lessor's or the supplier's disposition for a reasonable time after the lessee's seasonable notification of rejection;
  - b. If the lessor or the supplier gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection, the lessee may store the rejected goods for the lessor's or the supplier's account or ship them to the lessor or the supplier or dispose of them for the lessor's or the supplier's account with reimbursement in the manner provided in section 41-02.1-59; but

c. The lessee has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.

2. Action by the lessee pursuant to subsection 1 is not acceptance or conversion.

41-02.1-61. (2A-513) Cure by lessor of improper tender or delivery - Replacement.

1. If any tender or delivery by the lessor or the supplier is rejected because nonconforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the lessor or the supplier may seasonably notify the lessee of the lessor's or the supplier's intention to cure and may then make a conforming delivery within the time provided in the lease contract.

2. If the lessee rejects a nonconforming tender that the lessor or the supplier had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance, the lessor or the supplier may have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender if the lessor or the supplier seasonably notifies the lessee.

41-02.1-62. (2A-514) Waiver of lessee's objections.

1. In rejecting goods, a lessee's failure to state a particular defect that is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes the lessee from relying on the defect to justify rejection or to establish default:

a. If, stated seasonably, the lessor or the supplier could have cured it (section 41-02.1-61); or

b. Between merchants if the lessor or the supplier after rejection has made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the lessee proposes to rely.

2. A lessee's failure to reserve rights when paying rent or other consideration against documents precludes recovery of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents.

41-02.1-63. (2A-515) Acceptance of goods.

1. Acceptance of goods occurs after the lessee has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods and:

a. The lessee signifies or acts with respect to the goods in a manner that signifies to the lessor or the supplier that the goods are conforming or that the lessee will take or retain them in spite of their nonconformity; or

b. The lessee fails to make an effective rejection of the goods (subsection 2 of section 41-02.1-57).

2. Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit.

41-02.1-64. (2A-516) Effect of acceptance of goods - Notice of default - Burden of establishing default after acceptance - Notice of claim or litigation to person answerable over.

1. A lessee must pay rent for any goods accepted in accordance with the lease contract, with due allowance for goods rightfully rejected or not delivered.
2. A lessee's acceptance of goods precludes rejection of the goods accepted. In the case of a finance lease, if made with knowledge of a nonconformity, acceptance cannot be revoked because of it. In any other case, if made with knowledge of a nonconformity, acceptance cannot be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the nonconformity would be seasonably cured. Acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by this chapter or the lease agreement for nonconformity.
3. If a tender has been accepted:
  - a. Within a reasonable time after the lessee discovers or should have discovered any default, the lessee shall notify the lessor and the supplier, if any, or be barred from any remedy against the party not notified;
  - b. Except in the case of a consumer lease, within a reasonable time after the lessee receives notice of litigation for infringement or the like (section 41-02.1-20) the lessee shall notify the lessor or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation; and
  - c. The burden is on the lessee to establish any default.
4. If a lessee is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which a lessor or a supplier is answerable over:
  - a. The lessee may give the lessor or the supplier written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the lessor or the supplier may come in and defend and that if the lessor or the supplier does not do so, the lessor or the supplier will be bound in any action by the lessee by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the lessor or the supplier after seasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend the lessor or the supplier is so bound.
  - b. The lessor or the supplier may demand in writing that the lessee turn over control of the litigation including settlement if the claim is one for infringement or the like (section 41-02.1-20) or else be barred from any remedy over. If the demand states that the lessor or the supplier agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the lessee after seasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control the lessee is so barred.
5. The provisions of subsections 3 and 4 apply to any obligation of a lessee to hold the lessor or the supplier harmless against infringement or the like (section 41-02.1-20).

41-02.1-65. (2A-517) Revocation of acceptance of goods.

1. A lessee may revoke acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose nonconformity substantially impairs its value to the lessee if:
  - a. Except in the case of a finance lease, on the reasonable assumption that its nonconformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured; or
  - b. Without discovery of the nonconformity if the lessee's acceptance was reasonably induced either by the lessor's assurances or, except in the case of a finance lease, by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance.
2. Except in the case of a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, a lessee may revoke acceptance of a lot or commercial unit if the lessor commits a default under the lease contract which substantially impairs the value of that lot or commercial unit to the lessee.
3. If the lease agreement so provides, the lessee may revoke acceptance of a lot or commercial unit for other defaults by the lessor.
4. Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the lessee discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by the nonconformity. Revocation is not effective until the lessee notifies the lessor.
5. A lessee who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if the lessee had rejected them.

41-02.1-66. (2A-518) Cover - Substitute goods.

1. After default by a lessor under the lease contract as described in subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-56 or, if agreed, after other default by the lessor, the lessee may cover by making any purchase or lease or contract to purchase or lease goods in substitution for those due from the lessor.
2. Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (section 41-02.1-52) or determined by agreement of the parties (subsection 3 of section 41-01-02 and section 41-02.1-51), if a lessee's cover is by lease agreement substantially similar to the original lease agreement and the new lease agreement is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, the lessee may recover from the lessor as damages the present value, as of the date of the commencement of the term of the new lease agreement, of the rent under the new lease agreement applicable to that period of the new lease term which is comparable to the then remaining term of the original lease agreement minus the present value as of the same date of the total rent for the then remaining lease term of the original lease agreement, and any incidental or consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.

3. If a lessee's cover is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection 2, or is by purchase or otherwise, the lessee may recover from the lessor as if the lessee had elected not to cover and section 41-02.1-67 governs.

41-02.1-67. (2A-519) Lessee's damages for nondelivery, repudiation, default, and breach of warranty in regard to accepted goods.

1. Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (section 41-02.1-52) or determined by agreement of the parties (subsection 3 of section 41-01-02 and section 41-02.1-51), if a lessee elects not to cover or a lessee elects to cover and the cover is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection 2 of section 41-02.1-66, or is by purchase or otherwise, the measure of damages for nondelivery or repudiation by the lessor or for rejection or revocation of acceptance by the lessee is the present value, as of the date of the default, of the then market rent minus the present value as of the same date of the original rent, computed for the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.
2. Market rent is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival.
3. If the lessee has accepted goods and given notification (subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-64), the measure of damages for nonconforming tender or delivery or other default by a lessor is the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the lessor's default as determined in any manner that is reasonable together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.
4. The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the present value at the time and place of acceptance of the difference between the value of the use of the goods accepted and the value if they had been as warranted for the lease term, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount, together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default or breach of warranty.

41-02.1-68. (2A-520) Lessee's incidental and consequential damages.

1. Incidental damages resulting from a lessor's default include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation, and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected or goods the acceptance of which is justifiably revoked, any commercially reasonable charges, expenses, or commissions in connection with effecting cover, and any other reasonable expense incident to the default.
2. Consequential damages resulting from a lessor's default include:
  - a. Any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the lessor at the time of contracting had reason to know and which could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise; and

- b. Injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty.

41-02.1-69. (2A-521) Lessee's right to specific performance or replevin.

1. Specific performance may be decreed if the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.
2. A decree for specific performance may include any terms and conditions as to payment of the rent, damages, or other relief that the court deems just.
3. A lessee has a right of replevin, detinue, sequestration, claim and delivery, or the like for goods identified to the lease contract if after reasonable effort the lessee is unable to effect cover for those goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that the effort will be unavailing.

41-02.1-70. (2A-522) Lessee's right to goods on lessor's insolvency.

1. Subject to subsection 2 and even though the goods have not been shipped, a lessee who has paid a part or all of the rent and security for goods identified to a lease contract (section 41-02.1-26) on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of the rent and security due under the lease contract may recover the goods identified to a lease contract only if they conform to the lease contract.
2. A lessee acquires the right to recover goods identified to a lease contract only if they conform to the lease contract.

41-02.1-71. (2A-523) Lessor's remedies.

1. If a lessee wrongfully rejects or revokes acceptance of goods or fails to make a payment when due or repudiates with respect to a part or the whole, then, with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired (section 41-02.1-58), the lessee is in default under the lease contract and the lessor may:
  - a. Cancel the lease contract (subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-53).
  - b. Proceed respecting goods not identified to the lease contract (section 41-02.1-72).
  - c. Withhold delivery of the goods and take possession of goods previously delivered (section 41-02.1-73).
  - d. Stop delivery of the goods by any bailee (section 41-02.1-74).

- e. Dispose of the goods and recover damages (section 41-02.1-75), or retain the goods and recover damages (section 41-02.1-76), or in a proper case recover rent (section 41-02.1-77).
  - f. Exercise any other rights or remedies provided in the lease contract.
2. If a lessor does not exercise the rights to which the lessor is entitled under subsection 1, the lessor may recover the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the lessee's default as determined in any manner which is reasonable, together with incidental damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.
3. If a lessee is otherwise in default under a lease contract, the lessor may exercise the rights and remedies provided in the lease contract, which may include a right to cancel the lease, and unless otherwise provided in the lease contract:
- a. If the default substantially impairs the value of the lease contract to the lessor, the lessor may exercise the rights and remedies provided under subsection 1 or 2.
  - b. If the default does not substantially impair the value of the lease contract to the lessor, the lessor may recover under subsection 2.

41-02.1-72. (2A-524) Lessor's right to identify goods to lease contract.

1. A lessor aggrieved under subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-70 may:
- a. Identify to the lease contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time the lessor learned of the default they were in the lessor's or the supplier's possession or control; and
  - b. Dispose of goods (subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-74) that demonstrably have been intended for the particular lease contract even though those goods are unfinished.
2. If the goods are unfinished, in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization, an aggrieved lessor or the supplier may either complete manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the lease contract or cease manufacture and lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the goods for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner.

41-02.1-73. (2A-525) Lessor's right to possession of goods.

1. If a lessor discovers the lessee to be insolvent, the lessor may refuse to deliver the goods.
2. The lessor has on a default by the lessee under the lease contract described in subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-71 or in subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-71 the right to take possession of the goods. If the lease contract so provides, the lessor may require the lessee to assemble the goods and make them available to the lessor at a place to be designated by the lessor which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Without removal, the lessor may render unusable any goods employed in trade or business and may dispose of goods on the lessee's premises (section 41-02.1-75).

3. The lessor may proceed under subsection 2 without judicial process if that can be done without breach of the peace or the lessor may proceed by action.

41-02.1-74. (2A-526) Lessor's stoppage of delivery in transit or otherwise.

1. A lessor may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee if the lessor discovers the lessee to be insolvent and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, planeload, or larger shipments of express or freight if the lessee repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery, whether for rent, security or otherwise under the lease contract, or for any other reason that the lessor has a right to withhold or take possession of the goods.
2. In pursuing its remedies under subsection 1, the lessor may stop delivery until:
  - a. Receipt of the goods by the lessee;
  - b. Acknowledgment to the lessee by any bailee of the goods, except a carrier, that the bailee holds the goods for the lessee; or
  - c. Such an acknowledgment to the lessee by a carrier via reshipment or as warehouseman.
3. a. To stop delivery, a lessor shall so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods.
  - b. After notification, the bailee shall hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the lessor, but the lessor is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages.
  - c. A carrier who has issued a nonnegotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor.

41-02.1-75. (2A-527) Lessor's rights to dispose of goods.

1. After a default by a lessee under the lease contract described in subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-71 or in subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-71 or after the lessor refuses to deliver or takes possession of goods (section 41-02.1-73 or 41-02.1-74), the lessor may dispose of the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof by lease, sale, or otherwise.
2. Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (section 41-02.1-52) or determined by agreement of the parties (subsection 3 of section 41-01-02 and section 41-02.1-51), if the disposition is by lease agreement substantially similar to the original lease agreement and the lease agreement is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of the commencement of the new term of the new lease agreement, the present value, as of the same date, of the total rent for the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement minus the present value, as of the same date, of the rent under the new lease agreement applicable to that period of the new lease term which is comparable to the then remaining term of the original lease agreement, and any incidental damages allowed under section 41-02.1-78, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

3. If the lessor's disposition is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection 2, or is by sale or otherwise, the lessor may recover from the lessee as if the lessor had elected not to dispose of the goods and section 41-02.1-76 governs.
4. A subsequent buyer or lessee who buys or leases from the lessor in good faith for value as a result of a disposition under this section takes the goods free of the original lease contract and any rights of the original lessee even though the lessor fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this chapter.
5. The lessor is not accountable to the lessee for any profit made on any disposition. A lessee who has rightfully rejected or justifiably revoked acceptance shall account to the lessor for any excess over the amount of the lessee's security interest (subsection 5 of section 41-02.1-56).

41-02.1-76. (2A-528) Lessor's damages for nonacceptance, failure to pay, repudiation, or other default.

1. Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (section 41-02.1-52) or determined by agreement of the parties (subsection 3 of section 41-01-02 and section 41-02.1-51), if a lessor elects to retain the goods or a lessor elects to dispose of the goods and disposition is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection 2 of section 41-02.1-75, or is by sale or otherwise, the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages for a default described in subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-70 or in subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-70, or, if agreed, for other default of the lessee accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of default if the lessee has never taken possession of the goods, or if the lessee has taken possession of the goods, as of the date the lessor repossess the goods or an earlier date on which the lessee makes a tender of the goods to the lessor; the present value, as of the same date, of the total rent for the then remaining lease term of the original lease agreement minus the present value, as of the same date, of the rent under the new lease agreement applicable to that period of the new lease term which is comparable to the then remaining term of the original lease agreement; and any incidental damages allowed under section 41-02.1-78, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

2. If the measure of damages provided in subsection 1 is inadequate to put a lessor in as good a position as performance would have, the measure of damages is the profit, including reasonable overhead, the lessor would have made from full performance by the lessee, together with any incidental damages allowed under section 41-02.1-78, due allowance for costs reasonably incurred and due credit for payments or proceeds of disposition.

41-02.1-77. (2A-529) Lessor's action for the rent.

1. After default by the lessee under the lease contract as described in subsection 1 of section 41-02.1-71 or subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 41-02.1-70 or, if agreed, after other default by the lessee, if the lessor complies with subsection 2, the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages:
  - a. For goods accepted by the lessee and not repossessed by or tendered to the lessor, and for conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of loss passes to the lessee (section 41-02.1-28), accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of entry of judgment in favor of the lessor the present value as of the same date of the rent for the then remaining lease term of the lease agreement, and any incidental damages allowed under section 41-02.1-78, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default; and
  - b. For goods identified to the lease contract if the lessor is unable after reasonable effort to dispose of them at a reasonable price or the circumstances reasonably indicate that effort will be unavailing, accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of entry of judgment in favor of the lessor the present value as of the same date of the rent for the then remaining lease term of the lease agreement, and any incidental damages allowed under section 41-02.1-78, and the lessor will cause an appropriate credit to be provided against any judgment for damages to the extent that the amount of the judgment exceeds the recovery available under section 41-02.1-75 or 41-02.1-76 less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.
2. Except as provided in subsection 3, the lessor shall hold for the lessee for the remaining lease term of the lease agreement any goods that have been identified to the lease contract and are in the lessor's control.
3. The lessor may dispose of the goods at any time before collection of the judgment for damages obtained under subsection 1. If the disposition is before the end of the remaining lease term of the lease agreement, the lessor's recovery against the lessee for damages will be governed by section 41-02.1-75 or 41-02.1-76.
4. Payment of the judgment for damages obtained under subsection 1 entitles the lessee to use and possession of the goods not then disposed of for the remaining lease term of and in accordance with the lease agreement.
5. After a lessee has wrongfully rejected or revoked acceptance of goods, has failed to pay rent then due, or has repudiated (section 41-02.1-42), a lessor who is held not entitled to rent under this section must nevertheless be awarded damages for nonacceptance under sections 41-02.1-75 and 41-02.1-76.

41-02.1-78. (2A-530) Lessor's incidental damages. Incidental damages to an aggrieved lessor include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses, or commissions incurred in stopping delivery, in the transportation, care, and custody of goods after the lessee's default, in connection with return or disposition of the goods, or otherwise resulting from the default.

41-02.1-79. (2A-531) Standing to sue third parties for injury to goods.

1. If a third party so deals with goods that have been identified to a lease contract as to cause actionable injury to a party to the lease contract, the lessor has a right of action against the third party, and the lessee also has a right of action against the third party if the lessee:
  - a. Has a security interest in the goods;
  - b. Has an insurable interest in the goods; or
  - c. Bears the risk of loss under the lease contract or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the lessor and the goods have been converted or destroyed.
2. If at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the lease contract and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, the plaintiff's suit or settlement, subject to the plaintiff's own interest, is as a fiduciary for the other party to the lease contract.
3. Either party with the consent of the other may sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

41-02.1-80. (2A-532) Lessor's rights to residual interest. In addition to any other recovery permitted by this chapter or other law, the lessor is entitled to recover from the lessee an amount that will fully compensate the lessor for any loss of or damage to the lessor's residual interest in the goods caused by the default of the lessee.

SECTION 10. Chapter 41-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

41-03-01. (3-101) Short title. This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code - Negotiable instruments.

41-03-02. (3-102) Subject matter.

1. This chapter applies to negotiable instruments. It does not apply to money, to payment orders governed by chapter 41-04.1, or to securities governed by chapter 41-08.

2. In the event of conflict between this chapter and chapter 41-04 or 41-09, chapters 41-04 and 41-09 prevail over this chapter.
3. Regulations of the board of governors of the federal reserve system and operating circulars of the federal reserve banks supersede any inconsistent provision of this chapter to the extent of the inconsistency.

41-03-03. (3-103) Definitions.

1. In this chapter:

- a. "Acceptor" means a drawee that has accepted a draft.
- b. "Drawee" means a person ordered in a draft to make payment.
- c. "Drawer" means a person that signs a draft as a person ordering payment.
- d. "Good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.
- e. "Maker" means a person that signs a note as promisor of payment.
- f. "Order" means a written instruction to pay money signed by the person giving the instruction. The instruction may be addressed to any person, including the person giving the instruction, or to one or more persons jointly or in the alternative but not in succession. An authorization to pay is not an order unless the person authorized to pay is also instructed to pay.
- g. "Ordinary care" in the case of a person engaged in business means observance of reasonable commercial standards prevailing in the area in which that person is located with respect to the business in which that person is engaged. In the case of a bank that takes an instrument for processing for collection or payment by automated means, reasonable commercial standards do not require the bank to examine the instrument if the failure to examine does not violate the bank's prescribed procedures and the bank's procedures do not vary unreasonably from general banking usage not disapproved by this chapter or chapter 41-04.
- h. "Party" means a party to an instrument.
- i. "Promise" means a written undertaking to pay money signed by the person undertaking to pay. An acknowledgment of an obligation by the obligor is not a promise unless the obligor also undertakes to pay the obligation.
- j. "Prove" with respect to a fact means to meet the burden of establishing the fact (subsection 8 of section 41-01-11).
- k. "Remitter" means a person that purchases an instrument from its issuer if the instrument is payable to an identified person other than the purchaser.

2. Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

4. In addition, chapter 41-01 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

41-03-04. (3-104) Negotiable instrument.

1. "Negotiable instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a fixed amount of money, with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order, if it:

- a. Is payable to bearer or to order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder;

- b. Is payable on demand or at a definite time; and
- c. Does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money, except that the promise or order may contain an undertaking or power to give, maintain, or protect collateral to secure payment, an authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize on or dispose of collateral, or a waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of any obligor.
2. "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument.
3. An order that meets all of the requirements of subsection 1 except subdivision a and otherwise falls within the definition of "check" in subsection 6 is a negotiable instrument and a check.
4. Notwithstanding subsection 1, a promise or order other than a check is not an instrument if, at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder, it contains a conspicuous statement, however expressed, to the effect that the promise or order is not negotiable or is not an instrument governed by this chapter.
5. An instrument is a "note" if it is a promise and is a "draft" if it is an order. If an instrument falls within the definition of both "note" and "draft", the person entitled to enforce the instrument may treat it as either.
6. "Check" means a draft, other than a documentary draft, payable on demand and drawn on a bank or a cashier's check or teller's check. An instrument may be a check even though it is described on its face by another term such as "money order".
7. "Cashier's check" means a draft with respect to which the drawer and drawee are the same bank or branches of the same bank.
8. "Teller's check" means a draft drawn by a bank on another bank or payable at or through a bank.
9. "Traveler's check" means an instrument that is payable on demand, is drawn on or payable at or through a bank, is designated by the term "traveler's check" or by a substantially similar term, and requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the instrument.
10. "Certificate of deposit" means an instrument containing an acknowledgment by a bank that a sum of money has been received by the bank and a promise by the bank to repay the sum of money. A certificate of deposit is a note of the bank.
- 41-03-05. (3-105) Issue of instrument.
1. "Issue" means the first delivery of an instrument by the maker or drawer, whether to a holder or nonholder, for the purpose of giving rights on the instrument to any person.

2. An unissued instrument or an unissued incomplete instrument (section 41-03-15) that is completed is binding on the maker or drawer, but nonissuance is a defense. An instrument that is conditionally issued or is issued for a special purpose is binding on the maker or drawer, but failure of the condition or special purpose to be fulfilled is a defense.
3. "Issuer" applies to issued and unissued instruments and means any person that signs an instrument as maker or drawer.

41-03-06. (3-106) Unconditional promise or order.

1. Except as provided in this section, for the purposes of subsection 1 of section 41-03-04, a promise or order is unconditional unless it states an express condition to payment or states that the promise or order is subject to or governed by another writing or that rights or obligations with respect to the promise or order are stated in another writing. A mere reference to another writing does not make the promise or order conditional.
2. A promise or order is not made conditional by a reference to another writing for a statement of rights with respect to collateral, prepayment, or accelerating or because payment is limited to resort to a particular fund or source.
3. If a promise or order requires as a condition to payment a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the promise or order, the condition does not make the promise or order conditional for the purposes of subsection 1 of section 41-03-04. If the person whose specimen signature appears on an instrument fails to countersign the instrument, the failure to countersign is a defense to the obligation of the issuer, but the failure does not prevent a transferee of the instrument from becoming a holder of the instrument.
4. If a promise or order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder contains a statement, required by applicable statutory or administrative law, to the effect that the rights of a holder or transferee are subject to claims or defenses that the issuer could assert against the original payee, the promise or order is not thereby made conditional for the purposes of subsection 1 of section 41-03-04, but if the promise or order is an instrument, there cannot be a holder in due course of the instrument.

41-03-07. (3-107) Instrument payable in foreign money. Unless the instrument otherwise provides, an instrument that states the amount payable in foreign money may be paid in the foreign money or in an equivalent amount in dollars calculated by using the current bank-offered spot rate at the place of payment for the purchase of dollars on the day on which the instrument is paid.

41-03-08. (3-108) Payable on demand or at a definite time.

1. A promise or order is "payable on demand" if it states that it is payable on demand or at sight, or otherwise indicates that it is payable at the will of the holder, or if it does not state any time of payment.

2. A promise or order is "payable at a definite time" if it is payable on elapse of a definite period of time after sight or acceptance or at a fixed date or dates or at a time or times readily ascertainable at the time the promise or order is issued, subject to rights of prepayment, acceleration, extension at the option of the holder, or extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.
3. If an instrument, payable at a fixed date, is also payable upon demand made before the fixed date, the instrument is payable on demand until the fixed date and, if demand for payment is not made before that date, becomes payable at a definite time on the fixed date.

41-03-09. (3-109) Payable to bearer or to order.

1. A promise or order is payable to bearer if it meets any of the following conditions:

- a. States that it is payable to bearer or to the order of bearer or otherwise indicates that the person in possession of the promise or order is entitled to payment.
  - b. Does not state a payee.
  - c. States that it is payable to or to the order of cash or otherwise indicates that it is not payable to an identified person.
2. A promise or order that is not payable to bearer is payable to order if it is payable to the order of an identified person or to an identified person or order. A promise or order that is payable to order is payable to the identified person.
  3. An instrument payable to bearer may become payable to an identified person if it is specially endorsed as stated in subsection 1 of section 41-03-24. An instrument payable to an identified person may become payable to bearer if it is endorsed in blank as stated in subsection 2 of section 41-03-24.

41-03-10. (3-110) Identification of person to whom instrument is payable.

1. The person to whom an instrument is initially payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as or in the name or behalf of the issuer of the instrument. The instrument is payable to the person intended by the signer even if that person is identified in the instrument by a name or other identification that is not that of the intended person. If more than one person signs in the name or behalf of the issuer of an instrument and all the signers do not intend the same person as payee, the instrument is payable to any person intended by one or more of the signers.

2. If the signature of the issuer of an instrument is made by automated means such as a checkwriting machine, the payee of the instrument is determined by the intent of the person who supplied the name or identification of the payee, whether or not authorized to do so.
3. A person to whom an instrument is payable may be identified in any way including by name, identifying number, office, or account number. For the purpose of determining the holder of an instrument, the following rules apply:
  - a. If an instrument is payable to an account and the account is identified only by number, the instrument is payable to the person to whom the account is payable. If an instrument is payable to an account identified by number and by the name of a person, the instrument is payable to the named person, whether or not that person is the owner of the account identified by number.
  - b. If an instrument is payable to:
    - (1) A trust, an estate, or a person described as trustee or representative of a trust or estate, the instrument is payable to the trustee, the representative, or a successor of either, whether or not the beneficiary or estate is also named.
    - (2) A person described as agent or similar representative of a named or identified person, the instrument is payable either to the represented person, the representative, or a successor of the representative.
    - (3) A fund or organization that is not a legal entity, the instrument is payable to a representative of the members of the fund or organization.
    - (4) An office or to a person described as holding an office, the instrument is payable to the named person, the incumbent of the office, or a successor to the incumbent.
4. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons alternatively, it is payable to any of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced by any or all of them in possession of the instrument. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons not alternatively, it is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced only by all of them. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.

41-03-11. (3-111) Place of payment. Except as otherwise provided for items in chapter 41-04, an instrument is payable at the place of payment stated in the instrument. If no place of payment is stated, an instrument is payable at the address of the drawee or maker stated in the instrument. If no address is stated, the place of payment is the place of business of the drawee or maker. If a drawee or maker has more than one place of business, the place of payment is any place of business of the drawee or maker chosen by the person entitled to enforce the instrument. If the drawee or maker has no place of business, the place of payment is the residence of the drawee or maker.

41-03-12. (3-112) Interest.

1. Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, an instrument is not payable with interest and interest on an interest-bearing instrument is payable from the date of the instrument.
2. Interest may be stated in an instrument as a fixed or variable amount of money or it may be expressed as a fixed or variable rate or rates. The amount or rate of interest may be stated or described in the instrument in any manner and may require reference to information not contained in the instrument. If an instrument provides for interest but the amount of interest payable cannot be ascertained from the description, interest is payable at the judgment rate in effect at the place of payment of the instrument and at the time interest first accrues.

41-03-13. (3-113) Date of instrument.

1. An instrument may be antedated or postdated. The date stated determines the time of payment if the instrument is payable at a fixed period after date. Except as provided in subsection 3 of section 41-04-28, an instrument payable on demand is not payable before the date of the instrument.
2. If an instrument is undated, its date is the date of its issue or, in the case of an unissued instrument, the date it first comes into possession of a holder.

41-03-14. (3-114) Contradictory terms of instrument. If an instrument contains contradictory terms, typewritten terms prevail over printed terms, handwritten terms prevail over both, and words prevail over numbers.

41-03-15. (3-115) Incomplete instrument.

1. "Incomplete instrument" means a signed writing, whether or not issued by the signer, the contents of which show at the time of signing that it is incomplete but that the signer intended it to be completed by the addition of words or numbers.
2. Subject to subsection 3, if an incomplete instrument is an instrument under section 41-03-04, it may be enforced according to its terms if it is not completed or according to its terms as augmented by completion. If an incomplete instrument is not an instrument under section 41-03-04 but, after completion, the requirements of section 41-03-04 are met, the instrument may be enforced according to its terms as augmented by completion.
3. If words or numbers are added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer, there is an alteration of the incomplete instrument governed by section 41-03-44.

4. The burden of establishing that words or numbers were added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer is on the person asserting the lack of authority.

41-03-16. (3-116) Joint and several liability - Contribution.

1. Except as otherwise provided in the instrument, two or more persons who have the same liability on an instrument as makers, drawers, acceptors, endorsers who are endorsing joint payees, or anomalous endorsers are jointly and severally liable in the capacity in which they sign.
2. Except as provided in subsection 5 of section 41-03-56 or by agreement of the affected parties, a party having joint and several liability that pays the instrument is entitled to receive from any party having the same joint and several liability contribution in accordance with applicable law.
3. Discharge of one party having joint and several liability by a person entitled to enforce the instrument does not affect the right under subsection 2 of a party having the same joint and several liability to receive contribution from the party discharged.

41-03-17. (3-117) Other agreements affecting an instrument. Subject to applicable law regarding exclusion of proof of contemporaneous or prior agreements, the obligation of a party to an instrument to pay the instrument may be modified, supplemented, or nullified by a separate agreement of the obligor and a person entitled to enforce the instrument if the instrument is issued or the obligation is incurred in reliance on the agreement or as a part of the same transaction giving rise to the agreement. To the extent an obligation is modified, supplemented, or nullified by an agreement under this section, the agreement is a defense to the obligation.

41-03-18. (3-118) Statute of limitations.

1. Except as provided in subsection 5, an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay a note payable at a definite time must be commenced within six years after the due date or dates stated in the note or, if a due date is accelerated, within six years after the accelerated due date.
2. Except as provided in subsection 4 or 5, if demand for payment is made to the maker of a note payable on demand, an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the note must be commenced within six years after the demand. If no demand for payment is made to the maker, an action to enforce the note is barred if neither principal nor interest on the note has been paid for continuous period of ten years.
3. Except as provided in subsection 4, an action to enforce the obligation of a party to an unaccepted draft to pay the draft must be commenced within three years after dishonor of the draft or ten years after the date of the draft, whichever period expires first.
4. An action to enforce the obligation of the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a teller's check, cashier's check, or traveler's check must be commenced within three years after demand for payment is made to the acceptor or issuer, as the case may be.

5. An action to enforce the obligation of a party to a certificate of deposit to pay the instrument must be commenced within six years after demand for payment is made to the maker, but if the instrument states a due date and the maker is not required to pay before that date, the six-year period begins when a demand for payment is in effect and the due date has passed.
6. This subsection applies to an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay an accepted draft, other than a certified check. If the obligation of the acceptor is payable at a definite time, the action must be commenced within six years after the due date or dates stated in the draft or acceptance. If the obligation of the acceptor is payable on demand, the action must be commenced within six years after the date of the acceptance.
7. Unless governed by other law regarding claims for indemnity or contribution, an action for conversion of an instrument, for money had and received, or like action based on conversion, for breach of warranty, or to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this chapter and not governed by this section must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

41-03-19. (3-119) Notice of right to defend action. In an action for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over under to this chapter or chapter 41-04, the defendant may give the third person written notice of the litigation, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over. If the notice states that the person notified may come in and defend and that failure to do so will bind the person notified in an action later brought by the person giving the notice as to the determination of fact common to the two litigations, the person notified is so bound unless after reasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend.

41-03-20. (3-201) Negotiation.

1. "Negotiation" means a transfer of possession, whether voluntary or involuntary, of an instrument to a person who thereby becomes its holder, if possession is obtained from a person other than the issuer of the instrument.
2. Except for negotiation by a remitter, if an instrument is payable to an identified person, negotiation requires transfer of possession of the instrument and its endorsement by the holder. If an instrument is payable to bearer, it may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone.

41-03-21. (3-202) Negotiation subject to rescission.

1. Negotiation is effective even if obtained from an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or a person without capacity, by fraud, duress, or mistake, or in breach of duty or as part of an illegal transaction.

2. To the extent permitted by other law, negotiation may be rescinded or may be subject to other remedies, but those remedies may not be asserted against a subsequent holder in due course or a person paying the instrument in good faith and without knowledge of facts that are a basis for rescission or other remedy.

41-03-22. (3-203) Rights acquired by transfer.

1. An instrument is transferred when it is delivered by a person other than its issuer for the purpose of giving to the person receiving delivery the right to enforce the instrument.

2. Transfer of an instrument, regardless of whether the transfer is a negotiation, vests in the transferee any right of the transferor to enforce the instrument, including any right as a holder in due course, but the transferee cannot acquire rights of a holder in due course by a transfer, directly or indirectly, from a holder in due course if the transferee engaged in fraud or illegality affecting the instrument.

3. Unless otherwise agreed, if an instrument is transferred for value and the transferee does not become a holder because of lack of endorsement by the transferor, the transferee has a specifically enforceable right to the unqualified endorsement of the transferor, but negotiation of the instrument does not occur until the endorsement is made.

4. If a transferor purports to transfer less than the entire instrument, negotiation of the instrument does not occur. The transferee obtains no rights under this chapter and has only the rights of a partial assignee.

41-03-23. (3-204) Endorsement.

1. "Endorsement" means a signature, other than that of a signer as maker, drawer, or acceptor, that alone or accompanied by other words is made on an instrument for the purpose of negotiating the instrument, restricting payment of the instrument, or incurring endorser's liability on the instrument regardless of the intent of the signer, a signature and its accompanying words is an endorsement unless the accompanying words, the terms of the instrument, the place of the signature, or other circumstances unambiguously indicate that the signature was made for a purpose other than endorsement. For the purpose of determining whether a signature is made on an instrument, a paper affixed to the instrument is a part of the instrument.

2. "Endorser" means a person who makes an endorsement.

3. For the purpose of determining whether the transferee of an instrument is a holder, an endorsement that transfers a security interest in the instrument is effective as an unqualified endorsement of the instrument.

4. If an instrument is payable to a holder under a name that is not the name of the holder, endorsement may be made by the holder in the name stated in the instrument or in the holder's name or both, but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or taking the instrument for value or collection.

41-03-24. (3-205) Special endorsement - Blank endorsement - Anomalous endorsement.

1. If an endorsement is made by the holder of an instrument, whether payable to an identified person or payable to bearer, and the endorsement identifies a person to whom it makes the instrument payable, it is a "special endorsement". When specially endorsed, an instrument becomes payable to the identified person and may be negotiated only by the endorsement of that person. The principles stated in section 41-03-10 apply to special endorsements.
2. If an endorsement is made by the holder of an instrument and it is not a special endorsement, it is a "blank endorsement". When endorsed in blank, an instrument becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone until specially endorsed.
3. The holder may convert a blank endorsement that consists only of a signature into a special endorsement by writing, above the signature of the endorser, words identifying the person to whom the instrument is made payable.
4. "Anomalous endorsement" means an endorsement made by a person that is not the holder of the instrument. An anomalous endorsement does not affect the manner in which the instrument may be negotiated.

41-03-25. (3-206) Restrictive endorsement.

1. An endorsement limiting payment to a particular person or otherwise prohibiting further transfer or negotiation of the instrument is not effective to prevent further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.
2. An endorsement stating a condition to the right of the endorsee to receive payment does not affect the right of the endorsee to enforce the instrument. A person paying the instrument or taking it for value or collection may disregard the condition, and the rights and liabilities of that person are not affected by whether the condition has been fulfilled.
3. The following rules apply to an instrument bearing an endorsement described in subsection 2 of section 41-04-13, or in blank or to a particular bank using the words "for deposit", "for collection", or other words indicating a purpose of having the instrument collected by a bank for the endorser or for a particular account:
  - a. A person, other than a bank, that purchases the instrument when so endorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid for the instrument is received by the endorser or applied consistently with the endorsement.
  - b. A depository bank that purchases the instrument or takes it for collection when so endorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid by the bank with respect to the instrument is - received by the endorser or applied consistently with the endorsement.

- c. A payor bank that is also the depository bank or that takes the instrument for immediate payment over the counter from a person other than a collecting bank converts the instrument unless the proceeds of the instrument are received by the endorser or applied consistently with the endorsement.
  - d. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision c, a payor bank or intermediary bank may disregard the endorsement and is not liable if the proceeds of the instrument are not received by the endorser or applied consistently with the endorsement.
4. Except for an endorsement covered by subsection 3, the following rules apply to an instrument bearing an endorsement using words to the effect that payment is to be made to the endorsee as agent, trustee, or other fiduciary for the benefit of the endorser or another person:
    - a. Unless there is notice of breach of fiduciary duty as provided in section 41-03-33, a person that purchases the instrument from the endorsee or takes the instrument from the endorsee for collection or payment may pay the proceeds of payment or the value given for the instrument to the endorsee without regard to whether the endorsee violates a fiduciary duty to the endorser.
    - b. A later transferee of the instrument or person that pays the instrument is neither given notice of nor otherwise affected by the restriction in the endorsement unless the transferee or payor knows that the fiduciary dealt with the instrument or its proceeds in breach of fiduciary duty.
  5. The presence on an instrument of an endorsement to which this section applies does not prevent a purchaser of the instrument from becoming a holder in due course of the instrument unless the purchaser is a converter under subsection 3 or has notice or knowledge of breach of fiduciary duty as stated in subsection 4.
  6. If an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor has a defense if payment would violate an endorsement to which this section applies and the payment is not permitted by this section.

41-03-26. (3-207) Reacquisition. Reacquisition of an instrument occurs if it is transferred, by negotiation or otherwise, to a former holder. A former holder that reacquires the instrument may cancel endorsements made after the the reacquirer first became a holder of the instrument. If the cancellation causes the instrument to be payable to the reacquirer or to bearer, the reacquirer may negotiate the instrument. An endorser whose endorsement is canceled is discharged, and the discharge is effective against any later holder.

41-03-27. (3-301) Person entitled to enforce instrument. "Person entitled to enforce" an instrument means the holder of the instrument, a nonholder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or a person not in possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument under section 41-03-35 or subsection 4 of section 41-03-55. A person may be a person entitled to enforce the instrument even though the person is not the owner of the instrument or is in wrongful possession of the instrument.

41-03-28. (3-302) Holder in due course.

1. Subject to subsection 3 and to subsection 4 of section 41-03-06, "holder in due course" means the holder of an instrument if:
  - a. The instrument when issued or negotiated to the holder does not bear such apparent evidence of forgery or alteration or is not otherwise so irregular or incomplete as to call into question its authenticity.
  - b. The holder took the instrument for value, in good faith, without notice that the instrument is overdue or has been dishonored or that there is an uncured default with respect to payment of another instrument issued as part of the same series, without notice that the instrument contains an unauthorized signature or has been altered, without notice of any claim to the instrument stated in section 41-03-32, and without notice that any party has a defense or claim in recoupment stated in subsection 1 of section 41-03-31.
2. Notice of discharge of a party, other than discharge in an insolvency proceeding, is not notice of a defense under subsection 1, but discharge is effective against a person who became a holder in due course with notice of the discharge. Public filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice of a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument.
3. Except to the extent a transferor or predecessor in interest has rights as a holder in due course, a person does not acquire rights of a holder in due course of an instrument taken by legal process or by purchase at an execution, bankruptcy, or creditor's sale or similar proceeding; by purchase as part of a bulk transaction not in ordinary course of business of the transferor; or as the successor in interest to an estate or other organization.
4. If, under subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 41-03-29, the promise of performance that is the consideration for an instrument has been partially performed, the holder may assert rights as a holder in due course of the instrument only to the fraction of the amount payable under the instrument equal to the value of the partial performance divided by the value of the promised performance.
5. If the person entitled to enforce an instrument has only a security interest in the instrument and the person obliged to pay the instrument has a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument that may be asserted against the person who granted the security interest, the person entitled to enforce the instrument may assert rights as a holder in due course only to an amount payable under the instrument which, at the time of enforcement of the instrument, does not exceed the amount of the unpaid obligation secured.

6. To be effective, notice must be received at a time and in a manner that gives a reasonable opportunity to act on it.
7. This section is subject to any law limiting status as a holder in due course in particular classes of transactions.

41-03-29. (3-303) Value and consideration.

1. An instrument is issued or transferred for value if any of the following exist:
  - a. The instrument is issued or transferred for a promise of performance, to the extent the promise has been performed.
  - b. The transferee acquires a security interest or other lien in the instrument other than a lien obtained by judicial proceeding.
  - c. The instrument is issued or transferred as payment of, or as security for, an antecedent claim against any person, whether or not the claim is due.
  - d. The instrument is issued or transferred in exchange for a negotiable instrument.
  - e. The instrument is issued or transferred in exchange for the incurring of an irrevocable obligation to a third party by the person taking the instrument.
2. "Consideration" means any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. The drawer or maker of an instrument has a defense if the instrument is issued without consideration. If an instrument is issued for a promise of performance, the issuer has a defense to the extent performance of the promise is due and the promise has not been performed. If an instrument is issued for value as stated in subsection 1, the instrument is also issued for consideration.

41-03-30. (3-304) Overdue instrument.

1. An instrument payable on demand becomes overdue at the earliest of the following times:
  - a. On the day after the day demand for payment is duly made.
  - b. If the instrument is a check, ninety days after its date.
  - c. If the instrument is not a check, when the instrument has been outstanding for a period of time after its date which is unreasonably long under the circumstances of the particular case in light of the nature of the instrument and trade usage.
2. With respect to an instrument payable at a definite time the following rules apply:

- a. If the principal is payable in installments and a due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue upon default under the instrument for nonpayment of an installment, and the instrument remains overdue until the default is cured.
  - b. If the principal is not payable in installments and the due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the due date.
  - c. If a due date with respect to principal has been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the accelerated due date.
3. Unless the due date of principal has been accelerated, an instrument does not become overdue if there is default in payment of interest but no default in payment of principal.

41-03-31. (3-305) Defenses and claims in recoupment.

1. Except as stated in subsection 2, the right to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument is subject to the following:
  - a. A defense of the obligor based on infancy of the obligor to the extent it is a defense to a simple contract, duress, lack of legal capacity, or illegality of the transaction that nullifies the obligation of the obligor; fraud that induced the obligor to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to learn of its character or its essential terms; and discharge of the obligor in insolvency proceedings.
  - b. A defense of the obligor stated in another section of this chapter or a defense of the obligor that would be available if the person entitled to enforce the instrument were enforcing a right to payment under a simple contract.
  - c. A claim in recoupment of the obligor against the original payee of the instrument if the claim arose from the transaction that gave rise to the instrument. The claim of the obligor may be asserted against a transferee of the instrument only to reduce the amount owing on the instrument at the time the action is brought.
2. The right of a holder in due course to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument is subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subdivision a of subsection 1, but is not subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subdivision b of subsection 1 or claims in recoupment stated in subdivision c of subsection 1 against a person other than the holder.
3. Except as stated in subsection 4, in an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor may not assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument (section 41-03-32) of another person, but the other person's claim to the instrument may be asserted by the obligor if the other person is joined in the action and personally asserts the claim against the person entitled to enforce the instrument. An obligor is not obliged to pay the instrument if the person seeking enforcement of the instrument does not have rights of a holder in due course and the obligor proves that the instrument is a lost or stolen instrument.

4. In an action to enforce the obligation of an accommodation party to pay an instrument, the accommodation party may assert the person entitled to enforce the instrument any defense of claim in recoupment under subsection 1 that the accommodated party could assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument, except the defenses of discharge in insolvency proceedings, infancy, or lack of legal capacity.

41-03-32. (3-306) Claims to an instrument. A person taking an instrument, other than a person having rights of a holder in due course, is subject to a claim of a property or possessory right in the instrument or its proceeds, including a claim to rescind a negotiation and to recover the instrument or its proceeds. A person having rights of a holder in due course takes free of the claim to the instrument.

41-03-33. (3-307) Notice of breach of fiduciary duty.

1. In this section:

- a. "Fiduciary" means an agent, trustee partner, corporate officer or director, or other representative owing a fiduciary duty with respect to an instrument.
- b. In the case of an instrument payable to the represented person or the fiduciary, as such, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary, taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such or an account of the represented person.
- c. If an instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary, as such, and made payable to the fiduciary personally, the taker does not have notice of the breach of fiduciary duty unless the taker knows of the breach of fiduciary duty.
- d. If the instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary, as such, to the taker as payee, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary, taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

41-03-34. (3-308) Proof of signatures and status as holder in due course.

1. In an action with respect to an instrument, the authenticity of and authority to make each signature on the instrument is admitted unless specifically denied in the pleadings. If the validity of a signature is denied in the pleadings, the burden of establishing validity is on the person claiming validity, but the signature is presumed to be authentic and authorized unless the action is to enforce the liability of the purported signer and the signer is dead or incompetent at the time of trial of the issue of validity of the signature. If an action to enforce the instrument is brought against a person as the undisclosed principal of a person who signed the instrument as a party to the instrument, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the defendant is liable on the instrument as a represented person pursuant to subsection 1 of section 41-03-39.
2. If the validity of signatures is admitted or proved and there is compliance with subsection 1, a plaintiff producing the instrument is entitled to payment if the plaintiff proves entitlement to enforce the instrument under section 41-03-27, unless the defendant proves a defense or claim in recoupment. If a defense or claim in recoupment is proved, the right to payment of the plaintiff is subject to the defense or claim except to the extent the plaintiff proves that the plaintiff has rights of a holder in due course which are not subject to the defense or claim.

41-03-35. (3-309) Enforcement of lost, destroyed, or stolen instrument.

1. A person not in possession of an instrument is entitled to enforce the instrument if that person was in rightful possession of the instrument and entitled to enforce it when loss of possession occurred; the loss of possession was not the result of a transfer by that person or a lawful seizure; and that person cannot reasonably obtain possession of the instrument because the instrument was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.
2. A person seeking enforcement of an instrument pursuant to subsection 1 must prove the terms of the instrument and the person's right to enforce the instrument. If that proof is made, section 41-03-34 applies to the case as though the person seeking enforcement had produced the instrument. The court may not enter judgment in favor of the person seeking enforcement unless it finds that the person required to pay the instrument is adequately protected against loss that might occur by reason of a claim by another person to enforce the instrument. Adequate protection may be provided by any reasonable means.

41-03-36. (3-310) Effect of instrument on obligation for which taken.

1. Unless otherwise agreed, if a certified check, cashier's check, or teller's check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is discharged to the same extent discharge would result if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken in payment of the obligation. Discharge of the obligation does not affect any liability that the obligor may have as an endorser of the instrument.

2. Unless otherwise agreed and except as provided in subsection 1, if a note or an uncertified check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is suspended to the same extent the obligation would be discharged if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken.
  - a. In the case of an uncertified check, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the check or until it is paid or certified. Payment or certification of the check results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the amount of the check.
  - b. In the case of a note, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the note or until it is paid. Payment of the note results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the payment.
  - c. Except as provided in subdivision d, if the check or note is dishonored and the obligee of the obligation for which the instrument was taken is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligee may enforce either the instrument or the obligation. In the case of an instrument of a third person which is negotiated to the obligee by the obligor, discharge of the obligor on the instrument also discharges the obligation.
  - d. If the person entitled to enforce the instrument taken for an obligation is a person other than the obligee, the obligee may not enforce the obligation to the extent the obligation is suspended. If the obligee is the person entitled to enforce the instrument but no longer has possession of it because it was lost, stolen, or destroyed, the obligation may not be enforced to the extent of the amount payable on the instrument, and to that extent the obligee's rights against the obligor are limited to enforcement of the instrument.
3. If an instrument other than one described in subsection 1 or 2 is taken for an obligation, the effect is that stated in subsection 1 if the instrument is one on which a bank is liable as maker or acceptor or that stated in subsection 2 in any other case.

41-03-37. (3-311) Accord and satisfaction by use of instrument.

1. This section applies if a person against whom a claim is asserted proves that that person in good faith tendered an instrument to the claimant as full satisfaction of the claim, the amount of the claim was unliquidated or subject to a bona fide dispute, and the claimant obtained payment of the instrument.
2. Unless subsection 3 applies, the claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that the instrument or an accompanying written communication contained a conspicuous statement to the effect that the instrument was tendered as full satisfaction of the claim.

3. Subject to subsection 4, a claim is not discharged under subsection 2 if either of the following applies:
- a. The claimant, if an organization, proves that within a reasonable time before the tender, the claimant sent a conspicuous statement to the person against whom the claim is asserted that communications concerning disputed debts, including an instrument tendered as full satisfaction of a debt, are to be sent to a designated person, office, or place, and the instrument or accompanying communication was not received by that designated person, office, or place.
  - b. The claimant, whether or not an organization, proves that within ninety days after payment of the instrument, the claimant tendered repayment of the amount of the instrument to the person against whom the claim is asserted. This subdivision does not apply if the claimant is an organization that sent a statement under subdivision a.
4. A claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that within a reasonable time before collection of the instrument was initiated, the claimant or an agent of the claimant having direct responsibility with respect to the disputed obligation knew that the instrument was tendered in full satisfaction of the claim.

41-03-38. (3-401) Signature.

1. A person is not liable on an instrument unless the person signed the instrument or the person is represented by an agent or representative who signed the instrument and the signature is binding on the represented person under section 41-03-39.
2. A signature may be made manually or by means of a device or machine and by the use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, or by any word, mark, or symbol executed or adopted by a person with present intention to authenticate a writing.

41-03-39. (3-402) Signature by representative.

1. If a person acting, or purporting to act, as a representative signs an instrument by signing either the name of the represented person or the name of the signer, the represented person is bound by the signature to the same extent the represented person would be bound if the signature were of a simple contract. If the represented person is bound, the signature of the representative is the "authorized signature of the represented person" and the represented person is liable on the instrument, whether or not identified in the instrument.
2. If a representative signs the name of the representative to an instrument and that signature is an authorized signature of the represented person, the following rules apply:
  - a. If the form of the signature shows unambiguously that the signature is made on behalf of the represented person who is identified in the instrument, the representative is not liable on the instrument.

b. Subject to subsection 3, if the form of the signature does not show unambiguously that the signature is made in a representative capacity or if the represented person is not identified in the instrument, the representative is liable on the instrument to a holder in due course that took the instrument without notice that the representative was not intended to be liable on the instrument. With respect to any other person, the representative is liable on the instrument unless the representative proves that the original parties did not intend the representative to be liable on the instrument.

3. If a representative signs the name of the representative as drawer of a check without indication of the representative status and the check is payable from an account of the represented person who is identified on the check, the signer is not liable on the check if the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person.

41-03-40. (3-403) Unauthorized signature.

1. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter or chapter 41-04, an unauthorized signature is ineffective except as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of a person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value. An unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this chapter.

2. If the signature of more than one person is required to constitute the authorized signature of an organization, the signature of the organization is unauthorized if one of the required signatures is missing.

3. The civil or criminal liability of a person who makes an unauthorized signature is not affected by any provision of this chapter that makes the unauthorized signature effective for the purposes of this chapter.

41-03-41. (3-404) Impostors - Fictitious payees.

1. If an impostor, by use of the mails or otherwise, induces the issuer of an instrument to issue the instrument to the impostor or to a person acting in concert with the impostor, by impersonating the payee of the instrument or a person authorized to act for the payee, an endorsement of the instrument by any person in the name of the payee is effective as the endorsement of the payee in favor of any person that in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

2. If a person whose intent determines to whom an instrument is payable under subsection 1 or 2 of section 41-03-10 does not intend the person identified as payee to have any interest in the instrument or if the person identified as payee of an instrument is a fictitious person, the following rules apply until the instrument is negotiated by special endorsement:

a. Any person in possession of the instrument is its holder.

- b. An endorsement by any person in the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the endorsement of the payee in favor of any person that in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.
3. Under subsection 1 or 2, an endorsement is made in the name of a payee if it is made in a name substantially similar to that of the payee or if the instrument, whether or not endorsed, or deposited in a depository bank to an account in a name substantially similar to that of the payee.
4. With respect to an instrument to which subsection 1 or 2 applies, if a person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss resulting from payment of the instrument, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

41-03-42. (3-405) Employer responsibility for fraudulent endorsement by employee.

1. This section applies to fraudulent endorsements of instruments with respect to which an employer has entrusted an employee with responsibility as part of the employee's duties. The following definitions apply to this section:
  - a. "Employee" includes, in addition to an employee of an employer, an independent contractor and employee of an independent contractor retained by the employer.
  - b. "Fraudulent endorsement" means, in the case of an instrument payable to the employer, a forged endorsement purporting to be that of the employer or, in the case of an instrument with respect to which the employer is the issuer, a forged endorsement purporting to be that of the person identified as payee.
  - c. "Responsibility" with respect to instruments means authority to sign or endorse instruments on behalf of the employer; to process instruments received by the employer for bookkeeping purposes, for deposit to an account, or for other disposition; to prepare or process instruments for issue in the name of the employer; to supply information determining the names or addresses of payees of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer; to control the disposition of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer; or to otherwise act with respect to instruments in a responsible capacity. "Responsibility" does not include authority that merely allows an employee to have access to instruments or blank or incomplete instrument forms that are being stored or transported or are part of incoming or outgoing mail, or similar access.
2. For the purpose of determining the rights and liabilities of a person who, in good faith, pays an instrument or takes it for value or for collection, if an employee entrusted with responsibility with respect to the instrument or a person acting in concert with the employee makes a fraudulent endorsement to the instrument, the endorsement is effective as the endorsement of the person to whom the instrument is payable if it is made in the name of that person. If the person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss resulting from the fraud, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

3. Under subsection 2, an endorsement is made in the name of the person to whom an instrument is payable if it is made in a name substantially similar to the name of that person or if the instrument, whether or not endorsed, is deposited in a name substantially similar to the name of that person.

41-03-43. (3-406) Negligence contributing to forged signature or alteration of instrument.

1. A person whose failure to exercise ordinary care substantially contributes to an alteration of an instrument or to the making of a forged signature on an instrument is precluded from asserting the alteration or the forgery against a person that, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.
2. If the person asserting the preclusion fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss, the loss is allocated between the person precluded and the person asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of each to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.
3. Under subsection 1, the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person asserting the preclusion. Under subsection 2, the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person precluded.

41-03-44. (3-407) Alteration.

1. "Alteration" means an unauthorized change in an instrument that purports to modify in any respect the obligation of a party to the instrument or an unauthorized addition of words or numbers or other change to an incomplete instrument relating to the obligation of any party to the instrument.
2. Except as provided in subsection 3, an alteration fraudulently made discharges any party whose obligation is affected by the alteration unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the alteration. No other alteration discharges any party, and the instrument may be enforced according to its original terms.
3. A payor bank or drawee paying a fraudulently altered instrument or a person taking it for value, in good faith and without notice of the alteration, may enforce rights with respect to the instrument according to its original terms or in the case of an incomplete instrument altered by unauthorized completion, according to its terms as completed.

41-03-45. (3-408) Drawee not liable on unaccepted draft. A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until the drawee accepts it.

41-03-46. (3-409) Acceptance of draft - Certified check.

1. "Acceptance" means the drawee's signed agreement to pay a draft as presented. It must be written on the draft and may consist of the drawee's signature alone. Acceptance may be made at any time and becomes effective when notification pursuant to instructions is given or the accepted draft is delivered for the purpose of giving rights on the acceptance to any person.
2. A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer, is otherwise incomplete, is overdue, or has been dishonored.
3. If a draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date the acceptance, the holder may complete the acceptance by supplying a date in good faith.
4. "Certified check" means a check accepted by the bank on which it is drawn. Acceptance may be made as stated in subsection 1 or by a writing on the check which indicates that the check is certified. The drawee of a check has no obligation to certify the check, and refusal to certify is not dishonor of the check.

41-03-47. (3-410) Acceptance varying draft.

1. If the terms of a drawee's acceptance vary from the terms of the draft as presented, the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored. In that case, the drawee may cancel the acceptance.
2. The terms of a draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at a particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at that bank or place.
3. If the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of a draft, the obligation of each drawer and endorser that does not expressly assent to the acceptance is discharged.

41-03-48. (3-411) Refusal to pay cashier's checks, teller's checks, and certified checks.

1. In this section, "obligated bank" means the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a cashier's check or teller's check bought from the issuer.
2. If the obligated bank wrongfully refuses to pay a cashier's check or certified check, stops payment of a teller's check, or refuses to pay a dishonored teller's check, the person asserting the right to enforce the check is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the nonpayment and may recover consequential damages if the obligated bank refuses to pay after receiving notice of particular circumstances giving rise to the damages.

3. Expenses or consequential damages under subsection 2 are not recoverable if the refusal of the obligated bank to pay occurs because the bank suspends payments; the obligated bank is asserting a claim or defense of the bank that it has reasonable grounds to believe is available against the person entitled to enforce the instrument; the obligated bank has a reasonable doubt whether the person demanding payment is the person entitled to enforce the instrument; or payment is prohibited by law.

41-03-49. (3-412) Obligation of issuer of note or cashier's check. The issuer of a note or cashier's check or other draft drawn on the drawer is obliged to pay the instrument according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or, if the issuer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed as stated in sections 41-03-15 and 41-03-42. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to an endorser that paid the instrument under section 41-03-52.

41-03-50. (3-413) Obligation of acceptor.

1. The acceptor of a draft is obliged to pay the draft according to its terms at the time it was accepted, even though the acceptance states that the draft is payable "as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; if the acceptance varies the terms of the draft, according to the terms of the draft as varied; or if the acceptance is of a draft that is an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed as stated in sections 41-03-15 and 41-03-44. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to the drawer or an endorser that paid the draft under section 41-03-51 or 41-03-52.
2. If the certification of a check or other acceptance of a draft states the amount certified or accepted, the obligation of the acceptor is that amount. If the certification or acceptance does not state an amount, the amount of the instrument is subsequently raised, and the instrument is then negotiated to a holder in due course, the obligation of the acceptor is the amount of the instrument at the time it was taken by the holder in due course.

41-03-51. (3-414) Obligation of drawer.

1. This section does not apply to cashier's checks or other drafts drawn on the drawer.
2. If an unaccepted draft is dishonored, the drawer is obliged to pay the draft according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or if the drawer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed as stated in sections 41-03-15 and 41-03-44. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to an endorser that paid the draft pursuant to section 41-03-52.

3. If a draft is accepted by a bank, the drawer is discharged, regardless of when or by whom acceptance was obtained.
4. If a draft is accepted and the acceptor is not a bank, the obligation of the drawer to pay the draft if the draft is dishonored by the acceptor is the same as the obligation of an endorser stated in subsections 1 and 3 of section 41-03-52.
5. If a draft states that it is drawn "without recourse" or otherwise disclaims liability of the drawer to pay the draft, the drawer is not liable under subsection 2 to pay the draft if the draft is not a check. No disclaimer of the liability stated in subsection 2 is effective if the draft is a check.
6. If a check is not presented for payment or given to a depository bank for collection within thirty days after its date, the drawee suspends payments after expiration of the thirty-day period without paying the check, and because of the suspension of payments the drawer is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee to cover payment of the check, the drawer to the extent deprived of funds may discharge its obligation to pay the check by assigning to the person entitled to enforce the check the rights of the drawer against the drawee with respect to the funds.

41-03-52. (3-415) Obligation of endorser.

1. Subject to subsections 2, 3, and 4 and to subsection 4 of section 41-03-56, if an instrument is dishonored, an endorser is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument according to the terms of the instrument at the time it was endorsed or, if the endorser endorsed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed as stated in sections 41-03-15 and 41-03-44. The obligation of the endorser is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to a subsequent endorser that paid the instrument pursuant to this section.
2. If an endorsement states that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaims liability of the endorser, the endorser is not liable under subsection 1 to pay the instrument.
3. If notice of dishonor of an instrument is required by section 41-03-60 and notice of dishonor complying with that section is not given to an endorser, the liability of the endorser under subsection 1 is discharged.
4. If a draft is accepted by a bank after an endorsement is made, the liability of the endorser under subsection 1 is discharged.
5. If an endorser of a check is liable under subsection 1 and the check is not presented for payment or given to a depository bank for collection within thirty days after the day the endorsement was made, the liability of the endorser under subsection 1 is discharged.

41-03-53. (3-416) Transfer warranties.

1. A person that transfers an instrument for consideration warrants to the transferee and, if the transfer is by endorsement, to any subsequent transferee that:
  - a. The warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the instrument.
  - b. All signatures on the instrument are authentic and authorized.
  - c. The instrument has not been altered.
  - d. The instrument is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment (subsection 1 of section 41-03-31) of any party which can be asserted against the warrantor.
  - e. The warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer.
2. A person to whom the warranties under subsection 1 are made and who took the instrument in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the instrument plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.
3. The warranties stated in subsection 1 may not be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection 2 is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.
4. A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

41-03-54. (3-417) Presentment warranties.

1. If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee making payment or accepting the draft in good faith that:
  - a. The warrantor is or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft.
  - b. The draft has not been altered.
  - c. The warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft is unauthorized.
2. A drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor. If the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in the first two sentences of this subsection.

3. If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection 1 based on an unauthorized endorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the endorsement is effective under section 41-03-41 or 41-03-42 or the drawer is precluded under section 41-03-43 or 41-04-37 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized endorsement or alteration.
4. If a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an endorser or any other instrument is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the instrument, and payment is received, the following rules apply:
  - a. The person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the instrument warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the instrument, a person entitled to enforce the instrument or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the instrument.
  - b. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.
5. The warranties stated in subsections 1 and 4 cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection 2 or 4 is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.
6. A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

41-03-55. (3-418) Payment or acceptance by mistake.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, if the drawee of a draft pays or accepts the draft and the drawee acted on the mistaken belief that payment of the draft had not been stopped under section 41-04-34 or that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft was authorized, the drawee may recover the amount of the draft from the person to whom or for whose benefit payment was made or, in the case of acceptance, may revoke the acceptance. Rights of the drawee under this subsection are not affected by failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in paying or accepting the draft.

2. Except as provided in subsection 3, if an instrument has been paid or accepted by mistake and the case is not covered by subsection 1, the person paying or accepting may, to the extent permitted by the law governing mistake and restitution, recover the payment from the person to whom or for whose benefit payment was made or, in the case of acceptance, may revoke the acceptance.
3. The remedies provided by subsection 1 or 2 may not be asserted against a person who took the instrument in good faith and for value or who in good faith changed position in reliance on the payment or acceptance. This subsection does not limit remedies provided by section 41-03-54 or 41-04-38.
4. Notwithstanding section 41-04-27, if an instrument is paid or accepted by mistake and the payor or acceptor recovers payment or revokes acceptance under subsection 1 or 2, the instrument is deemed not to have been paid or accepted and is treated as dishonored, and the person from whom payment is recovered has rights as a person entitled to enforce the dishonored instrument.

41-03-56. (3-419) Instruments signed for accommodation.

1. If an instrument is issued for value given for the benefit of a party to the instrument ("accommodated party") and another party to the instrument ("accommodation party") signs the instrument for the purpose of incurring liability on the instrument without being a direct beneficiary of the value given for the instrument, the instrument is signed by the accommodation party "for accommodation".
2. An accommodation party may sign the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or endorser and, subject to subsection 4, is obliged to pay the instrument in the capacity in which the accommodation party signs. The obligation of an accommodation party may be enforced withstanding any statute of frauds and regardless of whether the accommodation party receives consideration for the accommodation.
3. A person signing an instrument is presumed to be an accommodation party and there is notice that the instrument is signed for accommodation if the signature is an anomalous endorsement or is accompanied by words indicating that the signer is acting as surety or guarantor with respect to the obligation of another party to the instrument. Except as provided in section 41-03-67, the obligation of an accommodation party to pay the instrument is not affected by the fact that the person enforcing the obligation had notice when the instrument was taken by that person that the accommodation party signed the instrument for accommodation.
4. If the signature of a party to an instrument is accompanied by words indicating unambiguously that the party is guaranteeing collection rather than payment of the obligation of another party to the instrument, the signer is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument to a person entitled to enforce the instrument only if execution of judgment against the other party has been returned unsatisfied, the other party is insolvent or in an insolvency proceeding, the other party cannot be served with process, or it is otherwise apparent that payment cannot be obtained from the party whose obligation is guaranteed.

5. An accommodation party that pays the instrument is entitled to reimbursement from the accommodated party and is entitled to enforce the instrument against the accommodated party. An accommodated party that pays the instrument has no right of recourse against, and is not entitled to contribution from, an accommodation party.

41-03-57. (3-420) Conversion of instrument.

1. The law applicable to conversion of personal property applies to instruments. An instrument is also converted if it is purchased from a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or a bank makes or obtains payment with respect to the instrument for a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or receive payment. An action for conversion of an instrument may not be brought by the issuer or acceptor of the instrument or by a payee or endorsee who did not receive delivery of the instrument either directly or through delivery to an agent or a copayee.
2. In an action under subsection 1, the measure of liability is presumed to be the amount payable on the instrument, but recovery may not exceed the amount of the plaintiff's interest in the instrument.
3. A representative, other than a depository bank, that has in good faith dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the person entitled to enforce the instrument is not liable in conversion to that person beyond the amount of any proceeds that it has not paid out.

41-03-58. (3-501) Presentment.

1. "Presentment" means a demand made by or on behalf of a person entitled to enforce an instrument to pay the instrument made to the drawee or a party obliged to pay the instrument or, in the case of a note or accepted draft payable at a bank, to the bank, or to accept a draft made to the drawee.
2. The following rules are subject to chapter 41-04, agreement of the parties, and clearinghouse rules and the like:
  - a. Presentment may be made at the place of payment of the instrument and must be made at the place of payment if the instrument is payable at a bank in the United States; may be made by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; is effective when the demand for payment or acceptance is received by the person to whom presentment is made; is effective if made to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees, or other payors.
  - b. Upon demand of the person to whom presentment is made, the person making presentment must exhibit the instrument; give - reasonable identification and, if presentment is made on behalf of another person, reasonable evidence of authority to do so; and sign a receipt on the instrument for any payment made or surrender the instrument if full payment is made.

- c. Without dishonoring the instrument, the party to whom presentment is made may return the instrument for lack of a necessary endorsement or refuse payment or acceptance for failure of the presentment to comply with the terms of the instrument, an agreement of the parties, or other law or applicable rule.
  - d. The party to whom presentment is made may treat presentment as occurring on the next business day after the day of presentment if the party to whom presentment is made has established a cutoff hour not earlier than two p.m. for the receipt and processing of instruments presented for payment or acceptance and presentment is made after the cutoff hour.

41-03-59. (3-502) Dishonor.

1. Dishonor of a note is governed by the following rules:
  - a. If the note is payable on demand, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made to the maker and the note is not paid on the day of presentment.
  - b. If the note is not payable on demand and is payable at or through a bank or the terms of the note require presentment, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made and the note is not paid on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.
  - c. If the note is not payable on demand and subdivision b does not apply, the note is dishonored if it is not paid on the day it becomes payable.
2. Dishonor of an unaccepted draft other than a documentary draft is governed by the following rules:
  - a. If a check is duly presented for payment to the payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter, the check is dishonored if the payor bank makes timely return of the check or sends timely notice of dishonor or nonpayment under section 41-04-29 or 41-04-30, or becomes accountable for the amount of the check under section 41-04-30.
  - b. If the draft is payable on demand and subdivision a does not apply, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the drawee and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.
  - c. If a draft is payable on a date stated in the draft, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the drawee and payment is not made on the day the draft becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later, or presentment for acceptance is duly made before the day the draft becomes payable and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

- d. If a draft is payable on elapse of a period of time after sight or acceptance, the draft is dishonored if presentment for acceptance is duly made and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.
3. Dishonor of an unaccepted documentary draft occurs according to the rules stated in subdivisions b, c, and e of subsection 2, except that payment or acceptance may be delayed without dishonor until no later than the close of the third business day of the drawee following the day on which payment or acceptance is required by those paragraphs.
4. Dishonor of an accepted draft is governed by the following rules:
  - a. If the draft is payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.
  - b. If the draft is not payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and payment is not made on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.
5. In any case in which presentment is otherwise required for dishonor under this section and presentment is excused under section 41-03-61, dishonor occurs without presentment if the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.
6. If a draft is dishonored because timely acceptance of the draft was not made and the person entitled to demand acceptance consents to a late acceptance, from the time of acceptance the draft is treated as never having been dishonored.

41-03-60. (3-503) Notice of dishonor.

1. The obligation of an endorser stated in subsection 1 of section 41-03-52 and the obligation of a drawer stated in subsection 3 of section 41-03-51 may not be enforced unless the endorser or drawer is given notice of dishonor of the instrument complying with this section or notice of dishonor is excused under subsection 3 of section 41-03-51.
2. Notice of dishonor may be given by any person; may be given by any commercially reasonable means including an oral, written, or electronic communication; and is sufficient if it reasonably identifies the instrument and indicates that the instrument has been dishonored or has not been paid or accepted. Return of an instrument given to a bank for collection is a sufficient notice of dishonor.
3. Subject to subsection 4 of section 41-03-61, with respect to an instrument taken for collection by a collecting bank, notice must be given by the bank before midnight of the next banking day following the banking day on which the bank receives the notice of dishonor of the instrument and by any other person within thirty days following the day on which dishonor occurs.

41-03-61. (3-504) Excused presentment and notice of dishonor.

1. Presentment for payment or acceptance of an instrument is excused if the person entitled to present the instrument cannot with reasonable diligence make presentment; the maker or acceptor has repudiated an obligation to pay the instrument or is dead or in insolvency proceedings; by the terms of the instrument presentment is not necessary to enforce the obligation of endorsers or the drawer; the drawer or endorser whose obligation is being enforced has waived presentment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be paid or accepted; or the drawer instructed the drawee not to pay or accept the draft or the drawee was not obligated to the drawer to pay the draft.
2. Notice of dishonor is excused if by the terms of the instrument notice of dishonor is not necessary to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument or if the party whose obligation is being enforced waived notice of dishonor. A waiver of presentment is also a waiver of notice of dishonor.
3. Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused if the delay was caused by circumstances beyond the control of the person giving the notice and the person giving the notice exercised reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceased to operate.

41-03-62. (3-505) Evidence of dishonor.

1. The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of any notice of dishonor stated:
  - a. A document regular in form as provided in subsection 2 which purports to be a protest.
  - b. A purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank, or presenting bank on or accompanying the instrument stating that acceptance or payment has been refused unless reasons for the refusal are stated and the reasons are not consistent with dishonor.
  - c. A book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or collecting bank, kept in the usual course of business which shows dishonor, even if there is no evidence of who made the entry.
2. A protest is a certificate of dishonor made by a United States consul or vice consul, or a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to that person. The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that presentment has been made or, if not made, the reason why it was not made, and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment. The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to some or all parties.

41-03-63. (3-601) Discharge and effect of discharge.

1. The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is discharged as stated in this chapter or by an act or agreement with the party which would discharge an obligation to pay money under a simple contract.
2. Discharge of the obligation of a party is not effective against a person acquiring rights of a holder in due course of the instrument without notice of the discharge.

41-03-64. (3-602) Payment.

1. Subject to subsection 2, an instrument is paid to the extent payment is made by or on behalf of a party obliged to pay the instrument to a person entitled to enforce the instrument. To the extent of the payment, the obligation of the party obliged to pay the instrument is discharged even though payment is made with knowledge of a claim to the instrument under section 41-03-32 by another person.
2. The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is not discharged under subsection 1 if either:
  - a. A claim to the instrument under section 41-03-32 is enforceable against the party receiving payment and payment is made with knowledge by the payor that payment is prohibited by jurisdiction or, in the case of an instrument other than a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check, the party making payment accepted, from the person having a claim to the instrument, indemnity against loss resulting from refusal to pay the person entitled to enforce the instrument.
  - b. The person making payment knows that the instrument is a stolen instrument and pays a person that it knows is in wrongful possession of the instrument.

41-03-65. (3-603) Tender of payment.

1. If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the effect of tender is governed by principles of law applicable to tender of payment under a simple contract.
2. If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument and the tender is refused, there is discharge, to the extent of the amount of the tender, of the obligation of an endorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse with respect to the obligation to which the tender relates.
3. If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made to the person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment stated in the instrument, the obligor is deemed to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

41-03-66. (3-604) Discharge by cancellation or renunciation.

1. A person entitled to enforce an instrument may, with or without consideration, discharge the obligation of a party to pay the instrument by an intentional voluntary act such as surrender of the instrument to the party, destruction, mutilation, or cancellation of the instrument, cancellation or striking out of the party's signature, or the addition of words to the instrument indicating discharge or by agreeing not to sue or otherwise renouncing rights against the party by a signed writing.
2. Cancellation or striking out of an endorsement under subsection 1 does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the endorsement.

41-03-67. (3-605) Discharge of endorsers and accommodation parties.

1. For the purposes of this section, the term "endorser" includes a drawer having the obligation stated in subsection 3 of section 41-03-51.
2. Discharge under section 41-03-66 of the obligation of a party to pay an instrument does not discharge the obligation of an endorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the discharged party.
3. If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to an extension of the due date of the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the extension discharges an endorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the party whose obligation is extended to the extent the endorser or accommodation party proves that the extension caused loss to the endorser or accommodation party with respect to the right of recourse.
4. If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to a material modification of the obligation of a party other than an extension of the due date, the modification discharges the obligation of an endorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the person whose obligation is modified to the extent the modification causes loss to the endorser or accommodation party with respect to the right of recourse. The endorser or accommodation party is deemed to have suffered loss as a result of the modification equal to the amount of the right of recourse unless the person enforcing the instrument proves that no loss was caused by the modification or that the loss caused by the modification was less than the amount of the right of recourse.
5. If the obligation of a party to pay an instrument is secured by an interest in collateral and a person entitled to enforce the instrument impairs the value of the interest in collateral, the obligation of an endorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the obligor is discharged to the extent of the impairment. The value of an interest in collateral is impaired to the extent that the value of the interest is reduced to an amount less than the amount of the right of recourse of the party asserting discharge or that the reduction in value of the interest causes an increase in the amount by which the amount of the right of recourse exceeds the values of the interest. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.

6. If the obligation of a party is secured by an interest in collateral not provided by an accommodation party and a person entitled to enforce the instrument impairs the value of the interest in collateral, the obligation of any party who is jointly and severally liable with respect to the secured obligation is discharged to the extent the impairment causes the party asserting discharge to pay more than that party would have been obliged to pay, taking into account rights of contribution, if impairment had not occurred. If the party asserting discharge is an accommodation party not entitled to discharge under subsection 5, the party is deemed to have a right to contribution based on joint and several liability rather than a right to reimbursement. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.
7. Under subsection 5 or 6, impairing value of an interest in collateral includes failure to obtain or maintain perfection or recordation of the interest in collateral; release of collateral without substitution of collateral of equal value; failure to perform a duty to preserve the value of collateral owed, under chapter 41-01 or other law, to a debtor or surety or other person secondarily liable; or failure to comply with applicable law in disposing of collateral.
8. An accommodation party is not discharged under subsection 3, 4, or 5 unless the person entitled to enforce the instrument knows of the accommodation or has notice under subsection 3 or 4 of section 41-03-56 that the instrument was signed for accommodation.
9. A party is not discharged under this section if the party asserting discharge consents to the event or conduct that is the basis of the discharge or the instrument or a separate agreement of the party provides for waiver of discharge under this section either specifically or by general language indicating that parties waive defenses based on suretyship or impairment of collateral.

SECTION 11. Chapter 41-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

41-04-01. (4-101) Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code - Bank deposits and collections.

41-04-02. (4-102) Applicability.

1. To the extent that items within this chapter are also within the scope of chapters 41-03 and 41-08, they are subject to the provisions of those chapters. In the event of conflict, the provisions of this chapter govern those of chapter 41-03 but the provisions of chapter 41-08 govern those of this chapter.
2. The liability of a bank for action or nonaction with respect to any item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment, or collection is governed by the law of the place where the bank is located. In the case of action or nonaction by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located.

41-04-03. (4-103) Variation by agreement - Measure of damages - Action constituting ordinary care.

1. The effect of the provisions of this chapter may be varied by agreement, but the parties to the agreement may not disclaim a bank's responsibility for its own lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or limit the measure of damages for the lack or failure. The parties may, however, determine by agreement the standards by which the bank's responsibility is to be measured if those standards are not manifestly unreasonable.
2. Federal reserve regulations and operating circulars, clearinghouse rules, and the like have the effect of agreements under subsection 1, whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.
3. Action or nonaction approved by this chapter or under federal reserve regulations or operating circulars constitutes the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or nonaction consistent with clearinghouse and similar rules or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this chapter, constitutes prima facie the exercise of ordinary care.
4. The specification or approval of certain procedures by this chapter does not constitute disapproval of other procedures that may be reasonable under the circumstances.
5. The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount that could not have been realized by the exercise of ordinary care. If there is also bad faith it includes any other damages the party suffered as a proximate consequence.

41-04-04. (4-104) Definitions and index of definitions.

1. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
  - a. "Account" means any deposit or credit account with a bank and includes a demand, time, savings, passbook, share draft, or like account, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit.
  - b. "Afternoon" means the period of a day between noon and midnight.
  - c. "Banking day" means the part of a day on which a bank is open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its banking functions.
  - d. "Clearinghouse" means an association of banks or other payors regularly clearing items.

- e. "Customer" means a person having an account with a bank or for whom a bank has agreed to collect items and includes a bank maintaining an account at another bank.
  - f. "Documentary draft" means a draft to be presented for acceptance or payment if specified documents, certificated securities (section 41-08-02), or instructions for uncertificated securities (section 41-08-24), or other certificates, statements, or the like are to be received by the drawee or other payor before acceptance or payment of the draft.
  - g. "Draft" means a draft as defined in section 41-03-04 or an item, other than an instrument, that is an order.
  - h. "Drawee" means a person ordered in a draft to make payment.
  - i. "Item" means an instrument or a promise or order to pay money handled by a bank for collection or payment. The term does not include a payment order governed by chapter 41-04.1 or a credit or debit card slip.
  - j. "Midnight deadline" with respect to a bank is midnight on its next banking day following the banking day on which it receives the relevant item or notice or from which the time for taking action commences to run, whichever is later.
  - k. "Settle" means to pay in cash, by clearinghouse settlement, in a charge or credit, or by remittance, or otherwise as agreed. A settlement may be either provisional or final.
  - l. "Suspends payments" with respect to a bank means that it has been closed by order of the supervisory authorities, that a public officer has been appointed to take it over, or that it ceases or refuses to make payments in the ordinary course of business.
2. Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

- p. "Prove". Section 41-03-03.
- q. "Teller's check". Section 41-03-04.
- r. "Unauthorized signature". Section 41-03-40.

4. In addition, chapter 41-01 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

41-04-05. (4-105) Bank - Collecting bank - Depository bank - Payor bank - Presenting bank. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

- 1. "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking, including a savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or trust company.
- 2. "Collecting bank" means a bank handling an item for collection except the payor bank.
- 3. "Depository bank" means the first bank to take an item even though it is also the payor bank, unless the item is presented for immediate payment over the counter.
- 4. "Intermediary bank" means a bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depository or payor bank.

5. "Payor bank" means a bank that is the drawee of a draft.
6. "Presenting bank" means a bank presenting an item except a payor bank.

41-04-06. (4-106) Payable through or payable at bank - Collecting bank.

1. If an item states that it is "payable through" a bank identified in the item, the item designates the bank as a collecting bank and does not by itself authorize the bank to pay the item, and the item may be presented for payment only by or through the bank.
2. If an item states that it is "payable at" a bank identified in the item, the item is equivalent to a draft drawn on the bank.
3. If a draft names a nonbank drawee and it is unclear whether a bank named in the draft is a codrawee or a collecting bank, the bank is a collecting bank.

41-04-07. (4-107) Separate office of bank. A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notice or orders must be given under this chapter and under chapter 41-03.

41-04-08. (4-108) Time of receipt of items.

1. For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances, and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of two p.m. or later as a cutoff hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.
2. Any item or deposit of money received on any day after a cutoff hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day.

41-04-09. (4-109) Delays.

1. Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment of a specific item drawn on a payor other than a bank, and with or without the approval of any person involved, may waive, modify, or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this chapter for a period not exceeding two additional banking days without discharge of drawers or endorsers or liability to its transferor or a prior party.
2. Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this chapter or by instructions is excused if the delay is caused by interruption of communication or computer facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank, and if the bank exercises such diligence as the circumstances require.

41-04-10. (4-110) Electronic presentment.

1. "Electronic presentment agreement" means an agreement, clearinghouse rule, or federal reserve regulation or operating circular, providing that presentment of an item may be made by transmission of an image of an item or information describing the item ("presentment notice") rather than delivery of the item itself. The agreement may provide for procedures governing retention, presentment, payment, dishonor, and other matters concerning items subject to the agreement.
2. Presentment of an item under an electronic presentment agreement is made when the presentment notice is received.
3. If presentment is made by presentment notice, a reference to "item" or "check" in this chapter means the presentment notice unless the context otherwise indicates.

41-04-11. (4-111) Statute of limitations. An action to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this chapter must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

41-04-12. Construction of chapter - Branch banking. This chapter may not be construed to permit branch banking.

41-04-13. (4-201) Agency status of collecting banks and provisional status of credits - Applicability of chapter - Item endorsed "pay any bank".

1. Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and before the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final, the bank with respect to the item is an agent or subagent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of endorsement or lack of endorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank, such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and valid rights of recoupment or setoff. If an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment, collection, or return, the relevant provisions of this chapter apply even though action of the parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it.
2. After an item has been endorsed with the words "pay any bank" or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder until:
  - a. The item has been returned to the customer initiating collection; or
  - b. The item has been specially endorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank.

41-04-14. (4-202) Responsibility for collection or return - When action timely.

1. A collecting bank must exercise ordinary care in the following matters:

- a. Presenting an item or sending it for presentment.
  - b. Sending notice of dishonor or nonpayment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank's transferor after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted.
  - c. Settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement.
  - d. Notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.
2. A collecting bank exercises ordinary care under subsection 1 by taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice, or settlement. Taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may constitute the exercise of ordinary care but the bank has the burden or so establishing.
3. Subject to subdivision a of subsection 1, a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake, or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in transit or in the possession of others.

41-04-15. (4-203) Effect of instructions. Subject to the provisions of chapter 41-03 concerning conversion of instruments (section 41-03-57) and restrictive endorsements (section 41-03-25), only a collecting bank's transferor may give instructions which affect the bank or constitute notice to it, and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken under those instructions or any agreement with its transferor.

41-04-16. (4-204) Methods of sending and presenting - Sending directly to payor bank.

1. A collecting bank shall send items by a reasonably prompt method taking into consideration any relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of those items on hand, the cost of collection involved and the method generally used by it or others to present those items.
2. A collecting bank may send:
  - a. An item directly to the payor bank.
  - b. An item to any nonbank payor if authorized by its transferor.
  - c. An item other than a documentary draft to a nonbank payor, if authorized by federal reserve regulation or operating circular, clearinghouse rule or the like.
3. Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank or other payor has requested that presentment be made.

41-04-17. (4-205) Depository bank holder of unendorsed item. If a customer delivers an item to a depository bank for collection:

1. The depository bank becomes a holder of the item at the time it receives the item for collection if the customer at the time of delivery was a holder of the item, whether or not the customer endorses, and, if it satisfies the other requirements of section 41-03-28, it may be a holder in due course.

2. The depository bank warrants to subsequent collecting banks, the payor bank or other payor, and the drawer that the amount of the item was paid to the customer or deposited to the customer's account.

41-04-18. (4-206) Transfer between banks. Any agreed method that identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for further transfer of the item to another bank.

41-04-19. (4-207) Transfer warranties.

1. A customer or collecting bank that transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration warrants to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that:
  - a. The warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the item.
  - b. All signatures on the item are authentic and authorized.
  - c. The item has not been altered.
  - d. The item is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment (subsection 1 of section 41-03-31) of any party that can be asserted against the warrantor.
  - e. The warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer.
2. If an item is dishonored, a customer or collecting bank transferring the item and receiving settlement or other consideration is obliged to pay the amount due on the item according to the terms of the item at the time it was transferred, or, if the transfer was of an incomplete item, according to its terms when completed as stated in sections 41-03-15 and 41-03-44. The obligation of a transferor is owed to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that takes the item in good faith. A transferor may not disclaim its obligation under this subsection by an endorsement stating that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaiming liability.
3. A person to whom the warranties under subsection 1 are made and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the item plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.
4. The warranties stated in subsection 1 cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

5. A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

41-04-20. (4-208) Presentment warranties.

1. If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee that pays or accepts the draft in good faith that:
- a. The warrantor is or was at the time the warrantor transferred the draft a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft.
  - b. The draft has not been altered.
  - c. The warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft is unauthorized.
2. A drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor and, if the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in the first two sentences of this subsection.
3. If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection 1 based on an unauthorized endorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the endorsement is effective under section 41-03-41 or 41-03-42 or the drawer is precluded under section 41-03-43 or 41-04-37 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized endorsement or alteration.
4. This subsection applies if a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an endorser or if any other item is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the item, and the item is paid. The person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the item warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is or was at the time the warrantor transferred the item a person entitled to enforce the item or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the item. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.
5. The warranties stated in subsections 1 and 4 may not be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

6. A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

41-04-21. (4-209) Encoding and retention warranties.

1. A person that encodes information on or with respect to an item after issue warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that the information is correctly encoded. If the customer of a depository bank encodes, that bank also makes the warranty.
2. A person that undertakes to retain an item under an electronic presentment agreement warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that retention and presentment of the item comply with the agreement. If a customer of a depository bank undertakes to retain an item, that bank also makes this warranty.
3. A person to whom warranties are made under this section and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

41-04-22. (4-210) Security interest of collecting bank in items, accompanying documents, and proceeds.

1. A collecting bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:
  - a. In case of an item deposited in an account, to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied.
  - b. In case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given, whether or not the credit is drawn upon or there is a right of charge back.
  - c. If it makes an advance on or against the item.
2. If credit given for several items received at one time or under a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part, the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents, or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.
3. Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents, and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of chapter 41-09, except that:

- a. No security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 41-09-16).
- b. No filing is required to perfect the security interest.
- c. The security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents, or proceeds.

41-04-23. (4-211) When bank gives value for purposes of holder in due course. For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, a bank has given value to the extent it has a security interest in an item, provided the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of section 41-03-28.

41-04-24. (4-212) Presentment by notice of item not payable by, through, or at bank - Liability of drawer or endorser.

1. Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through, or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under section 41-03-58 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.
2. If presentment is made by notice and neither payment, acceptance, nor request for compliance with a requirement under section 41-03-58 is received by the close of business on the day after maturity or in the case of demand items by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any drawer or endorser by sending it notice of the facts.

41-04-25. (4-213) Medium and time of settlement by bank.

1. With respect to settlement by a bank, the medium and time of settlement may be prescribed by federal reserve regulations or circulars, clearinghouse rules, and the like, or agreement. In the absence of such prescription:
  - a. The medium of settlement is cash or credit to an account in a federal reserve bank of or specified by the person to receive settlement.
  - b. The time of settlement is:
    - (1) With respect to tender of settlement by cash, cashier's check, or teller's check, when the cash or check is sent or delivered.

- (2) With respect to tender of settlement by credit in an account in a federal reserve bank, when the credit is made.
  - (3) With respect to tender of settlement by a credit or debit to an account in a bank, when the credit or debit is made or, in the case of tender of settlement by authority to charge an account, when the authority is sent or delivered.
  - (4) With respect to tender of settlement by a funds transfer, when payment is made under subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-31 to the person receiving settlement.
2. If the tender of settlement is not by a medium authorized by or the time of settlement is not fixed by subsection 1, no settlement occurs until the tender of settlement is accepted by the person receiving settlement.
3. If settlement for an item is made by cashier's check or teller's check and the person receiving settlement, before its midnight deadline:
  - a. Presents or forwards the check of collection, settlement is final when the check is finally paid.
  - b. Fails to present or forward the check for collection, settlement is final at the midnight deadline of the person receiving settlement.
4. If settlement for an item is made by giving authority to charge the account of the bank giving settlement in the bank receiving settlement, settlement is final when the charge is made by the bank receiving settlement if there are funds available in the account for the amount of the item.

41-04-26. (4-214) Right of charge back or refund - Liability of collecting bank - Return of item.

1. If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank, or otherwise to receive settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account, or obtain refund from its customer, whether or not it is able to return the items if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. If the return or notice is delayed beyond the bank's midnight deadline or a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts, the bank may revoke the settlement, charge back the credit, or obtain refund from its customer but is liable for any loss resulting from the delay. These rights to revoke, charge back, and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final.

2. A collecting bank returns an item when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or under its instructions.
3. A depository bank which is also the payor may charge back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund under the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (section 41-04-29).
4. The right to charge back is not affected by:
  - a. Previous use of a credit given for the item.
  - b. Failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item, but any bank so failing remains liable.
5. A failure to charge back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer of any other party.
6. If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in foreign money, the dollar amount of any charge back or refund must be calculated on the basis of the bank-offered spot rate for the foreign money prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course.

41-04-27. (4-215) Final payment of item by payor bank - When provisional debits and credits become final - When certain credits become available for withdrawal.

1. An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first:
  - a. Paid the item in cash.
  - b. Settled for the item without having a right to revoke the settlement under statute, clearinghouse rule, or agreement.
  - c. Made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearinghouse rule, or agreement.
2. If provisional settlement for an item does not become final, the item is not finally paid.
3. If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearinghouse or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the items by the payor bank.
4. If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final, the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

5. Subject to applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in a customer's account becomes available for withdrawal as of right:
  - a. If the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item, when such settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to receive return of the item and has not received the item within that time.
  - b. If the bank is both the depository bank and the payor bank and the item is finally paid, at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item.
6. Subject to applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and any right of a bank to apply a deposit to an obligation of the depositor, a deposit of money becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day after receipt of the deposit.

41-04-28. (4-216) Insolvency and preference.

1. Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank that suspends payment and which item is not finally paid must be returned by the receiver, trustee, or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.
2. If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.
3. If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events.
4. If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against that collecting bank.

41-04-29. (4-301) Deferred posting - Recovery of payment by return of items - Time of dishonor - Return of items by payor bank.

1. If a payor bank settles for a demand item other than a documentary draft presented otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter before midnight of the banking day of receipt, the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover any settlement if before it has made final payment and before its midnight deadline it:
  - a. Returns the item.
  - b. Sends written notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is unavailable for return.

2. If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books, it may return that item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in subsection 1.
3. Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent, an item is dishonored at the time when for purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent under this section.
4. An item is returned:
  - a. As to an item presented through a clearinghouse, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearinghouse or is sent or delivered under clearinghouse rules.
  - b. In all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or under instructions.

41-04-30. (4-302) Payor bank's responsibility for late return of item.

1. If an item is presented to and received by a payor bank, the bank is accountable for the amount of:
  - a. A demand item, other than a documentary draft, whether properly payable or not if the bank, in any case in which it is not also the depository bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, regardless of whether it is also the depository bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline.
  - b. Any other properly payable item, unless within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.
2. The liability of a payor bank to pay an item under subsection 1 is subject to defenses based on breach of a presentment warranty (section 41-04-20) or proof that the person seeking enforcement of the liability presented or transferred the item for the purpose of defrauding the payor bank.

41-04-31. (4-303) When items subject to notice, stop order, legal process, or setoff - Order is which items may be charged or certified.

1. Any knowledge, notice, or stop order received by, legal process served upon, or setoff exercised by a payor bank comes too late to terminate, suspend, or modify the bank's right or duty to pay an item or to charge its customer's account for the item if the knowledge, notice, stop order, or legal process is received or served and a reasonable time for the bank to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the earliest of the following:
  - a. The bank accepts or certifies the item.

- b. The bank pays the item in cash.
  - c. The bank settles for the item without having a right to revoke the settlement under statute, clearinghouse rule, or agreement.
  - d. The bank becomes accountable for the amount of the item under section 41-04-30 dealing with the payor bank's responsibility for late return of items.
  - e. With respect to checks, a cutoff hour no earlier than one hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check and no later than the close of that next banking day or, if no cutoff hour is fixed, the close of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check.
2. Subject to subsection 1, items may be accepted, paid, certified, or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order.

41-04-32. (4-401) When bank may charge customer's account.

- 1. A bank may charge against the account of a customer an item which is properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft. An item is properly payable if it is authorized by the customer and complies with any agreement between the customer and bank.
- 2. A customer is not liable for the amount of an overdraft if the customer neither signed the item nor benefited from the proceeds of the item.
- 3. A bank may charge against the account of a customer a check that is otherwise properly payable from the account, even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless the customer has given notice to the bank of the postdating describing the check with reasonable certainty. The notice will be effective for the period stated in subsection 1 of section 41-04-34 for stop orders, and must be received at a time and in a manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before any action by the bank with respect to the check described in section 41-04-31. If a bank charges against the account of a customer a check before the date stated in the notice of postdating, the bank is liable for damages for the loss resulting from its act. The loss may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items pursuant to section 41-04-33.
- 4. A bank that in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to:
  - a. The original terms of the altered item; or
  - b. The terms of the completed item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper.

41-04-33. (4-402) Bank's liability to customer for wrongful dishonor - Time of determining insufficiency of account.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a payor bank wrongfully dishonors an item if it dishonors an item that is properly payable, but a bank may dishonor an item that would create an overdraft unless it had agreed to pay the overdraft.
2. A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. Liability is limited to actual damages proved and may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact.
3. A payor bank's determination of the customer's account balance on which a decision to dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is based may be made at any time between the time the item is received by the payor bank and the time that the payor bank returns the item or gives notice in lieu of return, and no more than one such determination need be made. If, at the election of the payor bank, a subsequent balance determination is made for the purpose of reevaluating the bank's decision to dishonor the item, the account balance at that time is determinative of whether a dishonor for insufficiency of available fund is wrongful.

41-04-34. (4-403) Customer's right to stop payment - Burden of proof of loss.

1. A customer or any other person authorized to draw on the account may stop payment of any item drawn on the customer's account or close the account by an order to the bank describing the item or account with reasonable certainty received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before any action by the bank with respect to the item described in section 41-04-31. If the signature of more than one person is required to draw on an account, any of these persons may stop payment or close the account.
2. A stop order is effective for six months after the time it is received, but it lapses after fourteen calendar days if the original order was oral and was not confirmed in writing within that period. A stop order may be renewed for additional six-month periods by a writing given to the bank within a period during which the stop order is effective.
3. The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a stop payment order or order to close an account is on the customer. The loss from payment of an item contrary to a stop payment order may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items pursuant to section 41-04-33.

41-04-35. (4-404) Bank not obliged to pay check more than six months old. A bank is under no obligation to a customer having a checking account to pay a check, other than a certified check, which is presented more than six months after its date, but it may charge its customer's account for a payment made thereafter in good faith.

41-04-36. (4-405) Death or incompetence of customer.

1. A payor or collecting bank's authority to accept, pay or collect an item, or to account for proceeds of its collection if otherwise effective is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an adjudication of incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes the authority to accept, pay, collect, or account until the bank knows of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and has reasonable opportunity to act on it.
2. Even with knowledge a bank may for ten days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or before that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account.

41-04-37. (4-406) Customer's duty to discover and report unauthorized signature or alteration.

1. A bank that sends or makes available to a customer a statement of account showing payment of items for the account shall either return or make available to the customer the items paid or provide information in the statement of account sufficient to allow the customer to identify the items paid. The statement of account provides sufficient information if the item is described by item number, amount, and date of payment.
2. If the items are not returned to the customer, the person retaining the items shall either retain the items or, if the items are destroyed, maintain the capacity to furnish legible copies of the items until the expiration of seven years after receipt of the items. A customer may request an item from the bank that paid the item, and that bank must provide in a reasonable time either the item or, if the item has been destroyed or is not otherwise obtainable, a legible copy of the item.
3. If a bank sends or makes available a statement of account or items under subsection 1, the customer shall exercise reasonable promptness in examining the statement or the items to determine whether any payment was not authorized because of an alteration of an item or because a purported signature by or on behalf of the customer was not authorized. If, based on the statement or items provided, the customer should reasonably have discovered the unauthorized payment, the customer has a duty to give prompt notification to the bank of the relevant facts.
4. If the bank proves that the customer failed with respect to an item to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by subsection 3, the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank:
  - a. The customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item if the bank also proves that it suffered a loss by reason of that failure.
  - b. The customer's unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrongdoer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank if the payment was made before the bank received notification from the customer of the unauthorized signature or alteration and after the customer had been afforded a reasonable period of time not exceeding thirty days in which to examine the item or statement of account and notify the bank.

5. If subsection 4 applies and the customer proves that the bank failed to exercise ordinary care in paying the item and that the failure substantially contributed to loss, the loss is allocated between the customer precluded and the bank asserting the preclusion to the extent that the failure of each to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss. If the customer proves that the bank did not pay the item in good faith, the preclusion under subsection 4 does not apply.
6. Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank a customer who does not within one year from the time the statement or items are made available to the customer under subsection 1 discover and report the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or alteration. If there is a preclusion under this subsection, the payor bank may not recover for breach of warranty under section 41-04-20 with respect to the unauthorized signature or alteration to which the preclusion applies.

41-04-38. (4-407) Payor bank's right to subrogation on improper payment. If a payor bank has paid an item over the stop payment order of the drawer or maker, or after an account has been closed, or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank shall be subrogated to the rights of:

- a. Any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker.
- b. The payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose.
- c. The drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose.

41-04-39. (4-501) Handling of documentary drafts - Duty to send for presentment and to notify customer of dishonor. A bank that takes a documentary draft for collection must present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and upon learning that the draft has not been paid or accepted in due course must seasonably notify its customer of that fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right.

41-04-40. (4-502) Presentment of "on arrival" drafts. When a draft or the relevant instructions require presentment "on arrival", "when goods arrive", or the like, the collecting bank need not present until in its judgment a reasonable time for arrival of the goods has expired. Refusal to pay or accept because the goods have not arrived is not dishonor. The bank must notify its transferor of the refusal but need not present the draft again until it is instructed to do so or learns of the arrival of the goods.

41-04-41. (4-503) Responsibility of presenting bank for documents and goods - Report of reasons for dishonor - Referee in case of need. Unless otherwise instructed and except as provided in chapter 41-05 a bank presenting a documentary draft:

1. Must deliver the documents to the drawee either on payment or on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment.
2. Upon dishonor, either in the case of presentment for acceptance or presentment for payment, may seek and follow instructions from any referee in case of need designated in the draft or if the presenting bank does not choose to utilize the referee's services it must use diligence and good faith to ascertain the reason for dishonor, must notify its transferor of the dishonor and of the results of its effort to ascertain the reasons therefor, and must request instructions.

But the presenting bank is under no obligation with respect to goods represented by the documents except to follow any reasonable instructions seasonably received. It has a right to reimbursement for any expense incurred in following instructions and to prepayment of or indemnity for those expenses.

41-04-42. (4-504) Privilege of presenting bank to deal with goods - Security interest for expenses.

1. A presenting bank that, following the dishonor of a documentary draft, has seasonably requested instructions but does not receive them within a reasonable time may store, sell, or otherwise deal with the goods in any reasonable manner.
2. For its reasonable expenses incurred by action under subsection 1 the presenting bank has a lien upon the goods or their proceeds, which may be foreclosed in the same manner as an unpaid seller's lien.

SECTION 12. Chapter 41-04.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

41-04.1-01. (4A-101) Short title. This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code - funds transfers.

41-04.1-02. (4A-102) Subject matter. Except as otherwise provided in section 41-05.1-08, this chapter applies to funds transfers defined in section 41-05.1-04.

41-04.1-03. (4A-103) Payment order - Definitions.

1. In this chapter:
  - a. "Payment order" means an instruction of a sender to a receiving bank, transmitted orally, electronically, or in writing, to pay, or to cause another bank to pay, a fixed or determinable amount of money to a beneficiary if:

- (1) The instruction does not state a condition to payment to the beneficiary other than time of payment.
  - (2) The receiving bank is to be reimbursed by debiting an account of, or otherwise receiving payment from, the sender.
  - (3) The instruction is transmitted by the sender directly to the receiving bank or to an agent, funds-transfer system, or communication system for transmittal to the receiving bank.
- b. "Beneficiary" means the person to be paid by the beneficiary's bank.
- c. "Beneficiary's bank" means the bank identified in a payment order in which an account of the beneficiary is to be credited pursuant to the order or which otherwise is to make payment to the beneficiary if the order does not provide for payment to an account.
- d. "Receiving bank" means the bank to which the sender's instruction is addressed.
- e. "Sender" means the person giving the instruction to the receiving bank.
2. If an instruction complying with subdivision a of subsection 1 is to make more than one payment to a beneficiary, the instruction is a separate payment order with respect to each payment.
3. A payment order is issued when it is sent to the receiving bank.

41-04.1-04. (4A-104) Funds transfer - Definitions. In this chapter:

1. "Funds transfer" means the series of transactions, beginning with the originator's payment order, made for the purpose of making payment to the beneficiary of the order. The term includes any payment order issued by the originator's bank or an intermediary bank intended to carry out the originator's payment order. A funds transfer is completed by acceptance by the beneficiary's bank of a payment order for the benefit of the beneficiary of the originator's payment order.
2. "Intermediary bank" means a receiving bank other than the originator's bank or the beneficiary's bank.
3. "Originator" means the sender of the first payment order in a funds transfer.
4. "Originator's bank" means the receiving bank to which the payment order of the originator is issued if the originator is not a bank or the originator if the originator is a bank.

41-04.1-05. (4A-105) Other definitions.

1. In this chapter:

- a. "Authorized account" means a deposit account of a customer in a bank designated by the customer as a source of payment of payment orders issued by the customer to the bank. If a customer does not so designate an account, any account of the customer is an authorized account if payment of a payment order from that account is not inconsistent with a restriction on the use of that account.
  - b. "Bank" means a person engaged in the business of banking and includes a savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, and trust company. A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for purposes of this chapter.
  - c. "Customer" means a person, including a bank, having an account with a bank or from whom a bank has agreed to receive payment orders.
  - d. "Funds-transfer business day" of a receiving bank means the part of a day during which the receiving bank is open for the receipt, processing, and transmittal of payment orders and cancellations and amendments of payment orders.
  - e. "Funds-transfer system" means a wire transfer network, automated clearinghouse, or other communication system of a clearinghouse or other association of banks through which a payment order by a bank may be transmitted to the bank to which the order is addressed.
  - f. "Good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.
  - g. "Prove" with respect to a fact means to meet the burden of establishing the fact subsection 8 of section 41-01-11.
2. Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:
- a. "Acceptance". Section 41-04.1-17.
  - b. "Beneficiary". Section 41-04.1-03.
  - c. "Beneficiary's bank". Section 41-04.1-03.
  - d. "Executed". Section 41-04.1-21.
  - e. "Execution date". Section 41-04.1-21.
  - f. "Funds transfer". Section 41-04.1-04.
  - g. "Funds-transfer system rule". Section 41-04.1-32.
  - h. "Intermediary bank". Section 41-04.1-04.
  - i. "Originator". Section 41-04.1-04.
  - j. "Originator's bank". Section 41-04.1-04.

- k. "Payment by beneficiary's bank to beneficiary". Section 41-04.1-30.
  - l. "Payment by originator to beneficiary". Section 41-04.1-31.
  - m. "Payment by sender to receiving bank". Section 41-04.1-28.
  - n. "Payment date". Section 41-04.1-26.
  - o. "Payment order". Section 41-04.1-03.
  - p. "Receiving bank". Section 41-04.1-03.
  - q. "Security procedure". Section 41-04.1-26.
  - r. "Sender". Section 41-04.1-03.
3. The following definitions in chapter 41-04 apply to this chapter:
- a. "Clearinghouse". Section 41-04-04
  - b. "Item". Section 41-04-04
  - c. "Suspends payments". Section 41-04-04
4. In addition chapter 41-01 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.
- 41-04.1-06. (4A-106) Time payment order is received.
- 1. The time of receipt of a payment order or communication canceling or amending a payment order is determined by the rules applicable to receipt of a notice stated in subsection 27 of section 41-01-11. A receiving bank may fix a cutoff time or times on a funds-transfer business day for the receipt and processing of payment orders and communications canceling or amending payment orders. Different cutoff times may apply to payment orders, cancellations, or amendments, or to different categories of payment orders, cancellations, or amendments. A cutoff time may apply to senders generally or different cutoff times may apply to different senders or categories of payment orders. If a payment order or communication canceling or amending a payment order is received after the close of a funds-transfer business day or after the appropriate cutoff time on a funds-transfer business day, the receiving bank may treat the payment order or communication as received at the opening of the next funds-transfer business day.
  - 2. If this chapter refers to an execution date or payment date or states a day on which a receiving bank is required to take action, and the date or day does not fall on a funds-transfer business day, the next day that is a funds-transfer business day is treated as the date or day stated, unless the contrary is stated in this chapter.

41-04.1-07. (4A-107) Federal reserve regulations and operating circulars. Regulations of the board of governors of the federal reserve system and operating circulars of the federal reserve banks supersede any inconsistent provision of this chapter to the extent of the inconsistency.

41-04.1-08. (4A-108) Exclusion of consumer transactions governed by federal law. This chapter does not apply to a funds transfer any part of which is governed by the Electronic Fund Transfer Act of 1978 [Title XX, Pub. L. 95-630, 92 Stat. 3728, 15 U.S.C. 1693 et seq.] as amended from time to time.

41-04.1-09. (4A-201) Security procedure. "Security procedure" means a procedure established by agreement of a customer and a receiving bank for the purpose of verifying that a payment order or communication amending or canceling a payment order is that of the customer or detecting error in the transmission or the content of the payment order or communication. A security procedure may require the use of algorithms or other codes, identifying words or numbers, encryption, callback procedures, or similar security devices. Comparison of a signature on a payment order or communication with an authorized specimen signature of the customer is not by itself a security procedure.

41-04.1-10. (4A-202) Authorized and verified payment orders.

1. A payment order received by the receiving bank is the authorized order of the person identified as sender if that person authorized the order or is otherwise bound by it under the law of agency.
2. If a bank and its customer have agreed that the authenticity of payment orders issued to the bank in the name of the customer as sender will be verified under a security procedure, a payment order received by the receiving bank is effective as the order of the customer, whether or not authorized, if the security procedure is a commercially reasonable method of providing security against unauthorized payment orders, and the bank proves that it accepted the payment order in good faith and in compliance with the security procedure and any written agreement or instruction of the customer restricting acceptance of payment orders issued in the name of the customer. The bank is not required to follow an instruction that violates a written agreement with the customer or notice of which is not received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the payment order is accepted.
3. Commercial reasonableness of a security procedure is a question of law to be determined by considering the wishes of the customer expressed to the bank, the circumstances of the customer known to the bank, including the size, type, and frequency of payment orders normally issued by the customer to the bank, alternative security procedures offered to the customer, and security procedures in general use by customers and receiving banks similarly situated. A security procedure is deemed to be commercially reasonable if the security procedure was chosen by the customer after the bank offered, and the customer refused, a security procedure that was commercially reasonable for that customer, and the customer expressly agreed in writing to be bound by any payment order, whether or not authorized, issued in its name and accepted by the bank in compliance with the security procedure chosen by the customer.

4. In this chapter the term "sender" includes the customer in whose name a payment order is issued if the order is the authorized order of the customer under subsection 1 or is effective as the order of the customer under subsection 2.
5. This section applies to amendments and cancellations of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.
6. Except as provided in this section and in subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-11, rights and obligations arising under this section or section 41-04.1-11 may not be varied by agreement.

41-04.1-11. (4A-203) Unenforceability of certain verified payment orders.

1. If an accepted payment order is not, under subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-10, an authorized order of a customer identified as sender, but is effective as an order of the customer under subsection 2 of section 41-04.1-10, the following rules apply:

- a. By express written agreement, the receiving bank may limit the extent to which it is entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order.
- b. The receiving bank is not entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order if the customer proves that the order was not caused, directly or indirectly, by a person entrusted at any time with duties to act for the customer with respect to payment orders or the security procedure or by a person who obtained access to transmitting facilities of the customer or who obtained, from a source controlled by the customer and without authority of the receiving bank, information facilitating breach of the security procedure, regardless of how the information was obtained or whether the customer was at fault. Information includes any access device, computer software, or the like.

2. This section applies to amendments of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

41-04.1-12. (4A-204) Refund of payment and duty of customer to report with respect to unauthorized payment order.

1. If a receiving bank accepts a payment order issued in the name of its customer as sender which is not authorized and not effective as the order of the customer under section 41-04.1-10 or is not enforceable, in whole or in part, against the customer under section 41-04.1-11, the bank shall refund any payment of the payment order received from the customer to the extent the bank is not entitled to enforce payment and shall pay interest on the refundable amount from the date the bank received payment to the date of the refund. However, the customer is not entitled to interest from the bank on the amount to be refunded if the customer fails to exercise ordinary care to determine that the order was not authorized by the customer and to notify the bank of the relevant facts within a reasonable time not exceeding ninety days after the date the customer received notification from the bank that the order was accepted or that the customer's account was debited with respect to the order. The bank is not entitled to any recovery from the customer because of a failure by the customer to give notification as stated in this section.

2. Reasonable time under subsection 1 may be fixed by agreement under subsection 1 of section 41-01-14, but the obligation of a receiving bank to refund payment as stated in subsection 1 may not otherwise be varied by agreement.

41-04.1-13. (4A-205) Erroneous payment orders.

1. If an accepted payment order was transmitted pursuant to a security procedure for the detection of error and the payment order erroneously instructed payment to a beneficiary not intended by the sender, erroneously instructed payment in an amount greater than the amount intended by the sender, or was an erroneously transmitted duplicate of a payment order previously sent by the sender, the following rules apply:
  - a. If the sender proves that the sender or a person acting on behalf of the sender pursuant to section 41-04.1-14 complied with the security procedure and that the error would have been detected if the receiving bank had also complied, the sender is not obliged to pay the order to the extent stated in subdivisions b and c.
  - b. If the funds transfer is completed on the basis of an erroneous payment order, other than an erroneously transmitted duplicate of a payment order, the sender is not obliged to pay the order and the receiving bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary any amount paid to the beneficiary to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.
  - c. If the funds transfer is completed on the basis of a payment order erroneously instructing payment in an amount greater than intended by the sender, the sender is not obliged to pay the order to the extent the amount received by the beneficiary is greater than the amount intended by the sender. In that case, the receiving bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary the excess amount received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.
2. If the sender of an erroneous payment order described in subsection 1 is not obliged to pay all or part of the order and if the sender receives notification from the receiving bank that the order was accepted by the bank or that the sender's account was debited with respect to the order, the sender has a duty to exercise ordinary care, on the basis of information available to the sender, to discover the error with respect to the order and to advise the bank of the relevant facts within a reasonable time, not exceeding ninety days, after the bank's notification was received by the sender. If the bank proves that the sender failed to perform that duty, the sender is liable to the bank for the loss the bank proves it incurred as a result of the failure, but the liability of the sender may not exceed the amount of the sender's order.

3. This section applies to amendments to payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

41-04.1-14. (4A-206) Transmission of payment order through funds-transfer or other communication system.

1. If a payment order addressed to a receiving bank is transmitted to a funds-transfer system or other third-party communication system for transmittal to the bank, the system is deemed to be an agent of the sender for the purpose of transmitting the payment order to the bank. If there is a discrepancy between the terms of the payment order transmitted to the system and the terms of the payment order transmitted by the system to the bank, the terms of the payment order of the sender are those transmitted by the system. This section does not apply to a funds-transfer system of the federal reserve banks.
2. This section applies to cancellations and amendments of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

41-04.1-15. (4A-207) Misdescription of beneficiary.

1. Subject to subsection 2, if, in a payment order received by the beneficiary's bank, the name, bank account number, or other identification of the beneficiary refers to a nonexistent or unidentifiable person or account, no person has rights as a beneficiary of the order and acceptance of the order cannot occur.
2. If a payment order received by the beneficiary's bank identifies the beneficiary both by name and by an identifying or bank account number and the name and number identify different persons, the following rules apply:
  - a. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, if the beneficiary's bank does not know that the name and number refer to different persons, it may rely on the number as the proper identification of the beneficiary of the order. The beneficiary's bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person.
  - b. If the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by name or knows that the name and number identify different persons, no person has rights as beneficiary except the person paid by the beneficiary's bank if that person was entitled to receive payment from the originator of the funds transfer. If no person has rights as beneficiary, acceptance of the order cannot occur.
3. If a payment order described in subsection 2 is accepted, the originator's payment order described the beneficiary inconsistently by name and number, and the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by number as permitted by subdivision a of subsection 2, the following rules apply:

- a. If the originator is a bank, the originator is obliged to pay its order.
  - b. If the originator is not a bank and proves that the person identified by number was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the originator is not obliged to pay its order unless the originator's bank proves that the originator, before acceptance of the originator's order, had notice that payment of a payment order issued by the originator might be made by the beneficiary's bank on the basis of an identifying or bank account number even if it identifies a person different from the named beneficiary. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The originator's bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the originator, before the payment order was accepted, signed a writing stating the information to which the notice relates.
4. In a case governed by subdivision a of subsection 2, if the beneficiary's bank rightfully pays the person identified by number and that person was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the amount paid may be recovered from that person to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution as follows:
- a. If the originator is obliged to pay its payment order as stated in subsection 3, the originator has the right to recover.
  - b. If the originator is not a bank and is not obliged to pay its payment order, the originator's bank has the right to recover.

41-04.1-16. (4A-208) Misdescription of intermediary bank of beneficiary's bank.

1. This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank or the beneficiary's bank only by an identifying number.
  - a. The receiving bank may rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank and need not determine whether the number identifies a bank.
  - b. The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the number in execution or attempting to execute the order.
2. This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank or the beneficiary's bank both by name and an identifying number if the name and number identify different persons.
  - a. If the sender is a bank, the receiving bank may rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank, when it executes the sender's order, does not know that the name and number identify different persons. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person or whether the number refers to a bank. The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the number in executing or attempting to execute the order.

- b. If the sender is not a bank and the receiving bank proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, had notice that the receiving bank might rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank even if it identifies a person different from the bank identified by name, the rights and obligations of the sender and the receiving bank are governed by subdivision a of subsection 2, as though the sender were a bank. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The receiving bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, signed a writing stating the information to which the notice relates.
- c. Regardless of whether the sender is a bank, the receiving bank may rely on the name as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank, at the time it executes the sender's order, does not know that the name and number identify different persons. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person.
- d. If the receiving bank knows that the name and number identify different persons, reliance on either the name or the number in executing the sender's payment order is a breach of the obligation stated in subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-22.

41-04.1-17. (4A-209) Acceptance of payment order.

1. Subject to subsection 4, a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order when it executes the order.
2. Subject to subsections 3 and 4, a beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order at the earliest of the following times:
  - a. When the bank pays the beneficiary as stated in subsection 1 or 2 of section 41-04.1-30 or notifies the beneficiary of receipt of the order or that the account of the beneficiary has been credited with respect to the order unless the notice indicates that the bank is rejecting the order or that funds with respect to the order may not be withdrawn or used until receipt of payment from the sender of the order.
  - b. When the bank receives payment of the entire amount of the sender's order under subdivision a or b of subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-28.

- c. The opening of the next funds-transfer business day of the bank following the payment date of the order if, at that time, the amount of the sender's order is fully covered by a withdrawable credit balance in an authorized account of the sender or the bank has otherwise received full payment from the sender, unless the order was rejected before that time or is rejected within one hour after that time or one hour after the opening of the next business day of the sender following the payment date if that time is later. If notice of rejection is received by the sender after the payment date and the authorized account of the sender does not bear interest, the bank is obliged to pay interest to the sender on the amount of the order for the number of days elapsing after the payment date to the day the sender receives notice or learns that the order was not accepted, counting that day as an elapsed day. If the withdrawable credit balance during that period falls below the amount of the order, the amount of interest payable is reduced accordingly.
3. Acceptance of a payment order cannot occur before the order is received by the receiving bank. Acceptance does not occur under subdivision b or c of subsection 2 if the beneficiary of the payment order does not have an account with the receiving bank, the account has been closed, or the receiving bank is not permitted by law to receive credits for the beneficiary's account.
4. A payment order issued to the originator's bank cannot be accepted until the payment date if the bank is the beneficiary's bank or the execution date if the bank is not the beneficiary's bank. If the originator's bank executes the originator's payment order before the execution date or pays the beneficiary of the originator's payment order before the payment date and the payment order is subsequently canceled under subsection 2 of section 41-04.1-19, the bank may recover from the beneficiary any payment received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

41-04.1-18. (4A-210) Rejection of payment order.

1. A payment order is rejected by the receiving bank by a notice of rejection transmitted to the sender orally, electronically, or in writing. A notice of rejection need not use any particular words and is sufficient if it indicates that the receiving bank is rejecting the order or will not execute or pay the order. Rejection is effective when the notice is given if transmission is by a means that is reasonable in the circumstances. If notice of rejection is given by a means that is not reasonable, rejection is effective when the notice is received. If an agreement of the sender and receiving bank establishes the means to be used to reject a payment order, any means complying with the agreement is reasonable, and any means not complying is not reasonable unless no significant delay in receipt of the notice resulted from the use of the noncomplying means.
2. This subsection applies if a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank fails to execute a payment order despite the existence on the execution date of a withdrawable credit balance in an authorized account of the sender sufficient to cover the order.

If the sender does not receive notice of rejection of the order on the execution date and the authorized account of the sender does not bear interest, the bank is obliged to pay interest to the sender on the amount of the order for the number of days elapsing after the execution date to the earlier of the day the order is canceled under subsection 4 of section 41-04.1-19 or the day the sender receives notice or learns that the order was not executed, counting the final day of the period as an elapsed day. If the withdrawable credit balance during that period falls below the amount of the order, the amount of interest is reduced accordingly.

3. If a receiving bank suspends payments, all unaccepted payment orders issued to it are deemed rejected at the time the bank suspends payments.
4. Acceptance of a payment order precludes a later rejection of the order. Rejection of a payment order precludes a later acceptance of the order.

41-04.1-19. (4A-211) Cancellation and amendment of payment order.

1. A communication of the sender of a payment order canceling or amending the order may be transmitted to the receiving bank orally, electronically, or in writing. If a security procedure is in effect between the sender and the receiving bank, the communication is not effective to cancel or amend the order unless the communication is verified pursuant to the security procedure or the bank agrees to the cancellation or amendment.
2. Subject to subsection 1, a communication by the sender canceling or amending a payment order is effective to cancel or amend the order if notice of the communication is received at a time and in a manner affording the receiving bank a reasonable opportunity to act on the communication before the bank accepts the payment order.
3. After a payment order has been accepted, cancellation or amendment of the order is not effective unless the receiving bank agrees or a funds-transfer system rule allows cancellation or amendment without agreement of the bank.
  - a. With respect to a payment order accepted by a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank, cancellation or amendment is not effective unless a conforming cancellation or amendment of the payment order issued by the receiving bank is also made.
  - b. With respect to a payment order accepted by the beneficiary's bank, cancellation or amendment is not effective unless the order was issued in execution of an unauthorized payment order, or because of a mistake by a sender in the funds transfer which resulted in the issuance of a payment order that is a duplicate of a payment order previously issued by the sender, that orders payment to a beneficiary not entitled to receive payment from the originator, or that orders payment in an amount greater than the amount the beneficiary was entitled to receive from the originator. If the payment order is canceled or amended, the beneficiary's bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary any amount paid to the beneficiary to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

4. An unaccepted payment order is canceled by operation of law at the close of the fifth funds-transfer business day of the receiving bank after the execution date or payment date of the order.
5. A canceled payment order cannot be accepted. If an accepted payment order is canceled, the acceptance is nullified and no person has any right or obligation based on the acceptance. Amendment of a payment order is deemed to be cancellation of the original order at the time of amendment and issuance of a new payment order in the amended form at the same time.
6. Unless otherwise provided in an agreement of the parties or in a funds-transfer system rule, if the receiving bank, after accepting a payment order, agrees to cancellation or amendment of the order by the sender or is bound by a funds-transfer system rule allowing cancellation or amendment without the bank's agreement, the sender, whether or not cancellation or amendment is effective, is liable to the bank for any loss and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred by the bank as a result of the cancellation or amendment or attempted cancellation or amendment.
7. A payment order is not revoked by the death or legal incapacity of the sender unless the receiving bank knows of the death or of an adjudication of incapacity by a court of competent jurisdiction and has reasonable opportunity to act before acceptance of the order.
8. A funds-transfer system rule is not effective to the extent it conflicts with subdivision b of subsection 3.

41-04.1-20. (4A-212) Liability and duty of receiving bank regarding unaccepted payment order. If a receiving bank fails to accept a payment order that it is obliged by express agreement to accept, the bank is liable for breach of the agreement to the extent provided in the agreement or in this chapter, but does not otherwise have any duty to accept a payment order or, before acceptance, to take any action or refrain from taking action with respect to the order except as provided in this chapter or by express agreement. Liability based on acceptance arises only when acceptance occurs as stated in section 41-04.1-17, and liability is limited to that provided in this chapter. A receiving bank is not the agent of the sender or beneficiary of the payment order it accepts or of any other party to the funds transfer, and the bank owes no duty to any party to the funds transfer except as provided in this chapter or by express agreement.

41-04.1-21. (4A-301) Execution and execution date.

1. A payment order is "executed" by the receiving bank when it issues a payment order intended to carry out the payment order received by the bank. A payment order received by the beneficiary's bank may be accepted but may not be executed.
2. "Execution date" of a payment order means the day on which the receiving bank may properly issue a payment order execution of the sender's order. The execution date may be determined by instruction of the sender but cannot be earlier than the day the order is received and, unless otherwise determined, is the day the order is received. If the sender's instruction states a payment date, the execution date is the payment date or an earlier date on which execution is reasonably necessary to allow payment to the beneficiary on the payment date.

41-04.1-22. (4A-302) Obligations of receiving bank in execution of payment order.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 through 4, if the receiving bank accepts a payment order under subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-17, the bank has the following obligations in executing the order:
  - a. The receiving bank is obliged to issue, on the execution date, a payment order complying with the sender's order and to follow the sender's instructions concerning any intermediary bank or funds-transfer system to be used in carrying out the funds transfer or the means by which payment orders are to be transmitted in the funds transfer. If the originator's bank issues a payment order to an intermediary bank, the originator's bank is obliged to instruct the intermediary bank according to the instruction of the originator. An intermediary bank in the funds transfer is similarly bound by an instruction given to it by the sender of the payment order it accepts.
  - b. If the sender's instruction states that the funds transfer is to be carried out telephonically or by wire transfer or otherwise indicates that the funds transfer is to be carried out by the most expeditious means, the receiving bank is obliged to transmit its payment order by the most expeditious available means and to instruct any intermediary bank accordingly. If a sender's instruction states a payment date, the receiving bank is obliged to transmit its payment order at a time and by means reasonably necessary to allow payment to the beneficiary on the payment date or as soon thereafter as is feasible.
2. Unless otherwise instructed, a receiving bank executing a payment order may use any funds-transfer system if use of that system is reasonable in the circumstances and issue a payment order to the beneficiary's bank or to an intermediary bank through which a payment order conforming to the sender's order can expeditiously be issued to the beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank exercises ordinary care in the selection of the intermediary bank. A receiving bank is not required to follow an instruction of the sender designating a funds-transfer system to be used in carrying out the funds transfer if the receiving bank, in good faith, determines that it is not feasible to follow the instruction or that following the instruction would unduly delay completion of the funds transfer.
3. Unless subdivision b of subsection 1 applies or the receiving bank is otherwise instructed, the bank may execute a payment order by transmitting its payment order by first-class mail or by any means reasonable in the circumstances. If the receiving bank is instructed to execute the sender's order by transmitting its payment order by a particular means, the receiving bank may issue its payment order by the means stated or by any means as expeditious as the means stated.

4. Unless instructed by the sender, the receiving bank may not obtain payment of its charges for services and expenses in connection with the execution of the sender's order by issuing a payment order in an amount equal to the amount of the sender's order less the amount of the charges and may not instruct a subsequent receiving bank to obtain payment of its charges in the same manner.

41-04.1-23. (4A-303) Erroneous execution of payment order.

1. A receiving bank that executes the payment order of the sender by issuing a payment order in an amount greater than the amount of the sender's order or issues a payment order in execution of the sender's order and then issues a duplicate order is entitled to payment of the amount of the sender's order under subsection 3 of section 41-04.1-27 if that subsection is otherwise satisfied. The bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary of the erroneous order the excess payment received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.
2. A receiving bank that executes the payment order of the sender by issuing a payment order in an amount less than the amount of the sender's order is entitled to payment of the amount of the sender's order under subsection 3 of section 41-04.1-27 if that subsection is otherwise satisfied and the bank corrects its mistake by issuing an additional payment order for the benefit of the beneficiary of the sender's order. If the error is not corrected, the issuer of the erroneous order is entitled to receive or retain payment from the sender of the order it accepted only to the extent of the amount of the erroneous order. This subsection does not apply if the receiving bank executes the sender's payment order by issuing a payment order in an amount less than the amount of the sender's order for the purpose of obtaining payment of its charges for services and expenses pursuant to instruction of the sender.
3. If a receiving bank executes the payment order of the sender by issuing a payment order to a beneficiary different from the beneficiary of the sender's order and the funds transfer is completed on the basis of that error, the sender of the payment order that was erroneously executed and all previous senders in the funds transfer are not obliged to pay the payment orders they issued. The issuer of the erroneous order is entitled to recover from the beneficiary of the order the payment received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

41-04.1-24. (4A-304) Duty of sender to report erroneously executed payment order. If the sender of a payment order that is erroneously executed as stated in section 41-04.1-23 receives notification from the receiving bank that the order was executed or that the sender's account was debited with respect to the order, the sender has a duty to exercise ordinary care to determine, on the basis of information available to the sender, that the order was erroneously executed and to notify the bank of the relevant facts within a reasonable time not exceeding ninety days after the notification from the bank was received by the sender. If the sender fails to perform that duty, the bank is not obliged to pay interest on any amount refundable to the sender under subsection 4 of section 41-04.1-27 for the period before the bank learns of the execution error. The bank is not entitled to any recovery from the sender on account of a failure by the sender to perform the duty stated in this section.

41-04.1-25. (4A-305) Liability for late or improper execution or failure to execute payment order.

1. If a funds transfer is completed but execution of a payment order by the receiving bank in breach of section 41-04.1-22 results in delay in payment to the beneficiary, the bank is obliged to pay interest to either the originator or the beneficiary of the funds transfer for the period of delay caused by the improper execution. Except as provided in subsection 3 additional damages are not recoverable.
2. If execution of a payment order by a receiving bank in breach of section 41-04.1-22 results in noncompletion of the funds transfer, failure to use an intermediary bank designated by the originator, or issuance of a payment order that does not comply with the terms of the payment order of the originator, the bank is liable to the originator for its expenses in the funds transfer and for incidental expenses and interest losses, to the extent not covered by subsection 1, resulting from the improper execution. Except as provided in subsection 3, additional damages are not recoverable.
3. In addition to the amounts payable under subsections 1 and 2, damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express written agreement of the receiving bank.
4. If a receiving bank fails to execute a payment order it was obliged by express agreement to execute, the receiving bank is liable to the sender for its expenses in the transaction and for incidental expenses and interest losses resulting from the failure to execute. Additional damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express written agreement of the receiving bank, but are not otherwise recoverable.
5. Reasonable attorney's fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under subsection 1 or 2 is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim. If a claim is made for breach of an agreement under subsection 4 and the agreement does not provide for damages, reasonable attorney's fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under subsection 4 is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim.
6. Except as stated in this section, the liability of a receiving bank under subsections 1 and 2 may not be varied by agreement.

41-04.1-26. (4A-401) Payment date. "Payment date" of a payment order means the day on which the amount of the order is payable to the beneficiary by the beneficiary's bank. The payment date may be determined by instruction of the sender but cannot be earlier than the day the order is received by the beneficiary's bank and, unless otherwise determined, is the day the order is received by the beneficiary's bank.

41-04.1-27. (4A-402) Obligation of sender to pay receiving bank.

1. This section is subject to sections 41-04.1-13 and 41-04.1-15.
2. With respect to a payment order issued to the beneficiary's bank, acceptance of the order by the bank obliges the sender to pay the bank the amount of the order, but payment is not due until the payment date of the order.
3. This subsection is subject to subsection 5 and to section 41-04.1-23. With respect to a payment order issued to a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank, acceptance of the order by the receiving bank obliges the sender to pay the bank the amount of the sender's order. Payment by the sender is not due until the execution date of the sender's order. The obligation of that sender to pay its payment order is excused if the funds transfer is not completed by acceptance by the beneficiary's bank of a payment order instructing payment to the beneficiary of that sender's payment order.
4. If the sender of a payment order pays the order and was not obliged to pay all or part of the amount paid, the bank receiving payment is obliged to refund payment to the extent the sender was not obliged to pay. Except as provided in sections 41-04.1-12 and 41-04.1-24, interest is payable on the refundable amount from the date of payment.
5. If a funds transfer is not completed as stated in subsection 3 and an intermediary bank is obliged to refund payment as stated in subsection 4 but is unable to do so because not permitted by applicable law or because the bank suspends payments, a sender in the funds transfer that executed a payment order in compliance with an instruction, as stated in subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-22, to route the funds transfer through that intermediary bank is entitled to receive or retain payment from the sender of the payment order that it accepted. The first sender in the funds transfer that issued an instruction requiring routing through that intermediary bank is subrogated to the right of the bank that paid the intermediary bank to refund as stated in subsection 4.
6. The right of the sender of a payment order to be excused from the obligation to pay the order as stated in subsection 3 or to receive refund under subsection 4 may not be varied by agreement.

41-04.1-28. (4A-403) Payment by sender to receiving bank.

1. Payment of the sender's obligation under section 41-04.1-27 to pay the receiving bank occurs as follows:
  - a. If the sender is a bank, payment occurs when the receiving bank receives final settlement of the obligation through a federal reserve bank or through a funds-transfer system.

- b. If the sender is a bank and the sender credited an account of the receiving bank with the sender or caused an account of the receiving bank in another bank to be credited, payment occurs when the credit is withdrawn or, if not withdrawn, at midnight of the day on which the credit is withdrawable and the receiving bank learns of that fact.
- c. If the receiving bank debits an account of the sender with the receiving bank, payment occurs when the debit is made to the extent the debit is covered by a withdrawable credit balance in the account.
2. If the sender and receiving bank are members of a funds-transfer system that nets obligations multilaterally among participants, the receiving bank receives final settlement when settlement is complete in accordance with the rules of the system. The obligation of the sender to pay the amount of a payment order transmitted through the funds-transfer system may be satisfied, to the extent permitted by the rules of the system, by setting off and applying against the sender's obligation the right of the sender to receive payment from the receiving bank of the amount of any other payment order transmitted to the sender by the receiving bank through the funds-transfer system. The aggregate balance of obligations owed by each sender to each receiving bank in the funds-transfer system may be satisfied, to the extent permitted by the rules of the system, by setting off and applying against that balance the aggregate balance of obligations owed to the sender by other members of the system. The aggregate balance is determined after the right of setoff stated in the second sentence of this subsection has been exercised.
3. If two banks transmit payment orders to each other under an agreement that settlement of the obligations of each bank to the other under section 41-04.1-27 will be made at the end of the day or other period, the total amount owed with respect to all orders transmitted by one bank shall be set off against the total amount owed with respect to all orders transmitted by the other bank. To the extent of the setoff, each bank has made payment to the other.
4. In a case not covered by subsection 1, the time when payment of the sender's obligation under subsection 2 or 3 of section 41-04.1-27 occurs is governed by applicable principles of law that determine when an obligation is satisfied.

41-04.1-29. (4A-404) Obligation of beneficiary's bank to pay and give notice to beneficiary.

1. Subject to subsection 5 of section 41-04.1-19 and subsections 4 and 5 of section 41-04.1-30, if a beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order, the bank is obliged to pay the amount of the order to the beneficiary of the order. Payment is due on the payment date of the order, but if acceptance occurs on the payment date after the close of the funds-transfer business day of the bank, payment is due on the next funds-transfer business day. If the bank refuses to pay after demand by the beneficiary and receipt of notice of particular circumstances that will give rise to consequential damages as a result of nonpayment, the beneficiary may recover damages resulting from the refusal to pay to the extent the bank had notice of the damages, unless the bank proves that it did not pay because of a reasonable doubt concerning the right of the beneficiary to payment.

2. If a payment order accepted by the beneficiary's bank instructs payment to an account of the beneficiary, the bank is obliged to notify the beneficiary of receipt of the order before midnight of the next funds-transfer business day following the payment date. If the payment order does not instruct payment to an account of the beneficiary, the bank is required to notify the beneficiary only if notice is required by the order. Notice may be given by first-class mail or any other means reasonable in the circumstances. If the bank fails to give the required notice, the bank is obliged to pay interest to the beneficiary on the amount of the payment order from the day notice should have been given until the day the beneficiary learned of receipt of the payment order by the bank. No other damages are recoverable. Reasonable attorney's fees are also recoverable if demand for interest is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim.
3. The right of a beneficiary to receive payment and damages as stated in subsection 1 may not be varied by agreement or a funds-transfer system rule. The right of a beneficiary to be notified as stated in subsection 2 may be varied by agreement of the beneficiary or by a funds-transfer system rule if the beneficiary is notified of the rule before initiation of the funds transfer.

41-04.1-30. (4A-405) Payment by beneficiary's bank to beneficiary.

1. If the beneficiary's bank credits an account of the beneficiary of a payment order, payment of the bank's obligation under subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-29 occurs when and to the extent the beneficiary is notified of the right to withdraw the credit, the bank lawfully applies the credit to a debt of the beneficiary, or funds with respect to the order are otherwise made available to the beneficiary by the bank.
2. If the beneficiary's bank does not credit an account of the beneficiary of a payment order, the time when payment of the bank's obligation under subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-29 occurs is governed by principles of law that determine when an obligation is satisfied.
3. Except as stated in subsections 4 and 5, if the beneficiary's bank pays the beneficiary of a payment order under a condition to payment or agreement of the beneficiary giving the bank the right to recover payment from the beneficiary if the bank does not receive payment of the order, the condition to payment or agreement is not enforceable.
4. A funds-transfer system rule may provide that payments made to beneficiaries of funds transfers made through the system are provisional until receipt of payment by the beneficiary's bank of the payment order it accepted. A beneficiary's bank that makes a payment that is provisional under the rule is entitled to refund from the beneficiary if the rule requires that both the beneficiary and the originator be given notice of the provisional nature of the payment before the funds transfer is initiated, the beneficiary, the beneficiary's bank and the originator's bank agreed to be bound by the rule, and the beneficiary's bank did not receive payment of the payment order that it accepted. If the beneficiary is obliged to refund payment to the beneficiary's bank, acceptance of the payment order by the beneficiary's bank is nullified and no payment by the originator of the funds transfer to the beneficiary occurs under section 41-04.1-31.

5. This subsection applies to a funds transfer that includes a payment order transmitted over a funds-transfer system that nets obligations multilaterally among participants and has in effect a loss-sharing agreement among participants for the purpose of providing funds necessary to complete settlement of the obligations of one or more participants that do not meet their settlement obligations. If the beneficiary's bank in the funds transfer accepts a payment order and the system fails to complete settlement under its rules with respect to any payment order in the funds transfer, the acceptance by the beneficiary's bank is nullified and no person has any right or obligation based on the acceptance; the beneficiary's bank is entitled to recover payment from the beneficiary; no payment by the originator to the beneficiary occurs under section 41-04.1-31 and subject to subsection 5 of section 41-04.1-27, each sender in the funds transfer is excused from its obligation to pay its payment order under subsection 3 of section 41-04.1-27 because the funds transfer has not been completed.

41-04.1-31. (4A-406) Payment by originator to beneficiary - Discharge of underlying obligation.

1. Subject to subsection 5 of section 41-04.1-19 and to subsections 4 and 5 of section 41-04.1-30, the originator of a funds transfer pays the beneficiary of the originator's payment order at the time a payment order for the benefit of the beneficiary is accepted by the beneficiary's bank in the funds transfer and in an amount equal to the amount of the order accepted by the beneficiary's bank, but not more than the amount of the originator's order.
2. If payment under subsection 1 is made to satisfy an obligation, the obligation is discharged to the same extent discharge would result from payment to the beneficiary of the same amount in money, unless the payment under subsection 1 was made by a means prohibited by the contract of the beneficiary with respect to the obligation; the beneficiary, within a reasonable time after receiving notice of receipt of the order by the beneficiary's bank, notified the originator of the beneficiary's refusal of the payment; funds with respect to the order were not withdrawn by the beneficiary or applied to a debt of the beneficiary; and the beneficiary would suffer a loss that could reasonably have been avoided if payment had been made by a means complying with the contract. If payment by the originator does not result in discharge under this section, the originator is subrogated to the rights of the beneficiary to receive payment from the beneficiary's bank under subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-29.

3. For the purpose of determining whether discharge of an obligation occurs under subsection 2, if the beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order in an amount equal to the amount of the originator's payment order less charges of one or more receiving banks in the funds transfer, payment to the beneficiary is deemed to be in the amount of the originator's order unless upon demand by the beneficiary the originator does not pay the beneficiary the amount of the deducted charges.
4. Rights of the originator or of the beneficiary of a funds transfer under this section may be varied only by agreement of the originator and the beneficiary.

41-04.1-32. (4A-501) Variation by agreement and effect of funds-transfer system rule.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter the rights and obligations of a party to a funds transfer may be varied by agreement of the affected party.
2. "Funds-transfer system rule" means a rule of an association of banks (a) which governs transmission of payment orders by means of a funds-transfer system of the association or rights and obligations with respect to those orders or (b) to the extent the rule governs rights and obligations between banks that are parties to a funds transfer in which a federal reserve bank, acting as an intermediary bank, sends a payment order to the beneficiary's bank. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a funds-transfer system rule governing rights and obligations between participating banks using the system may be effective even if the rule conflicts with this chapter and indirectly affects another party to the funds transfer who does not consent to the rule. A funds-transfer system rule may also govern rights and obligations of parties other than participating banks using the system to the extent stated in subsection 3 of section 41-04.1-29, subsection 4 of section 41-04.1-30, and subsection 3 of section 41-04.1-38.

41-04.1-33. (4A-502) Creditor process served on receiving bank - Setoff by beneficiary's bank.

1. As used in this section, "creditor process" means levy, attachment, garnishment, notice of lien, sequestration, or similar process issued by or on behalf of a creditor or other claimant with respect to an account.
2. This subsection applies to creditor process with respect to an authorized account of the sender of a payment order if the creditor process is served on the receiving bank. For the purpose of determining rights with respect to the creditor process, if the receiving bank accepts the payment order the balance in the authorized account is deemed to be reduced by the amount of the payment order to the extent the bank did not otherwise receive payment of the order, unless the creditor process is served at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the bank accepts the payment order.

3. If a beneficiary's bank has received a payment order for payment to the beneficiary's account in the bank, the following rules apply:
  - a. The bank may credit the beneficiary's account. The amount credited may be set off against an obligation owed by the beneficiary to the bank or may be applied to satisfy creditor process served on the bank with respect to the account.
  - b. The bank may credit the beneficiary's account and allow withdrawal of the amount credited unless creditor process with respect to the account is served at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act to prevent withdrawal.
  - c. If creditor process with respect to the beneficiary's account has been served and the bank has had a reasonable opportunity to act on it, the bank may not reject the payment order except for a reason unrelated to the service of process.
4. Creditor process with respect to a payment by the originator to the beneficiary pursuant to a funds transfer may be served only on the beneficiary's bank with respect to the debt owed by that bank to the beneficiary. Any other bank served with the creditor process is not obliged to act with respect to the process.

41-04.1-34. (4A-503) Injunction or restraining order with respect to funds transfer. For proper cause and under applicable law, a court may restrain a person from issuing a payment order to initiate a funds transfer, an originator's bank from executing the payment order of the originator, the beneficiary's bank from releasing funds to the beneficiary, or the beneficiary from withdrawing the funds. A court may not otherwise restrain a person from issuing a payment order, paying or receiving payment of a payment order, or otherwise acting with respect to a funds transfer.

41-04.1-35. (4A-504) Order in which items and payment orders may be charged to account - Order withdrawal from account.

1. If a receiving bank has received more than one payment order of the sender or one or more payment orders and other items that are payable from the sender's account, the bank may charge the sender's account with respect to the various orders and items in any sequence.
2. In determining whether a credit to an account has been withdrawn by the holder of the account or applied to a debt of the holder of the account, credits first made to the account are first withdrawn or applied.

41-04.1-36. (4A-505) Preclusion of objection to debit of customer's account. If a receiving bank has received payment from its customer with respect to a payment order issued in the name of the customer as sender and accepted by the bank, and the customer received notification reasonably identifying the order, the customer is precluded from asserting that the bank is not entitled to retain the payment unless the customer notifies the bank of the customer's objection to the payment within one year after the notification was received by the customer.

41-04.1-37. (4A-506) Rate of interest.

1. If, under this chapter, a receiving bank is obliged to pay interest with respect to a payment order issued to the bank, the amount payable may be determined by agreement of the sender and receiving bank or by a funds-transfer system rule if the payment order is transmitted through a funds-transfer system.
2. If the amount of interest is not determined by an agreement or rule as stated in subsection 1, the amount is calculated by multiplying the applicable federal funds rate by the amount on which interest is payable, and then multiplying the product by the number of days for which interest is payable. The applicable federal funds rate is the average of the federal funds rates published by the federal reserve bank of New York for each of the days for which interest is payable divided by three hundred sixty. The federal funds rate for any day on which a published rate is not available is the same as the published rate for the next preceding day for which there is a published rate. If a receiving bank that accepted a payment order is required to refund payment to the sender of the order because the funds transfer was not completed, but the failure to complete was not due to any fault by the bank, the interest payable is reduced by a percentage equal to the reserve requirement on deposits of the receiving bank.

41-04.1-38. (4A-507) Choice of law.

1. The following rules apply unless the affected parties otherwise agree or subsection 3 applies:
  - a. The rights and obligations between the sender of a payment order and the receiving bank are governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the receiving bank is located.
  - b. The rights and obligations between the beneficiary's bank and the beneficiary are governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the beneficiary's bank is located.
  - c. The issue of when payment is made pursuant to a funds transfer by the originator to the beneficiary is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the beneficiary's bank is located.
2. If the parties described in each paragraph of subsection 1 have made an agreement selecting the law of a particular jurisdiction to govern rights and obligations between each other, the law of that jurisdiction governs those rights and obligations, whether or not the payment order or the funds transfer bears a reasonable relation to that jurisdiction.
3. A funds-transfer system rule may select the law of a particular jurisdiction to govern the:
  - a. Rights and obligations between participating banks with respect to payment orders transmitted or processed through the system.

b. The rights and obligations of some or all parties to a funds transfer any part of which is carried out by means of the system.

A choice of law made under subdivision a is binding on participating banks. A choice of law made under subdivision b is binding on the originator, other sender, or a receiving bank having notice that the funds-transfer system might be used in the funds transfer and of the choice of law by the system when the originator, other sender, or receiving bank issued or accepted a payment order. The beneficiary of a funds transfer is bound by the choice of law if, when the funds transfer is initiated, the beneficiary has notice that the funds-transfer system might be used in the funds transfer and of the choice of law by the system. The law of a jurisdiction selected pursuant to this subsection may govern, whether or not that law bears a reasonable relation to the matter in issue.

4. In the event of inconsistency between an agreement under subsection 2 and a choice-of-law rule under subsection 3, the agreement under subsection 2 prevails.

5. If a funds transfer is made by use of more than one funds-transfer system and there is inconsistency between choice-of-law rules of the systems, the matter in issue is governed by the law of the selected jurisdiction that has the most significant relationship to the matter in issue.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 41-05-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. Definitions in other chapters applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

a. "Accept" or "Acceptance". Section ~~41-03-47~~ 41-03-46.

b. "Contract for sale". Section 41-02-06.

c. "Draft". Section 41-03-04.

d. "Holder in due course". Section 41-03-32.

e. "Midnight deadline". Section 41-04-04.

f. "Security". Section 41-08-02.

SECTION 14. AMENDMENT. Subdivision a of subsection 2 of section 41-05-14 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

a. The issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank or other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances that would make it a holder in due course (section ~~41-03-32~~ 41-03-28) and in an appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated (section 41-07-31) or a bona fide purchaser of a certificated security (section 41-08-18); and

SECTION 15. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 41-09-05 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. The following definitions in other chapters apply to this chapter:
  - a. "Check". Section 41-03-04.
  - b. "Contract for sale". Section 41-02-06.
  - c. "Holder in due course". Section ~~41-03-32~~ 41-03-28.
  - d. "Note". Section 41-03-04.
  - e. "Sale". Section 41-02-06.

SECTION 16. AMENDMENT. Section 41-09-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-09-13. (9-113) Security interests arising under chapter 41-02 or 41-02.1. A security interest arising solely under the chapter on sales ~~chapter 41-02~~ or 41-02.1 is subject to the provisions of this chapter except that to the extent that and so long as the debtor does not have or does not lawfully obtain possession of the goods:

1. No security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable;
2. No filing is required to perfect the security interest; and
3. The rights of the secured party on default by the debtor are governed by ~~the chapter on sales~~ ~~chapter 41-02~~ in the case of a security interest arising solely under chapter 41-02 or by chapter 41-02.1 in the case of a security interest arising solely under chapter 41-02.1.

SECTION 17. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 41-09-16 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Subject to the provisions of section ~~41-04-18~~ 41-04-22 on the security interest of the collecting bank, section ~~41-08-36.1~~ on security interests in securities, and section 41-09-13 on a security interest arising under the chapter on sales, a security interest is not enforceable against the debtor or third parties with respect to the collateral and does not attach unless all of the following take place:
  - a. The collateral is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to agreement, or the debtor has signed a security agreement that contains a description of the collateral and, in addition, if the security interest covers crops growing or to be grown or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned.

- b. Value has been given.
- c. The debtor has rights in the collateral.

SECTION 18. AMENDMENT. Subdivision f of subsection 1 of section 41-09-23 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- f. A security interest of a collecting bank (section ~~41-04-18~~ 41-04-22) or in securities (section 41-08-36.1) or arising under the chapter on sales (see section 41-09-13) or covered in subsection 3.

SECTION 19. AMENDMENT. Section 41-09-30 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-09-30. (9-309) Protection of purchasers of instruments, documents, and securities. Nothing in this chapter limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument (section ~~41-03-32~~ 41-03-28) or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated (section 41-07-30) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (section 41-08-18) and those holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under this chapter does not constitute notice of the security interest to those holders or purchasers.

SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 41-09-33 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. The rules of priority stated in other sections of this part and in the following sections shall govern when applicable: section ~~41-04-18~~ 41-04-22 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents, and proceeds; section 41-09-03 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; and section 41-09-14 on consignments.

SECTION 21. AMENDMENT. Section 47-15-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

47-15-01. "Hiring" defined. Hiring is a contract by which one gives to another the temporary possession and use of personal property, other than goods subject to chapter 41-02.1 or money, for reward, and the latter agrees to return the same to the former at a future time.

SECTION 22. REPEAL. Chapters 41-03 and 41-04 and section 41-09-11 of the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

SECTION 23. TRANSITION. Rights and obligations that arose under section 41-09-11 before its repeal remain valid and may be enforced as though this section had not been repealed.

SECTION 24. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act becomes effective on July 1, 1993.

SENATE BILL NO. 2024
(Legislative Council)
(Interim Agriculture Committee)

AGRICULTURAL LIENS

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 35-17, a new section to chapter 35-30, a new section to chapter 35-31, and a new section to chapter 41-09 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the destruction of certain lien documents and facsimile filing; to amend and reenact sections 11-18-14, 35-05-04, 35-17-01, 35-17-03, 35-17-04, 35-30-01, 35-30-02, 35-31-02, subsection 9 of section 41-09-28, sections 41-09-28.1, 41-09-40, 41-09-41, subdivision a of subsection 5 and subsection 8 of section 41-09-42, and sections 41-09-42.1, 41-09-43, and 41-09-46 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to agister's liens, the establishment of a computerized central notice system and the computerized Uniform Commercial Code central filing system fund, and the filing of security interests and liens; to repeal section 35-17-05 and subsection 10 of section 41-09-28 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to information to be filed with the secretary of state regarding agister's liens; to provide a penalty; to provide an appropriation; to provide an effective date; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

11-18-14. Register of deeds to remove and destroy certain documents - Records to be made. The register of deeds in each county in this state, unless otherwise earlier permitted by law, shall remove from the files in the register's office, and destroy, all seed liens, chattel mortgages, threshing or drying liens, crop production liens, combining liens, agricultural processor's liens, agricultural supplier's liens, agister's liens, mechanic's liens, repairman's liens, unpaid earned insurance premium liens, and sales contracts together with any releases for the same upon which a claim for relief has accrued and which claim for relief is more than ten years old. At the time of destroying the files the register of deeds shall note on the margin of the index opposite the record of each instrument so removed and destroyed the date when the same was destroyed.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 35-05-04 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-05-04. Security agreement not to include other personal property. A security agreement covering specific crops is not valid to create a security interest therein, nor entitled to be filed in the office of the register of deeds or the secretary of state, if the security agreement contains any provision by which a security interest is claimed in any other personal property. For the purpose of this section, the term "crops" means crops, crop proceeds and products, supplementary price payments and payments made in lieu of crop proceeds, including crop insurance payments, for the period of time authorized in this section, but does not include diversion payments or third-party payments made to producers which are not directly related to crop production or proceeds.

35-17-01. Agister's lien authorized. Any person to whom any ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animal is entrusted by the owner thereof for the purpose of feeding, herding, pasturing, or ranching has a lien upon the ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animals for the amount that may be due for feeding, herding, pasturing, or ranching, and is authorized to retain possession of the ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animal until the amount is paid. ~~These provisions may~~ This section does not be construed to apply to stolen stock.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 35-17-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-17-03. Agister's lien by filing - Priority of lien. In addition to sections 35-17-01 and 35-17-02, any person to whom any ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animal is entrusted by the owner for the purpose of feeding, herding, pasturing, or ranching, upon filing the statement prescribed in section 35-17-04, is entitled to a lien upon the ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animal for the amount that may be due for feeding, herding, pasturing, or ranching, effective from the date the person entitled to the lien comes into possession of the ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animal. A lien taken pursuant to this section upon anything other than the animal is void. An agister's lien has priority, as to the animals covered by the lien, over all other liens or encumbrances, except agricultural processors' or agricultural suppliers' liens. This section does not apply to stolen stock.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 35-17-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-17-04. Procedure to obtain lien - Statement filed - Contents - Waiver. Any person entitled to an agister's lien, within ninety days after taking possession of the ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animal, may file in the office of the register of deeds of the in any county in which the owner of the ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ resides this state or in the office of the secretary of state, a verified statement containing ~~all of~~ the following information:

1. The number of and a description of the animals subject to the lien and the legal description as to the location of the animals.
2. The name and address of the person for whom the ~~horses, mules, cattle, or sheep~~ animals are kept.
3. The name and address of the lienholder.
4. The price agreed upon for keeping the animals and, if no price was agreed upon, the reasonable value of the services.

5. The social security number or, in the case of a debtor doing business other than as an individual, the internal revenue service taxpayer identification number of the person for whom the animals are kept.

The secretary of state shall prescribe one form that can be used to obtain a lien under this section or gain protection under the central notice system, or both. If the statement is not filed within ninety days as required by this section, the person entitled to the lien under section 35-17-03 waives the lien.

SECTION 6. A new section to chapter 35-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Secretary of state to remove and destroy certain documents. The secretary of state shall remove and destroy liens filed in the secretary of state's office pursuant to this chapter in the manner provided for in section 11-18-14 for the register of deeds.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 35-30-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-30-01. Agricultural processor's lien authorized. Any person who processes any crop or agricultural product is entitled to a lien upon the crop or product processed for the reasonable value of the services performed. A lien taken pursuant to this section upon anything other than the crop or product processed is void. As used in this chapter, the term "processor" includes persons threshing, combining, drying, or harvesting any crop or agricultural product. The agricultural processor's lien is effective from the date the processing is completed.

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 35-30-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-30-02. Procedure to obtain lien. To obtain an agricultural processor's lien, the person entitled to the lien, within ninety days after the processing is completed, shall file a verified statement in the office of the register of deeds in the any county or counties in which the crop or agricultural product was grown in this state or in the office of the secretary of state. The statement must contain the following information:

1. The name and address of the person for whom the processing was done.
2. The name and address of the processor.
3. A description of the crops or agricultural products and their amount, if known, subject to the lien together with the legal description as to the location where the crops or agricultural products were grown.
4. The price agreed upon for processing, or if no price was agreed upon, the reasonable value of the processing.
5. The social security number or, in the case of a debtor doing business other than as an individual, the internal revenue service taxpayer identification number of the person for whom the processing was done.

The secretary of state shall prescribe one form that can be used to obtain a lien under this section or gain protection under the central notice system, or both.

SECTION 9. A new section to chapter 35-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Secretary of state to remove and destroy certain documents. The secretary of state shall remove and destroy liens filed in the secretary of state's office pursuant to this chapter in the manner provided for in section 11-18-14 for the register of deeds.

35-31-02. Procedure to obtain lien. To obtain an agricultural supplier's lien, except an agricultural supplier's lien for furnishing petroleum products, the person entitled to the lien, within ninety days after the supplies are furnished or the services performed, shall file a verified statement in the office of the register of deeds of the any county or counties in which the crop, agricultural product, or livestock was grown in this state or in the office of the secretary of state. To obtain an agricultural supplier's lien for furnishing and delivering petroleum products, the person entitled to the lien, within one hundred eighty days after the petroleum products are furnished or delivered, shall file a verified statement in the office of the register of deeds of any county in the state or in the office of the secretary of state. The statement must contain the following information:

1. The name and address of the person to whom the supplies were furnished.
2. The name and address of the supplier.
3. A description of the crops, agricultural products, or livestock and their amount or number, if known, subject to the lien together with the legal description as to the location of the crops, agricultural products, or livestock.
4. A description and value of the supplies furnished.
5. The social security number or, in the case of a debtor doing business other than as an individual, the internal revenue service taxpayer identification number of the person to whom the supplies were furnished.

The secretary of state shall prescribe one form that can be used to obtain a lien under this section or gain protection under the central notice system, or both.

SECTION 11. A new section to chapter 35-31 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

- * NOTE: Section 35-31-02 was also amended by section 1 of House Bill No. 1538, chapter 369.

Secretary of state to remove and destroy certain documents. The secretary of state shall remove and destroy liens filed in the secretary of state's office pursuant to this chapter in the manner provided for in section 11-18-14 for the register of deeds.

SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Subsection 9 of section 41-09-28 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

9. If a secured party who has perfected a security interest in crops or livestock, or if a lienholder who has created a lien by statute or otherwise; which includes, ~~but is not limited to,~~ liens for threshing; crop or agricultural product processing; crop production; fertilizer, farm chemicals, and seed; agricultural supplies; and landlord's lien; intends to impose liability for such security interest or lien against a crop or livestock buyer, the name of the secured party or lienholder must appear on the most current list or lists distributed by the secretary of state pursuant to subsection 4 of section 41-09-46. In order to appear on the list or lists, secured parties or lienholders must file with the secretary of state or in the office of the register of deeds in any county in this state a form prescribed by the secretary of state which contains ~~all of the following~~ information:

- a. ~~The name and address of the person engaged in farming operations.~~
- b. ~~The county of residence of the person engaged in farming operations.~~
- c. ~~The social security number of the person engaged in farming operations or, in the case of a debtor doing business other than as an individual, the internal revenue service taxpayer identification number of the debtor except that the social security number is not required for a crop, agricultural processor's, or agricultural supplier's lien obtained under chapter 35-30 or 35-31 unless the social security number is required for certification of the central notice system pursuant to section 1324 of the Food Security Act of 1985 [Pub. L. 99-198; 99 Stat. 1535; 7 U.S.C. 1631].~~
- d. ~~The name and address of the secured party or lienholder.~~
- e. ~~A description of the crops or livestock and their amount, if known, subject to the security interest or lien.~~
- f. ~~The legal description as to the location of the crops or livestock.~~
- g. ~~The signature of the debtor against whom the loan or lien is filed is not required unless the signature is required for certification of the central notice system pursuant to section 1324 of the Food Security Act of 1985 [Pub. L. 99-198; 99 Stat. 1535; 7 U.S.C. 1631].~~
- h. ~~The signature of the secured party or lienholder.~~

A form filed pursuant to this section is effective for a period of five years. The effectiveness and continuation of the form filed is to be treated as if it were filed as a financing statement prescribed by the secretary of state under section 41-09-41 or contained on a form prescribed by the secretary of state under section 35-17-04, 35-30-02, or 35-31-02.

41-09-28.1. Transition provision to computerized central notice system.

1. Until January 1, 1986, a merchant who purchases or commission merchant who sells farm products for another for a fee or commission takes free of security interest created by the seller only if the requirements of subsection 7 of section 41-09-28 are met.
2. Until December 1, 1985, copies of security documents filed by secured parties or lienholders with the register of deeds along with the additional information to be filed pursuant to subsection 9 of section 41-09-28 may be filed with the secretary of state and such documents shall be effective for five years under the central notice system.
3. The secretary of state or a designee shall mail the first lists for crops and livestock created under the central notice system five business days prior to their effective day in January 1986. Any security document filed by secured parties or lienholders before January 1, 1992, lapses on June 30, 1992, unless after January 1, 1992, but before June 30, 1992, there is filed in the office of the secretary of state a copy of the security document, along with the additional information to be filed pursuant to section 35-17-04, 35-30-02, 35-31-02, or 41-09-40, and all related documents on file. A refiled document must be filed in the office in which the original document was first filed. The order of perfection is governed by the date and the time of filing of the original financing statement or statement of lien. Refiling a lien pursuant to this section does not affect the priority of that lien. No filing fees may be charged or collected for the refiling of any security document pursuant to this section. At the time of the refiling of any security document pursuant to this section, the fee for filing and indexing a termination statement pursuant to subsection 3 of section 41-09-43 must be paid, unless that fee was paid with the original filing of the security document.

41-09-40. (9-401) Place of filing - Erroneous filing - Removal of collateral.

1. The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

- a. When the collateral is farm products; or growing crops; or accounts or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer; or consumer goods; then in the office of the register of deeds in the county of the debtor's residence or if the debtor is not a resident of this state then in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the goods are kept.
  - b. When the collateral is timber to be cut, or is minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to subsection 5 of section 41-09-03, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 41-09-34) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate concerned would be filed or recorded.
  - c. When the collateral is equipment used in farming operations; then in the office of the register of deeds in the county of the debtor's residence and in the office of the secretary of state; or if the debtor is not a resident of this state then in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the equipment is kept.
  - d. b. In all other cases, in the office of the register of deeds in any county in this state or in the office of the secretary of state.
2. A filing, ~~other than a filing made pursuant to subdivision c of subsection 4, which that~~ is made in good faith in an improper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this chapter and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement. ~~A filing made pursuant to subdivision c of subsection 4 in an improper county is nevertheless effective if the creditor perceived the place in which the creditor filed to be the debtor's county of residence and the creditor filed in the office of the secretary of state.~~
  3. Filing which A filing that is made in the proper place in this state continues effective even though ~~the debtor's residence or place of business or the~~ location of the collateral or its use, whichever controlled the original filing, is thereafter changed.
  4. If collateral is brought into this state from another jurisdiction, the rules stated in section 41-09-03 determine whether filing is necessary in this state.
  5. Notwithstanding subsections 1, 2, 3, and 4, and subject to subsection 3 of section 41-09-23, the proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is in the office of the secretary of state. This filing constitutes a fixture filing (section 41-09-34) as to the collateral described therein which is or is to become fixtures.

6. For the purposes of this section, the residence of an organization is its place of business, if it has one, or its chief executive office, if it has more than one place of business.

41-09-41. (9-402) Formal requisites of financing statement - Amendments - Mortgage as financing statement.

1. A financing statement is sufficient if it gives the names of the debtor and the secured party, is signed by the debtor, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor, and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral; except a financing statement that is to be filed to gain protection under the central notice system must include any additional information required by the Food Security Act of 1985 [Pub. L. 99-198; 99 Stat. 1535; 7 U.S.C. 1631], as prescribed by the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall prescribe one form that can be used to perfect a security interest in farm products or gain protection under the central notice system, or both. In addition, to be sufficient a financing statement filed after July 1, 1987, must include either the social security number or federal tax identification number of the debtor. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. When the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned. When the financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection 5 of section 41-09-03, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 41-09-34), and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also comply with subsection 5. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor. A carbon, photographic, or other reproduction of a security agreement or a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement if the security agreement so provides or if the original has been filed in this state.
2. A financing statement ~~which~~ that otherwise complies with subsection 1 is sufficient when it is signed by the secured party instead of the debtor if it is filed to perfect a security interest in:
  - a. Collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state, or when the debtor's location is changed to this state. The financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor's location was changed to this state under such circumstances;
  - b. Proceeds under section 41-09-27 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral;

- c. Collateral as to which the filing has lapsed; or
- d. Collateral acquired after a change of name, identity, or corporate structure of the debtor (subsection 7).

3. A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection 1:

Name of debtor (or assignor) -----
 Address -----
 Debtor's social security number or federal tax identification number -----
 Name of secured party (or assignee) -----
 Address -----

a. This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property:

(Describe) -----

b. (If collateral is crops) The above described crops are growing or are to be grown on:

(Describe real estate) -----

c. (If applicable) The above goods are to become fixtures on:

(Describe real estate) ----- and this financing statement is to be filed for record in the real estate records. (If the debtor does not have an interest of record.) The name of a record owner is -----.

d. (If products of collateral are claimed)

Products of the collateral are also covered.

(use ) ----- whichever ) Signature of Debtor (or Assignor) is ) ----- applicable) ) Signature of Secured Party (or Assignor)

4. A financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party. An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "financing statement" means the original financing statement and any amendments.

5. A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection 5 of section 41-09-03, or a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (section 41-09-34) where the debtor is not a transmitting utility, must show that it covers this type of collateral, must recite that it is to be filed for record in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real estate, the financing statement must show the name of a record owner.

6. A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing from the date of its recording if:
  - ↔ a. The goods are described in the mortgage by item or type;
  - ↔ b. The goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real estate described in the mortgage;
  - ↔ c. The mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records; and
  - ↔ d. The mortgage is duly recorded.

No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

7. A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership, or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or the names of partners. Where the debtor so changes his name, or in the case of an organization, its name, identity, or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the change, unless a new appropriate financing statement is filed before the expiration of that time. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of or consents to the transfer.
8. A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading.
9. A financing statement covering crops growing or to be grown must show that it covers crops and where the debtor is not a transmitting utility the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state.
10. A financing statement filed to gain protection under the central notice system must be amended within three months of a material change to reflect that change. The amended financing statement must be signed by both the debtor and secured party and filed in the same manner as the original financing statement.

SECTION 16. AMENDMENT. Subdivision a of subsection 5 and subsection 8 of section 41-09-42 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

a. For filing and indexing any statement under the Uniform Commercial Code, five dollars, and when a nonstandard statement is presented for filing, an additional fee of five dollars plus one dollar per page must be made. No additional fee may be charged if the form is filed also to gain protection under the central notice system.

8. The fee secretary of state shall establish fees for filing a form with the secretary of state pursuant to subsection 9 of section 41-09-28 is not to exceed five dollars. This fee may not directly be charged to the person to whom the loan is made inputting data to, and for obtaining computer access to the computerized central notice system, to the computerized Uniform Commercial Code central filing data base, or to the computerized statutory liens data base, for receiving printouts, and for other services provided through the computerized system.

SECTION 17. AMENDMENT. Section 41-09-42.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-09-42.1. Creation of special fund - Fees collected by secretary of state ~~Deposit in general fund.~~ A special fund is hereby established in the state treasury to be known as the computerized Uniform Commercial Code central filing system fund. Any fees collected by the secretary of state pursuant to subsections 5, 8, 9, 10, and 11 of section 41-09-42 must be deposited in the state general fund computerized Uniform Commercial Code central filing system fund and may be spent within the limits of legislative appropriations for the purpose of implementing, maintaining, updating, and administering the computerized Uniform Commercial Code central filing data base system, the computerized central notice system, and the computerized statutory lien data base system. This fund is not subject to section 54-44.1-11.

SECTION 18. A new section to chapter 41-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Facsimile copies of security agreements, financing statements, and other documents permitted - Penalty for false filing. The secretary of state or the register of deeds should treat a facsimile copy of a security agreement, financing statement, or other document and the signatures on the facsimile copy in the same manner as an original for purposes of sections 41-09-41 and 41-09-42, if the person who received the facsimile copy receives the original document, or a carbon, photographic, or other reproduction if allowed under subsection 1 of section 41-09-41, within five working days of receipt of the facsimile copy. The date of filing relates back to the date of receipt of the facsimile copy. The facsimile copy must be legible and the same size as the original document. During the five-day period, the facsimile copy constitutes constructive notice of the original document. If the required document is not received within five working days of receipt of the facsimile copy, the filing of the facsimile copy is void. A person who files a false document by a facsimile copy is liable to the party aggrieved for treble damages resulting from the filing of the false document.

41-09-43. (9-404) Termination statement.

1. If a financing statement covering consumer goods is filed on or after January 1, 1974, then within one month or within ten days following written demand by the debtor after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. In other cases where there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party must send to the debtor on written demand by the debtor send the debtor, for each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that he the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record complying with subsection 2 of section 41-09-44, including payment of the required fee, if any. If the affected secured party fails to file such a termination statement as required by this subsection, or to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand therefor he shall be, the secured party is liable to the debtor for one hundred dollars, and in addition, for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.
2. On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement, he must the filing officer shall note it in the index. If he the filing officer has received the termination statement in duplicate, he the filing officer shall return one copy of the termination statement to the secured party stamped to show the time of receipt thereof. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the financing statement, and of any related continuation statement, statement of assignment, and statement of release, he the filing officer may remove the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement, or if he the filing officer has no such record, he the filing officer may remove them from the files at any time after one year after receipt of the termination statement.
3. The fee for filing and indexing a termination statement, including sending or delivering the financing statement, is five dollars. For any financing statement filed after the effective date of this section, the fee must be paid at the time the fee for filing the financing statement is paid.

SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Section 41-09-46 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

* NOTE: Section 41-09-43 was also amended by section 3 of Senate Bill No. 2129, chapter 624.

41-09-46. (9-407) Information from filing officer - ~~Central~~ Computerized central notice system - Secretary of state to compile lists for crops and livestock - Distribution of lists.

1. If the person filing any financing statement, termination statement, statement of assignment, or statement of release, furnishes the filing officer a copy thereof, the filing officer ~~shall~~ upon request shall note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.
2. Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall issue ~~his~~ a certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective financing statement naming a particular debtor and any statement of assignment ~~thereof~~ and if there is, giving the date and hour of filing of each ~~such~~ statement and the names and addresses of each secured party ~~therein~~. The fee for ~~such a~~ this certificate ~~shall be~~ is as provided by section 41-09-42. Upon request the filing officer shall furnish a copy of any filed financing statement or statement of assignment for a fee as provided by section 41-09-42.
3. The secretary of state shall develop and implement a computerized central notice system which ~~shall~~ must contain the information filed with ~~his~~ the office of the secretary of state or with any of the offices of the registers of deeds in this state pursuant to subsection 9 of section 41-09-28 sections 35-17-04, 35-30-02, 35-31-02, and 41-09-40. The system must connect each registers of deeds' office to the secretary of state's office through the information services division. The system must allow access to financing statement information by equipment that conforms to requirements determined by the information services division. The system must have safeguards to allow access to information that is in the system relating to security interests or liens and to prevent unauthorized alteration or deletion of that information and to allow access to other information in the system as prescribed by the secretary of state. Within one working day of receipt of a financing statement, continuation statement, amendment, or termination statement filed pursuant to this chapter or a statement filed pursuant to section 35-17-04, 35-30-02, or 35-31-02, the register of deeds or secretary of state shall record the information contained in the statement in the computerized central notice system. A computer printout of information from the system is prima facie evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the filing of a financing statement or lien. From the computerized central notice system, the secretary of state or a designee shall produce each month one list for crops and one list for livestock which ~~contains~~ contain the information as filed on the forms pursuant to subsection 9 of section 41-09-28 41-09-40. The secretary of state shall also include the information filed for crops and livestock pursuant to sections 35-17-04, 35-30-02, and 35-31-02. The list ~~shall~~ must be in alphabetical order according to the last name of, or in numerical order according to the social security number of, the person engaged in farming operations. The lists may be prepared in categories according to county, regions as designated by the secretary of state, or on a statewide basis. If ~~a request is made~~ requested, the lists ~~shall~~ must be in printed form and on microfiche. Each list ~~shall~~ must conspicuously note its effective date.

4. The lists prepared pursuant to subsection 3 ~~shall~~ must be distributed monthly by mail at least five business days in advance of their effective date. If requested, the secretary of state shall mail the lists to any person making a request at a fee as provided in section 41-09-42.
5. Upon a verbal request of any person, the secretary of state or a designee or a register of deeds shall verbally provide information contained on the list generated through the computerized central notice system when the collateral is crops or livestock. The requesting party may request a certificate from the secretary of state or the register of deeds and the secretary of state or the register of deeds shall confirm the information given. Direct computer access is equivalent to oral confirmation and a computer printout constitutes the written confirmation of the secretary of state, if use of this method of confirmation does not cause the central notice system to lose its federal certification. The fee for a verbal request and such a certificate ~~shall~~ must be as provided by section 41-09-42.
6. A computer printout from the computerized central notice system constitutes the certificate of the secretary of state or the register of deeds as to whether there is on file, on the date and hour stated on the computer printout, a financing statement.

SECTION 21. REPEAL. Section 35-17-05 of the North Dakota Century Code and subsection 10 of section 41-09-28 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

SECTION 22. APPROPRIATION. The funds provided in this section, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are appropriated out of any moneys in the computerized Uniform Commercial Code central filing system fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to the secretary of state for the purpose of implementing, maintaining, updating, and administering the computerized Uniform Commercial Code central filing data base system, the computerized central notice system, and the computerized statutory lien data base system for the period beginning with the effective date of this Act and ending June 30, 1993, as follows:

The board may issue a license or permit to an applicant who has received a passing score on each section of the national board of podiatric medical examiners licensing examination or such other licensing examination as determined by the board. The board shall determine the requirements for a passing score. An applicant shall appear in person before the board or its designated representative to complete an oral practical examination and show that the applicant satisfies the requirements for licensure. The board may accept a national clinical examination prepared and graded by the national board of podiatric medical examiners in lieu of the oral practical examination. The board may establish the procedures or requirements for the applicant's personal presentation and the subject matter of the oral practical examination.

2. The board may issue a temporary permit to practice podiatric medicine to a person engaged in a clinical residency or preceptorship for a period not to exceed twelve months if the person meets all the conditions and qualifications for licensure established by this chapter and rules of the board. The applicant for a temporary permit must submit a fee of not more than two hundred fifty dollars, as determined by the board.

43-05-13. Reexamination when applicant fails in first examination. Any applicant who fails ~~in~~ the examination and is refused a license, within one year after such refusal, may be reexamined upon paying an additional fee of ~~ten~~ three hundred dollars. Only one ~~such~~ reexamination ~~shall exhaust~~ exhausts the applicant's privilege under the original application.

SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-14. When license issued without examination. The board may issue a license without examination to a podiatrist of another state or Canadian province if:

1. ~~Such~~ The other state or Canadian province grants like privileges to podiatrists of this state;
2. ~~Such~~ The other state or Canadian province maintains equal statutory requirements for practicing ~~podiatry~~ podiatric medicine;
3. ~~Such~~ The applicant pays a fee of ~~seventy-five~~ not more than five hundred dollars as determined by the board;
4. ~~Such~~ The applicant has been engaged legally in the active practice of ~~podiatry~~ podiatric medicine for at least two years immediately preceding the date of ~~his~~ application;
5. The applicant presents satisfactory evidence to the board indicating the current status of a license to practice podiatric medicine which has been issued by the proper agency in another state or Canadian province;
6. The applicant has not had a license suspended or revoked, or has not engaged in conduct warranting or which would have warranted disciplinary action against a licensee if the conduct was committed in this state or elsewhere, or has not been subjected to disciplinary action in another state or Canadian province. If an applicant does not satisfy the requirements of this subsection, the board shall refuse to issue a license unless the board determines that the public will be protected through issuance of a license with conditions or limitations considered appropriate by the board; and
7. The applicant submits with the application the following information for the five-year period before the date of filing the application:

- a. The name and address of the applicant's professional liability insurance carrier in the other state or Canadian province; and
- b. The number, date, and disposition of any podiatric medical malpractice settlement or award made to the plaintiff relating to the quality of podiatric medical treatment.

SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-15. Renewal of license - Fee - Established by board - Failure to pay - Reinstatement. Each licensed and practicing podiatrist in this state shall pay ~~an~~ the annual renewal ~~uniform~~ license fee to be established by the board, ~~which~~. The license fee may be increased in accordance with the number of years licensed and practicing in North Dakota, but may not to exceed one hundred fifty five hundred dollars. The fee must be paid on or before the first day of June of each year and shall be the renewal date established by the board. The person is entitled to an annual certificate or license upon payment of ~~said~~ the fee. If the renewal fee is not paid within six months after June first of each year the date established by the board, the license of the delinquent licensee ~~shall~~ must be revoked and ~~shall~~ may not be reissued except upon a new application and the payment of a sum equal to such the renewal fee ~~as~~ established by the board plus twenty-five dollars and the costs of any hearing held concerning revocation of a license for nonpayment.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-16 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-16. Grounds for ~~revoking or refusing to grant license disciplinary action~~. After notice and due hearing the board may refuse to renew a license to practice podiatry or may revoke an existing license for any one or more of the following causes:

- 1- ~~Prescribing for or treating any disease or defect of any part of the human body which in the opinion of the board is outside the scope of the practice of podiatry.~~
- 2- ~~The use of untruthful or improbable statements to patients or in his advertisements.~~
- 3- ~~The willful betrayal of professional secrets of a patient.~~
- 4- ~~False statement of an applicant in an application for a license or an affidavit connected with an application.~~
- 5- ~~Conviction of an offense determined by the board to have a direct bearing upon the holder's ability to serve the public as a podiatrist, or the board determines that the holder, following his conviction of any offense, is not sufficiently rehabilitated under section ~~42-1-33-02-1~~.~~
- 6- ~~Proof of the use by the applicant or licensee of morphine, opium, cocaine, or any other substance or drug having a similar effect.~~
- 7- ~~Giving away or prescribing any substance or compound containing morphine, opium, cocaine, or similar drug; exchanging the same for~~ money or its equivalent; or vending or bartering the same for other than legal and legitimate therapeutic purposes.

It shall be unlawful for any person licensed under this chapter to maintain his or her professional office in conjunction or relation with any business other than those engaged in the practice of the medical sciences. The board of registry in podiatry may revoke the license of anyone violating this provision.

1. The board may refuse to grant a license or permit or may impose disciplinary action as described in this chapter against any podiatrist. The following conduct, whether occurring in this state or elsewhere, is prohibited and is a basis for disciplinary action:
  - a. Failure to demonstrate the qualification or satisfy the requirements for a license or permit under this chapter or rules of the board.
  - b. Obtaining a license or permit by fraud or cheating or attempting to subvert the licensing or permit examination process, the use of any false, fraudulent, or forged statement or document, or the use of any fraudulent, deceitful, dishonest, or immoral practice in connection with any of the license or permit requirements.
  - c. Conviction, during the previous five years, of a misdemeanor or felony reasonably related to the practice of podiatric medicine, or determined by the board to have a direct bearing upon a person's ability to serve the public as a podiatrist. A license may not be withheld contrary to chapter 12.1-33.
  - d. Revocation, suspension, restriction, limitation, or other disciplinary action against the person's podiatric medical license in another state or jurisdiction, failure to report to the board that charges regarding the person's license have been brought in another state or jurisdiction, or failure to report to the board that the person has been refused a license by another state or jurisdiction.
  - e. Advertising that is false or misleading, or the making of any false or misleading statement about the podiatrist's skill, training, experience, or ability or the efficacy of any treatment or remedy.
  - f. Violating a rule adopted by the board; an order of the board; any provision of this chapter; any action, stipulation, condition or agreement imposed by the board; a state or federal law that relates to the practice of podiatric medicine; or a state or federal narcotics or controlled substance law.
  - g. Engaging in any unethical conduct; conduct likely to deceive, defraud, or harm the public; demonstrating a willful, careless, or negligent disregard for the health, welfare, or safety of a patient; or podiatric medical practice that is professionally incompetent, in that it may create unnecessary danger to any patient's life, health, or safety regardless of whether an actual injury is proved.

- h. Failure to supervise a preceptor or resident;
- i. Aiding or abetting an unlicensed, incompetent, or impaired person in the practice of podiatric medicine.
- j. Adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction as mentally incompetent, mentally ill, chemically dependent, a person dangerous to the public, or a person who has a psychopathic personality.
- k. Engaging in unprofessional conduct that includes any departure from or the failure to conform to the minimal standards of acceptable and prevailing podiatric medical practice.
- l. Inability to practice podiatric medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients because of physical or mental illness, chemical dependency, or as a result of any mental or physical condition or disability.
- m. Revealing a privileged communication from or relating to a patient except when otherwise required or permitted by law.
- n. Improper management of medical records.
- o. Accepting, paying, or promising to pay a part of a fee in exchange for patient referrals; obtaining any fee by fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation; or the payment or receipt, directly or indirectly, of any fee, commission, rebate or other compensation for services not actually or personally rendered.
- p. Engaging in abusive or fraudulent billing practices.
- q. Habitual use of, or becoming addicted or habituated to, alcohol or drugs.
- r. Prescribing, administering, or distributing a drug for other than medically accepted therapeutic purposes, experimental, or investigative purposes authorized by a state or federal agency.
- s. Engaging in sexual misconduct, sexual abuse, or exploitation with or of a patient; conduct that may reasonably be interpreted by the patient as sexual; or in verbal behavior which is seductive or sexually demeaning to a patient.
- t. The failure to furnish the board or representatives information legally requested by the board.
- u. A continued pattern of inappropriate care as a podiatrist.
- v. The practice of podiatric medicine under a false or assumed name other than a partnership name containing the names of one or more of the licensed partners.
- w. Maintaining a professional office in conjunction or relation with any business not engaged in the practice of the medical sciences.

- x. Treating any disease, sickness, illness, malady, or defect that is outside the scope of the practice of podiatric medicine.
- 2. In disciplinary actions alleging a violation of subdivision c or d of subsection 1, a copy of the judgment or proceeding under the seal of the clerk of court or of the administrative agency that entered the judgment or proceeding is admissible into evidence without further authentication and constitutes prima facie evidence of the contents of that judgment or proceeding.
- 3. The board shall keep a record of all of its proceedings in the matter of suspending, revoking, or refusing licenses or permits together with the evidence offered.

SECTION 14. A new section to chapter 43-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Forms of disciplinary action - Dates - Automatic suspensions - Reissuance.

- 1. When the board finds, pursuant to chapter 28-32, that a podiatrist has violated this chapter or a rule of the board, the board may do one or more of the following:
  - a. Revoke the license or permit.
  - b. Suspend the license or permit.
  - c. Institute probation with or without any of the following terms:
    - (1) Impose limitations or conditions on the podiatrist's practice of podiatric medicine;
    - (2) Impose retraining or rehabilitation requirements;
    - (3) Require practice under supervision;
    - (4) Condition the continued practice on demonstration of knowledge or skills by an appropriate examination or other review of skill and competence.
  - d. Impose a civil penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars for each violation, the amount of the civil penalty fixed so as to deprive the podiatrist of any economic advantage gained by the violation or to reimburse the board for the cost of the investigation and proceeding.
  - e. Order the podiatrist to provide unremunerated professional service under supervision at a designated public hospital, nursing home, clinic, or other health care facility or institution.
  - f. Reprimand the podiatrist.
  - g. Censure the podiatrist.
  - h. Send the podiatrist a letter of concern.

SECTION 15. A new section to chapter 43-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Suspension or revocation of license.

1. In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the board may, without a hearing, temporarily suspend the license or permit of a podiatrist if the board finds as a matter of probable cause based on verified evidence that the podiatrist has violated this chapter or a rule of the board and that continued practice by the podiatrist would create or be likely to result in a serious and imminent risk of harm to the public. The ex parte temporary suspension order is effective upon written notice to the podiatrist, specifying the law or rule violated. The ex parte temporary suspension remains in effect until the board issues a final order in the matter after a hearing unless otherwise ordered by a district court. When the board issues the ex parte temporary suspension notice, the board shall schedule a disciplinary hearing to be held pursuant to chapter 28-32. The hearing must be scheduled to begin no later than sixty days after the issuance of the ex parte temporary suspension. Within three days after the issuance of the ex parte suspension order, the board shall serve the podiatrist with a copy of the order along with a copy of the complaint and notice of the date set for the full hearing. The podiatrist may appeal the ex parte temporary suspension order prior to the full hearing. For purposes of this appeal, the district court shall decide whether probable cause reasonably requires the temporary suspension to adequately protect the public interests. The court shall give priority to the appeal for prompt disposition thereof. Unless ordered by the district court, an appeal by the podiatrist of the ex parte temporary suspension order does not stay the effectiveness or validity of the ex parte temporary suspension.
2. A suspension, revocation, condition, limitation, qualification, or restriction of a license or permit is in effect pending determination of an appeal unless the court, upon petition and for good cause shown, otherwise orders.
3. A license or permit to practice podiatric medicine is automatically suspended if a guardian of the person of a licensee or permittee is appointed by order of a court under chapter 30.1-28 or other similar provisions in this state or elsewhere for reasons other than the minority of the licensee or permittee, or the licensee or permittee is committed by order of a court under chapter 25-03.1 or other similar provisions of law in this state or elsewhere. The license or permit remains suspended until the licensee or permittee is restored to capacity by a court and, upon petition by the licensee or permittee, the suspension is terminated by the board after a hearing.
4. The board may restore and reissue a license or permit to practice podiatric medicine and may impose as a condition of the license or permit any disciplinary or corrective measure.
5. The board may revoke the license of any podiatrist who fails to renew a license. A revocation may occur after six months from the date when all renewal fees and other conditions must be paid or completed and be in effect before any hearing upon written notice to the podiatrist of the revocation. A hearing must be held within sixty days of the service of the notice of revocation upon the podiatrist.

SECTION 16. A new section to chapter 43-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Podiatrist cooperation. A podiatrist or applicant for license under this chapter who is the subject of an investigation by the board shall cooperate fully with the investigation. Cooperation includes responding fully and promptly to any question raised by the board relating to the subject of the investigation and providing copies of patient medical records or other documentation to assist the board in its investigation. The board shall pay for the copies requested. If the board does not have written consent from a patient permitting access to the patient's records, the podiatrist or applicant for license shall delete any data in the record that identifies the patient before providing the record to the board.

SECTION 17. A new section to chapter 43-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Mental examination - Access to medical data.

1. If the board has probable cause to believe that a podiatrist or applicant for license falls within the provisions of subdivisions l or q of subsection 1 of section 43-05-16, it may direct the podiatrist or applicant for license to submit to a mental or physical examination or chemical dependency evaluation. A podiatrist licensed or permitted under this chapter or an applicant for a license is considered to have consented to submit to a mental or physical examination or chemical dependency examination when directed in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examiner's testimony or examination reports on the ground that the examination constitutes a privileged communication. The failure of a podiatrist or applicant for a license to submit to an examination when directed constitutes an admission of the allegations against the podiatrist or applicant for license and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the podiatrist's or applicant's control. A podiatrist or applicant for a license must, at reasonable intervals, be given an opportunity to demonstrate that the podiatrist or applicant can resume or commence the competent practice of podiatric medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients. In a proceeding under this subsection, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board may be used against a podiatrist or applicant in any other proceeding.
2. In addition to ordering a physical or mental examination or a chemical dependency evaluation, the board may, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, obtain medical data and health records relating to a licensee or applicant without the licensee's or applicant's consent if the board has probable cause to believe that the podiatrist or applicant falls within the provisions of subdivisions l or q of subsection 1 of section 43-05-16. The medical data may be requested from a provider, an insurance company, or a government agency. A provider, insurance company, or government agency shall comply with a written request of the board under this section and is not liable in any action for damages for releasing the data requested by the board if the data are released in accordance with a written request under this section unless the information is false and the provider giving the information knew or had reason to believe the information was false.

SECTION 18. A new section to chapter 43-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Reporting obligations.

1. A person who has knowledge of any conduct constituting grounds for discipline under this chapter may report the violation to the board.
2. A hospital, clinic, or other health care institution, facility, organization shall report to the board any action taken by the hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, institution, or organization to revoke, suspend, restrict, or condition a podiatrist's privilege to practice or treat patients in the hospital, clinic, or other health care facility or institution, or as part of the organization, any denial of privileges or any other disciplinary action. The hospital, clinic or other health care facility, institution, or organization shall also report the resignation of any podiatrist before the conclusion of any disciplinary proceeding, or before the commencement of formal charges but after the podiatrist had knowledge that formal charges were contemplated or in preparation. No report is required of a podiatrist voluntarily limiting practice at a hospital if the podiatrist notifies all hospitals at which the podiatrist has privileges of the voluntary limitation and the reasons for it.
3. Four times a year, as prescribed by the board, each insurer providing professional liability insurance to podiatrists shall submit to the board a report concerning any podiatrist against whom podiatric medical malpractice settlements or awards have been made. The report must contain at least the following information:
  - a. The total number of podiatric malpractice settlements or awards made to the plaintiff.
  - b. The date the podiatric malpractice settlements or awards to the plaintiff were made.
  - c. The allegations contained in the claim or complaint leading to the settlements or awards made to the plaintiff.
  - d. The dollar amount of each podiatric malpractice settlement or award.
  - e. The regular address of the practice of the podiatrist against whom an award was made or with whom a settlement was made.
  - f. The name of the podiatrist against whom an award was made or with whom a settlement was made.

In addition, the insurance company shall report to the board any information it has that tends to substantiate a charge that a podiatrist may have engaged in conduct prohibited under this chapter.

4. The clerks of court of the district courts or any other court of competent jurisdiction shall report to the board any judgment or other determination of the court that adjudges or includes a finding that a podiatrist is mentally ill; mentally incompetent; chemically dependent; guilty of a felony; guilty of a violation of federal or state narcotics laws or controlled substances acts; guilty of an abuse or fraud under medicare, medicaid, or medical assistance laws or rules; appoints a guardian of the podiatrist; or provides for the civil commitment of a podiatrist.
5. Reports required by this section must be submitted no later than thirty days after the occurrence of the reportable event or transaction. The board may provide forms for the submission of reports required by this section, may require that reports be submitted on the forms provided, and may adopt rules necessary to assure prompt and accurate reporting.

SECTION 19. A new section to chapter 43-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Board immunity and privileged communications.

1. No member of the board, its committees, its employees, or its staff is liable for civil damages or subject to criminal prosecution for any action undertaken or performed within the scope of the functions of the board when acting without malice or gross negligence and in the reasonable belief the action was warranted.
2. Every communication, oral or written, made by or on behalf of any person, institution, agency, or organization to the board or to any person designated by the board to investigate or otherwise hear matters relating to any disciplinary action, is privileged. No action or proceeding, civil or criminal, is permitted against any person, institution, agency, or organization for submitting a report to the board under section 18 of this Act. For any report or communication not required by section 18 of this Act, no action or proceeding, civil or criminal, is permitted against a person, institution, agency, or organization, except upon proof that the communication or report was made with malice.
3. The protections afforded in this section do not prohibit a respondent or a respondent's legal counsel from exercising the respondent's constitutional right of due process under the law, or as prohibiting the respondent from normal access to the charges and evidence filed against the respondent as part of due process under the law.

SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-17. Penalty. Any A person violating any provision of this chapter shall be for which another penalty is not provided, is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. In addition, the civil remedy of injunction is available to the board to restrain and enjoin any violation of this chapter without the need to prove actual damages to any person.

NURSES AND NURSES' ASSISTANTS

AN ACT to create and enact a new subsection to section 43-12.1-02, a new subsection to section 43-12.1-04, a new subsection to section 43-12.1-08, a new subsection to section 43-12.1-15, and a new section to chapter 43-12.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to regulation of nurses and assistants to nurses; to amend and reenact sections 43-12.1-01 and 43-12.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to policy with respect to the regulation of nursing practice; to provide a penalty; to provide an expiration date; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 43-12.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-12.1-01. Statement of policy. The legislative assembly finds that the practice of nursing is directly related to the public welfare of the citizens of the state of North Dakota and is subject to regulation and control in the public interest to assure that qualified, competent practitioners and high quality standards are available. It is essential to govern qualifications for licensure nursing practice with requirements for the maintenance of high standards and to state sanctions by which an illicit, unqualified, dishonest person or one that is otherwise against the public interest can be disciplined. The legislative assembly further declares that it is the policy of this state to regulate through the board of nursing the practice of nursing, those engaged in licensed nursing practice, and all persons who assist in the practice of nursing. A person who practices or offers to practice nursing or who represents that the person is licensed under this chapter or is qualified to assist in the practice of nursing without qualifying under this chapter endangers the public health. This chapter shall be liberally construed in order to carry out its purposes and objectives.

SECTION 2. A new subsection to section 43-12.1-02 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

"Assistant to the nurse" means, without regard to agency title, a person who is authorized to perform nursing functions or nursing tasks legally delegated and supervised by a licensed nurse.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 43-12.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-12.1-04. Persons exempt from provisions of chapter. This chapter ~~shall~~ does not apply to:

1. Persons who give nursing assistance in cases of emergency or disaster.
2. Students practicing nursing as a part of a board approved nursing education program.
3. Legally licensed nurses of another state who are employed in this state by the United States government or a bureau, division, or agency thereof.
4. Legally licensed nurses of another state or Canada, whose employment requires them to accompany and care for a patient who is in transit for medical treatment.
5. A person who provides nursing care or performs nursing functions or nursing tasks for an immediate family member.
6. A person who is not licensed under this chapter and who renders assistance pursuant to chapter 23-27.

SECTION 4. A new subsection to section 43-12.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

A person who is not licensed under this chapter and who provides nursing services in a hospital as defined in section 23-30-01.

SECTION 5. A new subsection to section 43-12.1-08 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Establish, implement, and maintain a registry of each person who meets the definition of assistant to the nurse.

SECTION 6. A new subsection to section 43-12.1-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Employ a person to perform nursing or nursing-related functions or tasks unless the person is authorized by the board to perform those functions or tasks.

SECTION 7. A new section to chapter 43-12.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Grounds for discipline - Assistant to the nurse. The board may revoke, suspend, or deny the registration of a person providing assistance to a nurse if that person:

1. Has been convicted of an offense determined by the board to have a direct bearing upon that person's ability to serve the public as an assistant to the nurse, or when the board determines, following conviction of any offense, that a person is not sufficiently rehabilitated under section 12.1-33-02.1;

2. Has been disciplined by a board of nursing or another state agency in another state; or
3. Has engaged in an act in violation of rules adopted by the board.

SECTION 8. EXPIRATION DATE. Section 4 of this Act is effective through June 30, 1993, and after that date is ineffective.

SECTION 9. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.

PRESCRIPTIVE PRACTICES FOR NURSES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 43-12.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to establishment and duties of a prescriptive authority committee; and to amend and reenact subsection 5 of section 43-12.1-02 and subsection 16 of section 43-12.1-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to definition of the practice of nursing as a registered nurse and the powers and duties of the board of nursing.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 43-12.1-02 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

5. The "practice of nursing as a registered nurse" means the performance of acts requiring the specialized knowledge, judgment, and skill based on principles of the biological, physical, behavioral, and social sciences in:
  - a. The maintenance of health and prevention of illness.
  - b. Diagnosing human responses to actual or potential health problems.
  - c. Providing supportive and restorative care, health counseling and teaching, case finding and referral of persons who are ill, injured, or experiencing changes in the normal health processes.
  - d. Administration, teaching, supervision, delegation, and evaluation of health and nursing practices.
  - e. Collaboration in the implementation of the total health care regimen and execution of a medical regimen as prescribed or authorized by a licensed physician or dentist.
  - f. The performance of such additional acts, including prescriptive practices under the supervision of a licensed physician, which are recognized by the nursing profession as proper to be performed by registered nurses who have had ~~additional~~ specialized advanced preparation and are authorized by the board through its rules to perform such acts.

For purposes of this subdivision:

- (1) "Prescriptive practices" means assessing the need for drugs, immunizing agents, or devices and writing a prescription to be filled by a licensed pharmacist. Prescriptive practices must be consistent with the scope of practice submitted by the registered nurse to obtain advanced licensure.
- (2) "Supervision of a licensed physician" means performance under a contract with a licensed physician for review and acknowledgement of appropriate prescriptive practices for implementation by the registered nurse with advanced licensure who is authorized by the board to write a prescription to be filled by a licensed pharmacist.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 16 of section 43-12.1-08 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

16. Establish standards for quality of practice for registered nurses and licensed practical nurses functioning in specialized advanced practice roles after consultation with the North Dakota state nurses association, the North Dakota licensed practical nurses association, and other recognized nursing specialty groups.

SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 43-12.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Prescriptive practices for registered nurses with advanced licenses. The nature and extent of prescriptive practices must be determined by a prescriptive authority committee comprised of two members of the board of nursing, one of whom must be a registered nurse; one physician appointed by the board of medical examiners; and one pharmacist appointed by the board of pharmacy. The committee may retain consultants as necessary. The committee shall recommend rules regarding prescriptive practices for adoption by the board. Rules adopted by the board must include the evidence required by the board as verification of education and training in pharmacology and clinical management of drug therapy in order to consider an application for prescriptive privileges, and the nature and extent of the collaboration and consultation required from the supervising physician. The application for prescriptive practices must include an affidavit from the supervising physician acknowledging the manner of review and approval of the planned prescriptive practices. The board shall notify the board of pharmacy on an annual basis, or more frequent basis if necessary, of the registered nurses with advanced licenses who are authorized to write prescriptions to be filled by a licensed pharmacist.

PRESCRIPTION DISPENSING

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 43-15 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to oral transmission of refilled prescriptions; and to amend and reenact subsections 4 and 18 of section 43-15-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to definitions for the purposes of dispensing prescription drugs.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsections 4 and 18 of section 43-15-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

4. "Dispense" or "dispensing" means the preparation and delivery of a prescription drug, pursuant to a lawful order of a practitioner or a nurse licensed under chapter 43-12.1 who is authorized by the practitioner to orally transmit the order that has been reduced to writing in the patient's record, in a suitable container appropriately labeled for subsequent administration to or use by a patient or other individual entitled to receive the prescription drug.

18. "Prescription" means any order for drugs or medical supplies, where such order is written or signed or transmitted by word of mouth, telephone, telegram, or other means of communication by a duly licensed physician, optometrist, dentist, veterinarian, or other practitioner, licensed by law to prescribe and administer such drugs or medical supplies intended to be filled, compounded, or dispensed by a pharmacist or any order for drugs or medical supplies transmitted orally by a nurse licensed under chapter 43-12.1 as written and signed by such a duly licensed physician, optometrist, dentist, veterinarian, or other practitioner.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 43-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Oral transmission of refill prescriptions. An oral reorder for a prescription drug may be accepted and dispensed by a pharmacist or registered pharmacist intern if received from a practitioner, or a nurse licensed under chapter 43-12.1 who is authorized by the practitioner to transmit the oral refill prescription. Before authorizing the transmittal of the oral refill prescription, the practitioner shall place a written copy of the prescription in the patient's records. Only a registered pharmacist or a registered pharmacist intern may receive an oral refill prescription. An oral refill prescription received by an agent or clerical person employed by a pharmacy may not be dispensed. The licensing board of a practitioner shall notify the board of pharmacy and board of nursing in writing, on an annual basis or more frequent basis if necessary, of the specific nurse or nurses who are authorized by the practitioner to transmit oral refill prescriptions.

PHYSICIAN LOAN REPAYMENT PROGRAM

AN ACT to establish a state-community matching physician loan repayment program; and to provide an appropriation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. State-community matching physician loan repayment program.

1. The North Dakota state-community matching physician loan repayment program is established as provided by this Act.
2. The purpose of the program is to increase the number of physicians practicing medicine in North Dakota communities with defined health professional medical need.
3. Under the program, loan repayments may be made to a recipient for educational expenses incurred while the recipient was attending an accredited four-year allopathic or osteopathic medical school located in the United States or Canada.
4. Loan repayment funds consist of a fifty percent match from the state and a fifty percent match from the selected community.
5. Each recipient is limited to a forty thousand dollar maximum loan repayment to be paid over four years.
6. The state health council shall select up to five recipients in five communities each year as participants in the program.

SECTION 2. Powers of state health council. The state health council may:

1. Determine eligibility and qualifications of an applicant to receive loan repayment in accordance with section 3 of this Act.
2. Identify communities with health professional medical need and establish a priority ranking for program participation of the selected communities.
3. Determine the amount of the loan repayment an applicant may receive within the parameters of this Act. This determination must include an investigation of the outstanding education loans incurred by the applicant.
4. Determine the condition of loan repayment to an applicant.

5. Enter into a four-year nonrenewable loan repayment program contract with the applicant and the selected community to provide repayment of education loans in exchange for the physician agreeing to practice medicine in the selected community.
6. Receive and use funds appropriated for the program.
7. Receive and use funds paid by the selected communities for repayment of education loans for physicians who apply and qualify for assistance under the program.
8. Enforce any contract under the program.
9. Cancel a contract for reasonable cause.
10. Participate in federal programs supporting repayment of loans to eligible physicians, and agree to the conditions of the federal programs.
11. Create a loan repayment application packet.
12. Accept property from any entity.
13. Work with the university of North Dakota's center for rural health in implementing this Act.

SECTION 3. Physician selection criteria - Eligibility for loan repayment.

1. The state health council shall establish criteria to apply to an applicant for a loan repayment. The criteria must include:
  - a. The extent to which an applicant's training is in a medical specialty determined by the state health council to be needed in a selected community.
  - b. The applicant's commitment to serve in a community with defined health professional medical need.
  - c. The applicant's achieving a match with a selected community.
  - d. The availability of the applicant for service, with the highest consideration being given to an applicant who is available for service at the earliest date.
  - e. The applicant's professional competence and conduct.
  - f. The applicant's willingness to accept medicare and medicaid assignment.
2. The state health council shall give priority for program participation to an applicant who:
  - a. Graduated from the university of North Dakota school of medicine and is enrolled in or has completed a university of North Dakota school of medicine postgraduate residency training program;

- b. Graduated from an accredited out-of-state medical or osteopathic college and is enrolled in or has completed a university of North Dakota school of medicine postgraduate residency training program; or
  - c. Graduated from the university of North Dakota school of medicine and is enrolled in or has completed an accredited out-of-state postgraduate residency training program in a specialty training program not available in this state.
3. A physician who receives loan repayment under this Act:
    - a. Must be a graduate of an accredited four-year allopathic or osteopathic medical school located in the United States or Canada;
    - b. Must be enrolled in or have graduated from an accredited graduate training program in medicine prior to or within one year after submitting an application to participate in the loan repayment program and not have practiced full-time medicine in this state within three years before the date of the application;
    - c. Must be licensed to practice medicine in this state;
    - d. Shall submit an application to participate in the loan repayment program; and
    - e. Must have entered into an agreement with a selected community to provide full-time medical services for a minimum of four years at the selected community if the applicant receives a loan repayment program contract.

SECTION 4. Community selection criteria.

1. The state health council shall apply at least the following criteria for selecting a community with defined health professional medical need:
  - a. The ratio of physicians to population in the community.
  - b. Access by the residents of the community to medical care within the community and in the surrounding area.
  - c. Assessment of the expected number of physician visits within the community per year.
  - d. The mix of physician specialties within the community.
  - e. Indications of community support for more physicians within the community.
2. The state health council shall give priority for participation to a community that:
  - a. Demonstrates a need for primary care physicians or for a physician trained in the specialty of psychiatry; or

- b. Has a population of not more than fifteen thousand persons.
3. In selecting a community with health professional medical need, the state health council may consult public and private associations and organizations and make an onsite visit to a community for assessment.

SECTION 5. Eligible loans. The state health council may provide for loan repayment to a recipient of any education loan. The council may not provide for repayment of any loan that is in default at the time of the application. The amount of repayment must be related to the applicant's outstanding education loans. No applicant may receive repayment in an amount greater than the total outstanding balance on the applicant's education loans together with applicable interest. Loan payments may not be used to satisfy other service obligations under similar programs.

SECTION 6. Breach of loan repayment contract. A recipient of loan repayment under this Act who breaches the loan repayment program contract by failing to begin or complete the obligated service is liable for twice the total uncredited amount of all loan repayment that was contracted on a prorated monthly basis. Any damages the state is entitled to recover under this Act shall be paid to the health council within one year from the date of the breach of the loan repayment program contract. Amounts not paid within the one-year period may be subject to collection through deductions in medicaid payments or other collection methods. Damages recoverable for breach of contract include all interest, costs, and expenses incurred in collection, including attorneys' fees. Damages collected under this section must be prorated among the state and the involved community. The state share must be deposited in the general fund. For compelling reasons, the health council may agree to and accept a lesser measure of damages for breach of a loan repayment program contract.

SECTION 7. Release from contract obligation. An applicant is released from the applicant's obligated service, without penalty, if the obligated service has been completed; the applicant is unable to complete the term of the contract because of permanent physical disability; the applicant dies; or the applicant proves extreme hardship or other good cause, to be determined by the council. A decision by the health council not to release an applicant from the applicant's obligated service without penalty, is reviewable by the district court.

SECTION 8. Term of obligated service. The length of the term of obligated service of a recipient of a loan repayment under this Act is four years.

SECTION 9. Payment. No payment may be made under this Act until the physician has practiced at least six months on a full-time basis in a selected community with health professional medical need. Any arrangement made by the state health council for loan repayment in accordance with this Act must provide that any loan repayment for a year of obligated service be made no later than the end of the fiscal year in which the physician completes the year of obligated service.

SECTION 10. APPROPRIATION. The funds provided in this section, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to the state health council for the purpose of establishing and operating the North Dakota state-community matching physician loan repayment program for the biennium beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993.

Start-up and administrative costs	$ 5,000
Loan repayment funds	75,000
Total general fund appropriation	$80,000

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 43-23-05 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-23-05. Real estate license required. No person shall act as a real estate broker, real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker or advertise or assume to act as such real estate broker, real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker without a license issued by the real estate commission. No person shall be entitled to collect any fees, compensation, or commission as a real estate broker, real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker without having first complied with the provisions of this chapter. No copartnership, association, or corporation shall be granted a license, unless at least one partner, shareholder, or officer of the copartnership, association, or corporation, actually engaged as a real estate broker, real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker as defined herein, shall hold a license as a real estate broker, and unless every employee who acts as a real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson or mortgage broker for such copartnership, association, or corporation shall hold a license as a real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson or mortgage broker.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 6 of section 43-23-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

6. "Real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson" means any person who for a fee, compensation, salary, or other consideration, or in the expectation or upon the promise thereof, is employed or engaged by a licensed real estate broker to do any act or deal in any transaction as provided in subsection 5 for or on behalf of such licensed real estate broker.

43-23-07. Real estate brokers, ~~salesmen~~ salesperson, or mortgage brokers - Exceptions. The term "real estate broker", "real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson", or "mortgage broker" does not include:

1. Any person, partnership, association, or corporation who is a bona fide owner or lessor or who accepts or markets leasehold interests in residential or agricultural property and performs any of the aforesaid acts with reference to property owned or leased by them, nor does it apply to regular employees thereof, where the acts are performed in the regular course of or as an incident to the management of the property and the investment therein.
2. An attorney at law, admitted to practice in this state, handling sales of real estate in the course of estate or guardianship administration in county court, or trust administration, bankruptcy proceedings, receiverships, or like actions subject to approval by a court of competent jurisdiction, or sales of real estate arising in the usual course of the practice of law.
3. Any person selling real estate as an auctioneer, provided the sale is advertised as a bona fide public auction.
4. Any bank or trust company or any of its officers or employees in the performance of their duties as an officer or employee of the bank or trust company.
5. Any person holding in good faith a duly executed power of attorney from the owner, authorizing a final consummation and execution for the sale, purchase, lease, or exchange of real estate when such acts are not of a recurrent nature and done with the intention of evading this section.
6. Any person while acting as a receiver, trustee, administrator, executor, guardian, or under court order, or while acting under authority of a deed, trust, or will.
7. Public officers while performing their duties.

43-23-08. License standards.

1. Licenses and the renewals thereof shall be granted only to persons who bear a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness, and fair dealing and who are competent to transact the business of a real estate broker, a real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker in such manner as to safeguard the interest of the public, and whose real estate license or mortgage broker license has not been revoked in this or any other state within two years prior to date of application. To determine the competency of applicants, the commission shall prescribe and hold examinations at designated times and places.
2. In addition to the requirements established by subsection 1, an applicant for a broker's or ~~salesman's~~ salesperson's license must be at least eighteen years of age.

* NOTE: Section 43-23-08 was also amended by section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2322, chapter 467.

3. Every applicant for a license as a real estate broker:
  - a. Shall have been actively engaged as a licensed real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson for a period of at least one year preceding the date of application, which, beginning July 1, 1979, shall be increased to two years; or
  - b. Shall have had experience as determined by the commission to be substantially equal to that which a licensed real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson would ordinarily receive during a period of one year, which, beginning July 1, 1979, shall be increased to two years.
4. Beginning July 1, 1977, each applicant for a broker's license shall be required to have successfully completed at least sixty classroom hours in a course of study approved by the commission, and beginning July 1, 1979, each applicant shall be required to have successfully completed at least ninety classroom hours in a course of study approved by the commission. As used throughout this section, the term "classroom hours" shall mean the actual time during such course of study that the class is actually in session.
5. After July 1, 1977, each ~~salesman~~ salesperson licensee, as a condition precedent to obtaining a license renewal, shall have successfully completed prior to the first license renewal period which occurs after twelve months from the date that the initial license has been granted, at least thirty classroom hours in a course of study approved by the commission.
6. If the commission shall find that an applicant could not acquire employment as a licensed real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson because of conditions existing in the area where ~~he~~ the salesperson resides, then the experience requirements established in subdivisions a and b of subsection 3 may be waived by the commission. The educational requirements of subsection 4 may not be waived by the commission, but guidelines may be established whereby applicants who have engaged in certain educational courses of study which are closely related to the real estate profession may be deemed to have satisfied this requirement.
7. The commission may adopt reasonable rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of chapter 28-32 relative to procedures for licensing, approval of coursework, and for the type of certification or proof of coursework completion that must be submitted.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 43-23-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-23-08.1. Conviction not bar to licensure - Exceptions. Conviction of an offense shall not disqualify a person from licensure under this chapter unless the commission determines that the offense has a direct bearing upon a person's ability to serve the public as a real estate broker or ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or that, following conviction of any offense, the person is not sufficiently rehabilitated under section 12.1-33-02.1.

43-23-08.2. License renewal - Continuing education required. Commencing January 1, 1984, and every three years thereafter, each applicant for renewal of a broker's or ~~salesman's~~ salesperson's license shall, in addition to the requirements of section 43-23-08, submit proof of participation in not less than twenty-four hours of approved continuing education. If a broker or ~~salesman~~ salesperson will not have been licensed three years on the date ~~he or she~~ the individual is required to certify continuing education hours, the number of required hours may be reduced in accordance with rules promulgated by the commission. The commission shall set standards for the approval of lectures, seminars, courses of instruction, and correspondence courses that qualify for satisfaction of this requirement, and shall maintain a current list of lectures, seminars, courses of instruction, and correspondence courses so approved. Lectures, seminars, courses of instruction, and correspondence courses shall not require passing of a test to qualify for satisfaction of this requirement. Licensees shall have the option of attending an approved course of instruction in person or taking an approved correspondence course. Attendance at a course or the completion of a correspondence course shall be documented in accordance with procedures established by the commission. The commission may adopt rules concerning implementation of this section pursuant to chapter 28-32.

No license shall be renewed by the commission unless the proper certification showing fulfillment of the continuing education requirements of this section and the appropriate licensing fees are submitted to the commission on or before the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding the year for which the license is issued. Any licensee failing to comply with this section shall not engage in any activity for which a license is required under this chapter, and any license not renewed by the thirty-first day of March of the year for which the license is issued shall be declared forfeit and canceled by the commission. The forfeiture and cancellation shall be performed without any notice to the licensee or any opportunity for hearing. Any person whose license has been forfeited and canceled and who desires relicensure shall be required to satisfy the application and examination requirements for prospective licensees in accordance with this chapter and rules and regulations of the commission.

The commission may exempt licensees from the continuing education requirements of this section for reasons relating to the licensee's health, military service, or for other good cause. Licensees who have held a real estate license for fifteen continuous years on January 1, 1984, shall be exempt from the requirements of this section.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 43-23-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-23-09. License application. Every application for a real estate broker's license, a real estate ~~salesman's~~ salesperson's license, or a mortgage broker's license shall be in writing upon blanks prepared by the commission and shall contain such data and information as the commission may require.

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 43-23-11.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

* NOTE: Section 43-23-08.2 was also amended by section 1 of House Bill No. 1176, chapter 468.

1. The commission upon its own motion may, and upon the verified complaint in writing of any person shall, investigate the activities of any licensee or any person who shall assume to act in such capacity within the state, and shall have the power to suspend or revoke a license, impose a monetary fine, or issue a letter of reprimand, or any combination thereof, when the licensee, in performing or attempting to perform any of the acts included within the scope of this chapter, has performed one or more of the following:
  - a. Making a material false statement in the licensee's application for a license or in any information furnished to the commission.
  - b. Making any substantial and willful misrepresentation with reference to a real estate transaction which is injurious to any party.
  - c. Making any false promise of a character such as to influence, persuade, or induce a party to a real estate transaction to ~~his~~ that person's injury or damage.
  - d. Acting for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge and consent of all parties to that transaction for whom ~~he~~ the licensee acts.
  - e. Failure to account for or to remit, within a reasonable time, any moneys coming into ~~his~~ the licensee's possession belonging to others; commingling funds of others with ~~his~~ the licensee's own, failing to keep such funds of others in an escrow or trust account with a bank or other recognized depository in this state, or keeping records relative to the deposit, which shall contain such information as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commission relative thereto.
  - f. Been convicted or pleaded guilty or nolo contendere before any court of any felony, or of a misdemeanor involving theft, forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, bribery, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud, or other similar offense. A certified copy of the record of conviction is conclusive evidence of conviction in such cases.
  - g. Claiming or taking of any secret or undisclosed amount of compensation or commission or the failure of a licensee to reveal to ~~his~~ the licensee's principal or employer the full amount of such licensee's compensation or commission in connection with any acts for which a license is required under this chapter.
  - h. Failing or refusing upon demand to produce any document, book, or record in ~~his~~ the licensee's possession or under ~~his~~ that person's control, concerning any real estate transaction under investigation by the commission.
  - i. Offering real property for sale or lease without the knowledge and consent of the owner or ~~his~~ the owner's authorized agent or

- on any terms other than those authorized by the owner or ~~his~~ authorized agent.
- j. Refusing, because of race, color, national origin, or ethnic group, to show, sell, lease, or rent any real estate to prospective renters, lessees, or purchasers.
  - k. Failing or refusing upon demand to furnish copies of any document pertaining to any transaction dealing with real estate to any person whose signature is affixed thereto.
  - l. Paying compensation or commission in connection with any real estate sale, lease, or other transaction to any person who is not licensed as a real estate broker or real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson under this chapter.
  - m. Failing to disclose to an owner ~~his~~ the licensee's intention or true position if ~~he~~ the licensee directly or indirectly through a third party purchases for himself or herself or acquires or intends to acquire any interest in or any option to purchase property which has been listed with ~~his~~ the licensee's office for sale or lease.
  - n. Failure to include a fixed date of expiration in any written listing agreement and failure to leave a copy of such agreement with the principal.
  - o. Failure by a broker to deliver to the seller in every real estate transaction, at the time said transaction is consummated, a complete, detailed closing statement, showing all of the receipts and disbursements handled by such broker for the seller; also failure to deliver to the buyer a complete statement showing all money received in said transaction from such buyer and how and for what the same was disbursed, and to retain true copies of such statements in ~~his~~ the broker's files.
  - p. Violating any provisions of this chapter or rule or regulation promulgated by the commission.
  - q. Violation of any provision of such realtor's code of ethics as the commission has or may promulgate and adopt.
  - r. Accepting a commission or valuable consideration as a real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson for the performance of any of the acts specified in this chapter, or by rule or regulation of the commission, from any person except the licensed real estate broker under whom ~~he~~ the individual is licensed as a ~~salesman~~ salesperson.
  - s. If the licensee is a broker, allowing any unlicensed ~~salesman~~ salesperson to do any act or engage in any activity regulated by this chapter or under rule or regulation of the commission, which is carried on in the name of or under the authority of the broker.

- t. Failure of a salesman salesperson to place with his that person's employing broker for deposit in the brokerage trust account all real estate trust moneys received by him the salesperson within twenty-four hours of the time of receipt; or failure of the employing broker to place such moneys for deposit within twenty-four hours of the time of receipt from his salesman the salesperson. Provided that if trust money is received on a day prior to a holiday or on another day prior to which the depository is closed where the trust fund is maintained, the moneys shall then be deposited during the next business day of the depository.
- u. Failure of the licensee to reduce an offer to writing where a proposed purchaser requests that such offer be submitted to the seller, or failure of the licensee to submit all offers to a seller when such offers are received prior to the seller accepting an offer in writing and until the broker has knowledge of such acceptance.
- v. Any other conduct, whether of the same or of a different character than specified in this subsection, which constitutes dishonesty or fraudulent conduct, whether arising within or without the pursuit of his that person's licensed privilege.
- w. Any conduct which in the determination of the commission does not meet the generally accepted standard of expertise, care, or professional ability expected of real estate brokers or salesmen salespersons, provided that any disciplinary measures by the commission under this subdivision must be limited to the issuance of a letter of reprimand to the offending licensee.

43-23-12. Broker's place of business - License of employed salesman salesperson.

1. Every person, partnership, association, or corporation licensed as a real estate broker or mortgage broker shall be required to have and maintain a definite place of business within this state, for the transaction of real estate or mortgage broker business, ~~or such business and any other business conducted by him~~. The certificate of registration as broker and the certificate of each real estate salesman salesperson or mortgage broker employed by such broker shall be prominently displayed in said office. The said place of business shall be designated in the license, and no license issued under the authority of this chapter shall authorize the licensee to transact business at any other address. In case of removal from the designated address, the licensee shall make application to the commission before said removal or within ten days after said removal, designating the new location of such office, whereupon the commission shall forthwith issue a new license for the new location for the unexpired period. The broker's home may qualify as such place of business.
2. All licenses issued to real estate salesmen salespersons or mortgage brokers shall designate the employer of such salesmen salespersons or brokers. Prompt notice in writing, within ten days, shall be given to the commission by any real estate salesman salesperson or mortgage broker of a change of employer, and of the name of the licensed broker into whose employ the salesman salesperson or broker is about to enter, and a new license shall thereupon be issued by the commission to such salesman salesperson or broker for the unexpired term of the original license, upon the return to the commission of the license previously issued. The change of employer or employment by any licensed real estate salesman salesperson or mortgage broker, without notice to the commission as aforesaid, shall automatically cancel ~~the that~~ person's license ~~to him theretofore issued~~. Upon termination of a real estate salesman's salesperson's or broker's employment, the broker employer, shall forthwith return the salesman's salesperson's license or mortgage broker's license to the commission for cancellation. It shall be unlawful for any real estate salesman salesperson or mortgage broker to perform any of the acts contemplated by this chapter either directly or indirectly after his that person's employment has been terminated and license as a salesman salesperson or mortgage broker has been returned for cancellation, until said license has been reissued by the commission.

SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Section 43-23-13 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-23-13. Fees. Fees for real estate brokers, mortgage brokers, and real estate salesmen salespersons are as follows:

1. A fee of fifty dollars must accompany an application for an individual's real estate broker's or mortgage broker's license and for each annual renewal of the license.
2. For each license issued to a partnership, association, corporation, trust, cooperative, or other firm or entity, foreign or domestic, and for each annual renewal of the license, a fee of fifty dollars.
3. For an individual's real estate salesman's salesperson's license and for each annual renewal of the license, a fee of forty dollars.
4. For each additional office or place of business, an annual fee of ten dollars.
5. For each change of office or place of business, a fee of ten dollars.
6. For each transfer of a real estate salesman's salesperson's license, a fee of ten dollars.
7. For each duplicate license, where the original license is lost or destroyed and affidavit made thereof, a fee of ten dollars.
8. For each examination given to an applicant, before a license is issued, a fee of twenty dollars.
9. For each change of name, a fee of ten dollars.

* SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 43-23-13.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-23-13.1. License renewal. Every person licensed to practice as a real estate broker, real estate ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker must register annually with the commission and pay the appropriate annual renewal fee. The application for renewal of a real estate broker's, real estate ~~salesman's~~ salesperson's, or mortgage broker's license shall be made to the commission no later than December thirty-first of each year after licensure. Failure to remit an annual renewal fee no later than December thirty-first automatically cancels the license on January first of the subsequent year. A licensee who fails to file a timely application for the renewal of any license and pay the renewal fee as provided in section 43-23-13 may file a late renewal application before March first of the subsequent year and shall pay, in addition to the renewal fee, the sum of ten dollars for each month or fraction thereof after the January first when the license was canceled.

SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 43-23-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. The commission may assist libraries, real estate brokers and real estate ~~salesmen~~ salespersons, institutes and foundations, with financial aid or otherwise, in providing texts, sponsoring studies, surveys, and programs for the benefit of real estate and the elevation of the real estate business.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 43-23.1-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-23.1-17. Real estate license required. No real estate broker, ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker shall offer or dispose of subdivided lands within or from this state, except in dispositions and transactions exempt under section 43-23.1-05, unless said real estate broker, ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or mortgage broker is licensed pursuant to chapter 43-23.

SECTION 14. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 43-23.1-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Every disposition made in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any order issued by the commission under any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be voidable at the election of the purchaser. The person making such disposition, and every director, officer, ~~salesman~~ salesperson, or agent of or for such person who shall have participated or aided in any way in making such disposition, shall be jointly and severally liable to such purchaser in any action at law in any court of competent jurisdiction for the consideration paid for the lot, parcel, unit, or interest, together with interest at the rate of six percent per year from the date of payment, property taxes and assessments paid, court costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, less the amount of any income received from the subdivided lands, upon tender of appropriate instruments of reconveyance made at any time before the entry of judgment. If the purchaser no longer owns the lot, parcel, unit, or interest in subdivided lands, ~~he~~ that person may recover the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender of a reconveyance less the value of the land when disposed of and less interest at the rate of six percent per year on that amount from the date of disposition.

* NOTE: Section 43-23-13.1 was also amended by section 2 of House Bill No. 1176, chapter 468.

SECTION 15. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 2 of section 43-23.2-02 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

1. In addition to the appropriate licensing fees paid by real estate brokers and ~~salesmen salespersons~~, each person licensed for the calendar year 1976 as a real estate broker or ~~salesman salesperson~~ shall pay, at the time of application for such license, a separate fee in the amount of twenty dollars which shall be credited into the education, research, and recovery fund. Each person so licensed for the calendar year 1977 shall pay a like fee in the amount of twenty dollars which shall be credited into the fund. Thereafter, any person who is licensed as a real estate broker or ~~salesman salesperson~~ for the first time, either for the calendar year 1978 or for a subsequent calendar year, shall pay a fee of twenty dollars at the time of obtaining such license which shall be credited into the fund. Except for assessments paid into the fund as provided in subsection 2 of this section, any person obtaining a broker's or ~~salesman's salesperson's~~ license for the first time which becomes effective for the calendar year 1978 or for a subsequent calendar year, shall pay the fee of twenty dollars into the fund only once.
2. If, on June thirtieth of any year, following the establishment of the real estate education, research, and recovery fund, the amount remaining in the fund is less than sixty thousand dollars, every licensed real estate broker and ~~salesman salesperson~~, when renewing ~~his~~ that individual's license, shall pay, in addition to the annual renewal fee, a sum not to exceed twenty dollars, which shall have been determined by the commission to be sufficient to restore the balance in the fund to at least sixty thousand dollars.

43-23.2-09. Repayment to fund. Should the commission pay from the fund any amount in settlement of a claim or toward satisfaction of a judgment against a licensed broker or ~~salesman salesperson~~, the license of the broker or ~~salesman salesperson~~ shall be automatically suspended upon the effective date of an order by the court as set forth herein authorizing payment from the fund. No such broker or ~~salesman salesperson~~ shall be granted reinstatement until ~~he has~~ having repaid in full, plus interest at the rate of four percent a year, the amount paid from the fund on ~~his~~ that person's account. A discharge in bankruptcy shall not relieve a person from the penalties and disabilities provided in this chapter.

SENATE BILL NO. 2322
(Goetz)

REAL ESTATE LICENSE STUDY REQUIREMENTS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 43-23-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to license standards for real estate brokers and salesmen.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

43-23-08. License standards.

1. Licenses and the renewals thereof shall be granted only to persons who bear a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness, and fair dealing and who are competent to transact the business of a real estate broker, a real estate salesman, or mortgage broker in such manner as to safeguard the interest of the public, and whose real estate license or mortgage broker license has not been revoked in this or any other state within two years prior to date of application. To determine the competency of applicants, the commission shall prescribe and hold examinations at designated times and places.
2. In addition to the requirements established by subsection 1, an applicant for a broker's or salesman's license must be at least eighteen years of age.
3. Every applicant for a license as a real estate broker:
  - a. Shall have been actively engaged as a licensed real estate salesman for a period of at least one year preceding the date of application, which, beginning July 1, 1979, shall be increased to two years; or
  - b. Shall have had experience as determined by the commission to be substantially equal to that which a licensed real estate salesman would ordinarily receive during a period of one year, which, beginning July 1, 1979, shall be increased to two years.
4. Beginning July 1, ~~1977~~ 1992, each applicant for a ~~broker's salesman's~~ license shall be required to must have successfully completed at least ~~sixty~~ sixty three classroom hours in a course of study approved by the commission, and ~~beginning July 1, 1979,~~ each applicant ~~shall be required to~~ for a broker's license must have successfully completed at least ninety an additional sixty classroom hours in a course of study approved by the commission.

* NOTE: Section 43-23-08 was also amended by section 4 of House Bill No. 1206, chapter 466.

As used throughout this section, the term "classroom hours" shall mean the actual time during such course of study that the class is actually in session.

5. ~~After July 1, 1977, each salesman licensee, as a condition precedent to obtaining a license renewal, shall have successfully completed prior to the first license renewal period which occurs after twelve months from the date that the initial license has been granted, at least thirty classroom hours in a course of study approved by the commission.~~
6. If the commission shall find that an applicant could not acquire employment as a licensed real estate salesman because of conditions existing in the area where he resides, then the experience requirements established in subdivisions a and b of subsection 3 may be waived by the commission. The educational requirements of subsection 4 may not be waived by the commission, but guidelines may be established whereby applicants who have engaged in certain educational courses of study which are closely related to the real estate profession may be deemed to have satisfied this requirement.
- ~~7.~~ 6. The commission may adopt reasonable rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of chapter 28-32 relative to procedures for licensing, approval of coursework, and for the type of certification or proof of coursework completion that must be submitted.

REAL ESTATE LICENSE RENEWAL

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 43-23-08.2 and 43-23-13.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to renewal and cancellation of licenses of real estate brokers and salesmen.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 43-23-08.2 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-23-08.2. License renewal - Continuing education required. Commencing January 1, 1984, and every three years thereafter, each applicant for renewal of a broker's or salesman's license shall, in addition to the requirements of section 43-23-08, submit proof of participation in not less than twenty-four hours of approved continuing education. If a broker or salesman will not have been licensed three years on the date he or she is required to certify continuing education hours, the number of required hours may be reduced in accordance with rules promulgated by the commission. The commission shall set standards for the approval of lectures, seminars, courses of instruction, and correspondence courses that qualify for satisfaction of this requirement, and shall maintain a current list of lectures, seminars, courses of instruction, and correspondence courses so approved. Lectures, seminars, courses of instruction, and correspondence courses shall not require passing of a test to qualify for satisfaction of this requirement. Licensees shall have the option of attending an approved course of instruction in person or taking an approved correspondence course. Attendance at a course or the completion of a correspondence course shall be documented in accordance with procedures established by the commission. The commission may adopt rules concerning implementation of this section pursuant to chapter 28-32.

No license shall be renewed by the commission unless the proper certification showing fulfillment of the continuing education requirements of this section and the appropriate licensing fees are submitted to the commission on or before the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding the year for which the license is issued. Any licensee failing to comply with this section shall not engage in any activity for which a license is required under this chapter, and any license not renewed by the thirty-first day of March of the year for which the license is issued shall be declared forfeit and canceled by the commission. The forfeiture and cancellation shall be performed without any notice to the licensee or any opportunity for hearing. Any person whose license has been forfeited and canceled and who desires relicensure shall be required to satisfy the application and examination requirements for prospective licensees in accordance with this chapter and rules and regulations of the commission in accordance with section 43-23-13.1.

The commission may exempt licensees from the continuing education requirements of this section for reasons relating to the licensee's health, military service, or for other good cause. Licensees who have held a real estate license for fifteen continuous years on January 1, 1984, shall be exempt from the requirements of this section.

43-23-13.1. License renewal. Every person licensed to practice as a real estate broker, real estate salesman, or mortgage broker must register annually with the commission and pay the appropriate annual renewal fee as provided in section 43-23-13. The application for renewal of a real estate broker's, real estate salesman's, or mortgage broker's license shall be made must be accompanied by such certification as required by this chapter and rules and regulations of the commission to show compliance with the educational requirements of sections 43-23-08 and 43-23-08.2, and is to be submitted to the commission with the appropriate fee no later than December thirty-first of each year after licensure. Failure to remit an annual renewal fee no later than December thirty first automatically cancels the license on January first of the subsequent year. A licensee who fails to file a timely application for the renewal of any license and pay the renewal fee as provided in section 43-23-13 may file a late renewal application, together with the required educational certification, before March first of the subsequent year and shall pay, in addition to the renewal fee, the sum of ten dollars for each month or fraction thereof after the January first when the license was canceled. Any license not renewed by March first must be canceled. The cancellation must be performed without any notice or opportunity for hearing. Any person whose license has been canceled and who desires relicensure must be required to satisfy the application and examination requirements for prospective licensees in accordance with this chapter and rules of the commission.

No licensee may engage in any activity after December thirty-first of any year for which a license is required under this chapter unless that person's license has been renewed by the commission.

Approved March 27, 1991
Filed March 28, 1991

CHAPTER 469

SENATE BILL NO. 2259
(Lips)

REAL ESTATE APPRAISERS

AN ACT to establish a North Dakota real estate appraiser qualifications and ethics board; to provide for the licensure and certification of real estate appraisers; to provide a penalty; to provide an appropriation; and to declare an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Analysis" means a study of real estate other than estimating value.
2. "Appraisal" means an analysis, opinion, or conclusion relating to the nature, quality, value, or utility of specified interests in, or aspects of, real estate. An appraisal may be classified by subject matter into either a valuation or an analysis.
3. "Appraisal assignment" means an engagement for which a person is employed or retained to act, or would be perceived by the public as acting, as a disinterested party in rendering an unbiased supportable appraisal.
4. "Appraisal foundation" means the appraisal foundation incorporated as an Illinois corporation on November 30, 1987.
5. "Appraisal report" means a written communication of an appraisal.
6. "Appraisal subcommittee" means the appraisal subcommittee of the federal financial institutions examination council.
7. "Appraiser" means a person who engages in appraisal activity for valuable consideration.
8. "Apprentice appraiser" means a person who is in training to obtain a license as an appraiser.
9. "Board" means the North Dakota real estate appraiser qualifications and ethics board.
10. "Certified appraiser" means a person who develops and communicates appraisals and who holds a valid permit as a certified appraiser.
11. "Licensed appraiser" means a person who holds a valid appraiser license.

12. "Permit" means the document issued by the board, verifying that the person named on the permit has fulfilled all prerequisites to practice either as an apprentice appraiser, a licensed appraiser, or a certified appraiser.
13. "Real estate" means an identified parcel or tract of land including improvements, and interests, benefits, and rights inherent in the ownership of real estate.
14. "Uniform standards of professional appraisal practices" means standards of appraisal promulgated by the appraisal foundation as adopted and modified by the board. The standards adopted and modified by the board must meet the minimum standards adopted by the appraisal foundation.
15. "Valuation" means an estimate of the value of real estate or real property.

SECTION 2. North Dakota real estate appraiser qualifications and ethics board. The governor shall appoint the board. The board must consist of five members. One member must represent the public, one member must represent the financial industry, and three members must be appraisers, one of which is experienced in the appraisal of agricultural property. The appraiser members first appointed to the board must be members in good standing of an organization belonging to the appraisal foundation or have the equivalent of five years of full-time experience as an appraiser in this state. Thereafter, each appraiser member of the board must be either a licensed or certified appraiser, but at least two of the appraiser members must be certified appraisers. The governor shall appoint the financial industry representative from a list of qualified individuals submitted by the North Dakota bankers associations, the North Dakota credit union league, and the North Dakota league of savings institutions. Each of these entities may submit two names of candidates to the governor. The public member of the board may not be engaged in the practice of real estate appraising. The term of each member is five years, except that of the members first appointed, one shall serve for five years, one shall serve for four years, one shall serve for three years, one shall serve for two years, and one shall serve for one year. A member of the board continues to hold office until the appointment and qualification of a successor. The governor may remove a board member for cause. The members annually shall elect a chairman from among the members. At least two of the members who are appraiser members must be present in order for a quorum to exist. The members are entitled to receive compensation for each day actually engaged in the service of the board and actual and necessary traveling expenses at the rate allowed other state officials, paid from the fees collected by the board.

SECTION 3. Powers and duties of the board.

1. The board, or its designated representative, shall:
  - a. Define apprentice appraiser, licensed appraiser, and certified appraiser, determine the type of educational experience, appraisal experience, and equivalent experience that meet the requirements of this Act, and establish application procedures.
  - b. Establish examination specifications for each category of licensed and certified appraiser and administer examinations.

- c. Approve or disapprove applications for licensure and certification, issue pocket cards and permits to practice, and maintain a registry of the names and addresses of individuals licensed and certified.
  - d. Discipline permittees.
  - e. Hold meetings, hearings, and examinations in places and at times as it designates and maintain records of board activities.
  - f. Adopt rules necessary to carry out the requirements imposed by federal law.
2. The board, or its designated representative, may:
    - a. Promote research and conduct studies relative to real estate appraising and sponsor educational activities.
    - b. Contract for services necessary to carry out this Act.
    - c. Enter into reciprocity agreements with other states.

SECTION 4. Permit required - Exemptions. Except as provided in this section, beginning July 1, 1991, a person may not directly or indirectly engage in, advertise, conduct the business of, or act in any capacity as a licensed or certified appraiser without first obtaining a permit as provided in this Act. This Act does not apply to a licensed real estate broker or salesman who, in the ordinary course of business, gives an opinion to a potential seller or third party as to the recommended listing price of real estate or an opinion to a potential purchaser or third party as to the recommended purchase price of real estate. However, the opinion as to the listing price or the purchase price may not be referred to as an appraisal. This Act does not apply to a person who, in the ordinary course of business, gives an opinion of the value of real estate to that person's employer.

SECTION 5. Permit process. An individual who desires to engage in the practice of real estate appraisal shall apply for a permit on forms prescribed by the board and submit the required fee.

SECTION 6. Classes of permits. The board may issue license and certification permits for appraisers.

1. An apprentice appraiser may assist a licensed or a certified appraiser in the performance of an appraisal assignment.
2. A licensed appraiser must meet the minimum requirements established by the board for a permit relating to licensed appraisers.
3. A certified appraiser must meet the appraisal foundation minimum requirements for a permit relating to the appraisal of all types of real property.

SECTION 7. Examination requirement. The board shall issue a permit to practice as a licensed or a certified appraiser to an individual who has demonstrated the following qualifications through a written examination process:

1. Knowledge of technical terms used in or related to real estate appraising, appraisal report writing, and economic concepts relating to real estate.
2. Understanding of the principles of land economics, appraisal processes, and of problems likely to be encountered in gathering, interpreting, and processing of data in carrying out appraisal disciplines.
3. Understanding of the uniform standards of professional appraisal practices.
4. Knowledge of theories of depreciation, cost estimating, methods of capitalization, the mathematics of real estate appraisal, and other principles and procedures determined by the board to be appropriate for the appreciable classification of permit.
5. Basic understanding of real estate law.
6. Understanding of the types of misconduct for which disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against an appraiser.

SECTION 8. Application prerequisites.

1. An applicant for a permit as an apprentice appraiser must have a high school education or its equivalent and must successfully complete fifteen classroom hours related to the standards of professional practice and this Act.
2. An applicant for a permit to practice as a licensed appraiser must have a high school education or its equivalent. In addition, an applicant must have successfully completed the minimum education requirements established by the appraisal subcommittee and the board.
3. An applicant for a permit to practice as a certified appraiser must have a high school education or its equivalent. In addition, an applicant must have successfully completed the minimum education requirements established by the appraisal foundation and the board.

SECTION 9. Appraisal experience.

1. The board may issue a permit to practice as a licensed appraiser to an individual who possesses the minimum experience requirements established by the appraisal subcommittee and the board.
2. The board may issue a permit to practice as a certified appraiser to an individual who possesses the minimum experience requirements established by the appraisal foundation and the board. The board may require an applicant to furnish, under oath, a detailed listing of the appraisal reports or file memoranda for which appraisal experience is claimed by the applicant. Upon request, the applicant shall provide to the board copies of appraisal reports or other documents that the applicant has assisted in preparing.

SECTION 10. Term of permit. The term of a permit is one year from the date of issuance. The expiration date of the permit must appear on the permit and no other notice of its expiration need be given to the permittee.

SECTION 11. Nonresident permit.

1. A nonresident applicant for a permit shall file with the board a designation in writing which appoints the chairman of the board to act as the applicant's licensed agent upon whom all judicial and other process or legal notices directed to the applicant may be served. Copies of the appointment, certified by the chairman of the board, may be received in evidence in any proceeding and must be given the same effect as the original. In the written designation, the applicant shall agree that any lawful process against that individual which is served upon the agent is of the same legal force as if served upon the applicant, and that the authority of the agent continues in force as long as any liability of the applicant remains outstanding in this state. Upon the receipt of any process or notice, the chairman shall mail a copy of the process or notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known business address of the nonresident appraiser.
2. The board may issue a permit to a nonresident if the applicant agrees in writing to abide by this Act and to submit to the jurisdiction of the board.
3. The board shall issue a permit to practice to a nonresident who has complied with this section. The board may require the nonresident to pay a temporary appraiser's fee. The board shall determine the amount of the temporary fee and the duration of the temporary permit.
4. If the board determines that another state has substantially equivalent requirements and the board enters into a reciprocity agreement, an applicant from that state may obtain a permit to practice as either a licensed or certified appraiser upon application and payment of any required permit fee.

SECTION 12. Permit renewal. To renew a permit to practice as a licensed or a certified appraiser, the permittee shall apply to the board and pay the required fee. With the application for renewal, the appraiser shall present evidence of having completed the continuing education requirements for renewal. A person who has temporarily surrendered a permit may not act as an appraiser, but may reactivate a permit without an examination. That person is subject to disciplinary action and activation of an inactive permit may be subject to a denial by the board.

SECTION 13. Principal place of business. An appraiser shall notify the board of the address of the appraiser's place of business. Within twenty days of a change in the address of the place of business, the appraiser shall give written notification of the change to the board and pay the change of address fee.

SECTION 14. Permit number displayed with signature. An appraiser shall place the appraiser's permit number adjacent to the appraiser's signature on an appraisal report, contract, or other writing used by the appraiser in conducting appraisal activities.

SECTION 15. Use of designation. The terms "licensed appraiser" and "certified appraiser" may only be used to refer to an individual who holds a permit under this Act and may not be used following or immediately in connection with the name or signature of any other individual or person or in a manner that might be interpreted as referring to any other individual or person other than the individual who holds the permit. This section does not prohibit a licensed or certified appraiser from signing an appraisal report on behalf of a corporation, partnership, or firm.

SECTION 16. Action for fee. No claim for relief may be instituted in any court of this state for compensation for an act done or service rendered as either a licensed or a certified appraiser unless the appraiser held a permit to practice under this Act at the time of offering to perform the act or service or procuring a promise to contract for the payment of compensation for a contemplated act or service as a licensed or a certified appraiser.

SECTION 17. Retention of records. A licensed or certified appraiser shall retain, for at least five years, originals or copies of all written contracts engaging the appraiser's services for appraisal work and all reports and supporting data assembled and formulated by the appraiser in preparing the reports. The period for retention of records applies to each engagement of the services of the appraiser and commences upon the date of the submission of the appraisal to the client unless, within that period, the appraiser is notified that the appraisal report is involved in litigation, in which event the period for the retention of records commences on the date of the final disposition of the litigation. The appraiser shall make available for inspection and copying by the board on reasonable notice all records required to be maintained.

SECTION 18. Standards of professional appraisal practice. A licensed and certified appraiser shall comply with the standards of professional appraisal practice and ethical rules specified by the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice and all other standards and ethical requirements adopted by the appraisal foundation.

SECTION 19. Continuing education. Beginning July 1, 1992, and every three years thereafter, each applicant for renewal of a permit shall submit proof of participation in the minimum number of continuing education hours required and approved by the board. The board shall adopt rules for the implementation of continuing education requirements to assure that permit renewal applicants have current knowledge of appraisal theories, practices, and techniques that provide a high degree of service and protection to the public. The rules must establish:

1. Policies and procedures for obtaining board approval of courses of instruction.
2. Standards, policies, and procedures to be applied by the board in evaluating an applicant's claims of equivalency.
3. Standards, monitoring methods, and systems for recording attendance by course sponsors.

SECTION 20. Fees. The board may charge apprentice, licensed, and certified permittees and educational providers or promoters reasonable fees to help offset costs of operating the board. The board shall establish the charges by rule.

SECTION 21. Disposition of fees. The board, or its designated representative, shall deposit all fees collected by the board in a separate account. Disbursements from the account may not exceed the moneys credited to it. The board's designated representative shall review and pay appropriate charges against the account for services provided to the board.

SECTION 22. Disciplinary proceedings.

1. The board may, and upon the verified complaint in writing of any person shall, investigate the activities of any person and may suspend or revoke a permit, impose a monetary fine, or issue a letter of reprimand, when the person has:
  - a. Procured or attempted to procure a permit by knowingly making a false statement, submitting false information, refusing to provide complete information in response to a question in an application for certification, or through fraud or misrepresentation.
  - b. Failed to meet the minimum qualifications established under this Act.
  - c. Paid money other than provided for by this Act to any member or employee of the board to procure a permit.
  - d. Been convicted, including a conviction based upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, of a felony or of a crime that is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a person developing and communicating appraisals to others.
  - e. Performed an act involving dishonesty, fraud, or misrepresentation with the intent to benefit substantially that person or another person, or with the intent to injure substantially another person.
  - f. Violated any standard for the development or communication of appraisals as provided in this Act.
  - g. Failed or refused without good cause to exercise reasonable diligence in developing an appraisal, preparing an appraisal report, or communicating an appraisal.
  - h. Acted with gross negligence or incompetence in developing an appraisal, in preparing an appraisal report, or in communicating an appraisal.
  - i. Willfully violated this Act or rules of the board.
  - j. Accepted an appraisal assignment when the employment is contingent upon the reporting of a predetermined estimate, analysis, or opinion, or where the fee is contingent upon the opinion, conclusion, or valuation reached, or upon the consequences resulting from the appraisal assignment.

- k. Violated the confidential nature of governmental records to which the person gained access through employment or engagement as an appraiser by a governmental agency.
- l. Had entry of a civil judgment against the person on grounds of fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in the making of an appraisal.
2. In a disciplinary proceeding based upon a civil judgment, the appraiser must be afforded an opportunity to present matters in mitigation and extenuation, but may not collaterally attack the civil judgment.

SECTION 23. Penalties. A person acting or purporting to act as a licensed or a certified appraiser without holding a permit to practice is guilty of a class A misdemeanor. In addition to any other penalty, a person receiving any money or other compensation in violation of this Act is subject to a penalty of not less than the amount of the sum of money received and not more than three times the sum in the discretion of the court.

SECTION 24. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $50,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the North Dakota real estate appraiser qualifications and ethics board for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the board for the period beginning with the effective date of this Act, and ending June 30, 1993. Such sum appropriated as is accepted by the board must be returned to the general fund by June 30, 1993, to the extent funds are not returned to the general fund by June 30, 1993, the funds must be returned by June 30, 1995, with interest from fees collected by the board.

SECTION 25. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.

CHAPTER 470

HOUSE BILL NO. 1318
(Representatives Jensen, R. Berg, Kelsch)
(Senators Stenehjem, Traynor, Krebsbach)

REAL ESTATE BROKER TRUST ACCOUNTS

AN ACT to provide for a real estate broker trust account program.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Real estate trust account committee. The president of the North Dakota association of realtors, with the approval of the board of directors of the association, shall appoint a five-member real estate trust account committee. Three members must be realtors in this state who are members of the association and licensed to practice real estate in this state. The remaining two members may not be realtors. The term of office for members is three years, except that, as determined by lot, one realtor member first appointed shall serve for an initial term of one year, and one realtor member and one nonrealtor member first appointed shall serve an initial term of two years. No member may serve more than two successive three-year terms. Each member shall serve until a successor is appointed. A vacancy on the committee must be filled by appointment of a member to serve for the unexpired portion of the term. Members of the committee serve at the pleasure of the board of directors of the association.

SECTION 2. Powers and duties of the committee.

1. The real estate trust account committee shall implement and administer an interest on broker trust account program.
2. The committee is the sole recipient of the interest or dividends paid to the North Dakota association of realtors from real estate interest-bearing trust accounts under the broker trust account program. Upon receipt of the funds, the committee shall make appropriate temporary investments of the funds pending disbursement of the funds. All funds received from the interest or dividends on real estate trust accounts and the income earned from investment of the funds must be maintained in accounts separate from other funds held by the association.
3. The committee, by grants and appropriations it determines appropriate, shall disburse funds solely for:
  - a. Providing housing and shelter to the homeless and poor.
  - b. Providing public education relating to needs of housing for the poor.
  - c. Improving available safe and decent housing.

4. No funds may be disbursed for any purpose other than tax-exempt public purposes permitted under section 18 of article X of the Constitution of North Dakota, and section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
5. The real estate trust account committee shall maintain adequate records reflecting all transactions arising with respect to income from and disbursements of the interest on real estate trust accounts.
6. Within one hundred eighty days after the effective date of this Act, the association shall adopt rules establishing guidelines and procedures for the operation of an interest on real estate trust account program, including:
  - a. Guidelines for identifying eligible applicants.
  - b. Procedures for submitting grant applications.
  - c. Guidelines for awarding grant applications.
  - d. Procedures for accounting for the expenditure of grant funds by the recipient.

Upon becoming effective, the guidelines and procedures are the basis for the administration of the disbursement of the funds by the committee.

7. Immediately after the effective date of this Act, the real estate trust account committee shall take any action necessary to obtain:
  - a. A private letter revenue ruling from the internal revenue service, holding that the interest earned on funds deposited in a real estate trust account and paid to the committee are not includable in the gross income of either the client or third person who owns the funds, or of the broker who deposited the funds, and that neither the depository institution nor the broker is required to report the payment of the interest on behalf of the client or third person.
  - b. Permission from the federal reserve system, federal home loan bank board, and federal deposit insurance corporation to use negotiable order of withdrawal accounts for the deposit of funds of clients or third persons held by a broker in connection with a representation in connection with a representation or transaction.

SECTION 3. Officers. The president of the board of directors of the North Dakota association of realtors, with the approval of the board, shall appoint a chairman and vice chairman of the real estate trust account committee. The committee may elect other officers as it deems appropriate and may specify their duties.

SECTION 4. Director. The real estate trust account committee may appoint an executive director of the real estate trust account committee on a full-time or part-time basis at the pleasure of the board. The executive director is entitled to receive compensation set by the committee. The executive director, before entering upon the duties of the office, may be required to provide a surety bond in an amount determined by the committee. The executive director is responsible and accountable to the committee for the proper administration of this Act. The executive director may employ persons or expend money for services approved by the committee.

SECTION 5. Disposition of funds upon dissolution. If the real estate trust account committee is discontinued, any funds under control of the committee must be transferred to its successor entity qualifying under the Internal Revenue Code, if any, for distribution for the purposes specified under section 2 of this Act or, if there is no successor, to the general fund of the state real estate commission's research, recovery, and education fund.

SECTION 6. Preserving identity of funds and property of a client.

1. All funds of clients paid to a real estate broker, including advances for costs and expenses, must be deposited in one or more identifiable interest-bearing trust accounts maintained as required by section 43-23-14.1.
2. Each real estate broker's trust account must be an interest-bearing trust account in a bank, savings bank, trust company, savings and loan association, savings association, credit union, or federally regulated investment company authorized by federal or state law to do business in this state and insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, the national credit union share insurance fund, or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, and selected by the broker in the exercise of ordinary prudence unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the real estate transaction as provided by rule by the real estate commission. Interest-bearing trust funds must be placed in accounts in which withdrawals or transfers may be made by the depositing broker or realty firm without delay, subject only to any notice period that the depository institution is required to reserve by law or regulation.
3. The broker shall direct the depository institution to:
  - a. Remit interest or dividends, minus any service charges or fees to the brokers or depository institution, on the average monthly balance in the account, or as otherwise computed in accordance with an institution's standard accounting practice, at least quarterly, to the real estate trust account committee;
  - b. Transmit with each remittance to the association a statement showing the name of the broker or real estate firm for which the remittance is sent, the rate of interest applied, the amount of any service charges deducted, the account balance of the period in which the report is made; and
  - c. Transmit a copy of the statement to the depositing broker.
4. Every licensed real estate broker shall maintain on a current basis, records sufficient to demonstrate compliance with the laws and rules governing the interest-bearing trust account activities.

VETERINARIAN LICENSING

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 43-29-01, 43-29-04, 43-29-06, 43-29-07, 43-29-08, 43-29-09, 43-29-11, 43-29-12, subsections 1 and 8 of section 43-29-13, subsection 8 of section 43-29-14, section 43-29-15, and subsections 1 and 3 of section 43-29-16.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to licensing of veterinarians, the issuance of a limited specialty license and graduate veterinary technicians, fees, the definition of veterinary medicine, the excepted practices, the refusal, suspension, and revocation of license, hearing and appeal, and the abandonment of animals.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-01. Purpose of the chapter. This chapter shall be deemed an exercise of the police powers of the state of North Dakota acting through the legislative assembly to the end that the general welfare of the agricultural public, the livestock industry, and the people as a whole will be preserved and enhanced through the control and supervision hereby vested in the North Dakota state board of veterinary medical examiners, in licensing of veterinarians, defining their scope of activity in treatment of livestock, fixing their responsibility in the conduct of their practice, listing the requirements necessary to pass an inspection of their facilities, listing of the educational requirements necessary for licensing renewal, listing of the rules of professional conduct, defining the handling of abandoned animals, defining the duties and conduct of graduate ~~animal~~ veterinary technicians, and preventing unqualified persons from engaging in veterinary practice by instituting the necessary legal proceedings for the law's proper enforcement.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-04. Record of proceedings of board - Register of applicants kept by board - Records and register as evidence. The state board of veterinary medical examiners shall keep a record of all its proceedings and ~~also a record or~~ register of applicants for licenses showing ~~as to the name of each such applicant his name,~~ the time spent by him each applicant in the study and practice of veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry, and the name and location of the school, college, or university which granted him the applicant a degree or diploma. Such books and records shall be prima facie evidence of the matters recorded therein.

43-29-06. Graduation from recognized school and certificate or permit from board required - Application for license. No person shall practice, or hold himself out as a practitioner in veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry, or any department thereof, unless he is a graduate. Only those persons who are graduates of the veterinary course offered in a veterinary school or in a college, or university recognized by the board, nor unless he and who possesses a certificate or permit issued by the state board of veterinary medical examiners which is in full force and effect may hold themselves out or engage in the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry, or any department thereof.

Any person qualified under the provisions of this chapter, desiring to begin the practice of veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery in the state of North Dakota, shall make application to said board for license to do so. Such application shall be made at least thirty days prior to the meeting of the board. The board shall give public notice of the time and place for the examination.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-07. Application for license - Fees for examination and registration - Fees not to be returned - Renewal fees - Certificate of registration - Roster of registered veterinarians - Change of address - Renewal of registration upon forfeiture. Any person desiring a license to practice veterinary medicine in this state shall make written application for licensing to the executive secretary on forms provided for that purpose and shall pay in advance to the North Dakota veterinary medical examining board a fee of fifty dollars. Fees shall not be returned, except by action of the board. If the license is granted, the licensee shall pay on or before the date set out in this section, for such time as ~~he~~ the licensee shall continue practice, an annual registration fee as determined by the board, based on the financial needs of the board. The renewal registration fee shall be paid by all licensed veterinarians.

All veterinarians actually engaged and employed as such by the state, county, city, or by any corporation, firm, or individual shall be deemed to be practicing veterinary medicine and shall secure a state license or certificate of qualification issued by the board.

Each person licensed by the board shall on or before the first day of July of each calendar year be required to pay the annual renewal registration fee to the executive secretary. Before the first day of June of each calendar year the executive secretary of the board shall send a notice to each veterinarian who holds a license to practice veterinary medicine in the state, whether resident or not, at ~~his~~ that person's last address, that ~~his~~ the annual renewal registration fee is due on or before the first day of July.

The executive secretary of the board shall issue a certificate of registration upon the payment of the required fee and publish biennially for proper distribution a roster of all veterinarians registered in the state of North Dakota, as soon as the registration for each two-year period is completed.

Each veterinarian licensed by the board, whether a resident or not, shall notify the secretary of any change in his that person's office address or employment within sixty days after such change has taken place. Any person licensed to practice veterinary medicine after the fifteenth day of April, or any person issued a temporary permit to practice veterinary medicine after that date, is exempt from this requirement to pay the annual registration fee until the first day of July of the year following licensure.

Registration shall be deemed a condition precedent to the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery in this state, and a certificate of registration currently in effect must be on display at all times in the office of each veterinarian engaged in active practice.

Any person registered under this chapter who may have forfeited his registration by nonpayment of fees may renew the same within one year without examination by paying such fees.

The board may by rule waive the payment of the registration fee of a licensed veterinarian during the period when he the veterinarian is on active duty in connection with any branch of the armed forces of the United States, not to exceed the term of three years or the duration of the national emergency, whichever shall last occur.

43-29-08. Certificate of qualification issued to applicants passing examination - Conclusiveness of certificate - Reexamination. The board shall issue a certificate of qualification to each applicant who passes such examination as the board may require and who is qualified under the provisions of this chapter. Such certificate shall be signed by the president and the executive secretary of the board and shall remain in force upon payment of the renewal registration fee becoming due thereafter, and so long as the holder complies with the provisions of this chapter. Notwithstanding the payment of such fee, his the veterinarian's license may be suspended or revoked as provided hereinafter in this chapter.

Any applicant for license who shall fail to satisfy the board of veterinary medical examiners as to his that applicant's qualifications may, upon application, be reexamined within not less than six months upon payment of an additional fee of fifty dollars.

43-29-09. Permit to practice issued by executive secretary of board - Limited specialty license - Graduate ~~animal~~ veterinary technicians. Any person who desires to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry may apply to the executive secretary of the state board of veterinary medical examiners for a temporary permit to practice if he the applicant possesses a degree or diploma showing that he is the applicant to be a graduate of the veterinary course offered in a veterinary school or in a college, or university recognized by the board. Upon the payment of fifty dollars by the applicant, twenty-five dollars shall be applied toward the examination fee, but shall be declared forfeit if the applicant fails to present himself appear at the next scheduled examination. No temporary permit shall be issued to any applicant if he who has previously failed the examination. The executive secretary, if ~~he is~~ satisfied that the applicant is a qualified and a suitable person, and with the approval of the president of the board, shall issue ~~to him~~ a permit to practice until the next examination is offered by the board. Such permit shall have the same force as a certificate from the board, but shall expire upon the adjournment of the next meeting thereof at which an examination is held.

Senior veterinary students who practice in the office of, and under the direct supervision of, a licensed veterinarian must obtain a temporary permit to practice veterinary medicine in this state. This temporary student permit shall not exceed four months from its date of issuance and will be granted without payment of a fee.

The board may issue a limited specialty license for the practice of that specialty in this state to a veterinarian, licensed in another state, who has passed a nationally recognized specialty board exam and who otherwise meets the qualifications to practice in this state. All limited specialty licenses regardless of when issued, expire on June thirtieth of each year and may be renewed in the discretion of the board. All veterinarians holding a limited specialty license are subject to the provisions of this chapter during the term of the license. Fees for a limited specialty license are the same as provided for a regular license.

The board shall adopt rules for the training, certification, and limits of activity for assistants and ~~animal~~ veterinary technicians being trained and employed under the direct supervision and responsibility of a licensed veterinarian. All ~~animal~~ veterinary technicians shall be registered with and subject to requirements established by the board. As used in this chapter, ~~an animal~~ a veterinary technician is a paramedical person who has had further training of at least ~~one year, preparing him two years of preparation~~ for veterinarian related employment in a position between the professional doctor and the animal attendant levels. ~~He~~ A veterinary technician must be trained and knowledgeable in the care and handling of animals, the basic principles of normal and abnormal life processes, and the routine laboratory and clinical procedures. Primarily, ~~his~~ the work of a veterinary technician shall be to assist veterinarians, biological researchers, and other veterinary scientists.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-11. Fees deposited with state treasurer - Separate fund - Vouchers. All moneys and fees collected or received by the board under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited with the state treasurer to be held ~~by him~~ for all legitimate expenses of the board. The state treasurer shall keep such moneys in a separate fund continued from year to year and shall disburse the same only on warrants drawn against such fund by the president or the executive secretary of the board.

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-12. Veterinary medicine defined. Any person is conclusively presumed to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry, and the various branches thereof when ~~he does any one of the following~~:

1. Represents himself as There is any representation that the person is engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery, or veterinary dentistry in any of its branches.
2. Diagnoses The person diagnoses or prescribes a drug, medicine, appliance or application or treatment of whatever nature for the prevention, cure, or relief of a wound, fracture, or bodily injury or disease of animals.
3. Administers The person administers a drug, medicine, appliance or application or treatment of whatever nature for the prevention, cure, or relief of a wound, fracture, or bodily injury or disease of animals, except where such drug, medicine, appliance, or application or treatment is administered at the direction and under the direct supervision of a veterinarian licensed under this chapter.

Unless otherwise provided by law, public notice must be given in advance of all meetings governed by section 44-04-19, including conference call meetings. This notice must contain the date, time, and location of the meeting and, where practicable, the topics to be considered. However, the lack of an agenda in the notice, or a departure from, or an addition to, the agenda at a meeting, shall not affect the validity of the meeting or the actions taken thereat. In cases where the public body holds regularly scheduled meetings, the schedule of these meetings, including the aforementioned notice information, must be filed annually in January, ~~for state-level bodies, with the main office of the public body and, if requested to do so by an interested party,~~ with the secretary of state for state-level bodies, the city auditor for city-level bodies, and the county auditor for all other public bodies. This schedule must be furnished to anyone who requests the information. In addition, every public body shall post public notice of each of its meetings at its principal office, if such exists, and at the location of the meeting. The public body's presiding officer shall have the responsibility of assuring that such public notice is given at the same time as such public body's members are notified, and that this notice is available to anyone requesting such information. In the event of emergency or special meetings of a public body, the person calling such a meeting shall notify representatives of the news media, if any, located where the meeting is to be held and which have requested to be so notified of such special or emergency meetings, of the time, place, date, and topics to be considered at the same time as such public body's members are notified. Where reasonable and practicable, a public body should attempt to set a regular schedule for its meetings by statute, ordinance, or resolution. The attorney general shall prepare general guidelines to assist public bodies in following the provisions of this section. Unless otherwise specified by law, resolution, or ordinance, or as decided by the public body, notices required by this section do not have to be published. The provisions of section 12.1-11-06 do not apply to this section.

SENATE BILL NO. 2569
(Marks)RECALL SPECIAL ELECTION TIME

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 44-08-21 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to recall petitions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

44-08-21. Recall of elected officials of political subdivisions. An elected official of a political subdivision, except an official subject to recall pursuant to section 10 of article III of the Constitution of North Dakota, is subject to recall for misconduct, malfeasance, crime in office, neglect of duty in office, habitual drunkenness, or gross incompetency by petition of electors equal in number to twenty-five percent of voters voting in the political subdivision at the last election that the office of the official sought to be recalled was on the ballot, except in any political subdivision with a population of not more than one hundred, the petition must be signed by at least six electors. The provisions of section 16.1-01-09, as they relate to signing and circulating recall petitions, apply to petitions under this section.

The petition must be filed with the official with whom a petition for nomination to the office in question is filed unless that official is the person subject to recall, in which case the petition must be filed with the secretary of state. The official with whom the petition is filed shall pass on the sufficiency of a petition under this section in the manner required of the secretary of state under section 16.1-01-10. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the official shall call a special election to be held within ~~thirty~~ forty days if the official finds the petition valid and sufficient. No special election may be called if the date would be within ninety days of the next scheduled election. An elector's name may not be removed from a recall petition.

The name of the official to be recalled must be placed on the ballot unless the official resigns within ten days after the filing of the petition. Other candidates for the office may be nominated in a manner provided by law. If the official resigns, the appropriate political subdivision governing body may call a special election or appoint a person to complete the unexpired term of the office. When the election results have been officially declared, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes is elected for the remainder of the term. No official is subject to recall twice during the term for which the official was elected.

RULE AGAINST PERPETUITIES

AN ACT to adopt the Uniform Statutory Rule Against Perpetuities; and to repeal sections 47-02-27, 47-02-31, 47-04-11, 47-04-12, and 59-05-36 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the rule against perpetuities.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Statutory rule against perpetuities - Invalidity of certain contingent property interests, general powers of appointment, special powers of appointment, and general testamentary powers of appointment.

1. A contingent property interest is invalid unless:
  - a. When the interest is created, it is certain to vest or terminate no later than twenty-one years after the death of an individual then alive; or
  - b. The interest either vests or terminates within ninety years after its creation.
2. A general power of appointment not presently exercisable because of a condition precedent is invalid unless:
  - a. When the power is created, the condition precedent is certain to be satisfied or to become impossible to satisfy no later than twenty-one years after the death of an individual then alive; or
  - b. The condition precedent either is satisfied or becomes impossible to satisfy within ninety years after its creation.
3. A special power of appointment or a general testamentary power of appointment is invalid unless:
  - a. When the power is created, it is certain to be irrevocably exercised or otherwise to terminate no later than twenty-one years after the death of an individual then alive; or
  - b. The power is irrevocably exercised or otherwise terminates within ninety years after its creation.
4. In determining whether a contingent property interest or a power of appointment is valid under subdivision a of subsection 1, subdivision a of subsection 2, or subdivision a of subsection 3, the possibility that a child will be born to an individual after the individual's death is disregarded.

5. If, in measuring a period from the creation of a trust or other property arrangement, language in a governing instrument seeks to postpone the vesting or termination of any interest or trust until, disallow the vesting or termination of any interest or trust beyond, require all interests or trusts to vest or terminate no later than, or operate in effect in any similar fashion upon, the later of (a) the expiration of a period of time not exceeding twenty-one years after the death of the survivor of specified lives in being at the creation of the trust or other property arrangement or (b) the expiration of a period of time that exceeds or might exceed twenty-one years after the death of the survivor of lives in being at the creation of the trust or other property arrangement, then the portion of the language described in (b) is inoperative if and to the extent it produces a period of time that exceeds twenty-one years after the death of the survivor of the lives specified in the portion of the language described in (a).

SECTION 2. When contingent property interest or power of appointment created.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section and in subsection 1 of section 5 of this Act, the time of creation of a contingent property interest or a power of appointment is determined under general principles of property law.
2. For purposes of this Act, if there is a person who alone can exercise a power created by a governing instrument to become an unqualified beneficial owner of a contingent property interest or a property interest subject to a power of appointment described in subsection 2 or 3 of section 1 of this Act, the contingent property interest or power of appointment is created when the power to become the unqualified beneficial owner terminates.
3. For purposes of this Act, a contingent property interest or a power of appointment arising from a transfer of property to a previously funded trust or other existing property arrangement is created when the contingent property interest or power of appointment in the original contribution was created.

SECTION 3. Reformation. Upon the petition of an interested person, a court shall reform a disposition in the manner that most closely approximates the transferor's manifested plan of distribution and is within the ninety years allowed under subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 1 of this Act, subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 1 of this Act, and subdivision b of subsection 3 of section 1 of this Act, if:

1. A contingent property interest or a power of appointment becomes invalid under section 1 of this Act;
2. A class gift is not but might become invalid under section 1 of this Act and the time has arrived when the share of any class member is to take effect in possession or enjoyment; or

3. A contingent property interest that is not validated by subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 1 of this Act can vest but not within ninety years after its creation.

SECTION 4. Exclusions from statutory rule against perpetuities. Section 1 of this Act does not apply to:

1. A contingent property interest or a power of appointment arising out of a nondonative transfer, except a contingent property interest or a power of appointment arising out of a premarital or postmarital agreement, a separation or divorce settlement, a spouse's election, a similar arrangement arising out of a prospective, existing, or previous marital relationship between the parties, a contract to make or not to revoke a will or trust, a contract to exercise or not to exercise a power of appointment, a transfer in satisfaction of a duty of support, or a reciprocal transfer.
2. A fiduciary's power relating to the administration or management of assets, including the power of a fiduciary to sell, lease, or mortgage property, and the power of a fiduciary to determine principal and income.
3. A power to appoint a fiduciary.
4. A discretionary power of a trustee to distribute principal before termination of a trust to a beneficiary having an indefeasibly vested interest in the income and principal.
5. A contingent property interest held by a charity, government, or governmental agency or subdivision, if the contingent property interest is preceded by an interest held by another charity, government, or governmental agency or subdivision.
6. A property interest, power of appointment, or arrangement that was not subject to the common-law rule against perpetuities or excluded by another statute of this state.

SECTION 5. Prospective application.

1. Except as extended by subsection 2, this Act applies to a contingent property interest or a power of appointment that is created on or after the effective date of this Act. For purposes of this section, a contingent property interest or a power of appointment created by the exercise of a power of appointment is created when the power is irrevocably exercised or when a revocable exercise becomes irrevocable.
2. If a contingent property interest or a power of appointment was created before the effective date of this Act and is determined in a judicial proceeding, commenced on or after the effective date of this Act, to violate this state's rule against perpetuities as that rule existed before the effective date of this Act, a court upon the petition of an interested person may reform the disposition in the manner that most closely approximates the transferor's manifested plan of distribution and is within the limits of the rule against perpetuities applicable in the contingent property interest or power of appointment was created.

SECTION 6. REPEAL. Sections 47-02-27, 47-02-31, 47-04-11, 47-04-12, and 59-05-36 of the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.

ESCROW EXCESS ASSESSMENTS

AN ACT to provide for disposition of excess assessments for escrow accounts on residential real estate mortgage loans.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

1. "Borrower" means the obligor under a residential mortgage held by a secondary mortgagee.
2. "Excess amount" means any amount received in an escrow account during a calendar year in excess of three hundred dollars plus the amount necessary to pay real estate taxes, special assessments, and insurance premiums during that calendar year.
3. "Secondary mortgagee" means a successor mortgagee not residing or domiciled in this state who purchased the interest originally belonging to the mortgagee who originated a loan, under which an escrow is required to assure payment of obligations including property taxes, special assessments, and insurance premiums, if that loan is secured by a first lien real estate mortgage or equivalent security interest in a dwelling that the borrower uses as a principal place of residence in this state, not including a mobile home.
4. "Servicer" means a person or entity maintaining an escrow account for a secondary residential mortgagee.

SECTION 2. Notice of excess escrow payments. If an escrow account is maintained by the servicer of a secondary residential mortgage for a secondary mortgagee, and the account contains an excess amount, the servicer shall provide written notice to the borrower, on or before March first of the following year, of the escrow account status. The information provided to the borrower must include the balance in the escrow account after the annual payment of taxes and special assessments.

SECTION 3. Application of excess escrow payments. Upon receipt of the written notice under section 2 of this Act, the borrower may, within thirty days after the date of the notice, elect in a written request to the servicer one of the following options:

1. Refund of all or part of the excess amount; or

2. Retention of all or part of the excess amount in the escrow account.

If the borrower does not advise the servicer in writing within the time provided in this section, the servicer may continue maintenance of the escrow account in the same manner until the next report to the borrower under this Act. If the borrower advises the servicer of an election within the time prescribed in this Act, the servicer must comply with the borrower's election within thirty days of the election.

ABANDONED PROPERTY LISTS AND NOTICES

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 12 of section 47-30.1-01, section 47-30.1-18, and subsection 1 of section 47-30.1-19.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of "person", publication requirements for abandoned property, and abandoned property lists.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 12 of section 47-30.1-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

12. "Person" means an individual, business association, state or other government including the government of the United States, governmental subdivision or agency, public corporation, public authority, estate, trust, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

47-30.1-18. Notice and publication of lists of abandoned property.

1. The administrator shall cause a notice to be published not later than March first of the year immediately following the report required by section 47-30.1-17 at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county of this state in which is located the last known address of any person to be named in the notice. If no address is listed or the address is outside this state, the notice must be published in the county in which the holder of the property has its principal place of business within this state.
2. The published notice must be entitled "Notice of Names of Persons Appearing to be Owners of Abandoned Property" and contain:
  - a. The names in alphabetical order and last known address, if any, of persons listed in the report and entitled to notice within the county as specified in subsection 1.
  - b. A statement that information concerning the property and the name and last known address of the holder may be obtained by any person possessing an interest in the property by addressing an inquiry to the administrator.

3. The administrator is not required to publish in the notice any items of less than fifty dollars unless the administrator considers their publication to be in the public interest.
4. ~~Not later than March first, or in the case of property reported by life insurance companies, not later than September first, of the year immediately following the report required by section 47-30.1-17, the administrator shall mail a notice to each person whose last known address is listed in the report and who appears to be entitled to property of the value of fifty dollars or more presumed abandoned under this chapter and any beneficiary of a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract for whom the administrator has a last known address.~~
5. ~~The mailed notice must contain:~~
  - a. ~~A statement that, according to a report filed with the administrator, property is being held to which the addressee appears entitled.~~
  - b. ~~The name and last known address of the person holding the property and any necessary information regarding the changes of name and last known address of the holder.~~
  - c. ~~A statement that, if satisfactory proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder by the date specified in the published notice, the property will be placed in the custody of the administrator and all further claims must be directed to the administrator.~~
- 6- 4. This section is not applicable to sums payable on traveler's checks, money orders, and other written instruments presumed abandoned under section 47-30.1-19.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 47-30.1-19.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. ### CHECK AND DEPOSIT DORMANCY

AN ACT to create and enact section 47-30.1-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the dormancy period for uncashed checks; and to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 47-30.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the dormancy period for deposits with banking and financial institutions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Section 47-30.1-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

47-30.1-02.1. Uncashed checks. Except as provided in sections 47-30.1-04 and 47-30.1-05, any checks held, issued, or owing in the ordinary course of the holder's business which remain uncashed by the owner for more than two years after becoming payable are presumed abandoned.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 47-30.1-06 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Any demand, savings, or matured time deposit with a banking or financial organization, including a deposit that is automatically renewable, and any funds paid toward the purchase of a share, a mutual investment certificate, or any other interest in a banking or financial organization is presumed abandoned unless, in the case of a matured time deposit, the banking or financial organization has mailed, at least once every ~~seven~~ five years certified mail, requesting a return receipt, to the owner and the receipt has been returned and signed by the addressee, or unless the owner, within ~~seven~~ five years has:
  - a. In the case of a deposit, increased or decreased its amount or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest;
  - b. Communicated in writing with the banking or financial organization concerning the property;
  - c. Otherwise indicated an interest in the property as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the banking or financial organization;
  - d. Owned other property to which subdivision a, b, or c applies and if the banking or financial organization communicates in writing with the owner with regard to the property that would otherwise be presumed abandoned under this subsection at the address to which communications regarding the other property regularly are sent; or

- e. Had another relationship with the banking or financial organization concerning which the owner has:
- (1) Communicated in writing with the banking or financial organization; or
  - (2) Otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the banking or financial organization and if the banking or financial organization communicates in writing with the owner with regard to the property that would otherwise be abandoned under this subsection at the address to which communications regarding the other relationship regularly are sent.

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY PROCEDURES

AN ACT to create and enact section 47-30.1-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to recovery of unclaimed property.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Section 47-30.1-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

47-30.1-03.1. Property originated or issued by this state, any political subdivision of this state, or any entity incorporated, organized, or created in this state.

1. All intangible property, including any interest, dividend, or other earnings thereon, less any lawful charges, held by a business association, federal, state, or local government or governmental subdivision, agency, or entity, or any other person or entity, regardless of where the holder may be found, if the owner has not claimed or corresponded in writing concerning the property within three years after the date prescribed for payment or delivery, is presumed abandoned and subject to the custody of this state as unclaimed property if:
  - a. The address of the owner is unknown; and
  - b. The person or entity originating or issuing the intangible property is this state or any political subdivision of this state, or is incorporated, organized, or created in this state.
2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply to property that is or may be presumed abandoned and subject to the custody of this state pursuant to any other provision of law containing a dormancy period different from that prescribed in subsection 1.
3. The provisions of subsection 1 apply to all property held on the effective date of this Act, or at any time thereafter, regardless of when such property became or becomes presumptively abandoned.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1442
(St. Aubyn, Svedjan)

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT CONTRACTORS' BONDS

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 48-01-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to bond requirements on contracts for public buildings or improvements.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 48-01-01 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

48-01-01. Bonds from contractors for public improvements. Every public officer or board authorized to enter into a contract for the erection, repair, or alteration of any public building or any other public improvement, except a municipal improvement made under special assessment statutes, before permitting any work to be done on that contract, shall take from the contractor a good and sufficient bond. The bond must be for an amount equal at least to the price stated in the contract. The bond must be conditioned to be void if the contractor and all subcontractors fully perform all terms, conditions, and provisions of the contract and pay all bills or claims on account of labor and materials, including supplies used for machinery and motor power equipment, performed, furnished, and used in and about the performance of the contract, including all demands of subcontractors. The requirement that bills and claims be paid must include the requirement that interest, of the amount authorized under section 13-01-14, be paid on bills and claims not paid within ninety days. The bond stands as security for all such bills, claims, and demands until fully paid, with preference to labor and materialmen as to payment. The bond must run to this state, but any person having a lawful claim against the contractor, or any subcontractor, as provided in this chapter, on account of labor, materials, or supplies, or for a breach of the contract, may sue on the bond. The mandatory bond requirement of this section only applies to contracts under which the total estimated cost of all work involved amounts to more than twenty-five thousand dollars for the completed project.

PUBLIC CONTRACT BIDDING METHODS

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 4 of section 48-02-04 and section 48-02-05.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to bid requirements and acceptance for building and repair contracts and contents of bid advertisements and awarding contracts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 48-02-04 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4. ~~That the bids may be submitted as bids for the single project; individual bids for general, electrical, and mechanical contracts; or bids for other portions of the project. The type of bids as required by section 48-02-05.1.~~

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 48-02-05.1 of the 1989 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

48-02-05.1. Bid requirements and acceptance. Competitive bids for the work for which plans, drawings, and specifications are required by section 48-02-02 ~~may~~ must be allowed to be submitted as multiple prime bids for the ~~single project; individual bids for~~ general, electrical, and mechanical contracts, when applicable. In addition to the required multiple prime bids, the governing board may also allow submission of single prime bids or bids for other portions of the project. Determining bids for other portions of the project is the responsibility of the governing board. The governing board may not accept the single project prime bid unless that bid is lower than the combined total of the lowest and best bids for general, electrical, and mechanical the contracts.

ENERGY EFFICIENCY CONTRACTS

AN ACT to allow governmental units to enter energy efficiency performance-based contracts to provide guaranteed energy savings in buildings owned by governmental units.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Energy conservation measure" means a training program or facility alteration intended to reduce energy consumption or operating costs, including the following:
  - a. Insulation of the building or any structure associated with the building.
  - b. Window or door modifications that reduce energy consumption.
  - c. Automatic energy control systems.
  - d. Replacement or modification to increase the energy efficiency of the lighting, heating, air-conditioning, or ventilating system.
  - e. Energy recovery or cogeneration systems.
2. "Governmental unit" means any instrumentality of state government or any political subdivision of the state.
3. "Guaranteed energy savings contract" means a contract for energy conservation measures which provides that energy cost savings are guaranteed to the extent necessary to make payments for the recommended energy conservation measures.
4. "Qualified provider" means a person or business experienced in the design, implementation, and installation of energy conservation measures.
5. "Request for proposals" means a procurement announcement through a public notice from a governmental unit, which will administer the program, detailing the work, service, or supplies needed for an energy conservation measure. The request for proposals must include:

- a. The name and address of the governmental unit.
- b. The name, address, title, and phone number of a contact person.
- c. The response due date and time deadline.
- d. The scope of the project.
- e. The project completion deadline.
- f. The criteria for awarding a contract.
- g. The right to reject the request for proposals.
- h. Other stipulations and clarifications as required.

SECTION 2. Energy conservation measure recommendations. Before entering into a contract under section 3 of this Act, a governmental unit shall submit a request for proposals. Upon receipt of the request for proposals, the governmental unit shall evaluate all reports from qualified providers which summarize estimates of all costs of installations, modifications, or remodeling, including costs of design, engineering, installation, maintenance, repairs, or debt service, and estimates of the amounts by which energy or operating costs will be reduced. If technical assistance is not available by a licensed architect or registered professional engineer on the governmental unit staff, then the evaluation of this report must be done by a registered professional engineer or architect, who is to be retained by the governmental unit. The governmental unit may pay a reasonable fee for preparation of the report or include the fee as part of a contract under section 3 of this Act.

SECTION 3. Guaranteed energy savings contracts. The governmental unit shall provide public notice of the meeting at which it proposes to award a guaranteed energy savings contract, the names of the parties to the proposed contract, and the purpose of the contract. After reviewing the report under section 2 of this Act, a governmental unit may enter into a guaranteed energy savings contract with a qualified provider if it finds that the amount it would spend on the energy conservation measures recommended in the report is not likely to exceed the amount to be saved in energy and operation costs over a period not exceeding ten years from the date of installation if the recommendations in the report are followed. The contract must include a written guarantee of the qualified provider that the energy and operating cost savings will meet or exceed the costs of the system. A qualified provider to whom the contract is awarded shall give a sufficient bond to the governmental unit for the faithful performance of the contract. The guaranteed energy savings contract may provide for payments over a period not exceeding five years.

SECTION 4. Competitive bidding and architect and engineering services. Guaranteed energy savings contracts are not subject to the requirements of chapter 48-02, which relate to competitive bidding, and are not subject to section 43-19.1-28.

SECTION 5. Appropriations for contract payments. The governmental unit shall include in its annual appropriations measure for each later biennium or fiscal year any amounts payable under guaranteed energy savings contracts during the biennium or fiscal year.

PIPELINE SAFETY

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 49-02-01.2 and 49-07-05.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the jurisdiction of the public service commission regarding hazardous facility orders and pipeline safety and an increase in fines for violations of pipeline safety standards; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

49-02-01.2. Pipeline safety - Public service commission jurisdiction - Hazardous facility orders.

1. The commission, by rule, may establish and enforce minimum safety standards for the design, construction, and operation of gas distribution facilities and intrastate pipeline facilities used for the distribution and intrastate transportation of gas, liquefied natural gas, or hazardous liquids, regardless of whether they are owned or operated by a public utility, in order to ensure the reasonable safety thereof. Any rule issued under this section affecting the design, installation, construction, initial inspection, and initial testing shall not be applicable to pipeline facilities in existence on the date such rule is adopted. Such rules shall not be more stringent than the corresponding federal regulations applicable to interstate pipelines and related facilities.
2. If the commission determines that a pipeline facility is hazardous to life or property, it may issue an order requiring the operator of the facility to take corrective action. The commission may issue such an order without notice and opportunity for hearing if the commission determines that to do otherwise would result in the likelihood of serious harm to life or property. The Commission shall include in such an order an opportunity for hearing as soon as practicable after issuance of the order.

49-07-05.1. Violations of pipeline safety standards - Penalties. Any person who violates any rule or order issued by the commission pursuant to section 49-02-01.2, shall be subject to a civil penalty to be imposed by the

for each day that such violation persists, except that the maximum penalty shall not exceed ~~two~~ five hundred thousand dollars for any related series of violations. Any such civil penalty may be compromised by the commission. In determining the amount of such penalty, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, the appropriateness of such penalty to the size of the business of the person charged, the nature, circumstances, and gravity of the violation, the degree of culpability, any history of prior violations, the effect on ability to continue to do business, the ability to pay the penalty, the good faith of the person charged in attempting to achieve compliance, after notification of a violation, and such other matters as justice may require, shall be considered. The amount of such penalty, when finally determined, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, may be deducted from any sums owing by the state of North Dakota to the person charged or may be recovered in a civil action in the district court of Burleigh County.

UNAUTHORIZED RAILROAD PASSENGER INJURIES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 49-16 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the liability of a railroad owner or operator for injury of a person riding on a locomotive or railroad car without authority from the owner or operator of the railroad.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 49-16 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Liability of owner or operator of railroad limited. A person who is injured while boarding or attempting to board a moving locomotive or railroad car, without authority from the owner or operator of the railroad, or who having boarded a locomotive or railroad car without authority from the owner or operator of the railroad, is injured while riding or getting off the locomotive or railroad car, may not recover any damages from the owner or operator of the railroad for that injury unless the injury is proximately caused by an intentional act of the railroad owner or operator and the railroad owner or operator knew that serious injury was the probable result of the act, or that the owner or operator of the railroad acted with wanton and reckless disregard of the probable result of the act. This Act does not exempt a railroad corporation from any liability created under chapter 49-16 or the Federal Employer's Liability Act [45 U.S.C. 51 et seq.] for injuries to its employees or agents.

CALL IDENTIFICATION SERVICES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 49-21 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to call identification services.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 49-21 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Call identification services - Charges prohibited - Notice - Exceptions.

1. Any telephone call identification service offered in this state by a telecommunications company or rural telephone cooperative must allow a caller, at least on a per call basis, to withhold, at no cost to the caller, display of a caller's telephone number from the telephone instrument of the individual receiving the telephone call placed by the caller.
2. The telecommunications company or rural telephone cooperative may not charge any caller who requests that that person's telephone number be withheld from the recipient of any call placed by the caller.
3. A telecommunications company or rural telephone cooperative offering a call identification service shall notify its subscribers that their calls may be identified to a called party at least thirty days before the service is offered. In the case of a telecommunications company or rural telephone cooperative presently offering a call identification service, notice must be given within thirty days of the effective date of this Act.
4. This Act does not apply to:
  - a. An identification service that is used within the same limited system, including a Centrex, Centron, or private branch exchange (PBX) system, as the recipient telephone.
  - b. An identification service that is used on a public agency's emergency telephone line or on a line that receives the primary emergency telephone number (911).
  - c. An identification service provided in connection with legally sanctioned call tracing or tapping procedures.
  - d. An identification service provided in connection with any "700", "800", or "900" access code telecommunications service.

COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES FUND

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 50-01-01, 50-02-05, 50-03-01, 50-03-02, 50-03-03, 50-03-04, 50-03-05, 50-03-06, 50-03-07, 50-06.2-05, and subsection 34 of section 57-15-06.7 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the human services fund.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

50-01-01. County obligated to support poor - Eligibility for assistance - Transfer of property as security for assistance. Within the limits of the county ~~poor relief~~ human services appropriation therefor, and utilizing reimbursement under section 50-01-09.2, each county in this state is obligated, upon receipt of a written application on a form prescribed by the department of human services, to relieve and support persons who are residents of the county and who are in need of poor relief. To be eligible for such relief, the applicant:

1. May not at any time before or after making application for county poor relief have made an assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of rendering himself eligible for assistance under this chapter.
2. Shall comply with the written eligibility standards for county poor relief established by the county social service board. A copy of the written standards must be available upon request. Pursuant to this requirement, the ownership of real or personal property by an applicant for county poor relief, or by the spouse of such applicant, either individually or jointly, or of insurance on the life of the applicant does not preclude the granting of such relief if the applicant is without funds for his support. However, as a condition to the granting of county poor relief, the applicant may be required to transfer such property in trust by appropriate instrument as security for relief the applicant may thereafter receive, unless the property consists of one of the following:
  - a. A homestead.
  - b. A life insurance policy having a cash surrender value of less than three hundred dollars.

- c. Personal property of a value less than three hundred dollars, not including household goods, wearing apparel, and personal effects, such as money.
- d. Property selected by the applicant having a value of less than three hundred dollars.
- e. Real or personal property held in trust for the applicant by the federal government.
- f. Real or personal property on which the taking of security may be prohibited through legislation enacted by the Congress of the United States.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 50-02-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-02-05. Residence in county - How acquired after relief given. If any person who has not acquired residence within the state, or within a county within the state, for poor relief purposes, receives any type of poor relief or public assistance or becomes an inmate of any hospital, poorhouse, jail, prison, or other public institution, or receives any aid or relief from the poor human services fund of any county, or from funds provided by the state or federal government, the period of time under which residence may be acquired begins with the date of the last type of aid or poor relief or other assistance which was given, or the date of discharge from any such institution.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 50-03-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-03-01. Board of county commissioners may levy poor human services tax. The board of county commissioners, if it deems it expedient, annually at its session at which the county tax is ordered to be levied and assessed, may levy and assess a human services tax for the support of the poor of needy persons in its county.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 50-03-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-03-02. County poor relief human services fund. Each county in this state shall maintain a fund to be known as the county poor relief human services fund into which the county treasurer, immediately upon receipt thereof, shall pay that proportion of the tax receipts which the county poor relief human services appropriation bears to the total county appropriations.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 50-03-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-03-03. Relief expenditures paid from poor relief human services fund. All expenditures by the county for the relief of the poor needy must be paid out of the county poor relief human services fund. Such The fund ~~shall~~ is not be subject to any other charges and is exempt from the provisions of section 21-02-08.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 50-03-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-03-04. Transfer of money to poor relief human services fund. If the human services appropriation made by a board of county commissioners for poor relief purposes is not sufficient to meet the expenditures required by law, the county auditor, on order of the board of county commissioners, may make a transfer to the county poor relief human services fund from any other fund, except sinking and interest funds set aside to pay the principal or interest on outstanding bond issues, or funds set aside to retire any other outstanding indebtedness.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 50-03-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-03-05. Emergency expenditures - Special warrants. If the unexpended balance in any fund or funds of the county which may be transferred to the county poor relief human services fund is insufficient to meet an emergency created by unusual and unanticipated demands for the relief of the poor on the human services fund, the board of county commissioners, by resolution, may authorize the expenditure of an amount in excess of budget appropriations and may obligate the county in excess of such appropriations for the purpose of replenishing the poor relief human services fund. The chairperson of the committee, or such other person as the committee may designate, and the state treasurer shall deposit in the children's trust fund at such times as they may become available, all moneys designated for the fund from whatever source derived. The state treasurer shall invest such funds in interest-bearing accounts as is designated by the committee, and the interest earned must be deposited in the children's trust fund. The department of human services shall provide administrative and clerical support for the children's trust fund.

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 50-27-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-27-03. Authority of the committee on children and youth. In addition to the powers and duties enumerated in section 50-26-02, the committee on children and youth of the governor's council on human resources may:

1. Apply for and receive public funds from any source, devises, legacies, bequests, gifts, and donations from private individuals, organizations, or funds from any other source not contrary to law.
2. ~~Meet at least twice each year for the purpose of administering the children's trust fund.~~
- 3- Create such advisory committees as may be deemed necessary to assure public involvement in the planning, development, and administration of the children's trust fund.
- 4- 3. Hire or arrange for appropriate staff, as deemed necessary, to administer and maintain properly the children's trust fund.
- 5- 4. Develop, implement, and periodically review a written plan to be used in administering the funds expended from and retained in the children's trust fund. The written plan must include the types of activities to be funded, the nature of organizations preferred for funding, the criteria for eligible fund applicants, and the mechanisms for the monitoring and evaluating of funded activities.

- ~~6-~~ 5. Award grants from the children's trust fund in accordance with this chapter and any rules that have been adopted.
- ~~7-~~ 6. Adopt, after public notice and an opportunity for comment has been given, any rules it determines to be necessary to carry out this chapter.
- ~~8-~~ 7. Contract with persons or organizations, including political subdivisions and school districts.
- ~~9-~~ 8. Prepare and submit to the executive director of the department of human services a report at the end of each biennium.

~~The governor~~ The director of the department of human services shall designate a person with a demonstrated expertise in the prevention of child abuse and neglect as executive secretary to the children and youth committee to assist in the administration of the children's trust fund.

SECTION 9. A new section to chapter 50-27 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Governor's council on human resources. The executive committee of the governor's council on human resources and its functions must be maintained in the governor's office.

SECTION 10. REPEAL. Section 18 of chapter 333 of the 1989 Session Laws of North Dakota is repealed.

SENATE BILL NO. 2384
(Senators Mathern, Mushik, Traynor)
(Representatives Scherber, Trautman, Nowatzki)

FAMILY SUPPORT PROGRAMS

AN ACT to adopt a statement of legislative policy relating to the family; to provide for family life education; to create and enact two new sections to title 50, a new subsection to section 50-06-05.1, a new section to chapter 50-09, and a new section to chapter 50-11.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the coordination of services for pregnant women, benefits for pregnant women, aid to dependent children and medical assistance for adopted children with special needs, and early childhood services resource and referral programs; to provide an appropriation; and to provide an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Statement of legislative policy. The state must advocate for the family by using political, economic, social, and judicial measures that support the unity and stability of the family so that the family can exercise its specific function of nurturing and protecting its members. If the family is to be nurtured and its members protected, the state must support programs that offer assistance for pregnant women and their families. Unjust social and economic structures such as poverty, sexism, and lack of adequate health care and information should be addressed. Women must have the ability to make responsible decisions concerning a pregnancy without losing other opportunities for a fulfilled life. Ensuring the dignity and rights of women and children and families is the operative principle underlying this Act.

SECTION 2. Family life education program. The department of human services shall enter into an agreement with the North Dakota state university extension service for the design of a program to educate and support individuals at all points within the family life cycle. The program must provide support for families and youth with research-based information relating to personal, family, and community concerns and must contain a research component aimed at evaluation of planned methods or programs for prevention of family and social problems. The program must address the following interrelated topics:

1. Child and youth development.
2. Parent education with an emphasis on parents as educators.
3. Human development.
4. Interpersonal relationships.
5. Family interaction and family systems.

6. Family economics.
7. Intergenerational issues.
8. Impact of societal changes on the family.
9. Coping skills.
10. Community networks and supports for families.

SECTION 3. A new subsection to section 50-06-05.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

To coordinate services for pregnant women.

SECTION 4. A new section to title 50 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Coordination of services for pregnant women. The department shall:

1. Collect information concerning all existing private and public organizations in this state offering services to pregnant women who are experiencing problems in connection with their pregnancies due to medical, economic, social, or psychological factors. The information must be geographically indexed and designed to inform the woman of public and private agencies and services available to assist a woman through pregnancy, upon childbirth, and while the child is a dependent, including adoption agencies. This information must include the nature of the services offered, the conditions under which and the locations at which services are available, the service area covered, and the legal status and organizational structure of the organization.
2. Disseminate information collected under this subsection to all existing organizations offering services to pregnant women and to potential organizations desiring to offer such services. This information must be disseminated in such a manner that existing and potential organizations are assisted in their efforts to serve pregnant women.
3. Serve as a clearinghouse for information and advice on creating, administering, and maintaining an effective organization offering services to pregnant women.
4. Establish and widely advertise a statewide toll-free telephone number that persons may call to obtain information concerning organizations near them offering services to pregnant women, and in other ways disseminate information concerning organizations offering services to pregnant women.

SECTION 5. A new section to title 50 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Benefits for pregnant women. The department shall pay a benefit during the first six months of pregnancy to the mother of an unborn child who would otherwise be eligible for a benefit under chapter 50-09. The benefit paid under this section must be equal to the benefit available under chapter

50-09. An applicant for a benefit under this section shall provide medical verification of her pregnancy. If the applicant is unable to provide the verification, a medical examination to provide such verification must be provided by the department.

SECTION 6. A new section to chapter 50-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Assistance for adopted children with special needs. Assistance provided under this chapter or chapter 50-24.1 after adoption to a child with special needs must be provided without regard to the income or resources of the adopting parents. Except as provided in this section, such assistance continues until the adopted child becomes eighteen years of age, is emancipated, or dies; the adoption is terminated; or a determination of ineligibility is made by the county agency, whichever occurs earlier. If sufficient funds are available, the county agency may continue assistance for an adopted child until the child reaches twenty-one years of age if the agency determines that the adopted child is a student regularly attending a secondary, postsecondary, or vocational school in pursuance of a course of study leading to a diploma, degree, or gainful employment. Assistance provided to an adopted child must continue regardless of the residence of the adopting parents. A state or county agency may require, as a condition of receiving assistance under this chapter or chapter 50-24.1, that the adopting parents enter into a contract or agreement regarding the type of assistance to be received; the amount of assistance; the identity of the physical, mental, or emotional condition for which medical assistance is received; or any conditions for continued receipt of assistance. A child with special needs is a child legally available for adoptive placement whose custody has been awarded to the department or a county social services board and who is five years of age or older; under eighteen years of age with a physical, emotional, or mental handicap; a member of a minority; or a member of a sibling group.

SECTION 7. A new section to chapter 50-11.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Resource and referral program - Authority of department to make grants - Federal funds - Program components.

1. The department may make grants to public and private nonprofit entities for the planning, establishment, expansion, improvement, or operation of early childhood services. Public or private entities may apply to the department for funding. Applicants shall apply for such grants on forms provided by the department. Applications for grants using funds received by the state under subsection 2 must include assurances that federal requirements have been met.
2. The department shall submit an application annually to the United States secretary of health and human services for the purpose of obtaining the state's allotment of funds authorized under chapter 8 of title VI of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 [42 U.S.C. 9871-9877] or under any subsequent federal law providing funding for child care and development programs.
3. Each program must identify all existing early childhood services through information provided by all relevant public and private entities in the areas of service and must develop a resource file of the services which must be maintained and updated at least quarterly. The services must include early childhood services and service providers as defined in section 50-11.1-02.

4. Each program providing early childhood resource and referral services must establish a referral process that responds to parental needs for information, fully ensures the confidentiality of records and information as required under subsection 3 of section 50-11.1-07, affords parents maximum access to all referral information, and includes telephone referral available for no less than twenty hours per week. Each program shall publicize its services through popular media sources, agencies, employers, and other appropriate methods.
5. All early childhood services resource and referral programs must maintain documentation of the number of calls and contacts to the program. A program may collect and maintain the following information:
  - a. Ages of children served.
  - b. Time category of child care request for each child.
  - c. Special time category, such as nights, weekends, or swing shift.
  - d. The reason that the child care is needed.
6. Each program must have available, as an educational aid to parents, information on available parent, early childhood, and family education programs in the community and information on aspects of evaluating the quality and suitability of early childhood services, including licensing regulation, financial assistance availability, child abuse reporting procedures, and appropriate child development information.
7. A program may provide technical assistance to existing and potential providers of all types of early childhood services and to employers. This assistance must include:
  - a. Information on all aspects of initiating new early childhood services including licensing, zoning, program and budget development, and assistance in finding information from other sources.
  - b. Information and resources which help existing early childhood service providers to maximize their ability to serve the children and parents of their community.
  - c. Dissemination of information on current public issues affecting the local and statewide delivery of early childhood services.
  - d. Facilitation of communication between existing early childhood service providers and child-related services in the community served.

- e. Recruitment of licensed providers.
  - f. Options, and the benefits available to employers utilizing the various options, to expand child care services to employees.
8. Services prescribed by this section must be designed to maximize parental choice in the selection of early childhood services and to facilitate the maintenance and development of such services and resources.

SECTION 8. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $1,034,050, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the department of human services for the purpose of implementing sections 2 through 7 of this Act for the biennium beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993. Of the total amount, $45,000 must be distributed for the purpose of implementing section 2 of this Act, $128,250 must be distributed for the purpose of implementing sections 3 and 4 of this Act, $635,000 must be distributed for the purpose of implementing section 5 of this Act, and $225,800 must be distributed for the purpose of implementing section 7 of this Act.

SECTION 9. EFFECTIVE DATE. Section 5 of this Act becomes effective July 1, 1992.

CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM PAYMENTS

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 50-09 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to state prepayment for projected county child support expenditures; and to amend and reenact section 50-09-20.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to reimbursement by the state for certain county expenditures.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 50-09-20.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-09-20.1. Amounts state liable for - Reimbursement by state. The state agency shall reimburse each county, upon claim being made therefor by the county agency, for fifty percent of the amount expended by the county agency in excess of the amount provided by the federal government for the administration of ~~the child support enforcement program~~, the early childhood services program, the job opportunity and basic skills training program, the transportation program, and the case management program.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 50-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Amount state liable for - Prepayment by state. The state agency shall pay to or on behalf of each county, upon claim being made therefor by the county agency, fifty percent of the amount projected to be expended by the county agency in each month in excess of the amount provided by the federal government for the administration of the child support enforcement program. At the end of each quarter year, the projections must be reconciled with actual expenditures, and the monthly payment next following the reconciliation must be adjusted to account for any increase or decrease required by the reconciliation.

Except as provided in subsection 2, a parent, guardian, or other custodian of any child who shall cruelly abuse or willfully neglect or refuse to provide subsistence, education, or other necessary care for the health, morals, or well-being of such child, or who shall willfully permit and allow any such child to be in a disreputable place or associate with vagrants, vicious or immoral persons, or engage in an occupation forbidden by the laws of North Dakota, or to engage in an occupation injurious to his health or morals or to the health or morals of others, or any such parent, guardian, or custodian who, in the supervision and control of such child, shall fail to exercise reasonable diligence in preventing such child from being in a disreputable place or from associating with vagrants, vicious or immoral persons, or from engaging in an occupation forbidden by the laws of North Dakota, or from engaging in any occupation injurious to his health or morals or to the health and morals of others shall be commits any of the following offenses is guilty of a class C felony:

- a. Inflicts, or allows to be inflicted, upon the child, physical or mental injury.
- b. Fails to provide proper parental care or control, subsistence, education as required by law, or other care or control

- necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health, or morals.
- c. Permits the child to be, or fails to exercise reasonable diligence in preventing the child from being, in a disreputable place or associating with vagrants or vicious or immoral persons.
- d. Permits the child to engage in, or fails to exercise reasonable diligence in preventing the child from engaging in, an occupation forbidden by the laws of this state or an occupation injurious to the child's health or morals or the health or morals of others.
2. A person who provides care, supervision, education, or guidance for a child unaccompanied by the child's parent, guardian, or custodian in exchange for money, goods, or other services and who while providing such services commits an offense under subdivision a of subsection 1 is guilty of a class B felony. Any such person who commits, allows to be committed, or conspires to commit, against the child, a sex offense as defined in chapter 12.1-20 is subject to the penalties provided in that chapter.

50-11.1-07. Investigation of applicants, licensees, and registrants - Maintenance of records - Confidentiality of records.

1. The department and the county agency at any time may investigate and inspect the conditions of the facility, the qualifications of the providers of early childhood services in any early childhood facility, and the qualifications of any in-home provider seeking or holding a license or registration document under this chapter. Upon request of the department or the county agency, the state department of health and consolidated laboratories or the state fire marshal, or ~~his~~ the fire marshal's designee, shall inspect any facility for which a license is applied for or issued and shall report ~~its~~ the findings to the county agency.
2. Licensees and registrants shall:
  - a. Maintain such records as the department may prescribe regarding each child in their care and control, and shall report to the department, when requested, such facts as the department may require with reference to the children upon forms furnished by the department; and
  - b. Admit for inspection authorized agents of the department or the county agency and open for examination all records, books, and reports of the home or facility.
3. ~~All~~ Except as provided in subsection 4, all records and information maintained with respect to children receiving early childhood services are confidential and must be properly safeguarded and may not be disclosed except:

- a. In a judicial proceeding;
- b. To officers of the law or other legally constituted boards or agencies; or
- c. To persons having a definite interest in the well-being of the child or children concerned and who, in the judgment of the department, are in a position to serve their interests should that be necessary.

4. A provider of early childhood services, upon the request of the parent or guardian of a child for whom the provider provides such services, shall make available to the parent or guardian a list of the names, telephone numbers, and addresses of the parents or guardians of children for whom early childhood services are provided. The list may only include the names, telephone numbers, or addresses of parents or guardians who grant the provider permission to disclose that information.

SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 50-11.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Carecheck registry - Child care providers - Background investigations - Fees. Placement in the carecheck registry is voluntary. To apply for placement in the carecheck registry, an in-home provider, a family child care home exempt from licensure, or a licensed early childhood services provider shall obtain two sets of that person's own fingerprints from a law enforcement agency or other local agency authorized to take fingerprints and shall request the agency to submit the fingerprints and a completed fingerprint card for each set to the division of children and family services of the department or to any division as determined appropriate by the department. If the division has no record of a determination of probable cause for child abuse or neglect, the division shall submit one set of the fingerprints to the federal bureau of investigation and one set to the bureau of criminal investigation to determine if there is any criminal history record information regarding the applicant for carecheck. The results of the investigations must be forwarded to the division of children and family services of the department or to any other division as determined appropriate by the department. The applicant for placement in the carecheck registry, after satisfying requirements imposed by the department, must be placed in the carecheck registry if no relevant criminal history record information is found and no report of a determination of probable cause for child abuse or neglect filed pursuant to section 50-25.1-05.2 is found which would disqualify the person. The division may charge the applicant a fee not to exceed thirty dollars for the purpose of processing the application. The division is not subject to the fee imposed under section 12-60-16.9 when requesting criminal history record information from the bureau of criminal investigation. The division, within one hundred eighty days after the effective date of this Act, shall provide, through a toll-free telephone line maintained by the department, a means to allow interested parents or guardians, employment agencies, or child care referral groups to determine if a person has met the requirements for placement in the carecheck registry. The division shall undertake a public awareness effort to explain the existence and purpose of the carecheck toll-free telephone line. An agency that takes fingerprints as provided under this section may charge a reasonable fee to offset the costs of the fingerprinting.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 50-25.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Any physician, nurse, dentist, optometrist, medical examiner or coroner, or any other medical or mental health professional, religious practitioner of the healing arts, schoolteacher or administrator, school counselor, addiction counselor, social worker, day care center or any other child care worker, police or law enforcement officer, or member of the clergy having knowledge of or reasonable cause to suspect that a child is abused or neglected shall report the circumstances to the department if the knowledge or suspicion is derived from information received by that person in that person's official or professional capacity. A member of the clergy, however, is not required to report such circumstances if the knowledge or suspicion is derived from information received in the capacity of spiritual adviser.

50-25.1-05.2. Report to the court - Entry of report in the child abuse information index.

1. The state child protection team, upon a determination that institutional child abuse or neglect is indicated, shall promptly make a written report of a determination of probable cause for child abuse or neglect to the juvenile court having jurisdiction in the matter. When the subject of the report is a state-operated institution, the state child protection team shall promptly notify the governor that a report has been made to the juvenile court.
2. In all other cases, upon a determination that probable cause exists to believe that child abuse or neglect is indicated, the department or the department's designee shall promptly make a written report of a determination of probable cause for child abuse or neglect to the juvenile court having jurisdiction in the matter.
3. The state child protection team or the department or the department's designee, as applicable, shall promptly file a report of a determination of probable cause for child abuse or neglect made under this section in the child abuse information index.

SECTION 6. A new section to chapter 50-25.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Child abuse information index - Establishment. The division of children and family services or other division as determined appropriate by the department shall maintain a child abuse information index of all reports of determinations of probable cause for child abuse or neglect filed pursuant to section 50-25.1-05.2.

SECTION 7. EFFECTIVE DATE. Section 3 of this Act becomes effective on July 1, 1992.

NURSING HOME PROPERTY COST REIMBURSEMENT

AN ACT relating to a property cost reimbursement study and property cost reimbursement to certain nursing homes; to provide an appropriation; and to provide an expiration date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Property reimbursement study - Reimbursement in certain cases.

1. The department of human services shall study the medical assistance property cost reimbursement system for the nursing home industry in the state of North Dakota. The department shall establish a nine-member advisory committee for the study consisting of departmental staff, at least three representatives of the long-term care industry, and three legislative members appointed by the chairman of the legislative council. The department may expend funds to engage a qualified consulting firm to assist in the study and shall from time to time report on the progress of the study and any findings to the legislative council or a committee designated by the council. The legislative council shall report any findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the fifty-third legislative assembly.
2. The department shall reimburse nursing home providers that are vendors in the medical assistance program for the use of real estate and depreciable equipment that was purchased by the nursing home provider after July 1, 1985, and before January 1, 1991, based on property costs created by good faith, arm's length purchase agreements. For purposes of this Act, "property costs" means property taxes including special assessments, lease and rental costs of personal property and reasonable legal expense, all to the extent allowable under chapter 50-24.4 and rules adopted by the department; interest expense allowable under rules adopted by the department without the application of subdivision f of subsection 1 of section 75-02-06-04 of the North Dakota Administrative Code; personal property depreciation based upon purchase price paid by the buyer; and real property depreciation based upon current reproduction cost of those assets depreciated on a straight-line basis over their useful lives to the date of acquisition by the buyer and increased by one-half of the percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers (United States city average) from the date of acquisition by the seller to the date of acquisition by the buyer, or the purchase price paid by the buyer, whichever is lower.

SECTION 2. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $75,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and $75,000 from special funds, to the department of human services for the purpose of undertaking the study provided for in section 1 of this Act, for the period beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993.

SECTION 3. Property cost reimbursement. The department of human services shall provide the additional property cost reimbursement required by this Act from funds appropriated to the department in Senate Bill No. 2002 of the fifty-second legislative assembly. It is the intent of the legislative assembly that the $783,345, of which $184,086 is from the general fund, necessary to fund the additional reimbursement required by this Act, will be available through the department's recapture of depreciation related to the sales between the Benedictine health systems and Beverly enterprises.

SECTION 4. EXPIRATION DATE. This Act is effective through June 30, 1993, and after that date is ineffective.

FARM EQUIPMENT FRANCHISE PRACTICES

AN ACT to create and enact a new section to chapter 51-07 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to prohibited practices for manufacturers, wholesalers, or distributors of farm implements, machinery, or repair parts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 51-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Prohibited practices under farm equipment dealership contracts. A manufacturer, wholesaler, or distributor of farm implements, machinery, or repair parts who enters into a contract with any person engaged in the business of selling and retailing farm implements and repair parts for farm implements may not:

1. Coerce or attempt to coerce the farm equipment dealer to accept delivery of farm equipment, parts, or accessories that the farm equipment dealer has not voluntarily ordered.
2. Condition or attempt to condition the sale of farm equipment on a requirement that the farm equipment dealer also purchase other goods or services, except that a farm equipment manufacturer may require the dealer to purchase all parts reasonably necessary to maintain the quality of operation in the field of any farm equipment used in the trade area and telecommunication necessary to communicate with the farm equipment manufacturer.
3. Coerce or attempt to coerce a farm equipment dealer into a refusal to purchase farm equipment manufactured by another farm equipment manufacturer.
4. Discriminate in the prices charged for farm equipment of like grade and quality sold by the farm equipment manufacturer to similarly situated farm equipment dealers. This subsection does not prevent the use of differentials that make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery or for the differing methods or quantities in which the farm equipment is sold or delivered by the farm equipment manufacturer. This section does not diminish the manufacturer's, wholesaler's, or distributor's ability to provide volume discounts, bonuses, or special machine ordering programs commonly used in the industry.
5. Attempt or threaten to terminate, cancel, fail to renew, or substantially change the competitive circumstances of the dealership contract for any reason other than failure of the farm equipment dealer to comply with the terms of the written contract between the parties or if the attempt or threat is based on the results of a circumstance beyond the farm equipment dealers' control, including a sustained drought or other natural disaster in the dealership market area or a labor dispute.

RESALE OF RETURNED VEHICLES

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 51-07-22 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the resale of returned passenger motor vehicles; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 51-07-22 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-07-22. Resale of returned passenger motor vehicles - Penalty.

1. A person may not sell in this state a passenger motor vehicle that was returned to the manufacturer in accordance with sections 51-07-16 through 51-07-22, unless the manufacturer provides:
  - a. The same express warranty it provided to the original purchaser, except the term of the warranty must be for at least twelve thousand miles or twelve months after the date of resale, whichever is earlier; and
  - b. The purchaser a statement on a separate document that must be signed by the manufacturer and the purchaser and must be in ten point, capitalized type, in substantially the following form: "IMPORTANT: THIS VEHICLE WAS RETURNED TO THE MANUFACTURER BECAUSE DEFECTS COVERED BY THE MANUFACTURER'S EXPRESSED WARRANTY WERE NOT REPAIRED WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME AS PROVIDED BY NORTH DAKOTA LAW".
2. A person may not ship or deliver for resale in another state a passenger motor vehicle returned to the manufacturer in accordance with sections 51-07-16 through 51-07-22 unless full disclosure of the reasons for return is made to any prospective buyer.

UNSOLICITED TELEFACSIMILE ADVERTISING

AN ACT relating to regulation of unsolicited telefacsimile advertising.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Unsolicited telefacsimile advertising. It is unlawful for any person to initiate the unsolicited transmission of a telefacsimile message promoting a good or service for purchase by the recipient of the message. The term "telefacsimile" as used in this section means any process in which an electronic signal is transmitted by telephone line for conversion into written text. This section does not apply to a telefacsimile message sent to a recipient with whom the initiator has had a prior contractual or business relationship, nor does it apply to transmissions not exceeding two pages which are transmitted between the hours of nine p.m. and six a.m. Notwithstanding the above, it is unlawful to initiate a telefacsimile message to a recipient who has previously sent a written or telefacsimile message to the initiator clearly indicating that the recipient does not want to receive any telefacsimile from the initiator. A person who transmits an unsolicited telefacsimile message in violation of this section is liable to the recipient of that message for fifty dollars per month for each month in which the recipient receives the unsolicited message.

BELOW COST SELLING

AN ACT to create and enact three new sections to chapter 51-10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to replacing the functions of the North Dakota trade commission with authority of the attorney general regarding below cost selling; to amend and reenact section 51-10-06 and subsection 1 of section 54-07-01.2 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to elimination of the North Dakota trade commission; and to repeal sections 51-10-09, 51-10-10, 51-10-11, 51-10-12, 51-10-13, 51-10-14, and 51-10-15 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the North Dakota trade commission and regulation of below cost selling.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Three new sections to chapter 51-10 of the North Dakota Century Code are created and enacted as follows:

Powers of attorney general. When it appears to the attorney general that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, any practice declared to be unlawful by this chapter or when the attorney general believes it to be in the public interest that an investigation should be made to ascertain whether a person in fact has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in, any such practice the attorney general may:

1. Require that person to file on forms prescribed by the attorney general, a statement or report in writing, under oath or otherwise, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the sale or advertisement of merchandise at less than cost as defined in this chapter and any other data and information the attorney general may deem necessary.
2. Examine under oath any person in connection with the sale or advertisement of any merchandise at less than cost as defined in this chapter.
3. Examine any merchandise or sample of merchandise, record, book, document, account, or paper as the attorney general may deem necessary.
4. Pursuant to an order of a district court impound any record, book, document, account, paper, or sample of merchandise material to such practice and retain it until completion of all relevant proceedings under this chapter.

Subpoena - Hearing - Rules. The attorney general may issue subpoenas to any person, administer an oath or affirmation to any person, conduct hearings in the aid of any investigation of inquiry, prescribe forms, and adopt necessary rules.

Failure to display information or obey subpoena. If any person fails or refuses to file any statement or report, or obey any subpoena issued by the attorney general, the attorney general may file in the district court a petition for an order directing the person to file the required statement or report or to obey the subpoena. The order may be granted by the district court after notice and hearing.

51-10-06. Injunctinal relief may be had in addition to other penalties - Duty to commence actions. In addition to the penalties provided in this chapter, the courts of this state are invested with the jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of this chapter by injunctinal proceedings. The attorney general and the several state's attorneys shall institute suits in behalf of this state, to prevent and restrain violations of the provisions of this chapter. Any person damaged, or who is threatened with loss or injury, by reason of a violation of the provisions of this chapter, is entitled to sue for and have injunctive relief in the district court against any damage or threatened loss or injury by reason of a violation hereof.

- 1- ~~The North Dakota trade commission shall have the administration of this chapter; and the members thereof may not receive any additional compensation for their services other than ten dollars per day and their necessary expenses in attending meetings. Said commission is empowered and directed to prevent any person, firm, or corporation from violating any of the provisions of this chapter.~~
- 2- ~~Whenever the commission has reason to believe that any such person, firm, or corporation has been or is engaging in any course of conduct or doing any act or acts in violation of the provisions of this chapter and if it appears to the commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be to the interest of the public, it shall issue and serve upon such person, firm, or corporation a complaint stating its charges in that respect, and containing a notice of a hearing upon a day and at a place therein fixed not less than five days after the service of said complaint. Any such complaint may be amended by the commission in its discretion at any time upon at least five days' notice to the parties and at least five days prior to applying for an order based thereon. The person, firm, or corporation so complained of shall have the right to appear at the place and time so fixed and show cause why an order should not be applied for by the commission requiring such person, firm, or corporation to cease and desist from the violation of the law so charged in said complaint. Any person, firm, or corporation may make application, and upon good cause shown may be allowed by the commission, to intervene and appear in said proceeding by counsel or in person. The testimony in any such proceeding must be reduced to writing and filed in the office of the commission. If upon such hearing the commission is of the opinion that the act or conduct in question is prohibited by this chapter, it shall make a report in writing in which it shall state~~ its findings as to the facts and shall cause to be served on such person, firm, or corporation a copy of its findings. The commission may then apply for an order requiring such person, firm, or corporation to cease and desist from such acts or conduct. The order must be applied for in the district court of the judicial district where the act or conduct in question was done or carried on, or where such person, firm, or corporation resides or carries on business. Until a transcript of the record in such hearing has been filed in a district court, as hereinafter provided, the commission may, upon notice, modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any report made or issued by it under this section.

- 3- Any person, firm, or corporation required by an order to cease and desist from any such act or conduct may obtain a review of such order by filing in the court, within sixty days from the date of the service of such order, a written petition praying that the order be set aside. A copy of such petition must be forthwith served upon the commission, and thereupon the commission forthwith shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding, including all the evidence taken and the report and order of the commission. Upon such filing of the petition and transcript, the court shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the question determined therein and shall have power to make and enter upon the pleadings, evidence, and proceedings set forth in such transcript a decree affirming, modifying, or setting aside the order, and enforcing the same to the extent that such order is affirmed, and to issue such writs as are ancillary to its jurisdiction or are necessary in its judgment to prevent injury to the public or to competitors pendente lite.
- 4- If either party shall apply to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence, and shall show to the satisfaction of the court that such additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence in the proceedings before the commission, the court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the commission and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as to the court may seem proper. The commission may modify its findings as to the facts, or make new findings, by reason of the additional evidence so taken, and it shall file such modified or new findings, which, if supported by sufficient evidence, shall be conclusive, and its recommendation, if any, for the modification or setting aside of its original order, with the return of such additional evidence. The judgment and decree of the court shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to review by the supreme court upon appeal as in other cases of judgments of such courts, provided, however, that said appeal must be taken within thirty days from the date of the entry of such judgment or decree.
- 5- Complaints and other processes of the commission under this section may be served by anyone duly authorized by the commission, either (a) by delivering a copy thereof to the person to be served, or to a member of the partnership to be served, or the president, secretary, or other executive officer or a director of the corporation to be served; (b) by leaving a copy thereof at the residence or the principal office or place of business of such - person; partnership; or corporation; or (c) by registering and mailing a copy thereof addressed to such person; partnership; or corporation at his or its residence or principal office or place of business. The verified return by the person so serving said complaint or other process setting forth the manner of said service shall be proof of the same; and the return post-office receipt for said complaint or other process registered and mailed as aforesaid shall be proof of the service of the same.

6. An order to cease and desist becomes final (a) upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for review; if no such petition has been duly filed within such time; (b) upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a notice of appeal to the supreme court; if the order has been affirmed; or the petition for review dismissed by the district court; and no notice of appeal to the supreme court has been duly filed; or (c) upon the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of the remittitur of the supreme court; if such court directs that the order be affirmed or the petition for review dismissed.
  7. If the supreme court directs that the order be modified or set aside; the order rendered in accordance with the mandate of the supreme court becomes final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time it was rendered; unless within such thirty days either party has instituted proceedings to have such order corrected to accord with the mandate; in which event the order becomes final when so corrected.
  8. If the order is modified or set aside by the district court and if (a) the time allowed for filing a notice of appeal to the supreme court has expired and no such notice of appeal has been duly filed; or (b) the decision of the district court has been affirmed by the supreme court; then the order becomes final on the expiration of thirty days from the time such order was rendered; unless within such thirty days either party has instituted proceedings to have such order corrected so that it will accord with the mandate; in which event the order becomes final when so corrected.
  9. If the supreme court orders a rehearing; or if the case is remanded by the district court to the commission for a rehearing; and if (a) the time for filing a notice of appeal to the supreme court has expired and no such notice of appeal has been duly filed; or (b) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the supreme court; then the order rendered upon such rehearing becomes final in the same manner as though no prior order had been rendered.
  10. Any person; firm; or corporation who violates an order to cease and desist after it has become final; and while such order is in effect shall forfeit and pay to the state of North Dakota a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation; which must accrue to the state of North Dakota and may be recovered in a civil action brought by the state of North Dakota.

The remedies and method of enforcement of this chapter provided for in this section shall be deemed concurrent and in addition to the other remedies provided in this chapter.

* SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 54-07-01.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. Notwithstanding sections 2-05-01, 4-18.1-04, 4-27-04, 6-01-03, 6-09.1-02, 12-55-01, 12-59-01, 15-21-17, 15-38-17, 15-39.1-05, 15-65-02, 20.1-02-23, 23-01-02, 23-25-02, 36-01-01, 37-18.1-01, 50-26-01, ~~51-10-13~~, 54-54-02, 55-01-01, 55-06-01, 61-02-04, and 61-28-03, all members of the following boards and commissions must, subject to the limitations of this section, be considered to have resigned from such boards and commissions effective January first of the first year of each four-year term of the governor:

POPCORN TOPPING

AN ACT relating to popcorn toppings; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Popcorn toppings - Advertisement - Sale. No person advertising, offering for sale, or selling popcorn intended for consumption on the premises where purchased may use the word butter, or any derivative of the word butter, to describe a topping placed on popcorn, unless the topping is real butter or unless the word butter, or derivative of the word butter, is a part of the commercial brand name of the topping product. The allowable use under this section of the word butter, or any derivative of the word butter, as part of the commercial brand name of a topping product is limited to use in that manner and popcorn with such a topping may not be described as buttered popcorn.

SECTION 2. Penalty. Any person who violates section 1 of this Act is guilty of an infraction.

REVOLVING CHARGE ACCOUNT LEGAL COMPLIANCE

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 51-14-02 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to revolving charge account requirements.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 51-14-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-14-02. Contents of revolving charge agreements - Requirements for delivery of monthly statements - Exception. Every revolving charge agreement must be in writing and must be signed by the retail buyer. A copy of any such agreement must be delivered or mailed to the retail buyer by the retail seller prior to the date on which the first payment is due thereunder. Such agreements must state the amount and rate of the credit service charge to be charged and paid pursuant thereto. Such credit service charge must be set forth in such revolving charge agreement in terms of a monthly percentage rate to be applied to the balance outstanding from time to time thereunder, as of the beginning or end of each billing period. The retail seller under a revolving charge agreement shall promptly supply the retail buyer under such agreement with a statement as of the end of each monthly period or other regular period agreed upon by the retail seller and the retail buyer, in which there is any unpaid balance thereunder. Such statement must recite the following:

1. The unpaid balance under the revolving charge agreement at the beginning or end of the period.
2. An identification of the goods or services purchased, the cash purchase price and the date of each purchase, unless otherwise furnished by the retail seller to the retail buyer by sales slip, memorandum, or otherwise.
3. The payments made by the retail buyer to the retail seller and any other credits to the retail buyer during the period.
4. The amount of the credit service charge, if any, and also the percentage annual simple interest equivalent of such amount.
5. A legend to the effect that the retail buyer may at any time pay his total indebtedness.

The items need not be stated in the sequence or order set forth above. Additional items may be included to explain the computations made in determining the amount to be paid by the retail buyer. If a revolving charge or credit account is also subject to the Truth in Lending Act [15 U.S.C. 1601-1667e], the seller may, instead of complying with this section, comply with all requirements of the Truth in Lending Act.

CHECK ACCEPTANCE

AN ACT relating to prohibiting conditioning acceptance of a check on being supplied a credit card number; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Acceptance of check not conditioned on disclosure of credit card number - Use of credit card for identification allowed. A person may not require, as a condition of acceptance of a check or other draft, that the person presenting the check provide a credit card number; nor may the person accepting the check or other draft record the credit card number. A person may request the person presenting the check to display a credit card as evidence of credit worthiness or as additional identification; however, only information concerning the type and issuer of the credit card may be recorded.

SECTION 2. Use of credit card where issuer guarantees cardholder checks allowed. This Act does not prohibit a person from recording a credit card number as a condition for cashing or accepting the check or other draft where that person has agreed with the card issuer to cash or accept checks or other drafts from the issuer's cardholders and the issuer guarantees cardholder checks or other drafts cashed or accepted by that person.

SECTION 3. Penalty. Any person who violates any provision of this Act is guilty of an infraction.

SENIOR CITIZEN CONTRACT CANCELLATION

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections 51-18-02 and 51-18-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the time period for cancellation of a home solicitation sale agreement by a person sixty-five years of age or older.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 51-18-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-18-02. Cancellation period - Method of cancellation - Intent.

1. In addition to any right otherwise to revoke an offer, the buyer may cancel a personal solicitation sale until midnight of the third business day after the day on which the buyer enters into an enforceable agreement subject to this chapter. A buyer sixty-five years of age or older may cancel a personal solicitation sale of a product with a purchase price greater than fifty dollars until midnight of the fifteenth business day after the day on which the buyer enters into an enforceable agreement subject to this chapter, or must be provided a written agreement that meets the requirements of section 51-18-04. In addition to other requirements of this chapter, the seller shall orally inform the buyer, at the time the transaction is entered into, of the buyer's right to cancel.
2. Cancellation occurs when the buyer gives written notice of cancellation to the seller at the address specified for notice of cancellation provided by the seller by any of the following methods:
  - a. Delivering written notice to the seller.
  - b. Mailing written notice to the seller.
  - c. Sending a telegram to the seller.
3. Notice of cancellation given by the buyer is effective if it indicates the intention on the part of the buyer not to be bound by the personal solicitation sale.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 51-18-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

* NOTE: Section 51-18-02 was also amended by section 1 of House Bill No. 1367, chapter 531.

51-18-04. Agreement requirement. No agreement of the buyer in a personal solicitation sale is enforceable unless it is in writing, dated, contains the signature of the buyer, and contains a conspicuous notice in substantially the following form:

NOTICE TO BUYER

1. Do not sign this agreement if any of the spaces intended for the agreed terms to the extent of then available information are left blank.
2. You are entitled to a copy of this agreement at the time you sign it.
3. You may pay off the full unpaid balance due under this agreement at any time, and in so doing you may receive a full rebate of the unearned finance and insurance charges.
4. You may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right.
5. The seller cannot enter your premises unlawfully or commit any breach of the peace to repossess goods purchased under this agreement.

The agreement must also have attached the following completed form, in duplicate:

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

(enter date of transaction)

1. You may cancel this transaction, without any penalty or obligation, within three business days from the above date.
2. If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within ten business days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be canceled.
3. If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale; or you may, if you wish, comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk.
4. If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within twenty days of the date of your notice of cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller, or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.
5. To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice or any other written notice, or send a telegram, to (name of seller), at (address of seller's place of business) not later than midnight of (date).

I hereby cancel this transaction.

(Date)

(Buyer's signature)

If the buyer is sixty-five years of age or older, and the purchase price of the product is greater than fifty dollars, the agreement required by this chapter must either state that the buyer may cancel the agreement within fifteen business days in accordance with this chapter, or state in a conspicuous manner that if the buyer is not satisfied with the product for any reason, the buyer may contact the seller within a period of not less than thirty days from the date of purchase for a full refund of the purchase price, if the product has not been intentionally damaged or misused.

TELEPROMOTER SALES

AN ACT to create and enact sections 51-18-04.1, 51-18-04.2, and 51-18-04.3 and two new sections to chapter 51-18 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to telepromoting transactions; to amend and reenact sections 51-15-04, 51-15-05, 51-15-06.1, 51-15-07, 51-15-08, 51-15-11, 51-18-01, and 51-18-08 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the authority of the attorney general, enforcement of remedies, the definition of a telepromoter, and exceptions from regulation of home solicitation sales; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

51-15-04. Powers of attorney general. When it appears to the attorney general that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, any practice declared to be unlawful by this chapter or any of the provisions of chapter 51-13 ~~or~~, 51-14, or 51-18 or when ~~he~~ the attorney general believes it to be in the public interest that an investigation should be made to ascertain whether a person in fact has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in, any ~~such~~ unlawful practice under chapter 51-13, 51-14, or 51-18, ~~he~~ the attorney general may:

1. Require ~~such that~~ person to file, on ~~such~~ forms ~~as he~~ the attorney general prescribes, a statement or report in writing, under oath or otherwise, ~~as to of~~ all the facts and circumstances concerning the sale or advertisement of merchandise by ~~such that~~ person, ~~and such as well as~~ other data and information ~~as he~~ the attorney general may ~~deem~~ determine necessary.
2. Examine under oath any person in connection with the sale or advertisement of any merchandise.
3. Examine any merchandise or sample thereof, record, book, document, account, or paper as ~~he~~ the attorney general may ~~deem~~ determine necessary.
4. Pursuant to an order of a district court impound any record, book, document, account, paper, or sample of merchandise material to ~~such that~~ practice and retain the same in ~~his~~ the attorney general's possession until the completion of all proceedings undertaken under this section or in the courts.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 51-15-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-15-05. Subpoena - Hearing - Rules. To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this chapter ~~and the provisions of~~ or chapter 51-13 ~~or~~, 51-14, or 51-18, the attorney general, in addition to other powers conferred upon ~~him~~ the attorney general by this chapter, may issue subpoenas to any person, administer an oath or affirmation to any person, conduct hearings in aid of any investigation or inquiry, and prescribe ~~such~~ forms and ~~promulgate such~~ adopt rules and regulations as may be necessary, ~~which rules and regulations have the force of law.~~

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 51-15-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-15-06.1. Assurance of discontinuance. The attorney general may accept an assurance of discontinuance of any act or practice ~~he deems the attorney general determines~~ to be in violation of ~~any provision of~~ this chapter or ~~any of the provisions of~~ chapter 51-12, 51-13, ~~or~~ 51-14, or 51-18 from any person ~~he~~ the attorney general alleges is engaging in, or has engaged in, the act or practice. The assurance of discontinuance must be in writing and must be filed with and is subject to the approval of the district court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has ~~his~~ as a principal place of business or in Burleigh County. An assurance of discontinuance may not be considered an admission of a violation. However, failure to comply with an assurance of discontinuance which has been approved by the district court is punishable as criminal contempt.

51-15-07. Remedies - Injunction - Other relief - Receiver. Whenever it appears to the attorney general that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, any practice declared to be unlawful by this chapter or ~~the provisions of~~ chapter 51-13 ~~or~~, 51-14, ~~he~~ or 51-18, the attorney general may seek and obtain in an action in a district court an injunction prohibiting ~~such that person from continuing such practices the unlawful practice or engaging therein in the unlawful practice or doing any acts act in furtherance thereof of the unlawful practice after appropriate notice to such that person.~~ Such notice The notice must state generally the relief sought and be served at least ten days prior to before the hearing of ~~such~~ the action. The court may make ~~such orders or judgments an order or judgment~~ as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by a person of any unlawful practices, or which may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any ~~moneys money~~, or property, ~~real or personal, which~~ that may have been acquired by means of any practice in this chapter declared to be unlawful, including the appointment of a receiver.

When it appears to the attorney general that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, a practice declared to be unlawful by this chapter or ~~the provisions of~~ chapter 51-13 ~~or~~, 51-14, or 51-18, and that ~~such~~ the person is about to conceal ~~his~~ assets or his person or leave the state, the attorney general may apply to the district court, ex parte, for an order appointing a receiver of the assets of ~~such~~ that person. Upon a showing made by affidavit or other evidence that ~~such~~ the person has engaged in, or is engaging in, a practice declared to be unlawful by this chapter and that ~~such~~ the person is about to conceal ~~his~~ assets or his person or leave the state, the court shall order the appointment of a receiver to receive the assets of ~~such~~ the person.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 51-15-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-15-08. Powers of receiver. When a receiver is appointed by the court pursuant to this chapter, ~~he shall have the power to the receiver may~~ sue for, collect, receive, or take into ~~his~~ possession all the goods and chattels, rights and credits, moneys and effects, lands and tenements, books, records, documents, papers, choses in action, bills, notes and property of every description, derived by means of any practice declared to be unlawful by this chapter or ~~the provisions of~~ chapter 51-13 ~~or~~, 51-14, or 51-18, including property with which ~~such~~ the property has been mingled if it cannot be identified in kind because of ~~such~~ the commingling, and ~~to~~ sell, convey, and assign the ~~same~~ property and hold and dispose of the proceeds ~~thereof~~ under the direction of the court. Any person who has suffered damages as a result of the use or employment of any unlawful practices and submits proof to the satisfaction of the court that ~~he that person~~ has in fact been damaged may participate with general creditors in the distribution of the assets to the extent ~~he that person~~ has sustained out-of-pocket losses. The court ~~shall have~~ has jurisdiction of all questions arising in ~~such~~ these proceedings and may make ~~such~~ orders and judgments therein as may be required.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 51-15-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-15-11. Civil penalties. The court may assess for the benefit of the state a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars for each violation of this chapter or for each violation of chapter 51-12, 51-13, ~~or~~ 51-14, or 51-18. The penalty provided in this section is in addition to those remedies otherwise provided by this chapter or by chapter 51-12, 51-13, ~~or~~ 51-14, or 51-18.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 51-18-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-18-01. Definitions. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Consumer goods or services" means goods or services purchased, leased, or rented primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, including courses of instruction or training regardless of the purpose for which they are taken.
2. "Person" includes a corporation, company, partnership, firm, association, or society, as well as a natural person. When the word "person" is used to designate the party whose property may be the subject of a criminal or public offense, the term includes the United States, this state, or any territory, state, or country, or any political subdivision of this state which may lawfully own any property, or a public or private corporation, or partnership or association. When the word "person" is used to designate the violator or offender of any law, it includes corporation, partnership, or any association of persons.

3. "Personal solicitation sale" means a sale, lease, or rental of consumer goods or services in which the seller or his representative solicits the sale, lease, or rental, by telephone or in person, and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is made at a place other than the place of business of the person soliciting the same and that agreement or offer to purchase is there given to the seller or his representative. A transaction is not a personal solicitation sale if it is made pursuant to prior negotiations between the parties at a business establishment at a fixed location where goods or services are offered or exhibited for sale, lease, or rental.
4. "Telepromoter" means any person who, individually, through salespersons or agents, or through the use of an automatic dialing-announcing device initiates telephone contact with a consumer or who by written notice requests that the consumer contact the person by telephone and who represents one or more of the following:
- a. That if the consumer buys one or more items from the telepromoter, the consumer will also receive additional or other items, whether or not of the same type as purchased, without further cost or at a cost which the seller states or implies is less than the regular price of those items.
- b. That a consumer will receive a prize, premium, or gift if the telepromoter also encourages the consumer to do either of the following:
- (1) Purchase or rent any goods or services.
- (2) Pay any money, including a delivery or handling charge.
- c. That the consumer has in any manner been specially selected to receive the written notice or the offer contained in the written notice.

The term does not include any nonprofit or charitable organization exempt from federal taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. section 501(c)(3)].

SECTION 8. Section 51-18-04.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

51-18-04.1. Notice to consumer - Contract requirement for sales by telepromoter. In addition to the requirements of section 51-15-04, an agreement by a consumer to obtain a consumer good or service from a telepromoter is not enforceable unless it contains the following information:

1. The name, address, and telephone number of the telepromoter;
2. A statement of the price or fee, including any handling, shipping, delivery, or other charge being requested;
3. A detailed description of the consumer good or service; and

4. In a type size in a minimum of twelve points, in a space immediately preceding the space allotted for the consumer signature, the statement: "YOU ARE NOT OBLIGATED TO PAY ANY MONEY UNLESS YOU SIGN THIS CONTRACT AND RETURN IT TO THE SELLER."

SECTION 9. Section 51-18-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

51-18-04.2. Credit card charges. A telepromoter may not make or submit any charge to the consumer's credit card account until the telepromoter has received from the consumer an original copy of a contract that complies with this section.

SECTION 10. Section 51-18-04.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

51-18-04.3. Agreement by telepromoter in violation of chapter void. Any agreement for sale, lease, or rent of a consumer good or service by a telepromoter in violation of this chapter is unenforceable and void.

SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 51-18-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

51-18-08. ~~Exception~~ Exceptions. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to ~~sales~~:

1. Sales of insurance; ~~not does it apply to sales~~
2. Sales of goods or services with a purchase price of less than twenty-five dollars;
3. Sales of services provided by a cable television system licensed or franchised by any city;
4. Sale of a subscription to or advertising in a newspaper of general circulation; or
5. Sales of services or advertising by a broadcaster licensed by the federal communications commission.
6. Telecommunications companies regulated by the public service commission under chapter 49 or regulated by the federal communications commission.

SECTION 12. Two new sections to chapter 51-18 of the North Dakota Century Code are created and enacted as follows:

Place of transaction. Any sale subject to this chapter is considered to have taken place in the state where the consumer resides, regardless of the location of the seller.

Waiver. Any waiver of this chapter is unenforceable and void.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1378
(Representatives Oban, Dorso, Gorman)
(Senator Schoenwald)

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 17 of section 52-01-01, subdivision e of subsection 18 of section 52-01-01, and section 65-01-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of an independent contractor and exclusions from employment for unemployment compensation purposes and to the definition of an independent contractor for workers' compensation purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 17 of section 52-01-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

17. "Employment" means:

- a. Any service performed prior to January 1, 1972, which was employment as defined in this subsection prior to such date, and subject to the other provisions of this subsection, service performed after December 31, 1971, including service in interstate commerce, by:
  - (1) Any officer of a corporation.
  - (2) Any individual who, under the provisions of subdivision e, has the status of an employee.
  - (3) Any individual other than an individual who is an employee under paragraph 1 or 2 who performs services for remuneration for any person:
    - (a) As an agent-driver or commission-driver engaged in distributing meat products, vegetable products, fruit products, bakery products, beverages (other than milk), or laundry or drycleaning services, for his principal.
    - (b) As a traveling or city salesman, other than as an agent-driver or commission-driver, engaged upon a full-time basis in the solicitation on behalf of, and the transmission to, his principal (except for sideline sales activities on behalf of some other person) of orders from wholesalers, retailers, contractors, or operators of hotels, restaurants, or other similar establishments for merchandise for resale or supplies for use in their business operations.

* NOTE: Subsection 17 of section 52-01-01 was also amended by section 1 of House Bill No. 1580, chapter 534.

For purposes of this paragraph, the term "employment" includes services described in either subparagraph a or b performed after December 31, 1971, only if the contract of service contemplates that substantially all of the services are to be performed personally by such individual; the individual does not have a substantial investment in facilities used in connection with the performance of the services (other than in facilities for transportation); and the services are not in the nature of a single transaction that is not part of a continuing relationship with the person for whom the services are performed.

- b. An individual's entire service, performed within or both within and without this state if the service is localized in this state.
- c. Services covered by an election pursuant to chapter 52-05.
- d. Services covered by an arrangement pursuant to sections 52-02-14 and 52-02-15 between the bureau and the agency charged with the administration of any other state or federal unemployment compensation law, pursuant to which all services performed by an individual for an employing unit are deemed to be performed entirely within this state, must be deemed to be employment if the bureau has approved an election of the employing unit for whom such services are performed, pursuant to which the entire service of such individual during the period covered by such election is deemed to be insured work.
- e. Services performed by an individual for wages or under any contract of hire must be deemed to be employment subject to the North Dakota Unemployment Compensation Law unless ~~and until~~ it is shown that: ~~(1) such individual has been and will continue to be free from control or direction over the performance of such service, both under his contract of service and in fact;~~ ~~(2) such service is either outside the usual course of the business for which such service is performed or that such service is performed outside of all the places of the enterprise for which such service is performed;~~ and ~~(3) such individual is customarily engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession, or business the individual is an independent contractor as determined by the "common law" test.~~
- f. Service performed after December 31, 1971, by an individual in the employ of this state or any of its instrumentalities, or in the employ of this state and one or more other states or their instrumentalities, for a hospital or institution of higher education located in this state; provided, that such service is excluded from "employment" as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act [68A Stat. 439; 26 U.S.C. 3301 et seq.] solely by reason of section 3306(c)(7) of that Act and is not excluded from "employment" under subdivision h of this subsection. Service performed after December 31, 1977, in the employ of this state or any of its instrumentalities or any political subdivision thereof or any of its instrumentalities or any instrumentality of any of the foregoing and one or more other states or political subdivisions; provided, that such service is excluded from "employment" as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act [68A Stat. 439; 26 U.S.C. 3301 et seq.] by section 3306(c)(7) of that Act and is not excluded from "employment" as enumerated under subdivision h of this subsection.

- g. Service performed after December 31, 1971, by an individual in the employ of a religious, charitable, educational, or other organization but only if the following conditions are met:
- (1) The service is excluded from "employment" as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act [68A Stat. 439; 26 U.S.C. 3301 et seq.] solely by reason of section 3306(c)(8) of that Act; and
  - (2) The organization had four or more individuals in employment for some portion of a day in each of twenty different weeks, whether or not such weeks were consecutive, within either the current or preceding calendar year, regardless of whether they were employed at the same moment of time.
- h. For the purposes of subdivisions f and g, the term "employment" does not apply to service performed:
- (1) In the employ of:
    - (a) A church or convention or association of churches; or
    - (b) An organization which is operated primarily for religious purposes and which is operated, supervised, controlled, or principally supported by a church or convention or association of churches.
  - (2) By a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order.
  - (3) Prior to January 1, 1978, in the employ of a school which is not an institution of higher education and after December 31, 1977, in the employ of a governmental entity referred to in subdivision f if such service is performed by an individual in the exercise of duties:
    - (a) As an elected official.
    - (b) As a member of a legislative body, or a member of the judiciary, of a state or political subdivision.
    - (c) As a member of the state national guard or air national guard.

- (d) As an employee serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, snow, earthquake, flood, or similar emergency.
  - (e) In a position which, under or pursuant to the laws of this state, is designated as a major nontenured policymaking or advisory position, the performance of the duties of which ordinarily does not require more than eight hours per week.
- (4) In a facility conducted for the purpose of carrying out a program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury or providing remunerative work for individuals who because of their impaired physical or mental capacity cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market, by an individual receiving such rehabilitation or remunerative work.
  - (5) As part of an unemployment work-relief or work-training program assisted or financed in whole or in part by any federal agency or an agency of a state or political subdivision thereof, by an individual receiving such work relief or work training.
  - (6) Prior to January 1, 1978, for a hospital in a state prison or other state correctional institution by an inmate of the prison or correctional institution and after December 31, 1977, by an inmate of a custodial or penal institution.
- i. The term "employment" includes the service of an individual who is a citizen of the United States, performed outside the United States (except in Canada), after December 31, 1971, and after December 31, 1976, in the case of the Virgin Islands, in the employ of an American employer (other than service which is deemed "employment" under the provisions of subdivision b and subsection 28 or the parallel provisions of another state's law), if:
- (1) The employer's principal place of business in the United States is located in this state; or
  - (2) The employer has no place of business in the United States, but:
    - (a) The employer is an individual who is a resident of this state;
    - (b) The employer is a corporation which is organized under the laws of this state; or
    - (c) The employer is a partnership or a trust and the number of the partners or trustees who are residents of this state is greater than the number who are residents of any one other state; or

- (3) None of the criteria of paragraphs 1 and 2 is met but the employer has elected coverage in this state or, the employer having failed to elect coverage in any state, the individual has filed a claim for benefits, based on such service, under the law of this state.
  - (4) An "American employer", for purposes of this subdivision, means a person who is:
    - (a) An individual who is a resident of the United States;
    - (b) A partnership if two-thirds or more of the partners are residents of the United States;
    - (c) A trust, if all of the trustees are residents of the United States; or
    - (d) A corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any state.
  - (5) The term "United States" for purposes of this subdivision includes the states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.
- j. Notwithstanding subdivision b, all service performed after December 31, 1971, by an officer or member of the crew of an American vessel on or in connection with such vessel, if the operating office, from which the operations of such vessel operating on navigable waters within, or within and without, the United States are ordinarily and regularly supervised, managed, directed, and controlled is within this state.
- k. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, service with respect to which a tax is required to be paid under any federal law imposing a tax against which credit may be taken for contributions required to be paid into a state unemployment fund or which as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act [68A Stat. 439; 26 U.S.C. 3301 et seq.] is required to be covered under the North Dakota Unemployment Compensation Law.
- l. An individual's service, wherever performed within the United States, the Virgin Islands, or Canada, if:
- (1) Such service is not covered under the unemployment compensation law of any other state, the Virgin Islands, or Canada; and
  - (2) The place from which the service is directed or controlled is in this state.
- m. Service performed after December 31, 1977, by an individual in agricultural labor as defined in subdivision a of subsection 18 when:
- (1) Such service is performed for a person who:

WORK FORCE 2000 PROGRAM

AN ACT to provide for work force development programs; to provide a statement of legislative intent; and to provide an appropriation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. North Dakota work force 2000 policy and goals.

1. The legislative assembly finds that a highly skilled work force is critical to the present and future competitiveness of North Dakota's economy. The legislative assembly, therefore, declares that it is the policy of the state to support and promote skill training, retraining, and upgrade training for North Dakota workers. It is the goal of the state to:
  - a. Improve the skills of North Dakota workers;
  - b. Promote and sponsor effective and responsive training programs for employed and unemployed North Dakotans who need job-related training;
  - c. Promote programs that lead to family wage jobs;
  - d. Secure the active participation and full cooperation of North Dakota industry leaders, business owners, and employee representatives in developing programs to increase and improve worker skill training;
  - e. Promote the coordination of North Dakota's education and job training systems to more fully respond to the increasingly complex training needs of workers; and
  - f. Promote access to education and job training programs for all North Dakotans regardless of their economic status or geographic location within the state.
2. The legislative assembly declares that it is the policy of this state to integrate skill training and development programs into its economic development strategies.

SECTION 2. North Dakota work force 2000 program administration. Job service North Dakota shall administer the North Dakota work force 2000 program within the state.

1. Program priorities:

- a. Are compatible with statewide economic development strategies.
  - b. Demonstrate business and community financial support and participation.
  - c. Coordinate activities and resources with other training programs.
  - d. Provide for followup and evaluation of program results.
  - e. Provide customized, retraining, and upgrade training in occupations that pay not less than two hundred percent of the federal and state minimum wage.
  - f. Provide training to unemployed and employed residents of North Dakota for new and expanding businesses.
2. Program requirements:
- a. Only training for permanent jobs or occupations which have significant career opportunities and require substantive instructions will be considered for funding.
  - b. Training can include only upgrade training or retraining of current workers in situations where training is required for continued employment or to trainees as long as the company gives successful graduates hiring priority.
  - c. Only trainees approved by participating parties will be eligible.
  - d. Training will be limited to state residents.
  - e. All direct training costs are allowable and can include the following:
    - (1) Program promotion.
    - (2) Instructor wages, per diem, and travel.
    - (3) Curriculum development and training materials.
    - (4) Lease of training equipment and training space.
    - (5) Miscellaneous direct training costs.
    - (6) Administrative costs.
    - (7) Assessment and testing.

SECTION 3. North Dakota work force 2000 priority of industry requirements.

1. Assist companies that are undergoing major technological changes and where training is deemed critical to the company and in occupations that are deemed to have inadequate trained personnel.

2. Training assistance must be encouraged for small companies and companies located in rural areas.
3. Companies must be encouraged to participate with in-kind contributions of training space, training equipment, training supplies, and technical assistance.
4. Training programs must be designed with the direct participation of the sponsoring company and an employee representative.
5. If new job openings are created through upgrade training, the sponsoring company should give priority consideration to individuals eligible for other state and federal job training programs.

SECTION 4. North Dakota work force 2000 program implementation and coordination.

1. All programs must be conducted through contractual arrangements made with job service North Dakota.
2. Programs must be conducted in cooperation with appropriate state board for vocational education approved training providers and institutions.
3. Final screening of trainees must be conducted by the company with the assistance of job service North Dakota when required.
4. Program effectiveness will be determined by post-training monitoring that will address such issues as:
  - a. Company satisfaction with the program.
  - b. Company transition to new technologies or products.
  - c. Posttraining wage levels versus pretraining wage levels.
  - d. Number of trainees successfully completing the program.
  - e. Number of trainees who are retained by the company as a result of the training program.
  - f. Number of new jobs created at entry level as a result of upgrade training.

SECTION 5. North Dakota work force 2000 application procedure.

1. A proposal or concept paper must be submitted by the appropriate company, trade representative, or employee representative to job service North Dakota.
2. The proposal or concept paper should address the key guideline points but be kept brief.

SECTION 6. North Dakota work force 2000 gifts and grants. Job service North Dakota is authorized to accept and use any funds, including gifts and grants, made available for the purpose of defraying expenses involved in carrying out this Act.

SECTION 7. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. It is the intent of the legislative assembly that the North Dakota work force 2000 program receive priority consideration in grant allocation under the grant line item for the department of economic development and finance as provided in Senate Bill No. 2058 for the biennium beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993.

SECTION 8. APPROPRIATION. The funds provided in this section, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, and from special funds derived from federal funds and from other income, to job service North Dakota for the purpose of defraying expenses of this Act, for the biennium beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993.

AN ACT to amend and reenact section 53-04-02 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to license fees for amusement game operators.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

53-04-02. Annual license required - Fee. A person may not operate, lease, or distribute an amusement game or device without first having obtained an annual license.

Licenses are of two types. An operator's license entitles the licensee to operate, lease, or distribute machines at locations not owned or managed by the licensee. The operator shall affix to each machine an operator's number provided by the attorney general. The operator shall have a business office within the state and a valid sales tax permit. A location license must be secured by an individual for any establishment managed or owned by that person. A location license entitles the licensee to have not more than ten machines at one location managed or owned by that individual. An individual is not entitled to more than one location license. The location license must be displayed on or near the machines.

The annual fee for an operator's license is seven hundred fifty one thousand dollars ~~for not more than one hundred machines~~, and two thousand dollars ~~for more than one hundred machines~~. The annual fee for a location license is twenty-five dollars per machine.

GAMING LAW REVISIONS

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsections 1, 6, and 10 of section 53-06.1-01, subsections 1 and 9 of section 53-06.1-06, subsection 2 of section 53-06.1-06.1, subsection 4 of section 53-06.1-07.2, and subsections 2, 3, and 4 of section 53-06.1-14 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to games of chance laws, definitions of adjusted gross proceeds, distributor, and entire net proceeds, persons permitted to conduct games of chance, the frequency of work permit renewals, the assessable fee in poker, and to provide for the distribution of games of chance equipment.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1, 6, and 10 of section 53-06.1-01 of the 1990 Special Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

1. "Adjusted gross proceeds" means, except in the case of the games of draw poker and stud poker authorized under section 53-06.1-07.2, gross proceeds less cash prizes or the price of merchandise prizes and the charitable gaming tickets excise tax imposed by section 53-06.1-12.2. In the games of draw poker and stud poker, "adjusted gross proceeds" means the time buy-ins or tournament fees collected by the eligible organization.
6. "Distributor" means a person, firm, corporation, association, or organization which sells, markets, or otherwise distributes raffle tickets, bingo equipment, or any other implements of gambling usable in the lawful conduct of games of chance under this chapter; ~~to an organization licensed or authorized to conduct such games of chance under this chapter.~~ "Distributor" does not include a resident printer who prints raffle tickets at the request of a licensed or authorized organization, and who sells or otherwise distributes such raffle tickets to such organization.
10. "Entire net proceeds" or "net proceeds" means the adjusted gross proceeds less such expenses, ~~charges, fees, and taxes, and deductions~~ as are specifically authorized under this chapter.

** SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsections 1 and 9 of section 53-06.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

1. No person, except a member or employee of an eligible organization or a member of an organization auxiliary to an eligible organization, may assist in the holding, operating, or conducting

* NOTE: Section 53-06.1-01 was also amended by section 1 of House Bill No. 1050, chapter 547; by section 20 of Senate Bill No. 2001, chapter 28; and by section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2219, chapter 545.

** NOTE: Section 53-06.1-06 was also amended by section 4 of House Bill No. 1597, chapter 549; by section 23 of Senate Bill No. 2001, chapter 28; by section 27 of Senate Bill No. 2068, chapter 54; and by section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2541, chapter 550.

of any game of chance under this chapter. However, a volunteer of an organization may sell raffle tickets.

9. No person convicted who has pled guilty to or been found guilty of a felony within the last two years, or may sell or distribute equipment, or conduct or assist in games of chance under this chapter for five years from the date of the conviction or release from incarceration, parole, or probation, whichever is the latter. No person determined by the attorney general to have participated in organized crime or unlawful gambling, may be permitted to sell or distribute equipment, or conduct or assist in games of chance under this chapter for a period determined by the attorney general.

* SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 53-06.1-06.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. The attorney general may establish a centralized statewide work permit system to determine the identity, prior activities, and present employment of all gaming employees in this state. The information must be held confidential except in the proper administration of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter, or to an authorized law enforcement agency. No gaming organization may employ any person or a gaming employee nor may any person be employed as a gaming employee unless that person possesses a current and valid work permit. The attorney general may issue, renew, deny, suspend, and revoke work permits. Subject to the attorney general's discretion, a temporary work permit may be issued. If an application is denied or a work permit is suspended or revoked, the notice by the attorney general must include a statement of the facts upon which the attorney general relied in making the decision. Any person whose application for a work permit has been denied may, not later than twenty days following receipt of the notice, apply to the attorney general for a hearing. A work permit expires unless renewed within fourteen days after a change of employment or if the person is not employed as a gaming employee within the state for more than ninety days. The attorney general may prescribe the frequency of the work permit renewals. The attorney general may issue an emergency order, effective upon service to the permitholder, suspending a person's work permit upon a determination that the suspension is necessary to preserve effective regulation and control of gaming, to preserve the public interest or morals, or the person obtained a work permit by misrepresentation. The attorney general may charge each gaming employee an annual work permit fee of twenty-five dollars and a fee of five dollars for each change of employment.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 53-06.1-07.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4. The eligible organization shall assess each player a fee not to exceed two dollars per half hour of playing time by that person, collected in advance. A fee may also be charged each player for entry into a tournament for prizes which fee may be in lieu of or in addition to the fee assessable at one-half hour intervals.

* NOTE: Subsection 2 of section 53-06.1-06.1 was also amended by section 2 of House Bill No. 1138, chapter 551.

* SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Subsections 2, 3, and 4 of section 53-06.1-14 of the 1990 Special Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

2. No distributor may sell, market, or otherwise distribute raffle tickets or equipment for games of chance except to other licensed distributors, licensed organizations, ~~or~~ organizations that have been issued a local permit, gaming schools, or other persons authorized by the attorney general. A manufacturer of charitable gaming tickets or paper bingo cards may not sell, market, or otherwise distribute charitable gaming tickets or paper bingo cards, other than to a licensed distributor. A distributor of charitable gaming tickets or paper bingo cards must purchase or otherwise receive charitable gaming tickets or paper bingo cards only from a licensed manufacturer or licensed distributor.
3. Every eligible organization shall acquire all raffle tickets or equipment for games of chance from a distributor licensed under this chapter, unless the raffle tickets or equipment for games of chance are printed, manufactured, or constructed by the eligible organization or unless the raffle tickets are obtained from a resident printer who has printed the raffle tickets at the request of the organization. No game of charitable gaming tickets, punchboards, sports pool boards, calcutta boards, or a series of raffle wheel ticket cards may be sold without a North Dakota gaming stamp being affixed to them. North Dakota licensed distributors shall purchase the North Dakota gaming stamps from the attorney general's office and the cost for each stamp may not exceed twenty-five cents.
4. No licensed or authorized eligible organization may be a distributor. No North Dakota wholesaler of liquor or alcoholic beverages may be a distributor. No North Dakota licensed manufacturer may be a distributor.

FEDERAL GAMING EXCISE TAX DEDUCTION

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 53-06.1-01 and subsection 3 of section 53-06.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of adjusted gross proceeds with regard to charitable gaming activities and expenses allowed to charitable gaming organizations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 53-06.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. "Adjusted gross proceeds" means, except in the case of the games of draw poker and stud poker authorized under section 53-06.1-07.2, gross proceeds less cash prizes or the price of merchandise prizes and less the amount of federal excise tax and interest imposed under section 4401 of the Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 4401]. In the games of draw poker and stud poker, "adjusted gross proceeds" means the time buy-ins or tournament fees collected by the eligible organization.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 53-06.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. Subject to the limitations of this subsection, expenses incurred for games of chance may be deducted from adjusted gross proceeds, to the extent that total expenses for games of chance do not exceed fifty percent of the first two hundred thousand dollars of adjusted gross proceeds per quarter and forty-five percent of the adjusted gross proceeds in excess of two hundred thousand dollars per quarter. After December 31, 1989, cash shorts incurred in games of chance are classified as expenses toward the expense limitation. Notwithstanding the limitations of this subsection, in addition to the expenses allowed to be deducted from adjusted gross proceeds, an eligible organization may deduct as an expense federal excise taxes and interest imposed under section 4401 of the Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 4401] and incurred or paid by the organization for the period beginning January 1, 1986, and ending as of July 1, 1991. The figure used for adjusted gross proceeds is as determined in subsection 1 of section 53-06.1-01 before any reduction for taxes. This subsection does not authorize violations of the rent limitations contained in this chapter.

GAMING PROCEEDS USES

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 7 of section 53-06.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the definition of eligible uses of net proceeds from charitable gaming.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 7 of section 53-06.1-01 of the 1990 Special Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

7. "Educational, charitable, patriotic, fraternal, religious, or other public-spirited uses" are:
  - a. To the extent used for purposes enumerated in subdivisions c through j 1, uses benefiting those organizations that are exempt from federal taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
  - b. To the extent used for purposes enumerated in subdivisions c through j 1, uses benefiting an organization registered with the North Dakota secretary of state under chapter 50-22.
  - c. Uses benefiting an indefinite number of persons ~~either~~ by bringing them under the influence of education, cultural programs, or religion ~~or relieving them of disease, suffering, or constraint~~ which include disbursements to provide:
    - (1) Scholarships for students, if the disbursement is deposited in a scholarship fund for defraying the cost of education to students and the scholarships are awarded through an open and fair selection process.
    - (2) Supplementary assistance to a public or private nonprofit educational institution registered with or accredited by any state.
    - (3) Assistance to libraries and museums.
    - (4) Assistance for the performing arts and humanities.
    - (5) Preservation of cultural heritage.
    - (6) Youth community and athletic activities.

* NOTE: Section 53-06.1-01 was also amended by section 20 of Senate Bill No. 2001, chapter 28; by section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2063, chapter 546; and by section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2219, chapter 545.

- (7) Adult athletic activities, such as softball, including uniforms and equipment.
  - (8) Maintenance of places of public worship or support of a body of communicants, gathered in common membership for mutual support and edification in piety, worship, or religious observances.
  - (9) Scientific research.
- d. Uses benefiting an indefinite number of persons by relieving them of disease, suffering, or constraint which include disbursements to provide:
- (1) Relief to an individual or family suffering from poverty or homelessness.
  - (2) Encouragement and enhancement of the active participation of the elderly in our society.
  - (3) Services to the abused.
  - (4) Services to persons with an addicted behavior toward alcohol, gambling, or drugs.
  - (5) Funds to combat juvenile delinquency and rehabilitate ex-offenders.
  - (6) Relief for the sick, diseased, and terminally ill and their physical well-being.
  - (7) Funds for emergency relief and volunteer services.
  - (8) Funds to nonprofit nursing homes and other nonprofit medical facilities.
  - (9) Social services and education programs aimed at aiding the emotionally and physically distressed, handicapped, and underprivileged.
- ~~d-~~ e. (1) Fraternal uses, consistent with uses and priorities enumerated in subdivisions c through l and section 53-06.1-02, specified by an organization's constitution, charter, or bylaws not of direct benefit to the eligible organization or any member thereof.
- (2) Fraternal uses or disbursements to perpetuate the memory and history of the dead.
- ~~e-~~ f. Uses increasing comprehension of and devotion to the principles upon which the nation was founded, not of direct benefit to the eligible organization or any member thereof which include disbursements to aid in teaching the principles of liberty, truth, justice, and equality. However, beauty pageants are excluded from receiving charitable gaming funds under this subdivision or any other provision of this chapter.

- ~~f~~- g. The erection or maintenance of public buildings or works, public utilities, or public waterworks.
- ~~g~~- h. Uses otherwise lessening the burden of government which include disbursements to any entity that is normally funded by the city, county, state, or United States government and disbursements directly to a city, county, state, or the United States government, or any agency, political subdivision, or instrumentality thereof.
- ~~h~~- i. Uses benefiting a definite number of persons who are the victims of loss of home or household possessions through explosion, fire, flood, or storm and the losses uncompensated by insurance.
- ~~i~~- j. Uses benefiting a definite number of persons suffering from a seriously disabling disease or injury causing severe loss of income or incurring extraordinary medical expense which is uncompensated by insurance.
- ~~j~~- k. Uses, for community service projects, by chambers of commerce exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. A project qualifies as a community service project if it promotes the common good, enhances the social welfare of the community, and benefits an indefinite number of persons. The specific goals of a community service project may be to develop or promote public services in areas such as education, housing, transportation, recreation, crime prevention, fire protection and prevention, safety, and health. Uses that directly benefit a chamber of commerce do not qualify.
- l. Uses for or of benefit to efforts in support of the health, comfort, or well-being of the community which include disbursements to provide:
- (1) Funds for adult bands, including drum and bugle corps.
  - (2) Funds for trade shows and conventions conducted in this state.
  - (3) Funds for nonprofit organizations that operate a humane society, zoo, or fish or wildlife propagation and habitat enhancement program.

Such uses do not include the erection, acquisition, improvement, maintenance, or repair of real, personal, or mixed property owned or leased by an organization unless it is used exclusively for one or more of the stated eligible uses. Uses Eligible uses do not include any activities consisting of attempts to influence legislation, promote or oppose referendums or initiatives, or participation in any political campaign on behalf of any active official or person who is or has been a candidate for public office. In addition, the licensing authority may adopt rules to limit or restrict eligible use disbursements to ensure that funds are best utilized for educational, charitable, fraternal, religious, patriotic, or other public-spirited purposes.

CHARITABLE GAMING LICENSURE

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsections 3 and 5 of section 53-06.1-03 and section 53-06.1-16 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the licensure of charitable gaming organizations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 5 of section 53-06.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

3. The attorney general shall license ~~such~~ organizations ~~which~~ ~~that~~ conform to the requirements of this chapter by issuing licenses as follows:
  - a. A class A license to an eligible organization ~~licensed as a retail alcoholic beverage dealer in North Dakota that maintains a building for the use of its members and guests, and that offers meals or liquor, or both, as part of its operation that is prohibited because of its nature or purpose for existence from expending charitable gaming net proceeds for the organization's own purposes or benefit and is, therefore, required to disburse its net proceeds to beneficiaries for educational, charitable, patriotic, fraternal, religious, or other public-spirited uses.~~
  - b. A class B license to ~~any other~~ an eligible organization ~~that is permitted because of its nature or purpose for existence to expend charitable gaming net proceeds for its own educational, charitable, patriotic, fraternal, religious, or other public-spirited uses.~~ The attorney general may deny a class B license to an otherwise eligible organization if the organization is connected, directly or indirectly, to the holder of a North Dakota retail alcoholic beverage license. An eligible organization that qualifies for a class A license may not also be issued a class B license.
  - c. A class C license to an eligible organization that conducts games of chance on not more than two occasions per year, ~~regardless of whether that organization is licensed as a retail alcoholic beverage dealer in this state.~~
  - d. The attorney general shall establish by rule no more than two additional classes of licenses based on the frequency of gaming, the types of games of chance conducted by the eligible organization, and the adjusted gross proceeds collected or expected to be collected by the eligible organization.

5. The attorney general may, by motion, based on reasonable ground or upon written complaint, suspend or revoke, under chapter 28-32, any license granted under this chapter for violations by the licensee, or any officer, director, agent, member, or employee of the licensee, of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter. Notwithstanding section 5-02-02, an eligible organization that possesses a license issued under chapter 5-02 may not have that license suspended, revoked, or denied in consequence of action taken under this subsection unless that organization conducts gaming determined to be in violation of chapter 12.1-28 or subsection 1 of section 53-06.1-07.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 53-06.1-16 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

53-06.1-16. Violation of chapter or rule - Misdemeanor - Forfeiture of licensure - Ineligibility. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in any application for a license or authorizing resolution or in any statement annexed thereto, or who fails to keep sufficient books and records to substantiate the receipts, expenses, or uses resulting from games of chance conducted under this chapter, or who falsifies any books or records so far as they relate to any transaction connected with the holding, operating, and conducting of any game of chance, or who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, any rule adopted under this chapter, or of any term of a license is guilty of a class A misdemeanor. If convicted, the person forfeits any license or authorizing resolution issued to it pursuant to this chapter and is ineligible to reapply for a license or authorization for a period of time to be determined by the attorney general. Notwithstanding section 5-02-02, an eligible organization that possesses a license issued under chapter 5-02 may not have that license suspended, revoked, or denied in consequence of action taken under this section.

GAMING RENT, SITES, AND PULL TAB ASSISTANCE

AN ACT to amend and reenact subsection 4 of section 53-06.1-03, sections 53-06.1-03.2, 53-06.1-03.3, and 53-06.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the number of sites at which gaming may be conducted by certain organizations, rent limits for twenty-one and charitable gaming ticket sites, and conduct of pull tabs by employees of certain alcoholic beverage establishments.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

* SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 53-06.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4. Games of chance may be operated or conducted only on premises or sites set forth in the application as follows:
  - ~~a.~~ ~~Class A license applicants are limited to one location. A special permit for an alternate location may be granted by the attorney general for a single specific occasion per licensing year upon written request.~~
  - ~~b.~~ License applicants shall first secure approval of the proposed site or sites on which it intends to conduct games of chance under this chapter from the governing body of the city, if within city limits, or the county, if outside city limits, where the site or sites are located. This approval or permit, which may be granted at the discretion of the governing body, must accompany the license application to the attorney general. The governing body may charge a one hundred dollar fee for this permit.
  - ~~c.~~ b. Rented premises are subject to rules adopted by the attorney general.
  - ~~d.~~ c. Only one eligible organization at a time may be authorized to conduct games of chance at a specific location, except that a raffle drawing may be conducted for special occasions when one of the following conditions are met:
    - (1) When the area for the raffle drawing is physically separated from the area where gaming is conducted by the regular licensee.
    - (2) Upon request of the licensee, the license is suspended for that specific day by the attorney general.

* NOTE: Section 53-06.1-03 was also amended by section 1 of House Bill No. 1051, chapter 548, and by section 22 of Senate Bill No. 2001, chapter 28.

- e- d. Licenses, rules of play, and state identification devices must be displayed on forms and in the manner specified in rules adopted by the attorney general.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 53-06.1-03.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

53-06.1-03.2. Twenty-one sites - Limit on rent. For all purposes associated with the privilege of conducting games of chance at a site other than a site where bingo is the primary game of chance conducted, but where the game of twenty-one is conducted, the monthly rent may not exceed ~~one~~ two hundred ~~fifty~~ dollars multiplied by the number of tables on which the game of twenty-one is conducted.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 53-06.1-03.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

53-06.1-03.3. Charitable gaming ticket sites - Limit on rent. For all purposes associated with the privilege of conducting games of chance at a site other than a site where bingo is the primary game of chance conducted, the monthly rent may not exceed:

1. If the game of twenty-one is conducted on the site, in addition to the rent allowable for the game of twenty-one, ~~fifty~~ one hundred twenty-five dollars.
2. If the game of twenty-one is not conducted on the site, ~~one~~ two hundred ~~fifty~~ twenty-five dollars.

53-06.1-06. Persons permitted to conduct games of chance - Premises - Equipment - Compensation.

1. No person, except a member or employee of an eligible organization or a member of an organization auxiliary to an eligible organization, may assist in the holding, operating, or conducting of any game of chance under this chapter. In the conduct of pull tabs, the attorney general may allow employees of licensed alcoholic beverage establishments to provide limited assistance to an authorized class B license holding eligible organization the adjusted gross proceeds of which do not exceed sixty thousand dollars per quarterly reporting period of operation or to any class A license holding eligible organization.
