LIBERALS DEAL WITH EMPIRE RELATIONS

ROUMANIAN LEADERS SERVE ULTIMATUM ON CABINET OF HUNGARY

Demand Fifty Per Cent of Hungarian Harvest, Animals, Farm Machinery and Railway Supplies and Upkeep of Roumanian Force

Paris, Aug. 6.—The Roumanians served an ultimatum on the Hungarian Government, to expire at 8 a. m. to-day, according to messages reaching the Peace Conference. The ultimatum, it is stated, made demands far in excess of the armistice terms.

The Roumanians demanded the reduction of the Hungarian army to 15,000 men and the surrender of fifty per cent. of the harvest, animals and farm machinery and fifty per cent. of the railway supplies. The ultimatum also demanded a large proportion of the Danube shipping and equipment and supplies for an army of 300,000 men, together with rations for the Roumanian forces pending a peace settlement.

It is greatly feared in Peace Conference circles that the Roumanian action will result in the overthrow of the new Hungarian Government. French circles state that the Roumanian army is not under the command of Marshal Foch, the Allied Commander-in-Chief, the Roumanian general refusing to accept orders from the French. The Roumanians have not been actively participating in the Peace Conference since Premier Bratianu some time ago took exception to the decision of the Conference upon the principle guaranteeing the rights of minorities.

To Participate.
Basel, Aug. 6.—(Havas).—Czechoslovak and British troops are on their way to Budapest for the purpose of participating in the occupation of the city with the Roumanians, according to a dispatch from the Hungarian capital. French troops also will take part in the occupation of the city.

King Ferdinand
Paris, Aug. 6.—The Intrinsicant's Geneva correspondent says that, according to a Bucharest dispatch, King Ferdinand of Roumania is with his army in Hungary.

To Budapest
Budapest, Aug. 5, via London, Aug. 6.—King Ferdinand of Roumania is expected to arrive in Budapest shortly so that the already acute political situation will be sharpened.

Count Julius Andrássy, former Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs; Ernst Carami and Dr Wilhelm Vashony have arrived in Budapest from Switzerland.

The Communists have disappeared entirely, but it is expected that they are merely "lying low" and will appear actively if the new Government is too reactionary.

Czecho-Slovak Move
Budapest, Aug. 5, via London, Aug. 6.—Czecho-Slovak and Serbian troops, following the Roumanians, are advancing toward Budapest.

Captain Thomas C. Gregory, a member of the Inter-Allied Relief Commission, attempted to persuade the Roumanians not to occupy the city, presenting protests from the Hungarians, who insisted that only the presence of British and American troops here

AUSTRIANS HAND REPLY TO ALLIES

Counter-Proposals Are Before Supreme Council of Peace Conference

Paris, Aug. 6.—The Austrian counter-proposals to the peace terms were handed to the Allied Mission at St. Germain-en-Laye at 12.15 o'clock to-day. The counter-proposals were brought at once to Paris and delivered to the Supreme Council of the Peace Conference.

Bulgaria.
Paris, Aug. 6.—(Havas).—The negotiations between the Allied Powers and Bulgaria probably will be concluded within the next eight days, according to The Echo de Paris.

FOREIGNERS BLAMED FOR PLOT AGAINST BRITAIN OF WHICH STRIKES ARE PART

London, Aug. 6.—This afternoon's London newspapers make a feature of a statement printed in The Times this morning to the effect that it was understood that the British authorities were convinced that the present strikes were part of a conspiracy organized abroad to subvert Great Britain's system of government.

The statement added that the Government believed that if the police strike had succeeded, it would have been the signal for "direct action" on a vast scale.

This afternoon it developed that the Scotland Yard officials had obtained a confession from a Swede that he had been bringing money to finance an agitation to overcome the Government.

The labor man concerned, it was added, denied that he had received the money.

The Swede who made the confession has been deported.

Street Cars Stop.
Liverpool, Aug. 6.—Tramway service here was suspended completely to-day, and there was virtually no bread to be had as a result of the strike movement which began with the police, and now includes the tramway workers and bakers. The municipal employees last night voted to give twenty-four hours' strike notice unless the demands of the tramway men were met.

No Strikes.
London, Aug. 6.—The National Union of Railwaymen declined to-day to call a general strike of its members in support of the Police Union, which ordered a strike recently over the Government's refusal to withdraw its bill affecting the police organization.

Displeased with Hon. William Sloan
Prince Rupert Board of Trade Wants New Fisheries Commissioner

Prince Rupert, Aug. 6.—The following resolution was passed without dissent at the last meeting of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade:

"In view of the fact that Hon. William Sloan, Commissioner of Fisheries, on his first visit to this district since his appointment did not consider or see fit to give any consideration to the fisheries industry, it would seem that he is not sufficiently interested in this district to warrant his holding the position of Commissioner of Fisheries; therefore,

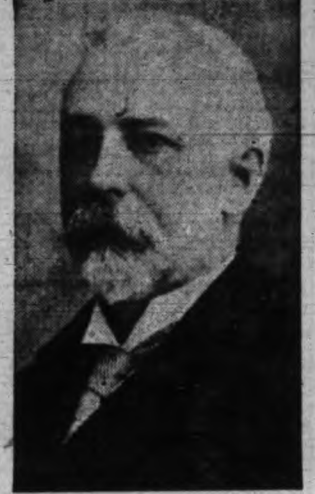

"Be it resolved, that this, the Prince Rupert Board of Trade, petition Hon. John Oliver, Premier of the Province, to assign to the head of this industry a man sufficiently interested to justify its existence, or abolish the Department, and,

"Be it resolved, that in our opinion the work of this Department is confined to the collecting of data from year to year, said returns published being largely a repetition of previous reports, the only real changes being in figures, and,

"Be it resolved, that the Provincial Government take steps to complete data to lay before Hon. C. C. Ballantyne on his proposed visit to this city in September, in an effort to convince him of the abuses that exist in the fishing industry of this province. This data should be compiled independently of the present fisheries staff.

"We would recommend that a copy of this resolution be sent to Hon. T. D. Pattullo."

WILSON ATTACKING THE PROFITEERS NOW

Will Address His Congress Friday; More "Teeth" For Laws

Washington, Aug. 6.—President Wilson will address Congress in person on Friday to make recommendations for legislation to aid in reducing the cost of living throughout the United States. This was learned to-day at the White House.

That one of the President's recommendations will be "more teeth" to make the existing laws effective to cope adequately with profiteering is the general belief of officials. The President, it is suggested, also may ask Congress for a modified licensing system under which margins of profit may be controlled so as to bring an immediate reduction in prices.

Protections.
Washington, Aug. 6.—All Federal District Attorneys in the United States were ordered to-day by Attorney-General Palmer to proceed immediately in the prosecution of all persons guilty of hoarding foodstuffs and to libel the foodstuffs for condemnation.

"This is the most important business before the country to-day," Mr. Palmer said in announcing his action. "I propose to have the law enforcement machinery of the Government sidetrack everything to do this job."

"Conditions," said Mr. Palmer, "require a country-wide campaign against hoarding and profiteering, and I desire the Department of Justice to use every legal means available to put an end to these activities."

Firing Squad.
Washington, Aug. 6.—Organized labor in the United States may after a more thorough inquiry, advocate a firing squad for some of those responsible for the wave of profiteering sweeping over the country. Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, told the House Interstate Commerce Committee to-day.

Mr. Stone appeared before the Committee at the hearing on the Plumb plan for railroad control by the public, the operating managements and labor.

Mr. Stone said the railway brotherhoods were bitterly opposed to the system of railway control. "If the Plumb plan is rejected it would be the policy of labor," he added, "to create enough sentiment in and out of Congress to force its adoption."

No Threats.
"We have not and do not make any strike threats," the witness said in this connection. "We have not even demanded an increase in wages, preferring a reduction in the cost of living."

"I do not believe any labor organization will strike simply to force the (Concluded on page 14.)"

LIBERALS ARE AGAINST CENTRALIZED CONTROL OF BRITISH EMPIRE

Convention at Ottawa Declares Against Interference With Canada's Autonomy; Calls For Vote of People on Any Change in Relations

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—Consideration of resolutions was the business taken up when the National Liberal Convention resumed work this morning.

The first resolution presented was one moved by Senator Dandurand and seconded by M. A. Macdonald, of Vancouver. It dealt with the question of relations within the Empire, declaring that no organic change in the relations of the Dominion to the Empire should come into effect until ratified by a vote of the Canadian people.

An amendment moved by W. D. Gregory, of Toronto, declared that the main resolution did not go far enough, and suggested by way of amendment the insertion of words objecting to any attempt to centralize Empire control.

Allies Still Plan to Have ex-Kaiser Tried in London

London, Aug. 6.—The Allies have not altered their decision to hold the trial of Wilhelm II, the former German Kaiser, in London, Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, Government Leader, announced in the House of Commons to-day. He said no action in the matter until the peace treaty with Germany is ratified.

CORN AND PORK SOAR IN STATES

Jump in Price on Government's Wheat Price Announcement

Chicago, Aug. 6.—An instantaneous upward jump of 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents a bushel was the response of the corn market here to-day to the announcement that the United States Government would maintain the guaranteed $2.35 price of wheat. The biggest rise of the corn market was in the principal trading delivery, December, which soared at once to $1.52.

Willingness to buy was evident as the overwhelming rush to sell had been yesterday. Holders and speculators had done the selling yesterday on the expectation that the Government would decide to pocket a huge loss and at once cut wheat prices to consumers as much as fifty cents a bushel. When this idea was shown to be baseless, the market conditions were squarely reversed and for the time being little or no attention was paid to the notice that flour would be sold at a reduction of one dollar a barrel.

BRITAIN AND MEXICO.
London, Aug. 6.—A British Minister to Mexico will not be appointed until the Government is convinced that the improvement in the Mexican attitude toward British interests justifies recognition of the Carranza Government, it was announced to-day in the House of Commons.

MR. FIELDING SPOKEN OF AS PROBABLE CHOICE FOR NEW LEADER OF LIBERAL PARTY

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—A couple of hundred additional delegates were in attendance this morning at the National Liberal Convention and more are expected to arrive in time to participate in the vote for the Leader, which will take place on Thursday.

There is still much speculation as to who is likely to be the successful candidate, but this morning there appeared to be a swing in the direction of Hon. W. S. Fielding. This is largely due to a report that Hon. William M. Martin, Premier of Saskatchewan, will definitely decline to allow his name to go before the Convention.

EMPIRE LEADING WORLD, SAYS SMUTS

But South African Statesman Says Europe Is on Decline

London, Aug. 6.—Lieut.-General the Rt. Hon. Jan Christian Smuts, British member of the League of Nations Commission, in a speech at Cape Town yesterday said the three greatest impressions he had gained during the Peace Conference were, first, the immense preponderance of the British Empire in the world; second, the rising power of the United States, which was the only great power to emerge from the war unscathed and even with resources vastly increased; and third, the decline of Europe, not only relatively but intrinsically owing to war exhaustion.

"ROYAL WEEK" IN HONOR OF PRINCE

Six Days of Celebration Will Mark Visit; Many Attractions

"Royal Week" to celebrate the approaching visit of the Prince of Wales, will be held in Victoria during the week of September 22-27, concurrently with the holding of the Home Products Fair. Yesterday afternoon a meeting was convened at the offices of the Victoria and Island Development Association, which was attended by representatives of the leading public bodies of the city and plans were discussed for carrying out the scheme.

F. Westley Newton explained that in view of the visit of the Prince of Wales to Victoria during the last week in September, which was also the date for the Home Products Fair, the celebration of a "Royal Week" should be held in the city. He said "some preparation will have to be made for the reception of the Prince and many visitors are expected. It will therefore be a golden opportunity to make Victoria a city of attraction and entertainment during that week."

As the Provincial Government and the city will be making preparations (Concluded on page 14.)

MACHINERY TO DEAL WITH PROFITEERS IS PROPOSED IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

London, Aug. 6.—The Government proposes establishing a central authority to deal with profiteering, it was announced by Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of Reconstruction, at the resumption to-day of the hearings by the House of Commons, sitting as a select committee to inquire into the high cost of living and profiteering.

Sir Auckland Geddes, according to the Government's plan, would be associated with local and county tribunals. New powers would be asked for in connection with the project and an increase in penalties for violations put into effect.

"BEST MOVE I EVER MADE IN MY LIFE," FRANK COOK SAYS
Victoria Man Praises Tanlac For Restoring His Health

"Since Tanlac has done so much for me I can't help but think of others who need it like I did, and I feel that I ought to tell them about it," said Frank Cook, a well-known employee of the Foundation Shipyards, who lives at 2329 Howard Street, Victoria, the other day.

"I suffered for five years with stomach troubles," continued Mr. Cook, "and when I commenced taking Tanlac I was just about down and out so far as health and strength goes. This trouble had been gradually growing worse all the time, and although I was under treatment and had taken many different kinds of medicine, I never got any relief until I got hold of this Tanlac. Everything I ate would sour on my stomach, and I would often be so bloated up with gas that I could hardly breathe. I was badly constipated all the time, and I don't believe any man on earth ever suffered more from headaches than I did. Then, too, I would have had spells of dizziness at times, and I would have to get hold of something to keep from falling. I also suffered from pains in my back, and was so nervous that I hardly ever got a good night's sleep.

"Well, I finally made up my mind to give Tanlac a trial as it seemed to be helping so many people right here at home, and it was the best move I ever made in my life. I have taken six bottles of Tanlac so far, and I can truthfully say that I never enjoyed better health than I do now. My stomach troubles are gone, and while I have a ravenous appetite and eat three hearty meals every day, I never have the least sign of indigestion or sour stomach afterwards. The pain is gone from my back, too, and best of all, those terrible headaches are a thing of the past. I am never bothered with nervousness now, and I sleep like a rock every night. Yes, sir, Tanlac is the best medicine I ever saw, and as long as I live I will praise it for the good it has done me. Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas—Advt.

SEIZURE OF BARRACKS WAS PART OF PLAN
Detective Repeats in Winnipeg Court What Strike Leader Said

Winnipeg, Aug. 6.—R. E. Bray, a returned soldier and one of the Winnipeg strike leaders now on trial for conspiracy, declared on June 10 last that he had a fully organized band of 3,000 to 4,000 men ready to take up arms at given signals. A. A. McLaughlan, a labor alderman of the city of Winnipeg, who is on trial with Bray and six other labor leaders, knew of the plan.

Tell was the sworn evidence of Detective W. H. McLaughlan, of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, in court yesterday. McLaughlan testified in part as follows:

"In the course of my conversation with Bray he stated that this affair was going to end in a fight, and when I mentioned the fact that we had no guns, Bray said: 'Don't worry about guns. We will get them. We have got between 3,000 and 4,000 ready and instructed to be in certain places when the alarm is sounded, and they will get into the citizens' cars which are to carry the militia to Minto Barracks, pass themselves off as militiamen until they get inside the barracks, get possession of the rifles, turn these on the real soldiers and seize the barracks.'

Near the Leaders.

McLaughlan was a plainclothes man assigned to follow the strike, and he was in the confidence of several of the strike leaders.

Mr. McLaughlan testified that in the same conversation Bray said that the strikers were fully informed through their agents of who was going on in the ranks of the opposition. Bray had heard that a raid was to be made on aliens in the North End of Winnipeg, and said that he had got a car and a girl who could "speak their lingo" to warn the aliens. Bray was quoted as saying that "the way the bohunks ran to their homes to get something to fight with was plain evidence that the police would get what was coming to them."

McLaughlan's report of the successive meetings held under the auspices of the Strike Committee emphasized the fact that the strike leaders began to abandon their policy of "do nothing," and said that William Evans, one of the accused, at a meeting on June 2 "gave thinly veiled hints that the workers must resort to violence;" also that R. E. Bray, at a meeting on June 10, referred to the dismissal of the striking policemen in such a way to lead one to believe he was not opposed to violence.

Speaking further of Bray, the detective said:

"He openly said 'do nothing,' but evidently spent his time organizing his followers for open rebellion."

Objectionable Literature.

McLaughlan later testified that W. A. Pritchard, one of those on trial, recommended literature called "objectionable" by the Crown, which was sold at a big Socialist meeting here last Sunday, at which Pritchard was the principal speaker.

This statement brought from Magistrate R. M. Noble the remark that "during the trial such activities on the part of the accused should cease," and "I think if they do this it is wrong that they should be in jail."

The booklet contained the "objectionable" matter with the "Communist Manifesto," written in 1848 by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels. McLaughlan said W. A. Pritchard at the close of his address last Sunday, announced that it was for sale, and recommended it. McLaughlan bought one at the meeting.

Excerpts.

J. B. Coyne, prosecuting counsel, after putting the booklet in as an exhibit, then read the following excerpts to the court:

"In short, the Communists everywhere support every revolutionary movement against the existing social and political order of things. They want to abolish all state distinctions, they bring to the front as the leading question in each the property question, no matter what its degree of development at the time.

"Finally they labor everywhere for the union and agreement of the Democratic parties of all countries.

"The Communists disdain to conceal their views and aims. They openly declare that their ends can be attained only by the forcible overthrow of all existing social conditions. Let the ruling classes tremble at a Communist revolution. The proletarians have nothing to lose but their chains, and a world to win.

"Workers of all countries, unite!"

VISITING VERNON

BRIGADIER-GEN. VICTOR ODLUM

Vernon, B. C., Aug. 6.—"I want to pay a big tribute to Gen. Currie. I consider, in spite of the little rumors there have been made about him, that he is one of the biggest men that have been turned out in Canada. He is big intellectually, big as a tactician, big in character and big in heart. Gen. Currie is coming back determined to devote the rest of his life to the interests of the men who served under him. He will remain in a technical position in the military forces of Canada, and while he will take up the duties of any position of that kind he has no intention of entering public life. No money grant will be offered him, nor, if offered, would it be accepted by him. He is a man who has natural gifts in military matters, and he has always retained the confidence of his senior officers for his personality, fairness and judgment."

While staying at the home of an old college friend, W. H. D. Ladner, formerly of Vancouver and now of Vernon, Brig.-Gen. Victor Odium made the foregoing announcements in the course of an interview.

"Speaking for myself," continued the Brigadier-General, "I have told the authorities at Ottawa that I am going to ask for nothing that I am not going to ask them to take care of me, now that I have returned. I have come back physically fit, as you can see, and mentally able to look after myself, and I am going to make my own way in civil life again."

Portsmouth, Aug. 5.—The Prince of Wales sailed for Canada at six o'clock last evening on board the battle cruiser Renown. There was no ceremony attending the departure of the cruiser.

King George and Queen Mary accompanied the Prince of Wales on board the Renown, where a farewell luncheon was served. There was no speech-making, but the King raised his glass and wished the Prince a prosperous voyage and a safe return. The Royal party then returned ashore, the Prince accompanying them to the railway station, where there was an affectionate leave-taking. The Prince stepped out and stood at the salute with tightly drawn lips as the train pulled out for London. Then he boarded the Renown, which sailed immediately.

CANADIAN CATTLE AND BRITISH MARKET

London, Aug. 5.—Discussing the question of admission of Canadian store cattle into Great Britain, The Morning Post's agricultural correspondent thinks legislation could reconcile justice to Canada with a domestic policy here and suggests an act of two clauses to remove an ancient sore spot. One clause would exempt from the act of 1896 Canadian-born cattle in the Dominion, and the other clause would provide that nothing in the act would permit the admission of Canadian store cattle except by order of the Board of Agriculture confirmed by both Houses of Parliament.

BEST BRAINS FOR COUNTRY'S SERVICE

At Convention Premier Murray
Urges Liberals to Be United

FIRST DAY'S BUSINESS OF OTTAWA CONVENTION

Ottawa, Aug. 5.—"We must do our utmost to place at the service of our country the best the Liberal Party can furnish," said Hon. G. H. Murray, Premier of Nova Scotia, in an address he made following his election as one of the two joint chairmen at the opening of the National Liberal Convention here yesterday.

"We must avoid raising any issues which would furnish our opponents with their old-time refuge of flag flapping and lip patriotism. We must not forget that the Liberalism of Canada has made as much sacrifice of blood and treasure in this war as any other portion of our population. We must not be placed upon the defensive upon any issue which questions our devotion to our country and our admiration for the men who fought and died that justice and liberty might be preserved, and our desire properly to provide for them must be foremost in our thoughts."

Turning to the conscription question he said:

"As might as well be plain, for we gain nothing at a convention by evading certain facts. There was the conscriptionist who believed in conscription as a matter of principle. In the Liberal Party, as I understand Liberalism, he must be allowed that right without question. The man who did not believe in conscription in the Liberal Party is entitled to the same privilege. There is no justification for a quarrel in that matter. I sincerely trust that the days of conscription are over and that there is no reason at all why in respect to domestic problems of Canada, all Liberals should not meet and sit together and deal with such matters in perfect harmony and unity."

Mr. Murray then urged the necessity of an effective organization. Harmony and good leadership would contribute effective organization.

Mr. Murray said he had always recognized the difficulty of propounding a commercial policy in this Dominion which would be acceptable to the various units which compose the country. The policy which would be most effective would be one developed by a Government or leader in sympathy with the mass of the people, and giving honest consideration to the general interests which concerned their welfare and prosperity.

He admitted that there must be certain issues upon which there must be a fair and definite statement. The Liberal Party as the first essential to sound government must preserve the national credit.

"The national debt is enormous," said Mr. Murray. "Our annual interest charges must be met, and we must have a proper regard for those who participated in the war." If the Liberal Party did not weaken upon this matter but gives evidence in season and out of season of its courage to deal with these problems, he had no doubt of the outcome of an appeal to the people.

A Mission.
In conclusion Mr. Murray said that Liberalism was facing new duties and had a great mission to perform: The destinies of Canada were in its hands.

"We must face the future," he said, "with courage and high resolve to maintain the traditions of our faith and march forward united in service for our common country. That is the message which I believe this Convention will give to the men and women of Canada on this inspiring occasion."

Sir Lomer Gouin.
Sir Lomer Gouin, the other joint chairman, speaking in French, spoke of the days of triumph which had followed the Convention of 1893. Soon days of triumph for the Liberal Party would come again, for the party was full of life and vigor.

He thanked the Convention for electing him as joint chairman, which was in itself an honor to Quebec. The Convention had met to deliberate. As he understood it, the first duty of a chairman was to speak as little as possible. He wished to be a model chairman. Therefore he would conclude his speech with repeating his words of thanks.

Civic Welcome.
Mayor Fisher followed with an address of welcome on behalf of the city of Ottawa. He spoke of the affection in which Sir Wilfrid Laurier was always held. Sir Wilfrid's successor, in integrity and all essentials of character should be worthy to wear his mantle. A leader, further, should be a leader to lead somewhere.

Mr. Murray briefly expressed the thanks of the Convention for the civic welcome.

Death of Laurier.
A resolution of regret at the death of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was then moved by Sir Allan Aylesworth and seconded by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux. Sir Allan stated that it was fitting before the meeting proceeded further to pay a tribute to the revered memory of the great leader. He testified to the greatness, sterling worth and sweet loveliness of Sir Wilfrid, and then saying that he could not trust himself to speak of the leader he had so loved, he read the resolution.

The resolution testified to the irreparable loss which had been sustained not only by the Liberal Party, but by the whole country in the death of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It stated that his great wish was that the work which he had devoted his life to should be carried on to the end, that disunion due to race and creed should disappear in Canada. Sir Wilfrid had found Canada a colony, but he had made it a nation. After reading the resolution Sir Allen moved that it be engrossed and presented to Lady Laurier.

Lemieux Spoke.
Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, seconding the resolution in French, spoke of Laurier's great devotion to Liberal principles, and of his admiration of British Liberal statesmen, such as Fox, Burke, O'Connell and Gladstone, and also his devotion to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. Amid great applause he quoted the declaration of the late Liberal statesmen that he loved France, the land of his ancestry, Britain, the land which stood for liberty, but most of all Canada, his native land. With Sir Wilfrid Laurier it had been Canada first, last and always.

The resolution was put and carried by a silent, standing vote of the delegates.

Grand Army.
Captain R. L. Calder, of Montreal, then spoke for the Canadian Grand Army.

At the outset Captain Calder read a telegram stating that the Grand Army was not affiliated with any political party. What the returned men demanded was that the party should adopt the standards of truth and justice. The returned men asked for help in re-establishment. Promises had been made and the returned men asked that the Government be kept to its bargain, and if necessary the Government should be forced to live up to what it had promised.

Cost of Living.
Captain Calder emphasized the serious situation in regard to the cost of living. "If you don't interfere by means of legislation," Captain Calder said, "somebody will interfere with the bomb and the bullet."

The Cost-of-Living Committee had found that the cost of food was to a large extent artificial because the organization of business was artificial.

Committees.
From 2:30 until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the various provincial delegations were in session in their own rooms selecting their representatives on the various convention committees. They handed in their reports when the deliberations of the main convention were resumed at 4 o'clock. Judging from the amount of cheering there was considerable enthusiasm in the provincial gatherings. The delegates, it is said, were determined that there would be nothing of a cut-and-dried nature in connection with the naming of committees.

Ontario.
In the Ontario gathering it was proposed to leave the selection of the names to the district chairmen, but this was vigorously objected to.

Delegates representing farming constituencies insisted on agriculture being well-represented with the result that ten farmers were chosen. Representatives of the manufacturing and laboring interests also were chosen.

Chairman Murray read to the Convention the reports from the various provincial delegations giving their representations on the different committees. The reports were adopted, and the committees retired to elect their chairmen and begin their work.

WHY NOT A VICTORIAN?

Although a number of presumably well qualified Victoria solicitors have signified their desire to fill the vacancy recently created by the resignation of Mr. R. W. Hamington, there seems to be an inclination on the part of the Legislative Committee of the City Council to favor a Vancouver candidate for the post.

We are not in a position to compare the qualifications of all the applicants, however; but in recognizing the necessity for this city to obtain the services of a first class practitioner—whose knowledge of municipal law should be a primary consideration—it ought to be possible for the local members of the legal profession to furnish the right man from among their number. It is altogether likely that a returned soldier could be found with the requisite qualifications.

It has been suggested that in the event of the appointment going to the Vancouver applicant an assistant would be provided by him without additional cost to the city. If this is an added attraction intended to divert aldermanic favor from local candidates it should be made clear at once—such as the case—that the duties of the position warrant the payment of one capable official only. If it is necessary to supply the City Solicitor with an assistant, he should be appointed in proper fashion and be subject to customary conditions.

TRIAL OF THE EX-KAISER.

Mr. Andrew Bonar Law announced in the British House of Commons to-day that the Allies had not altered their decision to hold the trial of the former German emperor in London. He stated, however, that no action in the matter would be taken until the German Peace Treaty had been ratified by the Powers. From the Government Leader's declaration, therefore, it will be learned that the fairly general expression for a change of venue has had no visible effect.

The Press of the Old Country has maintained a steady stand against the Allied decision, many of the more incisive journals having aligned themselves with the essentially moderate section. While a fairly general altered attitude became apparent almost immediately after Mr. Lloyd George made his dramatic announcement to Parliament, there was a tendency to avoid public expression of the underlying reason why London, of all places, should not be the scene of the international tribunal. Eminent writers pointed to the absolute partiality of the arrangement, emphasizing the fact that the Allied nations—who are, of course, the aggrieved parties—proposed to appoint a Court of their own judges for the trial of the prisoner. It was argued also that the procedure contemplated would be a reversal of the traditions of justice, and any assurance that the ex-Kaiser's trial would be a fair one would be given with the tongue in the cheek.

The capital objection, however, is no longer in doubt and Mr. Bonar Law's announcement to-day again throws the chief consideration into relief. Conflict between blood relationships and national relationships has been one of the cruellest experiences of the war. The prisoner who is to be tried in London is the grandson of Queen Victoria, a son of a British Princess Royal, and the cousin of the reigning monarch. Moreover, the trial would take place within a pistol shot of Buckingham Palace. For these, among other reasons, a fairly large section of the British press opposes the trial in London. Some newspapers object on the grounds that it would be offensive judicially and because its effect on the national temper might easily prove disastrous.

It would appear to be obvious also to the greater number of British newspapers that the trial of the ex-Kaiser in London—and it might hang on for many months, perhaps for a year—would hinder the nation in its endeavor to get back to its reasonable activities, to its normal habit of thought. A neutral country, difficult as it might be to set up an ex-parte court, or even the capital of one of the lesser belligerents, might, after all, be better than the metropolis of the British Empire. Whatever is done, it should be demonstrated to the world that the machinery created at the Peace Conference is intended to deal effectively with all war makers in the future.

JOHNSON STREET BRIDGE.

With the essential details already settled it should not be a very difficult matter for the city and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to adjust their respective points of view in connection with the Johnson Street bridge agreement. It is patent that neither party to the arrangement recently arrived at can expect to rule the roost and dictate the general administration of the structure. The Mayor's suggestion that the C. P. R. is attempting to exercise control of its own and the city's half of the bridge may project a new phase—not a formidable obstacle—that will require to be disposed of before further progress can be made. It may be taken for granted that the railway company will do its best to drive a keen bargain, but in doing so it will have to be remembered that the larger items of cost are to be borne by the Province and the City. Hence, the city must be allowed to make such arrangements with the British Columbia Electric Railway Company as do not seek to impose a penalty upon the expansion of its system to the former Reserve. As the general principle of the project has been amicably agreed upon; surely the Canadian Pacific Railway will not hinder its consummation.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON.

It is not difficult to imagine that $50,000 as the annual emolument is little enough for a British Ambassador to Washington. Apparently the British Government is inclined to have some regard for the high cost of ambassadorial duties and proposes to increase the amount. Applicants for the post, however, are by no means numerous and the House of Commons is already beginning to chafe at the delay in making an appointment. The long and the short of it is nobody wants the job and the best Mr. Bonar Law could do, when asked for some light on the subject yesterday, was to say that it would be worth the delay if the man to whom the post had been offered accepted the mission. If! Is he the Duke of Connaught by any chance?

BRITAIN'S "DRY" CAMPAIGN.

In the British House of Commons to-day one of the members asked whether the Government intended to inform visiting American prohibition campaigners "that the British electors prefer to settle their domestic questions for themselves." Mr. Shortt, Secretary for Home Affairs, said in reply: "I am disposed to agree with the suggestion that the British people can settle this matter for themselves, but I do not think this step by the Government necessary." The first part of the Home Secretary's statement was cheered, the dispatch states.

According to Mr. Lief Jones—a prominent British prohibitionist—who has recently studied the methods of the American Anti-Saloon League on this side of the Atlantic, the funds of the United Kingdom Alliance will not be affected by the descent of the League's battalions on Great Britain. The financial resources of the American body are to be used "indirectly" in the fight to make Britain "dry." Washington, he declares, is to be made the capital of the League, whose international funds are to be pooled. It will be seen, therefore, that the atmosphere of the world organization necessarily will be primarily America's.

How subtly the fight is being prepared may be gauged by the remark of Mr. Lief Jones: "In France we are ignoring wine for the moment. We just want to get spirits banished first." In the United Kingdom the League proposes to convert the country area by area and its programme contains an elaborate provision for direct appeal. It proposes to deal with the business, moral and physical aspects and by a process of comparison between "wet" and "dry" areas to win over the whole country.

In the meantime the British workingman cites the poor quality of beer as a deterrent to Victory Loan subscriptions, while the alcoholic stimulant has taken its place as a factor to be discussed side by side with the causes of industrial unrest. Britain has many troubles of her own. Will the American Anti-Saloon League's invasion help to solve the problems which now threaten the "tight little isle" with disaster?

JOHN BULL AFTER PROFITEERS.

Great Britain proposes to establish a central authority to deal with profiteering as part of its programme to reduce the cost of living. The Government's plan will be associated with local and county tribunals and new powers will be asked for in connection with the project so that an increase in penalties for violations can be put into effect.

In the United States steps also have advanced to a remarkable extent during the last few days. So much so, in fact, that President Wilson announces that he will address Congress in person on Friday to make recommendations for aiding legislation. Hence, both in Great Britain and the United States there is to be set up an effective agency to terminate the practice which made the conflict now ended "a beautiful war" for the profiteer.

When Canada has received its report upon the workings of trusts, mergers and monopolies, alleged to be operating in restraint of trade, there may be hope of action in this country.

It is a happy circumstance that the visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales should coincide with the dates set for the Victoria Home Products Fair. The suggestion to make the week a Royal Week is a good one and in its efforts to make the event a record in local celebration the organizers in charge of arrangements should have no difficulty in commanding all the support and co-operation necessary.

Dispatches from the Motherland indicate that Tom Mann has gone to Liverpool to take charge of the strike situation. Tom is an old hand at the game, and he will be in his element. He is known in several parts of the British Empire and his prominent part in the syndicalist trouble landed him into jail a few years ago. He joined the British Socialists in 1885 and whenever an opportunity for waving the extremist flag presents itself Tom Mann is never in the background.

FIRST ATLANTIC CABLE.

(Chas. Bright, in The London Times.)

In the course of his illuminating speech at the recent luncheon in honor of the Atlantic flying heroes, the American ambassador is reported to have said, "Cyrus Field tied the two sides together with cables." Whilst we all retain the highest regard for that great man as a splendid example of American enterprise and business capacity, it should be stated for the purpose of historical accuracy that he (Field) was in no sense an engineer, and never laid a cable in his life. I am only too well aware that the American Ambassador was but repeating the sense of similar misstatements, which have frequently been given currency to, even in our own country. The fact remains, however, that the first Atlantic cable was laid by my father (the late Sir Charles Tilston Bright), for which, incidentally, he received the honor of Knighthood at the age of twenty-six. Mr. Cyrus Field was managing director of the company concerned in the project, and took up a large number of shares. Space will not permit of my going into details, though with all the essential documents at hand I am quite prepared to do it if necessary.

FINDS CLOTHING PRICES TOO HIGH
 Cost-of-Living Commissioner Condemns Most Recent Increases

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The Cost-of-Living Commissioner has made the following report regarding woolen and worsted cloth for suitings and over-coatings:
 "Following my report of June 7 the retail trade made vigorous attacks on the assertions contained therein, and sought to have the Cost-of-Living Committee of the House of Commons disprove the facts of the same. In the evidence brought out before the committee my assertion was fully sustained, that the Canadian-manufactured cloth for suits to be sold during this fall had been sold by our manufacturers this spring at prices eight to ten per cent. below their previous lists. Moreover, our domestic manufacturers submitted samples showing that the Canadian-made goods were of very high quality, and equal to many of the lines imported from England previous to the war.
 At $17.50.
 "It was brought out in testimony before the Committee that the three and one-half yards of the finest domestic material necessary to make a suit of clothes amounted to only $17.50 at the cloth manufacturers' prices. The goods purchased in the United States covering the same periods showed an even greater decline in price than the Canadian goods over the previous sales.
 "The sole ground for high prices offered by the retailers was the price of goods imported from England and the increased labor charges. It happens that since the war English prices have changed from the lowest to almost the highest levels. Since exports of woolens and worsteds from England have been largely curtailed of late, it is unfair to make these prices the standard by which to charge for suitings in Canada. I have been informed, even, that it is not uncommon for Canadian-made goods to be sold as material imported from Britain.
 No Just Cause.
 "Since my report in June on this subject there has been no warrant for increasing prices.
 "The Canadian prices of fine wool have risen slightly, and the coarser wools have only risen slightly. The grading of our wool has improved, and as a consequence the upper level of prices has risen these last few weeks, while the lower levels have remained at nearer the old figures. In no case has wool in Canada advanced to anything like the prices last year. Moreover, the manufacturers' sales for this coming season's consumption were all made some time ago at the reduced prices quoted above.
 "As far as the supply of raw material is concerned, no attempt was ever made to disprove the fact that wool is better supplied with wool than ever, owing to large stocks brought in from Australia, and New Zealand and accumulated in Canada for war needs. Our customs figures show that this situation has not changed since June."

POLISH TROOPS SAID TO HAVE REBELLED AGAINST GEN. MUSNIKI

Berlin, Aug. 5.—Via London, Aug. 6.—A dispatch to The Vorwarts from Bromberg, Posen, says it has been learned that the real reason for the resignation of General Musniki, commander of the Polish troops in Posen, was that there had been sanguinary mutinies of Polish troops in Posen, Gnesen and Warthe, and also at the front.
 Entire companies, and even battalions, the dispatch says, refused to obey orders and maltreated their officers. In the Warthe camp officers who endeavored to have resort to arms were shot dead or badly wounded.
 The reason for the disturbances is given as growing resentment on the part of the soldiers to the Russian system which Musniki introduced.

HOUSING SCHEME IN WINNIPEG TO BE DECIDED BY CITIZENS

Winnipeg, Aug. 6.—Whether or not Winnipeg will now go ahead with a housing scheme depends on the citizens. At a meeting of the Council last night the committee was requested to communicate with the citizens to ascertain what action they were prepared to take.
 The report adopted is summarized as follows:
 1. That a committee be appointed to manage the business of a housing scheme.
 2. That the manager furnish fifteen per cent. of the total value of each house and lot.
 3. (a)—That the city lend 35 per cent. of the value of property on first mortgage thereon. (b)—A separate corporation, in which the city will not take stock, to deposit with the Winnipeg sinking fund trustees ten per cent. of the value of the property by way of security against any loss the city may sustain on first mortgages. (c)—Winnipeg sinking fund trustees to invest such sums on deposit so as to create a fund to meet or assist in meeting such losses.
 It is understood that this fund would total about $75,000.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggly and Susie's Party

Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. (By Howard E. Clark.)

"Where is your tall silk hat, Uncle Wiggly?" asked the rabbit gentleman's muskrat lady housekeeper one day as she stood in the kitchen of the hollow stump bungalow with a hot fission in her paw.

"My tall, silk hat!" exclaimed the bunny, as he looked at the smooching iron. "Are you going to do anything to it, Nurse Janie?"

"Only polish up the outside a bit," answered Miss Fussy Wussy. "I'll iron it, you know, and not have it look so scruffy like."

"But why?" asked Uncle Wiggly. "This isn't Sunday, is it?"

"No," answered Nurse Janie. "But I guess you've forgotten about Susie Little-tail's party; haven't you? Don't you remember you promised to go with me?"

Well, the party is to-night and I thought you'd like to look nice when you get there. So I'm going to fix your silk hat. It got sort of mussed up when you went after wild cherries yesterday."

"So it did," exclaimed Uncle Wiggly. "Well, iron and smooth it as much as you like, Nurse Janie. I had forgotten about Susie's party. But I'll go and I hope we have a good time. Do you think there'll be any cherry pie?"

he asked, hopeful like and insinuating.

"Perhaps," answered Nurse Janie with a smile, as she found the bunny's hat and began to smooth out the ruffled-up silk part.

"Hum! So this is Susie's birthday party; is it?" said Uncle Wiggly to himself, as he sat on the bungalow porch.

"Well, while I am waiting for Nurse Janie to press my hat I might take a hop through the woods and see what I can think of to buy for my little rabbit girl."

Over the fields and through the woods hopped Uncle Wiggly, not wearing any hat this time, for the day was so warm he needed none.

"I'll just hop along past Susie's house," thought Mr. Longears. "And when I get close I'll hide down in the bushes. Perhaps I can hear some folks talking, and perhaps Susie might say, out loud, the name of something she wants for her birthday. Then I'd know just what to get her."

So, the rabbit gentleman hopped along and soon he was hiding down in the high weeds near the burrow, or underground house, where Susie Little-tail, the rabbit girl, lived. At first

Uncle Wiggly could hear nothing but such talk as:

"Who has the sugar?"

"Pass the egg beater, please!"

"Has any one seen the chocolate cake?"

"No, but here is the cocoanut pie!"

"Well, I guess there is going to be plenty to eat at Susie's party, anyhow," thought the hiding bunny.

"But I wonder what I can get the little rabbit girl for a present. I wish she'd say something!"

And just then he heard Susie's voice saying:

"Oh, mother! Do you s'pose I'll get a nice fancy handkerchief for my birthday? I want one so much, so I can put perfume and talcum powder on, and tinkle my face with it!"

"Why, Susie Little-tail!" cried her mother. "I'm surprised at you! The idea of wanting to powder your face!"

"Well, I wouldn't put much on, mother," said Susie. "Just a little talcum powder, so my nose won't be so shiny. All the girls do. I wish I could get a nice, slimy lace handkerchief for my birthday!"

"Well, perhaps you will!" said Mrs. Little-tail. "And now you must help me frost the jelly cake."

"That's the idea! I'll get Susie a lace handkerchief for her birthday!" said Uncle Wiggly, as he hopped softly away. "I wonder where I can find one lacy and slimy enough? I'll go ask Mrs. Spin-Spin, the spider lady, to weave me one for Susie of cobweb lace."

But when Uncle Wiggly told Mrs. Spin-Spin what he wanted, the spider lady said:

"Oh, Mr. Longears, the kind of handkerchief I could weave would be altogether too slimy-limpy for a little rabbit girl. But I'll tell you where you can find one growing in the field. See those white flowers, over there?" and with one leg Mrs. Spin-Spin pointed to some broad, flat white flowers, just the shape of lace handkerchiefs.

"I see them," said the bunny. "Take one of those to Susie for her birthday," went on Mrs. Spin-Spin. "Those flowers are called wild carpets, or queen's lace handkerchiefs, and one will do very nicely for Susie."

"Yes, indeed it will!" said Uncle Wiggly, as he picked one. He perfumed it with rose leaves and violets, and when Susie saw her new birthday flower handkerchief, she said:

"Oh joy! and she kissed Uncle Wiggly. Then the bunny gave each of the other girls at the party a wild carrot flower handkerchief, and they kissed him too. So everything came out all right, you see, and if the umbrella doesn't chase the rubbers out in the rain, so they get all wet and can't go to the moving pictures, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the pear flowers.

MONTH'S FIRE LOSS TOTALLED $4,242.30

Fire loss in the city of Victoria during the month of July reached a total of $4,242.30. This large figure resulted chiefly from the dry weather, which made roofs easy victims to sparks. The Fire Department answered seventy-one alarms, travelled 300 miles, laid 17,760 feet of hose and inspected 527 buildings. The loss sustained by the owners when the large house on the corner of Burdett Avenue and Vancouver Street burned, amounted to $4,600.

REV. SAMUEL COOK WAS WEDDED TO-DAY

Parson of Fairfield Methodist Church Married to Miss Gertrude Phillips

A wedding of considerable interest in Methodist Church circles took place at the Naval and Military Methodist Church, Esquimalt, at 1.45 this afternoon, when the Rev. Samuel Cook, pastor of the Fairfield Methodist Church, was married to Miss Gertrude Phillips, daughter of Mrs. Phillips, of 1247 Lyall Street, Esquimalt. Both the bridegroom and the bride, who has been for some time matron of the Naval Cadets' Hospital at Esquimalt, have a wide circle of friends, and there was a large congregation assembled for the wedding. The church was beautifully decorated for the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hobbins, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Hobbins.

As the bride, in her lovely wedding gown of white satin, with graceful overdruss of lace, snowy tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of white roses and carnations, entered the church, Miss Day sang "O Perfect Love" with much sweetness. Miss Phillips, sister of the bride, was the only bridesmaid, daintily gowned in white crepe de Chine with white hat and carrying a bouquet of mauve sweet peas. The groom was supported by H. Waye. During the ceremony Miss Day sang the solo "Love's Coronation," Mrs. Scales, of James Bay, presiding at the organ.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, and later the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Cook left on the 4.30 boat for Seattle. They will make a motor tour in Washington State, returning to Victoria via Vancouver. On their return they will make their home at the parsonage, 220 Moss Street.

WELL-KNOWN FAMILIES UNITED BY MARRIAGE

Miss Mary E. Pybus Became Bride of Major A. D. Bell-Irving Yesterday

Vancouver, Aug. 5.—Two of Vancouver's leading families were united by marriage to-day, when Mary, the second daughter of Commander H. Pybus, R.N.R., and Mrs. Pybus, became the bride of Major Alan Duncan Bell-Irving, M.C., with her fifth son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell-Irving. Rev. Harold King officiated at the ceremony in St. Paul's church, at 2 o'clock. The bride looking radiant in a gown of white Duchesse satin, trimmed with rose point lace and pearls, entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her away. Her white tulle veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white bridel roses and white haze.

The bridesmaids and little flower girls made a charming group. The former were the Misses Anita and Mary Bell-Irving, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Kathleen Watson, wearing dainty frocks of white satin with draped overdruss of organdie, with which were worn white organdie hats were pink sweet peas. Very dainty flower girls were the Misses Molly and Ruth Bell-Irving, nieces of the bride and bridegroom, and Miss Constance Bell-Irving, niece of the bridegroom, wearing little white organdie frocks with white hats, and carrying baskets of sweet peas. Mrs. Pybus, mother of the bride wore black pussy willow satin, handsomely embroidered in cut steel and black hat. Major Malcolm Bell-Irving, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and acting as ushers were Capt. Robin Bell-Irving, Capt. Annes Bell-Irving, Capt. E. F. Montgomery, Harold Wade, Geoffrey Rayner, and Kenneth Creery.

PICKERS WANTED FOR OKANAGAN DISTRICT

Provincial Employment Bureau to Send First Party on August 16.

With the advent of August the rush of fruit-pickers to the Okanagan is about due. Last year the pickers were in great demand prior to this time, but the long, cold spring of the present year automatically thinned the fruit, with the result that the harvest has been somewhat delayed.

The first big group of pickers will leave Victoria on August 16, continuing their journey from Vancouver the same evening. They will be attached to work in Vernon. Seventeen are needed for this party and Miss Mariatt, of the Provincial Government Employment Service, would welcome further registrants for inclusion in this group. After that date smaller parties will leave each week until September 16. A reduced fare of one cent per mile from Vancouver to points in the Okanagan valley is allowed through the medium of the Employment Bureau.

Next week, on August 15, a party of workers will also leave for Mr. Carruthers' ranch at Rutland, near Kelowna. At this ranch pay is on the piece work basis. The growers of the Vernon district pay twenty-five cents per hour for a nine-hour day. Large, well-conducted camps are provided for the girls and in them the rate of twenty-five cents per day is charged for board. These rates are for the orchard work.

There is also a big demand for cannery workers in the entire district. The canneries are clean and airy and in all features are pleasant places in which to work. Full information may be obtained at the Provincial Employment Bureau, 532 Broughton Street, telephone number 2185.

FISHING LICENSES AGAIN CONSIDERED

G.W.V.A. Discusses Granting of Licenses For Purse Seine Fishing Off Coast

Considerable discussion was heard on the issuing of licenses for purse seine fishing at last evening's meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association. A committee, which was appointed a short time ago to investigate the matter, reported that an interview with Fisheries Inspector Cunningham elicited the information that eleven licenses had been issued this year for the west coast of Vancouver Island from Cape Beale to Sombrio Point. Four of the licenses were granted to returned men on Vancouver Island, while the other seven were taken up on the Mainland. Some of the comrades took exception to the fact that four of the licenses had been granted to members of the provincial executive of the G. W. V. A. and intimated that these men had been using their positions to advantage. However, a letter received from these officials explained that the licenses had been taken out with a view to forming a co-operative fishing company for returned men.

The veterans decided to appoint a committee of unbiased opinion to co-operate with the Vancouver branch thoroughly to investigate the matter. Comrade Purser, chairman of the new quarters committee, gave a outline of the work accomplished by his committee, after which a motion was unanimously carried to ask each member of the association to subscribe $10 or more towards a fund with which either to erect or purchase a building. A communication was received from the Minister of Militia in regard to the proper management of military funerals. He pointed out that at present there were not sufficient men in the permanent force to furnish firing parties, but as soon as there were sufficient recruits the funeral parties would receive proper attention.

All comrades were asked to participate in the delegation which will wait on the City Council on Thursday evening in regard to the Housing Scheme. The delegation will assemble at the G. W. V. A. rooms at 7:30 o'clock. One hundred and thirty-five new members were sworn in last night. The semi-annual election of officers resulted in the following: President, J. H. Axon; vice-president, A. Tait; treasurer, vice-president, F. J. Purser; recording secretary, E. B. McLeod; committee men, H. W. Hart, J. H. Ashdown, W. H. Robbins, Chummen—Resolutions committee, C. H. O'Halloran; finance, W. N. Wineby; juvenile committee, J. Food; ways and means, T. G. Norris; sports, S. Smith; pensions, R. G. Duggan; sick, Nursing Sister N. Smith; membership committee, M. GROUP CONTROL IS INJURIOUS TO SOCIETY

So Says Dr. W. C. Osborn, Well-Known Sociologist, Now on Visit Here

The defence of the individual, as against government by groups, formed the subject of some remarks to The Times last evening by William C. Osborn, LL.D., who with Mrs. Osborn, departed for a study tour of the Orient. Dr. Osborn, who is a leading New York lawyer, is better known as a sociological student. He has been a member of a number of commissions, and is now on his way to Japan to examine the Oriental situation at first hand.

Dr. Osborn pointed out that it had been necessary in the United States, and he noticed to a considerable extent in Canada, to force a union of the general public with the authorities to check financial control of the country through the governments. Those groups had exercised pernicious influence in the past, now to-day the authorities were faced with labor group control, such as was manifested in the One Big Union movement, and in the railway workers demands in the United States. Group influence might be profitable to limited circles of the community, but he believed in individualism, and declared that group influence and tendency towards group influence on administrations could only result in pressure on the majority of the public. Such pressure made money for the few at the expense of the bulk of the population. Crossing Canada he had noted a coalescing of opinion towards action by the majority to protect themselves against exploitation, whether of the financial classes or of organized labor. He regarded the present social unrest on this continent as the manifestation of this conflict of opinion.

Dr. Osborn is a strong supporter of the League of Nations, but unlike President Taft, holds that its supporters should be the League, leaving amendments necessary to be suggested by its critics. Dr. Osborn holds the leading position in New York state with regard to the League to Enforce Peace, which has brought him in close touch with Mr. Taft, and believes that the League will be the best solution of international regulation.

"GYPSY" SMITH MAY COME TO VICTORIA

Local Churches Uniting to Bring Famous Evangelist Here in October

"Gypsy" Smith, the world-famed evangelist of Romany birth, will conduct a two weeks' mission in Victoria early in October if plans now being formulated by a number of the local churches materialize. The famous evangelist is now on a mission tour in the United States and will later make a two months' tour of Canada, and the proposal is that he should commence his Dominion mission in this city on October 5. The mission will be strictly undenominational, most of the local churches being interested in bringing the evangelist here.

Gypsy Smith is a well-known figure in England where he has been conducting missions for many years. Born of gypsy parents, he was converted to the Christian faith while still a boy, and in his youth commenced a series of missionary meetings. His earnest simplicity, beautiful voice and sympathetic understanding gained many converts and at the invitation of General Booth he was for many years associated with the Salvation Army. Later he was made missionary to the Free Church federation of England, an office which he still holds.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

Children Cry For

Let's Think It Over.

There is such a thing as saying too much on any subject, and the "grand-stand" talker sooner or later becomes a bore. The truth is always welcomed, and the truth reiterated and confirmed is more than welcome—it reaches your innermost soul.

Fletcher's Castoria is all its advertising has claimed for it. Scrutinized by the microscope of public opinion and used for over thirty years it stands without a peer in the hearts of thoughtful, cautious, discerning Mothers. And once used, mother love—there is no substitute for mother love—will scorn to try a "substitute" or a "just-as-good".

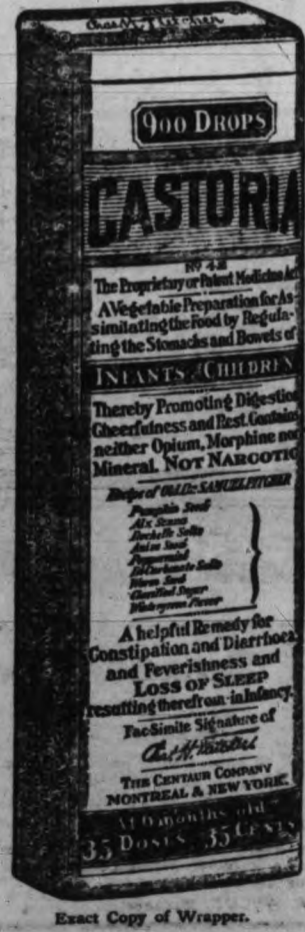

Masquerading under many names drugs that are injurious to the tender babe have found their way into some households, but the light of experience soon casts them out. Are they cast out before it is too late?

"I intend to recommend to the Victoria Board of Trade that prompt steps be taken to cement a better feeling between the business men of this city and the people of the Interior. There was a time when Victoria wholesale houses had what amounted to virtually a monopoly of the business in the Lillooet and Clinton country. It is a fact that Victoria has lost a great deal of ground, and unless her merchants take a more far-sighted view of the situation and take action accordingly we will lose not only every connection we already have, but will also relinquish all hope we might have for extending commercial operations in that territory."

How to Lose Your Tan, Freckles or Redness

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the tennis ground or golf links, a sunbath on the beach or exposure on a lake trip, often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson or more persistent still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is mercurized wax, which removes tan, redness or freckles quite easily. It literally peels off the affected skin—just a little at a time, so there's no hurt or injury. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flaky particles, no trace of the treatment is shown. Procure an ounce of mercurized wax at your druggist's and use this nightly as you would cold cream, washing it off mornings. In a week or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness.

ARMY HEAVYWEIGHT DIES FROM ACCIDENT

Sergeant Jack Clements Succumbs From Dive Into Shallow Water

St. John, N. B., Aug. 5.—Jack Clements, said to have been the champion heavyweight boxer of the Canadian army overseas, died at Fredericton tonight from injuries sustained while bathing. Clements, who recently arrived at the New Brunswick military hospital with a convoy of patients from overseas, was brought here at noon to-day from his home at Campbellton, N. B., a helpless paralytic, as the result of a bathing accident. While in swimming near Grand Anse, where he had been spending his fourteen days' leave with his wife and five children, he dived into shallow water, struck on his head and almost complete paralysis of his whole body followed. His injuries later proved fatal.

John, of Sidney. A ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Chadwick, the rector of St. John's Church. MUNICIPALITIES HOLD JOINT PICNIC TO-DAY

Authorities of Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt Gather

With the object of promoting co-operation and cordial relations between the municipalities, the council and officials of the city, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt met at Mount Douglas Park this afternoon to hold a basket picnic.

The arrangements for the affair were in the hands of Mayor Porter and Reeve C. B. Jones, of Saanich. The city aldermen left town in automobiles at half past two, and most of them were on the picnic grounds by 3 o'clock. "I consider affairs of this kind of the utmost value to the city and the neighboring municipalities," observed Mayor Porter this morning in reference to the picnic. "It helps us to get each other's view point, and aids in the co-operation which is so necessary to the development of each. The place of meeting is under the joint control of the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Professor Arr Continues Series of Lectures; Teacher Students to Give Banquet Thursday.

On Thursday evening the staff and teachers of the Summer School will hold a banquet at which Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education, and Dr. Alex. Robinson, Superintendent of Education have been asked to speak. The dinner will be followed by a musical and dramatic entertainment by the pupils of Miss Corey.

The second of the series of lectures given by Professor Arr, of Minnesota, at the Summer School yesterday afternoon continued the theme of the consolidation of schools, advocated by the speaker in his opening address. The value of studies aimed to raise the standard of comfort in the home, such as manual training and domestic science, the tremendous influence wielded by the teacher and the consequent need for the best efforts in every department of the school, were other points emphasized by Dr. Arr.

This afternoon Dr. Arr spoke on the subject "Community Leadership, and Rural Social Life."

It is harmless and never irritates.

COMPENSATION BOARD HANDLES MANY CLAIMS

Vancouver, Aug. 6.—E. S. H. Winn, chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board, and Parker Williams, Commissioner, returned here yesterday after a two-day trip of inspection on Vancouver Island, in which they covered 256 miles by motor car. They made an inspection of camps and hospitals at Campbell River, Cumberland, Comox, Alberni and Nanaimo and Mr. Winn reported a very improvement in the industrial hospital accommodation since the last visit of members of the Board. All the hospitals visited showed a high standard of service and equipment, and gave promise of further improvement as a result of the activities of the Board. The reports show that a large volume of business has been handled by the Board. No less than 1347 compensable claims reached the Board between January 1 and June 30, and of this number 8,019 cases have been finally settled. The remainder are in the process of adjustment, or the injured workmen are receiving monthly allowances.

A distressing feature of the accidents reported in this period is the large number of deaths being 169. Of this number, however, only 32 actually lost their lives this year. The balance of eighty-seven deaths were of people who were killed late last year, of which the claims did not reach the Board until early this year. This was the case in fifty-five of the sixty-nine claims resulting from the loss of the steamer Princess Sophia, and of the claims received when fifteen people were drowned with the foundering of a small boat at Lummi Bay last winter.

There has been disbursed each month this year in the way of pension for dependents of deceased workmen and for payment to those permanently injured, approximately $11,500. In addition to this there has been spent $170,000 for medical attention.

Examines Golf Links Site.—Members of the Victoria Rotary Club this morning inspected the site of the proposed golf links on Bay Road near the Uplands. AGED MEN'S HOME

HAS MOVIE MACHINE

Generous Donors Provide Machine; Free Films Sent Weekly From Vancouver

No more will the pleasures of the inmates of the Home for Aged and Infirm Men be confined to the joys of "My Lady Nicotine" or to the entertainment given by the various concert parties who generously and frequently lend their talents, for a moving picture machine has been installed at the home, and the inmates have already tasted the delights of the "movie" fun. For some time past Manager McIntosh has been interested in the project of installing a machine for the amusement of the inmates, and, thanks to the kindly assistance of a number of leading citizens, the undertaking has now been consummated.

The machine is of the make known as the "Francis." It can be set up on any ordinary table, connected with the electric light socket and started in five minutes. Made in France, it is exactly the same as that used by the Y.M.C.A. in the huts near the trenches. The machine is of steel construction, fitted with two lenses, one throwing a picture of about six by eight feet at a short distance and the other a picture about ten by twelve feet at a longer distance. A special aluminum-treated curtain is also included in the apparatus. The cost of the machine is $115, but Mr. McIntosh was able to secure a rebate and purchased the outfit for the sum of $115.

Those who generously contributed, making the undertaking possible, were as follows:
Ald. Watson Clark $10.00
Lewis Hall (ex-Mayor) 10.00
Ald. R. Dinsdale 5.00
Jno. McIntosh 5.00
J. L. Maisel 5.00

Free Film Service.
Having secured the machine, the next item was the arranging of a film service. Mr. McIntosh communicated with the Vancouver branch of the Canadian Film Service Co., Ltd., and through the kindness of the manager, W. Walkley, has been able to secure a free service for one evening each week, for the cost of expression only. Three or four reels of up-to-date films are shipped and on one night in each week the aged inmates are able to share in the thrills of the drama and the antics of the comedians.

To Have Booths at Exhibitions.—The National War Savings Committee of British Columbia is now making arrangements with the managers of the various exhibition associations in the towns and cities throughout British Columbia to run a Thrift and War Savings Stamp booth at the annual fairs for the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps. A representative of the committee will be pleased to call and make all arrangements with the manager of any exhibition that up to the present time has not been approached, and a letter to the secretary at 215 Metropolitan Building, Vancouver, will be sufficient to ensure prompt attention.

Interesting News For Working Men

An Article Well Worth Your While to Read

This is a nerve-racking age—not a man in an office or behind the counter, striving hard to get on in the world, that does not feel the strain. If nerves are in order, a man is strong, eats and sleeps well. Unstrung nerves means weakness, worry, sleeplessness and a general decay of bodily strength.

Most men are careless of their health. They trust to luck and that kind of thing, instead of taking Ferrerozine for a few weeks when they feel dull in the morning, or when they sleep poorly or lose appetite.

Ferrerozine quickly brightens up the mind. It creates an appetite and improves digestion. Ferrerozine makes blood, quiets the nerves, makes muscle like steel and induces refreshing sleep. Ferrerozine is a body builder, thousands have proved it. If you are sick or out of sorts, use Ferrerozine and enjoy the splendid health it so surely brings. Vancouver, Aug. 6.—That the British Government is fully alive now to the necessity of placing British ex-service men on the land within the Empire, and that British Columbia is considered one of the most suitable parts of the Empire for the placing of such men, is the statement of Christopher Turner, who is traveling through the Overseas Dominions for the Royal Colonial Institute. Mr. Turner has just returned from an extensive tour of Northern and Central British Columbia, upon which he is reporting for the Institute, which will place the reports before the British Government Department. He is following Sir Rider Haggard, who recently toured the Empire investigating the rehabilitation of the ex-service men with a view to keeping them under the British flag.

ROYAL VICTORIA
"Common Clay," the Harvard prize play by Cleves Kincaid, has been pronounced one of five of the greatest American dramas. This estimate is sustained by the facts and figures concerning its stage production—with Jane Cowl, in the leading role it ran a full year in New York with crowded performances; it was presented by six companies in the United States and Canada and showed in every city of 10,000 population and upward. Regarded from its sociologic side, it has been discussed in many universities, welfare organizations and civic bodies.

MOTHERS TO BE

Should Read Mrs. Monahan's Letter Published by Her Permission.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, sometimes I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my household work. My baby when seven months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONAHAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The pulpit liberally lent voice to its discussion, for "Common Clay" deals with one of the gravest problems of big cities—The Girl, full of joy and life, reared in poor surroundings and without proper parental direction. And now a greater power is to be given to this great American masterpiece through A. H. Woods' screen presentation of it, featuring Fannie Ward, fresh from her fine historical achievements in "The Narrow Path" and "A Japanese Nightingale." Her work reaches such splendid emotional heights that, at the first showing of the film play, especially for the reviewers, many of the women present were moved to tears. It is a woman's play through and through, pulsating with feeling and tense with the anguish of tortured souls. It has been said that it awakens in the breast of the spectator that pity which Dr. Gilbert Murray says, "is the kingdom of heaven within us."

DOMINION

The attention of the Smithsonian Institution and the Foundation for the Investigation of Elemental Desires is respectfully called to the report of the Dorothy Gish research department that out of every nine husbands and sweet-hearts in America, seven are insanely jealous. The report is based on remarks following the preview of Dorothy's latest Paramount picture, "I'll Get Him Yet," which is now at the Dominion Theatre. The husband in the picture is one of the breed who sees cause for suicide every time his wife speaks to another of the male species. And such action calls for much comment on the part of the audience. Now it happens that several of the company visited the theatre at which the premiere was given and they were seated in various parts of the house, so that the comment was reported in full and with variations. The statistical expert, more commonly called the "figure nut," talked to each and every one of the company present, and reported sixty-three bits of conversation overheard during the performance. Of that number, forty-nine left no room for doubt as to what friend husband thought of the leading man's role. This it is decided that in Alhambra, California, the figures of seven and nine are correct. What the ration is in Victoria may be figured out locally after the picture has gone.

VARIETY

"Fat people," said Taylor Holmes, who is featured on the Variety screen this week in "A Pair of Sixes," a George K. Spoor production, "are something to be marvelled over. A fat person who seems to be disconnected is pitiable. He wants to cross the room, but his various departments cannot all seem to subordinate at the same time. It reminds me of the dear old fat woman trying to get off the rear-end of a street-car. Because of a deplorable lack of rhythm in her movements, she felt unequal to the task of alighting face forward; instead, it was her habit to step down backwards with both hands clutching the guard rails. "For blocks she had been trying to get off at each stop and finally, in desperation, she appealed to a policeman standing on the platform. "Officer," she said hysterically, "will you please hold on to that devil of a conductor long enough for me to get off at the next stop? Each time I try to alight he thinks I'm trying to climb on and helps me back up again."

COLUMBIA

When the term versatile is applied to an actor, it usually means that he can play varied roles. But Harry Carey, Universal's Western star, has earned the description in another way. Carey has played varied roles on the stage and screen, it is true, but he has also played equally varied parts on the greater stage of life. He studied law. He operated a street railroad, having been superintendent of the City Island Railroad in New York, which was owned by his father, the late Judge Henry D. Carey. He was a noted athlete in Yale, where he led the track team. He was a cowpuncher and owned a ranch. And in Alaska he hunted gold—unsuccessfully. So when Carey is called on to play a role on the screen he usually is able to call on his memory for material to aid him. In "Bare Fists," his latest picture, which will be shown at the Columbia for the last time today, he has only to go back to his rancher days, for "Bare Fists" is a virile, dramatic story of the old "open range" days in the West.

ROMANO

There are no dull moments in the story of "Where the West Begins," today's feature at the Romano with William Russell in the stellar role. It travels at a brisk speed, and is brimful of snappy, laughable situations. Admirers of William Russell will see him in one of the best characterizations that he has given to the screen, and all will find much to praise in this latest offering.

The cast as a whole was specially selected and every member worked with an enthusiasm which contributes largely to the success of the play. Eileen Percy, Mr. Russell's leading lady, scores a big hit, and in fact so does every member of the company, which includes Carl Stockdale, J. Cullen Landis, Frederick Vroom and Alfred Ferguson.

PANTAGES

"Hello, People, Hello," is the title of People and Greendale's vaudeville classic which they present as a special attraction on the bill of Pantages vaudeville this week. Adele Jason and Al Prince are the principals and they are supported by a couple of clever entertainers. Adele Jason will be remembered for her excellent work as principal in "The All Girl Review" and "Revue De Vogue" having created the parts in both of these clever miniature musical comedies. Al Prince is a musical comedy comedian who forsaking that line for vaudeville has demonstrated his liking for the latter by making a pronounced success in "Hello, People, Hello." The act opens with a prologue in which a scene depicting the exterior of a theatre is utilized for the introduction of each artist taking part. A rather unique and novel idea that will be greatly appreciated, in as much as each artist meets and greets the audience personally. Scene two depicts the dressing room of the principals, showing them in the act of "making up" for their appearance, some clever talk is introduced between the two that adds zest to their performance. Scene three is a beautiful setting descriptive of an immense fan that serves to act as the background for a song and dance number. The costumes in this number are assuredly the limit of the sartorial art. Scene four is a beautiful East Indian conception like a haven strictly in line with the presentation. Scene five is a wonderful painted exterior showing lake and mountains in the background, immense urns and flowers in the foreground, another change of costumes is shown. Scene six depicts the lobby of a theatre and brings the entire company in an ensemble number.

AMERICAN CASUALTIES.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION BOARD WINS SOPHIA CASE

Privy Council Decides Against Canadian Pacific Railway Co; Appeal Was Argued By Attorney General Farris Recently

Vancouver, Aug. 6.—The Privy Council has decided in favor of the Workmen's Compensation Board in the appeal entered against the decision of Mr. Justice Clement denying the right of the board to pay awards arising out of the foundering of the steamer Princess Sophia in Alaskan waters last October.

The C.P.R., owners of the ill-fated steamer, applied to Mr. Justice Clement for an injunction restraining the board from payment of the awards, claiming that the accident having taken place in foreign waters, the Workmen's Compensation Board had no jurisdiction in the matter, and that compensation should be paid under the rules and provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act.

How to Become a Nurse

Any woman with intelligence and "motherly" instinct can learn to be a practical nurse and earn from $15 to $25 per week. If you cannot spend the required time in a hospital or are past hospital age, study a common-sense book on "Nursing in the Home," by Lee H. Smith, M. D.

It contains advice for mothers and tells how to care for infants. This five-hundred page book, nicely bound, is worth $1.50, but for a limited time can be procured at prominent drug stores at 50c., or send this amount to the World's Medical Press, 654 Washington St., Buffalo, N. Y.
