BABY'S TRAGIC DEATH

The death of a child is always a grief, but it has been particularly afflicting to the parents of little Delphane McNair, a baby about a year old, who got hold of a bottle of lysol, swallowed some and died Monday. The little one in crawling around in the bathroom got into a medicine chest with the fatal consequences noted above. The child was christened at Easter time by Dr. E. H. Willisford. Mrs. McNair is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miner at 109 East Palmer avenue, and funeral services will be held today in Los
