PREFACE

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE TEXTILE CENTER OF THE SOUTH

Altitude 780 Feet

Twenty years ago, the South began to arouse from her bed of rich, deep traditions, and bestir herself. There is a new South today—an onward driving, pulsating South in industry, agriculture and finance.

Fundamentally, successful industries develop best where abundant raw materials, mechanical power and stable population combine. Tremendously rich in natural resources, power and raw materials, the South has strided forward with seven-league boots, and today, the economic advantages resulting from the development of her resources are leading the trail of industry Southward.

This is true, not only in the textile field, where advantageous conditions of power, climate, labor and living conditions at the source of raw materials have already transferred the center of the industry from New England to the South, but in other lines of diversified manufacturing as well.

North Carolina today is the pacemaker of the South; it leads in textile manufacturing and hydro-electric power development and Charlotte is the center of a textile manufacturing territory having 770 mills, operating over 10,000,000 spindles, and consuming more cotton than any other section in the world.

It is the center of the biggest hydro-electric development in the United States—the total horsepower developed and in immediate prospect of development being nearly six hundred thousand.

Is the largest center in the South for textile mill machinery and equipment, practically all the large companies in the United States and England handling their entire business in the South through Charlotte offices and plants.

Is the "Southern market" for dyestuffs—laboratories and offices being maintained here by the leading dye corporations of the country.

Has four railroad lines with over one hundred trains in and out of the city daily, diverging in eight different directions.

Annual payrolls of over 14 million dollars, from the two hundred widely diversified manufacturing and industrial plants.

AS A MANUFACTURING CENTER CHARLOTTE OFFERS:

1. Low power for manufacturing purposes.
2. Close proximity to the sources of all material for finished products.
3. Cotton, cotton yarns, cotton seed, cotton oil, tobacco, peanuts, kaolin, wood pulp, lumber etc.
4. It is the logical location for a manufacturer of commodities for export through the ports of Norfolk, Wilmington, Charleston, Savannah.
5. It offers a very desirable type of high-class labor, available to manufacturers.
6. Mild climatic conditions throughout the year. There are 9 months of exceptional open-season weather.
7. The adequate transfer facilities of four railroads with daily terminal facilities of 3,400 carloads.
8. Desirable living conditions and an exceptional residential development.

MANUFACTURING CENTER—

The abundance and low cost of hydro-electric power has made Charlotte one of the greatest manufacturing centers in the South—destined to become the greatest before many years have passed. The annual pay-roll from the more than 250 manufacturing and industrial plants is over $19,000,000.00. Charlotte has three large cotton oil companies operating 11 mills with an annual output of over $10,000,000.00. The Charlotte branch of the Ford Motor Company, which cost to build $2,000,000.00, has a daily capacity of 400 cars. The Interstate Milling Company has a daily output of 1,100 barrels of flour, the largest in the State. The Charlotte Wagon and Auto Company is the largest and best equipped plant for the manufacture of commercial truck bodies, painting and repairing in the South. Charlotte is the center of the great textile manufacturing industry in the South. Scores of big textile manufacturing plants are located in the city or within a few miles radius. Write Charlotte Chamber of Commerce for further facts.

CHARLOTTE'S CLIMATE—

Charlotte is located on the celebrated Piedmont Plateau with its healthful and invigorating all-year moderate temperatures, low relative humidity, and almost total absence of snow and ice. According to the official record of the local United States Weather Station covering a period of 44 years, the average year-round temperature is 60.0 degrees. Extremely high summer temperature or very low winter temperatures are practically unknown.
