An Act to indemnify the Governor and Company of the Bank of England in respect of certain Issues of their Notes, and to confirm such Issues, and to authorize further Issues for a Time to be limited.

[12th December 1857.]

WHEREAS by the Act of the Session holden in the 7 & 8 Vict. Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter c. 32. Thirty-two, "to regulate the Issue of Bank Notes and for giving to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England certain Privileges for a limited Period," the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are prohibited from issuing Bank of England Notes either into the Banking Department of the Bank of England or to any Persons or Person whatsoever, save in exchange for other Bank of England Notes, or for Gold Coin, or for Gold or Silver Bullion received or purchased for the Issue Department of the said Bank under the Provisions of that Act, or in exchange for Securities acquired and taken in the said Issue Department under the Provisions therein contained: And whereas under the said Act and an Order in Council issued under the Provisions thereof the Amount of Securities to be acquired and taken in the said Issue Department stands limited not to exceed the Sum of Fourteen million four hundred and seventy-five thousand Pounds: And whereas by a Letter dated the Twelfth Day of November last the First Lord of the Treasury and the Chancellor of the Exchequer informed the Governor and Deputy Governor of the Bank of England that Her Majesty's Government had observed with great Concern the serious Consequences which had ensued from the recent Failure of certain Joint Stock Banks in England and Scotland, as well as of certain large mercantile Firms chiefly connected with the American Trade; that the Discredit and Distrust which had resulted from these Events, and the Withdrawal of a large Amount of the Paper Circulation authorized by the existing Bank Acts, appeared to Her Majesty's Government to render it necessary for them to inform the Bank of England that if they should ‘ be unable in the present Emergency to meet the Demands ‘ for Discounts and Advances upon approved Securities without ‘ exceeding the Limits of their Circulation prescribed by the ‘ Government would be prepared to propose to Parliament ‘ upon its meeting a Bill of Indemnity for any Excess so ‘ issued; and that, in order to prevent that temporary Re‘ laxation of the Law being extended beyond the actual ‘ Necessities of the Occasion, Her Majesty’s Government were ‘ of opinion that the Bank Terms of Discount should not be ‘ reduced below their then present Rate: And whereas the ‘ Governor and Company of the Bank of England have since ‘ the said Twelfth Day of November One thousand eight ‘ hundred and fifty-seven issued Bank of England Notes in ‘ exchange for Securities acquired and taken in the said Issue ‘ Department beyond the Amount limited by Law, and it is ‘ expedient that the Acts of the said Governor and Company ‘ in relation to the Matters aforesaid should be confirmed, and ‘ that the Restriction on the Amount of the Securities to be ‘ acquired and taken in the said Issue Department should be ‘ suspended for a limited Time:’ Be it therefore enacted by from the Twelfth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and shall continue suspended until the Expiration of Twenty-eight Days after the First Meeting or Sitting of Parliament in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-fifty-eight, subject to the Proviso herein-after contained, and during such Suspension the Provisions of the said Act in relation to the Issue of Bank of England Notes shall be construed and take effect as if the Restriction on the Amount of Securities in the said Issue Department, and the Prohibition of the Increase of such Amount and of the Issue of additional Bank of England Notes thereon, had not been contained in the said Act: Provided always, that if before the Expiration of the Time herein-before limited the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give public Notice that they have reduced the minimum Rate of Interest required by them below the Rate of Ten per Centum per Annum, the said Suspension shall cease.

III.  ‘ Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time ‘ or Times as he or they should be on their March as in the ‘ same Act is before mentioned, or during such Time as he or ‘ they should be and remain in some Seaport Town or other

 ‘ Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emer-

 ‘ Quarters or Billets for such Soldiers at the Time such ‘ Quarters or Billets should be desired, and that all such ‘ Names should be written together and delivered in One Piece ‘ of Paper, signed as aforesaid, and that the Christian and ‘ should be billeted or quartered, should be given in Writing ‘ by the Constable or Civil Officer billeting or quartering such ‘ Soldier, and be contained in the Billet given by such Civil ‘ Officer: And whereas it has been found inconvenient and ‘ difficult to comply with all the Requirements of the said ‘ Enactment:’ It shall not be necessary, so long as this Act shall continue in force, for any Officer, upon the Occasion of his requiring Quarters or Billets for any Soldiers in Ireland, to deliver to the Constable or other Person whose Duty it shall be to find or give the same any List of the Names of the Soldiers to be so quartered or billeted; and it shall not be necessary for the Constable or other such Person as aforesaid to set forth in any Billet the Name of any Soldier to be billeted or quartered, but only the Number of the Soldiers, or the Number of the Soldiers and Horses respectively, as the Case may require, to be billeted or quartered on the Person named in the Billet, and to whom the same shall be addressed.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the District of Skipton in the West Riding of the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the Township of Skipton in the West Riding of the County of York, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Township, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial-grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundary which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry, and has reported in writing to the said

General

General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act.

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act; and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and no such statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the boundary which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act was not the same as that of the said Township with respect to which the said inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the aforesaid William Ranger to visit the parts within the boundary proposed to be adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all persons desirous of being heard before him on the subject of the said Report, and of the boundary proposed to be adopted for the purposes of the said Act; and did make further inquiry, and report according to the directions of the said Board.

And whereas copies of such further Report, accompanied by a notice stating that, within the time directed by the said Act, written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act; and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and no such statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears upon such Reports that there is a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the said Township having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; that is to say,

An Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better supplying with Water the Town of Skipton in the West Riding of the County of York."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to a district comprised within the boundary described in the Schedule to this Order annexed, and shown by the line described as "Proposed Boundary," on the map accompanying the said first printed Report to the General Board of Health, bearing date the 26th March 1857, and further described in the Appendix to the aforesaid Report (p. 23), but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament.

Now

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, the said General Board of Health do, by this Provisional Order under my hand, as President of the said Board, and under their official seal, order and direct, That from and after the day appointed for the first election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order—

- 1.—The Public Health Act, 1848, shall apply to the entire area comprised within the boundary described in the Schedule to this Order annexed, being the parts within which the said inquiry and further inquiry have been made, and such area shall be a District, for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to be called the Skipton District.
- 2.—The Local Board shall consist of nine persons resident, in the manner provided by the Act confirming this Order.
- 3.—One-third of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the Twenty-fifth day of March in each year subsequent to that in which the first election of the said Local Board takes place.
- 4.—Every person shall, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value of not less than one thousand pounds, or shall be rated to the relief of the poor of the said District, or of some township or place of which some part is within the said District, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.
- 5.—At the first election of the said Local Board, Henry Alcock, Esquire, of Airville, Skipton, shall have the powers and perform the duties in relation to such election vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, and all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Henry Alcock, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be absent, or shall refuse or be unable to act, then Stephen Bailey Hall, Esquire, of Skipton aforesaid, shall act in his place.
- 6.—The fourteen days notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election shall be given to the said Henry Alcock, at his residence, Airville, Skipton; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Stephen Bailey Hall, at his offices, Skipton.

Given under my Hand and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Second day of February, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

 ‘ found accurate and faithful, and that in these Cases the Cer-

 ‘ Entries from the rest, and to confine the Sanction of the ‘ Commissioners to the unobjectionable Portion of the Re‘ gisters; and a complete List of the Registers thus wholly or ‘ partially sanctioned by the said Commissioners is annexed to ‘ their Report in the Appendix (A.) thereto; and the said ‘ Commissioners have by their said Report recommended that ‘ a Bill be introduced into Parliament providing that the Re-

I. The said Scheme shall be confirmed and take effect.

SCHE-

SCHEDULE.

SCHEME for the ADMINISTRATION of the CHARITY called "SIR ELIAS HARVEY'S CHARITY," at Folkestone, in the County of Kent.

1. The Charity shall be managed by the present and future trustees thereof, for the purposes and according to the provisions of this scheme, from the time herein-after appointed for its coming into operation.

2. The tan-house or tan-lade near the Stade at Folkestone, settled upon the trust that the same might be used in perpetuity by the freemen and other inhabitants of Folkestone, and the fishermen there, for tanning their nets, upon payment of certain sums to be applied to its repair and to the repair also of a farm-house at Lympne, in the same county, settled upon different charitable trusts, shall continue subject to the same trusts, except that the persons using the same shall make therefore such rateable payments only to the trustees as shall be required by them for its necessary repair, maintenance, and management. The trustees shall also be at liberty, in their discretion, to apply or set aside any sums of money, not exceeding altogether 5l. in any year, out of the rents of the said farm at Lympne, towards the expenses of the repair, maintenance, management, or improvement of the said tan-lade, and shall have power also to establish and enforce such reasonable orders for the government of the persons using the said tan-lade as in their judgment shall be necessary for securing or extending its benefit.

3. The former trusts for providing or appropriating any fisher-boats with the income of the Charity, and for apprenticing boys, otherwise than according to this scheme, shall cease, in order that the funds of the Charity may be more sufficient for the other beneficial purposes thereof to be hereby enlarged or established.

4. The school directed to be maintained out of the income of the Charity for teaching 20 poor children to write and read English, and (if willing) the Latin tongue, shall be open to so many boys, to be admitted thereto under the provisions of this scheme, as the income or funds from time to time applicable to the support thereof, and the sufficiency of the buildings and establishment of the said school, and other circumstances, shall, in the judgment of the trustees, permit or render expedient.

5. The instruction to be given in the said school shall comprise, besides reading and writing, the truths of the Christian religion and Scripture history, grammar, and English history and composition, the Latin and French languages, so far as shall be required by the trustees, arithmetic, algebra, and elementary mathematics, geography and the use of the globes, navigation, mapping, linear drawing, and land measuring, and such physical sciences most applicable to the industrial arts and occupations, occupations, and such other subjects, as shall from time to time be required by the trustees for giving to all the scholars a sound practical education, enabling them to advance themselves in life.

6. The religious instruction to be given generally to the scholars shall be in accordance with the doctrines of the Established Church, except that boys whose parents or next friends shall object upon conscientious grounds to their receiving instruction in the catechism or distinctive doctrines of the Established Church, or attending its services, and shall claim for them in writing this exemption, shall be exempted from such instruction and attendance.

7. Subject to any different regulations which may from time to time be made by the trustees, with the assent of the mayor and aldermen of the borough of Folkestone, or, in case of difference, with the approval of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, boys shall be admissible to the school at and after the age of eight years, and may remain therein until their completion of the age of sixteen years, or longer, with the special consent of the trustees.

8. The admission of boys and their removal shall belong to the trustees, under such regulations in this behalf as shall be established by them, with the assent of the said mayor and aldermen, or, in case of difference, with the approval of the said Board, a preference among applicants for admission being always given, cæteris paribus, to boys whose parents or next friends shall for the time being be inhabitants of the borough of Folkestone, and, as far as reasonably may be, to the sons of fishermen there; and a list of applicants for admission, in the order of their application, and stating their parentage, ages, and such other circumstances as shall be directed by the trustees, shall be kept by the master of the school, whose duty it shall be to receive such applications, and such list shall be open to examination by the trustees and the said mayor and aldermen, and every of them.

9. For providing sufficient funds in aid of the endowments for the maintenance and improvement of the school, and the reward and advancement of the scholars, such reasonable fees shall be paid by them as the trustees, with the assent of the said mayor and aldermen, or, in case of difference, with the approval of the said Board, shall from time to time require, not exceeding, for boys under the age of twelve years, the rate of 1*l.* per quarter, and for boys above that age, 2*l.* per quarter, such fees to be paid quarterly, in advance, and to be received by the master, or by such person as the trustees shall from time to time appoint, for their account and disposal; and the trustees shall pay one moiety of the net amount of such fees to the master for his use, and shall carry the other moiety thereof to the account of the school fund herein-after directed to be constituted by them; but the said fees may be remitted in any particular cases, wholly or partially, by the trustees and the the said mayor and aldermen, or by the trustees, under any regulations established by them, with the assent of the said mayor and aldermen, or, in case of difference, with the approval of the said Board, to any number of scholars not exceeding ten at the same time, as a reward of superior merit, or on account of the comparative poverty of their parents or next friends, or for other sufficient reasons, and particularly to sons of fishermen resident in the said borough. The books and stationery required by the scholars shall be provided by themselves.

10. The master of the school shall be appointed and shall be also removable by the trustees and the said mayor and aldermen jointly, or, in case of difference, then by either of the said bodies, with the approval of the said Board.

11. The master shall be permitted to receive boarders or private pupils to be instructed in the school, under such regulations and upon such terms as shall be made or authorized by the trustees; but such boarders or private pupils shall be taught and placed in the school indifferently with the other scholars, without any distinction of their position, instruction, or treatment in the school.

12. One or more of the houses on the Charity estate near the school-house at Folkestone shall be appropriated therewith by the trustees to the master of the school for his residence and for the uses of the school; and the net rents and profits of all the residue of the said houses and premises which shall remain after paying or providing for all the rates, taxes, or expenses of repair, maintenance, and insurance, and other outgoings payable in respect of all the said buildings and premises, shall be paid to the master for his use.

13. The accumulation of the rents and profits of the said farm at Lympne, which has been commenced by the trustees for replacing a principal sum of 323*l.* belonging to the Charity, and heretofore expended in the repair and improvement of the Charity estate, shall be continued by the trustees by means of their appropriation to that purpose of the yearly sum of 20*l.* out of the same rents and profits and out of the income of the prior accumulations, until, by means of such accumulations, which already exceed the sum of 200*l.*, the whole of the said sum of 323*l.* shall be made up, unless, upon the representation of the trustees to the said Board that the interests of the Charity will be more beneficially promoted by suspending or determining such accumulations, the said Board shall authorize such suspension or determination.

14. The amount of all such accumulations, or so much thereof as shall not be otherwise applied under the following provisions, shall be invested by the trustees, with the approval of the said Board, in the purchase of real estate, to be settled upon the same trusts and for the same purposes to which the said farm at Lympne will be subject under or according to the provisions of this scheme, and until such purchase shall be made, the dividends arising from the investment to be made of the said accumulations under the following provisions shall be applicable in the same manner as the rents of such real estate if purchased would be applicable.

15. Provided, nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the trustees, with the approval of the said Board, and subject to any directions or conditions under which such approval shall have been expressed, to apply all or any part of the said existing and future accumulations, instead of investing the same in the purchase of real estate under the foregoing provision, in or towards any permanent improvement of the school-buildings or of any other buildings or property of the Charity.

16. The Charity shall also be subject specifically to the provisions of the "Charitable Trusts Act 1853," and the "Charitable Trusts Amendment Act 1855," relating respectively to the improvement and leasing of Charity estates, and to all other provisions of the said Acts not inconsistent with this scheme.

17. All principal monies belonging, or which shall from time to time belong to the Charity, and which shall not be presently applicable and applied to other purposes under this scheme, shall be invested, with the approval of the said Board, in the public funds, either in the name of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, or in the names of four or more of the acting trustees, as their stock committee, and the dividends arising from such stock, and not otherwise appropriated by this scheme, shall be applicable as part of the general income of the Charity, and shall be paid for that purpose to or according to the direction of the managing trustees.

18. All the real estate belonging to the Charity when this scheme shall come into operation shall be vested by virtue thereof in the Official Trustee of Charity Lands, in trust for the managing trustees, and all real estate of the Charity subsequently acquired may be conveyed to such Official Trustee upon the same trust by order of the said Board.

19. The managing trustees shall from time to time pay out of the net rents and profits of the said farm and the general income of the Charity which shall remain after paying or providing for the payment of all rates, taxes, expenses of repair, and insurance, and other outgoings payable in respect of the premises, all expenses incident to the execution of the trusts, among which they may include the costs reasonably incurred by them in relation to the establishment of this scheme; and shall divide the ultimate residue of the same rents, profits, and income into two moieties, of which one shall be paid to the master of the school for his use, and the other moiety shall be carried to the account of a school fund, to be constituted by the trustees, and to be applied by them to the purposes hereinafter directed.

20. The trustees shall pay out of the said school fund the general expenses of warming, cleaning, and managing the school-rooms rooms and buildings; the wages of any servants necessarily employed for the purposes thereof; the salaries, so far as the fund will extend, of any additional teachers to be employed by the trustees in the school; and the costs of any other provisions to be made by them, with the approval of the said Board, for the extension of its benefits. They shall also be at liberty from time to time to appropriate, in their discretion, any proportion of the said fund, not exceeding altogether in any year a moiety thereof, to the increase of the emoluments of the master of the school.

21. The trustees shall cause a public examination of the scholars to be held in the month of June in every year, or at such time as shall be appointed for this purpose by the trustees, with the consent of the Board, by an examiner to be from time to time appointed by themselves, and may pay to such examiner any reasonable remuneration for the discharge of his duties, and they may also award prizes of any value, not exceeding altogether 5*l.* in any year, to the boys who, in proficiency evinced at such public examinations and in general diligence and conduct, shall be found to be most meritorious.

22. The remuneration of the said examiners and the prizes to be awarded to the scholars shall be provided out of the school fund, and all the residue thereof which shall remain after answering the payments herein-before directed or authorized to be made thereout, shall from time to time be applied by the trustees in apprenticing or otherwise advancing in life the most meritorious scholars of the said school on their leaving the same, a preference among the candidates for such advancement being always given, cæteris paribus, firstly, to the sons of fishermen resident in the borough of Folkestone, and secondly, to the sons of other inhabitants thereof.

23. The trustees shall hold meetings for auditing the accounts and transacting the general business of the Charity on the second Wednesday in each of the months of June and December in every year, or on such other days of the same months as shall have been appointed for that purpose by the trustees present at any previous meeting, or at such other times or time in every year as shall be approved for this purpose by the said Board, and also so often as shall be requisite for the due administration of the Charity; they shall also hold a meeting on the first Wednesday next after the time at which this scheme shall come into operation.

24. Special meetings of the trustees may be convened from time to time, as occasion shall be, by any two or more trustees, by notices delivered or sent by the post or otherwise to every other trustee, by the space of fourteen days at the least previously, in which the business to be discussed or transacted at such meeting shall be stated, and no other business shall be transacted thereat.

25. All notices required to be given to the trustees shall be sufficiently given by writing, either delivered personally or addressed to them by the post at their usual or last known places of abode in England, and shall be so delivered or sent, where the circumstances of the case will permit, by the space of fourteen days at the least before the time of holding any meetings to which they shall respectively relate.

26. All meetings of the trustees shall be held in the borough of Folkestone, and, unless otherwise appointed by any such previous resolution as aforesaid, at noon, and in the school-house belonging to the Charity.

27. The trustees may, at their first or any subsequent meeting, appoint a permanent chairman of their meetings, and may make like appointments as often as occasion shall be, and may remove any such chairman at any subsequent meeting; provided that no proposal for the appointment of a permanent chairman, except at such first meeting, or for his removal, shall be made or dealt with at any meeting unless a previous notice of the intention to make such proposal shall have been given in manner aforesaid by the space of fourteen days previously at the least to every trustee other than the trustee making the proposal. If there shall be no permanent chairman, or in case of his absence from any meeting, the trustees present thereat may elect a chairman thereof, and in default of such election the senior of the trustees present, according to the dates or order of their appointment, shall be the chairman of such meeting.

28. Four trustees shall form a quorum at any meeting, and so soon as that number shall be present after the time appointed for holding the same, they shall proceed to the transaction of the business thereof.

29. The resolutions and proceedings of a majority of the trustees present at any meeting shall bind the minority and all absent trustees. In the event of there being an equality of votes at any meeting, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

30. If for the space of one hour after the time appointed for holding a meeting less than five trustees shall attend, the present trustees or trustee, if any, or otherwise the clerk to the trustees, may adjourn the same to some convenient period not distant less than seven days; and all meetings may be adjourned by the resolution of the trustees present thereat.

31. The trustees shall keep minute books, in which the names of the trustees attending each meeting and all the proceedings thereat shall be recorded, and the minutes of every meeting shall be signed by the chairman and countersigned by the clerk, if any.

32. The trustees, with the approval of the said Board, may from time to time establish, revoke, or vary any regulations for the government of their proceedings under or according to this scheme.

33. The trustees may employ a clerk and a receiver for the purposes of the Charity, who shall be respectively removable at at their pleasure, or may vest both those offices in the same person, and may assign to every such clerk or receiver any reasonable salary or remuneration, to be accounted as part of the expenses incident to the discharge of the trusts.

34. It shall be the duty of the clerk, subject to any special orders of the trustees, to give notice to them of all general and adjourned and special meetings, and of all business to be transacted thereat, requiring previous notice, and to attend such meetings, and to enter and keep minutes of all proceedings thereat, and to keep also the accounts of the Charity, and to make all payments directed by the trustees to be made by him, and to perform all such acts relating to the Charity as they shall from time to time reasonably require.

35. The full number of the trustees shall be ten, and all vacancies in their body may from time to time be filled up by the surviving or continuing trustees, by election to be made at their first meeting, without previous notice, or at any other meeting, after special notice given of the intention to proceed to such election thereat; but every such election shall require the approval of the said Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales to its validity, and shall not be operative without or previously to such approval; and such election, in order to its being forthwith considered by the said Board, shall be certified to the said Commissioners, at the meeting at which the same shall have been made, by the chairman thereof, by writing under his hand, countersigned by the clerk, if any.

36. The present trustees, or such of them as shall be willing to act, shall continue to be trustees of the Charity, subject to such of the following provisions as shall be respectively applicable to them.

37. Every trustee to be hereafter appointed shall become disqualified, and his office shall become vacant, on his ceasing to reside within the borough, or within 20 miles from the parish church of Folkestone, and every present or future trustee also, who shall become bankrupt or insolvent, or shall be permanently resident out of the United Kingdom, or shall become incapable to act, or shall neglect to attend any meeting of the trustees during two consecutive years, or shall resign his office by writing addressed to the clerk, if any, of the trustees, or otherwise to the other trustees for the time being, shall, in any of the said cases, cease to be a trustee.

38. This scheme shall come into operation at the expiration of two calendar months next after the passing of the Act establishing the same.

39. If any doubt or question shall arise among the trustees as to the proper construction or application of any of the provisions of this scheme, or the management of the Charity, application may be made by them to the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales for direction thereon, which direction, when given, shall be binding on the trustees; and any provision hereof which may be found inconvenient or insufficient, or to

to require to be more exactly adapted to the circumstances of the Charity for the time being, may be modified, explained, extended, or adapted accordingly, by an order either of the Court of Chancery or of the said Commissioners, to be made upon the application of the trustees, so that no such order shall involve any deviation from the main objects and principles of this scheme.

And the said almshouse and its inmates shall be under the management and direction of a governing body, to be called the Almshouse Committee, to consist of the said vicar and churchwardens and eight other persons to be appointed from time to time as may be necessary for constituting or keeping up their number by the vestry of the said parish, and to be removable in like manner.

The said Committee shall also have power to make any such payments or allowances which, under the circumstances of the case, they may consider expedient, to any persons who shall be inmates of the said almshouse when this scheme shall come into operation, and to permit also such persons to remain therein for such respective periods as in the judgment of the said Committee shall be convenient.

6. Provided always, and it shall be part of the terms upon which the said school fund shall be appropriated in manner aforesaid, that reasonable regulations shall be made by the managers of the said schools for exempting children, for whom this exemption shall be claimed in writing by their parents or next friends, dissenting from the Established Church, from receiving compulsorily instruction in the catechism or distinctive doctrines of the Church, and from attending its services.

8. The said School Committee, subject to the approval of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, may make and establish, and from time to time extend, revoke, or vary, regulations not inconsistent with this scheme in relation to their proceedings, and to the administration and management of the said parochial school fund, and the discharge of the duties hereby imposed on them.

9. or with the consent of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, for any longer period or periods to any then recipients of such allowances to whom, on account of any special circumstances, the said trustees or administrators shall consider it desirable to continue such allowances.

11. If any doubt or question shall arise between the members of either of the said Committees, or among any persons liable to make any payments under this scheme, as to the proper construction or application of any of the provisions thereof or the management of the Charity, application may be made by the said parties respectively, or any of them, to the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales for their opinion and advice thereon, which, when given, shall be binding on all parties; and any provision in this scheme which may require to be explained, or more closely adapted to the circumstances for the time being of the Charity, may be explained and adapted accordingly by an order either of the Court of Chancery or of the said Board, to be made upon the application of either of the said Committees; and any provision in this scheme which shall be found inconvenient or objectionable may be modified accordingly by an order of the Court of Chancery upon the application of either of the said Committees, provided that no such alteration shall be made involving a deviation from the main objects and principles of this scheme.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act to provide for the Allotment of the Commonable Lands within the Boundaries of the late Forest of Hainault in the County of Essex.

[23d July 1858]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for disafforesting the Forest of Hainault in the County of Essex, after reciting (amongst other things) that the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, in right of Her Crown, was or claimed to be seised to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of and in Waltham Forest, formerly called the Forest of Essex in the County of Essex, One Portion of which was usually called or known by the Name of Hainault Forest; and reciting that Her Majesty, in right of Her Crown, was or claimed to be seised to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of the Soil of that Portion of the said Forest of Hainault which was commonly called the King’s Forest or King’s Woods, and of the Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood standing and growing thereon, and that the said Forest of Hainault was subject to divers Claims or Rights of Common and other Rights and Interests of Her Majesty’s Subjects in and over the same, and that Her Majesty had been graciously pleased to signify Her Consent that the said Forest of Hainault should be disafforested, and the Royal Deer therein removed or destroyed with all convenient Speed; it was enacted that the now-reciting Act should be carried into execution by Commissioners to be appointed as therein directed, and that the said Commissioners when appointed should proceed to ascertain the Boundaries of the said Forest of Hainault, and also of that Portion of the said Forest called the King’s Forest or King’s Woods, and that the said Commissioners, so soon as they should have ascertained the aforesaid Boundaries, should proceed to set out and allot to Her Majesty such Part or Parts of the said King’s Forest or King’s Woods as they should think a sufficient Compensation to Her Majesty for all Her Forestal Rights in and over the said Forest of Hainault, for Her Rights of Soil in the said King’s Forest or King’s Woods and in other the uninclosed Portions of the said Forest of Hainault, if any, for Her Right of Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood in the said Woods or elsewhere in the said Forest, and that such Allotment or Allotments, when made, should be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as Part of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of Her Crown, freed and discharged from all Right or Claims of Common of Pasture, Estovers, 14 & 15 Vict.

c. 43.

or Assignments of Fuel, Wood, and all other Rights and Claims whatsoever, and that on the making of such Award the said Forest of Hainault should be for ever disafforested, and that the Residue of the said King's Forest or King's Woods and all other Parts of the said Forest of Hainault (not then inclosed) should become the Property of the Queen's Majesty and the several Persons entitled to Rights of Common in and over the said Forest or any Part thereof, as they then were entitled to the same, freed and discharged from all Right of Soil, Rights of Timber, and all Forestal Rights of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors; and in the said Act were contained Provisions for a Trial at Law between Sir Charles Hulse Baronet on the one hand, and Her Majesty's Attorney General and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods on the other hand, for the Purpose of determining whether Her Majesty or the said Sir Charles Hulse was entitled to the Right of Soil in the said King's Forest or King's Woods or in some Portion thereof (which Right of Soil was claimed by the said Sir Charles Hulse), with Power for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to accept Proposals from the said Sir Charles Hulse for compromising the Matters in dispute, all which Compromises were by the said Act declared to be binding and conclusive, and if the Verdict in any such Trial as before mentioned should be in favour of the said Sir Charles Hulse, then the Commissioners under the Act now in recital were to set out and allot to the said Sir Charles Hulse so much and such Part of the Allotment therein-before directed to be set out to Her Majesty as the said Commissioners should by Writing under their Hands award to be a just Equivalent and Compensation for and in lieu of the Right of Soil claimed by the said Sir Charles Hulse, and to which he should appear entitled by such Verdict; and it was by the said Act enacted that nothing therein contained should in anywise extend to or prejudice the Title, Right, or Claim of Her Majesty to any Right of Common appended or appurtenant to any anciently inclosed Lands of Her Majesty, or the Title, Right, or Claim of Her Majesty, or any Person or Persons, to the inclosed Part of the said Forest of Hainault, or otherwise, as therein is mentioned: And whereas certain Commissioners were, in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, duly appointed for carrying the said Act into execution, and they did by their Award, bearing Date the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in pursuance of the Powers of the said Act, ascertain and award the Boundaries of the said Forest of Hainault and of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, and which said Boundaries were described in their Award and the Map therein referred to, and by the said Award, after reciting that by an Instrument in Writing, dated the Twenty-sixth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and made between the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods

' of the One Part, Her Majesty's Attorney General of the ' Second Part, and the said Sir Charles Hulse Baronet of the ' Third Part, it was among other things agreed that the Claim
 ' made by Sir Charles Hulse, therein and in this Act before
 ' mentioned, should be compromised, upon the Terms therein-
 ' after contained, and that it should for the Purpose of such ' Compromise be considered that the said Sir Charles Hulse
 ' had proceeded to a Trial of the Action before mentioned, and ' had obtained a Verdict in his Favour, and that the said Com' missioners should allot to Her Majesty the Lands coloured ' Red on the Plan therein referred to, and should allot to the ' said Sir Charles Hulse the Lands coloured Green on such ' Plan, the said Commissioners did set out and allot to Her ' Majesty certain Parts of the King's Forest or King's Woods
 ' containing One thousand nine hundred and seventeen Acres
 ' or thereabouts, and in the said Award mentioned, and the ' said Commissioners did declare what Portion of the said
 ' Allotment was by the said Compromise to become the Pro' perty of the said Sir Charles Hulse, and they did by their ' Award, so far as they had Power so to do, award and allot
 ' such Portion to the said Sir Charles Hulse, and other Parts ' of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, which on the Map ' referred to in the said Award are stated to contain in the ' whole Nine hundred and sixty-nine Acres Three Roods and ' Seventeen Perches, remain unallotted and uninclosed: And
 ' whereas Her Majesty, in right of Her Crown, and divers of ' Her Majesty's Subjects, are or claim to be entitled to certain
 ' Rights of Common of Estovers or of cutting Wood for Fuel ' commonly called Fuel Assignments in the late Forest of ' Hainault: And whereas there are within the Boundary of the ' late Forest of Hainault, in addition to the Commonable
 ' Lands within that Part of the said Forest which is situate ' within the Parishes of Barking and Dagenham, and usually
 ' known as the King's Forest or King's Woods, divers other ' Commonable Lands situate in various other Parishes, and ' Doubts exist whether the Queen's Majesty and the Persons ' possessing Rights of Common within the Boundaries of the ' said late Forest are entitled to exercise them over all Com-
 ' monable Lands within the Boundaries of such Forest, or only
 ' over such as lie in the same Parish or District as the Lands
 ' in respect of which such Rights are claimed: And whereas it ' is expedient that Provision should be made for setting out a ' Part of the unallotted Portion of the King's Forest or King's ' Woods to the Queen's Majesty and other the Persons entitled ' to Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignments, and for dividing ' and allotting such Part between them in satisfaction of their ' said Rights, and it is also expedient to ascertain and define
 ' the Commonable Lands within the Boundaries of the said late ' Forest, to make such Provisions in respect thereof as are ' after contained, and that such other Provisions should be made ' as after mentioned.' May it therefore please Your Majesty that that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The Provisions of this Act shall be carried into execution by a Commissioner to be appointed in Writing by Two of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales for the Time being, within Three Calendar Months from the passing of this Act; and in case of the Death, Resignation, or Incapacity of such Commissioner, a new Commissioner shall be appointed in like Manner, as often as the same shall be necessary.

Power for the Commissioner to appoint a Surveyor.

III. The Commissioner so to be appointed as aforesaid shall, immediately after his Appointment, ascertain and determine the Persons, including Her Majesty, respectively entitled to such Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignments, as herein-before recited, and shall estimate in the Manner herein-after directed the Value of such Rights at the Time of the passing of the said Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her present Majesty; and in estimating the Value at the Time aforesaid of the said Rights of Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignments, the Commissioner shall have regard, not only to the Value of such Rights alone, but also to the Value of the other Rights of Common exercisable over the Land subject to the said Fuel Assignments, and the Amount to which the other Rights of Common would be lessened in Value by the Exercise or Existence of the said Rights of Common of Estovers, in such Manner that the Value of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the Land over which the said several Rights are exercisable may be fairly and justly apportioned between the Owners of the said Rights of Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignments on the one hand, and the Owners of other Rights of Common on the other hand; and the Commissioner shall set out such Part of the unallotted Portion of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, estimated to contain Nine hundred and sixty-nine Acres Three Roods and Seventeen Perches, as he may consider equivalent to the Value of the said Fuel Assignments at the Time aforesaid, after deducting from such Value a fair and reasonable Proportion of the estimated Expense of the passing of this Act and of carrying the same into execution, other than and except the Expenses of making the Fences between Allotments which the Commissioner is by this Act authorized to cause to be made, and except as herein-after provided with respect to the Cost of making and forming Commissioner to make Allotments to Persons entitled to Fuel Assignments.

Partition may be made of Land where Shares are not subject to be sold under this Act.

LXXXII. It shall be lawful for the Court, upon the Application of the Owner of Lands in Ireland not subject to be sold under this Act, or as to which no Proceedings for a Sale under this Act shall be pending, who shall desire to effect an Exchange of such Lands, to make or cause to be made such Inquiries as the Court may think fit for ascertaining whether such Exchange would be beneficial to the Persons interested in the respective Lands; and in case the Court shall be of opinion that the proposed Exchange would be beneficial, and that the Terms thereof are just and reasonable, they shall make an Order under their Seal for such Exchange accordingly; and in such Order for Exchange, or in a Map or Plan annexed thereto, shall be shown the Lands given and taken in Exchange respectively under such Order; and the Land taken upon such Exchange under such Order shall, without any Conveyance or other Assurance in relation thereto, go and enure to and upon the same Uses and Trusts, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the Land given upon such Exchange would have stood limited or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

Instruments of Sasine no longer necessary, but Conveyances may be recorded instead.

I. From and after the First Day of October in the present Year, it shall not be necessary to expedite and record an Instrument of Sasine on any Conveyance of Lands, but it shall be competent and sufficient for the Person or Persons in whose Favour the Conveyance is granted, instead of expediting and recording such Instrument of Sasine, to record the Conveyance itself in the Register of Sasines applicable to the Lands therein contained; and the Conveyance, being presented for Registration with a Warrant of Registration thereon, in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (A.) No. 1. hereto annexed, specifying the Person or Persons on whose Behalf it is so presented, and signed by such Person or Persons, or his or their Agent, and being so recorded along with such Warrant, shall have the same legal Force and Effect in all respects as if the Conveyance so recorded had been followed by an Instrument of Sasine duly expedite and recorded at the Date of recording the said Conveyance, according to the present Law and Practice, in favour of the Person or Persons on whose Behalf the Conveyance is presented for Registration.

Not necessary to record the whole Conveyance.

II. Where a Conveyance of Lands shall be contained in a Deed granted for further Purposes and Objects, such as a Marriage Contract, Deed of Trust, or Deed of Settlement, it shall not be necessary to record the whole of such Deed, but it shall be competent and sufficient to expedite and record in the appropriate Register of Sasines a Notarial Instrument setting forth generally the Nature of the Deed, and containing at length those Portions of the Deed by which the Lands are conveyed, and by which Real Burdens, Conditions, or Limitations are imposed; and where a Deed conveys separate Lands or separate Interests in the same Lands to the same or different Persons, it shall not be necessary to record the whole of such Deed, but it shall be competent and sufficient to expedite and record as aforesaid a Notarial Instrument setting forth generally the Nature of the Deed, and containing at length the Part or Parts of the Deed by which particular Lands are conveyed to the Person or Persons in whose Favour the Notarial Instrument is expedite, and the Part of the Deed which specifies the Nature and Extent of the Right and Interest of such Person or Persons, with with the Real Burdens, Conditions, and Limitations, if any, and such Notarial Instrument shall be in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (B.) hereto annexed.

III. Immediately before the Testing Clause of any Conveyance it shall be competent to insert a Clause of Direction, in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (C.) hereto annexed, specifying the Part or Parts of the Conveyance which the Granter thereof desires to be recorded in the Register of Sasines, and when such Clause is so inserted the Keeper of the Register shall record such Part or Parts only, together with the Clause of Direction and the Testing Clause, and the recording of such Part or Parts of the Conveyance, together with the Clause of Direction and the Testing Clause, and the Warrant of Registration as before provided, shall have the same legal Force and Effect as if a Notarial Instrument containing such Part or Parts of the Conveyance had been duly expedited and recorded in favour of the Party on whose Behalf the Conveyance is presented: Provided always, that, notwithstanding such Clause of Direction, it shall be competent for the Party entitled to present the Conveyance for Registration to record the whole Conveyance, or to expedite and record a Notarial Instrument as herein-before provided, in the same Manner as if the Conveyance had contained no such Clause or Direction; and where a Notarial Instrument shall be expedited as herein-before provided, no Part or Parts of the Conveyance directed to be recorded shall be omitted from such Instrument.

Clause directing Part of Conveyance to be recorded.

IV. It shall not be necessary to expedite and record an Instrument of Resignation ad remanentiam on any Procuratory of Resignation ad remanentiam, or on any Conveyance containing an express Clause of Resignation ad remanentiam, but it shall be competent and sufficient for the Superior in whose Favour the Resignation under such Procuratory or Conveyance is authorized to be made to record in the appropriate Register of Sasines such Procuratory or Conveyance, with a Warrant of Registration thereon, or to expedite and record a Notarial Instrument as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (B.); and such Procuratory or Conveyance and Warrant, or such Notarial Instrument, being so recorded, shall have the same Effect as if an Instrument of Resignation ad remanentiam had been expedited on such Procuratory or Conveyance, and had been recorded in the Register of Sasines, according to the present Law and Practice at the Date of recording such Procuratory or Conveyance or Instrument; and all Instruments of Resignation ad remanentiam may be in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (D.), and when in such Form may be recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines at any Time during the Life of the Party in whose Favour the Resignation is made, and the Date of Presentment and Entry set forth on any Instrument of Resignation in such Form by the Keeper of the Register shall be the Date of the Resignation and of the Instrument.

Instruments of Resignation ad remanentiam no longer necessary, but Conveyances in favour of Superior may be recorded instead.

Certain Clauses no longer necessary in Conveyances.

V. It shall not be necessary to insert in any Conveyance a Clause of Obligation to infeft or a Precept of Sasine or Warrant for Infeftment; and if the Lands shall be disposed to be holden a me only or a me vel de me, the Clause so expressing the Manner of holding shall imply that the Lands are to be holden in the Manner expressed in the Act Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Forty-eight, Section Two, with reference to Obligations to infeft a me or a me vel de me respectively; and where no holding is expressed the Conveyance shall be held to imply that the Lands are to be holden in the same Manner in which the Grantor of the Conveyance held or might have held the same; and a Clause of Resignation in any Conveyance shall be held to import a Resignation in favorem only, unless specially expressed to be a Resignation ad remanentiam: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent an Instrument of Resignation ad remanentiam being expedite and recorded on a Conveyance heretofore granted, and containing a Clause of Resignation in the Form authorized by the Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Forty-eight.

Provision where Lands are held of the Crown, &c., and a Confirmation of a Deed, &c. required.

Where Lands have been particularly described in any prior Conveyance, or other Writ, duly recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines, it shall not be necessary, in any subsequent Conveyance or Writ containing or referring to the whole or any Part of such Lands, to repeat the particular Description of the Lands at Length, but it shall be sufficient to specify the leading Name or Names or other short distinctive Description of the Lands conveyed, and the Name of the County and Parish or supposed Parish, and to refer to the particular Description contained in the prior Conveyance or other Writ so recorded, in or as nearly as may be in the Manner set forth in Schedule (L.), No. 1.; and the Specification and Reference so made shall be held to be equivalent to the full Insertion of the particular Description contained in such prior Conveyance or other Writ so recorded, and shall have the same Effect as if the particular Description had been inserted exactly as it is set forth in such prior Conveyance or other Writ;

Particular Description of Lands contained in prior recorded Deeds may be referred to, &c.

Several Lands conveyed by the same Deed may be comprehended under One general Name.

XVI. Where several Lands are comprehended in One Conveyance in favour of the same Person or Persons, it shall be competent to insert a Clause in the Conveyance declaring that the whole Lands conveyed, and therein particularly described, shall be designed and known in future by One general Name to be therein specified; and on the Conveyance containing such Clause being duly recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines, it shall be competent in all subsequent Conveyances or other Writs to use the general Name specified in such Clause as the Name of the several Lands declared by such Clause to be comprehended under it, and a Conveyance of such several Lands under the general Name so specified shall be as effectual in all respects as if the Conveyance contained a particular Description of each of such several Lands: Provided always, that Reference be made in such Conveyances and Instruments of Sasine and Notarial Instruments to a prior recorded Conveyance or Instrument of Sasine or Notarial Instrument or other Writ in which such Clause and Description are contained; provided also, that it shall not be necessary in such Clause to comprehend under One general Name the whole Lands contained in the Conveyance in which such Clause is inserted, but that it shall be competent to comprehend certain Lands under One general Name, and certain other Lands under another general Name, it being clearly specified what Lands are comprehended under each general Name; and such Clause of Reference shall be in or as nearly as may be in the Terms set forth in Schedule (L.), No. 2., hereto annexed.

XVIII. Where a Deed of Entail contains an express Clause authorizing Registration of the Deed in the Register of Tailzies it shall not be necessary to insert Clauses of Prohibition against Alienation, contracting Debt, and altering the Order of Succession, but such Clause of Registration shall have in every respect the same Operation and Effect as if such Clauses of Prohibition had been inserted according to the present Law and Practice, and duly fenced with irritant and resolute Clauses.

Monies may give to the Commissioners a Receipt for the same, and such Receipt shall have the Effect of a Grant, Release, and Conveyance of all the Estate, Right, and Interest of such Party, and of all Parties claiming under or through him, in the Lands in respect of which such Monies are paid, so as such Receipt shall have an ad valorem Stamp of the same Amount impressed thereon in respect of the Purchase Monies mentioned therein as would have been necessary if such Receipt had been an actual Conveyance of such Estate, Right, or Interest; and every such Receipt shall be prepared by and at the Costs of the Commissioners.

XXVII. If it appear to the Commissioners from any such Statement and Abstract as aforesaid, or otherwise, that the Party making any such Claim as aforesaid is not absolutely entitled to the Lands, Estate, Right, or Interest in respect of which his Claim is made, or is under any Disability, or if the Title to such Lands, Estate, Right, or Interest be not satisfactorily deduced to the Commissioners free from Incumbrance, then and in every such Case the Amount to be paid by the Commissioners in respect of such Lands; Estate, Right, or Interest as aforesaid shall be paid and applied as provided by the Clauses of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the Purchase Money or Compensation coming to Parties having limited Interests, or prevented from treating or not making Title.

Payment of Monies where Parties making Claim deemed not entitled, or are under Disability, or Title not satisfactorily deduced.

XXVIII. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioners from requiring any further Abstract or Evidence of Title respecting any Lands included in such Award as aforesaid in addition to the Abstract or Statement herein-before mentioned, if they think fit, so as the same be obtained at the Costs of the Commissioners.

Commissioners may require further Evidence of Title at their own Costs.

XXIX. Where the Party claiming Compensation or the Commissioners shall be dissatisfied with the Award made by the Valuator, as herein-before mentioned, it shall be lawful for such Party or the Commissioners respectively, at any Time within Fourteen Days from and after the Deposit of such Award with the Clerk of the Peace as herein-before mentioned, to have the Question of Compensation settled by Arbitration upon either Party signifying such Desire by Notice in Writing to such other Party, and the Amount of Compensation so claimed shall in such Case be settled accordingly in the Manner provided in Sections Twenty-five to Thirty-seven inclusive of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

If either Party dissatisfied with Award of Valuator, Amount of Compensation to be settled by Arbitration.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Civil Bills and the Courts of Quarter Sessions in Ireland, and to transfer to the Assistant Barristers certain Jurisdiction as to Insolvent Debtors. [2d August 1858.]

14 & 15 Vict. c. 57.

' WHEREAS by the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-seven,

‘ Fifty-seven, it was enacted, that the Lord Lieutenant of ‘ Ireland might nominate and appoint to the Office of Assistant ‘ Barrister for each and every County and Riding in Ireland a ‘ practising Barrister-at-Law of Ten Years standing at the least,
 ‘ who shall have actually practised Ten Years in Her Majesty’s ‘ Superior Courts in Dublin, and shall not at the Time of his ‘ Appointment to such Office have retired from such Practice ; ‘ and that every Assistant Barrister so appointed should hold his ‘ Office during good Behaviour, but that it should be lawful for ‘ Her Majesty to remove any such Assistant Barrister from his ‘ Office upon the Address of both Houses of Parliament ; and ‘ that such Assistant Barristers should severally receive the ‘ annual Salaries in the Schedule to the said Act mentioned, ‘ according to the Classification of the County to which he was ‘ appointed ; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty to ‘ grant to any Person who shall have executed the Office of ‘ Assistant Barrister, and who shall have resigned the same, an ‘ Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding Four hundred Pounds, ‘ provided he shall have continued in Office Twenty Years, or ‘ be afflicted with some permanent Infirmity disabling him from ‘ the due Execution of his Office : And whereas the said ‘ Annuity or Pension is disproportionate to the Salaries and ‘ Services of the Assistant Barrister of First and Second Class ‘ Counties, and by reason thereof no adequate Provision can be ‘ made for such of the Assistant Barristers as by reason of their ‘ advanced Age and lengthened Services may have become ‘ unable to discharge the Duties of their Office with the ‘ necessary Diligence and Efficiency, whereby the due Admin-

 Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty and Her Successors, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to grant to any Person who shall have executed the Office of Assistant Barrister, within the Meaning of the said recited Act, for any County or Riding of a County in Ireland, and who shall have resigned the same, or been removed from the same for Infirmity, in manner herein-after mentioned, an Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding Two Thirds of the annual Salary or Salaries or Emoluments to which the Person so resigning shall have been entitled immediately before his Resignation, the said Annuity or yearly Sum to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland : Provided always, that no such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be granted to any Assistant Barrister unless he shall have continued in Office Twenty Years, or be afflicted with some permanent the same to be distinctly recited in such Grant.

Provision for Retiring Pensions of Assistant Barristers.

Power to remove Assistant Barristers on Certificate of Lord Chancellor for Inability.

II. For and notwithstanding anything contained in the said recited Act, if it shall appear to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland (for the Time being) that any Assistant Barrister within the Meaning of the said Act shall be incapable of discharging his Duty therein in Person by reason of permanent Infirmity, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor to certify the same to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, whereupon it may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant, by Order in Council, on hearing what may be offered by or on behalf of such Assistant Barrister with reference to the Matter of such Certificate, Care being taken that all the Members of the said Council then resident in the County and City of Dublin be summoned to attend, by a Notice stating the Case or Cases to be considered, such Notice to be transmitted to each of the said Council as aforesaid at least Seven Days before such Meeting, to remove such Assistant Barrister from his Office; so nevertheless that no such Removal shall take place except in Term Time: Provided, that, save as aforesaid, Assistant Barristers shall hold their Office during good Behaviour, and that, notwithstanding such Power of Removal herein-before vested in the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, any Assistant Barrister may be removed by the Crown on Addresses from both Houses of Parliament, in manner provided by the said recited Act.

Style of Assistant Barrister after passing of this Act.

III. After the passing of this Act every Assistant Barrister of a County in Ireland shall be styled Chairman of the Quarter Sessions of the County to which he may be attached as such Assistant Barrister.

An Act to amend an Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty, to amend the Laws concerning Judgments in Ireland.

[2d August 1858.]

13 & 14 Vict.
c. 2.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws concerning Judgments in Ireland, it was enacted, that the Provisions therein-before recited of the Acts of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth and the Fourth Year of Her Majesty should not in anywise extend or be applicable to any Judgment entered up in any of Her Majesty’s Superior Courts at Dublin, or obtained in any Inferior Court of Record, after the passing of the said Act, nor to any Decree, Order, or Rule made after the passing of the said Act, and no Writ of Elegit or Writ of Execution (save as therein-after mentioned) should issue or be sued upon any such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, against any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Estate or Interest therein, nor should any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Estate or Interest, be charged or affected by any such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, save as provided by the said Act: And whereas it was thereby further enacted, that where any Judgment should be entered up after the passing of the said Act in any of Her Majesty’s Superior Courts at Dublin, or any Decree or Order in any Court of Equity, Rule in any Court of Common Law, or Order in Bankruptcy or Lunacy, to which the Effect of a Judgment in One of the Superior Courts of Common Law is given by the said Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty, should be made, after the passing of the said Act, or any Judgment, Rule, or Order should be obtained or made in or by any Inferior Court of Record, after the passing of the said Act, and should, under the Provisions of the Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty, therein recited, be removed into One of Her Majesty’s Superior Courts of Record at Dublin, and the Creditor under any such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule should know or believe that the Person against whom such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule to be entered up, obtained, or made is seised or possessed, at Law or in Equity, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of any Nature or Tenure, or has any disposing Power over any such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which he might without the Assent of any other Person exercise for his own Benefit, and that where any Judgment had been entered up before the passing of the Act hereby recited in any of Her Majesty’s Superior Courts of Dublin, or any Decree or Order in any Court of Equity, Rule in any Court of Common Law, or Order in Bankruptcy or Lunacy, to which the Effect of a Judgment in One of the the Superior Courts of Common Law is given by the said Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty, had been made before the passing of the now recited Act, or any Judgment, Rule, or Order had been obtained or made in or by any Inferior Court of Record before the passing of the now recited Act, and had been or should be, under the Provisions of the said Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty, removed into One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Dublin, and the Creditor, under any such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, should know or believe that the Person against whom such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule might have been entered up, obtained, or made is seised or possessed as aforesaid over any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which by virtue of the now recited Act are exempted from being taken in Execution under any Writ of Execution to be issued upon such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, it should be lawful for such Creditor, at any Time, and from Time to Time, after the entering up or Removal of such Judgment in or into such Superior Court, or the making of such Decree, Order, or Rule, or the passing of the now recited Act, whichever should last happen, to make and file in the Superior Court in, by, or into which such Judgment, Rule, or Order might have been entered up, made, or removed, or in the Court of Equity by which such Decree or Order might have been made, or in case of such Order in Bankruptcy or Lunacy as aforesaid in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, an Affidavit stating the Name or Title of the Cause or Matter, and the Court in which such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule might have been entered up, obtained, or made, and the Date of such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, and the Names, and the usual or last known Place of Abode, and the Title, Trade, or Profession of the Plaintiff (if there be such), and of the Defendant or Person whose Estate is intended to be affected by the Registration, as therein-after mentioned, of such Affidavit, and the Amount of the Debt, Damages, Costs, or Monies recovered or ordered to be paid by such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, and stating that to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of the Deponent the Person against whom such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule might have been entered up, obtained, or made is at the Time of the swearing of such Affidavit so seised or possessed or has such disposing Power as aforesaid of or over such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and that such Affidavit should specify the County and Barony, or the Town or County of a City and Parish, or the Town and Parish, in which the Lands to which the Affidavit relates are situate, and where such Lands lie in Two or more Counties or Baronies, or Parishes or Streets, or partly in one Barony, Parish, or Street, and partly in another, the same should be distinctly stated in such Affidavit; and that it should be lawful for the Creditor making such Affidavit to register the same in

‘ the Office for registering Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills in ‘ Ireland, by depositing in such Office an Office Copy of such ‘ Affidavit, and that such Copy should be numbered and tran‘ scribed, and be entered in the Book and Indexes kept in ‘ the said Office, in like Manner as if the same were a Memorial ‘ of a Deed; and for the Purpose of such Entries the Creditors ‘ under such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule should be ‘ deemed the Grantee, and the Debtor thereunder should be ‘ deemed the Grantor, and the Amount of the Debt, Damages, ‘ Costs, or Monies recovered or ordered to be paid thereby ‘ should be deemed the Consideration; and the like Fees should ‘ be paid on such Registration as in the Case of registering ‘ a Memorial of a Deed: And whereas it was thereby further ‘ enacted, that the Registration as aforesaid of such Affidavit ‘ should operate to transfer to and vest in the Creditor regis‘ tering such Affidavit all the Lands, Tenements, and Here‘ ditaments mentioned therein, for all the Estate and Interest ‘ of which the Debtor mentioned in such Affidavit should at ‘ the Time of such Registration be seised or possessed, at Law ‘ or in Equity, or might at such Time create, by virtue of any ‘ disposing Power which he might then without the Assent of ‘ any other Person exercise for his own Benefit, but subject ‘ to Redemption on Payment of the Money owing on the Judg‘ ment, Decree, Order, or Rule mentioned in such Affidavit; ‘ and that such Creditor, and all Persons claiming through or ‘ under him, should, in respect of such Lands, Tenements, and ‘ Hereditaments, or such Estate or Interest therein as afore‘ said, have all such Rights, Powers, and Remedies whatsoever ‘ as if an effectual Conveyance, Assignment, Appointment, ‘ or other Assurance to such Creditor of all such Estate or ‘ Interest, but subject to Redemption as aforesaid, had been ‘ made, executed, and registered at the Time of registering ‘ such Affidavit: And whereas for the Purposes of Registra‘ tion under the said recited Act a Form of Affidavit has ‘ been generally adopted which purports to verify on Oath
‘ the Seisin or Possession and the Description of the Lands ‘ to be affected by such Registration, in manner directed by ‘ the said recited Act, but in which the Name or Title of the ‘ Cause or Matter, and the Court in which such Judgment, ‘ Decree, Order, or Rule has been entered up, obtained, or ‘ made, and the Date of such Judgment, Decree, Order, or ‘ Rule, and the Names, and the usual or last known Place of ‘ Abode, and the Title, Trade, or Profession of the Plaintiff ‘ (if there be such), and of the Defendant or Person whose ‘ Estate is intended to be affected by the Registration of such ‘ Affidavit, and the Amount of the Debt, Damages, Costs, ‘ or Monies recovered or ordered to be paid by such Judgment, ‘ Decree, Order, or Rule, or some One or more of such Facts, ‘ appear or have been stated, recited, or referred to on the Face ‘ of such Affidavit, without being covered by a Verification ‘ on Oath: And whereas the Validity of Registration upon ‘ Affidavits

‘ Affidavits in such Form has been questioned: And whereas ‘ the Omission to verify such Facts upon Oath has been ‘ general, and, unless some legislative Remedy be applied to ‘ such Cases, might lead to Confusion and Injustice if such ‘ Objections should be ultimately decided as valid: And ‘ whereas all Persons who have searched the said Registry ‘ must have had full Notice of such Facts, so far as same ‘ have been truly stated:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. That wherever it shall appear that any of such Facts appear or have been so stated, recited, or referred to on the Document so registered as an Affidavit under the said recited Act before the passing of this Act, but are not included in or under the Verification on Oath therein contained, it shall and may be lawful for the Creditor under any such Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, or for any Person entitled, whether legally or equitably, to the Sum payable in respect of the same, or any Part thereof, or for any Person who would then be entitled to register an Affidavit of such Judgment, Decree, shall have been filed, a supplemental Affidavit verifying any such Fact or Facts so theretofore stated, recited, or referred to as aforesaid: Provided that in every supplemental Affidavit the Description and Residence or last known Place of Abode of the Defendant or Defendants as then known or existing shall be stated, and such Statement shall be deemed and taken as if the Description and Abode of the Defendant or Defendants had been verified in the original Affidavit to which such new Affisupplemental Affidavit to be attached to the Copy of the original Affidavit so previously deposited in reference to the same Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule, which the Officer of the said Registry is hereby authorized and directed to do, on being paid the like Fees or Stamp Duty as are payable on the Registration of an Affidavit under the said recited Act; and such supplemental Affidavit, when so registered, shall have the like Operation and Effect as if the Facts so verified by same had been verified on Oath in such original Affidavit filed in respect of the same Judgment, Decree, Order, or Rule: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice the Right or Title of any Person who shall previously to the passing thereof have obtained the Decision of any of Her Majesty’s Superior Courts of Law at Dublin as to the Sufficiency or Validity of the Registration or the Priority of any
