VIII WARDEN'S COMMENTS AND REMARKS : (1) Warden Kobun expressed his appreciation for the assistance given by PB representatives and National Hqs officials regarding the Industrial Program. (2) That he will continue his efforts to stamp out subversive activity at this institution and report any new developments to CIC or NIP officials. (3) Additional weapons -- 46 pistols and 20 riot guns. (4) Funds to install heating system in cell blocks. (5) Three additional guard towers. (6) Ten flood lights. (7) Funds to construct a new hospital.

I

IX CONCLUSIONS : Some improvement was noted in respect to administrative functions, which will be further improved as soon as replacement of present Industrial Chief is made. Basicly all programs at this institution are sound and all that is needed is better cooperation and greater initiative on the part of the officials.

IX CONCLUSIONS

Some improvement was noted in respect to administrative functions, which will be further improved as soon as replacement of present Industrial Chief is made. Basicly all programs at this institution are sound and all that is needed is better cooperation and greater initiative on the part of the officials.

X RECOMMENDATIONS

(1) That any and all guards or staff officials connected with or suporting subversive activities be discharged. (2) That plans for constructing a new prison in this area be reviewed thoroughly by National and District officials before drafting final plans. (3) Allocate required yardage of material for clothing and bedding. (4) Properly inclose power transformers.
