PREFACE.

THE Returns of Aliens dwelling in the City and suburbs of London, comprised in this volume, are derived from (1) the Rolls of Lay Subsidies, in the Public Record Office, (2) the Registers of members of the Dutch Church, Austin Friars, (3) the State Papers, Domestic Series, (4) the Lansdowne MSS., at the British Museum, and (5) several printed works, namely, Strype's Life of Archbishop Grindall, his Annals of the Reformation, Haynes's State Papers, and Burn's History of the Foreign Refugees.

(1) The Lay Subsidies for London, Middlesex, and Surrey furnish nearly all the returns which have been found between 1523 and 1561, besides many of later dates. This series of records, although an enormous one, is far from being complete. The rolls for London and the adjoining counties are very scanty at the beginning of the reign of Henry VIII., but are very numerous for the end of that reign, and for the reign of Edward VI., while we could find no assessments whatever for the reign of Mary. There are some few rolls for the beginning of Elizabeth's reign, but not many after that till near its end, when we meet with a large number.

It will be gathered from the Table of Contents that many Subsidy Rolls have been extracted, and as the names of the Aliens are always more or less intermixed with those of English subjects, it can well be imagined that the task of perusal and selection has been a gigantic one. Besides these, many other rolls have been examined, and found to contain no names of foreigners; it being necessary to search every roll in each series separately, as the catalogues give only the briefest descriptions. It must be added, that a large proportion of the Subsidy Rolls is much faded and damaged, and that their decipherment required an infinity of trouble and patience.

For the benefit of those who are unacquainted with these rolls, it may be as well to explain that the first column of moneys represents the values of the possessions of the persons assessed, while the second column shows the amounts at which they were taxed. Only one sum follows the name of a servant, journeyman, or apprentice, as a rule, being that of his "poll-money". The two most complete assessments in this volume are those of 1540-1 and 1549, which respectively give the names of about 2,500 and 2,200 strangers, not of course including women and children.

(2) The Lidmaten Boeken, or Registers of Members, of the Dutch Church of London were examined by permission of the Consistory of that Church, and a number of them having been selected for transcription, they were lent to the Huguenot Society for that purpose. The earliest list of members is dated 1550, and is written in a small and obscure handwriting, which gave considerable trouble, but as we have had the advantage of several suggestions from Mr. W. J. C. Moens, F.S.A., President of the Society, who edited the Registers of baptisms, marriages, and deaths of the same church some years ago, it is believed that this list has been faithfully reproduced.

Some later notes in the same Register, under date of 1560, show that "the German Church," as it is there called, was then meeting for the purposes of worship and catechising the young in the church of St. Margaret Pattens, Rood Lane, as also appears still more clearly from some notes of baptisms contained in the register, but not quoted in this work.

A return of members of the Dutch Church, dated 22nd June, 1561, by which time they had become settled in the church of the Austin Friars,* is not now extant among its records, but has been found among the State Papers. The Church records, however, comprise a list of members which was "commenced" in that year, and which contains some names which were no doubt added from time to time in later years.

On 8th September, 1562, Grindall, then Bishop of London, wrote to Secretary Cecil that he had required the ministers of the Dutch and French churches to furnish him with a list of their communicants.† No list made on this occasion has been found for the Dutch Church, but there is an undated one for the French Church in London, now among the State Papers, which is probably the list actually supplied to the Bishop. This has already been printed by Baron F. de Schickler, in his exhaustive work entitled, Les Eglises du Refuge en Angleterre. The French Church was then settled in St. Anthony's Hospital, Threadneedle Street.‡

A letter from Bishop Grindall to Cecil on 22nd July, 1567, enclosed a petition of foreigners driven from the Low Countries, but it gives no names.§ We have, however, another record of the Dutch Church members in that year, which is very similar to an undated list printed in the Appendix to Strype's Life of Grindall, and referred to by Strype in the Life under the year 1566,|| when, he states, orders were given by the Privy Council for a return of all strangers in London to be made, in order to satisfy King Philip, who had complained to Queen Elizabeth of his subjects being harboured by her.

Since the text of this work was printed, the original of Strype's list has been discovered in the Lansdowne MS. 9, ff. 144-146, No. 31.¶ It is not

* Calendar of State Papers, Domestic, 1547-1580, p. 150. There was then or had been a "smaller" branch of this church in Southwark, as appears in the letter of the Rev. John à Lasco [Nov., 1552], Lansdowne MS. 2, No. 91, printed in Strype's Cranmer, App. LI., and by Dr. A. Kuyper in Joannis à Lasco Opera, ii., 672. The same letter mentions "St. Catherine's" in apposition, as it were, with "the greater church" of Austin Friars, and therefore it would seem that most of the members resided in the Liberty of St. Catherine, near the Tower.

mentioned in the index to the Catalogue of that collection, and hence it was overlooked. There is an endorsement by Grindall, and others by Strype. In fact, most of the letters and papers in the first 122 volumes of the Lansdowne MSS. are originals, and were formerly known as "the Burghley Papers". Many of them bear official notes and endorsements by Cecil, Grindall, and others, and later notes by Strype, who purchased them.

(3) The Domestic Series of State Papers comprises several important returns, but none of early date, unless there be any at the end of the reign of Henry VIII., the Calendar for that period being as yet incomplete. Under date of 3rd December, 1528, commissioners were appointed to inquire how many strangers artificers were then dwelling "within the City and suburbs, and within two miles compass of the same"; and in their certificate, dated 1st February, 1529, they refer to a schedule giving the number and names of the strangers, but it is not now extant. The commissioners state that they had allowed ten "strangers cordwainers" to keep house, with two servants each, and had ordered all the rest of that trade who refused to serve with Englishmen "to avoid out of the realm".

The earliest return in this series is a very brief one, without heading or date, but it is supposed to be a list of Venetian merchants resident in London in 1557. This is the only record of strangers we have found for the reign of Mary. No doubt all the strangers who had not been naturalised or made denizens by Henry VIII. or Edward VI. were compelled to quit England on Mary's accession. In the Privy Council Proceedings, under September, 1553, there are warrants to the Mayors of Dover and Rye to permit French Protestants lately living in London to pass out of the realm; and in March, 1554, it was positively commanded "that all foreign refugees, not being denizens, should depart out of the realm".* If any French Catholics not naturalised remained after this, they would likewise have to depart on Philip's declaration of war with France; and considering the comparatively small number of Frenchmen mentioned in later returns, it would seem that many of that nationality who had become denizens in the year 1544, returned to France about this time, notwithstanding the saving clause just quoted.

Burn says that between 1560 and 1569 several searches were made in London for strangers, and on each occasion every City Ward sent a return of names, trades, church-membership, and other particulars. None of these returns have been found among the State Papers, except the lists of members of the Dutch and French Churches in 1561 and 1562, before referred to.

A "certificate" at the beginning of the year 1563 gives no names, but is of great value because it specifies the total number of strangers then residing in the City, Southwark, and Westminster, viz., 4,534, the majority of whom, 2,860, came over here "before the Queen's Majesty's reign". Of the minority, 712 came over on religious grounds, and 962 were "not come for cause of religion". From these statistics two inferences may be drawn. One is, that Queen Mary's order for all foreigners not naturalised to quit the realm had probably been obeyed, as nearly five thousand had been made denizens between 1535 and 1553, most of whom doubtless belonged to London,* and they or their descendants would almost entirely compose the number of 2860 above mentioned. The other is, that although the persecutions of Protestants had continued in France and the Netherlands for several years previous to 1564, comparatively few strangers had come to London on religious grounds; but it may be that a much larger number of refugees during the first five years of Elizabeth had made settlements at Norwich, Colchester, Rye, Sandwich, Canterbury, and other parts of England.†

There are several lengthy returns of strangers in the State Papers under date of 1571, one of which is included in the present volume, and will for convenience be noticed further on.

(4) The important return compiled at Easter, 1567, and contained in the Lansdowne MS. No. 10, is printed from a transcript kindly lent by Mr. Moens, and the names and figures have been carefully checked while it was passing through the press. It must first of all be remarked that this return comprises the City of London only, and does not include Westminster, as stated in the endorsement by Cecil, from which the description in the Lansdowne Catalogue is derived. It states the nationality of each stranger, whether he had a wife and children, how long he had been in England, and whether he was a denizen or not. Two totals are given, 3,324 and 2,730. The latter agrees with the analysis given of the numbers contributed by the different nationalities:—

Dutch	2,030
French	428
Burgundians	44
Italians	140
Spaniards and Portuguese	45
Scots	40
Danes	2
Liègeois	1
	2,730

It seems probable that this “book,” as it is called, at one time contained a separate return for Westminster, which is now wanting; and therefore it would be made by the Bishop of London, and not by the Lord Mayor, to the Privy Council. The presence of two totals would thus be accounted for, the larger one being the grand total for the two cities. If so, the number of strangers in Westminster at this date would be 594. This return did not apparently include Southwark and the other liberties mentioned in the return of 1564, and therefore we are not able to ascertain whether the foreigners had increased or decreased in the interval.

Although the persecutions abroad were continuing with unabated rigour, it is noted by Cecil that, out of the total of 2,730, only 232 had settled in London in the year preceding Easter, 1567. Another note, however, calls attention to the fact that “the times of continuance” of many persons are not stated.

* Letters of Denization, etc., by Mr. Page, p. lii. A large proportion of them resided in the south-western counties.

† Ibid., pp. xxxiii., xxxiv.

Towards the end of the following year, 1568, Alva published his famous "Arrest" of the goods of Englishmen found in the Netherlands, and Elizabeth retaliated by ordering a counter "Arrest" of all the goods of Philip's subjects found in England, which is alluded to on pp. 386, 387 and 399. In consequence, several lists, now in Lansdowne MS. 10, were made of such of his subjects as frequented the English, French, Dutch and Italian Churches in London, for the reasons set out by Strype.*

(5) A certificate of the numbers of strangers was made by the Bishop of London towards the close of the year 1567, and is printed by Haynes from the Cecil MSS. Inquiry was made for this return at Hatfield, but it could not be found, and there is no notice of it in the Calendar of the MSS. of the Marquis of Salisbury.† It gives much higher figures than the return made at Easter in the same year, the total for the City now being 3,760, including 1,252 of one year's continuance and under. It would therefore appear that between March and December rather more than one thousand strangers settled in the City. The Bishop also returns 1,091 strangers residing in Westminster and in the Eastern suburbs, the gross total thus being 4,851, or more than 300 in excess of the return of 1564; but as Southwark is not included, the real increase was much greater.

This certificate is referred to in a letter from Bishop Grindall to "Mr. Secretary" (Walsingham), dated 11th May, 1568,‡ in which he enclosed a copy of "The Articles inquired of in the search for the strangers within the City of London and about the same, in the months of November and December last past". The articles were six in number, and are briefly as follows:—

1. How many strangers in each parish, and of what nation they are.
2. How long they have dwelt there, and their names.
3. Of what trade, living, or occupation; how many are suspected of evil living, or to be favourers of "any naughty religion or sect".
4. Whether they resort to their parish churches, as other parishoners are bound to do.
5. How many absent themselves from the same.
6. How many resort to the churches appointed for strangers.

To these articles the Bishop appends a "Remembrance," expressing his "wish" that all such strangers as were suspected of heresies or errors, or of crimes committed before coming over, and all French and Dutch, except known merchants, who did not join the French or the Dutch Church, or who, knowing "our language," did not resort to their parish churches, should be commanded to depart out of the realm within twenty days after warning given them by himself, or by the Lord Mayor.

In his Annals, Strype prints fragmentary extracts from what was evidently a most elaborate certificate, made by the Lord Mayor to the Privy Council in 1568, of the names of strangers in all the city wards, and these

* Life of Grindall, p. 197. These lists were also transcribed by Mr. Moens. We have added a copy of a paper relating to the election of a postmaster by the Italian and other merchants, on 23rd July, 1568, from the same Lansdowne MS.

† It appears, however, to have been seen by Burn, who quotes the names of "two Gretians" from "the Bishop's of London's return". Haynes gives no names, but probably contented himself with giving merely the totals.

‡ Lansdowne MS. 10, ff. 147, 148, Nos. 45, 46.

are reproduced in this volume. It appears to have been at one time among the "Burg[hley] MSS.," now forming the first portion of the Lansdowne Collection, but it could not be found among them, nor at Hatfield. The order for this return to be made appears to have been given in a letter of Secretary Walsingham, dated 15th September, 1568.* In it we once more find evidence of a progressive increase, the total number of strangers in London, the "liberties adjoining," and Westminster being now 6,704. Strype has omitted the separate total for the City, but gives the total for the liberties and Westminster as 2,598. If this may be relied on, the numbers in the City proper had decreased from 3,760 to 3,106, while those outside its boundaries had more than doubled. Possibly some of the refugees had departed from the City, and gone to form the settlement at Southampton, referred to in Grindall's letter of 22nd July, 1567.†

Burn likewise refers to the return of 1568, and also to a list of strangers complained of in respect of their trades in the same year. He gives no reference to the former, but states that the latter was among "the papers at the Dutch Church".

The last and most important return in the volume is derived from the State Papers. It is addressed to the Privy Council, apparently by the Lord Mayor, in May, 1571,‡ and gives exact particulars of the nationality and occupation of every stranger in each Ward, with the names of his wife and children, and of his servants, when he had any, and states how long he and they had dwelt in England, and whether he had become a denizen or not.

This certificate deals with the City only, and gives the total number of strangers therein as 4,587, once again showing a large increase. The numbers, however, actually specified of the different nationalities, when added up, make the total somewhat less, that is, only 4,269, as will be more clearly seen when they are put into modern figures.

French	440
Dutch	3,160
Italians	138
Spaniards	58
Burgundians	424
Lucchese	5
Venetians	5
Portuguese	3
Scots	32
Frieslanders	2

4,269

In all the grand totals which have been referred to, it will have been remarked that the numbers of the Dutch immigrants greatly exceeded those of the French, the proportion in the last instance being more than seven to

* State Papers, Domestic, Elizabeth, vol. xlvi., No. 72.

† Ibid., vol. xliii., Nos. 29, 30.

‡ The date does not occur at the beginning or at the end. Each Ward probably made a separate return, and the dates of such returns would vary a little. Only one date is copied into the "book," and will be found on p. 424.

one, without reckoning the 424 Burgundians, who did not come from Burgundy, but from that portion of the Netherlands which had been under the rule of the House of Burgundy. The Burgundians alone had increased from 44 in 1567 to 424 in 1571.

Two other important returns, in November and December, 1571, will appear in the next volume, which will also comprise several later returns, found among the Cecil MSS., and transcribed by permission of the Marquis of Salisbury.

Until an index to the whole work can be compiled, it is hoped that the Index of Localities in and near London will enable inquirers after any individual stranger, when once discovered, to trace him from list to list without much trouble.

A table of the trades, occupations, and other descriptions of the foreigners in London is appended. The identification of the Latin, Dutch, French, and English descriptions has given much trouble, but it is hoped that no serious mistakes have been made. While the numbers of foreign tailors, shoemakers, and other trades already common in London were large, it may be doubted whether they were really much in excess of the requirements of the immigrants themselves, although, according to Burn (p. 9), a few years later in 1576, the English Cordwainers obtained a commission of inquiry as to the number of aliens born who were shoemakers, and in 1578 the "Free Shoemakers" petitioned Lord Burghley against "certain strangers".

Little complaint could be made by the English artisans of the new arts introduced by the strangers, such as the making of arras or tapestry, lace-making, embroidery, and the various branches of silk-working and silk-weaving;* while many trades already existing in England doubtless received extensive developments. But other English tradesmen no doubt suffered severely from the competition of the numerous foreign brewers, coopers, cutlers, goldsmiths, hatters, joiners (or cabinet-makers), leather-dressers, locksmiths, merchants, printers, sawyers, smiths, weavers, and others. The many foreign physicians, surgeons, and schoolmasters must also have been in excess of the demands created by the strangers.

Most of the "painters" were no doubt artists in the modern sense, the famous Lucas de Heere, for instance, being included among them. Hans Holbein and his fee of thirty pounds a year are duly entered on p. 41, but his occupation is not there set down.†

The general nature of these returns has now been indicated, but their chief value, in the eyes of people of Huguenot descent, will lie in the biographical and genealogical details which they so abundantly furnish. Owing to the varieties of spelling presented by many of the surnames, difficulty will, however, often be experienced in identifying and tracing individuals and families. Some names would be quite unrecognisable without the aid

* The benefit to the revenue accruing from some of these is pointed out in Grindall's letter of 22nd July 1567.

† It is curious that the name of "Gaynsborow" occurs on p. 26, but without any description. "Garick the paynter" occurs on p. 164.

which can be derived from the collation of similar lists, and doubtless many errors will be discovered, but for these there is every excuse. It must be remembered that the English commissioners, in their visitation from house to house, would have great difficulty in reducing the unwonted sounds to writing, which would be roughly done on the spot, and further blunders would naturally be made by the engrossers in copying from the original notes names all more or less unfamiliar to them. Then again, as before remarked, some of the returns are in a decayed and faded condition, and the names have in such cases been read only with the greatest trouble and with some uncertainty; but as the various lists have now been brought together, it will be easier to see and correct any mistakes that may have been made.

We have already stated the obligations we are under to Mr. Moens, and we desire to express our thanks for his contributions to this work. We must especially thank Mr. G. H. Overend, F.S.A., of the Public Record Office, Assistant-Secretary of the Society, for constant advice and for numerous references. We are further under great obligation to Mr. W. C. Waller, F.S.A., a member of the Society, for visiting Hatfield, inquiring as to the missing returns, and obtaining the loan of several later ones, before referred to. Nor must we omit to acknowledge the facilities which have been accorded to us by the Rev. A. D. A. van Scheltema, Minister of the Dutch Church.

STATE PAPERS, DOMESTIC, ELIZABETH, VOL. 48, No. 47.‡

Petition of the Strangers of the French Church to Queen Elizabeth. [1562 or 1563.]

SERENISSIMA REGINA,—Extorres patria et miseri homines procul suis finibus eieci odio religionis, regiam ac benignam opem tuam implorare coguntur, qualem erga se et pios omnes iampridem experti sunt. Ij primum huc profugi tanquam in placido portu benigne et humaniter excepti plena inuocandi et colendi Dei libertate, atque etiam templo vbi congregentur, beneficentia et liberalitate tua, donati sunt. Postea admoniti de legibus huius civitatis, quarum prius ignari erant, per quas nemini extero licet proprias sibi aedes habere, aut etiam alias conducere, supplices petierunt a maiestate tua, vt ipsis aut ius municipij obtinere, aut aliqua alia via libera hinc habitatione frui, artesque suas exercere liceret. Neutrum hactenus, quanuis importunis precibus et assidua flagitatione, impetrare potuerunt; forsitan quia regni et ciuitatis

* Tanneken Gitteyns (?) is struck out here.

† Several other names look like those of strangers, but are not specified as such.

‡ In the Calendar this paper is assigned to the year 1568, but Baron Schickler, who has printed it with some inaccuracies, assigns it to an earlier date.

iura non sinunt, quæ ipsi sua causa nullo modo violari aut minui vellent. Sed quoniam interea dum sic tenentur suspensi, varijs afficiuntur molestijs, atque nunc in ius trahuntur, nunc multantur pecunia, nunc in vincula conijciuntur, nec solum vexantur ipsi, sed etiam indigenæ et ciues qui regiam beneficentiam tuam imitati, exteros comiter exceperunt, iterum ad te supplices confugiunt, vt ipsorum misereri ijsque auxiliarem manum præbere velis. Hoc igitur vnum abs te postulant, vt per clementiam tuam de seueritate legum nonnihil remittatur: vt tum ipsi tum indigenæ leuentur molestia; atque si iura municipatus obtinere non possint, saltem istic sub præsidio tuo respirare, et ea quam concessisti libertate frui liceat, quantulo tempore et qua conditione visum fuerit maiestati tuæ; ne post diuturnam expectationem multis laboribus frustra consumptis et exhaustis facultatibus, hostium prædæ et luporum faucibus exponantur. Ita pio omnes, nec tantum eos qui sub ditione tua degunt, sed vbique omnes, tibi obstringes, ac deinctos tenebis: vt pro incolumitate tua et regni tui felicitate solliciti sint, quæ in dies augeri magisque ac magis promoueri assidujs precibus ac votis a Deo exoptamus.

BOOK 3.

A volume containing two lists, both of the same date, 1567. The second list, being fuller than the first, is printed here. Probably some of the names were added after the date given. Neither of these lists agrees with the list of about the same date printed by Strype.‡ They have vellum covers, cut out of a book of commentaries or sermons.
