GOOD SHOWS AT LOCAL THEATERS

The vaudeville bill at the Empire offers as a headliner Mr. Fred Fasenbek in harmony singing and refined comedy. Mr. Fasenbek is late from the Orpheum circuit and comes to the Empire for a limited engagement by special arrangement.

The special feature of the program will be the Patriotic Revue, with which the show opens, France, England, Italy and Russia will be represented by pretty girls in attractive symbolic costumes singing the national song of each respective country.

One hundred and seventy-five years and every movement of the young men left Friday night by special train for Leon Springs, Tex.

Leon Drouce, caretaker of the historic old landmark at the corner of Conti and Royal, was arrested Friday night charged with supplying sailors with beer.

The employees of the D. H. Holmes company are enjoying their annual picnic today. They left by special train over the L. and N. railway for Ocean Springs, Miss., early Saturday.

Thirty-two cases of typhoid fever in the city this summer have been traced to the dairy of J. Hourcade in Jefferson parish.

Six young men were indicted by the federal grand jury Friday for failing to register, three for selling narcotics, two for selling liquor to soldiers and one for impersonating an army officer.

Leigh Carroll, former president of the Orleans Levee board, is slated to be general manager of the Gulf division of the American Red Cross.

Joseph Landry, aged 14, has been arrested charged with several robberies. He claims that he stole because his mother was hungry.

Reappointing Patrick E. Burke, John Ponder and John W. Phillips, whose terms had expired, to membership on the board of control of the Leper Home at Carville, La.

Governor Pleasant Thursday night issued a proclamation calling upon the people of Louisiana "vigorantly to guard against loss by fire or explosion," as a war measure.

There are 200 men at work in the various construction departments at Camp Beauregard.

LEÇONS DE FRANÇAIS: Apprenez le français en quarante leçons faciles, publiées dans l'Abelle de la Nouvelle-Orléans.

Out of 568 men called for service in Vermillion parish, only fifteen were exempted; ninety-seven were physically unfit, eighteen failed to report and 438 were accepted for service.

Arrangements have been made for the appointment of a farm demonstration agent in New Orleans.

Charbon is playing havoc with the cattle in the vicinity of Shreveport. Saloonkeepers have been warned that if selling liquor to soldiers is not stopped, those found guilty would receive the maximum penalty, which is $1,000 fine and a year in federal prison.

The Whitney-Central National bank has purchased the three-story brick structure at 224 St. Charles street, adjoining from the Pokorny estate, Ltd. Passages will be cut and the structure added to the bank.

It is understood the Whitney Trust and Savings bank, now on the Gravier street side of the bank building, will be moved to the other side after extensive alterations have been made.

Rest rooms for women are to be installed, with other features for the convenience of customers.

Judson Harris, Jr., of Jennings, La., who is engaged in the government service, has been ordered to Havana, N. Y., to undergo training in the operating of an airplane.

He passed his mental and physical examination some time ago. Mr. Harris' father is one of the appraisers of the Federal Land bank here.

Because W. C. Harder and other taxpayers who filed a mandamus petition in the Civil District court for an election to fill the office of commissioner of public safety ignored the existence of Sam Stone, Jr., as a de facto officer, Judge Parker denied the writ and ordered the suit dismissed at a hearing Thursday.

His opinion was that Mr. Stone had duly qualified and had a right to the office which could only be tested by proceedings in the nature of quo warranto or intrusion in office.

He is clearly a de facto officer, the judge said. A crowd estimated to have numbered 10,000 persons, gathered in Audubon Park early Wednesday evening to witness the drilling of the Shriners' marching club and Arab patrol under the auspicious banner. It was the largest crowd to gather in Audubon Park for many years and every movement of the young men left Friday night by special train for Leon Springs, Tex.

A tragedy was averted in the French Market at noon Thursday when Patrolman Frank Kenner, of the Third Precinct station, arrested Albert Pons, age 52 years, 1213 St. Roch avenue, and John Russel, age 54 years, 1012 Elysian Fields, street.

They are alleged to have had an argument earlier in the day and Pons to throw up his hands. At this a pistol and when Russel noticed him approaching, picked up an old single-barrel shotgun and ordered Pons to throw up his hands.

At this moment Patrolman Kenner reached the scene and arrested both parties. School teachers who break their contracts without the full consent and approval of the parish superintendent with whom each contract is entered into will find their certificates canceled and themselves summarily ejected from the teaching profession, according to State Superintendent Thomas H. Harris.

John Costa, the 16-year-old son of S. J. Costa, a merchant of Water-proof, was struck by lightning and instantly killed Wednesday afternoon. Young Costa was in a barn near his home at the time of the storm, which was of unusual severity.

Governor Pleasant Thursday night issued a proclamation calling upon the people of Louisiana "vigorantly to guard against loss by fire or explosion," as a war measure.

There are 200 men at work in the various construction departments at Camp Beauregard. Hundreds of buildings, many of them large, have already been erected, but it is stated that the construction work has scarcely begun.

LES VILLES ET LES COMPAGNIES. Par suite du renchérissement général de tous les objets de consommation, diverses Compagnies de Tramways dans les villes de province, viennent d'augmenter le tarif des places. Les Conseils Municipaux ont été appelés à délibérer à cet égard pour l'adoption des nouveaux tarifs. Dans plusieurs villes, notamment à Nantes, divers Conseillers Municipaux, adversaires de l'augmentation ont exprimé le désir que le Parlement donnât une aide aux villes en leur donnant le droit de voir les livres des Compagnies qui ont passé contrat avec elles, mais qui ont passé contrat avec elles.
