Re. DMCA Takedown Notice

To Whom It May Concern

I am writing in order to issue a DMCA takedown request on a photo that your website is using. The image in question is an aerial shot of the QEII bridge in London taken very early morning. The URL of this image on your site is:

https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Queen\_Elizabeth\_II\_Bridge.jpg

The image below is a JPEG version of my original file, I have also attached the same version to the email accompanying this letter. For further reference this image is sold through various stock agencies and I have also given the URL of it on Adobe Stock. My pseudonym at Adobe Stock is Big Rolo Images.

I confirm that I request this DMCA takedown in good faith that the image is authorised by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law, the copyright owner being Mr Jason Row

I also confirm that the information in the DMCA takedown notice is accurate and under penalty of perjury, that I am authorised to act on behalf of the copyright owner.

Yours Faithfully
