STATUTES AT LARGE.

Anno Regni VICTORIÆ, Britanniarum Reginae, Vicesimo Quinto et Vicesimo Sexto.

‘ AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the ‘ Thirty-first Day of May, Anno Domini 1859, in the ‘ Twenty-second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady ‘ Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great ‘ Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith : And from ‘ thence continued by several Prorogations to the Sixth Day of ‘ February 1862 ; being the Fourth Session of the Eighteenth ‘ Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and ‘ Ireland.’

C A P. I.

An Act to apply the Sum of Nine hundred and seventy-three thousand seven hundred and forty-seven Pounds out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year ending the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two. [10th March 1862.]

C A P. II.

An Act to apply the Sum of Eighteen Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two. [24th March 1862.]

C A P. III.

An Act to amend an Act, intituled An Act to amend the Law relating to Supply Exchequer Bills, and to charge the same on the Consolidated Fund ; and to repeal all Provisions by which Authority is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to fund Exchequer Bills.
[24th March 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parlia‘ ment, Chapter Five, it is enacted, that whenever Payment ‘ of the Principal Moneys of any Exchequer Bills authorized to ‘ be made out and issued under the Provisions of the said Act ‘ shall

‘ shall be claimed, and shall be paid to the Holder thereof, and ‘ whenever any Exchequer Bills shall, under the Authority of ‘ the said Act, be paid in for Duties granted to Her Majesty, it ‘ shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treas‘ ury to order the Preparation and Issue of a like Amount of ‘ Exchequer Bills to be prepared and issued in place of the Ex‘ chequer Bills so paid off, and so paid in for Duties: And ‘ whereas it is expedient to provide that no Exchequer Bills
 ‘ shall be so prepared and issued in place of such Exchequer Bills
 ‘ so paid off, and so paid in for Duties, at any Period after the ‘ Expiration of the financial Year during which such Exchequer ‘ Bills shall have been paid off or paid in for Duties: And ‘ whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of ‘ King George the Fourth, Chapter Ninety-two, certain Powers
 ‘ and Authorities are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s ‘ Treasury to create permanent Annuities chargeable upon the ‘ Consolidated Fund in lieu of Exchequer Bills held by the Com‘ missioners for the Reduction of the National Debt under the ‘ Authority of that Act, and to cancel such Exchequer Bills in ‘ consideration of the permanent Annuities so created in lieu ‘ thereof; and it is expedient that such Powers and Authority ‘ shall cease and determine.’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

9 G. 4. c. 92.

Limitation of Authority for Re-issue of Bills.

1. The Authority granted by the said first-recited Act shall be limited to and shall not extend beyond the Year commencing on the First Day of April and ending on the Thirty-first Day of March then next immediately following during which any such Exchequer Bills shall be paid off or paid in for Duties, and shall thereupon be cancelled.

Powers for Creation of Annuities, &c.
 repealed.

2. The several Powers and Authorities vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury in relation to the Creation of permanent Annuities, and to the cancelling of Exchequer Bills by the said second-recited or by any other Act are hereby repealed, and shall cease and determine on and after the passing of this Act.

Payment to the Bank of England for Management.

3. There shall be paid to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, or out of the growing Produce thereof, for the Management of the Unredeemed Public Debt in Exchequer Bills, for the Year commencing on the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, an Allowance at the Rate of One hundred Pounds for every Million of Exchequer Bills which were outstanding on that Day; and such Payment shall be made on the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and the Allowance for Management of Exchequer Bills shall be computed and paid in like Manner in every succeeding Year, until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

Outstanding
 Exchequer

4. All Exchequer Bills, charged on Supplies granted by Parliament, which shall be outstanding after the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and the Interest thereon, shall be charged upon and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, or out of the growing Produce thereof; and the Authority to pay the Principal and Interest of such Exchequer Bills out of any Supplies appropriated by Parliament to such Purposes shall thenceforth cease and determine.

Exchequer Bills.Officers Commissions.

Bills charged on Consolidated Fund.

C A P. IV.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to issue Commissions to the Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces and Royal Marines, and to Adjutants and Quartermasters of Her Militia and Volunteer Forces, without affixing Her Royal Sign Manual thereto. [11th April 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS every Officer appointed or promoted by Her Majesty in Her Land Forces or Marines, and every Adjutant or Quartermaster in Her Militia or Volunteer Forces, receives a Commission from Her Majesty with Her Royal Sign Manual thereon: And whereas in the Case of Her Majesty's Land Forces, before such Commissions are prepared in or issued from the Office of the Secretary of State, each Officer has been appointed or promoted by Her Majesty, under Her Royal Sign Manual, to the Rank for which a Commission afterwards issues under Royal Sign Manual, and has been gazetted to his Appointment or Promotion, and has entered on the Duties and received the Pay or Emolument thereof according to the Rank to which he has been so appointed or promoted by Her Majesty: And whereas it is expedient to regulate from Time to Time the Mode of authenticating Commissions granted by Her Majesty: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

L That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from Time to Time, as Occasion may require, to direct that all or any Commissions for Officers prepared or to be prepared under the Authority of Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual may be afterwards issued without Her Royal Sign Manual, but having thereon, in the Case of Her Majesty's Land Forces, except as herein-after mentioned, the Signatures of the Commander-in-Chief or the General commanding in chief, and of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in the Case of the Royal Marines of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and in the Case of Military Chaplains, Commissariat and Store Officers, and of Adjutants and Quartermasters in the Militia and Volunteer Forces, of One of Her Majesty's said Principal Secretaries; and that every such Commission issued and signed in pursuance of such Order in Council shall be conclusive Evidence that the Officer named in any such Commission has been appointed or promoted by Her Majesty to the Rank or Office named therein.

Officers Commissions in the Army, &c. may be issued without Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual being affixed thereto.

Officers Commissions.Mutiny.

Nothing to affect Her Majesty's Right to sign Commissions.

2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent Her Majesty from signing any Commission, or to prevent any Commission so signed from having the same Validity and Effect as if this Act had not passed.

C A P. V.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

[11th April 1862.]

[The Sections now printed are either entirely new or have been materially altered.]

Number of Men to consist of 145,450, exclusive of 6,688 Officers and Men, being Depôts of Regiments in India stationed in Great Britain, but including Officers and Men recruiting for the same.

‘ WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament that a Body of Forces should be continued for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of One hundred and forty-five thousand four hundred and fifty Men, exclusive of Six thousand six hundred and eighty-eight Officers and Men, being the Depôts of Regiments in India stationed in Great Britain, and exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments and other Corps employed in Her Majesty's East Indian Possessions, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for those Regiments and Corps: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned Forces in their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert Her Majesty's Service, or be guilty of Crimes and Offences to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Persons subject to this Act.

2. All the Provisions of this Act shall apply to all Persons who are or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who are or shall be listed or in Pay as a Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, other than Officers and Soldiers belonging to Her Majesty's Indian Forces, and to all Persons employed on the Recruiting Service receiving Pay, and all Pensioners receiving Allowances in respect of such Service, and to the Officers and Soldiers belonging to Her Majesty's Indian Forces, while such Officers or Soldiers shall be in any Part of the United Kingdom, and to Persons who are or shall be hired to be employed in the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers, and Military Store Department, and to Master Gunners, and to Conductors of Stores, and to the Corps of Royal Military Surveyors and Draftsmen, and to all Officers and Persons who are or shall be serving on the Commissariat Staff or in the Commissariat Staff Corps, or in the Military Store Department, and to Persons in the War Department, who are or shall be serving with any Part of Her Majesty's Army at home or abroad, under the Command of any Commissioned Officer, and (subject to and in accordance with the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five), to any Outpensioners of the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, who may be called out on Duty in aid of the Civil Power, or for Muster or Inspection, or who having volunteered their Services for that Purpose shall be kept on Duty in any Fort, Town, or Garrison, and to all Storekeepers and other Civil Officers who are or shall be employed by or act under the Secretary of State for War at any of Her Majesty's Establishments in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, or at Foreign Stations; provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to affect any Security which has been or shall be given by any Storekeeper, Barrack Master, or other Officer, or their Sureties, for the due Performance of their respective Offices, but that all such Securities shall be and remain in full Force and Effect.

18. Whenever Her Majesty shall intend that any Sentence of Penal Servitude heretofore or hereafter passed upon any Offender by any Court-martial shall be carried into execution for the Term specified in such Sentence or for any shorter Term, or shall be graciously pleased to commute as aforesaid to Penal Servitude any Sentence of Death passed by any such Court, the Sentence, together with Her Majesty's Pleasure thereupon, shall be notified in Writing by the Officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's Army in Great Britain and Ireland, or in the temporary Absence of such Officer by the Adjutant General, or when there shall not be any Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Army in Great Britain and Ireland, then by the Secretary-at-War or his Deputy, to any Judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England or Ireland, and thereupon such Judge shall make an Order for the Penal Servitude of such Offender in conformity with such Notification, and shall do all such other Acts consequent upon such Notification as such Judge is authorized to do by any Act in force touching the Penal Servitude of other Offenders; and it shall be lawful for any Judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in Ireland, to make an Order that any such Offender convicted in Ireland shall be kept in Penal Servitude in England; and such Order shall be in all respects as effectual in England as though such Offender had been convicted in England, and the Order had been made by any Judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England; and the Person in whose Custody such Offender shall at that

Time be, and all other Persons whatsoever whom the said Order may concern, shall be bound to obey and shall be assistant in the Execution thereof, and shall be liable to the same Punishment for Disobedience to or for interrupting the Execution of such Order as if the Order had been made under the Authority of any such Act as aforesaid; and every Person so ordered to be kept in Penal Servitude shall be subject to every Provision made by Law and in force concerning Persons under Sentence of Penal Servitude; and from the Time when such Order of Penal Servitude shall be made every Act in force touching the Escape of Felons, or their afterwards returning or being at large without Leave, shall apply to such Offender, and to all Persons aiding and abetting, contriving or assisting in any Escape or intended Escape or returning without Leave of any such Offender; and the Judge who shall make any Order of Penal Servitude as aforesaid shall direct the Notification of Her Majesty's Pleasure, and his own Order made thereupon, to be filed and kept of Record in the Office of the Clerk of the Crown of the Court of Queen's Bench; and the said Clerk shall have a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence only for filing the same, and shall, on Application, deliver a Certificate in Writing (not taking more than Two Shillings and Sixpence for the same) to such Offender or to any Person applying in his or Her Majesty's Behalf, showing the Christian and Surname of such Offender, his Offence, the Place where the Court was held before which he was convicted, and the Conditions on which the Order of Penal Servitude was made; which Certificate shall be sufficient Proof of the Conviction and Sentence of such Offender, and also of the Terms on which such Order for his Penal Servitude was made, in any Court and in any Proceeding wherein it may be necessary to inquire into the same.

As to Execution of Sentences of Penal Servitude in the Colonies, the East Indies, the Ionian Islands, or elsewhere out of Her Majesty's Dominions.

19. Whenever any Sentence of Penal Servitude heretofore or hereafter passed upon any Offender by any Court-martial holden in the East Indies, or in any other Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, or elsewhere beyond the Seas, is to be carried into execution for the Term specified in such Sentence or for any shorter Term, or when Sentence of Death passed by any such Court-martial has been or shall as aforesaid be commuted to Penal Servitude, the same shall be notified by the Officer commanding Her Majesty's Forces at the Presidency or Station where the Offender may come or be, or in his Absence by the Adjutant General for the Time being, to some Judge of One of the Supreme Courts of Judicature in the East Indies, or the Chief Justice, or some other Judge, as the Case may be, in any Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, who shall make Order for the Penal Servitude or intermediate Custody of such Offender; and upon any such Order being made it shall be duly notified to the Governor of the Presidency if in the East Indies, or to the Governor of the Colony if in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or to the Person who shall for the Time being be exercising the Office of Governor of such Presidency or Colony, who, on Receipt of such Notification, shall cause such Offender to be removed or sent to some other Colony or Place, or to undergo his Sentence within within the Presidency or Colony where the Offender was so sentenced, or where he may come or be as aforesaid, in obedience to the Directions for the Removal and Treatment of Convicts which shall from Time to Time be transmitted from Her Majesty through One of Her Principal Secretaries of State to such Presidency or Colony; and such Offender shall according to such Directions undergo the Sentence of Penal Servitude which shall have been passed upon him either in the Presidency or Colony in which he has been so sentenced, or in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent, and whilst such Sentence shall remain in force shall be liable to be imprisoned, and kept to Hard Labour, and otherwise dealt with under such Sentence in the same Manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned, with Hard Labour, during the Term of his Penal Servitude, by the Judgment of a Court of competent Jurisdiction in such Presidency or Colony, or in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent respectively: In the Ionian Islands and elsewhere out of Her Majesty's Dominions, the Officer commanding shall have Power to make an Order in Writing for the Penal Servitude or intermediate Custody of such Offender; and such Offender shall be liable by virtue of such Order to be imprisoned and kept to Hard Labour and otherwise dealt with under the Sentence of the Court in the same Manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned with Hard Labour during the Term of his Penal Servitude by the Judgment of a Court of competent Jurisdiction in the Place where he may be ordered to be kept in such intermediate Custody, or in the Place to which he may be removed for the Purpose of undergoing his Sentence of Penal Servitude.

26. On the first and on every subsequent Conviction for Desertion the Court-martial, in addition to any other Punishment, may order the Offender to be marked Two Inches below and One Inch in rear of the Nipple of the Left Breast with the Letter D, such Letter not to be less than an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with some Ink or Gunpowder, or other Preparation, so as to be clearly seen, and not liable to be obliterated; a Court-martial recommending that an Offender be discharged with Ignominy may also recommend that he be marked on the Right Breast with the Letters B. C., and such Recommendation may legally be carried into effect by the Military Authorities.

Marking Deserters, or Soldiers discharged with Ignominy.

31. In the Case of a Prisoner undergoing Imprisonment under the Sentence of a Court-martial in any public Prison other than the Military Prisons set apart by the Authority of this Act, or in any Gaol or House of Correction in any Part of the United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for the General commanding in chief, or the Adjutant General, or the Officer who confirmed the Proceedings of the Court, or the Officer commanding the District or Garrison in which such Prisoner may be, to give, as often as Occasion may arise, an Order in Writing directing that the Prisoner be discharged, or be delivered over to Military Custody, whether for the Purpose of being removed to some other Prison or Place in the United Kingdom, there to undergo the Remainder Commissioner, or in Her Majesty's Dominions in India for any Person duly authorized in that Behalf by the Governor General or Lieutenant Governor or other Officer administering the Government of any Presidency, Division, or Province, or within the Territories of any Foreign State in India for the Person performing the Duties of the Office of British Resident therein, or for any other Person duly authorized in that Behalf by the Governor General, to enlist and attest or to re-engage within the local Limits of their several Authorities any Soldiers or Persons desirous of enlisting or re-engaging in Her Majesty's Army or Her Majesty's Indian Army; and any such Magistrate or Person as aforesaid shall have the same Powers in that Behalf as are by this or any other Act of Parliament given to Justices in the United Kingdom for all such Purposes of Enlistment and Attestation; but no such Magistrate or other Person authorized to enlist and attest as above mentioned shall be a General Officer or hold any Regimental Commission; and all such Appointments, past and future, and everything done or to be done under them, shall be valid and of full Effect, notwithstanding the Expiration of this Act or of any other Act of Parliament; and any Person so attested shall be deemed to be an attested Soldier; and as often as any Corps shall be relieved or disbanded at any Station beyond the Seas, it shall be lawful for any Officers thereunto authorized by the Officer commanding in chief at such Station to receive as Transfers as many of the Soldiers belonging to the Corps leaving the Station as shall be willing and fit for Service for any Corps appointed to remain or for Her Majesty's Indian Forces; and every Soldier so transferred is hereby deemed to be discharged from his former Corps, and an attested Certificate of Transfer shall be delivered to the Soldier.

54. Any Soldier at any Time during the last Six Months of the Term of limited Service for which he shall have first engaged, may, with the Consent of his Commanding Officer, or any Person having been a Soldier, after having received his Discharge may, if approved by competent Military Authority as a fit Person for Her Majesty's Service, be re-engaged to serve for the further Term of Eleven Years in the Infantry, and Twelve Years in the Cavalry, and Nine Years in the Artillery or Engineers, upon making a Declaration, in the Form given in the Schedule annexed to this Act, before any One of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain or Ireland, or if not in Great Britain or Ireland before any Person duly appointed to enlist and attest out of Great Britain and Ireland any Soldiers or Persons desirous of enlisting or re-engaging in Her Majesty's Service.

76. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to exempt any Officer or Soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law, when accused of Felony, or of Misdemeanor, or of any Crime or Offence other than the Misdemeanors and Offences herein-before mentioned; and if any Commanding Officer shall neglect or refuse, on Application being made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Soldier under his Command, or shall wilfully obstruct, obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist the Officers of Justice in apprehending any Officer or Soldier under his Command, so accused as aforesaid, such Commanding Officer shall, upon Conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be thenceforth utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or in Her Majesty's Service; and a Certificate of such Conviction, containing the Substance and Effect of the Indictment only, omitting the formal Part, with the Copy of the Entry of the Judgment of the Court thereon, shall be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General in London.

Penalty for inducing Soldiers to desert.

81. Any Person who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, or by any Means whatsoever, directly or indirectly, procure any Soldier to desert, or attempt to procure or persuade any Soldier to desert, and any Person, who, knowing that any Soldier is about to desert, shall aid or assist him in deserting, or, knowing any Soldier to be a Deserter, shall conceal such Deserter, or aid or assist such Deserter in concealing himself, or aid or assist in his Rescue, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall, on Conviction thereof, before any Two Justices acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Offender shall at any Time happen to be, be liable to be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for such Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months as the convicting Justices shall think fit.

Penalties on aiding Escape or Attempt to escape of Prisoners, and on Breach of Prison Regulations.

83. If any Person shall convey or cause to be conveyed into any Military Prison appointed to be a public Prison under this Act any Arms, Tools, or Instruments, or any Mask or other Disguise, in order to facilitate the Escape of any Prisoner, or shall by any Means whatever aid and assist any Prisoner to escape or in attempting to escape from such Prison, whether an Escape be actually made or not, such Person shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and upon being convicted thereof shall be kept to Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Four Years and not exceeding Six Years, or be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and if any Person shall bring or attempt to bring into such Prison, in contravention of the existing Rules thereof, any spirituous or fermented Liquor, he shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds and not less than Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and if any Person shall bring into such Prison, to or for any Prisoner, without the Knowledge of the Governor, any Money, Clothing, Provisions, Tobacco, Letters, Papers, or any other Articles not allowed by the Rules of the Prison to be in the Possession of a Prisoner, or shall throw into the said Prison any such Articles, or shall by Desire of any Prisoner, without the Sanction of the Governor, carry out of the Prison any of the Articles aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, or to sufficient Proof of the Conviction and of the Sentence of such Offender, and also of the Terms in which such Order for his Penal Servitude was made, in any Court and in any Proceeding wherein it may be necessary to inquire into the same; and it shall be lawful for any Judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in Ireland to make an Order that any such Offender convicted in Ireland shall be kept in Penal Servitude in England, and such Order shall be in all respects as effectual in England as though such Offender had been convicted in England and the Order had been made by any Judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England.

Marking Deserters or Marines discharged with Ignominy.

39. On the first and on every subsequent Conviction for Desertion the Court-martial, in addition to any other Punishment, may order the Offender to be marked, Two Inches below and One Inch in rear of the Nipple of the Left Breast, with the Letter D, such Letter not to be less than an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with some Ink or Gunpowder or other Preparation, so as to be clearly seen and not liable to be obliterated; a Court-martial recommending that an Offender be discharged with Ignominy may also recommend that he be marked on the Right Breast with the Letters B.C., and such Recommendation may legally be carried into effect by the proper Authorities.

Expiration of Imprisonment in Common Gaols.

46. Every Gaoler or Keeper of any public Prison, Gaol, House of Correction, or other Place of Confinement, to whom any Notice shall have been given, or who shall have Reason to know or believe that any Person in his Custody for any Debt or Contempt, or upon any Charge or for any Offence, civil, criminal, or military, is a Marine, shall on receiving him into Custody give Notice thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and also, previous to the Expiration of the Period of the Confinement or Imprisonment of such Marine, give to the Secretary of the Admiralty One Month's Notice of the Period of such Expiration of Confinement or Imprisonment, or if there shall not be sufficient Time for a Month's Notice, then the longest practicable Notice thereof, specifying the Day and Hour of the Day on and at which he is to be released; and for every Default of giving either or any of such Notices such Gaoler or Person shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and moreover, every Gaoler or other Person having such immediate Inspection as aforesaid shall, as soon as any such Marine shall be entitled to be discharged out of Custody, with all convenient Speed, safely and securely conduct and convey and safely and securely deliver every such Marine either unto the Officer commanding at the nearest Head Quarters of the Royal Marines or to the Officer commanding Her Majesty's Ship to which any such Marine may happen to belong, unless the said Commissioners shall, by Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty, or the Officer commanding at the nearest Head Quarters of the Royal Marines, or the Officer commanding Her Majesty's Ship to which any such Marine may belong, shall, by Writing under his Hand, direct that such Marine be delivered to some other Officer or Person, in which Case he shall be delivered to such other Officer or Person accordingly, and the Officer or

Marine Mutiny.

Person to whom such Marine shall be so delivered in accordance with this Act shall thereupon give to such Gaoler or Person delivering up such Marine a Certificate, directed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, specifying the Receipt of such Marine, and if such Gaoler or other Person as aforesaid has conducted or conveyed any such Marine specifying the Place from and to which he shall have been conducted and conveyed as aforesaid; and such Gaoler or Person who shall have so conducted, conveyed, and delivered any such Marine shall, upon the Production of such Certificate, be entitled to receive of and from the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Navy the Sum of One Shilling per Mile, and no more, for conducting, conveying, and delivering any such Marine as aforesaid; and every such Gaoler or other Person having such immediate Inspection as aforesaid who shall not safely and securely conduct, convey, or deliver any such Marine as aforesaid shall for every such Misconduct or Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

51. Upon reasonable Suspicion that a Person is a Deserter it shall be lawful for any Constable, or if no Constable can be immediately met with, then for any Officer or Marine or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, or other Person, to apprehend or cause to be apprehended such suspected Person, and forthwith to bring him or cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near the Place where he was so apprehended, and acting for the County or Borough wherein such Place is situate, or for the County adjoining such first-mentioned County or such Borough; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to inquire whether such suspected Person is a Deserter, and from Time to Time to defer the said Inquiry, and to remand the said suspected Person, in the Manner prescribed by an Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-two, Section Twenty-one, and subject to every Provision therein contained; and if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice, by the Testimony of One or more Witnesses taken upon Oath, or by the Confession of such suspected Person, confirmed by some corroborative Evidence upon Oath or by the Knowledge of such Justice, that such suspected Person is a Deserter, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in Civil Custody to the Head Quarters or Dépôt of the Division to which he belongs, if stationed within a convenient and easily accessible Distance from the Place of Commitment, or if not so stationed then to the nearest or most convenient public Prison (other than a Military Prison) or Police Station legally provided as the Lock-up House for temporary Confinement of Persons taken into Custody, whether such Prison or Police Station be in the County or Borough in which such suspected Person was apprehended or in which he was committed, or not; or if the Deserter has been apprehended by a Party of Marines in charge of a Commissioned Officer, such Justice may deliver him up to such Party, unless the Officer shall deem it necessary to have the Deserter committed to Prison for safe Custody; and such Justice shall transmit an Account of the Proceedings, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, specifying thereon whether such Deserter was delivered to a Party of Marines in order to his being taken to the Head Quarters or Depôt of his Division, or whether such Deserter was committed to Prison, to the end that the Person so committed may be removed by an Order from the said Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, and proceeded against according to Law; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary of the Admiralty a Report stating the Names of the Persons by whom or by or through whose Means the Deserter was apprehended and secured, and the Secretary of the Admiralty shall transmit to such Justice an Order upon the proper Department for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings as a Reward to the Person so certified to be entitled thereto; and for such Information, Commitment, and Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more; and every Gaoler and other Person into whose Custody any Person charged with Desertion is committed shall, immediately upon the Receipt of the Person so charged into his Custody, pay such Fee of Two Shillings, and also, upon the Production of a Receipt from the Medical Practitioner who may have been required to examine such suspected Person, a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and shall notify the Fact to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and transmit also to the Secretary of the Admiralty a Copy of the Commitment, to the end that the Secretary of the Admiralty may order Repayment of such Fees; and that when any Person shall be apprehended and committed as a Deserter in any such Foreign Dominions, the Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison, if the Detachment to which he is suspected to belong shall not be in such Part, or if the Detachment be in such Part, the Justice may deliver him into Custody at the nearest Military Post, although the Detachment to which such Person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such Military Post, if within reasonable Distance; and such Justice shall in every Case transmit to the Officer commanding a Descriptive Return in the Form prescribed in the Schedule to this Act annexed, to the end that such Person may be removed by the Order of such Officer, and proceeded against according to Law; and such Sum of Twenty Shillings, and such Fees of Two Shillings, and Two Shillings and Sixpence, and all Charges and Expenses for conducting such Deserter to any Prison or Police Station and to Head Quarters or Depôt, shall be charged against any Wages or Pay of such Deserter.

Fraudulent
Confession of Desertion.

54. Any Person who, while serving in Her Majesty's Navy or in any of Her Majesty's Forces, or the Embodied Militia, or Her Majesty's Indian Forces, shall to any Officer, or Subordinate, Warrant, Petty, or Non-commissioned Officer, fraudulently confess himself to be a Deserter, shall be liable to be tried by any Court-martial under this Act, and punished according to the Sentence thereof; and any Person who shall voluntarily deliver himself up as and confess himself to be a Deserter from Her Majesty's

Marine Mutiny.

Royal Marine Forces, or who, upon being apprehended for any Offence, shall in the Presence of the Justice confess himself to be a Deserter as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted and to be a Marine, and shall be liable to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Marine or not; or in case such Person shall not be a Deserter from the Royal Marine Forces, or shall have been discharged therefrom or from any other Corps for any Cause whatever, or shall be incapable of Service, he shall, on Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the Peace at or near the Place where he shall deliver himself up or confess, or where he may at any Time happen to be, be adjudged to be punished, if in England, as a Rogue and Vagabond, and if in Scotland or Ireland, by Commitment to some Prison or House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Three Months, or shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England or Ireland, of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of Queen Victoria, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Statute Law of England and Ireland relating to Larceny and other similar Offences, or, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and every Person so deemed to be guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, or of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition, (as the Case may be,) shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly; and the Confession and receiving Subsistence as a Marine by such Person shall be Evidence of the false Pretence, or of the Falsehood, Fraud, and Imposition, (as the Case may be,) and of the obtaining Money to the Amount of the Value of such Subsistence, and the Value of such Subsistence so obtained may be charged in the Indictment as so much Money received by such Person; and in case such Person shall have been previously convicted of the like Offence, or shall have been summarily convicted and punished in England as a Rogue and Vagabond, or in Scotland or Ireland by Commitment, for making a fraudulent Confession of Desertion, such former Conviction may be alleged in the Indictment, and may be proved upon the Trial of such Person; and in such Indictment for a Second Offence it shall be sufficient to state that the Offender was at a certain Time and Place convicted of obtaining Money under false Pretences as a Deserter, for making a fraudulent Confession of Desertion, without otherwise describing the said Offence; and a Certificate containing the Substance and Effect only (omitting the formal Part) of the Indictment and Conviction of the former Offence, purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Record of the Court where the Offender was first convicted, or by the Deputy of such Clerk, or by the Clerk of the convicting Magistrates, shall, upon Proof of the Identity of the Person of the Offender, be sufficient Evidence of the First Conviction, without Proof of the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed such Certificate; and if the Person so confessing fessing himself to be a Deserter shall be serving at the Time in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces he shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with by all Justices and Gaolers as a Deserter.

Punishment for inducing Marines to desert.

55. Any Person who shall, in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, by Words or by any other Means whatsoever, directly or indirectly procure or persuade any Marine to desert, or shall by Words or by any other Means whatsoever attempt to procure or persuade any Marine to desert, and any Person who, knowing that any Marine is about to desert, shall aid or assist him in deserting, or knowing any Marine to be a Deserter, shall conceal such Deserter, or aid or assist such Deserter in concealing himself, or aid or assist in his Rescue, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall on Conviction thereof before any Two Justices acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Offender shall at any Time happen to be, be liable to be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for such Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months, as the convicting Justices shall think fit.

abroad.

70. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Person exercising the Office of a Magistrate within any of Her Majesty's Dominions abroad, or for the Officer commanding any Ship or Vessel of Her Majesty on the Books of which any Marine may be borne, or on board of which any such Marine may be, or, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, for the Commanding Officer of any Battalion or Detachment of Royal Marines, whether borne on the Books of any One of Her Majesty's Ships or otherwise, to re-engage or enlist and attest out of Great Britain or Ireland any Marine desirous of re-enlisting or re-engaging into Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, if such Marine be considered by such Commanding Officer, Justice, or Magistrate a fit Person to continue in Her Majesty's Service, and every such Commanding Officer, Justice, or Magistrate shall have the same Powers in that Behalf as are by this or any other Act of Parliament given to Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom for all such Purposes of Enlistment and Attestation, and any Marine so re-enlisted or re-engaged shall be deemed to be an attested Marine.

Act.

99. This Act shall be in force within Great Britain from the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two until the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three inclusive; and within Ireland, and in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and the Isle of Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, from the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three inclusive; and within the Garrison of Gibraltar and within the Mediterranean, and in Spain and Portugal, from the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three inclusive; and in all other Parts of Europe where Royal Marine Forces may be serving, and the West Indies and North America and Cape of Good

India Stocks Transfer.

C A P. VII.

An Act to provide for the Registration and Transfer of India Stocks at the Bank of Ireland, and for the mutual Transfer of such Stocks from and to the Banks of England and Ireland respectively. [11th April 1862.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and two, the Secretary of State in Council of India was authorized from Time to Time to make such Arrangements with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England as should be deemed expedient for the Payment of Debts and Obligations of the Government of India, and of the Interest thereon, and for the Creation and Registration and for the Transfer of and the Payment of Interest on any Stock into which any such Obligations might be convertible: And whereas certain Arrangements have been made under the Authority of the said Act, and in pursuance of such Arrangements the Stocks in certain Loans secured by and chargeable on the Revenues of India, and the Transfers thereof, are registered at the Bank of England, and the Dividends thereon are paid at such Bank: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made so as to enable the Transfer of Stock raised in the United Kingdom on the Credit of the Revenues of India to the Bank of Ireland, and for the Registration and Transfer of and the Payment of Dividends on such Stock so transferred at such last-mentioned Bank: And whereas it is expedient to make Provision for the mutual Transfer of such Stock from and to the Bank of England and the Bank of Ireland respectively: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Interpretation
of Expression
"India Stock."

1. In this Act the Expression "India Stock" means Stock created or to be created for the raising of Money in the United Kingdom on the Credit of the Revenues of India, but does not include the Stock commonly known by the Name of East India Stock.

Power to transfer India
Stock from the Books of the Bank of England to the Books of the Bank of Ireland.

2. From and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons holding any India Stock transferable at the Bank of England, upon making Application in the Manner herein-after provided, to transfer or cause to be transferred such Stock, for the Purpose of having the same Amount of Stock of the same Denomination written into the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and to be transferable at such Bank; and the Dividends on the Stock so transferred shall be payable half-yearly at the Bank of Ireland on the same Days on which such Dividends would have been payable at the Bank of England if the said Stock had never been so transferred.

India Stocks Transfer.

3. The several Stocks so transferred, or any Share or Interest therein, and the proportional Dividend attached thereto respectively, shall be assignable and transferable at the Bank of Ireland, as directed by this Act, and not otherwise; and there shall be kept at the Bank of Ireland within the City of Dublin a Book or Books wherein all Assignments or Transfers of any Part of the several Stocks and the proportional Dividends attached thereto respectively shall be entered and registered, which Entries shall be conceived in proper Words for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Parties making such Assignments or Transfers, or if any such Party or Parties be absent by his, her, or their Attorney or Attornies, thereunto lawfully authorized by Writing under his, her, or their Hands and Seals, to be attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, and the Person or Persons to whom any such Assignment or Transfer shall be made, or, in case of Absence, his, her, or their Attorney or Attornies thereunto lawfully authorized as aforesaid, shall respectively underwrite his, her, or their Acceptance thereof; and no other Method of assigning or transferring any such Stock and the Dividend attached thereto, or any Interest therein, at the Bank of Ireland, shall be good and available in Law, and no Stamp Duties whatsoever shall be charged upon the said Assignments or Transfers or any of them.

Assignments or Transfers of Stock so transferred may be made at the Bank of Ireland.

4. It shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons holding any India Stock transferable at the Bank of Ireland, upon making Application in the Manner herein-after provided, to transfer or cause to be transferred such Stock, for the Purpose of having the same Amount of Stock of the same Denomination written into the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and to be transferable at such Bank.

Power to transfer India Stock from Bank of Ireland to Bank of England.

5. Notwithstanding anything herein-before contained to the contrary, it shall not be lawful for any Person to make any Transfer of any Stock from the Bank of England to the Bank of Ireland, or from the Bank of Ireland to the Bank of England, under the Provisions of this Act, at any Time within Three clear Days before the Day on which the Books shall be closed for the Purpose of striking the Balances of the several Accounts for the Purpose of calculating the half-yearly Dividend, or within such other Period as the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in concurrence with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, may from Time to Time prescribe.

No Transfer shall be made within a certain Period before the closing Day.

6. Any Person or Persons holding India Stock transferable at the Bank of England or at the Bank of Ireland respectively, and desiring to transfer the same so as to make such Stock transferable at the Bank of Ireland or at the Bank of England respectively, shall apply in Writing, or cause Application in Writing to be made by some Person on his, her, or their Behalf, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland respectively at which such Stock shall be transferable, for Permission to transfer or cause to be transferred such Stock for the Purpose of having the same Amount of Stock of the same Denomination written into the Books of the Governor and Company

Application to be made to the Banks of England and of Ireland for Permission to transfer from the one to the other, and upon such Transfers being made Certificates to be granted.

pany of the Bank of Ireland or into the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England respectively, as the Case may require, and such Application shall be according to such Form as shall be established by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England in concurrence with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and shall be the same in all Cases, and upon such Application having been made, and upon such Person or Persons transferring the Stock or causing the same to be transferred into the Name of the Accountant General of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland respectively, at which it shall be desired that such Stock shall be transferred, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Bank of England or for the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Bank of Ireland, as the Case may require, or for the Accountant General or Deputy Accountant General of such Governor and Company, or for the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of such Governor and Company for the Time being, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required to grant a Certificate to the Person or Persons making such Transfer, or on whose Behalf such Transfer shall have been made, directed to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland or the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to which it shall be desired that such Stock shall be transferred, and such Certificate shall be according to such Form as shall be established by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in concurrence with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and shall be the same in all Cases; and such Certificate shall state that the Person or Persons therein mentioned has or have transferred or caused to be transferred at the Bank of England or the Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be, the Stock therein described, to the Accountant General of the Bank of England or the Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be, for the Purpose of having the Amount of such Stock written in the Name or Names of such Person or Persons into the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as the Case may be, and shall describe such Stock, and specify the Amount thereof, and thereupon the Amount of the Stock comprised in such Certificate shall be written off the Account of the Accountant General of the Bank of England, or the Account of the Accountant General of the Bank of Ireland, by an Entry made in conformity with such Certificate.

7. In every Case where any Transfer for the Purposes of this Act shall be made at the Bank of England the Governor and Company of the said Bank shall cause Notice thereof to be transmitted to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland on the same Day on which such Transfer shall be made; and in like Manner in every Case where any Transfer for the Purposes of this Act shall be made at the Bank of Ireland the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall cause Notice thereof to be transmitted to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England on the same Day on which such Transfer shall be made.

Notices of Transfers to be sent to the Bank into which the Stock is to be transferred.

India Stocks Transfer.

8. A Book or Books shall be provided and kept by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England and the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland at the Bank of England and Bank of Ireland respectively, in which shall be fairly entered the Names of all Persons making any Transfer of any Stocks to the Accountant General of the said Banks respectively, under the Provisions of this Act, to which Book or Books it shall and may be lawful for all Persons making any such Transfer, their respective Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, from Time to Time and at all reasonable Times to resort, and to inspect the same, without any Fee or Charge.

Books to be provided for entering Transfers under this Act at the Banks of England and Ireland.

9. Whenever any Transfer shall be made of any Stock for the Purposes of this Act at the Bank of England or at the Bank of Ireland respectively, then and in every such Case, upon the Production of a Certificate of the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Bank of England or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland at which any such Transfer shall have been made, or of the Accountant General or Deputy Accountant General, or of the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of such Governor and Company respectively, granted according to the Directions of this Act, the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland or the Governor and Company of the Bank of England respectively are hereby authorized and required to write or cause to be written into the Books of such Bank of Ireland or Bank of England respectively, as the Case may require, relating to Stock of the same Denomination, the Amount of Stock specified in such Certificate; and such Amount of Stock shall be written accordingly, transferable under the Provisions of this Act at the Bank of Ireland or Bank of England respectively, as the Case shall require, and shall be payable and transferable at such Bank of England or Bank of Ireland respectively; and every such Amount of Stock so written into the Books of the Bank of Ireland or of the Bank of England respectively shall be entitled to Interest or Dividend payable at the Bank to which such Transfer shall have been made, except as to Stock which shall have been transferred after the closing and before the Dividend shall become payable, in which Case the Party making the Transfer shall receive the current Dividend at the Bank from which such Transfer shall have been made.

On Production of Certificate from the Bank where the Transfer is made, the Bank to which the Transfer is made shall write the Amount of Stock into their Books.

10. The Governor and Company of the Bank of England and the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, upon making up their Books preparatory to the Payment of each and every half-yearly Interest or Dividend upon any Stocks transferable under this Act, shall certify to the Secretary of State in Council of India, or to such Officer or Officers as the Secretary of State in Council of India shall direct, the Amounts of such Stocks which shall then be written in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and shall be transferable at such Banks respectively under the Provisions of this Act; and upon the Receipt of such Certificates the Secretary of State in Council of India is hereby authorized and required to pay to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England and to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or into the Bank of England to the Account of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, respectively, the Amount of all Interest or Dividends then being or becoming payable upon such Amounts of Stocks as are specified in such Certificates respectively.

Banks to certify to the Secretary of State in Council of India the Amount of Stock written in their Books prior to Dividend, and the Interest to be paid to them by such Secretary of State.

Remuneration for Services under this Act to be paid to the Bank of Ireland.

11. In addition to the Amount of Interest or Dividend which shall from Time to Time be paid to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland under the last Provision, the Secretary of State in Council of India shall at the same Time pay to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or to the Account of such Governor and Company at the Bank of England, as a Remuneration for their Services in the Execution of this Act, such Sum as shall from Time to Time be fixed as the Amount of such Remuneration under any Arrangement or Agreement to be made between the Secretary of State in Council of India and the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland.

Duplicates may be granted of Certificates lost or destroyed.

12. In case of the Loss or Destruction of any Certificate of the Governor or Deputy Governor, Accountant General, or Deputy Accountant General, Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Bank of England or of the Bank of Ireland respectively, granted for the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any such Governor or Deputy Governor, Accountant General or Deputy Accountant General, Secretary or Assistant Secretary, and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered, upon Proof of such Loss or Destruction to their Satisfaction, to grant a Duplicate of such Certificate, and such Duplicate shall be full and sufficient Authority for the Purposes of this Act, and shall stand in the Place and Stead of the original Certificate, if such original Certificate shall not have been previously found and acted upon: Provided always, that upon any Loss or Destruction or alleged Loss or Destruction of any such original Certificate, and on the Production of any such Duplicate Certificate, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland respectively, and they are hereby authorized and required, to demand and take from the Party or Parties tendering any such Duplicate full and sufficient Security to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to indemnify such Governor and Company against the Production of or any Claim which shall be made under or by virtue of any such original Certificate so lost or destroyed, or alleged to have been lost or destroyed; and if at any Time after the Time when a duplicate Certificate shall have been produced and acted upon under this Act the Original of such Certificate shall be tendered to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for such Governor and Company and they are hereby authorized and required to detain such original Certificate, and to cancel the same, and to transmit the same so cancelled to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be, by or on whose Behalf such Certificate shall have been given, and to deliver up such Security as shall have been entered into touching the said original Certificate to the Party or Parties entering into such Security, or such of them as shall require the same.

13. The Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall be at liberty to close their Books for Transfer of India Stock on any Day in the Month prior to the Days for Payment of the half-yearly Dividends on such Stock, such Day to be fixed or agreed on between the Bank of England and the Bank of Ireland; provided, however, that the Period for which the same shall be closed shall not exceed Fifteen Days, and the Person or Persons who on the Day of such closing shall appear in the said Books to be the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof shall be entitled to the current Dividend thereon.

Power to Bank of Ireland to close Books for Transfer.

14. If any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or shall willingly act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Certificate or duplicate Certificate required by this Act, or shall alter any Number, Figure, or Word therein, or shall utter or publish as true any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered Certificate, with Intent to defraud the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or any Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whomsoever, every such Person or Persons so forging or counterfeiting, or causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited, or willingly acting or assisting in the forging or counterfeiting, or altering, uttering, or publishing as aforesaid, being convicted thereof in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony.

Persons forging, &c. Certificates guilty of Felony.

15. No Fee, Reward, or Gratuity whatsoever shall be demanded or taken of any of Her Majesty's Subjects for receiving any such Certificate or duplicate Certificate, or for paying Interest or Dividend, or for any Transfer of any Sum to be made in pursuance of this Act, upon Pain that any Officer or Person offending by taking or demanding any such Fee or Reward or Gratuity shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds to the Party aggrieved, with full Costs of Suit, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin respectively.

No Fee, &c. to be taken for receiving Certificates, or paying Dividends, &c. on Penalty of 20*l.*, with Costs of Suit.

Australian Colonies Government Act Amendment.

C A P. XI.

An Act to explain an Act, intituled An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies.

[11th April 1862.]

c. 59.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Governors and Legislative Councils of the Colonies of New South Wales, Victoria, Van Diemen's Land, and South Australia respectively, by any Act or Acts to establish in the said Colonies respectively, instead of the Legislative Council, a Council and House of Representatives or other separate Legislative Houses, to consist respectively of such Members to be appointed or elected respectively by such Persons and in such Manner as by such Act or Acts should be determined, and to vest in such Council and House of Representatives or other Legislative Houses the Powers and Functions of the Legislative Council for which the same might be substituted; provided always, that every Bill which should be passed by the Council in any of the said Colonies for any of such Purposes should be reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon, and that a Copy of such Bill should be laid before both Houses of Parliament for the Space of Thirty Days at the least before Her Majesty's Pleasure thereupon should be signified: And whereas Acts have been passed for the above Purposes in each of the said Colonies as well by the said first-mentioned Legislative Councils as by the Councils and Houses of Representatives or other separate Legislative Houses established instead of such Legislative Councils: And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether some Acts so passed may not be invalid by reason that the same were not reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure, or laid before both Houses of Parliament, as herein-before mentioned: And whereas Provision is made in some of the said Acts passed in the said Colonies respectively for subsequent Changes in the Constitution or Mode of Election or Appointment of the several Bodies composing the Colonial Legislature, subject to Provisions requiring that any Acts or Act for that Purpose should be reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon, and under such Powers certain Acts have been passed by the said Colonial Legislatures, or some of them, as to the Validity of which Doubts have arisen by reason that the same were not reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Acts passed by certain Legisla- 1. Every Act passed for the Purposes mentioned in the said first-recited Act, or any of them, by the Legislative Council of any of the said Colonies, and assented to in Her Majesty's Name by the Governor of such Colony, shall be deemed to be and to have been from the Date of such Assent as valid and effectual for all Purposes whatever as if the same Act had been reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure, and as if the same had been duly laid before both Houses of Parliament, and as if Her Majesty's Assent had been duly given to the same, and signified in the Colony at the Date aforesaid.

2. And be it further declared and enacted, The Term Council in the above-recited Proviso of the said first-recited Act shall be deemed to apply only to the Legislative Councils herein-before first mentioned.

3. And be it further enacted, That every Act passed by any Colonial Legislature established under any such Acts or Act as aforesaid, for altering the Constitution or Mode of Election or Appointment of any or either of the Legislative Bodies composing such Legislature, which may have been at any Time heretofore assented to in Her Majesty's Name by the Governor of the Colony in which the same shall have been passed, shall be deemed to be and to have been from the Date of such Assent as valid and effectual for all Purposes whatever as if the same Act had been reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon, and as if Her Majesty's Assent had been duly given to the same, and signified in the Colony at the Date last aforesaid.

tive Councils, and assented to by Governors, to be as effectual as if reserved for Her Majesty's Assent.

The Term "Council" to apply only to such Legislative Councils. Acts passed for altering Constitution of Legislative Bodies, so assented to, deemed valid.

An Act for raising the Sum of One million Pounds by Exchequer Bonds for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two. [16th May 1862.]

C A P. XIV.

An Act to extend to the Isle of Man the Provisions of the Act Eighteenth and Nineteenth Victoria, Chapter Ninety, as to the Payment of Costs to and by the Crown. [16th May 1862.]

18 & 19 Vict.
c. 90.

‘ WHEREAS by the First and Second Sections of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety, it was enacted that in all Informations, Actions, Suits, and other legal Proceedings to be thereafter instituted before any Court or Tribunal whatever in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by or on behalf of the Crown, against any Corporation or Person or Persons, in respect of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Goods or Chattels belonging or accruing to the Crown, the Proceeds whereof, or the Rents or Profits of which said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments by any Act then in force or thereafter to be passed were to be carried to the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, or in respect of any Sum or Sums of Money due and owing to Her Majesty by virtue of any Vote of Parliament for the Service of the Crown, or of any Act of Parliament relating to the Public Revenue, Her Majesty’s Attorney General, or in Scotland the Lord Advocate, should be entitled to recover Costs for and on behalf of Her Majesty, where Judgment shall be given for the Crown, in the same Manner and under the same Rules, Regulations, and Provisions as were or might be in force touching the Payment or Receipt of Costs in Proceedings between Subject and Subject, and that such Costs should be paid into the Exchequer, and should become Part of the Consolidated Fund; and it was also enacted, that if in any such Information, Action, Suit, or other Proceeding Judgment should be given against the Crown, the Defendant or Defendants should be entitled to recover Costs in like Manner and subject to the same Rules and Provisions as though such Pro'ceeding had been had between Subject and Subject; and that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and they were thereby required to pay such Costs out of any Monies which might be thereafter voted by Parliament for that Purpose: And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to the Isle of Man: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. The First and Second Sections of the said recited Act shall extend and apply to the Isle of Man; and the Words "Her Majesty's Attorney General" contained in the same Act shall, as regards Informations, Actions, Suits, and other Legal Proceedings in the Isle of Man, be construed to mean Her Majesty's Attorney General for the Isle of Man.

Sects. 1. and 2. of Act 18 & 19 Vict. c. 90. to apply to the Isle of Man, except in regard to existing Suits.

2. Provided always, That nothing contained in the recited Act or in this Act shall apply to any Information, Action, Suit, or other Proceeding filed or commenced before the passing of this Act.

C A P. XV.

An Act to define the Powers of the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland with respect to the Election of its Fellows.

[16th May 1862.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-four, it is amongst other things enacted, in the Forty-second Section thereof, that no Person shall be capable of being elected a Fellow of the College of Physicians (incorporated by the Name of the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland) who shall not have taken the Degree of Bachelor or Master in Arts or Doctor in Physic in One of the Universities in Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge, unless the Number of Fellows shall at any Time be reduced to Six, in which Case only, whenever it may happen, such Qualification of the Degree of Bachelor or Master in Arts or Doctor of Physic may be dispensed with respectively: And whereas under the Charter which had been granted to the said College of Physicians in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, the said College was empowered to elect to the Fellowship thereof without Restriction such of its Licentiates as it deemed deserving of such Distinction: And whereas the said Restriction imposed by the said recited Act is unjust to Universities and Colleges other than those of Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge, and it is expedient that the same should be repealed, and that the said President and Fellows of the said College should be enabled to elect to the Fellowship thereof

‘ such of its Licentiates as are Graduates in Arts of any University of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, ‘ and also such of its Licentiates as may appear to them to merit ‘ such Distinction by reason of their personal and professional ‘ Attainments.’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Commencement of Act.

1. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

From Commencement of Act, Part of 40 G. 3. c. 84. s. 42. (I.) repealed.

2. From and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of the said recited Act as provides that no Person shall be capable of being elected a Fellow of the said College of Physicians in Ireland who shall not have taken the Degree of Bachelor or Master in Arts or Doctor in Physic in One of the Universities of Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge, unless the Number of Fellows shall at any Time be reduced to Six, in which Case only, whenever it may happen, such Qualification of the Degree of Bachelor or Master in Arts or Doctor in Physic may be dispensed with respectively, shall be repealed.

Defining Powers of College with respect to Admissions to its Fellowships.

3. From and after the Commencement of this Act it shall be lawful for the President and Fellows of the King and Queen’s College of Physicians in Ireland to elect to the Fellowship of the said College such of its Licentiates as are Graduates in Arts or Doctors in Physic of any University of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any Foreign University, and also such of its Licentiates, not being such Graduates in Arts or Doctors in Physic, as, under such Limitations as to them may seem fit, may appear to the said President and Fellows to merit such Distinction.

C A P. XVI.

An Act for extinguishing certain Rights of Way through the Netley Hospital Estate in the Parish of Hound in the County of Southampton. [16th May 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the Netley Hospital Estate in the Parish of ‘ Hound in the County of Southampton was purchased ‘ under the “Defence Act, 1842,” and the “Ordnance Board ‘ Transfer Act, 1855,” and is now vested in Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the War Department in trust for ‘ Her Majesty, and a Hospital has since been erected thereon ‘ for the Reception of wounded or sick Soldiers of Her Majesty’s ‘ Army: And whereas the said Estate is subject to certain ‘ Rights of Way for Foot Passengers, which, if they were ‘ suffered to remain, would very much interfere with and impede ‘ the useful Purposes intended to be effected by the Purchase of ‘ the Estate and the Erection of the Hospital thereon, and it is ‘ therefore expedient that all such Rights of Way should be extinguished:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Charitable Uses Act (1861) Amendment.

Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same :

L. That from and after the passing of this Act all Rights of Way through or over the said Estate shall cease, and the said Principal Secretary shall stop up or cause to be stopped up the said Ways, and thereupon public Notice shall be given of the stopping up thereof, by Advertisement in the London Gazette and in some local Newspaper published or circulating in the County of Southampton, and shall be affixed on the outer Door of the Church of the said Parish, or some other public Place in the said Parish.

Certain Rights of Way over Netley Hospital Estate extinguished.

An Act to extend the Time for making Enrolments under the Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend the Law relating to the Conveyance of Land for Charitable Uses, and to explain and amend the said Act. [16th May 1862.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend the Law relating to the Conveyance of Land for Charitable Uses, Time was given for enrolling certain Deeds, Assurances, and Instruments therein referred to until the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months next after the passing of the said Act : And whereas the said Act received the Royal Assent on the Seventeenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, so that the Time thereby given for making such Enrolments will expire at the End of Twelve Calendar Months from that Day : And whereas from the great Number of Deeds, Assurances, and Instruments to be enrolled under the Provisions aforesaid it is reasonable to allow an Extension of Time for that Purpose : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

24 & 25 Vict. c. 9.

1. The Enrolment of every Deed, Assurance, and Instrument which shall be enrolled before the Seventeenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four shall, for the Purposes of the said Act, have the same Force and Effect which it would have had if such Enrolment had been within Twelve Calendar Months next after the passing of the said Act.

Extension of Time for Enrolment of Deeds and Assurances.

2. And whereas by the said Act it is enacted that certain Assurances to be thereafter made bonâ fide on a Sale for a full and valuable Consideration should not be deemed null and void by reason of the Consideration consisting wholly or partly of a Rent, Rentcharge, or other annual Payment reserved as therein mentioned, and Doubts have arisen whether the said Enactment refers to any Hereditaments not of Copyhold or Customary Tenure : Be it therefore declared and enacted, That the said Enactment comprises and extends to all Hereditaments whether of Freehold or of Customary or Copyhold Tenure, and to every Estate and Interest therein.

As to Deeds, &c. executed prior to passing of recited Act.

3. No Deed, Assurance, or Instrument executed previously to the passing of the said Act shall, for the Purposes thereof, require Acknowledgment prior to Enrolment.

Acts to apply to Cases where separate Deed executed as well after as before passing of recited Act.

4. ' And whereas it is by the Fourth Section of the said Act enacted, that where the Charitable Uses of any such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance as is therein mentioned had been declared by any separate Deed or Instrument, then, if neither of the said Deeds or Instruments had been enrolled, it should not be necessary to enrol such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance, but every such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance should be void, unless such other separate Deed or Instrument should be enrolled within such Time as therein mentioned : And whereas it may happen that such Deed or Assurance of Conveyance may have been executed before the passing of the said Act, but the separate Deed or Instrument declaring the Charitable Uses may not have been executed until after the passing of the said Act : ' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Act and this Act shall be taken to apply as well to Cases where such separate Deed or Instrument shall be or shall have been executed after as to Cases where it may have been executed before the passing of the said Act ; provided only that, if not already executed, it be executed within Six Months next after the passing of this Act.

Provision as to Money expended before passing of Act in permanent Improvements.

5. In all Cases in which Money shall have been really and bonâ fide expended before the passing of this Act, in the substantial and permanent Improvement, by building or otherwise, for any Charitable Use, of Land of any Tenure whatsoever, of which Possession is now held by virtue of any Deed or Assurance conveying or purporting to convey the same, or declaring any Trusts or Trust thereof for such Charitable Use, all Money so expended shall be deemed, for the Purposes of the said Act, equivalent to Money actually paid by way of Consideration for the Purchase of the said Land.

Act not to invalidate any Deed.

6. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to render null and void any Deed or Assurance already good and valid.

An Act to amend the Law as to the whipping of Juvenile and other Offenders. [16th May 1862.]

' WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to the whipping of Offenders : ' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Regulation as to the whipping of Juvenile Offenders.

1. Where the Punishment of Whipping is awarded for any Offence by Order of One or more Justice or Justices made in exercise of his or their Power of summary Conviction, or in Scotland by the Court of Justiciary, or by any Sheriff or Magistrate, the Order, Sentence, or Conviction awarding such Punishment shall specify the Number of Strokes to be inflicted and the Instrument to be used in the Infliction of them, and in the Case of an Offender whose Age does not exceed Fourteen Years, the Number of Strokes inflicted shall not exceed Twelve, and the Instrument used shall be a Birch Rod.

Whipping.Pier and Harbour Act Amendment.

2. No Offender shall be whipped more than once for the same Offence, and in Scotland no Offender above Sixteen Years of Age shall be whipped for Theft, or for Crime committed against Person or Property.

Works by Admiralty.

7. Before commencing the Construction of any Part of the Works authorized by a Provisional Order, the Undertakers shall deposit at the Admiralty Office Working Drawings of the whole Works for the Approval of the Lords of the Admiralty: The Works shall not be constructed otherwise than in accordance with such Approval. After the same are commenced or constructed the Undertakers shall not alter or extend the same without first obtaining the like Approval. If any Work be commenced, constructed, altered, or extended contrary to this Provision, the Lords of the Admiralty may, at the Expense of the Undertakers, abate and remove it, or any Part of it, and restore the Site thereof to its former Condition.

Abandonment,
Disuse, &c. of Works.

8. If any Work authorized by any Provisional Order be abandoned or suffered to fall into Disuse or Decay, the Lords of the Admiralty may, if and as they think fit, at the Expense of the Undertakers, either repair and restore such Work or any Part of it, or abate and remove it or any Part of it, and restore the Site thereof to its former Condition.

Power to Admiralty to cause
Local Survey
to be made.

9. The Lords of the Admiralty may at any Time, at the Expense of the Undertakers, cause to be made a Local Survey and Examination of the Works authorized by any Provisional Order, or of the Site thereof.

Recovery of Expenses from Undertakers.

10. Whenever the Lords of the Admiralty, under the Authority of this Act, do any Act or Thing in relation to any Works authorized by any Provisional Order, which they are by this Act authorized to do at the Expense of the Undertakers, the Amount of such Expense shall be a Debt due to the Crown from the Undertakers, and shall be recoverable as such, with Costs, or the same may be recovered with Costs as a Penalty is or may be recoverable from the Undertakers.

Lights to be exhibited at Night during Construction
of Works.

11. During the Construction of the Works the Undertakers shall, at their own Expense, exhibit and keep burning every Night from Sunset to Sunrise such Lights for the Guidance of Vessels as the Lords of the Admiralty shall from Time to Time require or approve of: If the Undertakers refuse or neglect to comply with this Provision, they shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Limitation of
Time for Completion
of Works.

12. The Works authorized by any Provisional Order shall be completed within Five Years after the passing of an Act confirming the Provisional Order, or within such other Time as the Provisional Order may direct; and on the Expiration of that Period the Powers by the Order given to the Undertakers for executing the same, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much thereof as is then completed.

Rates.

Pier, &c. open to Public on Payment of Rates.

13. On Payment of the Rates payable under a Provisional Order, and subject to the Provisions of the Principal Act and this Act and the Provisional Order, the Pier or Harbour to which the Provisional Order relates and its Approaches shall be open to all Persons for the shipping and unshipping of Goods, and the embarking and lauding of Passengers, and such Persons and Passengers shall have unobstructed Ingress, Passage, and Egress into, along, through, and out of the same.

14. Where the Undertakers are a Company incorporated by the Provisional Order for the Purposes of the Undertaking, then if at any Time it appear to the Board of Trade that the clear annual Profits divisible on the subscribed and paid-up Capital of the Company, on the Average of the then Three last preceding Years, amount to or exceed the Rate of Ten per Centum per Annum on the nominal Value of the Shares, the Board of Trade may, if in their Discretion they think fit, require the Company to reduce the Rates received by them to such Extent as may to the Board of Trade seem fit: If the Company refuse or neglect to comply with any such Requirement, they shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds for every Day during which such Refusal or Neglect shall continue: Provided that if at any subsequent Time the Profits fall below the said Rate of Ten per Centum per Annum the Company may, with the Sanction of the Board of Trade, again raise the said Rates to an Amount not exceeding the Amount authorized by the Provisional Order.

Power to Board of Trade to revise Rates.

15. Where the Undertakers are a Company as aforesaid, the Company, within One Month after sending to the Clerk of the Peace for the County the Copy of their annual Account in abstract, shall send a Copy of the same to the Board of Trade, who shall forward a Copy to any Persons who may require the same: If the Company refuse or neglect to comply with this Provision, they shall for every such Refusal or Neglect be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Company to send Copy of annual Account in abstract as to Rates, &c. to Board of Trade.

16. If, on Complaint in Writing by any Person interested, it appear to the Board of Trade that there is reasonable Ground for believing that such last-mentioned Account has not been duly kept, or that any Rates have been improperly or unfairly levied by the Company, or have not been applied in accordance with the Order, then the following Provisions shall take effect:

As to Audit of Accounts on Complaint to Board of Trade.

- (1.) The Board of Trade may appoint an Auditor to audit and examine such Account, and inquire into the Matters complained of, and report to the Board of Trade on such Account and Matters:
- (2.) The Company shall on Demand produce to such Auditor all or any of their Accounts, Books, Deeds, Papers, Writings, and Documents, and afford to him all reasonable Facilities for examining and comparing the same:
- (3.) In case any such Complaint be found to be true, the reasonable Expenses of the Auditor shall be paid to the Board of Trade by the Company:
- (4.) In case any such Complaint be not found to be true, the reasonable Expenses of the Auditor shall be paid to the Board of Trade by the Complainant:

Pier and Harbour Act Amendment.

(5.) In either Case, such Expenses shall be a Debt due to the Crown from the Company or from the Complainant (as the Case may be), and shall be recoverable as such, with Costs, or the same may be recovered with Costs as a Penalty is recoverable from the Company, or from any Person liable to a Penalty under the Provisional Order (as the Case may be).

Rates to be equally levied.

17. All Rates levied under any Provisional Order shall be charged equally to all Persons with respect to the same Description of Vessels and the same Description of Goods.

Mode of Recovery of Rates.

18. Without Prejudice to any other Remedy, the Undertakers may recover any Rates due in respect of a Vessel from the Owner or Master of such Vessel, and any Rates due in respect of Goods from the Owner or Consignee of such Goods, by Proceedings in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

General Provisions.

10 & 11 Vict.
c. 27. incorporated.

19. Subject to the Provisions of the Principal Act and this Act and any Provisional Order, The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, shall be deemed to be incorporated with every Provisional Order.

Water Pipes.

20. The Undertakers may grant or allow to any Persons the Right of laying down or constructing and maintaining Pipes or Channels for the Conveyance of Water to, on, and within the Pier or Harbour, and may demand and receive such Sums in consideration of such Grant or Allowance as they may think reasonable.

Application of Merchant Shipping Act,
&c.

21. The Undertaking authorized by any Provisional Order shall be subject to the Provisions of The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and of every General Act relating to Harbours or Dues on Shipping or on Goods carried in Ships, now in force or hereafter to be passed, and to any future Revision or Alteration under the Authority of Parliament of the Rates authorized by the Order.

Costs of the Order.

22. The Costs of and connected with the preparation and making of each Provisional Order shall be paid by the Promoters.

III.—PENDING APPLICATIONS FOR PROVISIONAL ORDERS.

Proceedings
under Section 9
of Principal
Act for fixing Schedule of Rates.

23. ' And whereas it was by the Principal Act (Section Nine) enacted, that in case the Promoters, or any Persons being the Owners or Proprietors of any Works, or any Persons having the Management of or Powers to construct any such Works under any Local Act of Parliament, or any Town Council of any Seaport Town not having any constituted Harbour Trust, should be desirous of levying any Rates for the Maintenance of such Works, or of altering the Schedule of Rates then leviable thereat, they should prepare a Schedule of such Rates which they might think reasonable and proper to be levied at such Works, and should publish such Schedule in a Newspaper as therein specified, and should also deposit a printed Copy of such Schedule at such Office as therein specified, and also

Pier and Harbour Act Amendment.

‘ transmit a Copy of such Schedule to the Board of Trade with such other Documents as therein specified, and that after such Proceedings and the Lapse of such Time as therein specified the Board of Trade should finally adjust and fix a Schedule of Rates, not exceeding the Rates specified in the Schedule to The Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853, and that thereupon the Board of Trade might by Provisional Order empower any of the Persons in the Section now in recital mentioned to levy Rates according to such Schedule :

‘ And whereas under the said recited Provision, Persons within the Description therein contained have prepared Schedules of Rates which they thought reasonable and proper to be levied, and have published, deposited, and transmitted the same in manner by the said recited Provision required, but the Board of Trade on proceeding to finally adjust and fix Schedules of Rates have in certain Cases found that the Schedules so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted comprise Rates in some Instances exceeding the Rates specified in the Schedule to The Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853, and in other Instances leviable in respect of Subjects not specified in the last-mentioned Schedule :

‘ And whereas in the several Cases aforesaid it is represented to the Board of Trade by the Promoters, and the Board of Trade have no Reason to doubt, that it is essential to the Success of the several Undertakings that an Opportunity should be given to the Promoters of obtaining the Sanction of Parliament to the several Schedules of Rates so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid, without reference to the Conformity of such Schedules with the Schedule to The Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853 :’ Be it therefore enacted as follows :

Where any Schedule of Rates has been prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid, and it appears to the Board of Trade to be expedient that the same, or the same as modified on any Objection taken under the Principal Act, should be authorized by a Provisional Order, it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade to finally adjust and fix a Schedule of Rates, not exceeding the Rates specified in the Schedule so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted, or so modified, and thereupon by Provisional Order to authorize the Levying and Recovery of Rates according to the Schedule so finally adjusted and fixed, notwithstanding that the same may in any respect differ from the Schedule to The Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853 : Provided, that it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, if in any Case they think fit, before finally adjusting and fixing any such Schedule, to require the Promoters to publish any further or other Notice relative to the proposed Schedule as the Board of Trade may direct.

24. The Provisions of the Principal Act described in Schedule (C.) to this Act shall be repealed with respect to any Application already made to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order.

Power to Board of Trade to authorize Schedule as published, though differing from Schedule referred to in Principal Act.

Provisions of Principal Act as in Schedule (C.) to this Act repealed.

Pier and Harbour Act Amendment.

IV.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Order not to be made affecting Powers under Local Acts without Consent.

25. The Board of Trade shall not make any Provisional Order taking away or abridging any Right, Privilege, Power, Jurisdiction, or Authority given or reserved to any Person or Corporation by any Local or Special Act of Parliament, without the Consent in Writing of such Person or Corporation; but, subject to this Restriction, and to the Provisions of the Principal Act and of this Act, every Provisional Order when duly confirmed by Parliament shall be of full Force and Effect, any Local or Special Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Power to Board of Trade to impose Terms, &c.

26. Every Provisional Order of the Board of Trade on any Application already made or to be hereafter made shall take effect subject and according to such Restrictions and Provisions and on such Terms and Conditions as may be therein specified, not being inconsistent with the Provisions of the Principal Act or this Act.

Application of 7 W. 4. & 1 Vict. c. 83. to Act.

27. The Provisions of the Act of the Session of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth and the First Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, "to compel Clerks of the Peace for Counties and other Persons to take the Custody of such Documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them" under the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament, shall (as far as may be) apply to all Cases of Deposit of Documents made or to be made with any Person under the Principal Act or this Act.

and the Transferee or Transferees thereof, be the Person or Persons entitled to the then current Half Year's Dividend thereon, and the Person or Persons to whom any Transfer shall be made after the Day of the closing of such Books, shall not be entitled to the then current Half Year's Dividend on such Stocks, Funds, and Annuities, but shall take and accept the same exclusive of the Right to the said Half Year's Dividend; provided that the Period for which such Books of Transfer shall be closed shall not exceed Fifteen Days.

C A P. XXII.

An Act to continue certain Duties of Customs and Inland Revenue for the Service of Her Majesty, and to grant, alter, and repeal certain other Duties. [3d June 1862.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses, and making an Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several Rates and Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Grant of Duties specified in Schedules annexed.

1. There shall be charged, collected, and paid for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the several Rates and Duties of Customs, Excise, Stamps, and Income Tax respectively specified and contained in the several Schedules marked respectively (A.), (B.), (C.), and (D.) to this Act annexed, and there shall be allowed the several Drawbacks specified and contained in the said Schedules (A.) and (B.); and the said Rates, Duties, and Drawbacks shall respectively take effect at or from the respective Times, and shall continue to be charged, collected, paid, and allowed for and during the Periods respectively specified or mentioned in that Behalf in this Act or in the said Schedules; and where no Time is so specified for the Commencement thereof, the same shall commence and take effect from and after the passing of this Act; and where no Period is so specified or limited for the Duration thereof, the same shall continue to be charged, collected, paid, and allowed respectively until Parliament shall otherwise order; and the said several Schedules shall be deemed to be Part of this Act.

Provisions of former Acts to apply to this Act.

2. All the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Allowances, and Exemptions, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, contained in or imposed by any Act or Acts or any Schedule thereto, relating to any Duties or Drawbacks of the same Kind or Description as the several Rates or Duties or Drawbacks granted and allowed by this Act respectively, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act and not hereby expressly repealed, or as regards the Income Tax in force on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall respectively be in full Force and Effect with respect to the said Rates, Duties, and Drawbacks by this Act granted respectively, so far as the same are or shall be applicable, in all Cases not hereby expressly provided for, and shall be observed, applied, allowed, enforced, and put in execution for and in the raising, levying, collecting, and securing of the said last-mentioned Rates and Duties and the Allowance and Payment of the said Drawbacks respectively, and otherwise in relation thereto, so far as the same shall not be superseded by and shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted, mutatis mutandis, with reference to the Rates, Duties, and Drawbacks by this Act granted respectively.

3. All Licences to Brewers of Beer to be granted under this Act shall expire on the Tenth Day of October in every Year, and shall be renewed yearly on Payment of the Duties chargeable for or in respect of such Licences respectively, according to the Provisions of this Act.

Licences to Brewers to expire on 10th
October.

4. Before any Licence shall be granted to any Brewer of Beer for Sale (other than a First Licence), such Brewer or his principal Servant under whose Direction or Inspection the Malt or Sugar herein-after mentioned shall have been brewed, shall make before a Justice of the Peace, or before the proper Collector of Excise, or any other Officer of Excise empowered to grant Licences (who are hereby respectively authorized to receive the same), a Declaration in Writing under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-two, setting forth a true and just Account of the Number of Bushels of Malt and of the Number of Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of Sugar respectively used by such Brewer in the brewing of Beer within the previous Year ending on the Tenth Day of October immediately preceding the Application for such Licence; and if such Declaration shall be false or untrue in any Particular, the Person making the same shall be subject to the Pains and Punishment prescribed by the said last-mentioned Act: Provided always, that in no Case shall a Licence be granted to any such Brewer of Beer upon Payment of any less Amount of Duty than shall appear to be due according to the Entries made in the Book or Paper delivered to such Brewer by the Officer of Excise for that Purpose.

obtaining License, to make Declaration under Provisions of 5 & 6 W. 4.
c. 62. of the Quantity of Malt and Sugar brewed during the previous Year.

5. Where the Amount of Duty chargeable upon any Licence to brew Beer for Sale shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, such Licence may, if required, be granted upon Payment only of a Moiety of the Duty so chargeable, and in such Case the other Moiety of such Duty shall be paid on the First Day of March next after the Commencement of the Year for which such Licence shall have been granted, or in default thereof the Licence shall thereupon cease and determine, and be no longer in force.

When Licence of Brewer of Beer for Sale exceeds 10l. it may be paid in Moieties.

Customs and Inland Revenue.

On the Death of a Brewer, or on the Business being discontinued before Expiration of Licence, a proportionate Part of the Duty may be returned.

6. If any Brewer of Beer for Sale shall die or become bankrupt, or shall discontinue the Trade and Business of a Brewer of Beer for Sale at any Time before the Expiration of his current Licence, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to ascertain by such Means as they shall think fit, the Quantity of Malt and Sugar which such Brewer shall have used in the brewing of Beer in the Portion of the Year during which he shall have carried on Business under such Licence, and the Amount of Duty which would be payable for a Licence in respect of the Number of Barrels of Beer brewed from such Malt and Sugar, according to the Provisions of this Act; and if the Amount of Duty so ascertained shall be less than the Sum paid by such Brewer for his current Licence, the Commissioners shall cause the Difference to be repaid to such Brewer, or to the Executors or Assignees of any Brewer who shall die or become bankrupt.

When the Quantity of Beer brewed in any Year shall be less than the Quantity for which the Licence was granted, the Difference shall be repaid to the Brewer; if the Quantity be greater he shall be surcharged.

7. If upon the Termination of any Licence granted to a Brewer of Beer for Sale it shall appear that the Number of Barrels of Beer brewed by such Brewer during the Existence of such Licence, computed according to the Provisions in the Seventh Section of the Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-one, is less than the Number of Barrels in respect of which the Duty upon such Licence was charged, the Difference between the Amount of Duty that would have been payable for a Licence for the lesser Number of Barrels of Beer brewed and the Amount actually paid for the Licence shall be repaid to the Brewer, his Executors or Administrators; and if it shall appear that the Number of Barrels of Beer, computed as aforesaid, brewed during such Period, shall be greater than the Number in respect of which the Licence was granted, the Brewer, or his Executors or Administrators, shall be surcharged with such additional Amount of Duty as, with the Sum actually paid for such Licence, shall amount to the Sum payable according to the Rates of Duty imposed by this Act upon the Number of Barrels of Beer brewed as aforesaid by such Brewer; and such additional Amount of Duty shall be paid by such Brewer, his Executors or Administrators, within Seven Days after he or they shall have had Notice to pay the same.

Surcharge upon a Brewer's First Licence to become payable immediately upon Death or Bankruptcy of the Brewer.

8. If any Person who shall have taken out a Licence as a Brewer of Beer for Sale for the First Time shall die, or become bankrupt, or discontinue the Business of a Brewer of Beer at any Time before the Expiration of such Licence, the further additional Sum which shall be chargeable under this Act in respect of such Licence shall become due and payable immediately thereupon, and shall be a Debt due to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and be recoverable accordingly; and in the Case of any such Brewer who shall discontinue Business as aforesaid, Payment of such additional Sum may be demanded either verbally of such Brewer, or by Writing left at the Brewery, by the Supervisor of Excise of the District in which the Brewery shall be situated; and if the same shall not be paid within Three Days next after such Demand shall have been made, the Brewer shall forfeit a Penalty of double the Amount thereof; and in all the foregoing Cases the Stock of Beer, Malt, and Hops, and the Utensils and Machinery upon the Brewery Premises at the Time of such Death, Bankruptcy, or Discontinuance of Business, shall be and remain liable for the Payment of the said Sum of Money or Penalty, and are hereby made chargeable therewith, notwithstanding any Title or Conveyance by which they may be claimed.

9. Provided always, That Brewers of Beer known as Spruce or Black Beer, for Sale, shall continue to pay for their Licences only the same Rates of Duty as are imposed by the Act passed in the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-one, on Brewers of Beer other than Table Beer only, for Sale; provided that any such Brewer shall not brew on the same Premises Beer of any other Description than Spruce or Black Beer, nor use in the brewing of the same, or add thereto, any Hops or other Bitter, or any Yeast or other Matter to produce Fermentation, and shall not brew, or sell or send out, any of such Beer of a less Specific Gravity than One thousand one hundred and eighty Degrees.

Brewers of Black Beer to continue to pay the Duties imposed by 6 G. 4. c. 81.

10. If any Brewer of Beer for Sale shall omit to take out a proper Licence in that Behalf under this Act, he shall nevertheless be chargeable with the full Amount of the Duty payable or which would become payable under this Act for or in respect of the Licence which he ought to have taken out, and such Duty shall be a Debt to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and shall be recoverable accordingly.

Brewers omitting to take out Licence liable to Duty.

11. If any Person shall brew any Beer for the Use of any other Person at any Place other than the Premises of the Person for whose Use the Beer shall be brewed, the Person brewing such Beer shall be deemed to be a Brewer of Beer for Sale, and shall be liable to take out a Licence accordingly.

Persons brewing for others deemed Brewers for Sale.

12. So much of any Act as permits the Sale of Beer, Spirits, or Wine at Fairs or Races without an Excise Licence shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

As to Sale of Beer at Fairs, &c.

13. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, whenever they shall consider it conducive to Public Convenience, Comfort, and Order, and with the Consents in Writing of Two Justices of the Peace usually acting at the Petty Sessions for the Petty Sessional Division within which the Place of Sale is situate, to authorize any Officer of Excise to grant to any Person who shall be duly authorized to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, and who shall have taken out the proper Excise Licences to sell therein Beer, Spirits, Wine, or Tobacco, an occasional Licence under this Act empowering him to sell the like Articles for which he shall have taken out such Licences as aforesaid at any such other Place, and for and during such Space or Period of Time, not exceeding Three consecutive Days at any one Time, as the said Commissioners shall approve, and as shall be specified in such occasional Licence; and any Person who shall have taken out such occasional Licence shall not be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture whatever by reason or on account of his selling the Articles mentioned in the Occasional Licence may be granted to Victuallers to sell Beer, Spirits, &c., at such Time and Place as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall approve.

C A P. XXV.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders under the Local Government Act, 1858, relating to the Districts of Hanley, Stroud, Ilfracombe, Longton, Halifax, Ipswich, and Sandown. [30th June 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the Secretary of State for the Home Department, being One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the Provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858, duly made certain Provisional Orders, which are contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and it is provided by the aforesaid Local Government Act that no such Orders shall be of any Validity whatever until they shall have been confirmed by Parliament ; and it is expedient that the said Orders should be so confirmed, and further Provision made in relation thereto :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

L. The Provisional Orders contained in the Schedule hereto annexed shall from and after the passing of this Act be absolute, and be as binding and of the like Force and Effect as if the Provisions of the same had been expressly enacted in this Act.

Provisional
Orders in Schedule confirmed.

2. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with the Local Government Act, 1858, and shall be as if this Act and the said Local Government Act were One Act.

This Act incorporated with
21 & 22 Vict.
c. 98.

3. In citing this Act in any other Act, or in any Proceeding, Instrument, or Document whatsoever, it shall be sufficient to use the Words and Figures, “The Local Government Supplemental Act, 1862.”

Short Title.

Local Government Supplemental.

SCHEDULE of Provisional Orders referred to in the preceding Act.

1. HANLEY.—Transferring the Powers and Property of the Hanley Market Trustees to the Hanley Local Board.
2. STROUD.—Extending the Borrowing Powers of the Stroud Local Board of Health.
3. ILFRACOMBE.—Extending the Borrowing Powers of the Ilfracombe Local Board of Health.
4. LONGTON.—Putting in force the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, for the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement for Market Improvements.
5. HALIFAX.—Putting in force the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, for the Purchase of Land by the Halifax Local Board of Health for Street Improvements.
6. IPSWICH.—Putting in force the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, for the Purchase of Land by the Ipswich Local Board of Health for Street Improvements.
7. SANDOWN.—Repealing a Local Act in force within the District of the Sandown Local Board.

HANLEY.

Provisional Order for the Transfer of the Powers and Property of the Hanley Market Trustees to the Hanley Local Board.—Local Government Act, 1858.

Whereas the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Hanley, in the County of Stafford, and whereas the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, acting as the Local Board within such Borough, under the provisions of the 77th section of the said Act, presented a Petition to the Right Honourable Sir George Cornewall Lewis, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, praying that such provision may be made for the future execution, by the aforesaid Local Board, of a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the District of such Borough, and intituled "An Act for establishing and regulating the Market, and for enlarging and improving the Market Place at Hanley, in the County of Stafford" (53 Geo. 3. c. cxv.), that the powers and property now held and possessed by the Trustees under the aforesaid Local Market Act may be transferred to, and vested in, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, acting as such Local Board under the herein-before recited Local Government Act, 1858.

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Local Government Act, inquiry has been directed in the said District in respect of the matters mentioned in the said Petition, and report has been made thereon to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, by William Ranger, Esquire, the Inspector appointed for the purpose.

And whereas it appears expedient to issue a Provisional Order in relation to the said matters, but no such Order can be valid without confirmation by Parliament.

Local Government Supplemental.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the said Local Government Act, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do, by this Provisional Order, under my hand, direct,—

That, from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order—

- 1.—The powers, rights, authorities, duties, and liabilities of the Trustees for the time being, acting in execution of the aforesaid Local Market Act of the 53 Geo. 3. c. cxv. (“for establishing and regulating the Market, and for enlarging and improving the Market Place at Hanley, in the County of Stafford”) shall cease; and the said powers, rights, authorities, duties, and liabilities shall be transferred to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses acting as such Local Board for the said Borough of Hanley, and the officers and servants of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised as if they had been granted or imposed by the said Local Government Act, 1858.
- 2.—All property and estate of the Trustees acting in the execution of the said Local Act shall be transferred to and become vested in the said Local Board, and shall, as near as circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board, except as herein-after provided, upon the same trusts, and for the same purposes, and with the same rights, powers, and privileges, as by such Trustees.
- 3.—All debts, monies, and securities for money contracted or payable or to become payable by such Trustees, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such parts of the said transferred property and estate as would have been chargeable therewith, if this Order had not been made; and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board, as by such Trustees.
- 4.—Provided always, that if such property and estate be insufficient for that purpose, the deficiency shall be charged upon the rates leviable under the said Local Government Act, 1858, within the district of the said Local Board.
- 5.—Provided also, that if such property and estate be more than sufficient, any surplus that may accrue shall be primarily applicable in or towards a Cattle Market and Slaughterhouses, if deemed expedient, and such increased Market Accommodation as may from Time to Time appear advisable. Provided also, that no part of the said surplus shall be applicable in or towards Expenses of Sewerage, or of ordinary Highway Repairs, except within the limits of the Market Place, or the approaches adjacent thereto.
- 6.—All expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board under the said Local Act, and which shall not be defrayed out of monies arising under such Local Act,

Local Government Supplemental.

Act, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by such Board under the Local Government Act, and shall be defrayed out of the rates under that Act (as the nature of the case may require); and the monies necessary to be raised for the purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Local Government Act.

Given under my hand this Twenty-sixth day of April 1862.

STROUD.

Provisional Order for extending the Borrowing Powers of the Stroud Local Board of Health.—Local Government Act, 1858.

Whereas the Public Health Act, 1848, has been duly applied to the area comprised within the boundaries of the Town of Stroud, in the County of Gloucester, as defined in the second section of the Local Act of 6 Geo. 4. c. 6.; and, under the provisions of the Public Health Supplemental Act, 1857, 20 Vict. cap. 3., the Commissioners for the time being acting in execution of the said Local Act "for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, regulating, and improving the Town of Stroud, in the county of Gloucester," were appointed the Local Board of Health under the said Public Health Act.

And whereas the powers, authorities, and duties of the said Commissioners ceased from and after the passing of the aforesaid Public Health Supplemental Act, 1857, and were transferred to the said Local Board of Health, to be exercised as if they had been granted or imposed by the said Public Health Act; and all property and estate of the Commissioners acting in the execution of the said Local Act were also transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and all debts, monies, and securities for money contracted or payable, or to become payable by such Commissioners, were thenceforth to be satisfied by the said Local Board.

And whereas the said Commissioners had duly raised under the authority of their Local Act, sums of which Two thousand nine hundred pounds still remain due and payable; and the said Local Board of Health have since the passing of the aforesaid Public Health Supplemental Act, 1857, received sanction under the Local Government Act, 1858, and the Public Health Act, 1848, to borrow upon security of the rates of the aforesaid District of Stroud, sums amounting in the whole to thirteen thousand five hundred pounds to defray the expense of Works for the Drainage of and Supply of Water to the said District, and other works of a permanent nature under the aforesaid Acts; and whereas a further sum of One thousand six hundred pounds will be required to carry out and complete the said works and to carry out other works of a permanent nature, but such further sum, with the first herein-before mentioned sums, will exceed the assessable value for one year of the premises assessable under the said Acts within such District.

And whereas the said Board have now, under the authority of the 78th Section of the Local Government Act, 1858, petitioned me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for powers to borrow for such works on mortgage of the rates leviable by the aforesaid Local Board of Health under the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, and the Local Government Act, 1858, a sum not exceeding One thousand six hundred pounds beyond the sums herein-before mentioned, and making altogether an amount not exceeding Eighteen thousand pounds.

Local Government Supplemental.

And whereas after due inquiry and report by Robert Rawlinson, Esquire, the Inspector appointed by me for the purpose, I am of opinion that the prayer of such Petition should be granted; but the same cannot be done without the consent of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power now vested in me as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as aforesaid, I do hereby, by this Provisional Order, under my Hand, direct as follows:—

That, from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order,—

- 1.—The Local Board of Health for the District of Stroud in the county of Gloucester shall have power and authority to borrow, for the execution and completion of the aforesaid works of a permanent nature within such District, and on mortgage of the rates leviable by them under the aforesaid Acts, any sum or sums which, together with the sums already sanctioned to be borrowed by the Local Board aforesaid, shall not exceed in the whole the sum of Eighteen thousand pounds; and to reborrow on mortgage of the said rates the whole or any part of the several aforesaid sums amounting in the whole to not more than Eighteen thousand pounds, the said sums to be repaid, with interest thereon, within a period of fifty years from the date of the borrowing or reborrowing thereof.

Given under my hand this Twenty-fourth day of March 1862.

(Signed) G. GREY.

ILFRACOMBE.

Provisional Order for extending the Borrowing Powers of the Ilfracombe Local Board of Health.—Local Government Act, 1858.

Whereas the Public Health Act, 1848, has been duly applied to the Parish of Ilfracombe in the County of Devon.

And whereas the Local Board of Health for the District of Ilfracombe so constituted have duly borrowed, under the Provisions of that Act and of the Local Government Act, 1858, sums, amounting in the whole to Thirteen thousand Pounds, to defray the expense of Works for the Drainage of and Supply of Water to the said District, and other works of a permanent nature under the aforesaid Acts; and whereas a further sum will be required to carry out and complete the said works and to carry out other works of a permanent nature, but such further sum, with the first herein-before mentioned sum, will exceed the assessable value for one year of the premises assessable under the said Acts within such District.

And whereas the said Board have now, under the authority of the 78th Section of the Local Government Act, 1858, petitioned me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for powers to borrow for such works, on mortgage of the rates leviable by the aforesaid Local Board of Health under the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, and the Local Government Act, 1858, a sum or sums which, with the amount already borrowed, shall not exceed in the whole one and a half years' assessable value of the premises assessable within the District in respect of which such sum or sums may be borrowed.

And whereas after due inquiry and report by William Ranger, Esquire, the Inspector appointed by me for the purpose, I am of opinion that the prayer of such Petition should be granted; but the same cannot be done without the consent of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power now vested in me as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as aforesaid, I do hereby, by this Provisional Order, under my Hand, direct as follows:—

That, from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order,—

- 1.—The Local Board of Health for the District of Ilfracombe in the county of Devon shall have power and authority to borrow or reborrow, for the execution and completion of the aforesaid works of a permanent nature within such District, and on mortgage of the rates leviable by them under the aforesaid Acts, a sum or sums which together with the sums already sanctioned to be borrowed by the Local Board aforesaid, shall not exceed in the whole one and a half years' assessable value of the premises assessable under such Acts within the aforesaid District; the several aforesaid sums to be repaid, with interest thereon, within a period of fifty years from the date of the borrowing thereof.

Given under my hand this Twenty-fourth day of March 1862.

(Signed) G. GREY.

LONGTON.

Provisional Order putting in force the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, within the District of the Longton Local Board, for the Purchase of Land by the said Board for Market Improvements.— Local Government Act, 1858.

Whereas portions of the Local Government Act, 1858, have been duly adopted by the Longton Board of Commissioners, acting under and by virtue of an Act intituled "An Act for establishing an effective Police in Places within or adjoining to the District called the Staffordshire Potteries, and for improving and cleansing the same, and better lighting Parts thereof;" and whereas the said portions of the aforesaid Local Government Act, 1858, have now the force of law within the district of Longton aforesaid; and whereas the said Longton Board of Commissioners as Local Board under such Act, have, in pursuance of the Provisions of the 75th Section of the Local Government Act, 1858, duly adopted by them as aforesaid, and after complying with the requirements of that Section by duly giving and serving all notices thereby directed, presented a Petition to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for authority to put in force the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to enable the aforesaid Local Board to purchase a certain piece of land and certain buildings for the purpose of improving the market-place situate within their District.

Local Government Supplemental.

And whereas the said Petition duly set forth the pieces of land and the buildings intended to be taken by such Board for such purpose, and the names of the owner, lessee, and occupier of the aforesaid land and buildings who have assented, dissented, and are neuter in respect of the taking thereof, or who have returned no answer to the notice issued by such Board; and such Petition prayed that the said Board might with reference to such lands and buildings, be allowed to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act aforesaid, with respect to the purchase and taking of land otherwise than by agreement; and on the receipt of such Petition, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department directed William Ranger, Esquire, the Inspector appointed for the purpose, to visit the said District, and the said Inspector has now inquired in the District aforesaid into the subject matter of such Petition, and has duly reported thereon.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the Local Government Act, 1858, make Order and direct,—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

SANDOWN.

Provisional Order repealing a Local Act in force within the District of the Sandown Local Board.—Local Government Act, 1858.

Whereas the Local Board for the District of Sandown, in the Isle of Wight, in which District the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted, have, in pursuance of the said Act, presented a Petition to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, praying for the repeal of a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the Isle of Wight aforesaid, so far as such Act affects the said District of Sandown, the said Act having relation to the purposes of the said Local Government Act, and not conferring powers or privileges upon any corporation, company, undertakers, or individuals for their own pecuniary benefit; that is to say,

An Act passed in the Fifty-third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending the Roads and Highways in the Isle of Wight."

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Local Government Act, inquiry has been made in the said District in respect of the several matters mentioned in the said Petition.

And whereas it appears expedient to issue a Provisional Order in relation to the said matters, but no such order can be valid without the confirmation of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the said Local Government Act, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State do, by this Provisional Order, under my hand, direct that from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order—

- 1.—The said Local Act shall be repealed so far as such Act affects the District of the aforesaid Local Board of Sandown.

Given under my Hand this Twenty-ninth day of April 1862.

C A P. XXVI.

An Act to extend the Power of making Statutes possessed by the University of Oxford, and to make further Provision for the Administration of Justice in the Court of the Chancellor of the said University. [30th June 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the Powers of making Statutes possessed by the University of Oxford, and to make further Provision for the Administration of Justice in the Court of the Chancellor of the said University: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. The University of Oxford may make Statutes for the Regulation of the Professorships specified in the Schedule annexed hereto in respect of the following Matters; that is to say,

1. The Functions and Duties of each of the Professors holding the said Professorships:
2. The Fees, if any, to be charged for Admittance to the Lectures of each Professor:
3. The Determination of the Periods during which each Professor is to reside in the University; the Authority in whom a Power of granting Leave of Absence is to be vested, and the Mode of enforcing the required Residence:

Power to University to make Regulations as to Professorships named in Schedule.

Oxford University.

4. The Appointment of a temporary Substitute for each Professor, in case of his Illness or temporary Absence with Leave, and of a permanent Substitute in case of his being permanently incapacitated by old Age or Infirmity :
5. The Remuneration of any such temporary or permanent Substitute out of the Income of the Professor in whose Place he is substituted :
6. The Constitution of a Court or other Authority empowered to admonish and, if necessary, remove a Professor guilty of notable Negligence or Inefficiency in conducting the Duties of his Office, or of Immorality.

Power of University as to Professorships in Schedule.

2. The University may by Statute determine in respect of each of the Professorships specified in the said Schedule (other than the Professorship of Political Economy and the Sherard Professorship of Botany) how and by whom upon the Occasion of the next or any subsequent Avoidance of such Professorship the Professor is to be elected, and in the Case of the Sherard Professorship of Botany therein named the Professor shall be appointed by the President and Council for the Time being of the Royal College of Physicians of London; and the said University may, with Consent of the said President and Council of the College of Physicians, vary and define the Qualifications of Candidates for Election to the said Sherard Professorship.

Suppression of certain Professorships.

3. If at any Time hereafter a new Professorship of Political Economy, Chemistry, Geology, or Mineralogy is established in the University of Oxford, it shall be lawful for the University by Statute to suppress the existing Professorship of that Science for which Provision is made by a new Professorship, and after the Suppression of any Professorship authorized to be suppressed by this Section the annual Sum now payable by the University as a Salary to the Professor holding the suppressed Professorship shall be applied in promoting and assisting, by the Purchase of Materials or Apparatus, by the Support of Assistant Teachers, or by such other Means as the University may by Statute determine, the Study and Cultivation in the University of the Science which forms the Subject Matter of the suppressed Professorship : Provided that if the Professorship of Mineralogy is suppressed the annual Sum thereby rendered disposable may, if it be thought fit, be applied in manner aforesaid to the Promotion of the Study of Geology or any Branch thereof, and if the Professorship of Geology be suppressed the annual Sum may, if it be thought fit, be applied to the Promotion of the Study of Mineralogy or any Branch thereof.

Extension of Power of suppressing Professorships.

4. The Power hereby given to the University of suppressing any of the said Professorships of Political Economy, Chemistry, Geology, or Mineralogy may be exercised although the new Professorship substituted for any suppressed Professorship is a Professorship attached to a College, and established under a Statute of such College now in force, if the Functions and Duties of such new Professorship are subject to Regulation by the University, and are not confined to the Instruction of Members of the College.

Oxford University.

5. The Election or Appointment of any Person who may be hereafter elected or appointed to any of the said Professorships of Political Economy, Chemistry, Geology, and Mineralogy may, if it be thought fit, be declared by Statute of the University to be subject to the Operation of any Statute for the Suppression of the Professorship that may afterwards be made or come into operation.

Conditions may be annexed to certain Professorships.

6. The University may vary by Statute the Directions, Trusts, or Regulations relating to the Kennicott Scholarships, and to the Johnson Scholarships, and to the Denyer Theological Prizes, with a view of promoting the Study of Theology, Hebrew, and Mathematics respectively, and may for that Purpose, if it be deemed advisable, convert the Denyer Theological Prizes into a Theological Scholarship or Scholarships.

Variation of the Trusts of certain Scholarships.

7. Every Statute passed by the University by virtue of this Act shall with all convenient Speed after the passing thereof be laid before Her Majesty in Council, and forthwith published in the London Gazette, and any Person or Body Corporate affected thereby may within a Month after the Publication thereof petition Her Majesty in Council against the same or any Part thereof, and every such Petition shall be referred by Her Majesty by Order in Council for the Consideration and Advice of Five Members of Her Privy Council, of whom Two, not including the Lord President, shall be Members of the Judicial Committee, and such Five Members may, if they think fit, admit any Petitioner to be heard by Counsel in support of his Petition; and if, no such Petition having been presented, or if after any Petition so presented has been referred and considered, such Five Members of the Privy Council, or the major Part thereof, shall report to Her Majesty their Opinion that such Statute should be approved with or without Modifications, the said Statute or modified Statute shall be forthwith laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not, then within Three Weeks after the Commencement of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament, and unless an Address be within Forty Days presented by one or other of the said Houses, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Consent from such Statute or modified Statute, or any Part thereof, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She think fit, to declare by Order in Council Her Approbation of the Statute or modified Statute, and the same shall thereupon become a Statute of the University of Oxford, notwithstanding any Act of Parliament, Decree or Order, Decree or Instrument of Foundation or Endowment; and if the Statute or any Part thereof is not so approved by Her Majesty, the University may frame and pass another Statute in the Matter, and so on from Time to Time as often as Occasion requires.

Approbation of Statutes by Her Majesty in Council.

8. Every Statute made by the University by virtue of this Act shall be subject to Alteration or Repeal by the University, with the Approval of Her Majesty in Council.

Power of altering Statutes.

9. Every Statute of the University made in pursuance of the said Act of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Eighty-one, and intitled An Act

Saving of Rights.

10. This Act shall not be construed to take away or affect any Power of making Statutes or Regulations now possessed by the University or by any College therein, nor shall it prejudice or affect any Interest vested in any Member of the University previously to the passing of this Act.

Interpretation of Terms.

11. In the Construction of this Act the Words "Professor" and "Professorship" respectively shall include Public Readers and Prælectors, and their several Offices.

Power to Vice Chancellor to make Rules for Regulation of his Court.

12. Section Forty-five of the said Act of the Session of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her present Majesty shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof be it enacted, That the Vice Chancellor of the said University may from Time to Time, with the Approval of any Three of the Judges of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, make Rules for regulating the Practice and Forms of Procedure in all Proceedings within the Jurisdiction of the Court of the Chancellor of the said University commonly called the Vice Chancellor's Court, and may from Time to Time, with the like Approval, annul, alter, or add to any such Rules.

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. That notwithstanding anything in the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-one, to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to make Loans to any Owner of Land in Ireland under the Provisions and for the Purposes of the said recited Acts or any of them, of any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Three thousand Pounds to any One Owner, in addition to and over and above any Sum or Sums of Money which the said Commissioners of Public Works may have heretofore advanced or are authorized to advance under the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Acts or any of them.

Power to Commissioners of Public Works to make additional Loans.

2. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall affect, lessen, or abridge the Power of the said Commissioners of Public Works to advance Money for the Erection of Dwellings for the Labouring Classes in Ireland, to the Amount specified in and by the said Act of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-four, as if this Act had not passed.

Power of Commissioners to make Loans by 24 & 25 Vict. c. 34. not affected.

3. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works to fix for the Completion of any Works for which Loans may be made under the said recited Acts and this Act such Period, and from Time to Time such further Period within Seven Years from the Date of the first Advance of any Loan under the said recited Acts or this Act, as the said Commissioners may think fit.

Time for Completion of Works extended.

4. This Act and the said recited Acts shall be construed together as One Act.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act for vesting in Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department the Lands of the Royal Military College at Sandhurst, and for completing certain Exchanges of Lands now or late of the said College.

[7th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the Royal Military College at Sandhurst in ‘ the County of Berks is regulated by a Warrant under ‘ the Sign Manual of King George the Third, dated the Twenty-‘ seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and eight,
 ‘ and it is provided by the Regulations established by such War‘ rant that the Lands and Property belonging to the said College ‘ shall be under the Care of the Governor and the Collegiate ‘ Board thereby constituted, subject to the Directions of the ‘ Board of Commissioners thereby also constituted: And whereas ‘ Parts of the Lands belonging to the said College, and situate ‘ respectively in the Parish of Sandhurst in the County of Berks,
 ‘ and the Parish of Ash in the County of Surrey, are vested in ‘ Her Majesty, and other Parts thereof were, on the Acquisition ‘ thereof for the Purposes of the said College, conveyed in trust
 ‘ for Her Majesty to certain of the Commissioners of the said ‘ College, or otherwise to Persons having no corporate Capacity,
 ‘ and have devolved upon the Heir-at-Law of the Person to whom ‘ such Lands were conveyed, or of the last Survivor of such ‘ Persons (where more than One), and it is impossible or difficult ‘ to ascertain who is such Heir-at-Law in each Case: And ‘ whereas Portions of the Lands formerly belonging to the said ‘ College were respectively in or about the Years One thousand ‘ eight hundred and seventeen and One thousand eight hundred ‘ and twenty exchanged for Lands belonging to the Crown as ‘ Part of the Hereditary Possessions thereof, but the Exchanges
 ‘ of such Lands have not been duly completed, and it is ex‘ pedient that the same should be confirmed and made effectual:
 ‘ And whereas it is expedient that all Lands belonging to the ‘ said College should be vested in Her Majesty's Principal ‘ Secretary of State for the War Department, subject neverthe‘ less to the said Royal Warrant or such other Royal Warrant ‘ as for the Time being may be in force in relation thereto: And ‘ whereas a Map or Plan of all the said Lands has been made and ‘ signed in duplicate by the Governor of the said College and by ‘ One of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests,
 ‘ and Land Revenues, and upon such Map or Plan are distin‘ guished by a Red Edging the Lands now holden by or belonging ‘ to the said College, and by a Yellow Edging the Lands now ‘ holden by or belonging to the Crown, respectively, under the Sandhurst Vesting.

‘ said Exchanges : And whereas One of the Duplicates of the ‘ said Map or Plan has been or is about to be deposited with ‘ Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the War De‘ partment, and the other Duplicate has been or is about to be ‘ deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrol‘ ments :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent
 Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Lands described or delineated on the said Map or Plan, and surrounded thereon by a Red Edging, shall, upon the passing of this Act, become and be vested in Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the War Department on behalf of Her Majesty for all the Estate and Interest now vested in Her Majesty, or any Person or Persons in trust for Her Majesty, subject nevertheless to the said Royal Warrant, or such other Royal Warrant (if any) as for the Time being may be in force in relation thereto.

Upon passing of this Act Lands of the Royal Military College to vest in Secretary for War.

2. The Lands described or delineated on the said Map or Plan, and surrounded thereon by a Yellow Edging, shall, upon the passing of this Act, become and be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as Part of the Hereditary Possessions of the Crown.

Certain Lands on passing of this Act to vest in the Crown.

3. ‘ And whereas the Lands coloured Green and Brown respectively on the said Map or Plan, were in or about the Years
 ‘ One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight and One thousand ‘ eight hundred and fifty-three conveyed or expressed to be ‘ conveyed to Her Majesty’s Commissioners for building new ‘ Churches by the Persons therein named and therein described ‘ as the Principal Officers of the said College, with the Consent
 ‘ and Approbation of Three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s ‘ Treasury : And whereas it is expedient that such Conveyances ‘ should be confirmed :’

Conveyances of certain Land to the Church Building Commissioners confirmed.

The said Conveyances shall be deemed to have been valid and effectual to vest the Lands thereby expressed to be conveyed in the said Commissioners and their Successors, according to the Intent thereof.

4. Nothing in this Act shall affect or prejudice any Estates, Rights, or Interests of any Person or Persons whomsoever other than the Estates, Rights, and Interests of or to which Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or any of them, are or but for the passing of this Act might be seised, possessed, or entitled, or of or to which any other Person or Persons are or but for the passing of this Act might be seised, possessed, or entitled in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or any of them.

Saving of Rights to those herein named.

5. In the Construction of this Act, the Style or Title “ Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the War Department ” shall mean Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the Time being to whom Her Majesty shall think fit to intrust the Seals of the War Department, and the Word “ Person ” shall include a “ Corporation.”

Interpretation of Terms.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for the Discontinuance of Portsmouth Fair in the County of Southampton. [7th July 1862.]

Charter dated
29th June
1716.

WHEREAS under a Charter dated the Twenty-ninth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, a Fair for selling Cattle and Merchandise, known as Portsmouth Fair, has for many Years past been annually held in the Month of July on certain Land within the Manor of Widley in the County of Southampton belonging to Thomas Thistlethwayte Esquire, of Southwick House in the said County, who is, in accordance with the said Charter, entitled to the Franchise of holding the said Fair and of receiving Tolls in respect thereof: And whereas in pursuance of "The Defence Act, 1860," Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department (with the Consent of the said Thomas Thistlethwayte) entered into possession of the Land on which the said Fair was holden, and is using the same for the Construction of the Works authorized by the said Act: And whereas Compensation has been or is about to be awarded to the said Thomas Thistlethwayte in respect of the said Land and of the Franchise of holding the said Fair and receiving the said Tolls: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether the said Fair is abolished by the said Defence Act, and it is expedient (the said Thomas Thistlethwayte assenting thereto) that such Doubts should be removed: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

On passing of this Act Portsmouth Fair, and the Right to receive Tolls, to cease.

1. From and after the passing of this Act, the Fair called Portsmouth Fair, held under the said Charter in the Manor of Widley in the County of Southampton, for the selling of all and all Manner of Beasts and Cattle, and of all Manner of Goods, Wares, and Merchandises commonly in Fairs bought and sold, and the Franchise of holding the same and of receiving Tolls in respect thereof, shall absolutely cease, and no Persons shall have any Right to resort to or continue on the Land on which the same Fair has hitherto been held for any Purpose connected with the said Fair, or in pursuance of any Charter, Custom, or Right relating to such Fair.

Notice of this Act to be given by Advertisement.

2. The said Principal Secretary shall cause due Notice of this Act to be given by Advertisement in the London Gazette and in One or more local Newspaper or Newspapers circulating in the said County of Southampton, and by causing a Notice thereof to be placed on the outer Door of the Town Hall within the Borough of Portsmouth.

Nothing to affect Right of Thos. Thistle-

3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prejudice or affect the Right of the said Thomas Thistlethwayte to receive Compensation

C A P. XXXV.

An Act to amend the Acts for the Regulation of Public Houses in Scotland. [7th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the granting of Certificates by Justices of the Peace and Magistrates, authorizing Persons to keep Common Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses in Scotland, in which Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, and other Exciseable Liquors may be sold by Retail under Excise Licences, and for the better Regulation of such Houses, and for the Prevention of such Houses being kept without such Certificate; and another Act was passed in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Public Houses in Scotland: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Acts, and to make Provision for more effectually preventing the Sale of Exciseable Liquors without Certificate and Licence, and for other Purposes relating thereto: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Magistrates of Burghs shall meet for granting and renewing Certificates for the Sale of Exciseable Liquors within the Bounds of such Burghs upon the Second Tuesday of April and the Third Tuesday in October in each Year, and the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties or Districts shall meet for granting and renewing Certificates for the Sale of Exciseable Liquors within such several Counties or Districts on the Third Tuesday of April and the last Tuesday of October in each Year; and it shall be lawful for such Magistrates and Justices respectively to adjourn such Meetings from Time to Time, as they shall think fit, during the Period of One Month next after the Day of their First Meeting, but no longer.

2. The Forms of Certificates contained in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed shall come in place of the Forms of Certificates provided by the recited Acts or either of them; and it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, or the Magistrates of any Burgh, where they shall deem it inexpedient to grant to any Person a Certificate in the Form applied for, to grant him a Certificate in any other of the Forms contained in the said Schedule: Provided always, that in any particular Locality within any County or District or Burgh requiring other Hours for opening and closing Inns and Hotels and Public Houses than those specified in the Forms of Certificates in said Schedule applicable thereto, it shall be lawful for such Justices or Magistrates respectively to insert in such Certificates such other Hours, not being earlier than Six of the Clock or later than Eight of the Clock in the Morning for opening, or earlier than Nine of the Clock or later than Eleven of the Clock in the Evening for closing the same, as they shall think fit : And the Penalties and Forfeitures provided by the recited Acts, or either of them, for Breaches of or Offences against the Terms, Provisions, and Conditions of Certificates, shall apply to Breaches of or Offences against the Terms, Provisions, and Conditions of Certificates granted under this Act.

Penalties for Breaches of Certificate.

Certificates for the Sale of Spirits and Wine, to include Authority to sell Porter, Ale, Beer, &c.

3. Every Certificate to be hereafter granted for the Sale by Retail in any House or Premises of Spirits or Wine shall include an Authority for the Sale by Retail in such House or Premises of Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, and Perry, and such Certificate shall have the Effect of enabling the Party in favour of whom the same shall have been granted to obtain any Licence or Licences for such Purposes : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to prevent the Justices or Magistrates from granting a Certificate in any of the Forms in the said Schedule contained for the Sale by Retail of Wine, Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, or Perry, or of Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, or Perry only.

Certificates granted contrary to this Act void.

4. If any Certificate shall be granted contrary to the Terms and Provisions of this Act the same shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

Licences not to be granted without a Certificate obtained under this Act.

5. No Licence for the Sale of Spirits, Wine, Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, or other Exciseable Liquors by Retail, whether to be drunk or consumed on the Premises of the Person licensed or not, shall be granted by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or by any Officer of Inland Revenue, to any Person in Scotland who shall not produce to the said Commissioners or Officer a Certificate granted in Terms of this Act, enabling the Party to obtain such Licence, and every Licence which shall be granted contrary to the Terms of this Act shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

Chief Magistrate or Justices on special Occasions may grant Permission to keep Houses, &c. open during particular Times.

6. On a Representation being made to the Chief Magistrate, or failing him the Two Senior Acting Magistrates of any Burgh, or to any Two Justices of the Peace of any County respectively by any Person holding a Certificate for keeping an Inn and Hotel or Public House, and duly licensed to sell Exciseable Liquors to be consumed on the Premises, that it is intended that any public or special Entertainment shall take place therein, or in any other Place or Premises situated within the respective Jurisdictions of such Chief Magistrate or Magistrates or Justices, during any particular Time, such Chief Magistrate or Magistrates or Justices, as the Case may be, may, if he or they shall think fit, and on being satisfied that such Inn and Hotel, or Public House, Place, or Premises possesses the necessary Accommodation, and that the Entertainment is for a public or special Occasion of a legitimate and proper Character, and not originating directly or indirectly with the Person holding such Certificate, grant such Person a special Permission in Writing to keep such Inn and Hotel, or Public House, Place, or Premises open, and to sell therein, on such public or special Occasion, and for that Purpose only, such Exciseable Liquors as he may be duly licensed to sell as aforesaid during such Time, and beyond the Hour prescribed by his Certificate for closing, Sunday excepted, and under such Regulations as such Chief Magistrate or Magistrates or Justices of the Peace shall think fit to appoint: Provided always, that such Magistrate or Magistrates or Justices are entitled to grant Certificates, and that such Justices are also Heritors of or resident in the Parish in which such Inn and Hotel, Public House, Place, or Premises shall be situated, or, where there shall be no such Justices Heritors of or resident in such Parish, Heritors of or resident in some next adjacent Parish; and it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County or District, or for the Magistrates of any Burgh, at any April Half-yearly Meeting for the granting and Renewal of Certificates, to make such general Regulations touching such Permissions as they shall think fit, and such special Permissions shall be subject to such general Regulations: And provided further, that the Person obtaining such special Permission shall lodge the same with the Superintendent or other Chief Officer of Police of the District at least Twenty-four Hours before the Commencement of such public or special Entertainment, and such Superintendent or Chief Officer of Police shall furnish such Person with a certified Copy thereof, which shall be shown to any Officer of Police or Constable requiring to see the same: And provided also, that the Party holding such special Permission shall also have obtained an occasional Excise Licence in that Behalf.

7. 'Whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty certain Duties of Excise and Stamps, it is enacted, "that it shall be 'lawful for any Person to take out a Licence for the Sale in 'any House or Shop of Table Beer at a Price not exceeding
 'One Penny Halfpenny the Quart, and not to be drunk or 'consumed on the Premises where sold, and that it shall not 'be necessary to the obtaining of such Licence that the said
 'House or Shop shall be rated to the Relief of the Poor to any 'Amount, or that the Person applying for such Licence shall 'produce any Certificate or enter into any Bond required by 'any Act relating to the Sale of Beer by Retail:" And
 'whereas it is expedient that Provision should by this Act be 'made for the proper and orderly Regulation of the Houses,
 'Shops, and Premises kept by such Persons: Be it therefore enacted, That every such Licence shall be held by the Person who shall have obtained the same on the Terms, Provisions, and Conditions following, viz., that he shall not knowingly permit any Breach of the Peace or riotous or disorderly Conduct within his Premises, or supply Liquors to Persons in a State of Intoxication, and shall not sell or give any such Table Beer to be drunk or consumed on the said Premises; and shall not sell or give out therefrom any such Table Beer before Eight of the Clock in the Morning or after Eleven of the Clock at Night of any Day; and shall not open his Premises for the Sale of any Table Beer, or any Goods or Commodities whatsoever, or sell or give out the same on Sunday; and lastly, shall maintain good Order and Rule within his Premises; and in case any Person holding any such Licence shall offend against any of the said Terms, Provisions, and Conditions, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and undergo the several Penalties provided by the Twenty-first Section of the herein first-recited Act for the Punishment of Offences against the Terms and Conditions of Certificates; and in addition to such Penalties the Licence granted to such Person may be declared to be forfeited and to become null and void; and every such Offence shall be prosecuted, tried, and determined in the same Manner, and before the same Courts, and subject to the same Conditions, as Breaches of Certificate or Offences against the Terms and Conditions thereof may be prosecuted, tried, and determined.

8. If any Person shall be desirous of keeping an Inn and Hotel, Public House, Shop, or Premises for the Sale therein of Spirits, Wine, Beer, or other Exciseable Liquors, whether to be consumed on the Premises or not, he shall, previous to the granting to him of a Certificate for that Purpose, or the Renewal of any such Certificate already granted, truly fill up an Application for such Certificate, in the Form contained in the First Part of Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and shall truly answer the several Queries therein contained; and printed Forms for such Application shall be supplied to the Applicant by the Clerk of the Peace for the County or District, or the Town Clerk of the Burgh in which such Inn and Hotel, Public House, Shop, or Premises shall be situate, upon Payment to him of a Fee of Sixpence for each Copy thereof, and every such Application shall be filled up in a fair and legible Hand, and shall be signed by the Applicant or his Agent thereunto authorized, and shall be lodged by the Applicant with such Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk, as the Case may be, Fourteen Days at least before the General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace or Magistrates for granting and renewing Certificates: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County or District, or the Magistrates of any Burgh, to entertain any Application for any Certificate for the Sale of Exciseable Liquors with respect to any House or Premises not licensed, and for which there is no Certificate at the Time of making such Application, until a Report shall have been made and subscribed by a Justice of the Peace for such County or District, or a Magistrate of such Burgh respectively, such Justice or Magistrate being entitled to grant Certificates, stating that the same are of suitable Construction and Accommodation for the Purpose applied for, and accompanied with a Certificate as to the Applicant's Character and Qualification, signed by a Justice of the Peace for such County or District, or a Magistrate of such Burgh, and which said Report and Certificate respectively shall be in the Form, or as nearly as may be in the Form, contained in the Second Part of Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed: Provided also, that the Justices in Quarter Sessions, to whom any Appeal shall be made from a Deliverance, granting or refusing any Application for a Certificate, cate, may by themselves, or any One or more of their Number, inspect the Premises for which a Certificate is applied, and review the said Report.

9. Where any Person shall be desirous of obtaining a Renewal of any subsisting Certificate, granted to him in Terms of this Act, which has not been transferred during the current Half Year, it shall not be necessary that he produce along with his Application any Recommendation or Certificate of Character and Qualification: Provided always, that such Exemption shall not be held to interfere with the Powers of Justices and Magistrates under the said recited Acts or this Act to deal with such Application.

Certificate of Character, &c. not necessary with Application for Renewal of Certificate.

10. The Clerk of the Peace of every County or District and the Town Clerk of every Burgh shall, at least Ten Days before the General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace, or the Magistrates, as the Case may be, for the granting and Renewal of Certificates for the Sale of Exciseable Liquors, make out and advertise, at least twice in One or more Newspapers printed or generally circulated in the District, a complete List, in the Form, or as nearly as may be in the Form, set forth in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, of all Applications for Certificates within their respective Bounds for Premises not at the Time certificated; and of all Applications by new Tenants or Occupants of Premises at the Time certificated; and also of all Applications for Renewal of Certificates which have been transferred during the Currency of the previous Half Year; and such Clerks of the Peace shall also, within the said Time, transmit by Post, with Postage prepaid, to the Registrar or Registrars of every Parish within their respective Counties or Districts, a Copy of the List of such Applications in so far as applicable to the Parish of such Registrar or Registrars, who are hereby required to preserve the same, and to give Access thereto to any Party applying for Inspection thereof upon Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for such Inspection: And it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County or District, or the Magistrates of any Burgh, at any April Half-yearly Meeting for the granting and Renewal of Certificates, if they shall think fit, to cause a descriptive List of Persons to whom Certificates shall have been granted for the Year next ensuing, with the Premises to which such Certificates apply, within their respective Jurisdictions, to be made up and printed, in such Form as they shall direct, for the Use of themselves and others concerned in the Execution of the said recited Acts and this Act, the Expense whereof shall be paid out of the respective Funds in this Act specified into which Penalties and Expenses shall be paid.

and Renewal of Certificates, where such House or Premises shall be situated, with the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk, as the Case may be, a Notice in Writing to that Effect, signed by such Person or his Agent, specifying the Grounds of such Objection, which Objection shall be heard at the then ensuing General Meeting; and if such Objection shall be considered of sufficient Importance by the Justices of the Peace or Magistrates in such General Meeting, and shall be proved to their Satisfaction, the said Certificate shall not be granted or renewed: Provided always, that no such Objection shall be entertained unless it shall be proved or admitted that the Person so objecting or his Agent did, at least Five Days before such General Meeting, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Person applying for such Certificate a Copy of the aforesaid Notice, or did forward to him by Post, with Postage prepaid, or did leave for him a Copy thereof, addressed to him at his Place of Abode mentioned in his Application, or in the Case of an Application for the Renewal of any Certificate at the licensed Premises for which the Application is made; and it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace or Magistrates respectively, in the event of their considering the Allegations and Objections against a Renewal of a Certificate contained in any such Notice frivolous or vexatious, or unauthorized, to find the Person or Agent, as the Case may be, making the same liable in such Expenses as they shall deem proper, and the Amount of the Expenses so found due shall be recoverable in the Sheriffs or Justices of the Peace Small Debt Court having Jurisdiction in the District; and a certified Copy of the aforesaid finding shall be sufficient Evidence and Authority for decerning for the Amount thereof with Expenses.

Justices or Magistrates at General Meetings may hear Objections to granting Certificates.

12. It shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County or District, or for the Magistrates of any Burgh, at any General Meeting for the granting and Renewal of Certificates held within their respective Jurisdictions, to hear and determine as at present, and without the Notice required by Section Eleven, any Objections to be made verbally or in Writing by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or by the Procurator Fiscal, Chief Constable, or Superintendent of Police, against the granting or renewing of any Certificate.

Power to Constables, &c. to enter Eating Houses, &c., if they believe Exciseable Liquors are trafficked in.

13. It shall be lawful for any Chief Constable, Superintendent, Lieutenant, or Inspector of Police at any Time to enter and inspect any Eating House, Toll House, Temperance Hotel, Shop, or other Place, or any Boat or Vessel, where Food or Drink of any Kind is sold to be consumed on the Premises, or in which he shall have Reason to believe that Exciseable Liquors of any Kind are being unlawfully trafficked in; and it shall also be lawful for any Constable of Police having an Authority in Writing from any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or from any Chief Constable, Superintendent, Lieutenant, or Inspector of Police, in any County, District, or Burgh, and which they are severally hereby authorized to grant, to enter and inspect any such Eating Houses, Toll Houses, Temperance Hotels, Shops, or Places, or any such Boats or Vessels, within such County, District, or Burgh respectively, Payment shall be imprisoned for a Period not exceeding Thirty Days.

23. Every Person found in a State of Intoxication, and incapable of taking care of himself, and not under the Care or Protection of some suitable Person, in any Street, Thoroughfare, or Public Place, shall be thereby guilty of an Offence, and may be taken into Custody by any Officer of Police or Constable, and detained in any Police Office or Station House, or other convenient Place, and not later than in the course of the first lawful Day after he shall have been so taken into Custody shall be brought before a Sheriff or any One Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or if not so taken into Custody, or if he shall have been liberated on Bail or Pledge, may be summoned to appear before such a Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate, and on being convicted of such Offence shall forfeit and pay a Penalty of Five Shillings, and in default of immediate Payment shall be imprisoned for a Period not exceeding Twenty-four Hours.

Penalty to Persons found intoxicated and incapable of taking care of themselves.

24. Every Person licensed to sell Spirits, Wine, Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, or other Exciseable Liquors by Retail, whether to be drunk or consumed on the Premises or not, who knowingly harbours or entertains, or suffers to remain in the licensed Premises wherein he carries on his Business, any Constable during any Part of the Time appointed for his being on Duty, unless for the Purpose of quelling any Disturbances or restoring Order, or otherwise in the Discharge of his Duty, shall be guilty of an Offence, and on being convicted thereof shall forfeit and pay a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and in default of immediate Payment shall be imprisoned for a Period not exceeding Thirty Days.

Penalty for harbouring Constables while on Duty.

25. Every Person who, after the passing of this Act, shall commit any Breach of Certificate, or who shall in any other Manner offend against either of the recited Acts or this Act, shall be prosecuted, and all Penalties, together with the Expenses of Prosecution and Conviction to be ascertained on Conviction, shall be recovered, unless by this Act otherwise specially directed or authorized, before the Sheriff or any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County or any Magistrate of the Burgh having Jurisdiction in the County or Burgh, as the Case may be, in which such Offender shall reside or such Offence shall have been committed, at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal, or of such other Party as shall be specially appointed to prosecute such Class of Offences by the Justices of the Peace of the County in General Quarter Sessions assembled, or the Magistrates of the Burgh, as the Case may be, and which Appointment they are hereby specially authorized to make, and such Justices of the Peace in General Quarter Sessions, or Magistrates, as the Case may be, shall from Time to Time fix a reasonable Sum in Name of Salary, or a reasonable Rate of Remuneration by Fees for Prosecutions, and all other Business under this Act, to be paid annually to such Procurator Fiscal or other Party appointed to prosecute as aforesaid; and which Salary, or the Amount of the Account of such Fees, as the same shall be taxed by the Clerk of the Peace of the County or District, or the Town Clerk of the Burgh, as the Case may be, together with all necessary and proper Outlays attending such Prosecutions, and also the Execution of the recited Acts and this Act, shall form a proper Charge against, and shall be paid annually out of the Rogue Money, or other Fund of the County out of which the Expenses of Criminal Prosecutions are in use to be paid, and in Burghs out of the Police Funds, or, where there are no Police Funds, out of the Corporation Funds of the Burgh, as the Case may be; and all Penalties and Expenses of Prosecutions and Convictions incurred under and imposed by the recited Acts and this Act shall, when recovered, if adjudged by any Sheriff, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate of any Burgh or Place other than a Royal or Parliamentary Burgh, be wholly paid into the Rogue Money Fund of the County, and, if adjudged by any Magistrate or Police Judge of any Royal or Parliamentary Burgh, be wholly paid into the Police Funds, or, where there shall be no Police Funds, into the Corporation Funds of the Burgh in which such Penalties shall be imposed respectively.

Application of Penalties and Expenses.

Offences how to be tried.

26. Every Offence committed against the recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, may, except where inconsistent with the Provisions and Conditions of this Act, be tried and determined in a summary Manner, without any written Pleadings, or Record, or Notes of Evidence, and before the Courts, and subject to the Provisions and Conditions provided in the said recited Acts or either of them; but in any Prosecution under the recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, the Complaint and Procedure following thereupon shall be in the Form, or as nearly as may be in the Form, provided by Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed; and it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, Justice or Justices, Magistrate or Magistrates, before whom such Prosecution is brought, to proceed in absence of the Accused, upon Proof by the Oath of an Officer or Constable that the Accused has been duly summoned, or to issue his or their Warrant for apprehending and bringing the Accused before him or them, as the Case may be.

Power to Justices or Magistrates to summon Witnesses.

27. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, in any Application for the granting or renewing of a Certificate under the Provisions of the recited Acts or this Act, or in dealing with any Objection to such Applications, or in any other Matter arising under the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, to grant Warrant to summon Witnesses and Havers on behalf of any Party interested; and it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates, before whom respectively any such Application, Objection, or Matter shall be depending, to examine all such Witnesses and Havers on Oath or solemn Affirmation, and to do and perform all Things necessary for the due and proper Hearing and Determination of the Cause or Matter: And any Person summoned as a Witness or as a Haver to appear before any Sheriff, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate, touching any Matter arising out of the recited Acts or this Act, either on the Part of the Complainer or of the Person complained against, or of any Person interested in such Matter, who shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place for that Purpose appointed, and who shall not make such reasonable Excuse for such Neglect or Refusal as shall be admitted and allowed by such Sheriff, Justice or Justices, or Magistrate, may, when it shall be proved on Oath that he has been duly summoned at least Twenty-four Hours before the Meeting of the Diet of the Court, be apprehended and committed to Prison under the Warrant of the said Sheriff, Justice or Justices, or Magistrate, till he finds Security to appear and give Evidence; and any Person who shall so neglect or refuse to appear, or who appearing shall refuse to be examined on Oath or solemn Affirmation, shall thereby be guilty of an Offence, and on being convicted thereof shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and in default of immediate Payment shall be imprisoned for a Period not exceeding Thirty Days; and if any Person who, under Examination on Oath or solemn Affirmation before any Sheriff, Justice or Justices, or Magistrate, in any Matter arising under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or this Act, shall prevaricate or wilfully conceal the Truth, it shall be lawful to such Sheriff, Justice or Justices, or Magistrate, in open Court, without any formal Complaint and in a summary Manner, to adjudge the Person so offending to be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding Sixty Days, or to forfeit and pay a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and in default of immediate Payment to be imprisoned for a Period not exceeding Thirty Days, and the Sentence awarding such Punishment shall set forth shortly the Nature of the Offence.

28. It shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices of the Peace, Sheriff, or Magistrate before whom any Person may be brought for Trial for any Offence against the recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, to adjourn the hearing of the Complaint from Time to Time as may be deemed necessary, and also, if considered fit, to order the Detention of such Person in Prison, or in any Police Office or Station House, till the next Diet of Court, unless Bail is found, or a Pledge given to an Amount not exceeding the maximum Penalty concluded for.

Power to adjourn Trials and detain Offenders.

29. Nothing contained in the recited Acts or this Act shall prevent anything done which may be an Offence under this Act, but which might have been prosecuted and punished as an Offence at Common Law, or under any other Act, if this Act had not passed, from being so prosecuted and punished as if this Act had not passed.

Offences may be prosecuted at Common Law.

30. For the Purpose of trying Offences against the recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, except in Cases of Breach of Certificate and of imposing Penalties and declaring Forfeitures under the same, the Expressions "Magistrate of any Burgh," "Magistrate," and "Magistrates," shall include any Judge officiating in any Court for the Trial of Police Offences under the Provisions of any Local or General Police Act; and all such Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of any such Judge may be tried by and before him in any such Court, at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal or other Party acting as Prosecutor under the Twenty-fifth Section of this Act : And every Person offending against the Sixteenth, Nineteenth, Twenty-first, and Twenty-third Sections of this Act may, if such Procurator Fiscal or Prosecutor shall choose so to do, be prosecuted before the Court, and in the Manner provided for the Trial of Police Offences by any General or Local Police Act in force in the County, District, or Burgh, or Place where the Offender shall reside or the Offence shall have been committed, instead of as herein otherwise provided.

Warrants, &c. may be enforced in other Counties, &c.

31. All Warrants, Orders, Interlocutors, Judgments, Sentences, and Decrets of Sheriffs, Justices, and Magistrates, issued or pronounced under the Authority of the recited Acts or of this Act, may be executed and enforced in any County, District, Burgh, or Jurisdiction other than that in which they were so issued or pronounced, provided the Concurrence of the Sheriff or any One Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of such other County, District, Burgh, or Jurisdiction respectively be endorsed thereon, by any Constable or Officer of Court of the original or of any other County, District, Burgh, or Jurisdiction, and which Concurrence all Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and Magistrates are hereby authorized to grant.

Fees to Clerks not to be more than authorized by Schedule (E.) to this Act.

32. It shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Peace, or Sheriff Clerk of any County or District, or the Town Clerk of any Burgh, to demand or receive any greater or additional Fee or Remuneration for anything done under the recited Acts or this Act than is authorized by the Schedule (E.) to this Act annexed, and the Town Clerks of those Parliamentary Burghs the Magistrates of which are not at present authorized to grant Certificates shall pay to the present Clerks of the Peace in the Counties within which such Burghs are situated One Half of the Fees received by such Town Clerks in respect of Applications for Certificates and Disposal of the same under this Act and the Acts herein recited, during the Time such Clerks of the Peace shall continue to hold Office.

Power to Persons to appeal from Decisions of Sheriffs, &c. to Circuit Courts, &c.

33. It shall be competent to any Person conceiving himself aggrieved by any Warrant, Sentence, Order, Decree, Judgment, or Decision made or given by any Sheriff, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate, in any Cause, Prosecution, or Complaint raised under the Authority of the recited Acts or of this Act, for Breach of Certificate, or for trafficking in Spirits or other Excisable Liquors without a Certificate, to bring the Case by Appeal before the next Circuit Court of Justiciary, or where there are no Circuit Courts before the High Court of Justiciary at Edinburgh, in the Manner, and by and under the Rules, Limitations, Conditions, and Restrictions which shall from Time to Time be prescribed by the said High Court of Justiciary : Provided always, that such Appeal shall be competent only when founded on the Ground of Corruption or Malice and Oppression on the Part of the Sheriff, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate, as the Case may be, or on such Deviations in point of Form from the statutory Enactments as the Court shall think have prevented substantial Justice from having been done : Provided also, that such Appeals shall be heard and determined in open Court, and that it shall be competent to the Court to correct such Deviation in point of Form : Provided further, that Notice in Writing of such Appeal shall be given to the opposite Party, and to the Clerk of the Court pronouncing such Warrant, Sentence, Order, Decree, Judgment, or Decision, within Eight Days of the Date thereof, and that no Appeal shall be received or entertained unless the Party appealing shall, along with his Appeal, deposit with the Clerk of the Circuit Court or of the High Court of Justiciary, as the Case may be, a Certificate under the Hand of the Sheriff Clerk, Town Clerk, or Clerk of the Peace, or Clerk to the Magistrates, as the Case may be, that he has made Consignation in the Hands of such Clerk of the whole Sum and Expenses, if any, decerned for by the Warrant, Sentence, Order, Decree, Judgment, or Decision appealed from, and unless he shall have found sufficient Security for the whole Expenses which may be incurred and found due under the Appeal : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to exclude or interfere with the Right of Appeal to Quarter Sessions which at present exists, provided the Appellant shall forthwith deposit with the Clerk of the Peace the Amount of Penalty and Costs awarded against him.

34. No Warrant, Sentence, Order, Decree, Judgment, or Decision made or given by any Quarter Sessions, Sheriff, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate in any Cause, Prosecution, or Complaint, or in any other Matter under the Authority of the said recited Acts or of this Act, shall be subject to Reduction, Advocation, Suspension, or Appeal, or any other Form of Review or Stay of Execution, on any Ground or for any Reason whatever, other than by this Act provided.

Sentences and Judgments not subject to Review except as provided by this Act.

35. Every Action or Prosecution against any Sheriff, Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate, or Judge acting under any General or Local Police Act, or against any Sheriff Clerk, Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk, or any Procurator Fiscal, Superintendent, or other Officer of Police, or Constable, or other Person, on account of anything done in execution of the recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, shall be commenced within Two Months after the Cause of Action or Prosecution shall have arisen, and not afterwards.

Limitation Actions.

36. Nothing herein contained shall be held to repeal or affect the Provisions of the recited Acts or either of them, except in so far only as shall be necessary to give Effect to the Provisions of this Act ; and the Provisions and Enactments contained in the recited Acts, so far as not repealed, shall extend, and be construed, deemed, and taken to extend, to and form Part of this Act, in the same Manner, and as fully and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Provisions and Enactments were herein repeated and set forth at Length.

Nothing to repeal or affect recited Act, except to give Effect to this Act.

An Act to appropriate certain Portions of Land lying between High and Low Water Mark, situate in the Parishes of Shoebury and Wakering in the County of Essex, as Ranges for the Use and Practice of Artillery. [17th July 1852.]

‘ WHEREAS certain Lands in the Parish of Shoebury in the County of Essex have been purchased in Fee, and certain other Lands therein and in the Parish of Wakering in the same County have been acquired for certain Terms of Years under the “Defence Act, 1842,” and the “Ordnance Board Transfer Act, 1855,” and are now vested in and possessed by Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the War Department in trust for Her Majesty, the Particulars of which Premises and of his Estate and Interest therein are mentioned and set forth in the Schedule to this Act, and are shown and delineated on the Map or Plan made thereof and to be deposited with the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty : And whereas the said Lands and Premises have been used and appropriated for the Establishment of a School of Gunnery and the Practice of Artillery, and large Sums of Money have been expended in the Erection of Barracks and Quarters for Officers and Soldiers at Shoebury aforesaid : And whereas it is alleged that Portion of the Lands and Premises which lies between High and Low Water Mark is subject to the Rights of Passage and Anchorage of Vessels in the Water or Sea flowing over the same, and at Low Water to certain other Rights of Grounding thereon : And whereas such alleged Rights, if suffered to continue, would very much interfere with and impede the useful Purposes intended to be effected by the Acquisition of the said Lands

‘ and Premises and by the Establishment of the School of Gunnery aforesaid, and would be highly detrimental to the Public Service ; and for the Reasons aforesaid it is expedient that the same should be forthwith partially extinguished and the said Premises be kept free from all the Anchorage or Grounding of Vessels, Barges, and other Craft :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. So long as the Lands and Premises mentioned in the Schedule to this Act shall remain vested in or be possessed by Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the War Department in trust as aforesaid, he shall from Time to Time, as Occasion may require, cause to be marked out and distinguished by Buoys, or other sufficient Marks to be erected or fixed upon the said Lands and Premises, such Spaces or Distances thereon as he may judge necessary to be kept free from all Anchorage or Grounding of Vessels of any Kind, and to order and direct that the several Spaces or Distances so marked out and distinguished shall be and remain as Ranges for Artillery Practice, freed from all Rights of Anchorage or Grounding thereon.

2. Whenever the said Principal Secretary shall have marked out and appropriated any Spaces or Distances for Ranges as aforesaid, all Rights (if any) of Anchorage and Grounding over or upon the same shall absolutely cease and determine, and a Notification thereof shall be made to the Lords of the Admiralty, and be published in the London Gazette, and by Advertisement in some Morning Newspaper and in some local Newspaper circulated in the said County of Essex, and by affixing the same on the Church Doors of the said several Parishes aforesaid.

3. If any Vessel, Barge, or other Craft, unless forced to remain thereon by Stress of Weather or other unavoidable Accident, shall anchor or ground upon any Range marked out in pursuance of this Act, then the Owner or Master of such Vessel, Barge, or other Craft, as the Case may be, shall on Conviction thereof before any Justice or Justices of the Peace forfeit and pay such a Sum not less than Forty Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds for every Offence, as may be awarded against him, and such Penalty, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, shall be duly ascertained and awarded, and shall be enforced and recovered as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty, intitled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to Summary Convictions and Orders.

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent the Entry of the Lords or Ladies of the Manors of South Shoebury and Wakering, their respective Servants or Agents, upon the Beach or Shore for the Purpose of exercising their Manorial or other Rights thereon, and of recovering or removing therefrom all Wrecks of the Sea, Jetsam, Flotsam, and Lagan Goods, Merchandise, Spaces for the Practice of Artillery to be kept free and open, and to be marked by Buoys, &c.

Rights of Anchorage and Grounding to cease, and Notice to be given to the Admiralty, and advertised, &c.

No Vessel or Person to pass over Ranges marked out pursuant to this Act.

Penalty for Offences to be recovered as in 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

Service, and any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Leases, and Hereditaments, and other Real or Heritable Property and Estate, of whatsoever Tenure the same may be, whether situate or arising in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or in any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions which have come to Her Majesty, or shall or may come to Her Majesty, or Her Heirs or Successors, by the Gift or Devise or Disposition of, or by Descent, Inheritance, or Succession, or otherwise, from any of Her or Their Ancestors, or any other Person or Persons not being Kings or Queens of this Realm, and any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Leases, and Hereditaments, and other Real or Heritable Property and Estate, of whatsoever Tenure the same may be, and whether situate or arising in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or in any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, which did or shall belong to Her Majesty, or Her Heirs or Successors, or to any Person or Persons in trust for Her or Them, at the Time of Her or Their respective Accessions to the Crown of this Realm, and which before such Accession She or They respectively might have legally granted, sold, given, devised, disposed, or conveyed.

Restrictions of 1 Anne, c. 7., and 1 G. 3. c. 1., and 34 G. 3. c. 75. not to extend to the private Estates of the Sovereign.

2. None of the Provisions or Restrictions contained in the said Acts of the First Year of Her Majesty Queen Anne and the First and Thirty-fourth Years of His Majesty King George the Third, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Leases, or Hereditaments, or other Real or Heritable Property or Estate vested in or belonging to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in right of the Crown of this Realm, do or shall extend to the private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors.

Leasehold Estates (other than in Scotland) to be vested in Trustees.

3. Such private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, situate or arising in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, except Scotland, as are or shall be of Leasehold Tenure, shall be vested in some Trustee or Trustees for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors respectively, from Time to Time to be respectively named or appointed by Instrument in Writing under the Sign Manual of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors respectively, in the same Manner as if the Second Section of the said Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-eight, had extended to all such Estates.

Private Estates of the Sovereign in Scotland held under a Superior or in Lease to be vested in Trustees.

4. Such private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, situate or arising in Scotland, as are or shall be held feudally directly under the Crown as Superior, may lawfully be held by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, of and under Herself or Themselves as Sovereign or Sovereigns of this Realm and Feudal Superiors, and the Dominium utile thereof shall not become ipso facto consolidated with the Dominium directum; and such private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, situate or arising in Scotland, as are or shall be held feudally under a Subject Superior, or as are or shall be held in Lease, shall be vested in some Trustee or Trustees for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors respectively, from Time to

Time to be respectively named or appointed by Instrument in Writing under the Sign Manual of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors respectively, in the same Manner as if the Second Section of the said Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-eight, had extended to all such Estates.

5. The private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, situate or arising in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions (except Scotland), may be disposed of by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in manner provided by the Fourth Section of the said Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-eight: Provided always, that a Will or other Testamentary Disposition by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, of or concerning any such private Estates as aforesaid, shall not require Publication; and every such Will or Testamentary Disposition shall be valid and effectual, if signed by the Testator or Testatrix, or by some other Person in His or Her Presence, and by His or Her Direction, in the Presence of Two Witnesses: Provided also, that every Will or other Testamentary Disposition by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, of any such private Estates as aforesaid, made under the Authority of this Act and of the said Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-eight, or either of them, and whether made before or after the passing of this Act, shall be construed with reference to the Property comprised in such Will or Testamentary Disposition, to speak and take effect as if it had been executed immediately before the Death of the Testator or Testatrix, unless a contrary Intention shall appear by the Will or other Testamentary Disposition.

As to Testamentary Disposition of the private Estates of the Sovereign other than in Scotland.

6. The private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, situate or arising in Scotland, may be disposed of by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, by Dispositions or Conveyance, either special or general, granted either Mortis causâ or Inter vivos; and all Dispositions, Conveyances, Deeds of Appointment, Commissions, Powers of Attorney, Wills, Deeds of Settlement, and other Deeds or Instruments to be made or granted by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, of or relating to the private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, situate or arising in Scotland, shall be valid and effectual, although not executed according to the Forms of the Law of Scotland, if the same shall be under the Sign Manual attested by Two or more Witnesses; and every such Disposition or Conveyance, if granted Mortis causâ shall be valid and effectual, whether the same shall be under the Sign Manual as aforesaid, or shall be signed by some other Person in the Presence of the Granter, and by His or Her Direction in the Presence of Two or more Witnesses, who shall attest the same, although the same shall not be executed according to the Forms of the Law of Scotland.

As to Disposition of the private Estates of the Sovereign in Scotland.

7. On the Demise of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, the private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall, subject and without Prejudice to any Disposition which shall Private Estates of the Sovereign to be subject to Taxes.

8. The private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall be subject to all such Taxes, Rates, Duties, Assessments, and other Impositions, Parliamentary and Parochial, as the same would have been subject to if the same had been the Property of any Subject of this Realm; and all such Rates, Taxes, Assessments, and Impositions shall, so long as such private Estates shall be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or in any Person or Persons in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors as aforesaid, be ascertained, rated, assessed or imposed thereon in the same Manner and Form in all respects as if the same Estates were the absolute and beneficial Estate of any of Her Majesty's Subjects; but nevertheless such Rates, Taxes, Assessments, and Impositions shall be paid and payable in manner herein-after directed, and not otherwise.

Taxes to be paid out of the Privy Purse.

9. So long as the private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall remain vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or in any Trustee or Trustees for Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors as aforesaid, freed and discharged from the Provisions and Restrictions aforesaid, all Taxes, Rates, Duties, Assessments, Impositions, Rents, and other annual Payments, Fines, and other Outgoings, which shall from Time to Time be charged and chargeable upon or be or become due and payable in respect of all or any of such private Estates, shall be paid and discharged out of the Privy Purse of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, and Accounts thereof shall from Time to Time be returned to the Person or Persons for the Time being executing the Office of Privy Purse of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or to his or their Deputy, who shall by and out of any Monies in his or their Hands applicable for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, pay and discharge the same.

Extension of Trustee Act, 1850, to the private Estates (except in Scotland), and to the Personal Estate of the Sovereign.

10. The Trustee Act, 1850, shall extend to a Trustee or Trustees of the private Estates of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, situate or arising in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, except Scotland, and to any Trustee or Trustees of any Personal Estate of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, and any Petition or other Proceeding for obtaining the Benefit of that Act for or on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall be by and in the Name or Names of any Person or Persons authorized in that Behalf by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, by any Instrument in Writing under the Sign Manual.

C A P. XXXIX.

An Act for enabling the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury to make Arrangements with the Red Sea and India Telegraph Company. [17th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS in the Year One thousand eight hundred and ‘ fifty-eight a Joint Stock Company was incorporated ‘ under the “Joint Stock Companies Act,” 1856, by the Name ‘ of “The Red Sea and India Telegraph Company, Limited,” for ‘ the Purpose of establishing Telegraphic Communication between ‘ India and England by the Red Sea: And whereas by an ‘ Agreement

Red Sea and India Telegraph Company.

‘ Agreement dated the Eighteenth Day of November One thousand ‘ eight hundred and fifty-eight, and made between Two of the ‘ Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury of the one Part, and
‘ the said Company of the other Part, it was amongst other things ‘ provided, that the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treas‘ ury should guarantee to the Company (subject to such Confir‘ mation by Act of Parliament as therein-after mentioned) that ‘ during the Period of Fifty Years from the Fourth Day of ‘ August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the net
‘ Receipts available for Dividend upon each Half-yearly State‘ ment of Accounts, after Payment of Working Expenses as ‘ therein-after mentioned, should be equal to Interest or Dividend
‘ at the Rate of Four and a Half per Cent. per Annum at the ‘ least upon the Amount of the Capital for the Time being bonâ ‘ fide called and paid up for the Purpose of the Company’s Under‘ takings, not exceeding in any Case, except as therein-after ‘ mentioned, the Sum of Eight hundred thousand Pounds, and ‘ should, if and so often as during the said Period of Fifty Years, ‘ upon any Half-yearly Statement of Accounts, the net Receipts ‘ available for Dividend, after the Payment of Working Expenses, ‘ should not be equal to Interest or Dividend at the Rate of ‘ Two and a Quarter per Cent. for the Half Year upon the ‘ above-mentioned Amount of Capital, pay and make good such ‘ Deficiency to the Company : Provided always, that in the Cal‘ culation of the Amount to which the Company were entitled ‘ upon that Guarantee, all Capital paid up in the Course of the ‘ current Half Year should be taken to be entitled to Interest
‘ or Dividend at the above-mentioned Rate only from the Time
‘ when the same was so paid up : Provided also, that all Amounts ‘ paid by the Lords Commissioners under the Guarantee should ‘ be a Charge on the Company, to be repaid out of the future
‘ surplus Profits as therein-after provided : And whereas the said ‘ Company was afterwards incorporated, and the said Agreement ‘ confirmed by the “Red Sea and India Telegraph Act, 1859,”
‘ and by a further Act, intituled An Act for amending the Red ‘ Sea and India Telegraph Act, 1859, and passed in the Year
‘ One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, after reciting that ‘ Doubts were entertained whether the said Agreement empow‘ ered the said Commissioners to give effect to such Guarantee, ‘ except during such Time as the Line of Telegraph of the Com‘ pany was in working Order, and that it was expedient that such ‘ Doubts should be removed, it was declared that the Guarantee ‘ contained in the said Agreement was not intended to be and was ‘ not conditional on the Line of Telegraph of the Company being ‘ in working Order : And whereas the Line of Telegraph laid ‘ down by the said Company, herein-after referred to as the Old ‘ Company, has ceased to transmit Messages : And whereas an ‘ Arrangement of which an Abstract is contained in the Schedule
‘ to this Act annexed has been entered into between the said ‘ Commissioners, the Old Company, and a new Company incor‘ porated under the Name of “The Telegraph to India Company, ‘ Limited,” herein referred to as the New Company, whereby it

Red Sea and India Telegraph Company.

‘ is agreed that on the New Company complying with certain ‘ Conditions required by the said Commissioners (and which ‘ Conditions have since been complied with), and in consideration ‘ of the New Company discharging all the Debts and Liabilities
 ‘ of the Old Company, the Cables, Lines, Stations, Concessions,
 ‘ and all other the Real and Personal Property of the Old Com‘ pany, including Things in Action, should be transferred to the ‘ New Company ; and that in consideration of such Transfer the ‘ Old Company should in exchange for the Guarantee given by ‘ the said Agreement receive such Compensation by way of An‘ nuities, but subject to such Powers of Redemption, as is herein ‘ mentioned : And whereas the foregoing Arrangement cannot be ‘ carried into effect without the Authority of Parliament :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Transfer of Property from Old Company
 to new.

1. From and after the passing of this Act, the Cables, Lines, Stations, Concessions, and all other the Real and Personal Property of the Old Company, including Things in Action, shall vest in the New Company for all the Estate and Interest of the Old Company therein, and the said Agreement of the Eighteenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and all the Covenants and Conditions therein contained, shall be deemed to be at an End, but the new Company shall be bound to fulfil the Agreement contained in the Schedule to this Act.

List of Shareholders to be made.

2. The Books of Transfer of Shares in the said Old Company shall be closed immediately on the passing of this Act, and within One Month from the Date of the passing of this Act a List of the several Persons then holding Shares or Stock in the Capital of the said Company at the Date of such Closing, duly authenticated under the Corporate Seal and by the Signature of the Secretary of the said Company, shall be delivered to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and such List shall set forth the Names, Descriptions, and Addresses of all such Persons, and the Amount of the Share or Shares held by each respectively, and the Amount which will be payable to each in respect of such Shares out of the Annuity of Thirty-six thousand Pounds herein-after referred to ; and such List so authenticated shall for the Purposes of this Act be binding on all Persons whatsoever.

Charge upon Consolidated Fund of Terminable Annuities.

3. The Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as soon as possible after such List shall have been delivered to them, shall certify to the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury that such List has been so delivered to them, and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to charge and shall thereupon charge, under the Authority of this Act, upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, an Annuity of Thirty-six thousand Pounds for Forty-six Years ending on the Fourth Day of August One thousand nine hundred and eight, payable in equal Moieties half-yearly, the First half-yearly Payment to become due on the Fourth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and the last half-yearly Payment on the Fourth Day of August One thousand nine hundred and eight; and such half-yearly Payments shall be made to the said Governor and Company for and on account of the several Persons in the said Lists mentioned in the several and respective Accounts therein set forth.

4. The proportionate Parts of the said Annuity as certified in such List as being due to the several Persons therein named shall be inscribed in the Names of the several Parties in Books to be provided for the Purpose by the said Governor and Company, and all Payments becoming due from Time to Time thereon shall be payable at the Bank of England to the several Persons to whom such Payment shall from Time to Time be due, half-yearly, in equal Moieties on the Fourth Day of August and Fourth Day of February, and the said proportionate Parts shall be transferable in the Books of the said Governor and Company in like Manner as all other Annuities of like Kind chargeable on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and payable by the said Governor and Company, and shall not be liable to Stamp Duty.

Rights of Shareholders to Terminable Annuities.

5. Immediately after the Inscription of the said Annuity in the Books of the said Governor and Company as aforesaid, the Books of Transfer, and other Books of the Red Sea and India Telegraph Company relating to the Shares therein, shall be delivered by the said Company into the Custody of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be retained by them.

Delivery of Transfer Books to Bank of England.

6. The Commissioners of the Treasury may at any Time redeem the Annuity hereby granted on Payment of a Capital Sum which will be sufficient to purchase a Government Annuity at the Rate of Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Annum on each One hundred Pounds of the Stock or Capital of the said Old Company for the unexpired Residue of the Term.

Redemption of Annuity.

7. There shall be paid out of the Revenues of India to the Account of Her Majesty's Exchequer at the Bank of England in respect of the Charge hereby created, by Two half-yearly Payments on the Fourth Day of August and Fourth Day of February in each Year respectively, the annual Sum of Eighteen thousand and twenty-seven Pounds, being One Half of the Amount of the before-mentioned Annuity, and of the Cost of Management, the First of such half-yearly Payments to be made on the Fourth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and the last on the Fourth Day of August One thousand nine hundred and eight.

Contribution of Revenues of India.

SCHEDULE.

HEADS OF ARRANGEMENT REFERRED TO IN PREAMBLE OF ACT.

1. That the Old Company be divested of all further Responsibility in respect to the Affairs of the Red Sea and India Telegraph, with a view to transferring the entire Concern to the

the Hands of a New Company, on suitable Terms and Conditions.

2. That the present Guarantee of $4\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent. on the paid-up Capital of the Old Company be converted into a Government Annuity of like Amount, payable at the Bank of England, as in the Case of other Annuities of like Kind.

3. The Commissioners of the Treasury shall have Power to redeem the said Annuity at any Time, on Payment to the said Company of a Capital Sum which will be sufficient to purchase a Government Annuity at the Rate of 4*l.* 10*s.* per Annum on each Hundred Pounds of the Stock or Capital of the Company for the unexpired Residue of the Term of their original Contract.

As regards the New Company.

1. That the Cables, Land Lines, Instruments, Stations, Concessions, &c. belonging to the Old Company shall be made over to the New Company free from Charge, the New Company discharging all outstanding Debts and Liabilities of the Old Company.

2. That the New Company shall use their best Endeavours to repair and restore the whole Line from Suez to Kurrachee, and to work it when completed, but shall not have Possession until Two Thirds of the Capital is subscribed, and One Third paid up, and a suitable Vessel despatched with not less than 200 Miles of new Cable on board.

3. That the Capital of the New Company shall not be less in the first instance than 100,000*l.*, with Power to increase to 250,000*l.*, if required to complete the Restoration of the Line.

4. That the New Company shall be entitled to a clear Dividend out of the Profits of 25 per Cent. on the Money paid up by them.

5. That any surplus Profits shall be applied to reimburse the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Payments they have made or will have to make annually by way of Interest or Annuity upon the Capital expended by the Old Company, after which any further Profits which may accrue shall be applied to the Creation of a Reserve Fund.

6. After the Restoration of the Line any Outlay of Capital shall be subject to the Approval of the Commissioners of the Treasury; and the Commissioners of the Treasury shall have Power to disallow Working Expenditure as excessive or unreasonable.

7. In the event of the Failure of the Company to restore the Line or maintain it in Working Order, the Commissioners of the Treasury shall have Power to take it into their own Hands again, on repaying the Capital actually expended by the New Company.

Should the Commissioners not exercise this Right, the Company shall be at liberty to dispose of the Property to reimburse their Outlay; the Balance, after defraying the actual Expenditure, to be the Property of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

8. At the Expiration of 30 Years, the Commissioners of the Treasury shall have the Right of re-purchasing the Line and

African Slave Trade Treaty.

Property on the Terms of Repayment of the Capital expended by the Company.

9. The Failure in Clause Seven shall be defined to be the non-working of the Line from End to End, subject to a just Allowance of Time for Restoration.

10. The Accounts shall be audited at the Treasury half-yearly.

11. All Differences between the Commissioners of the Treasury and the Company shall be decided by Arbitration.

C A P. XL.

An Act to carry into effect the Treaty between Her Majesty and the United States of America for the Suppression of the African Slave Trade. [17th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS on the Seventh Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two a Treaty was concluded and signed at Washington, between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the United States of America, for the Suppression of the African Slave Trade, whereby it was agreed as follows :

‘ TREATY between Her Majesty and the United States of America, for the Suppression of the African Slave Trade. Signed at Washington, April 7, 1862. Ratifications exchanged at London, May 20, 1862.

‘ Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the United States of America being desirous to render more effectual the Means hitherto adopted for the Suppression of the Slave Trade carried on upon the Coast of Africa, have deemed it expedient to conclude a Treaty for that Purpose, and have named as their Plenipotentiaries ; that is to say,
 ‘ Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Richard Bickerton Pemell Lord Lyons, a Peer of Her United Kingdom, a Knight Grand Cross of Her Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and Her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America ;
 ‘ And the President of the United States of America, William H. Seward, Secretary of State ;
 ‘ Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full Powers, found in good and due Form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles.

‘ ARTICLE I.—The Two High Contracting Parties mutually consent that those Ships of their respective Navies which shall be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, as herein-after mentioned, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may, upon reasonable Grounds, be suspected of being engaged in the African Slave Trade, or of having been fitted out for that Purpose,

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ Purpose, or of having, during the Voyage on which they ‘ are met by the said Cruizers, been engaged in the African ‘ Slave Trade, contrary to the Provisions of this Treaty;
 ‘ and that such Cruizers may detain, and send or carry ‘ away, such Vessels, in order that they may be brought ‘ to Trial in the Manner herein-after agreed upon.

‘ In order to fix the reciprocal Right of Search in such ‘ a Manner as shall be adapted to the Attainment of the ‘ Object of this Treaty, and at the same Time avoid Doubts, ‘ Disputes, and Complaints, the said Right of Search shall ‘ be understood in the Manner and according to the Rules ‘ following :—

‘ First.—It shall never be exercised except by Vessels
 ‘ of War, authorized expressly for that Object, according ‘ to the Stipulations of this Treaty.

‘ Secondly.—The Right of Search shall in no Case be ‘ exercised with respect to a Vessel of the Navy of either ‘ of the Two Powers, but shall be exercised only as ‘ regards Merchant Vessels; and it shall not be exercised ‘ by a Vessel of War of either Contracting Party within ‘ the Limits of a Settlement or Port, nor within the ‘ territorial Waters, of the other Party.

‘ Thirdly.—Whenever a Merchant Vessel is searched
 ‘ by a Ship of War, the Commander of the said Ship shall,
 ‘ in the Act of so doing, exhibit to the Commander of the ‘ Merchant Vessel the special Instructions by which he is ‘ duly authorized to search, and shall deliver to such ‘ Commander a Certificate, signed by himself, stating his ‘ Rank in the Naval Service of his Country, and the ‘ Name of the Vessel he commands, and also declaring ‘ that the only Object of the Search is to ascertain ‘ whether the Vessel is employed in the African Slave ‘ Trade, or is fitted up for the said Trade. When the ‘ Search is made by an Officer of the Cruizer who is not
 ‘ the Commander, such Officer shall exhibit to the Captain ‘ of the Merchant Vessel a Copy of the before-mentioned ‘ special Instructions, signed by the Commander of the ‘ Cruizer, and he shall in like Manner deliver a Certifi‘ cate, signed by himself, stating his Rank in the Navy,
 ‘ the Name of the Commander by whose Orders he pro‘ ceeds to make the Search, that of the Cruizer in which ‘ he sails, and the Object of the Search, as above described.
 ‘ If it appears from the Search that the Papers of the ‘ Vessel are in regular Order, and that it is employed on ‘ lawful Objects, the Officer shall enter in the Log Book
 ‘ of the Vessel that the Search has been made in pursuance
 ‘ of the aforesaid special Instructions, and the Vessel shall ‘ be left at liberty to pursue its Voyage. The Rank of
 ‘ the Officer who makes the Search must not be less than ‘ that of Lieutenant in the Navy, unless the Command, ‘ either by reason of Death or other Cause, is at the Time ‘ held by an Officer of inferior Rank.

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ Fourthly.—The reciprocal Right of Search and Detention shall be exercised only within the Distance of Two hundred Miles from the Coast of Africa, and to the Southward of the Thirty-second Parallel of North Latitude, and within Thirty Leagues from the Coast of the Island of Cuba.

‘ ARTICLE II.—In order to regulate the Mode of carrying the Provisions of the preceding Article into execution, it is agreed—

‘ First.—That all the Ships of the Navies of the Two Nations which shall be hereafter employed to prevent the African Slave Trade shall be furnished by their respective Governments with a Copy of the present Treaty, of the Instructions for Cruizers annexed thereto, marked A, and of the Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice annexed thereto, marked B, which Annexes respectively shall be considered as integral Parts of the present Treaty.

‘ Secondly.—That each of the High Contracting Parties shall from Time to Time communicate to the other the Names of the several Ships furnished with such Instructions, the Force of each, and the Names of their several Commanders. The said Commanders shall hold the Rank of Captain in the Navy, or at least that of Lieutenant; it being nevertheless understood that the Instructions originally issued to an Officer holding the Rank of Lieutenant of the Navy, or other superior Rank, shall, in case of his Death or temporary Absence, be sufficient to authorize the Officer on whom the Command of the Vessel has devolved to make the Search, although such Officer may not hold the aforesaid Rank in the Service.

‘ Thirdly.—That if at any Time the Commander of a Cruizer of either of the Two Nations shall suspect that any Merchant Vessel under the Escort or Convoy of any Ship or Ships of War of the other Nation carries Negroes on board, or has been engaged in the African Slave Trade, or is fitted out for the Purpose thereof, the Commander of the Cruizer shall communicate his Suspicions to the Commander of the Convoy, who, accompanied by the Commander of the Cruizer, shall proceed to the Search of the suspected Vessel; and in case the Suspicions appear well founded, according to the Tenor of this Treaty, then the said Vessel shall be conducted or sent to One of the Places where the Mixed Courts of Justice are stationed, in order that it may there be adjudicated upon.

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ ARTICLE III.—As the Two preceding Articles are ‘ entirely reciprocal, the Two High Contracting Parties
 ‘ engage mutually to make good any Losses which their re‘ spective Subjects or Citizens may incur by an arbitrary
 ‘ and illegal Detention of their Vessels ; it being understood ‘ that this Indemnity shall be borne by the Government
 ‘ whose Cruizer shall have been guilty of such arbitrary
 ‘ and illegal Detention ; and that the Search and Detention ‘ of Vessels specified in the First Article of this Treaty shall ‘ be effected only by Ships which may form Part of the Two ‘ Navies respectively, and by such of those Ships only as are ‘ provided with the special Instructions annexed to the ‘ present Treaty, in pursuance of the Provisions thereof.
 ‘ The Indemnification for the Damages of which this Article ‘ treats shall be paid within the Term of One Year, reckon‘ ing from the Day in which the Mixed Court of Justice ‘ pronounces its Sentence.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—In order to bring to Adjudication with
 ‘ as little Delay and Inconvenience as possible the Vessels ‘ which may be detained according to the Tenor of the ‘ First Article of this Treaty, there shall be established, as ‘ soon as may be practicable, Three Mixed Courts of Jus‘ tice, formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the ‘ Two Nations, named for this Purpose by their respective ‘ Governments. These Courts shall reside, One at Sierra ‘ Leone, One at the Cape of Good Hope, and One at New ‘ York.

‘ But each of the Two High Contracting Parties reserves
 ‘ to itself the Right of changing, at its Pleasure, the Place
 ‘ of Residence of the Court or Courts held within its own ‘ Territories.

‘ These Courts shall judge the Causes submitted to them
 ‘ according to the Provisions of the present Treaty, and ‘ according to the Regulations and Instructions which are ‘ annexed to the present Treaty, and which are considered ‘ an integral Part thereof ; and there shall be no Appeal
 ‘ from their Decision.

‘ ARTICLE V.—In case the Commanding Officer of any of
 ‘ the Ships of the Navies of either Country, duly commis‘ sioned according to the Provisions of the First Article of ‘ this Treaty, shall deviate in any respect from the Stipula‘ tions of the said Treaty, or from the Instructions annexed
 ‘ to it, the Government which shall conceive itself to be ‘ wronged thereby shall be entitled to demand Reparation ;
 ‘ and in such Case the Government to which such Com‘ manding Officer may belong binds itself to cause Inquiry ‘ to be made into the Subject of the Complaint, and to ‘ inflict upon the said Officer a Punishment proportioned to ‘ any wilful Transgression which he may be proved to have ‘ committed.

‘ ARTICLE VI.—It is hereby further mutually agreed, that ‘ every British or American Merchant Vessel which shall ‘ be

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ be searched by virtue of the present Treaty may lawfully ‘ be detained, and sent or brought before the Mixed Courts of ‘ Justice established in pursuance of the Provisions thereof,
 ‘ if in her Equipment there shall be found any of the Things ‘ herein-after mentioned ; namely,

‘ 1st.—Hatches with open Gratings, instead of the ‘ close Hatches which are usual in Merchant Vessels.

‘ 2d.—Divisions or Bulkheads in the Hold or on Deck
 ‘ in greater Number than are necessary for Vessels en‘ gaged in lawful Trade.

‘ 3d.—Spare Plank fitted for laying down as a Second ‘ or Slave Deck.

‘ 4th.—Shackles, Bolts, or Handcuffs.

‘ 5th.—A larger Quantity of Water in Casks or in ‘ Tanks than is requisite for the Consumption of the Crew
 ‘ of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

‘ 6th.—An extraordinary Number of Water Casks, or of ‘ other Vessels for holding Liquid ; unless the Master shall ‘ produce a Certificate from the Custom House at the ‘ Place from which he cleared outwards, stating that a ‘ sufficient Security had been given by the Owners of such ‘ Vessel that such extra Quantity of Casks or of other ‘ Vessels should be used only to hold Palm Oil, or for other ‘ Purposes of lawful Commerce.

‘ 7th.—A greater Number of Mess Tubs or Kinds than ‘ requisite for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a ‘ Merchant Vessel.

‘ 8th.—A Boiler or other Cooking Apparatus of an ‘ unusual Size, and larger or capable of being made larger ‘ than requisite for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a ‘ Merchant Vessel, or more than One Boiler or other ‘ Cooking Apparatus of the ordinary Size.

‘ 9th.—An extraordinary Quantity of Rice, of the Flour
 ‘ of Brazil, of Manioc or Cassada commonly called ‘ Farinha, of Maize, or of Indian Corn, or of any other ‘ Article of Food whatever, beyond the probable Wants of ‘ the Crew ; unless such Rice, Flour, Farinha, Maize, ‘ Indian Corn, or other Article of Food be entered on the ‘ Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade.

‘ 10th.—A Quantity of Mats or Matting greater than is ‘ necessary for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a ‘ Merchant Vessel ; unless such Mats or Matting be en‘ tered on the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade.

‘ If it be proved that any One or more of the Articles
 ‘ above specified is or are on board, or have been on board
 ‘ during the Voyage in which the Vessel was captured, that ‘ Fact shall be considered as primâ facie Evidence that the ‘ Vessel was employed in the African Slave Trade, and she ‘ shall in consequence be condemned and declared lawful ‘ Prize ; unless the Master or Owners shall furnish clear and ‘ incontrovertible Evidence, proving to the Satisfaction of ‘ the Mixed Court of Justice that at the Time of her Deten‘ tion

‘ tion or Capture the Vessel was employed in a lawful Under‘ taking, and that such of the different Articles above specified
 ‘ as were found on board at the Time of Detention, or as may ‘ have been embarked during the Voyage on which she was ‘ engaged when captured, were indispensable for the lawful ‘ Object of her Voyage.

‘ ARTICLE VII.—If any One of the Articles specified in ‘ the preceding Article as Grounds for Condemnation should ‘ be found on board a Merchant Vessel, or should be proved ‘ to have been on board of her during the Voyage on which ‘ she was captured, no Compensation for Losses, Damages,
 ‘ or Expenses consequent upon the Detention of such Vessel ‘ shall in any Case be granted, either to the Master, the ‘ Owner, or any other Person interested in the Equipment
 ‘ or in the Lading, even though she should not be condemned
 ‘ by the Mixed Court of Justice.

‘ ARTICLE VIII.—It is agreed between the Two High ‘ Contracting Parties, that in all Cases in which a Vessel ‘ shall be detained under this Treaty by their respective ‘ Cruizers as having been engaged in the African Slave ‘ Trade, or as having been fitted out for the Purposes
 ‘ thereof, and shall consequently be adjudged and condemned
 ‘ by One of the Mixed Courts of Justice to be established as ‘ aforesaid, the said Vessel shall, immediately after its Con‘ demnation, be broken up entirely and shall be sold in ‘ separate Parts, after having been so broken up; unless ‘ either of the Two Governments should wish to purchase
 ‘ her for the Use of its Navy at a Price to be fixed by a ‘ competent Person chosen for that Purpose by the Mixed ‘ Court of Justice; in which Case the Government whose ‘ Cruiser shall have detained the condemned Vessel shall ‘ have the First Option of Purchase.

‘ ARTICLE IX.—The Captain, Master, Pilot, and Crew of ‘ any Vessel condemned by the Mixed Courts of Justice shall ‘ be punished according to the Laws of the Country to which ‘ such Vessel belongs, as shall also the Owner or Owners,
 ‘ and the Persons interested in her Equipment or Cargo, ‘ unless they prove that they had no Participation in the ‘ Enterprize.

‘ For this Purpose the Two High Contracting Parties
 ‘ agree that, in so far as it may not be attended with grievous ‘ Expense and Inconvenience, the Master and Crew of any ‘ Vessel which may be condemned by a Sentence of One of ‘ the Mixed Courts of Justice, as well as any other Persons ‘ found on board the Vessel, shall be sent and delivered up ‘ to the Jurisdiction of the Nation under whose Flag the ‘ condemned Vessel was sailing at the Time of Capture;
 ‘ and that the Witnesses and Proofs necessary to establish ‘ the Guilt of such Master, Crew, or other Persons shall also ‘ be sent with them.

‘ The same Course shall be pursued with regard to Subjects
 ‘ or Citizens of either Contracting Party who may be found ‘ by

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ by a Cruizer of the other on board a Vessel of any Third ‘ Power, or on board a Vessel sailing without Flag or Papers, ‘ which may be condemned by any competent Court for ‘ having engaged in the African Slave Trade.

‘ ARTICLE X.—The Negroes who are found on board of a ‘ Vessel condemned by the Mixed Courts of Justice, in con‘ formity with the Stipulations of this Treaty, shall be placed ‘ at the Disposal of the Government whose Cruizer has made ‘ the Capture. They shall be immediately set at liberty, and ‘ shall remain free, the Government to whom they have been ‘ delivered guaranteeing their Liberty.

‘ ARTICLE XI.—The Acts or Instruments annexed to this ‘ Treaty, and which it is mutually agreed shall form an ‘ integral Part thereof, are as follows :

‘ (A.) Instructions for the Ships of the Navies of both ‘ Nations destined to prevent the African Slave Trade.

‘ (B.) Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice.

‘ ARTICLE XII.—The present Treaty shall be ratified,
 ‘ and the Ratifications thereof shall be exchanged at London
 ‘ in Six Months from this Date, or sooner if possible. It ‘ shall continue and remain in full Force for the Term of ‘ Ten Years from the Day of Exchange of the Ratifications, ‘ and further, until the End of One Year after either of the ‘ Contracting Parties shall have given Notice to the other
 ‘ of its Intention to terminate the same ; each of the Con‘ tracting Parties reserving to itself the Right of giving ‘ such Notice to the other at the End of said Term of ‘ Ten Years. And it is hereby agreed between them, that ‘ on the Expiration of One Year after such Notice shall ‘ have been received by either from the other Party this ‘ Treaty shall altogether cease and determine.

‘ In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have ‘ signed the present Treaty, and have thereunto affixed the ‘ Seal of their Arms.

‘ ARTICLE I.—The Commander of any Ship belonging to ‘ the British or United States Navy which shall be furnished ‘ with these Instructions shall have a Right to search and ‘ detain

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ detain any British or United States Merchant Vessel ‘ which shall be actually engaged or suspected to be en‘ gaged in the African Slave Trade, or to be fitted out for ‘ the Purposes thereof, or to have been engaged in such ‘ Trade during the Voyage in which she may be met with
 ‘ by such Ship of the British or United States Navy ; and ‘ such Commander shall thereupon bring or send such Mer‘ chant Vessel (save in the Case provided for in Article V.
 ‘ of these Instructions) as soon as possible for Judgment
 ‘ before One of the Three Mixed Courts of Justice esta‘ blished in virtue of the IVth Article of the said Treaty ;
 ‘ that is to say,

‘ If the Vessel shall be detained on the Coast of Africa,
 ‘ she shall be brought before that One of the Two Mixed ‘ Courts of Justice to be established at the Cape of Good ‘ Hope and at Sierra Leone which may be nearest to the ‘ Place of Detention, or which the Captor, on his own ‘ Responsibility, may think can be soonest reached from ‘ such Place.

‘ If the Vessel shall be detained on the Coast of the Island
 ‘ of Cuba, she shall be brought before the Mixed Court of ‘ Justice at New York.

‘ ARTICLE II.—Whenever a Ship of either of the Two ‘ Navies, duly authorized as aforesaid, shall meet a Mer‘ chant Vessel liable to be searched under the Provisions of ‘ the said Treaty, the Search shall be conducted with the ‘ Courtesy and Consideration which ought to be observed ‘ between allied and friendly Nations ; and the Search shall,
 ‘ in all Cases, be made by an Officer holding a Rank not ‘ lower than that of Lieutenant in the Navy, or by the ‘ Officer who at the Time shall be Second in Command of ‘ the Ship by which such Search is made.

‘ ARTICLE III.—The Commander of any Ship of the Two ‘ Navies, duly authorized as aforesaid, who may detain any ‘ Merchant Vessel in pursuance of the Tenor of the present
 ‘ Instructions, shall leave on board the Vessel so detained
 ‘ the Master, the Mate, or Boatswain, and Two or Three ‘ at least of the Crew, the whole of the Negroes, if any,
 ‘ and all the Cargo. The Captor shall at the Time of Deten‘ tion draw up in Writing a Declaration, which shall exhibit
 ‘ the State in which he found the detained Vessel. Such ‘ Declaration shall be signed by himself, and shall be given
 ‘ in or sent, together with the captured Vessel, to the Mixed ‘ Court of Justice before whom such Vessel shall be carried
 ‘ or sent for Adjudication. He shall deliver to the Master ‘ of the detained Vessel a signed and certified List of the ‘ Papers found on board the same, as well as a Certificate of ‘ the Number of Negroes found on board at the Moment of ‘ Detention.

‘ In the Declaration which the Captor is hereby required
 ‘ to make, as well as in the certified List of the Papers ‘ seized, and in the Certificate of the Number of Negroes ‘ found

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ found on board the detained Vessel, he shall insert his ‘ own Name and Surname, the Name of the capturing Ship,
 ‘ and the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the ‘ Detention shall have been made.

‘ The Officer in charge of the detained Vessel shall, at the ‘ Time of bringing the Vessel’s Papers into the Mixed Court
 ‘ of Justice, deliver into the Court a Certificate, signed
 ‘ by himself, and verified on Oath, stating any Changes
 ‘ which may have taken place in respect to the Vessel, her ‘ Crew, the Negroes, if any, and her Cargo, between the ‘ Period of her Detention and the Time of delivering in ‘ such Paper.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—If urgent Reasons, arising from the ‘ Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes,
 ‘ or any other Cause, should require that either the whole
 ‘ or a Portion of such Negroes should be disembarked
 ‘ before the Vessel can arrive at the Place at which One ‘ of the Mixed Courts of Justice is established, the Com‘ mander of the capturing Ship may take upon himself the ‘ Responsibility of so disembarking the Negroes, provided
 ‘ the Necessity of the Disembarkation, and the Causes ‘ thereof, be stated in a proper Form. Such Certificate ‘ shall be drawn up and entered at the Time on the Log ‘ Book of the detained Vessel.

‘ ARTICLE V.—In case any Merchant Vessel detained in ‘ pursuance of the present Instruction should prove to be ‘ unseaworthy, or in such a Condition as not to be taken ‘ to One of the Three Ports where the Mixed Courts of ‘ Justice are to be established, in pursuance of the Treaty of ‘ this Date, the Commander of the detaining Cruizer may ‘ take upon himself the Responsibility of abandoning or ‘ destroying her, provided the exact Causes which made ‘ such a Step imperatively necessary be stated in a Certifi‘ cate, verified on Oath. Such Certificate shall be drawn ‘ up and formally executed in Duplicate at the Time.

‘ In case of the Abandonment or Destruction of a detained ‘ Vessel, the Master and Crew, together with the Negroes
 ‘ and Papers found on board, and One Copy of the sworn ‘ Certificate mentioned in the preceding Paragraph of this ‘ Article, shall be sent and delivered to the proper Mixed ‘ Court of Justice at the earliest possible Moment.

‘ The undersigned Plenipotentiaries have agreed, in con‘ formity with the Eleventh Article of the Treaty signed by ‘ them on this Day, that the present Instructions shall be ‘ annexed to the said Treaty, and be considered an integral ‘ Part thereof.

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ *Annex (B.) to the Treaty between Great Britain and ‘ the United States of America for the Abolition of ‘ the African Slave Trade, signed at Washington
 ‘ on the Seventh Day of April One thousand eight ‘ hundred and sixty-two.*

‘ Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice.

‘ ARTICLE I.—The Mixed Courts of Justice to be esta‘ blished under the Provisions of the Treaty, of which these ‘ Regulations are declared to be an integral Part, shall be ‘ composed in the following Manner :

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties shall each name a ‘ Judge and an Arbitrator, who shall be authorized to hear
 ‘ and to decide, without Appeal, all Cases of Capture or ‘ Detention of Vessels which, in pursuance of the Stipula‘ tions of the aforesaid Treaty, shall be brought before them.

‘ The Judges and the Arbitrators shall, before they enter ‘ upon the Duties of their Office, respectively make Oath ‘ before the principal Magistrate of the Place in which such ‘ Courts shall respectively reside, that they will judge fairly
 ‘ and faithfully ; that they will have no Preference either
 ‘ for Claimant or for Captor ; and that they will act in all ‘ their Decisions in pursuance of the Stipulations of the ‘ aforesaid Treaty.

‘ There shall be attached to each of such Courts a Secre‘ tary or Registrar, who shall be appointed by the Party in ‘ whose Territories such Court shall reside.

‘ Such Secretary or Registrar shall register all the Acts
 ‘ of the Court to which he is appointed, and shall, before
 ‘ he enters upon his Office, make Oath before the Court that ‘ he will conduct himself with due Respect for its Authority,
 ‘ and will act with Fidelity and Impartiality in all Matters ‘ relating to his Office.

‘ The Salaries of the Judges and Arbitrators shall be paid
 ‘ by the Governments by whom they are appointed.

‘ The Salary of the Secretaries or Registrars of the Two ‘ Courts to be established in the Territories of Great Britain
 ‘ shall be paid by Her Britannic Majesty, and that of the ‘ Secretary or Registrar of the Court to be established in ‘ the Territories of the United States shall be paid by the ‘ United States Government.

‘ Each of the Two Governments shall defray Half of the ‘ aggregate Amount of the other Expenses of such Courts.

‘ ARTICLE II.—The Expenses incurred by the Officer ‘ charged with the Reception, Maintenance, and Care of the ‘ detained Vessel, Negroes, and Cargo, and with the Execu‘ tion of the Sentence, and all Disbursements occasioned by ‘ bringing a Vessel to Adjudication, shall in case of Con‘ demnation be defrayed from the Funds arising out of the ‘ Sale of the Materials of the Vessel, after the Vessel shall ‘ have been broken up, of the Ship’s Stores, and of such ‘ Parts of the Cargo as shall consist of Merchandise ; and

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ in case the Proceeds arising out of this Sale should not ‘ prove sufficient to defray such Expenses, the Deficiency
‘ shall be made good by the Government of the Country ‘ within whose Territories the Adjudication shall have taken ‘ place.

‘ If the detained Vessel shall be released, the Expenses
‘ occasioned by bringing her to Adjudication shall be de‘ frayed by the Captor, except in the Cases specified and ‘ otherwise provided for under Article VII. of the Treaty
‘ to which these Regulations form an Annex, and under ‘ Article VII. of these Regulations.

‘ ARTICLE III.—The Mixed Courts of Justice are to ‘ decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Vessels
‘ as the Cruizers of either Nation shall detain, in pursuance
‘ of the said Treaty.

‘ The said Courts shall adjudge definitively and without ‘ Appeal all Questions which shall arise out of the Capture
‘ and Detention of such Vessels.

‘ The Proceedings of the Courts shall take place as sum‘ marily as possible; and for this Purpose the Courts are ‘ required to decide each Case, as far as may be practicable, ‘ within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from the ‘ Day on which the detained Vessel shall have been brought ‘ into the Port where the deciding Court shall reside.

‘ The final Sentence shall not in any Case be delayed ‘ beyond the Period of Two Months, either on account of ‘ the Absence of Witnesses or for any other Cause, except ‘ upon the Application of any of the Parties interested; but
‘ in that Case, upon such Party or Parties giving satisfac‘ tory Security that they will take upon themselves the Ex‘ pense and Risks of the Delay, the Courts may, at their ‘ Discretion, grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four ‘ Months.

‘ Either Party shall be allowed to employ such Counsel as ‘ he may think fit to assist him in the Conduct of his Cause.

‘ All the Acts and essential Parts of the Proceedings of ‘ the said Courts shall be committed to Writing, and be ‘ placed upon record.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—The Form of the Process or Mode of ‘ proceeding to Judgment shall be as follows:

‘ The Judges appointed by the Two Governments respec‘ tively shall in the first place proceed to examine the Papers
‘ of the detained Vessel, and shall take the Depositions of ‘ the Master or Commander, and of Two or Three at least ‘ of the principal Individuals on board of such Vessel, and ‘ shall also take the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, if it ‘ should appear to them necessary to do so, in order to ‘ judge and to pronounce whether the said Vessel has been ‘ justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the ‘ aforesaid Treaty, and in order that, according to such ‘ Judgment, the Vessel may be condemned or released. In ‘ the event of the Two Judges not agreeing as to the Sen‘ tence

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ tence which they ought to pronounce in any Case brought ‘ before them, whether with respect to the Legality of the ‘ Detention, or the Liability of the Vessel to Condemnation, ‘ or as to the Indemnification to be allowed, or as to any ‘ other Question which may arise out of the said Capture, or ‘ in case any Difference of Opinion should arise between ‘ them as to the Mode of proceeding in the said Court, they ‘ shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Arbitrators
 ‘ so appointed as aforesaid, which Arbitrator, after ‘ having considered the Proceedings which have taken place, ‘ shall consult with the Two Judges on the Case; and the ‘ final Sentence or Decision shall be pronounced conformably ‘ to the Opinion of the Majority of the Three.

‘ ARTICLE V.—If the detained Vessel shall be restored
 ‘ by the Sentence of the Court, the Vessel and the Cargo, ‘ in the State in which they shall then be found (with the ‘ Exception of the Negroes found on board, if such Negroes ‘ shall have been previously disembarked under the Provi‘ sions of Articles IV. and V. of the Instructions annexed
 ‘ to the Treaty of this Date), shall forthwith be given up ‘ to the Master, or to the Person who represents him; and ‘ such Master or other Person may, before the same Court, ‘ claim a Valuation of the Damages which he may have a ‘ Right to demand. The Captor himself, and in his Default
 ‘ his Government, shall remain responsible for the Damages
 ‘ to which the Master of such Vessel, or the Owners either ‘ of the Vessel or of her Cargo, may be pronounced to be ‘ entitled.

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties bind themselves to ‘ pay, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the ‘ Sentence, the Costs and Damages which may be awarded
 ‘ by the Court; it being mutually agreed that such Costs
 ‘ and Damages shall be paid by the Government of the ‘ Country of which the Captor shall be a Subject.

‘ ARTICLE VI. — If the detained Vessel shall be con‘ demned, she shall be declared lawful Prize, together with ‘ her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the ‘ Exception of the Negroes who shall have been brought on ‘ board for the Purpose of Trade; and the said Vessel, sub‘ ject to the Stipulations in the VIIIth Article of the Treaty
 ‘ of this Date, shall, as well as her Cargo, be sold by Public ‘ Sale for the Profit of the Two Governments, subject to ‘ the Payment of the Expenses herein-after mentioned.

‘ The Negroes who may not previously have been dis‘ embarked shall receive from the Court a Certificate of ‘ Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Govern‘ ment to whom the Cruizer which made the Capture belongs,
 ‘ in order to be forthwith set at liberty.

‘ ARTICLE VII.—The Mixed Courts of Justice shall also ‘ take cognizance of, and shall decide definitively and without ‘ Appeal, all Claims for Compensation on account of Losses ‘ occasioned to Vessels and Cargoes which shall have been ‘ detained

African Slave Trade Treaty.

‘ detained under the Provisions of this Treaty, but which ‘ shall not have been condemned as legal Prize by the said ‘ Courts; and in all Cases wherein Restitution of such ‘ Vessels and Cargoes shall be decreed, save as mentioned in ‘ the VIIth Article of the Treaty to which these Regula‘ tions form an Annex, and in a subsequent Part of these ‘ Regulations, the Court shall award to the Claimant or ‘ Claimants, or to his or their lawful Attorney or Attornies,
 ‘ for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification
 ‘ for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages
 ‘ which the Owner or Owners may have actually sustained
 ‘ by such Capture and Detention; and it is agreed that the ‘ Indemnification shall be as follows:

‘ First.—In case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claim‘ ants shall be indemnified,—

‘ (A.) For the Ship, her Tackle, Equipment, and Stores.

‘ (B.) For all Freights due and payable.

‘ (C.) For the Value of the Cargo of Merchandise, if ‘ any, deducting all Charges and Expenses which would ‘ have been payable upon the Sale of such Cargo, including ‘ Commission of Sale.

‘ (D.) For all other regular Charges in such Case of ‘ total Loss.

‘ Secondly.—In all other Cases (save as herein-after ‘ mentioned) not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants ‘ shall be indemnified,—

‘ (A.) For all special Damages and Expenses occasioned
 ‘ to the Ship by the Detention, and for Loss of Freight, ‘ when due or payable.

‘ (B.) For Demurrage, when due, according to the ‘ Schedule annexed to the present Article.

‘ (C.) For any Deterioration of the Cargo.

‘ (D.) For all Premium of Insurance on additional ‘ Risks.

‘ The Claimant or Claimants shall be entitled to Interest
 ‘ at the Rate of 5 (Five) per Cent. per Annum on the Sum ‘ awarded, until such Sum is paid by the Government to ‘ which the capturing Ship belongs. The whole Amount
 ‘ of such Indemnifications shall be calculated in the Money
 ‘ of the Country to which the detained Vessel belongs, and ‘ shall be liquidated at the Exchange current at the Time
 ‘ of the Award.

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties, however, have ‘ agreed, that if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of ‘ the Judges of the Two Nations, and without having re‘ course to the Decision of an Arbitrator, that the Captor
 ‘ has been led into Error by the Fault of the Master or Com‘ mander of the detained Vessel, the detained Vessel in that ‘ Case shall not have the Right of receiving for the Time
 ‘ of her Detention the Demurrage stipulated by the present
 ‘ Article, nor any other Compensation for Losses, Damages, ‘ or Expenses consequent upon such Detention.

 Death of the Commander of such Ship or otherwise the Command thereof shall have devolved upon an Officer of inferior Rank, and then for such last-mentioned Officer), and who shall be duly instructed and authorized, according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and for any Officer not below the Rank of Lieutenant in the Royal Navy who shall be acting under the Orders of any Officer commanding a Ship of War so instructed and authorized as aforesaid, to visit and search any Merchant Vessel of either of the said Two Nations which shall upon reasonable Grounds be suspected of being engaged in the Traffic in Slaves, or of having been fitted out for that Purpose, or of having been engaged in such Traffic during the Voyage in which such Vessel is met, and to detain and send or carry away such Vessel, together with its Masters, Sailors, Passengers, Slaves, and Cargo, for the Purpose of such Vessel being brought to Adjudication before One of the Mixed Courts of Justice, to be established in virtue of the Fourth Article of the said Treaty; and all such Slaves liable to Search and Detention.

3. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, to appoint such Judges and Arbitrators as are in and by the said Treaty mentioned to be appointed by Her Majesty, and from Time to Time to supply any Vacancies which may arise in such Offices by appointing other Persons thereto, and to grant Salaries to such Judges and Arbitrators as aforesaid, not exceeding such annual Sums as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct; and such Judges and Arbitrators shall be empowered to examine and decide all such Cases of Detention, Captures, and Seizures of Vessels and their Cargoes as aforesaid, detained, seized, or captured under the said Treaty, as by the said Treaty and by this Act made subject to their Jurisdiction, and to proceed therein, and give such Judgments and make such Orders therein, and do all other Things appertaining thereto, agreeably to the Provisions of the said Treaty, as fully as if special Powers for that Purpose were inserted in this Act.

Her Majesty may appoint Judges and Arbitrators to decide Cases of Detention.

4. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, to appoint a Secretary or Registrar to each of the Mixed Courts of Justice which shall be established in Her Majesty's Dominions, and from Time to Time to supply by other Appointments any Vacancy which may thereafter occur in such Office, and to grant a Salary to such Secretary or Registrar not exceeding such annual Sum as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct; and such Secretary or Registrar shall be empowered to perform all the Duties of such Office set forth by the said Treaty, and to do all such Things as may be necessary for the due Discharge of the Duties of his said Office.

Her Majesty may appoint a Secretary or Registrar to the Mixed Court.

5. In case of the Death, Sickness, Absence on Leave, or any other legal Impediment of any such British Judge of any of the said Courts established by virtue of the said Treaty, the British Arbitrator of such Court shall fill the Office of such Judge ad interim until the Office shall be thereafter filled by some Person appointed by Her Majesty, or until such Judge shall resume the Duties of his said Office; and in case of the Vacancy of the Office of British Arbitrator of the Mixed Court established by virtue of the said Treaty in the Possessions of Her Majesty, or in case of the Death, Sickness, Absence on Leave, or other Impediment of the said Arbitrator of the said Court of Justice, the Office of such Arbitrator shall be filled ad interim successively by the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor resident in such Possession, by the principal Magistrate in the same, and by the Judge of the said Mixed Court, the Office of such United States Arbitrator shall be filled by the United States Consul, or in the unavoidable Absence of the Consul by the United States Vice-Consul; and in case the Vacancy be both of the United States Judge and United States Arbitrator, then the Vacancy of the United States Judge shall be filled by the United States Consul, and that of the United States Arbitrator by the United States Vice-Consul; and if there be no United States Consul or Vice-Consul to fill the Place of the United States Arbitrator, then it shall be lawful for the British Arbitrator to act in all those Cases in which the United States Arbitrator would be required to act; and in case the Vacancy be both of the United States Judge and of the United States Arbitrator, and there be neither United States Consul nor Vice-Consul to fill ad interim the Vacancies, then it shall be lawful for the British Judge and the British Arbitrator to sit in such Court; and in all Cases brought before them for Adjudication it shall be lawful for such Court so constituted to adjudge the same, and pass Sentence accordingly, until the said Offices shall respectively be thereafter filled by some Person or Persons appointed by the United States, or until the said United States Judge and United States Arbitrator shall resume the Duties of their said Offices respectively.

sitting within Territories of Her Majesty.

8. Every such Judge and Arbitrator so appointed by Her Majesty, before he shall enter upon the Execution of any of the Duties of such his Office, shall take an Oath in the Presence of the principal Magistrate then residing and acting in the Colony, Settlement, or Place in which the Mixed Court shall be established, whether belonging to Her Majesty or to the United States of America; which Oath any such Magistrate shall be authorized to administer in the Form following; (that is to say,)

Judges and Arbitrators to take an Oath.

‘ I A.B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office as faithfully, impartially, fairly, and without Preference or Favour, either for Claimants or Captors or any other Persons, and that I will to the best of my Judgment and Power act in pursuance of and according to the Stipulations, Regulations, and Instructions contained in the Treaty between Her Majesty and the United States of America, signed at Washington on the Seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.’

Form of Oath. [See amending Act of this Session, Cap. 90.]

And every Secretary or Registrar appointed by Her Majesty under the Provisions of the said Treaty and of this Act, before he enters on the Duties of his said Office, shall take an Oath before One of the Judges of the said Mixed Courts, who shall be empowered to administer the same in the Form following; (that is to say,)

Secretary or Registrar to take an Oath.

‘ I A.B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office, and that I will conduct myself with Respect to the Authority of the Judges and Arbitrators of the Court to which I am attached, and will act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which

‘ which may belong to my Charge, and without Preference or Favour, either for Claimants or Captors or any other Persons.’

Judges and Arbitrators may administer Oaths.

9. It shall be lawful for the said Judges or Arbitrators, or either of them, or for any such Secretary or Registrar, to administer Oaths to and take the Depositions of all Parties, Witnesses, and other Persons who may come or be brought before them to be examined, or for the Purpose of deposing in the Course of any Proceeding before the said Judges or Arbitrators under the said Treaty and this Act; and it shall also be lawful for the said Judges and Arbitrators to summon before them all Persons whom they may deem it necessary or proper to examine in relation to any Proceeding under their Cognizance, and to send for and issue Precepts for the producing all such Papers as may relate to the Matters in question before them, and to enforce all such Summonses, Orders, and Precepts by such and the like Means, Powers, and Authorities as any Court of Vice-Admiralty may do.

Punishing Persons giving false Evidence.

10. Every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence in any Examination or Deposition had or Affidavit taken in any Proceeding before the Judges or Arbitrators aforesaid under the said Treaty or this Act shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and being thereof convicted shall be subject and liable to all the Pains and Penalties to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable; and every such Person may be tried for any such Perjury either in the Place where the Offence was committed or in any Colony or Settlement of Her Majesty near thereto in which there is a Court of competent Jurisdiction to try any such Offence, or in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in England; and in case of any Prosecution for such Offence in Her Majesty's said Court of Queen's Bench the Venue may be laid in the County of Middlesex.

Pendency of Suits before the Mixed Court to be a Bar to any Proceedings instituted for the Recovery of the Vessels detained.

11. The Pendency of any Suit or Proceeding instituted before the said Judges or Arbitrators for the Condemnation or Restitution of any Ship or Cargo of Slaves taken, seized, or detained by virtue of the said Treaty, or the final Adjudication, Condemnation, or Judgment or Determination thereupon, may be pleaded in Bar or given in Evidence under the General Issue, and shall be deemed in any Court whatever to be a complete Bar in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding instituted by any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any such Ship, Vessel, or Cargo, or of any Damage or for any Injury sustained in consequence of any Capture, Seizure, or Detention, or anything done in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty.

Vessels equipped for Traffic in Slaves to be deemed engaged in the Slave Trade.

12. If any of the Particulars specified in the Sixth Article of the said Treaty shall be found in the Outfit and Equipment of or on board of any such Merchant Vessel wholly or in part owned by Subjects of Her Majesty, and visited and detained in pursuance of the said Treaty, such Vessel, unless Proof be given to the contrary, shall be taken to have been engaged in the Slave Trade, or to have been fitted out for the Purpose of such Traffic, and to be equipped and employed for the Purposes declared unlawful by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade.

13. Immediately after Sentence of Condemnation upon a Vessel charged with being concerned in illegal Slave Trade shall have been passed by the Mixed Court of Justice established under the said Treaty, all Negroes or others who were on board for the Purpose of being consigned to Slavery shall be delivered over to the Government to whom belongs the Cruiser which made the Capture.

Captured Negroes to be delivered over.

14. Any Ship or Vessel which shall be condemned under any such Authority as aforesaid may be taken into Her Majesty's Service upon Payment of such Sum as the Lord High Admiral or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall deem a proper Price for the same, or if not so taken shall be broken up and demolished, and the Materials thereof shall be publicly sold in separate Parts, and the Proceeds thereof, and of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandise laden therein, shall be paid to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may appoint to receive the same.

Vessel condemned to be sold for Her Majesty's Service or broken up.

15. Where any Ship or Vessel employed or engaged in illicit Traffic in Slaves, in violation of the said Treaty, shall be seized by any Ship or Vessel belonging to Her Majesty duly authorized to make such Seizure under the Provisions of the said Treaty, and shall be afterwards condemned by any of the Commissioners appointed in virtue of the said Treaty, there shall be paid to the Captors the Portion to which Her Majesty is entitled, such Portion to be distributed in the Manner herein-after directed for the Distribution of Bounties on Slaves taken on board the said Vessels.

Captors of Vessels entitled to the Portion of the Proceeds belonging to Her Majesty.

16. For the Purpose of giving effect to the Ninth Article of the said Treaty, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, with respect to Persons being within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or principal Magistrate of any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, with respect to Persons being within such other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, if he shall think fit, by Order in Writing under his Hand, to direct that the Captain, Master, Pilot, or any of the Crew of any Vessel which shall have been so condemned as mentioned in the said Ninth Article, or any other Person found on board such Vessel at the Time of Capture, shall be forthwith conveyed within the Jurisdiction of the Nation under whose Flag such Vessel so condemned as aforesaid was sailing at the Time of Capture, or to which such Vessel may belong; and when any such Order shall have been made as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to arrest and detain within any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions any Person in respect of whom any such Order shall have been made as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any Judge, Justice of the Peace, Headborough, Peace Officer, Constable, or other Person having the like Authority to cause to be arrested and detained, and to arrest and detain, for the Purpose of being conveyed within the proper Jurisdiction, any Person in respect of whom such Order shall have been made as aforesaid, as fully and effectually as if such Person had committed a Felony within the Jurisdiction where such Person may be.

Persons found on board condemned Vessel may be sent to proper Jurisdiction to be tried.

Measures to be taken to secure Attendance of Witnesses.

17. When any such Order shall have been made, such Secretary of State, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or other principal Magistrate making such Order shall be empowered to take all such Measures as to him shall seem requisite and expedient for the Purpose of securing the Attendance of Witnesses, and the Production of Proofs necessary to establish the Guilt of the Person or Persons with respect to whom such Order shall have been made before the Court or Judge having the proper Jurisdiction in that Behalf.

Bounty for Slaves captured.

18. There shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make Seizures under the said Treaty a Bounty of Five Pounds for every Man, Woman, and Child Slave seized and found on board a British or American Ship or Vessel taken and condemned in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty and of this Act, such Bounty to be distributed to and amongst the Captors aforesaid in such Manner and Proportions as Her Majesty shall think fit to order by any Order in Council, or by any Proclamation to be made for that Purpose.

Bounty on Tonnage of Slave Ships captured and demolished.

19. Where any Ship or Vessel which shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the Treaty aforesaid shall have been or shall be demolished, and the Materials thereof publicly sold in separate Parts, as well as her Cargo, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make and making such Seizures, in addition to the Amount which may be payable in respect of Her Majesty's Portion of the Proceeds of such Sale, as herein-before mentioned, a further Bounty on the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel at the Rate of Thirty Shillings for every Ton of such Tonnage.

Where no Slaves are on board a Ship seized an additional Bounty to be paid.

20. Where any Ship or Vessel having no Slaves on board shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Treaty, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make and making such Seizure an additional Bounty upon the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel at the Rate of Four Pounds for every Ton, and the Tonnage of all such Vessels shall be ascertained according to the Mode of ascertaining the Admeasurement of British Vessels, either by the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port where the Vessel may be at the Time of Condemnation, or in default thereof by the best Evidence which can be obtained, to be certified by the Commissioners by whom such Condemnation shall be pronounced: Provided always, that in every Case in which any Ship or Vessel shall be seized with Slaves on board in which the Bounty calculated upon the Number of Slaves shall be less than the Bounty calculated upon the Tonnage, the Commanders of Her Majesty's Ships making the Seizure may elect to take the Bounty calculated according to Tonnage, instead of the Bounty which would be payable upon the Number of Slaves on board.

African Slave Trade Treaty.

21. All Bounties payable under this Act shall be paid out of any Monies that may be provided by Parliament for that Purpose to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make such Seizures under the Provisions of any such Treaty or Convention, and such Bounties shall be issued and paid by Order from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Bounties to be paid out of Monies to be provided by Parliament.

22. The said Bounty, as also all Bounties payable under any of the Acts for the Abolition or Suppression of the Slave Trade, shall not hereafter be charged with Treasury Fees or Exchequer Fees of any Description.

Bounties not liable to Payment of Fees.

23. In order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money, the Tonnage of the Ship or Vessel so seized and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by producing a Copy duly certified of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, or by such documentary or other Evidence as they may deem satisfactory.

Proof of Tonnage.

24. In order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money, the Number of Men, Women, and Children so taken, delivered over, and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by producing a Copy, duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, and also a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer or Officers, Military or Civil, who may be appointed to receive such Shares.

Copy of Sentence of Condemnation to be produced to the Treasury.

25. Where any Slaves or Persons treated as Slaves shall be seized on board any British or American Ship or Vessel taken and condemned in pursuance of the said Treaty and of this Act, but who shall not have been delivered over in consequence of Death, Sickness, or other inevitable Circumstance, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, to direct the Payment of One Moiety of the Bounty which would have been due in each Case respectively if the said Slaves had been delivered over.

One Moiety of this Bounty only to be paid in certain Cases.

26. Any Party or Parties claiming any Benefit by Way of Bounty under the Provisions of this Act, or of the Share of the Proceeds of any British or American Vessel confiscated in pursuance of the Provisions of the aforesaid Treaty, may resort to the High Court of Admiralty for the Purpose of obtaining the Judgment of the said Court in that Behalf, and it shall be lawful for the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty to determine thereon, and also to hear and determine any Question of joint Capture which may arise upon any Seizure made in pursuance of this Act, and also to enforce any Decrees or Sentences of the said Vice-Admiralty Courts relating to any such Seizure.

Parties claiming Benefit under this Act may resort to the Court of Admiralty.

27. All the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures, and Penalties respecting the Delivery by Prize Agents of Accounts for Examination, and the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize, and the Per-centage due thereon to Greenwich Hospital, shall be extended to all the Bounties and Proceeds to be distributed under the Provisions of this Act to the Officers and Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Regulations respecting Prize Agents Accounts extended to Bounties, &c.

African Slave Trade Treaty.

Treasury may order Payment of Costs awarded for Vessels of Her Majesty and of the United States of America detained but not condemned.

28. Where any Ship or Vessel belonging in whole or in part to Subjects of Her Majesty or of the United States of America shall have been detained and brought to Adjudication by any Officers of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and the said Ship shall be restored by Sentence of the Mixed Court, as is mentioned in the Fifth Article of the Annex (B.) to the said Treaty, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct Payment to be made out of any Monies that may be provided by Parliament as aforesaid of any Costs or Damages which may be duly awarded according to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Article: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt such Officer from his Liability to make good the Payments so made when lawfully called upon by Order of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Treasury may repay to the Seizor of any Vessel not condemned the Expenses incurred by him.

29. When any Seizure shall be made by any of the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make such Seizures under the aforesaid Treaty, and Judgment shall be given against the Seizor, or when such Seizure shall be relinquished by him, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, to direct Payment to be made out of any Monies that may be provided by Parliament as aforesaid of such Costs and Expenses as the Seizor may have incurred in respect of such Seizure or any proportionate Part thereof.

No Compensation when certain Articles are found on board.

30. If any of the Things specified in the Sixth Article of the said Treaty shall be found on board any Vessel which shall be detained and brought before the said Mixed Court of Justice, neither the Master nor the Owner, nor any Persons whatsoever interested in the Equipment or Cargo of the Vessel, shall recover any Compensation or Damages for such Detention, although the said Commissioners should not pronounce any Sentence of Condemnation.

Right of Search and Detention only to be exercised with certain Limits;

31. The Right of Search and Detention by the First Article of the said Treaty conferred shall be exercised only within the Distance of Two hundred Miles from the Coast of Africa, and to the Southward of the Thirty-second Parallel of North Latitude, and within Thirty Leagues of the Coast of the Island of Cuba.

and not by one Nation in Ports, &c. of the other.

32. It shall not be lawful for Vessels of War of either of the said Two Nations to exercise such Right of Search within the Limits of a Settlement or Port or within the Territorial Waters of the other Nation.

Actions or Suits for Things done in pursuance of the said Treaty or this Act.

33. If any Action or Suit shall be commenced in Great Britain or elsewhere against any Person or Persons for anything done in pursuance of the said Treaty or of this Act, in as far as it relates thereto, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance of and by the Authority of the said Treaty or of this Act, and if it shall appear so to have been done the Jury shall find for the Defendant or the Defendants, and if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action after

An Act to regulate the Procedure in the High Court of Chancery and the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster. [17th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the High Court of Chancery has Power in certain Cases to refuse or postpone the Application of Remedies within its Jurisdiction, until Questions of Law and Fact on which the Title to such Remedies depends have been determined or ascertained in One of Her Majesty’s Courts of Common Law: And whereas it is expedient that the said Power should no longer exist, and that in all such Cases every Question of Law and of Fact, cognizable in a Court of Common Law, arising in the said Court of Chancery, on which the Right of any Party to any equitable Relief or Remedy depends, and whether the Title to such Relief or Remedy be or be not incident to or dependent upon a legal Right, should be determined by or before the said Court itself: And whereas the Procedure of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster has been assimilated to the Procedure of the said High Court in the Matters aforesaid; and it is expedient that the future Procedure of the said Courts should also be alike: Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Court shall determine every Question of Law and Fact incident to the Relief sought.

1. In all Cases in which any Relief or Remedy within the Jurisdiction of the said Courts of Chancery respectively is or shall be sought in any Cause or Matter instituted or pending in either of the said Courts, and whether the Title to such Relief or Remedy be or be not incident to or dependent upon a legal Right, every Question of Law or Fact, cognizable in a Court of Common Law, on the Determination of which the Title to such Relief or Remedy depends, shall be determined by or before the same Court.

Where Questions of Fact may be more conveniently tried at Assizes, Issues may be directed.

2. Provided always, That whenever it shall appear to either of such Courts that any Question of Fact may be more conveniently tried by a Jury at the Assizes, or at any Sitting in London or Middlesex for the Trial of Issues in the Superior Courts of Common Law, it shall be lawful for such Court, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, to direct an Issue to try any Question of Fact at the Assizes to be held in and for any County where the same may be conveniently tried, or at any such Sitting for the Trial of Issues in London or Middlesex as aforesaid; and (subject to such General Orders, if any, as may hereafter be made in relation thereto,) the Practice hitherto existing in such Court in reference to the Trial of Issues shall prevail in reference to the Trial of any Issues directed under this Proviso.

Chancery Regulation.Education of Pauper Children.

3. All the Provisions with reference to the Trial of Questions of Fact by or before the High Court of Chancery, and by or before the Court of Chancery of the said County Palatine, which are contained in "The Chancery Amendment Act, 1858," shall apply to the Determination of Questions of Fact by or before the said Courts respectively under this Act.

Provisions of 21 & 22 Vict. c. 27. to apply to this Act.

4. Provided also, That in all Cases in which the Object of any Suit in Equity shall be to recover or to defend the Possession of Land under a legal Title, or under a Title which would have been legal but for the Existence of some outstanding Term, Lease, or Mortgage (and whether mesne Profits or Damages shall or shall not also be sought in such Suit), such Relief only shall be given in Equity as would have been proper according to the Rules and Practice of the Court if this Act had not passed; and nothing in this Act shall make it necessary for a Court of Equity to grant Relief in any Suit concerning any Matter as to which a Court of Common Law has concurrent Jurisdiction, if it shall appear to the Court that such Matter has been improperly brought into Equity, and that the same ought to have been left to the sole Determination of a Court of Common Law.

Proviso in Cases where Object of Suit to recover or defend Possession of Land under a legal Title.

5. Nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect the Power of the Judges of the High Court of Chancery to sit with the Assistance of a Judge of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Common Law.

Court of Chancery may sit with Assistance of a Common Law Judge.

6. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and may be cited or referred to as "The Chancery Regulation Act, 1862."

Commencement of Act. Short Title.

C A P. XLIII.

An Act to provide for the Education and Maintenance of Pauper Children in certain Schools and Institutions.

[17th July 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that Facilities should be given to Guardians of the Poor to provide Education and Maintenance for poor Children in certain Cases where they are not empowered to do so by the Laws now in force: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

1. That the Guardians of any Parish or Union may send any poor Child to any School certified as herein-after mentioned, and supported wholly or partially by voluntary Subscriptions, the Managers of which shall be willing to receive such Child, and may pay out of the Funds in their Possession the Expenses incurred in the Maintenance, Clothing, and Education of such Child therein during the Time such Child shall remain at such School (not exceeding the total Sum which would have been charged for the Maintenance of such Child if relieved in the Workhouse during the same Period), and in the Conveyance of such Poor Law Board to certify the School.

2. The Poor Law Board may, if they think fit, upon the Application in Writing of the Managers of any such School as aforesaid, appoint such Person as they shall deem proper to examine into the Condition of the School, and to report to the said Board thereon, and, if satisfied with such Report, that Board may, by Writing under the Hand of One of their Secretaries, certify that such School is fitted for the Reception of such Children or Persons as may be sent there by the Guardians, in pursuance of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the said Board, if at any Time they shall be dissatisfied with the Condition or Management of such School, by Notice addressed to the Managers, and signed as aforesaid, to declare that the Certificate is withdrawn from and after a Day to be specified therein, not less than Two Months after the Date thereof.

Poor Law Board may order Children to be removed from School.

3. If the Poor Law Board shall be of opinion that any Person is aggrieved by any Child being so sent or kept at such School as aforesaid, the Board may order any such Child to be removed, and the Guardians shall forthwith cause such Child to be removed from the School, and every Engagement previously entered into for the Payment of the Charges of such Child shall thereupon cease, and become void for the future.

School to be open to Inspection.

4. Every School wherein any such Child shall be received shall be open to the Visitation and Inspection of any Inspector appointed by the Poor Law Board, and he shall be empowered to make any Examination into the State and Management of the same which he shall deem requisite, and the Condition and Treatment of the said Children therein, and shall make his Report thereon to the said Board; and the Guardians by whom any Child may have been sent to any such School as aforesaid may from Time to Time appoint any one of their Body to visit and inspect such School, and such School shall at all reasonable Times be open to such Visitation or Inspection.

Guardians to bring back Child to Parish or Union.

5. The Guardians may at any Time, at their Discretion, and shall, upon the Requisition of the Managers of the School, or upon the Withdrawal of the Certificate, as herein provided, cause any such Child to be removed from any such School, and brought back to their Parish or Union.

Description of Child to be sent to School.

6. No Child shall be sent to such School unless he or she be an Orphan, or deserted by his or her Parents or surviving Parent, or be One whose Parents or surviving Parent shall consent to the sending of such Child to the said School.

Continuance in School not to be compulsory.

7. Nothing herein contained shall enable the Guardians to keep any Child in any School against the Will of such Child, if above the Age of Fourteen, or of the Parents or surviving Parent of such Child, whatever be the Age of the Child.

Charge of Expenses how to be borne.

8. The Expenses incurred by the Guardians in respect of any Child under this Act shall be charged to the same Fund and in the same Manner as the Relief otherwise supplied to such Child would be charged.

Education of Pauper Children. Discharged Prisoners Aid.

9. No Child shall be sent under this Act to any School which is conducted on the Principles of a Religious Denomination to which such Child does not belong.

Child not to be sent to certain Schools.

10. The several Words used in this Act shall be construed as in the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six; and the Word "School" shall extend to any Institution established for the Instruction of blind, deaf, dumb, lame, deformed, or idiotic Persons, but shall not apply to any certified Reformatory School.

Interpretation of "School."

11. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

C A P. XLIV.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the giving of Aid to discharged Prisoners. [17th July 1862.]

WHEREAS by the Thirty-ninth Section of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the building, repairing, and regulating of certain Gaols and Houses of Correction in England and Wales, and herein-after referred to as "the Gaol Act," it is provided that it should be lawful for any One or more of the Visiting Justices of any Prison to which that Act extended, from whence any Prisoner should be discharged, to direct that such moderate Sum of Money should be given and paid to any and every such Prisoner so discharged who should not have the Means of returning to his or her Family or Place of Settlement, or resorting to any Place of Employment or honest Occupation, as, in the Judgment of such Justice or Justices, should be requisite and necessary for such Purpose, under all the Circumstances attending the Case of any such Prisoner; and that such Sum of Money should be paid by the Keeper of such Prison, to or for the Use of such Prisoner for the Purpose aforesaid, and that all such Sums should be provided for, either out of such Bequests or Benefactions as therein mentioned, or in such Manner as is by the Gaol Act directed with respect to the Expense of the Support and Maintenance of the Prisoners in the Prisons to which such Act extends: And whereas divers Societies, herein-after referred to as "Discharged Prisoners Aid Societies," have been formed in divers Parts of England, by Persons subscribing voluntarily, for the Purpose of finding Employment for discharged Prisoners, and enabling them by Loans and Grants of Money to live by honest Labour: And whereas it is expedient that Power should be given to the Visiting Justices of Prisons to give Aid under the said Act to discharged Prisoners through the Medium of a Discharged Prisoners Aid Society, in Cases where such Society has been previously certified by the Justices having Jurisdiction over such Gaol or House of Correction, at some Court of General or Quarter Sessions, or at some Quarterly Sessions held by them, to be a Society approved of by them:

4 G. 4. c. 64. (1823.)

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with Discharged Prisoners Aid.

with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Power to Justices to grant Certificates of Approval of Prisoners Aid Societies ;

1. The Justices having Jurisdiction over any Gaol or House of Correction to which the Gaol Act extends may, at any Court of General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Quarterly Sessions, upon the Application of any One or more Member or Members of a Prisoners Aid Society, and after examining the Rules of such Society, and receiving such Evidence as they think fit as to the Condition of such Society, issue a Certificate under the Hand of their Chairman to the Effect that such Society is approved of by them for the Purposes of this Act ; and they may, at any future Court of General or Quarter Sessions, or at any future Quarterly Sessions, upon due Cause shown, by a Writing under the Hand of their Chairman, revoke or suspend such Certificate ; and any Society in respect of which such Certificate as aforesaid has been granted and remains in force shall be deemed to be a "Certified Prisoners Aid Society," and to be entitled to such Privileges as are herein-after mentioned.

and to revoke or suspend the same.

2. Where a Prisoner is discharged from any Prison to which the said Gaol Act extends, the Visiting Justices of such Prison, instead of directing that such moderate Sum of Money shall be paid by the Keeper of such Prison to or for the Use of such Prisoner for the Purpose aforesaid, may if they think fit direct that such Sum, not exceeding in any Case Two Pounds, shall be paid to the Treasurer of a certified Prisoners Aid Society on their receiving from such Society an Undertaking in Writing, signed by the Secretary thereof, that the same shall be applied for the Benefit of such Prisoner : Provided that if it shall not be possible for the Society so to apply such Sum for the Benefit of such Prisoner, the same or so much thereof as shall not have been so applied shall be applied by such Society for the Benefit of such other Prisoner or Prisoners discharged from the said Gaol as the said Visiting Justices shall direct.

Relief may be afforded by "Certified Prisoners Aid Society."

3. All Sums paid to a certified Prisoners Aid Society under this Act shall be provided for out of the same Funds and in the same Manner as is by the said Gaol Act directed with respect to the Sums therein authorized to be given or paid as herein-before recited to discharged Prisoners.

Funds out of which Repayments provided.

C A P. XLV.

An Act to amend "The West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 and 1858." [17th July 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that "The West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 and 1858," should be amended : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts Amendment.

- 1. This Act may for all Purposes be cited as “The West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1862.” Short Title.
- 2. “The West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1854,” (herein-after called “the Principal Act,”) “The West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1858,” (herein-after called “the First Amendment Act,”) and this Act shall, so far as is consistent with the Context and Objects of such Acts, be construed as One Act, and the Principal Act, the First Amendment Act, and this Act (herein-after referred to as “these Acts”), may for all Purposes be cited as “The West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854, 1858, 1862.” 17 & 18 Vict. c. 117. and 21 & 22 Vict. c. 96., and this Act to be as One.
- 3. When the Commissioners shall have made an absolute Order for the Sale of any Lands under these Acts, they shall have the same Powers of appointing a Receiver or Receivers of such Lands, or any Part thereof, as the Court of Chancery in England has of appointing a Receiver of the Rents and Profits of any Lands within the Jurisdiction of such Court in a Suit relating to such Lands, and the Receiver or Receivers so appointed shall from the Date of such Appointment have and possess all the Powers, Authorities, Rights, and Privileges which Receivers appointed by the Court of Chancery in England have in respect of the Lands over which they are appointed Receivers, subject to such general Rules as the Commissioners in England shall from Time to Time make under the Principal Act. Power to appoint Receivers of Lands after absolute Order for Sale.
- 4. Every Receiver so appointed by the Commissioners shall give such Security for the due Performance of his Office as the Commissioners shall require, and shall be entitled to such Remuneration by Salary, Commission, or otherwise, as the Commissioners shall direct, subject to such general Rules as the Commissioners in England shall from Time to Time make under the Principal Act, and the Balance, due to such Receiver in respect of such Salary, Commission, or other Remuneration, or in respect of such Sums as he may have properly expended in the Management and Cultivation of such Lands, shall be a Charge on such Lands in priority to all Incumbrances thereon. Security by and Remuneration of Receivers.
- 5. It is hereby declared that the Term “Fees” in the Thirtieth Section of the Principal Act includes as well fixed Payments or Charges in respect of Proceedings under these Acts, as also Commissions or Percentages on the Amount of the Purchase Monies of Lands sold under these Acts. Fees and Commissions.
- 6. Where Her Majesty, by Order in Council, has directed or shall direct the Principal Act, or the Principal Act and the First Amendment Act, to come into operation in any of the Colonies mentioned in the Schedule to the Principal Act, or where any of such Colonies has presented or shall present an Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to issue such Order, then and in every such Case such Order and such Address respectively shall apply and be construed to apply as well to this Act as to the Principal Act, or as to the Principal Act and the First Amendment Act (as the Case may be). Provision as to Acts coming into operation.

Chancery Regulation (Ireland).

C A P. XLVI.

An Act for the better Regulation in certain Cases of the Procedure in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland.

[17th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the High Court of Chancery in Ireland has ‘ Power in certain Cases to refuse or postpone the Ap‘ plication of Remedies within its Jurisdiction until Questions
 ‘ of Law and Fact on which the Title to such Remedies depends
 ‘ have been determined or ascertained in One of Her Majesty’s ‘ Courts of Common Law : And whereas it is expedient that the ‘ said Power should no longer exist, and that in all such Cases ‘ every Question of Law and of Fact, cognizable in a Court of ‘ Common Law, arising in the said Court of Chancery, on which
 ‘ the Right of any Party to any equitable Relief or Remedy ‘ depends, and whether the Title to such Relief or Remedy be ‘ or be not incident to or dependent upon a legal Right, should ‘ be determined by or before the said Court itself : And whereas ‘ by “The Chancery Regulation Act, 1862,” passed in this present ‘ Session, Provision has been made for the better Regulation in ‘ such Cases of the Procedure in the Court of Chancery in ‘ England by taking away such Power, and providing for the ‘ Determination of such Questions in the Court itself, and it is ‘ expedient that similar Provisions should be made for the Court ‘ of Chancery in Ireland :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most ‘ Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the ‘ Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present ‘ Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as ‘ follows :

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited and referred to as “The Chancery Regulation (Ireland) Act, 1862.”

Interpretation of Terms.

2. The Words “High Court of Chancery,” “Court of Chancery,” and “Court,” when used in this Act, shall mean and include the Lord Chancellor, the Master of the Rolls, and any Master in Chancery, or any Judge or Judges by whom any Cause, Cause Petition, or Matter depending in the Court of Chancery in Ireland may, by the Law and Practice of that Court, be now or at any Time hereafter heard.

Court shall determine every Question of Law and Fact incident to the Relief sought.

3. In all Cases in which any Relief or Remedy within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery in Ireland is or shall be sought in any Cause, Cause Petition, or Matter instituted or pending in that Court, and whether the Title to such Relief or Remedy be or be not incident to or dependent upon a legal Right, every Question of Law or Fact cognizable in a Court of Common Law, on the Determination of which the Title to such Relief or Remedy depends, shall be determined by or before the same Court.

Where Questions of Fact may be more conveniently

4. Provided always, That whenever it shall appear to the Court that any Question of Fact may be more conveniently tried by a Jury at the Assizes, or at any Sitting in the County of Chancery Regulation (Ireland).

Dublin or in the County of the City of Dublin for the Trial of Issues in the Superior Courts of Common Law, it shall be lawful for such Court, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, to direct an Issue to try any Question of Fact at the Assizes to be held in and for any County where the same may be conveniently tried, or at any such Sitting for the Trial of Issues in the County or City of Dublin as aforesaid; and (subject to such General Orders, if any, as may hereafter be made in relation thereto,) the Practice hitherto existing in such Court in reference to the Trial of Issues shall prevail in reference to the Trial of any Issues directed under this Proviso.

tried at Assizes, Issues may be directed.

5. All the Provisions with reference to the Trial of Questions of Fact by or before the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, which are contained in "The Chancery Amendment Act, 1858," shall apply to the Determination of Questions of Fact by or before the said Court under this Act.

Provisions of 21 & 22 Vict. c. 27. to apply to this Act.

6. Provided also, That in all Cases in which the Object of any Suit in Equity shall be to recover or to defend the Possession of Land under a legal Title, or under a Title which would have been legal but for the Existence of some outstanding Term, Lease, or Mortgage (and whether mesne Profits or Damages shall or shall not also be sought in such Suit), such Relief only shall be given in Equity as would have been proper according to the Rules and Practice of the Court if this Act had not passed; and nothing in this Act shall make it necessary for a Court of Equity to grant Relief in any Suit concerning any Matter as to which a Court of Common Law has concurrent Jurisdiction, if it shall appear to the Court that such Matter has been improperly brought into Equity, and that the same ought to have been left to the sole Determination of a Court of Common Law.

Proviso in Cases where Object of Suit to recover or defend Possession of Land under a legal Title.

7. Nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect the Power of the High Court of Chancery, or the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ireland, to sit with the Assistance of a Judge of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Common Law.

Court of Chancery may sit with Assistance of Common Law Judge.

8. Nothing in this Act contained shall, except in the Cases and to the Extent herein-before specially provided, be deemed in any Manner to vary, alter, or affect the Law, Practice, or Procedure of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland as to any Cause, Cause Petition, or Suit or Matter depending in that Court or the Hearing or Disposal of the same; and in Cases to which the Provisions of this Act apply all Orders and Decrees made by the Court, whether involving the Determination of a legal Right or otherwise, shall be subject to Re-hearing or Appeal in all respects as any other Decrees or Orders of the Court may now be re-heard or appealed from, subject to the Rules and Regulations as to Re-hearing and Appeal which may from Time to Time be applicable to such Decrees and Orders respectively.

Act not to affect general Practice of Court.

9. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Commencement of Act.

Inclosure.

C A P. XLVII.

An Act to authorize the Inclosure of certain Lands in pursuance of a Report of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales have, in pursuance of “The Acts for the Inclosure, Exchange, and Improvement of Land,” issued their Provisional Orders for and concerning the proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, and have in their Seventeenth Annual General Report certified their Opinion that such Inclosures would be expedient; but the same cannot be proceeded with without the previous Authority of Parliament:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. That the said several proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act be proceeded with: Provided always, that the Provisional Order of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, dated the Ninth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, regarding the Parish of Chigwell, shall be and hereby is amended, to the Effect that Fifty Acres at or near the Spot marked A. on the Plan thereto annexed be allotted for the Purposes of Exercise and Recreation, such Fifty Acres to be contributed by the Lords and Commoners in proportion to the Allotments to be made to them respectively.

2. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use either the Expression “The Annual Inclosure Act, 1862,” or “The Acts for the Inclosure, Exchange, and Improvement of Land.”

New Zealand.

C A P. XLVIII.

An Act respecting the Establishment and Government of Provinces in New Zealand, and to enable the Legislature of New Zealand to repeal the Seventy-third Section of an Act intituled An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand. [29th July 1862.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand, it was provided that certain Provinces therein mentioned should be established in the said Colony, and that in every such Province there should be a Provincial Council, and that there should be in the said Colony a General Assembly competent to make Laws for the Peace, Order, and good Government of the same; and by the Sixty-ninth Section of the said Act it was further provided, that it should be lawful for the said General Assembly to constitute new Provinces in the said Colony, and to appoint the Number of Members of which the Provincial Councils thereof should consist, and to alter the Boundaries of any Provinces for the Time being existing; provided always, that any Bill for any of the said Purposes should be reserved for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure thereon: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Twentieth and Twenty-first Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act for granting a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand, it was enacted that the Sixty-ninth Section of the said first-recited Act should be repealed, and that it should be lawful for the said General Assembly to alter, suspend, or repeal all or any of the Provisions of the said Act, except certain Sections therein specified: And whereas the said General Assembly, by an Act passed in a Session holden in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the Establishment of new Provinces in New Zealand, or, more shortly, "The New Provinces Act, 1858," did authorize the Governor of the said Colony to establish such new Provinces in manner therein mentioned, and the said Governor did establish certain new Provinces accordingly: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether it was competent to the said General Assembly to make such Provision and to the said Governor to establish such new Provinces as aforesaid: And whereas for the removing of such Doubts, an Act was passed in the now last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to declare the Validity of an Act passed by the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "An Act to provide for the Establishment of new Provinces in New Zealand:" And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament, and to make fresh Provision respecting the Establishment of new Provinces in

New Zealand.

‘New Zealand.’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 30. repealed.

“New Provinces Act, 1858,” confirmed.

General Assembly to provide for the Establishment of new Provinces in New Zealand.

General Assembly not to make Laws inconsistent with Provisions herein mentioned.

1. The said last-mentioned Act of Parliament shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. The said “New Provinces Act, 1858,” (except so far as the same shall have been altered by any Act subsequently passed by the said General Assembly,) shall be and be deemed to have been from the Date of the passing thereof valid and effectual for all Purposes whatever, and all Matters and Things done under and in pursuance of Authority created or given or expressed to be created or given by the same Act shall be deemed to have been of the same Force and Effect as if the said Act and everything therein contained had from the above-mentioned Date been actually so valid as aforesaid.

3. Subject to the Conditions herein-after mentioned, it shall be lawful for the said General Assembly, by any Act or Acts to be by them from Time to Time passed, to establish or provide for the Establishment of new Provinces in the Colony of New Zealand, and to alter or to provide for the Alteration of the Boundaries of any Provinces for the Time being existing in the said Colony, and to make Provision for the Administration of any such Provinces, and for the passing of Laws for the Peace, Order, and good Government thereof, and therein to repeal or alter any of the Provisions of the Two first herein-before recited Acts of Parliament relating to such Provinces, or to the Superintendents and Provincial Councils thereof.

4. It shall not be lawful for the General Assembly to make any Law inconsistent with the following Provisions; that is to say,

- (1.) In every Province of New Zealand there shall be an Officer designated the Superintendent, who, unless any Provision shall be made to the contrary in any Act of the General Assembly, shall be capable of being elected and acting as a Member of the Council of the same Province :
- (2.) No Provincial Law shall take effect until it shall have received the Assent in Writing either of the said Superintendent or of the Governor of New Zealand :
- (3.) In giving or refusing his Assent to any Provincial Law, or in reserving the same for the Signification of the Governor’s Pleasure, the Superintendent shall conform to such Instructions in Writing as he may from Time to Time receive from the Governor :
- (4.) In case the Superintendent shall assent to any Provincial Law he shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic Copy thereof :

New Zealand.

- (5.) It shall be lawful for the Governor at any Time after the Date of such Assent, and until the Expiration of Three Months after such authentic Copy [of any Provincial Law shall have been received by him, to declare by Proclamation his Disallowance of such Law, and such Disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the Day of the Date of such Proclamation or any subsequent Day to be named therein :
- (6.) It shall not be lawful for the Council or other Legislative Body of any Province to pass, or for the Superintendent or Governor to assent to, any Bill appropriating any Money to the Public Service, unless the Superintendent or Governor shall first have recommended to the Council to make Provision for the specific Service to which such Money is to be appropriated, and no such Money shall be issued or made issuable except by Warrants to be granted by the Superintendent or Governor :
- (7.) It shall not be lawful for any such Council or other Body as aforesaid to pass, and for the said Superintendent or Governor to assent to, any Law which shall be repugnant to the Law of England or to any Enactment of the said General Assembly.

5. It shall not be competent to the Governor of New Zealand to assent to any Bill passed by the Legislature of New Zealand which shall repeal or alter any of the Provisions of the Nineteenth Clause of the first herein-before recited Act of Parliament, but the said Governor (unless he shall refuse his Assent to such Bill) shall reserve the same for the Signification of Her Majesty's Pleasure.

Limitation of Governor's Powers of Assent to Bills.

6. So much of the Two first herein-before recited Acts of Parliament as is inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act is hereby repealed.

Parts of Two first-recited Acts repealed.

7. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, and of the said New Provinces Act, the said Two first herein-before recited Acts of Parliament shall apply to all Provinces at any Time existing in New Zealand, in like Manner and subject to the same Conditions as the same apply to Provinces established by the first herein-before recited Act of Parliament.

Application of Acts to future Provinces.

8. ' And whereas it is expedient to enable the General Assembly of New Zealand to repeal the Seventy-third Section ' of the first herein-before recited Act of Parliament : ' Be it further enacted as follows (that is to say) : It shall be lawful for the said General Assembly to alter or repeal all or any of the Provisions contained in the said Section ; and no Act passed by the said General Assembly, nor any Part of such Act, shall be or be deemed to have been invalid by reason that the same is repugnant to any of the said Provisions.

Power to General Assembly to repeal or alter Sect. 73 of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 72.

9. In the Construction of this Act the Term "Governor" shall mean the Person for the Time being lawfully administering the Government of New Zealand.

"Governor."

An Act to amend certain Provisions of the Acts of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of Her Majesty, Chapters Ninety-six, Ninety-seven, Ninety-nine, and One hundred, respectively, relating to Summary Jurisdiction in Ireland. [29th July 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend certain Provisions of the Acts of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of Her Majesty, Chapters Ninety-six, Ninety-seven, Ninety-nine, and One hundred, respectively, relating to Summary Jurisdiction in Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

24 & 25 Vict. cc. 96. 97. 99. and 100.

1. This Act shall commence and take effect on the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Commencement of Act.

2. From and after the Commencement of this Act every Offence by this Act and the said recited Acts, respectively, made punishable on Summary Conviction in Ireland, may be prosecuted before any Justice or Justices sitting in Petty Sessions in Ireland, or before any Two Justices sitting out of Petty Sessions, (when the Offender shall be unable to procure Bail for his Appearance at Petty Sessions,) or before any Divisional Justice of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis; and no Stipendiary Magistrate in Ireland, not being a Justice of the Police District in Dublin Metropolis, shall have any further or other Jurisdiction than any other Justice of the Peace in respect of any such Offence.

As to Prosecution of Offences made punishable on Summary Conviction in Ireland.

3. The Provisions contained in the One hundred and fifth Section of the said Act of the last Session, Chapter Ninety-six, and in the Sixty-second Section of the said Act of the same Session,

Provisions in 24 & 25 Vict. cc. 96. and 97. relating to Summary Jurisdiction (Ireland).

Mode of compelling Appearances not to extend to Ireland.

All such Proceedings, &c. to be subject to Provisions of 14 & 15 Vict. c. 93. and 21 & 22 Vict. c. 100.

Penalty on stealing Trees, Shrubs, &c. (under the Value of 5*l.*) growing anywhere.

Penalty on stealing Trees, Plants, &c. severed from the Soil or Turf Fuel (not exceeding 40*s.* in Value).

Penalty on Persons possessing Carcases of Sheep, &c. without accounting for the same.

Session, Chapter Ninety-seven, relating to the Mode of compelling the Appearance of Persons punishable on Summary Conviction, shall not extend to Ireland; and from and after the Commencement of this Act, whenever Information shall be given to any Justice or Justices in Ireland that any Person has committed or is suspected to have committed any Offence within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices for which such Persons shall be punishable upon a Summary Conviction, all Proceedings as to compelling the Appearance of any Person against whom any such Complaint shall have been made, or of any Witness, and as to the Hearing and Determination of such Complaints, and as to the making and executing of any Orders relating thereto, shall be subject in all respects to the Provisions of "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," as the same is amended by "The Petty Sessions Clerk (Ireland) Act, 1858," when the Case shall be heard in any Petty Sessions District, and to the Provisions of the Acts relating to the Divisional Police Offices when the Case shall be heard in the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, so far as the said Provisions shall be consistent with any special Provisions of this Act.

4. Any Person who shall steal, or shall cut, break, root up, or otherwise destroy or damage with Intent to steal, the whole or any Part of any growing Tree, Sapling, Shrub, or Underwood, or any growing Fruit or Vegetable Production, or any growing cultivated Root or Plant, shall (in case the Value of the Property stolen or the Amount of the Injury done shall not exceed Five Pounds) pay to the Party aggrieved the Value of the Property stolen or the Amount of the Injury done, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds, or to be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and the Offences in this and the following Sections mentioned may be prosecuted summarily before One or more Justices of the Peace, as herein-before mentioned.

5. Any Person who shall steal, or damage with Intent to steal, the whole or any Part of any Tree, Sapling, Shrub, or Underwood, or any cultivated Plant, Root, Fruit, or Vegetable Production severed from the Soil, or any Turf or Peat manufactured or partly manufactured for Fuel, (in case the Value of such Article or Articles stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done shall not exceed Forty Shillings,) shall pay to the Party aggrieved the Value of the Property stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Months.

6. Whenever any credible Witness shall prove upon Oath, before a Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable Cause to suspect that any of the Articles of Property following; that is to say, the Carcase of any Sheep or Lamb, or the Head, Skin, or any Part thereof, or the Fleece of any Sheep or Lamb, has been stolen or unlawfully taken, and is to be found in any House or other Place, it shall be lawful for such Justice to issue a Warrant to search such House or Place for such Articles of Property; and any Person in whose Possession or on whose Premises any of the said Articles of Property shall be found by virtue of any such Search Warrant (or by any Member of the Constabulary or Metropolitan Police Forces when executing any Warrant or otherwise acting in the Discharge of his Duty), and who shall not satisfy the Justice before whom he shall be brought, that he came lawfully by the same, or that the same was on his Premises without his Knowledge or Assent, may be committed by such Justice to Gaol until the next Day of holding Petty Sessions for the District, unless he shall enter into a Recognizance with One or more Sureties to appear at such Petty Sessions; and if such Person shall not account for the same in manner aforesaid, he shall, on Summary Conviction by such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, and at his or their Discretion, either be committed pursuant to the Provisions of "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Months, or be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

7. Any Artificer, Workman, Journeyman, Apprentice, Servant, or other Person who shall unlawfully dispose of, or retain in his Possession without the Consent of the Person by whom he shall be hired, retained, or employed, any Goods, Wares, Work, or Materials committed to his Care or Charge (the Value of such Goods, Wares, Work, or Materials not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds), shall pay to the Party aggrieved such Compensation as the Justices shall think reasonable, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding One Month.

Penalty on Workmen making away with Goods (not exceeding 5*l.* in Value) committed to his Care.

8. Any Person who shall steal, or injure with Intent to steal, any Turkey, Goose, or other Poultry, (where the Value of such Poultry so stolen or injured shall not exceed Five Shillings,) shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for a Period not exceeding Two Weeks.

Penalty on stealing Poultry (not exceeding 5*s.* in Value).

9. It shall be lawful for the Justices at Petty Sessions, if they shall so think fit, to proceed against any Person or Persons charged with being guilty of an Assault, pursuant to the Provisions of the Statute Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Victoria, Chapter One hundred, Section Forty-two, notwithstanding that the Party aggrieved may decline or refuse to prefer a Complaint.

Assault Cases may be proceeded with, &c.

10. 'And whereas by the Act of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth of Victoria, Chapter One hundred, Section Thirty-eight, certain Assaults therein specified on Peace Officers and others are made Misdemeanors, and punishable with Imprisonment for a Term not exceeding Two Years, with or without Hard Labour, and it is desirable also to give a summary Jurisdiction in petty Cases for the same Offence: ' Be it enacted, That Two Justices of the Peace shall have a concurrent Jurisdiction to punish such Assaults under the Forty-second Section of the said Act, if they shall consider the Offence so trivial as not to require being dealt with by a superior Tribunal.

Summary Jurisdiction in Cases of Assault on Peace Officers and others.

11. This Act shall extend to Ireland only.

Extent of Act.

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

C A P. LI.

An Act for confirming, with Amendments, certain Provisional Orders made by the Board of Trade under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, relating to Carrickfergus, Deal, Oban, Saint Ives, Tobermory, and Hastings. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS a Provisional Order made by the Board of Trade under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, is not of any Validity or Force whatever until the Confirmation thereof by Act of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the several Provisional Orders made by the Board of Trade under the said Acts and set out in the Schedule hereto should be confirmed, with Amendments, by Act of Parliament:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. The several Provisional Orders set out in the Schedule hereto shall be and are hereby confirmed, except that

The Clause numbered 13 in the Carrickfergus Harbour Order,
The Clause numbered 6 in the Deal and Walmer Pier Order,
The Clause numbered 12 in the Saint Ives Harbour Order,
The Clause numbered 4 in the Mishuish Pier, Tobermory,
Order,

And the Clause numbered 20 in the Hastings Pier and Harbour Order, shall be deemed to be and the same are by this Act expunged from the said Orders respectively, which Orders shall, with the Omission of the said several Clauses, be valid and effectual, and be construed as if the same several Clauses had never been inserted therein.

2. This Act may be cited as The Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation Act, 1862.

The SCHEDULE of Provisional Orders.

1. CARRICKFERGUS.—Improvement of the Harbour.
2. DEAL.—Construction of a Pier.
3. OBAN.—Improvement of the Harbour.
4. SAINT IVES.—Improvement of the Harbour.
5. TOBERMORY.—Construction of a Pier.
6. HASTINGS.—Construction of a Pier.

CARRICKFERGUS.

Provisional Order of the Board of Trade for the Improvement, Maintenance, and Regulation of the Harbour of Carrickfergus in the County of the Town of Carrickfergus.

Preamble.

Whereas, under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the Municipal Commissioners of the Borough of Carrickfergus, as owners of the Port of Carrickfergus, made application by a memorial to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, herein-after called the Board of Trade, praying for (among other things) a Provisional Order under the said Act for executing the works herein-after mentioned, with power for the said Commissioners to levy and recover rates according to the schedule in the memorial referred to :

And whereas the estimated expenditure on the proposed works is Six thousand pounds and no more :

And whereas, within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf, the promoters deposited copies of the said memorial, and of the plans, sections, and working drawings of the proposed works, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of the Town of Carrickfergus, and notice of such deposit was published according to the requirements of the said Act :

And whereas the promoters deposited at the Admiralty Office copies of the said memorial, plans, sections, and working drawings, and on the application of the promoters the Lords of the Admiralty have given their sanction to the proposed works :

And whereas the promoters prepared a schedule of rates to be levied at the proposed works, and published the same, according to the requirements of the said Act, and deposited a printed copy thereof at the office of the said Clerk of the Peace, and transmitted a copy thereof to the Board of Trade, and therewith a statement showing the state of the existing works, and the rates then leviabie thereat, the average revenue derived at such works for the three years specified in the said Act, the estimated amount of the rates to be levied at the existing works, and also at the proposed works, and the estimated amount proposed to be expended on the works :

And whereas the Board of Trade, at the time in the said Act appointed in this behalf, took the said schedule and statement into consideration, and made such inquiries and obtained such further information in reference to the several matters therein set forth as they deemed expedient :

And whereas the said schedule was prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid before the passing of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act :

And whereas it appears to the Board of Trade to be expedient that the same should be authorized by a Provisional Order, and accordingly the Board of Trade have finally adjusted and fixed the schedule of rates hereto annexed, such rates not exceeding the rates specified in the schedule so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid :

And whereas the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the making of this Provisional Order has been obtained :

And whereas the Board of Trade, after making such inquiries as they have thought expedient, have settled this present Provisional Order, and intend to cause a Bill to be introduced into Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act for the confirmation of this Provisional Order (until which confirmation this Provisional Order will not be of any validity or force whatever):

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Provisional Order in pursuance of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby respectively in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, Order,—

That, from and immediately after the passing of an Act of Parliament confirming this Provisional Order, the following provisions shall take effect and be in force :—

Carrickfergus Harbour Commissioners.

Incorporation of Commissioners.

1. The Municipal Commissioners for the Borough of Carrickfergus, and their successors in office, shall be and are hereby, for the purposes of this Order, incorporated by the name of The Carrickfergus Harbour Commissioners, and by that name shall be one body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to purchase, take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property for the purposes, but subject to the restrictions, of this Order.

The Undertakers.

2. The Carrickfergus Harbour Commissioners, herein-after called the Commissioners, shall be the Undertakers of the works authorized by this Order.

Commissioners
Clauses Act
incorporated.

3. The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847,—except the following sections thereof, namely, sections 6 to 55 (both inclusive), and 84, 96, 97, and 98,—shall be incorporated with this Order.

Borrowing.

4. The Commissioners may borrow on mortgage or bond at interest such sums of money as may be required for the purposes of the works authorized by this Order, not exceeding in the whole the sum of 6,000*l.*

Sinking Fund.

5. In order to create a sinking fund for the discharge of the principal money so borrowed, the Commissioners shall yearly set apart the surplus revenue of the Harbour, and shall deposit the same in some joint stock bank of issue in Ireland, to be increased by accumulation in the way of compound interest or otherwise, until the time when the accumulated fund shall be sufficient to pay off the principal money borrowed, or any such part thereof as the Commissioners may think ought to be then paid off, and the Commissioners shall then apply such accumulated fund in such payment accordingly; but so that the Commissioners shall not allow any sum exceeding 500*l.* to remain so deposited for a longer time than six calendar months without applying the same in such payment as aforesaid.

Re-borrowing.

6. Any money borrowed under this Order and discharged by means of the sinking fund aforesaid shall not be re-borrowed; but any money borrowed and discharged otherwise than by means of such sinking fund may be re-borrowed, if required for the purposes of this Order, and so toties quoties.

Receiver.

7. The mortgagees of the Commissioners may enforce the payment of the arrears of interest, or of the arrears of principal and interest, due to them on their respective mortgages, by the appointment appointment of a receiver. The amount to authorize a requisition for a receiver shall be 1,000*l*.

8. Every part of the money borrowed under this Order shall be applied only for purposes authorized by this Order.

Money to be applied to purposes of Order.

Taking of Lands.

9. For the purposes of this Order, the Commissioners may from time to time, by agreement, enter on, take, or use all or any part of the lands shown on the deposited plans as intended to be taken for the purposes of the proposed works, and also all or any part of the lands described in schedule (A.) to this Order annexed.

Power to take specified lands by agreement.

10. The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, except with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, and The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, shall be incorporated with this Order.

Lands Clauses Acts incorporated.

Works.

11. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Commissioners may, on the lands taken by them under this Order, and in the lines and according to the levels and within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans and sections, make and maintain the works shown on the deposited plans.

Power to make works.

12. The works by this Order authorized comprise the following:—

Description of Pier and Breakwater.

- (1.) A pier on the eastern side of the Harbour, commencing near the landward end of the existing pier or quay, and running in a southerly direction for 600 feet, then with a cant to the westward for 100 feet; the first 350 feet of the pier to be of stone work, the remainder of open pile work;
- (2.) A stone breakwater to protect the same, 400 feet in length, lying about 550 feet to the westward of and parallel to the pier, with an easterly cant at the south end; with a clear width of entrance between the pier and the breakwater of 400 feet.

Rates.

13. The Commissioners shall not construct any work on any part of the shore or bed of the sea below high-water mark without the previous consent of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, signified in writing under the hand of one of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and then only according to such plan and under such restrictions and regulations as the last-mentioned Commissioners or one of them approve of, such approval being signified as last aforesaid. After any such work is constructed with such consent as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall not alter or extend the same without first obtaining the like consent and approval. If any work be commenced, constructed, altered, or extended contrary to this provision, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues may, at the expense of the Commissioners incorporated by this Order, abate and remove it or any part of it, and restore the site thereof to its former condition. The amount of such expense shall be a debt due to the Crown from the Commissioners incorporated by this Order, and shall be recoverable as such, with costs, or the same may be recovered with costs as a penalty is recoverable from those Commissioners.

Power to take rates according to Schedule (B.)

14. The Commissioners may demand and receive in respect of the vessels, goods, and things described in Schedule (B.) hereto, any sums not exceeding the rates in that Schedule specified.

Custom House Officers exempt from rates.

15. Officers of Customs being in the execution of their duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress, on, into, along, through, and out of the Pier and Harbour, by land, and with their vessels, and otherwise, without payment.

Application of rates and moneys received by the Commissioners.

16. The Commissioners shall apply all rates received under this Order, and all other moneys coming to their hands from the existing Harbour, or new works, or the lands or property connected therewith, for the purposes and in the order following, and not otherwise :—

- (1.) In paying the costs of and connected with the preparation and making of this Order :
- (2.) In paying the expenses of the maintenance, management, and regulation of the existing Harbour and new works, and the lands and property connected therewith :
- (3.) In paying the interest on any money borrowed under this Order, and any sum payable on account of the principal thereof :
- (4.) In paying the rent of the property described in schedule (A.) hereto, and in fining down such rent in pursuance of any agreement in that behalf made or to be made :
- (5.) As to the surplus revenue of the Harbour, that is to say, so much of the rates and other moneys aforesaid, as may remain after making the several payments before in this provision directed,—in creating a sinking fund in manner before in this Order specified.

General Provisions.

Lifeboats, tide-gauges, &c.

17. The following provisions of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, shall not be incorporated with this Order, namely, sections 16, 17, 18, and 19.

Lands for extraordinary purposes.

18. The Commissioners shall not purchase for extraordinary purposes lands exceeding in extent in the whole two acres.

Meters and weighers.

19. The Commissioners shall have the appointment of meters and weighers within the Harbour.

Steam engines, diving bells, lighters, &c.

20. The Commissioners may provide such steam engines, steam vessels, piling engines, diving bells, ballast lighters, rubbish lighters, and other machinery and vessels, as they may think necessary for effectuating any of the purposes of this Order ; and may demand and receive such sums for the use of the same as they may think reasonable.

Pilotage, lights, buoys, and beacons.

21. The Commissioners shall be a Pilotage Authority and a Local Authority within the meaning of The Merchant Shipping Act,

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

Act, 1854, with all the powers by that Act conferred on pilotage authorities and on local authorities.

22. Part V. of The Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c. Act, 1861, shall apply to Carrickfergus Harbour as altered under this Order.

Part V. of
24 & 25 Vict.
c. 47. to apply.
Short Title.

23. This Order may be cited as The Carrickfergus Harbour Order. 1862.

DEAL.

Provisional Order of the Board of Trade for the Construction, Maintenance, and Regulation of a Pier at Deal in the County of Kent.

Preamble.

Whereas, under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the promoters of the Deal and Walmer Pier made application by a memorial to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, herein-after called the Board of Trade, setting forth the necessity of a Pier at Deal in the County of Kent, and praying their Lordships to approve of the project thus submitted, and to grant a Provisional Order for its execution, containing powers and privileges for the complete execution of the works, and for the levying of rates and tolls, not exceeding those in the memorial referred to :

And whereas the estimated expenditure on the proposed works is twelve thousand pounds and no more :

And whereas, within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf, the promoters deposited copies of the said memorial and of the plans, sections, and working drawings of the proposed works at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Kent, and notice of such deposit was published according to the requirements of the said Act :

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

And whereas the promoters deposited at the Admiralty Office copies of the said memorial, plans, sections, and working drawings, and on the application of the promoters the Lords of the Admiralty have given their sanction to the proposed works :

And whereas the promoters prepared a schedule of rates to be levied at the proposed works, and published the same, according to the requirements of the said Act, and deposited a printed copy thereof at the office of the said Clerk of the Peace, and transmitted a copy thereof to the Board of Trade, and therewith a statement showing the probable or estimated amount of the rates to be levied at the proposed works, and also the estimated amount proposed to be expended on the works :

And whereas the Board of Trade, at the time in the said Act appointed in this behalf, took the said schedule and statement into consideration, and made such inquiries and obtained such further information in reference to the several matters therein set forth as they deemed expedient :

And whereas the said schedule was prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid before the passing of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act :

And whereas it appears to the Board of Trade to be expedient that the same (with the omission of part thereof) should be authorized by a Provisional Order, and accordingly the Board of Trade have finally adjusted and fixed the schedule of rates hereto annexed, such rates not exceeding the rates specified in the said schedule so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid :

And whereas the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the making of this Provisional Order has been obtained :

And whereas the Board of Trade, after making such inquiries as they have thought expedient, have settled this present Provisional Order, and intend to cause a Bill to be introduced into Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act for the confirmation of this Provisional Order (until which confirmation this Provisional Order will not be of any validity or force whatever) :

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do by this their Provisional Order, in pursuance of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby respectively in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, Order,—

That, from and immediately after the passing of an Act of Parliament confirming this Provisional Order, the following provisions shall take effect and be in force :—

1. The Deal and Walmer Pier Company, Limited, herein-after called the Company, shall be the undertakers of the works authorized by this Order.

4. Subject to the Provisions of this Order, the Company may, on the lands taken by them under this Order, and in the lines and according to the levels and within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans and sections, make and maintain the works shown on the deposited plans.

Description of Pier.

5. The works by this Order authorized comprise the following :—

A pier on iron piles carried out from the South Esplanade, Deal, into the sea to a distance of 920 feet, with a general width of 20 feet, and a width at the head of 40 feet.

Consent of Commissioners of Woods and Forests.

6. The Company shall not construct any work on any part of the shore or bed of the sea below high-water mark without the previous consent of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, signified in writing under the hand of one of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and then only according to such plan and under such restrictions and regulations as the said Commissioners, or one of them, approve of, such approval being signified as last aforesaid. After any such work is constructed with such consent as aforesaid, the Company shall not alter or extend the same without first obtaining the like consent and approval. If any work be commenced, constructed, altered, or extended contrary to this provision, the said Commissioners may, at the expense of the Company, abate and remove it, or any part of it, and restore the site thereof to its former condition. The amount of such expense shall be a debt due to the Crown from the Company, and shall be recoverable as such, with costs, or the same may be recovered with costs as a penalty is recoverable from the Company.

Power to take rates according to Schedule.

7. The Company may demand and receive in respect of the vessels, goods, persons, and things in the Schedule hereto described, any sums not exceeding the rates in that Schedule specified.

Custom House Officers exempt from rates.

8. Officers of Customs being in the execution of their duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress, to, on, along, and from the Pier by land, and with their vessels, and otherwise, without payment.

OBAN.

Provisional Order of the Board of Trade for the Improvement, Maintenance, and Regulation of the Harbour of Oban in the County of Argyll.

Preamble.

Whereas under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the Most Honourable John Marquess of Breadalbane made application by a memorial to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, hereinafter called the Board of Trade, representing that the Pier at the Harbour of Oban, in the County of Argyll, belonging to him, was constructed by his predecessors at their own expense, and that the same being now inadequate to the wants of the community, he is desirous to execute additional works at the said Pier and Harbour under the authority of the said Act :

And whereas the estimated expenditure on the proposed works is one thousand three hundred and forty pounds and no more :

And whereas, within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf, the promoter deposited copies of the said memorial and of the plans, sections, and working drawings of the proposed works with the Sheriff Clerk of the County of Argyll, at Inverary, and notice of such deposit was published according to the requirements of the said Act :

And whereas the promoter deposited at the Admiralty Office copies of the said memorial, plans, sections, and working drawings, and on his application the Lords of the Admiralty have given their sanction to the proposed works :

And whereas the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the making of this Provisional Order has been obtained :

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

And whereas the Board of Trade, after making such inquiries as they have thought expedient, have settled this present Provisional Order, and intend to cause a Bill to be introduced into Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act for the confirmation of this Provisional Order (until which confirmation this Provisional Order will not be of any validity or force whatever):

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do by this their Provisional Order, in pursuance of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby respectively in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, Order,—

That, from and immediately after the passing of an Act of Parliament confirming this Provisional Order, the following provisions shall take effect and be in force:—

1. The said John Marquess of Breadalbane, or the proprietor of the said Pier for the time being, shall be the Undertaker of the works authorized by this Order. The Undertaker.
2. For the purposes of the works authorized by this Order, the Undertaker may from time to time, by agreement, enter on, take, or use all or any part of the lands shown on the deposited plans as intended to be taken for the purposes of the proposed works. Power to take specified lands by agreement.
3. The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, except with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, and The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, shall be incorporated with this Order. Lands Clauses Acts incorporated.
4. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Undertaker may, on the lands taken by him under this Order, and in the lines and according to the levels and within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans and sections, make and maintain the works shown on the deposited plans. Power to make works.
5. The time for the completion of the works authorized by this Order shall be two years after the passing of an Act confirming this Order. Time for completion of works.
6. The provisions of The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to rates and to the collection and recovery of rates, and sections 16, 17, 18, and 19 of that Act, shall not be incorporated with this Order. Rates, Life-boats, &c.
7. Officers of Customs being in the execution of their duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress, on, into, along, through, and out of the Pier and Harbour, by land, and with their vessels, and otherwise, without payment. Custom House Officers exempt from rates.
8. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to enable the Undertaker to purchase, or to enable any person to sell or convey to the Undertaker, for extraordinary purposes, lands exceeding in extent in the whole two acres. Lands for extraordinary purposes.
9. The Undertaker shall have the appointment of meters and weighers on and within the Pier and Harbour. Meters and weighers.
10. This Order may be cited as The Oban Harbour Order, 1862. Short Title.

SAINT IVES.

Provisional Order of the Board of Trade for the Improvement, Maintenance, and Regulation of the Harbour of Saint Ives in the County of Cornwall.

Preamble.

Whereas, under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the Saint Ives Harbour Commissioners made application by a memorial to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, herein-after called the Board of Trade, praying the Board of Trade to make a Provisional Order under the said Act, and thereby to empower such Commissioners (among other things) to make and maintain a pier and other accommodation connected therewith at Saint Ives, in the County of Cornwall, and to take land on lease or otherwise by agreement to an extent to be limited in such Order, and to levy and recover rates at such works not exceeding the amounts specified in the Schedule of rates thereto annexed, and to raise money for the purposes of such works, and thereby also to regulate the borrowing powers of such Commissioners, and therein to specify such terms and conditions to be observed by such Commissioners for the formation, management, and maintenance of such works as to the Board of Trade might seem fit :

And whereas the estimated expenditure on the proposed works is twenty thousand pounds and no more :

And whereas, within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf, the promoters deposited copies of the said memorial and of the plans, sections, and working drawings of the proposed works at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Cornwall, and notice of such deposit was published according to the requirements of the said Act :

And whereas the promoters deposited at the Admiralty Office copies of the said memorial, plans, sections, and working drawings, and on the application of the promoters the Lords of the Admiralty have given their sanction to the proposed works :

And whereas the promoters prepared a schedule of rates to be levied at the proposed works, and published the same, according to the requirements of the said Act, and deposited a printed copy thereof at the office of the said Clerk of the Peace, and transmitted a copy thereof to the Board of Trade, and therewith a statement showing the state of the existing works, the probable or estimated amount of the rates to be levied at the existing works, and also at the proposed works, and also the estimated amount proposed to be expended on the works :

And whereas a certain objection to the said schedule was forwarded in writing to the Board of Trade within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf :

And whereas the Board of Trade, at the time in the said Act appointed in this behalf, took the said schedule and statement into consideration and made such inquiries and obtained such further information in reference to the several matters therein set forth and to the objection aforesaid as they deemed expedient :

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

And whereas the said Schedule was prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid before the passing of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act:

And whereas it appears to the Board of Trade to be expedient that the same, as modified on the objection aforesaid, should be authorized by a Provisional Order, and accordingly the Board of Trade have finally adjusted and fixed the schedule of rates hereto annexed, such rates not exceeding the rates specified in the schedule so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted, and so modified as aforesaid:

And whereas the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the making of this Provisional Order has been obtained:

And whereas the Board of Trade, after making such inquiries as they have thought expedient, have settled this present Provisional Order, and intend to cause a Bill to be introduced into Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act for the confirmation of this Provisional Order (until which confirmation this Provisional Order will not be of any validity or force whatever):

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Provisional Order, in pursuance of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby respectively in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, Order,—

That, from and immediately after the passing of an Act of Parliament confirming this Provisional Order, the following provisions shall take effect and be in force:—

Commissioners.

1. The Saint Ives Harbour Commissioners, constituted by The Saint Ives Harbour Act, 1853, herein-after called the Commissioners, shall be the Undertakers of the works authorized by this Order. The Undertakers.
(16 & 17 Vict. c. cxxix.)
2. The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, except section 54, shall be incorporated with this Order. Commissioners Clauses Act incorporated.
3. The Commissioners may borrow on mortgage or bond at interest such sums of money as may be required for the purposes of the works authorized by this Order, not exceeding in the whole the sum of 25,000*l.* Borrowing.
4. The sum to be yearly set apart as a sinking fund for the purposes and according to the provisions of section 84 of The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, shall be one-fiftieth part of the sums so borrowed. Sinking Fund.
5. Any money borrowed under this Order and discharged by means of the sinking fund shall not be re-borrowed, but any money borrowed and discharged by any means other than the sinking fund may be re-borrowed, and so toties quoties. Re-borrowing.
6. The mortgagees of the Commissioners may enforce the payment of the arrears of interest, or of the arrears of principal and interest, due to them on their respective mortgages, by the appointment Receiver.

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

pointment of a receiver. The amount to authorize a requisition for a receiver shall be 1,000*l*.

Money to be applied to purposes of Order.

7. Every part of the money borrowed under this Order shall be applied only for purposes authorized by this Order.

Taking of Lands.

Power to take specified lands by agreement.

8. For the purposes of the works authorized by this Order, the Commissioners may from time to time, by agreement, enter on, take, or use all or any part of the lands shown on the deposited plans as intended to be taken for the purposes of the proposed works.

Lands Clauses Acts incorporated.

9. The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, except with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, and The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, shall be incorporated with this Order.

Works.

Power to make works.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Commissioners may, on the lands taken by them under this Order, and in the lines and according to the levels and within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans and sections, make and maintain the works shown on the deposited plans.

Description of Pier.

11. The works by this Order authorized comprise the following:—

A pier 600 feet in length, running 540 feet below high-water mark, in a south-easterly direction, into a depth of water of 30 feet at time of high-water, and of 6 feet at time of low-water.

Consent of Commissioners of Woods and Forests.

12. The Commissioners shall not construct any work on any part of the shore or bed of the sea below high-water mark without the previous consent of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, signified in writing under the hand of one of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and then only according to such plan and under such restrictions and regulations as the last-mentioned Commissioners, or one of them, approve of, such approval being signified as last aforesaid. After any such work is constructed with such consent as aforesaid, the Saint Ives Harbour Commissioners shall not alter or extend the same without first obtaining the like consent and approval. If any work be commenced, constructed, altered, or extended contrary to this provision, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues may, at the expense of the Saint Ives Harbour Commissioners, abate and remove it, or any part of it, and restore the site thereof to its former condition. The amount of such expense shall be a debt due to the Crown from the Saint Ives Harbour Commissioners, and shall be recoverable as such, with costs, or the same may be recovered with costs as a penalty is recoverable from them.

Restriction on removal of existing Pier.

13. The now existing pier shall not be removed until the pier by this Order authorized to be made is completed to the extent of 400 feet in length.

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

Rates.

14. The Commissioners may demand and receive in respect of the vessels, goods, and things in the Schedule hereto described, any sums not exceeding the rates in that Schedule specified. Power to take rates according to Schedule to this Order.

15. Officers of Customs, being in the execution of their duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress, on, into, along, through, and out of the Pier and Harbour, by land, and with their vessels, and otherwise, without payment. Custom House Officers exempt from Rates.

16. Subject to the provision, in the prescribed manner, of a sinking fund for the discharge of any principal money borrowed under this Order, the Commissioners shall apply the rates received by them under this Order, and all other moneys coming to their hands under or by virtue of the same, for the purposes and in the order following, and not otherwise :— Application of Rates and other moneys received under Order.

- (1.) In paying the expenses of and connected with the preparation and making of this Order :
- (2.) In paying to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Saint Ives the sum of 25*l.* on the 2nd day of February in each year :
- (3.) In making, maintaining, and regulating the Harbour and the Pier and works authorized by this Order :
- (4.) In paying the interest on any money borrowed under this Order, and any principal money payable on account thereof.

General Provisions.

17. The following provisions of The Saint Ives Harbour Act, 1853, shall be incorporated with this Order, as if they were repeated in terms in this Order, with the substitution of the term "this Order" for the term "this Act," namely, sections 23, 33 (as far as it defines the limits of the Harbour), 35, 40, 44, 48, 52, 54, 55, 56, and 57. Incorporation of parts of 16 & 17 Vict. c. cxxix.

18. The Commissioners shall not purchase for extraordinary purposes lands exceeding in extent in the whole two acres. Lands for extraordinary purposes.

19. The Commissioners shall have the appointment of meters and weighers on and within the Pier and Harbour. Meters and weighers.

20. This Order may be cited as The Saint Ives Harbour Order, 1862. Short Title.

Board of Trade, Whitehall. (Signed) T. H. FARRER,
Dated this 19th day of May 1862. Assistant Secretary.

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

TOBERMORY.

Provisional Order of the Board of Trade for the Construction, Maintenance, and Regulation of a Pier at Tobermory in the Island of Mull and County of Argyll.

Whereas, under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Frederick William Caldwell, of Mishnish, in the Island of Mull and County of Argyll, made application by a memorial to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, herein-after called the Board of Trade, praying that a Provisional Order might be granted to authorize and empower him, his heirs and assigns, (among other things) to construct and maintain a pier at Tobermory in the Island and County aforesaid, to be called Mishnish Pier, and to levy and recover the rates in the memorial referred to :

And whereas the estimated expenditure on the proposed works is One thousand and four hundred pounds and no more :

And whereas, within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf, the promoter deposited copies of the said memorial and of the plans, sections, and working drawings of the proposed works in the office at Inverary of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Argyll, and notice of such deposit was published according to the requirements of the said Act :

And whereas the promoter deposited at the Admiralty Office copies of the said memorial, plans, sections, and working drawings, and on his application the Lords of the Admiralty have given their sanction to the proposed works :

And whereas the promoter prepared a schedule of rates to be levied at the proposed works, and published the same according to the requirements of the said Act, and deposited a printed copy thereof in the office of the said Principal Sheriff Clerk, and transmitted a copy thereof to the Board of Trade, and therewith a statement showing the probable or estimated amount of the rates to be levied at the proposed works and the estimated amount proposed to be expended on the works :

And whereas the Board of Trade, at the time in the said Act appointed in this behalf, took the said schedule and statement into consideration, and made such inquiries and obtained such further information in reference to the several matters therein set forth as they deemed expedient :

And whereas the said schedule was prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid, before the passing of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act :

And whereas it appears to the Board of Trade to be expedient that the same should be authorized by a Provisional Order, and accordingly the Board of Trade have finally adjusted and fixed the schedule of rates hereto annexed, such rates not exceeding the rates specified in the schedule so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid :

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

And whereas the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the making of this Provisional Order has been obtained :

And whereas the Board of Trade, after making such inquiries as they have thought expedient, have settled this present Provisional Order, and intend to cause a Bill to be introduced into Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act for the confirmation of this Provisional Order (until which confirmation this Provisional Order will not be of any validity or force whatever) :

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Provisional Order, in pursuance of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby respectively in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, Order,—

That, from and immediately after the passing of an Act of Parliament confirming this Provisional Order, the following provisions shall take effect and be in force :—

1. The said Frederick William Caldwell, his heirs and assigns, shall be the undertakers of the works authorized by this Order. Undertakers.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the undertakers may, in the lines and according to the levels and within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans and sections, make and maintain the works shown on the deposited plans. Works.

3. The works authorized by this Order comprise the following :— Description of Pier.

A pier or jetty, 100 feet in length, or thereabouts, extending in a south-easterly direction from the end of a roadway or approach to be constructed along the northern shore of Tobermory Bay, such roadway or approach running for 160 feet or thereabouts in a south-easterly direction from the termination of the present roadway.

4. The undertakers shall not construct any work on any part of the shore or bed of the sea below high-water mark without the previous consent of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, signified in writing under the hand of one of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and then only according to such plan and under such restrictions and regulations as the said Commissioners, or one of them, approve of, such approval being signified as last aforesaid. After any such work is constructed with such consent as aforesaid, the undertakers shall not alter or extend the same without first obtaining the like consent and approval. If any work be commenced, constructed, altered, or extended contrary to this provision, the said Commissioners may, at the expense of the undertakers, abate and remove it, or any part of it, and restore the site thereof to its former condition. The amount of such expense shall be a debt due to the Crown from the undertakers, and shall be recoverable as such, with costs, or the same may be recovered with costs as a penalty is recoverable from the undertakers. Consent of Commissioners of Woods and Forests.

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

Rates according to Schedule to this Order.

5. The undertakers may demand and receive in respect of the vessels, goods, persons, and things in the Schedule hereto described, any sums not exceeding the rates in that Schedule specified.

Custom House Officers exempt from rates.

6. Officers of Customs being in the execution of their duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress, on, into, along, from, and out of the pier by land, and with their vessels, and otherwise, without payment.

Parts of Harbours Clauses Act excepted.

7. The following provisions of The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, shall not be incorporated with this Order, namely, sections 16, 17, 18, 19, 49, and 50.

Borrowing.

8. The undertakers may borrow on mortgage or bond, at interest, such sums of money as may be required for the purposes of the works authorized by this Order, not exceeding in the whole the sum of 1,400*l.* They shall regularly keep down the interest accruing on the money so borrowed, and shall not allow such interest to accumulate, and shall repay the money borrowed within 50 years from the time of borrowing.

Application of rates.

9. The rates received under this Order shall be applicable for the purposes and in the order following, and not otherwise :—

- (1.) In the maintenance of the works authorized by this Order :
- (2.) In payment of the interest accruing on any money borrowed under the authority of this Order, and in repayment of the principal of such money :
- (3.) To the proper use of the undertakers.

Short Title.

10. This Order may be cited as The Mishnish Pier, Tobermory, Order, 1862.

Board of Trade, Whitehall. (Signed) T. H. FARRER,
Dated this 19th day of May 1862. Assistant Secretary.

HASTINGS.

Provisional Order of the Board of Trade for the Construction, Maintenance, and Regulation of a Pier and Harbour at Hastings in the County of Sussex.

Whereas, under The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the promoters of the Hastings Pier and Harbour made application by a memorial to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, herein-after called the Board of Trade, setting forth the necessity of a Pier and Harbour at Hastings in the County of Sussex, and praying their Lordships to approve of the project thus submitted, and to grant a Provisional Order for its execution, containing powers and privileges for the complete execution of the works, and for the levying of rates and tolls, not exceeding those in the memorial referred to, and also for the incorporation of a Company, with power to transfer the execution of the proposed works to the Mayor and Corporation of Hastings: Preamble.

And whereas the estimated expenditure on the proposed works is seventy-five thousand pounds and no more:

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

And whereas, within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf, the promoters deposited copies of the said memorial and of the plans, sections, and working drawings of the proposed works at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Sussex, and notice of such deposit was published according to the requirements of the said Act :

And whereas the promoters deposited at the Admiralty Office copies of the said memorial, plans, sections, and working drawings, and on the application of the promoters the Lords of the Admiralty have given their sanction to the proposed works :

And whereas the promoters prepared a schedule of rates to be levied at the proposed works, and published the same, according to the requirements of the said Act, and deposited a printed copy thereof at the office of the said Clerk of the Peace, and transmitted a copy thereof to the Board of Trade, and therewith a statement showing the probable or estimated amount of the rates to be levied at the proposed works, and also the estimated amount proposed to be expended on the works :

And whereas certain objections to the said schedule were forwarded in writing to the Board of Trade, within the time in the said Act limited in this behalf :

And whereas the Board of Trade, at the time in the said Act appointed in this behalf, took the said schedule and statement into consideration, and made such inquiries and obtained such further information in reference to the several matters therein set forth and to the objections aforesaid as they deemed expedient :

And whereas the said schedule was prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted as aforesaid before the passing of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act :

And whereas it appears to the Board of Trade to be expedient that the same, as modified on the objections aforesaid, and with the omission of part thereof, should be authorized by a Provisional Order, and accordingly the Board of Trade have finally adjusted and fixed the schedule of rates hereto annexed, such rates not exceeding the rates specified in the schedule so prepared, published, deposited, and transmitted, and so modified as aforesaid :

And whereas the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the making of this Provisional Order has been obtained :

And whereas the Board of Trade, after making such inquiries as they have thought expedient, have settled this present Provisional Order, and intend to cause a Bill to be introduced into Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act for the confirmation of this Provisional Order (until which confirmation this Provisional Order will not be of any validity or force whatever) :

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do by this their Provisional Order, in pursuance of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby respectively in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, Order,—

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

That, from and immediately after the passing of an Act of Parliament confirming this Provisional Order, the following provisions shall take effect and be in force :—

Hastings Pier and Harbour Company.

1. Meters and weighers.
25. The Company may provide such steam-engines, steam-vessels, piling engines, diving bells, ballast lighters, rubbish lighters, and other machinery and vessels as they may think necessary for effectuating any of the purposes of this Order; and may demand and receive such sums for the use of the same as they may think reasonable. Steam engines, diving bells, lighters, &c.
26. The Company shall be a Pilotage Authority and a Local Authority within the meaning of The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, with all the powers by that Act conferred on pilotage authorities and on local authorities. Pilotage, lights, buoys, and beacons.
27. Part V. of The Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c. Act, 1861, shall apply to the Pier and Harbour authorized by this Order. Part V. of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 47. to apply.
28. If at any time after the passing of an Act confirming this Order, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough Power to Com-pany to transfer

Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation.

Pier and Harbour to Corporation of Borough on demand of Corporation.

of Hastings, by the Council of the Borough, shall express in writing under their Corporate Seal to the Company their desire to become the owners of the Pier and Harbour and works by this Order authorized, the Company may and shall, by deed under their Common Seal, transfer to the Council the Pier and Harbour and works, or proposed Pier and Harbour and works; and thereupon the Council shall have (as far as may be) all the powers and rights by this Order granted to the Company in relation to the Pier and Harbour and works: Provided nevertheless as follows:—

- (1.) No such deed of transfer shall have any effect unless and until the terms thereof are approved by the Board of Trade:
- (2.) If the Company and the Council differ as to the terms of transfer, the difference shall be settled by an arbitrator appointed by the Board of Trade:
- (3.) Nothing in this Order or in any such deed of transfer shall empower the Council to rate or otherwise involve the Borough of Hastings for or in respect of the construction or maintenance of the Pier and Harbour and works by this Order authorized.

Short Title.

29. This Order may be cited as The Hastings Pier and Harbour Order, 1862.

Board of Trade, Whitehall.

(Signed) T. II. FARRER,

Dated this 23rd day of May 1862.

Leases, &c. by Incumbents Restriction Act Amendment.

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 105.

‘ and five, intituled An Act to prevent the future Grant by Copy of Court Roll and certain Leases of Lands and Hereditaments in England belonging to Ecclesiastical Benefices: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether, notwithstanding the said Act, Leases and Grants by Copy of Court Roll of the Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments mentioned or referred to in the Preamble thereof may not still be lawfully made, in Cases where the Grantor takes no Fine, Premium, or Foregift as a Consideration for any such Grant: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act to the Effect after mentioned:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

How far Prohibition in recited Act as to making of Grants, &c. is to extend.

1. The Prohibition to make any Grant by Copy of Court Roll or Lease contained in the First Section of the said Act shall not only extend to Grants of the said Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments made in consideration of any Fine, Premium, or Foregift, but shall also extend to all Grants and Leases of such Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments made for any longer Term, or in any other Way than according to the Provisions of the several Statutes mentioned in the said First Section and in the Third Section of the said Act hereby amended.

Powers of Prebendaries as to Sale, Exchange, &c.

2. The Prebendary of any Prebend, not being a Prebend of any Cathedral or Collegiate Church, shall have such and the same Powers of Sale, Exchange, and Enfranchisement as by the Third Section of the said Act are given to Rectors, Vicars, Perpetual Curates, and Incumbents; and the Provisions and Enactments contained in the said Third Section shall apply to Sales, Exchanges, and Enfranchisements made by any such Prebendary, and to the Proceeds thereof.

C A P. LIII.

An Act to facilitate the Proof of Title to, and the Conveyance of, Real Estates. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to give Certainty to the Title to Real Estates, and to facilitate the Proof thereof, and also to render the dealing with Land more simple and economical:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Extent of Act.

1. This Act shall apply to England only.

PART I.

AS TO THE REGISTRATION OF REAL ESTATES, AND THE TITLE THERETO.

Registry to be established.

2. There shall be established a Registry of the Title to Landed Estates.

Limits of Registry.

3. The Registry shall be confined to Estates of Freehold Tenure, and Leasehold Estates in Freehold Lands.

4. Appli-

Transfer of Land.

4. Application may be made for Registration of Title, by any of the following Persons ; viz.,

By whom Application for Registration to be made.

1. The Owner of the Fee Simple :
2. Persons who collectively are Owners of the Fee Simple, or have the Power of acquiring the same :
3. Persons who have the Power of appointing the Fee Simple :
4. Trustees for Sale of the Fee Simple :
5. The Owner of the First Estate of Freehold and first vested Estate of Inheritance :
6. Any Purchaser of a Fee Simple, where his Contract empowers him so to do, or the Vendor consents :
7. Any Person authorized by the Court of Chancery to make such Application.

Application may be made, although the Estate of the Person applying may be subject to Charges and Incumbrances.

Proceedings to obtain Registration of a Title as indefeasible.

5. On Application for the Registration of a Title as indefeasible, the Title shall be examined by the Registrar and Examiners of Title herein-after mentioned in such Manner as General Orders shall direct : No Title shall be accepted for Registration as indefeasible unless it shall appear to be such as a Court of Equity would hold to be a valid marketable Title.

Examination of Title with Guarantee.

6. Any Question, Doubt, or Dispute as to any Matter of Title that may arise in the course of such Investigation may be referred to such Judge of the Court of Chancery as the Lord Chancellor shall appoint to hear Applications under this Act.

Reference of Questions of Title.

7. If the Title shall (either absolutely or subject as aforesaid) appear to be good and marketable, the Applicants shall furnish to the Registrar, and he shall examine and settle for the Purposes of Registration :

Particulars to be furnished to Registrar.

First, an exact Description of the Lands to be registered :

Secondly, a Statement of the Persons, or Classes or Descriptions of Persons, that are or may become entitled to such Lands, and of the Estates, Powers, and Interests that exist, or may arise or become vested in such Persons respectively :

Thirdly, a Statement of the Mortgages, Charges, and Incumbrances affecting such Lands or any Part thereof, and of the Persons entitled thereto, both at Law and in Equity :

Copies of such Description and Statements when settled by the Registrar shall be delivered back to the Applicants : Any Objection to the same or to any Part thereof, if not allowed by the Registrar, shall, at the Request of the Applicants, be referred to and decided by the Judge of the Court of Chancery.

8. If required by the Registrar, the Description of the Land furnished by the Applicant shall be verified by his own Oath or the Oaths of Persons having full Means of Information.

May be verified on Oath.

9. It shall be stated in the Description of the Land to be so furnished by the Applicant whether he does or does not claim to be entitled to all or any Part of the Mines and Minerals under such Claim to Mines and Minerals.

Transfer of Land.

such Land, and unless in such Description Mines or Minerals shall be expressly mentioned, they shall be deemed not to be included therein; and if in such Description Mines or Minerals shall be expressly mentioned, it shall be the Duty of the Registrar to have especial Regard thereto in all subsequent Inquiries to be made by him with respect to such Lands, and in the Investigation of the Title thereto, and also in the Service of such Notices as herein-after mentioned.

Identity of Lands to be established.

10. The Identity of the Lands with the Parcels or Descriptions contained in the Title Deeds shall be fully established, and the Registrar shall have Power by such Inquiries as he shall think fit to ascertain the Accuracy of the Description and the Quantities and Boundaries of the Lands; and, except in the Case of incorporeal Hereditaments, a Map or Plan shall be made and deposited as Part of the Description.

Notice of Intention to register.

11. When such Description has been settled, and the Registrar is satisfied with the Title shown to the Land, and with the Result of the Inquiries made, he shall require such Notices as General Orders shall direct to be given by public Advertisement of his Intention to register such Land with an indefeasible Title, at the Expiration of a Period not less than Three Months from the Date of such Advertisement.

Contents of Notice.

12. Such Notice shall contain a Copy of the Description of the Land as proposed to be registered and the Names and Descriptions of the Applicants for Registration: A Copy of such Notice shall be served on every adjoining Occupier, and the Person (if any) to whom such Occupier pays Rent, and on the Lord of the Manor in any Case in which the Lands are situate within or held of any Manor, and also on every Person not having already had Notice of the Application, who shall appear to have or claim any Estate or Interest in or Right over the Land, or any Part thereof, and on such other Persons as under the special Circumstances of each Case shall be deemed necessary.

The Notice shall also state the Place, Time, and Manner at and in which any Party may be heard to show Cause against such Registration.

Cause may be shown against Registration.

13. At the Time and Place named in the Notice, or at such Time and Place as General Orders shall direct, any Person may attend and show Cause before the Registrar, by Affidavit or otherwise, against the Registration, or claim that the same should be subject to any Conditions or Reservations; the Registrar may decide on such Objection or Claim, or may refer the same to the Judge of the Court of Chancery: If the Registrar decide, either Party may appeal from his Decision to the said Court, in manner herein-after directed.

Completion of Registration.

14. If at the Expiration of the Time named in such Notice there shall be no Objection to the Registration applied for or none allowed, and no Appeal pending, or, if any Appeal shall be then pending, as soon as any Objection to such Registration shall have been finally disallowed by the Court of Appeal, or the Appeal withdrawn, the Registrar shall complete such Registration in manner following; that is to say,

Transfer of Land.

First, the Registrar shall enter in a Book to be called "The Register of Estates with an indefeasible Title" such Description of the Estate as shall be finally approved of, and shall annex thereto any Map or Plan which shall be deemed necessary, and shall distinguish the Estate so entered by a particular Number or Numbers, and the Entry shall refer to another Book to be entitled "The Record of Title to Lands on the Registry:"

Secondly, in the last-mentioned Book, under the same Number or Numbers, shall be entered in concise Terms an exact Record of the existing Estates, Powers, and Interests in the Land so registered as aforesaid, and the Names and Descriptions of the Persons or Classes of Persons that are or may become entitled thereto respectively.

Thirdly, in a Book to be entitled "The Register of Mortgages and Incumbrances" shall be entered under the same Number or Numbers an Account of all the Charges and Incumbrances affecting the Lands or any Part thereof, or the Estate or Interest therein of any Person named in the Record of Title.

15. Subject to such Directions as may be given by General Orders, the aforesaid Books of Registry may be inspected by the Owners of the Estates and Interests, or of the Mortgages and Incumbrances recorded therein, or their respective Solicitors or Agents: No other Person shall be permitted to inspect such Books, except under an Order of the Court of Chancery.

Books may be inspected.

As to the Record of Title.

16. In the Record of Title so made as aforesaid it shall be competent for the Registrar to specify or define any Exception or Qualification or Condition affecting the whole of the Interests so recorded, or any of them, and also to reserve expressly the Right of any Person or Class of Persons, and to describe any outstanding Right or Possibility of Claim or Interest subject to which such Registration is made; and if there shall be any disputed Question of Boundary between the Applicants and any Proprietor of adjoining Land which shall not have been previously determined by any competent Authority, it shall be competent for the Parties or either of them to object in Writing to the Determination of such Question by the Registrar, or by a Judge of the Court of Chancery, under this Act; and if any such Objection shall be made, the Registrar shall specify upon the Record of Title the Existence of such disputed Question of Boundary, and that the Registration is made subject thereto.

As to Exception, &c. in Record of Title.

17. If in making up, or afterwards continuing, such Record of Title as aforesaid, any Question shall arise as to the true Construction or legal Validity or Effect of any Deed, Instrument, or Will, or as to the Persons entitled, or the Extent or Nature of the Estate, Right, or Interest, Power or Authority of any Person or Class of Persons, or the Mode in which any Entry ought to be made in the Record of Title, or any doubtful or uncertain Right or Interest stated or dealt with by the Registrar, it shall Any Question as to true Construction of any Deed, &c. to be referred by Registrar to a Judge of Court of Chancery.

Transfer of Land.

be competent for the Registrar, or for any of the Parties interested, to refer the same to a Judge of the Court of Chancery : If on such Reference the Judge, having regard to the Parties appearing before him, shall think proper to decide the Question, he shall have Power to do so, or to direct any Proceeding at Law or in Equity to be instituted for that Purpose, or at his Discretion, and without deciding such Question, to direct such particular Form of Entry to be made on the Record of Title as under the Circumstances shall appear to be right.

Registrar may refer in Record of Title to Deed, &c. for Estates of Parties.

18. In any Case described in the preceding Section, the Registrar may, at the Request of the Parties or at his own Discretion, refer in the Record of Title to the Deed, Will, or other Instrument for the Estates and Interests of the Parties, instead of setting out or describing the same : Provided always, that in every Case in which such Deed, Will, or other Instrument shall be so referred to, a Copy thereof (which shall be verified and printed in the Manner herein-after directed with respect to Deeds or Instruments conveying, mortgaging, or charging the Estate or Interest of any Proprietor on the Register,) shall be delivered to the Registrar by the Parties applying for Registration, and shall be preserved in the Registry ; and for the Purposes of any subsequent Sale, Mortgage, or Contract for valuable Consideration by any Person appearing thereby to have any Estate or Interest in the Land to which the Record of Title so made up shall relate, such Copy shall be conclusive Evidence of the Contents of the said Deed, without the Production of the Original thereof.

Persons entitled to Principal Money, &c. not to be entered in Record of Title unless Registrar thinks fit.

19. The Names of the Persons entitled to the Proceeds of any Trust for Sale of the Lands so registered, or to any Principal Money to be raised by virtue of any Charge under the Trusts of any Estate or Term, shall not be entered in the Register unless the Registrar shall think fit so to do, but the Estate of the Trustees shall be defined and the Purpose of the Trust shortly described.

When an indefeasible Title shall arise.

Persons described in Record of Title to be deemed as possessed of such Estates, &c.

20. Subject to any Exception, Qualification, or Condition mentioned in such Record of Title, and to any Right or Interest thereby reserved, and to any registered Charges or Incumbrances, and to such Charges and Interests (if any) as are herein declared not to be Incumbrances, the Persons originally and from Time to Time named and described in such Record of Title as aforesaid shall, for the Purposes of any Sale, Mortgage, or Contract for valuable Consideration by such Persons respectively, be and be deemed to be as from the Date of registering such Record by the Registrar, or from such Time as shall be fixed by him therein, absolutely and indefeasibly possessed of and entitled to such Estates, Rights, Powers, and Interests as shall be defined and expressed in such Record against all Persons, and free from all Rights, Interests, Claims, and Demands whatsoever, including any Estate, Claim, or Interest of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Transfer of Land.

21. No Entry in such Record of Title as aforesaid shall be set aside or called in question as against any Person who may afterwards become interested therein under any Sale, Mortgage, or Contract for valuable Consideration, by reason of any Irregularity or Informality in the Proceedings previous to the making thereof.

Informality not to prejudice Entry in Record of Title.

22. Before the final Registration of any Land with an indefeasible Title, the Applicant and his Solicitor or Agent, or certificated Conveyancer, and such other Person or Persons as the Registrar shall require, shall make Oath that all Deeds, Wills, and Writings relating to the Title of the Lands, or any Part thereof, and all Facts material to the Title thereto, and all Charges, Liens, Incumbrances, Contracts, and Dealings affecting the same or any Part thereof, or giving any Right as against the Applicant, have to the fullest Extent of their respective Knowledge, Information, and Belief been made known to the Registrar.

Before Registration Applicant, &c. to make Oath that all Deeds, &c. have been made known to Registrar.

23. If at any Time before Registration the Registrar is of opinion that any further or other Evidence is necessary, he may refuse to complete the Registration until such further or other Evidence shall have been produced.

Power to Registrar to refuse Registration.

24. The Registrar shall, before taking any Proceeding on an Application for Registration with an indefeasible Title, require the Applicant to give such Security for Costs as General Orders shall direct; and it shall be lawful for the Registrar and for the Judge of the Court of Chancery respectively to order the Costs and Expenses properly incurred of any Person properly appearing upon any Proceeding taken under this Act for the Purpose of such Registration to be paid by the Applicant.

Power to Registrar to demand Security for Costs.

Proceedings for Registration without an indefeasible Title.

25. Application for Registration without an indefeasible Title may be made by any Person, subject to the following Conditions:

Registration without Guarantee of Title may be made under certain Conditions.

1. The Applicant shall prove to the Satisfaction of the Registrar that he, or some Person under whom he claims, has been in the actual Enjoyment or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the Land as Owner of the Fee Simple thereof, continuously and without Interruption, for a Period of Ten Years immediately preceding the Time of such Application:

2. The last Deed or Will (if any) under which the Applicant derives Title shall be produced to the Registrar:

If the Applicant claims as Heir-at-Law, Evidence shall be given that the Ancestor was in the Enjoyment of the Estate as Owner thereof at the Time of his Decease:

3. The Rules above enacted as to the Description of the Land to be registered shall apply, and the Registrar shall adopt the same Course, and take the same Proceedings, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Accuracy of the Description of the Lands and of the Boundaries thereof, as are hereinbefore directed with respect to Registration with an indefeasible Title:

4. A Statutory Declaration shall be made by the Applicant and his Solicitor or Agent, or certificated Conveyancer, and, if necessary, any other Person whose Evidence may be deemed necessary by the Registrar, that they respectively believe the Applicant to be, either alone or jointly with other Persons to be named and described, (and subject to any Qualification, Condition, or Exception which shall be stated,) well entitled to the Fee Simple of the Lands proposed to be registered :

5. If the Land be registered, the Registrar shall, in the Record of Title, define the Time, Event, or Circumstances from and after which an indefeasible Title shall attach : When the Time has arrived, the Event happened, or the defined Circumstances exist, a Judge of the Court of Chancery may, upon Proof thereof, and if there be no other Objection, after such and the like Notices as are herein-before required in case of an Application for Registration of a Title as indefeasible shall have been duly given, direct a Transfer of the Land to the Register of Estates with an indefeasible Title, and thereupon the Registrar shall make up a proper Record of the Title to such Land, and the Applicant and other Persons named in such Record of Title shall have the same Estates, Rights, and Privileges as if the Land had been registered with an indefeasible Title :
6. Subject to the Enactments herein contained, the Registration of any Person as Owner of Land without an indefeasible Title shall not prejudice any Estate, Right, or Interest created or existing at or before the Date of such Registration.

Registration of Leasehold Estates.

Leasehold Estates may be registered in like Manner as Freehold Lands.

26. Leasehold Estates, namely, Lands demised for Terms of Years of which Fifty Years are still to come and unexpired, or demised for Lives or for Years determinable with Lives, and in which Two Lives at least are still subsisting, may be registered with an indefeasible Title in a similar Manner and subject to the same or similar Directions and Rules of Proceeding as are herein contained with respect to Freehold Lands : Such Application may be made by Persons having such Estates and Interests in the Leasehold Estates as are similar or correspondent to the Estates and Interests of the Persons entitled to apply for the Registry of Freehold Land : No indefeasible Title shall, in the case of a Leasehold, extend to the Title of the Lessor or Grantor of the same : Such further Directions shall be observed with regard to Leasehold Estates as shall be given from Time to Time by General Orders.

General Provisions as to Title.

Charges and Liabilities not to be deemed Incumbrances.

27. The following Charges and Liabilities shall not be deemed Incumbrances within the Meaning of this Act ; namely,

1. Land Tax, Succession Duty, Tithe Rentcharges, Rents payable to the Crown :

2. Public

Transfer of Land.

2. Public Rights of Way, Liability to repair Highways by reason of Tenure, Rights of Way, Watercourses, and Rights of Water, and other Easements or Servitudes, Rights of Common, Manorial Rights and Franchises :

3. Leases or Agreements for Leases not exceeding Twenty-one Years, where there is an actual Occupation under the same :

Nevertheless, where any such Charges or Liabilities appear or are discovered in the course of Proceeding prior to Registration, the Registrar shall, in such Manner as he shall think fit, notice in the Register the Existence of such Charges or Liabilities.

28. Land entered on the Register may, at the Option of the Proprietor, be registered as One Estate or as separate Estates ; but the Particulars of each Estate, and any Transactions relating thereto, shall, subject to any Regulations to the contrary that may be made by General Order, form a separate Record in the Register, distinguished by a separate Number, or in such other Manner as the Registrar may determine.

Land may be registered as One Estate.

29. If Land registered or proposed to be registered, or any Part thereof, be subject, or be agreed to be made subject to any Condition, as, for Example, that it shall not be built upon, or used in a particular Manner, or any other legal Condition, Notice thereof shall be entered in the "Record of Title," and any Transfer, Demise, or Charge of such Land shall be subject to such Condition ; but it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery to discharge, alter, or modify any such Condition upon hearing all Parties who may be entitled to claim under or against the same.

Registered Land made subject to certain Conditions, &c.

30. So soon as any Land is registered, if there shall appear to be any Charge or Incumbrance affecting such Land or any Part thereof which is entered in the Register of Incumbrances (the Owner of which has not had Notice of the Application), Notice of such Registration shall be immediately given by the Registrar to the Person entitled or interested in such Charge or Incumbrance.

Notice of Registration to be given by Registrar.

31. If any judicial Declaration of the Title to any Land shall be made by the Court of Chancery under any Act which may be passed in the present Session for the Purpose of enabling Persons having Interests in Land to obtain a judicial Declaration of their Title to the same, so as to enable them to make an indefeasible Title to Persons claiming under them, as Purchasers for valuable Consideration, the Land as to which any such Declaration may be made may, at the Option of the Person obtaining the same, be entered upon the Register of Estates with an indefeasible Title under this Act when and so soon as the Time allowed for appealing under any such Act as last aforesaid shall have expired, or (if any Appeal shall be prosecuted) when and so soon as any such Declaration shall be affirmed by the last Court of Appeal, or the Appeal withdrawn ; and the Title to such Land, as the same shall be declared by the Court, shall in such Case be entered upon the Record of Title to Lands on the Registry under this Act, and such Land shall thenceforth be subject to the Provisions of this Act, in the same Manner in all respects as if the Registration thereof had been made by virtue of Proceedings duly taken for the Registration of an indefeasible Title thereto under this Act.

Every Estate, &c. to be entered in Record of Title after Registration of Land.

32. From and after the Registration of any Land, every Estate or Interest, Use, Trust, Mortgage, Charge, Lien, Right, or Title granted, declared, arising, becoming vested, or in any Manner created, or coming into existence, in, to, upon, out of, or affecting such Land or any Part thereof (except as herein excepted), shall be entered, described, or noticed in the Record of Title or Register of Incumbrances to be so kept as aforesaid.

Estates registered subject to existing Law.

33. Subject to the Enactments herein contained, the Estates and Interests of all registered Proprietors shall remain subject to the existing Law, and may be dealt with, assured, devised, and transmitted by Descent or Representation according to the ordinary Rules of Law and Equity.

Registered Proprietor, with Consent, may close Register.

34. The registered Proprietor of Land may, with the Consent of all Persons appearing by the Register to be interested in such Land, remove the same from the Register, and thereupon the Register shall as respects such Land be deemed to be closed.

Caveat against Entry of Land on Register.

Caveats may be lodged with Registrar, &c.

35. Any Person having or claiming such an Interest in Land as entitles him to object to any Disposition thereof being made without his Consent may lodge a Caveat with the Registrar, to the Effect that the Cautioner is entitled to Notice of any Application that may be made for Registration of such Land, and appointing a Place within Great Britain for the Service of such Notice.

Caveat to be supported by Affidavit.

36. The Caveat shall be supported by an Affidavit, stating the Nature of the Interest of the Cautioner, and such other Matters as may be required by the Registrar.

How Notice to be served.

37. Notice may be served on the Cautioner either personally or by sending it through the Post to the Address stated in the Caveat.

No Registration to be made till Ten Days after Notice.

38. After a Caveat has been lodged, no Registration shall be made of any Lands to which such Caveat refers until Notice has been served on the Cautioner to appear and oppose such Registration, and Ten Days have expired since the Date of the Service of such Notice, or until the Cautioner has entered an Appearance, which may first happen.

Compensation, when to be made.

39. If any Person wrongfully and without reasonable Cause, lodges a Caveat with the Registrar, he shall be liable to make, to any Person who may have sustained Damage by the lodging of such Caveat, such Compensation as a Judge of the Court of Chancery shall deem just.

Caveat not Title of any Person.

40. A Caveat lodged in pursuance of this Act shall not prejudice the Claim or Title of any Person, and shall have no Effect whatever, except to entitle the Cautioner to receive such Notice as is herein-before mentioned of any Application made for Registration of Land.

Transfer of Land.

PART II.

SIMPLIFICATION OF TITLE BY JUDICIAL SALES.

Sales by Court of Chancery.

- 41. Sales may be made by the Court of Chancery of Land with an indefeasible Title, upon the Application, by Petition or otherwise, as General Orders may direct, of any of the Persons who are herein-before empowered to apply for Registration of Title. Sales of Land by Court.
- 42. Such Application shall be served on such Persons as the Court shall think fit, before a preliminary Order is made. Application to be served on Parties.
- 43. By its preliminary Order or Orders, the Court shall provide for the Examination of the Title to the Land, and the Ascertainment of a correct Description thereof, and shall also make such Inquiries as to the Parties interested, either as Incumbrancers, Owners, or otherwise, and direct such Notices to be given as are herein-before directed on the Occasion of Application to the Registrar for Registration of an indefeasible Title, and shall also direct such other Notices, if any, to be given as it thinks necessary to enable it to form a Judgment as to the Propriety of a Sale, and shall hear by themselves, their Counsel or Agents, any Persons interested in such Land who may apply to them to be heard, and shall, upon the Conclusion of such Inquiries, and after hearing such Parties, if any, as aforesaid, make such Order as to the Sale of such Lands as it thinks just. Court shall provide for Examination of Title, &c. before making Order for Sale.
- 44. Before making any Order the Court may require the Applicant to give Security for Costs. Security for Costs.
- 45. The Purchase Money on any Sale made by the Court shall be paid as the Court may direct; and the Court may make an Order vesting the Land in the Purchaser, subject or not, as the Case may require, to the Incumbrances specified in such Order, and subject in all Cases to such Charges or Interests as may be subsisting thereon, and are herein-before declared not to be Incumbrances within the Meaning of this Act. Payment of Purchase Money as Court may direct;
- 46. The Payment of the Purchase Money in manner directed by the Court shall exonerate the Purchaser from all Liability whatsoever with respect to the same. to exonerate Purchaser from Liability.
- 47. Any Vesting Order by the Court shall bear the same Stamp as if it were a Conveyance made by an ordinary Vendor. Vesting Order to be stamped.
- 48. Before any Vesting Order is made as aforesaid, the Applicant for the Sale or his Solicitor may be personally examined by the Court, or required to give satisfactory Evidence as to the Fact that all Settlements, Deeds, Wills, and Instruments of Title, and all Charges and Incumbrances affecting the Title to the Land which is the Subject of the Application, and all Facts material to such Title, have been disclosed, and that there is not to their or either of their Knowledge, Information, or Belief any Deed, Charge, or Incumbrance affecting the Title to the said Land, nor any Fact material to the said Title, not fully and fairly disclosed as aforesaid: The Court may require any Person proposing to make an Affidavit in pursuance of this Section to state in his Affidavit what Means he has had of becoming ac- Applicant for Sale and his Solicitor may be examined concerning Title before Vesting Order made.

Transfer of Land.

quainted with the several Matters referred to in this Section, and if the Court is of opinion that any further or other Evidence is necessary, it shall not make such Vesting Order until such further or other Evidence is produced.

Where Sales are made under 20 Vict. c. 120. the Court may make Order as under this Act.

49. Where any Sale of the Fee Simple of Land is about to be made under the Order of the Court of Chancery, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty, and intitled An Act to facilitate Sales and Leases of Settled Estates, or of any Act amending the same, or in pursuance of any other Order of the Court, the Court of Chancery may, on the Application of any Parties interested in such Sale, take such Steps as are herein-before directed, and, if satisfied of the Propriety of so doing, may make an Order directing the Land to be put up for Sale with an indefeasible Title, and also an Order vesting the Land in a Purchaser, and any such Vesting Order shall have the same Effect as if it had been made on an Application to the Court under this Part of this Act.

Vesting Order to confer on Person in whom Land is vested an Estate in Fee Simple, with all Rights, &c.

50. Every Vesting Order made by the Court of Chancery in pursuance of this Part of this Act shall confer on the Person in whom the Land is vested an Estate in Fee Simple, together with all Rights, Privileges, and Appurtenances therewith enjoyed, or reputed as belonging or appurtenant thereto, subject to the Incumbrances, Exceptions, or Qualifications, if any, appearing in the Order, and subject also to such Charges and Interests, if any, as are herein-before declared not to be Incumbrances, but free from all other Estates, Rights, Incumbrances, and Interests whatsoever, including all Estates, Interests, and Claims of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Case in which Court may make a qualified Vesting Order.

51. Where upon an Application being made for a Sale by the Court of Chancery it is proposed that a good Title should be shown to the Purchaser for a limited Period only, the Court may make a qualified Vesting Order, declaring by a Statement contained in such Order, or by Endorsement thereon, or by such other Manner as the Court thinks fit, that the Title is to be deemed to commence from the Date of some specified Instrument or at or on some specified Time or Event.

Effect of qualified Vesting Order.

52. A qualified Vesting Order shall not affect or prejudice any Estate, Title, or Interest in or to such Land created or arising prior to the Date at which the Title is stated to commence, but, save as aforesaid, shall have the same Effect as an absolute Vesting Order.

Court may require Production of Deeds, &c.

53. The Court of Chancery may, in the course of any Proceedings relating to Land wherein a Vesting Order is sought to be obtained, require all Persons having any Deeds or Evidences of Title relating to such Land, who are bound by Law so to do, to produce the same to the Court, upon such Terms and subject to such Conditions as the Court may think just.

Distribution of Monies paid into Bank.

54. The Court of Chancery shall determine the Rights and Priorities of the several Persons entitled to or interested in any Money payable under this Part of this Act, and shall distribute the same among such Persons in accordance with such Rights and Priorities.

55. Where any Money is payable in pursuance of this Act, and is not immediately distributable, or the Parties entitled thereto cannot be ascertained, or where from any other Cause the Court thinks it expedient for the Protection of the Rights of the Parties interested therein, it may order such Money to be placed to such Account as the Court directs, in trust to attend the Orders of the Court, and it may by its Order declare the Trusts affecting such Money so far as it has ascertained the same, or state the Facts found by it in relation to the Rights and Interests therein, and generally the Court may make such Orders with respect to any such Money, and the Investment or Application thereof, or the Payment thereof out of Court, as the Circumstances of the Case require.

As to Disposal of Money not immediately distributable.

56. When the Court of Chancery has made a Vesting Order of Land in pursuance of this Part of this Act, all such Deeds and Evidences of Title delivered to the Court as relate exclusively to the Land, and which the Purchaser is entitled to, shall be delivered to him; and all other Deeds and Evidences of Title delivered to the Court relating to the Land or to any Part thereof shall be returned to the Parties entitled to the Custody thereof, but previously to the same respectively being so delivered or returned they shall be stamped or otherwise marked in such Manner as to give Notice to any Person inspecting such Deeds or Evidences of Title of the Proceedings taken by the Court in relation to the Land or any Portion of the Land comprised in such Deeds.

As to Disposal of Deeds after Vesting Order made.

57. Every such Vesting Order may direct the Registrar to enter the Name of the Person entitled on the Register as the Proprietor of the Land with an indefeasible or qualified Title, as the Case may be, and in such Case the Order shall state the Name and Description of the Person entitled, and describe the Lands to be registered, with the Addition of the Incumbrances, if any, affecting such Lands, and such other Matters as the Court thinks fit to insert therein, including, in the Case of an Applicant entitled only to a qualified Vesting Order, a Statement of the Time or Event at or on which the Title, as registered, is to commence.

Contents of Vesting Order.

58. The Registration of any Person as First Proprietor of Land with a qualified Title shall not affect or prejudice the Right of any Person claiming any Estate, Title, or Interest created or arising prior to the Time or Event at or on which the Title is stated on the Register to commence, but, save as aforesaid, shall have the same Effect as Registration with an indefeasible Title.

Registration with a qualified Title not to affect prior Claims.

59. Where upon the First Registration of the Land under a Vesting Order Notice of any Incumbrance affecting such Land has been entered on the Register, the Registrar shall, on Proof of the Discharge of such Incumbrance, enter a Memorandum of such Discharge on the Register, and upon such Entry being made the Incumbrance shall be deemed to be discharged.

Compensation
to Persons aggrieved.

60. Where any Order has been made by the Court of Chancery vesting Land in a Purchaser, or where any Person has been registered with an indefeasible Title under a Vesting Order, any Person aggrieved by such Order or Registration may apply to the Court of Chancery to be reimbursed for any Injury he may have sustained, out of any Purchase Money that may be remaining in Court.

As to Costs and Expenses.

61. In every Proceeding under this Act the Court shall have full Power and Discretion as to the giving or withholding Costs and Expenses, and as to the Persons by whom and the Funds out of which the same shall in the first instance or ultimately be paid, repaid, and borne, and may direct the same to be paid to or apportioned among such Persons as it sees fit.

As to Assignment of Duties.

62. The Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time assign the Duties by this Part of this Act vested in the Court of Chancery to any particular Judge or Judges of that Court, and may appoint such new or additional Clerk or Clerks as to him may seem necessary for enabling such Judge or Judges duly to execute the Duties imposed on it, and every such additional Clerk shall receive out of the Suitors Fee Fund such Salary as the Lord Chancellor may think proper.

PART III.

AS TO THE TRANSFER OF REGISTERED LAND.

Conveyance,
&c. of registered Land.

63. All registered Land, and every Part thereof, may be conveyed, charged, settled, dealt with, or affected in or by any of the following Modes or Dispositions; that is to say,

First, by a Statutory Disposition in any of the Forms described in this Act:

Secondly, by Endorsement on the Land Certificate:

Thirdly, by Deposit of the Land Certificate:

Fourthly, by any Deed, Will, Judgment, Decree, or Instrument by which such Land, if not registered, might now according to Law be conveyed, charged, settled, devised, dealt with, or affected:

But no equitable Mortgage or Lien on registered Land shall be created by a Deposit of Title Deeds.

Attendance of Parties at Registry Office on Sale, &c. of registered
Land.

64. On the Occasion of any Sale, Mortgage, or other Disposition of registered Land, or of any Estate thereon, the Parties or their Agents, duly authorized, may attend at the Registry Office to complete the Transaction: The Description of the Land and of the Estate therein proposed to be conveyed shall be taken from the "Register of Estates" and "Record of Title," and inserted under the Superintendence of the Registrar in One of the Statutory Forms of Conveyance described in the Schedule hereto; and such Conveyance shall be executed by the Parties or their Agents in the Presence of and attested by such Persons as the Registrar shall approve of, and shall then and there (together with the Powers of Attorney) be delivered to the Registrar for the Purposes of Registration, who shall make the proper Entries in the Register accordingly.

65. The

Transfer of Land.

65. The registered Proprietor of any Land, Estate, or Interest may convey or charge the same by the Forms of Conveyance mentioned in the Schedule hereto, and the same shall be as complete and effectual as any other Form of Conveyance would have been either at Law or in Equity.

Forms of Conveyance in Schedule of registered Land.

66. The Persons taking under the Statutory Forms of Conveyance mentioned in the Schedule to this Act shall take as fully and effectually as if the Estates, Rights, Powers, and Authorities expressed to be created and given by such Forms respectively had been conveyed, created, or granted by any of the Modes of Assurance now known to the Law.

Forms of Conveyance in Schedule as effectual as other Forms.

67. The Forms contained in the Schedule may be modified or altered in Expression to suit the Circumstances of every Case, and the Conveyances made in such altered Forms shall be equally valid and effectual.

Forms may be modified or altered.

As to Land Certificates.

68. The Registrar shall, upon Request, deliver to every Person who is named or described in the Record of Title as the Owner of any Estate or Interest in Lands upon the Registry a Certificate (herein called a Land Certificate) under the Seal of the Office, and signed by the Registrar, which Certificate shall contain, first, a Copy of the Description of the same Lands as appearing in the Registry of Estates, with all the Entries relating thereto, and secondly, a Copy of the Entries relating to the same Lands appearing in the Record of Title, and thirdly, a Copy of the Entries in the Registry of Incumbrances of the Mortgages, Charges, Claims, and Liens on or affecting the Estate and Interest of such Owner; and such Certificate shall certify whether such Lands are registered with or without an indefeasible Title, and shall be distinguished by the Number under which the Lands are registered in "The Register of Estates," and shall contain all such other Particulars as are material or useful for the Purpose of manifesting the exact Nature of such Owner's Estate and Interest.

Registrar to deliver Land Certificates.

69. At the Request of the Holder, the Registrar shall at any Time compare such Land Certificate with the Registry, and, if there has been no Alteration, shall certify at the Foot of such Certificate that it contains a true Statement of the Entries in the Registry, and shall sign the same, and add the Date of such Signature: Any Alteration or Omission which can be conveniently made in a Land Certificate, or any Addition thereto, so as to make the same correspond with any Alteration in the Registry, may be made and signed by the Registrar, if he shall think fit: A new Land Certificate may be granted on the Delivery up of the former Certificate: A Certificate shall be granted to any Person who shall appear by the Register of Incumbrances to be entitled to any Mortgage, Charge, or Incumbrance on registered Lands, which Certificate shall contain a Description of the Lands and the Particulars of the Incumbrance.

Registrar, at Request of Holder, to compare Certificate with Registry.

selling, &c.
may obtain special Land Certificate.

therein he may obtain from the Registrar a special Land Certificate for that Purpose, which shall contain an exact Description of the Land proposed to be so dealt with taken from the Register of Estates, and shall also state the Nature of the Estate and Interest of such Proprietor therein, and the Particulars of the Incumbrances, if any, affecting the Land described: Such Certificate shall be conclusive Evidence of the Title of the registered Proprietor to the Land as appearing by the Record of Title: No Entry shall be made by the Registrar in the Registry of any Deed, Instrument, Act, or Transaction affecting the Land comprised in such special Certificate, and the Estate of the registered Proprietor described therein, except on the Delivery up of such Certificate, until Fourteen Days have expired from and after the Day of the Date thereof: A Note of such special Certificate shall be entered in the Record of Title and in the Register of Incumbrances, and also on the original Land Certificate.

Certificate to be Evidence.

71. Every Land Certificate shall be Evidence of the several Matters therein contained.

Conveyance of Lands by Endorsement.

72. The Lands, and the Estate therein of the Owner, described in such Land Certificate, may be effectually conveyed or charged by Endorsement thereon, according to any of the Forms of Assurance by Endorsement contained in the Schedule to this Act.

Deposit of Certificate.

73. The Deposit of the Land Certificate shall, for the Purpose of creating a Lien on the Estate and Interest of the Depositor, have the same Effect as a Deposit of the Title Deeds of the Estate would have had before the passing of this Act; and any Agreement or Memorandum in Writing relating to such Deposit shall be chargeable with the same Stamp Duty as an Agreement accompanied with a Deposit of the Title Deeds would be chargeable with.

Estates, &c.
in Land may be created by
Will, &c.

74. Every Person having a sufficient Estate or Interest in registered Land, may by Will, Deed, or other Instrument create the same Estates and Interests in, and enter into the same Contracts and Engagements with respect to such Land as he might do if the Land were not registered: Provided always, that no unregistered Estate or Interest, Contract or Engagement, for the Registration whereof Provision is made by this Act, shall prevail against the Title of any subsequent Purchaser for valuable Consideration duly registered under this Act.

On Conveyance of Estate,
&c. on Register, Deed or Copy to be sent to Registrar.

75. On the Execution of any Deed or Instrument conveying, mortgaging, or charging the Estate or Interest of any Proprietor on the Register, the Original, or a Copy of such Deed or Instrument, shall be sent to the Registrar by the Grantee or Person taking Benefit under the same: Such Copy shall be compared with the Original in such Manner as the Registrar shall direct, who shall require the Original to be produced or inspected for that Purpose in such Manner as he shall think fit; and such original Deed or Instrument shall in every such Case be stamped or endorsed so as to give Notice of the Registration thereof under this Act to every Person to whom the same may be afterwards produced.

Transfer of Land.

- 76. So soon as the Original or the Copy of any Deed or Instrument in Writing whatsoever affecting registered Land, or creating or affecting any Estate or Interest therein, has been received by the Registrar, such Deed or Instrument, and the Estate and Right created thereby, shall be deemed to have been duly entered on the Registry: An Official Note of Reference to such Deed or Instrument shall forthwith on Receipt thereof be made by the Registrar in "The Record of Title," or "Register of Incumbrances," as the Case may be: Provided always, that such Deed or Instrument, and the Estate and Right created thereby, shall not be deemed to have been entered upon the Registry so as to affect any Land comprised in any such special Certificate as herein-before mentioned, until after the Expiration of the Time herein-before limited for the Entry of any Deed, Instrument, Act, or Transaction affecting such Land.
- 77. Notice of every Instrument transferring, or in anywise dealing with or affecting the Ownership of or the Right to receive Money due on any Mortgage, Charge, or Incumbrance entered on the Registry, shall be given to the Registrar, who shall note the same in the "Registry of Incumbrances."
- 78. Where the Estate or Interest of a registered Proprietor is transmitted on his Death to any other Person by Descent, Will, or Representation, such other Person shall be entered on the Register in the Place of the deceased Proprietor: If such Person cannot be ascertained, or there shall be any Doubt, Dispute, or Litigation touching the Ownership of the Estate of such deceased Proprietor, it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery to appoint a Person to be registered in the Room of such deceased Proprietor as the Representative of such Estate or Interest.
- 79. On the Application of any Devisee for Registration of a Will, or of his Estate or Interest under the same, the Registrar may require Notice to be given to the Heir at Law of the Testator.
- 80. On the Bankruptcy of any registered Proprietor, the Assignee or Assignees of his Estate shall be entitled to be registered in his Place.
- 81. In lieu of a Copy of a Will, a Memorial thereof, containing a Copy of all the Provisions in the Will relating to or affecting any registered Land, may be delivered to the Registrar for the Purpose of Registration: Provided that the Registrar shall ascertain the Sufficiency of the Memorial by an Examination of the Will or a Copy thereof.
- 82. The Execution of the original Deed, Will, or Instrument so proposed to be registered, and the Exactness of every Copy or Memorial delivered for Registration, shall be proved in such Manner as the Registrar shall from Time to Time require.
- 83. Memorials of Descents, Deaths, Marriages, and of the Evidence thereof respectively, and such other Memorials and Evidence of Matters relating to registered Lands as the Registrar shall, on the same being delivered to him, deem important, shall be registered, but all such Documents shall be printed for that Purpose.

When Deed received by Registrar, Estate created to be deemed duly registered.

Notice when to be sent to Registrar.

Where Estate transmitted to any Person by Descent such Person to be registered.

Notice to Heir at Law of Application, &c.

Assignees of Bankrupts to be registered.

Memorial of Will may be registered instead of Copy.

Execution to be proved as Registrar may require.

Memorials of Descents, &c. to be registered, &c.

Transfer of Land.

Registrar to note Effect of Instruments,
&c.

84. On receiving any Instrument hereby directed to be registered the Registrar shall make an Official Note of the Effect of every such Instrument, Judgment, Order, or Decree in the Record of the Title of the Person whose Estate or Interest is affected thereby, and he shall also enter on the Record of Title a Reference to the Book and Page of the Book containing such registered Instrument or Memorial.

Official Note,
what to contain.

85. An Official Note of an Instrument entered on the Register may consist of a Reference to such Instrument, or of an Extract therefrom, or of a short Statement of the Effect or Nature thereof, or of an Intimation that no Disposition is to take place without the Consent of some Person named in such Instrument, or of such Matters and in such Form as the Registrar shall deem right, or as shall be from Time to Time directed or allowed by any General Order.

Printed Copy of Deed, &c. to be delivered
to Registrar.

86. For the Purpose of Registration a printed Copy of every Deed or Instrument not testamentary under or by virtue of which any Interest or Right is claimed in or to any registered Land may be delivered to the Registrar, but if the Original or a written Copy of any such Deed or Instrument be delivered to the Registrar, the same shall be printed by his Order, but at the Expense of the Person registering the same.

Registrar in certain Cases may erase Official Note.

87. The Registrar, upon the Application of the Person entitled under any registered Instrument, or upon its being proved that the Purpose of such Instrument is determined or satisfied, may remove the same from the Register and erase or cancel any Official Note thereof, and thereupon such Instrument and any Memorial thereof may be destroyed or otherwise dealt with as the Registrar may think fit.

No Dealing with registered Land effectual until Stamp and ad valorem
Duties paid.

88. No Dealing with any registered Land, nor any Instrument or Transaction affecting the same, or any Estate or Interest therein, shall be completed, entered, or noticed on the Register until the Registrar shall be satisfied that the Stamp and ad valorem Duties which would be payable to Government in respect of the same Matters have been duly paid.

PART IV.

GENERAL PROVISIONS TO FACILITATE REGISTRATION.

Money Charge
not ascertained,
&c. may be referred to Judge at Chambers.

89. If on the Examination of any Title it shall appear that the Land or any Part of it is subject to any Money Charge or Incumbrance, the Ownership of which is not ascertained or the Right to which is doubtful or uncertain, or to any doubtful or uncertain Right or Claim which may be estimated or compensated by Money, and does not involve a Right to the Land itself otherwise than as a Security for Money, the Case may, at the Request of the Applicant for Registration, be referred to a Judge of the Court of Chancery sitting in Chambers for the Purpose of determining whether such Right or Claim and the Costs of any Party entitled by virtue thereof can be justly provided for by Payment of Money into Court, and if so to fix the Sum to be so paid in, and direct the Investment and Application of the Interest thereof; thereof ; and after such Payment shall have been made the Land and the Title thereto shall be wholly discharged from such Right, Claim, Charge, or Incumbrance as fully as if the same had never existed.

Transfer of Land.

90. Where any Part of the Money arising from the Sale of a registered Estate is not immediately distributable, or the Persons entitled thereto cannot be fully ascertained, it shall be competent for One of the Judges of the Court of Chancery, on any Application for that Purpose made with the Concurrence of the Registrar, to direct any Sum of Money arising from such Sale to be paid into the Court of Chancery, or otherwise invested, and to declare the Account or Purpose to or for which such Money is to be transferred or holden, and afterwards to make all such Orders touching such Money, and the Investment, Application, and Distribution thereof, as the Circumstances of the Case may require.

Judge may order Money not distributable, &c. to be paid into Court of Chancery.

91. When an Estate is entered on the Register, whether with or without an indefeasible Title, all such Deeds and Evidences of Title as shall be produced to the Registrar, under any of the Provisions aforesaid, shall be stamped or endorsed in such a Manner, under the Direction of the Registrar, as to give Notice to any Person to whom such Deeds or Instruments may be afterwards produced that the Land, or some Portion of the Land comprised therein, has been registered under this Act.

Deeds to be stamped.

92. If in any Proceeding under this Act any Question shall arise respecting the Priority of any Charges or Incumbrances, Claims or Interests, it shall be competent to the Registrar to report the same to a Judge of the Court of Chancery, who shall have Power to summon all Parties interested to attend him either in Court or at Chambers, and to decide all Questions touching the Priority and relative Rights of the Parties, as fully as if they were Parties to a Suit instituted for the Purpose.

Judge may decide Questions of Priority of Incumbrances, &c.

As to Restraint of Conveyance.

93. Where the registered Proprietor of any Land or Charge is desirous for his own Sake, or at the Request of some Person beneficially interested in such Land or Charge, to place Restrictions on transferring or charging such Land or Charge, such Proprietor may, upon Application to the Registrar, direct that no Transfer shall be made of or Charge created on such Land or Charge, unless the following Things, or such of them as he may prescribe, are done ; (that is to say,)

As to Restrictions on Conveyance, &c. of Land.

Unless Notice of any Application for a Transfer or Creation of a Charge is transmitted by Post to such Address as he may specify to the Registrar :

Unless the Consent of some Person or Persons, to be named by such Proprietor, is given to the Transfer or Creation of a Charge :

Unless some such other Matter or Thing is done as may be required by the Applicant and approved by the Registrar.

94. The Registrar shall thereupon make a Note of such Directions on the Record of Title of such Proprietor, or other-

Registrar to make a Note of such Restrictions.

Transfer of Land.

wise as he shall think fit, and no Transfer shall be made or Charge created except in conformity with such Directions; and any such Directions may at any Time be withdrawn or modified at the Instance of all the Persons for the Time being appearing to the Registrar to be interested in such Directions, and shall also be subject to be set aside by the Order of a Judge of the Court of Chancery.

Court of Chancery may exercise Powers of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 60.

95. For the Purpose of authorizing or compelling a Transfer to be made of any registered Land or Charge, the Court of Chancery may exercise all such Powers as are vested in it by the Trustee Act, 1850, or by any Act amending the same, in relation to Transfers of Stock.

Caution.

Person interested may lodge Caution with Registrar.

96. Any Person interested under an Agreement, or otherwise howsoever, in any Land or Charge registered in the Name of any other Person, may lodge a Caveat with the Registrar to the Effect that no Disposition of such Land or Charge be made until Notice has been served upon the Cautioner.

Caution to be supported by Affidavit.

97. The Caveat shall be supported by an Affidavit made by the Cautioner or his Agent, in such Form as the Registrar shall direct, stating the Nature of the Interest of the Cautioner, and such other Matters as may be required by the Registrar.

Statutory Disposition of Land not to be registered until Notice served on Cautioner.

98. After any such Caveat has been lodged in respect of any Land or Charge, the Registrar shall not register any Disposition thereof until he has served Notice on the Cautioner, warning him that his Caveat will cease to have any Effect after the Expiration of Twenty-one Days next ensuing the Date of such Notice; and after the Expiration of such Time as aforesaid the Caveat shall cease, unless an Order to the contrary is made by the Court of Chancery, and upon the Caveat so ceasing the Land or Charge shall be dealt with in the same Manner as if no Caveat had been lodged.

Cautioner to give Security against Damage sustained by Delay, &c.

99. If before the Expiration of the said Period of Twenty-one Days the Cautioner, or some other Person on his Behalf, appears before the Registrar, and enters into a Bond, with sufficient Security, conditioned to indemnify every Person against any Damage that may be sustained by reason of any Disposition of the Property being delayed, the Court of Chancery may thereupon, if it thinks fit so to do, make an Order on the Registrar requiring him to delay registering any Disposition of the Property for such further Period as is mentioned in the Order.

Compensation for lodging Caution without reasonable Cause.

100. If any Person lodges a Caveat with the Registrar, he shall be liable to make, to any Person who may have sustained Damage by the lodging of such Caveat, such Compensation as a Judge of the Court of Chancery shall deem just.

Injunction.

Court may issue Order restraining Disposition of Land, &c.

101. The Court of Chancery may, without Prejudice to the Exercise of any other Power of the Court, upon the Application of any Person interested in any registered Land made in such Manner

Transfer of Land.

Manner as the Court directs, issue an Order restraining for a Time, or until the Occurrence of an Event to be named in such Order, or generally until further Order, any Disposition of any Land or Charge.

102. The Court may make or refuse any such Order, and annex thereto any Terms or Conditions it may think fit, and discharge such Order when granted, with or without Costs, and generally act in the Premises in such Manner as the Justice of the Case requires; and the Registrar, without being made a Party to the Proceedings, upon being served with such Order or an official Copy thereof, shall obey the same.

Court of Chancery may annex Terms, &c. to such Order.

103. Nothing contained in this Act shall take away or affect the existing Jurisdiction of Courts of Equity, on the Ground of actual Fraud.

Jurisdiction of Equity Courts

104. The Provisions of the several Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the Registries which have been established in the Counties of Middlesex and York shall cease to be applicable to any Land situate in the said Counties respectively, so soon as the same Land has been put upon the Register under the Provisions of this Act, and whilst it remains thereon.

Acts relating to Registries in Middlesex and York not to apply, &c.

Penalty on Fraud, &c.

105. If in any Proceeding to obtain the Registration of any Land, or any Land Certificate or Certificate of Title, or otherwise in any Transaction relating to Land which is, or is proposed to be put upon the Registry, any Person acting either as Principal or Agent shall, knowingly and with Intent to deceive, make or assist or join in or be privy to the making of any material false Statement or Representation, or suppress, conceal, or assist or join in or be privy to the suppressing, withholding, or concealing from any Judge, or the Registrar, or any Person employed by or assisting the Registrar, any material Document, Fact, or Matter of Information, every Person so acting shall be deemed to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and on Conviction shall be liable to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Years, and either with or without Hard Labour, or to be fined such Sum as the Court by which he is convicted shall award: The Act or Thing done or obtained by means of such Fraud or Falsehood shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes, except as against a Purchaser for valuable Consideration without Notice.

Person making false Statement guilty of Misdemeanor.

106. No Proceeding or Conviction for any Act hereby declared to be a Misdemeanor shall affect any Remedy which any Person aggrieved by such Act may be entitled to, either at Law or in Equity, against the Person who has committed such Act.

As to Persons aggrieved by Proceeding, &c. for Misdemeanor.

107. Nothing in this Act contained shall entitle any Person to refuse to make a complete Discovery by Answer to any Bill in Equity, or to answer any Question or Interrogatory in any Civil Proceeding, in any Court of Law or Equity, or in the Court of Bankruptcy; but no Answer to any such Bill, Question, or Interrogatory shall be admissible in Evidence against such Person in any Criminal Proceeding.

Answers to Bills, Questions, &c. not admissible in Evidence.

AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Establishment of Office of Land Registry.

108. An Office, to be called the Office of Land Registry, shall be established, and the Business of such Office shall be conducted by a Registrar, with the Aid of such Number of Assistant Registrars not exceeding Three, Examiners of Title, Clerks, Messengers, and Servants as the Lord Chancellor may fix with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Appointment of Registrar.

109. The Registrar shall be a Serjeant-at-Law or Barrister of Ten Years standing at least: He shall be appointed by Her Majesty by Letters Patent, and shall hold his Office during good Behaviour: Upon any Vacancy occurring in the Office of Registrar, Her Majesty may, by Letters Patent, appoint a Person to fill such Vacancy.

Appointment
of Assistant Registrars and Examiners of Title.

110. The Assistant Registrars and Examiners of Title shall be appointed by the Lord Chancellor, and may be removed by him for Negligence, Want of Skill, Untrustworthiness, or Inability to perform their Duties; the Clerks shall be also appointed by the Lord Chancellor, and shall hold their Offices during his Pleasure; and upon any Vacancy occurring in the Office of any Assistant Registrar, Examiner of Title, or Clerk, the Lord Chancellor may appoint another Person in his Place: The Messengers and Servants shall be appointed by the Registrar, and shall hold their Office during the Pleasure of the Registrar; and all such Assistant Registrars, Clerks, Messengers, and Servants shall, in the Execution of their Duties, conform to such Regulations as may be issued by the Registrar.

Salaries of Officers.

111. There shall be paid out of Monies to be provided by Parliament,

To the Registrar a Salary of Two thousand five hundred Pounds a Year:

To the Assistant Registrars, Clerks, Messengers, and Servants, such Salary as the Lord Chancellor, with the Consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, shall determine:

All incidental Expenses of carrying this Act into effect.

Retiring Pension of Registrar.

112. Her Majesty may, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, grant to any Registrar, after a Service of Twenty Years if he shall have then attained the Age of Sixty Years, or in the event of his being disabled by permanent Infirmary from the Performance of the Duties of his Office, a Pension by way of Annuity not exceeding Two Thirds of his Salary to continue during his Life.

Superannuation of Officers other than Registrar.

113. The Lord Chancellor may, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, order to be paid to any Officer or Person employed in the Registry Office, other than the Registrar and Examiners of Title, who is disabled by permanent Infirmary from the Performance of the Duties of his Office, or who has attained the Age of Sixty Years, and has served in the Registry Office for Twenty Years, and is desirous of resigning, such Superannuation Allowance as is authorized with respect to Persons in the permanent Civil Service of the State by "The Superannuation Act, 1859."

Provision for other Persons under Disability.

116. Where any Person who (if not under Disability) might have made any Application, given any Consent, done any Act, or been Party to any Proceeding under this Act; is a Minor, Idiot, or Lunatic, the Guardian or Committee of the Estate respectively of such Person may make such Applications, give such Consents, do such Acts, and be Party to such Proceedings, as such Person respectively, if free from Disability, might have made, given, done, or been Party to, and shall otherwise represent such Person for the Purposes of this Act; where there is no Guardian or Committee of the Estate of any such Person as aforesaid, being infant, idiot, or lunatic, or where any Person the Committee of whose Estates if he were idiot or lunatic would be authorized to act for and represent such Person under this Act is of unsound Mind or incapable of managing his Affairs, but has not been found idiot or lunatic under an Inquisition, it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery to appoint a Guardian of such Person for the Purpose of any Proceedings under this Act, and from Time to Time to change such Guardian; and where the Court sees fit it may appoint a Person to act as the next Friend of a married Woman for the Purpose of any Proceeding under this Act, and from Time to Time remove or change such next Friend.

Registrars, &c. may administer Oaths, &c.

117. The Registrars and Assistant Registrars are hereby empowered to administer Oaths and take Statutory Declarations in lieu of Oaths in all Proceedings under this Act.

As to Loss of Land Certificate.

118. If any Land Certificate is lost or destroyed, the Registrar may, upon being satisfied of the Fact of such Loss or Destruction, grant a new Land Certificate in the Place of the former one, and shall state upon the Face thereof that it is granted in substitution for the former Certificate; but no such new Certificate shall be of any avail against any Person who may have already derived Title under the former Certificate.

Granting new Certificates.

119. The Registrar may, upon the Delivery up to him of a Land Certificate, grant a new Certificate in the Place of the one delivered up.

Lord Chancellor to make Rules and Orders for carrying into effect Purposes of Act.

120. The Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of any Two of the Judges of the Court of Chancery, shall from Time to Time make such General Rules and Orders as he may see fit for carrying the Purposes of this Act into effect, and for regulating the Times, Form and Mode of Procedure, and generally the Practice of the Court in respect of the Matters of this Act, and such Rules and Orders may from Time to Time be rescinded or altered by the like Authority; and all such Rules and Orders shall take effect as General Orders of the Court.

As to Assignment of Duties and Appointment of additional Clerks.

121. The Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time assign the Duties vested in the Court of Chancery in relation to the Matters of this Act to any particular Judge or Judges of that Court, and may appoint such new or additional Clerk or Clerks as to him may seem necessary for enabling such Judge or Judges duly to execute such Duties; and every such additional Clerk shall receive out of the Suitors Fee Fund such Salary as the Lord Chancellor may think proper.

Transfer of Land.

122. The Registrar shall, with the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor, frame, and cause to be printed and promulgated, as he sees Occasion, Forms of Applications, and Directions indicating the Particulars of the Information to be furnished when any Application is made to him under this Act, and also Forms of Instruments, and such other Forms and Directions as he may deem requisite or expedient for facilitating Proceedings under this Act.

Forms to be printed and promulgated.

123. A Seal shall be prepared for the Land Registry Office ; and any Instrument purporting to be sealed with such Seal shall be admissible in Evidence.

Seal of Land Registry Office.

124. A Place of Address shall be given to the Registrar for every Person in England whose Name is entered on the Register of Title as Proprietor of Land, of a Charge, or as Cautioner, or as entitled to receive any Notice, or in any other Character.

Addresses of Proprietors to be registered.

125. The Registrar shall, with the Sanction and under the Direction of the Lord Chancellor, from Time to Time frame General Orders for regulating the Manner of registering Land, the Examination of Titles, the Transfer, Transmission, and Withdrawal of Official Notes and Caveats, the keeping the Registers of Title and Assurances, and generally for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Act, and for giving Effect to the Objects thereof.

Registrar may frame General Orders.

126. Any General Orders so made by the Registrar with such Sanction as aforesaid shall be of the same Force as if enacted by Parliament : They may from Time to Time be rescinded, added to, amended, or altered in like Manner.

Such Orders to have effect as Act of Parliament.

Fees.

127. The Registrar shall, with the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor, determine the Amount of Payments to be made with respect to the following Matters :

Registrar to determine Amount of Fees.

The First Entry on the Register of Title of Land and Charges on Land :

The Registration of Transfers, and Transmissions of Land and Charges, and all other Matters to be done by the Registrar :

The Registration of Instruments and the Withdrawal of such Instruments :

And the Registrar may, with the like Sanction, from Time to Time alter any Amounts so determined, but all Payments mentioned in this Section shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and carried to the Account of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

128. In determining the Amount of Fees payable in respect of Entries on the Register of Title under this Act, regard shall be had to the following Matters :

Matters to be considered in determining Amount of Fees.

1. In the Case of the Registration of Land or of any Transfer of Land on the Occasion of a Sale,—to the Value of the Land as determined by the Amount of Purchase Money :

Transfer of Land.

2. In the Case of the Registration of Land, or of any Transfer of Land not upon a Sale,—to the Value of the Land, to be ascertained in such Manner as may be directed by General Order :

3. In the Case of Registration of a Charge, or of any Transfer of a Charge,—to the Amount of such Charge :

Subject, nevertheless, to the Qualifications following :

A maximum Amount shall be fixed, and in Cases where the Value of any Land or the Amount of any Charge exceeds such Maximum, Fees may be made payable in respect of such Excess on such a reduced Scale as may be thought expedient :

Where increased Labour is thrown on the Registrar by reason of the Severance of the Parcels of an Estate, the Entry of a new Description of Parcels, or of any other Matter, an increased Sum may be charged.

Collection of Fees.

129. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to the Collection of Fees :

1. All Fees payable in respect of Registration shall be received by Stamps denoting the Amount of Fees payable, and not in Money :

2. When any Fee is payable in respect of a Document, a Stamp denoting the Amount of Fee shall be affixed to such Document :

3. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall provide everything that is necessary for the Collection of the Monies hereby directed to be paid by Stamps.

Stamp Acts applied to Stamps under this Act.

130. The several Acts for the Time being in force relating to Stamps under the Care or Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall apply to the Stamps to be provided in pursuance of this Act, and to any Document on which such Stamps may be impressed, and to collecting and securing the Sums of Money denoted by Stamps, and to preventing, detecting, and punishing all Frauds, Forgeries, and other Offences relating thereto, as fully as if such Provisions had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said last-mentioned Stamps and Sums of Money respectively.

Lord Chancellor may fix Scale of Costs.

131. The Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time fix a Scale of Fees to be paid to the Examiners of Title, and also of Costs to be paid to Solicitors or certificated Conveyancers, in respect of any Service rendered by them in any Matter relating to Proceedings under this Act ; and he may from Time to Time alter any such Scale when fixed, and any Scale of Costs so fixed may, if the Lord Chancellor thinks fit, be based on an ad valorem Principle.

Costs may, in certain Cases, be raised by Mortgage.

132. Where Registration is made on the Application of Parties who cannot make a valid Charge on the Fee Simple, the Court of Chancery may declare that the Costs and Expenses of Registration may be raised by a Mortgage of the Fee Simple, and the same shall be charged accordingly.

Orders to be laid before Parliament.

133. All General Orders, Scales of Fees, and Costs made and fixed under this Act, shall be laid before Parliament forthwith, if if Parliament is sitting, or if not, within Fourteen Days after the next Sitting of Parliament.

Proceedings in Court of Chancery.

134. All Applications to be made to the Court of Chancery under this Act may be made by Summons in Chambers ; and any Power by this Act given to the Court of Chancery may, subject to any Order by the Lord Chancellor as aforesaid, be exercised by any Judge of the Court sitting in Chambers ; such Judge shall have the Power of directing any Matter before him to be argued in Court, and of directing any Bill to be filed or Action to be brought that may be necessary : Any Person aggrieved by an Order made by a Judge of the Court of Chancery may appeal to the Court of Appeal in Chancery, in such Manner, within such Time, and subject to such Regulations and Limitations, as the Lord Chancellor may prescribe ; and any Order made by the Court of Appeal in Chancery on Appeal shall be subject to Reversal or Modification by the House of Lords, in like Manner as Decrees made by the Court of Chancery ; provided that such Appeal is made within such Time and subject to such Regulations as the House of Lords may provide by any Standing Order.

Applications to Court of Chancery to be by Summons.

135. Any Proceeding, Matter, or Thing whatsoever directed or required by the Provisions of this Act to be done or performed by Solicitors of the High Court of Chancery, either in the Exercise of their Profession of Solicitors or as attesting Witnesses to any Deed or Instrument for the Transfer of Land, Mortgage, Document, or other Instrument under the Provisions of this Act, or in any other Manner whatsoever, shall and may be done, exercised, and performed by any Solicitor of the Courts of Chancery of the Counties Palatine of Durham and Lancaster.

Extension to Solicitors of Counties Palatine of Durham and Lancaster.

Forms.

136. The Forms in the Schedule hereto shall be used in all Matters to which they refer : The Registrar, with the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor, may from Time to Time make such Alterations in such Forms contained in the Schedule hereto as he deems requisite : He shall publish any Form, when altered, in the London Gazette, and upon such Publication being made it shall have the same Force as if it were included in the Schedule to this Act.

Forms.

Inspection of Register.

137. Subject to such Regulations as may be imposed, and to the Payment of such Sums as may be fixed by the Registrar with the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor, any Person registered as Proprietor of any Estate or Interest in any Land or Charge, and any Person authorized by any such Proprietor, or by an Order of the Court of Chancery, but no other Person, may inspect and make Copies of and Extracts from any Register or Document in the Custody of the Registrar relating to such Land or Charge.

Inspection of Register.

Fraud.

Fraud a Misdemeanor.

138. If any Person fraudulently procures, assists in fraudulently procuring, or is privy to the fraudulent Procurement of any Order of the Court of Chancery in relation to registered Land, or fraudulently procures, assists in fraudulently procuring, or is privy to the fraudulent Procurement of the Entry on the Register of any Caveat or Notice of a Charge, or of the Erasure from the Register or Alteration on the Register of any Caveat or Notice of a Charge, such Person shall be deemed to be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and any Order procured by Fraud, and any Act consequent on such Order, and any Entry, Erasure, or Alteration so made by Fraud, shall be void as between all Parties or Privies to such Fraud.

Punishment.

139. Any Person convicted of a Misdemeanor under the last preceding Section shall be liable to Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Three Years, with or without Hard Labour, or to be fined such Sum as the Court by which he is convicted shall think just.

Interpretation of Terms.

140. In the Construction of this Act (except where the Context or other Provisions require a different Construction), the Word "Person" shall include Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and the Duke of Cornwall for the Time being, and also a Body Politic or Corporate; the Word "Possession" shall include Receipt of the Rents and Profits; the Word "Land" shall include Messuages, Tenements, and Hereditaments, corporeal or incorporeal; and the Word "Incumbrance" shall mean any legal or equitable Mortgage in Fee or for any less Estate, and also any Money secured or charged on Land by a Trust, or by Judgment, Decree, or Order of any Superior Court of Law or Equity, and also any Legacy, Portion, Lien, or other Charge whereby a gross Sum of Money is secured to be paid, and also any annual or periodical Charge which by the Instrument creating the same, or by any other Instrument, is made repurchasable on Payment of a gross Sum of Money, and also any Arrear remaining unpaid of any annual or periodical Charge, for Payment of which Arrear a Sale of any Land charged therewith might be decreed by a Court of Equity.

‘ Act of the last Session, for the Regulation of the Care and c. 89.
‘ Treatment of Lunatics, and for the Provision, Maintenance,
‘ and Regulation of Lunatic Asylums, in Scotland: And whereas ‘ it is expedient to continue the General Board of Commissioners

Lunacy (Scotland).

‘ in Lunacy constituted by first-recited Act, and to amend certain of the Provisions of the said Acts :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Interpretation
of Terms.

1. The following Words and Expressions when used in this Act shall have the Meanings hereby assigned to them :

“Board” shall mean the General Board of Commissioners in Lunacy for Scotland constituted by the said first-recited Act :

“Secretary” shall mean the Secretary of the Board for the Time being :

“Lunatic Wards of a Poorhouse” shall mean those Wards or Parts of a Poorhouse sanctioned by the Board for the Reception and the Detention of Pauper Lunatics :

“Medical Person” shall mean any Person registered as a Practitioner in Medicine or Surgery, pursuant to the Act Twenty-first and Twenty-second Victoria, Chapter Ninety :

“Lunatic,” when used in this and the recited Act, shall mean and include every Person certified by Two Medical Persons to be a Lunatic, an insane Person, an Idiot, or a Person of unsound Mind :

“Pauper Lunatic” shall mean and include any Lunatic towards the Expense of whose Maintenance any Allowance is given or made by any Parochial Board :

“Sheriff” shall include Sheriffs Substitute :

“Superintendent” shall mean the Person or Persons having the Management or Charge of any Asylum, and shall include the Proprietor and all Persons having any pecuniary Interest therein, or in the Profits to be derived therefrom, and also the Governor of any Poorhouse in which Pauper Lunatics are kept, and the Proprietor or any Person or Persons having a pecuniary Interest in any other Licensed House for the Reception of Lunatics.

Appointment
of Deputy
Commissioners.

2. The Provisions of the said Act in regard to the Appointment of Deputy Commissioners shall be and are hereby continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

Board may license Lunatic
Wards of Poorhouses.

3. It shall be lawful for the Board to license Lunatic Wards of Poorhouses for the Reception and Detention, on the Order of the Sheriff, of such Pauper Lunatics only who are not dangerous, and do not require curative Treatment, subject to such Rules and Conditions as the Board may prescribe ; and the Board may also, if they shall be satisfied that good Reasons exist therefor, continue all Licences that have been already granted to Lunatic Wards of Poorhouses.

Board may sanction the Reception of Pauper Lunatics in Poor-houses.

4. It shall be lawful for the Board to sanction the Reception of Pauper Lunatics into Lunatic Wards of Poorhouses without the Order of the Sheriff, according to Forms and subject to Regulations approved of by the Board, and at any Time to withdraw such such Sanction; and any Governor or Keeper of a Poorhouse who shall receive any such Lunatic without an Order by the Sheriff or Sanction of the Board, or detain any such Lunatic for more than Seven Days after the Withdrawal of such Sanction, shall be liable in a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

5. It shall be lawful for the Board to grant Special Licences to Occupiers of Houses, for the Reception and Detention therein of Lunatics, not exceeding Four in Number, subject to such Rules and Regulations as the Board may appoint, and to exempt the Holders of such Special Licences from the Payment of any Fee, or of any Sum whatever in respect thereof; and, except in so far as expressly exempted by the Board, the Holders of such Licences shall be subject to the whole Provisions applicable to the Keepers or Superintendents of Private Asylums in the recited Acts and this Act contained; and the Board, in the Case of a Lunatic who is a Pauper, on the Application of the Inspector of the Poor of the Parish liable at the Time for the Maintenance or interim Maintenance of such Lunatic, or in any other Case, on the Application of any one legally entitled to make the same, accompanied by Medical Certificates in the Forms herein-after prescribed, may sanction the Reception and Detention of such Lunatic in any House so specially licensed: Provided that no Lunatic shall be received into any such House without the Sanction of the Board, granted according to the Forms and Regulations approved of by them; and any Person receiving any Lunatic into any House specially licensed as aforesaid, or being concerned in the Disposal of such Lunatic without the Sanction of the Board, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Board may grant Special Licences for Reception in Houses of not more than Four Lunatics.

6. If any Person desirous of being received into any Public, Private, or District Asylum, or into any House specially licensed for the Reception of Lunatics as aforesaid, shall make a Declaration to that Effect before the Sheriff of the County in which such Asylum or House is situate, and shall produce to such Sheriff a Certificate by a Medical Person that his Reception into and Treatment in such Asylum or House would be beneficial to his Case, and a written Consent by the Superintendent of such Asylum or House to receive him, it shall be lawful for such Sheriff to grant an Order for his Reception into such Asylum or House, which shall be a sufficient Warrant to such Superintendent to receive him accordingly, and to subject him to the Rules and Regulations of such Asylum or House: Provided always, that the said Superintendent shall, within Three clear Days after such Reception, and subject to a Penalty of Fifty Pounds in case of Default, transmit to the Board, and also to the said Sheriff, a Statement of all the Circumstances connected with such Application and Reception, together with his Opinion of the State of Mind of the Person so received, and of the Expediency or otherwise of his being detained in such Asylum or House, and shall make a similar Report once every Month thereafter, so long as such Person shall remain in such Asylum or House, under a similar Penalty; which Penalties may be sued for and recovered by the Secretary to the Board, and applied as Fees received for Provision for allowing Persons to enter Asylum voluntarily.

Lunacy (Scotland).

Licences are directed to be applied by the first-recited Act ; provided that it shall always be competent to such Person to depart from such Asylum or House unless the Superintendent thereof shall certify to the said Sheriff that he considers such Person to be in a State of Mind dangerous to himself or others ; and it shall be lawful for the Board or for the said Sheriff respectively, if they or he shall see Cause, to order the immediate Discharge of such Person from the said Asylum or House, or to make such other Order as to them or him may in the Circumstances seem proper.

7. It shall be lawful for the Board to grant Licences to any charitable Institution established for the Care and Training of imbecile Children, and supported in whole or in part by private Subscription, without exacting any Licence Fee therefor, and such Licence may be in Name of the Superintendent of such Institution for the Time being.

8. With the Sanction of the Board, Agreements and Arrangements may be made for the Reception and Detention of all or any of the Pauper Lunatics of any District, County, or Parish in any Public, Private, District, or Parochial Asylum or Hospital within or beyond the Limits of such District, County, or Parish.

9. Subject to the Provisions of the said first-recited Act and this Act, the Board, on a full Consideration of the Circumstances, may determine from Time to Time whether the Accommodation for any District is adequate, or what Addition ought to be made thereto, or whether a new District Asylum ought to be erected, and may in the event of a District Board failing to take such Steps as the Board may consider requisite toward providing Accommodation for the District, or contracting with an existing Asylum to such an Extent and in such Way as the Board may consider necessary, represent such Failure to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who may thereupon communicate such Representation to the District Board, and after considering any Answer which may be made thereto, within such Time as he may appoint, such Secretary of State may authorize the Board to apply to the Court of Session in either Division, or during Vacation to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, by summary Petition in Common Form, and the Court or Lord Ordinary shall, unless sufficient Cause be shown to the contrary, on advising such Petition, appoint a Person at whose Sight and Instance the whole Powers and Duties of the District Board relative to the providing of such Accommodation shall be performed, at the Expense of the District Board.

10. Any County or Parish which has, prior to the Date of the recited Act, provided Accommodation for its lunatic Paupers in whole or in part, to the Satisfaction of the Board, or which shall be entitled to such Accommodation in any existing Asylum, shall have such Relief, partial or total, from Assessments for building, furnishing, or maintaining an Asylum for the District within which such County or Parish is situate as the Board may consider reasonable.

11. In the Case of any District Asylum where it shall appear to the Board, or to the District Board (the Consent of the Board being District Asylums.

12. If in any District there shall be no District Asylum, it shall be lawful for the District Board of such District, with the Sanction of the Board, to dissolve itself, and on the Requisition and Order of the Board such District Board may again at any Time be revived; and where there is no District Asylum the Expenses incurred by the District Board may be paid by the Prison Board out of the Prison Assessments, or where any Ground has been acquired for the Erection of a District Asylum and now found not to be requisite either in whole or in part, it shall be lawful for the District Board to sell and dispose of the same or of any Part thereof, and to repay the Proceeds, after Payment of all Expenses and Liabilities incurred by the Board, to the Commissioners of Supply for the County or Magistrates of the Burgh, as the Case may be.

Where there is no Asylum District Board may dissolve itself.

13. Notwithstanding anything in the said recited Acts to the contrary implied or expressed with respect to the borrowing of Money for the Purposes of said Acts, it shall be lawful for any District Board to make Provision for Repayment of Monies so borrowed, and of the Interest thereof, by annual Instalments of a fixed and uniform Amount, so long as any Part of the Principal Sums so borrowed remains unpaid.

District Boards may make Provision for Payment of Interest on borrowed Monies.

14. The Thirty-fourth Section of the first-recited Act is hereby repealed; and in lieu thereof, subject to the following Provisions, the Sheriff of any County in Scotland may grant an Order for the Reception into and Detention in any Asylum, Lunatic Ward of a Poorhouse, or House as before provided, of any Lunatic, if such Lunatic be resident or be found within such County, or if the Asylum, Lunatic Ward, or House mentioned in such Order be situate within such County; but no such Order shall be granted unless upon a Petition subscribed by the Party applying for the same, accompanied by a Statement of Particulars in the Form of Schedule (C.) to the first-recited Act annexed, and setting forth the Degree of Relationship or other Capacity in which the Petitioner stands to such Lunatic, and also accompanied by Certificates in the Form of Schedule (D.) to the first-recited Act annexed, bearing Date within Fourteen clear Days next preceding the until cured, or until Caution shall be found for his safe Custody, in which last Case it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, upon Application to that Effect, and on being satisfied as to such Caution, and the Safety and Propriety of such Custody, to authorize the Delivery of the Lunatic to the Person so finding Security; and the Sheriff, at the Time of granting Warrant to commit such Lunatic to an Asylum, or thereafter in Proceedings following on the said Application, shall pronounce a Judgment finding the Amount of the Expenses connected with the said Application, Inquiry, and Procedure, as the same shall be taxed, and shall grant Decree for such Expenses against the Parish within which the Lunatic shall have been apprehended or found at large, and in favour of the Procurator Fiscal, or other Person (except the Inspector of the Poor) at whose Instance such Application shall have been made and such Inquiry and Procedure conducted, and shall also grant Decree against such Parish and in favour of the Procurator Fiscal or other such Person (except the Inspector of Poor), or in favour of the Superintendent or Keeper of the Asylum to which the Lunatic shall have been committed, for such Sum as may be necessary for the Maintenance of such Lunatic; and every such Decree shall be final and conclusive, and not subject to Review or Reduction in any way or by any Process whatsoever; but the Parish so decerned against and paying such Expenses and Cost of Maintenance shall have Relief and Recourse therefor against the Lunatic and his Estate, and any of his Relatives legally liable for his Maintenance, and also against the Parish of Settlement of such Lunatic in the event of the Parish in which the Lunatic was apprehended or found at large not being the Parish of Settlement as accords of Law.

16. The Board may, on the Application of the Person at whose Instance any Lunatic is detained, or in the Absence of such Person on the Application of the nearest known Relative of such Lunatic, and in the Case of a Pauper Lunatic on the Application of the Inspector of Poor of the Parish by which the Expense of the Maintenance of the Lunatic is defrayed, authorize the Removal or Transfer of any such Lunatic from any Asylum or House in which he is detained to any other Asylum or House legally set apart for the Reception and Detention of such Persons, and without any Order of the Sheriff; and also on the like Application respectively may grant Authority for the Liberation on Trial or Probation of any Lunatic from any such Asylum or House for such Time and under such Regulations as the Board may consider necessary or proper; and during such Period of Probation or Trial the Warrant and Certificates on which the Detention of such Lunatic proceeded shall, in the event of his requiring to be again received into any such Asylum or House, be sufficient for his Reception and Detention therein without a new Warrant and Certificate; and the Superintendent of any such Asylum or House shall be bound to receive any such Lunatic into his Establishment without any Order from the Sheriff, but shall, in all other respects, in so far as not inconsistent with this Act, be bound to comply with the whole other

17. When it shall appear to the Superintendent of any Asylum or House that any Lunatic detained therein has so far recovered that he may be safely liberated without Risk or Injury to the Public or the Lunatic, such Superintendent shall grant a Certificate to that Effect, or procure one from the ordinary Medical Attendant of such Asylum or House, and shall transmit a Copy thereof to the Person at whose Instance such Lunatic is detained, or in the Absence of such Person to the nearest known Relative of the Lunatic, and in the Case of a Pauper Lunatic to the Person or Parish by whom the Expense of the Maintenance of the Lunatic is defrayed; and on the Failure, within Fourteen Days from the Despatch of such Copy Certificate of the Person to whom the same was transmitted to take Steps for the Liberation of such recovered Lunatic, such Superintendent shall intimate the Facts to the Board, who may direct such Inquiry into the Circumstances as they deem necessary, and if satisfied that the Lunatic has recovered, or that he may be safely liberated without Risk or Injury to the Public or himself, the Board may order his Discharge forthwith.

18. If any Parochial Board, after Intimation shall have been made to them in Terms of Section One hundred and twelve of the first-recited Act, and after Requisition by the Board, shall refuse or neglect for Twenty-one Days after such Requisition to provide for the Removal of a Pauper Lunatic to an Asylum, House, or Lunatic Ward of a Poorhouse, the Board may take such Measures as are necessary for the Removal of such Lunatic to an Asylum, House, or Lunatic Ward of a Poorhouse, and the whole Expense of such Removal, and all subsequent Expenses incurred by the Board for Maintenance and otherwise in respect of such Lunatic, shall be recoverable by the Board, by ordinary Process, from the Parochial Board refusing or neglecting to remove such Pauper Lunatic as aforesaid; but subject to any Right of Relief which such Parochial Board may legally have against the Parish ultimately liable for the Maintenance and Support of such Lunatic.

19. If at any Time within Sixty Days of the Expiration of the Sentence of any Convict or other Prisoner confined in the General Prison at Perth, it is certified, on Soul and Conscience, by Two or more Medical Persons, that they have personally visited and carefully examined the Prisoner within the said Sixty Days, and that he is in their Opinion insane, and that his Insanity is of a Kind which renders it advisable that he should be detained in the Lunatic Department of the said General Prison rather than in a Lunatic Asylum, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by a Writing under his Hand, to authorize such Prisoner to be detained in the said General Prison after the Expiration of his Sentence, and such Prisoner may thereupon be detained accordingly; provided that it shall at any Time thereafter be lawful for Her Majesty to give

20. If any Person, having been charged under an Indictment or Criminal Libel, shall be ordered by the Court, under the Provisions of the first-recited Act, to be kept in strict Custody until Her Majesty's Pleasure shall be known, such Order, whether the General Prison at Perth be mentioned therein or not, or whether the Name of any other Prison or Place be mentioned therein or not, shall be deemed and is hereby declared to be an Order which may be carried into effect in the said General Prison (unless such Order expressly directs that such Person shall not be removed to the said General Prison); and the Person to whom such Order applies may (excepting in the Case above provided) be removed thereto, under the Provisions for the Removal of Prisoners contained in the "Prisons (Scotland) Administration Act, 1860," and shall be detained in such Prison until Her Majesty's Pleasure be known; and it shall thereafter be lawful for Her Majesty to give such Order for the safe Custody of such Person during Her Majesty's Pleasure, in such Place and in such Manner as to Her Majesty shall seem fit; provided that within Eight Days after the Reception of such Person within the said General Prison, Intimation of such Reception, under the Hand of the Governor of the General Prison, shall be transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and also to the Secretary of the Board.

Orders may be carried out in General Prison.

21. When any such Order shall be pronounced, the Clerk of Court shall within Eight Days of the Date thereof send Intimation of such Order, as nearly as may be, in the Terms provided in Section Fifty-nine of the said Prisons Administration Act, to the Managers appointed under the said Act.

Orders to be intimated to Managers of Prisons.

22. If it shall be certified on Soul and Conscience by Two Medical Persons that they have personally visited and carefully examined a Prisoner confined under Sentence in a Local Prison, in Terms of the said Prisons Administration Act, and that such Prisoner is insane, the Sentence, although for a shorter Period than Nine Months, shall be deemed to be a Sentence which may be carried into effect in the said General Prison, and such Prisoner may be removed thereto, in Terms of the Provisions of the said Prisons Administration Act for the Removal of Prisoners.

Sentences for less than Nine Months may be carried out in General Prison.

23. If, within Fourteen Days of the Period when a Prisoner in the said General Prison would fall to be liberated by Expiry of Sentence or otherwise, it shall be certified on Soul and Conscience by Two Medical Persons that they have personally visited and carefully examined such Prisoner, and that he is insane, such Prisoner may be removed back to the Local Prison to which he had been committed until liberated in due Course of Law, and such Removal may be carried out in Terms of the Provisions of the said Prisons Administration Act for the Removal of Prisoners; and if Arrangements shall have been completed for the Reception of such Prisoner within a Lunatic

‘ that the Debt so due from the said Island shall be commuted for a Perpetual Annuity of Six thousand four hundred Pounds, payable annually out of the Revenues of the said Island, and to be applied in manner herein-after mentioned :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. If within the Period of One Year from the Date of the passing of this Act the Legislature of the said Island of Jamaica pass an Act making the Sum of Six thousand four hundred Pounds payable annually out of such Revenues of the said Island to such Persons and in such Manner as is herein-after mentioned, and if such Payment is duly made at the Times herein-after mentioned, or within Forty Days afterwards, the said Debt of Two hundred and forty-nine thousand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds and Twopence shall be deemed to be extinguished, otherwise the same shall remain in full Force, and shall become payable from and after such Time as the Governor may, by Message to the Legislature of the Island, determine.

Commutation of Debt for a fixed Annuity.

2. The said Sum of Six thousand four hundred Pounds shall be charged by way of Perpetual Annuity on the Duties and Sources of Revenue mentioned in the Schedule annexed hereto.

Charge of Annuity.

The Charge so created shall be postponed to the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds appropriated to the Payment of the Principal and Interest of the Public Debt, and to the Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds appropriated to defraying certain Expenses of the Government of the Island, in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the said Island passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Twenty-nine, but shall have Priority over all other Charges.

The said Annuity of Six thousand four hundred Pounds shall be deemed to become due on the Thirtieth Day of June and the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year, but shall be paid to such Persons and at such Time or Times as the Governor of the said Island for the Time being may by Warrant under his Hand from Time to Time direct.

The said Annuity of Six thousand four hundred Pounds shall be applied in Payment of such Expenses of the Government of the said Island and Objects connected therewith, and of the local Improvements therein, as the Governor of the said Island may from Time to Time direct, in pursuance of such Instructions as may from Time to Time be issued by One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State.

3. Save as herein-before provided, and save in the event of the Conditions of this Act being complied with, nothing herein contained shall affect or prejudice the Right of the Imperial Government to recover the Debt so due as aforesaid from the Island of Jamaica, or any Act of the Imperial Government or of the Legislature of the Island relating thereto.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders made under an Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her present Majesty, to facilitate Arrangements for the Relief of Turnpike Trusts.

[29th July 1862.]

14 & 15 Vict.
c. 38.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-eight, “ to facilitate Arrangements for “ the Relief of Turnpike Trusts, and to make certain Provisions “ respecting Exemptions from Tolls,” herein-after referred to as the Principal Act, Power is given to One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State to make Provisional Orders for reducing the Rate of Interest and for extinguishing the Arrears of Interest on Mortgage Debts charged or secured on the Revenues of Turnpike Roads, in Cases where such Revenues are insufficient for the Payment in full of the Interest charged thereon : And whereas by the Act of the Session of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-six, the Principal Act is extended to Turnpike Roads the Acts relating to which are continued by any Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, although their Revenues are not insufficient for such Payments as aforesaid : And whereas, in pursuance of the Principal Act, and the said Act extending the same, the several Provisional Orders referred to in the Schedule hereto have been made by Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and there are stated in the said Schedule the Dates of such Orders, and such Particulars relating thereto as are therein specified : And whereas it is expedient that the said Provisional Orders should be confirmed and made absolute :’

C A P. LVII.

An Act to authorize the Sale of Her Majesty's Bakehouse in Peascod Street, Windsor, and the Application of the Proceeds in the Purchase of Land or Buildings to be held with Windsor Castle. [29th July 1862.]

WHEREAS Her most Gracious Majesty in right of Her Crown is or claims to be absolutely entitled to the Land and Hereditaments described in the Schedule to this Act, and the same are now in the actual Occupation of Her Majesty in connexion with Her Royal Residence of Windsor Castle: And whereas the said Land and Hereditaments being situate at some Distance from the said Castle, and being otherwise inconvenient for Her Majesty's Use, it is expedient that the same should be sold, and the Proceeds thereof applied, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, as herein-after mentioned: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Land and Hereditaments in Schedule to be sold.

1. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and they are hereby required, with the Consent or by the Direction in Writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to make Sale of, convey, and dispose of, for and on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, all the said Land and Hereditaments described in the said Schedule to this Act, either altogether or in Lots, and either at one Time or at several Times, for such Price or Prices and in such Manner as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct or approve of.

Proceeds to be applied in the Purchase of other Lands to be annexed to Windsor Castle.

2. The net Proceeds of such Sale as aforesaid, after discharging the Expenses thereof, shall be laid out and applied by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in the Purchase of other Lands, Buildings, or Hereditaments, either in one Parcel or several Parcels, adjoining or near to the said Royal Residence of Windsor Castle, and such as may be conveniently annexed thereto or be held and enjoyed therewith, and the same shall thereupon be conveyed to and vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as Part of the Hereditary Possessions of the Crown.

Windsor Castle (Bakehouse). Parochial Buildings (Scotland).

3. All Acts to be done and Powers to be executed under this Act by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues may be done or executed by such One of the same Commissioners as may for the Time being have the Management and Direction of the Land Revenues of the Crown in the County of Berks.

Commissioner of Woods, &c. managing Crown Lands in Berks may act.

4. Saving and reserving always to all Persons and Bodies Politic or Corporate soever, excepting the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, all such Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever (if any), in, to, or out of the said Buildings, Land, and Hereditaments comprised in the Schedule to this Act or any Part thereof, as they or any of them had before the passing of this Act, or could or might have enjoyed in case this Act had not been passed.

General Saving.

The SCHEDULE above referred to.

All that Piece of Land situate on the South Side of Peascod Street in the Borough of Windsor, having a Frontage to the said Street of Thirty-three Feet Three Inches or thereabouts, and extending in Depth on the West Side One hundred and seventy-seven Feet or thereabouts, on the South Side Forty-four Feet Nine Inches or thereabouts, and on the East Side One hundred and ninety-eight Feet Six Inches or thereabouts, and containing about Seven hundred and ninety-two Yards Superficial or thereabouts, together with the Sheds and other Erections and Buildings thereon, all which Premises are commonly known by the Name of the Old Bakehouse.

C A P. LVIII.

An Act to make further Provision with respect to the raising of Money for erecting and improving Parochial Buildings in Scotland. [29th July 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that Provision should be made for raising the Money required for the Erection and Improvement of Parochial Buildings in Scotland by annual Assessments extending over a limited Period: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Expression "Parochial Building" in this Act shall mean and include Church, Manse, Churchyard Walls, Schoolhouse, and Schoolmaster's House respectively; and the Word "Sheriff" shall include Sheriff Substitute.

Interpretation.

2. The Heritors of any Parish in Scotland in which any new or additional Parochial Building is to be erected, or any existing Parochial Heritors may resolve that Expense of Parochial Buildings (Scotland).

Parochial Buildings may be raised by annual Assessments.

Parochial Building is to be improved or enlarged, may at any Meeting of such Heritors resolve that the Money required to defray the Expense of the Erection, Improvement, or Enlargement of such Parochial Building shall be raised by annual Assessments extending over any Period not exceeding Ten Years ; and on the Adoption of such Resolution such annual Assessments for the Period specified therein shall be imposed, levied, and recovered on and from the Heritors of such Parish in the same Manner, and with the same Liabilities and Rights of Relief, as Assessments for the Erection, Improvement, or Enlargement of such Parochial Building are or may be levied under the Authority of any existing Act relating thereto, or otherwise according to the Law of Scotland.

Power to borrow Money.

3. On the Adoption of such Resolution it shall be lawful for the Heritors of such Parish, if they think fit, to borrow the Money required to defray the Expense of the Erection, Improvement, or Enlargement of such Parochial Building, and in security of the Repayment of the Money so borrowed, and the Interest thereof, to charge and assign the said annual Assessments by a Bond and Assignation, signed by any Two Heritors authorized to sign the same at the Meeting at which it shall be resolved to borrow such Money ; and in case of Nonpayment of the Money so borrowed, or any Instalment thereof, and the Interest thereon, when the same become due, the Creditor in or Person having Right to such Bond and Assignation shall have the same Rights and Remedies for the Recovery of the Sums, Principal and Interest, due or to become due under such Bond and Assignation as are competent to the Heritors of such Parish by any existing Act, or otherwise by the Law of Scotland, for levying and recovering Assessments for the Erection, Improvement, or Enlargement of such Parochial Building.

Procedure in Cases where there is only One Heritor in a Parish.

4. Where there is only One Heritor in any Parish in which any new or additional Parochial Building is to be erected, or any existing Parochial Building is to be improved or enlarged, such Heritor may apply by summary Petition to the Sheriff of the County in which such Parish is situate for Authority to raise the Money required to defray the Expense of the Erection, Improvement, or Enlargement of such Parochial Building by annual Assessments extending over any Period not exceeding Ten Years, and to borrow the Money required for that Purpose, and to charge and assign such annual Assessments in security of the Payment thereof and of the Interest thereon ; and on considering such Petition the Sheriff shall order Intimation thereof to be given by Advertisement inserted once in each of Two successive Weeks in a Newspaper published or generally circulated in such County ; and after such Intimation it shall be lawful for the Sheriff to grant Warrant and Authority to such Heritor to raise the Money so required by annual Assessments as aforesaid, and to charge and assign the same in security of the Repayment of the Money to be borrowed, and the Interest thereof, by a Bond and Assignation signed by such Heritor ; and the Creditor in or Person having Right to such Bond and Assignation

Parochial Buildings (Scotland).Sheep (Ireland).

Assignment shall have the same Rights and Remedies for the Recovery of the Sums, Principal and Interest, due and to become due under such Bond and Assignment, as are herein-before provided with respect to Bonds and Assignations signed by any Two Heritors.

5. The Money borrowed to defray the Expense of erecting, improving, or enlarging any Parochial Building shall be repaid by annual Instalments of not less in any One Year than One Tenth Part of the Principal Sum borrowed, exclusive of the Payment of Interest thereon.

Money borrowed to be repaid by annual Instalments.

C A P. LIX.

An Act to render Owners of Dogs in Ireland liable for Injuries to Sheep. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law as to the Liability of the Owners of Dogs for Injuries done to ‘ Sheep by such Dogs:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Owner of every Dog shall be liable in Damages for Injury done to any Sheep by his Dog ; and it shall not be necessary for the Party seeking such Damages to show a previous mischievous Propensity in such Animal, or the Owner’s Knowledge of such previous mischievous Propensity, or that the Injury was attributable to Neglect on the Part of such Owner : Such Damages shall be recoverable by the Owner of the Sheep killed or injured in any Court of competent Jurisdiction ; where the Amount of the Damages claimed shall not exceed Five Pounds, the same shall be recoverable in a summary Way before any Justice or Justices sitting in Petty Sessions under the Provisions of “The Petty Sessions, Ireland, Act, 1851,” or of any Act amending the same.

Owner of Dog to be liable in Damages for any Injury committed by his Dog.

Recovery of Damages.

2. The Occupier of any House or Premises where any Dog was kept, or permitted to live or remain, at the Time of such Injury, shall be deemed to be the Owner of such Dog, and shall be liable as such, unless the said Occupier can prove that he was not the Owner of such Dog at the Time the Injury complained of was committed, and that such Dog was kept, or permitted to live or remain, in the said House or Premises without his Sanction or Knowledge : Provided always, that where there are more Occupiers than One in any House or Premises let in separate Apartments, or Lodgings, or otherwise, the Occupier of that particular Part of the Premises in which Part such Dog shall have been kept, or permitted to live or remain, at the Time of such Injury, shall be deemed to be the Owner of such Dog.

Who shall be deemed the Owner of the Dog.

3. This Act shall extend to Ireland only.

C A P. LXI.

An Act for the better Management of Highways in England. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to Highways in England.’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

Limits of Act.
Definition of “County” and “Borough;”

1. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

2. The Word “County” in this Act shall not include a “County of a City” or “a County of a Town,” but where a County, as herein-before defined, is divided into Ridings or other Divisions having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, it shall mean each such Division or Riding, and not the entire County ; and for the Purposes of this Act all Liberties and Franchises, except the Liberty of Saint Albans which shall be considered a County, and except Boroughs as herein-after defined, shall be considered as forming Part of that County by which they are surrounded, or if partly surrounded by Two or more Counties, then as forming Part of that County with which they have the longest common Boundary ; the Word “Borough” shall mean a Borough as defined by the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, “for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales,” or any Place to which the Provisions of the said Act have been or shall hereafter have been extended.

Of “Parish,” “Highway District,” and “Highway Board ;”

3. The Word “Parish” shall include any Place maintaining its own Highways ; the Expressions “Highway District” and “Highway Board” shall refer only to Highway Districts formed and Highway Boards constituted in pursuance of this Act.

Of “Principal Act” and “Highway
Acts.”

4. The Act passed in the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, and intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Highways in that Part of Great Britain called England, is herein-after distinguished as “the Principal Act ;” and this Act and the Principal Act, and the other Acts amending the Principal Act, are herein-after included under the Expression “the Highway Acts.”

Highways.

Formation of Highway Districts.

5. Any Five or more Justices of a County may by Writing under their Hands require the Clerk of the Peace to add to or send with the Notice required by Law to be given of the holding of Courts of General or Quarter Sessions a Notice in the Form marked (A.) in the Schedule, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit, that at the Court therein mentioned a Proposal will be made to the Justices to divide the County or some Part thereof into Highway Districts or to constitute the whole or some Part thereof a Highway District, and also require the Clerk of the Peace to send by Post in a prepaid Letter Notices in the aforesaid Form to the Churchwardens or Overseers of every Parish mentioned in the said Notice; and upon such Requisition being complied with the Justices assembled at the Court of General or Quarter Sessions mentioned in the Notice may entertain such Proposal, and make a Provisional Order dividing their County or some Part thereof into Highway Districts, or constituting the whole or some Part of their County a Highway District, for the more convenient Management of Highways, but such Order shall not be of any Validity unless it is confirmed by a Final Order of the Justices assembled at some subsequent Court of General or Quarter Sessions: Provided that when it is proposed that only a Part of a County shall be divided into a Highway District not less than Two out of the Five Justices making such Proposal shall be resident in the said District.

Power to Justices, in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to issue Provisional Orders for forming Highway Districts.

6. The following Regulations shall be enacted as to the Making, Confirmation, and Approval of the Orders of Justices for forming Highway Districts:—

Regulations as to the making, &c. of Orders of Justices,

1. The Justices making a Provisional Order under this Act shall appoint some subsequent Court of General or Quarter Sessions, to be held within a Period of not more than Six Months, for the taking into consideration the Confirmation of the Provisional Order by a Final Order:
2. The Clerk of the Peace shall add to or send with the Notice required by Law to be given of the holding of Courts of General or Quarter Sessions a Notice in the Form marked (B.) in the Schedule hereto, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit, of the Appointment so made by the Justices in relation to the Confirmation of the Provisional Order:
3. The Justices assembled at the appointed Court of General or Quarter Sessions may make a further Order quashing the Provisional Order, or confirming it with or without Variations, or respiting the Consideration of such Provisional Order to some subsequent Court of General or Quarter Sessions, provided,—

Firstly, that where the Variations made extend to altering the Parishes constituting any Highway District or Districts as formed in the Provisional Order, the Order shall be deemed to be provisional only, and shall be dealt with accordingly:

Secondly,

Highways.

Secondly, that where a Respite is made to any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions, the Clerk of the Peace shall give Notice of such Respite in manner in which he is required to give Notice in respect of Sessions at which a Provisional or Final Order is proposed to be made :

4. The Provisional Order shall state the Parishes to be united in each District, the Name by which the District is to be known, and the Number of Waywardens (such Number to be at least One) which each Parish is to elect :
5. In addition to the foregoing Matters, the Provisional Order may and the Final Order shall state the Time, not being more than Seven Days after the First Election of Waywardens in pursuance of this Act, and the Place at which the First Meeting of the Highway Board is to be held in the District :
6. Notice of the Provisional and Final Orders shall as soon as possible after the making thereof be given by the Clerk of the Peace, by publishing a Copy in the London Gazette and in One or more Newspapers circulating in the County, or if the whole County is not affected by such Order in One or more Newspapers circulating in the District affected by such Orders, and by sending a Copy by Post in a prepaid Letter to the Overseers of every Parish within the proposed Highway District, and there shall be added to the Notice of the Provisional Order the Date of the Sessions at which the Confirmation of such Order will be considered.

Restrictions on Formation of Highway Districts.

7. The following Restrictions shall be imposed with respect to the Formation of Highway Districts in pursuance of this Act :

Firstly, there shall not be included in any Highway District formed in pursuance of this Act any of the following Places ; that is to say,

Any Part of a County to which the Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-eight, and intituled An Act for the better Management and Control of the Highways in South Wales, extends :

The Isle of Wight :

Any District constituted under the Public Health Act, 1848, and the Local Government Act, 1858, or either of such Acts :

Any Parish or Place the Highways of which are at the Time of the passing of this Act, or may be within Six Months afterwards, under the Superintendence of a Board established in pursuance of Section Eighteen of the Principal Act, unless with the Consent of such Board :

Highways.

Any Parish or Place within the Limits of the Metropolis as defined by the Act passed in the Session holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty, and intituled An Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis :

Any Parish or Place, or Part of a Parish or Place, the Highways whereof are maintained under the Provisions of any Local Act of Parliament :

Secondly, there shall not be included in any Highway District formed in pursuance of this Act any Parish or Place or Part of a Parish or Place within the Limits of a Borough without the Consent, firstly, of the Council of such Borough, and, secondly, of the Vestry of the Parish which, or Part of which, is proposed to be included :

Thirdly, where any Parish separately maintaining its own Highways is situate in more than One County the whole of such Parish shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed to be within the County within which the Church of such Parish, or (if there be no Church) the greater Part of such Parish, is situate :

Lastly, where a Parish separately maintaining its own Poor is divided into Townships, Tithings, Hamlets, or Places, each of which separately maintains its own Highways, it shall be lawful for the Justices, if they think fit, in their Provisional Order to combine such Townships, Tithings, Hamlets, and Places, and to declare that no separate Waywardens shall be elected for such Townships, Tithings, Hamlets, and Places, and that such Parish shall be subject to the same Liabilities in respect of all the Highways within it which were before maintained by such Townships, Tithings, Hamlets, and Places separately, as if all their several Liabilities had attached to the whole Parish ; and that a Waywarden or Waywardens shall be elected for such Parish as a whole ; and where such Order is made, all the Provisions herein contained in relation to Parishes within the Meaning of this Act shall be applicable to the Parish formed by such Combination.

Legal Objections to Formation of District.

8. No Objection shall be made at any Trial or in any legal Proceeding to the Validity of any Orders or Proceedings relating to the Formation of a Highway District, after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months from the Date of the Publication in the Gazette of the Order under which the District is formed ; and the Production of a Copy of the London Gazette containing a Copy of the Order of Justices forming a Highway District shall be receivable in all Courts of Justice, and in all legal Proceedings, as Evidence of the Formation of the District and of the Matters in the said Order mentioned. :

Rules as to Objections and Evidence.

Highways.

Highway Board.

Constitution of Highway
Board.

9. There shall be enacted, with respect to the Constitution of the Highway Board in each Highway District, the Provisions following ; (that is to say,)

- (1.) The Highway Board shall consist of the Waywardens elected in the several Places within the District, in manner herein-after mentioned, and of the Justices acting for the County and residing within the District :
- (2.) The Board shall be a Body Corporate, by the Name of the Highway Board of the District to which it belongs, having a perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, with a Power to acquire and hold Lands for the Purposes of the Highway Acts, without any Licence in Mortmain :
- (3.) No Act or Proceeding of the Board shall be questioned on account of any Vacancy or Vacancies in their Body :
- (4.) No Defect in the Qualification or Election of any Person or Persons acting as Members or Member of the Board or Committee of a Board shall be deemed to vitiate any Proceedings of such Board in which he or they have taken part in Cases where the Majority of Members Parties to such Proceedings are duly entitled to act :
- (5.) Any Minute made of Proceedings at Meetings of the Board or of Committees of the Board, if signed by any Person purporting to be the Chairman of the Board or Committee of the Board, either at the Meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board at which such Proceedings took place, or at the next ensuing Meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board, shall be receivable in Evidence in all legal Proceedings without further Proof ; and until the contrary is proved every Meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board in respect of the Proceedings of which Minutes have been so made shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all the Members thereof to have been duly qualified :
- (6.) No Member of a Board, by being Party to, or executing in his Capacity of Member, any Contract, or other Instrument on behalf of the Board, or otherwise lawfully exercising any of the Powers given to the Board, shall be subject to be tried or prosecuted, either individually or with others, by any Person whomsoever ; and the Bodies or Goods or Lands of the Members shall not be liable to Execution of any legal Process by reason of any Contract or other Instrument so entered into, tried, or executed by them, or by reason of any other lawful Act done by them in execution of any of the Powers of the Board ; and the Members of the Board may apply any Monies in their Hands for the Purpose of indemnifying themselves against any Losses, Costs, or Damages they may incur in execution of the Powers granted to them :

Highways.

(7.) The Rules contained in the Schedule hereto with respect to the Proceedings of Highway Boards, and the other Matters therein contained, shall be observed in the same Manner as if such Rules were enacted in the Body of this Act.

. Election of Waywardens.

10. The following Regulations shall be observed with respect to the Election of Waywardens in Highway Districts : Election of Waywardens.

In every Parish forming Part of a Highway District there shall be elected every Year for the Year next ensuing a Waywarden, or such Number of Waywardens as may be determined by Order of the Justices :

Such Waywarden or Waywardens shall be elected in every Parish forming Part of a Highway District at the Meeting and Time and in the Manner, and subject to the same Qualification and the same Power of Appointment in the Justices in the event of no Election taking place, or in the event of a Vacancy, at, in, and subject to which a Person or Persons to serve the Office of Surveyor would have been chosen or appointed if this Act had not passed :

The Justices shall in their Provisional Order make Provision for the Election of a Waywarden or Waywardens in Places where no Surveyor or Surveyors were elected previously to the Place forming Part of a Highway District :

A Waywarden shall continue to act until his Successor is appointed, and shall be re-eligible.

Consequences of Formation of Highway District.

11. At and after the First Meeting in any Highway District of the Board of such District the following Consequences shall ensue : Consequences of Establishment of Highway Board.

All such Property, Real and Personal, including all Interests, Easements, and Rights in, to, and out of Property, Real and Personal, and including Things in Action, as belong to or are vested in, or would but for this Act have belonged to or been vested in, any Surveyor or Surveyors of any Parish forming Part of the District, shall pass to and vest in the Highway Board of that District for all the Estate and Interest of such Surveyor or Surveyors as aforesaid, but subject to all Debts and Liabilities affecting the same :

All Debts and Liabilities incurred in respect of any Property transferred to the Highway Board may be enforced against the Board to the Extent of the Property transferred :

All such Powers, Rights, Duties, Liabilities, Capacities, and Incapacities (except the Power of making, assessing, and levying Highway Rates) as are vested in or attached to, or would but for this Act have become vested in or attached to, any Surveyor or Surveyors of any Parish forming Part of the District, shall vest in and attach to the Highway Board :

Highways.

All Property by this Act transferred to the Board shall be held by them upon trust for the several Parishes or Places now maintaining their own Highways within their District to which such Property belongs, or for the Benefit of which it was held previously to the Formation of the District.

Appointment of Officers.

Power to Highway Board to appoint Officers.

12. The Highway Board of a District shall, at their First Meeting or at some Adjournment thereof, by Writing under their Seal, appoint a Treasurer, Clerk, and District Surveyor; they may also at any Meeting, if they think fit, appoint an Assistant Surveyor; they may from Time to Time remove any of such Officers, and appoint others in the Room of such as may be so removed, or as may die or resign; they may also, out of any Monies in their Hands, pay such Salaries as they think reasonable to the Clerk and District and Assistant Surveyor, and to the Treasurer, if they think necessary: Provided that before the Treasurer enter upon his Office the Board shall take sufficient Security from him for the due Performance of the Duties of his Office; but no Appointment, except the first, to any of the Offices specified in this Section, shall be made unless Notice in Writing has been sent to every Member of the Board.

Two Offices not to be held by the same Person.

13. Not more than One Office of Treasurer, Clerk, and District or Assistant Surveyor of the same Highway Board shall be held by the same Person, or by Persons in Partnership with each other, or by Persons in the Relation of Employer and Clerk, Agent, or Servant, one of the other, or of the Partner of either of them; and if any Person accepts or holds the Office of Treasurer, Clerk, or District or Assistant Surveyor, contrary to this Provision, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Duties of Treasurer.

14. The Treasurer of each Highway Board shall receive, and hold to the Account of such Board, all Monies paid to or for the Use of such Board, and shall make Payments thereout under Orders of such Board, and shall once in every Three Months, on or at such Days or Times as the Board may direct, or oftener if required by the Board, make up an Account of all Monies received and paid by him, and deliver the same to the Clerk of the Board.

Duties of Clerk.

15. The Clerk of every Highway Board shall in Person, or by such Deputy as may be allowed by such Board, attend all Meetings of the Board, and shall conduct the Correspondence thereof, and enter and keep, in Books to be provided for the Purpose, Notes, Minutes, or Copies, as the Case may require, of the Meetings, Acts, Orders, Resolutions, Proceedings, and Correspondence of such Board, and shall keep all Books, Papers, and Documents committed to his Charge, and shall perform all such other Duties as the Board may direct.

Duties of District Surveyor.

16. The District Surveyor shall act as the Agent of the Board in carrying into effect all the Works and performing all the Duties by this Act required to be carried into effect or to be performed by the Board, and he shall in all respects conform to the Orders of the Board in the Execution of his Duties, and the Assistant Surveyor, if any, shall perform such Duties as the Board may require, under the Direction of the District Surveyor.

Highways.

Works and Duties of Board.

17. The Highway Board shall maintain in good Repair the Highways within their District, and shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, as respects the Highways in each Parish within their District, perform the same Duties, have the same Powers, and be liable to the same legal Proceedings as the Surveyor of such Parish would have performed, had, and been liable to if this Act had not passed. It shall be the Duty of the District Surveyor to submit to the Board at their First Meeting in every Year an Estimate of the Expenses likely to be incurred during the ensuing Year for maintaining and keeping in repair the Highways in each Parish within the District of the Board, and to deliver a Copy of such Estimate as approved or modified by the Board so far as the same relates to each Parish to the Waywarden of such Parish.

Board to maintain Highways.

18. Where Complaint is made to any Justice of the Peace that any Highway within the Jurisdiction of the Highway Board is out of Repair, the Justice shall issue Two Summonses, the one addressed to the Highway Board and the other to the Waywarden of the Parish liable to the Repair of such Highway, requiring such Board and Waywarden to appear before the Justices at some Petty Sessions, in the Summons mentioned, to be held in the Division where such Highway is situate; and at such Petty Sessions, unless the Board undertake to repair the Road to the Satisfaction of the Justices, or unless the Waywarden deny the Liability of the Parish to repair, the Justices shall direct the Board to appear at some subsequent Petty Sessions to be then named, and shall either appoint some competent Person to view the Highway, and report to them on its State at such other Petty Sessions, or fix a Day, previous to such Petty Sessions, at which Two or more of such Justices will themselves attend to view the Highway.

Proceedings where Roads are out of repair.

At such last-mentioned Petty Sessions, if the Justices are satisfied, either by the Report of the Person so appointed, or by such View as aforesaid, that the Highway complained of is not in a State of complete Repair, it shall be their Duty to make an Order on the Board limiting a Time for the Repair of the Highway complained of; and if such Highway is not put in complete and effectual Repair by the Time limited in the Order, the Justices in Petty Sessions shall appoint some Person to put the Highway into repair, and shall by Order direct that the Expenses of making such Repairs, together with a reasonable Remuneration to the Person appointed for superintending such Repairs, and amounting to a Sum specified in the Order, together with the Costs of the Proceedings, shall be paid by the Board; and any Order made for the Payment of such Costs and Expenses may be removed into the Court of Queen's Bench, in the same Manner as if it were an Order of General or Quarter Sessions, and be enforced accordingly.

Highways.

All Expenses so directed to be paid by the Board in respect of the Repairs of any Highway shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred by the Board in repairing such Highway, and shall be recovered accordingly.

The Highway Board may appear before the Justices at Petty Sessions by their District Surveyor or Clerk, or any Member of the Board.

When Obligation to repair is disputed.

19. When, on the Hearing of any such Summons respecting the Repair of any Highway, the Liability to repair is denied by the Waywarden on behalf of his Parish, or by any Party charged therewith, the Justices shall direct a Bill of Indictment to be preferred, and the necessary Witnesses in support thereof to be subpoenaed, at the next Assizes to be holden in and for the said County, or at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place wherein such Highway is situate, against the Inhabitants of the Parish, or the Party charged therewith, for suffering and permitting the said Highway to be out of Repair; and the Costs of such Prosecution shall be paid by such Party to the Proceedings as the Court before whom the Case is tried shall direct, and if directed to be paid by the Parish shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred by such Parish in keeping its Highways in repair, and shall be paid accordingly.

Expenses.

Expenses how charged.

20. The Salaries of the Officers appointed for each District, and any other Expenses incurred by any Highway Board for the common Use or Benefit of the several Parishes within such District, shall be annually charged to a District Fund, to be contributed by and charged upon the several Parishes within such District in proportion to the Average of the Expenditure incurred during the Three last preceding Years in such Parishes respectively in maintaining and keeping in repair the Highways thereof; but the Expenses of maintaining and keeping in repair the Highways of each Parish within the District, and all other Expenses in relation to such Highways, except such Expenses as are in this Act authorized to be charged to the District Fund, shall be a separate Charge on each Parish.

Mode of defraying Expenses.

21. For the Purpose of obtaining Payment from the several Parishes within their District of the Sums due from them, the Highway Board shall order Precepts to be issued to the Overseers of the said Parishes, stating the Sum to be contributed by each Parish, and requiring the Overseers of such Parish, within a Time to be limited by the Precept, to pay the Sum therein mentioned to the Treasurer of the Board, and the Overseers shall comply with the Requisition of such Precept by paying the Sums to be contributed by their respective Parishes out of any Monies in their Hands applicable to the Relief of the Poor, but no Contribution required to be paid by any Parish at any one Time in pursuance of this Act shall exceed the Sum of Tenpence in the Pound, and the Aggregate of Contributions required to be paid by any Parish in any One Year in pursuance of this Act shall not exceed the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence in the Pound, except with the Consent of Four Fifths of the Ratepayers of the Parish in which such Excess may be levied, present at a Meeting specially called for the Purpose, of which Ten Days previous Notice has been given by the Waywarden of such Parish, and then only to such Extent as may be determined by such Meeting : Provided, that in any Parish where, for a Period of not less than Seven Years immediately preceding the passing of this Act, it has been the Custom of the Surveyor of Highways for such Parish to levy a Highway Rate in respect of Property not subject by Law to be assessed to Poor Rates, the Monies payable in pursuance of the Precept of the Highway Board shall not be paid by the Overseers, but may be raised and paid by the Waywarden of such Parish out of a Highway Rate, to be assessed and levied in manner and in respect of the Property in and in respect of which the same would have been assessed and levied if this Act had not passed.

22. Where any Parish as defined by this Act, and in this Section called a Highway Parish, is not a Parish separately maintaining its own Poor, in this Section called a Poor Law Parish, the Highway Board shall issue their Precept or Precepts to the Overseers of the Poor Law Parish, or of the several Poor Law Parishes if more than One, of which such Highway Parish forms Part, and in the Precept or Precepts so issued shall specify the Part or Parts of the Poor Law Parish or Poor Law Parishes constituting the Highway Parish in which the Sum required by the Board is to be levied, and if there be more than One such Parish shall apportion among such Parts the Amounts to be levied in each Parish.

Provision where Parish as defined by Act not co-extensive with Parish maintaining its own Poor.

Where any Highway Parish is so situate that there are no Overseers to be found to whom the Precepts of the Board may be issued, or it is uncertain to what Overseers such Precepts should be issued, the Precepts of the Highway Board shall be directed to the Waywarden of such Parish, and it shall be his Duty to levy the Sums therein required to be levied.

23. Subject to the above-mentioned Restrictions as to the Amount of Rates to be levied in pursuance of this Act, all Overseers or other Persons to whom Precepts of a Highway Board are hereby directed or authorized to be issued shall have the same Powers, Remedies, and Privileges for and in respect of levying the Rates hereby authorized to be levied for making Payments to a Highway Board as they would have in the Case of levying ordinary Rates for the Relief of the Poor.

Power to Overseers, &c. to levy Rates for making Payments to Highway Board.

24. If any Payment required to be made by the Overseers of any Parish, or other Persons authorized to levy Rates by this Act, of Monies due to a Highway Board is in arrear, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices, on Application under the Hand of the Chairman for the Time being of such Board, to summon the said Overseers or other Persons to show Cause at Petty Sessions why such Payment has not been made ; and the Justices at such Petty Sessions, after hearing the Complaint preferred on behalf of the Board, may, if they think fit, cause the Amount of Payment in arrear, together with the Costs occasioned by such Mode of enforcing Payments to Highway Boards.

Highways.

Arrear, to be levied and recovered from the said Overseers or other Persons or any of them, in like Manner as Monies assessed for the Relief of the Poor may be levied and recovered, and the Amount of such Arrear, together with the Costs aforesaid, when levied and recovered, to be paid to the said Board.

Accounts.

Accounts to be made up to 25th March, and Statement to be published.

25. The Accounts of every Highway Board shall be made up and balanced to the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, and for the Space of Seven clear Days immediately following shall be open for the Inspection at the Office of the Clerk, or any other convenient Place, of every Ratepayer in the several Parishes within the District, between the Hours of Ten and Four; at the Expiration of such Time the Accounts shall be audited by such Board, and signed by the Chairman, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of April; and such Board shall cause a Statement showing the Receipt and Expenditure in respect of each Parish, and the apportioned Part of Expenditure chargeable thereto in respect of the District Fund, and such other Particulars, and in such Form, as the Secretary of State may direct, as herein-after mentioned, to be printed and sent within Thirty Days after the said Audit, by Post or otherwise, to each Member of the Board and to the Overseers of every Parish within the District; and the Clerk of the Board shall furnish a Copy of such Statement to any Ratepayer within the District on his Application, and on the Payment of a Sum not exceeding One Penny.

Power to appeal in respect of Account of Board.

26. Where a Waywarden or any Ratepayer of any Parish is of opinion that the Amount charged to his Parish for maintaining and keeping the Highways therein, or in respect of the other Expenses in relation to such Highways, is more than the Sum that has actually been expended in his Parish, or than ought to have been charged thereto, he may appeal to the Justices assembled at any Court of General or Quarter Sessions held within the Period of Four Months from the Time at which the Accounts were audited by the Board, but no such Appeal shall be entertained unless Notice of the Intention to appeal, specifying the Amount complained of, is given to the Board by the Appellant in Writing under his Hand within Fourteen Days after the Statement of such Accounts shall have been sent to the Overseers of such Parish.

On the Hearing of such Appeal the Court may rectify the Accounts complained of, and may also rectify the Sum to be contributed to the Common Fund, and calculated on the Expenditure complained of.

If the Appellant is successful the Costs shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be paid by the Board, and shall be charged to the Parishes within the Jurisdiction of the Board other than the Parish to which Appellant belongs, in the same Proportions in which such Parishes contribute to the Common Fund of the Board.

If the Appellant is unsuccessful the Board, if the Waywarden be the Appellant, may charge the Costs of the Appeal to the Parish

Highways.

Parish to which the Appellant belongs, in the same Manner as if they were Expenses incurred in repairing the Roads in such Parish, and may levy the Sum accordingly, and may carry the Sum so levied to the Account of the several Parishes within the Jurisdiction of the Board other than the Parish to which the Appellant Waywarden belongs, in the same Manner as if they were Expenses contributed by such Parishes to the Common Fund of the Board ; but if some Ratepayer other than the Waywarden is the Appellant the Court may order the Costs of the Appeal to be paid by such Appellant, and such Costs shall be recoverable in the same Manner as a Penalty is recovered under this Act.

27. The Clerk to every Highway Board shall, within such Thirty Days after the said Audit, transmit such Statement to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and any such Clerk who shall not within the Time aforesaid transmit the said Statement to the said Secretary of State shall for every such Offence, upon a summary Conviction for the same before Two Justices of the Peace, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Clerk to transmit Statement to Secretary of State.

28. The Secretary of State shall cause the Statements so transmitted to be abstracted, and the Abstracts thereof to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, with the other Statements in relation to Highways required to be abstracted and laid before Parliament by the Act of the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five.

Penalty for Neglect.

Abstract of Statements to be laid before Parliament.

29. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to cause to be prepared such Forms for such Statement as he may from Time to Time deem suitable, and also from Time to Time to alter the Forms for the annual Statement prescribed by the said Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, but no Statement shall be transmitted under that Act concerning Parishes wholly within a Highway District under this Act.

Secretary of State may cause Form of Statement to be prepared.

30. The Highway Board shall, at the End of each Quarter, deliver or send in a prepaid Letter to the Overseers of every Parish an Account of the Expenses of maintaining and keeping in repair the Highways within their respective Parishes during the preceding Quarter.

Quarterly Account to be sent to Overseers.

31. All Officers appointed by the Highway Board shall, as often as required by them, render to them or to such Persons as they appoint a true, exact, and perfect Account in Writing under their respective Hands, with the Proper Vouchers, of all Monies which they may respectively to the Time of rendering such Accounts have received and disbursed on account or by reason of their respective Offices, and in case any Money so received by any such Officer remains in his Hands the same shall be paid to the Board, or to such Person or Persons as they in Writing under their Hands empower to receive the same ; and if any Officer refuses or wilfully neglects to render and give such Account, or to deliver up such Vouchers, or for the Space of Fourteen Days after being thereunto required by the Board Officers appointed by Highway Board to account to them when required.

Highways.

refuses or wilfully neglects to give up to them or to such Person or Persons as they appoint all Books, Papers, Writings, Tools, and Things in his Hands, Custody, or Power relating to the Execution of his Office, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace for the County where the Officer so making Default is or resides, upon Application made to him for that Purpose by or on behalf of the Board, to make Inquiry of and concerning any such Default as aforesaid in a summary Way, as well by the Confession of the Party as by the Testimony of any credible Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, and by Warrant under his Hand and Seal to cause such Money as may appear to him to be due and unpaid to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Officer, rendering to him the Overplus (if any), on Demand, after Payment of the Money remaining due and deducting the Charges and Expenses of making such Distress and Sale; and if sufficient Distress cannot be found, or if it appears to any such Justice in manner aforesaid that any such Officer has refused or wilfully neglected to give such Account, or to deliver up all Books, Papers, Writings, Tools, Matters, and Things in his Custody or Power relating to the Execution of his Office, the Justice shall commit him to the House of Correction or Common Gaol of the County where such Offender is or resides, there to remain without Bail until he gives a true and perfect Account and verifies the same in manner aforesaid, and produces and delivers up the Vouchers relating thereto, and pays the Money (if any) remaining in his Hands as aforesaid according to the Direction of the Board, or has compounded with the Board for such Money and paid such Composition (which Composition the Board are hereby empowered to make and receive), or until he delivers up such Books, Papers, and Writings, Tools, Matters, and Things as aforesaid, or has given Satisfaction to the Board concerning the same; but no Officer who may be committed on account of his not having sufficient Goods and Chattels as aforesaid shall be detained in Prison by virtue of this Act for any longer Time than Six Calendar Months.

Supplemental Provisions.

Provision as to Extra-parochial Places.

32. Where in pursuance of an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Nineteen, and intituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor in Extra-parochial Places, any Place is declared to be a Parish, or where Overseers of the Poor are appointed for any Place, such Place shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed to be a Parish separately maintaining its own Highways; and where in pursuance of the same Act any Place is annexed to any adjoining Parish, or to any District in which the Relief of the Poor is administered under a Local Act, such Place shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed to be annexed to such Parish or District for the Purposes of the Maintenance of the Highways, as well as for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned.

Provision for outlying Part of Parishes.

33. Where Part of a Parish is not contiguous to the Parish of which it is a Part, such outlying Part may at the Discretion of the

Highways.

the Justices be annexed to a District, and, when so annexed, it shall, for all the Purposes of the Highway Acts, be deemed to be a Parish separately maintaining its own Highways.

34. Where any Highway which any Body Politic or Corporate or Person is liable to repair by reason of Tenure of any Land, or otherwise howsoever, shall be adjudged in the Manner provided by the Principal Act to be out of Repair, the Highway Board of the District in which such Highway is situate may, if they see fit, direct their Surveyor to repair the same, and the Expenses to be incurred in such Repair shall be paid by the Party liable to repair as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon the Application of any Person authorized in this Behalf by the Highway Board, to summon the Party liable to pay such Expenses to appear before Two Justices at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons, and upon the Appearance of the Parties, or in the Absence of either of them, it shall be lawful for such Justices to hear and determine the Matter, and make such Order, as well as to Costs or otherwise, as to them may seem just.

Expenses of Repair of Highways may be recovered from Party liable to repair ratione tenuræ.

35. Where any Person or Corporation is liable, by reason of Tenure of Lands or otherwise, to repair any Highway situate in a Highway District, the Person or Corporation so liable may apply to any Justice of the Peace for the Purpose of making such Highway a Highway to be repaired and maintained by the Parish in which the same is situate; and such Justice shall thereupon issue Summonses requiring the Waywarden of such Parish, the District Surveyor, and the Party so liable to repair such Highway as aforesaid, to appear before Two or more Justices in Petty Sessions assembled, and the Justices at such Petty Sessions shall proceed to examine and determine the Matter, and shall, if they think fit, make an Order under their Hands that such Highway shall thereafter be a Highway to be thereafter repaired and maintained by the Parish, and shall in such Order fix a certain Sum to be paid by such Person or Corporation to the Highway Board of the District, in full Discharge of all Claims thereafter in respect of the Repair and Maintenance of such Highway; and in default of Payment of such Sum the Board may proceed for the Recovery thereof in the same Manner as for the Recovery of Penalties or Forfeitures recoverable under this Act: Provided always, that when the Sum so fixed to be paid in full Discharge of all Claims thereafter in respect of the Repair and Maintenance of such Highway exceeds Fifty Pounds, the same, when received, shall be invested in the Name of the Highway Board of the District in some Public Government Securities, and the Interest and Dividends arising therefrom shall be applied by such Board towards the Repair and Maintenance of the Highways within the Parish in which such Highway is situate; but when such Sum does not exceed Fifty Pounds the same or any Part thereof, at the Discretion of such Highway Board, shall from Time to Time be applied by such Board towards the Repair and Maintenance of the Highways within such Parish: Provided that any Person aggrieved by any Order of Justices made in Highways repairable ratione tenuræ may be made repairable by the Parish.

Highways.

pursuance of this Section may appeal to a Court of General or Quarter Sessions holden within Four Months from the Date of such Order ; but no such Appeal shall be entertained unless the Appellant has given to the other Party to the Case a Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, within Fourteen Days after such Order, and Seven clear Days at the least before such Sessions, and has entered into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, before a Justice of the Peace, conditioned to appear at the said Sessions, and to try such Appeal, and to abide the Judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such Costs as may be by the Court awarded ; and upon such Notice being given, and such Recognizance being entered into, the Court at such Sessions shall hear and determine the Matter of the Appeal, and shall make such Order thereon, with or without Costs to either Party, as to the Court may seem meet :

From and after the making of such Order by the Justices, or by the Court on Appeal, as the Case may require, such Highway shall be repaired in like Manner and at the like Expense as Highways which a Parish is liable to repair.

Provision as to
Roads laid out.

36. Where the Inhabitants of any Parish are desirous of undertaking the Repair and Maintenance of any Driftway, or any private Carriage or Occupation Road, within their Parish, in return for the Use thereof, the District Surveyor may, at the Request of the Inhabitants of such Parish assembled in a Vestry duly convened for the Purpose, and with the Consent in Writing of the Owner and the Occupier of every Part thereof, apply to the Justices in Petty Sessions to declare such Driftway or Road to be a public Highway to be repaired at the Expense of the Parish ; and upon such Application being made it shall be lawful for the Justices to declare the same to be a public Carriageroad to be repaired at the Expense of the Parish.

Surveyor of Highway
Board exempted from Turnpike Tolls.

37. No Toll shall be demanded by virtue of any Act of Parliament on any Turnpike Road from the Surveyor of a Highway Board when executing or proceeding to execute his Duties as such Surveyor, and all Provisions applicable to the Exemptions in the Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, shall apply to the Case of the Exemptions conferred by this Enactment.

Limiting Jurisdiction of Justices.

38. No Justice of the Peace shall act as such in any Matter in which he has already acted as a Member of the Highway Board, and in which the Decision of such Board is appealed against.

Power to alter
Highway Districts.

39. Any Highway District formed under this Act may from Time to Time be altered by the Addition of any Parishes in the same or in any adjoining County, or the Subtraction therefrom of any Parishes, and new Highway Districts may be formed by the Union of any existing Highway Districts in the same or in any adjoining County, or any Parishes forming Part of any existing Highway Districts, or any Highway District may be dissolved ; but any such Alteration of existing Districts, or Formation of new Districts, or Dissolution of any District, shall be made by Provisional and Final Orders of the Justices ; and all the Provisions of this Act with respect to the Formation of Highway Districts and Provisional

Highways.

Provisional and Final Orders of Justices, and the Notices to be given of and previously to the making of such Orders, and all other Proceedings relating to the Formation of Highway Districts, shall, in so far as the same are applicable, extend to such Alteration of existing or Formation of new Districts, or Dissolution of Districts, as is mentioned in this Section ; and in addition thereto Provision shall be made, if necessary, in any Orders of Justices made under this Section for the Adjustment of any Matters of Account arising between Parishes or Parts of Districts in consequence of the Exercise of the Powers given by this Section. Where any Parish is added to or any District united with any District in another County, the Final Order of the Justices of the County in which such Parish or District is situate shall not be confirmed by them until they shall have received the Approval of their Provisional Order for such Addition or Union from the Justices of the County in which the District is situate to or with which such Addition or Union is to be made. Where any Highway District is dissolved, or where any Parish is excluded from any Highway District, the Highways in such District or Parish shall be maintained, and the Provisions of the Principal Act in relation to the Election of Surveyors and to all other Matters shall apply to the said Highways, in the same Manner as if such Highways had never been included within the Limits of a Highway District.

40. If any Highway Board make default in holding its First Meeting in pursuance of this Act, such Board shall not thereupon become disqualified from acting, but the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions shall, on the Application of any Persons liable to pay Highway Rates within the District, make such Order as they think fit for the holding of such Board at some other Time, and any Order so made shall be deemed to be an Order capable of being removed into the Court of Queen's Bench, in pursuance of the Act passed in the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-five, and may be enforced accordingly, and the Costs of any Application to the Court of Quarter Sessions in pursuance of this Section shall be defrayed out of the District Fund of the Board.

Provision in case of Failure of Board to hold First Meeting.

41. Any Parish or Part of a Parish included in a Highway District may adopt the Local Government Act in the same Manner and under the same Circumstances in and under which it might have adopted the same if it had not been included in such District ; and upon such Adoption being made such Parish or Part of a Parish shall cease to form Part of such District, subject nevertheless to the Payment of any Contribution that may at the Time of such Adoption be due from such Parish or Part of a Parish to the Highway Board.

Reservation of Right to adopt Local Government Act.

Application of Principal Act.

42. The following Regulations shall be observed with respect to the Construction of the Principal Act and this Act :

Construction of Principal Act and this Act.

1. This Act shall be construed as One with the Principal Act so far as is consistent with the Provisions of this Act :

Highways.

2. The Ninth Section of the Principal Act, whereby it is enacted that a Surveyor may be appointed by the Inhabitants of a Parish with a Salary, shall not apply to any Parish within any District formed under this Act :
 3. The Tenth Section of the Principal Act, whereby it is enacted that the Surveyor or Surveyors at the Time of passing his or their Accounts as therein mentioned shall deliver to the Justices a Statement in Writing of the Name and Residence of the Person or Persons appointed to succeed him or them as a Surveyor or Surveyors, shall not apply to any Parish within any District formed under this Act :
 4. The Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Sections of the Principal Act, providing for the Formation of Parishes into Districts, and the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Sections of the Principal Act, providing for the Appointment of a Board in large Parishes, shall not apply to any Parish within any District formed under this Act :
 5. The Penalty imposed by Section Twenty of the Principal Act on the Surveyor for Neglect of Duty shall not apply to a Highway Board constituted under this Act :
 6. Any Summons or Notice, or any Writ or any Proceeding, at Law or in Equity, requiring to be served upon the Board, may be served by the same being left at or transmitted through the Post in a pre-paid Letter directed to the Office of the Board, or being given personally to the District Surveyor or Clerk of the Board :
 7. The Thirty-fifth Section of the Principal Act, whereby it is provided that the Ratepayers of any Parish may divide amongst themselves the Carriage of Materials in manner therein mentioned, shall not apply to any Parish within any District formed under this Act :
 8. The Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, Forty-third, Forty-fourth, and Forty-fifth Sections of the Principal Act relating to the Accounts of Surveyors shall not apply to the Highway Board of any District formed under this Act :
- 43. On the Formation of a Highway District the following Regulations shall be enacted with respect to the Surveyors and the Highway Board :
1. No Surveyor shall be appointed under the Principal Act for any Parish within such District :
 2. The outgoing Surveyor of every Parish within the District shall continue in Office until Seven Days after the Appointment of the District Surveyor by the Highway Board of the District of such outgoing Surveyor, and no longer ; and he may recover any Highway Rate made and then remaining unpaid, in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed, and the Money so recovered shall be applied, in the first place, in reimbursing any Expenses incurred by him as such Surveyor, and in discharging any Debts legally owing by him on account of the Highways within his Jurisdiction, and the Surplus (if any) shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the Highway Board; and he shall be entitled to receive from the Highway Board any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, which on the Allowance of his Accounts shall be found to be due to him as such Surveyor after the Collection and Expenditure of the whole of the Highway Rate made in such Parish during the last Year :

3. The Highway Board shall, for all the Purposes of the Principal Act except that of levying Highway Rates, be deemed to be the Successor in Office of the Surveyor of every Parish within the District.

44. All the Provisions of the Principal Act for widening, diverting, and stopping up Highways shall be applicable to all Highways which now are or may hereafter be paved, repaired, or cleansed under or by virtue of any Local or Personal Act or Acts of Parliament, or which may be situate within the Limits of any such Act or Acts, except Highways which any Railway Company, or the Owners, Conservators, Commissioners, Trustees, or Undertakers of any Canal, River, or Inland Navigation, are liable by virtue of any Act of Parliament relating to such Railway, Canal, River, or Inland Navigation to make, maintain, repair, or cleanse.

Provisions of Principal Act to be applicable to Highways under Local or Personal Acts.

45. 'Whereas there are in certain Boroughs in England and Wales Roads and Highways that are now and have heretofore been repaired by the Inhabitants of the several Parishes or Townships within which such Roads and Highways are situated, and who also contribute and pay to the General Rates levied for the Repair of the public Streets, Roads, and Highways maintained and kept in repair by the Council of such Boroughs, by reason whereof a great Burthen is imposed upon the Ratepayers of the said Parishes and Townships; and it being doubtful whether the Council of such Boroughs have the Power to adopt such Parish Roads and Highways, or to apply the Rates collected in such Boroughs in repairing the same: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Council of every such Borough in England and Wales, upon the Petition of the Majority of the Ratepayers of such Parishes or Townships present at a Public Meeting duly convened, to adopt all or any of such Parish Roads and Highways as the Council shall in its Discretion consider advisable, and to apply the Rates levied and collected by the said Council for the Repair of the public Streets, Roads, and Highways within such Borough in repairing and maintaining such Parish Roads and Highways: Provided always, that it shall be competent for such Council, previous to adopting such Parish Roads and Highways, to require the Provisions contained in any Local Act applying to the public Streets, Roads, and Highways of such Borough to be complied with.

Enabling Councils of certain Boroughs to adopt Parish Roads and Highways, and to apply Rates for their Repair.

46. No Person through whose Land a Highway passes, which is to be repaired by the Parish, shall become liable for the Repair of such Highway by erecting Fences between such Highway and the adjoining Land, if such Fences are erected with the Consent in Writing of the Highway Board of the District within which District Boards may permit Landowners to erect Fences without incurring Liability to repair.

Highways.

such Highway is situate in the Case of a Place within the Jurisdiction of a Highway Board, and in the Case of any other Place with the Consent of the Surveyor or other Authority having Jurisdiction over the Highway.

Recovery of Penalties.

47. All Penalties under this Act, and all Monies recoverable as Penalties, may be recovered summarily before any Two or more Justices in the Manner directed by the Act of the Session of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, and any Act amending the same ; but where any Sum adjudged to be paid under this Act in respect of such Penalties or Monies exceeds Five Pounds, an Appeal may be had by any Person aggrieved to a Court of General or Quarter Sessions in manner provided by the One hundred and tenth Section of the Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Statute Law of England and Ireland relating to Larceny and other similar Offences.

SCHEDULE.

Proceedings of Highway Boards.

- (1.) The Board shall meet for the Despatch of Business, and shall from Time to Time make such Regulations with respect to the summoning, Notice, Place, Management, and Adjournment of such Meetings, and generally with respect to the Transaction and Management of Business, including the Quorum at Meetings of the Board, as they think fit, subject to the following Conditions :
 - (a.) The First Meeting shall be held at the Time and Place fixed by the Order of the Justices in that Behalf :
 - (b.) Not less than Four Ordinary Meetings shall be held in each Period of Twelve Months :
 - (c.) An Extraordinary Meeting may be summoned at any Time on the Requisition of Three Members of the Board addressed to the Clerk of the Board :
 - (d.) The Quorum to be fixed by the Board shall consist of not less than Three Members :
 - (e.) All Questions shall be decided by a Majority of Votes of the Members present :
 - (f.) The Names of the Members present, as well as of those voting upon each Question, shall be recorded.
- (2.) An Act to amend the Law relating to the Duration of contested Elections for Counties in Ireland, and for establishing additional Places for taking the Poll thereat.

[29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirteenth and ‘ Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled ‘ An Act to shorten the Duration of Elections in Ireland, and
 ‘ for establishing additional Places for taking the Poll thereat;
 ‘ and it is expedient to amend certain Provisions of the said Act ‘ relating to contested Elections for Counties in Ireland, and to ‘ limit the Time of taking the Poll at such Elections to One Day,
 ‘ and to establish additional Places for taking the Poll at such ‘ Elections:’

13 & 14 Vict.
c. 68.

Elections for Counties (Ireland).

'Elections:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Commencement of Act.

1. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, save as herein-after excepted.

This Act incorporated with recited Act.

2. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with the said recited Act, and shall be as if the said recited Act (except such Parts thereof as have been repealed or amended by this Act) and this Act were One Act.

Repeal of certain
Provisions of
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 68.

3. So much of the said recited Act as authorizes the Continuance of the polling at every contested Election of a Knight or Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament for any County in Ireland for Two Days, and prescribes the Duties of the Sheriff and Sheriff Deputies and Clerk at such Poll during those Days, and fixes the Commencement; and limits the Hours of polling on such Days, and prevents the Commencement of such polling on a Saturday, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Regulating
Time for polling at Elections for Knights of the Shire in Ireland, &c.

4. At every contested Election of a Knight or Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament for any County in Ireland which shall take place after the Commencement of this Act, the polling shall commence on the next Day but Two after the Day fixed for the Election (such Day not being Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day), and shall continue for One Day only, save in the Cases herein-after mentioned, and shall commence at the Hour of Eight in the Forenoon of the Day next but Two after the Day fixed for the Election, and be kept open until Five in the Afternoon of such Day, any Statute to the contrary notwithstanding : Provided always, that when such next Day but Two after the Day fixed for the Election shall be Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, then in case it be Sunday the Poll shall be on the Monday next following and in case it be Good Friday then on the Saturday next following, and in case it be Christmas Day then on the next Day following if the same shall not be Sunday, and, if it be Sunday, on the next following Monday : Provided always, that in case any Election shall take place for any County in Ireland before or on the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, the Poll and Proceedings thereat shall be taken in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Elections on or before the 1st January 1863 not to be affected.

Duty of Poll
Clerks at such Elections.

5. The Clerks appointed to take the Poll at the several Places appointed for polling for the several Baronies or Half Baronies, or any Division thereof respectively, and in the several Polling Booths, shall, at the final Close of the Day's Poll, enclose and seal their several Books, and shall publicly deliver them, so enclosed and sealed, to the Sheriff or Sheriff's Deputy presiding at such Poll ; and every such Deputy who shall have received any such Poll Books shall forthwith deliver the same, so enclosed and sealed, to the Sheriff or his Under Sheriff, who shall receive and keep all the Poll Books unopened until the re-assembling of the Court on the Day next but One after the Close of the Poll, unless such Day shall be Sunday, and then on the Monday following, at an Hour not earlier than Eleven in the Forenoon of the said Day, when he shall openly break the Seals thereon, and cast up the Number of Votes as they appear in the said several Books, and shall openly declare the State of the Poll, and shall declare the Member or Members chosen, at or before the Hour of Two in the Afternoon of the said Day, any Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

6. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Sheriff or other Returning Officer, or the lawful Deputy of any Sheriff or Returning Officer, from closing the Poll at any contested Election for any County in Ireland, previous to the Expiration of the Time fixed by this Act, in any Case where the same might have been lawfully closed before the passing of this Act.

Poll may be closed in certain Cases as heretofore.

7. Where the Proceedings at any Election after the Commencement of this Act (whether such Proceeding shall consist of the Nomination of a Candidate or Candidates or of the taking of the Poll) shall be interrupted or obstructed by any Riot or open Violence at or near the Place of Election or a Polling Place, or shall be interrupted or obstructed by any Riot or open Violence taking place elsewhere by the violent or forcible Prevention, Obstruction, or Interruption of Voters proceeding on their Way to such Election or Polling Place, (such last-mentioned Prevention, Obstruction, or Interruption of Voters proceeding on their Way as aforesaid being shown by Affidavit,) the Sheriff or other Returning Officer, or the lawful Deputy of any Sheriff or Returning Officer, shall not for such Cause terminate the Business of such Nomination, nor finally close the Poll, but shall adjourn the Nomination, or the taking of the Poll, at the particular Polling Place or Polling Places at or near to which, or on the Way to which, such Interruption or Obstruction shall have happened, until the following Day, and, if necessary, shall further adjourn such Nomination or Poll, as the Case may be, until such Interruption or Obstruction shall have ceased, when the Sheriff or Returning Officer, or his Deputy, shall again proceed with the Business of the Nomination or with the taking the Poll, as the Case may be, at the Place or Places at or near to which, or on the Way to which, the same respectively may have been interrupted or obstructed; and the Day on which the Business of the Nomination shall have been concluded shall be deemed to have been the Day fixed for the Election, and the Commencement of the Poll shall be regulated accordingly; and any Day whereon the Poll shall have been so adjourned shall not at such Place or Places be reckoned the Day of polling at such Election within the Meaning of this Act; and whenever the Poll shall have been so adjourned by any Deputy of any Sheriff or other Returning Officer, such Deputy shall forthwith give Notice of such Adjournment to the Sheriff or Returning Officer, who shall not finally declare the State of the Poll, or make Proclamation of the Member or Members chosen, until the Poll so adjourned at such Place or Places as aforesaid shall have been finally closed, and the Poll Books delivered or transmitted to such Sheriff or other Returning Officer, Proceedings in Cases of Riot.

Officer, anything herein-before contained, or in any other Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding : Provided always, that this Act shall not be taken to authorize an Adjournment to a Sunday, but that in every Case in which the Day to which the Adjournment would otherwise be made shall happen to be a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, that Day or Days shall be passed over, and the following shall be the Day to which the Adjournment shall be made.

Additional Polling Places may be appointed upon Petition from Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled to Lord Lieutenant.

8. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, from Time to Time hereafter, on Petition from the Justices of any County or Riding in Ireland in Quarter Sessions assembled, representing that the Polling Places for such County or Riding are insufficient in Number, or inconveniently situated, and praying that the Place or Places mentioned in the said Petition may be a Polling Place or Polling Places for the County or Riding within which such Place or Places is or are situate, or may be discontinued as such Polling Place or Places, and that a Barony or Baronies, Half Barony or Half Baronies, or any Portion thereof respectively, in such Petition mentioned, may constitute a District for polling at a Polling Place in such Petition mentioned, (anything in the said recited Act, providing that a Barony or Half Barony shall not be divided, to the contrary notwithstanding,) or praying that any Polling District or Districts may be altered, and that any Barony or Half Barony, or any Portion thereof respectively, may be detached from any such Polling District, and be annexed to any other Polling District, as the Case may be, to declare that any Place or Places mentioned in the said Petition shall be a Polling Place or Polling Places for that County or Riding, or shall be discontinued as such Polling Place or Places, and that the Barony or Baronies, Half Barony or Half Baronies, or any Portion thereof respectively in such Petition mentioned, shall constitute a District for Polling at such Polling Place, and that the other Polling Districts of the said County or Riding shall be altered accordingly ; or to declare that any Polling District or Districts shall be altered, and that any Barony or Half Barony, or Portion thereof respectively, shall be detached from any such Polling District, and be annexed to any other Polling District.

Place in which the Court for Revision of Lists may be held.

9. Notwithstanding the Provisions of the Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-nine, Section Forty-six, it shall not be necessary for the Assistant Barrister or Chairman of Quarter Sessions to hold a separate Court for the Revision of the List of Parliamentary Voters who are to poll in any such new District so to be constituted and declared at the Polling Place appointed for such new District ; but it shall be lawful for the said Assistant Barrister or Chairman, if he shall so think fit, to revise the said List of Voters for such new District at a Court to be held at the Place in which the List of Parliamentary Voters for the Barony or Half Barony out of which such District shall be constituted had been held previous to the Constitution of such new District, or at such other Place as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor of Ireland shall appoint.

Elections for Counties (Ireland).

10. Every such Declaration or Order for creating additional Polling Places and the Polling Districts for the same, or for discontinuing or altering any Polling District or Districts, shall be certified under the Hand of the Clerk of the said Privy Council, and when so certified shall be published in the Dublin Gazette, and shall be of the same Force and Effect as if the same had been made by the Authority of Parliament: Provided always, that no such Petition as aforesaid shall be made by such Justices so assembled unless a Notice in Writing shall have been delivered, One Month at the least before the holding of such Quarter Sessions, to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Riding wherein the same are held, signed by Two Justices of the Peace for such County or Riding, and residing therein, or by Ten Inhabitants, being registered Voters for such County or Riding, which Notice shall state that the Court will, when such Sessions are held, be moved to make such Petition; nor unless the Clerk of the Peace shall, Ten Days at the least before the holding of such Sessions, have caused a Copy of such Notice to be inserted twice at the least in Two of the Newspapers of such County or Riding, if Two Newspapers are published therein, or, if not, in a Newspaper published or commonly circulated therein, together with a Notice of the Day upon which, and the Place at which, such Quarter Sessions will be held; provided also, that when such Motion is made any Person objecting to the same shall be heard by such Court against the same, or any Part thereof, if he thinks fit.

Declaration or Order to be certified by Clerk of Privy Council, and published in Dublin Gazette.

C A P. LXIII.

An Act to amend "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," and "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853."

[29th July 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," and "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853": Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

17 & 18 Vict. c. 104.
18 & 19 Vict. c. 91.
16 & 17 Vict. c. 107.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," and shall be construed with and as Part of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," herein-after termed the Principal Act.

Short Title.

2. The Enactments described in Table (A.) in the Schedule to this Act shall be repealed as therein mentioned, except as to any Liabilities incurred before such Repeal.

Enactments in Table (A.) repealed.

Registry and Measurement of Tonnage (Part II. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

3. It is hereby declared that the Expression "Beneficial Interest," whenever used in the Second Part of the Principal Act, Equities not excluded by Merchant Shipping Act.

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

includes Interests arising under Contract and other equitable Interests; and the Intention of the said Act is that, without Prejudice to the Provisions contained in the said Act for preventing Notice of Trusts from being entered in the Register Book or received by the Registrar, and without Prejudice to the Powers of Disposition and of giving Receipts conferred by the said Act on registered Owners and Mortgagees, and without Prejudice to the Provisions contained in the said Act relating to the Exclusion of unqualified Persons from the Ownership of British Ships, Equities may be enforced against Owners and Mortgagees of Ships in respect of their Interest therein, in the same Manner as Equities may be enforced against them in respect of any other Personal Property.

Tonnage Rates under Local Acts may be levied on the registered Tonnage.

4. Any Body Corporate or Persons having Power to levy Tonnage Rates on Ships may, if they think fit, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, levy such Tonnage Rates upon the registered Tonnage of the Ships as determined by the Rules for the Measurement of Tonnage for the Time being in force under the Principal Act, notwithstanding that the Local Act or Acts under which such Rates are levied provides for levying the same upon some different System of Tonnage Measurement.

Certificates for Engineers (Part III. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

Steam Ships to carry Certificated Engineers.

5. On and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, every Steam Ship which is required by the Principal Act to have a Master possessing a Certificate from the Board of Trade shall also have an Engineer or Engineers possessing a Certificate or Certificates from the Board of Trade as follows; that is to say,

- (1.) Engineers Certificates shall be of Two Grades, viz., "First-class Engineers Certificates," and "Second-class Engineers Certificates":
- (2.) Every Foreign-going Steam Ship of One hundred nominal Horse Power or upwards shall have as its First and Second Engineers Two Certificated Engineers, the first possessing a "First-class Engineers Certificate," and the second possessing a "Second-class Engineers Certificate" or a Certificate of the higher Grade:
- (3.) Every Foreign-going Steam Ship of less than One hundred nominal Horse Power shall have as its only or First Engineer an Engineer possessing a "Second-class Engineer's Certificate" or a Certificate of the higher Grade:
- (4.) Every Sea-going Home Trade Passenger Steam Ship shall have as its only or First Engineer an Engineer possessing a "Second-class Engineer's Certificate" or a Certificate of the higher Grade:
- (5.) Every Person who, having been engaged to serve in any of the above Capacities in any such Steam Ship as aforesaid, goes to Sea in that Capacity without being at the Time entitled to and possessed of such Certificate as is required by this Section, and every Person who employs any Person in any of the above Capacities in such Ship without ascertaining that he is at the Time entitled to and possessed of such Certificate as is required by this Section, shall for each such Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

6. The Board of Trade shall from Time to Time cause Examinations to be held of Persons who may be desirous of obtaining Certificates of Competency as Engineers : For the Purpose of such Examinations the Board of Trade shall from Time to Time appoint and remove Examiners, and award the Remuneration to be paid to them ; lay down Rules as to the Qualification of Applicants, and as to the Times and Places of Examination ; and generally do all such Acts as it thinks expedient in order to carry into effect the Examination of such Engineers as aforesaid.

Examinations for Engineers Certificates of Competency.

7. All Applicants for Examination shall pay such Fees, not exceeding the Sums specified in the Table marked (B.) in the Schedule hereto, as the Board of Trade directs ; and such Fees shall be paid to such Persons as the said Board appoints for that Purpose, and shall be carried to the Account of the Mercantile Marine Fund.

Fees to be paid by Applicants for Examination.

8. The Board of Trade shall deliver to every Applicant who is duly reported to have passed the Examination satisfactorily, and to have given satisfactory Evidence of his Sobriety, Experience, and Ability, a Certificate of Competency, as First-class Engineer or as Second-class Engineer, as the Case may be.

Certificates of Competency to be granted to those who pass.

9. Certificates of Service for Engineers, differing in Form from Certificates of Competency, shall be granted as follows ; that is to say, Engineers Certificates of Service to be delivered on Proof of certain Service.

(1.) Every Person who before the First Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two has served as First Engineer in any Foreign-going Steam Ship of One hundred nominal Horse Power or upwards, or who has attained or attains the Rank of Engineer in the Service of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, shall be entitled to a "First-class Engineers Certificate" of Service :

(2.) Every Person who before the First Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two has served as Second Engineer in any Foreign-going Steam Ship of One hundred nominal Horse Power or upwards, or as First or only Engineer in any other Steam Ship, or who has attained or attains the Rank of First-class Assistant Engineer in the Service of Her Majesty, shall be entitled to a "Second-class Engineers Certificate" of Service :

Each of such Certificates of Service shall contain Particulars of the Name, Place, and Time of Birth, and the Length and Nature of the previous Service of the Person to whom the same is delivered ; and the Board of Trade shall deliver such Certificates of Service to the various Persons so respectively entitled thereto, upon their proving themselves to have attained such Rank or to have served as aforesaid, and upon their giving a full and satisfactory Account of the Particulars aforesaid.

Certain Provisions of Merchant Shipping Act to apply to Engineers Certificates.

10. The Provisions of the Principal Act, with respect to the Certificates of Competency or Service of Masters and Mates, contained in the 138th, 139th, 140th, 161st, and 162d Sections of the said Act, shall apply to Certificates of Competency or Service granted under this Act in the same Manner as if Certificates of Competency and Service to be granted to Engineers under this Act were specially mentioned and included in the said Sections.

Power of Board of Trade and Local Marine Board to investigate Conduct of Certificated Engineers.

11. The Power by the 241st Section of the Principal Act given to the Board of Trade or to any Local Marine Board of instituting Investigations into the Conduct of any Master or Mate whom it has reason to believe to be from Incompetency or Misconduct unfit to discharge his Duties, shall extend to any Certificated Engineer whom the Board of Trade or any Local Marine Board has reason to believe to be from Incompetency or Misconduct unfit to discharge his Duties, in the same Manner as if in the said Section the Words "Certificated Engineer" had been inserted after "Master" wherever "Master" occurs in such Section.

Declaration of Engineer Surveyor to contain Statement concerning Engineers Certificate.

12. The Declaration required to be given by the Engineer Surveyor under Section 309 of the Principal Act shall, in the Case of a Ship by this Act required to have a Certificated Engineer, contain, in addition to the Statements in the said Section mentioned, a Statement that the Certificate or Certificates of the Engineer or Engineers of such Ship is or are such and in such Condition as is required by this Act.

Masters and Seamen (Part III. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

Third Part of Act to apply to Fishing Boats, Lighthouse Vessels, and Pleasure Yachts, with certain Exceptions.

13. The following Vessels ; that is to say,
 (1.) Registered Seagoing Ships exclusively employed in Fishing on the Coasts of the United Kingdom ;
 (2.) Seagoing Ships belonging to any of the Three General Lighthouse Boards ;
 (3.) Seagoing Ships being Pleasure Yachts ;
 Shall be subject to the whole of the Third Part of the Principal Act ; except,—Sections 136, 143, 145, 147, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 157, 158, 161, 162, 166, 170, 171, 231, 256, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, and 287.

Local Marine Board may determine Number of Quorum.

14. 'Whereas Doubts have been entertained whether Local Marine Boards have the Power of determining a Quorum :' It is hereby declared, That the Power by the 119th Section of the Principal Act given to every Local Marine Board of regulating the Mode in which its Meetings are to be held and its Business conducted includes the Power of determining a Quorum ; nevertheless, after the passing of this Act such Quorum shall never consist of less than Three Members.

Titles of Shipping Masters.

15. The Offices termed Shipping Offices in the Principal Act shall be termed Mercantile Marine Offices, and the Officers termed Shipping Masters and Deputy Shipping Masters in the Principal Act shall be termed Superintendents and Deputy Superintendents

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

dents of such Offices; but nothing in this Section contained shall invalidate or affect any Act which may be done at any such Office under the Title of a Shipping Office, or any Act which may be done by, with, or to any of the said Officers under the Title of Shipping Master or Deputy Shipping Master.

16. Any Person appointed to any Office or Service by or under any Local Marine Board shall be deemed to be a Clerk or Servant within the Meaning of the Sixty-eighth Section of the Act of the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six :

Punishment for Embezzlement in Shipping Offices.

If any such Person fraudulently applies or disposes of any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security received by him whilst employed in such Office or Service for or on account of any such Local Marine Board, or for or on account of any other public Board or Department, to his own Use or any Use or Purpose other than that for which the same was paid, entrusted to, or received by him, or fraudulently withholds, retains, or keeps back the same or any Part thereof contrary to any lawful Directions or Instructions which he is required to obey in relation to such Office or Service, he shall be deemed guilty of Embezzlement within the Meaning of the said Section :

Any such Person shall, on Conviction of such Offence as aforesaid, be liable to the same Pains and Penalties as are thereby imposed upon any Clerk or Servant for Embezzlement :

In any Indictment against such Person for such Offence it shall be sufficient to charge any such Chattel, Money, or valuable Security as the Property either of the Board by which he was appointed, or of the Board or Department for or on account of which he may have received the same; and no greater Particularity in the Description of the Property shall be required in such Indictment in order to sustain the same, or in proof of the Offence alleged, than is required in respect of an Indictment or the Subject Matter thereof by the Seventy-first Section of the said last-mentioned Act.

17. 'Whereas it is expedient to make Provision in certain Cases for holding Examinations of Applicants for Certificates of Competency at Places where there are no Local Marine Boards: ' Be it enacted, That the Board of Trade, if satisfied that serious Inconvenience exists at any Port in consequence of the Distance which Applicants for Certificates have to travel in order to be examined, may, with the Concurrence of any Local Marine Board, send the Examiner or Examiners of that Local Marine Board to the Port where such Inconvenience exists; and thereupon the said Examiner or Examiners shall proceed to such Port, and shall there examine the Applicants in the Presence of such Person or Persons (if any) as the Board of Trade may appoint for the Purpose; and such Examinations shall be conducted in the same Manner and shall have the same Effect as other Examinations under the said Act.

Examinations of Masters and Mates at Ports where there are no Local Marine Boards.

18. It is hereby declared that the 182d Section of the Principal Act does not apply to the Case of any Stipulation made by the Seamen belonging to any Ship, which according to the Terms

Construction of Sect. 182 of Principal Act. Stipulations

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

concerning Salvage.

of the Agreement is to be employed on Salvage Service, with respect to the Remuneration to be paid to them for Salvage Services to be rendered by such Ship to any other Ship or Ships.

Payment of Wages to Seamen abroad
under Section
209 of Principal Act.

19. The Payment of Seamen's Wages required by the 209th Section of the Principal Act shall, whenever it is practicable so to do, be made in Money and not by Bill; and in Cases where Payment is made by Bill drawn by the Master, the Owner of the Ship shall be liable to pay the Amount for which the same is drawn to the Holder or Indorsee thereof; and it shall not be necessary in any Proceeding against the Owner upon such Bill to prove that the Master had Authority to draw the same; and any Bill purporting to be drawn in pursuance of the said Section, and to be indorsed as therein required, if produced out of the Custody of the Board of Trade or of the Registrar General of Seamen, or of any Superintendent of any Mercantile Marine Office, shall be received in Evidence; and any Indorsement on any such Bill purporting to be made in pursuance of the said Section, and to be signed by One of the Functionaries therein mentioned, shall also be received in Evidence, and shall be deemed to be primâ facie Evidence of the Facts stated in such Indorsement.

Wages and Effects of deceased Seamen.

20. The 197th Section of the Principal Act shall extend to Seamen or Apprentices who within the Six Months immediately preceding their Death have belonged to a British Ship; and such Section shall be construed as if there were inserted in the First Line thereof after the Words "such Seamen or Apprentice" as last aforesaid the Words "or if any Seaman or Apprentice who has within the Six Months immediately preceding his Death belonged to a British Ship."

Recovery of Wages, &c. of Seamen lost
with their Ship.

21. The Wages of Seamen or Apprentices who are lost with the Ship to which they belong shall be dealt with as follows; (that is to say,)

- (1.) The Board of Trade may recover the same from the Owner of the Ship in the same Manner in which Seamen's Wages are recoverable :
- (2.) In any Proceedings for the Recovery of such Wages, if it is shown by some official Return produced out of the Custody of the Registrar General of Seamen or by other Evidence that the Ship has Twelve Months or upwards before the Institution of the Proceeding left a Port of Departure, and if it is not shown that she has been heard of within Twelve Months after such Departure, she shall be deemed to have been lost with all Hands on board, either immediately after the Time she was last heard of or at such later Time as the Court hearing the Case may think probable :
- (3.) The Production out of the Custody of the Registrar General of Seamen or of the Board of Trade of any Duplicate Agreement or List of the Crew made out at the Time of the last Departure of the Ship from the United Kingdom, or of a Certificate purporting to be a Certificate from a Consular or other public Officer at any Port abroad, stating that certain Seamen or Apprentices were shipped in the Ship from the said Port, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be sufficient Proof that the Seamen or Apprentices therein named were on board at the Time of the Loss :

- (4.) The Board of Trade shall deal with such Wages in the Manner in which they deal with the Wages of other deceased Seamen and Apprentices under the Principal Act.

22. 'Whereas under the 211th and 212th Sections of the Principal Act, and the 16th Section of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," Provision is made for relieving and sending home Seamen found in Distress abroad: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether Power exists under the said Sections of making Regulations and imposing Conditions which are necessary for the Prevention of Desertion and Misconduct and the undue Expenditure of Public Money: Be it enacted and it is hereby declared, That the Claims of Seamen to be relieved or sent home in pursuance of the said Sections or any of them shall be subject to such Regulations and dependent on such Conditions as the Board of Trade may from Time to Time make or impose; and no Seaman shall have any Right to demand to be relieved or sent home except in the Cases and to the Extent provided for by such Regulations and Conditions.

Relief of distressed Seamen to be regulated by Board of Trade.

23. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to the Cancellation and Suspension of Certificates, that is to say:

Power of cancelling Certificate to rest with the Court which hears the Case.

- (1.) The Power of cancelling or suspending the Certificate of a Master or Mate by the 242d Section of the Principal Act conferred on the Board of Trade shall (except in the Case provided for by the Fourth Paragraph of the said Section) vest in and be exercised by the Local Marine Board, Magistrates, Naval Court, Admiralty Court, or other Court or Tribunal by which the Case is investigated or tried, and shall not in future vest in or be exercised by the Board of Trade:
- (2.) Such Power shall extend to cancelling or suspending the Certificates of Engineers in the same Manner as if "Certificated Engineer" or "Certificated Engineers" were inserted throughout such Section after "Master" or "Masters":
- (3.) Every such Board, Court, or Tribunal shall at the Conclusion of the Case, or as soon afterwards as possible, state in open Court the Decision to which they may have come with respect to cancelling or suspending Certificates, and shall in all Cases send a full Report upon the Case, with the Evidence, to the Board of Trade, and shall also, if they determine to cancel or suspend any Certificate, forward such Certificate to the Board of Trade with their Report:
- (4.) It shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, if they think the Justice of the Case require it, to re-issue and return any Certificate which has been cancelled or suspended, or shorten the Time for which it is suspended, or grant a new Certificate of the same or any lower Grade in place of any Certificate which has been cancelled or suspended :

- (5.) The 434th and 437th Sections of the Principal Act shall be read as if for the Word "Nautical" were substituted the Words "Nautical or Engineering," and as if for the Word "Person" and "Assessor" respectively were substituted the Words "Person or Persons" and "Assessor or Assessors" respectively :
- (6.) No Certificate shall be cancelled or suspended under this Section unless a Copy of the Report or a Statement of the Case upon which the Investigation is ordered has been furnished to the Owner of the Certificate before the Commencement of the Investigation, nor, in the Case of Investigations conducted by Justices or a Stipendiary Magistrate, unless One Assessor at least expresses his Concurrence in the Report.

24. Every Master or Mate or Engineer whose Certificate is or is to be suspended or cancelled in pursuance of this Act shall, upon Demand of the Board, Court, or Tribunal by which the Case is investigated or tried, deliver his Certificate to them, or, if it is not demanded by such Board, Court, or Tribunal, shall, upon Demand, deliver it to the Board of Trade, or as it directs, and in default shall for each Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Safety (Part IV. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

25. On and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, or such later Day as may be fixed for the Purpose by Order in Council, the Regulations contained in the Table marked (C.) in the Schedule hereto shall come into operation and be of the same Force as if they were enacted in the Body of this Act ; but Her Majesty may from Time to Time, on the joint Recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, by Order in Council, annul or modify any of the said Regulations, or make new Regulations in addition thereto or in substitution therefor ; and any Alterations in or Additions to such Regulations made in manner aforesaid shall be of the same Force as the Regulations in the said Schedule.

26. The Board of Trade shall cause the said Regulations and any Alterations therein or Additions thereto hereafter to be made to be printed, and shall furnish a Copy thereof to any Owner or Master of a Ship who applies for the same ; and Production of the Gazette in which any Order in Council containing such Regulations or any Alterations therein or Additions thereto is published, or of a Copy of such Regulations, Alterations, or Additions, signed or purporting to be signed by One of the Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries of the Board of Trade, or sealed or purporting to be sealed with the Seal of the Board of Trade, shall be sufficient Evidence of the due making and Purport of such Regulations, Alterations, or Additions, Certificate to be delivered up.

Enactment of Regulations concerning Lights, Fog Signals, and Sailing Rules in Schedule, Table (C.)

Regulations to be published.

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

27. All Owners and Masters of Ships shall be bound to take notice of all such Regulations as aforesaid, and shall, so long as the same continue in force, be bound to obey them, and to carry and exhibit no other Lights and to use no other Fog Signals than such as are required by the said Regulations; and in case of wilful Default, the Master, or the Owner of the Ship if it appear that he was in such Fault, shall, for each Occasion upon which such Regulations are infringed, be deemed to be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Owners and Masters bound to obey them.

28. In case any Damage to Person or Property arises from the Non-observance by any Ship of any Regulation made by or in pursuance of this Act, such Damage shall be deemed to have been occasioned by the wilful Default of the Person in charge of the Deck of such Ship at the Time, unless it is shown to the Satisfaction of the Court that the Circumstances of the Case made a Departure from the Regulation necessary.

Breaches of Regulations to imply wilful Default of Person in charge.

29. If in any Case of Collision it appears to the Court before which the Case is tried that such Collision was occasioned by the Non-observance of any Regulation made by or in pursuance of this Act, the Ship by which such Regulation has been infringed shall be deemed to be in fault, unless it is shown to the Satisfaction of the Court that the Circumstances of the Case made a Departure from the Regulation necessary.

If Collision ensues from Breach of the Regulations, Ship to be deemed in fault.

30. The following Steps may be taken in order to enforce Compliance with the said Regulations; that is to say, Inspection for enforcing Regulations.

- (1.) The Surveyors appointed under the Third Part of the Principal Act, or such other Persons as the Board of Trade may appoint for the Purpose, may inspect any Ships for the Purpose of seeing that such Ships are properly provided with Lights and with the Means of making Fog Signals in pursuance of the said Regulations, and shall for that Purpose have the Powers given to Inspectors by the 14th Section of the Principal Act:
- (2.) If any such Surveyor or Person finds that any Ship is not so provided, he shall give to the Master or Owner Notice in Writing, pointing out the Deficiency, and also what is, in his Opinion, requisite in order to remedy the same:
- (3.) Every Notice so given shall be communicated in such Manner as the Board of Trade may direct to the Collector or Collectors of Customs at any Port or Ports from which such Ship may seek to clear or at which her Transire is to be obtained; and no Collector to whom such Communication is made shall clear such Ship outwards or grant her a Transire, or allow her to proceed to Sea, without a Certificate under the Hand of One of the said Surveyors or other Persons appointed by the Board of Trade as aforesaid, to the Effect that the said Ship is properly provided with Lights and with the Means of making Fog Signals in pursuance of the said Regulations.

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

Rules for Harbours under Local Acts to continue in force.

31. Any Rules concerning the Lights or Signals to be carried by Vessels navigating the Waters of any Harbour, River, or other Inland Navigation, or concerning the Steps for avoiding Collision to be taken by such Vessels, which have been or are hereafter made by or under the Authority of any Local Act, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect notwithstanding anything in this Act or in the Schedule thereto contained.

In Harbours and Rivers where no such Rules exist they may be made.

32. In the Case of any Harbour, River, or other Inland Navigation for which such Rules are not and cannot be made by or under the Authority of any Local Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, upon Application from the Harbour Trust or Body Corporate, if any, owning or exercising Jurisdiction upon the Waters of such Harbour, River, or Inland Navigation, or, if there is no such Harbour Trust or Body Corporate, upon Application from Persons interested in the Navigation of such Waters, to make Rules concerning the Lights or Signals to be carried, and concerning the Steps for avoiding Collision to be taken by Vessels navigating such Waters; and such Rules, when so made, shall, so far as regards Vessels navigating such Waters, have the same Effect as if they were Regulations contained in Table (C.) in the Schedule to this Act, notwithstanding anything in this Act or in the Schedule thereto contained.

In case of Collision one Ship shall assist the other.

33. In every Case of Collision between Two Ships it shall be the Duty of the Person in charge of each Ship, if and so far as he can do so without Danger to his own Ship and Crew, to render to the other Ship, her Master, Crew, and Passengers (if any), such Assistance as may be practicable and as may be necessary in order to save them from any Danger caused by the Collision :

In case he fails so to do, and no reasonable Excuse for such Failure is shown, the Collision shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed to have been caused by his wrongful Act, Neglect, or Default; and such Failure shall also, if proved upon any Investigation held under the Third or the Eighth Part of the Principal Act, be deemed to be an Act of Misconduct or a Default for which his Certificate (if any) may be cancelled or suspended.

Surveys of Steamers.

34. Notwithstanding anything in the 311th Section of the Principal Act contained, it shall not be necessary for the Surveys of Passenger Steamers to be made in the Months of April and October; but no Declaration shall be given by any Surveyor under the Fourth Part of the said Act for a Period exceeding Six Months, and no Certificate issued by the Board of Trade shall remain in force more than Six Months from the Date thereof.

Penalties on drunken or disorderly Passengers.

35. The following Offenders, that is to say,
(1.) Any Person who, being drunken or disorderly, has been on that Account refused Admission into any duly surveyed Passenger Steamer by the Owner or any Person in his Employ, and who, after having had the Amount of his Fare (if he has paid the same) returned or tendered to him, nevertheless persists in attempting to enter such Steamer ;

- (2.) Any Person who being drunken or disorderly on board any such Steamer is requested by the Owner or any Person in his Employ to leave the same at any Place in the United Kingdom at which he can conveniently so do, and who, having had the Amount of his Fare (if he has paid the same) returned or tendered to him, refuses to comply with such Request ;
- (3.) Any Person on board any such Steamer who after Warning by the Master or any other Officer of the Steamer molests or continues to molest any Passenger ;
- (4.) Any Person who, after having been refused Admission into any such Steamer by the Owner or any Person in his Employ on account of such Steamer being full, and who after having had the full Amount of his Fare (if he has paid the same) returned or tendered to him, nevertheless persists in attempting to enter the same ;
- (5.) Any Person, having got on board any such Steamer, who, upon being requested on the like Account by the Owner or any Person in his Employ to leave such Steamer before the same has quitted the Place at which such Person got on board, and who upon having the full Amount of his Fare (if he has paid the same) returned or tendered to him, refuses to comply with such Request ;
- (6.) Any Person who travels or attempts to travel in any such Steamer without having previously paid his Fare, and with Intent to avoid Payment thereof ;
- (7.) Any Person who, having paid his Fare for a certain Distance, knowingly and wilfully proceeds in any such Steamer beyond such Distance without previously paying the additional Fare for the additional Distance, and with Intent to avoid Payment thereof ;
- (8.) Any Person who knowingly and wilfully refuses or neglects, on arriving at the Point to which he has paid his Fare, to quit any such Steamer ; and
- (9.) Any Person on board any such Steamer who does not when required by the Master or other Officer of such Steamer either pay his Fare or exhibit such Ticket or other Receipt (if any) showing the Payment of his Fare as is usually given to Persons travelling by and paying their Fare for such Steamer ;

On Persons molesting Passengers.

Penalties on Persons forcing Way on board the Ship when full.

And on Persons refusing to quit the Ship when full.

Penalties for avoiding Payment of Fares.

Shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings ; but such Liability shall not prejudice the Recovery of any Fare payable by him.

36. Any Person on board any such Steamer who wilfully does or causes to be done anything in such a Manner as to obstruct or injure any Part of the Machinery or Tackle of such Steamer, or to obstruct, impede, or molest the Crew or any of them in the Navigation or Management of such Steamer, or otherwise in the Execution of their Duty upon or about such Steamer, shall for every Penalty for injuring Steamer or molesting Crew.

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Manner of apprehending Offenders.

37. It shall be lawful for the Master or other Officer of any duly surveyed Passenger Steamer, and for all Persons called by him to his Assistance, to detain any Person who has committed any Offence against any of the Provisions of the Two last preceding Sections of this Act, and whose Name and Address are unknown to such Officer, and to convey such Offender with all convenient Despatch before some Justice without any Warrant or other Authority than this Act; and such Justice shall have Jurisdiction to try the Case, and shall proceed with all convenient Despatch to the hearing and determining of the Complaint against such Offender.

Provisions as to carrying dangerous Goods.

38. The Provisions of the 329th Section of the Principal Act shall extend to Foreign Ships when within the Limits of the United Kingdom.

Pilotage (Part V. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

Power of Pilotage Authorities to exempt from compulsory Pilotage.

39. 'Whereas it is enacted by the Principal Act that every Pilotage Authority shall have Power, in manner and subject to the Conditions therein mentioned, to do the following Things; (that is to say),

To alter and reduce Rates of Pilotage.

'To exempt the Masters of any Ships or of any Classes of Ships from being compelled to employ qualified Pilots:
'To lower and modify the Rates and Prices or other Remuneration to be demanded and received for the Time being by Pilots licensed by such Authority:

To arrange the Limits of Pilotage Districts.

'To make Arrangements with any other Pilotage Authority for altering the Limits of their respective Districts, and for extending the Powers of such other Authority, and transferring its own Powers to such last-mentioned Authority:

Power by Provisional Order,—

'And whereas it is expedient that increased Facilities should be given for effecting the Objects contemplated by the said recited Enactments, and for further amending the Law concerning Pilotage, and that in so doing Means should be afforded for paying due Regard to existing Interests and to the Circumstances of particular Cases: Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, by Provisional Order, to do the following Things; that is to say,

To transfer Pilotage Jurisdiction.

(1.) Whenever any Pilotage Authority residing or having its Place of Business at One Port has or exercises Jurisdiction in Matters of Pilotage in any other Port, to transfer so much of the said Jurisdiction as concerns such last-mentioned Port to any Harbour Trust or other Body exercising any local Jurisdiction in Maritime Matters at the last-mentioned Port or to any Body to be constituted for the Purpose by the Provisional Order, or, in Cases where the said Pilotage Authority is not the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, to the said Trinity House; or to transfer the whole or any Part of the Jurisdiction of the said Pilotage Authority to a new Body Corporate or Body of Persons to be constituted for the Purpose by the Provisional Order, so as to represent the Interests of the several Ports concerned :

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

- (2.) To make the Body Corporate or Persons to whom the said Transfer is made a Pilotage Authority within the Meaning of the Principal Act, with such Powers for the Purpose as may be in the Provisional Order in that Behalf mentioned : And to make consequent Arrangements.

To determine the Limits of the District of the Pilotage Authority to which the Transfer of Jurisdiction is made :

To sanction a Scale of Pilotage Rates to be taken by the Pilots to be licensed by the last-mentioned Pilotage Authority :

To determine to what Extent and under what Conditions any Pilots already licensed by the former Pilotage Authority shall continue to act under the new Pilotage Authority :

To sanction Arrangements for the Apportionment of any Pilotage Funds belonging to the Pilots licensed by the former Pilotage Authority between the Pilots remaining under the Jurisdiction of that Authority and the Pilots who are transferred to the Jurisdiction of the new Authority :

To provide for such Compensation or Superannuation as may be just to Officers employed by the former Pilotage Authority and not continued by the new Authority :

- (3.) To constitute a Pilotage Authority and to fix the Limits of its District in any Place in the United Kingdom where there is no such Authority ; so, however, that in the new Pilotage Districts so constituted there shall be no compulsory Pilotage, and no Restriction on the Power of duly qualified Persons to obtain Licences as Pilots : To constitute new Authorities.

- (4.) To exempt the Masters and Owners of all Ships, or of any Classes of Ships, from being obliged to employ Pilots in any Pilotage District or in any Part of any Pilotage District, or from being obliged to pay for Pilots when not employing them in any District or in any Part of any Pilotage District, and to annex any Terms and Conditions to such Exemptions : To exempt from compulsory Pilotage in any District.

- (5.) In Cases where the Pilotage is not compulsory, and where there is no Restriction on the Power of duly qualified Persons to obtain Licences as Pilots, to enable any Pilotage Authority to license Pilots and fix Pilotage Rates for any Part of the District within the Jurisdiction of such Authority for which no such Licences or Rates now exist : To enable existing Authorities to grant Licences and fix Rates.

- (6.) In Cases where the Pilotage is not compulsory, and where there is no Restriction on the Power of duly qualified Persons to obtain Licences as Pilots, to enable any To raise Rates.
Pilotage

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

Pilotage Authority to raise all or any of the Pilotage Rates now in force in the District or any Part of the District within the Jurisdiction of such Authority :

To facilitate Recovery of Rates in certain Cases.

(7.) In Cases where the Pilotage is not compulsory, and where there is no Restriction on the Number of Pilots, or on the Power of duly qualified Persons to obtain Licences as Pilots, to give additional Facilities for the Recovery of Pilotage Rates and for the Prevention of the Employment of unqualified Pilots :

To facilitate Grants of Licences.

(8.) To give Facilities for enabling duly qualified Persons, after proper Examination as to their Qualifications, to obtain Licences as Pilots.

Regulations with respect to Manner of making and confirming Provisional Orders.

40. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to Provisional Orders made in pursuance of this Act :

1. Application in Writing for such Order shall be made to the Board of Trade by some Persons interested in the Pilotage of the District or in the Operation of the Laws or Regulations relating to such Pilotage :
2. Notice of such Application having been made shall be published once at the least in each of Two successive Weeks in the Month immediately succeeding the Time of such Application in the Shipping Gazette, and in some Newspaper or Newspapers circulating in the County, or, if there are more than One, in the Counties adjacent to the Pilotage District to be affected by the Order :
3. The Notice so published shall state the Objects which it is proposed to effect by the Provisional Order :
4. The Board of Trade on receiving the Application shall refer the same to the Pilotage Authority or Authorities of the District, and shall receive and consider any Objections which may be made to the proposed Provisional Order, and shall for that Purpose allow at least Six Weeks to elapse between the Time of referring the Application to the Pilotage Authority and the Time of making the Provisional Order :
5. The Board of Trade shall, after considering all Objections, determine whether to proceed with the Provisional Order or not ; and shall, if they determine to proceed with it, settle it in such Manner and with such Terms and Conditions, not being inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, as they may think fit ; and shall, when they have settled the same, forward Copies thereof to the Persons making the Application and to the Pilotage Authority or Authorities of the District or Districts to which it refers :
6. No such Provisional Order shall take effect unless and until the same is confirmed by Parliament ; and for the Purpose of procuring such Confirmation the Board of Trade shall introduce into Parliament a Public General Bill, or Public General Bills, in which, or in the Schedule to which, the Provisional Order or Provisional Orders to be thereby confirmed shall be set out at Length :

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

7. If any Petition is presented to either House of Parliament against any such Provisional Order as aforesaid in the Progress through Parliament of the Bill confirming the same, so much of the Bill as relates to the Order so petitioned against may be referred to a Select Committee, and the Petitioner shall in such Case be allowed to appear and oppose as in the Case of Private Bills.

41. The Masters and Owners of Ships passing through the Limits of any Pilotage District in the United Kingdom on their Voyages between Two Places both situate out of such Districts shall be exempted from any Obligation to employ a Pilot within such District, or to pay Pilotage Rates when not employing a Pilot within such District: Provided that the Exemption contained in this Section shall not apply to Ships loading or discharging at any Place situate within such District, or at any Place situate above such District on the same River or its Tributaries.

Extension of Exemptions from compulsory Pilotage.

42. 'Whereas under the Provisions of the Bristol Channel Pilotage Act, 1861, Pilotage Authorities have been established at the Ports of Newport and Gloucester, and the Pilots theretofore licensed by the Trinity House of Deptford Strond for those Parts have ceased to be so licensed: And whereas no Provision has been made by the said Act for dealing with such Interests as the said Pilots may have in the Trinity House Pilot Fund mentioned in the Principal Act: Be it therefore enacted, That, notwithstanding the said Pilots have ceased to be licensed by the Trinity House, the Trinity House may make such an equitable Arrangement in the Administration of the Trinity House Pilot Fund mentioned in the Principal Act with reference to the Interests of the Pilots so ceasing to be licensed by them as aforesaid as they may in their Discretion think fit.

Arrangement of Pilot Funds for Bristol Channel Pilots.

Lighthouses (Part VI. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

43. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to the Inspection of local Lighthouses, Buoys, and Beacons; that is to say, Lights, &c. under Local Authorities to be inspected, &c. by Trinity House, and other General Authorities.

- (1.) It shall be the Duty of each of the General Lighthouse Authorities, or of such Persons as may be authorized by such Authority for the Purpose, to inspect all Lights, Buoys, and Beacons situate within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of such General Authority, but belonging to or under the Jurisdiction of any Local Authorities, and to make such Inquiries in respect thereof and of the Management thereof as they may think fit:
- (2.) All Officers and others having the Care of such Lighthouses, Buoys, or Beacons, or concerned in the Management thereof, shall furnish all such Information and Explanations concerning the same as they may require:
- (3.) All such Local Authorities and their respective Officers shall at all Times give to the Inspecting Authority all such Returns, Explanations, or Information concerning the the Lighthouses, Buoys, and Beacons within their Jurisdiction, and the Management thereof, as the said Authority may from Time to Time require :

- (4.) The Inspecting Authority shall communicate to each Local Authority the Results of its Inspection of the Lighthouses, Buoys, and Beacons within its Jurisdiction, and shall also make general Reports of the Results of its Inspection of local Lighthouses, Buoys, and Beacons to the Board of Trade ; and such Reports shall be laid before Parliament :
- (5.) The Powers given by the 394th Section of the Principal Act to the General Lighthouse Authorities shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend and apply to the Case of local Buoys and Beacons, other than local Buoys and Beacons placed or erected for temporary Purposes, as well as to the Case of local Lighthouses.

Liability for and Recovery of Light Dues.

44. The following Persons shall be liable to pay Light Dues for any Ship in respect of which Light Dues are payable ; (that is to say,) the Owner or Master, or such Consignees or Agents thereof as have paid or made themselves liable to pay any other Charge on account of such Ship in the Port of her Arrival or Discharge, and in default of Payment such Light Dues may be recovered in the same Manner as Penalties of the like Amount may be recovered by virtue of the Principal Act.

Powers of Consignees to retain Light Dues paid by them.

45. Every Consignee and Agent (not being the Owner or Master) hereby made liable for the Payment of Light Dues in respect of any Ship may, out of any Monies in his Hands received on account of such Ship, or belonging to the Owner thereof, retain the Amount of all Dues so paid by him, together with any reasonable Expenses he may have incurred by reason of such Payment or Liability.

Dues may be levied for local Lights.

46. If any Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon is erected or placed, or reconstructed, repaired, or replaced by any Local Authority having Jurisdiction in the Matter of Lighthouses, Buoys, or Beacons, Her Majesty may, on the Application of the said Local Authority, by Order in Council fix such Dues to be paid to the said Local Authority in respect of every Ship which enters the Port or Harbour under the Jurisdiction of such Local Authority or the Estuary wherein such Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon is situate, and which passes the said Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon, and derives Benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable :

The Dues for the Time being fixed by any such Order in Council as aforesaid shall be paid accordingly by the Master of the said Ship or other Person or Persons by whom the said Light Dues, if levied by One of the General Lighthouse Authorities, would be payable, and shall be recoverable in the same Manner as Light Dues payable to such General Authorities are recoverable.

Application of
and Accounts of such Dues.

47. All Light Dues leviable by any Local Authority under this Act shall be applied for the Purposes of the Construction, Placing, Maintenance, and Improvement of the Lighthouses, Buoys, and Beacons in respect of which the same are levied, and for no other Purpose :

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

The Local Authority to whom the same are paid shall keep a separate Account of the Receipt and Expenditure of such Dues, and shall once in every Year, or at such other Time as the Board of Trade may determine, send a Copy of such Account to the Board of Trade, and shall send the same in such Form and shall give such Particulars in relation thereto as the Board of Trade may require :

Her Majesty may by Order in Council from Time to Time reduce, alter, or increase all or any of such Dues, so that the same may, so far as it is practicable, be sufficient and not more than sufficient for the Payment of the Expenses incurred by the Local Authority in respect of the Lighthouses, Buoys, or Beacons for which the Dues are levied.

48. The 431st Section of the Principal Act shall be read as if after the Word "Ships" there were inserted the Words "and Boats."

Construction of Sect. 431. of Principal Act.

Wreck and Salvage (Part VIII. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

49. The Provisions contained in the Eighth Part of the Principal Act for giving summary Jurisdiction to Two Justices in Salvage Cases, and for preventing unnecessary Appeals and Litigation in such Cases, shall be amended as follows ; (that is to say,)

Extension and Amendment of summary Jurisdiction in small Salvage Cases.

- (1.) Such Provision shall extend to all Cases in which the Value of the Property saved does not exceed One thousand Pounds, as well as to the Cases provided for by the Principal Act :
- (2.) Such Provisions shall be held to apply whether the Salvage Service has been rendered within the Limits of the United Kingdom or not :
- (3.) It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in Ireland for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, to appoint out of the Justices for any Borough or County a Rota of Justices by whom Jurisdiction in Salvage Cases shall be exercised :
- (4.) When no such Rota is appointed, it shall be lawful for the Salvors, by Writing addressed to the Justice's Clerk, to name One Justice, and for the Owner of the Property saved in like Manner to name the other :
- (5.) If either Party fails to name a Justice within a reasonable Time, the Case may be tried by Two or more Justices at Petty Sessions :
- (6.) It shall be competent for any Stipendiary Magistrate, and also in England for any County Court Judge, in Scotland for the Sheriff or Sheriff Substitute of any County, and in Ireland for the Recorder of any Borough in which there is a Recorder, or for the Chairman of Quarter Sessions in any County, to exercise the same Jurisdiction in Salvage Cases as is given to Two Justices :

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

(7.) It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to determine a Scale of Costs to be awarded in Salvage Cases by any such Justices or Court as aforesaid :

(8.) All the Provisions of the Principal Act relating to summary Proceedings in Salvage Cases, and to the Prevention of unnecessary Appeals in such Cases, shall, except so far as the same are altered by this Act, extend and apply to all such Proceedings, whether under the Principal Act or this Act, or both of such Acts.

Receiver may appoint a Valuer in Salvage Cases.

50. Whenever any Salvage Question arises the Receiver of Wreck for the District may, upon Application from either of the Parties, appoint a Valuer to value the Property in respect of which the Salvage Claim is made, and shall, when the Valuation has been returned to him, give a Copy of the Valuation to both Parties ; and any Copy of such Valuation, purporting to be signed by the Valuer, and to be attested by the Receiver, shall be received in Evidence in any subsequent Proceeding ; and there shall be paid in respect of such Valuation, by the Party applying for the same, such Fee as the Board of Trade may direct.

Jurisdiction of Court of Session in Salvage Cases.

51. The Words " Court of Session " in the Four hundred and sixty-eighth Section of the Principal Act shall be deemed to mean and include either Division of the Court of Session or the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills during Vacation.

Delivery of Wreck by Receiver not to prejudice Title.

52. Upon Delivery of Wreck or of the Proceeds of Wreck by any Receiver to any Person in pursuance of the Provisions of the Eighth Part of the Principal Act such Receiver shall be discharged from all Liability in respect thereof, but such Delivery shall not be deemed to prejudice or affect any Question concerning the Right or Title to the said Wreck which may be raised by Third Parties, nor shall any such Delivery prejudice or affect any Question concerning the Title to the Soil on which the Wreck may have been found.

Crown Rights to Wreck.

53. ' Whereas by the Principal Act it is provided that the Proceeds of Wreck, if the same is not claimed by the Owner within a Year, and if no Person other than Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, is proved to be entitled thereto, shall, subject to certain Deductions, be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such Manner as the Commissioners of the Treasury may direct, and that the same shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom :

' And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether the said last-recited Provision is consistent with the Arrangements concerning the Hereditary Revenues of the Crown effected by the Act of the First Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Two : ' And whereas Doubts have also been entertained whether due Provision is made by the said Act for paying to the Revenues of the Duchies of Lancaster and Cornwall respectively such of the said Proceeds as may belong to those Duchies :

It is hereby declared, That such of the said Proceeds of Wreck as belong to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown shall,

1 Vict. c. 2.

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

during the Life of Her present Majesty (whom God long preserve), be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and shall after the Decease of Her present Majesty (whom God long preserve) be payable and paid to Her Majesty's Heirs and Successors :

And it is hereby further declared, That such of the said Proceeds of Wreck as belong to Her Majesty in right of Her Duchy of Lancaster shall be paid to the Receiver General of the said Duchy or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies as Part of the Revenues of the said Duchy and be dealt with accordingly :

And it is hereby further declared and enacted, That the Provision in the Principal Act contained regarding the Sale of unclaimed Wreck to which no Owner establishes his Claim within the Period of One Year, and to which no Admiral, Vice Admiral, Lord of any Manor, or Person other than Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, is proved to be entitled, is intended and shall be construed to apply to Wreck of the Sea belonging to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in respect of the Duchy of Cornwall, or to the Duke of Cornwall for the Time being in respect of his Duchy of Cornwall: But that the Proceeds of such Wreck shall, subject to such Deductions as are in the same Act mentioned, form Part of the Revenues of the Duchy of Cornwall, and be dealt with accordingly.

Liability of Shipowners (Part IX. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854).

54. The Owners of any Ship, whether British or Foreign, shall not, in Cases where all or any of the following Events occur without their actual Fault or Privity, that is to say, Shipowners Liability limited.

- (1.) Where any Loss of Life or personal Injury is caused to any Person being carried in such Ship ;
- (2.) Where any Damage or Loss is caused to any Goods, Merchandise, or other Things whatsoever on board any such Ship ;
- (3.) Where any Loss of Life or personal Injury is by reason of the improper Navigation of such Ship as aforesaid caused to any Person carried in any other Ship or Boat ;
- (4.) Where any Loss or Damage is by reason of the improper Navigation of such Ship as aforesaid caused to any other Ship or Boat, or to any Goods, Merchandise, or other Things whatsoever on board any other Ship or Boat ;

be answerable in Damages in respect of Loss of Life or personal Injury, either alone or together with Loss or Damage to Ships, Boats, Goods, Merchandise, or other Things, to an aggregate Amount exceeding Fifteen Pounds for each Ton of their Ship's Tonnage ; nor in respect of Loss or Damage to Ships, Goods, Merchandise, or other Things, whether there be in addition Loss of Life or personal Injury or not, to an aggregate Amount exceeding Eight Pounds for each Ton of the Ship's Tonnage ; such Tonnage to be the Registered Tonnage in the Case of Sailing Ships, and in the Case of Steam Ships the Gross Tonnage without Deduction on account of Engine Room :

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

In the Case of any Foreign Ship which has been or can be measured according to British Law, the Tonnage as ascertained by such Measurement shall, for the Purposes of this Section, be deemed to be the Tonnage of such Ship :

In the Case of any Foreign Ship which has not been and cannot be measured under British Law, the Surveyor General of Tonnage in the United Kingdom, and the Chief Measuring Officer in any British Possession abroad, shall, on receiving from or by Direction of the Court hearing the Case such Evidence concerning the Dimensions of the Ship as it may be found practicable to furnish, give a Certificate under his Hand, stating what would in his Opinion have been the Tonnage of such Ship if she had been duly measured according to British Law, and the Tonnage so stated in such Certificate shall, for the Purposes of this Section, be deemed to be the Tonnage of such Ship.

55. Insurances effected against any or all of the Events enumerated in the Section last preceding, and occurring without such actual Fault or Privity as therein mentioned, shall not be invalid by reason of the Nature of the Risk.

56. In any Proceeding under the 506th Section of the Principal Act or any Act amending the same against the Owner of any Ship or Share therein in respect of Loss of Life, the Master's List or the duplicate List of Passengers delivered to the proper Officer of Customs under the 16th Section of "The Passengers Act, 1855," shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be sufficient Proof that the Persons in respect of whose Death any such Prosecution or Proceeding is instituted were Passengers on board such Ship at the Time of their Deaths.

Arrangements concerning Lights, Sailing Rules, Salvage, and Measurement of Tonnage in the Case of Foreign Ships.

57. Whenever Foreign Ships are within British Jurisdiction, the Regulations for preventing Collision contained in Table (C.) in the Schedule to this Act, or such other Regulations for preventing Collision as are for the Time being in force under this Act, and all Provisions of this Act relating to such Regulations, or otherwise relating to Collisions, shall apply to such Foreign Ships ; and in any Cases arising in any British Court of Justice concerning Matters happening within British Jurisdiction, Foreign Ships shall, so far as regards such Regulations and Provisions, be treated as if they were British Ships.

58. Whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any Foreign Country is willing that the Regulations for preventing Collision contained in Table (C.) in the Schedule to this Act, or such other Regulations for preventing Collision as are for the Time being in force under this Act, or any of the said Regulations, or any Provisions of this Act relating to Collisions, should apply to the Ships of such Country when beyond the Limits of British Jurisdiction, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that such Regulations, and all Provisions of this Act which relate to such Regulations, and all such other Provisions as aforesaid, shall apply to the Ships of the said Foreign Country, whether within British Jurisdiction or not.

59. Whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any Foreign Country is willing that Salvage shall be awarded by British Courts for Services rendered in saving Life from any Ship belonging to such Country when such Ship is beyond the Limits of British Jurisdiction, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the Provisions of the Principal Act and of this Act, with respect to Salvage for Services rendered in saving Life from British Ships, shall in all British Courts be held to apply to Services rendered in saving Life from the Ships of such Foreign Country, whether such Services are rendered within British Jurisdiction or not.

Provisions concerning Salvage of Life may, with the Consent of any Foreign Country, be applied to its Ships.

60. Whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Rules concerning the Measurement of Tonnage of Merchant Ships for the Time being in force under the Principal Act have been adopted by the Government of any Foreign Country, and are in force in that Country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct that the Ships of such Foreign Country shall be deemed to be of the Tonnage denoted in their Certificates of Registry or other National Papers; and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such Ships to be re-measured in any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Dominions, but such Ships shall be deemed to be of the Tonnage denoted in their Certificates of Registry or other Papers, in the same Manner, to the same Extent, and for the same Purposes in, to, and for which the Tonnage denoted in the Certificates of Registry of British Ships is deemed to be the Tonnage of such Ships.

Ships of Foreign Countries adopting the Rule for Measurement of Tonnage need not be re-measured in this Country.

61. Whenever an Order in Council has been issued under this Act, applying any Provision of this Act or any Regulation made by or in pursuance of this Act to the Ships of any Foreign Country, such Ships shall in all Cases arising in any British Court be deemed to be subject to such Provision or Regulation, and shall for the Purpose of such Provision or Regulation be treated as if they were British Ships.

Effect of Order in Council.

62. In issuing any Order in Council under this Act Her Majesty may limit the Time during which it is to remain in operation, and may make the same subject to such Conditions and Qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient, and thereupon the Operation of the said Order shall be limited and modified accordingly.

Orders in Council may be limited as to Time, and qualified;

63. Her Majesty may by Order in Council from Time to Time revoke or alter any Order previously made under this Act.

May be revoked and altered;

64. Every Order in Council to be made under this Act shall be published in the London Gazette as soon as may be after the making thereof; and the Production of a Copy of the London Gazette containing such Order shall be received in Evidence, and shall be Proof that the Order therein published has been duly made and issued; and it shall not be necessary to plead such Order specially.

To be published in London Gazette.

65. Nothing in the Third Section of the Act passed in the Twentieth and Twenty-first Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, except so much thereof as provides for the Payment of any Fees that may be due to the Clerk of the Justices, shall be deemed to apply to extend to any Proceeding under the Direction of the Board of Trade, or under or by virtue of the Provisions of the Principal Act or this Act, or any Act amending the same.

Delivery of Goods and Lien for Freight.

Interpretation
of Terms.

66. The following Terms used in the Sections of this Act herein-after contained shall have the respective Meanings hereby assigned to them, if not inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter; that is to say,

“Report.”

The Word “Report” shall mean the Report required by the Customs Laws to be made by the Master of any importing Ship :

“Entry.”

The Word “Entry” shall mean the Entry required by the Customs Laws to be made for the Landing or Discharge of Goods from an importing Ship :

“Goods.”

The Word “Goods” shall include every Description of Wares and Merchandise :

“Wharf.”

The Word “Wharf” shall include all Wharves, Quays, Docks, and Premises in or upon which any Goods when landed from Ships may be lawfully placed :

“Warehouse.”

The Word “Warehouse” shall include all Warehouses, Buildings, and Premises in which Goods when landed from Ships may be lawfully placed :

“Wharf
Owner.”

The Expression “Wharf Owner” shall mean the Occupier of any Wharf, as herein-before defined :

“Warehouse
Owner.”

The Expression “Warehouse Owner” shall mean the Occupier of any Warehouse, as herein-before defined :

“Shipowner.”

The Word “Shipowner” shall include the Master of the Ship and every other Person authorized to act as Agent for the Owner, or entitled to receive the Freight, Demurrage, or other Charges payable in respect of such Ship :

“Owner of Goods.”

owner to enter and land Goods in default of Entry and landing by Owner of Goods.

67. Where the Owner of any Goods imported in any Ship from Foreign Parts into the United Kingdom fails to make Entry thereof, or having made Entry thereof to land the same or take Delivery thereof and to proceed therewith with all convenient Speed, by the Times severally herein-after mentioned, the Shipowner may make Entry of and land or unship the said Goods at the Times, in the Manner, and subject to the Conditions following ; (that is to say,)

(1.) If a Time for the Delivery of the Goods is expressed in the Charter Party, Bill of Lading, or Agreement, then at any Time after the Time so expressed :

(2.) If

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

- (2.) If no Time for the Delivery of the Goods is expressed in the Charter Party, Bill of Lading, or Agreement, then at any Time after the Expiration of Seventy-two Hours, exclusive of a Sunday or Holiday, after the Report of the Ship :
- (3.) If any Wharf or Warehouse is named in the Charter Party, Bill of Lading, or Agreement, as the Wharf or Warehouse where the Goods are to be placed, and if they can be conveniently there received, the Shipowner in landing them by virtue of this Enactment shall cause them to be placed on such Wharf or in such Warehouse :
- (4.) In other Cases the Shipowner in landing Goods by virtue of this Enactment shall place them in or on some Wharf or Warehouse on or in which Goods of a like Nature are usually placed ; such Wharf or Warehouse being, if the Goods are dutiable, a Wharf or Warehouse duly approved by the Commissioners of Customs for the landing of dutiable Goods :
- (5.) If at any Time before the Goods are landed or unshipped the Owner of the Goods is ready and offers to land or take Delivery of the same, he shall be allowed so to do, and his Entry shall in such Case be preferred to any Entry which may have been made by the Shipowner :
- (6.) If any Goods are, for the Purpose of Convenience in assorting the same, landed at the Wharf where the Ship is discharged, and the Owner of the Goods at the Time of such landing has made Entry and is ready and offers to take Delivery thereof, and to convey the same to some other Wharf or Warehouse, such Goods shall be assorted at landing, and shall, if demanded be delivered to the Owner thereof within Twenty-four Hours after Assortment ; and the Expense of and consequent on such landing and Assortment shall be borne by the Shipowner :
- (7.) If at any Time before the Goods are landed or unshipped the Owner thereof has made Entry for the landing and warehousing thereof at any particular Wharf or Warehouse other than that at which the Ship is discharging, and has offered and been ready to take Delivery thereof, and the Shipowner has failed to make such Delivery and has also failed at the Time of such Offer to give the Owner of the Goods correct Information of the Time at which such Goods can be delivered, then the Shipowner shall, before landing or unshipping such Goods under the Power hereby given to him, give to the Owner of the Goods or of such Wharf or Warehouse as last aforesaid Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing of his Readiness to deliver the Goods, and shall, if he lands or unships the same without such Notice, do so at his own Risk and Expense.

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

If, when Goods are landed, the Shipowner give Notice for that Purpose, the Lien for Freight is to continue.

68. If, at the Time when any Goods are landed from any Ship, and placed in the Custody of any Person as a Wharf or Warehouse Owner, the Shipowner gives to the Wharf or Warehouse Owner Notice in Writing that the Goods are to remain subject to a Lien for Freight or other Charges payable to the Shipowner to an Amount to be mentioned in such Notice, the Goods so landed shall, in the Hands of the Wharf or Warehouse Owner, continue liable to the same Lien, if any, for such Charges as they were subject to before the landing thereof; and the Wharf or Warehouse Owner receiving such Goods shall retain them until the Lien is discharged as herein-after mentioned, and shall, if he fail so to do, make good to the Shipowner any Loss thereby occasioned to him.

Lien to be discharged on Proof of Payment.

69. Upon the Production to the Wharf or Warehouse Owner of a Receipt for the Amount claimed as due, and Delivery to the Wharf or Warehouse Owner of a Copy thereof or of a Release of Freight from the Shipowner, the said Lien shall be discharged.

Lien to be discharged on Deposit with Warehouse Owner.

70. The Owner of the Goods may deposit with the Wharf or Warehouse Owner a Sum of Money equal in Amount to the Sum so claimed as aforesaid by the Shipowner, and thereupon the Lien shall be discharged; but without Prejudice to any other Remedy which the Shipowner may have for the Recovery of the Freight.

Warehouse Owner may at the End of 15 Days, if no Notice is given, pay Deposit to Shipowner.

71. If such Deposit as aforesaid is made with the Wharf or Warehouse Owner, and the Person making the same does not within Fifteen Days after making it give to the Wharf or Warehouse Owner Notice in Writing to retain it, stating in such Notice the Sum, if any, which he admits to be payable to the Shipowner, or, as the Case may be, that he does not admit any Sum to be so payable, the Wharf or Warehouse Owner may, at the Expiration of such Fifteen Days pay the Sum so deposited over to the Shipowner, and shall by such Payment be discharged from all Liability in respect thereof.

Course to be taken if Notice to retain is given.

72. If such Deposit as aforesaid is made with the Wharf or Warehouse Owner, and the Person making the same does within Fifteen Days after making it give to the Wharf or Warehouse Owner such Notice in Writing as aforesaid, the Wharf or Warehouse Owner shall immediately apprize the Shipowner of such Notice, and shall pay or tender to him out of the Sum deposited the Sum, if any, admitted by such Notice to be payable, and shall retain the Remainder or Balance, or, if no Sum is admitted to be payable, the whole of the Sum deposited, for Thirty Days from the Date of the said Notice; and at the Expiration of such Thirty Days, unless legal Proceedings have in the meantime been instituted by the Shipowner against the Owner of the Goods to recover the said Balance or Sum or otherwise for the Settlement of any Disputes which may have arisen between them concerning such Freight or other Charges as aforesaid, and Notice in Writing of such Proceedings has been served on him, the Wharf or Warehouse Owner shall pay the said Balance or Sum over to the Owner of the Goods, and shall by such Payment be discharged from all Liability in respect thereof.

73. If the Lien is not discharged, and no Deposit is made as herein-before mentioned, the Wharf or Warehouse Owner may, and, if required by the Shipowner, shall, at the Expiration of Ninety Days from the Time when the Goods were placed in his Custody, or, if the Goods are of a perishable Nature, at such earlier Period as he in his Discretion thinks fit, sell by Public Auction, either for Home Use or Exportation, the said Goods or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the Charges herein-after mentioned.

After 90 Days
Warehouse
Owner may sell Goods by Public Auction.

74. Before making such Sale the Wharf or Warehouse Owner shall give Notice thereof by Advertisement in Two Newspapers circulating in the Neighbourhood, or in one Daily Newspaper published in London and in One local Newspaper, and also, if the Address of the Owner of the Goods has been stated on the Manifest of the Cargo, or on any of the Documents which have come into the Possession of the Wharf or Warehouse Owner, or is otherwise known to him, give Notice of the Sale to the Owner of the Goods by Letter sent by the Post; but the Title of a bonâ fide Purchaser of such Goods shall not be invalidated by reason of the Omission to send Notice as herein-before mentioned, nor shall any such Purchaser be bound to inquire whether such Notice has been sent.

Notices of Sale to be given.

75. In every Case of any such Sale as aforesaid the Wharf or Warehouse Owner shall apply the Monies received from the Sale as follows, and in the following Order :

Monies arising from Sale, how to be applied.

1. If the Goods are sold for Home Use in Payment of any Customs or Excise Duties owing in respect thereof :
 2. In Payment of the Expenses of the Sale :
 3. In the Absence of any Agreement between the Wharf or Warehouse Owner and the Shipowner concerning the Priority of their respective Charges, in Payment of the Rent, Rates, and other Charges due to the Wharf or Warehouse Owner in respect of the said Goods :
 4. In Payment of the Amount claimed by the Shipowner as due for Freight or other Charges in respect of the said Goods :
 5. But in case of any Agreement between the Wharf or Warehouse Owner and the Shipowner concerning the Priority of their respective Charges, then such Charges shall have Priority according to the Terms of such Agreement :
- and the Surplus, if any, shall be paid to the Owner of the Goods.

76. Whenever Goods are placed in the Custody of a Wharf or Warehouse Owner under the Authority of this Act, the said Wharf or Warehouse Owner shall be entitled to Rent in respect of the same, and shall also have Power from Time to Time, at the Expense of the Owner of the Goods, to do all such reasonable Acts as in the Judgment of the said Wharf or Warehouse Owner are necessary for the proper Custody and Preservation of the said Goods, and shall have a Lien on the said Goods for the said Rent and Expenses.

Warehouse
Owners Protection.

77. Nothing in this Act contained shall compel any Wharf or Warehouse Owner to take charge of any Goods which he would not be liable to take charge of if this Act had not passed; nor shall he be bound to see to the Validity of any Lien claimed by any Shipowner under this Act.

Saving Powers
under Local
Acts.

78. Nothing in this Act contained shall take away or abridge any Powers given by any Local Act to any Harbour Trust, Body Corporate, or Persons whereby they are enabled to expedite the Discharge of Ships or the Landing or Delivery of Goods; nor shall anything in this Act contained take away or diminish any Rights or Remedies given to any Shipowner or Wharf or Warehouse Owner by any Local Act.

18. Construction of Articles 12, 14, 15, and 17.
19. Proviso to save special Cases.
20. No Ship under any Circumstances to neglect proper Precautions.

Preliminary.

Art. 1. In the following Rules every Steam Ship which is under Sail and not under Steam is to be considered a Sailing Ship ; and every Steam Ship which is under Steam, whether under Sail or not, is to be considered a Ship under Steam.

Rules concerning Lights.

Art. 2. The Lights mentioned in the following Articles, and no others, shall be carried in all Weathers between Sunset and Sunrise.

Art. 3. Scagoing Steam Ships when under weigh shall carry :

(a.) At the Foremast Head, a bright White Light so fixed as to show an uniform and unbroken Light over an Arc of the Horizon of 20 Points of the Compass, so fixed as to throw the Light 10 Points on each Side of the Ship, viz., from right ahead to 2 Points abaft the Beam on either Side, and of such a Character as to be visible on a dark Night with a clear Atmosphere at a Distance of at least Five Miles :

(b.) On the Starboard Side, a Green Light so constructed as to throw an uniform and unbroken Light over an Arc of the Horizon

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

Horizon of 10 Points of the Compass, so fixed as to throw the Light from right ahead to 2 Points abaft the Beam on the Starboard Side, and of such a Character as to be visible on a dark Night with a clear Atmosphere at a Distance of at least Two Miles :

(c.) On the Port Side, a Red Light, so constructed as to show an uniform unbroken Light over an Arc of the Horizon of 10 Points of the Compass, so fixed as to throw the Light from right ahead to 2 Points abaft the Beam on the Port Side, and of such a Character as to be visible on a dark Night with a clear Atmosphere at a Distance of at least Two Miles :

(d.) The said Green and Red Side Lights shall be fitted with inboard Screens projecting at least Three Feet forward from the Light, so as to prevent these Lights from being seen across the Bow.

Art. 4. Steam Ships when towing other Ships shall carry Two bright White Mast-head Lights vertically, in addition to their Side Lights, so as to distinguish them from other Steam Ships. Each of these Mast-head Lights shall be of the same Construction and Character as the Mast-head Lights which other Steam Ships are required to carry.

Art. 5. Sailing Ships under weigh or being towed shall carry the same Lights as Steam Ships under weigh, with the Exception of the White Mast-head Lights, which they shall never carry.

Art. 6. Whenever, as in the Case of small Vessels during bad Weather, the Green and Red Lights cannot be fixed, these Lights shall be kept on Deck on their respective Sides of the Vessel ready for instant Exhibition, and shall, on the Approach of or to other Vessels, be exhibited on their respective Sides in sufficient Time to prevent Collision, in such Manner as to make them most visible, and so that the Green Light shall not be seen on the Port Side, nor the Red Light on the Starboard Side.

To make the Use of these portable Lights more certain and easy, they shall each be painted Outside with the Colour of the Light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable Screens.

Art. 7. Ships, whether Steam Ships or Sailing Ships, when at Anchor in Roadsteads or Fairways, shall between Sunrise and Sunset exhibit, where it can best be seen, but at a Height not exceeding Twenty Feet above the Hull, a White Light in a globular Lantern of Eight Inches in Diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear uniform and unbroken Light visible all round the Horizon, and at a Distance of at least One Mile.

Art. 8. Sailing Pilot Vessels shall not carry the Lights required for other Sailing Vessels, but shall carry a White Light at the Mast Head visible all round the Horizon,—and shall also exhibit a Flare-up Light every Fifteen Minutes.

Art. 9. Open Fishing Boats and other open Boats shall not be required to carry Side Lights required for other Vessels ; but shall, if they do not carry such Lights, carry a Lantern having a Green Slide on the one Side and a Red Slide on the other Side ; and on the Approach of or to other Vessels such Lantern shall be be exhibited in sufficient Time to prevent Collision, so that the Green Light shall not be seen on the Port Side nor the Red Light on the Starboard Side.

Fishing Vessels and open Boats when at Anchor or attached to their Nets and stationary shall exhibit a bright White Light.

Fishing Vessels and open Boats shall, however, not be prevented from using a Flare-up in addition if considered expedient.

Rules concerning Fog Signals.

Art. 10. Whenever there is Fog, whether by Day or Night, the Fog Signals described below shall be carried and used, and shall be sounded at least every Five Minutes; viz.—

(a.) Steam Ships under weigh shall use a Steam Whistle placed before the Funnel not less than Eight Feet from the Deck.

(b.) Sailing Ships under weigh shall use a Fog Horn.

(c.) Steam Ships and Sailing Ships when not under weigh shall use a Bell.

Steering and Sailing Rules.

Art. 11. If Two Sailing Ships are meeting End on, or nearly End on, so as to involve Risk of Collision, the Helms of both shall be put to Port, so that each may pass on the Port Side of the other.

Art. 12. When Two Sailing Ships are crossing so as to involve Risk of Collision, then if they have the Wind on different Sides, the Ship with the Wind on the Port Side shall keep out of the Way of the Ship with the Wind on the Starboard Side, except in the Case in which the Ship with the Wind on the Port Side is close hauled and the other Ship free, in which Case the latter Ship shall keep out of the Way; but if they have the Wind on the same Side, or if One of them has the Wind aft, the Ship which is to windward shall keep out of the Way of the Ship which is to leeward.

Art. 13. If Two Ships under Steam are meeting End on, or nearly End on, so as to involve Risk of Collision, the Helms of both shall be put to Port so that each may pass on the Port Side of the other.

Art. 14. If Two Ships under Steam are crossing so as to involve Risk of Collision, the Ship which has the other on her own Starboard Side shall keep out of the Way of the other.

Art. 15. If Two Ships, one of which is a Sailing Ship and the other a Steam Ship, are proceeding in such Directions as to involve Risk of Collision, the Steam Ship shall keep out of the Way of the Sailing Ship.

Art. 16. Every Steam Ship, when approaching another Ship so as to involve Risk of Collision, shall slacken her Speed, or if necessary, stop and reverse; and every Steam Ship shall, when in a Fog, go at a moderate Speed.

Art. 17. Every Vessel overtaking any other Vessel shall keep out of the Way of the said last-mentioned Vessel.

Art. 18. Where by the above Rules One of Two Ships is to keep out of the Way, the other shall keep her Course, subject to the Qualifications contained in the following Article.

Merchant Shipping Acts, &c. Amendment.

Art. 19. In obeying and construing these Rules due regard must be had to all Dangers of Navigation ; and due regard must also be had to any special Circumstances which may exist in any particular Case rendering a Departure from the above Rules necessary in order to avoid immediate Danger.

Art. 20. Nothing in these Rules shall exonerate any Ship or the Owner or Master or Crew thereof from the Consequences of any Neglect to carry Lights or Signals, or of any Neglect to keep a proper Look-out, or of the Neglect of any Precaution which may be required by the ordinary Practice of Seamen or by the special Circumstances of the Case.

C A P. LXIV.

An Act for the better Protection of Her Majesty's Naval and Victualling Stores. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the existing Enactments for the Protection of Her Majesty's Naval and Victualling Stores are numerous and complicated, and Difficulties have arisen in their Application, and it is consequently expedient to reduce into One Act and simplify and amend them :’

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as The Naval and Victualling Stores Act, 1862.

Extent of Act.

2. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Interpretation of Terms.

3. In this Act—

The Term “the Admiralty” shall be taken to mean the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the Time being, or the Commissioners for the Time being for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral :

17 & 18 Vict. c. 104.

The Term “Dealer in Marine Stores” shall be taken to mean a Person bound to conform to the Regulations of The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, Section Four hundred and eighty :

24 & 25 Vict. c. 110.

The Term “Dealer in old Metals” shall be taken to mean a Person answering the Description of such a Dealer contained in The Old Metal Dealers Act, 1861 :

The Term “Her Majesty's Yards” shall be taken to mean Her Majesty's Dock Yards, Her Majesty's Victualling Yards, and Her Majesty's Steam Factory Yards :

23 & 24 Vict. c. 135.

The Term “Constable of the Metropolitan Force,” shall be taken to mean a Constable belonging to that Force, and being by virtue of the Act of the Session of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter One hundred and thirty-five), “for the Employment of “the Metropolitan Police Force in Her Majesty's Yards and

Naval and Victualling Stores.

and Military Stations," employed and authorized to act in any of Her Majesty's Yards and within the Limits in that Act mentioned.

4. The Enactments described in Schedule (A.) to this Act are hereby repealed to the Extent therein specified, and only as to Her Majesty's Naval and Victualling Stores; but this Repeal shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland, or affect—

Enactments in Schedule (A.) to this Act, as to Naval and Victualling Stores, repealed, but not as to Scotland or Ireland.

- (1.) The past Operation of any such Enactment;
- (2.) Any Act done or any Right or Liability already acquired, accrued, or now existing under or by virtue of any such Enactment;
- (3.) Any Penalty, Forfeiture, or other Punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any Offence already committed; or
- (4.) The Institution or Prosecution of any legal Proceeding or any other Remedy for the ascertaining, enforcing, or recovering of any such Liability, Penalty, Forfeiture, or Punishment.

I.—MARKED STORES.

Imitation of Marks.

5. The Marks mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act may be applied in or on Her Majesty's Naval and Victualling Stores to denote Her Majesty's Property in Stores so marked. It shall be lawful for the Admiralty, their Contractors, Officers, and Workmen, and for no other Person, to apply the said Marks or any of them in or on Naval or Victualling Stores. If any Person apply any of the said Marks in or on Naval or Victualling Stores contrary to this Provision he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall be liable to Imprisonment for not more than One Year, with or without Hard Labour.

Marks in Schedule (B.) appropriated for Her Majesty's Use.

Imitation of Marks a Misdemeanor.

Defacing of Marks.

6. If any Person, with Intent to conceal Her Majesty's Property in any Naval or Victualling Stores, take out, destroy, or obliterate, wholly or in part, any such Mark in or on any such Stores, he shall be guilty of Felony, and shall be liable to Imprisonment for not more than Two Years, with or without Hard Labour.

Obliteration of Marks with Intent to conceal Her Majesty's Property in Stores, Felony.

Receiving, &c. of marked Stores.

7. If any Person receive, possess, keep, sell, or deliver any Naval or Victualling Stores marked as aforesaid, knowing them to be so marked, he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall be liable to Imprisonment for not more than One Year, with or without Hard Labour.

Knowingly receiving, &c. marked Stores, a Misdemeanor.

8. Where the Person charged with such a Misdemeanor is a Dealer in Marine Stores or in old Metals, or a Person employed in any of Her Majesty's Yards, Knowledge on his Part that the Stores to which the Charge relates were at the Time of the Commission of the Offence marked as aforesaid shall be presumed,

Knowledge of Stores being marked presumed against Dealers, &c. but to be proved in other Cases presumed, until the contrary is shown ; in other Cases Evidence of such Knowledge shall be necessary to support the Charge.

Naval and Victualling Stores.

No Conviction where Proof that Stores were lawfully come by.

9. Provided always, That no Person shall be liable to be convicted of such a Misdemeanor who shows (whether such Knowledge as aforesaid is presumed or proved against him or not) that he came by the Stores to which the Charge relates lawfully, and without reasonable Cause for believing that the Person (if any) through whom he came by the same had not come by the same lawfully.

Summary Trial of Receivers, &c. in certain Cases, under Criminal Justice Act, 18 & 19 Vict. c. 126.

10. The Provisions of the Act of the Session of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter One hundred and twenty-six), "for diminishing Expense and Delay in the Administration of Criminal Justice in certain Cases," shall apply in the Case of a Person charged with such a Misdemeanor in manner following :

- (1.) Where, in the Judgment of the Justices at such Petty Sessions as in that Act mentioned, the Value of the Stores to which the Charge relates does not exceed One Pound, Section One of that Act, with all Provisions relative thereto, shall apply :
- (2.) Where, in the Judgment of such Justices, such Value exceeds One Pound, Section Three of that Act, with all Provisions relative thereto, shall apply.

II.—STORES MARKED OR UNMARKED.

Creeping, sweeping, or dredging.

No unauthorized Person to creep, sweep, or dredge for Stores, within 100 Yards of Dockyards, &c.

11. It shall not be lawful for any Person (except a Person in Her Majesty's Service or in the Employment of the Admiralty, or a Constable of the Metropolitan Police Force), without Permission in Writing given by the Admiralty or by some Person authorized by the Admiralty in that Behalf, to creep, sweep, or dredge for Stores lost or supposed to be lost in the Sea or any Tidal Water within the Distance of One hundred Yards from any Vessel belonging to Her Majesty or in Her Majesty's Service, or from any mooring Place or anchoring Place appropriated to such Vessels, or from any Moorings belonging to Her Majesty, or from any of Her Majesty's Yards. If any Person creep, sweep, or dredge for Stores contrary to this Provision he shall be liable, on summary Conviction, to a Penalty of not more than Five Pounds.

Arrest of Offenders, Vessels, &c.

Policemen of Metropolitan Force may stop suspected Persons, &c.

12. A Constable of the Metropolitan Police Force may, within the Yard and Limits for which he is sworn, stop, search, and detain any Vessel, Boat, or Carriage in or on which there is Reason to suspect that any of Her Majesty's Naval or Victualling Stores, stolen or unlawfully obtained, may be found, or any Person reasonably suspected of having or conveying any such Stores stolen or unlawfully obtained.

Power of Justices at Petty Sessions in relation to Stores

13. If any Person be brought before Two or more Justices at Petty Sessions charged with having or conveying any of Her Majesty's Naval or Victualling Stores stolen or unlawfully obtained, obtained, or reasonably suspected to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, the following Provisions shall take effect and apply :—

stolen or unlawfully obtained, &c.

- (1.) If such Person do not give an Account to the Satisfaction of the Justices how he came by such Stores he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and, on summary Conviction thereof before Two or more Justices at Petty Sessions, shall be liable to a Penalty of not more than Five Pounds, or to Imprisonment for not more than Two Months, with or without Hard Labour.
- (2.) If he declare that he received such Stores from some other Person, or that he was employed as a Carrier, Agent, or Servant to convey the same for some other Person, Two or more Justices at Petty Sessions may cause every such other Person, and every former or pretended Purchaser or other Person through whose Possession the same have or are declared to have passed, to be brought before them and examined, and may examine Witnesses on Oath touching the same :
- (3.) If it appear to Two or more Justices at Petty Sessions that any Person has had Possession of such Stores (for which Purpose the Possession of a Carrier, Agent, or Servant shall be deemed to be the Possession of his Employer), and had reasonable Cause for believing that the same had been stolen or unlawfully obtained, such Person shall be deemed to have had Possession thereof at the Time and Place when and where they were found or seized, and to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and, on Conviction thereof before Two or more Justices at Petty Sessions, shall be liable to a Penalty of not more than Five Pounds, or to Imprisonment for not more than Three Months, with or without Hard Labour.

Searches under Warrants.

14. Where Information on Oath is given to a Justice of the Peace that there is reasonable Cause to believe, and that the Informant believes, that some of Her Majesty's Naval or Victualling Stores, marked as aforesaid, or (whether marked or not) stolen or unlawfully obtained, are in a House or Place within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, he may issue a Search Warrant to a Constable.

Search Warrant on Information on Oath.

15. Every such Search Warrant shall be a sufficient Authority for the Constable to whom the same is directed to enter, in the Daytime, or by Night, if Power for that Purpose be given by the Warrant, with such Assistance as may be found necessary, into such House or Place, and there to search for such Naval or Victualling Stores, and if upon such Search any such Naval or Victualling Stores be found, then to seize the same, and either to convey the same before a Justice of the Peace, or to guard them on the Spot, or otherwise dispose of them in a Place of Safety, until further Proceedings can be taken in relation thereto.

Dealers in Marine Stores and in old Metals to account for Possession of Stores found on Search.

16. Where under any such Search Warrant any Naval or Victualling Stores, appearing or reasonably suspected to belong or to have belonged to Her Majesty, are found in the Possession or Keeping of a Dealer in Marine Stores or in old Metals, or of a Person employed in any of Her Majesty's Yards, and such Dealer or Person does not prove that he came by the same lawfully, and without reasonable Cause for believing that the Person (if any) through whom he came by the same had not come by the same lawfully, such Dealer or Person, on summary Conviction before Two or more Justices at Petty Sessions, shall be liable for the First Offence to a Penalty of not more than Five Pounds, and for a Second or other subsequent Offence to a Penalty of not more than Twenty Pounds, or Imprisonment for not more than Three Months, with Hard Labour.

III.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Procedure.

Parts of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 96. (Larceny) incorporated.

17. Subject and without Prejudice to the Application by this Act of the said Act of the Session of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty, and to the other express Provisions of this Act, such of the Provisions of the Act of the last Session of Parliament (Chapter Ninety-six), "to consolidate and amend the Statute Law of England and Ireland relating to Larceny" and other similar Offences," as are mentioned in Schedule (C.) to this Act, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall for the Purposes of this Act be read as if they were here re-enacted.

Criminal Possession.

18. For the Purposes of this Act, Naval or Victualling Stores shall be deemed to be in the Possession or Keeping of any Person, if he have them in his personal Possession or Keeping, or if he knowingly and wilfully have them in the actual Possession or Keeping of any other Person, or in any House, Building, Lodging, Apartment, Field, or Place, open or inclosed, whether occupied by himself or not, and whether the same be so had for his own Use or for the Use or Benefit of another.

Saving for Indictment.

19. Nothing in this Act shall be taken to prevent any Person from being indicted for any indictable Offence made punishable on summary Conviction by this Act, or to prevent any Person from being liable under any other Act, or otherwise, to any other or higher Penalty or Punishment than is provided for any Offence by this Act, but so that no Person be punished twice for the same Offence.

Admiralty alone to prosecute.

20. It shall not be competent for any Person, other than the Admiralty, their Officers, Solicitors, or Agents, to institute or carry on under this Act any Prosecution by way of summary Proceeding or otherwise for any Offence by this Act made Felony or Misdemeanor or made punishable on summary Conviction.

Application of pecuniary Penalties.

Penalties, &c. to be applied under Orders of Admiralty.

21. Notwithstanding anything in any Act relating to Municipal Corporations or to the Metropolitan Police Force or in any other Act contained, any pecuniary Penalty or other Monies recovered

Jurisdiction in Homicides.

C A P. LXV.

An Act for the more speedy Trial of certain Homicides committed by Persons subject to the Mutiny Act.

[29th July 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that Persons subject to the present or any future Mutiny Act who shall be guilty of the Murder or Manslaughter of any Person subject to the said Act or Acts should be brought to speedy Punishment, and that the Offences of such Persons should in certain Cases be inquired of and tried with all convenient Speed, and that the Inquiry, Trial, and Punishment should in certain Cases be more speedy than the usual Course of Practice in respect of the Times of issuing Her Majesty's Commissions of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery will allow: And whereas it would contribute to the more speedy Punishment of Persons guilty thereof, and to the Maintenance of good Order and Military Discipline, if, when charged with Murder or Manslaughter committed in England or Wales, and out of the Jurisdiction of the Central Criminal Court, such Persons were rendered liable to be indicted and tried at the Central Criminal Court, and if when charged with Murder or Manslaughter committed in Ireland and elsewhere than in the County of the City of Dublin or the County of Dublin such Persons were rendered liable to be indicted and tried before and by the Commissioners appointed by virtue of any Commission of Oyer and Terminer or of Gaol Delivery under the Great Seal of Ireland for the County of the City of Dublin: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

L. Whenever any Person shall have been committed for any Murder or Manslaughter committed or supposed to have been committed at any Place in England or Wales, and out of the Jurisdiction of the Central Criminal Court, or at any Place in Ireland other than the County of the City of Dublin or the County of Dublin, and it shall appear to Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in that Part of the United Kingdom wherein the said Offence was committed or supposed to have been committed, in Term Time, or to any Judge thereof, or of any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law in the same Part of the United Kingdom, in Vacation, that the said Person (herein-after called the Prisoner) was at the Time of the Commission or supposed Commission of the said Murder or Manslaughter subject to the present or any future Mutiny Act, and that the Person (herein-after called the Deceased) for the Murder or Manslaughter of whom the Prisoner shall have been committed was at the Time last aforesaid subject to the said Act or Acts, it shall be lawful for such Court of Queen's Bench in Term Time, or for such Judge in Vacation, without the Prisoner being brought or appearing in Person before the said Court or Judge, upon the Application of

The Queen's Bench or a Judge may order certain Prisoners to be indicted and tried under the Provisions of this Act.

Jurisdiction in Homicides.

Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, and upon his Certificate in Writing, in the Form numbered 1. in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, duly signed, that it would contribute to the Maintenance of good Order and Military Discipline if the said Prisoner were to be indicted and tried under the Provisions of this Act, to order that the said Prisoner shall be indicted and tried under the Provisions of this Act, and such Order may be in One of the Forms numbered 2. in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect.

2. Whenever any such Order shall have been made, the Gaoler or Keeper of any Gaol or House of Correction in which the said Prisoner shall be confined shall forthwith upon the Delivery to him of an Office Copy of such Order, without Writ of Habeas corpus or other Writ for that Purpose, cause such Prisoner, with his Commitment and Detainer, to be safely removed to Her Majesty's Gaol of Newgate in the City of London if the said Prisoner shall be confined in England or Wales, and to Her Majesty's Gaol called the Richmond Bridewell in the County of the City of Dublin if the said Prisoner shall be confined in Ireland, and thereupon the Keeper of such Gaol shall receive such Prisoner into his Custody in such Gaol, there to remain until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law; and the Justice or Coroner by whom the Prisoner was committed, or any other Person having the Custody or Possession thereof, shall forthwith upon the Delivery to him of an Office Copy of such Order transmit any Recognizances, Depositions, Examinations, or Informations relating to the Murder or Manslaughter mentioned in such Order which shall be in his Custody or Possession to the proper Officer of the Court at and before which the Prisoner shall be rendered liable to be indicted under the Provisions of this Act, to be by him kept among the Records of the Court.

And upon such Order the Prisoner shall be removed to the Gaol of Newgate in London or the Richmond Bridewell in Dublin, and the Depositions, &c. returned to the Court at which the Prisoner is to be indicted.

3. Whenever any Prisoner shall have been removed to the said Gaol of Newgate in the City of London under the Provisions of this Act, the Murder or Manslaughter of the Deceased by the Prisoner may be inquired of, heard, and determined, and the Prisoner may be indicted, arraigned, tried, and convicted for the Murder or Manslaughter of the Deceased, in the same Manner in all respects as if such Murder or Manslaughter had been committed within the Jurisdiction of the Central Criminal Court; and whenever any Prisoner shall have been removed to the Richmond Bridewell in the County of the City of Dublin under the Provisions of this Act, the Murder or Manslaughter of the Deceased by the Prisoner may be inquired of, heard, and determined, and the Prisoner may be indicted, arraigned, tried, and convicted for the Murder or Manslaughter of the Deceased, in the same Manner in all respects as if such Murder or Manslaughter had been committed in the County of the City of Dublin.

A Prisoner removed may be indicted and tried in London or Dublin.

4. Whenever any Prisoner so removed to One of the said Gaols shall be indicted under the Provisions of this Act, an Office Copy of the before-mentioned Order of the Court of Queen's Bench, or of a Judge, shall be delivered to the proper Officer of

A Certificate of his Removal under this Act and of the Cause of his Committal shall be endorsed on the Indictment.

the Court at and before which the Prisoner shall be rendered liable to be indicted under the Provisions of this Act, and such Officer shall thereupon, by Indorsement on the Back of the Bill of Indictment, before its Presentment by the Grand Jury, or by Direction of the Justices, Judges, or Commissioners of the Court before whom such Indictment shall be tried, or any Two or more of them, at any other Time, certify that the Prisoner was committed for the Murder or Manslaughter of the Deceased, and was removed to the Gaol of Newgate or the Richmond Bridewell as the Case may be, under the Provisions of this Act; and such Indorsement, which may be in the Form numbered 3. in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and which may be amended by the said last-mentioned Justices, Judges, or Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, at any Time, and in such Manner, and as often as to them shall seem fit, shall be conclusive Proof that the said Prisoner was committed for the Murder or Manslaughter of the Deceased, and was removed to the said Gaol of Newgate or the said Richmond Bridewell under the Provisions of this Act; and such Indorsement shall not constitute or be deemed or taken to be a Portion of the Indictment.

When Indorsement to be amended.

5. Whenever any Indictment found under the Provisions of this Act shall be amended in any Manner, the before-mentioned Indorsement thereon shall, if it be necessary, be amended in the like Manner.

Indictment need not follow the Commitment.

6. A Prisoner committed for Murder may be indicted under the Provisions of this Act for Manslaughter, and a Prisoner committed for Manslaughter may be indicted under the same Provisions for Murder.

No Objection to be taken to any Order, and no Proof to be required of the Subject of any Person to the Mutiny Act.

7. It shall not be lawful for any Person, either by himself or his Counsel, to take any Objection, either in the Court at, before, or by which the Prisoner shall be indicted, arraigned, tried, convicted, or sentenced under the Provisions of this Act, or in any Court of Error, to any Order of the said Court of Queen's Bench or of any Judge, or to any other Proceeding under or by virtue of which the Prisoner shall have been removed to the Gaol of Newgate or the Richmond Bridewell; and the Form of the Indictment under the Provisions of this Act shall be the same as that of Indictments for Murder or Manslaughter committed within the Jurisdiction of the Court at and before which such Prisoner shall be indicted under the Provisions of this Act; and it shall not be necessary to prove on the Trial of the Prisoner that either the Prisoner or the Deceased was or were at the Time of the Commission or supposed Commission of the said Murder or Manslaughter subject to the Provisions of any Mutiny Act; and the Prisoner shall not be acquitted by reason only of its appearing that the Prisoner or the Deceased was not or were not at the Time last aforesaid subject to the Provisions of any Mutiny Act.

Any Person convicted may be sentenced to be punished either in the County where

8. When any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence upon the Trial of any Indictment found under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices, Judges, or Commissioners of the Court before which any such Conviction shall have taken place, or for any Two or more of them, or, in case Sentence shall shall not then be passed, for the Justices, Judges, or Commissioners of the said Court, or for any Two or more of them, at any subsequent Sessions of the said Court, to order and adjudge such Convict to be punished according to Law at any Place either within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, or within the County or Place where such Offence shall have been committed or supposed to have been committed; and in Cases where such Justices, Judges, or Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, shall order such Convict to be punished in such County or Place, it shall be lawful for such Justices, Judges, or Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, after passing Sentence upon such Convict, to make an Order commanding the Keeper of the Gaol of Newgate or of the Richmond Bridewell to cause such Convict to be delivered into the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Gaol or House of Correction in such County or Place, together with such Order, and commanding such Gaoler or Keeper to receive such Convict into his Custody in such Gaol or House of Correction, and him there safely to keep until such Sentence shall have been executed upon such Convict according to Law, or until he shall be otherwise delivered by due Course of Law, and also to make an Order commanding the Sheriff of such County or Place to execute such Sentence upon such Convict within such County or Place according to Law in the same Manner as if he had been tried and received such Sentence in such County or Place; and every such Sheriff, Gaoler, and Keeper respectively is hereby commanded to perform and execute according to Law each and everything which he shall be commanded to perform and execute by any such Order; and the several Forms in the Schedule to the Act made and passed in the Nineteenth Year of Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to empower the Court of Queen's Bench to order certain Offenders to be tried at the Central Criminal Court, contained, or Forms to the like Effect, shall be deemed good, valid, and sufficient in Law, and in the Case of any Order directed to any Sheriff, and commanding him to execute any Sentence, it shall be sufficient to deliver such Order either to such Sheriff or to his Under Sheriff.

9. Every Recognizance which shall have been entered into for the Prosecution of the Prisoner, and every Recognizance of any Witness to give Evidence against him for his said Offence, shall, in case any such Order shall be made as is mentioned in the First Section of this Act, be obligatory on each of the Parties bound by such Recognizance to prosecute and give Evidence, and to do all other Things mentioned with reference to the said Inquiry and Trial at the Court at or before which the Prisoner shall be indicted or tried under the Provisions of this Act, in like Manner as if such Recognizance had been originally entered into for prosecuting such Offence, or giving Evidence, or doing other Things before the said last-mentioned Court; provided that Notice in Writing shall have been given either personally, or by leaving the same at the Place of Residence as of which the Parties bound by such Recognizance are therein described, to appear before the said last-mentioned Court upon the Inquiry into and Trial of the said Offence ; and the Prosecutor is hereby required, on Notice given to him that such Order as is mentioned in the First Section of this Act has been made, to give such Notice or Notices in Writing as are in this Section mentioned.

Power to compel Witnesses to attend Trials.

10. Whenever any Indictment shall have been found at any Court under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court to issue Process to compel the Attendance of Witnesses, as well on the Part of the Prosecution as on the Part of the Defence, on the Trial of such Indictment, in like Manner as in Cases of Indictments found at the said Court for Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Court ; and every such Process shall and may be lawfully executed at any Place in that Part of the United Kingdom wherein the Gaol to which the Prisoner shall have been removed under the Provisions of this Act shall be situate.

Expenses of Prosecution and Rewards may be ordered to be paid.

11. Whenever any Indictment shall have been found at any Court under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order such Expenses of the Prosecutor and Witnesses, and such other Expenses, and such of the several Rewards payable in pursuance of any Statute made or to be made as to such Court may seem reasonable and sufficient, to be paid forthwith by the proper Officer of the said Court, and such Monies shall be repaid to the said Officer by the same Persons who would have been liable to pay the same, as if such Court were holden under Commissions of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the County or Place in which the Prisoner was committed.

Power to order Payment of Expenses of Prisoner's Witnesses.

12. Whenever any Prisoner shall be tried at any Court under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices, Judges, or Commissioners of the said Court before whom any such Prisoner shall be tried, or for any Two or more of them, if it shall seem reasonable so to do, to order the Payment of the Expenses of the Witnesses on the Part of the Defence, and such Payment shall be made accordingly in the same Manner in all respects as if such Witnesses were Witnesses on the Part of the Prosecution ; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall, upon Receipt of such last-mentioned Order, and out of any Monies provided by Parliament for Law Charges in England or Ireland, as the Case may be, repay such Sum or Sums as shall be therein specified to the Person who shall have paid the same.

No Proof to be required of due Removal of Prisoner.

13. Whenever any such Order shall have been made as is mentioned in the First Section of this Act, it shall not be necessary for any Purpose whatsoever to prove that the Prisoner has been duly removed to the Gaol of Newgate or the Richmond Bridewell under the Provisions of this Act, or that he was committed for the Murder or Manslaughter of the Deceased ; and no Evidence or Proof to the contrary shall be admitted : And every Verdict and Judgment which shall be given upon any Indictment tried under the Provisions of this Act shall be deemed as good, valid, and sufficient in Law as if the Offence charged in such Indictment had been actually committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Court before which such Indictment shall be tried.

Verdicts and Judgments to be valid.

14. Whenever

14. Whenever any Person shall have been removed into the Custody of the said Keeper of the said Gaol of Newgate or of the Richmond Bridewell under the Provisions of this Act, such Person shall, without Writ of Habeas corpus or other Writ for that Purpose, be removed into and from the Court at or before which such Indictment shall be found, tried, or proceeded upon, when and as often as it may be necessary, by the Keeper of the said Gaol of Newgate or of the Richmond Bridewell, with his Commitment and Detainer, in order that he may be tried, sentenced, or otherwise dealt with according to Law; and such Removal shall not be deemed an Escape.

The Prisoner may be removed to and from the Central Criminal Court as often as necessary.

15. Whenever any Indictment shall have been found under the Provisions of this Act, the Justices, Judges, or Commissioners of the Court at or before which such Indictment shall be found, tried, or proceeded upon for the Time being, or any Two or more of them, shall possess the same Power, Jurisdiction, and Authority as to all Matters and Things whatsoever as if the Offence charged in the said Indictment had actually been committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and every such Offence may be dealt with, tried, and determined by and before such Justices, Judges, or Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, in the same Manner in all respects as if the same had actually been committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Court: Provided that nothing in this Section contained shall limit or lessen any Power, Jurisdiction, or Authority conferred upon the said Justices, Judges, or Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, by this Act.

Court before which Indictment found to have the same Authority as if the Offence had been committed within its Jurisdiction.

16. The Provisions of the Twenty-first Section of the said Act made and passed in the Nineteenth Year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria shall apply to every Prisoner removed to any Gaol under the Provisions of this Act, in the same Manner in all respects and for all Intents and Purposes as if such Prisoner had been so removed as in any of the preceding Sections of the said Act is mentioned, and as if that Section had been re-enacted herein with reference to Prisoners removed to any Gaol under the Provisions of this Act; and where any Person shall have been removed to any Gaol under the Provisions of this Act, the Provisions of the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Sections of the same Act shall apply in the same Manner in all respects as in the Case where any Person shall have been removed or committed to the said Gaol of Newgate under the Provisions of the said Act.

Sects. 21. 27, and 28 of 19 Vict. c. 16. extended to this Act.

17. Whenever any Prosecutor and Witnesses in any Case where any Indictment shall have been found under the Provisions of this Act shall appear before the Court at or before which such Indictment shall be found, tried, or proceeded upon, it shall be lawful for such Court, from Time to Time and as often as to the same Court shall seem fit, to require such Prosecutor and Witnesses to enter into such Recognizance in such Sum of Money, and with such Condition as to Appearance at the said Court, and otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem fit.

Prosecutor and Witnesses may be bound by Recognizances to appear again before the said Court.

deliver the Certificate to the Applicant, who may thereupon, within Ten Days from the Time of the Delivery thereof, transmit the same to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, if the Application is for a Licence in England or Scotland, and to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor if the Application is for a Licence in Ireland, together with a Memorial, praying that, notwithstanding such Refusal, the Licence may be granted, or that such Conditions may not be imposed, or may be altered or modified in such Manner and to such Extent as may be set forth in such Memorial; and it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State, Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor, if he think fit, on consideration of such Memorial and Certificate, and if he think it necessary or desirable, after due Inquiry from and a Report by such Person as he may appoint for that Purpose, to grant the Licence prayed for, either absolutely, or with such Conditions as he thinks fit, or to alter or modify the Conditions imposed by the Local Authority; and the Licence so granted, or altered and modified, as the Case may be, when certified under the Hand of the said Secretary of State, Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor, shall be to all Intents as valid as if granted by the Local Authority.

Forfeitures and Penalties in England and Ireland.

7. Any Forfeiture or Penalty for an Offence against this Act may be enforced in England and Ireland upon summary Conviction before any Two Justices; and one Moiety of the Forfeiture and Penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Informer, unless the Informer is a Servant of the Person informed against, in which Case the Moiety of the Forfeiture or Penalty which would otherwise belong to the Informer shall be applied in such Manner and to such other Purposes as the Justices in their or his Discretion may think fit.

Recovery of Forfeitures and Penalties in Scotland.

8. Any Forfeiture or Penalty for an Offence against this Act may be enforced in Scotland upon summary Conviction, at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal, before any Sheriff, or before any Two Justices of the County, or before the Magistrates or any Police Magistrate of the Burgh in which the Offence was committed, who may sentence the Offender to Imprisonment, until such Forfeiture or Penalty and the Expenses of Conviction are paid, for a Period not exceeding Three Months; and one Moiety of such Forfeiture or Penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, and the other Moiety shall be applied in such Manner and to such Purposes as such Sheriff, Justices, Magistrates, or Magistrate in their or his Discretion may think fit.

Search for Petroleum.

9. Petroleum may be searched for in the same Manner, under the same Warrants, and subject to the same Conditions in, under, and subject to which Gunpowder may be searched for, in pursuance of the Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirty-nine; and all the Provisions of the said Act relating to searching for Gunpowder shall be incorporated with this Act, and be construed as if the Word "Gunpowder" in such Provisions included Petroleum as defined by this Act, and as if the Act therein referred to were this Act.

Petroleum.Declaration of Title.

10. All Powers given by this Act shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in derogation of any other Powers conferred on any Local Authority by Act of Parliament, Law, or Custom, and the Local Authority may exercise such other Powers in the same Manner as if this Act had not passed ; and nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to exempt any Person from any Penalty to which he would otherwise be subject in respect of a Nuisance.

Reservation of previous Powers with respect to inflammable Substances.

C A P. LXVII.

An Act for obtaining a Declaration of Title.

[29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Persons having Interests in Land to obtain in certain Cases a Judicial Declaration of their Title to the same, so as to enable them to make an indefeasible Title to Persons claiming under them as Purchasers for a valuable Consideration :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. Every Person claiming to be entitled to Land in possession for an Estate in Fee Simple, either absolutely or subject to any Incumbrances, Estates, Rights, or Interests, vested or contingent, or claiming to have a Power of disposing of Land for his own Benefit for an Estate in Fee Simple in possession, either absolutely or subject to any Incumbrances, Estates, Rights, or Interests vested or contingent, and every Person entitled to apply for the Registration of an indefeasible Title to the Registrar appointed under any Act which may be passed in the present Session for the Registration of Real Estates and the Title thereto, may apply to the Court of Chancery by Petition in a summary Way for a Declaration of Title under this Act.

Parties claiming to be entitled to Land may petition Court of Chancery for Declaration of Title.

2. Every such Petition shall state what Incumbrances, Estates, Rights, and Interests, if any, the Petitioner admits to affect his Title, and subject to which he seeks to have his Title declared, and shall be in such Form as the Court shall by General Order direct.

Petition to set forth Particulars affecting Title.

3. Any Two or more Persons claiming to have together such Estate or Interest in Land as would have enabled any One Person to petition as aforesaid may join in such a Petition, and such Proceedings shall be had thereupon as in the Case of a single Petitioner.

Two Persons interested may jointly petition.

4. No such Petition shall be admitted as to Lands of Copyhold or Customary Tenure.

As to Copyhold, &c. Lands.

5. It shall be lawful for the Court, by General Order or otherwise, if it shall think fit, to require that the Registrar who may be appointed under any Act passed during the present Session for the Registration of Real Estates and the Title thereto shall be served with Notice of such Petition, and the Registrar shall thereupon be made a Party to and attend the Proceedings on such Court may require to be served with Petition.

Declaration of Title.

such Petition, and the Costs thereby properly incurred shall be paid by the Petitioner.

Court may investigate Petitioner's Title.

6. The Court, on the Hearing of any such Petition, on being satisfied that the Petitioner has proved such a Possession, and has stated such a Title as, if established, would entitle him to a Declaration under this Act, shall make an Order for the Investigation of the Title in the same Way as if the Petitioner had obtained as Vendor a Decree for a specific Performance of an Agreement for Sale of the Land in question for the Estate claimed in his Petition.

If Court dissatisfied, Petition to be dismissed.

7. If the Court, on such Investigation, shall not be satisfied that the Petitioner has shown such a Title as it would have compelled an unwilling Purchaser to accept, then it shall dismiss the Petition, but subject to the Right of Appeal herein-after mentioned.

When Investigation is satisfactory, Court may order a Declaration of Title to be made.

8. In case the Court is satisfied after such an Investigation that the Petitioner has shown such a Title as it would have compelled an unwilling Purchaser to accept, it shall, on the Conditions herein-after mentioned being complied with, make an Order that on some Day, not less than Three Months from the Date of the Order, a Declaration shall be made establishing the Petitioner's Title, unless in the meantime Cause is shown to the contrary; and the Court may enlarge the Time for so showing Cause as often as it may deem proper.

Order not to be made until Security for Costs is given.

9. No such Order shall be made until the Petitioner shall have given Security to the Satisfaction of the Court for Payment of all Costs, if any, which may be awarded to any Person who may oppose the Petitioner's Right to the Declaration prayed for.

Before Order is made Petitioner to file Affidavit that all Documents have been produced.

10. No such Order shall be made until the Petitioner and his Solicitor, and any other Person whom the Court may require, shall have made and filed an Affidavit that to the best of their respective Knowledge, Information, and Belief all Settlements, Deeds, Documents, Instruments, Maps, Plans, and Papers relating to the Title to the Land in question have been produced to the Court, or the Cause of their Non-production has been fully and fairly explained, and that all Facts material to the Title have been fully and fairly disclosed to the Court: Provided always, that the Court may dispense with such Affidavit either from the Petitioner or his Solicitor when it shall think it reasonable so to do, or may permit the same to be modified as Circumstances may seem to require.

Notice of Order to be advertised in Newspapers.

11. The Petitioner after obtaining such Order shall give Notice of the same by Advertisement in such Newspapers and at such Times as the Court may direct, and in any other Manner which the Court may deem expedient for the Purpose of informing all Persons interested thereof, and as may be directed by any General or Special Order in that Behalf.

Court may hear Petition against Declaration of Title, or reserve Rights.

12. Any Person may, at any Time before the proposed Declaration of Title has been made, petition the Court in a summary Way to be heard against the making thereof, and the Court shall thereupon fix a Time for the Hearing of such Petition, and shall,

Declaration of Title.

if necessary, enlarge the Time for making the Declaration until such Petition shall have been disposed of.

13. On the Hearing of such Petition the Court may introduce such Restrictions or Qualifications in the Title sought to be declared as the Justice of the Case requires, or may reserve the Rights of any Person or Class of Persons, or may refuse to make any Declaration of Title.

May refuse Declaration of Title, &c. ;

14. If it shall appear to the Court that all or any of the Title Deeds relating to the Land in question have been lost or destroyed, the Court may, if it shall think fit, reserve the Rights of all Persons under any such lost or destroyed Deeds.

May reserve Rights under lost Deeds.

15. If no Petition has been presented against the proposed Declaration of Title within the Time in that Behalf limited, or if, having been presented, the Court shall be of opinion that no sufficient Ground has been shown for refusing to make a Declaration of Title, then the Court shall, after the Expiration of the Time limited for showing Cause, upon being satisfied that the required Notices have been duly given, and that all other Requisitions have been duly complied with, make a Declaration that the original Petitioner has such Title to the Land in question as he sought to establish by his Petition, or such Title, subject to any Restrictions, Reservations, or Qualifications which it may deem necessary or proper to introduce.

Where Court sees no Reason for Refusal, Declaration of Title to be made.

16. Any Person may, at any Time within Six Months from the making of any such Declaration, appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal in Chancery ; and such Court shall on the Hearing of the Appeal make an Order confirming, varying, or annulling the Declaration as it may see fit ; but if there is no such Appeal, then the said Declaration shall, at the Expiration of the said Six Months, become final for the Purposes of this Act.

Appeal may be made to Court of Appeal within Six Months after Declaration.

17. Any Person may appeal from any such Order of the Court of Appeal to the House of Lords at any Time within Six Months from the making thereof, and the said House may make an Order confirming, varying, or annulling the said Declaration as to them shall seem just ; but if there is no such Appeal, then the Declaration, as approved by the said Court of Appeal in Chancery, shall at the Expiration of the said Six Months become final for the Purposes of this Act.

Parties may appeal from Court of Appeal to House of Lords.

18. In case of any such Appeal as aforesaid to the House of Lords, the Declaration of Title as finally approved by them shall become final for the Purposes of this Act.

Declaration of Title as approved by them shall be final.

19. In case the Court shall have dismissed the original Petition on the Ground that the Petitioner had not shown such a Title as it would have compelled an unwilling Purchaser to accept, or if, on the Hearing of any Petition against the making of the Declaration of Title prayed for, the Court shall have refused to make any Declaration of Title, the original Petitioner shall have the same Rights of Appeal to the Court of Appeal in Chancery and to the House of Lords as is herein-before given to any Person appealing against a Declaration of Title actually made.

Where Court refuses Title, Petitioner may appeal to Court of Appeal and House of Lords.

20. The Declaration of Title, when it has in manner aforesaid become final for the Purposes of this Act, shall not be set aside Declaration of Title not to be set aside for Informality.

Declaration of Title.

or called in question by reason of any Irregularity or Informality in the Proceedings previous to the making thereof.

To be registered as an indefeasible Title.

21. Every Declaration of Title made under this Act may, at the Option of the Person obtaining the same, be registered as an indefeasible Title under any Act which may be passed in the present Session of Parliament for the Registration of Real Estates and the Title thereto.

Certificate of Court to be given to Party obtaining final Declaration.

22. Any Person who has obtained in manner aforesaid a final Declaration of Title shall be entitled to receive from the Court, on Payment of the proper Fees, and on Production of his Title Deeds for the Purpose next herein-after mentioned, a Certificate under the Seal of the Court setting forth the Title so declared, and further stating that the Time for appealing has expired, and such Certificate shall be conclusive Evidence of the Facts therein stated.

Production of Deeds before sealing of Certificate.

23. Before any such Certificate shall be sealed the Petitioner shall produce to the Court such of his Deeds and Muniments of Title as the Court shall require, and the same shall be stamped or marked by the Officer issuing the Certificate in such Manner as the Court shall by General Orders direct, for the Purpose of showing that a Declaration of Title has been made as to the Land therein comprised, or as to such Part thereof as is comprised in the Declaration.

Declaration of Title to be deemed to have correctly declared Land therein referred to.

24. Such Declaration of Title, as soon as it shall have become final for the Purposes of this Act, shall in favour of any Person thereafter deriving Title as a Purchaser for valuable Consideration of the Land therein referred to, or of any Part thereof, or of any Estate, Right, or Interest therein, by, from, through, or under the Person whose Title has been so declared, be deemed and taken to have correctly declared the same, but save as aforesaid such Declaration shall have no Force or Effect whatever as to the Title of the Land comprised therein.

Court may make separate Declarations, &c. of Title.

25. Instead of a single Declaration of Title, or a single Certificate, the Court may, on the Application of the Petitioner, make separate Declarations, or give separate Certificates as to the Title of separate Parts of the Land referred to in the Petition.

Court may cancel original Certificate, and give Certificates to separate Parts of Land comprised in cancelled Certificate.

26. If for the Purpose of a Sale or other Disposition of the Land comprised in any Certificate of Title, or of any Part thereof, the Holder of any such Certificate shall be desirous of having separate Certificates of Title relating to separate Portions of the Land, it shall be lawful for the Court, on Petition by such Holder, to order his Certificate to be cancelled, and in lieu thereof to give to him separate Certificates for separate Parts of the Land comprised in the Certificate so cancelled; and every such separate Certificate shall refer to and state the Date of the cancelled Certificate, and shall have the same Effect as to the Land therein comprised as if it had been given at the Time of such Date, but no such Substitution of Certificates shall in any way prejudice or affect the Title of any Person who shall previously thereto have become entitled to any Part of the Land comprised in the original Certificate, or any Interest in the same.

27. Whenever

Declaration of Title.

- 27. Whenever any such Substitution of Certificates shall take place the Land mentioned in every such separate Certificate may be entered upon the Register of Estates with an indefeasible Title, under any such Act for the Registration of Real Estates and the Title thereto as aforesaid; and in that Case any Transactions relating thereto shall, subject to any Regulations to the contrary that may be made by General Order, thenceforth form a separate Record in the Register, distinguished by a separate Number, or in such other Manner as the Registrar may determine.
- 28. If any Certificate of Title shall be lost or destroyed, the Court may issue a fresh Certificate in lieu of that so lost or destroyed, expressing on the Face thereof that it is a Duplicate, but no such fresh Certificate shall be of any avail against any Person who may have already derived Title under the original Certificate.
- 29. The Declaration of Title shall not affect any of the Claims, Rights, or Matters herein-after mentioned, that is to say :
 Land Tax, Succession Duty, Tithe Rentcharge, Rights of Common, Rents payable to the Crown, public Rights of Way, Liability to repair Highways by reason of Tenure, Rights of Way, Watercourses, Rights of Water and other Easements, or Servitudes, Manorial Rights and Franchises, Leases or Agreements for Leases for any Term not exceeding Twenty-one Years where there is Occupation under the same.
- 30. From and after the Registration of any Land, as to which any such Declaration of Title as aforesaid shall have been made, in the herein-before mentioned Register of Estates with an indefeasible Title, such Land shall be subject to the Provisions of any such Act for the Registration of Real Estates and the Title thereto as aforesaid, in the same Manner as if the Registration thereof had been made by virtue of Proceedings duly taken under such last-mentioned Act.
- 31. If, at any Time after any such Declaration of Title as aforesaid has been made, any Person shall consider himself to be aggrieved thereby, it shall be lawful for him to present a Petition praying that the same may be recalled or varied in such Manner as may be just, and the Court shall thereupon proceed in the Hearing of such Petition in the same Manner as if the same had been presented before the Declaration of Title had been made, and the Court may, on the Hearing of the said Petition, annul the Declaration and order the Certificate or Certificates to be given up to be cancelled, or may make such Variations therein as it may deem just, and may, if it shall think fit, also direct the Registry thereof, if made, to be cancelled; but no Proceeding on any such Petition shall prejudice or affect the Title of any Person who before any such annulling or Variation shall have acquired a Title under the said Declaration as a Purchaser for valuable Consideration of the said Land or of any Estate or Interest therein.

To prevent dealing with Land until Petition disposed of.

32. The Court may, on the Hearing of any such last-mentioned Petition, make any Order which it may deem just, restraining the Person who has obtained the Declaration, and all Persons claiming by, through, from, or under him otherwise than as a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, from in any Manner dealing with the said Land until such Petition shall have been disposed of.

Proceedings on Petition liable to Appeal.

33. All Proceedings on any such Petition shall be liable to the same Right of Appeal as in the Case of Petitions presented before such Declaration of Title was made.

Power to Court to order Costs.

34. The Court shall have Power to order Costs either as between Party and Party or as between Solicitor and Client to be paid by and to any Person, Party to any Proceeding under this Act, and to give Directions as to the Fund out of which such Costs shall be paid.

Person alienating to invest Trust Money in Purchase of Lands to be settled to certain Uses.

35. ‘ And whereas it may happen that at the Time of making such Declaration of Title as aforesaid there may be Estates, Rights, or Interests in the Land which may not be saved by the Declaration, and the Persons entitled to such Estates, Rights, or Interests may be damnified by the subsequent Alienation of the Land for valuable Consideration:’ Be it therefore enacted, That all Money received by the Person so alienating shall be deemed to have been received by him in trust to invest the same in the Purchase of Lands to be settled to the Uses and on the Trusts to and on which the Lands so alienated stood limited at the Time of such Alienation: Provided always, that this Clause shall not be deemed to impose any Liability on any Person who may have received any Money on such Alienation as a Trustee, so far as relates to Money which he may have duly applied in execution of the Trusts reposed in him.

Provision as to married Women.

36. Where any married Woman is desirous of making any Application, giving any Consent, or doing any Act, or becoming Party to any Proceeding under this Act, her Husband’s Concurrence shall be required, and she shall be examined apart from her Husband touching her Knowledge of the Nature and Effect of the Application or other Act, and it shall be ascertained that she is acting freely and voluntarily; and such Examination may be taken by the Court or such Persons as are authorized to take Acknowledgments of Deeds by married Women under the Act of the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-four, “ for the Abolition “ of Fines and Recoveries, and for the Substitution of more “ simple Modes of Assurance;” and the Form and Manner in which such Examination shall be certified to the Court shall be determined by the General Rules and Orders to be made under this Act: Provided always, that a married Woman entitled to her separate Use, and not restrained from Anticipation, shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed a Feme Sole.

Power to Lord Chancellor to appoint additional Clerks.

42. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time to appoint such additional Clerks as to him may seem necessary for enabling the Court duly to execute the Duties imposed on it; and every such additional Clerk shall receive out of the Suitors Fee Fund such Salary as the Lord Chancellor, with the Consent of the Lords of the Treasury, may think proper.

Rules and Orders to be laid before Parliament.

43. All General Rules and Orders made as aforesaid, including all Orders for the Appointment of any additional Clerks, shall, immediately after the making and issuing thereof, be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting, within Twenty-one Days after the next Meeting thereof; and it shall be lawful for either House of Parliament, by any Resolution passed within Six Weeks after such Rules or Orders have been laid before it, to resolve that the same or any Part thereof ought not to continue in force, and thereupon the same shall cease to be binding.

Penalty on making false Statement and Suppression of Deeds and Evidence.

44. If in the course of any Proceeding before the Court under this Act any Person acting either as Principal or Agent shall, knowingly and with Intent to deceive, make or assist or join in or be privy to the making of any material false Statement or Representation, or suppress, conceal, or assist or join in or be privy to the suppressing, withholding, or concealing from the Court any material Document, Fact, or Matter of Information, every Person so acting shall be deemed to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and on Conviction shall be liable to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Years, and either with or without Hard Labour, or to be fined such Sum as the Court by which he is convicted shall award: The Order or Declaration of Title obtained by means of such Fraud or Falsehood shall be null and void for or against all Persons other than a Purchaser for valuable Consideration without Notice.

Penalty on fraudulent Alterations, &c.

45. If in the course of any Proceeding before the Court under this Act any Person shall fraudulently forge or alter or assist in forging or altering any Certificate or other Document relating to such Land or to the Title thereof, or shall fraudulently offer, utter, dispose of, or put off any such Certificate or other Document, knowing the same to be forged or altered, such Person shall be guilty of Felony, and upon Conviction shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court by which he is convicted, to be kept in Penal Servitude for Life or for any Term not less than Three Years, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Two Years, with or without Hard Labour, and with or without Solitary Confinement.

Conviction not to affect Civil Remedy.

46. No Proceeding or Conviction for any Act hereby declared to be a Misdemeanor shall affect any Remedy which any Person aggrieved by such Act may be entitled to, either at Law or in Equity, against the Person who has committed such Act.

Enactment of Penalty not to exclude Obligation to make Discovery.

47. Nothing in this Act contained shall entitle any Person to refuse to make a complete Discovery by Answer to any Bill in Equity, or to answer any Question or Interrogatory in any Civil Proceeding,

Declaration of Title.

Proceeding, in any Court of Law or Equity, or in the Court of Bankruptcy; but no Answer to any such Bill, Question, or Interrogatory shall be admissible in Evidence against such Person in any Criminal Proceeding.

48. In the Construction of this Act (except where the Context or other Provisions of the Act require a different Construction) the Word "Person" shall include a Body Politic or Corporate; the Word "Possession" shall include Receipt of the Rents and Profits; and the Word "Land" shall not include any incorporeal Hereditaments, but shall include all corporeal Tenements and Hereditaments not expressly excepted.

Construction of Terms, &c. in this Act:
"Person:"
"Possession:"
"Land."

49. This Act shall relate to England only, and shall come into operation on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and may be cited as "The Declaration of Title Act, 1862."

Short Title.

SCHEDULE.

1. Every Petition for a Declaration of Title shall contain an exact Description in their actual State of the Lands as to which the Declaration is sought, stating particularly the Boundaries thereof, and the Lands on which the same and every Part thereof abut, and, so far as conveniently may be, the Names and Descriptions of the Owners and Occupiers of such last-mentioned Lands.

2. On the Investigation of the Title to the Lands as to which the Declaration is sought, the Identity of the Lands described in the Petition, with the Parcels as described in the Title Deeds, shall be established by Affidavit or otherwise, as the Court may deem just.

3. The Court may, if it shall deem it necessary or proper, require the Petitioner to lodge in Court a Map or Plan of the Lands in question.

4. The Petitioner, after obtaining the Order for a Declaration of Title, shall cause a Copy thereof, together with the Description of the Lands in question, with any engraved or lithographed Plan thereof (if any exists) to be served on every adjoining Occupier and Owner, or on such of them and on such other Persons (if any) as the Court may direct to be so served.

5. He shall also cause a Copy or Copies thereof to be deposited in some Office or Place, Offices or Places, to be appointed by the Court on or near to the Lands in question, to be accessible at all reasonable Times to all Persons desirous of examining the same, and Notice of every such Deposit shall be affixed in some Public Place or Places on or near to the Lands in question.

6. Every such Copy served on any adjoining Occupier or Owner, or deposited as aforesaid, shall state that any Person wishing to show Cause against the making of the proposed Declaration may do so by presenting a Petition in a summary Way to the Court of Chancery at any Time before the Day appointed for making the proposed Declaration.

7. The Petitioner, after such Deposit shall have been made, shall cause Advertisements to be inserted Three Times at least in such Newspapers on such Days as the Court shall direct, stating the said Order, and stating also where any Copy has been so deposited for Inspection.

8. Unless the last of such Advertisements is made within Four Weeks next after the Date of the Order, the Time thereby fixed for showing Cause against the same shall be enlarged for One Calendar Month, or such further Time as the Court shall direct.

C A P. LXVIII.

An Act for amending the Law relating to Copyright in Works of the Fine Arts, and for repressing the Commission of Fraud in the Production and Sale of such Works. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS by Law, as now established, the Authors of Paintings, Drawings, and Photographs have no Copyright in such their Works, and it is expedient that the Law should in that respect be amended:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Author, being a British Subject or resident within the Dominions of the Crown, of every original Painting, Drawing, and Photograph which shall be or shall have been made either in the British Dominions or elsewhere, and which shall not have been sold or disposed of before the Commencement of this Act, and his Assigns, shall have the sole and exclusive Right of copying, engraving, reproducing, and multiplying such Painting or Drawing, and the Design thereof, or such Photograph, and the Negative thereof, by any Means and of any Size, for the Term of the natural Life of such Author, and Seven Years after his Death ; provided that when any Painting or Drawing, or the Negative of any Photograph, shall for the First Time after the passing of this Act be sold or disposed of, or shall be made or executed for or on behalf of any other Person for a good or a valuable Consideration, the Person so selling or disposing of or making or executing the same shall not retain the Copyright thereof, unless it be expressly reserved to him by Agreement in Writing, signed, at or before the Time of such Sale or Disposition, by the Vendee or Assignee of such Painting or Drawing, or of such Negative of a Photograph, or by the Person for or on whose Behalf the same shall be so made or executed, but the Copyright shall belong to the Vendee or Assignee of such Painting or Drawing, or of such Negative of a Photograph, or to the Person for or on whose Behalf the same shall have been made or executed ; nor shall the Vendee or Assignee thereof be entitled to any such Copyright, unless at or before the Time of such Sale or Disposition, an Agreement in Writing, signed by the Person so selling or disposing of the same, or by his Agent duly authorized, shall have been made to that Effect.

Copyright in Works here-after made or sold to vest in the Author for his Life and for Seven Years after his Death.

Copyright (Works of Art).

2. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice the Right of any Person to copy or use any Work in which there shall be no Copyright, or to represent any Scene or Object, notwithstanding that there may be Copyright in some Representation of such Scene or Object.

Not to prejudice certain Rights.

3. All Copyright under this Act shall be deemed Personal or Moveable Estate, and shall be assignable at Law, and every Assignment thereof, and every Licence to use or copy by any Means or Process the Design or Work which shall be the Subject of such Copyright, shall be made by some Note or Memorandum in Writing, to be signed by the Proprietor of the Copyright, or by his Agent appointed for that Purpose in Writing.

Assignments, Licences, &c. to be in Writing.

4. There shall be kept at the Hall of the Stationers Company, by the Officer appointed by the said Company for the Purposes of the Act passed in the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Law of Copyright, a Book or Books, entitled "The Register of Proprietors of Copyright in Paintings, Drawings, and Photographs," wherein shall be entered a Memorandum of every Copyright to which any Person shall be entitled under this Act, and also of every subsequent Assignment of any such Copyright; and such Memorandum shall contain a Statement of the Date of such Agreement or Assignment, and of the Names of the Parties thereto, and of the Name and Place of Abode of the Person in whom such Copyright shall be vested by virtue thereof, and of the Name and Place of Abode of the Author of the Work in which there shall be such Copyright, together with a short Description of the Nature and Subject of such Work, and in addition thereto, if the Person registering shall so desire, a Sketch, Outline, or Photograph of the said Work, and no Proprietor of any such Copyright shall be entitled to the Benefit of this Act until such Registration, and no Action shall be sustainable nor any Penalty be recoverable in respect of anything done before Registration.

Register of Proprietors of Copyright in Paintings, Drawings, and Photographs to be kept at Stationers Hall as in 5 & 6 Vict. c. 45.

5. The several Enactments in the said Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty contained, with relation to keeping the Register Book thereby required, and the Inspection thereof, the Searches therein, and the Delivery of certified and stamped Copies thereof, the Reception of such Copies in Evidence, the making of false Entries in the said Book, and the Production in Evidence of Papers falsely purporting to be Copies of Entries in the said Book, the Application to the Courts and Judges by Persons aggrieved by Entries in the said Book, and the expunging and varying such Entries, shall apply to the Book or Books to be kept by virtue of this Act, and to the Entries and Assignments of Copyright and Proprietorship therein under this Act, in such and the same Manner as if such Enactments were here expressly enacted in relation thereto, save and except that the Forms of Entry prescribed by the said Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty may be varied to meet the Circumstances of the Case, and that the Sum to be demanded by the Officer of the said Company of Stationers for making any Entry required by this Act shall be One Shilling only.

Certain Enactments of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 45. to apply to the Books to be kept under this Act.

Copyright (Works of Art).

Penalties on Infringement of Copyright.

6. If the Author of any Painting, Drawing, or Photograph in which there shall be subsisting Copyright, after having sold or disposed of such Copyright, or if any other Person, not being the Proprietor for the Time being of Copyright in any Painting, Drawing, or Photograph, shall, without the Consent of such Proprietor, repeat, copy, colourably imitate, or otherwise multiply for Sale, Hire, Exhibition, or Distribution, or cause or procure to be repeated, copied, colourably imitated, or otherwise multiplied for Sale, Hire, Exhibition, or Distribution, any such Work or the Design thereof, or, knowing that any such Repetition, Copy, or other Imitation has been unlawfully made, shall import into any Part of the United Kingdom, or sell, publish, let to Hire, exhibit, or distribute, or offer for Sale, Hire, Exhibition, or Distribution, or cause or procure to be imported, sold, published, let to Hire, distributed, or offered for Sale, Hire, Exhibition, or Distribution, any Repetition, Copy, or Imitation of the said Work, or of the Design thereof, made without such Consent as aforesaid, such Person for every such Offence shall forfeit to the Proprietor of the Copyright for the Time being a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and all such Repetitions, Copies, and Imitations made without such Consent as aforesaid, and all Negatives of Photographs made for the Purpose of obtaining such Copies, shall be forfeited to the Proprietor of the Copyright.

Penalties on fraudulent Productions and Sales.

7. No Person shall do or cause to be done any or either of the following Acts; that is to say,

First, no Person shall fraudulently sign or otherwise affix, or fraudulently cause to be signed or otherwise affixed, to or upon any Painting, Drawing, or Photograph, or the Negative thereof, any Name, Initials, or Monogram:

Secondly, no Person shall fraudulently sell, publish, exhibit, or dispose of, or offer for Sale, Exhibition, or Distribution, any Painting, Drawing, or Photograph, or Negative of a Photograph, having thereon the Name, Initials, or Monogram of a Person who did not execute or make such Work:

Thirdly, no Person shall fraudulently utter, dispose of, or put off, or cause to be uttered or disposed of, any Copy or colourable Imitation of any Painting, Drawing, or Photograph, or Negative of a Photograph, whether there shall be subsisting Copyright therein or not, as having been made or executed by the Author or Maker of the original Work from which such Copy or Imitation shall have been taken:

Fourthly, where the Author or Maker of any Painting, Drawing, or Photograph, or Negative of a Photograph, made either before or after the passing of this Act, shall have sold or otherwise parted with the Possession of such Work, if any Alteration shall afterwards be made therein by any other Person, by Addition or otherwise, no Person shall be at liberty during the Life of the Author or Maker of such Work, without his Consent, to make or knowingly to sell or publish, or offer for Sale, such Work or any Copies of such Work so altered as aforesaid, or of any Part thereof, as or for the unaltered Work of such Author or Maker.

Copyright (Works of Art).

Every Offender under this Section shall, upon Conviction, forfeit to the Person aggrieved a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, or not exceeding double the full Price, if any, at which all such Copies, Engravings, Imitations, or altered Works shall have been sold or offered for Sale; and all such Copies, Engravings, Imitations, or altered Works shall be forfeited to the Person, or the Assigns or legal Representatives of the Person, whose Name, Initials, or Monogram shall be so fraudulently signed or affixed thereto, or to whom such spurious or altered Work shall be so fraudulently or falsely ascribed as aforesaid: Provided always, that the Penalties imposed by this Section shall not be incurred unless the Person whose Name, Initials, or Monogram shall be so fraudulently signed or affixed, or to whom such spurious or altered Work shall be so fraudulently or falsely ascribed as aforesaid, shall have been living at or within Twenty Years next before the Time when the Offence may have been committed.

8. All pecuniary Penalties which shall be incurred, and all such unlawful Copies, Imitations, and all other Effects and Things as shall have been forfeited by Offenders, pursuant to this Act, and pursuant to any Act for the Protection of Copyright Engravings, may be recovered by the Person herein-before and in any such Act as aforesaid empowered to recover the same respectively, and herein-after called the Complainant or the Complainer, as follows:

In England and Ireland, either by Action against the Party offending, or by summary Proceeding before any Two Justices having Jurisdiction where the Party offending resides:

In Scotland by Action before the Court of Session in ordinary Form, or by summary Action before the Sheriff of the County where the Offence may be committed or the Offender resides, who, upon Proof of the Offence or Offences, either by Confession of the Party offending, or by the Oath or Affirmation of One or more credible Witnesses, shall convict the Offender, and find him liable to the Penalty or Penalties aforesaid, as also in Expenses, and it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, in pronouncing such Judgment for the Penalty or Penalties and Costs, to insert in such Judgment a Warrant, in the event of such Penalty or Penalties and Costs not being paid, to levy and recover the Amount of the same by Pounding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful to the Sheriff, in the event of his dismissing the Action and assoilzicing the Defender, to find the Complainer liable in Expenses, and any Judgment so to be pronounced by the Sheriff in such summary Application shall be final and conclusive, and not subject to Review by Advocation, Suspension, Reduction, or otherwise.

9. In any Action in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record at Westminster and in Dublin, for the Infringement of any such Copyright as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Action is pending, if the Court be then sitting, or if the Court be not sitting then for a Judge of such Court, on the Court in which Action is pending may make Order for Injunction, &c.

the Application of the Plaintiff or Defendant respectively, to make such Order for an Injunction, Inspection, or Account, and to give such Direction respecting such Action, Injunction, Inspection, and Account, and the Proceedings therein respectively, as to such Court or Judge may seem fit.

Importation of pirated Works
prohibited.

10. All Repetitions, Copies, or Imitations of Paintings, Drawings, or Photographs, wherein or in the Design whereof there shall be subsisting Copyright under this Act, and all Repetitions, Copies, and Imitations of the Design of any such Painting or Drawing, or of the Negative of any such Photograph, which, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall have been made in any Foreign State, or in any Part of the British Dominions, are hereby absolutely prohibited to be imported into any Part of the United Kingdom, except by or with the Consent of the Proprietor of the Copyright thereof, or his Agent authorized in Writing; and if the Proprietor of any such Copyright, or his Agent, shall declare that any Goods imported are Repetitions, Copies, or Imitations of any such Painting, Drawing, or Photograph, or of the Negative of any such Photograph, and so prohibited as aforesaid, then such Goods may be detained by the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs.

Application in such Cases of Customs Acts.

Saving of Right to bring Action for Damages.

11. If the Author of any Painting, Drawing, or Photograph, in which there shall be subsisting Copyright, after having sold or otherwise disposed of such Copyright, or if any other Person, not being the Proprietor for the Time being of such Copyright, shall, without the Consent of such Proprietor, repeat, copy, colourably imitate, or otherwise multiply, or cause or procure to be repeated, copied, colourably imitated, or otherwise multiplied for Sale, Hire, Exhibition, or Distribution, any such Work or the Design thereof, or the Negative of any such Photograph, or shall import or cause to be imported into any Part of the United Kingdom, or sell, publish, let to Hire, exhibit, or distribute, or offer for Sale, Hire, Exhibition, or Distribution, or cause or procure to be sold, published, let to Hire, exhibited, or distributed, or offered for Sale, Hire, Exhibition, or Distribution, any Repetition, Copy, or Imitation of such Work, or the Design thereof, or the Negative of any such Photograph, made without such Consent as aforesaid, then every such Proprietor, in addition to the Remedies hereby given for the Recovery of any such Penalties, and Forfeiture of any such Things as aforesaid, may recover Damages by and in a Special Action on the Case, to be brought against the Person so offending, and may in such Action recover and enforce the Delivery to him of all unlawful Repetitions, Copies, and Imitations, and Negatives of Photographs, or may recover Damages for the Retention or Conversion thereof: Provided that nothing herein contained, nor any Proceeding, Conviction, or Judgment, for any Act hereby forbidden, shall affect any Remedy which any Person aggrieved by such Act may be entitled to either at Law or in Equity.

C A P. LXIX.

An Act for transferring from the Admiralty to the Board of Trade certain Powers and Duties relative to Harbours and Navigation under Local and other Acts; and for other Purposes. [29th July 1862.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Harbours Transfer Act, 1862.

Short Title.

2. In this Act—

Interpretation of Terms.

The Term "the Admiralty" shall be taken to mean the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the Time being, or the Commissioners for the Time being for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral; and when the said Term is used in reference to any other Act, it shall be taken to comprise any Term whatsoever used in such other Act to designate such Lord High Admiral or Commissioners :

The Term "the Board of Trade" shall be taken to mean the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for the Time being appointed for the Consideration of Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

Preliminary Inquiries Act, 1851.

3. Whenever after the End of the present Session of Parliament Application is made to Parliament for any such Bill as is described in The Preliminary Inquiries Act, 1851, the Board of Trade may exercise the Powers by that Act given to the Admiralty; and in relation to every such Bill that Act shall be read as if the Board of Trade were therein named instead of the Admiralty.

Board of Trade may exercise Powers under 14 & 15 Vict. c. 49.

4. Provided always, as follows :

(1.) In each Year as soon as may be, and not more than Fourteen Days after the Deposit at the Office of the Board of Trade of such Documents as may be required by the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament to be there deposited with reference to such Bills as aforesaid, the Board of Trade shall furnish to the Admiralty a List of all such Bills for which Applications to Parliament may be then pending, with a short Statement of the Nature of the Works for the Construction whereof Powers are sought by such Bills respectively :

Board of Trade to inform Admiralty of pending Schemes.

(2.) Where in any Case, on Consideration of the Information so furnished, the Admiralty are of opinion that it is proper for them to take Steps for the Protection of the Interests of Her Majesty's Naval Service, they may of Board of Trade as to Harbour Works

on Tidal Lands,
Lifeboats, &c.

5. With respect to any Special Act that may be passed after the End of the present Session of Parliament, the following Sections of The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and all Provisions relative thereto in that Act or in any such future Special Act contained, shall be read and construed as if the Board of Trade were named in the said Sections instead of the Admiralty; namely, Sections Twelve, Thirteen, Sixteen, Eighteen, and Nineteen.

Railways Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845.

Consent and Approval of Board of Trade to Railway
Works on Tidal Lands.

6. With respect to any Special Act that may be passed after the End of the present Session of Parliament, Sections Seventeen of The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and The Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, respectively, and all Provisions relative thereto in the said Acts or in any such future Special Act contained, shall be read and construed as if the Board of Trade were named in the said Sections instead of the Admiralty.

tection of Navigation, &c.
under Local
Acts for Har-bours, Railways, and other Works on
Tidal Lands,
&c. to be exercised by Board of Trade.

8. Where any Special or Local or Local and Personal Act, or Act of a Local or Local and Personal Nature, already passed or to be passed before the End of the present Session of Parliament,—

- (1.) Authorizing or regulating the Construction of a Railway, or the Execution of any Work whatever, situate on or affecting Tidal Lands, or the Shore of the Sea or of any navigable River, where and so far up the same as the Tide flows and reflows; or,
- (2.) Authorizing or regulating the Construction or improving of a Harbour, Dock, or Pier, or Works connected therewith, by any Company, Body Corporate, Commissioners, Trustees, Undertakers, Persons or Person; or,
- (3.) Constituting or altering or regulating the Constitution of any Harbour or Conservancy Authority; or,
- (4.) Altering or regulating the Powers or Duties of any Harbour or Conservancy Authority,— contains either expressly or by Incorporation or Reference or otherwise any Provision for any of the Purposes following :—

For preventing the Construction or Execution of any Work or the doing of any Thing without the Consent or Approval of the Admiralty, or for authorizing or requiring any Work to be constructed, executed, or maintained, or any Thing to be done with the Consent or on the Requisition or to the Satisfaction of the Admiralty :

For empowering the Admiralty to exercise any Authority concerning Lifeboats, Mortars, Rockets, Tide Gauges, or Barometers to be provided by any Undertakers :

For empowering the Admiralty to make a Local Survey or Examination at the Expense of any Company, Body, or Person :

For empowering the Admiralty, in case of any Work being abandoned or suffered to fall into Disuse or Decay, or in any other Case, to abate, remove, or alter any Work or any Part of it, or restore the Site thereof to its former Condition, at the like Expense :

For empowering the Admiralty to exercise any Authority concerning Lights to be maintained at Night during the Construction or Execution of any Work :

For empowering the Admiralty or the First Lord of the Admiralty to nominate or appoint a Member or Members of any Board or Body of Trustees, Commissioners, or Conservators, or of any Harbour or Conservancy Authority :

For empowering the Admiralty to determine any Dispute or Difference between or among any Bodies or Persons :

For empowering the Admiralty or the First Lord of the Admiralty to nominate or appoint any Arbitrator, Referee, or Umpire, or any Engineer, Inspector, or Officer, or any Person to fill any Place or discharge any Duty under such Act : or any other Provision for the Protection, Management, or Regulation of Harbours or Navigation, or for the Exercise of any Control or Power over or in relation to any Harbour Authority, or any other Provision in anywise relating to Conservancy, or authorizing or requiring any Act or Thing concerning Harbours or Navigation or Conservancy to be done by or in relation to the Admiralty,—

Then from and after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, such Acts and all Enactments relative thereto shall be read and construed as if in the respective Provisions aforesaid the Board of Trade were named instead of the Admiralty, and the President of the Board of Trade instead of the First Lord of the Admiralty.

9. Provided always, That where it appears to the Admiralty that the Interests of Her Majesty's Naval Service require that the whole or any Part of any Harbour, Port, Bay, Estuary, or navigable River in, on, or adjoining to which there is or shall be any of Her Majesty's Dockyards, Victualling Yards, Steam Factory Yards, Arsenals, or Naval Stations, should be excepted, either either entirely or in some respects, out of the Operation of the last foregoing Section, the Admiralty may give Notice in Writing to the Board of Trade that any such Harbour, Port, Bay, Estuary, or navigable River as aforesaid, or such Part thereof as is in the Notice specified, is to be deemed so excepted, either entirely or in the respects therein mentioned; and every such Notice shall be published by the Admiralty in the London, Edinburgh, or Dublin Gazette, (according as the Place affected may be in England, Scotland, or Ireland,) and thereupon the Harbour, Port, Bay, Estuary, or navigable River to which such Notice relates, or the Part thereof therein specified, shall, either entirely or in the respects therein mentioned, as the Case may require, be and remain as if this Act had not been passed, but any such Notice may be from Time to Time varied or at any Time revoked by a like Notice published in like Manner.

10. Provided also, That nothing herein-before contained shall affect—

- (1.) The Act of the Session of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, “for better preserving the Navigation of “the River Mersey :”
- (2.) So much of Section Three of the Act of the Session of the Twentieth and Twenty-first Years of Her Majesty, “to provide for the Conservation of the River Thames, “and for the Regulation, Management, and Improvement thereof,” as empowers the Admiralty to appoint Two of the Conservators of the River Thames.

General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and Amendment Act.

11. From and after the End of the present Session of Parliament, the following Provisions of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, shall be repealed; namely, so much of Section Six as shall be then in force, Sections Seven and Eight, and so much of Section Fifteen as relates to the Consent of the Admiralty.

12. From and after the End of the present Session of Parliament, any Provision of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, requiring any Deposit of Documents to be made at the Admiralty Office, shall be repealed.

13. In each Year, not later than the Seventh Day of January, the Board of Trade shall furnish to the Admiralty a List of all Applications for Provisional Orders under the last-mentioned Acts then pending, with a short Statement of the Nature of the Works for the Construction whereof Powers are sought by such proposed Provisional Orders respectively.

14. From and after the End of the present Session of Parliament, the following Sections of The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and all Provisions relative thereto in any other Act, or in any Provisional Order of the Board of Trade contained, shall be read and construed as if the Board of Trade were named in the said Sections instead of the Admiralty; namely, Sections Seven, Eight, Nine, Ten, and Eleven.

C A P. LXX.

An Act for giving effect to a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of Denmark for the mutual Surrender of Criminals. [29th July 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of Denmark for the mutual Surrender of Criminals, in the Words and Figures set forth in the Schedule hereto, was signed at London on the Fifteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and the Ratifications thereof were exchanged at London on the Twenty-seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two : And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for carrying the said Convention into effect : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Term “Magistrate” in this Act shall mean a Justice of the Peace or any other Person or Court in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, or any other Part of Her Majesty’s Dominions, having Power to commit for Trial Persons accused of Crimes against the Law of that Part of Her Majesty’s Dominions in which any Offender liable to be delivered up under this Act is found.

Definition of Magistrate.

2. Where Requisition has been made pursuant to the said Convention, in the Name of His Majesty the King of Denmark by His Ambassador or other accredited Diplomatic Agent, to deliver up to Justice any Person, who, being accused or convicted of any Crime for which such Person is liable to be delivered up in pursuance of the said Convention, is found within the Dominions of Her Majesty, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State by Warrant under his Hand and Seal to signify that such Requisition has been made, and to require all Magistrates within their several Jurisdictions to govern themselves accordingly, and to aid in apprehending the Person so accused or convicted, herein-after referred to as the Fugitive, and in committing him to Gaol for the Purpose of his being delivered up to Justice according to the Provisions of the said Convention :

Certain Offenders to be apprehended on Requisition of an Ambassador of the King of Denmark.

Upon the Issue of any such Warrant as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate acting within the Limits of his Jurisdiction, to issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of the said Fugitive, and to commit him to Gaol, there to remain until delivered up pursuant to such Requisition as aforesaid ; provided that the following Conditions are complied with before the Warrant is issued by the Magistrate :

Firstly. That in the Case of a Fugitive accused of Crime it is proved to the Satisfaction of the Magistrate, upon Oath or by Affidavit, that the Party applying to him for a Warrant is the Bearer of a Warrant of Arrest or other equivalent Judicial Document for the Arrest of the said Fugitive issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take Cognizance of the Acts charged against the Fugitive in Denmark, and clearly setting forth, in the Opinion of the Magistrate to whom the Application for a Warrant under this Act is made, the Acts in respect of which the original Warrant was issued :

Secondly. That in the Case of a Person accused such Evidence is produced to the Magistrate as, according to the Laws of the Part of Her Majesty's Dominions in which the Magistrate is acting, would in his Opinion justify the Apprehension and Committal for Trial of the Fugitive if the Crime of which he is accused had been there committed, with this Qualification, that Depositions or Statements on Oath, certified under the Hand of the Magistrate by whom the original Warrant was issued and attested by the Oath of the Party producing them to be the original Depositions or Statements, or true Copies thereof, may be received in Evidence of the Criminality of the Fugitive apprehended :

Thirdly. That in the Case of a Fugitive convicted of Crime an authenticated Copy of the Conviction is produced and Proof of the Identity of the Person convicted is given to the Satisfaction of the Magistrate :

Where any Person liable to be delivered up in pursuance of the said Convention is found in Ireland, a Warrant under the Hand of the Chief Secretary or of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland shall for the Purposes of this Act be equivalent to a Warrant of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State :

A Magistrate may administer an Oath for any of the Purposes of this Act :

The Warrant of any Police Magistrate of the Metropolis issued in pursuance of this Act may be executed in any Part of England in the same Manner as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place where the same is executed.

Mutual Surrender of Criminals (Denmark).

3. Where any such Fugitive as aforesaid has fled from a Colony or Possession of the King of Denmark and is found in a Colony or Possession of Her Majesty, the Requisition herein-before required to be made in the Name of His Majesty the King of Denmark by His Ambassador or other accredited Agent, may be made directly by the Governor of the first-mentioned Colony or Possession to the Governor of the other Colony or Possession, subject to this Proviso, that the Governor upon whom the Requisition may be made shall be at liberty either to grant the Surrender or to refer the Matter to his Government, and any Warrant issued by the Governor upon whom such Requisition is made shall have in such Colony or Possession the same Effect as a Warrant issued in pursuance of this Act by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State has in England.

Provision as to Colonies.

4. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in the Case of any Person committed in Ireland for the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and in the Case of any Person committed in any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Possessions abroad for the Officer administering the Government of any such Colony or Possession, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal to order any Fugitive committed in pursuance of this Act to be delivered up to such Person or Persons as may be duly authorized in the Name of the said King of Denmark to receive the Person so committed, and convey him to the Dominions of the King of Denmark, and such Fugitive shall be delivered up accordingly; and it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid to receive, hold in Custody, and take to the Dominions of the King of Denmark the Fugitive so delivered to him; and if the said Fugitive escape out of any Custody to which he may be delivered as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to retake him, in the same Manner as any Person accused of any Crime against the Laws of that Part of Her Majesty's Dominions to which he escapes may be retaken upon an Escape.

Offenders to be delivered up.

5. Where any Fugitive who has been committed under this Act, to remain until delivered up pursuant thereto, and conveyed out of Her Majesty's Dominions, within Two Calendar Months after such Commitment, it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Judges in that Part of Her Majesty's Dominions in which such Fugitive is in Custody, upon Application made to him by or on behalf of the Person so committed, and upon Proof that reasonable Notice of the Intention to make such Application has been given to some or One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in Great Britain, or in Ireland to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and in any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Possessions abroad to the Officer administering the Government of any such Colony or Possession, to order the Person so committed to be discharged out of Custody, unless sufficient Cause is shown to such Judge why the Prisoner should not be discharged.

After Two Months the Persons apprehended may be discharged, if not conveyed out of Her Majesty's Dominions.

6. If, by any Law or Ordinance to be hereafter made by the local Legislature of any British Colony or Possession abroad, Provision may be made for carrying into complete Effect within such such Colony or Possession the Objects of this Act by the Substitution of some other Enactment in lieu thereof, it shall be competent to Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, (if to Her Majesty in Council it seem meet, but not otherwise,) to suspend the Operation within any such Colony or Possession of this Act so long as such substituted Enactment continues in force there, and no longer.

Limits of Act.

Mutual Surrender of Criminals (Denmark).

Continuance of Act.

7. This Act shall continue in force during the Continuance of the said Convention.

SCHEDULE.

CONVENTION between HER MAJESTY and the KING OF DENMARK, for the Mutual SURRENDER of CRIMINALS. Signed at London, April 15, 1862. Ratifications exchanged at London, May 27, 1862.

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Denmark, having judged it expedient, with a View to the better Administration of Justice, and to the Prevention of Crime within their respective Territories and Jurisdictions, that Persons charged with or convicted of the Crimes herein-after enumerated, and being Fugitives from Justice, should under certain Circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; Their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Convention for this Purpose; that is to say,

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable John Earl Russell, Viscount Amberley of Amberley and Ardsalla, a Peer of the United Kingdom, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Her Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs;

And His Majesty the King of Denmark, M. Torben de Bille, His Chamberlain, Commander of the Order of Danebrog, and decorated with the Cross of Honour of the same Order, His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Her Britannic Majesty;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full Powers, found in good and due Form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.

It is agreed that the High Contracting Parties shall, on Requisition made in their Name through the Medium of their respective Diplomatic Agents, deliver up to Justice Persons who, being accused or convicted of Murder (comprehending the Crimes of Assassination, Parricide, Infanticide, and Poisoning) or attempt to commit Murder, or of Forgery (comprehending the counterfeiting of Bank Notes, or Public Securities, or Money), or of fraudulent Bankruptcy, committed within the Jurisdiction of the requiring Party, shall be found within the Territories of the other, provided that such Persons are not Subjects of the Party upon which the Requisition is made. Provided also, that in the Case of a Person accused, the Surrender shall be made only when the Commission

Mutual Surrender of Criminals (Denmark).

Commission of the Crime shall be so established as that the Laws of the Country where the Fugitive or Person so accused shall be found would justify his Apprehension and Commitment for Trial if the Crime had been there committed, and in the Case of a Person convicted, the Surrender shall be made only on the Production of an authenticated Copy of his Conviction and on Proof of his Identity.

Consequently, on the Part of the Danish Government, the Surrender shall be made only by the Consent of the Minister to whose Department appertains the Administration of Justice, and after the Production, in the Case of a Person accused, of a Warrant of Arrest or other equivalent Judicial Document issued by a Judge or other competent Authority in the United Kingdom, clearly setting forth the Acts for which the Fugitive shall have rendered himself accountable, or in the Case of a Person convicted, on the Production of an authenticated Copy of his Conviction and on Proof of his Identity.

On the Part of the British Government, the Surrender in the Case of a Person accused shall be made only on the Warrant or other equivalent Judicial Document for the Arrest of a Fugitive, issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take Cognizance of the Acts charged against the Fugitive in Denmark, and on duly authenticated Depositions or Statements on Oath before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said Acts, or on such other Evidence thereof as, according to the Laws of England, would warrant the Apprehension of the said Fugitive and his Committal for Trial for the said Acts, if they had been therein committed, or in the Case of a Person convicted, on the Production of an authenticated Copy of his Conviction and on Proof of his Identity.

ARTICLE II.

In the Case of a Person accused or convicted of any of the Crimes mentioned in the preceding Article, who may have fled from a Colony or Possession of one of the High Contracting Parties and be found in a Colony or Possession of the other, the Surrender shall be made, subject always to the Conditions prescribed in the preceding Article, on a Requisition addressed by the Governor of the one Colony directly to the Governor of the other. The Governor upon whom the Requisition is made shall be at liberty either to grant the Surrender or to refer the Matter to his Government.

ARTICLE III.

The Expenses of any Detention and Surrender made in virtue of the preceding Articles shall be borne and defrayed by the Government in whose Name the Requisition shall have been made.

ARTICLE IV.

The present Convention shall come into operation as soon as the necessary Legislative Acts shall have been passed. Either of the High Contracting Parties shall be at liberty to give Notice to the other at any Time for its Termination ; and in such Case it shall altogether cease and determine at the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of such Notice.

Mutual Surrender of Criminals (Denmark).

ARTICLE V.

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the Ratifications shall be exchanged at London in One Month, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention, and have affixed thereto the Seal of their Arms.

Done at London, the Fifteenth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

C A P. LXXIII.

An Act for continuing the Copyhold, Inclosure, and Tithe Commission, and entitling the Commissioners to Superannuation Allowance. [7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six certain Persons were appointed Commissioners for the Purposes of carrying into effect the Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, under the Title of “The Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales :” And whereas in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-one, by the Act of the Session of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, herein-after referred to as “the Copyhold Act,” the Tithe Commissioners for the Time being were appointed Copyhold Commissioners for the Purposes of that Act ; and it was thereby provided, that if the Duties of the Tithe Commissioners ceased before the Copyhold Act was fully carried into execution, it should be lawful for One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State to appoint any Number of fit Persons, not exceeding Three, to be Copyhold Commissioners : And whereas in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-five Provision was made for the Appointment of Two Persons who, with the First Commissioner of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, were to be the Commissioners for carrying that Act into execution, under the Style of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales : And whereas in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, by the Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-three, intituled An Act to consolidate and continue the Copyhold and Inclosure Commissioners, and to provide for the Completion of Proceedings under the Tithe Commutation Acts, the Powers of Appointment of Commissioners and other Officers contained in the Copyhold Act were continued for a limited Time, and the Commissioners appointed thereunder were continued, but it was provided that all the Duties of the Inclosure Commissioners and all the unperformed Duties of the Tithe Commissioners should be performed by the Commissioners continued or appointed as aforesaid : And whereas, by certain Acts, and ultimately by an Act of the Session holden in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-one, the said Powers of appointing Commissioners and other Officers have been continued, and the Period limited for holding Office by the Commissioners and other Officers appointed aforesaid has been extended until the First Day of August

Copyhold, &c. Commission.Public Offices Extension.

‘ August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and ‘ thenceforth until the End of the next Session of Parliament :
 ‘ And whereas, under the above Acts and divers other Acts of ‘ Parliament, and in particular by the Land Drainage Act, One ‘ thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, divers Powers of a per‘ manent Character relating to Drainage and the Management and ‘ Improvement of Estates have been imposed on the Commis‘ sioners continued or appointed as aforesaid : And whereas,
 ‘ notwithstanding the Length of Time that the said Commissioners ‘ have been established, the said Commissioners, including the ‘ resident Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Survey De‘ partment, are not deemed to be in the permanent Civil Service
 ‘ of the State, and consequently are not entitled to Superannua‘ tion Allowance in pursuance of “The Superannuation Act, ‘ 1859 :” And whereas it is expedient that the Powers of Appoint‘ ment contained in the Copyhold Act should be continued, and
 ‘ the Period limited by the said Act and the Acts for amending
 ‘ the same for the Tenure of Office by the Commissioners should ‘ be extended in manner herein mentioned, and that the said ‘ Commissioners, including such resident Assistant Commissioner
 ‘ as aforesaid, should be deemed to be entitled to Superannuation ‘ Allowance :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent
 Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords
 Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. So much of the Copyhold Act as authorizes the Appointment of Commissioners and other Officers as therein mentioned shall be continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and the Period limited for the holding of Office by the Commissioners and such other Officers as aforesaid shall in like Manner be extended until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and thenceforth until the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Continuation of Power of Appointment.

2. The Commissioners acting in execution of the several Acts herein-before mentioned, including such resident Assistant Commissioner as aforesaid, shall, for the Purposes of the Superannation Act, 1859, be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State, and to have held their respective Appointments directly from the Crown.

Superannua-
 tion of Officers.

An Act to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works to acquire additional Land for the Purposes of the “Public Offices Extension Act of 1859,” by way of Exchange for Land already acquired but not wanted for the Purposes of the said Act. [7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS the Three Pieces of Ground described in the ‘ First Schedule to this Act, and colored Blue on the ‘ Plan herein-after mentioned, and marked A, B, and C in the ‘ same Schedule and Plan, have been acquired by and are now ‘ vested

Public Offices Extension.

‘ vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and ‘ Public Buildings, for the Purposes of the Act of the Twenty-‘ second Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Nineteen, (called the ‘ Public Offices Extension Act, 1859,) under and by virtue of ‘ the following Acts ; (namely,) the Piece of Ground marked A, ‘ under the Act of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of ‘ Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-three (called the Supplemental ‘ Public Offices Extension Act, 1861); the Piece of Ground ‘ marked B, under the Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years
 ‘ of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-eight ; and the Piece of ‘ Ground marked C, under the said Public Offices Extension ‘ Act, 1859, and the Act of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth ‘ Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-eight : And whereas
 ‘ the Three Pieces of Ground described in the Second Schedule
 ‘ to this Act and colored Red in the said Plan herein-after ‘ mentioned, and marked D, E, and F in the same Schedule and ‘ Plan form Part of St. James’s Park : And whereas it has been ‘ found that the Pieces of Ground described in the said First ‘ Schedule will not be required for the Purposes of the said ‘ Public Offices Extension Act, 1859, and that the Pieces of ‘ Ground described in the said Second Schedule will be required ‘ for the Purposes thereof, and it is therefore expedient that an ‘ Exchange of the Pieces of Ground comprised in the said Two ‘ Schedules respectively should be effected as herein-after men‘ tioned : And whereas a Plan describing the Ground comprised
 ‘ in the said First and Second Schedules, wherein the Ground ‘ comprised in the said First Schedule is colored Blue as afore‘ said, and the Ground comprised in the said Second Schedule
 ‘ is colored Red as aforesaid, has been prepared by or under ‘ the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works
 ‘ and Public Buildings : And whereas the Ground marked A ‘ was Part of the Lands belonging to Her Majesty in right of ‘ Her Crown, particularly mentioned in the said Supplemental ‘ Offices Extension Act, 1861 ; and the Sum of Two thousand ‘ four hundred and seventy Pounds, in the same Act stated to be ‘ the ascertained Value of such Lands, has been paid by the said ‘ Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings ‘ to the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, and ‘ Land Revenues, for the Purchase of the said Lands belonging ‘ to Her Majesty as by the said last-mentioned Act is directed :
 ‘ And whereas the said Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works
 ‘ and Public Buildings have also paid the full Value for the said ‘ Piece of Ground marked B, but no Money Consideration has ‘ been or was to be paid for the Purchase of the said Piece of ‘ Ground marked C, the same being Part of St. James’s Park :’
 May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. Copies of the said Plan describing the Ground to be given up by, and the Ground to be acquired by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under the Authority of this Act, shall be signed by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, and shall be deposited in the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments; and all Persons shall be at liberty at all seasonable Times to inspect the Copy of the said Plan deposited in the said Offices, at their Will and Pleasure, paying the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection.

Public Offices Extension.

2. Immediately on the passing of this Act all the said Ground and Hereditaments described in the said First Schedule to this Act, and colored Blue in the said Plan, shall become and be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as Part and Parcel of St. James's Park, for all the Estate and Interest therein of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and all the Ground and Hereditaments described in the said Second Schedule to this Act, and colored Red in the said Plan, shall become and be vested in the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, their Successors and Assigns, as incorporated by and for the Purposes of the said Public Offices Extension Act, 1859, for all the Estate and Interest therein of Her Majesty.

3. 'Whereas by the said Act of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-eight, after providing for the Transfer to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings of the Piece of Land forming Part of St. James's Park therein mentioned, and which included the said Piece of Ground marked C in the said First Schedule hereto, it was enacted, that Compensation should be made to the Land Revenues of the Crown in respect of the said Transfer in manner following, (namely,) whenever the annual Produce of the said Revenues should cease to be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and should be retained by the Crown as Part of its Hereditary Revenues, the Value of the Premises thereby transferred, exclusive of the Value of any Buildings erected thereon, should be determined by Arbitration, and the Amount of such Value, when determined, should be deducted from the Amount for the Time being chargeable upon the said Revenues in respect of Advances made out of the Consolidated Fund, or, if there should be no such Amount then chargeable, should be paid to the Account of the said Revenues: Be it enacted, That the said Provision for Compensation shall be repealed so far as relates to the said Piece of Ground marked C, and in lieu thereof shall be applicable to the Piece of Ground marked F, it being intended that, as regards the Pieces of Ground marked D and E, no such Compensation shall be payable, the same being considered as given in exchange for the said Pieces of Ground marked A and B, which were not Parts of the said St. James's Park.

4. Nothing herein contained shall vary or affect the Provisions of the Forty-eighth Section of the said Public Offices Extension Act, Land, &c. in First Schedule vested in Her Majesty.

Land, &c. in Second Schedule vested in Commissioners of Works, &c.

Act, 1859, as altered by the Fifth Section of the said Supplemental Public Offices Extension Act, 1861, relating to the Contribution of the Commissioners towards the Rates of the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, either as regards the maximum Sum payable by the Commissioners or as regards the annual Amount with reference to which the Deficiencies in the Rates are to be calculated and ascertained.

Public Offices
Extension Act and this Act
to be as One.

5. The said Public Offices Extension Act, 1859, shall be read and construed to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever (except as expressly varied by this Act) as if the Land and Hereditaments comprised in the said Second Schedule to this Act were comprised in the Schedule to the said Public Offices Extension Act, 1859.

Limitation of Actions.

6. 'Whereas by the Fifty-third Section of the said Public Offices Extension Act, 1859, it is provided that in every Action or Suit brought or prosecuted for anything done in pursuance thereof as therein mentioned, the Defendant shall and may, at his Election, plead specially, or plead the General Issue, and give the said Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of the said Act : ' Be it enacted and declared, That in case any Defendant shall plead the General Issue as aforesaid in any Action or Suit relating to the Land and Hereditaments comprised in the said Second Schedule hereto or any Part thereof, or to anything done in respect thereof, he may in like Manner give the special Matter in Evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of the said Public Offices Extension Act, 1859, and of this Act.

General
Saving.

7. Saving and reserving always to all Persons and Bodies Politic or Corporate soever, excepting the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, all such Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever (if any) in, to, or out of the said Ground and Hereditaments comprised in the Schedules to this Act, or any Part thereof, as they or any of them could or might have lawfully claimed in case this Act had not been passed.

C A P. LXXVI.

An Act to amend "The Weights and Measures (Ireland) Act, 1860;" to abolish local and customary Denominations of Weight, and to regulate the Mode of weighing Articles sold, in Ireland.

[7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Law relating to Weights and Measures in Ireland: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be amended in the Manner herein-after mentioned:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 119.

PART I.

1. This Act shall commence and take effect on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three. Commencement of Act.

2. This Act may for all Purposes be cited as "The Weights and Measures (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1862." Short Title.

3. The Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, and Fourteenth Sections of the said recited Act (except so much of the said Fourth Section as repeals the Eighteenth Section of "The Summary Jurisdiction (Ireland) Act, 1851,") shall be and are hereby repealed: Provided always, that, notwithstanding such Repeal of the said Eleventh and Twelfth Sections, all such Expenses as are mentioned in the said Sections respectively which shall have been incurred, and shall not have been paid before the Commencement of this Act, shall be presented, raised, and levied in the Manner directed by the said Sections respectively. Certain Sections of recited Act repealed.

Weights and Measures (Ireland) Act (1860) Amendment.

This Act incorporated with recited Act.

Certain Head and other Constables to be ex-officio Inspectors of Weights and Measures.

4. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with the said recited Act, and shall be as if the said recited Act (except such Parts thereof as have been repealed or amended by this Act) and this Act were One Act.

5. From and after the Commencement of this Act, such Head or other Constables only in each Petty Sessions District as shall be selected under this Act by the Inspector General of Constabulary in Ireland, with the Approval of the Lord Lieutenant, shall be ex-officio Inspectors of Weights and Measures within such District, and shall possess and exercise all the Powers and Authorities, and be subject to the like Penalties for any Neglect or Offence in the Discharge of such Duties, which any Inspector of Weights and Measures heretofore possessed or exercised or had been liable to under and by virtue of the Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-three, or any other Act now in force, and shall perform such Duties, under the Direction of the Justices at Petty Sessions, without Fee or Reward, and notwithstanding any Manorial Jurisdiction or Claim of Jurisdiction within such District: Provided that if within One Month from the Date of such Selection the Justices shall signify their Disapproval of the Selection of any Head or other Constable, another Selection shall be made by the same Authority, subject to the same Conditions, and the Inspector General of Constabulary shall give Notice, or cause Notice to be given, to the Clerk of the Petty Sessions District, within Three Days of any such Selection having been made in his District, who shall immediately make known the said Selection to the Justices of the District.

Inspector General to appoint One Officer in each County or Borough to have Custody of Imperial Standards, who shall also stamp Sub-Standards.

6. The Inspector General of Constabulary shall, with the Approval of the Lord Lieutenant, also appoint some Sub-Inspector of Constabulary in every County or Borough in Ireland to have the Charge of such Copy or Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures as shall have been provided for such County or Borough under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, or may be so provided under this Act; and such Sub-Inspector shall duly stamp or cause to be duly stamped from Time to Time such Sub-Standard Weights and Measures as may be transmitted to him for such Purpose; and any Inspector of Weights and Measures in any such County or Borough in whose Custody any Copy or Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures shall have been deposited, under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, shall, within One Calendar Month after the Commencement of this Act, transmit the same to the Sub-Inspector appointed to have the Custody of the same, under the Provisions of this Act, subject to a Penalty for Neglect or Refusal not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Grand Jury and Town Council to provide One Set of Copies of Imperial Standards for each

7. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of each County and the Town Council of each Borough and they are hereby required to provide One complete Set of Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures for each such County or Borough respectively, where the same has not been already provided, and to have the same from Time to Time duly compared and re-verified in the

Weights and Measures (Ireland) Act (1860) Amendment.

Manner required by the Fifteenth Section of the said first-recited Act, and also to provide for each such County or Borough respectively as many Copies in Iron or other sufficient Material of the County Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, and such accurate Beams and Scales, as shall be necessary for such County or Borough respectively; and such Inspector General may direct that such Copies shall be duly stamped by the Sub-Inspector of Constabulary in whose Custody any Copy or Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures shall have been placed, as herein-before mentioned, and the said last-mentioned Copies shall be called "The Sub-Standard Weights and Measures;" and such Grand Jury and Town Council shall also provide such good and sufficient Stamps for stamping or sealing Weights and Measures used or to be used in such County or Borough respectively as they shall consider to be necessary for such Purpose: Provided always, that not less than One Set of "The Sub-Standard Weights and Measures," and One Set of accurate Beams and Scales, shall be provided for each Petty Sessions District in any County, and not less than Two such Sets shall be provided for any Borough.

County or Borough, and also as many Sub-Standards as may be necessary

8. It shall be lawful for every ex-officio Inspector of Weights and Measures, in addition to the Powers given to such Inspectors by the said first-recited Act, at all reasonable Times to enter into any Shop, Store, Warehouse, Yard, or Place within his Jurisdiction where Goods shall be purchased or exposed or kept for Sale, and there to inspect all Beams, Scales, Balances, and Weights and Measures, in the Possession of any Person purchasing, selling, offering, or exposing for Sale any Goods; and if upon such Inspection or Examination any such Beams, Scales, or Balances, or Weights or Measures, shall be found light or unjust, or otherwise contrary to the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth or this Act, or if any Fraud shall be wilfully committed in the using thereof, the same shall be liable to be seized and forfeited, and the Person or Persons using or having in his or her Possession any such false or unjust Beams, Scales, or Balances, or light or unjust Weights or Measures, shall be liable to any Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds as shall be adjudged by any Justice or Justices before whom any such Conviction shall take place.

Ex-officio Inspectors of Weights and Measures may enter Shops, &c. to inspect Beams, &c.

9. The Judge of Assize before the Close of the Assizes which shall be held for any County in Ireland next after the Commencement of this Act, and at the First Assizes which shall be held in every succeeding Year, shall inquire of the Foreman of the Grand Jury whether One complete Set of such Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures and a sufficient Number of Sub-Standard Copies of Weights and Measures, Beams and Scales, and County Stamps, have been provided in such County; and in every Case in which it shall appear to such Judge, upon due Inquiry, that One Set at least of such Copies, and a sufficient Number of Sub-Standard Copies, Beams, Scales, and County Stamps, have not been so provided, such Judge shall forthwith order the Treasurer of the County to provide One complete Set of

Judge of Assize to order Copies of Standards, &c. in Counties in Ireland when it has not been done by Grand Juries.

Weights and Measures (Ireland) Act (1860) Amendment.

such Copies of the Imperial Weights and Measures, and such Number of Sub-Standard Weights and Measures, Beams and Scales, and County Stamps, as shall, subject to the Provisions herein-before contained, appear to such Judge to be sufficient for such County for the Purposes of this Act ; and every such Order shall have the Effect of a Presentment on the County at large for such Sum as may be necessary to procure the same ; and such Treasurer shall, within Three Calendar Months next after he shall receive such Order, fully execute the same, or failing so to do shall be liable to any Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

10. The Chairman of Quarter Sessions for each County in Ireland at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held for such County next after the Twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and at such Quarter Sessions in every succeeding Year, shall inquire whether One complete Set of such Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, and a sufficient Number of Sub-Standard Copies of Weights and Measures, Beams and Scales, and Borough Stamps, have been provided in each Borough within such County ; and in every Case in which it shall appear to such Chairman, upon due Inquiry, that One Set at least of such Copies, and a sufficient Number of Sub-Standard Copies, Beams, Scales, and Borough Stamps, have not been so provided, such Chairman of Quarter Sessions shall forthwith order the Town Clerk or other proper Officer of such Borough to provide One complete Set of such Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, and also such Number of Sub-Standard Weights and Measures, Beams and Scales, and Borough Stamps, as such Chairman shall think sufficient ; and every such Order shall have the Effect of an Order of the Town Council of such Borough to raise such Amount by way of Rate in such Borough as may be necessary to procure a complete Set of such Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, and also such Number of Copies of the Sub-Standard Weights and Measures, Beams and Scales, and Borough Stamps, as shall, subject to the Provisions herein-before contained, appear to such Chairman of Quarter Sessions to be sufficient, and as he shall direct ; and such Town Clerk or other Officer shall, within Three Calendar Months next after he shall receive such Order, fully execute the same, or failing so to do shall be liable to any Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds : Provided always, that in any Borough in which no Rate is levied, and which Borough is liable to the Payment of County Cess, the Expenses incurred under the said recited Act or this Act shall be defrayed by the County in which the said Borough or the greater Part thereof is situate.

PART II.

Denominations of Weight and Mode of Weighing.

‘ And whereas it is expedient to abolish all local and customary Denominations of Weight, and to prohibit improper Deductions in weighing, and otherwise to regulate the Mode of weighing Articles sold :’ Be it therefore enacted as follows :

Chairman of Quarter Sessions to order Copies of Standard Weights and Measures in Boroughs within the County, in case it has not been done by Town Council.

Weights and Measures (Ireland) Act (1860) Amendment.

11. The Provisions of this Part of this Act shall extend and apply throughout Ireland to all Contracts, Bargains, Sales, and Dealings, save as herein-after excepted. Extent of Part II.

12. Every Contract, Bargain, Sale, or Dealing—

For any Quantity of Corn, Grain, Pulses, Potatoes, Hay, Straw, Flax, Roots, Carcases of Beef or Mutton, Butter, Wool, or dead Pigs, sold, delivered, or agreed for ;

Or for any Quantity of any other Commodity sold, delivered, or agreed for by Weight (not being a Commodity which may by Law be sold by Troy Weight or by Apothecaries Weight), shall be made or had by One of the following Denominations of Imperial Standard Weight ; namely,

The Ounce Avoirdupois ;

The Pound Avoirdupois of Sixteen Ounces ;

The Stone of Fourteen Pounds ;

The Quarter Hundred of Twenty-eight Pounds ;

The Half Hundred of Fifty-six Pounds ;

The Hundredweight of One hundred and twelve Pounds ;

Or the Ton of Twenty Hundredweight ;

and not by any local or customary Denomination of Weight whatsoever, otherwise such Contract, Bargain, Sale, or Dealing shall be void : Provided always, that nothing in the present Section shall be deemed to prevent the Use, in any Contract, Bargain, Sale, or Dealing, of the Denomination of the Quarter, Half, or other aliquot Part of the Ounce, Pound, or other Denomination aforesaid, or shall be deemed to extend to any Contract, Bargain, Sale, or Dealing relating to standing or growing Crops.

13. Every Article sold by Weight shall, if weighed, be weighed in full net standing Beam ; and for the Purposes of every Contract, Bargain, Sale, or Dealing, the Weight so ascertained shall be deemed the true Weight of the Article, and no Deduction or Allowance for Tret or Beamage, or on any other Account, or under any other Name whatsoever, the Weight of any Sack, Bag, Cask, Firkin, or other Covering in which such Article may be alone excepted, shall be claimed or made by any Purchaser on any Pretext whatever, under a Penalty of not exceeding Five Pounds. Mode of weighing.
Deductions prohibited.

PART III.

Prevention of Frauds.

14. If any Person commit any of the following Offences he shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds : Penalty on counterfeiting of Brand.

(1.) If he, with Intent to defraud, counterfeit or procure to be counterfeited any Brand or Stamp used by or under the Authority of the Owner or Lessee of a Market or Fair, or of any Person having by Law the Control of a Market or Fair, to denote the Weight, Measure, or Quality of any Article sold in the Market or Fair, or

Weights and Measures (Ireland) Act (1860) Amendment.

- within the prescribed Limits, during the holding of the Market or Fair, or of any Cask, Firkin, or other Vessel, Covering, or Thing in which such Article is sold, or the Impression of any such Brand or Stamp :
- (2.) Or, with the like Intent, use or procure to be used any such counterfeit Brand or Stamp or Impression :
 - (3.) Or, with the like Intent, alter an Impression of any such genuine Brand or Stamp :
 - (4.) Or, with the like Intent, have in his Possession anything having thereon an Impression of any such counterfeit Brand or Stamp, or a fraudulently altered Impression of any such genuine Brand or Stamp :
 - (5.) Or, with the like Intent, transfer or apply any Cask, Firkin, or other Vessel, Covering, or Thing, having thereon an Impression of any such genuine Brand or Stamp, to any Article other than that for denoting the Weight, Measure, or Quality whereof such Impression was made on such Cask, Firkin, or other Vessel, Covering, or Thing, or in any other Manner alter the bonâ fide Application of an Impression of any such genuine Brand or Stamp :
 - (6.) Or knowingly weigh or cause to be weighed, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or act or assist in committing or connive at any Fraud respecting the weighing or the Weight or Measure of any such Article as in Part II. of this Act is mentioned :
 - (7.) Or, with Intent to defraud, alter any Ticket specifying the Weight of any such Article :

An Act to suspend the making of Lists and the Ballots for the Militia of the United Kingdom. [7th August 1862.]
[Lists and Ballots for Militia suspended until October 1, 1863.]

C A P. LXXVIII.

An Act for providing a further Sum towards defraying the Expenses of constructing Fortifications for the Protection of the Royal Arsenals and Dockyards and the Ports of Dover and Portland, and of creating a Central Arsenal.
[7th August 1862.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, having further considered the State, Condition, and Sufficiency of the Fortifications existing for the Defence of the United Kingdom, and being desirous to provide forthwith for the Construction of certain Works for the Defence of Your Royal Arsenals and Dockyards and the Ports of Dover and Portland, and for the Creation of a Central Arsenal, have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty the further Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, towards defraying the Expenses incurred or to be incurred for those Purposes, and we have resolved that a Sum not exceeding the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds be raised by such Terminable Annuities as herein-after mentioned, and we do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Fortifications (Provision for Expenses).

The Sum of 1,200,000*l.* to be issued out of Consolidated Fund towards Expenses after mentioned.

Appropriation of the Money so issued to the Expenses of constructing Fortifications, and providing a Central Arsenal.

1. Towards defraying the Expenses herein-after mentioned any Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds shall be issued and applied out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the growing Produce thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from Time to Time to issue and apply the same accordingly.

2. Such Sum or Sums as may be issued out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing Produce thereof, as aforesaid, shall be applied, as mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, towards defraying the Expenses incurred or to be incurred in constructing the aforesaid Fortifications and Works for the Defence of the Royal Arsenals and Dockyards of the United Kingdom (including the Naval Establishment at Haulbowline), and the Fortifications at Dover and Portland, and in providing a Central Arsenal, and in purchasing the Land and Rights in Land that may be required for the Purposes of such Fortifications, Works, and Arsenal; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time apply such Sum or Sums accordingly: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to apply any of such Sums to any Work not specifically named in the Schedule, nor to apply to any Work any greater Sum than that which is set down in the Schedule as the total estimated Cost of the Work, nor for Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department to enter into any Contract involving the Expenditure in any District of a greater Sum than is hereby and by the Act of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and nine, authorized to be expended during the Period ending on the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, without inserting in such Contract a Condition that the same shall not be binding on the said Principal Secretary until it has lain for One Month upon the Table of the House of Commons without Disapproval; and the said Contract shall have no Force or Validity until it shall have lain for One Month upon the Table of the House of Commons without Disapproval, unless previous to the Lapse of that Period such Contract shall have been approved by a Resolution of the said House.

3. To provide for the Issues to be made out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing Produce thereof, and to repay to the Consolidated Fund the Amount which may have been previously so issued under this Act, or for either of those Purposes, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury at any Time or from Time to Time, after the passing this Act, to raise any Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, as herein-after mentioned; and for raising all or any Portions which may be so raised from Time to Time of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to cause to be created, and vested in the Contributors to the said Sum or to the respective Portions thereof, Annuities for such Term not exceeding the Term of Thirty Years as the Commissioners of the Treasury may think fit to fix in the Contract with such Contributors, and to be payable half-yearly by equal Payments on the Fifth Day of April and the Tenth Day of October.

Treasury to raise 1,200,000*l.* by creating Annuities for a Term not exceeding Thirty Years.

Fortifications (Provision for Expenses).

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from Time to Time to contract, in such Manner and under such Regulations as they may deem advisable, with any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, who may be willing to advance the whole or any Part of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, or of the Portion thereof which the said Commissioners may at any Time think it requisite to raise, and to appoint and fix the Amount and Times of Payment of Deposits and Instalments of or in respect of the Sums contracted to be advanced, and to declare and fix the Term and the Amount of Annuity to be created under this Act to which the several Persons and Corporations advancing such Sums (who are herein referred to as the Contributors), their respective Executors or Administrators, Successors or Assigns, shall be entitled in respect of each One hundred Pounds contributed and paid, and to appoint on which of the half-yearly Days herein-before mentioned the First Half Year's Payment of Annuity shall become due, and the Time or Times at which the said Annuities or proportional Amounts thereof shall be placed in the Books of the Bank of England to the Credit of the respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, and to fix the Time during which Receipts for such Deposits or Instalments as aforesaid shall be assignable; and the several Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall be entitled for every One hundred Pounds by them respectively advanced and paid to an Annuity for such Term and of such Amount as shall be so fixed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, to be payable during the Term so fixed by half-yearly Payments as aforesaid, the first half-yearly Payment to be due as the said Commissioners may have appointed as aforesaid.

5. It shall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Trustee having the Disposition of the Money of any Infant to contribute and pay for or towards advancing any Part of any Sum to be raised by Annuities in manner aforesaid; and such Infant, upon the Payment of such Sum or Sums subscribed by such Guardian or Trustee, shall become a Contributor within the Meaning of this Act, and be entitled to have and receive the Annuities, Advantages, and Payments in respect thereof, in such and the like Manner as any other Contributor; and such Guardian or Trustee, Treasury to fix the Term and Amount of Annuity to be granted to Contributors for every 100*l.* and Terms of Payment of Subscriptions.

Power to Guardians, &c. to subscribe for Infants.

Fortifications (Provision for Expenses).

as to the said Sum or Sums so advanced, is hereby discharged, so as the Name of such Infant be expressed in the Receipt or Receipts for such Money.

6. All Deposits, Instalments, and Sums to be paid by the Contributors, their Executors or Administrators, Successors or Assigns, in respect of any Portion of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, shall be paid to the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; and as soon as any Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall, after Payment of the required Deposit, have made due Payment of any subsequent Instalment payable by them respectively on the Days appointed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury towards a Sum raised under this Act, such Contributors may have a proportional Amount of the Annuities to which they may be entitled in respect of such Instalment forthwith placed in the Books of the Bank of England to the Credit of such respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, and on Payment of the last Instalment such Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall have a proportional Amount of like Annuities placed to their respective Credits corresponding, at the Rate aforesaid, to the aggregate Amount of the Deposit and of such last Instalment; and the Persons to whose Credit such Annuities, or such proportional Parts thereof, shall be so placed, their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall have Power to assign and transfer the same, or any Part, Share, or Proportion thereof, to any other Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate whatsoever, in the Books of the Bank of England (in such Manner as is herein-after directed); and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be after Notice from the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Purpose, to prepare proper Books for the Purpose of entering the Names of all such Contributors, and of placing to their Credit the Annuities to which they will be entitled under this Act.

7. All such Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, who shall pay into the Hands of the said Cashier or Cashiers the whole of their respective Contribution Money, or any Part thereof, in anticipation of the Instalments appointed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any of them, shall be entitled to have forthwith inscribed into their respective Names the whole or such proportional Amount of the said Annuities; but Discount shall not be allowed on any such Payment in anticipation of any of the said Instalments.

8. All the Annuities created under this Act shall be payable and paid and be transferable at the Bank of England.

9. So much Money shall from Time to Time be set apart and issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the said Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as shall be sufficient to satisfy and pay the said Annuities to be created under the Act, together with the Charges attending attending the same, and all the said Annuities shall be charged and chargeable upon and are hereby charged upon and made payable out of the said Consolidated Fund.

Time at which Annuities may be transferred.

10. For the more easy and sure Payment of the Annuities established by this Act, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England and their Successors shall from Time to Time, until all the said Annuities shall have expired, appoint and employ One or more sufficient Person or Persons within their Office in the City of London to be their Chief or First Cashier or Cashiers, and One or other sufficient Person within the same Office to be their Accountant General; and so much of the Money by this Act to be set apart for the Purpose as shall be sufficient from Time to Time to answer the said Annuities and the Charges attending the same shall, by Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, without any further Warrant to be sued for, had, or obtained in that Behalf, from Time to Time, at the respective Days of Payment in this Act appointed for Payment thereof, be issued and paid at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the said Chief or First Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors for the Time being, by way of Imprest and upon Account for the Payment of the Dividends payable by virtue of this Act; and such Cashier or Cashiers to whom the said Money shall from Time to Time be issued shall from Time to Time, without Delay, pay the same accordingly, and render his or their Accounts thereof to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts; and the said Accountant General for the Time being shall from Time to Time inspect and examine all Receipts and Payments of the said Cashier or Cashiers, and the Vouchers relating thereto, in order to prevent any Fraud, Negligence, or Delay.

11. The Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England who shall receive any Deposits or Instalments from Contributors in respect of any Portion of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds shall give a Receipt or Receipts in Writing to every such Contributor for all such Sums, and also Warrants for the proportional Amounts of Annuity to be created in respect of the Instalments intermediate between the Deposit and the last Instalment on the Payment of those Instalments respectively; and the Receipts and Warrants so to be given shall be assignable and transferable by Delivery thereof during such Time as shall have been fixed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and no longer; and such Cashier or Cashiers shall give Security to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for duly answering and paying into the Receipt of the Exchequer as after mentioned all the Monies which he or they shall hereafter receive from Time to Time of and for any Portion of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, and for accounting duly for the same, and for Performance of the Trust hereby in him or them reposed, and shall from Time to Time pay all such Monies as soon as he or they shall receive the same or any Part thereof, or within Five Days afterwards at the farthest, into and shall account for the same in the Exchequer, according to the due Course thereof.

The Money paid into the Exchequer to form Part of the Consolidated Fund.

12. All such Sums of Money as shall be from Time to Time paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in respect of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, or any Portion thereof, raised by Annuities as aforesaid, shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

A Book to be kept in the Accountant General's Office for entering Contributors Names, and a Duplicate to be transmitted to the Exchequer.

13. In the Office of the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being a Book or Books shall be provided and kept, in which the Names of the Contributors to any Portion of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, which may be raised under this Act, shall be fairly entered; which Book or Books the said respective Contributors, their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, shall and may from Time to Time and at all seasonable Times resort to and inspect without any Fee or Charge; and the said Accountant General shall, at such Time or Times as may be directed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, transmit an attested Duplicate, fairly written on Paper, of the said Book or Books, into the Office of the Receipt of the Exchequer, there to remain for ever.

Subscriptions paid in part, and not completed, forfeited.

14. In case any such Contributors to any Portion of the Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds which may be raised under this Act, after having paid to the said Cashier or Cashiers any Sum or Sums of Money as a Deposit, at the Time and in the Manner appointed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, in part of the Sum or Sums so by them respectively subscribed, or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall not advance and pay to the said Cashier or Cashiers the Residue of the Sum or Sums so subscribed at the Times and in the Manner which shall have been appointed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, then and in every such Case such Deposit shall be forfeited for the Benefit of the Public, and all Right and Title to the said Deposit, and to the Annuity in respect thereof, shall be extinguished.

Annuities to be deemed Personal Estate.

15. All Persons and Corporations who shall be entitled to any of the Annuities which may be created under this Act, and all Persons and Corporations lawfully claiming under them, shall be possessed thereof as of a Personal Estate, which shall not be descendible to Heirs, nor liable to any Foreign Attachment by the Custom of London or otherwise.

Accountant General to keep Books for entering Transfers.

16. Books shall be constantly kept by the said Accountant General for the Time being, wherein all Assignments or Transfers of all Annuities created under this Act shall be entered and registered, which Entry shall be conceived in proper Words for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Parties making such Assignments or Transfers, or if such Parties be absent by their respective Attorney or Attorneys thereunto lawfully authorized in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to be attested by Two or more Witnesses; and the several Persons to whom such Transfers shall be made, may respectively underwrite underwrite their Acceptance thereof; and no other Method of assigning and transferring the said Annuities, or any Part thereof, or any Interest therein, shall be good or available in Law; and no Stamp Duties whatsoever shall be charged on any of the said Transfers, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Transfers not liable to Stamp Duties.

17. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if they think it expedient so to do, for raising all or any Portion of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds, to contract and provide that all or any of the terminable Annuities to be created under the Provisions of this Act in respect of such Sum or Portion as aforesaid shall be consolidated with and deemed Part of the Joint Stock of the terminable Annuities created by the Act of the Session holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighteen, or of the Joint Stock of any terminable Annuities transferable at the Bank of England and charged on the Consolidated Fund by the Authority of Parliament, for the same Term for the Time being unexpired, and payable on the same half-yearly Days as the Annuities which they may contract to create, and in every such Case the Annuities to be created under this Act shall be added to and form Part of the Joint Stock of the previously existing Annuities accordingly.

Power to Treasury to add Annuities created under this Act to Stock of existing terminable Annuities of like Duration.

18. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct the Payment out of the Consolidated Fund to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England of the Sum of Six hundred Pounds for the said Contributions as an Allowance for the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Cashier or Cashiers employed in receiving, paying, and accounting for the same, and also for the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Accountant General for performing the Trust reposed in him by this Act, which Allowance in respect of the Service, Pains, and Labour of the said Cashier or Cashiers and Accountant General of the said Governor and Company shall be for the Use of the said Governor and Company, and at their Disposal only.

Allowance to Bank of England for the Expense of Management.

19. The Fortifications, Works, and Central Arsenal, the Expenses of constructing and providing which are to be defrayed under this Act, shall be constructed and provided respectively under the Direction of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, and the Land to be purchased and acquired for the Purposes of such Fortifications, Works, and Central Arsenal shall be vested in the said Secretary of State on behalf of Her Majesty.

Fortifications, &c. to be executed under the Direction of the Secretary for War.

20. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall in the Month of April in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in every subsequent Year in which any Part of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds shall be issued from the Consolidated Fund or raised by Annuities under this Act, cause to be prepared an Account of the Monies raised under this Act up to the First Day of that Month, and of the Amount of Annuities created in respect of the Money so raised, and of the Monies which shall have been issued out of the Consolidated Fund in respect of the Sum of Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

Fortifications (Provision for Expenses).

One million two hundred thousand Pounds charged on that Fund under this Act up to the First Day of April, specially showing the Works or Purposes for or in respect of which the Monies may have been applied, and showing the Amount, if any, which may remain to be raised of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds authorized to be raised under this Act, and the Amount, if any, remaining to be issued or applied of the said Sum of One million two hundred thousand Pounds charged on the said Consolidated Fund; and every such Account shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith after the Preparation thereof, or if Parliament be not sitting then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Persons counterfeiting Receipts for Contributions, &c. guilty of Felony.

21. If any Person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or shall willingly act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Receipt or Receipts for the whole or any Part or Parts of the said Contributions towards any Sum raised under this Act, either with or without the Name or Names of any Person or Persons being inserted therein as the Contributor or Contributors thereto, or Payer or Payers thereof or of any Part or Parts thereof, or shall alter any Number, Figure, or Word therein, or utter or publish as true any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered Receipt or Receipts, with Intent to defraud the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or any Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, every such Person so forging or counterfeiting or altering, or causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited or altered, or willingly acting or assisting in the forging or counterfeiting, or altering, uttering, or publishing as aforesaid, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall, at the Discretion of the Court, be liable to be kept in Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Three Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, or with or without Solitary Confinement, for any Term not exceeding Two Years.

Bank to continue a Corporation till the Annuities hereby granted cease.

22. The said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, notwithstanding the Redemption of all or any of their own Funds, in pursuance of the Acts for establishing the same or any of them, shall continue a Corporation for the Purposes of this Act until the Annuities created under this Act shall cease.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Coal Mines.

[7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to amend an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and fifty-one, and intituled An Act for the Regulation and Inspection of Mines, and herein-after referred to as the “Principal Act:” Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 151.Application of Act.Interpretation of Terms.Prohibition of single Shafts.

1. This Act shall apply only to Coal Mines and Ironstone Mines mentioned in the Seventh Section of the Principal Act.

2. The Expression “existing Mine” shall mean a Mine that is actually being worked at the Time of the passing of this Act :

The Expression “new Mine” shall mean a Mine opened after the passing of this Act, or an old Mine the working of which is begun afresh after the passing of this Act.

3. After the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the Owner of a new Mine, and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five it shall not be lawful for the Owner of an existing Mine to employ any Person in working within such Mine, or to permit any Person to be in such Mine for the Purpose of working therein, unless there are in communication with every Seam of such Mine for the Time being at work at least Two Shafts or Outlets, separated by natural Strata of not less than Ten Feet in Breadth, by which Shafts or Outlets distinct Means of Ingress and Egress are available to the Persons employed in the Mine ; but it shall not be necessary for the Two Shafts or Outlets to belong to the same Mine, if the Persons therein employed have available Means of Ingress and Egress by not less than Two Shafts or Outlets, One or more of which may belong to another Mine.

Coal Mines.

This Section shall not apply to opening a new Mine for the Purpose of searching for or proving Minerals, or to any Working for the Purpose of making a Communication between Two or more Shafts, so long as not more than Twenty Persons are employed at any one Time in the said new Mine or Working.

4. If the Owner of any existing Mine objects, within such Time as is herein-after mentioned, in Writing addressed to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that by reason of the Nature of the Mine, or from its being nearly exhausted, or from any other special Cause, he ought to be exempted from the Obligation of providing an additional Shaft or Outlet in pursuance of this Act, or that he cannot provide an additional Shaft or Outlet within the Time limited by this Act, a Reference shall be made to Arbitration as to whether the Owner ought or ought not, under the Circumstances, to provide an additional Shaft or Outlet, or ought or ought not to have an Extension of Time for providing an additional Shaft or Outlet : If the Result of the Arbitration is in favour of the Owner, he shall, as the Case requires, be relieved from the Obligation of providing an additional Shaft or Outlet, or have such Extension of Time granted to him for providing an additional Shaft or Outlet as may be determined by the Award : If the Result of the Arbitration be against the Owner, or if no Award is made by reason of any Default or Neglect on the Part of the Owner, he shall be bound to comply with the Provisions of this Act, in the same Manner as if this Section had not been enacted.

Appeal by Owner of existing Mine to Arbitration.

5. Arbitrations, in pursuance of this Act, shall be conducted in manner directed by the Thirteenth Section of the Principal Act in Cases where the Owner, within the Twenty Days therein mentioned, objects to any Alterations in or Additions to Rules, or Rules by way of Substitution proposed by the Secretary of State ; but no Objection made in pursuance of this Act by the Owner of an existing Mine shall be entertained unless it is made within the Times following ; that is to say, if he claims to be exempted from the Obligation of providing an additional Shaft or Outlet in pursuance of this Act, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act ; and if he claims to have an Extension of Time for providing an additional Shaft or Outlet, within the Six Calendar Months immediately preceding the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Mode of conducting Arbitrations.

6. Any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity may, upon the Application of the Attorney General acting on behalf of the said Secretary of State, prohibit by Injunction the working of any Mine in which any Person is employed in working, or is permitted to be for the Purpose of working, in contravention of the Provisions of this Act, and may award such Costs in the Matter of the Injunction as the Court thinks just ; but this this Section shall be without Prejudice to any other Remedy permitted by Law for enforcing the Provisions of this Act.

Agreements in contravention of Act illegal.

7. No Person shall be precluded by any Agreement made before the passing of this Act from doing such Acts as may be necessary for providing an additional Shaft or Outlet to a Mine where the same is required by this Act, or be liable under any Agreement to any Penalty or Forfeiture for doing such Acts as may be necessary in order to comply with the Provisions of this Act.

Construction of Act.

8. This Act shall be construed as One with the Principal Act, and the Powers hereby given shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in derogation of any Powers conferred by the Principal Act, and such last-mentioned Powers may be exercised in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

C A P. LXXX.

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, and Surgeons Mates of the Militia; and to authorize the Employment of the Non-commissioned Officers.

C A P. LXXXI.

An Act to make perpetual An Act to amend the Procedure and Powers of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

[7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and forty-four, and intituled An Act to amend the Procedure and Powers of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, is about to expire; and it is expedient to make the same perpetual? Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same :

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 144.

1. There shall be repealed the Eighth Section of the said Act, whereby it is provided that the same is to continue in force until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two and no longer, and the said Act shall be and is hereby made perpetual.

An Act for the more economical Recovery of Poor Rates and other Local Rates and Taxes. [7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more economical Recovery of Poor Rates and other Local Rates and Taxes? Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, Recovery of Poor Rates, &c.Poor Relief (Ireland).

Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

L. Where any Number of Local Rates and Taxes, whether of the same or of different Kinds, are due from the same Person, the Rates and Taxes so due may be included in the same Information, Complaint, Summons, Order, Warrant, or other Document required by Law to be laid before Justices or to be issued by Justices, and every such Document as aforesaid shall, as respects each Rate or Tax comprised in it, be construed as a separate Document, and its Invalidity as respects any one Rate or Tax shall not affect its Validity as respects any other Rate or Tax comprised in it :

Consolidation of Proceedings for the Recovery of Rates.

No Costs shall be allowed in respect of several Informations, Complaints, Summonses, Orders, Warrants, or other such Documents as aforesaid, in Cases where, in the Opinion of the Justices or Court having Jurisdiction over the said Costs, One Information, Complaint, Summons, Order, Warrant, or other Document as aforesaid might have sufficed, regard being had to the Provisions of this Act.

C A P. LXXXIII.

An Act to amend the Laws in force for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, and to continue the Powers of the Commissioners. [7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws in force for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

L. For the Purpose of charging the Expense of Relief to any Electoral Division, every Person making Application for Relief after the passing of this Act shall be deemed to have been resident in such Electoral Division in which, during the Period of Five Years next before his Application for Relief, he shall have been longest usually resident, whether by usually occupying any Tenement situate, or by usually sleeping, within such District : Provided always, that where any such Person shall not have occupied a Tenement or slept within any such Electoral Division for at least Two Years in the whole during the said Period of Five Years, the Expense of the Relief of such Person shall in such Case be borne by and charged against the whole Union in which he or she is relieved : Provided also, that where any Person chargeable to any Electoral Division shall have received Relief, and shall cease to be relieved, and shall thereafter within the Period of Twelve Months again begin to receive Relief, such last-mentioned Relief shall be chargeable on the Electoral Division to which such Person was in the first instance chargeable : Provided also, that the Cost for the Relief of destitute Poor who shall not have resided in the Union where such Relief is given for the last Five Years next previous to receiving such Relief shall be charged and chargeable according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to make further Provision for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland: Provided also, that in estimating the Time of Residence in the Union or Electoral Division, Residence in the Workhouse shall be considered to be Residence in the Union, and also in the Electoral Division, if there be any such to which the Pauper during such Residence shall be chargeable, but shall not be considered to be Residence in the Electoral Division in which the Workhouse is situate unless the Pauper be chargeable to such Division.

2. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-one, Section Ten, it is provided that no Person who shall be in the Occupation of any Land of greater Extent than the Quarter of a Statute Acre shall be deemed and taken to be a destitute poor Person under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-six, for the more effectual Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, or of the Acts amending the same: And whereas it is expedient that the said Provision of the said Act should be repealed as far as relates to Relief within the Workhouse: Therefore, from and after the passing of this Act the Tenth Section of the said Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-one, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that any Person who shall be in Occupation of any Land of greater Extent than a Quarter of a Statute Acre, and who shall be considered by the Board of Guardians to require Relief, shall be relieved by them in the Workhouse, and not otherwise.

3. 'And whereas the Guardians of the Poor of Unions in Ireland are empowered to admit into any Building provided by them for a Fever Hospital, or into any Part of the Workhouse appropriated by them, with the Consent of the Commissioners that Purpose, poor Persons affected with Fever or other dangerous contagious Disease, and it is expedient to extend such Power: Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Guardians to admit into the Infirmary of the Workhouse any poor Persons requiring Medical or Surgical Aid in Hospital, and to provide for their Treatment and Maintenance therein, charging the Expense thereof on the Electoral Division or Union at large, as the Case may be, according to such Person's Chargeability by Residence under the Laws which are or shall be in force for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland: Provided that no Person admitted to the Workhouse for Medical or Surgical Treatment in Hospital shall be required by the Guardians to be accompanied by any Member of his or her Family as a Condition of such Person's Admission into the Workhouse.

4. Every poor Person who shall be so admitted into the Infirmary of the Workhouse in pursuance of the Authority in that Behalf which is herein-before given, and every poor Person who shall hereafter be admitted into any Building provided by the Guardians Guardians of any Union for a Fever Hospital, or into any Part of the Workhouse appropriated as a Fever Hospital, who shall nevertheless be considered by the Guardians to be of sufficient Ability to pay the Cost of his or her Maintenance while in Hospital, or some Portion of such Cost, shall be required to repay such Proportion thereof as the Guardians shall determine ; provided that such Proportion shall in no Case exceed the Average of the general Cost of Maintenance, Medical and Surgical Treatment in such Hospital or Infirmary ; and all such Sums shall be recoverable from such poor Persons, or from those liable by Law to maintain them, by the same Ways and Means as the Cost of Relief given by way of Loan is recoverable under the Acts in force for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland ; and all such Sums, or any Part thereof which shall be recovered, shall be lodged with the Treasurer of the Union, to the Credit of the Electoral Division chargeable for the Maintenance of such poor Person, or to the Credit of the Union, as the Case may be : Provided also, that for the Purpose of the Recovery of the Cost of Maintenance as aforesaid, every Master or Mistress shall be deemed liable to maintain his or her Domestic Servant so long as the Service shall continue, and also his or her Apprentice residing under his or her Roof.

ance in a Hospital, or Part thereof appropriated to a Hospital, required to pay same.

5. On the Requisition of any Inspector or Sub-Inspector of Constabulary, or Head Constable in charge of a Station, it shall be lawful for the Board of Guardians to admit into the Workhouse Infirmary or Fever Hospital any Constable or Sub-Constable of the said Force, on Service within the Union, who shall be suffering from Fever or other Disease or bodily Injury requiring Treatment in Hospital ; and every such Constable or Sub-Constable shall contribute the full average Cost of daily Maintenance and Establishment Charges, Medical and Surgical Treatment in such Hospital for the whole Term of his Continuance therein ; and the Amount of such Cost may be recovered by the Guardians of the Union by the same Ways and Means as the Cost of Relief given by way of Loan is recoverable under the Acts in force for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland.

As to Admission of Constabulary Patients.

6. Every poor Person admitted into the Fever Hospital or Infirmary of a Workhouse who shall on Admission claim to repay the entire Cost of his or her Maintenance therein, according to the full average Cost thereof, as herein-before stated, and every poor Person admitted into such Fever Hospital or Infirmary on whose Behalf the Person liable by Law to maintain such poor Person shall claim to repay the entire Cost of such Maintenance therein as aforesaid, and every Constable or Sub-Constable so admitted, shall be entered in a separate Register from that in which the other Persons admitted into the Workhouse are registered ; and the Person so relieved and the Person so claiming shall not, after Payment of the said Charges of Maintenance, be subject to any Disfranchisement or Disability as Persons having received Relief from the Poor Rates ; and such Register shall at all reasonable Times be open for the Inspection of those Persons who shall desire to examine or take Extracts from it, without any Charge for such Inspection or Extracts ; and a Copy of such Register, or of any Part of it, signed by the Clerk of the Union, and under the Seal of the Board of Guardians, shall be legal Evidence of the Facts stated in such Copy in any Court of Record, without Proof of the Signature of the Clerk, or of the affixing of such Seal.

Guardians may send Inmates of Workhouse to Hospital or Infirmary.

7. It shall be lawful for the Guardians of any Union in Cases requiring special Treatment to send any Inmate or Inmates of the Workhouse of such Union requiring Medical or Surgical Treatment to any Hospital or Infirmary the Governor, Governors, or Managers of which shall be willing and able to receive such Inmate or Inmates, and to pay to the Governor, Governors, or Managers of such Hospital or Infirmary, out of the Rates of the Union or Electoral Division, as the Case may be, the Cost of the Maintenance and Treatment in such Hospital or Infirmary of the Persons so sent as aforesaid ; and the Guardians may also pay out of the Rates of the Union the Cost of the Conveyance of such Persons from the Workhouse of the Union to such Hospital or Infirmary, and also the Cost of the Conveyance of such Persons, when discharged from such Hospital or Infirmary, to the said Workhouse ; and the entire Cost of such Maintenance, Treatment, and Conveyance as aforesaid shall be deemed Part of the Cost of Maintenance and Treatment of such Inmate or Inmates in the Workhouse of such Union.

Guardians to have same Authority as Parents in Cases of Children under 15 Years of Age relieved without Parents.

8. Every Child under the Age of Fifteen Years, without a Parent, relieved in a Workhouse, shall be subject to the Authority of the Board of Guardians in the same Manner as such Child would be subject to the Authority of its Parents or Parent, if living together with such Parents or Parent, excepting as regards the Religious Denomination of such Child, and no such Child shall be discharged from the Workhouse otherwise than by the Order of the Board of Guardians ; but nothing herein shall authorize the Detention of any Child without a Parent, if any Relative of such Child, who in the Opinion of the Board of Guardians shall be a fit Person to be intrusted with such Child, and of sufficient Ability to maintain such Child, shall claim its Discharge from the Workhouse for the Purpose of its being maintained out of the Workhouse otherwise than at the Charge of the Poor Rates.

Relief to Orphans and deserted Children.

9. ' And whereas it has been found that the Mortality among Infant Children admitted into Workhouses without their Mothers is very large, and that in other respects the Workhouses are not well suited in all Cases for the Care and Nurture of such Children during Infancy ; and it is therefore expedient to extend the Powers of Boards of Guardians for the Relief of destitute poor Children who are Orphans, or who have been deserted by their Parents : ' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Board of Guardians to provide for the Relief of any Orphan or deserted Child out of the Workhouse, if they shall think fit to do so, by placing such Child out at Nurse, according to their Discretion ; provided that no Child shall be placed out with any Person who does not profess the same Religion as that in which the Child has been registered : Provided that no Child shall continue to be so relieved after the Age of Five Years : Provided always, always, that the Guardians of the Poor may, with Consent of the Poor Law Commissioners, continue such Relief from Year to Year until the Child attain the Age of Eight Years, should the Guardians consider that such Extension of Outdoor Relief be necessary for the Preservation of the Child's Health.

Poor Relief (Ireland).

10. From and after the passing of this Act, when Oath shall have been made before any Two Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions (which Oath the said Justices are hereby empowered to administer) by the Mother of any illegitimate Child, and the same shall have been supported by corroborative Evidence, it shall be lawful for the Boards of Guardians to recover from the putative Father the Cost of the Maintenance of such illegitimate Child during the Time that he is in receipt of Relief from the Poor Rates, and while under the Age of Fourteen; and such Cost of Maintenance, and the Costs of Suit, shall be recoverable by Process in the Name of the Guardians before the Barrister at Quarter Sessions from the Person who shall have been adjudged to be the Father of the Child.

11. 'And whereas by the Act of the Second Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, it is provided, that no Order of the Commissioners nor any Byelaw shall authorize the Education of any Child in a Workhouse in any Religious Creed other than that professed by the Parents or Parent of the Child, and to which such Parents or Parent shall object, and in the Case of an Orphan to which the Guardian or Guardians, Godfather or Godmother, shall object; but no such Provision is made for the Case of a Child not being an Orphan, the Religion of whose Parents or Parent is unknown: 'Be it enacted, That in every such last-mentioned Case the Guardian or Guardians, Godfather or Godmother of the Child, shall have the like Power to object as the Parents or Parent of a Child would have if living, or as the Guardian or Guardians, Godfather or Godmother, would have in the Case of an Orphan.

12. 'And whereas Doubts have existed as to the Liability of unoccupied Buildings to be rated in the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts: 'Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Guardians shall, in making every Rate for the Relief of the destitute Poor, specify on the Face thereof the Period for the Service of which the Rate is estimated to provide, and that when any Building liable to Assessment under the Provisions of the Acts for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland is unoccupied at the Time of making any such Rate on the Electoral Division in which such Building shall be situate, the Board of Guardians shall in every such Case include such Building in the said Rate, describing it in the Column appropriated to the Name of the Occupier or immediate Lessor, as the Case may be, as "empty," and such Building shall be deemed to be rated to the Relief of the Poor as fully and effectually as if it had been occupied at the Time of the Rate made, and the Name of the Occupier or immediate Lessor inserted in the said Rate: Provided always, that if such Building shall continue to be unoccupied during the whole of the Period for which the Rate was estimated as aforesaid, the Rate so made on the said Building shall not be recoverable; provided also, that if after the making of the said Rate, and before the Expiration of the Period for which the Rate was so estimated as aforesaid, any Person or Persons shall occupy such Building for any Portion of such Period, the Board of Guardians shall be entitled to recover from the Occupier or the immediate Lessor, if he be liable to pay the same, a Portion only of the said Rate proportioned to the Time during which the said Building shall have been so occupied; and the same shall be recovered from the Occupier or immediate Lessor, as the Case may be, in the same Manner as if he had been originally rated for such Building, or, in default of Payment by such Occupier, from the subsequent Occupier of the Premises.

As to rating of unoccupied Buildings.

Poor Relief (Ireland).

County Cess Collectors not to be entitled to collect Poor Rates in preference to other Persons.
1 & 2 Vict. c. 56.

13. From and after the passing of this Act, so much of the Act passed in the First and Second Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, as provides that every Rate made on each Electoral Division shall and may, if any Collector for the Time authorized to collect the County Cess on any Part of such Electoral Division shall be approved of by the Commissioners, and shall give Security to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, and shall accept such Salary or Allowance as shall be approved by the Commissioners for his Trouble in that Behalf, be levied by such Collector, who shall, so far as relates to the Collection of such Rate, be deemed a paid Officer of the Union within which such Electoral Division shall be situate, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Guardians of any Union, subject to the Approval of the Commissioners, to appoint from Time to Time such and so many Persons as they may deem expedient to collect and levy the Rates so made on the several Electoral Divisions.

Not to affect District comprised in Dublin Rates Act.
12 & 13 Vict. c. 91.

14. Nothing herein-before contained regarding the rating of Premises or the Collection of Rates shall apply to Premises situate within the District for the Collection of Poor Rates as defined by the Act passed in the Session held in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the Collection of Rates in the City of Dublin.

Non-occupying Ratepayers to give full Description of the Property in respect of which they claim to vote, and of their Interest therein.

15. No Ratepayer shall be entitled to vote in the Election of Guardians, either in Person or by Proxy, in respect of any Property not in his actual Occupation, or to give any Vote in addition to the Vote or Votes to which he would be entitled as an Occupier paying Rent equal to the net annual Value of the Property in his actual Occupation, unless he or his Proxy shall, One Month at the least previous to the Day on which he shall claim to vote, have given to the Guardians, or to some Person acting as Returning Officer, a Statement in Writing of the Name and Address of such Ratepayer, and the Description and local Situation of the Property in respect of which he claims to vote, specifying, in Cities, Towns, and their Suburbs having Streets and other Roadways, the Name of the Street or Roadway, and the

16. No Claim of a Ratepayer to vote in the Election of Guardians, either in Person or by Proxy, in respect of any Property not in his actual Occupation, or to give a Vote or Votes in addition to the Vote or Votes to which he would be entitled as an Occupier paying Rent equal to the net annual Value of the Property in his Occupation, shall continue in force beyond the Period of Five Years from the Date on which he or his Proxy shall have given such Statement as aforesaid : Provided that every Appointment of a Proxy may be revoked at any Time ; provided also, that no Person shall be entitled to vote as Proxy for more than Twenty Owners of Property in any One Electoral Division or Ward unless he be a Steward, Bailiff, Land Agent, or Collector of Rents for the Owners of Property for whom he may be appointed to vote.

Limitation of Property and Proxy Claims.

17. 'And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether Owners or immediate Lessors of Property who are rated under the Provisions of the Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-two, Sections One and Four, or under the Provisions of the Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-one, Section Sixty-three, or under the Provisions of the Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and four, Section Ten, are entitled to vote as Ratepayers in respect of Property for which they are so rated : ' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Owners or immediate Lessors who are so rated as aforesaid to vote, in Person or by Proxy, in the Election of Guardians in respect of the Property or Rent for which they are so rated, in the same Manner as Occupiers paying no Rent or paying Rent less than the net annual Value of the rateable Property, as the Case may be ; provided that every such Owner or immediate Lessor or his Proxy shall have lodged a Statement in the Manner herein-before provided with reference to Persons claiming to vote in respect of Property not in their actual Occupation.

Owners or immediate Lessors rated under Sects. 1 & 4 of 6 & 7 Vict. c. 92., Sect. 63. of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 91., and Sect. 10. of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 104. may vote as Occupiers.

18. No Person receiving Rent shall be entitled to vote as aforesaid in respect thereof for any greater Amount of Rent than the annual Value of the Property out of which such Claim arises, according to the Valuation of the same in the Survey or Valuation Occupiers and immediate Lessors who are rated not to vote unless all Rates Six Months due have been paid.

19. 'Whereas it is provided by the said recited Act, that no Occupier paying Rent to any Landlord shall be entitled to vote under the Provisions of the said Act unless he shall have paid all the Poor Rates previously made and assessed upon him, except such as shall have been made or become due within the Six Calendar Months immediately preceding such voting; and it is expedient to extend the said Provision: Be it enacted, That no Occupier rated to the Poor Rate shall be entitled to vote in that Capacity unless he shall have paid all the Poor Rates previously made and assessed upon him, except such as shall have been made or become due within Six Calendar Months immediately preceding such voting; and no Owner or immediate Lessor who is rated under the Provisions of the Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-two, Sections One and Four, or the Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-one, Section Sixty-three, or the Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and four, Section Ten, and this Act, shall be entitled to vote in respect of the Property for which he is so rated, unless he shall have paid all the Rates made and assessed on him in respect of such Property, except such as shall have been made or become due within Six Calendar Months immediately preceding such voting.

Guardian elected for Two or more Divisions to notify for which he will act.

20. From and after the passing of this Act, in the event of any One Person being elected a Guardian by the Ratepayers of Two or more Electoral Divisions, Electoral Districts, or Wards, as the Case may be, he shall forthwith notify to the Returning Officer for which of such Electoral Divisions, Electoral Districts, or Wards, as the Case may be, he will choose to act as Guardian, which Notification shall be transmitted to the Commissioners by the Returning Officer of such Union; and the Commissioners shall thereupon take Order for a further Election of Guardian in the other of such Divisions, Districts, or Wards, as the Case may be.

Solicitors who are Guardians not to act for or against Board.

21. No Solicitor who is a Member of any Board of Guardians shall act professionally as Solicitor either for or against the Board of Guardians of which he is a Member; and every Solicitor so acting shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, with full Costs of Suit, to any Person who shall sue for the same by Action of Debt in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin.

Paid Officers and others incapable of serving as Guardians.

22. No paid Officer engaged in the Administration of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor, or under the Act for the better Distribution, Support, and Management of Medical Charities in Ireland, nor any Person who, having been such paid Officer, shall have been dismissed within Five Years previously from such Office, shall be capable of serving as a Guardian; and no Person receiving any fixed Salary or Emolument from the Poor Rates in any Union shall be capable of serving as a Guardian in such Union.

Poor Relief (Ireland).

23. ‘ And whereas no legal Provision exists for the Burial of the Bodies of unknown Persons who have been drowned and cast ashore in Ireland, or who have otherwise perished and been found dead :’ Be it enacted, That the Guardians of each Union in Ireland shall provide for the Burial of the dead Body of every such Person dying or found dead within such Union whose Family or Connexions shall not be known, and whose Body shall not be claimed by any Person for the Purpose of Burial, and shall charge the Expenses of such Burial on the Poor Rates of the Union : Provided that the Relieving Officer of the Union, with the Sanction of the Guardian or One of the Guardians of the Electoral Division in which such Person shall be found dead, shall proceed without Delay in the Burial of such dead Body, giving Notice to the Guardians of his Proceedings therein, and of the Expenses incurred by him as soon thereafter as may be practicable in each Case, such Expense in each Case not to exceed Seven Shillings and Sixpence.

Burial Expenses of Persons dying unknown.

24. When, at the Expiration of the Year of Office of the Guardians of the Poor, no Nomination of a Guardian or Guardians for any Electoral Division shall have been made, the Guardian or Guardians of any such Electoral Division shall remain in Office for the ensuing Year, and have Power to exercise all the Functions of Guardians of the Poor, as if duly re-elected.

Where no new Guardians nominated, old ones to remain in Office.

25. ‘ Whereas under Provisions of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter One, the Commissioners are empowered to constitute certain Cities, Boroughs, and Towns Electoral Divisions into Wards for the Election of Guardians :’ Be it enacted, That when the Commissioners shall have divided any Electoral Division into Wards as aforesaid, every Ratepayer who, under the last Rate made in any Union, shall have paid or contributed, or be liable to pay or contribute, Rate in respect of Property in any Ward, shall have a Vote or Votes for the Election of Guardians in such Ward according to the Scale of Votes provided by the Act of the First and Second Years of Victoria, Chapter Fifty-six.

After Division of Electoral Divisions into Wards, Ratepayers under the last Rate may vote for Guardians.

26. ‘ And whereas the Provisions of an Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety, relating to the Constitution and Appointment of Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, Secretaries, Inspectors, and other Officers, were continued from Time to Time, and by an Act passed in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and forty-eight, such Provisions were further continued until the Twenty-third Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and thenceforth until the End of the present Session of Parliament ; and it is expedient that the Commission for administering the Law for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, as constituted under the said Act and an Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-eight, should be further continued for a limited Time :’ Therefore the Commissioners appointed by Her Majesty, or to be appointed by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, under the Appointment of Commissioners administering Laws for Relief of Poor in Ireland acting under 10 & 11 Vict. c. 90., &c. further continued.

Poor Relief (Ireland).Excise Duties.

Authority of the said last-mentioned Acts or either of them, together with every Person by the said Acts or either of them constituted by virtue of his Office such Commissioner, and every Inspector and other Officer and Person appointed or to be appointed by the Commissioners under the Provisions of the said recited Acts now in force, shall, unless he shall previously resign or be removed, or otherwise cease to hold his Office, be empowered to hold his Office and exercise the Powers thereof, under the said last-mentioned Acts or either of them, until the Twenty-third Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and until the Expiration of the said Period it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, at Pleasure, to remove the Commissioner or Commissioners for the Time being appointed by Her Majesty, or to be appointed by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, under the said Acts or either of them, and upon every Vacancy in the Office of the Commissioner or Commissioners so appointed or to be appointed, either by Removal, Death, Resignation, or otherwise, to appoint, as in the said Acts or either of them is described, some other fit Person to the said Office.

An Act to continue the Duties of Excise on Sugar made in the United Kingdom, and to amend the Laws relating to the Duties of Excise. [7th August 1862.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies for defraying Your Majesty's public Expenses and making an Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Duties of Excise on Sugar made in the United Kingdom specified in Schedule (B.) of the Act passed in the Twentieth and Twenty-first Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Sixty-one, shall be continued, and be levied and charged until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

2. 'And whereas an Act was passed in the Twenty-third and ' Twenty-fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One ' hundred and fourteen, to reduce into One Act and to amend ' the Excise Regulations relating to the distilling, rectifying, and ' dealing in Spirits; and by the said Act certain Acts and Parts ' of Acts specified in Schedule (C.) thereto annexed were repealed, ' and Doubts may arise whether by such Repeal other Duties than ' those Excise Duties on British Sugar continued until 1st July 1863.

23 & 24 Vict. c. 114. not to affect any other Duties than the Excise Duties on Spirits.

Excise Duties.Moveable Property (Scotland).

‘ those of Excise on Spirits and the Regulations for charging and collecting the same may not have been prejudiced or affected contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said last-recited Act :’ Be it enacted and declared, That nothing in the said last-recited Act or the said Schedule contained shall be construed, deemed, or taken to have repealed or affected any Duties of Excise in force at the Time of the passing of the same Act, or the Regulations for charging or collecting the same, except as to the Duties of Excise on Spirits, and all such Duties and Regulations in force as aforesaid, except as aforesaid, are hereby declared to have remained and shall continue to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and the said Duties to have been and to be lawfully charged and chargeable in like Manner as they would have been if the said last-recited Act had not been passed, unless or until the same have been or shall be otherwise expressly repealed.

C A P. LXXXVI.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Commissions of Lunacy and the Proceedings under the same, and to provide more effectually for the visiting of Lunatics, and for other Purposes. [7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to Commissions of Lunacy and the Proceedings under the same, and to provide more effectually for the visiting of Persons found lunatic by Inquisition, and to make the other Provisions herein-after contained with respect to certain Officers in Lunacy, and otherwise: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as “The Lunacy Regulation Act, 1862.” Short Title.

2. In this Act, unless there be something in the Subject Matter or Context repugnant to the Construction, the following Terms shall have the Meanings herein-after assigned to them : Interpretation.

The Expression “the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid” and the several other Expressions and Words mentioned and referred to in the Second Section of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Seventy, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Proceedings under Commissions of Lunacy, and the Consolidation and Amendment of the Acts respecting Lunatics so found by Inquisition and their Estates, shall be read and construed according to the Interpretations thereof contained in the said Section :

And generally the Provisions of the said Act (except so far as the same are altered by or are inconsistent with this Act) shall shall extend and apply to the several Cases and Matters provided for by this Act, in the same Way as if this Act had been incorporated with and had formed Part of the said Act.

3. The Inquiry to be made under every Order for Inquiry or Commission of Lunacy or Issue shall be confined to the Question whether or not the Person who is the Subject of the Inquiry is at the Time of such Inquiry of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs, and no Evidence as to anything done or said by such Person, or as to his Demeanour or State of Mind at any Time being more than Two Years before the Time of the Inquiry, shall be receivable in Proof of Insanity on any such Inquiry, or on the Trial of any Traverse of an Inquisition, unless the Judge or Master shall otherwise direct.

4. Wherever, under the said Act, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order an Inquiry before a Jury, he may by his Order direct an Issue to be tried in One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, and the Question in such Issue shall be, whether the alleged insane Person is of unsound Mind and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs; and the Provisions of the said Act with respect to Commissions of Lunacy, and Orders for Inquiry to be tried by a Jury, and the Trial thereof, and the Constitution of the Jury, shall apply to any Issue to be directed as aforesaid, and the Trial thereof, and subject thereto such Issue and the Trial thereof shall be regulated by the Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and nine, intituled An Act to amend the Law concerning Games and Wagers, and the Verdict upon any such Issue, finding the alleged insane Person to be of unsound Mind and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs shall have the same Force to all Intents and Purposes as an Inquisition under a Commission of Lunacy, finding a Person to be of unsound Mind and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs, returned into the Court of Chancery.

5. Where in any Act of Parliament, Order, Rule of Court, or Instrument Reference is made to a Commission of Lunacy, or the Inquisition thereon, the Issue hereby authorized to be directed, and the Verdict thereon, operating as an Inquisition, shall be deemed to be intended by or comprehended in the Reference.

6. On the Trial of every such Issue as last aforesaid the alleged insane Person shall, if he is within the Jurisdiction, be examined before the taking of the Evidence is commenced, and at the Close of the Proceedings, before the Jury consult as to their Verdict, unless the presiding Judge shall otherwise direct; and such Examinations of the alleged insane Person shall take place either in open Court or in private as such Judge shall direct.

7. No Person shall be entitled to a Traverse of any Inquisition made under any such Order as aforesaid upon the Oath of a Jury; but it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, if he shall think fit, upon a Petition being presented to him within Three Months next after the Trial of any such Nature and Limit of Inquiry under Commissions of Lunacy.

Inquiries before a Jury to be made by means of an Issue to One of the Superior Courts of Common Law.

Reference in other Acts to Inquisition to apply to Verdict on Issue.

Examination of alleged Lunatic on the holding of the Inquisition.

No Traverse of an Inquisition made by One of the Judges of the Superior Courts and by Lunacy Regulation.

Issue, to order that a new Trial shall be had of such Issue or a new Inquiry made as to the Insanity of such Person, subject to such Directions and upon such Conditions as to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may seem proper.

Sections One hundred and forty-eight, One hundred and forty-nine, and One hundred and fifty of the said Act (which Sections relate to Petitions and Orders for the Traverse of Inquisitions) shall not apply to any Case coming within the last preceding Section of this Act.

Section One hundred and fifty-one of the said Act shall apply to all Proceedings taken, Orders made, and Things done, pending a new Trial or new Inquiry or the Petition for the same, in the same Manner as is provided by the said Section with respect to such Matters pending a Traverse or the Petition for the same.

8. And with reference to Inquiries before the Master without a Jury, and the Right of the alleged Lunatic to demand an Inquiry by a Jury, be it enacted, upon the Hearing of any Petition for Inquiry it shall be lawful for the alleged Lunatic, by himself, his Counsel or Solicitor, orally, or by Petition addressed to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, to demand an Inquiry by a Jury, and such Demand shall have the same Effect as if made by Notice filed with the Registrar in accordance with the Provisions of the said Act.

a Jury to be granted, but new Trial may be ordered by the Lord Chancellor.

Demand of Inquiry by Jury.

9. Upon such Hearing the alleged Lunatic may, by himself, his Counsel or Solicitor, orally, or by Petition as aforesaid, withdraw any Notice of demanding an Inquiry by a Jury previously filed by him.

Demand of Inquiry by Jury may be withdrawn.

10. And with respect to the superseding of Commissions, be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the Lord Chancellor that it is not expedient or for the Benefit of the Lunatic that the Commission should be unconditionally superseded, but that same should be superseded on Terms and Conditions, he may, upon the Consent of the Lunatic and such other Persons, if any, whose Consent he may deem necessary, order the Commission to be superseded upon such Terms and Conditions as he shall think proper; and all the Provisions contained in "The Lunacy Regulation Act, 1853," in relation to the superseding of the Commission in Cases where a Traverse has been applied for, and to the Proceedings for the fulfilling of such Terms and Conditions, shall apply to all Cases in which the Commission shall be superseded upon Terms and Conditions under the Provisions herein contained.

Commission may be superseded on Conditions.

11. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to order the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incidental to the Presentation of any Petition for a Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatico inquirendo, or for any Order of Inquiry under "The Lunacy Regulation Act, 1853," and of and incidental to the Prosecution of any Inquiry, Inquisition, Issue, Traverse, or other Proceeding consequent upon such Commission or Order, to be paid either by the Party or Parties who shall have presented such Petition, or by the Party or Parties opposing such Petition, or out of the Estate of the alleged Lord Chancellor may order Costs.

Lunacy Regulation.

Lunatic, or partly in one way and partly in another, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall in each Case think proper; and such Order shall have the same Force and Effect as Orders for the Payment of Money made by the High Court of Chancery in Cases within its Jurisdiction.

As to Property of insane Persons when of small Amount.

Power to Lord Chancellor, where Property of Lunatic does not exceed 1,000*l.* in Value or 50*l.* per Ann., to apply it for his Benefit in a summary Manner, &c.

In order that the Property of insane Persons when the same is of small Amount may be applied for their Benefit in a summary and inexpensive Manner, be it enacted as follows :

12. Where, by the Report of One of the Masters in Lunacy or of the Commissioners in Lunacy, or by Affidavit or otherwise, it is established to the Satisfaction of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid that any Person is of unsound Mind and incapable of managing his Affairs, and that his Property does not exceed One thousand Pounds in Value, or that the Income thereof does not exceed Fifty Pounds per Annum, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may, without directing any Inquiry under a Commission of Lunacy, make such Order as he may consider expedient for the Purpose of rendering the Property of such Person, or the Income thereof, available for his Maintenance or Benefit or for carrying on his Trade or Business : Provided nevertheless, that the alleged insane Person shall have such personal Notice of the Application for such Order as aforesaid as the Lord Chancellor shall by General Order to be made as after mentioned direct.

Power to sell Land or other Property of Lunatic for his Benefit.

13. For the Purpose of giving effect to any such Order as is mentioned in the last preceding Section the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may order any Land, Stock, or other Property of such Person as aforesaid to be sold, charged by way of Mortgage, or otherwise disposed of, and a Conveyance, Transfer, Charge, or other Disposition thereof to be executed or made by any Person on his Behalf, and may order the Proceeds of any such Sale, Charge, or other Disposition, or the Dividends or Income of such Land, Stock, or Property, to be paid to any Relative of such insane Person, or to such other Person as it may be considered proper to trust with the Application thereof, to be by him applied in the Maintenance or for the Benefit of the insane Person, or of him and his Family, either at the Discretion of such Relative or Person, or in such Manner, and subject to such Control, and with or without such Security for the Application thereof, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct; and for the Purpose above mentioned the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall have all the same Powers with respect to the Transfer, Sale, and Disposition of, and otherwise respecting, the Real and Personal Property of such Person as aforesaid as if he had been found lunatic by Inquisition.

Power to make General Orders, to carry into effect the last preceding Section.

14. The Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time make such General Orders as he may think fit for regulating the Procedure to be adopted and the Duties to be performed by the Masters and Officers in Lunacy for obtaining such Reports as aforesaid, and for carrying the Objects of the Two last preceding Sections into effect, and for vesting in such Masters and Officers such Powers as the Lord Chancellor may consider expedient for the Purposes aforesaid.

15. Where any Person has, on the Trial of any Indictment, been acquitted on the Ground of Insanity, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, on being satisfied by Affidavit or otherwise of the continued Insanity of such Person, and of his being still in Confinement, to make any such Order with respect to the Property of such Person, and the Application thereof for his Maintenance or Benefit, or that of his Family, or for carrying on his Trade or Business, as is mentioned in the Three last preceding Sections of this Act.

Power to apply Property of Persons acquitted on the Ground of Insanity for their Benefit.

And for the Purpose of extending the Powers over the Property of Lunatics given by Section One hundred and sixteen of the said Act, be it enacted as follows :

Charging Orders.

16. Where it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for the Lunatic's Benefit, he may by Order direct any Estate or Interest of the Lunatic in Land or Stock, either in possession, reversion, remainder, contingency, or expectancy, and either existing or which may exist at any future Time, to stand and be charged with any Monies advanced or to be advanced, or due or to become due, to any Person for or in respect of any of the Purposes or Matters mentioned in the said Section, and either with or without Interest on such Monies ; and he may also by Order direct any such Estate and Interest to be dealt with and disposed of in such Manner as he shall consider expedient for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or for securing any Monies advanced or to be advanced for such Purposes or any of them, and with or without Interest for the same ; and every Charge and Disposition directed or made by or in pursuance of any such Order shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, and shall take effect accordingly, subject only to any prior Charge to which the Estate or Interest affected thereby may at the Date of such Order be subject.

Extending Powers of charging Lunatic's Property for his Maintenance, Debts, and Costs.

General.

17. Every Conveyance, Transfer, Charge, or other Disposition made or executed by virtue of this Act, and every Payment made in pursuance of this Act, shall be valid to all Intents, and binding upon all Persons whomsoever ; and this Act shall be a full Indemnity and Discharge to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, their Officers and Servants, and all other Persons respectively, for all Acts and Things done or permitted to be done in pursuance thereof, or of any Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid made or purporting to be made under this Act ; and such Acts and Things respectively shall not be questioned or impeached in any Court of Law or Equity to their Detriment.

All Deeds, &c. made in pursuance of this Act to be binding. Indemnity to the Bank of England, &c.

18. To give further and better Effect to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Sixtieth Sections of the said Act, respecting the Attendance of Witnesses before the said Masters, the Masters may in the Matter of any Lunatic or alleged Lunatic compel by Summons the Attendance of any Person to give Evidence before them, whether such Person has or has not previously given Evidence by Affidavit ; and every Person so summoned shall be

Power to Masters to summon Witnesses.

Lunacy Regulation.

bound to attend as required by the Summons, and give Evidence before the said Masters, in like Manner as is provided by the Sixtieth Section of the said Act in the Case of Persons who have given Evidence by Affidavit.

And with respect to the visiting of Lunatics, be it enacted as follows :

Visiting.

Duties of Visitors.

19. It shall be the Duty of the Visitors to visit Persons of unsound Mind within the Meaning of this Act at such Times and in such Rotation and Manner, and to make such Inquiries and Investigations as to their Care and Treatment and mental and bodily Health, and the Arrangements for their Maintenance and Comfort, and otherwise respecting them, as the Lord Chancellor shall by General Orders, or as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall by Special Order in any particular Case from Time to Time direct.

All Lunatics to be visited Four Times a Year.

20. Provided always, That from and after the First Day of October next every Lunatic shall be personally visited and seen by One of the said Visitors Four Times at least in every Year, and such Visits shall be so regulated as that the Interval between successive Visits to any such Lunatic shall in no Case exceed Four Months : Provided always, that Lunatics who are resident in licensed Houses, Asylums, or registered Hospitals shall not necessarily be visited by any of the said Visitors more than once in the Year, unless the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall otherwise direct.

Visitors also to visit alleged Lunatics, and make a Report,
&c. to the Lord Chancellor.

21. The Visitors shall also visit such Persons alleged to be insane, and shall make such Inquiries and Reports in reference to them as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct, and at the Expiration of every Six Calendar Months they shall report to the Lord Chancellor the Number of Visits which they shall have made, the Number of Patients they shall have seen, and the Number of Miles they shall have travelled during such Months, and shall on the First Day of January in each Year make a Return to the Lord Chancellor of all Sums received by them for travelling Expenses, or upon any other Account ; and a Copy of such Reports, showing the Number of Visits made, the Number of Patients seen, and the Number of Miles travelled, and also a Copy of such Return of Sums received for travelling Expenses, or upon any other Account, shall be laid before Parliament on or before the First Day of February in each Year, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, within Twenty-one Days next after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

16 & 17 Vict.
c. 70. ss. 104,
105. repealed.

22. Sections One hundred and four and One hundred and five of the said Act (which Sections relate to the visiting of Lunatics) are hereby repealed.

Officers in Lunacy.

Lord Chancellor may allow Pensions to present Visitors.

23. The Lord Chancellor may, if he shall so think fit, on a Petition presented to him for that Purpose, order Annuities, not exceeding One Half of their respective Salaries, to be paid to the present Medical Visitors or either of them, in case they or either of them shall be desirous of retiring from the Offices held by them, they having already attained the respective Ages of Seventy-eight and Eighty-one Years, and having served as such

‘ WHEREAS by the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any Number of Persons to establish a Society under the Provisions thereof and of the therein-recited Act, for the Purpose of raising by voluntary

15 & 16 Vict. c. 31.

Industrial and Provident Societies.

‘ voluntary Subscriptions of the Members thereof a Fund for attaining any Purpose or Object for the Time being authorized by the Laws in force with respect to Friendly Societies or by the said recited Act, by carrying on or exercising in common any Labour, Trade, or Handicraft, or several Labours, Trades, or Handicrafts, except the working of Mines, Minerals, or Quarries beyond the Limits of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and also except the Business of Banking, whether in the said United Kingdom or elsewhere; and that the said Act shall apply to all Societies already established for any of the Purposes herein mentioned, so soon as they shall conform to the Provisions hereof: And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Twenty-five, various Provisions were made for the better enabling legal Proceedings to be carried on in any Matter concerning the Societies formed under the said Act of 1852: And whereas the last-mentioned Act was amended by an Act passed in the First Session of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty: And whereas various Societies have been formed and are now carrying on Business under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, and it is desirable to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to such Societies:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Recited Acts repealed.

1. The Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852, and the said recited Acts for the Amendment thereof, are hereby repealed from the passing of this Act.

As to Societies registered under recited Acts.

2. All Societies registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1852, shall be entitled to obtain a Certificate of Registration on Application to the Registrar of Friendly Societies, and for which Certificate no Fee shall be payable to the Registrar.

Constitution of Societies under this Act.

3. Any Number of Persons, not being less than Seven, may establish a Society under this Act for the Purpose of carrying on any Labour, Trade, or Handicraft, whether wholesale or retail, except the working of Mines and Quarries, and except the Business of Banking, and of applying the Profits for any Purposes allowed by the Friendly Societies Acts, or otherwise permitted by Law.

Rules.

4. The Rules of every such Society shall contain Provisions in respect of the several Matters mentioned in the Schedule annexed to this Act.

Registration of Society.

5. Two Copies of the Rules shall be forwarded to the Registrar of Friendly Societies of England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the Place where the Office of the Society is situate, and shall be dealt with by him in the Manner provided by the Friendly Societies Act, 1855; and he shall thereupon give his Certificate of Registration, and such Certificate shall in all Cases be conclusive Evidence that the Society has been duly registered, and and thereupon the Members of such Society shall become a Body Corporate, by the Name therein described, having a perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, with Power to hold Lands and Buildings, with limited Liability.

6. The Certificate of Registration shall vest in the Society all the Property that may at the Time be vested in any Person in trust for the Society ; and all legal Proceedings then pending by or against any such Trustee or other Officer on account of the Society may be prosecuted by or against the Society in its registered Name without Abatement.

Certificate to vest all Property in Society now held in trust.

7. A Copy of the Rules shall be delivered by the Society to every Person, on Demand, on Payment of a Sum not exceeding One Shilling.

Copy of Rules on Demand.

8. No Society shall be registered under a Name identical with that by which any other existing Society has been registered, or so nearly resembling such Name as to be likely to deceive the Members or the Public, and the Word "Limited" shall be the last Word in the Name of every Society registered under this Act.

No Society to be registered by same Name as that of any existing Society.

9. No Member shall be entitled, in any Society registered under this Act, to hold or claim any Interest exceeding the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Member's Interests limited to 200*l.*

10. Every Society registered under this Act shall paint or affix, and shall keep painted or affixed, its Name on the Outside of every Office or Place in which the Business of the Society is carried on, in a conspicuous Position, in Letters easily legible, and shall have its Name engraven in legible Characters on its Seal, and shall have its Name mentioned in legible Characters in all Notices, Advertisements, and other official Publications of such Society, and in all Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Endorsements, Cheques, and Orders for Money or Goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of such Company, and in all Bills of Parcels, Invoices, Receipts, and Letters of Credit of the Society.

Publication of Name by a Society.

11. If any Society under this Act does not paint or affix, and keep painted or affixed, its Name in manner directed by this Act, it shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for not so painting or affixing its Name, and for every Day during which such Name is not so kept painted or affixed ; and if any Officer of such Society or any Person on its Behalf uses any Seal purporting to be a Seal of the Society whereon its Name is not so engraven as aforesaid, or issues or authorizes the Issue of any Notice, Advertisement, or other official Publication of such Society, or signs or authorizes to be signed on behalf of such Society any Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Endorsement, Cheque, Order for Money or Goods, or issues or authorizes to be issued any Bill of Parcels, Invoice, Receipt, or Letter of Credit of the Society, wherein its Name is not mentioned in manner aforesaid, he shall be liable to a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, and shall further be personally liable to the Holder of any such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Cheque, or Order for Money or Goods, for the Amount thereof, unless the same is duly paid by the Society.

Every Society to have a registered Office.

Penalty on Default.

12. Every Society under this Act shall have a registered Office to which all Communications and Notices may be addressed: If any Society registered under this Act carries on Business without having such an Office, it shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which Business is so carried on.

Notice of Situation of registered Office.

13. Notice of the Situation of such registered Office, and of any Change therein, shall be given to the Registrar, and recorded by him: Until such Notice is given the Society shall not be deemed to have complied with the Provisions of this Act.

Signature and Effect of Rules.

14. The Rules of every Society registered under this Act shall bind the Society, and the Members thereof, to the same Extent as if each Member had subscribed his Name and affixed his Seal thereto, and there were in such Rules contained a Covenant on the Part of himself, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, to conform to such Rules subject to the Provisions of this Act; and all Monies payable by any Member to the Society in pursuance of such Rules shall be deemed to be a Debt due from such Member to the Society.

Application of Friendly Societies Acts to this Act.

15. The Provisions of the Friendly Societies Acts shall apply to Societies registered under this Act in the following Particulars:

Exemption from Stamp Duties and Income Tax:

Settlements of Disputes by Arbitration or Justices:

Compensation to Members unjustly excluded:

Power of Justices or County Courts in case of Fraud:

Jurisdiction of the Registrar.

Power to Member to nominate Persons into whose Name his Interest may be transferred at his Death.

16. The Provisions of the Friendly Societies Act, 1854, whereby a Member of any Society registered thereunder is allowed to nominate any Persons to whom his Investment in such Society shall be paid, shall extend, in the Case of Societies registered under this Act, to allow any Member thereof to nominate any Persons into whose Name his Interest in such Society at his Decease shall be transferred: Provided nevertheless, that any such Society may, in lieu of making such Transfer, elect to pay to any Persons so nominated the full Value of such Interest.

As to the Winding-up of Societies.

17. Any Society registered under this Act may be wound up either by the Court or voluntarily, in the same Manner and under the same Circumstances under and in which any Company may be wound up under any Acts or Act for the Time being in force for winding up Companies; and all the Provisions of such Acts or Act with respect to winding up shall apply to such Society, with this Exception, that the Court having Jurisdiction in the Winding-up shall be the County Court of the District in which the Office of the Society is situated.

Dissolution of Society not to prevent winding up of its Affairs.

18. In case of the Dissolution of any such Society, such Society shall nevertheless be considered as subsisting, and be in all respects subject to the Provisions of this Act, so long and so far as any Matters relating to the same remain unsettled, to the Industrial and Provident Societies.

the Intent that such Society may do all things necessary to the winding up of the Concerns thereof, and that it may be sued and sue, under the Provisions of this Act, in respect of all Matters relating to such Society.

19. The Provisions of the Joint Stock Companies Acts as to Bills of Exchange and the Admissibility of the Register of Shares in Evidence shall apply to all Societies registered under this Act. Joint Stock Companies Acts to apply.

20. In the event of a Society registered under this Act being wound up, every present and past Member of such Society shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Society to an Amount sufficient for Payment of the Debts and Liabilities of the Society, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Winding-up, and for the Payment of such Sums as may be required for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves, with the Qualifications following ; (that is to say,)

- (1.) No past Member shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Society if he has ceased to be a Member for a Period of One Year or upwards prior to the Commencement of the Winding-up :
- (2.) No past Member shall be liable to contribute in respect of any Debt or Liability of the Society contracted after the Time at which he ceased to be a Member :
- (3.) No past Member shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Society unless it appears to the Court that the existing Members are unable to satisfy the Contributions required to be made by them in order to satisfy all just Demands upon such Society :
- (4.) No Contribution shall be required from any Member exceeding the Amount (if any) unpaid on the Shares in respect of which he is liable as a past or present Member.

21. Any Society registered under this Act may be constituted a Company under the Companies Acts, by conforming to the Provisions set forth in such Act, and thereupon shall cease to retain its Registration under this Act. Society may be constituted under Companies Acts.

22. Every Person or Member having an Interest in the Funds of any Society registered under this Act may inspect the Books and the Names of the Members at all reasonable Hours at the Office of the Society. Members may inspect Books.

23. The Sheriff in Scotland shall within his County have the like Jurisdiction as is hereby given to the Judge of the County Court in any Matter arising under this Act. Sheriffs Jurisdiction in Scotland.

24. A General Statement of the Funds and Effects of any Society registered under this Act shall be transmitted to the Registrar once in every Year, and shall exhibit fully the Assets and Liabilities of the Society, and shall be prepared and made out within such Period, and in such Form, and shall comprise such Particulars as the Registrar shall from Time to Time require ; and the Registrar shall have Authority to require such Evidence as he may think expedient of all Matters required to be done, and of all Documents required to be transmitted to him. Annual Returns to be prepared as Registrar may direct.

8. Every Person who, after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, shall sell, utter, or expose for Sale or for any Purpose of Trade or Manufacture, or shall cause or procure to be sold, uttered, or exposed for Sale or other Purpose as aforesaid, any Chattel or Article upon which shall have been, to his Knowledge, put, or upon any Cask, Bottle, Stopper, Vessel, Case, Cover, Wrapper, Band, Reel, Ticket, Label, or other Thing together with which such Chattel or Article shall be sold or uttered or exposed for Sale or other Purpose as aforesaid, shall have been so put, or upon any Case, Frame, or other Thing used or employed to expose or exhibit such Chattel or Article for Sale shall have been so put, any false Description, Statement, or other Indication of or respecting the Number, Quantity, Measure, or Weight of such Chattel or Article or any Part thereof, or the Place or Country in which such Chattel or Article shall have been made, manufactured, or produced, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay to Her Majesty a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds and not less than Five Shillings.

9. Provided always, That the Provisions of this Act shall not be construed so as to make it any Offence for any Person to apply to any Chattel or Article, or to any Cask, Bottle, Stopper, Vessel, Case, Cover, Wrapper, Band, Reel, Ticket, Label, or other Thing with which such Chattel or Article shall be sold or intended to be sold, any Name, Word, or Expression generally used for indicating such Chattel or Article to be of some particular Class or Description of Manufacture only, or so as to make it any Offence for any Person to sell, utter, or offer or expose for Sale any Chattel or Article to which, or to any Cask, Bottle, Stopper, Vessel, Case, Cover, Wrapper, Band, Reel, Ticket, Label, or other Thing sold therewith, any such generally used Name, Word, or Expression as aforesaid shall have been applied.

10. In every Indictment, Pleading, Proceeding, and Document whatsoever in which any Trade Mark shall be intended to be mentioned it shall be sufficient to mention or state the same to be a Trade Mark without further or otherwise describing such Trade Mark, or setting forth any Copy or Fac-simile thereof; and in every Indictment, Pleading, Proceeding, and Document whatsoever in which it shall be intended to mention any forged or counterfeit Trade Mark it shall be sufficient to mention or state the same to be a forged or counterfeit Trade Mark without further or otherwise describing such forged or counterfeit Trade Mark, or setting forth any Copy or Fac-simile thereof.

11. The Provisions in this Act contained of or concerning any Act, or any Proceeding, Judgment, or Conviction for any Act hereby declared to be a Misdemeanor or Offence, shall not nor shall any of them take away, diminish, or prejudicially affect any Suit, Process, Proceeding, Right, or Remedy which any Person aggrieved by such Act may be entitled to at Law, in Equity, or otherwise, and shall not nor shall any of them exempt or excuse any Person from answering or making Discovery upon Examination as a Witness or upon Interrogatories, or otherwise, in any Suit or other Civil Proceeding: Provided always, that no Evidence, Statement, or Discovery which any Person shall be compelled to give or make shall be admissible in Evidence against such Person in support of any Indictment for a Misdemeanor at Common Law or otherwise, or of any Proceeding under the Provisions of this Act.

Intent to defraud, &c. any particular Person need not be alleged in an Indictment, &c. or proved.

12. In every Indictment, Information, Conviction, Pleading, and Proceeding against any Person for any Misdemeanor or other Offence against the Provisions of this Act in which it shall be necessary to allege or mention an Intent to defraud, or to enable another to defraud, it shall be sufficient to allege or mention that the Person accused of having done any Act which is hereby made a Misdemeanor or other Offence did such Act with Intent to defraud, or with Intent to enable some other Person to defraud, without alleging or mentioning an Intent to defraud any particular Person; and on the Trial of any such Indictment or Information for any such Misdemeanor, and on the Hearing of any Information or Charge of or for any such other Offence as aforesaid, and on the Trial of any Action against any Person to recover a Penalty for any such other Offence as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to prove an Intent to defraud any particular Person, or an Intent to enable any particular Person to defraud any particular Person, but it shall be sufficient to prove with respect to every such Misdemeanor and Offence that the Person accused did the Act charged with Intent to defraud, or with Intent to enable some other Person to defraud, or with the Intent that any other Person might be enabled to defraud.

Persons aiding in Misdemeanor guilty.

13. Every Person who shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the Commission of any Offence which is by this Act made a Misdemeanor shall also be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Punishment for Misdemeanor under this Act.

14. Every Person who shall be convicted or found guilty of any Offence which is by this Act made a Misdemeanor shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court and as the Court shall award, to suffer such Punishment by Imprisonment for not more than Two Years, with or without Hard Labour, or by Fine, or both by Imprisonment with or without Hard Labour and Fine, and also by Imprisonment until the Fine (if any) shall have been paid and satisfied.

Recovery of Penalties.

15. In every Case in which any Person shall have committed or done any Offence or Act whereby he shall have forfeited or become liable to pay to Her Majesty any of the Penalties or Sums of Money mentioned in the Provisions of this Act, every such Penalty or Sum of Money shall or may be recovered in England, Wales, or Ireland in an Action of Debt, which any Person may as Plaintiff for and on behalf of Her Majesty commence and prosecute to Judgment in any Court of Record, and the Amount of every such Penalty or Sum of Money to be recovered in any such Action shall or may be determined by the Jury (if any) sworn to try any Issue in such Action, and if there shall be no such Jury then by the Court or some other Jury, as the Court shall think fit, or instead of any such Action being commenced such Penalty or Sum of Money shall or may in England or Wales be recovered by a summary Proceeding before

The Eighth Part,—to Application of this Act to unregistered Companies:

The Ninth Part,—to Repeal of Acts, and temporary Provisions.

PART I.

CONSTITUTION AND INCORPORATION OF COMPANIES AND ASSOCIATIONS UNDER THIS ACT.

Memorandum of Association.

6. Any Seven or more Persons associated for any lawful Purpose may, by subscribing their Names to a Memorandum of Association, and otherwise complying with the Requisitions of this Act in respect of Registration, form an incorporated Company, with or without limited Liability. Mode of forming Company.

Companies, &c. (Part I., Constitution, &c.)

Mode of limiting Liability of Members.

7. The Liability of the Members of a Company formed under this Act may, according to the Memorandum of Association, be limited either to the Amount, if any, unpaid on the Shares respectively held by them, or to such Amount as the Members may respectively undertake by the Memorandum of Association to contribute to the Assets of the Company in the event of its being wound up.

Memorandum of Association of a Company limited by Shares.

8. Where a Company is formed on the Principle of having the Liability of its Members limited to the Amount unpaid on their Shares, herein-after referred to as a Company limited by Shares, the Memorandum of Association shall contain the following Things ; (that is to say,)

- (1.) The Name of the proposed Company, with the Addition of the Word " Limited " as the last Word in such Name :
- (2.) The Part of the United Kingdom, whether England, Scotland, or Ireland, in which the registered Office of the Company is proposed to be situate :
- (3.) The Objects for which the proposed Company is to be established :
- (4.) A Declaration that the Liability of the Members is limited :
- (5.) The Amount of Capital with which the Company proposes to be registered divided into Shares of a certain fixed Amount :

Subject to the following Regulations :

- (1.) That no Subscriber shall take less than One Share :
- (2.) That each Subscriber of the Memorandum of Association shall write opposite to his Name the Number of Shares he takes.

Memorandum of Association of a Company limited by Guarantee.

9. Where a Company is formed on the Principle of having the Liability of its Members limited to such Amount as the Members respectively undertake to contribute to the Assets of the Company in the event of the same being wound up, herein-after referred to as a Company limited by Guarantee, the Memorandum of Association shall contain the following Things ; (that is to say,)

- (1.) The Name of the proposed Company, with the Addition of the Word " Limited " as the last Word in such Name :
- (2.) The Part of the United Kingdom, whether England, Scotland, or Ireland, in which the registered Office of the Company is proposed to be situate :
- (3.) The Objects for which the proposed Company is to be established :
- (4.) A Declaration that each Member undertakes to contribute to the Assets of the Company, in the event of the same being wound up, during the Time that he is a Member, or within One Year afterwards, for Payment of the Debts and Liabilities of the Company contracted before the Time at which he ceases to be a Member, and of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of winding up the Company, and for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves, such Amount as may be required, not exceeding a specified Amount.

10. Where

Companies, &c. (Part I., Constitution, &c.)

10. Where a Company is formed on the Principle of having no Limit placed on the Liability of its Members, herein-after referred to as an Unlimited Company, the Memorandum of Association shall contain the following Things ; (that is to say), Memorandum of Association of an Unlimited Company.

- (1.) The Name of the proposed Company :
- (2.) The Part of the United Kingdom, whether England, Scotland, or Ireland, in which the registered Office of the Company is proposed to be situate :
- (3.) The Objects for which the proposed Company is to be established.

11. The Memorandum of Association shall bear the same Stamp as if it were a Deed, and shall be signed by each Subscriber in the Presence of, and be attested by, One Witness at the least, and that Attestation shall be a sufficient Attestation in Scotland as well as in England and Ireland: It shall, when registered, bind the Company and the Members thereof to the same Extent as if each Member had subscribed his Name and affixed his Seal thereto, and there were in the Memorandum contained, on the Part of himself, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, a Covenant to observe all the Conditions of such Memorandum, subject to the Provisions of this Act.

Stamp, Signature, and Effect of Memorandum of Association.

12. Any Company limited by Shares may so far modify the Conditions contained in its Memorandum of Association, if authorized to do so by its Regulations as originally framed, or as altered by special Resolution in manner herein-after mentioned, as to increase its Capital, by the Issue of new Shares of such Amount as it thinks expedient, or to consolidate and divide its Capital into Shares of larger Amount than its existing Shares, or to convert its paid-up Shares into Stock, but, save as aforesaid, and save as is herein-after provided in the Case of a Change of Name, no Alteration shall be made by any Company in the Conditions contained in its Memorandum of Association.

Power of certain Companies to alter Memorandum of Association.

13. Any Company under this Act, with the Sanction of a special Resolution of the Company passed in manner herein-after mentioned, and with the Approval of the Board of Trade testified in Writing under the Hand of One of its Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries, may change its Name, and upon such Change being made the Registrar shall enter the new Name on the Register in the Place of the former Name, and shall issue a Certificate of Incorporation altered to meet the Circumstances of the Case ; but no such Alteration of Name shall affect any Rights or Obligations of the Company, or render defective any legal Proceedings instituted or to be instituted by or against the Company, and any legal Proceedings may be continued or commenced against the Company by its new Name that might have been continued or commenced against the Company by its former Name.

Power of Companies to change Name.

Articles of Association.

14. The Memorandum of Association may, in the Case of a Company limited by Shares, and shall, in the Case of a Company limited by Guarantee or unlimited, be accompanied, when registered, by Articles of Association signed by the Subscribers to the Regulations to be prescribed by Articles of Association.

Companies, &c. (Part I., Constitution, &c.)

Memorandum of Association, and prescribing such Regulations for the Company as the Subscribers to the Memorandum of Association deem expedient: The Articles shall be expressed in separate Paragraphs, numbered arithmetically: They may adopt all or any of the Provisions contained in the Table marked A. in the First Schedule hereto: They shall, in the Case of a Company, whether limited by Guarantee or unlimited, that has a Capital divided into Shares, state the Amount of Capital with which the Company proposes to be registered; and in the Case of a Company, whether limited by Guarantee or unlimited, that has not a Capital divided into Shares, state the Number of Members with which the Company proposes to be registered, for the Purpose of enabling the Registrar to determine the Fees payable on Registration: In a Company limited by Guarantee or unlimited, and having a Capital divided into Shares, each Subscriber shall take One Share at the least, and shall write opposite to his Name in the Memorandum of Association the Number of Shares he takes.

Table A.

15. In the Case of a Company limited by Shares, if the Memorandum of Association is not accompanied by Articles of Association, or in so far as the Articles do not exclude or modify the Regulations contained in the Table marked A. in the First Schedule hereto, the last-mentioned Regulations shall, so far as the same are applicable, be deemed to be the Regulations of the Company in the same Manner and to the same Extent as if they had been inserted in Articles of Association, and the Articles had been duly registered.

Stamp, Signature, and Effect of Articles of Association.

16. The Articles of Association shall be printed, they shall bear the same Stamp as if they were contained in a Deed, and shall be signed by each Subscriber in the Presence of, and be attested by, One Witness at the least, and such Attestation shall be a sufficient Attestation in Scotland as well as in England and Ireland: When registered, they shall bind the Company and the Members thereof to the same Extent as if each Member had subscribed his Name and affixed his Seal thereto, and there were in such Articles contained a Covenant on the Part of himself, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, to conform to all the Regulations contained in such Articles, subject to the Provisions of this Act; and all Monies payable by any Member to the Company, in pursuance of the Conditions and Regulations of the Company, or any of such Conditions or Regulations, shall be deemed to be a Debt due from such Member to the Company, and in England and Ireland to be in the Nature of a Specialty Debt.

General Provisions.

Registration of Memorandum of Association
and Articles of Association,
with Fees as in Table B.

17. The Memorandum of Association and the Articles of Association, if any, shall be delivered to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies herein-after mentioned, who shall retain and register the same: There shall be paid to the Registrar by a Company having a Capital divided into Shares, in respect of the several Matters mentioned in the Table marked B. in the First Schedule hereto, hereto, the several Fees therein specified, or such smaller Fees as the Board of Trade may from Time to Time direct; and by a Company not having a Capital divided into Shares, in respect of the several Matters mentioned in the Table marked C. in the First Schedule hereto, the several Fees therein specified, or such smaller Fees as the Board of Trade may from Time to Time direct: All Fees paid to the said Registrar in pursuance of this Act shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and be carried to the Account of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Companies, &c. (Part I., Constitution, &c.)

18. Upon the Registration of the Memorandum of Association, and of the Articles of Association in Cases where Articles of Association are required by this Act or by the Desire of the Parties to be registered, the Registrar shall certify under his Hand that the Company is incorporated, and in the Case of a Limited Company that the Company is limited: The Subscribers of the Memorandum of Association, together with such other Persons as may from Time to Time become Members of the Company, shall thereupon be a Body Corporate by the Name contained in the Memorandum of Association, capable forthwith of exercising all the Functions of an incorporated Company, and having perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, with Power to hold Lands, but with such Liability on the Part of the Members to contribute to the Assets of the Company in the event of the same being wound up as is herein-after mentioned: A Certificate of the Incorporation of any Company given by the Registrar shall be conclusive Evidence that all the Requisitions of this Act in respect of Registration have been complied with.

Effect of Registration.

19. A Copy of the Memorandum of Association, having annexed thereto the Articles of Association, if any, shall be forwarded to every Member at his Request, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling or such less Sum as may be prescribed by the Company for each Copy; and if any Company makes default in forwarding a Copy of the Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association, if any, to a Member, in pursuance of this Section, the Company so making default shall for each Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding One Pound.

Copies of Memorandum and Articles to be given to Members.

20. No Company shall be registered under a Name identical with that by which a subsisting Company is already registered, or so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, except in a Case where such subsisting Company is in the course of being dissolved and testifies its Consent in such Manner as the Registrar requires; and if any Company, through Inadvertence or otherwise, is, without such Consent as aforesaid, registered by a Name identical with that by which a subsisting Company is registered, or so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, such first-mentioned Company may, with the Sanction of the Registrar, change its Name, and upon such Change being made the Registrar shall enter the new Name on the Register in the Place of the former Name, and shall issue a Certificate of Incorporation altered to meet the Circumstances of the Case; but no such Alteration of Name shall affect any Rights or Obligations gations of the Company, or render defective any legal Proceedings instituted or to be instituted by or against the Company, and any legal Proceedings may be continued or commenced against the Company by its new Name that might have been continued or commenced against the Company by its former Name.

21. No Company formed for the Purpose of promoting Art, Science, Religion, Charity, or any other like Object, not involving the Acquisition of Gain by the Company or by the individual Members thereof, shall, without the Sanction of the Board of Trade, hold more than Two Acres of Land; but the Board of Trade may, by Licence under the Hand of One of their Principal Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries, empower any such Company to hold Lands in such Quantity and subject to such Conditions as they think fit.

Prohibition against certain Companies
holding Land.

PART II.

DISTRIBUTION OF CAPITAL AND LIABILITY OF MEMBERS OF COMPANIES AND ASSOCIATIONS UNDER THIS ACT.

Distribution of Capital.

22. The Shares or other Interest of any Member in a Company under this Act shall be Personal Estate, capable of being transferred in manner provided by the Regulations of the Company, and shall not be of the Nature of Real Estate, and each Share shall, in the Case of a Company having a Capital divided into Shares, be distinguished by its appropriate Number.

23. The Subscribers of the Memorandum of Association of any Company under this Act shall be deemed to have agreed to become Members of the Company whose Memorandum they have subscribed, and upon the Registration of the Company shall be entered as Members on the Register of Members herein-after mentioned; and every other Person who has agreed to become a Member of a Company under this Act, and whose Name is entered on the Register of Members, shall be deemed to be a Member of the Company.

24. Any Transfer of the Share or other Interest of a deceased Member of a Company under this Act, made by his Personal Representative, shall, notwithstanding such Personal Representative may not himself be a Member, be of the same Validity as if he had been a Member at the Time of the Execution of the Instrument of Transfer.

25. Every Company under this Act shall cause to be kept in One or more Books a Register of its Members, and there shall be entered therein the following Particulars:

- (1.) The Names and Addresses, and the Occupations, if any, of the Members of the Company, with the Addition, in the Case of a Company having a Capital divided into Shares, of a Statement of the Shares held by each Member, distinguishing each Share by its Number: And of the Amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid on the Shares of each Member:

Companies, &c. (Part II., Distribution of Capital.)

(2.) The Date at which the Name of any Person was entered in the Register as a Member :

(3.) The Date at which any Person ceased to be a Member :

And any Company acting in contravention of this Section shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which its Default in complying with the Provisions of this Section continues, and every Director or Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Contravention shall incur the like Penalty.

26. Every Company under this Act, and having a Capital divided into Shares, shall make, once at least in every Year, a List of all Persons who, on the Fourteenth Day succeeding the Day on which the Ordinary General Meeting, or if there is more than One Ordinary Meeting in each Year, the First of such Ordinary General Meetings is held, are Members of the Company ; and such List shall state the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of all the Members therein mentioned, and the Number of Shares held by each of them, and shall contain a Summary specifying the following Particulars :

Annual List of Members.

- (1.) The Amount of the Capital of the Company, and the Number of Shares into which it is divided :
- (2.) The Number of Shares taken from the Commencement of the Company up to the Date of the Summary :
- (3.) The Amount of Calls made on each Share :
- (4.) The total Amount of Calls received :
- (5.) The total Amount of Calls unpaid :
- (6.) The total Amount of Shares forfeited :
- (7.) The Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Persons who have ceased to be Members since the last List was made, and the Number of Shares held by each of them.

The above List and Summary shall be contained in a separate Part of the Register, and shall be completed within Seven Days after such Fourteenth Day as is mentioned in this Section, and a Copy shall forthwith be forwarded to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

27. If any Company under this Act, and having a Capital divided into Shares, makes default in complying with the Provisions of this Act with respect to forwarding such List of Members or Summary as is herein-before mentioned to the Registrar, such Company shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Default continues, and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Default shall incur the like Penalty.

Penalty on Company, &c. not keeping a proper Register.

28. Every Company under this Act, having a Capital divided into Shares, that has consolidated and divided its Capital into Shares of larger Amount than its existing Shares, or converted any Portion of its Capital into Stock, shall give Notice to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies of such Consolidation, Division, or Conversion, specifying the Shares so consolidated, divided, or converted.

Companies, &c. (Part II., Distribution of Capital.)

Effect of Conversion of Shares into Stock.

29. Where any Company under this Act, and having a Capital divided into Shares, has converted any Portion of its Capital into Stock, and given Notice of such Conversion to the Registrar, all the Provisions of this Act which are applicable to Shares only shall cease as to so much of the Capital as is converted into Stock; and the Register of Members hereby required to be kept by the Company, and the List of Members to be forwarded to the Registrar, shall show the Amount of Stock held by each Member in the List instead of the Amount of Shares and the Particulars relating to Shares herein-before required.

Entry of Trusts on Register.

30. No Notice of any Trust, expressed, implied, or constructive, shall be entered on the Register, or be receivable by the Registrar, in the Case of Companies under this Act and registered in England or Ireland.

Certificate of Shares or Stock.

31. A Certificate, under the Common Seal of the Company, specifying any Share or Shares or Stock held by any Member of a Company, shall be primâ facie Evidence of the Title of the Member to the Share or Shares or Stock therein specified.

Inspection of Register.

32. The Register of Members, commencing from the Date of the Registration of the Company, shall be kept at the registered Office of the Company herein-after mentioned: Except when closed as herein-after mentioned, it shall during Business Hours, but subject to such reasonable Restrictions as the Company in General Meeting may impose, so that not less than Two Hours in each Day be appointed for Inspection, be open to the Inspection of any Member gratis, and to the Inspection of any other Person on the Payment of One Shilling, or such less Sum as the Company may prescribe, for each Inspection; and every such Member or other Person may require a Copy of such Register, or of any Part thereof, or of such List or Summary of Members as is herein-before mentioned, on Payment of Sixpence for every Hundred Words required to be copied: If such Inspection or Copy is refused, the Company shall incur for each Refusal a Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds, and a further Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds for every Day during which such Refusal continues, and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly authorize or permit such Refusal shall incur the like Penalty; and in addition to the above Penalty, as respects Companies registered in England and Ireland, any Judge sitting in Chambers, or the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, in the Case of Companies subject to his Jurisdiction, may by Order compel an immediate Inspection of the Register.

Power to close Register.

33. Any Company under this Act may, upon giving Notice by Advertisement in some Newspaper circulating in the District in which the registered Office of the Company is situated, close the Register of Members for any Time or Times not exceeding in the whole Thirty Days in each Year.

Notice of Increase of Capital and of Members to be given to Registrar.

34. Where a Company has a Capital divided into Shares, whether such Shares may or may not have been converted into Stock, Notice of any Increase in such Capital beyond the registered Capital, and where a Company has not a Capital divided into Shares, Notice of any Increase in the Number of Members beyond beyond the registered Number, shall be given to the Registrar in the Case of an Increase of Capital, within Fifteen Days from the Date of the passing of the Resolution by which such Increase has been authorized, and in the Case of an Increase of Members within Fifteen Days from the Time at which such Increase of Members has been resolved on or has taken place, and the Registrar shall forthwith record the Amount of such Increase of Capital or Members: If such Notice is not given within the Period aforesaid the Company in default shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Neglect to give Notice continues, and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Default shall incur the like Penalty.

35. If the Name of any Person is, without sufficient Cause, entered in or omitted from the Register of Members of any Company under this Act, or if Default is made or unnecessary Delay takes place in entering on the Register the Fact of any Person having ceased to be a Member of the Company, the Person or Member aggrieved, or any Member of the Company, or the Company itself, may as respects Companies registered in England or Ireland, by Motion in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity, or by Application to a Judge sitting in Chambers, or to the Vice Warden of the Stannaries in the Case of Companies subject to his Jurisdiction, and as respects Companies registered in Scotland by summary Petition to the Court of Session, or in such other Manner as the said Courts may direct, apply for an Order of the Court that the Register may be rectified; and the Court may either refuse such Application, with or without Costs, to be paid by the Applicant, or it may, if satisfied of the Justice of the Case, make an Order for the Rectification of the Register, and may direct the Company to pay all the Costs of such Motion, Application, or Petition, and any Damages the Party aggrieved may have sustained: The Court may in any Proceeding under this Section decide on any Question relating to the Title of any Person who is a Party to such Proceeding to have his Name entered in or omitted from the Register, whether such Question arises between Two or more Members or alleged Members, or between any Members or alleged Members and the Company, and generally the Court may in any such Proceeding decide any Question that it may be necessary or expedient to decide for the Rectification of the Register; provided that the Court, if a Court of Common Law, may direct an Issue to be tried, in which any Question of Law may be raised, and a Writ of Error or Appeal, in the Manner directed by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall lie.

36. Whenever any Order has been made rectifying the Register, in the Case of a Company hereby required to send a List of its Members to the Registrar, the Court shall, by its Order, direct that due Notice of such Rectification be given to the Registrar.

37. The Register of Members shall be prima facie Evidence of any Matters by this Act directed or authorized to be inserted therein.

Remedy for improper Entry or Omission of Entry in Register.

Notice to Registrar of Rectification of Register.

Register to be Evidence.

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

Liability of Members.

Liability of present and past Members of Company.

38. In the event of a Company formed under this Act being wound up, every present and past Member of such Company shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Company to an Amount sufficient for Payment of the Debts and Liabilities of the Company, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Winding-up, and for the Payment of such Sums as may be required for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves, with the Qualifications following ; (that is to say,)

- (1.) No past Member shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Company if he has ceased to be a Member for a Period of One Year or upwards prior to the Commencement of the Winding-up :
- (2.) No past Member shall be liable to contribute in respect of any Debt or Liability of the Company contracted after the Time at which he ceased to be a Member :
- (3.) No past Member shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Company unless it appears to the Court that the existing Members are unable to satisfy the Contributions required to be made by them in pursuance of this Act :
- (4.) In the Case of a Company limited by Shares, no Contribution shall be required from any Member exceeding the Amount, if any, unpaid on the Shares in respect of which he is liable as a present or past Member :
- (5.) In the Case of a Company limited by Guarantee, no Contribution shall be required from any Member exceeding the Amount of the Undertaking entered into on his Behalf by the Memorandum of Association :
- (6.) Nothing in this Act contained shall invalidate any Provision contained in any Policy of Insurance or other Contract whereby the Liability of individual Members upon any such Policy or Contract is restricted, or whereby the Funds of the Company are alone made liable in respect of such Policy or Contract :
- (7.) No Sum due to any Member of a Company, in his Character of a Member, by way of Dividends, Profits, or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a Debt of the Company, payable to such Member in a Case of Competition between himself and any other Creditor not being a Member of the Company ; but any such Sum may be taken into account, for the Purposes of the final Adjustment of the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves.

PART III.

MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION OF COMPANIES AND ASSOCIATIONS UNDER THIS ACT.

Provisions for Protection of Creditors.

39. Every Company under this Act shall have a registered Office to which all Communications and Notices may be addressed :

Registered Office of Company.

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

If any Company under this Act carries on Business without having such an Office, it shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which Business is so carried on.

40. Notice of the Situation of such registered Office, and of any Change therein, shall be given to the Registrar, and recorded by him: Until such Notice is given the Company shall not be deemed to have complied with the Provisions of this Act with respect to having a registered Office.

Notice of Situation of registered
Office.

41. Every Limited Company under this Act, whether limited by Shares or by Guarantee, shall paint or affix, and shall keep painted or affixed, its Name on the Outside of every Office or Place in which the Business of the Company is carried on, in a conspicuous Position, in Letters easily legible, and shall have its Name engraven in legible Characters on its Seal, and shall have its Name mentioned in legible Characters in all Notices, Advertisements, and other official Publications of such Company, and in all Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Endorsements, Cheques, and Orders for Money or Goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of such Company, and in all Bills of Parcels, Invoices, Receipts, and Letters of Credit of the Company.

Publication of Name by a Limited Company.

42. If any Limited Company under this Act does not paint or affix, and keep painted or affixed, its Name in manner directed by this Act, it shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for not so painting or affixing its Name, and for every Day during which such Name is not so kept painted or affixed, and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Default shall be liable to the like Penalty; and if any Director, Manager, or Officer of such Company, or any Person on its Behalf, uses or authorizes the Use of any Seal purporting to be a Seal of the Company whereon its Name is not so engraven as aforesaid, or issues or authorizes the Issue of any Notice, Advertisement, or other official Publication of such Company, or signs or authorizes to be signed on behalf of such Company any Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Endorsement, Cheque, Order for Money or Goods, or issues or authorizes to be issued any Bill of Parcels, Invoice, Receipt, or Letter of Credit of the Company, wherein its Name is not mentioned in manner aforesaid, he shall be liable to a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, and shall further be personally liable to the Holder of any such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Cheque, or Order for Money or Goods, for the Amount thereof, unless the same is duly paid by the Company.

Penalties on Non-publication of Name.

43. Every Limited Company under this Act shall keep a Register of all Mortgages and Charges specifically affecting Property of the Company, and shall enter in such Register in respect of each Mortgage or Charge a short Description of the Property mortgaged or charged, the Amount of Charge created, and the Names of the Mortgagees or Persons entitled to such Charge: If any Property of the Company is mortgaged or charged without such Entry as aforesaid being made, every Director, Manager, or other Officer of the Company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the Omission of such Entry shall incur

Register of Mortgages.

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds: The Register of Mortgages required by this Section shall be open to Inspection by any Creditor or Member of the Company at all reasonable Times; and if such Inspection is refused, any Officer of the Company refusing the same, and every Director and Manager of the Company authorizing or knowingly and wilfully permitting such Refusal, shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and a further Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds for every Day during which such Refusal continues; and in addition to the above Penalty, as respects Companies registered in England and Ireland, any Judge sitting in Chambers, or the Vice Warden of the Stannaries in the Case of Companies subject to his Jurisdiction, may by Order compel an immediate Inspection of the Register.

Certain Companies to publish Statement entered in Schedule.

44. Every Limited Banking Company and every Insurance Company, and Deposit, Provident, or Benefit Society under this Act shall, before it commences Business, and also on the First Monday in February and the First Monday in August in every Year during which it carries on Business, make a Statement in the Form marked D. in the First Schedule hereto, or as near thereto as Circumstances will admit, and a Copy of such Statement shall be put up in a conspicuous Place in the registered Office of the Company, and in every Branch Office or Place where the Business of the Company is carried on, and if Default is made in compliance with the Provisions of this Section the Company shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Default continues, and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Default shall incur the like Penalty.

Every Member and every Creditor of any Company mentioned in this Section shall be entitled to a Copy of the above-mentioned Statement on Payment of a Sum not exceeding Sixpence.

List of Directors to be sent to Registrar.

45. Every Company under this Act, and not having a Capital divided into Shares, shall keep at its registered Office a Register containing the Names and Addresses and the Occupations of its Directors or Managers, and shall send to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies a Copy of such Register, and shall from Time to Time notify to the Registrar any Change that takes place in such Directors or Managers.

Penalty on Company not keeping Register of Directors.

46. If any Company under this Act, and not having a Capital divided into Shares, makes default in keeping a Register of its Directors or Managers, or in sending a Copy of such Register to the Registrar in compliance with the foregoing Rules, or in notifying to the Registrar any Change that takes place in such Directors or Managers, such delinquent Company shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Default continues, and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Default shall incur the like Penalty.

Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange.

47. A Promissory Note or Bill of Exchange shall be deemed to have been made, accepted, or endorsed on behalf of any Company under this Act, if made, accepted, or endorsed in the Name of the Company by any Person acting under the Authority of the Company.

pany, or if made, accepted, or endorsed by or on behalf or on account of the Company, by any Person acting under the Authority of the Company.

48. If any Company under this Act carries on Business when the Number of its Members is less than Seven for a Period of Six Months after the Number has been so reduced, every Person who is a Member of such Company during the Time that it so carries on Business after such Period of Six Months, and is cognizant of the Fact that it is so carrying on Business with fewer than Seven Members, shall be severally liable for the Payment of the whole Debts of the Company contracted during such Time, and may be sued for the same, without the Joinder in the Action or Suit of any other Member.

Prohibition against carrying on Business with less than Seven Members.

Provisions for Protection of Members.

49. A General Meeting of every Company under this Act shall be held once at the least in every Year.

General Meeting of Company.

50. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, and to the Conditions contained in the Memorandum of Association, any Company formed under this Act may, in General Meeting, from Time to Time, by passing a Special Resolution in manner herein-after mentioned, alter all or any of the Regulations of the Company contained in the Articles of Association or in the Table marked A. in the First Schedule, where such Table is applicable to the Company, or make new Regulations to the Exclusion of or in addition to all or any of the Regulations of the Company; and any Regulations so made by Special Resolution shall be deemed to be Regulations of the Company of the same Validity as if they had been originally contained in the Articles of Association, and shall be subject in like Manner to be altered or modified by any subsequent Special Resolution.

Power to alter Regulations by Special Resolution.

51. A Resolution passed by a Company under this Act shall be deemed to be special whenever a Resolution has been passed by a Majority of not less than Three Fourths of such Members of the Company for the Time being entitled, according to the Regulations of the Company, to vote as may be present, in Person or by Proxy (in Cases where by the Regulations of the Company Proxies are allowed), at any General Meeting of which Notice specifying the Intention to propose such Resolution has been duly given, and such Resolution has been confirmed by a Majority of such Members for the Time being entitled, according to the Regulations of the Company, to vote as may be present, in Person or by Proxy, at a subsequent General Meeting, of which Notice has been duly given, and held at an Interval of not less than Fourteen Days, nor more than One Month from the Date of the Meeting at which such Resolution was first passed: At any Meeting mentioned in this Section, unless a Poll is demanded by at least Five Members, a Declaration of the Chairman that the Resolution has been carried shall be deemed conclusive Evidence of the Fact, without Proof of the Number or Proportion of the Votes recorded in favour of or against the same: Notice of any Meeting shall, for the Purposes of this Section, be deemed to be Definition of Special Resolution.

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

duly given and the Meeting to be duly held, whenever such Notice is given and Meeting held in manner prescribed by the Regulations of the Company : In computing the Majority under this Section, when a Poll is demanded, Reference shall be had to the Number of Votes to which each Member is entitled by the Regulations of the Company.

Provision where no Regulations as to Meetings.

52. In default of any Regulations as to voting every Member shall have One Vote, and in default of any Regulations as to summoning General Meetings a Meeting shall be held to be duly summoned of which Seven Days Notice in Writing has been served on every Member in manner in which Notices are required to be served by the Table marked A. in the First Schedule hereto, and in default of any Regulations as to the Persons to summon Meetings Five Members shall be competent to summon the same, and in default of any Regulations as to who is to be Chairman of such Meeting, it shall be competent for any Person elected by the Members present to preside.

Registry of Special Resolutions.

53. A Copy of any Special Resolution that is passed by any Company under this Act shall be printed and forwarded to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and be recorded by him : If such Copy is not so forwarded within Fifteen Days from the Date of the Confirmation of the Resolution, the Company shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds for every Day after the Expiration of such Fifteen Days during which such Copy is omitted to be forwarded, and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Default shall incur the like Penalty.

Copies of Special Resolutions.

54. Where Articles of Association have been registered, a Copy of every Special Resolution for the Time being in force shall be annexed to or embodied in every Copy of the Articles of Association that may be issued after the passing of such Resolution : Where no Articles of Association have been registered, a Copy of any Special Resolution shall be forwarded in Print to any Member requesting the same on Payment of One Shilling, or such less Sum as the Company may direct : And if any Company makes default in complying with the Provisions of this Section it shall incur a Penalty not exceeding One Pound for each Copy in respect of which such Default is made ; and every Director and Manager of the Company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit such Default shall incur the like Penalty.

Execution of Deeds abroad.

55. Any Company under this Act may, by Instrument in Writing under its Common Seal, empower any Person, either generally or in respect of any specified Matters, as its Attorney, to execute Deeds on its Behalf in any Place not situate in the United Kingdom ; and every Deed signed by such Attorney, on behalf of the Company, and under his Seal, shall be binding on the Company, and have the same Effect as if it were under the Common Seal of the Company.

Examination of Affairs of Company by Inspectors.

56. The Board of Trade may appoint One or more competent Inspectors to examine into the Affairs of any Company under this Act, and to report thereon, in such Manner as the Board may direct, upon the Applications following ; (that is to say,)

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

- (1.) In the Case of a Banking Company that has a Capital divided into Shares, upon the Application of Members holding not less than One Third Part of the whole Shares of the Company for the Time being issued :
- (2.) In the Case of any other Company that has a Capital divided into Shares, upon the Application of Members holding not less than One Fifth Part of the whole Shares of the Company for the Time being issued :
- (3.) In the Case of any Company not having a Capital divided into Shares, upon the Application of Members being in Number not less than One Fifth of the whole Number of Persons for the Time being entered on the Register of the Company as Members.

57. The Application shall be supported by such Evidence as the Board of Trade may require for the Purpose of showing that the Applicants have good Reason for requiring such Investigation to be made, and that they are not actuated by malicious Motives in instituting the same ; the Board of Trade may also require the Applicants to give Security for Payment of the Costs of the Inquiry before appointing any Inspector or Inspectors.

Application for Inspection to be supported by Evidence.

58. It shall be the Duty of all Officers and Agents of the Company to produce for the Examination of the Inspectors all Books and Documents in their Custody or Power : Any Inspector may examine upon Oath the Officers and Agents of the Company in relation to its Business, and may administer such Oath accordingly : If any Officer or Agent refuses to produce any Book or Document hereby directed to be produced, or to answer any Question relating to the Affairs of the Company, he shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds in respect of each Offence.

Inspection of Books.

59. Upon the Conclusion of the Examination the Inspectors shall report their Opinion to the Board of Trade : Such Report shall be written or printed, as the Board of Trade directs : A Copy shall be forwarded by the Board of Trade to the registered Office of the Company, and a further Copy shall, at the Request of the Members upon whose Application the Inspection was made, be delivered to them or to any One or more of them : All Expenses of and incidental to any such Examination as aforesaid shall be defrayed by the Members upon whose Application the Inspectors were appointed, unless the Board of Trade shall direct the same to be paid out of the Assets of the Company, which it is hereby authorized to do.

Result of Examination how dealt with.

60. Any Company under this Act may by Special Resolution appoint Inspectors for the Purpose of examining into the Affairs of the Company : The Inspectors so appointed shall have the same Powers and perform the same Duties as Inspectors appointed by the Board of Trade, with this Exception, that, instead of making their Report to the Board of Trade, they shall make the same in such Manner and to such Persons as the Company in General Meeting directs ; and the Officers and Agents of the Company shall incur the same Penalties, in case of any Refusal to produce any Book or Document hereby required to be produced to such Inspectors, or to answer any Question, as they would have incurred if such Inspector had been appointed by the Board of Trade.

Power of Company to appoint Inspectors.

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

Report of Inspectors to be Evidence.

61. A Copy of the Report of any Inspectors appointed under this Act, authenticated by the Seal of the Company into whose Affairs they have made Inspection, shall be admissible in any legal Proceeding, as Evidence of the Opinion of the Inspectors in relation to any Matter contained in such Report.

Notices.

Service of Notices on Company.

62. Any Summons, Notice, Order, or other Document required to be served upon the Company may be served by leaving the same, or sending it through the Post in a prepaid Letter addressed to the Company, at their registered Office.

Rules as to Notices by Letter.

63. Any Document to be served by Post on the Company shall be posted in such Time as to admit of its being delivered in the due Course of Delivery within the Period (if any) prescribed for the Service thereof; and in proving Service of such Document it shall be sufficient to prove that such Document was properly directed, and that it was put as a prepaid Letter into the Post Office.

Authentication of Notices of Company.

64. Any Summons, Notice, Order, or Proceeding requiring Authentication by the Company, may be signed by any Director, Secretary, or other authorized Officer of the Company, and need not be under the Common Seal of the Company, and the same may be in Writing or in Print, or partly in Writing and partly in Print.

Legal Proceedings.

Recovery of Penalties.

65. All Offences under this Act made punishable by any Penalty may be prosecuted summarily before Two or more Justices, as to England, in manner directed by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Forty-three, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders, or any Act amending the same; and as to Scotland, before Two or more Justices or the Sheriff of the County, in manner directed by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and four, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping, or any Act amending the same, as regards Offences in Scotland against that Act, not being Offences by that Act described as Felonies or Misdemeanors; and as to Ireland, in manner directed by the Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Ninety-three, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Acts regulating the Proceedings of Petty Sessions and the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Quarter Sessions in Ireland, or any Act amending the same.

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

66. The Justices or Sheriff imposing any Penalty under this Act may direct the whole or any Part thereof to be applied in or towards Payment of the Costs of the Proceedings, or in or towards the rewarding the Person upon whose Information or at whose Suit such Penalty has been recovered ; and, subject to such Direction, all Penalties shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer, in such Manner as the Treasury may direct, and shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Application of Penalties.

67. Every Company under this Act shall cause Minutes of all Resolutions and Proceedings of General Meetings of the Company, and of the Directors or Managers of the Company in Cases where there are Directors or Managers, to be duly entered in Books to be from Time to Time provided for the Purpose ; and any such Minute as aforesaid, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting at which such Resolutions were passed or Proceedings had, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding Meeting, shall be received as Evidence in all legal Proceedings ; and until the contrary is proved, every General Meeting of the Company or Meeting of Directors or Managers in respect of the Proceedings of which Minutes have been so made shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened, and all Resolutions passed thereat or Proceedings had, to have been duly passed and had, and all Appointments of Directors, Managers, or Liquidators shall be deemed to be valid, and all Acts done by such Directors, Managers, or Liquidators shall be valid, notwithstanding any Defect that may afterwards be discovered in their Appointments or Qualifications.

Evidence of Proceedings at Meetings.

68. In the Case of Companies under this Act, and engaged in working Mines within and subject to the Jurisdiction of the Stannaries, the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries shall have and exercise the like Jurisdiction and Powers, as well on the Common Law as on the Equity Side thereof, which it now possesses by Custom, Usage, or Statute in the Case of unincorporated Companies, but only so far as such Jurisdiction or Powers are consistent with the Provisions of this Act and with the Constitution of Companies as prescribed or required by this Act ; and for the Purpose of giving fuller Effect to such Jurisdiction in all Actions, Suits, or legal Proceedings instituted in the said Court, in Causes or Matters whereof the Court has Cognizance, all Process issuing out of the same, and all Orders, Rules, Demands, Notices, Warrants, and Summonses required or authorized by the Practice of the Court to be served on any Company, whether registered or not registered, or any Member or Contributory thereof, or any Officer, Agent, Director, Manager, or Servant thereof, may be served in any Part of England without any Special Order of the Vice Warden for that Purpose, or by such Special Order may be served in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in the adjacent Islands, Parcel of the Dominions of the Crown, on such Terms and Conditions as the Court shall think fit ; and all Decrees, Orders, and Judgments of the said Court made or pronounced in such Causes or Matters Jurisdiction of Vice Warden of Stannaries.

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

may be enforced in the same Manner in which Decrees, Orders, and Judgments of the Court may now by Law be enforced, whether within or beyond the local Limits of the Stannaries; and the Seal of the said Court, and the Signature of the Registrar thereof, shall be judicially noticed by all other Courts and Judges in England, and shall require no other Proof than the Production thereof: The Registrar of the said Court, or the Assistant Registrar, in making Sales under any Decree or Order of the Court shall be entitled to the same Privilege of selling by Auction or Competition without a Licence, and without being liable to Duty, as a Judge of the Court of Chancery is entitled to in pursuance of the Acts in that Behalf.

Provision as to Costs in Actions brought by certain Limited Companies.

69. Where a Limited Company is Plaintiff or Pursuer in any Action, Suit, or other legal Proceeding, any Judge having Jurisdiction in the Matter may, if it appears by any credible Testimony that there is Reason to believe that if the Defendant be successful in his Defence the Assets of the Company will be insufficient to pay his Costs, require sufficient Security to be given for such Costs, and may stay all Proceedings until such Security is given.

Declaration in Action against Members.

70. In any Action or Suit brought by the Company against any Member to recover any Call or other Monies due from such Member in his Character of Member, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special Matter, but it shall be sufficient to allege that the Defendant is a Member of the Company, and is indebted to the Company in respect of a Call made or other Monies due whereby an Action or Suit hath accrued to the Company.

Alteration of Forms.

Board of Trade may alter Forms in Schedule.

71. The Forms set forth in the Second Schedule hereto, or Forms as near thereto as Circumstances admit, shall be used in all Matters to which such Forms refer; the Board of Trade may from Time to Time make such Alterations in the Tables and Forms contained in the First Schedule hereto, so that it does not increase the Amount of Fees payable to the Registrar in the said Schedule mentioned, and in the Forms in the Second Schedule, or make such Additions to the last-mentioned Forms, as it deems requisite: Any such Table or Form, when altered, shall be published in the London Gazette, and upon such Publication being made such Table or Form shall have the same Force as if it were included in the Schedule to this Act, but no Alteration made by the Board of Trade in the Table marked A. contained in the First Schedule shall affect any Company registered prior to the Date of such Alteration, or repeal, as respects such Company, any Portion of such Table.

Arbitrations.

Power for Companies to refer Matters to Arbitration.

72. Any Company under this Act may from Time to Time, by Writing under its Common Seal, agree to refer and may refer to Arbitration, in accordance with "The Railway Companies Arbitration Act, 1859," any existing or future Difference, Question, or other Matter whatsoever in dispute between itself and any other Company or Person, and the Companies Parties to the

Companies, &c. (Part III., Management and Administration.)

Arbitration may delegate to the Person or Persons to whom the Reference is made Power to settle any Terms or to determine any Matter capable of being lawfully settled or determined by the Companies themselves, or by the Directors or other managing Body of such Companies.

73. All the Provisions of "The Railway Companies Arbitration Act, 1859," shall be deemed to apply to Arbitrations between Companies and Persons in pursuance of this Act; and in the Construction of such Provisions "the Companies" shall be deemed to include Companies authorized by this Act to refer Disputes to Arbitration.

Provisions of
22 & 23 Vict.
c. 59. to apply.

PART IV.

WINDING UP OF COMPANIES AND ASSOCIATIONS UNDER THIS ACT.

Preliminary.

74. The Term "Contributory" shall mean every Person liable to contribute to the Assets of a Company under this Act, in the event of the same being wound up: It shall also, in all Proceedings for determining the Persons who are to be deemed Contributories, and in all Proceedings prior to the final Determination of such Persons, include any Person alleged to be a Contributory.

Meaning of Contributory.

75. The Liability of any Person to contribute to the Assets of a Company under this Act in the event of the same being wound up, shall be deemed to create a Debt (in England and Ireland of the Nature of a Specialty) accruing due from such Person at the Time when his Liability commenced, but payable at the Time or respective Times when Calls are made as herein-after mentioned for enforcing such Liability; and it shall be lawful in the Case of the Bankruptcy of any Contributory to prove against his Estate the estimated Value of his Liability to future Calls, as well as Calls already made.

Nature of Liability of Contributory.

76. If any Contributory dies either before or after he has been placed on the List of Contributories herein-after mentioned, his Personal Representatives, Heirs, and Devisees shall be liable in a due Course of Administration to contribute to the Assets of the Company in discharge of the Liability of such deceased Contributory, and such Personal Representatives, Heirs, and Devisees shall be deemed to be Contributories accordingly.

Contributories
in case of Death.

77. If any Contributory becomes bankrupt, either before or after he has been placed on the List of Contributories, his Assignees shall be deemed to represent such Bankrupt for all the Purposes of the Winding-up, and shall be deemed to be Contributories accordingly, and may be called upon to admit to Proof against the Estate of such Bankrupt, or otherwise to allow to be paid out of his Assets in due Course of Law, any Monies due from such Bankrupt in respect of his Liability to contribute to the Assets of the Company being wound up; and for the Purposes of this Section any Person who may have taken the Benefit of any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors before the Eleventh Day of October One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one shall be deemed to have become bankrupt.

Contributories
in case of Bankruptcy.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

Contributories
in case of Marriage.

78. If any Female Contributory marries, either before or after she has been placed on the List of Contributories, her Husband shall during the Continuance of the Marriage be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Company the same Sum as she would have been liable to contribute if she had not married, and he shall be deemed to be a Contributory accordingly.

Winding up by Court.

Circumstances under which Company may be wound up by Court.

79. A Company under this Act may be wound up by the Court as herein-after defined, under the following Circumstances ; (that is to say,)

- (1.) Whenever the Company has passed a Special Resolution requiring the Company to be wound up by the Court :
- (2.) Whenever the Company does not commence its Business within a Year from its Incorporation, or suspends its Business for the Space of a whole Year :
- (3.) Whenever the Members are reduced in Number to less than Seven :
- (4.) Whenever the Company is unable to pay its Debts :
- (5.) Whenever the Court is of opinion that it is just and equitable that the Company should be wound up.

Company when deemed unable to pay its Debts.

80. A Company under this Act shall be deemed to be unable to pay its Debts,

- (1.) Whenever a Creditor, by Assignment or otherwise, to whom the Company is indebted, at Law or in Equity, in a Sum exceeding Fifty Pounds then due, has served on the Company, by leaving the same at their registered Office, a Demand under his Hand requiring the Company to pay the Sum so due, and the Company has for the Space of Three Weeks succeeding the Service of such Demand neglected to pay such Sum, or to secure or compound for the same to the reasonable Satisfaction of the Creditor :
- (2.) Whenever, in England and Ireland, Execution or other Process issued on a Judgment, Decree, or Order obtained in any Court in favour of any Creditor, at Law or in Equity, in any Proceeding instituted by such Creditor against the Company, is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part :
- (3.) Whenever, in Scotland, the Induciae of a Charge for Payment on an Extract Decree, or an Extract registered Bond, or an Extract registered Protest have expired without Payment being made :
- (4.) Whenever it is proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the Company is unable to pay its Debts.

Definition of "the Court."

81. The Expression "the Court," as used in this Part of this Act, shall mean the following Authorities ; (that is to say,)

In the Case of a Company engaged in working any Mine within and subject to the Jurisdiction of the Stannaries,—the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, unless the Vice Warden certifies that in his Opinion the Company would be more advantageously wound up in the High Court of Chancery, in which Case "the Court" shall mean the High Court of Chancery :

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

In the Case of a Company registered in England that is not engaged in working any such Mine as aforesaid,—the High Court of Chancery :

In the Case of a Company registered in Ireland, the Court of Chancery in Ireland :

In all Cases of Companies registered in Scotland, the Court of Session in either Division thereof :

Provided that where the Court of Chancery in England or Ireland makes an Order for winding up a Company under this Act, it may, if it thinks fit, direct all subsequent Proceedings for winding up the same to be had in the Court of Bankruptcy having Jurisdiction in the Place in which the registered Office of the Company is situate ; and thereupon such last-mentioned Court of Bankruptcy shall, for the Purposes of winding up the Company, be deemed to be "the Court" within the Meaning of the Act, and shall have for the Purposes of such Winding-up all the Powers of the High Court of Chancery, or of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, as the Case may require.

82. Any Application to the Court for the winding up of a Company under this Act shall be by Petition ; it may be presented by the Company, or by any One or more Creditor or Creditors, Contributory or Contributories of the Company, or by all or any of the above Parties, together or separately ; and every Order which may be made on any such Petition shall operate in favour of all the Creditors and all the Contributories of the Company in the same Manner as if it had been made upon the joint Petition of a Creditor and a Contributory.

Application for winding up to be made by Petition.

83. Any Judge of the High Court of Chancery may do in Chambers any Act which the Court is hereby authorized to do ; and the Vice Warden of the Stannaries may direct that a Petition for winding up a Company be heard by him at such Time and at such Place within the Jurisdiction of the Stannaries, or within or near to the Place where the registered Office of the Company is situated, as he may deem to be convenient to the Parties concerned, or (with the Consent of the Parties concerned) at any Place in England ; and all Orders made thereupon shall have the same Force and Effect as if they had been made by the Vice Warden sitting at Truro or elsewhere within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and all Parties and Persons summoned to attend at the Hearing of any such Petition shall be compellable to give their Attendance before the Vice Warden by like Process and in like Manner as at the Hearing of any Cause or Matter at the usual Sitting of the said Court ; and the Registrar of the Court may, subject to Exception or Appeal to the Vice Warden as heretofore used, do and exercise such and the like Acts and Powers in the Matter of winding up as he is now used to do and exercise in a Suit on the Equity Side of the said Court.

Power of Court.

84. A Winding-up of a Company by the Court shall be deemed to commence at the Time of the Presentation of the Petition for the Winding-up.

Commencement of winding up.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

Court may grant Injunction.

85. The Court may, at any Time after the Presentation of a Petition for winding up a Company under this Act, and before making an Order for winding up the Company, upon the Application of the Company, or of any Creditor or Contributory of the Company, restrain further Proceedings in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding against the Company, upon such Terms as the Court thinks fit; the Court may also at any Time after the Presentation of such Petition, and before the First Appointment of Liquidators, appoint provisionally an Official Liquidator of the Estate and Effects of the Company.

Course to be pursued by Court on hearing Petition.

86. Upon hearing the Petition the Court may dismiss the same with or without Costs, may adjourn the Hearing conditionally or unconditionally, and may make any Interim Order, or any other Order that it deems just.

Actions, &c. to be stayed after Order for winding up.

87. When an Order has been made for winding up a Company under this Act no Suit, Action, or other Proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the Company except with the Leave of the Court, and subject to such Terms as the Court may impose.

Copy of Order to be forwarded to Registrar.

88. When an Order has been made for winding up a Company under this Act, a Copy of such Order shall forthwith be forwarded by the Company to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, who shall make a Minute thereof in his Books relating to the Company.

Power of Court to stay Proceedings.

89. The Court may at any Time after an Order has been made for winding up a Company, upon the Application by Motion of any Creditor or Contributory of the Company, and upon Proof to the Satisfaction of the Court that all Proceedings in relation to such Winding-up ought to be stayed, make an Order staying the same, either altogether or for a limited Time, on such Terms and subject to such Conditions as it deems fit.

Effect of Order on Share Capital of Company limited by Guarantee.

90. When an Order has been made for winding up a Company limited by Guarantee and having a Capital divided into Shares, any Share Capital that may not have been called up shall be deemed to be Assets of the Company, and to be a Debt (in England and Ireland of the Nature of a Specialty) due to the Company from each Member to the Extent of any Sums that may be unpaid on any Shares held by him, and payable at such Time as may be appointed by the Court.

Court may have regard to Wishes of Creditors or Contributories.

91. The Court may, as to all Matters relating to the Winding-up, have regard to the Wishes of the Creditors or Contributories, as proved to it by any sufficient Evidence, and may, if it thinks it expedient, direct Meetings of the Creditors or Contributories to be summoned, held, and conducted in such Manner as the Court directs, for the Purpose of ascertaining their Wishes, and may appoint a Person to act as Chairman of any such Meeting, and to report the Result of such Meeting to the Court: In the Case of Creditors, regard is to be had to the Value of the Debts due to each Creditor, and in the Case of Contributories to the Number of Votes conferred on each Contributory by the Regulations of the Company.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

Official Liquidators.

92. For the Purpose of conducting the Proceedings in winding up a Company, and assisting the Court therein, there may be appointed a Person or Persons to be called an Official Liquidator or Official Liquidators; and the Court having Jurisdiction may appoint such Person or Persons, either provisionally or otherwise, as it thinks fit, to the Office of Official Liquidator or Official Liquidators; in all Cases if more Persons than One are appointed to the Office of Official Liquidator, the Court shall declare whether any Act hereby required or authorized to be done by the Official Liquidator is to be done by all or any One or more of such Persons. The Court may also determine whether any and what Security is to be given by any Official Liquidator on his Appointment; if no Official Liquidator is appointed, or during any Vacancy in such Appointment, all the Property of the Company shall be deemed to be in the Custody of the Court.

Appointment of
Official Liquidator.

93. Any Official Liquidator may resign or be removed by the Court on due Cause shown: And any Vacancy in the Office of an Official Liquidator appointed by the Court shall be filled by the Court: There shall be paid to the Official Liquidator such Salary or Remuneration, by way of Per-centage or otherwise, as the Court may direct; and if more Liquidators than One are appointed such Remuneration shall be distributed amongst them in such Proportions as the Court directs.

Resignations,
Removals, filling up
Vacancies, and Compensation.

94. The Official Liquidator or Liquidators shall be described by the Style of the Official Liquidator or Official Liquidators of the particular Company in respect of which he is or they are appointed, and not by his or their individual Name or Names; he or they shall take into his or their Custody, or under his or their Control, all the Property, Effects, and Things in Actions to which the Company is or appears to be entitled, and shall perform such Duties in reference to the Winding-up of the Company as may be imposed by the Court.

Style and Duties of Official Liquidator.

95. The Official Liquidator shall have Power, with the Sanction of the Court, to do the following Things:

Powers of
Official Liquidator.

To bring or defend any Action, Suit, or Prosecution, or other legal Proceeding, Civil or Criminal, in the Name and on behalf of the Company:

To carry on the Business of the Company, so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the same:

To sell the Real and Personal and Heritable and Moveable Property, Effects, and Things in Action of the Company by Public Auction or Private Contract, with Power to transfer the whole thereof to any Person or Company, or to sell the same in Parcels:

To do all Acts and to execute, in the Name and on behalf of the Company, all Deeds, Receipts, and other Documents, and for that Purpose to use, when necessary, the Company's Seal:

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

To prove, rank, claim, and draw a Dividend, in the Matter of the Bankruptcy or Insolvency or Sequestration of any Contributory, for any Balance against the Estate of such Contributory, and to take and receive Dividends in respect of such Balance, in the Matter of Bankruptcy or Insolvency or Sequestration, as a separate Debt due from such Bankrupt or Insolvent, and rateably with the other separate Creditors :

To draw, accept, make, and endorse any Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note in the Name and on behalf of the Company, also to raise upon the Security of the Assets of the Company from Time to Time any requisite Sum or Sums of Money ; and the drawing, accepting, making, or endorsing of every such Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note as aforesaid on behalf of the Company shall have the same Effect with respect to the Liability of such Company as if such Bill or Note had been drawn, accepted, made, or endorsed by or on behalf of such Company in the course of carrying on the Business thereof :

To take out, if necessary, in his official Name, Letters of Administration to any deceased Contributory, and to do in his official Name any other Act that may be necessary for obtaining Payment of any Monies due from a Contributory or from his Estate, and which Act cannot be conveniently done in the Name of the Company ; and in all Cases where he takes out Letters of Administration, or otherwise uses his official Name for obtaining Payment of any Monies due from a Contributory, such Monies shall for the Purpose of enabling him to take out such Letters or recover such Monies, be deemed to be due to the Official Liquidator himself :

To do and execute all such other Things as may be necessary for winding up the Affairs of the Company and distributing its Assets.

Discretion of Official Liquidator.

96. The Court may provide by any Order that the Official Liquidator may exercise any of the above Powers without the Sanction or Intervention of the Court, and where an Official Liquidator is provisionally appointed may limit and restrict his Powers by the Order appointing him.

Appointment of Solicitor to Official Liquidator.

97. The Official Liquidator may, with the Sanction of the Court, appoint a Solicitor or Law Agent to assist him in the Performance of his Duties.

Ordinary Powers of Court.

Collection and Application of Assets.

98. As soon as may be after making an Order for winding up the Company, the Court shall settle a List of Contributories, with Power to rectify the Register of Members in all Cases where such Rectification is required in pursuance of this Act, and shall cause the Assets of the Company to be collected, and applied in discharge of its Liabilities.

Provision as to representative Contributories.

99. In settling the List of Contributories the Court shall distinguish between Persons who are Contributories in their own Right and Persons who are Contributories as being Representatives

tives of or being liable to the Debts of others ; it shall not be necessary, where the Personal Representative of any deceased Contributory is placed on the List, to add the Heirs or Devisees of such Contributory, nevertheless such Heirs or Devisees may be added as and when the Court thinks fit.

100. The Court may, at any Time after making an Order for winding up a Company, require any Contributory for the Time being settled on the List of Contributories, Trustee, Receiver, Banker, or Agent, or Officer of the Company to pay, deliver, convey, surrender, or transfer forthwith, or within such Time as the Court directs, to or into the Hands of the Official Liquidator, any Sum or Balance, Books, Papers, Estate, or Effects which happen to be in his Hands for the Time being, and to which the Company is primâ facie entitled.

Power of Court to require Delivery of Property.

101. The Court may, at any Time after making an Order for winding up the Company, make an Order on any Contributory for the Time being settled on the List of Contributories, directing Payment to be made, in manner in the said Order mentioned, of any Monies due from him or from the Estate of the Person whom he represents to the Company, exclusive of any Monies which he or the Estate of the Person whom he represents may be liable to contribute by virtue of any Call made or to be made by the Court in pursuance of this Part of this Act ; and it may, in making such Order, when the Company is not limited, allow to such Contributory by way of Set-off any Monies due to him or the Estate which he represents from the Company on any independent Dealing or Contract with the Company, but not any Monies due to him as a Member of the Company in respect of any Dividend or Profit :

Power of Court to order Payment of Debts by Contributory.

Provided that when all the Creditors of any Company whether limited or unlimited are paid in full, any Monies due on any Account whatever to any Contributory from the Company may be allowed to him by way of Set-off against any subsequent Call or Calls.

102. The Court may, at any Time after making an Order for winding up a Company, and either before or after it has ascertained the Sufficiency of the Assets of the Company, make Calls on and order Payment thereof by all or any of the Contributories for the Time being settled on the List of Contributories, to the Extent of their Liability, for Payment of all or any Sums it deems necessary to satisfy the Debts and Liabilities of the Company, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of winding it up, and for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves, and it may, in making a Call, take into consideration the Probability that some of the Contributories upon whom the same is made may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective Portions of the same.

Power of Court to make Calls.

103. The Court may order any Contributory, Purchaser, or other Person from whom Money is due to the Company to pay the same into the Bank of England or any Branch thereof to the Account of the Official Liquidator instead of to the Official Power of Court to order Payment into Bank.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

Liquidator, and such Order may be enforced in the same Manner as if it had directed Payment to the Official Liquidator.

Regulation of Account with Court.

104. All Monies, Bills, Notes, and other Securities paid and delivered into the Bank of England or any Branch thereof in the event of a Company being wound up by the Court, shall be subject to such Order and Regulation for the keeping of the Account of such Monies and other Effects, and for the Payment and Delivery in, or Investment and Payment and Delivery out of the same as the Court may direct.

In case of representative Contributory not paying Monies ordered.

105. If any Person made a Contributory as Personal Representative of a deceased Contributory makes default in paying any Sum ordered to be paid by him, Proceedings may be taken for administering the Personal and Real Estates of such deceased Contributory, or either of such Estates, and of compelling Payment thereof of the Monies due.

Order conclusive Evidence.

106. Any Order made by the Court in pursuance of this Act upon any Contributory shall, subject to the Provisions herein contained for appealing against such Order, be conclusive Evidence that the Monies, if any, thereby appearing to be due or ordered to be paid are due, and all other pertinent Matters stated in such Order are to be taken to be truly stated as against all Persons, and in all Proceedings whatsoever, with the Exception of Proceedings taken against the Real Estate of any deceased Contributory, in which Case such Order shall only be primâ facie Evidence for the Purpose of charging his Real Estate, unless his Heirs or Devisees were on the List of Contributories at the Time of the Order being made.

Court may exclude Creditors not proving in certain Time.

107. The Court may fix a certain Day or certain Days on or within which Creditors of the Company are to prove their Debts or Claims, or to be excluded from the Benefit of any Distribution made before such Debts are proved.

Proceedings in the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries on Proof of Debts.

108. If in the course of proving the Debts and Claims of Creditors in the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries any Debt or Claim is disputed by the Official Liquidator or by any Creditor or Contributory, or appears to the Court to be open to Question, the Court shall have Power, subject to Appeal as hereinafter provided, to adjudicate upon it, and for that Purpose the said Court shall have and exercise all needful Powers of Inquiry touching the same by Affidavit or by oral Examination of Witnesses or of Parties, whether voluntarily offering themselves for Examination or summoned to attend by compulsory Process of the Court, or to produce Documents before the Court; and the Court shall also have Power, incidentally, to decide on the Validity and Extent of any Lien or Charge claimed by any Creditor on any Property of the Company in respect of such Debt, and to make Declarations of Right, binding on all Persons interested; and for the more satisfactory Determination of any Question of Fact, or mixed Question of Law and Fact arising on such Inquiry, the Vice Warden shall have Power, if he thinks fit, to direct and settle any Action or Issue to be tried either on the Common Law Side of his Court, or by a Common or Special Jury, before the Justices of Assize in and for the Counties of Cornwall or Devon,

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

Devon, or at any Sitting of One of the Superior Courts in London or Middlesex, which Action or Issue shall accordingly be tried in due Course of Law, and without other or further Consent of Parties; and the Finding of the Jury in such Action or Issue shall be conclusive of the Facts found, unless the Judge who tried it makes known to the Vice Warden that he was not satisfied with the Finding, or unless it appears to the Vice Warden that, in consequence of Miscarriage, Accident, or the subsequent Discovery of fresh material Evidence, such Finding ought not to be conclusive.

109. The Court shall adjust the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves, and distribute any Surplus that may remain amongst the Parties entitled thereto.

Court to adjust Rights of Contributories.

110. The Court may, in the event of the Assets being insufficient to satisfy the Liabilities, make an Order as to the Payment out of the Estate of the Company of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred in winding up any Company in such Order of Priority as the Court thinks just.

Court to order Costs.

111. When the Affairs of the Company have been completely wound up, the Court shall make an Order that the Company be dissolved from the Date of such Order, and the Company shall be dissolved accordingly.

Dissolution of Company.

112. Any Order so made shall be reported by the Official Liquidator to the Registrar, who shall make a Minute accordingly in his Books of the Dissolution of such Company.

Registrar to make Minute of Dissolution.

113. If the Official Liquidator makes default in reporting to the Registrar, in the Case of a Company being wound up by the Court, the Order that the Company be dissolved, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which he is so in default.

Penalty on not reporting Dissolution.

114. Any Petition for winding up a Company by the Court under this Act shall constitute a Lis pendens within the Terms of the Act passed in the Session holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eleven, and intituled An Act for the better Protection of Purchasers against Judgments, Crown Debts, Lis pendens, and Fiats in Bankruptcy, provided the same is duly registered in manner required by such Act concerning Suits in Equity.

Petition to be Lis pendens.

Extraordinary Powers of Court.

115. The Court may, after it has made an Order for winding up the Company, summon before it any Officer of the Company or Person known or suspected to have in his Possession any of the Estate or Effects of the Company, or supposed to be indebted to the Company, or any Person whom the Court may deem capable of giving Information concerning the Trade, Dealings, Estate, or Effects of the Company; and the Court may require any such Officer or Person to produce any Books, Papers, Deeds, Writings, or other Documents in his Custody or Power relating to the Company; and if any Person so summoned, after being tendered a reasonable Sum for his Expenses, refuses to come before the Court at the Time appointed, having no lawful Impediment (made known to the Court at the Time of its sitting, and allowed by it), the Court may cause such Person to be apprehended, and brought before the Court for Examination; nevertheless, in Cases where any Person claims any Lien on Papers, Deeds, or Writings or Documents produced by him, such Production shall be without Prejudice to such Lien, and the Court shall have Jurisdiction in the Winding-up to determine all Questions relating to such Lien.

Power of Court to summon Persons before it suspected of having Property of Company.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

116. If, after an Order for Winding-up in the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, it appears that any Person claims Property in, or any Lien, legal or equitable, upon any of the Machinery, Materials, Ores, or Effects on the Mine or on Premises occupied by the Company in connexion with the Mine, or to which the Company was, at the Time of the Order, primâ facie entitled, it shall be lawful for the Vice Warden or the Registrar to adjudicate upon such Claim on Interpleader in the Manner provided by Section Eleven of the Act passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Thirty-two; and any Action or Issue directed upon such Interpleader may, if the Vice Warden think fit, be tried in his Court or at the Assizes or the Sittings in London or Middlesex, before a Judge of One of the Superior Courts, in the Manner and on the Terms and Conditions herein-before provided in the Case of disputed Debts and Claims of Creditors.

117. The Court may examine upon Oath, either by Word of Mouth or upon written Interrogatories, any Person appearing or brought before them in manner aforesaid concerning the Affairs, Dealings, Estate, or Effects of the Company, and may reduce into Writing the Answers of every such Person, and require him to subscribe the same.

118. The Court may, at any Time before or after it has made an Order for winding up a Company, upon Proof being given that there is probable Cause for believing that any Contributory to such Company is about to quit the United Kingdom, or otherwise abscond, or to remove or conceal any of his Goods or Chattels, for the Purpose of evading Payment of Calls, or for avoiding Examination in respect of the Affairs of the Company, cause such Contributory to be arrested, and his Books, Papers, Monies, Securities for Monies, Goods, and Chattels to be seized, and him and them to be safely kept until such Time as the Court may order.

119. Any Powers by this Act conferred on the Court shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in restriction of any other Powers subsisting, either at Law or in Equity, of instituting Proceedings against any Contributory, or the Estate of any Contributory, or against any Debtor of the Company for the Recovery of any Call or other Sums due from such Contributory or Debtor, or his Estate, and such Proceedings may be instituted accordingly.

Enforcement of and Appeal from Orders.

120. All Orders made by the Court of Chancery in England or Ireland under this Act may be enforced in the same Manner

Special Provisions as to Court of Vice Warden of the Stannaries.

Examination of Parties by Court.

Power to arrest Contributory about to abscond, or to remove or conceal any of his Property.

Powers of Court cumulative.

Power to enforce Orders.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

in which Orders of such Court of Chancery made in any Suit pending therein may be enforced, and for the Purposes of this Part of this Act the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries shall, in addition to its ordinary Powers, have the same Power of enforcing any Orders made by it as the Court of Chancery in England has in relation to Matters within the Jurisdiction of such Court, and for the last-mentioned Purposes the Jurisdiction of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries shall be deemed to be co-extensive in local Limits with the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery in England.

121. Where an Order, Interlocutor, or Decree has been made in Scotland for winding up a Company by the Court, it shall be competent to the Court in Scotland during Session, and to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills during Vacation, on Production by the Liquidators of a List certified by them of the Names of the Contributories liable in Payment of any Calls which they may wish to enforce, and of the Amount due by each Contributory respectively, and of the Date when the same became due, to pronounce forthwith a Decree against such Contributories for Payment of the Sums so certified to be due by each of them respectively, with Interest from the said Date till Payment, at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, in the same Way and to the same Effect as if they had severally consented to Registration for Execution, on a Charge of Six Days, of a legal Obligation to pay such Calls and Interest; and such Decree may be extracted immediately, and no Suspension thereof shall be competent, except on Caution or Consignation, unless with special Leave of the Court or Lord Ordinary.

Power to order Contributories in Scotland to pay Calls.

122. Any Order made by the Court in England for or in the Course of the Winding-up of a Company under this Act shall be enforced in Scotland and Ireland in the Courts that would respectively have had Jurisdiction in respect of such Company if the registered Office of the Company had been situate in Scotland or Ireland, and in the same Manner in all respects as if such Order had been made by the Courts that are hereby required to enforce the same; and in like Manner Orders, Interlocutors, and Decrees made by the Court in Scotland for or in the Course of the Winding-up of a Company shall be enforced in England and Ireland, and Orders made by the Court in Ireland for or in the Course of winding up a Company shall be enforced in England and Scotland by the Courts which would respectively have had Jurisdiction in the Matter of such Company if the registered Office of the Company were situate in the Division of the United Kingdom where the Order is required to be enforced, and in the same Manner in all respects as if such Order had been made by the Court required to enforce the same in the Case of a Company within its own Jurisdiction.

Order made in England to be enforced in Ireland and Scotland.

123. Where any Order, Interlocutor, or Decree made by one Court is required to be enforced by another Court, as herein-before provided, an Office Copy of the Order, Interlocutor, or Decree so made shall be produced to the proper Officer of the Court required to enforce the same, and the Production of such Mode of dealing with Orders to be enforced by other Courts.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

Office Copy shall be sufficient Evidence of such Order, Interlocutor, or Decree having been made, and thereupon such last-mentioned Court shall take such Steps in the Matter as may be requisite for enforcing such Order, Interlocutor, or Decree, in the same Manner as if it were the Order, Interlocutor, or Decree of the Court enforcing the same.

Appeals from Orders.

124. Rehearings of and Appeals from any Order or Decision made or given in the Matter of the Winding-up of a Company by any Court having Jurisdiction under this Act, may be had in the same Manner and subject to the same Conditions in and subject to which Appeals may be had from any Order or Decision of the same Court in Cases within its ordinary Jurisdiction; subject to this Restriction, that no such Rehearing or Appeal shall be heard unless Notice of the same is given within Three Weeks after any Order complained of has been made, in manner in which Notices of Appeal are ordinarily given, according to the Practice of the Court appealed from, unless such Time is extended by the Court of Appeal: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Lord Warden of the Stannaries, by a Special or General Order, to remit at once any Appeal allowed and regularly lodged with him against any Order or Decision of the Vice Warden made in the Matter of a Winding-up to the Court of Appeal in Chancery, which Court shall thereupon hear and determine such Appeal, and have Power to require all such Certificates of the Vice Warden, Records of Proceedings below, Documents, and Papers as the Lord Warden would or might have required upon the Hearing of such Appeal, and to exercise all other the Jurisdiction and Powers of the Lord Warden specified in the Act of Parliament passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Thirty-two, and any Order so made by the Court of Appeal in Chancery shall be final, without any further Appeal.

Judicial Notice to be taken of Signature of Officers.

125. In all Proceedings under this Part of this Act, all Courts, Judges, and Persons judicially acting, and all other Officers, Judicial or Ministerial, of any Court, or employed in enforcing the Process of any Court, shall take judicial Notice of the Signature of any Officer of the Courts of Chancery or Bankruptcy in England or in Ireland, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the Registrar of the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, and also of the official Seal or Stamp of the several Offices of the Courts of Chancery or Bankruptcy in England or Ireland, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, when such Seal or Stamp is appended to or impressed on any Document made, issued, or signed under the Provisions of this Part of the Act, or any official Copy thereof.

Special Commissioners for receiving Evidence.

126. The Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy and the Judges of the County Courts in England who sit at Places more than Twenty Miles from the General Post Office, and the Commissioners of Bankrupt and the Assistant Barristers and Recorders in Ireland, and the Sheriffs of Counties in Scotland, shall be Commissioners for the Purpose of taking Evidence under this Act in Cases where any Company is wound up in any Part of the United Kingdom, and it shall be lawful for the Court to refer the whole or any Part of the Examination of any Witnesses under this Act to any Person hereby appointed Commissioner, although such Commissioner is out of the Jurisdiction of the Court that made the Order or Decree for winding up the Company ; and every such Commissioner shall, in addition to any Power of summoning and examining Witnesses, and requiring the Production or Delivery of Documents, and certifying or punishing Defaults by Witnesses, which he might lawfully exercise as a Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy, Judge of a County Court, Commissioner of Bankrupt, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder, or as a Sheriff of a County, have in the Matter so referred to him all the same Powers of summoning and examining Witnesses, and requiring the Production or Delivery of Documents, and punishing Defaults by Witnesses, and allowing Costs and Charges and Expenses to Witnesses, as the Court which made the Order for winding up the Company has ; and the Examination so taken shall be returned or reported to such last-mentioned Court in such Manner as it directs.

127. The Court may direct the Examination in Scotland of any Person for the Time being in Scotland, whether a Contributory of the Company or not, in regard to the Estate, Dealings, or Affairs of any Company in the course of being wound up, or in regard to the Estate, Dealings, or Affairs of any Person being a Contributory of the Company, so far as the Company may be interested therein by reason of his being such Contributory, and the Order or Commission to take such Examination shall be directed to the Sheriff of the County in which the Person to be examined is residing or happens to be for the Time, and the Sheriff shall summon such Person to appear before him at a Time and Place to be specified in the Summons for Examination upon Oath as a Witness or as a Haver, and to produce any Books, Papers, Deeds, or Documents called for which may be in his Possession or Power, and the Sheriff may take such Examination either orally or upon written Interrogatories, and shall report the same in Writing in the usual Form to the Court, and shall transmit with such Report the Books, Papers, Deeds, or Documents produced, if the Originals thereof are required and specified by the Order, or otherwise such Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom, authenticated by the Sheriff, as may be necessary ; and in case any Person so summoned fails to appear at the Time and Place specified, or appearing refuses to be examined or to make the Production required, the Sheriff shall proceed against such Person as a Witness or Haver duly cited, and failing to appear or refusing to give Evidence or make Production may be proceeded against by the Law of Scotland ; and the Sheriff shall be entitled to such and the like Fees, and the Witness shall be entitled to such and the like Allowances, as Sheriffs when acting as Commissioners under Appointment from the Court of Session and as Witnesses and Havers are entitled to in the like Cases according to the Law and Practice of Scotland : If any Objection is stated to the Sheriff by the Witness, either on the Ground of his Incompetency as a Witness, or as to the Production required to be made, or on any other Ground whatever, the Sheriff may, if he thinks fit, report such Objection to the Court, and suspend the Examination of such Witness until such Objection has been disposed of by the Court.

Affidavits, &c. may be sworn in Ireland, Scotland, or the Colonies before any competent Court or Person.

128. Any Affidavit, Affirmation, or Declaration required to be sworn or made, under the Provisions or for the Purposes of this Part of this Act, may be lawfully sworn or made in Great Britain or Ireland, or in any Colony, Island, Plantation, or Place under the Dominion of Her Majesty in Foreign Parts, before any Court, Judge, or Person lawfully authorized to take and receive Affidavits, Affirmations, or Declarations, or before any of Her Majesty's Consuls or Vice-Consuls, in any Foreign Parts out of Her Majesty's Dominions, and all Courts, Judges, Justices, Commissioners, and Persons acting judicially shall take judicial Notice of the Seal or Stamp or Signature (as the Case may be) of any such Court, Judge, Person, Consul, or Vice-Consul attached, appended, or subscribed to any such Affidavit, Affirmation, or Declaration, or to any other Document to be used for the Purposes of this Part of this Act.

Voluntary Winding-up of Company.

Circumstances under which Company may be wound up voluntarily.

129. A Company under this Act may be wound up voluntarily,

- (1.) Whenever the Period, if any, fixed for the Duration of the Company by the Articles of Association expires, or whenever the Event, if any, occurs, upon the Occurrence of which it is provided by the Articles of Association that the Company is to be dissolved, and the Company in General Meeting has passed a Resolution requiring the Company to be wound up voluntarily :
- (2.) Whenever the Company has passed a Special Resolution requiring the Company to be wound up voluntarily :
- (3.) Whenever the Company has passed an Extraordinary Resolution to the Effect that it has been proved to their Satisfaction that the Company cannot by reason of its Liabilities continue its Business, and that it is advisable to wind up the same :

For the Purposes of this Act any Resolution shall be deemed to be extraordinary which is passed in such Manner as would, if it had been confirmed by a subsequent Meeting, have constituted a Special Resolution, as herein-before defined.

Commencement of voluntary Winding-up.

130. A voluntary Winding-up shall be deemed to commence at the Time of the passing of the Resolution authorizing such Winding-up.

Effect of voluntary Winding-up on Status of Company.

131. Whenever a Company is wound up voluntarily the Company shall, from the Date of the Commencement of such Winding-up, cease to carry on its Business, except in so far as may be required for the beneficial Winding-up thereof, and all Transfers of Shares except Transfers made to or with the Sanction of the Liquidators, or Alteration in the Status of the Members of the Company taking place after the Commencement of such Winding-up shall be void, but its Corporate State and all its Corporate Powers shall, notwithstanding it is otherwise provided by its Regulations, continue until the Affairs of the Company are wound up.

132. Notice of any Special Resolution or Extraordinary Resolution passed for winding up a Company voluntarily shall be given by Advertisement as respects Companies registered in England in the London Gazette, as respects Companies registered in Scotland in the Edinburgh Gazette, and as respects Companies registered in Ireland in the Dublin Gazette.

Notice of Resolution to wind up voluntarily.

133. The following Consequences shall ensue upon the voluntary Winding-up of a Company :

Consequences of voluntary Winding-up.

- (1.) The Property of the Company shall be applied in satisfaction of its Liabilities pari passu, and subject thereto, shall, unless it be otherwise provided by the Regulations of the Company, be distributed amongst the Members according to their Rights and Interests in the Company :
- (2.) Liquidators shall be appointed for the Purpose of winding up the Affairs of the Company and distributing the Property :
- (3.) The Company in General Meeting shall appoint such Persons or Person as it thinks fit to be Liquidators or a Liquidator, and may fix the Remuneration to be paid to them or him :
- (4.) If One Person only is appointed, all the Provisions herein contained in reference to several Liquidators shall apply to him :
- (5.) Upon the Appointment of Liquidators all the Power of the Directors shall cease, except in so far as the Company in General Meeting or the Liquidators may sanction the Continuance of such Powers :
- (6.) When several Liquidators are appointed, every Power hereby given may be exercised by such One or more of them, as may be determined at the Time of their Appointment, or in default of such Determination by any Number not less than Two :
- (7.) The Liquidators may, without the Sanction of the Court, exercise all Powers by this Act given to the Official Liquidator :
- (8.) The Liquidators may exercise the Powers herein-before given to the Court of settling the List of Contributories of the Company, and any List so settled shall be primâ facie Evidence of the Liability of the Persons named therein to be Contributories :
- (9.) The Liquidators may at any Time after the passing of the Resolution for winding up the Company, and before they have ascertained the Sufficiency of the Assets of the Company, call on all or any of the Contributories for the Time being settled on the List of Contributories to the Extent of their Liability to pay all or any Sums they deem necessary to satisfy the Debts and Liabilities of the Company, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of winding it up, and for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves, and the Liquidators may in making a Call take into consideration the Probability that some of the Contributories upon whom the same is made may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective Portions of the same :

- (10.) The Liquidators shall pay the Debts of the Company, and adjust the Rights of the Contributories amongst themselves.

Effect of Winding-up on Share Capital of Company limited by Guarantee.

134. Where a Company limited by Guarantee, and having a Capital divided into Shares, is being wound up voluntarily, any Share Capital that may not have been called up shall be deemed to be Assets of the Company, and to be a Specialty Debt due from each Member to the Company to the Extent of any Sums that may be unpaid on any Shares held by him, and payable at such Time as may be appointed by the Liquidators.

Power of Company to delegate Authority to appoint Liquidators.

135. A Company about to be wound up voluntarily, or in the course of being wound up voluntarily, may, by an Extraordinary Resolution, delegate to its Creditors, or to any Committee of its Creditors, the Power of appointing Liquidators or any of them, and supplying any Vacancies in the Appointment of Liquidators, or may by a like Resolution enter into any Arrangement with respect to the Powers to be exercised by the Liquidators, and the Manner in which they are to be exercised ; and any Act done by the Creditors, in pursuance of such delegated Power, shall have the same Effect as if it had been done by the Company.

Arrangement when binding on Creditors.

136. Any Arrangement entered into between a Company about to be wound up voluntarily, or in the course of being wound up voluntarily, and its Creditors, shall be binding on the Company if sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution, and on the Creditors if acceded to by Three Fourths in Number and Value of the Creditors, subject to such Right of Appeal as is herein-after mentioned.

Power of Creditor or Contributory to appeal.

137. Any Creditor or Contributory of a Company that has in manner aforesaid entered into any Arrangement with its Creditors may, within Three Weeks from the Date of the Completion of such Arrangement, appeal to the Court against such Arrangement, and the Court may thereupon, as it thinks just, amend, vary, or confirm the same.

Power for Liquidators or Contributories in voluntary Winding-up to apply to Court.

138. Where a Company is being wound up voluntarily the Liquidators or any Contributory of the Company may apply to the Court in England, Ireland, or Scotland, or to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in Scotland in Time of Vacation, to determine any Question arising in the Matter of such Winding up, or to exercise, as respects the enforcing of Calls, or in respect of any other Matter, all or any of the Powers which the Court might exercise if the Company were being wound up by the Court ; and the Court or Lord Ordinary in the Case aforesaid, if satisfied that the Determination of such Question, or the required Exercise of Power, will be just and beneficial, may accede, wholly or partially, to such Application, on such Terms and subject to such Conditions as the Court thinks fit, or it may make such other Order, Interlocutor, or Decree on such Application as the Court thinks just.

139. Where a Company is being wound up voluntarily the Liquidators may, from Time to Time, during the Continuance of such Winding-up, summon General Meetings of the Company for the Purpose of obtaining the Sanction of the Company by Special Resolution or Extraordinary Resolution, or for any other Purposes they think fit; and in the event of the Winding-up continuing for more than One Year, the Liquidators shall summon a General Meeting of the Company at the End of the First Year, and of each succeeding Year from the Commencement of the Winding-up, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, and shall lay before such Meeting an Account showing their Acts and Dealings, and the Manner in which the Winding-up has been conducted during the preceding Year.

Power of Liquidators to call General Meeting.

140. If any Vacancy occurs in the Office of Liquidators appointed by the Company, by Death, Resignation, or otherwise, the Company in General Meeting may, subject to any Arrangement they may have entered into with their Creditors, fill up such Vacancy, and a General Meeting for the Purpose of filling up such Vacancy may be convened by the continuing Liquidators, if any, or by any Contributory of the Company, and shall be deemed to have been duly held if held in manner prescribed by the Regulations of the Company, or in such other Manner as may, on Application by the continuing Liquidator, if any, or by any Contributory of the Company, be determined by the Court.

Power to fill up Vacancy in Liquidators.

141. If from any Cause whatever there is no Liquidator acting in the Case of a voluntary Winding-up, the Court may, on the Application of a Contributory, appoint a Liquidator or Liquidators: The Court may also, on due Cause shown, remove any Liquidator, and appoint another Liquidator to act in the Matter of a voluntary Winding-up.

Power of Court to appoint Liquidators.

142. As soon as the Affairs of the Company are fully wound up, the Liquidators shall make up an Account showing the Manner in which such Winding-up has been conducted, and the Property of the Company disposed of; and thereupon they shall call a General Meeting of the Company for the Purpose of having the Account laid before them and hearing any Explanation that may be given by the Liquidators: The Meeting shall be called by Advertisement, specifying the Time, Place, and Object of such Meeting; and such Advertisement shall be published One Month at least previously to the Meeting, as respects Companies registered in England in the London Gazette, and as respects Companies registered in Scotland in the Edinburgh Gazette, and as respects Companies registered in Ireland in the Dublin Gazette.

Liquidators on Conclusion of Winding up to make up an Account.

143. The Liquidators shall make a Return to the Registrar of such Meeting having been held, and of the Date at which the same was held, and on the Expiration of Three Months from the Date of the Registration of such Return the Company shall be deemed to be dissolved: If the Liquidators make default in making such Return to the Registrar they shall incur a Penalty Liquidators to report Meeting to Registrar.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Default continues.

Costs of voluntary Liquidation.

144. All Costs, Charges, and Expenses properly incurred in the voluntary Winding-up of a Company, including the Remuneration of the Liquidators, shall be payable out of the Assets of the Company in priority to all other Claims.

Saving of Rights of Creditors.

145. The voluntary Winding-up of a Company shall not be a Bar to the Right of any Creditor of such Company to have the same wound up by the Court, if the Court is of opinion that the Rights of such Creditor will be prejudiced by a voluntary Winding-up.

Power of Court to adopt Proceedings of voluntary Winding-up.

146. Where a Company is in course of being wound up voluntarily, and Proceedings are taken for the Purpose of having the same wound up by the Court, the Court may, if it thinks fit, notwithstanding that it makes an Order directing the Company to be wound up by the Court, provide in such Order or in any other Order for the Adoption of all or any of the Proceedings taken in the course of the voluntary Winding-up.

Winding up subject to the Supervision of the Court.

Power of Court, on Application, to direct Winding-up, subject to Supervision.

147. When a Resolution has been passed by a Company to wind up voluntarily, the Court may make an Order directing that the voluntary Winding-up should continue, but subject to such Supervision of the Court, and with such Liberty for Creditors, Contributories, or others, to apply to the Court, and generally upon such Terms and subject to such Conditions as the Court thinks just.

Petition for winding up, subject to Supervision.

148. A Petition, praying wholly or in part that a voluntary Winding-up should continue, but subject to the Supervision of the Court, and which Winding-up is herein-after referred to as a Winding-up subject to the Supervision of the Court, shall, for the Purpose of giving Jurisdiction to the Court over Suits and Actions, be deemed to be a Petition for winding up the Company by the Court.

Court may have regard to Wishes of Creditors.

149. The Court may, in determining whether a Company is to be wound up altogether by the Court or subject to the Supervision of the Court, in the Appointment of Liquidator or Liquidators, and in all other Matters relating to the winding up subject to Supervision, have regard to the Wishes of the Creditors or Contributories as proved to it by any sufficient Evidence, and may direct Meetings of the Creditors or Contributories to be summoned, held, and regulated in such Manner as the Court directs for the Purpose of ascertaining their Wishes, and may appoint a Person to act as Chairman of any such Meeting, and to report the Result of such Meeting to the Court: In the Case of Creditors, regard shall be had to the Value of the Debts due to each Creditor, and in the Case of Contributories to the Number of Votes conferred on each Contributory by the Regulations of the Company.

Power to Court to appoint additional Liquidators

150. Where any Order is made by the Court for a Winding-up subject to the Supervision of the Court, the Court may, in such Order or in any subsequent Order, appoint any additional Liquidator dator or Liquidators; and any Liquidators so appointed by the Court shall have the same Powers, be subject to the same Obligations, and in all respects stand in the same Position as if they had been appointed by the Company: The Court may from Time to Time remove any Liquidators so appointed by the Court, and fill up any Vacancy occasioned by such Removal, or by Death or Resignation.

Companies, &c. (Part IV., Winding up.)

in Winding-up subject to Supervision.

151. Where an Order is made for a Winding-up subject to the Supervision of the Court, the Liquidators appointed to conduct such Winding-up may, subject to any Restrictions imposed by the Court, exercise all their Powers, without the Sanction or Intervention of the Court, in the same Manner as if the Company were being wound up altogether voluntarily; but, save as aforesaid, any Order made by the Court for a Winding-up, subject to the Supervision of the Court, shall for all Purposes, including the staying of Actions, Suits, and other Proceedings, be deemed to be an Order of the Court for winding up the Company by the Court, and shall confer full Authority on the Court to make Calls, or to enforce Calls made by the Liquidators, and to exercise all other Powers which it might have exercised if an Order had been made for winding up the Company altogether by the Court, and in the Construction of the Provisions whereby the Court is empowered to direct any Act or Thing to be done to or in favour of the Official Liquidators, the Expression Official Liquidators shall be deemed to mean the Liquidators conducting the Winding-up, subject to the Supervision of the Court.

Effect of Order of Court for winding-up subject to Supervision.

152. Where an Order has been made for the Winding-up of a Company subject to the Supervision of the Court, and such Order is afterwards superseded by an Order directing the Company to be wound up compulsorily, the Court may in such last-mentioned Order, or in any subsequent Order, appoint the voluntary Liquidators or any of them, either provisionally or permanently, and either with or without the Addition of any other Persons, to be Official Liquidators.

Appointment in certain Cases of voluntary Liquidators to Office of Official Liquidators.

Supplemental Provisions.

153. Where any Company is being wound up by the Court or subject to the Supervision of the Court all Dispositions of the Property, Effects, and Things in Action of the Company, and every Transfer of Shares, or Alteration in the Status of the Members of the Company made between the Commencement of the winding up and the Order for winding up, shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be void.

Dispositions after the Commencement of the Winding-up avoided.

154. Where any Company is being wound up, all Books, Accounts, and Documents of the Company and of the Liquidators shall, as between the Contributories of the Company, be prima facie Evidence of the Truth of all Matters purporting to be therein recorded.

The Books of the Company to be Evidence.

155. Where any Company has been wound up under this Act and is about to be dissolved, the Books, Accounts, and Documents of the Company and of the Liquidators may be disposed of in the following Way; that is to say, where the Company has been wound up by or subject to the Supervision of the Court, in such Way as the Court directs, and where the Company has been wound up voluntarily, in such Way as the Company by an Extraordinary Resolution directs; but after the Lapse of Five Years from the Date of such Dissolution, no Responsibility shall rest on the Company, or the Liquidators, or anyone to whom the Custody of such Books, Accounts, and Documents has been committed, by reason that the same, or any of them, cannot be made forthcoming to any Party or Parties claiming to be interested therein.

156. Where an Order has been made for winding up a Company by the Court, or subject to the Supervision of the Court, the Court may make such Order for the Inspection by the Creditors and Contributories of the Company of its Books and Papers as the Court thinks just, and any Books and Papers in the Possession of the Company may be inspected by Creditors or Contributories in conformity with the Order of the Court, but not further or otherwise.

157. Any Person to whom any Thing in Action belonging to the Company is assigned, in pursuance of this Act, may bring or defend any Action or Suit relating to such Thing in Action in his own Name.

158. In the event of any Company being wound up under this Act, all Debts payable on a Contingency, and all Claims against the Company, present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in Damages, shall be admissible to Proof against the Company, a just Estimate being made, so far as is possible, of the Value of all such Debts or Claims as may be subject to any Contingency or sound only in Damages, or for some other Reason do not bear a certain Value.

159. The Liquidators may, with the Sanction of the Court, where the Company is being wound up by the Court or subject to the Supervision of the Court, and with the Sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution of the Company where the Company is being wound up altogether voluntarily, pay any Classes of Creditors in full, or make such Compromise or other Arrangement as the Liquidators may deem expedient with Creditors or Persons claiming to be Creditors, or Persons having or alleging themselves to have any Claim, present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in Damages against the Company, or whereby the Company may be rendered liable.

160. The Liquidators may, with the Sanction of the Court, where the Company is being wound up by the Court or subject to the Supervision of the Court, and with the Sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution of the Company where the Company is being wound up altogether voluntarily, compromise all Calls and Liabilities to Calls, Debts, and Liabilities capable of resulting in Debts, and all Claims, whether present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in Damages, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the Company and any Contributory or alleged Contributory, or other Debtor or Person apprehending Liability to the Company, and all Questions in any way relating to or affecting the Assets of the Company or the winding up of the Company, upon the Receipt of such Sums, payable at such Times, and generally upon such Terms as may be agreed upon, with Power for the Liquidators to take any Security for the Discharge of such Debts or Liabilities, and to give complete Discharges in respect of all or any such Calls, Debts, or Liabilities.

161. Where any Company is proposed to be or is in the course of being wound up altogether voluntarily, and the whole or a Portion of its Business or Property is proposed to be transferred or sold to another Company, the Liquidators of the first-mentioned Company may, with the Sanction of a Special Resolution of the Company by whom they were appointed, conferring either a general Authority on the Liquidators, or an Authority in respect of any particular Arrangement, receive in Compensation or part Compensation for such Transfer or Sale Shares, Policies, or other like Interests in such other Company, for the Purpose of Distribution amongst the Members of the Company being wound up, or may enter into any other Arrangement whereby the Members of the Company being wound up may, in lieu of receiving Cash, Shares, Policies, or other like Interests, or in addition thereto, participate in the Profits of or receive any other Benefit from the purchasing Company; and any Sale made or Arrangement entered into by the Liquidators in pursuance of this Section shall be binding on the Members of the Company being wound up; subject to this Proviso, that if any Member of the Company being wound up who has not voted in favour of the Special Resolution passed by the Company of which he is a Member at either of the Meetings held for passing the same expresses his Dissent from any such Special Resolution in Writing addressed to the Liquidators or One of them, and left at the registered Office of the Company not later than Seven Days after the Date of the Meeting at which such Special Resolution was passed, such dissentient Member may require the Liquidators to do One of the following Things as the Liquidators may prefer; that is to say, either to abstain from carrying such Resolution into effect, or to purchase the Interest held by such dissentient Member at a Price to be determined in manner herein-after mentioned, such Purchase Money to be paid before the Company is dissolved, and to be raised by the Liquidators in such Manner as may be determined by Special Resolution: No Special Resolution shall be deemed invalid for the Purposes of this Section by reason that it is passed antecedently to or concurrently with any Resolution for winding up the Company, or for appointing Liquidators; but if an Order be made within a Year for winding up the Company by or subject to the Supervision of the Court, such Resolution shall not be of any Validity unless it is sanctioned by the Court.

162. The Price to be paid for the Purchase of the Interest of any dissentient Member may be determined by Agreement, but if the Parties dispute about the same, such Dispute shall be settled by Arbitration, and for the Purposes of such Arbitration the Provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration, shall be incorporated with this Act; and in the Construction of such Provisions this Act shall be deemed to be the Special Act, and "the Company" shall mean the Company that is being wound up, and any Appointment by the said incorporated Provisions directed to be made under the Hand of the Secretary, or any Two of the Directors, may be made under the Hand of the Liquidator, if only One, or any Two or more of the Liquidators if more than One.

Certain Attachments, Sequestrations, and Executions to be void.

163. Where any Company is being wound up by the Court or subject to the Supervision of the Court, any Attachment, Sequestration, Distress, or Execution put in force against the Estate or Effects of the Company after the Commencement of the Winding-up shall be void to all Intents.

Fraudulent Preference.

164. Any such Conveyance, Mortgage, Delivery of Goods, Payment, Execution, or other Act relating to Property as would, if made or done by or against any individual Trader, be deemed in the event of his Bankruptcy to have been made or done by way of undue or fraudulent Preference of the Creditors of such Trader, shall, if made or done by or against any Company, be deemed, in the event of such Company being wound up under this Act, to have been made or done by way of undue or fraudulent Preference of the Creditors of such Company, and shall be invalid accordingly; and for the Purposes of this Section the Presentation of a Petition for winding up a Company shall in the Case of a Company being wound up by the Court or subject to the Supervision of the Court, and a Resolution for winding up the Company shall, in the Case of a voluntary Winding-up, be deemed to correspond with the Act of Bankruptcy in the Case of an individual Trader; and any Conveyance or Assignment made by any Company formed under this Act of all its Estate and Effects to Trustees for the Benefit of all its Creditors shall be void to all Intents.

Power of Court to assess Damages against delinquent Directors and Officers.

165. Where, in the course of the Winding-up of any Company under this Act, it appears that any past or present Director, Manager, Official or other Liquidator, or any Officer of such Company, has misapplied or retained in his own Hands or become liable or accountable for any Monies of the Company, or been guilty of any Misfeasance or Breach of Trust in relation to the Company, the Court may, on the Application of any Liquidator, or of any Creditor or Contributory of the Company, notwithstanding that the Offence is one for which the Offender is criminally responsible, examine into the Conduct of such Director, Manager, or other Officer, and compel him to repay any Monies so misapplied or retained, or for which he has become liable or accountable, together with Interest after such Rate as the Court thinks just, or to contribute such Sums of Money to the Assets of the Company by way of Compensation in respect of such Misapplication, Retainer, Misfeasance, or Breach of Trust, as the Court thinks just.

Penalty on Falsification of Books.

166. If any Director, Officer, or Contributory of any Company wound up under this Act destroys, mutilates, alters, or falsifies any Books, Papers, Writings, or Securities, or makes or is privy to the making of any false or fraudulent Entry in any Register, Book of Account, or other Document belonging to the Company with Intent to defraud or deceive any Person, every Person so offending shall be deemed to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and upon being convicted shall be liable to Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Two Years, with or without Hard Labour.

167. Where any Order is made for winding up a Company by the Court or subject to the Supervision of the Court, if it appear in the course of such Winding-up that any past or present Director, Manager, Officer, or Member of such Company has been guilty of any Offence in relation to the Company for which he is criminally responsible, the Court may, on the Application of any Person interested in such Winding-up, or of its own Motion, direct the Official Liquidators, or the Liquidators, (as the Case may be,) to institute and conduct a Prosecution or Prosecutions for such Offence, and may order the Costs and Expenses to be paid out of the Assets of the Company.

Prosecution of delinquent Directors in the Case of winding up by Court.

168. Where a Company is being wound up altogether voluntarily, if it appear to the Liquidators conducting such Winding-up that any past or present Director, Manager, Officer, or Member of such Company has been guilty of any Offence in relation to the Company for which he is criminally responsible, it shall be lawful for the Liquidators, with the previous Sanction of the Court, to prosecute such Offender, and all Expenses properly incurred by them in such Prosecution shall be payable out of the Assets of the Company in priority to all other Liabilities.

Prosecution of delinquent Directors, &c. in case of voluntary Winding-up.

169. If any Person, upon any Examination upon Oath or Affirmation authorized under this Act, or in any Affidavit, Deposition, or solemn Affirmation in or about the Winding-up of any Company under this Act, or otherwise in or about any Matter arising under this Act, wilfully and corruptly gives false Evidence, he shall, upon Conviction, be liable to the Penalties of wilful Perjury.

Power of Courts to make Rules.

170. In England the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls and any One of the Vice Chancellors for the Time being, or with the Advice and Consent of any Two of the Vice Chancellors, may, as often as Circumstances require, make such Rules concerning the Mode of Proceeding to be had for winding up a Company in the Court of Chancery as may from Time to Time seem necessary, but until such Rules are made the general Practice of the Court of Chancery, including the Practice hitherto in use in winding up Companies, shall, so far as the same is applicable and not inconsistent with this Act, apply to all Proceedings for winding up a Company.

Power of Lord Chancellor of Great Britain to make Rules.

171. In Scotland the Court of Session may make such Rules concerning the Mode of winding up as may be necessary by Act of Sederunt; but, until such Rules are made, the general Practice of the Court of Session in Suits pending in such Court shall, so far as the same is applicable, and not inconsistent with this Act, apply to all Proceedings for winding up a Company, and Official Power to make Rules in Stannaries Court.

172. The Vice Warden of the Stannaries may from Time to Time, with the Consent provided for by Section Twenty-three of the Act of Eighteenth of Victoria, Chapter Thirty-two, make Rules for carrying into effect the Powers conferred by this Act upon the Court of the Vice Warden, but, subject to such Rules, the general Practice of the said Court and of the Registrar's Office in the said Court, including the present Practice of the said Court in winding up Companies, may be applied to all Proceedings under this Act; the said Vice Warden may likewise, with the same Consent, make from Time to Time Rules for specifying the Fees to be taken in his said Court in Proceedings under this Act; and any Rules so made shall be of the same Force as if they had been enacted in the Body of this Act; and the Fees paid in respect of Proceeding taken under this Act, including Fees taken under "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856," in the Matter of winding up Companies, shall be applied exclusively towards Payment of such additional Officers, or such Increase of the Salaries of existing Officers, or Pensions to retired Officers, or such other needful Expenses of the Court, as the Lord Warden of the Stannaries shall, from Time to Time, on the Application of the Vice Warden or otherwise, think fit to direct, sanction, or assign, and meanwhile shall be kept as a separate Fund apart from the ordinary Fees of the Court arising from other Business, to await such Direction and Order of the Lord Warden herein, and to accumulate by Investment in Government Securities until the whole shall have been so appropriated.

Power of Lord Chancellor of Ireland to make Rules.

173. In Ireland the Lord Chancellor of Ireland may, as respects the winding up of Companies in Ireland, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, exercise the same Power of making Rules as is by this Act herein-before given to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain; but until such Rules are made the general Practice of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, including the Practice hitherto in use in Ireland in winding up Companies, shall, so far as the same is applicable and not inconsistent with this Act, apply to all Proceedings for winding up a Company.

PART V.

REGISTRATION OFFICE.

Constitution of Registration Office.

174. The Registration of Companies under this Act shall be conducted as follows; (that is to say.)

- (1.) The Board of Trade may from Time to Time appoint such Registrars, Assistant Registrars, Clerks, and Servants as they may think necessary for the Registration of Companies under this Act, and remove them at pleasure:
- (2.) The Board of Trade may make such Regulations as they think fit with respect to the Duties to be performed by any such Registrars, Assistant Registrars, Clerks, and Servants as aforesaid:

Companies, &c. (Part V., Registration Office)

- (3.) The Board of Trade may from Time to Time determine the Places at which Offices for the Registration of Companies are to be established, so that there be at all Times maintained in each of the Three Parts of the United Kingdom at least One such Office, and that no Company shall be registered except at an Office within that Part of the United Kingdom in which by the Memorandum of Association the registered Office of the Company is declared to be established; and the Board may require that the Registrar's Office of the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries shall be One of the Offices for the Registration of Companies formed for working Mines within the Jurisdiction of the Court :
- (4.) The Board of Trade may from Time to Time direct a Seal or Seals to be prepared for the Authentication of any Documents required for or connected with the Registration of Companies :
- (5.) Every Person may inspect the Documents kept by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies; and there shall be paid for such Inspection such Fees as may be appointed by the Board of Trade, not exceeding One Shilling for each Inspection; and any Person may require a Certificate of the Incorporation of any Company, or a Copy or Extract of any other Document or any Part of any other Document, to be certified by the Registrar; and there shall be paid for such Certificate of Incorporation, certified Copy, or Extract such Fees as the Board of Trade may appoint, not exceeding Five Shillings for the Certificate of Incorporation, and not exceeding Sixpence for each Folio of such Copy or Extract, or in Scotland for each Sheet of Two hundred Words :
- (6.) The existing Registrar, Assistant Registrars, Clerks, and other Officers and Servants in the Office for the Registration of Joint Stock Companies shall, during the Pleasure of the Board of Trade, hold the Offices and receive the Salaries hitherto held and received by them, but they shall in the Execution of their Duties conform to any Regulations that may be issued by the Board of Trade :
- (7.) There shall be paid to any Registrar, Assistant Registrar, Clerk, or Servant that may hereafter be employed in the Registration of Joint Stock Companies such Salary as the Board of Trade may, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, direct :
- (8.) Whenever any Act is herein directed to be done to or by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, such Act shall, until the Board of Trade otherwise directs, be done in England to or by the existing Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, or in his Absence to or by such Person as the Board of Trade may for the Time being authorize; in Scotland to or by the existing Registrar of Joint Stock

Companies, &c. (Part VI., Registration.)

Stock Companies in Scotland; and in Ireland to or by the existing Assistant Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for Ireland, or by such Person as the Board of Trade may for the Time being authorize in Scotland or Ireland in the Absence of the Registrar; but in the event of the Board of Trade altering the Constitution of the existing Registry Office, such Act shall be done to or by such Officer or Officers and at such Place or Places with reference to the local Situation of the registered Offices of the Companies to be registered as the Board of Trade may appoint.

PART VI.

APPLICATION OF ACT TO COMPANIES REGISTERED UNDER THE JOINT STOCK COMPANIES ACTS.

Definition of Joint Stock
Companies
Acts.

175. The Expression "Joint Stock Companies Acts" as used in this Act shall mean "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856," "The Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856, 1857," "The Joint Stock Banking Companies Act, 1857," and "The Act to enable "Joint Stock Banking Companies to be formed on the Principle "of Limited Liability," or any One or more of such Acts, as the Case may require; but shall not include the Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and ten, and intituled An Act for the Registration, Incorporation, and Regulation of Joint Stock Companies.

Application of Act to Companies formed under Joint Stock Companies Acts.

176. Subject as herein-after mentioned, this Act, with the Exception of Table A. in the First Schedule, shall apply to Companies formed and registered under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts, or any of them, in the same Manner in the Case of a Limited Company as if such Company had been formed and registered under this Act as a Company limited by Shares, and in the Case of a Company other than a Limited Company as if such Company had been formed and registered as an Unlimited Company under this Act, with this Qualification, that wherever Reference is made expressly or impliedly to the Date of Registration, such Date shall be deemed to refer to the Date at which such Companies were respectively registered under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts or any of them, and the Power of altering Regulations by Special Resolution given by this Act shall, in the Case of any Company formed and registered under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts or any of them, extend to altering any Provisions contained in the Table marked B. annexed to "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856," and shall also in the Case of an Unlimited Company formed and registered as last aforesaid extend to altering any Regulations relating to the Amount of Capital or its Distribution into Shares, notwithstanding such Regulations are contained in the Memorandum of Association.

Application of
Act to Companies registered under
Joint Stock

177. This Act shall apply to Companies registered but not formed under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts or any of them in the same Manner as it is herein-after declared to apply to Companies registered but not formed under this Act, with this

Companies, &c. (Part VII., Registration.)

Qualification, that wherever Reference is made expressly or impliedly to the Date of Registration, such Date shall be deemed to refer to the Date at which such Companies were respectively registered under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts or any of them.

Companies Acts.

178. Any Company registered under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts or any of them may cause its Shares to be transferred in manner hitherto in use, or in such other Manner as the Company may direct.

Mode of transferring Shares.

PART VII.

COMPANIES AUTHORIZED TO REGISTER UNDER THIS ACT.

179. The following Regulations shall be observed with respect to the Registration of Companies under this Part of this Act ; (that is to say,)

Regulations as to Registration of existing Companies.

- (1.) No Company having the Liability of its Members limited by Act of Parliament or Letters Patent, and not being a Joint Stock Company as herein-after defined, shall register under this Act in pursuance of this Part thereof :
- (2.) No Company having the Liability of its Members limited by Act of Parliament or by Letters Patent shall register under this Act in pursuance of this Part thereof as an Unlimited Company, or as a Company limited by Guarantee :
- (3.) No Company that is not a Joint Stock Company as herein-after defined, shall in pursuance of this Part of this Act register under this Act as a Company limited by Shares :
- (4.) No Company shall register under this Act in pursuance of this Part thereof unless an Assent to its so registering is given by a Majority of such of its Members as may be present, personally or by Proxy, in Cases where Proxies are allowed by the Regulations of the Company, at some General Meeting summoned for the Purpose :
- (5.) Where a Company not having the Liability of its Members limited by Act of Parliament or Letters Patent is about to register as a Limited Company, the Majority required to assent as aforesaid shall consist of not less than Three Fourths of the Members present, personally or by Proxy, at such last-mentioned General Meeting :
- (6.) Where a Company is about to register as a Company limited by Guarantee the Assent to its being so registered shall be accompanied by a Resolution declaring that each Member undertakes to contribute to the Assets of the Company, in the event of the same being wound up, during the Time that he is a Member, or within One Year afterwards, for Payment of the Debts and Liabilities of the Company contracted before the Time at which he ceased to be a Member, and of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of winding up the Company, and for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Contributors amongst themselves, such Amount as may be required, not exceeding a specified Amount :

Companies, &c. (Part VII., Registration.)

In computing any Majority under this Section when a Poll is demanded regard shall be had to the Number of Votes to which each Member is entitled according to the Regulations of the Company of which he is a Member.

Companies capable of being registered.

180. With the above Exceptions, and subject to the foregoing Regulations, every Company existing at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, including any Company registered under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts, consisting of Seven or more Members, and any Company hereafter formed in pursuance of any Act of Parliament other than this Act, or of Letters Patent, or being a Company engaged in working Mines within and subject to the Jurisdiction of the Stannaries, or being otherwise duly constituted by Law, and consisting of Seven or more Members, may at any Time hereafter register itself under this Act as an Unlimited Company, or a Company limited by Shares, or a Company limited by Guarantee ; and no such Registration shall be invalid by reason that it has taken place with a view to the Company being wound up.

Definition of Joint Stock Company.

181. For the Purposes of this Part of this Act, so far as the same relates to the Description of Companies empowered to register as Companies limited by Shares, a Joint Stock Company shall be deemed to be a Company having a permanent paid-up or nominal Capital of fixed Amount, divided into Shares, also of fixed Amount, or held and transferable as Stock, or divided and held partly in one way and partly in the other, and formed on the Principle of having for its Members the Holders of Shares in such Capital, or the Holders of such Stock, and no other Persons ; and such Company when registered with Limited Liability under this Act shall be deemed to be a Company limited by Shares.

Proviso as to Banking Company.

182. No Banking Company claiming to issue Notes in the United Kingdom shall be entitled to Limited Liability in respect of such Issue, but shall continue subject to Unlimited Liability in respect thereof, and, if necessary, the Assets shall be marshalled for the Benefit of the general Creditors, and the Members shall be liable for the whole Amount of the Issue, in addition to the Sum for which they would be liable as Members of a Limited Company.

Requisitions for Registration by Companies.

183. Previously to the Registration in pursuance of this Part of this Act of any Joint Stock Company there shall be delivered to the Registrar the following Documents ; (that is to say,)

- (1.) A List showing the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of all Persons who on a Day named in such List, and not being more than Six clear Days before the Day of Registration, were Members of such Company, with the Addition of the Shares held by such Persons respectively, distinguishing, in Cases where such Shares are numbered, each Share by its Number :

Companies, &c. (Part VII., Registration.)

(2.) A Copy of any Act of Parliament, Royal Charter, Letters Patent, Deed of Settlement, Contract of Copartnership, Cost Book Regulations, or other Instrument constituting or regulating the Company :

(3.) If any such Joint Stock Company is intended to be registered as a Limited Company, the above List and Copy shall be accompanied by a Statement specifying the following Particulars ; that is to say,

The nominal Capital of the Company and the Number of Shares into which it is divided :

The Number of Shares taken and the Amount paid on each Share :

The Name of the Company, with the Addition of the Word " Limited " as the last Word thereof :

With the Addition, in the Case of a Company intended to be registered as a Company limited by Guarantee, of the Resolution declaring the Amount of the Guarantee.

184. Previously to the Registration in pursuance of this Part of this Act of any Company not being a Joint Stock Company there shall be delivered to the Registrar a List showing the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Directors or other Managers (if any) of the Company, also a Copy of any Act of Parliament, Letters Patent, Deed of Settlement, Contract of Copartnership, Cost Book Regulations, or other Instrument constituting or regulating the Company, with the Addition, in the Case of a Company intended to be registered as a Company limited by Guarantee, of the Resolution declaring the Amount of Guarantee.

Requisitions for Registration by existing Company not being a Joint Stock Company.

185. Where a Joint Stock Company authorized to register under this Act has had the whole or any Portion of its Capital converted into Stock, such Company shall, as to the Capital so converted, instead of delivering to the Registrar a Statement of Shares, deliver to the Registrar a Statement of the Amount of Stock belonging to the Company, and the Names of the Persons who were Holders of such Stock, on some Day to be named in the Statement, not more than Six clear Days before the Day of Registration.

Power for existing Company to register Amount of Stock instead of Shares.

186. The Lists of Members and Directors and any other Particulars relating to the Company hereby required to be delivered to the Registrar shall be verified by a Declaration of the Directors of the Company delivering the same, or any Two of them, or of any Two other principal Officers of the Company, made in pursuance of the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-two.

Authentication of Statements of existing Companies.

187. The Registrar may require such Evidence as he thinks necessary for the Purpose of satisfying himself whether an existing Company is or not a Joint Stock Company as herein-before defined.

Registrar may require Evidence, &c.

188. Every Banking Company existing at the Date of the passing of this Act which registers itself as a Limited Company shall, at least Thirty Days previous to obtaining a Certificate of Registration with Limited Liability, give Notice that it is intended

On Registration of Banking Company with Limited Liability Notice to

Companies, &c. (Part VII., Registration.)

Customers.

intended so to register the same to every Person and Partnership Firm who have a Banking Account with the Company, and such Notice shall be given either by delivering the same to such Person or Firm, or leaving the same or putting the same into the Post addressed to him or them at such Address as shall have been last communicated or otherwise become known as his or their Address to or by the Company; and in case the Company omits to give any such Notice as is herein-before required to be given, then as between the Company and the Person or Persons only who are for the Time being interested in the Account in respect of which such Notice ought to have been given, and so far as respects such Account and all Variations thereof down to the Time at which such Notice shall be given, but not further or otherwise, the Certificate of Registration with Limited Liability shall have no Operation.

Exemption of certain Companies from Payment of Fees.

189. No Fees shall be charged in respect of the Registration in pursuance of this Part of this Act of any Company in Cases where such Company is not registered as a Limited Company, or where previously to its being registered as a Limited Company the Liability of the Shareholders was limited by some other Act of Parliament or by Letters Patent.

Power to Company to change
Name.

190. Any Company authorized by this Part of this Act to register with Limited Liability shall, for the Purpose of obtaining Registration with Limited Liability, change its Name, by adding thereto the Word "Limited."

Certificate of Registration of existing Companies.

191. Upon Compliance with the Requisitions in this Part of this Act contained with respect to Registration, and on Payment of such Fees, if any, as are payable under the Tables marked B. and C. in the First Schedule hereto, the Registrar shall certify under his Hand that the Company so applying for Registration is incorporated as a Company under this Act, and, in the Case of a Limited Company, that it is limited, and thereupon such Company shall be incorporated, and shall have perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, with Power to hold Lands; and any Banking Company in Scotland so incorporated shall be deemed and taken to be a Bank incorporated, constituted, or established by or under Act of Parliament.

Certificate to be Evidence of Compliance with Act.

192. A Certificate of Incorporation given at any Time to any Company registered in pursuance of this Part of this Act shall be conclusive Evidence that all the Requisitions herein contained in respect of Registration under this Act have been complied with, and that the Company is authorized to be registered under this Act as a Limited or Unlimited Company, as the Case may be, and the Date of Incorporation mentioned in such Certificate shall be deemed to be the Date at which the Company is incorporated under this Act.

Transfer of Property to Company.

193. All such Property, Real and Personal, including all Interests and Rights in, to, and out of Property, Real and Personal, and including Obligations and Things in Action, as may belong to or be vested in the Company at the Date of its Registration under this Act, shall on Registration pass to and vest in the Company

Companies, &c. (Part VII., Registration.)

Company as incorporated under this Act for all the Estate and Interest of the Company therein.

194. The Registration in pursuance of this Part of this Act of any Company shall not affect or prejudice the Liability of such Company to have enforced against it, or its Right to enforce, any Debt or Obligation incurred, or any Contract entered into, by, to, with, or on behalf of such Company previously to such Registration.

Registration not to affect Obligations incurred previously.

195. All such Actions, Suits, and other legal Proceedings as may at the Time of the Registration of any Company registered in pursuance of this Part of this Act have been commenced by or against such Company, or the Public Officer or any Member thereof, may be continued in the same Manner as if such Registration had not taken place ; nevertheless, Execution shall not issue against the Effects of any individual Member of such Company upon any Judgment, Decree, or Order obtained in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding so commenced as aforesaid ; but in the event of the Property and Effects of the Company being insufficient to satisfy such Judgment, Decree, or Order, an Order may be obtained for winding up the Company.

Continuation of existing Actions and Suits.

196. When a Company is registered under this Act in pursuance of this Part thereof, all Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament, Deed of Settlement, Contract of Copartnership, Cost Book Regulations, Letters Patent, or other Instrument constituting or regulating the Company, including, in the Case of a Company registered as a Company Limited by Guarantee, the Resolution declaring the Amount of the Guarantee, shall be deemed to be Conditions and Regulations of the Company, in the same Manner and with the same Incidents as if they were contained in a registered Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association ; and all the Provisions of this Act shall apply to such Company and the Members, Contributories, and Creditors thereof, in the same Manner in all respects as if it had been formed under this Act, subject to the Provisions following ; (that is to say,)

Effect of Registration under Act.

- (1.) That Table A. in the First Schedule to this Act shall not, unless adopted by Special Resolution, apply to any Company registered under this Act in pursuance of this Part thereof :
- (2.) That the Provisions of this Act relating to the numbering of Shares shall not apply to any Joint Stock Company whose Shares are not numbered :
- (3.) That no Company shall have Power to alter any Provision contained in any Act of Parliament relating to the Company :
- (4.) That no Company shall have Power, without the Sanction of the Board of Trade, to alter any Provision contained in any Letters Patent relating to the Company :
- (5.) That in the event of the Company being wound up, every Person shall be a Contributory, in respect of the Debts and Liabilities of the Company contracted prior to

Companies, &c. (Part VII., Registration.)

Registration, who is liable, at Law or in Equity, to pay or contribute to the Payment of any Debt or Liability of the Company contracted prior to Registration, or to pay or contribute to the Payment of any Sum for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Members amongst themselves in respect of any such Debt or Liability; or to pay or contribute to the Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of winding up the Company, so far as relates to such Debts or Liabilities as aforesaid; and every such Contributory shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Company, in the course of the Winding-up, all Sums due from him in respect of any such Liability as aforesaid; and in the event of the Death, Bankruptcy, or Insolvency of any such Contributory as last aforesaid, or Marriage of any such Contributory being a Female, the Provisions herein-before contained with respect to the Representatives, Heirs, and Devisees of deceased Contributories, and with reference to the Assignees of bankrupt or insolvent Contributories, and to the Husbands of married Contributories, shall apply:

- (6.) That nothing herein contained shall authorize any Company to alter any such Provisions contained in any Deed of Settlement, Contract of Copartnership, Cost Book Regulations, Letters Patent, or other Instrument constituting or regulating the Company, as would, if such Company had originally been formed under this Act, have been contained in the Memorandum of Association, and are not authorized to be altered by this Act:

But nothing herein contained shall derogate from any Power of altering its Constitution or Regulations which may be vested in any Company registering under this Act in pursuance of this Part thereof by virtue of any Act of Parliament, Deed of Settlement, Contract of Copartnership, Letters Patent, or other Instrument constituting or regulating the Company.

Power of Court to restrain further Proceedings.

197. The Court may, at any Time after the Presentation of a Petition for winding up a Company registered in pursuance of this Part of this Act, and before making an Order for winding up the Company, upon the Application by Motion of any Creditor of the Company, restrain further Proceedings in any Action, Suit, or legal Proceeding against any Contributory of the Company as well as against the Company as herein-before provided, upon such Terms as the Court thinks fit.

Order for winding up Company.

198. Where an Order has been made for winding up a Company registered in pursuance of this Part of the Act, in addition to the Provisions herein-before contained, it is hereby further provided that no Suit, Action, or other legal Proceeding shall be commenced or proceeded with against any Contributory of the Company in respect of any Debt of the Company, except with the Leave of the Court, and subject to such Terms as the Court may impose.

Companies, &c. (Part VIII., Unregistered Companies.)

PART VIII.

APPLICATION OF ACT TO UNREGISTERED COMPANIES.

199. Subject as herein-after mentioned, any Partnership, Association, or Company, except Railway Companies incorporated by Act of Parliament, consisting of more than Seven Members, and not registered under this Act, and herein-after included under the Term unregistered Company, may be wound up under this Act, and all the Provisions of this Act with respect to winding up shall apply to such Company, with the following Exceptions and Additions :

Winding-up
of unregistered Companies.

- (1.) An unregistered Company shall, for the Purpose of determining the Court having Jurisdiction in the Matter of the Winding-up, be deemed to be registered in that Part of the United Kingdom where its principal Place of Business is situate; or, if it has a principal Place of Business situate in more than One Part of the United Kingdom, then in each Part of the United Kingdom where it has a principal Place of Business; moreover the principal Place of Business of an unregistered Company, or (where it has a principal Place of Business situate in more than One Part of the United Kingdom) such One of its principal Places of Business as is situate in that Part of the United Kingdom in which Proceedings are being instituted, shall for all the Purposes of the winding up of such Company be deemed to be the registered Office of the Company :
- (2.) No unregistered Company shall be wound up under this Act voluntarily or subject to the Supervision of the Court :
- (3.) The Circumstances under which an unregistered Company may be wound up are as follows ; (that is to say,)
 - (a.) Whenever the Company is dissolved, or has ceased to carry on Business, or is carrying on Business only for the Purpose of winding up its Affairs ;
 - (b.) Whenever the Company is unable to pay its Debts ;
 - (c.) Whenever the Court is of opinion that it is just and equitable that the Company should be wound up :
- (4.) An unregistered Company shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed to be unable to pay its Debts,
 - (a.) Whenever a Creditor to whom the Company is indebted, at Law or in Equity, by Assignment or otherwise, in a Sum exceeding Fifty Pounds then due, has served on the Company, by leaving the same at the principal Place of Business of the Company, or by delivering to the Secretary or some Director or principal Officer of the Company, or by otherwise serving the same in such Manner as the Court may approve or direct, a Demand under his Hand requiring the Company to pay the Sum so due, and the Company has for the Space of Three Weeks succeeding the Service of such Demand

Demand neglected to pay such Sum, or to secure or compound for the same to the Satisfaction of the Creditor :

- (b.) Whenever any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding has been instituted against any Member of the Company for any Debt or Demand due, or claimed to be due, from the Company, or from him in his Character of Member of the Company, and Notice in Writing of the Institution of such Action, Suit, or other legal Proceeding having been served upon the Company by leaving the same at the principal Place of Business of the Company, or by delivering it to the Secretary, or some Director, Manager, or principal Officer of the Company, or by otherwise serving the same in such Manner as the Court may approve or direct, the Company has not within Ten Days after Service of such Notice paid, secured, or compounded for such Debt or Demand, or procured such Action, Suit, or other legal Proceeding to be stayed, or indemnified the Defendant to his reasonable Satisfaction against such Action, Suit, or other legal Proceeding, and against all Costs, Damages, and Expenses to be incurred by him by reason of the same :
- (c.) Whenever, in England or Ireland, Execution or other Process issued on a Judgment, Decree, or Order obtained in any Court in favour of any Creditor in any Proceeding at Law or in Equity instituted by such Creditor against the Company, or any Member thereof as such, or against any Person authorized to be sued as nominal Defendant on behalf of the Company, is returned unsatisfied :
- (d.) Whenever, in the Case of an unregistered Company engaged in working Mines within and subject to the Jurisdiction of the Stannaries, a customary Decree or Order absolute for the Sale of the Machinery, Materials, and Effects of such Mine has been made in a Creditor's Suit in the Court of the Vice Warden :
- (e.) Whenever, in Scotland, the Induciae of a Charge for Payment on an Extract Decree, or an Extract registered Bond, or an Extract registered Protest, have expired without Payment being made :
- (f.) Whenever it is otherwise proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the Company is unable to pay its Debts.

Who to be deemed a Contributory in the event of Company being wound up.

200. In the event of an unregistered Company being wound up every Person shall be deemed to be a Contributory who is liable, at Law or in Equity, to pay or contribute to the Payment of any Debt or Liability of the Company, or to pay or contribute to the Payment of any Sum for the Adjustment of the Rights of the Members amongst themselves, or to pay or contribute to the Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of winding up up the Company, and every such Contributory shall be liable to contribute to the Assets of the Company in the course of the Winding-up all Sums due from him in respect of any such Liability as aforesaid; but in the event of the Death, Bankruptcy, or Insolvency of any Contributory, or Marriage of any Female Contributory, the Provisions herein-before contained with respect to the Personal Representatives, Heirs, and Devisees of a deceased Contributory, and to the Assignees of a bankrupt or insolvent Contributory, and to the Husband of married Contributories, shall apply.

201. The Court may, at any Time after the Presentation of a Petition for winding up an unregistered Company, and before making an Order for winding up the Company, upon the Application of any Creditor of the Company, restrain further Proceedings in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding against any Contributory of the Company, or against the Company as herein-before provided, upon such Terms as the Court thinks fit.

Power of Court to restrain further Proceedings.

202. Where an Order has been made for winding up an unregistered Company in addition to the Provisions herein-before contained in the Case of Companies formed under this Act, it is hereby further provided that no Suit, Action, or other legal Proceeding shall be commenced or proceeded with against any Contributory of the Company in respect of any Debt of the Company, except with the Leave of the Court, and subject to such Terms as the Court may impose.

Effect of Order for winding up Company.

203. If any unregistered Company has no Power to sue and be sued in a common Name, or if for any Reason it appears expedient, the Court may by the Order made for winding up such Company, or by any subsequent Order, direct that all such Property, Real and Personal, including all Interest, Claims, and Rights into and out of Property, Real and Personal, and including Things in Action, as may belong to or be vested in the Company, or to or in any Person or Persons on Trust for or on behalf of the Company, or any Part of such Property, is to vest in the Official Liquidator or Official Liquidators by his or their official Name or Names, and thereupon the same or such Part thereof as may be specified in the Order shall vest accordingly, and the Official Liquidator or Official Liquidators may, in his or their official Name or Names, or in such Name or Names and after giving such Indemnity as the Court directs, bring or defend any Actions, Suits, or other legal Proceeding relating to any Property vested in him or them, or any Actions, Suits, or other legal Proceedings necessary to be brought or defended for the Purposes of effectually winding up the Company and recovering the Property thereof.

Provision in case of unregistered Company.

204. The Provisions made by this Part of the Act with respect to unregistered Companies shall be deemed to be made in addition to and not in restriction of any Provisions herein-before contained with respect to winding up Companies by the Court, and the Court or Official Liquidator may, in addition to anything contained in this Part of the Act, exercise any Powers or do any Act in the Case of unregistered Companies which might Provisions in this Part of Act cumulative.

Companies, &c. (Part IX., Repeal of Acts, &c.)

be exercised or done by it or him in winding up Companies formed under this Act; but an unregistered Company shall not, except in the event of its being wound up, be deemed to be a Company under this Act, and then only to the Extent provided by this Part of this Act.

PART IX.

REPEAL OF ACTS, AND TEMPORARY PROVISIONS.

Repeal of Acts.

205. After the Commencement of this Act there shall be repealed the several Acts specified in the First Part of the Third Schedule hereto, with this Qualification, that so much of the said Acts as is set forth in the Second Part of the said Third Schedule shall be hereby re-enacted and continue in force as if unrepealed.

Saving Clause as to Repeal.

206. No Repeal hereby enacted shall affect,

- (1.) Anything duly done under any Acts hereby repealed:
- (2.) The Incorporation of any Company registered under any Act hereby repealed:
- (3.) Any Right or Privilege acquired or Liability incurred under any Act hereby repealed:
- (4.) Any Penalty, Forfeiture, or other Punishment incurred in respect of any Offence against any Act hereby repealed:
- (5.) Table B. in the Schedule annexed to the Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856, or any Part thereof, so far as the same applies to any Company existing at the Time of the Commencement of this Act.

Saving of existing Proceedings for winding up.

207. Where previously to the Commencement of this Act an Order has been made for winding up a Company under any Acts or Act hereby repealed, or a Resolution has been passed for winding up a Company voluntarily, such Company shall be wound up in the same Manner and with the same Incidents as if this Act were not passed, and for the Purposes of such Winding-up such repealed Acts or Act shall be deemed to remain in full Force.

Saving of Conveyance Deeds.

208. Where previously to the Commencement of this Act any Conveyance, Mortgage, or other Deed has been made in pursuance of any Act hereby repealed, such Deed shall be of the same Force as if this Act had not passed, and for the Purposes of such Deed such repealed Act shall be deemed to remain in full Force.

Compulsory Registration of certain Companies.

209. Every Insurance Company completely registered under the Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and ten, intituled An Act for the Registration, Incorporation, and Regulation of Joint Stock Companies, shall on or before the Second Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and every other Company required by any Act hereby repealed to register under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts, or One of such Acts, and which has not so registered, shall, on or before the Expiration of the Thirty-first Day from the Commencement of this Act, register itself as a Company under this Act, in manner and subject to the Regulations herein-before contained, with this Exception, that no Company completely registered under the said Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty shall be required to deliver to the Registrar a Copy of its Deed of Settlement; and for the Purpose of enabling such Insurance Companies as are mentioned in this Section to register under this Act, this Act shall be deemed to come into operation immediately on the passing thereof; nevertheless the Registration of such Companies shall not have any Effect until the Time of the Commencement of this Act. No Fees shall be charged in respect of the Registration of any Company required to register by this Section.

210. If any Company required by the last Section to register under this Act makes default in complying with the Provisions thereof, then, from and after the Day upon which such Company is required to register under this Act, until the Day on which such Company is registered under this Act (which it is empowered to do at any Time), the following Consequences shall ensue; (that is to say,)

- (1.) The Company shall be incapable of suing either at Law or in Equity, but shall not be incapable of being made a Defendant to a Suit either at Law or in Equity;
- (2.) No Dividend shall be payable to any Shareholder in such Company;
- (3.) Each Director or Manager of the Company shall for each Day during which the Company so being in default carries on Business incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and such Penalty may be recovered by any Person, whether a Shareholder or not in the Company, and be applied by him to his own Use;

Nevertheless, such Default shall not render the Company so being in default illegal, nor subject it to any Penalty or Disability, other than as specified in this Section; and Registration under this Act shall cancel any Penalty or Forfeiture, and put an end to any Disability which any Company may have incurred under any Act hereby repealed by reason of its not having registered under the said Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856, 1857, or One of them.

211. Upon the Application of the Directors of any Company registered under the Joint Stock Companies Acts as herein-before defined, or any of them, made within One Year after the Date of the Commencement of this Act, sanctioned by a Resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting, but subject to the Restrictions herein-after mentioned, the Board of Trade shall have Authority by their Certificate in Writing to change the registered Office of any such Company from any one Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to any other Part thereof, and the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies with whom the Memorandum of Registration of such Company has been registered shall, upon Receipt of such Certificate, note in Writing upon the Margin or at the Foot of the said Memorandum the Name of the Place to which such registered Office is to be transferred, and the Day upon which such Transfer is pursuant to such Certificate to take place, and shall attach the Certificate to the Memorandum, and the said Registrar shall thereupon transmit to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for that Part of the United Kingdom to which the registered Office is to be so transferred Copies of the said Certificate and of the said Memorandum of Registration so noted certified by him; and the said Registrar for the said last-mentioned Part of the United Kingdom shall, upon Receipt of such Copies of Certificate and Memorandum, retain and register the same in like Manner, and on Payment of the like Fees to him as provided in the Case of the Registration of an original Memorandum of Registration, and thereupon the Place of the registered Office shall, from the said last-mentioned Registration and the said Day mentioned in the said Certificate, be the Place mentioned as such on the said Certificate: Provided, however, that such Change shall in nowise alter or affect anything theretofore done by the said Company, or any of their Rights or Liabilities in respect thereof.

212. The Board of Trade shall not issue their Certificate in pursuance of the foregoing Section until they are satisfied that an Advertisement of the Intention of the Company to apply to the Board of Trade for a Certificate, with a Declaration that all Parties objecting thereto are forthwith to apply to the Board of Trade, has been published once at the least in each of Four successive Weeks in the Newspapers following; that is to say, in some Newspaper circulating in the District where the registered Office of the Company is situate, and also if the Company is registered in England in the London Gazette, if in Ireland in the Dublin Gazette, if in Scotland in the Edinburgh Gazette, nor until the said Board are satisfied that the Objections, if any, that may be urged against the Issue of such Certificate are groundless.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

TABLE A.

REGULATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT of a COMPANY LIMITED by SHARES.

Shares.

- (1.) If several Persons are registered as joint Holders of any Share, any One of such Persons may give effectual Receipts for any Dividend payable in respect of such Share.
- (2.) Every Member shall, on Payment of One Shilling, or such less Sum as the Company in General Meeting may prescribe, be entitled to a Certificate, under the Common Seal of the Company, specifying the Share or Shares held by him, and the Amount paid up thereon.
- (3.) If such Certificate is worn out or lost, it may be renewed, on Payment of One Shilling, or such less Sum as the Company in General Meeting may prescribe.

Calls on Shares.

- (4.) The Directors may from Time to Time make such Calls upon the Members in respect of all Monies unpaid on their Shares as they think fit, provided that Twenty-one Days Notice at least is given of each Call, and each Member shall be liable to pay the Amount of Calls so made to the

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

Persons and at the Times and Places appointed by the Directors.

- (5.) A Call shall be deemed to have been made at the Time when the Resolution of the Directors authorizing such Call was passed.
- (6.) If the Call payable in respect of any Share is not paid before or on the Day appointed for Payment thereof, the Holder for the Time being of such Share shall be liable to pay Interest for the same at the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. per Annum from the Day appointed for the Payment thereof to the Time of the actual Payment.
- (7.) The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any Part of the Monies due upon the Shares held by him beyond the Sums actually called for; and upon the Monies so paid in advance, or so much thereof as from Time to Time exceeds the Amount of the Calls then made upon the Shares in respect of which such Advance has been made, the Company may pay Interest at such Rate as the Member paying such Sum in advance and the Directors agree upon.

Transfers of Shares.

- (8.) The Instrument of Transfer of any Share in the Company shall be executed both by the Transferor and Transferee, and the Transferor shall be deemed to remain a Holder of such Share until the Name of the Transferee is entered in the Register Book in respect thereof.

- (9.) Shares in the Company shall be transferred in the following Form:—

I A.B. of _____ in consideration of the Sum of _____ Pounds paid to me by C.D. of _____ do hereby transfer to the said C.D. the Share [or Shares] numbered _____ standing in my Name in the Books of the _____ Company, to hold unto the said C.D., his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, subject to the several Conditions on which I held the same at the Time of the Execution hereof; and I the said C.D. do hereby agree to take the said Share [or Shares] subject to the same Conditions. As witness our Hands, the Day of _____ .

- (10.) The Company may decline to register any Transfer of Shares made by a Member who is indebted to them.
- (11.) The Transfer Books shall be closed during the Fourteen Days immediately preceding the Ordinary General Meeting in each Year.

Transmission of Shares.

- (12.) The Executors or Administrators of a deceased Member shall be the only Persons recognized by the Company as having any Title to his Share.
- (13.) Any Person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the Death, Bankruptcy, or Insolvency of any Member, or in consequence of the Marriage of any Female Member, may be registered as a Member upon such Evidence being produced as may from Time to Time be required by the Company.

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

- (14.) Any Person who has become entitled to a Share in consequence of the Death, Bankruptcy, or Insolvency of any Member, or in consequence of the Marriage of any Female Member, may, instead of being registered himself, elect to have some Person to be named by him registered as a Transferee of such Share.
- (15.) The Person so becoming entitled shall testify such Election by executing to his Nominee an Instrument of Transfer of such Share.
- (16.) The Instrument of Transfer shall be presented to the Company, accompanied with such Evidence as the Directors may require to prove the Title of the Transferor, and thereupon the Company shall register the Transferee as a Member.

Forfeiture of Shares.

- (17.) If any Member fails to pay any Call on the Day appointed for Payment thereof, the Directors may, at any Time thereafter, during such Time as the Call remains unpaid, serve a Notice on him, requiring him to pay such Call, together with Interest and any Expenses that may have accrued by reason of such Nonpayment.
- (18.) The Notice shall name a further Day, on or before which such Call, and all Interest and Expenses that have accrued by reason of such Nonpayment, are to be paid. It shall also name the Place where Payment is to be made (the Place so named being either the registered Office of the Company or some other Place at which Calls of the Company are usually made payable). The Notice shall also state that in the event of Nonpayment at or before the Time and at the Place appointed the Shares in respect of which such Call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
- (19.) If the Requisitions of any such Notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any Share in respect of which such Notice has been given may at any Time thereafter, before Payment of all Calls, Interest, and Expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited, by a Resolution of the Directors to that Effect.
- (20.) Any Share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the Property of the Company, and may be disposed of in such Manner as the Company in General Meeting thinks fit.
- (21.) Any Member whose Shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay to the Company all Calls owing upon such Shares at the Time of the Forfeiture.
- (22.) A statutory Declaration in Writing, that the Call in respect of a Share was made and Notice thereof given, and that Default in Payment of the Call was made, and that the Forfeiture of the Share was made by a Resolution of

of the Directors to that Effect, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Facts therein stated, as against all Persons entitled to such Share, and such Declaration and the Receipt of the Company for the Price of such Share shall constitute a good Title to such Share, and a Certificate of Proprietorship shall be delivered to a Purchaser, and thereupon he shall be deemed the Holder of such Share discharged from all Calls due prior to such Purchase, and he shall not be bound to see to the Application of the Purchase Money, nor shall his Title to such Share be affected by any Irregularity in the Proceedings in reference to such Sale.

Conversion of Shares into Stock.

- (23.) The Directors may, with the Sanction of the Company previously given in General Meeting, convert any paid up Shares into Stock.
- (24.) When any Shares have been converted into Stock, the several Holders of such Stock may thenceforth transfer their respective Interests therein, or any Part of such Interests, in the same Manner and subject to the same Regulations as and subject to which any Shares in the Capital of the Company may be transferred, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit.
- (25.) The several Holders of Stock shall be entitled to participate in the Dividends and Profits of the Company according to the Amount of their respective Interests in such Stock; and such Interests shall, in proportion to the Amount thereof, confer on the Holders thereof respectively the same Privileges and Advantages for the Purpose of voting at Meetings of the Company, and for other Purposes, as would have been conferred by Shares of equal Amount in the Capital of the Company; but so that none of such Privileges or Advantages, except the Participation in the Dividends and Profits of the Company, shall be conferred by any such aliquot Part of Consolidated Stock as would not, if existing in Shares, have conferred such Privileges or Advantages.

Increase in Capital.

- (26.) The Directors may, with the Sanction of a special Resolution of the Company previously given in General Meeting, increase its Capital by the Issue of new Shares, such aggregate Increase to be of such Amount, and to be divided into Shares of such respective Amounts, as the Company in General Meeting directs, or, if no Direction is given, as the Directors think expedient.
- (27.) Subject to any Direction to the contrary that may be given by the Meeting that sanctions the Increase of Capital, all new Shares shall be offered to the Members in proportion to the existing Shares held by them, and such Offer shall be made by Notice specifying the Number of

Shares to which the Member is entitled, and limiting a Time within which the Offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the Expiration of such Time, or on the Receipt of an Intimation from the Member to whom such Notice is given that he declines to accept the Shares offered, the Directors may dispose of the same in such Manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.

- (28.) Any Capital raised by the Creation of new Shares shall be considered as Part of the original Capital, and shall be subject to the same Provisions with reference to the Payment of Calls, and the Forfeiture of Shares on Non-payment of Calls, or otherwise, as if it had been Part of the original Capital.

General Meetings.

- (29.) The First General Meeting shall be held at such Time, not being more than Six Months after the Registration of the Company, and at such Place, as the Directors may determine.
- (30.) Subsequent General Meetings shall be held at such Time and Place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; and if no other Time or Place is prescribed, a General Meeting shall be held on the First Monday in February in every Year, at such Place as may be determined by the Directors.
- (31.) The above-mentioned General Meetings shall be called Ordinary Meetings; all other General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary.
- (32.) The Directors may, whenever they think fit, and they shall upon a Requisition made in Writing by not less than One Fifth in Number of the Members of the Company, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (33.) Any Requisition made by the Members shall express the Object of the Meeting proposed to be called, and shall be left at the registered Office of the Company.
- (34.) Upon the Receipt of such Requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting. If they do not proceed to convene the same within Twenty-one Days from the Date of the Requisition, the Requisitionists, or any other Members amounting to the required Number, may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings.

- (35.) Seven Days Notice at the least, specifying the Place, the Day, and the Hour of Meeting, and in case of special Business the general Nature of such Business, shall be given to the Members in manner herein-after mentioned, or in such other Manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but the Non-receipt of such Notice by any Member shall not invalidate the Proceedings at any General Meeting.

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

- (36.) All Business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Ordinary Meeting, with the Exception of sanctioning a Dividend and the Consideration of the Accounts, Balance Sheets, and the ordinary Report of the Directors.
- (37.) No Business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the Declaration of a Dividend, unless a Quorum of Members is present at the Time when the Meeting proceeds to Business ; and such Quorum shall be ascertained as follows ; that is to say, if the Persons who have taken Shares in the Company at the Time of the Meeting do not exceed Ten in Number, the Quorum shall be Five ; if they exceed Ten there shall be added to the above Quorum One for every Five additional Members up to Fifty, and One for every Ten additional Members after Fifty, with this Limitation, that no Quorum shall in any Case exceed Twenty.
- (38.) If within One Hour from the Time appointed for the Meeting a Quorum is not present, the Meeting, if convened upon the Requisition of Members, shall be dissolved : In any other Case it shall stand adjourned to the same Day in the next Week, at the same Time and Place ; and if at such adjourned Meeting a Quorum is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die.
- (39.) The Chairman (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company.
- (40.) If there is no such Chairman, or if at any Meeting he is not present within Fifteen Minutes after the Time appointed for holding the Meeting, the Members present shall choose some One of their Number to be Chairman.
- (41.) The Chairman may, with the Consent of the Meeting, adjourn any Meeting from Time to Time and from Place to Place, but no Business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the Business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the Adjournment took place.
- (42.) At any General Meeting, unless a Poll is demanded by at least Five Members, a Declaration by the Chairman that a Resolution has been carried, and an Entry to that Effect in the Book of Proceedings of the Company, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Fact, without Proof of the Number or Proportion of the Votes recorded in favour of or against such Resolution.
- (43.) If a Poll is demanded by Five or more Members it shall be taken in such Manner as the Chairman directs, and the Result of such Poll shall be deemed to be the Resolution of the Company in General Meeting. In the Case of an Equality of Votes at any General Meeting the Chairman shall be entitled to a Second or Casting Vote.

Votes of Members.

- (44.) Every Member shall have One Vote for every Share up to Ten : He shall have an additional Vote for every Five Shares

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

- Shares beyond the first Ten Shares up to One hundred, and an additional Vote for every Ten Shares beyond the first Hundred Shares.
- (45.) If any Member is a Lunatic or Idiot he may vote by his Committee, Curator bonis, or other legal Curator.
- (46.) If One or more Persons are jointly entitled to a Share or Shares, the Member whose Name stands first in the Register of Members as One of the Holders of such Share or Shares, and no other, shall be entitled to vote in respect of the same.
- (47.) No Member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all Calls due from him have been paid, and no Member shall be entitled to vote in respect of any Share that he has acquired by Transfer at any Meeting held after the Expiration of Three Months from the Registration of the Company, unless he has been possessed of the Share in respect of which he claims to vote for at least Three Months previously to the Time of holding the Meeting at which he proposes to vote.
- (48.) Votes may be given either personally or by Proxy.
- (49.) The Instrument appointing a Proxy shall be in Writing, under the Hand of the Appointor, or if such Appointor is a Corporation, under their Common Seal, and shall be attested by One or more Witness or Witnesses: No Person shall be appointed a Proxy who is not a Member of the Company.
- (50.) The Instrument appointing a Proxy shall be deposited at the registered Office of the Company not less than Seventy-two Hours before the Time for holding the Meeting at which the Person named in such Instrument proposes to vote, but no Instrument appointing a Proxy shall be valid after the Expiration of Twelve Months from the Date of its Execution.
- (51.) Any Instrument appointing a Proxy shall be in the following Form:—
- Company Limited.
- I of in the County of being a Member of the Company Limited, and entitled to Vote or Votes, hereby appoint of as my Proxy, to vote for me and on my Behalf at the [Ordinary or Extraordinary, as the Case may be] General Meeting of the Company to be held on the Day of , and at any Adjournment thereof [or, at any Meeting of the Company that may be held in the Year].
 As witness my Hand, this Day of .
 Signed by the said in the Presence of .

Directors.

- (52.) The Number of the Directors, and the Names of the First Directors, shall be determined by the Subscribers of the Memorandum of Association.

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

- (53.) Until Directors are appointed the Subscribers of the Memorandum of Association shall be deemed to be Directors.
- (54.) The future Remuneration of the Directors, and their Remuneration for Services performed previously to the First General Meeting, shall be determined by the Company in General Meeting.

Powers of Directors.

- (55.) The Business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, who may pay all Expenses incurred in getting up and registering the Company, and may exercise all such Powers of the Company as are not by the foregoing Act, or by these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any Regulations of these Articles, to the Provisions of the foregoing Act, and to such Regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid Regulations or Provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no Regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior Act of the Directors which would have been valid if such Regulation had not been made.
- (56.) The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any Vacancy in their Body.

Disqualification of Directors.

- (57.) The Office of Director shall be vacated,—
- If he holds any other Office or Place of Profit under the Company;
 - If he becomes bankrupt or insolvent;
 - If he is concerned in or participates in the Profits of any Contract with the Company:
- But the above Rules shall be subject to the following Exceptions:
- That no Director shall vacate his Office by reason of his being a Member of any Company which has entered into Contracts with or done any Work for the Company of which he is Director; nevertheless he shall not vote in respect of such Contract or Work; and if he does so vote his Vote shall not be counted.

Rotation of Directors.

- (58.) At the First Ordinary Meeting after the Registration of the Company the whole of the Directors shall retire from Office; and at the First Ordinary Meeting in every subsequent Year One Third of the Directors for the Time being, or if their Number is not a Multiple of Three, then the Number nearest to One Third, shall retire from Office.
- (59.) The One Third or other nearest Number to retire during the First and Second Years ensuing the First Ordinary Meeting of the Company shall, unless the Directors agree among themselves, be determined by Ballot: In every subsequent

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

- subsequent Year the One Third or other nearest Number who have been longest in Office shall retire.
- (60.) A retiring Director shall be re-eligible.
- (61.) The Company at the General Meeting at which any Directors retire in manner aforesaid shall fill up the vacated Offices by electing a like Number of Persons.
- (62.) If at any Meeting at which an Election of Directors ought to take place the Places of the vacating Directors are not filled up, the Meeting shall stand adjourned till the same Day in the next Week, at the same Time and Place ; and if at such adjourned Meeting the Places of the vacating Directors are not filled up, the vacating Directors, or such of them as have not had their Places filled up, shall continue in Office until the Ordinary Meeting in the next Year, and so on from Time to Time until their Places are filled up.
- (63.) The Company may from Time to Time, in General Meeting, increase or reduce the Number of Directors, and may also determine in what Rotation such increased or reduced Number is to go out of Office.
- (64.) Any casual Vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled up by the Directors, but any Person so chosen shall retain his Office so long only as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no Vacancy had occurred.
- (65.) The Company, in General Meeting, may, by a special Resolution, remove any Director before the Expiration of his Period of Office, and may by an ordinary Resolution appoint another Person in his Stead : The Person so appointed shall hold Office during such Time only as the Director in whose Place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

Proceedings of Directors.

- (66.) The Directors may meet together for the Despatch of Business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their Meetings as they think fit, and determine the Quorum necessary for the Transaction of Business : Questions arising at any Meeting shall be decided by a Majority of Votes : In case of an Equality of Votes the Chairman shall have a Second or Casting Vote : A Director may at any Time summon a Meeting of the Directors.
- 67.) The Directors may elect a Chairman of their Meetings, and determine the Period for which he is to hold Office ; but if no such Chairman is elected, or if at any Meeting the Chairman is not present at the Time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present shall choose some One of their Number to be Chairman of such Meeting.
- (68.) The Directors may delegate any of their Powers to Committees consisting of such Member or Members of their Body as they think fit : Any Committee so formed shall, in the Exercise of the Powers so delegated, conform to any Regulations that may be imposed on them by the Directors.

- (69.) A Committee may elect a Chairman of their Meetings : If no such Chairman is elected, or if he is not present at the Time appointed for holding the same, the Members present shall choose One of their Number to be Chairman of such Meeting.
- (70.) A Committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper : Questions arising at any Meeting shall be determined by a Majority of Votes of the Members present ; and in case of an Equality of Votes the Chairman shall have a Second or Casting Vote.
- (71.) All Acts done by any Meeting of the Directors, or of a Committee of Directors, or by any Person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some Defect in the Appointment of any such Directors or Persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such Person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

Dividends.

- (72.) The Directors may, with the Sanction of the Company in General Meeting, declare a Dividend to be paid to the Members in proportion to their Shares.
- (73.) No Dividend shall be payable except out of the Profits arising from the Business of the Company.
- (74.) The Directors may, before recommending any Dividend, set aside out of the Profits of the Company such Sum as they think proper as a reserved Fund to meet Contingencies, or for equalizing Dividends, or for repairing or maintaining the Works connected with the Business of the Company, or any Part thereof ; and the Directors may invest the Sum so set apart as a reserved Fund upon such Securities as they may select.
- (75.) The Directors may deduct from the Dividends payable to any Member all such Sums of Money as may be due from him to the Company on account of Calls or otherwise.
- (76.) Notice of any Dividend that may have been declared shall be given to each Member in manner herein-after mentioned ; and all Dividends unclaimed for Three Years, after having been declared, may be forfeited by the Directors for the Benefit of the Company.
- (77.) No Dividend shall bear Interest as against the Company.

Accounts.

- (78.) The Directors shall cause true Accounts to be kept,—
 Of the Stock in Trade of the Company ;
 Of the Sums of Money received and expended by the Company, and the Matter in respect of which such Receipt and Expenditure takes place ; and,
 Of the Credits and Liabilities of the Company :

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

The Books of Account shall be kept at the registered Office of the Company, and, subject to any reasonable Restrictions as to the Time and Manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed by the Company in General Meeting, shall be open to the Inspection of the Members during the Hours of Business.

- (79.) Once at the least in every Year the Directors shall lay before the Company in General Meeting a Statement of the Income and Expenditure for the past Year, made up to a Date not more than Three Months before such Meeting.
- (80.) The Statement so made shall show, arranged under the most convenient Heads, the Amount of gross Income, distinguishing the several Sources from which it has been derived, and the Amount of gross Expenditure, distinguishing the Expense of the Establishment, Salaries, and other like Matters: Every Item of Expenditure fairly chargeable against the Year's Income shall be brought into Account, so that a just Balance of Profit and Loss may be laid before the Meeting; and in Cases where any Item of Expenditure which may in Fairness be distributed over several Years has been incurred in any One Year the whole Amount of such Item shall be stated, with the Addition of the Reasons why only a Portion of such Expenditure is charged against the Income of the Year.
- (81.) A Balance Sheet shall be made out in every Year, and laid before the Company in General Meeting, and such Balance Sheet shall contain a Summary of the Property and Liabilities of the Company arranged under the Heads appearing in the Form annexed to this Table, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit.
- (82.) A printed Copy of such Balance Sheet shall, Seven Days previously to such Meeting, be served on every Member in the Manner in which Notices are herein-after directed to be served.

Audit.

- (83.) Once at the least in every Year the Accounts of the Company shall be examined, and the Correctness of the Balance Sheet ascertained, by One or more Auditor or Auditors.
- (84.) The First Auditors shall be appointed by the Directors: Subsequent Auditors shall be appointed by the Company in General Meeting.
- (85.) If One Auditor only is appointed, all the Provisions herein contained relating to Auditors shall apply to him.
- (86.) The Auditors may be Members of the Company; but no Person is eligible as an Auditor who is interested otherwise than as a Member in any Transaction of the Company; and no Director or other Officer of the Company is eligible during his Continuance in Office.
- (87.) The Election of Auditors shall be made by the Company at their Ordinary Meeting in each Year.

Companies, &c. (First Schedule.)

- (88.) The Remuneration of the First Auditors shall be fixed by the Directors; that of subsequent Auditors shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting.
- (89.) Any Auditor shall be re-eligible on his quitting Office.
- (90.) If any casual Vacancy occurs in the Office of any Auditor appointed by the Company, the Directors shall forthwith call an Extraordinary General Meeting for the Purpose of supplying the same.
- (91.) If no Election of Auditors is made in manner aforesaid the Board of Trade may, on the Application of not less than Five Members of the Company, appoint an Auditor for the current Year, and fix the Remuneration to be paid to him by the Company for his Services.
- (92.) Every Auditor shall be supplied with a Copy of the Balance Sheet, and it shall be his Duty to examine the same, with the Accounts and Vouchers relating thereto.
- (93.) Every Auditor shall have a List delivered to him of all Books kept by the Company, and shall at all reasonable Times have Access to the Books and Accounts of the Company: He may, at the Expense of the Company, employ Accountants or other Persons to assist him in investigating such Accounts, and he may in relation to such Accounts examine the Directors or any other Officer of the Company.
- (94.) The Auditors shall make a Report to the Members upon the Balance Sheet and Accounts, and in every such Report they shall state whether, in their Opinion, the Balance Sheet is a full and fair Balance Sheet, containing the Particulars required by these Regulations, and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct View of the State of the Company's Affairs, and in case they have called for Explanations or Information from the Directors, whether such Explanations or Information have been given by the Directors, and whether they have been satisfactory; and such Report shall be read, together with the Report of the Directors, at the Ordinary Meeting.

Notices.

- (95.) A Notice may be served by the Company upon any Member either personally, or by sending it through the Post in a prepaid Letter addressed to such Member at his registered Place of Abode.
- (96.) All Notices directed to be given to the Members shall, with respect to any Share to which Persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of such Persons is named first in the Register of Members; and Notice so given shall be sufficient Notice to all the Holders of such Share.
- (97.) Any Notice, if served by Post, shall be deemed to have been served at the Time when the Letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary Course of the Post; and in proving such Service it shall be sufficient to prove that the Letter containing the Notices was properly addressed and put into the Post Office.

ARTICLES of ASSOCIATION to accompany preceding MEMORANDUM of ASSOCIATION.

- (1.) The Company, for the Purpose of Registration, is declared to consist of Five hundred Members.
- (2.) The Directors herein-after mentioned may, whenever the Business of the Association requires it, register an Increase of Members.

Definition of Members.

- (3.) Every Person shall be deemed to have agreed to become a Member of the Company who insures any Ship or Share in a Ship in pursuance of the Regulations herein-after contained.

General Meetings.

- (4.) The First General Meeting shall be held at such Time, not being more than Three Months after the Incorporation of the Company, and at such Place, as the Directors may determine.
- (5.) Subsequent General Meetings shall be held at such Time and Place as may be prescribed by the Company in

Companies, &c. (Second Schedule.)

- General Meeting ; and if no other Time or Place is prescribed, a General Meeting shall be held on the First Monday in February in every Year, at such Place as may be determined by the Directors.
- (6.) The above-mentioned General Meetings shall be called Ordinary Meetings ; all other General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary.
 - (7.) The Directors may, whenever they think fit, and they shall, upon a Requisition made in Writing by any Five or more Members, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.
 - (8.) Any Requisition made by the Members shall express the Object of the Meeting proposed to be called, and shall be left at the registered Office of the Company.
 - (9.) Upon the Receipt of such Requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene a General Meeting : If they do not proceed to convene the same within Twenty-one Days from the Date of the Requisition, the Requisitionists, or any other Five Members, may themselves convene a Meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings.

- (10.) Seven Days Notice at the least, specifying the Place, the Day, and the Hour of Meeting, and in case of special Business the general Nature of such Business, shall be given to the Members in manner herein-after mentioned, or in such other Manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting ; but the Non-receipt of such Notice by any Member shall not invalidate the Proceedings at any General Meeting.
- (11.) All Business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Ordinary Meeting, with the Exception of the Consideration of the Accounts, Balance Sheets, and the ordinary Report of the Directors.
- (12.) No Business shall be transacted at any Meeting except the Declaration of a Dividend, unless a Quorum of Members is present at the Commencement of such Business ; and such Quorum shall be ascertained as follows ; that is to say, if the Members of the Company at the Time of the Meeting do not exceed Ten in Number, the Quorum shall be Five ; if they exceed Ten there shall be added to the above Quorum One for every Five additional Members up to Fifty, and One for every Ten additional Members after Fifty, with this Limitation, that no Quorum shall in any Case exceed Thirty.
- (13.) If within One Hour from the Time appointed for the Meeting a Quorum of Members is not present, the Meeting, if convened upon the Requisition of the Members, shall be dissolved : In any other Case it shall stand adjourned to the same Day in the following Week at the same

Companies, &c. (Second Schedule.)

- same Time and Place ; and if at such adjourned Meeting a Quorum of Members is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die.
- (14.) The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company.
- (15.) If there is no such Chairman, or if at any Meeting he is not present at the Time of holding the same, the Members present shall choose some One of their Number to be Chairman of such Meeting.
- (16.) The Chairman may, with the Consent of the Meeting, adjourn any Meeting from Time to Time and from Place to Place, but no Business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the Business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the Adjournment took place.
- (17.) At any General Meeting, unless a Poll is demanded by at least Five Members, a Declaration by the Chairman that a Resolution has been carried, and an Entry to that Effect in the Book of Proceedings of the Company, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Fact, without Proof of the Number or Proportion of the Votes recorded in favour of or against such Resolution.
- (18.) If a Poll is demanded in manner aforesaid, the same shall be taken in such Manner as the Chairman directs, and the Result of such Poll shall be deemed to be the Resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

Votes of Members.

- (19.) Every Member shall have One Vote and no more.
- (20.) If any Member is a Lunatic or Idiot he may vote by his Committee, Curator bonis, or other legal Curator.
- (21.) No Member shall be entitled to vote at any Meeting unless all Monies due from him to the Company have been paid.
- (22.) Votes may be given either personally or by Proxies : A Proxy shall be appointed in Writing under the Hand of the Appointor, or if such Appointor is a Corporation, under its Common Seal.
- (23.) No Person shall be appointed a Proxy who is not a Member, and the Instrument appointing him shall be deposited at the registered Office of the Company not less than Forty-eight Hours before the Time of holding the Meeting at which he proposes to vote.
- (24.) Any Instrument appointing a Proxy shall be in the following Form :—

be held on the _____ Day of _____, and at any Adjournment thereof to be held on the _____ Day of _____ next [or, at any Meeting of the Company that may be held in the Year _____].

As witness my Hand, this _____ Day of _____
Signed by the said _____ in the Presence of _____.

Directors.

- (25.) The Number of the Directors, and the Names of the First Directors, shall be determined by the Subscribers of the Memorandum of Association.
- (26.) Until Directors are appointed, the Subscribers of the Memorandum of Association shall for all the Purposes of this Act be deemed to be Directors.

Powers of Directors.

- (27.) The Business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, who may exercise all such Powers of the Company as are not hereby required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting; but no Regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior Act of the Directors which would have been valid if such Regulation had not been made.

Election of Directors.

- (28.) The Directors shall be elected annually by the Company in General Meeting.

Business of Company.

[Here insert Rules as to Mode in which Business of Insurance is to be conducted.]

Accounts.

- (29.) The Accounts of the Company shall be audited by a Committee of Five Members, to be called the Audit Committee.
- (30.) The first Audit Committee shall be nominated by the Directors out of the Body of Members.
- (31.) Subsequent Audit Committees shall be nominated by the Members at the Ordinary General Meeting in each Year.
- (32.) The Audit Committee shall be supplied with a Copy of the Balance Sheet, and it shall be their Duty to examine the same with the Accounts and Vouchers relating thereto.
- (33.) The Audit Committee shall have a List delivered to them of all Books kept by the Company, and they shall at all reasonable Times have Access to the Books and Accounts of the Company: They may, at the Expense of the

the Company, employ Accountants or other Persons to assist them in investigating such Accounts, and they may in relation to such Accounts examine the Directors or any other Officer of the Company.

- (34.) The Audit Committee shall make a Report to the Members upon the Balance Sheet and Accounts, and in every such Report they shall state whether in their Opinion the Balance Sheet is a full and fair Balance Sheet, containing the Particulars required by these Regulations of the Company, and properly drawn up, so as to exhibit a true and correct View of the State of the Company's Affairs, and in case they have called for Explanation or Information from the Directors, whether such Explanations or Information have been given by the Directors, and whether they have been satisfactory, and such Report shall be read together with the Report of the Directors at the Ordinary Meeting.

Notices.

- (35.) A Notice may be served by the Company upon any Member either personally, or by sending it through the Post in a prepaid Letter addressed to such Member at his registered Place of Abode.
- (36.) Any Notice, if served by Post, shall be deemed to have been served at the Time when the Letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary Course of the Post; and in proving such Service it shall be sufficient to prove that the Letter containing the Notice was properly addressed, and put into the Post Office.

Winding-up.

- (37.) The Company shall be wound up voluntarily whenever an Extraordinary Resolution, as defined by the Companies Act, 1862, is passed, requiring the Company to be wound up voluntarily.

African Slave Trade Treaty (No. 2.)

C A P. XC.

An Act for rectifying a clerical Error in the Act of the present Session, Chapter Forty, with respect to the African Slave Trade Treaty. [7th August 1862.]

WHEREAS in the Act of the present Session of Parliament, Chapter Forty, intituled An Act to carry into effect the Treaty between Her Majesty and the United States of America for the Suppression of the African Slave Trade, it is accurately recited that it was on the Seventh Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two that the Treaty to which the Act relates was signed at Washington, but in the Form (given in the Eighth Section of the Act) of the Oath to be taken by Judges and Arbitrators to be appointed by Her Majesty for the Purposes of the Treaty, Reference is made to the Treaty as having been signed at Washington on the Seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the Word "June" being given (by clerical Error) for the Word "April," and it is expedient that the Error be rectified: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Oath which, in accordance with the Eighth Section of the recited Act, is to be taken by every Judge and Arbitrator referred to in that Section, shall not be in the Form which is given in that Section, but shall be in the Form following; that is to say,

I A.B. do solemnly swear that I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office of _____ faithfully, impartially, fairly, and without Prejudice or Disfavour, either for or against Claimants or Captors, or any other Persons; and that I will, to the best of my Judgment and Power, act in pursuance of and according to the Stipulations, Regulations, and Instructions contained in the Treaty between Her Majesty and the United States of America, signed at Washington on the Seventh Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

2. The recited Act, as from the Time of the passing thereof into a Law, shall be read and have Effect as if the Oath which, in accordance with the Eighth Section of that Act is to be taken by Judges and Arbitrators were an Oath not in the Form which is given in that Behalf in that Section, but in the Form which is given in that Behalf in this Act, and the recited Act and this Act shall accordingly be read and have Effect as if they were One Act.

3. The recited Act and this Act may for all Purposes be cited as follows; (that is to say,) the recited Act as the "African Slave Trade Treaty Act (No. 1.), 1862," this Act as the "African Slave Trade Treaty Act (No. 2.), 1862," and the recited Act and this Act together as the "African Slave Trade Treaty Acts (Nos. 1. and 2.), 1862."

25 & 26 Vict.
c. 40.

Form of Oath to be taken by Judges, &c. instead of that in recited Act.

[See Act of this Session, Cap. 40, Sect. 8., Page 147.]

Recited Act to be read accordingly.

Council of Medical Education.

C A P. XCI.

An Act to incorporate the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom, and for other Purposes. [7th August 1862.]

21 & 22 Vict.
c. 90.

‘ WHEREAS by the Medical Act passed in the Session
‘ holden in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of ‘ the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety, a Council ‘ is established, under the Style of “The General Council of ‘ Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom,”
‘ and certain Duties and Obligations are imposed on such Council,
‘ and in particular it is provided, that the General Council shall ‘ cause to be published under their Direction a Book, containing ‘ a List of Medicines and Compounds, and the Manner of pre‘ paring them, together with the true Weights and Measures by ‘ which they are to be prepared and mixed, and containing such ‘ other Matter and Things relating thereto as the General Council ‘ shall think fit, to be called “British Pharmacopœia,” and ‘ Power is given to the said Council to alter, amend, and republish
‘ such Pharmacopœia as often as they shall deem it necessary :
‘ And whereas different Pharmacopœias have hitherto been in ‘ use in England, Scotland, and Ireland, published in England
‘ under the Direction of the Royal College of Physicians of London,
‘ and sanctioned by an Order of Her Majesty in Council,
‘ published in Scotland under the Direction of the Royal College
‘ of Physicians of Edinburgh, but without any legal Sanction,
‘ and published in Ireland under the Direction of the King and ‘ Queen’s College of Physicians in Ireland, and sanctioned by ‘ Act of Parliament : And whereas the Pharmacopœia to be pub‘ lished by the said Council is intended to supersede the above-‘ mentioned Pharmacopœias : And whereas it is expedient to ‘ incorporate the said Council, and to make such Provisions as ‘ are herein-after contained with respect to the said British ‘ Pharmacopœia ;’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent
Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Incorporation
of Council.

1. “The General Council of Medical Education and Registra“tion of the United Kingdom” shall be deemed to be and to have been, from the Date of its first Establishment, a Body Corporate by the Name aforesaid, having a perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, with a Capacity to hold Lands for the Purposes of the said Medical Act.

Right of printing Pharmacopœia vested in Council.

2. The exclusive Right of publishing, printing, and selling the said Pharmacopœia shall vest in the said General Council, subject to this Proviso, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury from Time to Time to fix the Price at which Copies of the said Work are to be sold to the Public.

Notice to be given in Gazettes when British Phar-macopœia is published.

3. The British Pharmacopœia, when published, shall for all Purposes be deemed to be substituted throughout Great Britain and Ireland for the several above-mentioned Pharmacopœias, and any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, or Custom relating to any

any of such last-mentioned Pharmacopœias shall be deemed, after the Publication of the British Pharmacopœia, to refer to such Pharmacopœia.

Notice in the London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes to the Effect that the British Pharmacopœia has been published shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of its Publication for the Purposes of this Act, and a Copy of the said Pharmacopœia printed by such Person as may be named in the said Notice, or in any other Notice published in the said Gazettes, as authorized by the General Council to print the said Pharmacopœia, shall be admitted in Evidence as being the Pharmacopœia directed to be published by the above-mentioned Act.

C A P. XCII.

An Act to limit the Time for proceeding to Elections in Counties and Boroughs in Ireland. [7th August 1862.]

WHEREAS by the Fifth Section of the Act of the First ^{1 G. 4. c. 11.}
George the Fourth, Chapter Eleven, it is provided that ^{s. 5.}
 immediately after the Receipt of the Writ for making an Election for any County in Ireland the Sheriff of such County shall endorse thereon the Date of receiving the same, and that such Sheriff shall, within Two Days after the Receipt of such Writ, cause Proclamation of the Time and Place of holding such Election to be made at the Place where the ensuing Election ought by Law to be holden, between the Hours of Ten of the Clock of the Forenoon and Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, and that the said Sheriff on the same Day shall cause to be affixed on the Doors of the County Court House Public Notice, signed by himself, of a Special County Court to be there holden for the Purpose of such Election only, and which shall be holden on some Day (Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted) not later from the Day of making such Proclamation and affixing such Notice than the Sixteenth Day, nor sooner than the Tenth Day: And whereas it is expedient to limit the Time for proceeding to such Elections: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. From and after the passing of this Act any such Special County Court for the Purpose of the Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County in Ireland shall be holden on any Day (Sunday, Good Friday, and Christmas Day excepted) not later from the Day of making such Proclamation than the Twelfth Day, nor sooner than the Sixth Day; provided that this Section shall not apply to the Election for any County of a City or of a Town.

2. From and after the passing of this Act the Act of the Ninth and Tenth Victoria, Chapter Thirty, defining the Notice of Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for Cities, Towns, or Boroughs in Ireland, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; ^{9 & 10 Vict. c. 30. repealed.}
^{Period for Elections in Cities, &c.}

and in every City or Town in Ireland, being a County of itself, and in every Borough in Ireland, returning or contributing to return a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, the Sheriff or other Officer to whom the Duty of giving such Notice belongs shall proceed to Election within Six Days after the Receipt of the Writ or Precept, giving Three clear Days Notice at least of the Day appointed for the Election, exclusive of the Day of Proclamation and the Day of Election.

Sheriff to be Returning Officer in Boroughs where the Office of Returning Officer shall be vacant.

3. Every Writ for making any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any City, Town, or Borough in Ireland shall be directed to the Returning Officer of the said City, Town, or Borough, or his Deputy, and in their Absence to the Sheriff of the County in which the said City, Town, or Borough is situate; and in all Cases whatever whenever there shall be, either from temporary Vacancy or from some other Cause, no Person duly qualified in any such City, Town, or Borough to perform the Duties of a Returning Officer for the same, the Sheriff of the County in which such City, Town, or Borough is situate shall be charged with the Execution of the said Writ, and shall execute the same, and in all respects perform the Duties of and incidental to the Office of Returning Officer: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the said Sheriff to receive or execute the Writ except when there shall be no Person within the said City, Town, or Borough legally qualified and competent as Returning Officer to execute the same.

Writs, &c. to be conformable to this Act.

4. All Writs for the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Town, or Borough in Ireland issued after the Commencement of this Act, and all Mandates, Precepts, Instruments, Proceedings, and Notices consequent upon such Writs, shall be and the same are hereby authorized to be framed and expressed in such Manner and Form as may be necessary for carrying the Provisions of this Act into effect.

C A P. XCIII.

An Act for embanking the North Side of the River Thames from Westminster Bridge to Blackfriars Bridge, and for making new Streets in and near thereto.

[7th August 1862.]

24 & 25 Vict. c. 42.

‘ WHEREAS by “The London Coal and Wine Duties Continuance Act, 1861,” after reciting that by an Act passed
 ‘ in the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign ‘ of King William and Queen Mary, Chapter Ten, intituled An ‘ Act for the Relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the ‘ City of London, it was enacted (amongst other things) that,
 ‘ towards raising a Fund as therein mentioned, a Duty of Four ‘ Shillings per Tun should be imposed upon all Sorts of Wines ‘ whatsoever which from and after the Fourth Day of June One ‘ thousand six hundred and ninety-four should be imported into ‘ the Port of the City of London, or the Members thereof, by way ‘ of Merchandise, over and above the then present Duties charged

' sioners should from Time to Time lay out or invest the yearly
 ' Dividends or Interest of the Stocks, Funds, and Securities so
 ' to be purchased in their Names on the Account aforesaid in like ' Manner for the Purpose of Accumulation in the meantime until
 ' the said Fund was appropriated by Parliament to the Execution
 ' of Improvements in the Metropolis ; and it was further enacted,
 ' that all Monies, Stocks, Funds, and Securities standing to the ' Account of the Metropolis Improvement Fund Account created ' by the Act of the Session of the Eighth and Ninth Years of the ' Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and one, should,
 ' from and after the passing of the Act now in recital, and all
 ' Monies, Stocks, Funds, and Securities standing to the Account ' of the London Bridge Approaches Fund should, from and after ' such Time as all Charges on the said Funds might be satisfied,
 ' be carried to and form Part of the Thames Embankment and
 ' Metropolis Improvement Fund created by the Act now in re' cital, and the said London Bridge Approaches Fund should
 ' thereupon cease and determine : And whereas all Monies, Stocks,
 ' Funds, and Securities standing to the Account of the London
 ' Bridge Approaches Fund have, with the Consent of the Corpo' ration of the City of London, been carried over to the said
 ' Thames Embankment and Metropolis Improvement Fund upon
 ' the Understanding that the Charges on the said London Bridge
 ' Approaches should be duly discharged out of the said Thames
 ' Embankment and Metropolis Improvement Fund : And whereas
 ' it is expedient to set apart for meeting the aforesaid Charges
 ' such Sum as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may ' think sufficient : And whereas on the Twenty-third Day of ' February in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty' one Her Majesty issued a Commission, addressed to the Right
 ' Honourable the Lord Mayor of the City of London, Major
 ' General Sir Joshua Jebb K.C.B., John Thwaites Esquire,
 ' Chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Works, Captain Douglas
 ' Galton of the Royal Engineers, Edward Burstall Esquire,
 ' Commander in Her Majesty's Navy, Henry Arthur Hunt Es-
 ' quire, Surveyor of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings,
 ' and John Robinson M'Clean Esquire (to which Commission
 ' Henry Kingscote was Secretary), to examine into Plans for
 ' embanking the River Thames within the Metropolis, so as to ' provide with the greatest Efficiency and Economy for the Relief ' of the most crowded Streets by the Establishment of a new and ' spacious Thoroughfare for the Improvement of the Navigation
 ' of the River, and which would afford an Opportunity of making
 ' the Low-level Sewer without disturbing the Strand or Fleet
 ' Street, and also to report upon the Cost and Means of carrying
 ' the same into execution : And whereas the Commissioners acting
 ' under the recited Commission, by their Report to Her Majesty
 ' dated the Twenty-second Day of July One thousand eight ' hundred and sixty-one (and which has been presented to both ' Houses of Parliament by command of Her Majesty), have re' commended that the several Improvements and Works herein-
 ' after specified should be executed and effected : And whereas

6. The making a new Street which shall commence from and out of the said Embankment and Roadway at or near a Place called Whitehall Stairs, and shall pass thence through Whitehall Yard, and shall terminate in the Street known as Whitehall, opposite to the Horse Guards, all in the Parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster and Saint Martin in the Fields :
7. The reclaiming and enclosing all or so much of the Bed or Foreshore of the River Thames as shall lie between the present Left Bank of such River and the said intended Embankment.
9. Nothing herein contained shall authorize the Board to enter upon, take, or use the Lands numbered on the deposited Plans 45, 45^a, 45^b, and 45^c, or any Part thereof respectively, in the Parish of St. Margaret's Westminster, without the Consent of the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers for the Time being of the same respectively.
10. The Provisions of this Act, and the Powers and Appropriation herein contained with reference to the Thames Embankment and Metropolis Improvement Fund, shall apply to all such further Works for extending the Embankment of the Thames and relieving the Thoroughfares of the Metropolis in connexion with the present and any future Embankment as may hereafter be authorized by Parliament, as if such Works were specifically authorized by the present Act.
11. Save as herein otherwise expressly provided, it shall be lawful for the Board to cause such Part of the said Roadway and of the said Ground so to be inclosed as aforesaid, and of the said Streets respectively, to be laid out for Carriageways, and such Part thereof for Foot Passengers, as they shall think proper.
12. In carrying the said Works and Improvements into execution it shall be lawful for the Board, save as herein otherwise expressly provided, to deviate to any Extent not exceeding Five Feet from the Levels defined in the said Sections, and the Board shall not deviate beyond the Limits of Deviation delineated in the said Plans without Consent of the Person through whose Lands such Deviation shall be made, nor carry the Line of the Embankment Wall, as shown on the said Plans, further into the Stream of the said River than Three Feet, without the Consent of the Conservators, signified in Writing under the Hand of their Secretary.
13. The Powers of the Board for the compulsory Purchase of Lands for the Purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Five Years from the passing of this Act.
14. In and for the Purpose, of effecting the Embankment, Viaduct, or other Works, and the reclaiming of Land hereby respectively
- Certain Land not to be taken without Consent.
- Provision for further Works.
- Power to set out Footways, &c.
- Power to deviate.
- Powers for compulsory Purchases limited.

of this Act, although the same Lands, or the Names of the Owners or Occupiers thereof may happen to be erroneously stated in or omitted from the said Book of Reference, in case it shall appear to any Two Aldermen of the City of London, or, as the Case may require, to any Two Justices acting in or for the County of Middlesex, and be certified under their Hands, that such Error or Omission proceeded from Mistake or erroneous Information: Provided always, that previously to submitting the Case to Two Aldermen or to Two Justices as aforesaid, Ten clear Days Notice shall be given to the Owners whose Lands shall be affected by such erroneous Statement or Omission in the said Book of Reference; provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the Board to purchase, take, or use any Parish Church without the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese.

25. When the said Roadway and new Streets, and the Approaches to the same respectively, shall be made and paved in pursuance of this Act, all the Ground and Lands which shall be laid open into the said Roadway, or any of such new Streets, or the Approaches of the same respectively, shall form Part of such Roadway or new Street, as the Case may be, and shall, except as hereby otherwise expressly provided, be used by the Public accordingly; and the same Roadway, new Streets, and Approaches, and the sole Power, Authority, and Duty of paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, and watching thereof respectively, and of rating the Lands and Hereditaments situate and being within the same, shall be under the Care, Management, Control, and Jurisdiction of the same Vestries, Board, District Boards, Commissioners, or Persons as the other Streets in the Wards, Districts, Parishes, or Places in which the same respectively shall be situate.

Ground laid into the Streets &c. to be used by the Public.

26. All the Land to be reclaimed from the River Thames on the South of the Streets fourthly and fifthly herein-before described, and not required for Streets or Roads, nor otherwise specifically appropriated by the Provisions of this Act, and lying between an imaginary Line drawn from the Eastern Boundary of the Houses on the East Side of Cecil Street to the Embankment Roadway on the East and the Crown Lands on the West, and the Embankment Roadway on the South, together with the Lands to be reclaimed between the Southern Side of the Approach Road, shown on the Plan marked C. herein-after referred to, leading towards Norfolk Street, Surrey Street, and Arundel Street, shall for ever hereafter be vested in and maintained by the Board for the Use of the Public as Places of Recreation or Ornamental Ground, and the Expenses incident to such Maintenance shall be deemed to be Expenses of the Board in the Execution of the Act Eighteenth and Nineteenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twenty, and all the Parts of the Metropolis shall be deemed to be equally benefited by all Sums so expended by the Board.

Reclaimed Land to be dedicated to the Use of the Public.

27. Subject to the Provisions herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Board, by Agreement, to appropriate by way of Grant or Demise, either in perpetuity or for any Term of Years or other Period, and for or subject to a nominal or any other Consideration or Rent, any reclaimed Land, or any absolute or partial or qualified Licence or Right of User or Enjoyment, Right of Way, Right of Frontage, or other Right or Easement of, out of, over, upon, in connexion with, or in relation to any reclaimed Land, or any Wharf, Basin, Barge Bed, Recess, Slip, Hard, Stairs, Waterway, and Landing Place to be constructed or provided by the Board under the Powers of this Act, and the Approaches, Conveniences, and Works connected therewith, to any Owner of Lands now situated on the present Left Bank and River Frontage of the River Thames, in front whereof the said intended Embankment and Roadway shall pass as aforesaid, in consideration of, and in lieu in whole or in part of the Compensation which such Owner or Person may be entitled to claim for the Damage, if any, to be sustained by him by Loss of River Frontage or otherwise by reason of such Embankment and Roadway, or other the Exercise of any of the Powers of this Act.

No House to be erected in front of the Gardens of the Inner and Middle Temple.

28. No House or Building shall be erected upon any Part of the Lands to be acquired or reclaimed as aforesaid situated between the River Thames and the Gardens of the Societies of the Inner and Middle Temple respectively, other than any such Porters or Gardeners Lodges, Alcoves, or other Buildings of a like Nature, of only One Floor each, as are from Time to Time, whether before or after the passing of this Act, approved by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, by Writing under his Hand.

As to the Roadway, &c. connected with the Inner and Middle Temples.

29. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the public Roadway herein-before mentioned shall, so far as the same passes Southward of the Gardens of the Societies of the Inner and Middle Temples respectively, be constructed on an Embankment, and all the Land reclaimed and enclosed from the River Thames lying in front of the present Southern Boundary of the Inner and the Middle Temples, except so much as is occupied by the Embankment and Road thereon, shall for ever hereafter be the exclusive Property, as to such Land Southward of the Inner Temple, of and be vested in the Trustees for the Society of the Inner Temple, and as to the Lands Southward of the Middle Temple, of and be vested in the Trustees for the Society of the Middle Temple, for an Estate in Fee Simple absolute in possession, to and upon the like Uses and Trusts as the Uses and Trusts to and upon which the Lands adjoining thereto of the Societies respectively are from Time to Time held; and such Lands, but not the Embankment or Road thereon, shall for all Parochial Purposes be within and Part of the Places called the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple respectively; and in order that so far as can be the Two Societies respectively and their respective Property and Rights shall be protected against being prejudicially affected by the Execution of this Act, the Board from Time to Time may and shall take all such Precautions, and make, execute, and do all such Matters and Things, in, upon, in connexion with, and near to the Temple Land, and fulfil all such Stipulations, as are before the passing of this Act specified, under the Hand of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings ; and the said Societies of the Inner Temple and Middle Temple shall not claim any Damage or Compensation in respect of the Execution of the Powers of this Act.

30. The Board may and shall make for the Two Societies a Landing Place, with proper and sufficient Works and Conveniences connected therewith, in substitution for their present Landing Place at the End of Middle Temple Lane, and the same shall be used by the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple, and shall be held, enjoyed, and regulated by the Two Societies as their private Landing Place accordingly.

Board to erect Landing Stairs for the Use of the Temples.

31. Except only as is by this Act expressly enacted, this Act or anything therein contained shall not take away, lessen, prejudice, alter, or affect any of the Estates, Rights, Interests, Jurisdictions, Franchises, Powers, Authorities, Immunities, or Privileges of the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple, or either of them.

Saving Rights of the Temples.

32. As regards all Lands which shall be purchased or otherwise acquired by the Board under the Provisions of this Act, and which shall not be wanted for the Purposes of the same (other than and except such Lands as are by virtue of this Act reserved and excepted from the Operation of this Power of leasing, or are otherwise dealt with), it shall be lawful for the Board, subject to the Provisions of this Act, when and as they shall think fit, by an Indenture or Indentures under their Common Seal, to demise and lease such Ground and Hereditaments, or such Part thereof as they shall think it expedient to let on Building Leases, either together or in Parcels, to any Person or Persons who shall erect and build or covenant and agree to erect and build thereon, or on any Part or Parts thereof, Houses, Erections, and Buildings of such Rate or Class or respective Rates or Classes of Buildings, upon such Plan and Elevation or respective Plans and Elevations, of such Height or respective Heights, and with such Stories, as the Board shall think proper, for such Number of Years and under such Conditions as they may think fit, and either at a Rent or without any Rent, but so that in every such Demise or Lease there be contained a Covenant for the Payment of the Rent, if any shall be thereby reserved, and also such other Covenants on the Part of the Tenant or Lessee therein to be named as the Board shall reasonably require, and also a Clause in the Nature of a Condition of Re-entry on Nonpayment of the Rent (if any) thereby to be reserved, or on Nonperformance of the Covenants therein to be contained on the Part of the Tenant or Lessee to be observed and performed, and that the Lessee or Lessees named in every such Lease shall execute a Counterpart thereof, and on the Negotiation for any such Lease the Board may, if they think fit, accept and take any Fine for the granting thereof, and may enter into any Agreement for the granting any Lease or Leases on such Terms and Conditions as they may think fit ; and on the granting the Leases in pursuance of such Agreements may alter the Amount of the Rents agreed to be reserved on such Leases, and may apportion the same and grant separate adjudged sufficient to vest such Estate in the Purchaser or Lessee as shall have been agreed for, or shall be expressed or intended to be conveyed and granted by any such Conveyance or Lease.

34. It shall be lawful for the Board to sell in manner and subject as aforesaid, and absolutely to grant and convey, any of the Lands which shall be purchased or otherwise acquired by the Board as aforesaid, and which shall not be wanted for the Purposes of this Act, and which they shall not think it expedient to let on Building Leases as aforesaid (other than and always except such Lands as by virtue of this Act are reserved and excepted from the Operation of this Power of Sale, or are otherwise dealt with), subject nevertheless to such Stipulations and Conditions as they may think fit, and thereupon the same shall be conveyed and assured by the Board as they shall think fit.

Power to Board to sell any Ground which may not be wanted for the Purposes of this Act.

35. Before the Board dispose of any superfluous Lands they shall first offer to sell the same to the Person then entitled to the Lands (if any) from which the same were originally severed, and if any such Person be desirous of purchasing such Lands then within Six Weeks after such Offer of Sale he shall signify his Desire in that Behalf to the Board, or if he decline such Offer, or if for Six Weeks he neglect to signify his Desire to purchase such Lands, the Right of Pre-emption of every such Person so declining or neglecting in respect of the Lands included in such Offer shall cease, and a Declaration in Writing made before a Justice by some Person not interested in the Matter in Question stating that such Offer was made and was refused, or not accepted within Six Weeks from the Time of making the same, shall in all Courts be sufficient Evidence of the Facts therein stated.

Superfluous Lands before Sale to be offered to Owners of Lands from which they were originally severed.

36. If any Person entitled to such Pre-emption be desirous of purchasing any such Lands, and such Person and the Board do not agree as to the Price thereof, then such Price shall be ascertained by Arbitration, and the Costs of such Arbitration shall be in the Discretion of the Arbitrators.

Differences as to Price to be settled by Arbitration.

37. The Board shall apply all the Monies arising by any such Sale or Disposition respectively as aforesaid, after paying all Expenses incident to such Sales or Dispositions, and satisfying all lawful Demands to which the Lands, Rents, and Premises so respectively sold or disposed of shall be liable, and also apply all the Rents and Profits of the Lands and Premises to be acquired by the Board under the Provisions of this Act, for and towards the carrying the Purposes of this Act into execution.

Application of Monies arising from Sale of Lands or from Rents.

38. After the Expiration of Five Years from the Commencement of this Act, if it shall at any Time appear at any annual Audit of the Accounts of the Board that the Monies received by them from any Source within the previous Year by virtue of this Act, and which shall be applicable to the Purposes of this Act, shall have been more than sufficient to pay the Expenses of the Board incurred under the Authority of this Act within such Year, then such Surplus shall be applied in paying off any Monies which may have been borrowed by the Board under the Authority of this Act; and when all the Monies which may have been borrowed by the Board under the Authority of this Act,

39. The Provisions of the Acts relating to the Local Management of the Metropolis, namely, the Acts Eighteen and Nineteen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twenty, Nineteen and Twenty Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twelve, Twenty-one and Twenty-two Victoria, Chapter One hundred and four, shall, so far as the same are not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, extend and apply to the Objects and Purposes of this Act; and the Board shall, for carrying out those Objects and Purposes, have and may exercise all such Powers, Privileges, and Authorities as are conferred upon them by such Acts; provided that the Board shall not apply any Monies which they are authorized to raise under the said Acts to the Construction or Completion of the Works specially authorized by this Act.

Costs of Arbitra-
tions under this Act.

40. All the Costs of any Arbitration under this Act and incident thereto, to be settled, in case of Difference, by One of the Masters of the Court of Queen's Bench, shall be borne by the Board, unless the Arbitrators shall award the same or a less Sum than shall have been offered by the Board, in which Case each Party shall bear his own Costs incident to the Arbitration; and the Costs of the Arbitrators shall be borne by the Parties in equal Proportions.

Locomotives prohibited.

41. It shall not be lawful for any Person to use a Locomotive Engine propelled by Steam along the Streets or Roadways constructed under the Provisions of this Act.

Power of Board to borrow on Mortgage, &c.

42. For the Purposes of this Act, the Board may, with the Consent of the Treasury from Time to Time borrow by way of Mortgage or Bond on the Security of the Lands and Funds acquired under and appropriated to the Purposes of this Act, and at such Rate of Interest and upon such Terms as to the Time of Repayment and otherwise as the Treasury may approve, any Sums of Money the Board may require for the Purposes of this Act, not exceeding in the whole One million Pounds.

Securities transferable by Deed duly stamped.

43. All the Bonds and Securities upon the Funds so appropriated as aforesaid, and issued under the Authority of this Act, shall be transferable by Deed or Instrument in Writing duly stamped, and the Right to sue in respect of the Principal or Interest Monies secured by any such Bonds or Securities shall be vested in the Holders thereof for the Time being, without any Preference by reason of some of such Bonds or Securities being prior in Date to others.

For Repayment
of Principal.

44. The Board may at any Time, with such Consent as aforesaid, raise by the Issue of new Mortgages, Bonds, or other Securities as aforesaid any Money that may be required to pay any Principal Money for the Time being due on any Mortgages, Bonds, or other Securities issued in pursuance of this Act.

45. The

Thames Embankment.

45. The said Thames Embankment and Metropolis Improvement Fund shall be appropriated as follows ; that is to say, Appropriation of Thames Embankment and Metropolis Improvement Fund.

- (1.) There shall be set apart thereout, and carried to such separate Account at the Bank of England as the Treasury may direct, such Sum as the Treasury may think necessary for paying off the Charges created as aforesaid on the said London Bridge Approaches Fund, and for Payment of all Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incidental to the obtaining this Act, and of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by the Board in relation thereto, and the Treasury shall apply the same to such Purposes accordingly :
- (2.) So much of the said Thames Embankment and Metropolis Improvement Fund as remains at the Time of the passing of this Act, after deducting the Sum so set apart as aforesaid, shall be paid over to the Board at such Times and in such Manner as the Treasury may direct, to be applied by the Board for the Purposes of this Act :
- (3.) All Monies becoming Part of the said last-mentioned Fund after the passing of this Act shall be paid by the Treasury to the Board, in such Proportions as the Board may from Time to Time, by Writing under their Seal, require, and shall be applied by them, firstly, in paying the Interest for the Time being due on the Securities authorized to be issued under this Act ; secondly, in paying the Principal Monies from Time to Time becoming due on such Securities ; thirdly, in paying the Expenses incurred in respect of the several Works by this Act authorized, or in carrying this Act into execution ; and lastly, in the Improvement of the Metropolis, in such Manner as may hereafter be determined by Parliament.

46. All Sums of Money, Bills, and Drafts which shall be received by the Board under the Provisions of this Act shall from Time to Time within Two Days after the same shall have been received, or within Two Days after any Bill shall have been accepted, completed, and perfected, if the same shall not be accepted, completed, and perfected at the Time it shall be received, be paid by the Board into the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for which the Receipt of the Cashier or One of the Cashiers of the Bank of England shall be a sufficient Discharge, and all such Monies, Bills, and Drafts so to be paid as aforesaid shall from Time to Time be placed to the Account of "The Board" so to be opened as aforesaid, and shall be applied and disposed of by the Board for and towards the carrying of the several Purposes of this Act into execution.

Monies received by the Board to be paid into the Bank of England to their Account.

47. The Board shall cause a separate Account to be kept of the Money borrowed by the Board under this Act, and of all other Monies received and expended by them under this Act ; and the Auditor appointed by the Secretary of State, under the Provisions of the Act of the Eighteen and Nineteen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twenty, shall, upon his Audit of the Accounts of the Board in every Year, cause a separate Account and Statement to be prepared of the Receipt and Expenditure of the Board under this Act, and the same shall be sent by the Board to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and shall be laid by him before Parliament at the same Time and Manner as is provided in Section Two hundred and one of the said Act.

Owners of Vessels liable for Damage done to the Embankment, &c.

48. In case any Damage or Mischief shall be done to the said Embankment or Roadway, or to any such Quays, Piers, Stairs, Hards, Slips, or Landing Places as aforesaid, or any of the Works, Matters, or Things to be constructed or provided under the Provisions of this Act, or any Part thereof respectively, by any Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel, through the wilful Negligence of any Person having the Command of any such Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel, or any of the Mariners or Persons employed therein, then and in every such Case the Owner of such Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel is hereby made answerable to the Board for the Amount or Value of any such Damage or Mischief, and the same, provided it shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, if not forthwith paid and satisfied, may be recovered in such Manner as the Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed are by virtue of the Metropolis Local Management Act Eighteen and Nineteen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twenty, directed to be recovered.

Masters compelled to pay Penalties for Neglect of Servants, may recover the same from Servants.

49. In case the Owner of any such Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel shall be compelled to pay any Penalty, or to make Satisfaction for any Damages, by reason of any Neglect or Default done or committed by his Servants or Mariners, or any of them, such Servants, and each and every of them, shall be liable to pay such Penalty or Damages (with the Costs thereof) to such Owner; and in case of Nonpayment, upon Demand thereof, and Oath made by such Owner of the Payment made by him of such Penalty, Satisfaction, or Damages, and that the same and the Costs thereof have not been repaid to him by such Servants or Mariners, or any of them, although demanded (such Oath to be made before any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County or Place where such Penalty or Satisfaction shall have been recovered), the Amount thereof, provided the same shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be recovered in the same Manner as any Penalty is by virtue of the Metropolis Local Management Act, Eighteen and Nineteen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twenty, directed to be recovered.

Application or Penalties not appropriated.

50. When any Fine or Penalty shall be recovered under the Authority of this Act, the Application whereof is not otherwise provided for, the same shall be paid to the Board, and be applied by them for the Purposes of this Act.

Plaintiff not to recover without Notice, or after Tender of Amends.

51. No Plaintiff shall recover in any Action to be commenced against any Person for anything done in pursuance of this Act, unless Notice in Writing shall have been given to the Defendant or left at his last or usual Place of Abode Twenty-one Days before such Action shall be commenced of such intended Action, signed by the Attorney for the Plaintiff, specifying the Cause of such Action ; nor shall the Plaintiff recover if Tender of good and sufficient Amends shall have been made to him or his Attorney by or on behalf of the Defendant before such Action brought, nor if such Tender of Amends shall be made at any Time after such Action brought and before the Trial thereof, with Costs of Suit, to the Time of such last-mentioned Tender, but on Proof of such Tender on any Trial to be had in such Action the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, and shall pay full Costs, to be recovered in the same Manner as any Defendant may recover Costs in any other Case by Law ; or in case no Tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Defendant in any such Action, by Leave of the Court wherein any such Action shall depend, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall think fit ; whereupon such Proceedings, Order, and Judgment shall be had, made, and given in and by such Court as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

52. Provided always, That no Action or Suit shall be brought or prosecuted against any Person or Body for anything done in pursuance of this Act after Three Months next after the Fact committed, or in case there shall be a Continuation of Damages, then after Three Months next after the doing or committing such Damage shall have ceased, and not afterwards ; and every such Action or Suit shall be laid and brought in the Liberty or County where the Matter in dispute shall arise, and not elsewhere ; and the Defendant in any such Action or Suit shall and may at his Election plead specially, or plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act ; and if it shall appear to have been so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall have been brought before Twenty-one Days Notice shall have been given, or after sufficient Satisfaction made or tendered as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury or Juries shall find for the Defendant.

Limitation of Actions.

53. Except with the previous Consent in Writing of the Most Noble Algernon Duke of Northumberland, his Heirs, Sequels in Estate, or Assigns, the Board shall not take any more Land belonging to the said Duke, under the Provisions of this Act, than is requisite for the Formation of the following Streets, not exceeding Sixty Feet in Width ; that is to say, a Street in continuation of Whitehall Place and a Street in continuation of Northumberland Street, such Streets to be made respectively in the Direction shown on the Plan A. herein-after referred to, or within the Limits of Deviation shown on such Plan ; and, except with the previous Consent in Writing of the said Duke, his Heirs, Sequels in Estate, or Assigns, and of the said Board, no Building shall be erected upon the Lands taken from the said Duke, his Heirs, Sequels in Estate, or Assigns, for such Streets, or upon the Lands coloured Green upon the Plan marked (A.) signed in Duplicate by the Right Honourable William Cowper, Land of the Duke of Northumberland, except that required for the Formation of certain Streets, not to be taken without Consent.

Thames Embankment.

One Part whereof is deposited in the Private Bill Office of the Honourable the House of Commons, except any Buildings for making necessary Fences on the Sides of such Streets, or for accommodating the Public with Fountains or covered Resting Places, or for Public Monuments, such Buildings or Monuments not exceeding Nineteen Feet in Height above Trinity High-water Mark.

As to Appropriation of certain Land Southward of the Craven Estate.

54. The Board shall appropriate and set apart so much of the Land to be acquired by them under the Powers of this Act lying Southward of the Craven Estate, belonging to William George Craven Esquire, as shall be necessary for the Formation of a public Street of not less than Sixty Feet in Width, in continuation of Craven Street, up to and to communicate with the new Street fourthly herein described, and such Land shall not be used for any other Purpose.

As to Street between Whitehall Place and Wellington Street.

55. The Street shown upon the said deposited Plans between Whitehall Place and Wellington Street shall pass on the South Side of the North Abutment of the Charing Cross Railway Company's Bridge now constructing across the River Thames, and under the Northernmost Opening of such Bridge.

Certain Land of Charing Cross Railway Company not to be taken without Consent.

56. The Board shall not, without the Consent in Writing of the Charing Cross Railway Company under their Common Seal, enter upon or take any of the Lands or Property of that Company coloured Red upon the Plan marked B. signed in Duplicate by the Right Honourable William Cowper, One Part whereof shall be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in constructing the said Street and Embankment and the Works connected therewith shall not in any Manner injure the said Railway or Works, but shall submit the Plans of the Works passing under and affecting the said Railway to John Hawkshaw or other the Engineer of the said Charing Cross Railway Company, and construct the same to his reasonable Satisfaction.

As to Repair of Charing Cross Railway and Works.

57. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, it shall be lawful for the said Company, after Notice to the Board, and subject to their reasonable Regulations, at all Times hereafter to enter upon and use, for the Purposes of repairing, amending, or restoring their Railway and Works, and their Steamboat Pier and Landing Place at Hungerford, and the Works connected therewith, so much of the said Street or Embankment as adjoins to or passes under the said Railway and Works.

As to Construction of Landing Places.

58. No Public Landing Place, Pier, Stairs, or Quay for landing Passengers (other than such as shall be substituted for the present Adelphi Pier at the Site now occupied by that Pier) shall be constructed under the Powers of this Act on the South Side of the said Embankment within One hundred and fifty Yards on either Side of the Steamboat Pier belonging to the Charing Cross Railway Company at Hungerford.

Saving Rights of Charing Cross Railway Company.

59. Except as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, nothing in this Act contained shall take away, lessen, prejudice, or derogate from any of the Estates, Rights, Interests, Liberties, or Privileges of the Charing Cross Railway Company.

Thames Embankment.

60. Opposite the Strand Estate of the Duke of Norfolk, the North Side of the Approach Road, and the Approaches therefrom to Surrey Street, Norfolk Street, and Arundel Street respectively, shall be constructed on the Line and in the Position shown on the Plan marked C, signed by the Right Honourable William Cowper.

Provision as to the Land belonging to the Duke of Norfolk.

The Board shall not exercise any Powers of compulsory Purchase in respect of any Estate, Right, or Interest of the Duke of Norfolk in the Strand Estate, except so far as may be necessary for the Construction of the said Approach Road and Approaches.

No Buildings shall be placed on the reclaimed Land between Somerset House and the Middle Temple Southward of the said Approach Road on the said Plan, except the Walls or Arches of the Embankment or of any Roads or Approaches to be made on the said Land, and except any Public Stairs or Landing Places, Fountains and covered Resting Places for Public Use or Public Monuments.

All the Land between the present Southern Boundary of the Strand Estate and the North Boundary of the said Approach Road, and the Freehold and Inheritance thereof, shall, upon Payment or Allowance to the Board of the Value thereof, vest in the Duke of Norfolk by force of this Act, and be held by him as Part and Parcel of the Strand Estate.

The Duke of Norfolk shall have Power to build up to the Line of the Footways on the North Side of such Approach Road, and on both Sides of the Approaches to Surrey Street, Norfolk Street, and Arundel Street respectively, and have free Access to the said Approach Road and Approaches.

The Compensation to be paid to the Duke of Norfolk by the Board for the Value of or Injury to his Property, and the Sum to be paid by the Duke of Norfolk to the Board for the Value of the Land so hereby vested in him, shall, in case of Dispute, be settled in the Manner prescribed by this Act.

Throughout this Act the Expression the Duke of Norfolk means Henry now Duke of Norfolk, and every future Owner in possession of "the Arundel Estates," and every Guardian or Guardians of the said Henry Duke of Norfolk and every such future Owner during his Minority; and the Expression "the Arundel Estates" means the Estates for the Time being settled or conveyed to the Uses of an Act of Parliament passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King Charles the First (whereby certain Estates were settled upon the Heirs Male of Thomas Earl of Arundel and Surrey), and in the Possession of the Duke of Norfolk for the Time being; and the Expression "the Strand Estate" means such Parts of the Arundel Estates as are situate in the Parish of Saint Clement Dane in the County of Middlesex.

61. The Board shall not take by Compulsion under the Powers of this Act any other Part of the Adelphi Estate in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, belonging to or claimed by George James Drummond, than such as shall be required for the making of the Roadway and Footpath of the Street in this Act described, between and his and their Lessees and Tenants of Houses and Premises in Cecil Street and Salisbury Street respectively, shall have full and free Rights of Communication, and Access and Egress, at all Times, to and from the Land so to be reclaimed and enclosed as aforesaid, and the Board shall provide and construct such convenient Means of Communication therewith as may be necessary for giving to the Marquis, his Heirs and Assigns, and his and their Lessees and Tenants, such Access accordingly.

63. No Roadway to Salisbury Street shall be constructed without the Consent of the said Marquis, his Heirs or Assigns, and if so constructed shall not be open to the Public except for Foot Passengers, unless the said Marquis, his Heirs or Assigns, shall by some Writing under his or their Hand or Hands signify his or their Intention to dedicate it to the Public for other Purposes, to be specified in such Writing or Writings.

Junction with Salisbury Street not to be constructed without Consent.

64. Except as herein expressly provided, nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or derogate from the Estates, Rights, Interests, Privileges, Franchises, or Authority of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or of the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being.

Nothing to prejudice Rights of the Corporation of London.

65. Except as herein expressly provided, nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or derogate from the Rights of the Conservators of the River Thames, or to prohibit, defeat, alter, or diminish any Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction which at the Time of the passing of this Act the said Conservators did or might lawfully claim, use, or exercise.

Saving Rights of Thames Conservators.

66. Nothing in this Act shall interfere with the Powers given by Law to the Commissioners of the Police of the Metropolis.

Saving Powers of Metropolitan Police.

67. If the Board in the course of the Construction of the Works hereby authorized shall interrupt the Course of any Main or other Sewer or Drain, or the Flow of Sewage therefrom, the Board shall, until the Low Level Sewer is available, provide a proper and sufficient Substitute before the Flow of Sewage in any such Sewer or Drain is so interrupted.

As to Interference with Sewers.

68. Nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner prejudice or affect any of the Powers of the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London further than may be absolutely necessary for effecting the Works by this Act authorized; and any Expense which such Commissioners may incur in making any additional Sewers or Drains, or altering any existing Sewers or Drains (not being Main Drains), in consequence of the Removal, Destruction, Alteration, or Diversion or stopping up any existing Sewers or Drains, shall be repaid to them by the Board.

Saving Rights of Commissioners of Sewers.

69. Except only as by this Act expressly provided, nothing in this Act contained shall take away, lessen, prejudice, or alter any of the Powers, Rights, Privileges, and Authorities of any District Board or Vestry.

Saving Rights of District Boards and Vestries.

70. Except as herein is specially provided, nothing in this Act shall prejudice, diminish, alter, or affect any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities by Law vested in the Charing Cross Bridge Company, the Waterloo Bridge Company, the Saving of Rights of Companies herein named.

72. The Board shall, at their Expense, before opening to the Public the Parts of the intended Roadway which will be constructed on the Bed or Foreshore coloured Blue and Green respectively on the Crown Plans, fill up, level, and wall or fence all those Parts of the said Bed or Foreshore coloured Blue and Green respectively lying between the intended Roadway and the present River Frontage (above High-water Mark), to the Satisfaction in all respects of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Thames Embankment.

Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them, as to the Bed or Foreshore coloured Blue, and of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings as to the Bed or Foreshore coloured Green, and such filling up and levelling (unless such last-mentioned Commissioners respectively shall otherwise direct in Writing under their respective Hands as to the whole or any Part thereof) shall be done to the Level of the adjoining River Frontage above High-water Mark, and of the said intended Roadway and Street respectively on the Side or Sides abutting thereon respectively.

73. The Bed or Foreshore so filled up, levelled, and walled or fenced as aforesaid shall, as to the Part coloured Blue, continue vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and shall as to the Part coloured Green be annexed to and be deemed to form Part of Somerset House and the House heretofore known as the Board of Control respectively for all Purposes whatsoever, and it shall not be lawful for the Board to use any Part of the Bed or Foreshore coloured Blue or Green so to be filled up as aforesaid for the Purpose of depositing Materials, except during the Construction of the Works, nor to appropriate or grant any Part of such Bed or Foreshore, or any Right or Easement to, over, or in connexion therewith, by way of Compensation to any Person for Loss of River Frontage or other Damage, it being the Intention of this Act that the same respectively shall be and remain vested and annexed as aforesaid in possession, without becoming subject to any Rights or Estates of or in any Lessees of the River Frontage or other Persons, except only so far as any Lessees may exercise the Option by this Act given to them of taking Leases of the reclaimed Land; and after such filling up, levelling, and walling or fencing aforesaid of the said Bed or Foreshore coloured Blue and Green respectively, and the Embankment in front thereof, shall have been completed, it shall not be lawful for the Board to enter on the Parts so filled up, levelled, and walled or fenced for any Purpose whatsoever.

Disposal of reclaimed Land in which Crown interested.

74. It shall not be lawful for the Board to erect any Building or Structure whatever (other than a Parapet Wall or Railing not exceeding Four Feet in Height) on any Part of the Embankment coloured Blue, Green, or Red on the said Crown Plans, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them, as regards the Part coloured Blue, or of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings as regards the Parts coloured Green and Red.

No Building to be erected on Embankment opposite Crown Land without Consent.

75. An Estimate shall be made of the Amount of any Diminution in Value which may be caused by the Works by this Act authorized (except of so much thereof as will be situate on the Lands coloured Blue, Green, or Red on the Crown Plans, for which excepted Parts no Money Compensation is to be paid,) of the Rights and Interests of Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, and of the Conservators of the River Thames under "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857;" and the Amount of such Estimate shall be paid by the Board to the Conservators, to be applied by them according to the Provisions of the same Act, by way of Compensation for the Rights and Interests aforesaid; and the said Estimate shall be made by Two Arbitrators or their Umpire in manner following; viz., one such Arbitrator shall be appointed by the Board, and the other by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them, within One Month after the passing of this Act; and such Arbitrators shall before they commence their Duty appoint an Umpire in Writing; and if within Twenty-one Days after both Arbitrators have been appointed they shall omit or refuse to appoint an Umpire as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to appoint an Umpire, which Appointment shall be valid, whether the Arbitrators have then commenced their Duty or not; and if either Party shall neglect or refuse to appoint an Arbitrator as aforesaid, the Arbitrator appointed by the other Party shall act alone; and the Decision of such Arbitrators, or Arbitrator or Umpire (as the Case may be), shall be final; and all the Costs and Expenses of the Valuation to be incurred by either Party shall be borne and paid by the Board.

No Compensation to Crown in respect of Land above High-water Mark.

76. The Board shall not be liable to pay to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, any Compensation for any Damage or Injury which may be caused to any of the Lands belonging to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of the Crown above High-water Mark by reason of the Severance from the River Thames and of the Construction of the Roadway on the Embankment by this Act authorized.

New Landing Places to be provided where existing ones removed.

77. Whenever the Board shall shut up, remove, or in any Manner obstruct the Use and Enjoyment of any existing Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places on or in front of any Part of the Bed or Foreshore coloured Blue, Green, or Red in the said Crown Plans, they shall, at their own Expense, construct and maintain other Stairs or Landing Places in lieu thereof, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, as regards the Part coloured Blue, and of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings as regards the Parts coloured Green and Red respectively, such substituted Stairs or Landing Places to be for the sole Use and Enjoyment of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or such other Person or Persons as are or would have been entitled to the Use and Enjoyment of the Stairs or Landing Places in lieu whereof the same respectively shall have been constructed; and it shall not be necessary to obtain the Approval of the Conservators of the River Thames before constructing such Stairs or Landing Places, nor shall the same vest in the said Conservators, any general Provisions in this Act notwithstanding; and the Board shall, at their own Expense, construct and maintain such Roads, Ways, and other Communications into the said intended Roadway from the Lands or Buildings adjoining the Parts coloured Green and Red respectively on the said Crown Plans, and also such Stairs and other Conveniences for Access to the River from the same Lands, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time during the Construction of the Works authorized by this Act in Writing require, and shall on the like Requisition afterwards stop up and discontinue the same or any of them ; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, at any Time or Times hereafter to require the Board, at the Expense of the said Commissioners, to construct any Vaults or Cellars extending not more than Twelve Feet under any Roadway or Street to be constructed upon any Part of the said Bed or Foreshore coloured Blue, and also to have Access at all Points to such Roadway or Streets from any Part of the Hereditary Possessions of the Crown, and to open any Streets into the same ; and it shall also be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, with the Consent or by the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any Time or Times hereafter, to require the Board, in like Manner, and at the Expense of the said Commissioners, to construct any such Vaults or Cellars as aforesaid under the Roadway or Streets to be constructed upon any Part of the said Bed or Foreshore coloured Green or Red, and also to have Access at all Points to such Roadway or Streets from any Part of the Buildings or Land adjoining the said Parts coloured Green and Red respectively, and to open any Streets into the same : Provided always, that no Work to be done under the foregoing Provision shall be such as to prejudice or injuriously affect any Subway or other Works of the Board, or the convenient Use thereof by the Public.

78. It shall be lawful for the Lessees of Her Majesty of the River Frontage, adjacent to so much of the Land and Foreshore coloured Blue on the Crown Plans as lies between Whitehall Stairs and the Southern Extremity of the Land and Foreshore so coloured Blue, to have the Option (to be signified by Notice in Writing under the Hands of such Lessees respectively, and to be left at the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues,) within Five Years after the passing of this Act, of taking Leases from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them, on behalf of Her Majesty, of the Land and Foreshore adjacent to their respective Leasehold Properties which will intervene between the same and the intended Roadway for Terms co-extensive with their several existing Leases, and at Rents to be fixed as herein-after provided ; and in case any Question shall arise as to the Lessees or Lessee entitled to such Option, or as to the Extent of Land and Foreshore to be included in any Lease, every such Question shall be settled by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them, whose Decision shall be final ; and the Rents to be reserved by such Leases shall in every Case be fixed by the Arbitration of Two Surveyors, one to be nominated by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them, and the other by the Lessees respectively, or by an Umpire to be appointed by such Arbitrator, or to be agreed to in the first instance by the said Commissioners or Commissioner and Lessees respectively; and such Rent shall be estimated on the Basis of a fair Rental on the Land as Garden Ground which cannot be built upon; and in any Claim for Compensation by the said Lessees on the Ground of their Lands or Interests being injuriously affected by reason of the Works by this Act authorized, regard shall be had to the Option by this Section given to such Lessees of taking Leases of the Land and Foreshore adjoining to their respective Properties at such Rent as aforesaid.

Crown Lessees to have Option of taking Lease of reclaimed Land adjacent to their Properties for Terms of their Leases.

Saving Rights of Crown under Conservancy Act.

79. Except as specially provided by this Act, all the Rights and Interests of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, under the Thames Conservancy Act, 1857, shall continue unaffected and in full Force.

Saving Rights of the Crown generally.

80. Nothing contained in this Act shall authorize the Board to take, use, or in any Manner interfere with any Land, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Rights, of whatsoever Nature, claimed by or belonging to or enjoyed or exercisable by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty in right of Her Crown, other than the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Rights below High-water Mark, for the Acquisition whereof express Provision is made by this Act, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them, on behalf of Her Majesty, first had and obtained for that Purpose (which Consent such Commissioners are hereby respectively authorized to give); neither shall anything in this Act contained divest, take away, prejudice, diminish, or alter any Right, Estate, Privilege, Power, or Authority vested in or enjoyed or exercisable by the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors.

Provision as to Land belonging to the Duchy of Lancaster.

81. A Valuation of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Rights and Interests whatsoever, vested in, belonging to, or enjoyed or exercisable by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of Her Duchy of Lancaster, which shall be required to be taken, used, or interfered with by the said Board for the Purposes of this Act, shall be made, and the Amount of such Valuation shall be paid by the said Board to the Receiver General of the Revenues of the said Duchy, or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, before the said Board shall commence any Works within the Manor or Precinct of the Savoy, or within any Lands vested in or belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her said Duchy; and the said Valuation shall be made by Two Arbitrators in manner following; that is to say, one such Arbitrator shall be appointed by the Board, and the other by the Chancellor for the Time being of the said Duchy, within One Month after the passing of this Act; and such Arbitrators shall, before they commence their Duty, appoint an Umpire in Writing; and if within Twenty-one Days after both Arbitrators have been appointed they shall omit or refuse to appoint an Umpire as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to appoint an Umpire, which Appointment shall be valid, whether the Arbitrators have then commenced their Duty or not; and if either Party shall neglect or refuse to appoint an Arbitrator as aforesaid, the Arbitrator appointed by the other Party shall act alone; and the Decision of such Arbitrators or Arbitrator or Umpire (as the Case may be) shall be final; and all the Costs and Expenses of the Valuation shall be borne and paid by the said Board; and the Amount of Valuation paid to the Receiver General shall be dealt with as Purchase Monies for Lands sold under the "Duchy of Lancaster Sales Act, 1855," and upon Payment thereof the Chancellor and Council may execute a Grant or Assurance to the Board of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Rights or Interests, in respect of which such Payment shall have been made, as provided in the Case of a Sale under that Act.

82. The Street Viaduct within the Precinct of the Savoy shall be constructed to the Satisfaction of the Surveyor in that Behalf of the Duchy of Lancaster, and so as not to interfere with the Chapel of Saint John the Baptist in the said Precinct, and as little as possible with the Yard of the said Chapel; and in constructing the said Viaduct the Board shall not, without the Consent in Writing of the Chancellor and Council for the Time being of the said Duchy on behalf of Her Majesty in right of Her said Duchy first had and obtained for that Purpose, which Consent the said Chancellor and Council are hereby authorized to give, enter upon, use, or take any more Ground than shall be actually requisite for the Construction thereof, and the Ground between the Pillars under the said Viaduct shall remain and be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of Her said Duchy; and nothing in this Act shall authorize the Board to take, use, or in any Manner interfere with any Land, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Rights, of whatsoever Nature, belonging to or enjoyed or exercisable by Her Majesty in right of Her Duchy of Lancaster, other than the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments or Rights for the Acquisition whereof Provision is made by the next immediately preceding Section of this Act, without the Consent in Writing of the Chancellor and Council for the Time being of the said Duchy, on behalf of Her Majesty, in right of Her said Duchy, first had and obtained for that Purpose (which Consent the said Chancellor and Council are hereby authorized to give); neither shall anything in this Act contained divest, take away, prejudice, diminish, or alter any Estate, Right, Title, Privilege, Power, or Authority vested in or enjoyed or exercisable by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in right of Her said Duchy.

Street Viaduct within Savoy Precinct to be constructed to Satisfaction of Duchy of Lancaster Surveyor, and saving Rights of Duchy of Lancaster.

83. The Viaduct in front of the Works and Premises of the City of London Gaslight and Coke Company shall be carried upon Two Arches, having each a Span of Seventy Feet at the least, and a Headway beneath the same of not less than Eight Feet above Trinity High-water Mark.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Polling Places in the Boroughs of New Shoreham, Cricklade, Aylesbury, and East Retford. [7th August 1862.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Session of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, intituled An Act to settle and describe the Divisions of Counties and the Limits of Cities and Boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, it is enacted that the Poll for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the several Boroughs of New Shoreham, Cricklade, Aylesbury, and East Retford should be taken at the Place or Places mentioned in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, in conjunction with the Names of such several Boroughs respectively; and that the Justices of the Peace for the respective Counties in which the Boroughs of New Shoreham, Cricklade, and East Retford are situated should, at the Quarter Sessions to be holden in the Month of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, divide the said Boroughs of

Polling Places (New Shoreham, &c.)

‘ New Shoreham, Cricklade, and East Retford into convenient Districts for polling, and should assign One of such Districts to every Polling Place for the said Boroughs of New Shoreham, Cricklade, and East Retford mentioned in the said Schedule to the said Act annexed: And whereas by Two Acts, the one of the Session of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and two, intituled An Act for rendering more easy the taking the Poll at County Elections, and the other of the Session of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-eight, intituled An Act to limit the Time for proceeding to Election in Counties and Boroughs in England and Wales, and for Polling at Elections for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and for other Purposes, Power is given to Her Majesty, on Petition of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, and upon such Notices being given as therein mentioned, to provide additional Polling Places for Counties or to substitute other Polling Places for Counties: And whereas it is expedient that Power should be given to the Justices of the respective Counties in which the said Boroughs of New Shoreham, Cricklade, Aylesbury, and East Retford are situate to provide additional Polling Places for such Boroughs, and to substitute other Polling Places for the existing Polling Places in such Boroughs: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

6 & 7 W. 4.
c. 102.

16 & 17 Vict.
c. 68.

c. 102. and
16 & 17 Vict.
c. 68. to apply
to Boroughs of New Shore-
ham, Cricklade,
Aylesbury, and
East Retford.

L. That for the Purposes of any Alteration in or Addition to the Polling Places or Polling Districts of the several Boroughs of New Shoreham, Cricklade, Aylesbury, and East Retford, each of such Boroughs shall be deemed to be a County separately returning a Member or Members of Parliament, and the Justices of the Quarter Sessions of the Counties or Divisions of Counties in which the said Boroughs are situate shall respectively, as regards each such Borough, be deemed to be the Justices of the County within the Meaning of the said Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and two, and of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-eight; and all the Provisions of the said Acts with respect to Alterations in or Additions to Polling Places in Counties shall extend to the said Boroughs accordingly.

C A P. XCVI.

An Act to render tenable during good Behaviour the Office of the Officer of the Court of Common Pleas by whom the Certificates of Acknowledgment of Deeds of married Women are filed of Record. [7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth intituled An Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries,

3 & 4 W. 4.
c. 74.

Court of Common Pleas (Officer for Acknowledgment of Deeds).

‘ and for the Substitution of more simple Modes of Assurance, the Officer of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, by whom the Certificates of Acknowledgments of Deeds by married Women are to be filed of Record according to the Directions contained in the said Act, may now be removed by the Lord Chief Justice for the Time being of the said Court of Common Pleas at his Pleasure, and it is expedient that such Officer should hold his Office and Appointment during good Behaviour :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same :

1. That such Officer and his Successors shall respectively from and after the passing of this Act hold such Office and Appointment during good Behaviour.

2. Provided always, That the said Officer and his Successors shall hold the said Office subject to any Regulations which may be hereafter made by Parliament concerning the same or the Duties thereof; and in the event of such Office being abolished, or of the Duties thereof being transferred or altered by any Act to be hereafter passed, or of any Alteration being made by competent Authority in the Fees, Emoluments, or Remuneration to be allowed to such Officer, the said Officer and his Successors shall not be entitled to make any Claim to Compensation which he or they would not have been entitled to make if this Act had not passed.

Officer to hold Office during good Behaviour;

and subject to any Regulations which may be hereafter made by Parliament.

Commence-
ment of Act.

3. The Enactments and Provisions of this Act with respect to the Appointment, Powers, and Duties of the Commissioners, and the Election, Powers, and Duties of District Boards, shall come into operation and take effect from and after the passing of this Act, and all the other Enactments and Provisions of this Act shall come into operation and take effect from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

Each River and Estuary, and the Seacoasts adjoining, to be a District.

4. Each River in Scotland flowing into the Sea, and every tributary Stream or Lake flowing into or connected with such River, and the Mouth or Estuary of such River, and the Seacoasts adjoining thereto, divided into such Portions as may be fixed and defined by the Commissioners under the Authority of this Act, shall form a District for the Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners to be appointed by Secretary of State.

5. It shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to appoint Three Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, who shall be paid at such Rate, not exceeding Three Pounds per Day each, as the Commissioners of the Treasury may direct, the whole Amount to be received by each Commissioner not exceeding Three hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, over and above such Travelling Expenses as the Commissioners of the Treasury may sanction : Provided that the Duration of the Office of such Commissioners shall in no Case extend beyond Three Years :

Salmon Fisheries (Scotland).

6. The Commissioners shall have the Powers and perform the Duties hereinafter specified; that is to say, Duties of Commissioners.

- (1.) To fix and define, for the Purposes of this Act and the other Acts relating to Salmon and Salmon Fisheries in Scotland, the natural Limits which divide each River in Scotland (including the Estuary thereof) from the Sea, in so far as the same may not be already fixed by Statute or by judicial Decision :
- (2.) To fix, for the Purposes of this Act, the Limits of the Solway Firth, having regard to an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Forty-five :
- (3.) To fix, for the Purposes of this Act, the Limits of every District, and the Portions of the Seacoast adjoining to the Mouth or Estuary of any River to be included in such District :
- (4.) To fix, for the Purposes of this Act, a Point on each River (including the Estuary thereof) below which the Proprietors of Fisheries shall be Lower Proprietors, and above which the Proprietors of Fisheries shall be Upper Proprietors :
- (5.) To determine, subject to the Provisions of this Act, at what Dates the Annual Close Time for every District shall commence and terminate, and at what Periods subsequent to the Commencement and prior to the Termination of the Annual Close Time it shall be lawful to fish for and take Salmon with the Rod and Line : Provided that the Number of Days during which such Annual Close Time shall continue shall be the same as regards every District :
- (6.) To make general Regulations with respect to the following Matters ; viz.,

The due Observance of the Weekly Close Time :

The Construction and Use of Cruives :

The Construction and Alteration of Mill Dams, or Lades, or Water Wheels, so as to afford a reasonable Means for the Passage of Salmon :

The Meshes of Nets (so that they shall not intercept Smolts or Salmon Fry) :

Obstructions in Rivers or Estuaries to the Passage of Salmon :

Provided that such Regulations shall not interfere with any Rights held at the Time of the passing of this Act under Royal Grant or Charter, or possessed for Time immemorial.

7. The Annual Close Time for every District shall continue for One hundred and sixty-eight Days ; and the Weekly Close Time, except for Rod and Line, shall continue from the Hour of Six of the Clock on Saturday Night to the Hour of Six of the Clock on Monday Morning ; but the Commissioners shall have Power, on the Application of the District Board, or of any Two Proprietors of Fisheries in any District, to vary the Period at which Annual and Weekly Close Time.

which the Weekly Close Time shall commence in any District or any Part thereof, in so far as they may think reasonable or expedient : Provided that such Weekly Close Time shall in no Case be less than Thirty-six Hours.

Application of Annual Close Time.

8. The Annual Close Time shall be applicable to every Mode of fishing for or taking Salmon in any River, Lake, or Estuary, or in the Sea, except by means of the Rod and Line for the Periods in each District to be fixed by the Commissioners subsequent to the Commencement and prior to the Termination of the Annual Close Time during which it shall be lawful to fish for and take Salmon by means of the Rod and Line.

Present Annual Close Times to subsist until altered under this Act.

9. In regard to any River and Estuary which are regulated by any Local Act relating thereto the Annual Close Time fixed by such Act, and in regard to all other Rivers, Estuaries, and Seacoasts in Scotland the Annual Close Time fixed by the Public General Act Ninth George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-nine, shall respectively be applicable until the Annual Close Time with respect to any such River, Estuary, or Seacoast shall be otherwise determined by any Byelaw made by the Commissioners under the Authority of this Act.

Fishing illegal where prohibited by existing Acts.

10. It shall not be lawful to fish for or take Salmon at any Place or by any Mode prohibited by any Statute relating to Salmon or Salmon Fisheries in Scotland subsisting and in force at the Date of the passing of this Act ; and nothing contained in this Act or in any Byelaw made by the Commissioners shall render legal any Mode of fishing which was or would have been illegal at the Date of the passing of this Act.

Penalties for Offences.

11. Every Person who commits any of the following Offences shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and to a further Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds for every Salmon taken or killed contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or of any Byelaw made by the Commissioners under the Authority of this Act ; and shall, in addition to such Penalties, at the Discretion of the Magistrate, forfeit every Boat, Net, Rod, Line, or other Article which has been or may be used in fishing for or taking Salmon, and which is found in the Possession of such Person at the Time of the committing such Offence ; that is to say,

Every Person who fishes for or takes Salmon during the Annual Close Time by any Means other than the Rod and Line :

Every Person who fishes for or takes Salmon, except during Saturday or Monday, by Rod and Line, during the Weekly Close Time, or acts in breach or contravention of any Byelaw made by the Commissioners in regard thereto :

Every Person who fishes for or takes Salmon during the Annual Close Time by means of the Rod and Line at a Period not sanctioned by the Commissioners :

Every Person who fishes for Salmon with a Net having a Mesh contrary to any Byelaw of the Commissioners :

Every Person who obstructs or impedes the Passage of Salmon contrary to any Byelaw of the Commissioners :

Salmon Fisheries (Scotland).

Every Person who sells or exposes for Sale fresh Salmon taken within the Limits of this Act during the Period between the Commencement of the latest and the Termination of the earliest Annual Close Time which may have been fixed for any District ; but the Burden of proving that Salmon so sold or exposed by any Person for Sale have been caught beyond the Limits of this Act shall lie on the Person selling or exposing the same for Sale :

Every Person who takes or has in his Possession any foul or unseasonable Salmon :

Every Person who uses or has in his Possession any Light for the Purpose and with the Intention of taking Salmon :

Every Person who sets a Net or any other Engine for Capture of Salmon when the Fish show themselves when leaping at or trying to ascend any Fall or other Impediment :

Every Person who wilfully takes or destroys or injures or obstructs the Passage of the Young of Salmon, or disturbs any Spawning Bed, or any Bank or Shallow on which the Spawn of Salmon may be deposited ; but this Provision shall not apply to Acts done for the Purpose of the artificial Propagation of Salmon or for other scientific Purposes, or in the course of the Exercise of Rights of Property in the Bed of any Stream : Provided also, that the District Board may, with the Consent of all the Proprietors of Salmon Fisheries in any River or Estuary, adopt such Means as they think fit for preventing the Ingress of Salmon into narrow Streams or Tributaries in which they or the Spawning Beds are, from the Nature of the Channel, liable to be destroyed, but always so that no Water Rights used or enjoyed for the Purposes of Manufactures or Agricultural Purposes or Drainage shall be interfered with thereby.

12. Every Person who uses Salmon Roe for the Purpose of fishing, or has in his Possession any Salmon Roe for Sale or for the Purpose of fishing, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds, and shall forfeit any Salmon Roe found in his Possession.

Penalty for using or possessing Salmon Roe.

13. Every Person who causes or knowingly permits to flow, or puts or knowingly permits to be put, into any River containing Salmon, any liquid or solid Matter poisonous or deleterious to Salmon, or who shall discharge into any River Sawdust to an Extent injurious to any Salmon Fishery, shall be liable to the following Penalties ; (that is to say,)

Penalty for causing or allowing poisonous Substances to flow into Rivers.

For the First Offence a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds :

For the Second Offence a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, and a further Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds for every Day during which such Offence is continued :

For the Third or any subsequent Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and a further Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Offence is continued :

But no Person shall be subject to the foregoing Penalties for any Act done in the Exercise of any Right to which he is by Law entitled, if he prove to the Satisfaction of the Court before whom he is tried that he has used the best practicable Means, within a reasonable Cost, to dispose of or render harmless the liquid or solid Matter so permitted to flow or to be put into Waters; but nothing herein contained shall prevent any Person from acquiring a legal Right in Cases where he would have acquired it if this Act had not passed, or exempt any Person from any Punishment to which he would otherwise be subject, or legalize any Act or Default that would but for this Act be contrary to Law.

Salmon Fisheries (Scotland).

Commissioners to visit and report on Rivers and Estuaries.

14. The Commissioners shall visit and report on the several Rivers and Estuaries and Salmon Fisheries in Scotland, after Notice duly given by special Advertisement in some Newspaper of general Circulation in the District, not less than Ten Days before any such Visitation, to the Proprietors of Salmon Fishings on each of such Rivers or Estuaries, of their Intention so to visit and report.

Commissioners to make Byelaws on Matters specified in Third and Fourth Subdivisions of Sixth Section of this Act.

15. The Commissioners shall, on or before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, fix and determine by Byelaws the Matters specified in the Third and Fourth Subdivisions of the Sixth Section of this Act; and a Copy of such Byelaws applicable to each District shall be, prior to the said Date, transmitted by Post to the Sheriff Clerk of each County, in so far as the same may relate to a District or Part of a District situate therein; and the Sheriff Clerk shall, on Receipt of such Copy, give Notice of such Byelaws by Advertisement inserted once for each of Two successive Weeks in some Newspaper published in such County, or, if no Newspaper be published therein, in some Newspaper published in a County adjoining thereto; and every Person whose Interests may be affected by any such Byelaws may state to the Secretary of State any Objections to any such Byelaw; and the Secretary of State shall, after One Month after the Date of such Byelaws, approve or alter or disapprove of the same; and every such Byelaw, when approved of or altered by the Secretary of State, shall be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and in such further Mode as the Secretary of State may direct, and on being so published shall be legal and binding on all concerned: Provided that in the Case of such Districts in which by reason of their inconsiderable Size it may seem to the Commissioners unnecessary to determine such Matters, they may defer doing so until required by more than Six Proprietors of Fisheries within the same, after the Limits of such District have been defined, as herein-after provided, and shall proceed, in other respects, as above provided.

Commissioners to make Byelaws on the other Matters specified in Sixth Section.

16. The Commissioners shall, on or before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, determine the other Matters specified in the Sixth Section of this Act, by Byelaws under their Hands, or the Hand of any Two of them, and shall report the same to the Secretary of State; provided that previously to making such Byelaws they shall communicate the same to the District Board, and afford the Board reasonable Opportunity of making any Representation to the Commissioners respecting the same; and a Copy of such Byelaws shall be transmitted to the Sheriff Clerk of each County, in so far as the same may relate to any District situated therein; and the Sheriff Clerk shall, on the Receipt of such Copy, give Notice of such Byelaws by Advertisement inserted once for each of Two successive Weeks in some Newspaper published in such County, or, if no Newspaper be published therein, in some Newspaper published in a County adjoining thereto; and every Person whose Interests may be affected by any such Byelaws may state to the Secretary of State any Objections to any such Byelaw; and the Secretary of State shall, after Two Months and within Four Months after the Date of such Byelaws, approve or alter or disapprove of the same; and every such Byelaw, when approved of or altered by the Secretary of State, shall be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and in such further Mode as the Secretary of State may direct, and on being so published shall be legal and binding on all concerned.

17. The Commissioners, in execution of this Act, shall take such Evidence as they may find to be necessary, and in the event of Witnesses refusing to attend and give Evidence, or to allow Access to Documents, they may apply to the Sheriff of the County for a Warrant to cite Witnesses and Havers, and the Sheriff is hereby authorized to grant the same.

As to Evidence to be taken by Commissioners.

18. Within Three Months after any Byelaw constituting the District shall have been published the Sheriff shall direct the Sheriff Clerk to make up a Roll of the Upper Proprietors and also a Roll of the Lower Proprietors in each District; and the Qualification of an Upper Proprietor shall be the Property of a Fishery entered in the Valuation Roll as of the yearly Rent or yearly Value of Twenty Pounds or upwards, or, if such Fishery be not valued on the Valuation Roll, of Half a Mile of Frntage to the River, with a Right of Salmon Fishing, and the Qualification of a Lower Proprietor shall be the Property of a Fishery entered in the Valuation Roll as of the yearly Rent or yearly Value of Twenty Pounds or upwards; and the Sheriff shall have Power to decide summarily any Question arising on any Claim to such Qualification; and the Sheriff shall thereafter direct the Sheriff Clerk to call a Meeting of the Upper Proprietors, and also a Meeting of the Lower Proprietors, at such Times and Places as he shall direct; and Notice of such Meeting shall be given as herein-before provided with respect to the Publication of Byelaws made by the Commissioners; and the Upper Proprietors and Lower Proprietors present at such separate Meetings respectively shall elect not more than Three of their Number to be Members of the District Board, every Proprietor of a Fishery valued at more than Five hundred Pounds on the Valuation Roll having Two Votes at such Election, and an additional Vote for every Five hundred Pounds of Rental, but not more than Four Votes in all; and the Members so elected with the Proprietor having the largest Amount entered in the Valuation Roll as the yearly Rent or yearly Value of Fisheries in such District shall constitute the District Board; and the last-mentioned Proprietor shall be the Chairman of the Board, and have a deliberative as well as a casting Vote ; and the Election of such Board shall be notified by the Chairman of such respective Meetings to the Sheriff Clerk within Seven Days from the Date of the same, and the Sheriff shall thereafter summon the First Meeting of such Board for such Day and such Place as he may fix : Provided always, that if any River be situate in Two or more Counties, the Notices above provided shall be given and such Meetings shall be called in such Manner as the Sheriffs of such Counties jointly shall direct.

Constitution of the Board where Proprietors are less in Number than Three.
Their Votes.

19. If in any District the Upper Proprietors or the Lower Proprietors shall be fewer in Number than Three, the Board shall consist of an equal Number, elected as aforesaid, along with the Proprietor having the largest Valuation, who shall also be Chairman of the Board, as above provided ; and if such last-mentioned Proprietor be the sole Upper or the sole Lower Proprietor, he shall have Two Votes on the Board ; and if there shall be only One Proprietor in any District such Proprietor shall have and may exercise all the Powers by this Act conferred on the District Board.

Mandatorys may be appointed.

20. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or either of them, in Cases where Her Majesty in right of Her Crown is Proprietor of any Fishery, and for any Corporation or Company, being the Proprietors of any Fishery, or for any Proprietor of a Fishery, respectively, from Time to Time to nominate and appoint, by any Writing under his or their Hand or Seal, any Person as the Mandatory of such Commissioners, Corporation, Company, or Proprietor to attend, act, and vote at any Meeting of Proprietors under this Act ; and every such Nomination and Appointment shall subsist until recalled by the said Commissioners or either of them, or by the Corporation or Company or Proprietor making the same.

Payment to Sheriff Clerk in connexion with Elections.

21. All Expenses incurred by the Sheriff Clerk in making up the Roll of Proprietors, and in calling and attending the Meetings for the Election of the District Board, with such reasonable Remuneration for his Time and Trouble as shall be fixed by the Sheriff, shall be paid to the Sheriff Clerk by the District Board out of the Assessments to be levied under the Authority of this Act.

Powers and Duties of District Boards.

22. The District Board may sue or be sued in the Name of their Clerk, and if there be more than Six Members Three Members shall form a Quorum, and if there be fewer than Six Members Two shall form a Quorum, and they shall keep regular Books and Accounts, and shall hold their First Meeting within Ten Days after the First Election under this Act at a Time and Place to be fixed at the Meetings of Proprietors at which such Election took place, or in Cases where such Election is not necessary the First Meeting shall take place at a Time to be fixed by a Majority of the Proprietors, and Notice of such Meeting shall be given as herein-before provided with respect to the Publication of Byelaws to be made by the Commissioners ; and the District Board shall have Power, subject to the Provisions of this Act and the Byelaws made by the Commissioners, to make and alter from

Salmon Fisheries (Scotland).

Time to Time Regulations for the Preservation of the Fisheries in the District, and from Time to Time to appoint a Clerk and such Number of Constables, Water Bailiffs, Watchers, and other Officers as they think fit, to fix and prescribe the Duties of all Persons appointed by them, and to remove such Persons, and appoint other Persons in their Stead; and they may combine with any other District Board for the Purpose of this Act, and to maintain a common Staff of Officers for the Protection and Preservation of the Fisheries of more than One District, and may agree with the Police Committee of any County for the Purpose of paying additional Constables for the better Protection of the Fisheries in their District: Provided that all such Regulations shall, before taking effect, be reported to and approved by the Secretary of State, and shall not interfere with any vested Right of Property, and shall not authorize any Encroachment or Trespas on private Property.

23. The District Board shall have Power to impose an Assessment for the Purposes of this Act, to be called the Fishery Assessment, on the several Fisheries in each District, according to the yearly Rent or yearly Value of such Fisheries as entered in the Valuation Roll; and every Proprietor of a Fishery which is not valued on the Valuation Roll, and who shall claim Right to vote in the Election of Members of the District Board, shall be held to be a Proprietor of a Fishery of the Value of Twenty Pounds, and shall be assessed accordingly; and such Fishery Assessments may be imposed, collected, and recovered by the District Board in the same Manner as Police Assessments may be imposed, collected, and recovered by the Commissioners of Supply under the Authority of the Public General Act, Twentieth and Twenty-first Victoria, Chapter Seventy-two; and for the Purpose of imposing, collecting, and recovering such Fishery Assessments the District Boards shall have and may exercise all the Powers conferred by the said Act on Commissioners of Supply for imposing, collecting, and recovering the Assessments leviable under the same.

Assessments may be imposed by District Boards.

24. Each District Board shall continue in Office for Three Years, and Members thereof shall be eligible for Re-election, and Vacancies occurring during such Period shall be filled up by the Board until the next Meeting of Proprietors, who shall then fill up the same; and Meetings of the Upper and Lower Proprietors respectively for the Purpose of each triennial Election of not more than Three Upper Proprietors and Three Lower Proprietors respectively shall be called by the Clerk, who shall give Notice of such Meetings by Advertisement as herein-before provided with respect to the Publication of Byelaws made by the Commissioners; and such Meetings shall at the same Time take such Steps as they shall think proper for auditing and attesting the Accounts of the District Board for the preceding Three Years.

As to future Elections of District Boards.

25. It shall be lawful for the District Board, by any Byelaw or Regulation to be made by them and approved of by the Secretary of State as herein-before provided, to enact that any Person committing

C A P. XCIX.

An Act to amend the Bankruptcy Act (1861).

[7th August 1862.]

‘ WHEREAS by the First Section of an Act of the Session of ‘ the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William
 ‘ the Fourth, Chapter Forty-two, intituled An Act to authorize
 ‘ the granting of Superannuation Allowances to the Commis- ‘ sioners and Officers of the Courts for the Relief of Insolvent
 ‘ Debtors, Power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s ‘ Treasury to grant to any of the Officers of the Court for the ‘ Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England who shall be, from Age ‘ or Infirmity of Mind or Body, incapable of discharging the ‘ Duties of his Office, or whose Office shall cease or be abolished
 ‘ by Law, a Superannuation Allowance, in the same Manner and ‘ upon the same Conditions as it would be granted under the ‘ Provisions of the Act of the Session of the Fourth and Fifth ‘ Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter
 ‘ Twenty-four: And whereas by “The Superannuation Act, ‘ 1859,” it is provided that the said First Section of the said ‘ Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William
 ‘ the Fourth shall be construed as if the said Superannuation ‘ Act of 1859 were referred to in the said Section instead of the ‘ said Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of King ‘ William the Fourth: And whereas at and previously to the ‘ Date of the passing of “The Bankruptcy Act, 1861,” the Per‘ sons named in the Schedule hereto were holding Offices in the ‘ said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, and ‘ such Persons, together with other Officers of the said Court, ‘ were by the said Act transferred to the London Court of ‘ Bankruptcy: And whereas it is expedient that the said Bank‘ ruptcy Act, 1861, should be amended so far as relates to the ‘ Transfer of the Officers named in the said Schedule, and that ‘ their Offices should be forthwith abolished, and the Holders

 ‘ of such Offices become entitled to Superannuation Allowance
 ‘ accordingly:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent
 Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords
 Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Abolition of Offices of Persons named in Schedules.

1. The Offices of the several Persons named in the First and Second Schedules hereto shall be abolished from and after the respective Times herein specified; that is to say, those in the First Schedule from and after the passing of this Act, and those in the Second Schedule from and after such Time or Times as may be fixed by any General Order or Orders of the Lord Chancellor in that Behalf made; and the Holders of such Offices respectively shall thereupon become entitled to Superannuation or Compensation Allowance accordingly; provided that no new Officers or Persons shall be appointed for the temporary Discharge of the Duties of such several Persons respectively in the First Schedule mentioned, but, in case of Need, such Duties shall continue to be discharged by such several Persons respectively hitherto discharging the same, at the Rate of Remuneration heretofore received by them respectively; and during such Time they shall not receive any Superannuation or other Allowance or Compensation as for abolished Offices.

Grant of additional Allowance to Persons named in First Schedule.

2. Where the Amount of Remuneration in Salary or Fees, or both in Salary and Fees, received by any of the Persons named in the said First Schedule on account of any Offices held by them during the Period intervening between the Date of their being transferred in manner aforesaid to the Bankruptcy Court and the Date of the passing of this Act, is less than the Amount that they would have received in respect of Superannuation or Compensation Allowance if their Offices had been abolished at the Date of such Transfer, the Commissioners of the Treasury shall, out of Monies to be provided by Parliament for that Purpose, make up the Deficiency between the Amount actually received by them and the Amount they would have received if their Offices had been abolished in respect of such Superannuation Allowance as aforesaid.

Calculation of Superannua-
 tion Allowance.

3. For the Purpose of calculating the Amount of Superannuation Allowance due to each of the Persons named in the said Schedules, the annual Emolument of such Person shall be deemed to have been the Sums set opposite his Name in the Second and Third Columns of the said Schedules, and such further Sums, if any, as the Commissioners of the Treasury may, if they think fit, add in respect of Lodging or other Allowances enjoyed by such Person at the Public Expense.

Bankruptcy Act (1861) Amendment.

4. 'Whereas the said Bankruptcy Act, 1861, repeals the Eighteenth Section of the Act of the Session of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and two, by which Section it was provided that no Judge of any County Court who had previously to the passing of the last-mentioned Act been or might thereafter be appointed to that Office under the Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, should during his Continuance in such Office be capable of being elected or of sitting as a Member of the House of Commons: And whereas it is expedient that the Prohibition contained in such repealed Section should be renewed: Be it enacted, That no Person who has been or may hereafter be appointed a Judge of any County Court by virtue of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, shall during his Continuance in the Office of Judge be capable of being elected or of sitting as a Member of the House of Commons.

An Act to authorize Improvement Commissioners acting as Burial Boards to mortgage certain Rates for the Purposes of the Burial Acts. [7th August 1862.]

c. 64.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty (Chapter Sixty-four), to make further Provision for the Expenses of Local Boards of Health and Improvement Commissioners acting as Burial Boards, it was enacted, that any Money required by any Commissioners elected by the Ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the Powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the Improvement of any Town, Parish, or Borough, who should have been constituted a Burial Board for defraying the Expense of carrying into execution the Powers and Provisions of the Burial Acts in the District for which they may have been so constituted a Burial Board, or for paying any Monies borrowed or Annuities granted under the Authority of the said Acts, or any Interest on Monies borrowed, or for providing a Sinking Fund for the Repayment of such Monies, might, if the Commissioners thought fit, be paid out of the Improvement Rate leviable within such District; and the Commissioners, as such Burial Board, might levy as Part of the Improvement Rate, or by a separate Rate under the Name and Designation of a Burial Rate, to be assessed and recovered in like Manner as an Improvement Rate, such Sums of Money as should be from Time to Time necessary for the Purposes aforesaid or any of them: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether under such Provisions the Improvement Rate or Burial Rate can be legally mortgaged or assigned as a Security for the Payment of the Sums referred to in the said Act, and it is expedient that the Commissioners acting as such Burial Board should have the Power of mortgaging the said Rates:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

1. Any Commissioners elected by the Ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the Powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the Improvement of any Town, Parish, or Borough, who shall have been constituted a Burial Board for any District, may, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time borrow at Interest on Mortgage of the Improvement Rate and Burial Rate, or either of them, leviable within the District, such Sums of Money as may be required by the Burial Board for the Purposes of the Burial Act within the District.

Commissioners, with Consent of Treasury, may mortgage Improvement Rate and Burial Rate, or either.

2. The Clauses and Provisions of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall be applicable to all Mortgages created under the Provisions thereof.

Certain Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. to apply to this Act.

out, define, and specify, in a written Deliverance, on such Application, the Boundaries of such Burgh, for the Purposes of this Act, and such Deliverance unless appealed against as herein-after provided shall be final, and when recorded, along with the Application on which it proceeds, in the Sheriff Court Books of such County, shall fix and determine the Boundaries of such Burgh for the Purposes of this Act; and whenever the Boundaries of such Burgh as so ascertained for the Purposes of this Act shall include a Portion of a different County than that in which the original Bounds of such Burgh are situated, such Portion shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be held to be within and to form Part of the County in which such original Bounds are situated as aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Landowner or Householder who considers himself aggrieved by the Deliverance of the Sheriff to appeal within Fourteen Days from the Date thereof from the said Deliverance of the Sheriff to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State by a written Appeal setting forth the Grounds on which he disputes the Sheriff's Deliverance, and it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State upon such Appeal to direct Inquiry into the Circumstances of the Case, and to issue such Order thereupon as he may deem requisite to determine the Boundaries of such Burgh, and such Order shall be final, and when recorded along with the Appeal on which it proceeds in the Sheriff Court Books of such County shall fix and determine the Boundaries of such Burgh for the Purposes of this Act.

7. The Boundaries of any populous Place shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be fixed by the Sheriff, on the Application of any Seven or more Householders in such populous Place; and after such Publication by Advertisement and otherwise as the Sheriff may direct, the Sheriff shall appoint and direct a proper Person to make out and furnish, within Fourteen Days thereafter, a Return showing to the best of his Knowledge and Belief the Amount of the Population within such populous Place, and thereafter, and after such further Investigation (if any,) as the Sheriff may deem necessary or proper, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff and he is hereby required to mark out, define, and specify in a written Deliverance on such Application the Boundaries of such populous Place, and to declare that such Place is a populous Place in Terms of this Act; and such Deliverance unless appealed against in manner herein provided shall be final, and when recorded along with the Application on which it proceeds in the Sheriff Court Books of the County shall fix and determine the Boundaries of such populous Place for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Landowner or Householder who considers himself aggrieved by the Deliverance of the Sheriff to appeal from such Deliverance to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in manner as is above provided in regard to the Boundaries of other Burghs, whose Order shall in that Case be final, and when recorded in manner foresaid shall fix and determine the Boundaries of such populous Place for the Purposes of this Act,

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

If not adopted within a Year, Boundaries to be held to be unascertained.

8. If at the Expiration of One Year from the Date of such Deliverance, in regard to any such Burgh or populous Place, this Act shall not have been adopted by such Burgh or populous Place, in whole or in part, the Boundaries of such Burgh or populous Place shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be held and taken to be still unascertained.

Power to rectify Errors committed by Sheriffs in defining Boundaries.

9. In the event of any Error having been committed by any Sheriff in defining the Boundaries of any Burgh or populous Place, under the Powers hereby or by the said recited Acts hereby repealed conferred, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to bring the Matter under the Consideration of the Sheriff, who shall have Power to rectify any such Error, and whose Judgment thereon shall be final, and the Boundaries as so rectified shall, in regard to all future Acts, Payments, and Liabilities, be held to be the Boundaries originally assigned by the Sheriff under the said Acts hereby repealed and this Act: Provided always, that any Acts done or Payments made prior to such Rectification shall be nowise affected thereby, but the same, in so far as done or made bonâ fide, shall, notwithstanding such Error, be as valid, final, and free from Challenge as if such Error had not been committed.

Commissioners of Burghs, other than Royal and Parliamentary Burghs, may apply to Sheriff for Revision of Boundaries.

10. Upon the Application of the Commissioners of any Burgh, other than a Royal or Parliamentary Burgh, and after such Publication and Investigation as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff and he is hereby required, from Time to Time as Occasion shall require and he shall deem necessary, to revise and extend the Boundaries of such Burgh; and the Sheriff shall and he is hereby required to mark out, define, and specify, in a written Deliverance on such Application, the revised and extended Boundaries of such Burgh, for the Purposes of this Act, and such Deliverance unless appealed against in manner herein provided shall be final, and when recorded, along with the Application on which it proceeds, in the Sheriff Court Books of the County, shall fix and determine the Boundaries of such Burgh for the Purposes of this Act in all Time thereafter, or until again revised and extended as hereby allowed: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Landowner or Householder who considers himself aggrieved by any Deliverance of the Sheriff to appeal from such Deliverance to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in manner herein-above provided, whose Order shall in that Case be final, and when recorded in manner foresaid shall fix and determine the Boundaries of such Burgh for the Purposes of this Act.

Boundaries of Royal Burghs may be extended.

11. Where any Royal Burgh which has adopted this Act, in whole or in part, by a Resolution of the Magistrates and Council thereof, as herein-after provided for, is within or is in any Part within the Parliamentary Boundaries of such Burgh, the Magistrates and Council of such Royal Burgh may, by a Resolution of the Magistrates and Council assembled at a Meeting to be held for that Purpose, authorize and direct a Petition to be presented to the Sheriff of the County in which such Royal Burgh is situated, praying him to extend the Boundaries of such Royal Burgh to the Parliamentary Boundaries of such Burgh or to any Part thereof; but no such Resolution shall be valid unless a Month's previous Notice of the Meeting and the Purpose thereof has been given in the Manner in which Notices of Meetings of the Magistrates and Council are usually given, nor unless Two Thirds of the Members present at the Meeting concur in the Resolution.

PART I.
Adoption of the Act.
Sect. 1.

12. The Sheriff shall, after the Presentation of the said Petition, order Intimation thereof to be given by public Advertisement, in such Manner as he shall think proper; and it shall be competent for any Seven or more Householders who are beyond the Limits of such Royal Burgh, and within such Parliamentary Boundaries, to appear and object to the Prayer of the Petition; and the Sheriff shall have Power, in a summary Way, to dispose of such Objections, after such Inquiry as to him shall seem meet; and the Judgment of the Sheriff granting the Prayer of such Petition, or sustaining the Objections to the same, shall be final and conclusive.

Householders
beyond existing Boundaries
of such Royal Burghs may oppose Extension.

13. If the Sheriff shall grant the Prayer of the Petition, he shall issue a Deliverance to that Effect on the Petition, and such Deliverance shall be final, and when recorded along with the Petition in the Sheriff Court Books of the County, the Parliamentary Boundaries aforesaid shall thereafter be the Boundaries of the Royal Burgh for all Municipal Purposes, and all Matters connected with Police, including the Right of voting for Town Councillors.

Sheriff's Deliverance to be final.

14. If the Magistrates and Council of such Royal Burgh shall have resolved not to apply to the Sheriff, as above provided for, the Magistrates and Council may, as often as they shall think proper thereafter, but not sooner than One Year from the Date of the preceding Meeting, by such and the like Proceedings, resolve to apply to the Sheriff to extend the Boundaries as aforesaid; but in the event of the Sheriff having sustained the Objections to the Petition, which may have been presented to him in virtue of any Resolution to that Effect in Terms of this Act, it shall not be lawful to resolve to present another Petition for the Purpose of extending such Boundaries until after the Expiration of Two Years from and after the Date of the Rejection of the last Petition.

Application for Extension of Boundaries may be renewed.

PART I.SECTION II.—Adoption of Act by Magistrates and Councils or Commissioners or Trustees of Police.

15. This Act may be adopted either in whole or in part; (that is to say,) in Parts, Sections, or Clauses,—

Parties who may adopt this Act.

(1.) In Royal or Parliamentary Burghs, where there is no Board of Commissioners or Trustees of Police, under the Provisions of any General or Local Act of Parliament, other than the Magistrates and Council of such Burghs, by a Resolution of the Magistrates and Council of such Royal or Parliamentary Burghs, at a Meeting held for the Purpose:

PART. I.
Adoption of the Act.
SECT. 2.

- (2.) In Royal or Parliamentary Burghs where there is such a Board of Commissioners or Trustees as aforesaid, by a Resolution of the said Commissioners or Trustees at a Meeting held for the Purpose :
- (3.) In Burghs, not being Royal or Parliamentary Burghs, which have adopted, in whole or in part, the Provisions of the said Act Thirteenth and Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter Thirty-three, or which have Commissioners or Trustees of Police, under the Provisions of any Local Act of Parliament, by a special Order, as herein-after defined, of the Commissioners or Trustees of Police acting in and for such Burghs respectively :

But no such Resolution passed by any Magistrates and Council, or Commissioners or Trustees of Police, shall be valid, unless a Month's previous Notice of the Meeting, and of the Purpose thereof, has been given in the Manner in which Notices of Meetings of such Magistrates and Council or Commissioners or Trustees of Police respectively are usually given, nor unless Two Thirds of the Members present at the Meeting concur in the Resolution for such Adoption : Provided always, that such Adoption in part of this Act shall not affect any Interests which shall have been specially regulated by any such Local Act.

16. Where this Act is adopted in whole or in part, as above provided for, this Act, so far as adopted, shall apply as follows ; viz.

If adopted by the Magistrates and Council of any Royal Burgh, to the whole Limits of such Royal Burgh, and to any additional Territory over which they as Commissioners of Police possess Jurisdiction, unless it shall be resolved in adopting the Act that its Operation shall be limited to such Portion of the Burgh as is comprehended within the Parliamentary Boundaries :

If adopted by the Magistrates and Council of any Parliamentary Burgh, to the whole Limits of such Burgh :

If adopted by the Commissioners or Trustees of Police of or in any Burgh, to the whole Territory over which such Commissioners or Trustees possess Jurisdiction, as the same is established by any General or Local Act, or otherwise fixed by Law, which Commissioners or Trustees shall not levy Assessments nor in any way exercise Jurisdiction beyond the Limits of such Territory, and in such Case the Word "Burgh" in this Act shall apply only to such Territory, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

17. If the said Magistrates and Council or Commissioners or Trustees of Police shall have resolved not to adopt the Provisions of this Act, or having adopted it, in whole or in part, shall have limited its Operation to the Area within the Parliamentary Boundaries, the Magistrates and Council or the Commissioners or Trustees may, as often as they shall think proper thereafter, but not sooner than One Year from the Date of the preceding Meeting, by such and the like Proceedings again take this Act into consideration, and adopt the same, in whole or in part, or determine not to adopt the same, or determine to extend its Operation to the whole Area within the Parliamentary Boundaries thereof; and if at any Time Part of this Act shall have been adopted, it shall be lawful at any Time, by such and the like Proceedings, to adopt such Part thereof as may not have been formerly adopted.

18. If the said Magistrates and Council or Commissioners or Trustees of Police adopt this Act in whole, any General or Local Police Act in operation within such Burgh shall be repealed, excepting in so far as it may relate to Matters not provided for in this Act; and if they resolve to adopt this Act in part, such Resolution shall specify the Parts, Sections, or Clauses so adopted; and no Part of this Act which is not so specified shall be held to be adopted, except as much thereof as is requisite for giving due Effect to, or as in any way modifies, affects, or controls, the Parts, Sections, or Clauses so adopted, to which Extent this Act shall be held to be as effective as if the whole had been adopted according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and any such General or Local Act in operation within such Burgh shall remain in force in so far as not inconsistent with the Parts, Sections, or Clauses so adopted.

19. Where any Burgh, other than those above provided for, has adopted in part the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful to the Commissioners appointed and acting under this Act in any such Burgh at any Time to adopt such Part of this Act as may not have been formerly adopted by a Resolution of the said Commissioners assembled at a Meeting to be held for that Purpose; but no such Resolution shall be valid unless a Month's previous Notice of the Meeting and the Purpose thereof has been given in the Manner in which Notices of Meetings of the said Commissioners are usually given, nor unless Two Thirds of the Members present at the Meeting concur in the Resolution.

20. All such Resolutions in reference to the Adoption of this Act, in whole or part, as above provided for, shall forthwith be reported to the Sheriff, and he shall, within Forty-eight Hours after the Receipt thereof, pronounce a Deliverance thereon, finding and declaring, as the Case may be, either that this Act has not been adopted, or that the Powers or Provisions thereof (in so far as such Resolution shall show this to have been the Case) have been adopted, and that this Act shall apply to such Burgh as aforesaid in manner therein set forth, and shall forthwith cause such Resolution and Deliverance to be recorded in the Sheriff Court Books of the County and in the Books of the Burgh to which they specially apply; and such Deliverance by the Sheriff shall be final.

21. When this Act shall be adopted, in whole or in part, in any Burgh which had previously adopted, in whole or in part, the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Acts hereby repealed, or in any Burgh which had previously possessed a Local Act or Acts, all Bonds, Contracts, Covenants, Agreements, and Securities made and entered into, and Obligations incurred, and all Assessments imposed or to be imposed under and by virtue of such recited Acts or of such Local Act or Acts, in so far as regards anything done under such Acts or any of them previous to the Adoption of this Act, shall remain in full Force and Effect, and shall continue available and binding on all concerned ; and nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the Debts, Rights, or Claims of any Creditor, or any special Interest provided for, under such recited Acts or under such Local Act or Acts ; and the Officers appointed under and employed in the Execution of such Acts shall continue to exercise their Offices until they are respectively superseded or legally removed therefrom under the Authority of this Act.

Property vested in Commissioners under this Act.

22. Notwithstanding anything in this Act in the contrary implied or expressed, and whether this Clause be adopted by any Burgh or not, it is hereby enacted, That in all Cases where the Management of the Police Affairs of any Burgh is transferred from any existing Commissioners of Police, or other Persons, to the Magistrates and Council of such Burgh, or to Commissioners elected under this Act, the whole Lands, Heritages, Assessments, Claims, Demands, and Effects of every Kind belonging to or vested in the Commissioners of Police, or other Persons, from whom such Management is so transferred, or in any Person on their Behalf, and all Powers, Rights, and Privileges conferred on or vested in such Commissioners of Police, or other Persons by any Act of Parliament, in so far as not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall be and are hereby transferred to and vested in the Magistrates and Council or Commissioners to whom such Management is so transferred, who shall be liable for the whole Debts and Obligations of the Commissioners of Police, or other Persons from whom such Management is transferred ; and in all Cases where this Act shall be adopted in whole or in part, such Adoption shall not free or relieve the Magistrates and Council or Commissioners of Police of any Burgh from any Obligations incumbent on them at the Date of such Adoption ; and all such Obligations, together with the Powers of Assessment and other Faculties therewith connected, shall remain in full Force as if this Act had not been adopted.

PART I.SECTION III.—Adoption of Act by Householders.

Burghs may convene a Meeting of Householders to consider of the Adoption of this Act.

23. It shall be lawful for any Seven or more Householders in any Burgh to apply in Writing to the Chief or Senior Magistrate of such Burgh, if a Royal or Parliamentary Burgh, or if otherwise to the Sheriff of the County in which such Burgh is situated, requiring him to convene a Meeting of Householders in such Burgh for the Purpose of considering whether the Provisions of this Act, or any Part of the same, shall be adopted and carried into execution within such Burgh : Provided always, that previously to such Requisition being entertained by such Magistrate or Sheriff the Boundaries of such Burgh, where required to be ascertained for the Purposes of this Act, shall have been ascertained in manner herein provided.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

24. Such Magistrate or Sheriff shall, upon receiving such Requisition for convening a Meeting accompanied, if he shall so require, with a satisfactory Undertaking to pay the Expenses after mentioned, appoint and direct a proper Person to make out and furnish, within Fourteen Days thereafter (except where previously made out and furnished as directed by this Act), a Return showing, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, the Amount of Population residing within such Burgh, and shall also direct the Assessors under the Acts in force for the Valuation of Lands and Heritages in Scotland within such Burgh to furnish him, within the like Period, with a List of the Names of all Householders within such Burgh; which List of Householders, distinguishing the Amount of Rental at which each Person is assessed, the said Assessors are hereby required to make and certify, on Payment of a Fee of not more than One Shilling for each One hundred Names, and which List shall be sufficient Proof of the Qualification of the Householders named therein.

Return of the Population and Lists of Householders to be made out.

25. On Receipt of such Requisition, such Magistrate or Sheriff shall convene the Householders in the Town Hall or other convenient Place within such Burgh, as the Case may be, and shall lay this Act before such Meeting, together with such Requisition, Return, and List aforesaid, and shall attend and shall preside at such Meeting, and at each subsequent Meeting authorized by this Act, and shall appoint a Clerk thereat, who shall make regular Minutes of the Proceedings thereof; and such Magistrate or Sheriff shall, in case of Equality of Votes, besides a deliberative Vote, have a casting or decisive Vote.

Mode of calling First Meeting.

26. Such Meeting shall be held on a Day not less than Twenty-one Days or more than Thirty Days after such Magistrate or Sheriff shall have received such Requisition to convene a Meeting as aforesaid, and Intimation thereof shall be made by posting Handbills within such Burgh Fourteen Days preceding the Day of the Meeting, in the Form of the Schedule marked (A.) hereunto annexed, and by any Mode of Intimation usually adopted in such Burgh, Two Days in each Week for Two Weeks before such Meeting, or by open Proclamation within such Burgh, and also by an Advertisement in any Newspaper published in such Burgh, and if no Newspaper be published therein, then in a Newspaper circulating in such Burgh, at least Three clear Days before the Day appointed for such Meeting.

Meetings to be intimated by posting Handbills, &c.

27. At such Meeting, and generally at all Meetings and Elections under this Act, all Householders shall be entitled to vote; and Companies or Copartnerships occupying Lands or Premises of the yearly Value required for the Qualification of a Householder as before defined, or of greater Value, so as to afford more than One such Qualification, shall be entitled to grant Authority in Writing to any One or more of the Partners of such Company or Copartnership to vote, and which Partner or Partners shall be deemed to be a Householder within the Meaning of this Act, and be entitled to vote accordingly: Provided always, that such Company or Copartnership shall not so authorize or have Right to vote by more than One Partner in respect of each such Qualification afforded by such Premises : Provided also, that in case of any Difficulty arising as to the Qualification or Identity of any Householder, the same shall be decided at such Meeting by such Magistrate or Sheriff, whose Determination shall be final.

Power of Meeting to adopt this Act, or to decline to adopt it.

28. Such Meeting shall proceed to consider and determine whether this Act shall, in whole or in part, be adopted and carried into execution within such Burgh, or shall appoint a Committee of their own Number, not exceeding Nine, to inquire and report to some future Meeting to be held on such Day as shall be appointed, and such future Meeting shall, upon the Report of such Committee, proceed in all respects in the Manner herein directed for such First Meeting.

Preses to declare the Determination of the Meeting.

29. Such Magistrate or Sheriff shall ascertain the Determination of such Meetings by a Show of Hands, or in such other Manner as shall appear to him expedient, and shall declare the same, which Declaration shall be final, unless a Poll shall be then demanded in Writing by any Seven Persons present and qualified to vote at such Meeting.

Preses to direct a Poll when demanded.

30. When such Poll shall be demanded as aforesaid, such Magistrate or Sheriff shall direct the same to be proceeded in at such Polling Place or Places and within such Period as he shall determine, not exceeding Two clear Days from the Date of such Demand in Writing, exclusive of Sundays, and the polling shall commence at the Places intimated at Nine of the Clock of the Forenoon of the Day that shall be named.

Poll not to be open more than One Day.

31. No Poll by this Act authorized to be taken shall be kept open for more than One Day, and that only between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon.

Poll Books to be provided.

32. Such Magistrate or Sheriff shall, either in Person or by a legal Substitute or Substitutes, who he is hereby authorized to appoint when necessary, preside at the Poll, and shall direct the necessary Number of Poll Clerks to be appointed, and of Poll Books to be prepared in the Form of Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, in which Books shall be inscribed by such Clerks the Situation of the Premises in respect of which the Voter is qualified, and the Manner in which he votes : Provided always, that such Substitute or Substitutes shall possess the Qualifications required for the Assessor and Substitute under the said Act, Third and Fourth William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six.

State of Poll to be ascertained and declared.

33. As soon after the Close of the Poll as may be, the Persons who shall have presided thereat shall seal up and transmit the Poll Books to such Magistrate or Sheriff, who shall sum up the same, and openly declare the Result of the total Poll at an adjourned Meeting to be held on the next lawful Day after the Polling Day ; and such Declaration shall be final, unless any Householder present at such adjourned Meeting shall then and there demand a Scrutiny, and on such Householder finding Caution or Security to the Satisfaction of such Magistrate or Sheriff for the Reimbursement of the Expenses attending the same, such Scrutiny shall be made by such Magistrate or Sheriff in such Way and Manner as he may deem proper, and shall be reported to another adjourned Meeting to be appointed by such Magistrate or Sheriff, to be held on a Day not later than the Third Day from the Meeting held immediately after the Day of Polling, and the Result of such Scrutiny as declared by such Magistrate or Sheriff shall be final, and the Person demanding such Scrutiny shall be liable in the Expense thereof.

34. Any Resolution to adopt the Provisions of this Act, in whole or in part, shall be effectual if it be carried by a Majority of the Persons qualified and voting as aforesaid.

35. If such Resolution shall be to adopt this Act in whole, any General or Local Police Act in operation within such Burgh shall be repealed, excepting in so far as it may relate to Matters not provided for in this Act; and if such Resolution shall be to adopt this Act only in part, the Parts, Sections, or Clauses so adopted shall be specified in the Minutes of such Meeting; and no Part of this Act which is not so specified shall be held to be adopted, except as much thereof as is requisite for giving due Effect to the Parts, Sections, or Clauses so adopted, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and any such General or Local Act in operation within such Burgh shall remain in force in so far as not inconsistent with the Parts, Sections, or Clauses so adopted: Provided always, that such Adoption in part of this Act shall not affect any Interests which shall have been specially regulated by any such Local Act.

36. Where this Act shall be adopted in any Burgh, in whole or in part, the Resolution to adopt it shall not be subject to any further Question; and the Householders thereof present at the Meeting adopting this Act, or at some adjourned Meeting as aforesaid, shall then and there proceed to determine by a Majority of Votes, and shall set forth in their Minutes, the Number of Commissioners to be elected by the Householders to carry this Act into operation, and also whether such Burgh shall be divided into Wards for the Purposes of this Act, and, if so, the Bounds and Limits of such Wards.

37. The Minutes and Resolutions of and whole Documents laid before such Meetings shall be transmitted by the Clerk to the Sheriff within Forty-eight Hours after the Close of the Proceedings, and the Sheriff shall, within Forty-eight Hours after the Receipt thereof, pronounce a Deliverance thereon, finding and declaring, as the Case may be, either that this Act has not been adopted, or that the Powers and Provisions thereof (in so far as such Minutes shall show this to have been the Case) have been adopted, and that this Act shall apply to such Burgh in manner therein set forth, and shall forthwith cause such Deliverance to be recorded in the Sheriff Court Books of the County, and in the Books (if any be) of the Burgh to which they specially apply; and such Deliverance by the Sheriff shall be final.

38. Where any Burgh shall have resolved not to adopt the Provisions of this Act, or shall have adopted them only in part, the Householders thereof may, as often as they shall think proper, thereafter, but not sooner than One Year from the Date of any preceding Meeting held for the Purpose of considering whether the Act should be adopted, in whole or in part, by such and the

PART I.

SECTION IV.—Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act in Royal and Parliamentary Burghs, Burghs erected or incorporated by Act of Parliament, and Burghs of Regality and Barony.

In certain Royal and Parliamentary Burghs Magistrates and Councils shall be Commissioners for executing this Act.

40. Where the Powers and Provisions of this Act shall be, in whole or in part, adopted in any Royal or Parliamentary Burgh, the Magistrates and Council of such Burgh for the Time being shall, under the Exception after mentioned, be the Commissioners for carrying this Act, or such Part thereof as shall be adopted, into operation, as regards such Burgh, and no special Election of Commissioners of Police or Magistrates of Police for such Burgh shall take place under this Act, and the Magistrates of such Burgh shall be the Magistrates of Police thereof; and the said Magistrates and Council as Commissioners, and the said Magistrates as Magistrates of Police, shall have all the Powers, Privileges, and Jurisdictions of Commissioners and Magistrates of Police respectively under this Act which are by this Act conferred on Commissioners and Magistrates of Police respectively.

In Burghs of Regality or Barony having Magistrates and Councils, the Householders may vest such Magistrates and Councils with the Office of Commissioners.

41. Where the Powers and Provisions of this Act shall be, in whole or in part, adopted in any Burgh of Regality or Barony having Magistrates and Council (not being a Burgh in which as bounded for the Purposes of this Act there shall be included any Territory situated in a different County from that in which such Burgh as previously bounded was situated), it shall, under the Exception after provided for, be in the Power of the Householders thereof present at the Meeting adopting the same unani- mously, or at some adjourned Meeting as aforesaid, to determine by a Majority of Votes, and to set forth on their Minutes, that the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh shall always for the

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Time being be the Commissioners for carrying this Act, or such Part thereof as shall be adopted, into operation, as regards such Burgh; and in that Case only such Magistrates and Council for the Time being shall always be such Commissioners within such Burgh, and no special Election of Commissioners of Police or Magistrates of Police for such Burgh shall take place under this Act; and the Magistrates of such Burgh shall be the Magistrates of Police thereof, and shall have all the Powers, Privileges, and Jurisdictions of Magistrates of Police under this Act; but in the event of no such Determination being come to by the Householders as aforesaid, Commissioners and Magistrates of Police shall be elected for such Burgh in manner herein provided.

42. Where the Powers and Provisions of this Act shall be adopted, in part, in any Burgh having Commissioners or Trustees of Police under the Provisions of any Local Act of Parliament, or of the Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter Thirty-three, such Commissioners or Trustees shall be the Commissioners for carrying such Part of this Act into operation, and such Acts shall continue in force in regard to such Commissioners as if this Act had not been so adopted, and no special Election of Commissioners of Police for such Burgh shall take place under this Act; and the Magistrates of such Burgh shall continue the Magistrates of Police thereof, the same as if no such Adoption of this Act had taken place, and accordingly no special Election of Magistrates of Police shall take place under this Act; and the said Magistrates as Magistrates of Police, and the said Commissioners or Trustees of Police under such Acts as Commissioners of Police, shall have all the Powers, Privileges, and Jurisdictions of Commissioners and Magistrates of Police respectively under this Act as are by this Act conferred on Commissioners and Magistrates of Police respectively: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the Right of the Magistrates and Council of any Royal or Parliamentary Burgh at any Time to make Application to unite the Municipal and Police Government of such Royal or Parliamentary Burgh in manner herein-after provided.

43. It shall be lawful for any Burgh, having adopted this Act, in whole or part, either in the Resolution so adopting this Act, or by any subsequent Resolution of the Magistrates and Council, or Commissioners, as the Case may be, at a Meeting held for the Purpose, to exempt for a Time any Places, Grounds, and Houses in the suburban Part or Parts of the Burgh from all or any of the Provisions of this Act so adopted; which Places, Grounds, and Houses, if so exempted from all such Provisions, shall during the Continuance of such Exemptions be free from Payment of any of the Assessments for such Purposes by this Act authorized to be levied; but in the event of any such Places, Grounds, and Houses being only partially exempted from the said Provisions or any of them, then such Places, Grounds, and Houses so partially exempted shall be liable in Payment of such Part of the said Assessments as shall be fixed and determined by the Magistrates and Council, or Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for the Magistrates and Council, or Commissioners, by a like Resolution, from Time to Time to extend the Period of such Exemptions: Provided always, that such Exemption shall only be made upon the Application or with the Consent of the Owners or Occupiers of the Lands and Premises situated within such Part or Parts of the Burgh so to be exempted, the Rent or Value of which shall amount to Two Thirds of the Rents or Value of the whole Lands and Premises therein, but not otherwise; and it shall be lawful for any Person who thinks himself aggrieved thereby to appeal to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

PART I.*Commissioners.SECTION V.—Elected Commissioners in other Burghs.

Number of Commissioners.

44. In Burghs where Commissioners shall be elected as herein provided for the Purposes of executing this Act, they shall not exceed Twelve in Number; but the Number may be less than Twelve and not less than Six, as may be determined on in manner herein-before provided.

Commissioners to be convened.

46. As soon as may be after the Deliverance of the Sheriff declaring that this Act shall apply, in whole or in part, to any Burgh adopting the same, and for which Commissioners fall to be elected under this Act, the Chief or Senior Magistrate of such Burgh, if a Royal or Parliamentary Burgh, or if otherwise, the Sheriff, shall convene a Meeting of the Householders of the Burgh in the Town Hall or other convenient Place within the Burgh, for the Election of Commissioners for the Purpose of executing this Act, and the Commissioners shall be elected by such Meeting, of which Meeting such Magistrate or Sheriff shall be Preses, or, if the Burgh shall be divided into Wards, such Magistrate or Sheriff shall convene a Meeting of the Householders in each Ward, at some convenient Place in the Ward to be specified in the Notice to be given of such Meeting for the Election of Commissioners for the Purpose of executing this Act, and the Commissioners for each Ward shall be elected by the Meeting in such Ward, and the Householders present at such Ward Meeting shall elect the Preses of such Meeting; and all Meetings for electing Commissioners shall be summoned in the same Manner and at the same Distance of Time as is provided for the First Meeting to be held with respect to the Adoption of this Act.

Election of Commissioners.

47. Such Election shall be proceeded with in manner following; (that is to say,) any Householder of the Burgh shall be eligible to be elected a Commissioner for the Purposes of this Act, and may be proposed and seconded by any Householders within the Burgh, or if such Burgh shall have been divided into Wards, then by any Householders within the Ward for which the Election is to take place; and the Preses of the

among the Householders of the Burgh in the Manner aforesaid, under all the Rules, Regulations, and Provisions applicable to such First Election, and the like Notice of such annual Election shall be given as is herein-before directed to be given of such First Election of Commissioners.

51. The Third of the Commissioners who shall go out of Office at the Expiration of the First Year after the First Election under this Act shall consist of the Commissioners who at said First Election had the smallest Number of Votes, and where the Burgh is divided into Wards, of the Commissioners who at said First Election in each Ward had the smallest Number of Votes; and the Commissioners who shall go out of Office at the Expiration of the Second Year after said First Election shall consist of the Commissioners who had the next smallest Number of Votes at the said First Election, or where the Burgh is divided into Wards, of the Commissioners in each Ward who at said First Election had the next smallest Number of Votes in each Ward; and thereafter the Third of the Commissioners who shall annually go out of Office shall consist of the Commissioners who have been longest in Office: Provided always, that in any Case where there shall have been an Equality of Votes the other Commissioners remaining in Office shall decide, at a Meeting convened for the Purpose, which Commissioner having an Equality of Votes shall go out of Office; provided also, that the Senior Magistrate of Police shall always remain in Office for Three Years, and for that Purpose he shall be held to have had the largest Number of Votes at the said First Election, and to have been the shortest Period in Office at all Elections subsequent to the Third Election under this Act.

Commissioners
failing to accept.

52. If any Person elected as a Commissioner shall fail to attend the Meeting hereby appointed to be held on the First Monday after the First and each annual Election of Commissioners he shall be held to have declined the Office of Commissioner, unless he transmit to the Meeting a sufficient written Explanation, signed by himself or his Agent, of the Cause of his Absence, and intimating his Acceptance.

Outgoing Commissioners may be re-elected.

53. Any Magistrate of Police or Commissioner may resign his Office at any Time, on giving Three Weeks Notice of such his Intention in Writing to the Clerk, and any out-going Commissioner may be re-elected: Provided always, that no Person shall be eligible as a Commissioner, or entitled to vote at such Election, who shall have been relieved from the Assessment made on him for the Purposes of this Act for the Year immediately preceding on the Ground of Inability to pay the said Assessment, or by whom any Arrear of any Assessment under this Act shall at the Time of the Election be owing, and shall have been demanded, whether such Arrear shall be due by himself or by any Company or Copartnership by which he is authorized to vote; and a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Arrears or Relief.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

54. Where any Magistrate of Police elected under this Act shall be in the Third of the Commissioners going out of Office, the Place of such Magistrate of Police shall be supplied by Election by the Commissioners as soon as the full Number thereof shall have been completed by the annual Election of the Third hereby directed to take place; and such Election shall be made by Plurality of Voices, and the Senior Magistrate of Police, or in his Absence the Preses of the Meeting, to be chosen by the Meeting, shall have a double or casting Vote, in case of Equality: Provided always, that Magistrates of Police shall at all Times be capable of being re-elected.

Vacancies in the Magistrates of Police, how to be supplied.

55. In case the Place of any of the Commissioners or Magistrates of Police elected as aforesaid shall become vacant by Death, Refusal to accept, Disqualification, or Resignation, then and in such Cases it shall be lawful for the remaining Commissioners to nominate Persons duly qualified to supply such Vacancies; and each Person so nominated shall have and enjoy the same Powers and Privileges as the Person in whose Stead he is nominated, and shall remain in Office until the next Period of Election, when he shall go out of Office, and the Vacancy shall be supplied by the Householders of the Burgh, or, if the Burgh be divided into Wards, the Householders of the Ward in which the Vacancy shall have occurred; and in the event of a Resignation being intimated, so as to take effect at the Period of the annual Election of Commissioners, the Vacancy so caused shall be supplied by the Householders, or if the Burgh is divided into Wards, by the Householders of the Ward in which the Vacancy shall have occurred, by Election at the said Period of Election.

Interim Vacancies how to be supplied.

56. If the Householders shall at any Time refuse or neglect to elect the whole or any Part of the Number of Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners who held Office at the Time when such Election should have taken place to supply the Deficiency, by such and the like Proceedings as are provided for in the Case of interim Vacancies.

If Electors refuse to elect, Commissioners previously in Office may.

57. No Commissioner shall directly or indirectly derive any Emolument or Profit from any Business or Work of any Description performed or to be performed by him under this Act; nor shall any Commissioner be capable (while he holds Office as such Commissioner) of enjoying any Office of Profit to be created or established by virtue of this Act, or while he has any Share or Interest in any Contract relating to the Execution thereof, nor be capable of standing as a Candidate for any such Office, or be a Competitor for any such Contract, save and except Contracts entered into with any Chartered or Joint Stock Company of which such Commissioner may be a Partner.

veyors, and other Persons, at pleasure, and to fix the Number and Description of Officers to be employed in the Execution of this Act, and the Wages to be paid to them respectively, whether appointed by themselves or not, and to increase or diminish their Numbers from Time to Time as they shall see Cause, and to make Orders and Regulations for their Government ; and the Commissioners shall have Power also to purchase such Lands and Premises as shall be required for the Purposes of this Act, and shall also have full Power and Authority to make all necessary Rules, Orders, Regulations, and Byelaws, except as otherwise herein provided, relative to the watching, lighting with Gas or otherwise, paving, cleansing the Streets, whether public or private, cleansing and lighting of common Stairs or Passages or private Courts, or to the Supply and Distribution of Water and Gas to the same, in so far as the Powers of this Act may apply to these Objects in the Burgh, and for carrying fully into effect all the Objects and Purposes and Provisions of this Act, and shall enact Penalties for enforcing the same, which Penalties shall not exceed in any Case the Sum of Forty Shillings, except as otherwise herein provided, and to execute the whole other Matters specified in this Act and committed to their Charge : Provided always, that the Rules and Regulations so to be made shall not be contrary to the Law of Scotland, or to anything in this Act contained.

65. The Commissioners, or any Committee of their Body thereunto specially empowered, may contract with any Person for carrying into execution any of the Operations hereby authorized; and such Contract shall be signed by the Preses and Clerk in name of the Meeting at which such Agreement or Contract shall be made.

66. The Monies arising from the Assessments hereby authorized to be levied, and all other Property acquired by the Commissioners in pursuance of the Powers hereby granted, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Commissioners and their Successors, for the Uses and Purposes mentioned in this Act, and for no other Purpose whatever.

67. The Commissioners shall appoint a Clerk for keeping the Records of the Proceedings of the Commissioners and their Committees, which Records shall contain accurate Minutes of the Proceedings and Orders of the Commissioners and their Committees, and, being signed by the Preses of each respective Meeting, or any Copy or Extract therefrom, authenticated by the Signature of the Clerk, shall be received as Evidence in all Courts whatsoever, in any Case or Matters concerning this Act.

68. No Person who may be appointed the Clerk in the Execution of this Act, or the Partner of any such Clerk, or any Person in the Employ of such Clerk or of his Partner, shall act as Agent or Solicitor in the Trial of any Offence under this Act committed within the Limits of the Burgh, as fixed for the Purposes of this Act ; and in the event of a Contravention of such Provisions such Clerk shall be thenceforth disqualified from holding any Office whatever under this Act, and also from acting as a Commissioner under this Act.

Treasurer and Collector to be appointed.

69. The Commissioners shall in like Manner elect and appoint a Treasurer and Collector to act during their Pleasure ; and such Collector and Treasurer, before they shall be permitted to take upon them the Execution of their Office, shall respectively grant Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to the Commissioners, for their Intromissions, and for the just and faithful Execution of their Office, to such an Amount as the Commissioners shall think reasonable ; and any Collector or Treasurer who may be convicted of wilfully secreting or not accounting to the Commissioners for any Sum of Money received by him as Collector or Treasurer shall forfeit triple the Amount thereof to the Commissioners.

Allowance to Clerk, Treasurer, and Collector.

70. The Commissioners may allow reasonable Salaries to the Clerk and Treasurer ; and the Collector shall be allowed for his Trouble in collecting Assessments authorized to be levied under this Act a Sum not exceeding the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum upon all such Sums of Money as he shall collect and receive.

Collector to lodge all Monies received by him in Bank.

71. Such Collector shall be obliged to lodge all Money received by him in a chartered or other Bank, or in One of the Branches of such Bank in the Burgh, to be fixed by the Commissioners, upon an Account to be opened in the Name of the Commissioners, and to be operated upon by the Treasurer for the Time ; and such Treasurer shall make no Drafts on the said Account for any private Purpose on any Pretence whatever, nor for any other Purpose than the Payments which shall from Time to Time be authorized by the Commissioners or their Committees for the Purposes of this Act, as the same shall be certified to the Treasurer by the Clerk to the Commissioners, who shall countersign all such Drafts.

On Insolvency of Treasurers or Collectors, Deficiency may be assessed.

72. In case any Treasurer or Collector shall become insolvent, and the Sums chargeable against him shall not have been paid by his Cautioners or Sureties, then and in every such Case the Sum deficient shall be chargeable against, and form a Burden upon the next annual Assessment.

Treasurer and Collector may be the same Person, but Clerk and Treasurer not to be the same Person.

73. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to appoint the same Person to be both Treasurer and Collector for the Purposes of this Act ; but it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to appoint any Person who may be appointed their Clerk in the Execution of this Act, or the Partner of such Clerk, or any Clerk or other Person in the Service or Employ of such Clerk or of his Partner, to be the Treasurer for the Purposes of this Act, or to appoint any Person who may be appointed Treasurer or the Partner of such Treasurer, or any Clerk or other Person in the Service or Employ of such Treasurer or of his Partner, to be the Clerk to the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act ; and if any Person shall accept both the Offices of Clerk and Treasurer for the Purposes of this Act, or if any Person being the Partner of such Clerk, or the Clerk or other Person in the Service or Employ of such Clerk or of his Partner, shall accept the Office of Treasurer, or shall act as Deputy of the Treasurer, or in any Manner officiate for the Treasurer, or being the Treasurer or the Partner of such Treasurer, or the Clerk or other Person in the Service or Employ of such Treasurer or of his Partner, shall accept the Office of Clerk in the Execution of this Act, or shall act as Deputy of such Clerk, or in any Manner officiate for such Clerk, or if any Treasurer shall hold any Place of Profit or Trust under the Commissioners other than that of Collector, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with full Expenses, in the same Manner as any of the Penalties of this Act imposed may be sued for and recovered.

74. Except as herein-after specially provided, all Actions, Suits, or Proceedings in respect of any Matter or Thing relating to the Execution of this Act, to be brought by or against the Commissioners, shall be in the Name of their Clerk for the Time being as the Party, Pursuer or Defender, representing the Commissioners; and no Action, Suit, or Proceeding wherein the Commissioners shall be concerned as Pursuers or Defenders in the Name of their Clerk shall cease or abate by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any such Clerk, or by any Change in the Persons holding Office as Commissioners, but the Clerk to the Commissioners for the Time being shall be deemed to be the Pursuer or Defender, as the Case may be, in every such Action, Suit, or Proceeding.

75. Accounts of all Property, Heritable and Moveable, vested in the Commissioners, showing the Nature of such Property, and of all Money received and disbursed, shall be kept in Books by the Treasurer or Collector, as the Commissioners may appoint; and all such Books of Accounts may at all reasonable Times be inspected and perused, without Fee or Reward, by any Person assessed, and also by any Person entitled to any Money due and owing on the Credit of such Assessment; and such Persons may take Copies of or Extracts from any such Books and Accounts, without Fee or Reward; and any Person in whose Custody or Power any such Books and Accounts are, who shall refuse Inspection thereof, or to permit Copies or Extracts to be taken as aforesaid, shall be liable in a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds; and in case any Person who shall be assessed shall be dissatisfied with any Accounts which shall have been made up as aforesaid, or with any of the Items or Articles contained in such Accounts, such Person may complain against the same by Petition to the Sheriff, in which Complaint shall be specified the Grounds of Objection to such Accounts, Items, or Articles; and the Sheriff shall proceed to hear and determine the Matter of such Complaint, and his Decision shall be final.

76. The Commissioners shall yearly, and previous to their statutory Meeting in the Month of July in each Year, cause to be made out a just and accurate Account of all the Monies received and expended in the Execution of this Act for the Year ending on the Fifteenth Day of May immediately preceding such statutory Meeting, showing from what Sources such Monies have been received, and to what Purposes the same have been laid out and applied; and which Account, so soon as the same shall

Auditor to be appointed by the Commissioners.

77. The Commissioners shall annually appoint a professional Auditor for the Purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Commissioners; and in case the Office of such Auditor shall, before such Accounts are audited by him, become vacant by Death or from any other Cause, the Commissioners shall from Time to Time appoint an Auditor to supply such Vacancy.

Auditor's Report.

78. The Commissioners shall deliver to such Auditor, within One Month after the said Fifteenth Day of May annually, all the Accounts, together with their Books and Vouchers; and it shall be the Duty of such Auditor to audit such Accounts, and either make a special Report thereon, or simply confirm the same; and such Report or Confirmation shall be read with the Account at such Meeting; and if any Dispute arise as to the Amount of Remuneration to be paid to such Auditor, it shall be settled by the Sheriff, whose Decision shall be final.

Cases.

79. Whenever it appears desirable to the Magistrates and Council or Commissioners of Police of any Royal or Parliamentary Burgh, or to the Commissioners for executing this Act in any Burgh or populous Place, that Provision should be made in order the better to apply and execute therein the Provisions of this Act, in whole or part, or for the future Application and Execution of any Acts in force therein having Relation to the Purposes of this Act, or to the Roads or Streets within such Burgh or populous Place, or to any other Matter or Thing connected with the Management and Administration of the Municipal or Police Affairs of such Burgh or populous Place, or that any such Acts, or any Exemptions from rating therefrom derived, or that any Provisional Order or Order in Council applying this Act, hereby authorized to be made, should be wholly or partially repealed or altered:

Or whenever it appears desirable to the Magistrates and Council of any Royal or Parliamentary Burgh where there is a Board of Commissioners of Police separate from such Magistrates and Council to unite the Municipal and Police Government and Jurisdiction of any such Royal or Parliamentary Burgh in the Magistrates and Council thereof, to transfer to them all the Powers and Jurisdictions of Police, Paving, Lighting, Watching, and others, granted to the Commissioners of Police by any Local Acts, and to extend such Jurisdictions over the whole Limits of such Burgh:

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Or whenever it appears desirable to the Magistrates and Councils, or the Commissioners of Police of contiguous Burghs, that Provision should be made for executing any great Conduits or Main Sewers, or any other Drainage Works necessary for the more effectually draining of such contiguous Burghs :

PART I.

the Act.
Sect. 8.

- (1.) The Magistrates and Council, or the Commissioners of any Burgh, or the Magistrates and Councils, or Commissioners, of contiguous Burghs, as the Case may be, may present a Petition to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, praying for such Provision, Repeal, and Alteration as aforesaid, or for any of such Things, and such Petition shall be supported by such Evidence as the said Secretary requires :
- (2.) Upon the Receipt of any such Petition, Inquiry may be directed by such Secretary of State in the District in respect to the several Matters mentioned in the Petition, after giving Fourteen Days Notice of the Time, Place, and Subject of the Inquiry ; and, if requisite, the Sheriff shall proceed to the District to make the Inquiry :
- (3.) The Sheriff shall, for the Purposes of the Inquiry, have Power to call for such Information from the Magistrates and Councils or Commissioners of Police as he may consider necessary, and to do all such Matters and Things as may be expedient for the Purposes of the Inquiry :
- (4.) It shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to issue a Provisional Order, under his Hand and Seal of Office, in relation to the several Things mentioned in the said Petition, either in accordance with the Prayer thereof, or with such Modifications or Alterations as may appear to him to be requisite.

80. Where it shall appear, from the Returns made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, from the Deaths registered in a Period of not less than Five Years, that the Number of Deaths annually in any Burgh or populous Place, as defined in this Act, has on an Average exceeded the Proportion of Twenty to a Thousand in a Population of One thousand, Twenty-three to a Thousand in a Population of Five thousand, Twenty-five to a Thousand in a Population of Twenty thousand, or Twenty-nine to a Thousand in a Population of Three hundred thousand and upwards, of the Population of such Burgh or populous Place, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any Three or more of them, (the Lord President of the Council, or One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, being One,) may, if and when they shall think fit, direct the Sheriff to visit such Burgh or populous Place, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Acts of Parliament in force within such Burgh or populous Place for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the same, also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing Municipal, Parochial, or other

ASSESSMENTS.

SECTION I.—Assessments for Police Purposes.

84. Once in each Year the Commissioners (being summoned in manner herein-before directed by written or printed Summonses, which shall state that the Meeting is for the Purpose of laying on an Assessment,) shall assess all Occupiers of Lands or Premises within the Burgh, according to the Valuation Roll made up and completed in Terms of the Acts in force for the Valuation of Lands and Heritages in Scotland, subject to the Exceptions herein-after provided, in the Sums necessary to be levied for the Police Purposes of this Act, in so far as the same may have been adopted, and for the Purposes to which the Police Assessment authorized by any Act in force in such Burgh at the Time of such Adoption might have been applied, and shall fix a Day on which the same shall be payable, and the Rate of Assessment and Day so fixed by the Commissioners shall be published by Handbills posted in the Burgh, and by Advertisement in any Newspaper circulating therein (if any be), or otherwise in some Newspaper circulating in the County in which the Burgh is situated: Provided always, that such Assessment shall be imposed as from the Fifteenth Day of May in any One Year to the Fifteenth Day of May in the following Year, and shall not in any Year exceed a Rate equal to Two Shillings and Sixpence in the Pound of the gross yearly Value of such Lands or Premises where the Enactments of this Act with respect to Water have been adopted, or a Rate equal to One Shilling and Sixpence in the Pound of the gross yearly Value of such Lands or Premises where such Enactments with respect to Water have not been adopted; and such Assessment shall for the Purposes of this Act be called the Police Assessment: Provided further, when in any Burgh, under the Provisions of any Police Act, a higher Rate of Assessment is now and has been in use to be levied upon Lands and Tenements above a certain fixed Rent than upon lower rented Lands and Tenements, it shall be in the Power of the Commissioners, in laying on the Assessment under this Act, to continue the same relative Rates of Assessment, if they think proper.

85. Out of the Police Assessment authorized by this or by any General or Local Act in force within the Burgh it shall be lawful to the Commissioners to defray to such Extent as they think proper, such Claims for Damages sustained in consequence of any Riot or Tumult within the Burgh as may be established to their Satisfaction, or, if the Commissioners think proper, they may at any Time impose and levy a special Assessment on all Occupiers of Lands or Premises within the Burgh, according to the said Valuation Roll, for the Sums estimated by them to be necessary for the Purpose of paying such Damages; and such special Assessment being so imposed and levied, the Commissioners shall out of the Proceeds thereof discharge such Claims, the same being established to their Satisfaction.

86. Where in any Burgh an Assessment for Police Purposes has been imposed previous to the Adoption of this Act, and is leviable for a Period ending on a Day prior to the Fifteenth Day of May immediately following such Adoption, it shall be lawful to the Commissioners under this Act to impose and levy a Proportion of the Police Assessment hereby authorized, corresponding to the Time intervening between the Date when such Period ended, and the said Fifteenth Day of May.

Commissioners to levy Assessments from Owners of Premises under 4l.

87. The Commissioners shall assess the Owners in place of the Occupiers of all Lands or Premises let at a Rent under Four Pounds, and levy such Assessment from such Owners; but the Commissioners shall allow to such Owners a Deduction from such Assessment equal to One Fourth of the Amount thereof; and such Assessments shall be recoverable from such Owners, along with any Penalty which may have become exigible thereon, in the same way as is herein provided with respect to the Recovery thereof from Occupiers.

Commissioners
may grant Relief from Police Assessment in case of Poverty.

88. The Commissioners may, on the Ground of the Poverty or Inability to pay of any Person liable in the Police Assessment under this Act, remit, in whole or in part, Payment of the said Assessment by such Person, in such Manner as the Commissioners shall in their Discretion think just and reasonable, but upon no other Account whatsoever.

Occupiers to pay Police
Assessment.

89. The Assessments herein-before authorized to be imposed shall be levied from the Occupiers of Lands or Premises, but Deduction shall be allowed by the Commissioners of the Assessment for any Period during which any Lands or Premises shall not be let or occupied for Three Months consecutively in any One Year, and Owners who shall let for Rent or Hire Lands or Premises for less than a Year shall themselves, as well as the Occupiers, be responsible for the said Assessment applicable to any Period less than a Year, and the same may be recovered from such Owners or from such Occupiers as the Commissioners shall judge expedient.

Arable Land,
&c. how to be valued.

90. The annual Value of the following Lands or Premises shall for the Assessments under this Act, whether the Enactments with respect to Water have been adopted or not, be held to be the nearest aggregate Sum of Pounds Sterling to One Fourth of the annual Value thereof entered in the said Valuation Roll; viz.

1. All Lands and Premises used exclusively as a Canal or Basin of a Canal, or Towing-path for the same, or as a Railway constructed under the Powers of any Act of Parliament for public Conveyance, excepting the Stations, Depôts, and Buildings, which shall be assessable to the same Extent as other Lands and Premises within the Burgh:
2. All the underground Gas and Water Pipes, or underground Works of any Gas or Water Company:
3. All Woodland, Arable, Meadow, or Pasture Ground, or other Ground used for Agricultural Purposes:

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

And where the Enactments with regard to Water have been adopted, the annual Value of all Mines, Minerals, Quarries, and Manufactories within the Burgh shall as regards the Police Assessment, as far as it is applicable to Water, be held to be the nearest aggregate Sum of Pounds Sterling to One Fourth of the annual Value thereof entered in the Valuation Roll; without Prejudice, however, to the Commissioners entering into Agreements for the Supply of Water to such Lands and Premises in manner herein-after provided; and in the event of any Dispute arising as to the Lands and Premises falling under the above Exceptions, it shall be lawful to the Owner or Occupier of such Lands and Premises to present a Petition to the Sheriff, praying to have the same declared, for the Time being, liable to Assessment upon the said Proportion of their Value only; and the Sheriff shall thereupon order the Petition to be served on the Commissioners, upon a short Induciae, and after hearing Parties, and taking such Evidence as he shall think necessary, shall pronounce such Judgment as to him shall seem just and right.

91. The Commissioners shall annually cause to be made up a Roll or Book of Assessment from the Valuation Roll aforesaid, showing the yearly Rent or Value of the Lands or Premises in the Burgh liable to be assessed under this Act for the Assessments herein authorized to be levied, and according to which such Assessments under this Act are intended to be levied; and in such Roll or Book of Assessment there shall in no Case be entered any fractional Part of a Pound of the assessable yearly Rent or Value aforesaid; and when such fractional Part shall not amount to Ten Shillings, the Sum shall not be entered at all in such yearly Rent or Value; and when such fractional Part shall amount to or exceed Ten Shillings, the Sum shall be entered as One Pound of such yearly Rent or Value, in addition to the actual Number of Pounds of such Rent or Value, and shall be assessed accordingly; and such Roll or Book of Assessment shall be open to Inspection by all Ratepayers, in the Hands of the Collector or other Officer appointed by the Commissioners for that Purpose, during the whole Period which shall intervene between the Date of laying on the annual Assessment and the Day appointed for Payment thereof; and the Commissioners shall have Power to rectify any Error which may be found in such Roll or Book.

92. If any Person assessed under this Act shall refuse or neglect to pay any Assessment herein-before authorized to be levied, or any Portion thereof, on or before the Expiry of Three Months after such Assessment is declared payable, the Collector may make an Attestation in Writing setting forth that the said Person has failed to pay such Assessment, or any Portion thereof, notwithstanding the same has been demanded from him by the said Collector by a printed Notice delivered to or left for him on the Premises in respect of which such Assessment is made, and such Attestation being made it shall be lawful for the Collector to make Application to the Sheriff, or to any One of the Magistrates of Police, or other Magistrates of the Burgh, who, upon such Application, and Production therewith of such Attestation, shall grant summary Warrant for Recovery of the said Assessment, or the Portion thereof remaining unpaid, and One Penny upon each Pound of the Rental of the Lands or Premises in respect of which such Person is assessed in addition, in Name of Penalty, which Attestation, Application, and Warrant shall be in the Form, as near as may be, contained in Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the Right of the Collector, at any Time after the said Assessment shall be payable, to prosecute, as he is hereby empowered to prosecute for, and recover all or any Part of such Assessment in arrear, before the Sheriff's Small Debt Court, or by any other legal Form of Proceeding; and the Collector shall be bound to preserve the Warrants of all Seizures or Sales made under and in virtue hereof, and shall enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpose the Names of the Parties proceeded against, the Assessment due, the Expense of the Proceedings, and the true Proceeds of each Sale, which Book shall be open to the Inspection (without any Fee) of all Parties interested, for Three Months after the Date of each Sale respectively; and at any Time within that Period it shall be competent to any Party considering himself aggrieved to complain to such Sheriff or Magistrate of anything done unjustly or oppressively in regard to such Seizure or Sale, such Complaints being made in the Form of Petitions subscribed by the Complainer, and the Decision of such Sheriff or Magistrate shall be final.

Misnomers, &c.
not to affect Proceedings
for Recovery of Assessments.

93. No Misnomer, Mistake, or Informality committed in any Proceedings for Recovery of such Assessments, or any other Assessment, Rate, Charge, or Expenses under this Act, shall prejudice the Recovery thereof, nor shall such Proceedings fall, lapse, cease, or abate by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Collector instituting the same, or by any Change in the Persons holding Office as Commissioners, but it shall be lawful for the Collector for the Time to prosecute and follow forth Procedure commenced and carried on in the Name of any previous Collector in all respects as if such Procedure had been taken by himself: Provided always, that it shall not be competent for any Person to sue, nor for any Court of Law to entertain, any Action or Proceeding against the Commissioners, or the Collector or Officers or other Persons employed in executing any Warrant in reference to any Assessment, Rate, Charge, or Expense under this Act, by reason of any Misnomer, Mistake, or Informality, if the Goods or other Effects seized or sold under such Warrant were bonâ fide the Property or in the lawful Possession of the Person actually liable in Payment thereof under the Provisions of this Act.

Assessments to be recoverable
beyond Burgh.

94. In case any Person liable in Payment of the Assessments herein-before authorized to be levied, shall remove to any Place beyond the Burgh, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the Commissioners, and their Collectors and Treasurers or other Officers, to put the Decrees and Warrants which may be granted for the Recovery of such Assessments in manner before mentioned into execution within or beyond the Burgh, in the same Manner as if such

such Person had continued to reside within the Burgh, such Decrees or Warrants being first endorsed by a Magistrate or Sheriff or Justice of the Peace for the Burgh or County within which they are to be put into execution.

95. When the Provisions of this Act, or any Part thereof, shall have been adopted in any Burgh possessed of any free Income arising from the Common Good of such Burgh, after Deduction of the Interest of any Debt which such Burgh may owe, and also the necessary annual Outgoings of such Burgh, there may be annually contributed therefrom such a reasonable Proportion towards the Police Purposes of this Act as the Town Council of such Burgh, having due Regard to the Extinction of the Capital of such Debt, shall think just: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the Rights of the Creditors of any Burgh secured by Local Acts of Parliament or otherwise; and further, that the Adoption of this Act, in whole or in part, shall not relieve the Common Good of any Burgh from Payment of any Sum which such Burgh is bound by any Local Act to contribute towards the Police Expenses of the Burgh.

PART II.
Assessments.
Sect. 1.

Common Good may contribute towards the Purposes of this Act.

PART II.

SECTION II.—Assessments for Sewers, Foot Pavements, and General and Private Improvements.(1.) Sewers.

96. Whenever the Commissioners shall resolve to make any new Sewer, they may charge the Owners of all the Lands or Premises liable to contribute to the Rates for making the same with Special Sewer Rates, over and above any other Assessment or Rates to which such Persons may be liable under this Act, and such Rate shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be called the "Special Sewer Rate."

Where new Sewers are made, Commissioners may impose a Special Sewer Rate.

97. The Commissioners shall, if necessary, impose a Sewer Rate, to be called for the Purposes of this Act the "General Sewer Rate," distinct from any other Rate which they are authorized to make under this Act, to be applied in maintaining and clearing the Sewers, and all other Expenses connected with such Sewers not herein otherwise provided for, or which may not be fully defrayed by the Special Sewer Rate, and for securing and paying off any Monies which may be borrowed on the Security of the Special Sewer Rate under the Provisions of this Act, and the Interest of such Monies which the Special Sewer Rates shall be insufficient to defray.

Commissioners may impose a General Sewer Rate distinct from other Rates.

98. The Commissioners may from Time to Time make Assessments in respect of the said Special Sewer Rate and General Sewer Rate hereby authorized to be levied on the Owners of all Lands or Premises within the Burgh, or within separate and distinct Districts, and that in reference to the Valuation of such Lands or Premises as fixed by the Valuation Roll; and in every Case in which the Commissioners shall see fit to make the said Assessments or either of them on separate and distinct Districts, Commissioners may assess.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

they shall cause every such District to be described and defined as herein-after provided.

Rates to be levied on separate and distinct Districts.

99. The Commissioners may, in making the said Assessments for separate and distinct Districts, appoint, if they see fit, Surveyors, Collectors, and other Officers for every such District, and they shall cause separate and distinct Accounts to be kept of all Monies collected and received under any Rate in each distinct District, and of all Payments and Disbursements in respect thereof, and they shall apply the Monies to be collected and received from each distinct District under any such Rate as afore-said for the several Purposes to which the same may be lawfully applied under the Authority of this Act, but so nevertheless that each District shall, as near as may be, bear its own Expenses; and in case any such Expenses shall apply to or be incurred in respect of Two or more Districts, the same shall be apportioned and divided between such Districts in such Manner as the Commissioners shall consider fair and equitable.

Where Premises were sufficiently drained before making new Sewer, Owner to have a Reduction made in his Rates.

100. Where in the Judgment of the Commissioners any Premises were sufficiently drained before the making of such new Sewer, the Owners thereof shall be entitled to have such Deduction made from the Special Sewer Rates to which they would otherwise be liable in respect of the making of such new Sewer, having regard to the Cost of making such new Sewer, and to the Value and Efficiency of such old Sewer; and whenever any old Sewer is enlarged, or open Sewer closed, the Expense of such Enlargement, or of closing such open Sewer, shall be defrayed in like Manner as if it had been incurred in making a new Sewer.

(2.) Foot Pavements.

Assessment for Maintenance and Repair of Foot Pavements.

101. Whenever the Commissioners shall resolve, in manner after provided for, to undertake the Maintenance and Repair of the Foot Pavements in any Burgh, by means of a General Assessment, it shall be lawful for them to charge all Owners of Lands or Premises within such Burgh, with reference to the said Valuation Roll, with a Special Paving Assessment equal to but not exceeding Twopence in the Pound of the gross yearly Value of such Lands or Premises, over and above any other Assessment or Rates to which such Persons may be liable under this Act, and which Special Assessment shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be called "The Foot Pavement Rate," and shall be leviable either from the Owner or Occupier of such Lands or Premises, but the latter shall be entitled on Payment thereof to deduct the same from his Rent; and such Assessment, so far as the Occupier is concerned, shall be recoverable in such and the like Manner as the Police Assessment is authorized to be recovered.

(3.) General Improvements.

General Improvement Assessment.

102. Whenever the Commissioners in any Burgh shall resolve, in manner after provided for, to make Provision for the General Improvement of the Burgh, it shall be lawful for them to charge, in in equal Proportions, all Owners and Occupiers of Lands or Premises within such Burgh, with reference to the said Valuation Roll, with a Special Assessment equal to but not exceeding One Penny in the Pound of the gross yearly Value of such Lands or Premises, over and above any other Assessment or Rate to which such Persons may be liable under this Act, and which Special Assessment shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be called the "General Improvement Rate," and shall be leviable either from the Owner or Occupier of such Lands or Premises in equal Proportions, or in whole from the Occupiers thereof, but in the latter Case the Occupier shall be entitled on Payment thereof to deduct from his Rent the Proportion payable by the Owner ; and such Assessment, so far as the Occupier is concerned, shall be recoverable in such and the like Manner as the Police Assessment is authorized to be recovered.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

PART II.
Assessments.
Sect. 2.

(4.) Private Improvements.

103. Where by the Provisions of this Act the Owner or Occupier, as the Case may be, of any Premises is directed or fails to do any Work, Matter, or Thing in relation to the same, and the Work, through the Failure or Delay of the Owner or Occupier to execute it, shall be done by the Commissioners, or where Expenses are incurred by the Commissioners for or in respect of any Premises, in order to carry out the Provisions of this Act, the Commissioners shall charge the Owner or Occupier of the Premises with the said Expenses or Special Rates therefor, over and above any other Assessments or Rates to which such Owner or Occupier may be liable under this Act, and such Expenses or Special Rates shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be called the "Private Improvement Assessment."

Assessment
for private Improvements.

104. Such Special Sewer Rate, General Sewer Rate, and Private Improvement Assessment shall, with the legal Interest thereof from the Time when the same shall be declared payable, together with all Expenses incurred in the Recovery thereof, continue Burdens on the Lands or Premises liable for the same, or in respect of which the same shall be payable, but that only for Three Years from the Date when the same shall be respectively payable, as against bonâ fide Singular Successors or Heritable Creditors : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Rights and Remedies of Superiors for the Recovery of their Feu Duties and Casualties.

Rates and Assessment to be

Premises.

105. The Collector in any Burgh shall, when required by any Person, be bound to furnish to such Person a Certificate under his Hand in the Form of Schedule (E.) hereunto annexed, showing, with reference to any Premises, what Arrears of such Rates or Assessments, if any, are past due, and the Name of the Owner and Occupier of such Premises as appearing in his Books, and also whether any and what Instalments of such Rates or Assessments are still chargeable in respect of such Premises : Provided always, that for each Certificate in respect of Premises separately entered or charged in the Assessment Books he shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence from the Person requiring the same ; for which Fee, or for such Portion thereof as the Commissioners may direct, the Collector shall be bound to account to the Commissioners, if required by them.

106. The said Rates or Assessments may be imposed and levied yearly, half-yearly, or at such other Periods as the Commissioners may think fit, and shall be payable at such Times as they appoint ; and at the Meeting imposing the same the Commissioners shall appoint a Day on which such Rates or Assessments shall be payable, and another Day on which Appeals by any Parties complaining that they have been improperly rated or assessed may be lodged with the Clerk or Collector, and another Day or Days on which Appeals in reference to such Rates or Assessments shall be heard by the Commissioners ; and Notice to each Party intended to be so rated or assessed, stating the Particulars of the intended Rate or Assessment as regards such Party, and specifying the several Days fixed by the Commissioners as aforesaid, shall be sent by the Clerk or Collector through the Post Office at least Two Weeks preceding the Day which may be fixed for hearing the Appeal of such Party, and the Decision of the Commissioners upon all such Appeals shall be final ; but the Commissioners may rectify such Rate or Assessment so appealed against.

Recovery of the said Rates and Assessment.

107. As soon as may be after disposing of the Appeals against any such Rate or Assessment, the Commissioners shall cause to be made up a Roll or Book of Assessment or separate Rolls or Books of Assessments applicable thereto, and the same, or a Copy thereof, docketed and signed by the Clerk and any Two of the Commissioners, shall forthwith be delivered over to the Collector as the Rule for levying and collecting the said Rates or Assessments ; and if the said Rates or Assessments shall not be paid when the same fall due, the Collector shall take legal Proceedings for Recovery of the same, together with the legal Interest thereof from the Day fixed for Payment thereof as aforesaid, in the same Way and Manner as is herein-before provided for Recovery of the Police Assessment under this Act, or the said Rates or Assessments, or any Part thereof, and Interest, with the Expenses attending the Recovery of the same, may be recovered in the same Way and Manner as Debts are recoverable by the Law of Scotland.

Application of Surplus Assessment.

108. If any Surplus of any Rate or Assessment under this Act shall remain at the End of any Year after the whole Expenses for which such Rate or Assessment was imposed and levied shall have been paid or provided for, every such Surplus respectively shall, except as herein-after provided for, be applied towards the same Purpose in the Year following ; and if any such Rate or Assessment for any Year shall not be sufficient for the Purpose for which it was imposed and levied, the Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to make Provision for the Payment of such Deficiency by Assessment or Rate for the Purpose in the following Year or Years, until the same shall be fully paid.

PART III.

APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS.

SECTION I.—*Appointment of Surveyor, Inspector, and Officer of Health.*PART III.
*Appointment of Officers.
Sect. 1.*

109. The Commissioners may from Time to Time, and as often as they shall think proper, appoint a Person duly qualified to act as a local Surveyor of the Paving and Drainage and other Works authorized under the Provisions of this Act, and may fix the Salary to be paid to such Surveyor, and pay such Salary out of the several Assessments or Rates levied under this Act, and that in such Proportions therefrom as the Commissioners shall see proper.

Commissioners
may appoint a Surveyor.

110. The Commissioners may appoint some Person, by the Title of "Inspector of Cleansing," to superintend and enforce the due Execution of all Duties to be performed by the Scavengers appointed under this Act, and to report to the Commissioners any Breach of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Byelaws, Rules, and Regulations of the Commissioners, and the Commissioners shall duly publish the Name of any Inspector of Cleansing appointed by them, and shall require him to provide and keep a Book in which shall be entered all reasonable Complaints made by any Inhabitant of the Burgh of any Breach of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Byelaws, Rules, and Regulations made by the Commissioners; and the Inspector of Cleansing shall forthwith inquire into the Truth of such Complaints, and report upon the same to the Commissioners at their next Meeting; and such Report, and the Order of the Commissioners thereon, shall be entered in the said Book, which shall be kept at the Office of the Commissioners, and shall be open at all reasonable Times to the Inspection of any Householder of the Burgh or other Person interested.

Commissioners
may appoint an Inspector of Cleansing.

111. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, appoint a Person of competent Skill and Experience, who shall be styled the "Officer of Health," and whose Duty it shall be to ascertain the Existence of Disease within the Limits appointed to him, especially of epidemic, endemic, and contagious Diseases, and to point out any local Causes likely to occasion or continue such Diseases or otherwise injure the Health of the Inhabitants, and to point out the best Means of checking or preventing the Spread of such Diseases, and from Time to Time, as required by the Commissioners, to report to them upon the Matters aforesaid, and to perform any other Duties of a like Nature which may be required of him; and the Commissioners shall fix the Salary to be paid to such Officer, and shall pay such Salary out of the Police Assessment hereby authorized to be levied; and the Commissioners may, with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, remove any such Officer of Health, or, with the like Approval, discontinue any such Officer.

Commissioners
may appoint Officer of Health.

112. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, appoint the same Person to be both Surveyor of Paving and Drainage and Inspector of Cleansing.

Same Person
may be Surveyor and Inspector.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Commissioners
may provide Offices.

113. The Commissioners may provide Offices for the Use of the Surveyor, Inspector, and Officer of Health in some convenient Place within the Burgh, either in connexion with their own Office or otherwise, as may be most convenient, and shall cause due Notice thereof to be given Twice at least in some Newspaper circulating within the Burgh.

PART III.

SECTION II.—Appointment, Powers, Duties, and Privileges of Constables.

Appointment of Superintendent of Police and of Constables.

114. The Commissioners of Burghs authorized by this Act to maintain Constables shall from Time to Time appoint, at a fixed annual Salary, a Superintendent of Police, who shall not be removable or subject to have his Salary diminished by the Commissioners, unless with the Approbation of the Chief Magistrate of the Burgh, or of the Senior Magistrate of Police, and the Sheriff, or, in case of their differing in Opinion, of Her Majesty's Advocate for the Time being; and as often as such Commissioners shall fix the Number of Constables which they shall judge necessary for the Burgh the said Superintendent of Police is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint proper Persons for the Duty, and to direct their Distribution within the Burgh, and to remove them at pleasure; and the Superintendent of Police may also be appointed Surveyor of Paving and Draining and Inspector of Cleansing: Provided always, that no Burgh to be established in virtue of this Act shall be entitled to maintain Constables in Terms of this Act unless the Population of such Burgh shall, according to the last Census for the Time being, amount to Seven thousand or upwards, it being hereby declared that the true Intent and Meaning of this Act in that respect is that all such Burghs shall, in regard to Constables, be subject to or regulated by the County Police Act, Twentieth and Twenty-first of Victoria, Chapter Seventy-two, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Constables may execute Warrants, &c.

115. All Warrants and Deliverances which may be issued in any Criminal Proceeding arising within the Burgh by the Sheriff of the County may, with the Consent of the Commissioners, be served and executed, and all Services, Citations, and Executions in any such Criminal Proceeding before such Sheriff may be made and given by the Superintendent of Police or any Constable of the Burgh appointed under this Act.

Constables to account for Fees.

116. It shall not be lawful for any Constable acting under this Act to receive to his own Use any Fee for the Performance of any Act done by him in the Execution of his Duty as such Constable, but this Enactment shall not extend to prevent the Receipt by any such Constable of any Fee or other Payment which he may be liable to account for or pay over to the Commissioners or otherways for the Use of the Burgh.

Duties of Superintendent of Police and Constables.

117. It shall be the Duty of the Superintendent of Police, and of the Constables to be appointed by him, to guard, patrol, and watch within the Burgh, according to the Regulations to be prescribed

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

scribed by the Superintendent of Police, under the Control of the Commissioners ; and it shall be lawful for the said Superintendent or any Constable of Police, without any other Warrant than this Act, to apprehend and to bring before the Magistrates of Police all Persons who may be found within the Burgh actually committing any criminal, riotous, or disorderly Conduct or Act, or accused or suspected of having committed Crimes, Delinquencies, or Offences, of whatsoever Description, and at what Place and Period soever the same may have been or are suspected to have been committed, whether the same be of such a Kind as can be competently tried before the Magistrates of Police, or be of a Nature requiring to be remitted for Trial before another Tribunal, or which, from having been committed beyond the Bounds of the Burgh, fall to be tried in another Jurisdiction ; and it shall be the Duty of the said Superintendent and Constables to carry into full Effect the whole Provisions and Regulations herein contained, and any Rules, Regulations, or Byelaws which may be made under this Act for the proper guarding, patrolling, and watching within the Burgh ; and the Superintendent of Police and Constables shall at all Times afford their Aid and Assistance to the Magistrates of Police, and all other Judges and Magistrates having Jurisdiction within the Burgh, in all Matters relating to the Preservation of Peace and good Order, the Suppression of Nuisances, and the Removal of Obstructions within the Burgh, and they shall give Attendance at the Police Courts of the Burgh, and, when required, at all Meetings of the Commissioners or their Committees, and furnish them with all Explanations relating to Matters falling within their several Departments of Duty.

PART. III.
Appointment of Officers.
Sect. 2.

118. On the Requisition of the Sheriff of any County or Chief Magistrate of any Burgh in Scotland the Superintendent of Police shall, if so directed by the Magistrates, or in case of Urgency by the acting Chief Magistrate, detach Constables to act in other Counties or Burghs, Guarantee being obtained for Outlay and Expense, and also for Provision in case of Officers being injured or killed.

Power to detach Constables to other Places.

119. The Superintendent of Police and Constables shall have all the Powers and Privileges appertaining for the Time being to any Constable by the Law of Scotland, as well as all the Powers and Privileges specially conferred on Constables by this Act ; and the Superintendent of Police shall be a Constable within the Meaning of this Act.

Powers and Privileges of Superintendent of Police and Constables.

120. No Constable appointed under this Act shall resign his Office, or withdraw himself from the Duties thereof, unless expressly allowed so to do in Writing by the Commissioners or by the Superintendent of Police, or until after he has given to the Superintendent of Police One Month's Notice ; and every Constable who so resigns or withdraws himself without such Leave or Notice shall be liable to forfeit all Arrears of Pay then due to him, and to a Penalty of not more than Five Constables not to resign without Leave or Notice.

Pounds,

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Pounds, or to Imprisonment for a Period not exceeding Fourteen Days.

Commissioners to fix Salaries of Constables.

121. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to fix and appoint suitable Wages to the Constables and other Persons employed by them, to pay the necessary Expenses incurred by them in the Execution of the Duty of their respective Offices, and to reward them for meritorious Services, and also to make Provision for any Superintendent, Constable, or other Servant of the Establishment employed for any of the Purposes of this Act who may at any Time be disabled in or after long Service be unfitted for the Execution of his Duty.

Constables dismissed to deliver up Accoutrements.

122. Every Constable appointed under this Act who is dismissed from or ceases to hold or exercise his Office shall forthwith deliver over to the Superintendent of Police, or to such Person and at such Time and Place as the Commissioners direct, all the Clothing, Accoutrements, Appointments, and other Necessaries which have been supplied to him for the Execution of his Duty, under pain of Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding One Month; and the Magistrate may grant Warrant to search for and seize, for the Use of the Commissioners, all the Clothing, Accoutrements, Appointments, and other Necessaries not so delivered over, wherever the same are found.

Penalty for unlawful Possession of Accoutrements, or for assuming the Dress of Constables.

123. Every Person who, not being at the Time a Constable appointed under this Act, has in his Possession any Article being Part of the Clothing, Accoutrements, or Appointments supplied to any such Constable, and who is not able satisfactorily to account for his Possession thereof, or who puts on the Dress, or takes the Name, Designation, or Character of any Person appointed as such Constable, for the Purpose of thereby obtaining Admission into any House or other Place, or of doing or procuring to be done any Act which such Person would not be entitled to do or procure to be done of his own Authority, or for any other unlawful Purpose, shall, in addition to any other Punishment to which he is liable for such Offence, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Penalty for Neglect of Duty.

124. Every Constable who is guilty of any Neglect or Violation of his Duty as a Constable, and is convicted thereof before a Magistrate, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, the Amount of which Penalty may be deducted from the Salary or Wages due to him or to become due to him, or, in the Discretion of the Magistrate before whom he is convicted, he may be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding One Month, with or without Hard Labour.

Power to provide Offices, Watch-houses, &c.

125. The Commissioners may from Time to Time purchase or rent any Buildings or Land, and convert such Buildings into, or build on such Land, Offices, Watch-houses, Lock-up Houses, and other Places necessary for the Purposes of this Act, with all proper Conveniences thereto, and may repair the same from Time to Time, and furnish and fit up the same, and employ proper Persons to take care thereof.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

PART IV.

ORDINARY POLICE PURPOSES.

SECTION I.—*Lighting of Burghs.*PART IV,
Police
Purposes.
Sect. 1.

126. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to make Provision for lighting in a suitable Manner the whole Streets, Lanes, Squares, public Passages, Thoroughfares, and Places within the Burgh, and to provide, erect, and maintain such a Number of Lamps, Lamp Posts, and Lamp Irons, and other Appurtenances, as may be necessary for that Purpose, and to light, or to enter into Contracts for lighting, and cause to be lighted, such Lamps by means of Oil or Gas, or such other Light of an Improved Kind as they may find expedient; and the Commissioners are hereby authorized to order the Lamp Irons and Lamps to be fixed either upon the Sides of the Causeways, Streets, and Roads, or upon the Curbstones of the Pavements or Footways, or at or upon the Rails or in or upon the Walls of Buildings on the Sides of the Streets, as they shall think proper, without being liable to any Claim for Compensation thereanent.

Streets to be lighted.

127. If any Person shall take away, or wilfully break, throw down, or damage any Lamp or Lamp Post, or wilfully extinguish the Light or damage the Iron or Appurtenances of any Lamp, it shall be lawful for any Person who shall see any such Offence committed to seize and apprehend, and for any Person to assist in seizing the Offender, and by the Authority of this Act, without any other Warrant, to convey such Offender to the Police Office, or to deliver him into the Custody of a Police Officer, Watchman, or Constable or other Officer, in order to be secured and taken before a Magistrate; and if the Person accused of such Offence, whether apprehended as aforesaid or afterwards cited for the same, shall be convicted thereof, either by his own Confession or on the Evidence of One credible Witness or other legal Evidence, such Person so convicted shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every such Offence, and moreover shall make Satisfaction for the Damages so done by him; and in case such Offender shall not immediately on Conviction pay such Penalty and make such Satisfaction as aforesaid, such Magistrate is hereby empowered, in the summary Manner authorized by this Act, to commit such Offender to Prison for a Space not exceeding Sixty Days.

Penalty for
ing Lamps.

128. If any Person shall, through Negligence or Accident, break any Lamp set up in any Street, public or private, or in any common Stair or Passage, or private Court, and shall not, upon Demand, make Satisfaction for such Damage, it shall be lawful for any of the Magistrates, upon Complaint thereof being established in the Police Court, under the summary Procedure authorized by this Act, to award such Sum of Money as the Damage proved shall amount to; and if the Sum so awarded shall not be forthwith paid upon Conviction, it shall be lawful to enforce Payment thereof in the same Manner as Penalties are directed to be recovered under this Act.

Price to be paid for Gas to be ascertained in case of Dispute.

129. If the Commissioners and the Owners of any Gasworks authorized by Act of Parliament to supply Gas within the Burgh, and with whom the Commissioners shall be desirous of contracting, shall not agree as to the Terms and Conditions of the Supply, and as to the Price to be paid for such Supply, then such Terms and Conditions and Price shall be settled by Arbitration, and for that Purpose the Clauses of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," with respect to the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration, shall be and are hereby incorporated with this Act, and the Expression "the Undertakers" in the said Act shall, in reference to this Act, mean the Commissioners: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not apply to any Burgh where the Supply of Gas for public Lamps is regulated by a Local Act.

Owners to provide Lamps for common Stairs, &c.

130. The Owner or Owners of common Stairs or Passages or private Courts, or of Lands or Premises having a Right of Access by any common Stair or Passage or private Court, shall, when required by the Commissioners, within Seven Days next after Service of an Order for that Purpose, make Provisions for lighting such common Stair or Passage or Court in a suitable Manner, and for that Purpose provide and erect all necessary Lamps, and alter, repair, and renew such Lamps to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners; and in default of Compliance with any such Order such Owner or Owners shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day that he or they shall so make default.

Penalty for not keeping common Stairs, &c. lighted.

131. If the Lamp or Lamps which may be erected in any such common Stair or Passage or private Court is or are not regularly cleaned and lighted during such Hours as are from Time to Time fixed by the Commissioners, by the Occupier of any Building or Part of a Building to which Access is obtained by such common Stair or Passage or private Court, every such Occupier failing to do so, whether under Obligation by Contract, or in virtue of this Provision, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Shillings for each Offence.

PART IV.

SECTION II.—Cleansing Streets.

Dust, &c. collected to be vested in the Commissioners.

132. The Dust, Dung, Ashes, Rubbish, and Filth (excepting always Stable and Byre Dung) within the Burgh shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Commissioners, who shall have Power to sell and dispose of the same as they think proper, and the Money arising therefrom shall be applied to the Police Purposes of this Act; and the Commissioners shall cause all the Streets, public or private, together with the Foot Pavements, from Time to Time to be properly swept and cleansed, and all the Dust, Dung, Ashes, Rubbish, and Filth to be collected from such Streets, Privies, Sewers, Cesspools, Houses, or Premises, and to be removed at such convenient Hours and Times as they shall consider proper.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

133. The Commissioners may from Time to Time provide Places convenient for the Deposit of the Night Soil, Dung, Ashes, and other Filth and Rubbish to be collected under the Authority of this Act, and for stabling and keeping all Horses, Carts, Implements, and other Things required for the Purposes of this Act; and for any of such Purposes the Commissioners may purchase or hire any Lands or Premises by them considered necessary, or they may cause any new Buildings to be made upon any Lands which shall be purchased or hired by them under the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Landowner or Householder whose Property may be affected or who thinks himself thereby aggrieved to appeal to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

Commissioners may provide Lands, &c. for Deposit of Soil and Materials.

134. The Commissioners, if they think fit so to do, may cause any Number of moveable or fixed Dust Boxes or other Conveniences, wherein Dust and Ashes may be deposited until removed and carried away, to be provided and placed in such of the public and private Streets as they shall judge necessary, and may require the Occupiers of Premises within such Streets to cause all their Dust and Ashes to be deposited daily in the said Dust Boxes or other Conveniences; and every Person who, being so required, shall fail to deposit or cause to be deposited any Ashes or Dust in some of such Dust Boxes or other Conveniences shall for every Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Shillings.

Dust Boxes to be erected by Commissioners

135. The Commissioners may erect such public Waterclosets, Privies, and Urinals within the Burgh, and in such Situations as they think fit, and may defray the Expense thereof and of keeping the same in good Order, and may make Compensation for any Injury occasioned to any Person by the Erection thereof, out of the Police Assessment, but so that such Erection shall not become a Nuisance, and any Householder who thinks himself aggrieved thereby may appeal to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

Commissioners may cause public Conveniences to be erected.

136. The Commissioners shall, as often as Occasion requires, cause the public and private Streets to be watered, and they may contract with any Water Company or Person for a Supply of Water for that Purpose, and for cleansing the Sewers and Drains; and, if necessary, they may place Pipes, Conduits, and Pumps in any such Streets, or provide any other Works and Engines proper for that Purpose, and remove and alter the same when and as they think proper.

Commissioners to cause Streets to be watered, and Wells, Pumps, &c. to be provided.

137. The Commissioners shall appoint and employ a sufficient Number of Scavengers, or contract with any Person to employ Scavengers, for sweeping, cleansing, and watering such Streets, and for removing all Dust, Ashes, Rubbish, and Filth therefrom, and for emptying Privies and Cesspools in the Manner by this Act directed; and such Scavengers shall, on such Days and at such Hours and in such Manner as the Commissioners shall from Time to Time appoint, sufficiently execute all such Works and Duties as they have respectively contracted or been employed to perform; and every such Contractor who fails to sweep and properly cleanse or water any such Streets which he has contracted Commissioners to appoint Scavengers.

Sect. 2.

tracted to sweep, cleanse, or water, or who fails to clean out and empty any Privy, Cesspool, Reservoir, or Sewer which he has contracted to clean out and empty, at the Time and in the Manner appointed by the Commissioners, or to collect or remove any Dirt, Ashes, or Rubbish which he has contracted to remove, at the Time and in the Manner prescribed by the Commissioners for that Purpose, or who lays any of such Soil, Dust, Ashes, or Rubbish or Filth in any other Places than such as are appointed by the Commissioners for that Purpose, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds: Provided always, that nothing contained in this Act shall extend to or affect the Obligations of Turnpike Road or other Trustees in regard to the Roads under their Management within the Burgh.

Penalty for obstructing Scavengers.

138. Every Person who refuses to permit the said Scavengers to remove such Dirt, Ashes, or Rubbish as by this Act they are authorized to do, or who obstructs the said Scavengers in the Performance of their Duty, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty on Persons other than Scavengers removing Dirt.

139. Every Person, other than the Person employed by the Commissioners, or by some Person contracting with the Commissioners for that Purpose, who collects or carries away any Dung, Night Soil, Dust, Ashes, Rubbish, or Filth by this Act directed to be collected or removed by the Commissioners, or by Persons employed by them, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every such Offence.

Horse and Cow Dung to be kept off the Streets.

140. It shall not be lawful to deposit, except for the Purpose of Removal, any Horse or Cow Dung upon such Streets (Mews or Stable Lanes excepted); and no Horse or Cow Dung, wherever lawfully kept, shall be mixed with any Dung, Soil, Dirt, Ashes, or Filth declared by this Act to be the Property of the Commissioners; and where any Horse or Cow Dung shall be found in any such Streets (excepting as aforesaid), or shall be so mixed, the same shall be taken possession of by the Inspector of Cleansing, and sold, and the Proceeds of such Sale accounted for and applied to the Police Purposes of this Act.

Stables and Byres to be kept clean.

141. All Stables and Byres, and Areas therewith connected, shall be constantly kept in a clean Condition to the Satisfaction of the Inspector of Cleansing, under a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings for each Offence; and it shall be the Duty of the Inspector from Time to Time to examine the State of all such Places, with a view to the Enforcement of this Enactment.

Areas, &c. to be cleansed by Occupiers.

142. All private Courts, Yards, Areas, and other Places which are not cleansed by Scavengers appointed under this Act, shall be kept clean, and shall at least Three Times in every Week, or when required by the Superintendent of Police or Inspector of Cleansing, be cleaned out, by or at the Expense of the Occupiers of such Courts, Yards, Areas, or other Places respectively; and if such Courts, Yards, Areas, or other Places shall not be so kept and cleansed the Occupiers thereof shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Shillings for every such Offence.

Penalty for Neglect.

143. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners or any of them, after Inspection and Report by the Superintendent of Police or Inspector Dungsteads, &c. to be cleaned out.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Inspector of Cleansing, to regulate and limit the Time within which all common Necessaries and Dungsteads shall be emptied and cleaned out; and if any other Person under Obligation by Contract or otherwise to empty or clean out such Places shall fail so to do within the Time so limited, such other Person shall be liable in a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings, besides Forfeiture of any Stable or Byre Dung in such Place, which Dung the Inspector of Cleansing, or any other Officer authorized by the Commissioners, may remove or dispose of, or cause to be removed and disposed of, and the Proceeds, under Deduction of the Expenses of Removal, shall be applied to the Police Purposes under this Act.

PART IV.
Police
Purposes.
Sect. 2.

144. Every Person who shall lay or cause to be laid on any such Streets any Dung or Manure, for the Purpose of removing the same, shall remove and take the same away before Eight of the Clock of the Day on which it shall be so laid in such Streets, from the First Day of October to the First Day of April, and before Seven of the Clock of the Day from the First Day of April to the First Day of October; and if Dung or Manure shall be allowed to remain on any Part of such Streets after the said Hours, the Person offending shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Shillings for each Offence, and that over and above the Forfeiture of the Dung or Manure, which shall be removed by the Officers of Police, who shall have Power to dispose of the same for the Police Purposes of this Act.

As to Removal of Dung.

145. The Commissioners may from Time to Time fix the Hours within which only it shall be lawful to remove offensive Matter from any Premises; and when the Commissioners have fixed such Hours, and given public Notice thereof in such Manner as they may deem proper, every Person who removes along any such Street any offensive Matter at any Time, except within the Hours so fixed, and every Person who at any Time, whether such Hours have been fixed by the Commissioners or not, uses for any such Purpose any Cart or Carriage not having a Covering proper for preventing the Escape of the Contents of such Cart, or of the Stench thereof, or who wilfully spills any such offensive Matter in the Removal thereof, or who does not carefully sweep and cleanse every Place in which any such offensive Matter has been placed or unavoidably spilled, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings; and in default of the Apprehension of the actual Offender the Driver or Person having Charge of the Cart or Carriage employed for any such Purpose shall be deemed to be the Offender.

Penalty for

ter at improper Times.

PART IV.

SECTION III.—Paving and maintaining Streets.

146. The Commissioners may from Time to Time cause all or any of the Streets within the Burgh not under the Management of any Turnpike Road or other Trustees, or any Part of such Streets respectively, to be raised, lowered, altered, and formed in such Manner and with such Materials as they think fit, and they shall shall also repair such Streets from Time to Time: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with any Right to have applied to such Streets any Commutation for Statute Labour, or other Fund, by Law applicable to the Maintenance or Repair of such Streets; and any Person considering himself aggrieved may appeal to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

Commissioners
may place
Fences to Foot-ways.

147. The Commissioners shall from Time to Time place such Fences and Posts on the Side of the Footways of Streets as may be needed for the Protection of Passengers on such Footways, and they may place Posts in the Carriageways of such Streets, so as to make the crossing thereof less dangerous for Foot Passengers, and they shall from Time to Time repair any such Fences or Posts, or may remove the same, or any Obstructions to any such Carriageway or Footway, as they think fit.

Penalty on Persons altering Pavements without the Consent of the Commissioners.

148. Every Person who wilfully displaces, takes up, or makes any Alteration in the Pavement, Flags, or other Materials of any Street, without the Consent of the Commissioners in Writing, or without other lawful Authority, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and also a further Sum, not exceeding Five Shillings, for every Square Foot or Part of a Square Foot of the paved Flags or other Materials of the Street exceeding One Square Foot so displaced, taken up, or altered; and any Persons having Authority to take up the Pavement, Flags, or other Materials of any Street shall be bound to restore the same, in a substantial Manner and to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners; failing which, the Commissioners shall have Power to restore the Pavement, Flags, or other Materials at the Expense of such Persons, and to enforce Payment thereof.

Foot Pavements.

149. The Owners of all Lands or Premises fronting or abutting on any Street shall, at their own Expense, when required by the Commissioners, cause Footways before their Property respectively on the Sides of such Street to be made, and to be well and sufficiently paved with flat hewn or other Stones, or to be constructed in such other Manner and Form and of such Breadth as the Commissioners shall direct, and shall thereafter, from Time to Time, as Occasion may require, repair and uphold such Footways: Provided always, that where the Lands or Premises of any Owner front or abut on any Street for a continuous Length exceeding One hundred Yards, and such Lands or Premises are unfeued or unbuilt on, it shall not be lawful to the Commissioners to require such Owner to construct such Footway, but the Commissioners may themselves cause such Footway to be constructed in so far as they think proper, and shall be entitled forthwith to recover from such Owner One Third of the Expense thereof, and the remaining Two Thirds thereof whenever the Lands fronting or abutting on the Footway so constructed by them are actually feued or built upon, or laid out or used as a Garden or Pleasure Ground or Pertinent of a House.

Private Streets
not properly formed.

150. 'Whereas it would conduce to the Convenience of the 'Inhabitants, and be for the public Advantage, if Provision were 'made for the levelling, paving or causewaying and flagging of Streets

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

‘ Streets which have been laid out and formed by Persons who ‘ have neglected to have the same properly levelled, paved or ‘ causewayed and flagged, and for preventing such Inconveniences
 ‘ in future.’ Be it therefore enacted, That where any private Street or Part of a Street is at the Adoption of this Act formed or laid out, or shall at any Time thereafter be formed or laid out, and is not, together with the Footways thereof, sufficiently levelled, paved or causewayed and flagged to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause any such Street or Part of a Street, and the Footways thereof, to be freed from Obstructions, and to be properly levelled, paved or causewayed and flagged, and channelled, in such Way and with such Materials as to them shall seem most expedient ; and no such Street shall be considered to have been sufficiently paved or causewayed and flagged unless the same shall be completed with Kerbstones and Gutters to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners.

PART IV.
Police
Purposes.
 Sect. 3.

151. The whole of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by the Commissioners in respect of private Streets shall be paid and reimbursed to them by the Owners of the Lands or Premises fronting or abutting on each Street, in proportion to the Extent of their respective Premises fronting or abutting on such Street, as the same shall be ascertained and fixed by the Commissioners or their Surveyor.

Expense to be paid by Owners.

152. Where One or more private Streets or Parts thereof serve for or lead to various Premises adjoining the same, or where, from the peculiar Nature of the Locality, in the Judgment of the Commissioners, the Proportions of each Owner cannot be regulated according to the Frontage as above provided for, the Commissioners shall fix and determine the Premises the Owners of which shall be liable for such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, and the Proportions leviable from each Owner, as they shall consider, under all the Circumstances of the Case, to be just.

In certain Cases Proportion of Expenses to be fixed by Commissioners.

153. Each Owner shall be liable only for his own Proportion of the said Costs, Charges, and Expenses, and any Owner who shall have well and substantially, and to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, levelled, made, paved, or causewayed and flagged, and channelled, any Part of such private Street or of the Foot-ways thereof, or done any of such Works, shall be entitled to such Relief as shall appear to the Commissioners to be just.

Owners to be liable only for Proportions of Expenses.

154. If any private Street shall at any Time be made, paved, or causewayed and flagged, and put in good Order and Condition, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, then, and on Application of any One or more of the Owners of Premises fronting or abutting upon such Street, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to declare the same to be a Street, as defined in this Act, and for ever afterwards vested in the Commissioners, and shall, with the Exception of the Footway, be repaired and repairable by the Commissioners, under the Authority and Powers of this Act.

Private Streets
 may be declared Streets,
 as defined in this Act.

155. It shall be lawful to the Commissioners acting under this or any General or Local Act, instead of enforcing the Maintenance and Repair of Footways within Burgh by Owners, to resolve, at a Meeting

a Meeting held for the Purpose, to undertake such Maintenance and Repair, and thereafter such Footways shall be maintained and repaired by the Commissioners : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to the Footways of private Streets, nor shall affect the Right of the Commissioners to require such Footways to be previously made.

Right of Relief, &c. not to be affected.

156. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect any Right of Relief in regard to the making, paving or causewaying, maintaining, or cleansing of Streets which the Owner or any other Person may have by Feu Contract or otherwise ; nor shall any Liability attaching in Law to the Trustees of any Turnpike or other Road, or other Persons liable to make, pave or causeway, maintain, or cleanse Streets or the Footways thereof, be affected, altered, or abridged hereby.

Right of Appeal.

157. Provided always, That as regards the paving or causewaying and maintaining Streets, public or private, including the Footways thereof, it shall be lawful for any Person whose Property may be affected, and who thinks himself thereby aggrieved, to appeal to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

PART IV.

SECTION IV.—Naming the Streets, and numbering the Houses.

Houses to be numbered and Streets named.

158. The Commissioners shall from Time to Time cause the Houses and Buildings in all or any of the Streets, public or private, to be marked with Numbers, as they think fit, and shall put up or paint on a conspicuous Part of some House, Building, or Place, in legible Characters, at or near each End, Corner, or Entrance of every such Street, the Name of such Street ; and no Name shall be given to any Street without the Consent of the Commissioners ; and every Person who destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such Number or Name, or puts up any Number or Name different from the Number or Name put up or caused to be put up by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every such Offence.

Numbers of Houses to be renewed by Owner.

159. The Owners of Houses and other Buildings in the said Streets shall mark their Houses with such Numbers as the Commissioners direct, and shall renew such Numbers as often as they become obliterated or defaced ; and every such Owner who fails, within One Week after Notice for that Purpose from the Commissioners, to mark his House with a Number directed by the Commissioners, or to renew such Number when obliterated, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings ; and the Commissioners shall cause such Numbers to be marked or to be renewed, as the Case may require.

PART IV.

SECTION V.—Improving Streets and removing Obstructions.

Houses may be set forward for improving Line of Street.

160. The Commissioners may allow, upon such Terms as they think fit, any Building within the Burgh to be set forward for improving the Line of the Street in which such Building or any Building adjacent thereto is situated.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

161. The Commissioners may, at a Meeting to be held for the Purpose, resolve to acquire Lands or Premises within the Burgh for the Purpose of widening, enlarging, or otherwise improving any of the Streets, and they may re-sell any Parts of such Lands or Premises which shall not be required for such Purposes; and they may also drain, repair, or otherwise improve Courts and Places where there may be Doubt as to the Liability of Owners to execute such Works, and in Localities within the Burgh, when Houses or other Buildings are, in the Opinion of the Commissioners, built too close to each other, or have become waste and ruinous, or are liable to other Objections on sanitary Grounds, it shall also be lawful to the Commissioners to resolve to acquire Lands or Premises, for the Purpose of reserving them as vacant Spaces, or of improving the Buildings, or of otherwise disposing of them so as to improve the sanitary Condition of such Localities; and the Expense of such Acquisitions and Improvements shall be a Charge against the General Improvement Rate herein-before authorized to be levied: Provided always, that the Commissioners may resolve that the same shall be charged, as they are hereby empowered to do, against the Police Assessment.

Power to purchase Houses, &c. for additional Improvements.

Commissioners may acquire Premises for sanitary Purposes.

162. When any House or Building, any Part of which projects beyond the regular Line of the Street, or beyond the Front of the House or Building on either Side thereof, has been taken down in order to be altered, or is to be rebuilt, the Commissioners may require the same to be set backwards to or toward the Line of the Street, or the Line of the adjoining Houses or Buildings, in such Manner as the Commissioners may direct, for the Improvement of such Street: Provided always, that the Commissioners shall make full Compensation to the Owner of any such House or Building for any Damage he thereby sustains, which Compensation may be settled in the same Manner as Compensation for Land to be taken under the Provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," is directed to be settled, and shall form a Charge against the General Improvement Rate: Provided always, that the Commissioners may resolve that the same shall be charged, as they are hereby empowered to do, against the Police Assessment.

Houses projecting beyond Line of Street, when taken down, to be set back.

163. The Commissioners may give Notice to the Owner of any House or Building to remove or alter any Porch, Shed, projecting Window, Step, Cellar, Cellar Door or Window, Sign, Sign Post, Sign Iron, Showboard, Window Shutter, Wall, Gate, or Fence, or any other Obstruction or Projection erected or placed, after the Adoption of this Act, against or in front of any House or Building within the Burgh, and which is an Obstruction to the safe and convenient Passage along any Street; and such Owner shall, within Fourteen Days after the Service of such Notice upon him, remove such Obstruction, or alter the same in such Manner as shall have been directed by the Commissioners, and in default thereof shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings; and the Commissioners in such Case may remove such Obstruction or Projection, and the Expense of such Removal shall form a Charge against and be paid by the Future Projections of Houses, &c. to be removed, on Notice.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

PART IV.
Police
Purposes.
Sect. 5.

Owner so making default ; and no Person shall erect any Projection whatever in any Street without the written Consent of the Commissioners, under a Penalty of Forty Shillings for each Offence.

Commissioners may cause existing Projections to be removed, and Compensation to be made.

164. If any such Obstructions or Projections were erected or placed against or in front of any House or Building in any such Street before the Adoption of this Act, the Commissioners may cause the same to be removed or altered as they think fit, provided that they give Notice of such intended Removal or Alteration to the Owner of the House or Building against or in front of which such Obstruction or Projection shall be, Thirty Days before such Alteration or Removal is begun ; and if such Obstructions or Projections shall have been lawfully made, they shall make reasonable Compensation to every Person who suffers Damage by such Removal or Alteration.

Doors in future to be made to open inwards.

165. All Doors, Gates, and Bars put up after the Adoption of this Act within the Burgh, and which open upon any Street, shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards, except when, in the Case of public Buildings, the Commissioners allow such Doors, Gates, or Bars to be otherwise hung or placed ; and if, except as aforesaid, any such Door, Gate, or Bar be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any Street, the Owner of the Premises to which such Door, Gate, or Bar is attached shall, within Eight Days after Notice from the Commissioners to that Effect, cause the same to be altered so as not to open outwards ; and in case he neglect so to do the Commissioners may make such Alteration, and the Expenses of such Alteration shall be paid to the Commissioners by such Owner, and shall be recoverable from him, and he shall in addition be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Doors opening outwards may be altered.

166. If any such Door, Gate, or Bar was, before the Adoption of this Act, hung so as to open outwards upon any Street, the Commissioners may alter the same, so that no Part thereof when open shall project over any public Way.

Coverings for Cellar Doors to be made by Occupier.

167. When any Opening is made in any Pavement or Foot-path within the Burgh as an Entrance into any Vault or Cellar, a Door or Covering shall be made by the Owner of such Vault or Cellar, of Iron or such other Materials and in such Manner as the Commissioners direct, and such Door or Covering shall from Time to Time be kept in good Repair by the Owner of such Vault or Cellar ; provided always, that before such Opening is made the Consent of the Commissioners thereto shall be obtained in Writing ; and if such Owner do not within a reasonable Time make such Door or Covering, or if he make any such Door or Covering contrary to the Directions of the Commissioners, or if he do not keep the same when properly made in good Repair, he shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for Neglect.

168. The Owner of every House or Building in, adjoining, or near to any Street, public or private, shall put up and keep in good Condition a Shoot or Trough of the whole Length of such House or Building, and shall connect the same with a Pipe or Rain Water to be conveyed from Roofs of Houses in Pipes.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Trunk to be fixed to the Front or Side of such Building from the Roof to the Ground, to carry the Water from the Roof thereof, in such Manner that the Water from such House, or any Portico or Projection therefrom, shall not fall upon the Persons passing along such Street, or flow over the Footpath; and for the latter Purpose it shall be lawful for any such Owner to take up so much of the Pavement, Causeway, or Flagging of any Street as may be requisite, and to lay down such Drains or Tunnels, or fix Iron Drain Gutters, under the Direction of the Commissioners; and all Damage which may thereby be occasioned to the Pavement, Causeway, or Flagging of the Footpath or Carriageway shall be made good at the Expense of such Owner; and in default of Compliance with this Enactment such Owner shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day that he shall so make default, after being required by the Commissioners to comply therewith.

PART IV.
Police
Purposes.
Sect. 5.

169. Provided always, That, as regards the improving the Line or Level of any Street, and removing Obstructions, or any other Work to be executed by the Commissioners, under the Provisions of this Act, for the Improvement of any Streets, it shall be lawful for any Person whose Property may be taken or affected, and who thinks himself thereby aggrieved, to appeal to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

Parties aggrieved may appeal to the Sheriff.

PART IV.SECTION VI.—Laying out new Streets.

170. Every Person who intends to make or lay out any new Street shall give Notice thereof to the Commissioners, in order that the Level of such Street may be fixed by the Commissioners: Provided always, that where any such Street is, at the Time of the Adoption of this Act in whole or in part, the Subject of any Contract for the Formation thereof then existing, the same shall not be held or taken to be a new Street within the Meaning of this Act.

Notice of Intention to lay out new Streets to be given to Commissioners.

171. The Level of every such new Street shall be fixed by the Commissioners within Six Weeks after the Delivery of such Notice, but subject to Appeal to the Sheriff, if such Appeal shall be entered within Three Weeks from the Date of Intimation of such Deliverance by the Commissioners; and the Decision of the Sheriff, if such Appeal be taken, or such Deliverance by the Commissioners if not appealed to the Sheriff, shall be final, and the Level so fixed shall be kept thereafter by every Person erecting any House or other Building in such Street.

Levels to be fixed by the Commissioners.

172. If the Commissioners do not fix such Level within Six Weeks from the Time of the Delivery of such Notice as aforesaid, the Person giving such Notice may proceed to lay out such Street at any Level which will allow of Compliance with the other Provisions of this Act, as if such Level had been fixed by the Commissioners; and in such Case every Change of the Level which the Commissioners afterwards deem requisite, and the Works consequent thereon, shall be made by the Commissioners, and and the Expense thereof, and any Damage which any Person sustains in consequence of such Alteration, shall be defrayed by them out of the Police Assessment.

Persons laying out Streets without Notice to be liable to the Expenses of subsequent Alterations of Levels.

173. Every Person who makes or lays out any such new Street as aforesaid, without causing such Notice to be given to the Commissioners as aforesaid, shall be liable to defray all the Expenses consequent upon any Change of the Level of such Street deemed requisite by the Commissioners; and every Person who in building any House or other Building in such Street does not keep the Level fixed by the Commissioners shall be liable to defray all the Expenses consequent upon any Alteration on any such House or Buildings, or any Change of the Level of that Part of such Street on which such House or Building abuts, which the Commissioners deem requisite.

Situation of Gas and Water Pipes to be altered at the Expense of the Commissioners.

174. If the Commissioners deem it necessary to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the Situation of any Water Pipe or Gas Pipe, or other Waterworks or Gasworks, laid in any such Streets, they may from Time to Time, by Notice in Writing, require the Person to whom any such Pipes or Works belong to cause forthwith any such Pipes or Works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in Position in such Manner as the Commissioners may direct; provided that such Alteration be not such as permanently to injure such Works, or to prevent the Water or Gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before; and the Expenses attending such raising, sinking, or altering, and Compensation for every Damage done thereby, shall be paid by the Commissioners out of the Police Assessment, or other Rates or Assessments, as the Case may be, as well to the Persons to whom such Pipes or Works belong as to all other Persons.

If Gas or Water Company neglect, Commissioners may make the Alteration.

175. If the Person to whom any such Pipes or Works belong do not proceed forthwith, after the Receipt of such Notice, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered, in such Manner as the Commissioners require, the Commissioners may themselves cause such Pipes or Works to be raised, sunk, or altered, as they think fit; provided that such Works be not permanently injured thereby, or the Water or Gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before.

Commissioners may agree as to making of new Streets.

176. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to agree with any Person for the making of new Streets for the Public Use through the Lands and at the Expense of such Person, and to agree that such Streets shall become and the same shall accordingly become, on Completion, public Streets to be maintained and repaired at the Public Expense; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the Consent of Two Thirds of their Number, to agree with such Person to pay any Portion of the Expense of making such Streets out of the Police Assessment, and accordingly to pay the same.

Width of new Courts.

177. It shall not be lawful to form, lay out, or build any Court unless the same shall be of a clear Width of Fifteen Feet, measuring from the Buildings or intended Buildings therein: Provided always, that to any such Court in which there shall be more than Eight Houses there shall be an additional Width of

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

One Foot for every such additional House ; provided also, that there shall be an Entrance to every such Court of the full Width thereof, and open from the Ground upwards.

178. It shall not be lawful to build any Houses in any Court which shall be of greater Height than Thirty Feet, nor shall any Houses in any Court contain more than Two Flats above the Ground Flat, which Height shall be taken from the Level of the Ground Floor to the Eave of the Roof.

Height of Houses in Courts.

179. Every Person who shall, from and after the Adoption of this Act, form or lay out, or permit or suffer to be formed or laid out, any new Court, or any Part thereof respectively, within the Burgh, or who shall build, raise, or add to any House or Premises therein, or permit or suffer the same to be done, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, unless the same shall have been formally sanctioned by the Commissioners on a Consideration of the special Circumstances of the Case, which Sanction they are hereby empowered to give, shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and a further Sum not exceeding Five Pounds per Day for every Day after the first, during which he shall permit or suffer such new Court, or Part thereof, or such Houses or Premises, to remain so formed, laid out, built, or added to as last aforesaid : Provided always, that the Provisions of this Act relating to the Width and Construction of Courts, shall not extend or apply to any existing Court which shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners to be agreed to have been formed previous to the Adoption of this Act.

Penalty for forming Courts

that it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road from which a Toll Bar shall be removed in pursuance of the Provisions herein-before contained to levy at such Bar, where re-erected, and also at the other Bars on the said Road, the same Tolls as they might have levied if such Bar had not been removed.

Exemption of Roads under Trustees.

181. The Provisions of this Act in regard to paving and maintaining Streets, excepting Foot Pavements as above provided, shall not apply to any Roads or Streets which are or may come under the Management of Turnpike or other Road Trustees, and this Act shall in no respect repeal, alter, or affect the Powers or Obligations of such Trustees, or the Provisions of any Act of Parliament under which they act.

PART IV.

SECTION VII.—Public Sewers.

Sewers, &c. vested in Commissioners.

182. All Sewers and Drains within the Burgh, whether existing at the Time when this Act is adopted or made at any Time thereafter, (except Sewers and Drains within the private Property of any Person made and used as of private Right by any Person or Persons for his or their own Benefit, or for the Benefit of Proprietors or Shareholders, and except Sewers and Drains made and used for the Purpose of draining, preserving, or improving Land, under any Local or Private Act of Parliament,) shall vest in and belong to and be entirely under the Management and Control of the Commissioners.

Power to purchase, &c. certain Sewers.

183. The Commissioners may, if they shall think fit, purchase the Rights, Privileges, Powers, and Authorities vested in any Person for making Sewers not hereby vested in the Commissioners, or contract for the Use of any such Sewers within the Burgh, or purchase any such Sewers, with or without the Buildings, Works, Materials, and Things belonging or appertaining thereto; and any Person to whom any such Rights, Privileges, Powers, Authorities, Sewers, Buildings, Works, Materials, or Things belong may sell and dispose of the same to or otherwise contract with the Commissioners; and in case of any such Sale the Purchase Money shall be settled and applied to the same Uses and Purposes to which the Property purchased may have been subject at the Time of such Sale, and the Property purchased shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners purchasing the same, any Law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that, notwithstanding any such Purchase, any Person who previously thereto may have acquired perpetual Right to use any Sewer so purchased shall be entitled to use the same, or any other Sewer substituted in lieu thereof, in as full and ample a Manner as he would or might have done if such Purchase had not been made.

Private Sewers or Watercourses, &c.
not to be used without Consent.

184. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to authorize the Commissioners, contrary to or inconsistently with any private Right, to use, injure, or interfere with any Sewers or other Works already made or used for the Purpose of draining, preserving, or improving Land under any Local or Private Act of Parliament, or for the Purpose of irrigating Lands, or to use, injure, or interfere with any Watercourse, Stream, River, Dock, Basin, Wharf, Quay, or Towing-path in which the Owner or Occupier of any Lands, Mills, Mines, or Machinery, or the Proprietors of any Canal or Navigation, shall have Right and Interest, without Consent in Writing first had and obtained from the Person legally entitled to grant the same; and nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities given or reserved to any Person under any Local or Private Act of Parliament for the Drainage, Preservation, or Improvement of Land, or for or in respect of any Mills, Mines, Machinery, Canal, or Navigation as last aforesaid.

185. The Commissioners may from Time to Time, subject to the Approval of the Sheriff, divide the whole Burgh, if and as Occasion shall require, into separate Drainage Districts, having regard in such Division to the Nature of the Ground, to the Main Lines of Sewers by which such separate Drainage Districts are or shall be drained, and to the equal Benefit, as far as may be, of all the Lands or Premises to be comprised in any such Drainage District, and shall cause their Surveyor to define and describe the several Drainage Districts on a Plan of the Burgh to be made as after provided for.

Drainage Districts to be formed subject to the Approval of the Sheriff.

186. The Commissioners shall from Time to Time, subject to the Restrictions herein contained as to the Notice to be given and the Plans and Estimates to be prepared, cause to be made, under the Streets, public or private or elsewhere, such Main and other Sewers as shall be necessary for the effectual draining of the Burgh, and shall also, if necessary for such Drainage, deepen, divert, or cover over any Burn or any Ditch made use of as a Common Sewer, or any Ditch into which Sewage flows, and shall also cause to be made all such Reservoirs, Sluices, Engines, and other Works as shall be necessary for cleansing such Sewers, and, if needful, they may carry such Sewers through and across all underground Cellars and Vaults under any such Streets, doing as little Damage as may be, and making full Compensation for any Damage done; and if, for completing any of the aforesaid Works, it be found necessary to carry them into or through any inclosed or other Lands, the Commissioners may carry the same into or through such Lands accordingly, making full Compensation to the Owners and Occupiers thereof, and they may cause the Refuse from such Sewers to be conveyed by a proper Channel to the most convenient Site for its Collection, and Sale for Agricultural or other Purposes, as may be deemed most expedient, but so that the same shall in no Case become a Nuisance: Provided always, that if in making any such Main and other Sewers, or in repairing, reconstructing, or enlarging the same or existing Drains or Sewers, the Contents at present carried into any existing Outlet shall be diverted therefrom to the Prejudice of any actual existing legal Right, the Commissioners shall be bound to make Compensation therefor; which Compensation shall be settled in the same Manner as Compensation for Land to be taken under the Provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," is directed to be settled.

Commissioners may alter Sewers from Time to Time.

187. The Commissioners may from Time to Time, as they see fit, repair, enlarge, alter, arch, or cover over, and otherwise improve all or any of the Sewers vested in them; and if any of such Sewers at any Time appear to them to have become useless, the Commissioners, if they think fit to do so, may demolish and discontinue such Sewer, provided that it be so done as not to create a Nuisance.

Commissioners not to destroy existing Sewers, &c. without providing others.

Penalty for Neglect.

188. If any Person, by means of any Enlargement, Alteration, or Discontinuance of any Sewer, or other Proceeding of the Commissioners, be deprived of the Use of any Sewer or Drain which such Person was theretofore lawfully entitled to use, the Commissioners shall provide some other Sewer or Drain equally effectual for such Purpose; and if the Commissioners refuse, or do not within Seven Days next after Notice in Writing served upon them begin, and thereupon diligently proceed to restore to its former effective State, such Drain or Sewer the Use whereof has been affected by the Acts of the Commissioners, or to provide such other Sewer or Drain as aforesaid, they shall forfeit to the Person aggrieved any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day after the Expiration of such Seven Days during which he is deprived of the Use of the Drain or Sewer to which he was so entitled, and is not provided with such other Drain or Sewer as aforesaid.

Commissioners to cause Estimates to be prepared before Execution of Works.

189. Before entering into any Contract for executing any such Work as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall procure from their Surveyor an Estimate of the probable Expense of constructing the same in a substantial Manner, and of the yearly Expense of maintaining the same in repair, and such Surveyor shall accompany such Estimate with a Report as to the most advantageous Mode of constructing such Work, whether under a Contract for constructing the same merely, or a Contract for constructing the same and maintaining it in repair during a given Term of Years.

Penalty for making unauthorized Drains.

190. Every Person, not being employed or authorized for that Purpose by the Commissioners, who shall make any Drain from any Lands or Premises into any of the Sewers vested in the Commissioners, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and the Commissioners may cause such Drain to be remade as they think fit, and the Expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the Owner of the Lands or Premises, and that over and above a reasonable Sum of Money for the Use of the Sewers, which the Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to exact for all Lands or Premises which were not assessed for the Expense of making such Sewers, or which shall have been built, enlarged, or altered after the Assessment for making the same was imposed or levied, and the Commissioners shall fix and determine the Sum to be paid as they shall consider just.

Vaults and Cellars under Streets not to be made without the Consent

191. No Building shall be erected over any Sewer belonging to the Commissioners, and no Vault, Arch, or Cellar shall be made under the Carriageway of any Street, public or private, without the Consent of the Commissioners first obtained in Writing;

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Writing ; and all such Vaults, Arches, and Cellars shall be substantially made, and so as not to interfere or communicate with any Sewers belonging to the Commissioners ; and if, after the Adoption of this Act by any Burgh, any Building be erected, or any Vault, Arch, or Cellar be made therein, contrary to the Provisions herein contained, the Commissioners may demolish or fill up the same, and the Expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the Person erecting such Building, or making such Vault, Arch, or Cellar.

of the Commissioners.

192. All Sewers and Drains within the Burgh, whether public or private, shall be provided by the Commissioners or other Persons to whom they severally belong with proper Traps or other Coverings or Means of Ventilation, so as to prevent Stench.

All Sewers, &c. to be covered with Traps.

193. The Owners or Occupiers of Distilleries, Manufactories, and other Works shall be compelled, where possible, to dig, make, and construct Pools or Reservoirs within their own Ground, or as near their Works as possible, for receiving and depositing the Refuse of such Works, so far as offensive or dangerous to the Health of those living in the Vicinity thereof, or to use the best practicable Means for rendering the same inoffensive or innoxious before discharging it into any River, Stream, Ditch, or Sewer.

Distillers to construct Reservoirs to deposit Refuse.

194. Any Person, being the Owner or Occupier of any Lands or Premises beyond the Burgh, and in respect of which he would not be liable to the Payment of the Rates authorized to be levied under this Act, may, with the Consent of the Commissioners first obtained in Writing, upon Payment to them of a reasonable Sum of Money, to be agreed upon between them, at his own Expense, and under the Superintendence of the Surveyor of the Commissioners, cause to branch into and to communicate with any of the Sewers belonging to the Commissioners any Sewer or Drain in respect of the said Lands or Premises which may be lawfully made therefrom, of such Size and in such Manner and Form of Communication as the Commissioners approve of : Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect any Right theretofore acquired by such Owner or Occupier to use any of the Sewers or Drains belonging to the Commissioners.

Sewers may be used by Owners and Occupiers of Land or Premises beyond Limits of Burgh.

195. If the Commissioners shall consider it necessary for Public Health that any Drain should discharge itself below High-water Mark, they shall be entitled, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods and Forests, to construct the requisite Works for that Purpose in the Way and under the Regulations provided in regard to Works authorized by this Act.

Drains may be made to discharge below High-water Mark.

196. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to borrow for the Purpose of making, enlarging, reconstructing, and maintaining Sewers, and on the Security of the said Special Sewer Rates and General Sewer Rates, such Sums of Money, and at such Times, as the Commissioners shall deem necessary for that Purpose, and to assign the said Special Sewer Rates and General Sewer Rates in security of the Money to be so borrowed ; and the Provisions of this Act with respect to the borrowing of Money and the granting of Bonds therefor, and the Transference and recording of such Bonds, shall be applicable to the borrowing of Money for the Purpose of making, enlarging, reconstructing, and maintaining Sewers; and the Bonds to be granted for the Money so to be borrowed shall, mutatis mutandis, be in the Form, as near as may be, set forth in this Act, for Bonds to be granted for Money borrowed under the general Powers of this Act, and shall constitute a Lien over the Special Sewer Rates and General Sewer Rates thereby assigned, and shall entitle the Creditors therein to recover the Sums thereby due from the Commissioners and their Officers out of the first and readiest of the said Special and General Sewer Rates.

Application of Money borrowed for constructing Sewers.

197. The Money so borrowed shall be applied wholly in defraying the Expense of making, enlarging, reconstructing, and maintaining Sewers, and to no other Purpose whatsoever; and the Special and General Sewer Rates shall not be liable for nor be assigned in security of the Payment of any Sums borrowed by the Commissioners for any other Purpose than the making, Enlargement, Reconstruction, or Maintenance of Sewers.

Persons aggrieved by making, &c. Sewers may appeal to the Sheriff.

198. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful to the Commissioners to authorize the Construction of any Sewer the Sewage from which will be discharged into any River or Stream from which Water is taken for domestic Purposes so as to injure or affect such Supply; and as regards the making, altering, and maintaining Sewers, and the discharging thereof into any River or Stream, it shall be lawful for any Person whose Property may be taken or affected, or who may think himself thereby aggrieved, to appeal thereon to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

PART IV.

SECTION VIII.—Drainage of Houses.

Commissioners empowered to construct Drains from Houses, charging Owners, &c. with the Expense.

199. If any House or Building within the Burgh be at any Time not drained by a sufficient Drain or Pipe communicating with some Sewer or with the Sea, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, and if there shall be such Means of Drainage within One hundred Yards of any Part of such House or Building, the Commissioners shall construct or lay from such House or Building a covered Branch Drain or Pipe of such Materials, of such Size, at such Level, and with such Fall as they think necessary for the Drainage of such House or Building, its Areas, Waterclosets, and Offices; and the Expense thereof shall be recoverable from the Owner of such House or Building, over and above any Sum that may be charged for the Use of the Sewers as above provided for.

No House to be hereafter built without Drains being constructed.

200. No House or Building within the Burgh shall be built upon a lower Level than will allow of the Drainage of the Wash and Refuse of such House or Building into some Sewer belonging to the Commissioners, either then existing or marked out upon the Map herein-after directed to be made by them; and if there be such Means of Drainage existing within One hundred Yards of such intended House or Building, the Commissioners shall cause a Branch Drain leading thereunto from the intended Site of such House to be made, of such Materials, of such Size, at such Level, and with such Fall as they think fit; or if there be no such Means of Drainage within One hundred Yards of any Part of the said intended Site of such House or Building, then such Drain shall be made so as to lead into such covered Cesspool or other Place as the Commissioners direct, not being under any Dwelling House, and constructed and kept in complete Repair to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, so as effectually to prevent any Leakage or Effluvia therefrom until such Sewer as aforesaid is made by the Commissioners, when they shall make a Drain to communicate with such new-made Sewer, and shall demolish and fill up any such Cesspool.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

PART IV.
Police
Purposes.
Sect. 8.

201. Whenever any House is rebuilt within the Burgh, the Level of the Cellar or other lowest Floor of such House shall be raised sufficiently to allow of the Construction of such Drain as is herein-before provided in the Case of Houses to be built after the Adoption of this Act; and whenever any House is taken down to or below the Roof of the Floor commonly called the Ground or Street Floor, for the Purpose of being built up again, such building shall be deemed a rebuilding within the Meaning of this Act.

Where Houses are built, the Level shall be sufficient to allow a Drain to be constructed.

202. Before beginning to build any new House, or to rebuild any existing House within the Burgh, the Person intending to build or rebuild such House shall give to the Commissioners Notice thereof in Writing, and shall accompany such Notice with a Plan showing the Level at which the Foundation of such House is proposed to be laid by Reference to some Level ascertained under the Direction of the Commissioners.

Notice of Buildings and Rebuildings to be given to the Commissioners.

203. Within Fourteen Days after receiving such Notice, the Commissioners may signify their Disapproval of the Level at which it is proposed to lay the Foundation of any such House, and in case of such Disapproval may, within the said Fourteen Days, fix the Level at which the same is to be laid, but subject to Appeal to the Sheriff, if such Appeal shall be entered within Two Weeks from the Date of the Intimation of such Disapproval; and the Decision of the Sheriff, if such Appeal be taken, or the Deliverance of the Commissioners, if not appealed to the Sheriff, shall be final.

Commissioners may signify Disapproval within Fourteen Days.

204. In default of sending such Notice and Plan, or if such Building be begun or made at any Level different from that fixed by the Commissioners, within the said Fourteen Days, or determined on Appeal, as after provided, or in any other respect is contrary to the Provisions of this Act, the Commissioners may, if necessary, cause such Building to be altered or demolished, as the Case requires, and the Expense incurred by the Commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the Person failing to comply with the Provision aforesaid.

Commissioners may cause Houses built without Notice, &c. to be altered.

205. If the Commissioners fail to signify in Writing their Approval or Disapproval of the Level shown on such Plan as aforesaid within Fourteen Days after receiving such Notice and Plan as aforesaid, the Person giving such Notice may, notwithstanding anything herein contained, proceed to build or rebuild the House therein referred to according to the Level shown on such Plan, provided that such building or rebuilding be otherwise in accordance with the Provisions of this Act.

Drains and Cesspools to be kept in good Order.

If Owners neglect, Commissioners may cause the same to be done, &c.

As to the Inspection of Drains and Cesspools.

206. All Branch Drains, as well within as without the Premises to which they belong, and all Cesspools or Reservoirs within the Burgh, shall be under the Survey and Control of the Commissioners, and shall be altered, repaired, and kept in proper Order at the Cost and Charges of the Owners of the Premises to which the same belong, or for the Use of which they are constructed or continued; and if the Owner of any Premises to which any such Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir belongs neglect, during Seven Days after Notice in Writing for that Purpose, to alter, repair, and to put the same into good Order in the Manner required by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may, at the Expense of such Owner, cause such Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir to be altered, repaired, covered, and put in good Order.

207. The Surveyor of the Commissioners may inspect any Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir within the Burgh, and for that Purpose, at all reasonable Times in the Daytime, after Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing to the Occupier of the Premises to which such Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir is attached, may enter upon any Premises, with such Assistants or Workmen as are necessary, and cause the Ground to be opened where he thinks fit, doing as little Damage as may be; and if such Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir be found to be in proper Order and Condition, he shall cause the Ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be; and the Expense of opening, closing, and making good such Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir shall in that Case be defrayed by the Commissioners.

Penalty on Persons making or altering Drains, &c. contrary to the Orders of the Commissioners.

208. If such Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir be on Inspection found to have been constructed, after the Adoption of this Act, contrary to the Directions and Regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or if any Person, without the Consent of the Commissioners, construct, rebuild, or unstop any Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up or not to be made, every Person so doing shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and the Commissioners may cause such Amendment or Alteration to be made in any such Drain or Cesspool or Reservoir as they think fit.

Parties aggrieved may appeal to the Sheriff.

209. As regards House or Branch Drains, and the building or rebuilding any House, it shall be lawful for any Person whose Property may be thereby taken or affected, and thinking himself thereby aggrieved, to appeal thereon to the Sheriff in manner after provided.

PART IV.

SECTION IX.—Soil Pipes and Water-closets.

Water and Water-closets.

210. Within One Month next after Notice given by the Commissioners in Writing for that Purpose, the Owner of every House or Part of a House occupied by a separate Family into which Water has not been already introduced shall introduce Water into every such House or Part of a House within the Burgh,

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

PART IV.
Police
Purposes.
Sect. 9.

Burgh, by means of a Pipe not less than Half an Inch Bore, fitted with a Crane opening upon the Sink and Soil Pipe after mentioned, and shall fit up, in some Window, Recess, or other well-lighted and ventilated Place, a Sink, to be connected with a Soil Pipe, duly trapped, leading into the nearest Drain, sufficient to carry off the whole foul Water; and after a like Notice every such Owner shall also provide for such House or Part of a House occupied by a separate Family, wherever practicable, a sufficient Water-closet; and the said Sinks, Soil Pipes, and Water-closets shall be properly applied, trapped, and ventilated, and these, and the Water Pipes, fitted up in a most complete Manner, and so as to prevent any Leakage or Effluvium therefrom, shall be kept in complete Repair, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners: Provided always, that if, in the Opinion of the Commissioners, it is not advisable to introduce Water-closets into each House or Part of a House, they, after a like Notice, may require the Owners of a Tenement to construct on each Flat, or in some convenient Place or Places adjacent to such Tenement, a sufficient Number of Water-closets for the separate Use of each Sex of the Inmates and Occupiers of the said Tenements: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not be enforced by the Commissioners where, from Water not having been laid under sufficient Pressure, or from Drains being still unmade, or from any other Cause, such Works shall be impracticable.

211. If at any Time it shall appear to the Commissioners, upon the Report of the Surveyor, that any House is used or intended to be used as a School or Factory, or Building in which Persons of both, or either of the Sexes, and above Ten in Number, are employed or intended to be employed at One Time in any Manufacture, Trade, or Business, the Commissioners may, if they shall think fit, by Notice in Writing to the Owner or Occupier of such House, require them or either of them, within a Time to be specified in such Notice, to construct a sufficient Number of Water-closets or Privies for the separate Use of each Sex; and any Person refusing or neglecting to comply with any such Notice shall be liable for each Default to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and a further Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day during which the Default is continued.

Certain Water-closets to be constructed in Factories, &c.

212. It shall be lawful for the Owners of any One or more Floors or Stories of any House or other Building within the Burgh to have a Supply Pipe from any Water Pipe in the Street brought up the common Staircase, or along the Back or Side Wall of the Tenement on the Outside, and either passing underground through the sunken Story or lowest Flat, or, where practicable, through any common Entry; provided always, that Authority shall be first obtained from the Magistrates, which may be granted summarily, on hearing the Parties concerned, without written Pleading, to lay and put up such Pipe; and the Expense of laying and putting up, and of keeping the same in repair, and the Damage thereby occasioned to the Street and otherwise, shall be defrayed by the Person using the same; and no Person shall have Power to join the Supply Pipe to any Main Owners of Flats of Houses to have a Supply Pipe from Water Pipe.

Police and Improvement (Scotland).

Pipe without the Sanction of the Magistrates or any One of them so obtained, and of any Water Company who may supply such Water.

Soil Pipes may be carried through the different Houses.

213. Where there are Two or more Houses in any Tenement, the Owner and Occupier of each House shall permit Soil Pipes, if necessary, to be carried through the same; and the Owner and Occupier of the lowest Story shall permit such Soil Pipes, if necessary, to be carried through and under the same; and all such Owners and Occupiers shall at all reasonable Times afford Access to all such Houses for the Construction of the Works, and for making all Repairs necessary thereon, without any Claim for Compensation: Provided always, that the Works shall be so executed as to occasion the least Inconvenience to any such Owner and Occupier, and that any Injury done to such Houses in the Execution of the Works shall be forthwith repaired, and that the Authority of the Magistrates shall first be obtained, in the Manner herein-before provided with respect to Supply Pipes from Water Pipes.

Penalty for introducing Ashes into Soil Pipes.

214. The Occupier of any House or other Place into the Cesspool or Soil Pipe of which any Ashes or other Matter calculated to choke the same shall be introduced or allowed to enter shall be liable in a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, besides, where Damage has been caused by such Offence, being liable to repair such Damage.

Owners of Flats of Houses may erect Waste Pipes to communicate with Drains.

215. In all Streets, and other Places within the Burgh, where Common Sewers are or may be constructed, it shall be lawful for any Owner of One or more Floors or Stories of any House or other Building divided into separate Floors or Stories (on obtaining Authority for the Purpose from the Magistrates summarily, after visiting the Premises, or on the Report and Recommendation of the Surveyor, or of such other Person skilled in Building as any of the Magistrates may appoint, and on hearing the Parties interested,) to erect a Waste or Foul-water Pipe or Soil Pipe in or upon the common Staircase, or along the Back or Side Wall of the Tenement on the Outside, to communicate with any Drain underground leading into the Common Sewer, where there is such Drain, and with Power to make such Drain if none already exist: Provided always, that the Sanction of the Commissioners shall be obtained before connecting such Drain with any Common Sewer in the Street; and the Expense and Damage occasioned by erecting and constructing such Pipe, Drain, and Communication, with the Expense of restoring the Street, so far as interfered with, and the Expense of keeping such Drain and Communication clean and in good Repair, with such reasonable Allowance for the Use of the Common Sewer in the Street as the Commissioners may fix, shall be defrayed by the Owners of the Floors or Flats making use thereof, in proportion to their respective Rents or annual Value, as the same may be ascertained from the Police Assessment Books or otherwise; and in case of Dispute among the Parties or any of them relative to their Proportion of such Expense, the same shall be determined by the Magistrates, or any One of them, in a summary Manner, and such Decision shall be final.

PART IV.

SECTION X.—Supply of Water.

216. The Commissioners shall cause all existing public Cisterns, Pumps, Wells, Conduits, Fountains, and other Waterworks used for the gratuitous Supply of Water to the Inhabitants within the Burgh to be continued, maintained, and supplied with Water, or they shall substitute other such Works equally convenient, and shall cause them to be maintained and supplied with Water; and such public Cisterns and other Works shall be vested in the Commissioners, and be under their Management and Control; and the Commissioners may construct and maintain any Number of new Cisterns, Pumps, Conduits, Fountains, and other Waterworks for the gratuitous Use of any Persons who choose to carry the same away, not for Sale, but for their own private Use, and may supply with Water any public Baths or Wash-houses.

Power to Commissioners to construct public Cisterns and Pumps for Supply of Water to Baths and Wash-houses.

217. The Commissioners may contract, for any Period not exceeding Three Years at One Time, with the Owners of any Waterworks, or any other Person, for such Supply of Water as the Commissioners shall think necessary for the Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners may contract for Supply of Water.

218. If the Commissioners, and the Owners of any Waterworks authorized by Act of Parliament to supply Water within the Burgh, with whom the Commissioners may be desirous of contracting, do not agree as to the Terms and Conditions of the Supply and the Price to be paid for such Supply, then such Terms and Conditions and Price (except where by the Act authorizing such Waterworks some other Mode of determining such Terms and Conditions and Price shall be provided) shall be settled by Arbitration, and for that Purpose the Clauses of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," with respect to the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration, shall be incorporated with this Act.

For ascertaining Price to be paid for Water in case of Dispute.

219. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, at the Sight of the Engineer of any Water Company established or to be established for supplying Water within the Burgh, or any Company actually supplying Water within the Burgh, to place proper Fire Cocks upon the Pipes belonging to any such Company within the Burgh, at such convenient Distances from each other and at such Places as may be considered proper for the Supply of the Fire Engines when brought into operation, the Positions of such Fire Cocks being first arranged by the Commissioners with the Directors of such Water Company; and in case of Difference of Opinion between them the same shall be determined by the Sheriff of the County, whose Judgment thereon shall be final, and not subject to Review.

Fire Cocks may be placed on Pipes of Water Companies.

220. The Commissioners may provide the Burgh with such a Supply of Water as may be proper and sufficient for the Purposes of this Act, and for maintaining such a constant Flow of Water, by means of a Reservoir or Reservoirs or otherwise, along any natural River Bed or Watercourse within the Burgh, as may be requisite to carry away the Sewage and Drainage discharged into the same, and for private Use to the Extent required by this Act; and for those Purposes, or any of them, the Commissioners may, from Time to Time, contract with any Person whomsoever, or purchase, take upon Lease, hire, construct, lay down, and maintain such Reservoirs and Waterworks, and do and execute all such Works, Matters, and Things as shall be necessary and proper, including the opening of Streets, public or private, from Time to Time for the Purpose of laying down, altering, or repairing Water Pipes therein; and any Waterworks Company or Owners or Lessees of Reservoirs may contract with the Commissioners to supply Water for the Purposes of this Act in any Manner whatsoever, or may sell and dispose of or lease their Reservoirs and Waterworks to the Commissioners; and the Commissioners may provide and keep in any Waterworks constructed or laid down by them under the Powers of this Act a Supply of pure and wholesome Water, and the Water so supplied may be constantly laid on at such Pressure as will carry the same to the Top Storey of the highest Dwelling House within the Burgh; and the Commissioners, by means of such Reservoirs and Waterworks, or either of them, may maintain such a constant Flow of Water along any natural River Bed or Watercourse within the Burgh as may be requisite for the Health of the Inhabitants of the Burgh, and to carry away the Sewage and Drainage discharged into the River: Provided always, that before constructing or laying down any Waterworks under the Powers of this Act within any Limits within, for, or in respect of which any Waterworks Company shall have been established for supplying Water, the Commissioners shall give Notice in Writing to every Waterworks Company within whose Limits the Commissioners may be desirous of laying on or supplying Water, stating the Purposes for and (as far as may be practicable) the Extent to which Water is required by the Commissioners; and it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to construct or lay down any Waterworks within such Limits, if and so long as any such Company shall be able and willing to lay on Water proper and sufficient for all reasonable Purposes for which it is required by the Commissioners; and in case any Difference shall arise as to whether the Water which any such Company is able and willing to supply or lay on is proper and sufficient for the Purposes for which it is required by the Commissioners, or whether the Purposes for which it is required are reasonable, the same shall be settled by the Sheriff, upon summary Application by either of the Parties, and the Decision of the Sheriff shall be final.

Commissioners may provide sufficient Supplies of Water, and may erect Waterworks, &c.

221. Where the Commissioners are able and willing to supply the Houses or Tenements within the Burgh with Water for domestic and ordinary Purposes, the Owners of such Houses and Tenements shall be entitled to obtain such Supply by connecting a Service Pipe with the Main Pipes to be laid down by the Commissioners, the Expense of such Service Pipes and of connecting the same with the Main Pipes being defrayed by such Owners; and where the Houses and Tenements generally in any Street, public or private, within the Burgh shall be supplied with Water by means of such Service Pipes, it shall be competent to the Commissioners to require the Owner of any Tenement in such Streets not so supplied to take a Supply of Water by connecting a Service Pipe with the Main Pipe as aforesaid; and in the event of Refusal or Delay on the Part of such Owner to comply with such Requisition, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to enter such House or Premises, and proceed to lay down such Service Pipe themselves, and to recover the Expense thereof from such Owner.

222. No Person within the Burgh shall be entitled, without special Agreement with the Commissioners, to use the Water supplied through the Pipes of the Commissioners, except for domestic and ordinary Purposes; but where there is a Supply of Water more than is required for such domestic and ordinary Purposes within the Burgh, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to contract with any Person or Persons within the Burgh to supply any public Baths and Wash-houses, Works, Manufactories, or other Premises within the Burgh with Water, at such Rate and upon such Terms and Conditions as may be agreed on, or, in the event of Disagreement, either as to the Ability of the Commissioners to give the Supply, or as to the Rate, Terms, or Conditions on or in respect of which the Supply is to be given, the same shall be fixed by the Sheriff, upon summary Application by either of the Parties, and the Decision of the Sheriff shall be final.

223. Whosoever shall wilfully or carelessly break, injure, or open any Lock, Cock, Waste Pipe, or Waterworks belonging to or under the Management or Control of the Commissioners, or shall unlawfully flush, draw off, divert, or take Water from any Waterworks belonging to or under the Management or Control of the Commissioners, or from any Waters or Streams by which such Waterworks are supplied, or shall wilfully or negligently waste or cause to be wasted any Water with which he is supplied by the Commissioners, shall for every such Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and a further Penalty of Twenty Shillings for each Day whilst the Offence is continued after written Notice in that Behalf, which Penalties shall be paid to the Commissioners: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Owner or Occupier of any Premises through or by which any Streams may flow from using the same as they would have been entitled to do if this Act had not been passed.

224. Whosoever shall bathe in any Stream, Reservoir, Conduit, Aqueduct, or other Waterworks belonging to or under the Management or Control of the Commissioners, or shall wash, cleanse, throw, or cause to enter therein any Animal, Rubbish, Filth, Stuff, or Thing of any Kind whatsoever, or shall cause or permit or suffer to run or be brought therein the Water of any Sink, Sewer, Drain, Engine, or Boiler, or other filthy, unwholesome, or improper Water, or shall do anything whatsoever whereby any Water belonging to the Commissioners, or under their for Hire, or are the Property of a Dealer, or for Steam Engines, or for Railway Purposes, or for warming or ventilating Purposes in Public Buildings, or for working any Machine or Apparatus, or for any Trade, Manufacture, or Business whatsoever, or for watering Gardens by means of any Tap, Tube, Pipe, or other such like Apparatus, or for Fountains, or for flushing Sewers or Drains, or for Public Baths or Wash-houses, or for any ornamental Purpose whatever.

226. With respect to the Supply of Water within Burgh, all the Clauses and Provisions of "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the following Matters ; (that is to say,)

With respect to the Construction of the Act, and any Act incorporated therewith :

With respect to the Construction of the Waterworks :

With respect to the Communication Pipes to be laid by the Inhabitants :

With respect to Waste or Misuse of the Water supplied by the Undertakers :

With respect to the Provisions for guarding against fouling the Water of the Undertakers :

With respect to the Payment and Recovery of the Water Rates :

And with respect to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and of Penalties, and to the Determination of any other Matter referred to Justices or to the Sheriff :

Shall, so far as the same are not varied by the Provisions of this Act, be incorporated with this Act ; and the Expression "the Undertakers" in the said Waterworks Clauses Act shall, in reference to this Act, mean the Commissioners under this Act : Provided always, that the Water to be supplied by the Commissioners need not be constantly laid on under Pressure.

227. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to make Bye-laws regulating all or any Matters and Things whatsoever connected with the Water to be supplied within the Burgh through their Pipes.

PART IV.

SECTION XI.—Surveys and Plans.

228. The Commissioners shall procure as herein-after provided a Survey and Map or Maps of the Burgh on a Scale of not less than Sixty Inches to a Mile, and shall cause to be marked thereon the Course of all the existing Sewers and Drains belonging to them or under their Care or Management, and, as far as can be ascertained, the Lines of Pipes or Conduits for the Collection and Distribution of Water, the Course of the Pipes for the Distribution of Gas, and such other Works, with such other Particulars as may be necessary in order to show the underground Works within the Burgh, and shall cause the said Map to be from Time to Time corrected, and such Additions to be made thereto as may show the Sewers and Drains for the Time being belonging to the Commissioners, and such other Pipes and underground Works as aforesaid ; and such Map and Plan, or a Copy thereof, with the Date expressed thereon of the last Time when it was so corrected, shall be kept in the Office of the Commissioners, and shall be open at all seasonable Hours to the Inspection of the Owners or Occupiers of any Lands or Premises within the Burgh.

229. The Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance shall, on the Application of the Commissioners, and at their Expense, furnish, for the Use of the Commissioners, One or more Copies of any Map of the Burgh or any Part thereof which shall have been made under the Direction of the said Ordnance Officers, or shall cause a Survey to be made of the Burgh on a Scale of not less than Sixty Inches to the Mile, by Surveying Officers appointed by them, for such Remuneration as shall previously be agreed upon between the said Principal Officers and the Commissioners.

230. The Commissioners shall cause to be marked on the Map so procured by them a Series of Marks and Figures at convenient Distances on the said Map, denoting the Height of the Ground at every such Mark above or below the Level of a particular Spot within the Burgh, which may be easily found and identified, the Position of which Spot shall be described on the Map, and shall also cause to be drawn, wherever practicable, Lines of equal Altitude at every Four Feet of Elevation, or at such other Intervals as may appear upon due Inquiry to be the best adapted for the Guidance of Works of Sewerage and Drainage, for the Collection and Distribution of Water, and for other Purposes within the Burgh for which a Knowledge of the Levels of the Burgh may be necessary, and shall also cause proper Bench Marks for denoting the Levels to be inscribed and marked at convenient Distances and Places, at the Corner of Streets, public or private, on Posts, Houses, or other prominent Objects within the Burgh.

231. The Commissioners may cause every such Plan to be copied, engraved, or printed, and coloured, in such Manner as appears to them most convenient, and may defray the Costs of any Surveys and Maps made as aforesaid, and any Costs incurred by them in regard to any such Map, out of the Police Assessment.
