CHILEAN EARTHQUAKE DEATHLIST MAY BE 2,000, REPORTS STATE

Numbers Injured and Homeless; Government Considers Sending of Troops to Prevent Looting in Stricken Areas.

Santiago, Nov. 14.—Reports of banditry and disorder in the earthquake district, together with news of additional earth shocks and indications that the calamity has reached appalling proportions, caused the Chilean Government to-day to consider the advisability of sending troops to Coquimbo and Atacama to reinforce the regular garrisons, which are too small to cope with the situation and aid in relief work.

Outlawry broke out last night in the town of Valparaiso, the chief sufferer from the earthquake, where it is estimated 1,000 of the inhabitants perished, while reports of robberies and holdups came from other places.

The arrival of war vessels at the northern ports of Chile brought wireless reports of disaster from towns and villages not previously heard from, including the large town of Freirina, augmenting greatly the number of reported casualties, which are now variously estimated at between 1,500 and 2,000 dead and numbers injured and homeless.

SHORT SPEECHES PRECEDE ELECTION

British Campaign Orators Increase Number of Addresses

Ben Tillett Opposes Capital Levy Scheme

London, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Following Lloyd George's example, short speeches and many of them have become the order of the day, with less exalted conditions. It is a form of oratory with which many otherwise capable English speakers are unfamiliar, and they find it still more trying when they have to speak in the open air.

London's natural atmosphere, today has taken on a character more foggy than political, nevertheless flying squads are busy in the dock districts and in the areas of swarming population down East.

In Silvertown is found that curious political product often talked of, but seldom seen in flesh, known as a "Conservative working man candidate." Charles Lewis, under this description, is fighting the retiring Laborite, Jack Jones. One thing at least Jones and Lewis have in common is the ability to give full lung power to the exposition of their arguments, which, in a double sense, goes a long way in meetings held after dark under street lamps.

Mr. Lewis's campaign funds and those of the other candidate appearing in this election under the same banner are provided by the accumulated subscriptions of a few coppers weekly from Tory working-men's clubs all over the country.

Tillett Opposes Levy. Ben Tillett, the dockmen's champion, tells his North Salford supporters that a capital levy is not practical politics. "The Labor Party's first responsible work," he says, "should be toward restoring the stability of exchange. The capital levy cry is a poor election stunt when gaunt hangings are stalking through the land."

Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, a prominent figure in the Labor force, speaking at Widnes, said that despite misrepresentation, the proposal to create a war debt redemption fund by a capital levy on accumulated wealth was now better understood and multitudes now recognized that the economic and financial position of the country would not have been in the precarious position seen at present if Labor's international policy had been adopted.

Bar Harbor, Maine, Nov. 14.—A radiogram received here early to-day said the White Star liner Pittsburgh, bound from New York for Bremen, was standing by and giving all necessary assistance to the Italian steamship Monte Grappa, which had broadcast S. O. S. distress signals a few hours before.

According to wireless messages flashed over 1,000 miles on the Atlantic and intercepted here, the Monte Grappa was listing to port in heavy seas.

Latest radio communications said the Pittsburgh was "able to handle the situation," and "no further help" was required.

HALDANE SUPPORTS LABOR CANDIDATES

London, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Viscount Haldane, who is doing the most intellectual member of the Upper House in active sympathy with Labor's political aspirations, spoke at Bucksley last night in support of Mallon, the Labor candidate.

Lord Haldane will take the chair to-night at Hon. Bertrand Russell's Labor meeting in Chelsea when another peer, Earl Russell, will also speak.

Expressing his views on nationalization of railways last night, Lord Haldane said he was not in love with the idea, but he did think that in the Railway Act the country came substantially close to nationalization and it was working quite well. He thought it a harbinger of what an enlightened democracy would do were many such things waiting to be done.

It was not so much the items on the Labor programme that pleased him as the spirit behind them, said the speaker.

UNIVERSITY OF MONTREAL LOSES $300,000 IN FIRE

Montreal, Nov. 14.—Fire which broke out this morning on the top floor of the University of Montreal, destroyed a building worth $300,000. The supply of raibum recently purchased by the Provincial Government and placed with the institution for research work was saved.

KEMALISTS EXPEL FRENCH CONSULS

Officials Leave Three Asia Minor Towns

French Constantinople Merchants Appeal to Paris

Constantinople, Nov. 14.—The French consuls at Mersina and Adana, in Asia Minor, expelled by the Kemalists, arrived here Monday. They were appointed under the Bouillop pact to insure protection of Christian minorities.

The French consul at Brusa was expelled a week ago, but another consular official is returning to that city accompanied by a Turkish Nationalist officer to superintend the removal of thirty French residents.

A number of leading French merchants in Constantinople met at the French Embassy Sunday and drafted a strong memorial to their Government, declaring that French economic interests are threatened with ruin if the Turks are allowed to continue their present policy unchecked.

From Kharput come reports that the Kemalists are calling all men fit to bear military service and sending them to Mosul.

WOMAN FALLS FIFTY FEET IN DARKNESS

Mrs. Andrews Plunges From Fourth Storey Fire Escape

To fall fifty feet from the fire escape on the fourth storey of a building to the ground and to escape with a lacerated hip and some bruises was the strange experience of Mrs. Andrews, a colored woman, who to-day lies in the St. Joseph's Hospital as the result of a plunge into space at the Royal Arms Hotel at midnight.

Resident at the hotel, Mrs. Andrew had just completed hanging out some clothes when she retraced her steps in the dark and fell through the aperture in the fire-escape on the fourth floor. Backward and headlong Mrs. Andrews plunged until her descent was stayed for a moment by the first storey landing on the fire escape. From there the unfortunate victim of the accident recoiled, and continued her fall to the hard surface of the ground.

Dr. Robertson was called and ordered her removal to St. Joseph's Hospital in the Cameron and Caldwell ambulance. Examination revealed that she had a severely lacerated hip and some more or less painful bruises were the full extent of the injuries sustained.

GAME BOARD SEEKS GREATER RECOGNITION

Question of Special Permits Debated Are Pheasants Complete Pest to Farmers?

A Game Board for British Columbia having complete jurisdiction in regard to all game matters, to meet the various game associations, hear complaints and award compensation in cases of damage from depredation of game birds, a complete Game Board staff independent of the Provincial Police, although constables would act ex officio as game wardens, the appointment of a permanent paid chairman of the Game Board, and various other recommendations, were features of the quarterly meeting of the Conservation Board at the Parliament Buildings this morning, at which there was a large attendance of representatives of sportsmen, farmers and the public generally.

J. L. Tait, representing a delegation from the Victoria Game Association, said: "Until we get a board with proper and complete authority we will not discuss pheasants. He asserted that abuses of special permits and other factors made it imperative that the board should have complete jurisdiction and should collect and spend its own funds in order that the work could be satisfactorily handled.

Cowichan and Permits. The discussion became somewhat heated when Mr. Tait reported a case, one of a minority among Cowichan farmers, of the abuse of the special permit system. It was decided that many immature birds were killed ruthlessly. This statement applied only to some of the farmers, who acted from a selfish interest in their own pockets.

Cowichan representatives took exception to this, and on the request of James Dakers, M. B. Jackson, B.C.P. chairman of the Board, read the details of special permits issued, which disclosed the fact that Cowichan district held about forty-three out of the total of forty-six permits last year.

"The general principle of killing birds in and out of season is to be condemned," said Mr. Tait. Captain Barclay, president of the Cowichan Game Association, claimed that the instance of indiscriminate killing of birds in his district quoted by Mr. Tait was really a story of a feud which existed between two neighboring farmers and resulted in exaggerated reports, but Mr. Tait offered to prove his statements.

Dr. Brown, of Nanaimo, also strongly supported the idea of reverting to the old system whereby the Game Board was kept independent of all interference from other Government departments.

GERMANY OUTLINES PROPOSALS IN NOTE

Berlin, Nov. 14.—The text of the German Government's Note to the Reparations Commission, expressing the willingness of the Reichsbank to participate in a loan of several hundred million marks to stabilize Germany's currency is expected to be published to-day.

Another feature of the Note is a request for a three or four-year moratorium.

According to the newspapers the Note also includes the demand for a definite settlement of the reparations question. In return for these accommodations, which include a loan from abroad equal to the sum put up by the Reichsbank.

Germany will undertake to increase production by prolonging working hours and to effect savings in administration by reducing the number of officials, the newspaper account of the Government Note report. An internal loan also will be issued, it was said.

ILL-HEALTH KEEPS HIM OUT OF CONTEST IN NEW ZEALAND

Wellington, N. Z., Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable via Reuters)—Sir Joseph Ward, former Premier of New Zealand, who has been laid aside from public duties for some time owing to ill-health, has decided not to be a candidate in the general election to be held on December 9. His health has greatly improved, but he feels that he is not strong enough yet to resume strenuous public activities.

75-MILLIMETRE GUN ON PLANE

Giant Air Machine Perfected by French

Ten Metric Tons; 150 Kilometres an Hour

Washington, Nov. 14.—Completion of a giant cannon-carrying aeroplane for night bombardment, claimed to be the first aeroplane constructed for artillery material, was reported to the Commerce Department today by Vice-Consul Harold D. Findley at Havre. The machine is equipped with a 75-millimetre gun, one of the 75's of World War I fame made at the Chalons-sur-Saone works for the French Air Ministry.

It is six metres high with a fuselage of 20 metres in length, has a wing spread of 20 metres and weighs 10 metric tons, fully equipped. The plane is capable of a speed of 150 kilometres an hour. The machine is to be put through a series of tests by the engineers of the Air Ministry.

SCOPE FOR PEOPLE'S INITIATIVE NEEDED

Bonar Law Trusts Constructive Energy of British

Says Harassing Legislation a Bad Mistake

Glasgow, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Premier Bonar Law, speaking here last night, said the country at the present time needed, above everything, freedom from interference and harassing legislation. It should be left to its own energy and initiative to struggle through the difficult morass in which it found itself, he said.

Capital Levy. Dealing with the allegation that he once favored a capital levy, which was now in the Labor programme but roundly condemned by all other parties, the Premier explained that in the middle of the war, when no person could say how long it would last or how much the war debt would be, he had said on the spur of the moment that it seemed to him a capital levy might be a good way out of the situation, but he had added that it was not a question for the working man but for those who paid the taxes to decide whether they would prefer to take a big slice of capital or continue indefinitely paying a heavy income tax.

BIG VANCOUVER WIRELESS STATION

New Marconi Plant to Cost $2,000,000

Stations at Montreal, Winnipeg and Elsewhere

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—Application is being made to the Federal Government by the Canadian Marconi Company for a license to erect and operate in the vicinity of Vancouver a great wireless station to cost $2,000,000 capable of communicating direct with Australia and the Orient.

The new station will operate on 12,000 volts and will have a daylight sending radius of 7,000 miles, with practically double that distance at night. It will operate on a wave length of 20,000 metres.

Other similar stations are to be erected in Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg and either Edmonton or Calgary to pick up business to be handled over the Marconi trans-Atlantic system now in operation.

The Canadian Marconi Company, it is understood, plans to spend $2,000,000 in an aggressive campaign of development during the next year.

MONTREAL STAR ON BANK PROSECUTIONS

Utterly Inadequate and Futile, Paper Says Editorially

Special to The Times. Montreal, Nov. 14.—The Montreal Star, which first disclosed the plan to turn the Merchants' Bank of Canada over to the Bank of Montreal, to-day prints an editorial declaring the prosecutions of Sir Montagu Allan and D. C. Macarow to have been utterly inadequate and futile, brands the winding up of the Merchants' Bank as a cowardly transaction and openly declares that irrespective of the judgment of courts the return of the bank's position which was made the basis of the prosecution was "false and known to be false."

The declarations made by The Star are among the most serious advanced against the management of an outstanding Canadian financial institution in recent years. The editorial says in part: "When the startling news first broke that the Merchants' Bank of Canada had been sold for amalgamation purposes, there was universal regret at the dissolution of an old institution, one well established throughout the Dominion, with active profitable connections in nearly every county in Canada."

"By those unacquainted with the facts at the time of the disclosure of the sale the inference was drawn that the bank's capital must have been seriously impaired to justify such a step. When it was discovered that even under a drastic accounting the bank's capital was in surplus, the bank's capital was intact, unimpaired, and over and above its capital was a surplus of $1,600,000, there was widespread indignation at the surrender of the property. Under careful direction the shares were well worth $150. The recent prosecutions under the Bank Act have not diminished the indignation of the public. In effect Judge Decarie's judgment declares that in a legal sense the wrong report was not known to be false."

"It was false and known to be false. But as a result of collusion, or otherwise, branch reports concealed facts that were known to directors and ignored by them. To have secured a conviction against the two of the bank's officers on a question of bookkeeping technicalities would not in any sense have met the situation as it should have been met."

EX-MINISTERS ON TRIAL IN ATHENS

Generals Also Blamed For Asia Minor Army Disaster

Long Speeches by Gounaris and Stratos

Athens, Nov. 14.—The ex-Ministers and generals charged with high treason as a result of the Greek military disaster in Asia Minor are now on trial.

The defending lawyers at the opening session Monday contended that the court was incompetent and that the accused men ought to be tried by Parliament.

Former Premier Gounaris and Stratos delivered long speeches expressing the same view as the lawyers.

A young officer in the audience interrupted Gounaris. He was immediately arrested and sentenced to jail for fifteen days.

After listening to the arguments, the court rejected the plea that it was incompetent.

NEW LLOYD GEORGE PARTY PREDICTED

His Followers Look For Sensational "Come-back"

Special to The Times. London, Nov. 14.—Two speeches made by Lloyd George Monday in the course of his whirlwind tour through Wales bring out one of the essential features of the political situation. At Colwyn Bay he complained bitterly because an Asquith Liberal had entered the lists against J. C. Davies, the National Liberal candidate, thereby giving an unprecedented opportunity to the Conservative to capture the seat, and at Rhyl he attacked equally strongly the Conservative who had been put up in Flintshire, because he was risking the Labor Party taking the seat from Leu. Col. T. H. Parry, its old National Liberal member. On the face of it these speeches appeared merely the natural protests of a leader coming to the aid of his hard pressed supporters, but in reality they give a clue to the political programme Lloyd George has marked out for himself.

A "Come-back." In the new Parliament he has no chance whatever of being re-elected. His adherents have nominated only 138 candidates in a total of 615 seats, and it is hardly likely he will find himself with more than eighty supporters, and they may be considerably less, yet those who follow his banner, though not dismayed, for they look to the future and reckon that Lloyd George need only wait to make a sensational "come-back."

Short Term. The way they reckon it is this. The Parliament to be elected on Wednesday is almost sure to be a short one and another general election will be held in a few months. Moreover, even in the new House Lloyd George will be far more influential than his ostensible strength implies, for when the Conservatives speak of the 400 or more members they will elect they forget that a considerable section of them, perhaps even as many as seventy, will be of Austen Chamberlain's way of thinking and more liberal.

Bonar Law's Candidacy. Although some doubts have been expressed regarding Bonar Law's safety in his campaign for election in the Central Glasgow district, the correspondent says nobody seriously believes the Premier will be rejected. But it is certain that his two opponents—Sir George Paish, Liberal candidate, and the Laborite, Bailie Mitchell, will poll more votes than at first expected.

CAPITAL LEVY RAISES OPPOSITION

British Election Speakers Attack Labor Proposal

Industry Needs to Attract Capital, Says Asquith

London, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A majority of the election speakers are devoting attention to the Labor proposal of a capital levy. Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith, speaking at Paisley, said there never was a time when it was more important to reassure and attract capital to industry than at the present time.

Speaking at Ilkeston, Lord Birkenhead said a system under which everybody would get everything he wanted and nothing he did not want would be a thing of the next world.

Rt. Hon. Edward Shortt, Home Secretary in the last Government, speaking at Bolton, said it was impossible to impose a capital levy without doing ten times more harm than good.

Sir John Simon, speaking at Clerkenwell, said the statement that a capital levy would not take capital out of business was quite incomprehensible unless the intention was that the state itself was to become a shareholder in the industries of the country.

1,386 CANDIDATES IN GREAT BRITAIN

Acclamations in Fifty-seven Ridings Out of 615

Special to The Times. London, Nov. 14.—On this, the last day of the British election campaign, there are 1,386 candidates, 816 in 515 constituencies, there are straight fights, three or more candidates in 242 divisions, and acclamations in 57.

Premier Bonar Law's probable majority is estimated in Unionist quarters at forty-five over all the other parties.

The Daily Chronicle says Colonel Justice Alexander, who is well known in Montreal, is making a strenuous fight as a National Liberal in South East Southwark, but the result is doubtful.

Dame Clara Butt is campaigning in Brighton in support of C. B. Fry, at one time probably England's foremost cricketer.

CAMPAIGN ENDS AND BRITISH WILL CHOOSE COMMONS TO-MORROW

Even Wisest Political Observers Admit It Is Impossible To Foretell With Assurance the Outcome of the Polling; Last Speeches To-night.

London, Nov. 14.—The last words in Great Britain's election campaign will be spoken to-night. The electorate will go to the polls to-morrow and pick a Parliament from the 1,386 candidates seeking seats in the House of Commons.

In 373 constituencies the fight will be a duel between candidates of two parties. In 242 other constituencies the battle is complicated by the presence of three or more contestants.

Even the wisest political seers are uncertain what the general result will be. Some newspapers publish estimates of how they believe the various parties will rank when the voters have had their say, but none of the forecasters express great confidence in their own claims.

During the campaign events have led to a revision of some of the more sanguine estimates, notably the case in Glasgow and Western Scotland, where the united front presented by the Unionists and Lloyd George Liberals originally induced considerable complacency. But now, a Glasgow dispatch to The Times says the greatest concern is felt over the seats which were regarded as safe a fortnight ago.

Labor's Efforts. "Labor is making on the Clyde its most highly concentrated efforts and is pressing the attack with increasing confidence," the dispatch reports. There is a general feeling that if the co-operating parties escape with the loss of only six seats they will have done well.

The municipal polls in Glasgow, unlike those throughout England, showed a significant growth of Labor strength and these results are responsible for the attack of nervousness which Labor's opponents are suffering.

Bonar Law's Candidacy. Although some doubts have been expressed regarding Bonar Law's safety in his campaign for election in the Central Glasgow district, the correspondent says nobody seriously believes the Premier will be rejected. But it is certain that his two opponents—Sir George Paish, Liberal candidate, and the Laborite, Bailie Mitchell, will poll more votes than at first expected.

LEADERS FINISH THEIR CAMPAIGNS

Bonar Law and Lloyd George to Speak To-night

Last Stage of British Election Contest

London, Nov. 16.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The close of three weeks of strenuous election campaign oratory finds public interest divided between the final broadside which is to be fired by Mr. Lloyd George in Bristol to-night and Premier Bonar Law's last word to the electors to be delivered in Glasgow to-night.

Overshadowing these eleventh-hour declarations of the leaders is a topic of discussion this morning is the series of hectic incidents which has marked the closing hours of the campaign. Chief of these was Winston Churchill's experience at Dundee, where he was prevented from speaking by a howling gale, apparently supporters of his Communist opponent. There is general condemnation of the action of Churchill's hecklers, the feeling apparently being that the demonstration against him was particularly unfair on account of his infirmity. At the same time it is taken as a significant indication of the strength of the Communist movement in Mr. Churchill's district. It is declared that Dundee and other ports along the Scottish east coast have been inundated with Russian, Baltic and Scandinavian immigrants during the last few years, and the Reds are stronger there than in any other place in Great Britain. Doubt is expressed as to the possibility of Mr. Churchill carrying the constituency in the face of this Communist organization. The Observer expresses the fear that his seat is in danger.

Recovers Slowly. Mr. Churchill, who was operated upon for appendicitis recently, is regaining his strength but slowly and the activities of the campaign have served to retard his progress. At Dundee yesterday he was still obliged to speak from his invalid's chair. His voice is not strong and he was only able to shout brief answers to his hearers. "Every time he tried to make a connected statement they made it inaudible and the meeting ended in confusion."

Crowd Sang. Mr. Churchill's trouble began when the chairman tried to open the meeting, the crowd singing "Tell Me the Old, Old Story," as soon as the former Colonial Secretary raised his voice to speak before his constituency before. Someone shouted "You're beaten," and when he said "A lot of people are criticizing me," a voice yelled "You deserve it." When he reminded his hearers of the polling Wednesday one of them interrupted "You'll be at the bottom."

Left Platform. "I won't talk any longer than you want," Mr. Churchill smiled, only to be met with yells of "Stop now." Then Mr. Churchill got angry and declared he would not be bullied by "featherheads," but a rising tide of noise utterly drowned him and finally he had to hobble off the platform.

TORYISM'S CHANCE.

If the Conservative Party of Great Britain obtains a majority over all other political elements in the next Parliament it will be because Toryism seldom divides its power or influence.

At that stage the country was in the throes of negotiating a peaceful settlement of the conflict which had just ended.

A RELIABLE SIGN.

In spite of the fact that taxation in the City of Victoria is nothing like so high as it is in many other Canadian cities of a similar size and importance there are still those in our midst who will argue that people are being driven away from this community because of their inability to meet the demands of the civic treasury.

THE SOCKEYE.

If the majority report of the Commission which has recently investigated fishery conditions on this coast has recommended a closed season of five years in respect of sockeye fishing in the Fraser River the State of Washington may co-operate with this Province in the only plan that promises the restoration of the great runs and the big years.

PROGRESSIVE POLICY.

The Progressive Party has chosen the path of safety in broadening the scope of its membership and activity instead of confining itself to the promotion of purely agrarian interests.

to the Hon. T. A. Crerar, as leader, and determine whether the movement would be sectional or national in character.

"A resolution, moved by R. M. Johnson, Moose Jaw, and seconded by H. Spencer, Battle River, was passed unanimously, that it is desirable for the national interest that an organization should be created for the furthering of Progressive principles throughout Canada and for this purpose a committee of one member from each province be appointed to draft a recommendation and submit same to this conference.

"That in the opinion of the elected representatives of the Progressive party, the Progressive movement is big enough to include men and women of common sense from all walks of life and that steps should be taken whereby practical expression can be given to these ideals.

"That while it is not desirable to interfere with existing methods whereby this has been wholly or in part accomplished in the various provinces, and, whereas, the Canadian Council of Agriculture has ceased to function as the co-ordinating agency for the political activities of the different provincial government organizations.

"We realize the necessity of some federal co-ordinating agency for the purpose of creating such an agency and that a committee be appointed from this meeting to confer with the provincial bodies."

UNION MUSIC.

To the Editor:—With reference to Mr. Pele's lame excuse in Tuesday's Times as to why our British band was not allowed to perform on Armistice Day except at union rates of pay, why does he not say outright that he has no authority whatever in the matter.

CIVIC TAXATION.

To the Editor:—In your issue of the 11th Mr. E. Gamlen replies to my letter in which I stated that I did not think Mr. Gamlen was justified in writing to the press suggesting unfairness, etc., in Mr. J. B. Clearburn's presentation of Victoria's financial and taxation situation.

DISTRIBUTION OF CANNED FOODS.

The distribution of the new goods of the 1922 pack from the canneries has already commenced and the canneries have already shipped to many of the wholesalers throughout the province.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS.

To the Editor:—Re the letter by O. C. Bass in Sunday's paper, I really fail to see why there should be such an objection to the inspection of private schools. I know that many of the principals of these schools would not have the slightest objection to it.

Washington and this Province and the Dominion Government surely recognize this important factor. We shall hope that the recommendation of the Commission will be followed by cooperative action.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

If there are no outstanding issues before the electorate of British there are certainly plenty of candidates to choose from.

Who will say that Mr. Lloyd George will not get a bigger following in the House of Commons than that which has taken the National Liberal label?

WANTS HELP.

To the Editor:—I would like to know how long a person is supposed to live on optimism or faith? Seeing how the unemployed question was shaping for the Winter, and being unemployed, I wrote to the Mayor of this city, the Premier of B. C., and have been waiting for some time.

WOMEN'S MATTERS CONSIDERED BY LOCAL COUNCIL

Work of Standing Committees Under Discussion at Yesterday's Meeting

Many matters concerning the interests of the Local Council of Women came up for consideration at yesterday's meeting, which was held at the Empress Hotel. The standing committees of the Local Council find it difficult to do valuable work during the year, the whole question of the causes of this condition being fully considered. This resolution is to be sent to the affiliated societies for consideration in the hope that suggestions as to their better working may be available. Among the standing committees whose work will be considered are those on Immigration, Objections to Printed Matter, Equal Moral Standards, League of Nations, Press, Education, Household Economics, Taxation, Professions and Employments for Women, Public Health, Fine and Applied Arts, Conservation of Resources, Mental Hygiene, Citizenship, National Recreation and Better Protection of Women and Children. A number of resolutions to be submitted at the annual meeting of the National Council bore to a large extent upon the work of the standing committees. Among the matters for which support is being asked by Local Councils in various parts of the Dominion was that of free transportation.

Resolutions. Among the resolutions were proposed by the Armenian children coming to Canada, censorship of printed matter coming into Canada, holding court over the Armenian catastrophe as that which recently happened in connection with the Merchants Bank of Canada, Government suppression of drug traffic, Government limitation of the acreage of poppy cultivation in India. One resolution is working for the appointment of a woman to the League of Nations, both Britain and Australia being represented by women on this important body. From the Council asked for action by the Canadian Government in connection with enforcing the carrying of the Union Jack at the head of all processions. The cultivation of peace sentiment through the agency of the country was the object of still another resolution.

Mrs. J. D. Gordon gave a comprehensive report of the recent meeting in Vancouver at which the Provincial Council was organized. The four Councils of Victoria, Vancouver, New Westminster and Nanaimo will meet in Vancouver at the Empress Hotel by five votes, such Provincial organization being especially invaluable in the event of the women desiring to approach Provincial or Federal authorities. Mrs. Gordon recommended that convenors of standing committees as well as officers of Local Councils should attend the Provincial Council meetings whenever possible. Several members expressed the opinion that the matter of the choice of five representatives be left to each Council.

Mrs. Hay, convenor of the standing committee on Peace and Arbitration and Mrs. Unsworth, convenor of the committee on Equal Moral Standards, reported on the results of the recent rummage sale netted the Council the sum of $40, while the financial statement showed that the Council has a balance in hand of $10. The sum of $10 donated for the purpose will be expended in a picture for one of the public schools. A message of greeting will be sent to the Council by Lady Aberdeen and the president of the Dublin Local Council of Women by Mrs. Whyte Birch who is leaving shortly for a visit to Wisconsin. Mr. Sutherland will attend a legislative conference in Victoria this week.

CHAPTER COMPLETES PLANS FOR HISTORIC CELEBRATION MONDAY

At a special meeting of the Lady Douglas Chapter, I. O. E. yesterday, presided over by the regent, Mrs. R. G. McMicking, final arrangements were completed for the tea and musicale to be held at the Empress ballroom on Monday next at 3 o'clock. On Nov. 8 a quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage, Laurel Street, Port Angeles, by Rev. R. W. King, when Garnet W. Beal, third son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Beal, Beta Street, was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Cross, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cross, Wilson Street in the province.

London, Nov. 14.—The gallantry of a Canadian officer, Major Wheeler of Sidney, Vancouver Island, had a happy sequel this morning in the marriage of the Russian Princess Galitzin to James Adair Campbell. The ceremony took place in the Russian Church here in the presence of a distinguished congregation including the Duchess of Argyll and Princess Nina of Russia, Lady Mary Leedes, widow of the American Inland magnate.

Two years ago the bride was a fugitive from Bolsheviks and was hiding in a village in southern Russia to escape the bloodthirsty revolutionaries who had killed her father and cast her mother and sister into prison. Major Wheeler, who was returning to Canada after a mission to Wrangel Island, discovered the Princess and the late Duchess Vladimir, aunt of the Czar, and took them under his care and smuggled them through Russia to British warships. The refugees ultimately reached Farris, where the Grand Duchess died as a result of the hardships to which she had been subjected. Major Wheeler being obliged to return to Canada left the affairs of the Princess in the hands of Canadian friends in London, and they, through the Foreign Office, secured the release of her mother and sister. Among the congregation at to-day's wedding were the Ladies Elizabeth and Mary Byrne and Lord Inverclyde.

DISAPPROVE OF PROPOSED CHANGES TO MINIMUM WAGE

Disapproval of the proposed amendments to the Minimum Wage Act as submitted by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association to the Provincial Government recently was expressed at the business meeting of the Kuntuks Club last evening. After consideration of the various clauses of the proposed amendments in conjunction with the Act as it stands at present, the meeting unanimously disapproved of them on the grounds that, in the event of their becoming law, such amendments would defeat the purpose of the Act and would not be in the best interests of the workers. Copies of the resolution will be sent to the Premier.

League of Nations A lucid and unusually interesting address on "What the League of Nations Has Accomplished During the Past Two Years" was given by Miss Jessie Brown. The speaker described the functions of the League and showed where it differed from the League convention. The various international disputes settled by conference under the League were touched upon, emphasis being laid upon the fact that moral force had been the sole weapon employed in the settlement of the disputes, and that but for the League might easily have found vent in warfare.

Mugs for Orphans The members have decided to present five dozen pretty semi-porcelain mugs and a hot of flameless to the Protestant Orphans' Home, the mugs to replace the badly chipped enamel cups at present in use by the children. Miss Wigley announced that $77 had been realized by the Kuntuks Club members who sold poppies on Armistice Day for the returned soldier organizations.

New Members Miss Bowron, the president, was in the chair and four new members were elected. At the conclusion of the business refreshments were served. The gathering was the first business meeting to be held at the home of Miss Bowron and her fellow-members.

The club has decided to ask Mrs. E. Smith, M.P.P., to address them at their luncheon on Monday, December 4. Two representatives of the Tourist Trade-branch of the Chamber of Commerce will lay a proposed scheme for the entertainment of tourists before the club at its next luncheon on Monday, November 20.

CHAPTER MET The Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, I.O.E., met last evening at the home of Mrs. David Miller, with the regent, Mrs. L. H. Hardie, in the chair. Reports were given of the presentation of the picture to the South Park School and the decoration of soldiers' graves for Armistice Day, also the part taken by members in the sale of poppies on Friday. The meeting has renewed the subscription to the London Times for the South Park School. Plans were made for a silver tea at the home of Mrs. David Miller on Saturday afternoon, November 25, when doyleys and candy made by the members will be on sale.

LOCAL OFFICER'S GALLEY HAS HAPPY SEQUEL Russian Princess, Rescued by Major Wheeler of Sidney, Wed To-day

London, Nov. 14.—The gallantry of a Canadian officer, Major Wheeler of Sidney, Vancouver Island, had a happy sequel this morning in the marriage of the Russian Princess Galitzin to James Adair Campbell. IT WINTER COMES

INSTALMENT NUMBER 97
BY A. E. HUTCHINSON

He abandoned himself to a rather horrible ecstasy of hate and passion. His face became purple and black and knotted, and the veins on his forehead black. He cried aloud, "Harold! Harold! Twynning! Twynning!" He rather horribly mimicked Twynning. "Harold's such a good boy, Harold's such a good, Christian, Harold's such a blackguard! Harold's such a blackguard! A blackguard and the son of a vile, infamous, lying, perjured blackguard!"

He passed into the office in a daze. He picked up his stick and went with frantic striding hops to the door. He cried aloud, grinding his teeth upon it, "I'll cram the letter down his throat! I'll cram the letter down his throat! I'll cram the letter down his throat! I'll cram the letter down his throat!"

He ran again into the house and bundled himself up the stairs into his room. At his bureau he took a drawer and wrenched it open so that he could get out the pressure of the sockets of its handle, and scattered its contents upon the floor. One article fell heavily. His service revolver, the brass handle, the trigger on his hands and his knees, padding eagerly about after scattered cartridges. As he searched his voice came harshly, "He's bound to get to hell. At the very gates of hell I've got him, got him, and I'll have him by the throat and hurl him in!"

He walked across to the fireplace; and on the high mantel-piece he laid his arms and bowed his forehead to the marble. Twynning was brokenly saying, "It's good to see you, Sabre, I feel it. After that business, I'm sorry about it, Sabre. I feel your goodness coming to me like this. But you know, your always knew, what my boy was to me. My Harold. Such a good boy, Sabre. Such a good, Christian boy. And now he's gone, he's gone. Never to see him again. My boy. My son. My son."

He stopped his swinging arm, holding his hand above the flames. "The God and God in him; for God is love." He opened his fingers, and the crumpled letter fell and was consumed. He pushed himself up from the mantel-piece and turned and went over to Twynning and stood over him again. He patted Twynning's heaving shoulders. "There, there, Twynning. Bad luck, Bad luck. Had a hard year, Twynning. Soldier's death. . . . Died for his country. . . . Fine boy. . . . Bad luck, Twynning. . . . (To Be Continued.)"

As his knowledge accumulated, he conceived the idea of writing a history of the attempts of Persia to subdue Greece. But in order to introduce that history he composed an account of the past of Greece, Persia, Assyria, Babylonia, Egypt, Scythia, and of the geography and peoples of those countries.

He then set himself, it is said, to make his history known among his friends in Halicarnassus by reciting it to them, but they failed to appreciate it; and he then betook himself to Athens, the most flourishing of all Greek cities at that time. There his work was received with applause. We find him in the centre of a brilliant circle of intelligent and active-minded people, and the city authorities voted him a reward of ten talents (a sum of money equivalent to $12,000) in recognition of his literary achievement.

But we will not complete the biography of this most interesting man, nor will we enter into any criticism of his garuluous, marvel-telling, and most entertaining history. It is a book to which all intelligent readers come sooner or later, abounding as it does in illuminating errors and Boswellian charm.

 He went about Egypt looking at temples and monuments and gathering information. We know not only from him, but from other evidence, that in those days the older temples

A Great Emancipation.
 We give these particulars here simply to show that in the fifth century B.C. a new factor was becoming evident in human affairs. Reading and writing had already long escaped from the temple precincts and the ranks of the court scribes. Record was no longer confined to court and temple. A new sort of people, these people of leisure and independent means, were asking questions—exchanging knowledge and developing ideas. So beneath the march of armies and the policies of monarchs, and above the common lives of illiterate and incurious men, we note the beginnings of what is becoming at last nowadays a dominant power in human affairs, the free intelligence of mankind.

Of that free intelligence we shall have more to say when in a subsequent chapter we tell of the Greeks.

PREMIER NAMES COMMITTEE TO SEARCH PENSIONS

Canon Hincliffe Offered Names of Aid Beneficiaries in Private

Nothing Definite Yet on Coast Range Steel Proposals, House Informed

It was resolutions day in the Legislature yesterday, no less than nine being disposed of or laid over.

The university resolution, as introduced by Capt. Mackenzie, was allowed to stand until Speaker Pauline decided whether or not it was in order.

Kenneth Duncan adjourned the debate on Friday, but appealed to the chair regarding the propriety of the resolution. Premier Oliver said he did not think the resolution covered a matter involving expenditure of public money and that the Crown did not object to the resolution.

Premier Oliver moved that Messrs. Farris, Capt. Mackenzie, Hincliffe, Duncan and Mrs. Smith be appointed a special committee to investigate the administration of Mothers' pensions.

He did not think the Workmen's Compensation Board should be censured through the passing of the Hincliffe resolution and maintained that the board should stand in defence. He also limited the scope of the committee through a desire to save humiliating beneficiaries. The Government leader explained that the funds of the Mothers' Pensions Board were being distributed in a fair manner and after an investigation by the committee it would be found that all possible was being done for dependent women.

To Tell of Any Steel Works Move.
 Another resolution, introduced by Mr. Esling, asked for a session of correspondence between the Coast Range Steel Co. and the Government.

Premier Oliver said this could not be granted in fairness, since the Government had no undertaking to establish a steel industry, but had merely listened to the proposals presented by the company and agreed to provide one-third of the necessary guarantee—or approximately $4,000,000—if certain conditions were met.

He explained the history of negotiations to date, but said that before any definite steps be taken the matter would have to be placed before the Legislature. The Government was desirous of seeing a steel industry establishment and the iron ore resources of the Province developed.

"So I think it better to make this statement on the floor of the House than to produce the correspondence asked for," added the Premier.

"Personally, I do not know if anything will come of the proposals of the Coast Range Steel Ltd., but if and when, any communications and negotiations come of a definite nature, we shall be prepared to place everything before the House."

George S. Haines, of North Vancouver, expressed surprise that the Premier should not be ready to produce what correspondence was already on file, and he desired to know of the negotiations being carried on from time to time, he said.

Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, adjourned the debate.

Unfair to Publish Names.
 Dealing with the Hincliffe resolution asking for a return of the names of those who had received aid under the Mothers' Pensions Act, Attorney-General Manson said such a proceeding would be unfair and he asked the Victoria member to withdraw the motion and be content to obtain his information through reference to the files of the department. The member adjourned the debate to permit the mover of the resolution to consider the suggestion.

Another resolution asked for the names of the returned men who had received assistance from the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission.

Dr. MacLean asked the member to visit the offices of the commission, where he would be welcome to the information he desired. Upon this understanding Canon Hincliffe withdrew his resolution.

PROSPECTORS MEET

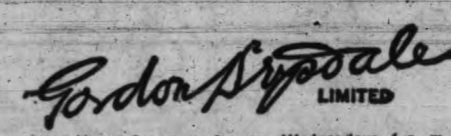

Vancouver Island Association Talks on Mining Matters.

Interest in prospecting and mining on Vancouver Island and throughout the Province is being stimulated by the organization of the Vancouver Island Prospectors' Association, which held another interesting meeting last night.

The question as to whether prospectors could be brought under the operation of the Workmen's Compensation Act resulted in the appointment of a legislative committee comprised of the president, C. C. Winkler, Thomas Golby and G. B. Kitto to go into the matter.

Mr. Golby gave an interesting talk on mining near the Mexican border, explaining the character of ore and method of mining. Mr. Conway, who has been working a placer in recently in the Cedar Creek section of the Cariboo. The discovery is just above Queen's Lake and is heavily timbered. Some big pay has been taken out and the strike continues to be a rich one.

DR. ROSS TO ARRIVE SOON

Opportunities For Canadian Trade With China Developing

Dr. J. W. Ross, Canadian Trade Commissioner stationed at Shanghai, will arrive in Victoria on Saturday, and will be in the city until November 23, when he will leave for the Orient.

He will attend the directors' luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce, and will make arrangements to meet local business interests, and manufacturers with a view to doing everything possible to promote trade between this coast and the Orient.

The commissioner points out that there is practically no limit to the possibilities of the Chinese market for Canada. The Chinese people are not buying Canadian goods because they do not know anything about them. Among a people that numbers 400,000,000 the needs are manifold, and he said, China is offering to-day the greatest market for Canada.

While in the East Dr. Ross interviewed many of the manufacturers and states that they are all keenly interested in the "Canada goods fair room," which the government has authorized to be opened in Shanghai.

SCHOOL BOARD ASKED TO INCREASE PERSONNEL OF BODY

Chairman Holloway, of the Saanich School Board, last night, noted that Trustees Mrs. Humphries and A. E. Hull are not seeking re-election, and suggested the advisability of seeking legislation to amend the system of election to give each ward a direct representative, so increasing the personnel of the school board from five to seven.

He suggested a referendum of the voters should be taken, in order to discover their opinion on the matter. Trustee Hobbs declared, "in my opinion that would be reactionary. The tendency to-day is to get away from the ward system entirely."

Chairman Holloway protested that a mixed municipality such as Saanich would always have to adhere to the ward system. He then suggested a second referendum, that the people should be asked "do you favor each ward being assessed for its own school expenditures?"

The latter Mr. Hobbs was in favor of, and Trustee O'Brien, the only other member present agreed to asking the Council to submit both the referenda at the annual election.

Special Courses.

Chairman Holloway then suggested a referendum on High School tuition, for technical and commercial courses would be favored. Trustee Hobbs again dissented, as being against the modern trend.

"I have to-night been informed of one Saanich resident who, paying $14 yearly in taxes, sends two children to High School at a cost to Saanich of $84 each and has another in the public school, a total cost of over $200 to the municipality," declared the chairman as the subject was abandoned.

Trustee F. V. Hobbs stated that, while not definitely in the field for the Councilorship of Ward Three, if he should run he would on no account relinquish his seat on the School Board, which he is entitled to occupy for another year.

Ship Is Reported to Have Heavy Cargo For Discharge at Victoria

Seattle, Nov. 14.—Advice to the Admiral-Oriental Line are that the President Jackson steamed from Yokohama for Seattle Saturday, carrying 2,800 bales of raw silk, a consignment of manufactured silk, a large lot of mail, 55 first cabin passengers and 135 in the steerage. She has 900 tons of cargo for Victoria, and it is estimated that she will not reach here until late the night of November 21. Commencing with her departure from here for the Orient, December 9, the passenger liners of her service will go on a sailing every twelve days, instead of fourteen as now, reducing the lay of days to ten from nineteen with the arrival at Seattle of her successor, the President Madison.

Local members of the trans-Pacific westbound freight conference will meet to-day to discuss rectification of some conflicts in the schedule of rates recently adopted at San Francisco and to arrange for publication of the rates.

The inter-coastal Nawsco fleet will be at once increased by two vessels, according to advice received to-day by the Pacific Steamship Company, Pacific Coast agents for the service. The messages stated that the steamship Homestead, 3,740 tons, was turned over to the Nawsco Line to-day at Boston and left for Boston and Portland, Maine, to load for this coast. The other additional tonnage has not been named. The increase is stated to be in line with the policy of the Shipping Board to protect pioneer purchasers of Government tonnage.

ACTIVITY SEEN AT LOCAL MILLS

SS. Indian City to Leave on Thursday to Complete on Mainland

Two Other Vessels Due to Load Lumber in Upper Harbor

There is an increasingly active movement in the lumber export trade of this port.

With a demand for lumber on the Atlantic coast the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber & Timber Co., Ltd., of Victoria, seized the opportunity to increase its output and the mills are now working at high pressure to keep the slings working on the big freighters taking turn at the Upper Harbor berth.

Not for many years has there been so many large lumber freighters loading lumber in the Upper Harbor as has been the case during the latter part of this year.

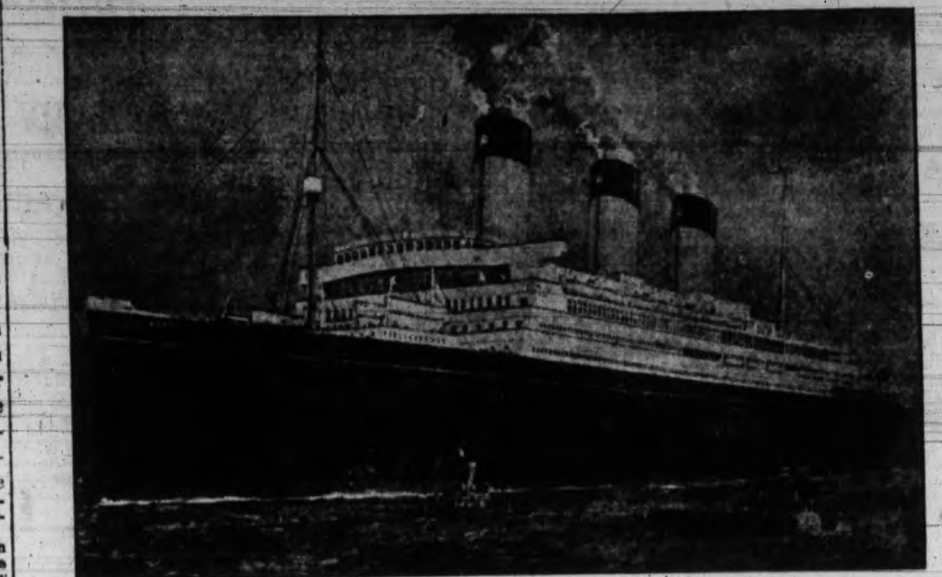

The Italian freighter Brenta took on some 2,000,000 feet of lumber at the Canadian Puget Sound mills shortly recently for New York and the freighter Margaret Coughlan loaded here for Montreal.

For the past week the British freighter Indian City has been taking on lumber for the Atlantic at the Upper Harbor mills. The Indian City is taking 2,000,000 feet here and will shift on Thursday to Vancouver and later to Genoa Bay to complete. Her total cargo will approximate 5,000,000 feet of lumber.

Two other ships are due at the Canadian Puget Sound mills shortly to load lumber for New York.

One of the vessels of the Robert Dollar fleet will arrive here early in December, and another vessel, not yet named, will be handled by the local mills about December 20.

PROTEST TRANSFER OF SHIP'S BASE

Esquimalt Is Logical Station For Fishery Patrol Steamer Malaspina

In shipping and business circles at this port there exists a feeling of resentment over the action of the Fisheries branch of the Marine Department in ordering the transfer of the base of operations of the Fishery patrol steamer Malaspina from Esquimalt to Vancouver.

The matter of the removal of the headquarters of the Malaspina from this port to Vancouver has been actively taken up by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, and strong representations have been made to the Department at Ottawa in regard to the transfer. While no official order has been issued, it is understood that Vancouver has been the base of operations for the Malaspina for several weeks past, although the vessel comes into Esquimalt harbor occasionally. The fact that the headquarters of the Dominion Fisheries on the Coast is located at Vancouver under Chief Inspector J. A. Motherwell, is one of the reasons advanced for the stationing of the fishery patrol ship at the Mainland port.

Logical Base.

Most of the Malaspina's patrols are taken along the West Coast of Vancouver Island, and Esquimalt is so situated that it is the logical base for the fisheries patrol. The base of the fisheries service on the British Columbia Coast has always been located at Victoria. Long before the patrol steamers Malaspina and Galliano were built and sent out to this Coast from Dublin, Victoria had been the recognized British Columbia coast base of the Fisheries Department. It was

FIRE EXTINGUISHED ON CLAN MACBRAYNE

Honolulu, Nov. 13.—A battle with dangerous flames aboard the British freighter Clan Macbrayne, loaded with gasoline from Port Arthur, Texas, for Hongkong, which began at sea November 6, ended beside the dock here yesterday, when the last of the burning coal from the ship's bunkers was removed.

The cargo, which also had been taken ashore, being replaced and the vessel expects to resume her voyage to the Far East to-day.

The Clan Macbrayne put in here November 13, with a blaze in her bunkers, separated only from her highly explosive cargo by a wooden bulkhead.

A fire tug stood by and fire fighting apparatus lined the dock ready for emergencies while a crew of stevedores worked day and night to give the gasoline ashore and then remove the burning coal.

ARIZONA MARU WILL ARRIVE HERE FRIDAY

Cutting a full day from her schedule the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Arizona Maru, which sailed from Yokohama, November 4, is expected to arrive here at daybreak on Friday next.

Advice reached Rihet Consolidated, Ltd., to-day, stating that the Japanese ship would be in port early November 17.

For Victoria the Arizona Maru has 300 measurement tons of freight. She has five steerage passengers for this port and nine cabin and nineteen steerage for Seattle.

Thirty-two bags of mail will be deposited at the local post office for distribution to different points.

REPORTED ARREST OF STRIKING SHIP'S CREW NOT CONFIRMED

The strikers, fearing arrest, changed their meeting place. Negotiations for a settlement continue and it is now hoped the steamer will be able to sail to-day.

LIFE WAS MISERY!

"I was reading the other day about Neurasthenia, about the large number of people who were troubled with this disease. It is just what my wife had. She felt miserable all the time and was constantly depressed. She would waken in the morning and tell me that something dreadful was going to happen that day. Life was nothing short of misery for her. She was so depressed that I expected she would lose her mind and have to go to a sanitarium and I kept wondering how I would get the money to pay for her. She could not eat and had no appetite for food. She was irritable and cranky most of the time. If she was crossed in any way, she would immediately work herself up into a violent temper. This worried me because she had always had a kind and gentle disposition and nothing which was said or done seemed to irritate her. I spoke to our family doctor about her and he said that her trouble was imagination and that if she would try and forget about her depression and look on the bright side of life she would be all right. Of course I didn't dare tell her this because I knew she would get into one of her tempers. When she got over these fits of temper, she was always weak and ill and more depressed than ever. The doctor said a tonic might help her and gave me a prescription but this did not do her any good. She tried all kinds of other tonics with the same result. Carnol was recommended to me and I wish to state that it is the leader of all tonics. Since taking it my wife has changed completely. Now she is always ready for her meals and work is no burden. It is a pleasure for me to recommend Carnol to anyone who is in need of a tonic or a body-builder. Excuse me for writing this letter but I want you to accept my thanks for that wonderful tonic known as Carnol."—Mr. J. M. Toronto.

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 7-623

BLUE JAY LEADS MANY INTO LIVELY COMEDY OF ERRORS

A comedy of errors in which a captive blue jay, a cat and a pheasant played the principal roles was unfolded for the second time in court in the appeal of Rex versus Ah Sing in the County Court to-day. Ah Sing, who later stated his name was really Ah Yum, but who did not like notoriety, appealed from a police court conviction and fine of $25 and costs on a charge of setting a trap for game and was successful in the appeal.

Not for Game
 W. J. Taylor, K.C., appeared for the appellant and A. D. Macfarlane for the Crown. John R. Green, on whose twenty-acre farm in West Saanich the appellant was employed, took the stand and proved setting the trap. The trap was not for game, stated witness, but for blue jays, which had been very mischievous. Witness had also tried rat traps on posts.

One blue jay had been caught but later released. Game Warden Joseph William Jones and Gidley, John James Wilkie and James W. Corning gave evidence of the incident. The pheasant seen by Game Warden Jones, led the latter to the trap, where he saw a cat prowling around the wire mesh of the trap. The trap ten minutes before had caught a blue jay which had been removed by the Chinaman and was later released, the story ran. Mr. Jones alleged there had been quail feathers in the trap, which was denied by the appellant.

WILL HEAR WATER PROPOSALS.

A special meeting of the Esquimalt Council will be held to-night for the purpose of hearing the proposals to be advanced by the Greater Victoria Water Board Committee. The session will be held in the Municipal Hall at eight o'clock.

NO WORK FOR IDLE HERE NOW, COUNCIL RULES

City Will Assist Only Men With Dependents at Present

These are the main points of the city's new unemployment policy, drawn up at a two-hour informal meeting of the City Council last night:

1. No public works will be started in the immediate future to relieve unemployment.
2. No relief will be given to men without dependents.
3. Free meals will be given through the Friendly Help Society to men who are absolutely destitute.
4. Any jobs that are vacant will be filled through the City Engineer's Department, and not by the Mayor.

Every phase of the unemployment problem was thrashed out at last night's meeting, and afterwards the Mayor gave out a statement outlining the four points mentioned.

Members of the Council declared last night that the unemployment problem was really a national problem, but that the city appeared to be facing the problem alone, some action, it was agreed, must be taken. At the same time, the aldermen appeared to agree that the situation was not nearly so serious as last year, and it was not thought necessary to adopt any drastic measures to cope with it. The chief desire of the Council appeared to be to aid those who deserved assistance and to eliminate those who did not. And there are many men who do not need help who hang about the City Hall looking for "hand-outs," members asserted.

Some aldermen proposed that all applications for relief should be investigated by the police, but this idea was frowned upon by others. It was pointed out that unemployed were not criminals and should not be treated as such.

EARTH TREMORS TRAVEL RAPIDLY

Pressure Wave Arrive Here After Journey at 450 Miles an Hour

Interesting figures on the rate of speed with which earth tremors and their resulting tidal waves travel in various mediums have been compiled by F. Napier Denison, Superintendent of the Meteorological Observatory at Gonzales Heights. The recent tremor in Chile set in action a pressure wave that travelled through the interior of the earth at the rate of seven and a half miles per second, or about 450 miles an hour.

The surface pressure wave was recorded here after a passage at the rate of two and a half miles a second, or 150 miles an hour. Both waves traversed a great distance, the surface wave traveling about 8,000 miles. A rise in the tide here from two to three inches was noted after a lapse of four hours after the earthquake at Chile.

Tidal rises were noted all up the Coast, while the pressure that raised the tidal waves was felt all the way across the Pacific Ocean, it is stated. Following the recording of the main shock on the local instruments two other tremors were noted, one of an hour's duration. The fact that Denison was able to place the earthquake at Chile, 6,000 miles away, in advance of the news gives ample indication of the sensitiveness of the local instruments, many of which were made by Mr. Denison in person.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little mentho-sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream. (Adv.)

"I Can Now Do My Work Without Feeling Tired"

Mrs. A. Moffatt, Roston Falls, Que., writes:

"I suffered from a run-down system and nervous debility. I could not sleep or rest at night, and felt so weak I could not walk any distance. I took several tonics, but they only helped me while I was taking them. Mother advised me to take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I felt great benefit from the first box, and continued taking several boxes. Today I feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work without that dreadful tired feeling."

TY COBB HOPES HE MADE DISPUTED HIT

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 14.—Regarding the disputed hit on which depends his 400 batting mark for 1922, Ty Cobb stated here to-day that he does not remember how many safe blows he garnered in the game between the Yanks and Tigers at the Polo Grounds on May 15, but that he naturally hopes the official record will give him an average of .400 or better.

AUSTRALIAN CRICKET TEAM SCORES VICTORY OVER ENGLISH ELEVEN

Adelaide, Australia, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable) The team representing the Marlybone Cricket Club, which opened its tour of Australia and New Zealand ten days ago, when it met Western Australia in a draw game, met the South Australian eleven here on Saturday and was beaten by six wickets. The visitors will meet a team representing Victoria at the end of this week, and will play a two-day match with the representative New South Wales eleven.

DUNCAN PREPARED FOR FINE DOG SHOW

Duncan, Nov. 14.—A big showing of dogs from Victoria, a long string from Vancouver, a truck load or two from Nanaimo and district, more from Seattle, Spokane, New Westminster and practically all the towns on Vancouver Island, such was the encouraging news announced Saturday evening at a meeting of the committee of the coming dog show at Duncan, to be held on November 23 and 24.

BECKETT COMING TO STATES TO BATTLE

Will Meet Tommy Gibbons Some Time This Month; Siki Loses His Chance

New York, Nov. 14.—Joe Beckett is coming to America at last. Tex Rickard has invited the British champion to make the trip and everything is practically set for Joseph to meet Tommy Gibbons in a 15-round battle in the Garden some time later next month. Who a heavy chap is Mr. Beckett, and by the same token what an awful danger is that caveman, Battling Siki. When the latter took a rap at an inoffensive Mr. Beckett in Paris, the night he just about kicked him out of a quarter of a million dollars. That is about what that roughneck would have realized in a trip to the United States and how it is going to be for Joe Beckett. Maybe not quite that much, but surely enough to keep him going for the rest of his days.

WILL BECOME POPULAR.

Vancouver fans got their first glimpse of the six-man game in the Coast League, and judging from observations the abbreviated style bidd fair to become popular. It was a little difference in it and the old system other than that the substitutes were used as hard as the regulars. Every time a goal was registered a flock of substitutes would vault over the boards and into the ring.

BILL TILDEN LEAVES HOSPITAL; MINUS ONE JOINT OF A FINGER

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—Bill Tilden, national tennis champion, who lost the first joint of his right hand as the result of infection from a scratch against backstop, spent his first night at home after a siege of several weeks in a hospital. The champion who left the hospital yesterday said he would be six weeks or possibly two months before he could hope to use his hand.

Maroons Severely Beaten By Seattle

Vancouver Suffers Worst Defeat In Opening Game In History of P. C. H. A.; Maroons' Defence, Without Duncan, Was As Shaky As A Jelly; Mets Showed Sensational Form and Look Like Team to Beat; Score 8-2.

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—Beaten decisively in every period, and suffering the heaviest reverse that has fallen to the lot of a Vancouver puckchasing aggregation in an opening match on local ice, the Maroons, all dolled up in new spangles, with three members of last season's champion squad missing, and a sprinkling of new talent on display, fell by the wayside when they stacked up against Seattle in the season's first battle last night, finishing up just six goals shy of Seattle's total. The final count was 8-2, and the Mets were good measure for the entire lot. They turned in one of those exhibitions for which they were noted a few years back, with every man playing a bang-up game, the defence as shaky as a rock pile and the forwards scampering here, there and everywhere with seemingly no opposition in sight at any stage.

Not For Gentle Souls. The failure of the Vancouver defence to stop the heaviest and the inability of the forwards to get going under the heavy checking of the visitors accounted for the overwhelming defeat. It was the third time in twelve seasons that the Maroons have been on the short end of the score in the annual coming-out party. It was a gruelling affair, too, this inaugural session. It was good, fast and everything was fine except the score.

The teams were: Vancouver Position Seattle. Cook, goal, Holmes. Fraser, defence, Boucher, forward, Foyston. Harris, forward, Riley. Skinger, forward, Walker. Parkes, reserve, Morris. Newell, reserve, Row. Duncan, reserve, McCarthy. Referee, Mickey Ion.

Penalties. First period—Riley, 3 minutes; Second period—Morris, 2 minutes; Row, 2 minutes.

Substitutions. Morris for Walker, Aseltine for Skinner; Rowe for Fraser; Second period—Briden for Riley; Newell for Harris. Third period—Fraser for Rowe; Parkes for Boucher.

Goal Summary. First period—1, Seattle, Foyston, 10:20. Second period—2, Seattle, Rickley, 5 minutes; 3, Seattle, Rowe, 10:5, 4, Vancouver, Cook from Mackay, 2:45, 5, Seattle, Morris from Fraser, 2:27; 6, Seattle, Walker from Morris, 9:10. Third period—7, Seattle, Riley from Rickley, 8; Seattle, Morris, 7:14; 8, Vancouver, Newell from Parkes, 7:46; 10, Seattle, Riley, 2:45. Final: Seattle, 8; Vancouver, 2.

WEILER'S OUT TO RETAIN THE LEAD

Meet Fitz's in Wednesday League To-morrow; Hudson's Bay Play Garrison

To-morrow's matches in the Wednesday Football League will bring together the leaders and tail-enders with the two middle teams scrapping for the additional points. Weilers, last year's champions and this year's leaders, are drawn against Fitz's and will play at the Royal Athletic Park. The tail-enders have played good football and have been nosed out of most games by an odd goal. They are hopeful of breaking up the rush of the leaders to-morrow and going through and scoring sufficient goals themselves to win.

Bays Meet Tommies. The Hudson's Bay and the Garrison will meet at Work Point. These teams have met twice before and each has been credited with a victory. The Bays won the first game but lost the points through playing an ineligible player. The Garrison made no mistake about the second game and won. To-morrow both teams will be after the "rubber."

It is possible for Weilers to be bounced out of the leadership of the league. If Fitz's can drop the champions and the Garrison put away the Bays the Tommies will be on top for the first time this season. If Weilers can do no better than draw with the tail-enders they will be able to stay on top, as they have a one-point lead.

Both games will start at 2:30 o'clock. The City Bowling League opened last evening when, after an exciting game, the Wilcox Hat Co. beat last year's champions, the Elks, by the narrow margin of 33 pins. Moulton, with 541 pins, was high man, followed by Egan, of the Elks, with 482. To-night the Eagles meet the Arcades at 8 o'clock.

SIKI'S LIFE STORY

By Battling Siki

As Told to Milton Bronner, NEA Staff Correspondent

Rotterdam, Holland, Nov. 14.—Louis Phal—"Battling Siki"—conqueror of Georges Carpentier, may be many things, but he is not the "fighting chimpanzee" sporting writers describe him. He is a typical Senegalese negro, nearly six feet tall, well built, with kinky hair and forehead an inch high. He would never shine as a beauty in America, but in Senegal, he would be rated handsome.

Siki fought all through the war, was wounded and won medals and honors. He speaks fairly good French, reads it and writes it, but can't be called a profound scholar. In his contact with British troops during the war, he learned many English words, can say some sentences in English and understands a great many more. He has also picked up enough Dutch to make himself understood in Holland.

CHAPTER ONE. His Life in Senegal.

I was born in St. Louis, capital of the French colony of Senegal, 25 years ago. My true name is Baye Phal. Baye is a Senegalese name corresponding to Louis, so I am Louis Phal.

Entering the ring, I called myself Battling Siki. Siki is a Senegalese word parents apply to their children—a "love word" like "darling" in English or "cherie" in French. I adopted it because I thought white men could easily remember such a name.

I make this clear because recently a professor of languages, living in Paris, wrote one of the papers saying Siki was a title of nobility in Senegalese, and Phal was the name of the former kings of a province of Senegal. If I am descended from kings, I never knew it before.

Parents Poor. My parents were poor working people. They didn't have time to think about educating me and my four brothers. We just grew up. I wrote the following description of my early life for a Paris paper:

Senegal is a city of 23,000. We wear clothes like you. We are French citizens and elect a member to the French Parliament. We are either Christians or Mohammedans. Me, I am a Mohammedan.

I used to go to the docks and watch the ships. One day a big ship came in, en route to Marseilles, and as it was to remain some days, the passengers—some—among these was a German woman who called herself Mme. Faugenberg, a dancer, who had lots of money.

She saw me, a kid of eight, looking up at the ship. She took my hand, and had me show her about the city. Then she asked if I would go on the ship and sail to France and see other lands and have a good time. Leaves With Dancer. I didn't take time to tell my family goodbye, for I feared the dancer would change her mind. In France the dancer got me nice clothes, and daily taught me to read.

WALT AND JOE WILL BE HERE NEXT WEEK

Golf Stars Have Tour Interrupted; Golfers Forego Treat To-morrow

Golfers who had reserved to-morrow to take in the exhibition at Colwood by Walter Hagen, British open golf champion, and Joe Kirkwood, Australian champion, will have to find something else to do as the international stars have had their schedule interrupted by snow storms. The exhibition here has been postponed until Wednesday, November 22.

Hagen and Kirkwood will make only one appearance in British Columbia and that will be in the Capital City. They are to be opposed in the 36-hole foursome by Willy Black, the touring professional, and Phil Taylor, of Oak Bay. In addition to the exhibition match Kirkwood will do his trick performance.

Officials of the Colwood Club wish it known that they are simply providing the links for the visiting golfers. They will have nothing whatever to do with the gate. The manager of the touring professionals has insisted on certain prices and the gate receipts will represent the sole monetary consideration under which Hagen and Kirkwood will appear.

Joe the Drawing Card. Kirkwood is the best drawing card playing exhibition golf because of his demonstration useful and trick shots, which he gives in connection with all matches in which he and Walter Hagen appear as team mates.

Kirkwood is the finest golfer ever developed in Australia and one of the world's greatest players. He is sure to win his quota of important titles in the British and American championships. No one in Australia or New Zealand could compare with Kirkwood. He won the open championships there without serious opposition and at the same time developed a line of trick shots which have made him golf's most popular entertainer.

Always in Money. His ability as a player has been demonstrated. He seldom fails to finish in the money no matter what the competition against him. Last Spring he won the qualifying medal in the big tournament at Glenageary, Scotland, and followed this by beating the field by shots in an open tournament at Lissiemouth, Scotland.

Billiard Champion Wins His First Match; Triumphs Over Hun

New York, Nov. 14.—Jake Schaefer, of San Francisco, international 15.3 ballline champion, defeated Erich Hagenlacher, champion of Germany by the score of 500 to 323 in the first match of the international 15.3 ballline billiard championship tournament at the Hotel Pennsylvania last night. The winner's averages was 29.7-17 and his runs 140, 73 and 56. The German's average was 19.5-17, with runs of 105, 44 and 36.

Schaefer made a bad start. He went to the lead with his 140-run in the fourth inning. After that he lapsed into seemingly careless execution, miscuing no fewer than four times. Hagenlacher was slow toward the end, although he displayed skill at draw shots and the masse.

Weiker Cochran, the Iowa, and Roger Conti, the French champion, meet to-day at 2:30 p. m. In the night game Willie Hoppe, of New York, meets Edouard Horemans, the Belgian champion.

Schaefer turned into the final hundred with a run of 56. He breezily began this cluster, rapidly calling the caroms by the short rail system. At the end of this run in the twelfth inning, Schaefer led his rival 432 to 376 despite little show of his real class.

Theatre

CAPITOL

Viceroy of India! This is one of the public offices that Thomas Meighan holds in "The Man Who Saw To-morrow," his new Paramount picture, now being shown at the Capitol Theatre.

In addition, he's a hard hitting and energetic young scientist and explorer. He fights his way through the picture, and at the finish—Well, that must be left until the picture is exhibited, otherwise the punch is lost. But it ends happily.

One of the best casts that could have been assembled has been provided by Director Alfred Green. Leatrice Joy is leading woman; Eva Novak and June Elvidge have important roles; Albert Roscoe is the villain; Laurence Wheat has a good part, and a venerable psychologist is portrayed by John Miller. Also Francis, Robert Brower, Edward Patrick, Jacqueline Dyris and others are well cast.

DOMINION

In the good old days a sure proof of the popularity of a star was to have a cigar named after him—or her, as the ladies were not spared.

Following the "cigar period" came one of perfumes and toilet waters. A luminary of the stage or screen could receive no higher praise in the theatre-goer's mind than to have some delightful liquid fragrance named after her (almost exclusively feminine this time). The latest manifestation is perhaps the oldest—the idea of praising in song the charms of one's innamorata.

COLUMBIA

In "Perjury," the William Fox special which opened at the Columbia Theatre last night, William Farnum gives a masterly and gripping characterization of a man tormented by suspicion, torn by jealousy, mad with rage, crushed by despair, and finally redeemed by resignation and human sympathy.

GREET EDNA WALLACE HOPPER

In addition to the fine photoplay Victorians flocked to the Royal Theatre last evening to see Edna Wallace Hopper, the woman whose rejuvenation has been a marvelous feat of surgery. In addition to her artistic record, her local associations have also made an exceptional claim on her audience here.

and happy in his married life. He is seen last as a man of 65 years, prematurely old, with twenty years of prison life behind him, but with a wonderful gentleness of nature developed by his prolonged separation from the world.

In his jealous rage Farnum is terrific, and in his later moods is wondrously, appealingly pathetic.

There are sharp contrasts between the quiet acceptance of the hardships of prison life by Robert Moore and the bitterness of the struggle of his wife in the outer world to save her children from ruin. The reunion between the two is one of the most appealingly pathetic scenes ever presented on the screen.

"Perjury" was directed by Harry Millarde, who won fame as director of the great Fox picture "Over the Moon" and the east-include Sally Crute, Wallace Erskine, John Webb Dillon, Frank Shannon, Frank Joyner, Grace La Veil, Gilbert Rooney and Alice Mann.

"Broadway Rose" is a Tiffany production, presented by Robert Z. Leonard and distributed by Metro. The story and scenario are by Edmund Goulding, the photography by Oliver T. Marsh and the art settings by Charles Cadwallader.

MARIS HALE

IN NEW SHOW

The "Balkan Princess" Will Commence To-morrow

Undoubtedly an outstanding feature of "The Balkan Princess," which is the potted comic opera opening at the playhouse to-morrow night, will be the singing of Mr. Maris Hale, whose rich baritone voice is so well known and so well liked among the music-lovers of Victoria. Mr. Hale has had more than an ordinary amount of experience in both opera and concert work.

Having been with the grand opera company at Nice for two years and for a number of years in concert and oratorio work in England, his last appearance here was in "Alice in Wonderland," some two years ago, in which he scored a success. Those who had the good fortune to hear him in the production of the Manhattan will well remember the artistic finish which characterizes this artist's work. Playing in the title and leading female role will be found Edna Hart, with two such voices the musical part is an assured success.

"The Balkan Princess" is one of the most humorous pieces ever offered here, a delightful vein of comedy running through the whole play, furnished by a Jew salesman and his daughter-in-law—the persons of Bob Webb and Peggy Lewis.

Reserved seats are now on sale and from present indications show number eight should play to crowded houses.

CAPITOL TO PRESENT "THE THREE MUSKETEERS"

Thousands of tourists visit the picture studios in Los Angeles each year. In fact, watching the movie move in their native habitat is the great outdoor sport with tourists when they kick the dust of the effete East off their brogans in the "Sunny Southland."

But no tourist considers his tour of studios complete without a visit to the Douglas Fairbanks or Mary Pickford film factory. And under ordinary circumstances it is as difficult for a tourist to get into either of these studios as it is to wear kilties in the Arctic. However, during the filming of "The Three Musketeers," which will be the feature attraction next week at the Capitol Theatre, Douglas Fairbanks lifted the ban and received all comers in the visiting class.

They came from all corners of the earth. Some were fat, others lean; some were tall, others short. Regardless of stature, however, all were curious. Which was right, of course, and as it should be.

In order that he might have a record of the callers he received and shook hands with, Doug installed a register at the reception gate where all visitors could sign their names and addresses.

Upon the completion of "The Three Musketeers" the records showed that five thousand persons had registered. Countries other than the United States that were represented were: England, Sweden, Spain, France, India, Egypt, Czechoslovakia, Australia, Japan, China, Canada, Cuba, the Hawaiian Islands, Argentina and Brazil. In addition to foreign countries, about a third of the cities and towns of this country sent at least one visitor. During the Elks' Convention, in Los Angeles, 3,200 persons were named to the studio, among them the highest officers in that organization. Two hundred and thirteen of the total number of visitors were newspaper correspondents. On one occasion three classes from a high school were among those present.

Fairbanks estimates that he delivered ten thousand handshakes in seventeen weeks, which reduced down, is nearly sixty handshakes a day. This Doug believes, establishes a new world's record.

MARCEL DUPPE RECITAL SATURDAY AT METROPOLITAN

Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, the first cities to be visited by the organist-composer of Notre-Dame Cathedral, Paris, in his first visit to Canada, reflect European and American opinion in their exaltation of the art of Marcel Duppe. His senior colleagues in Paris extol his playing in superlatives. That sanely conservative organist and composer of Paris, Vieme, whose compositions have appeared on local programmes at recitals and elsewhere, applies what seem to those who have yet to come under the spell of Duppe's playing, rhapsodic terms. "This was the greatest artistic feat accomplished by a virtuoso since the king of instruments was first played. By this exploit the young man at once proved himself to be the finest organist of his time." Vieme's reference was to Duppe's playing by special permission of the French Government, a series of Bach programmes at the Paris Conservatory. These embraced the entire organ work of Bach, some two hundred in number, and were given on the organ of the cathedral without hesitation or error. "Marcel Duppe stands in the first rank of the young and brilliant group formed by Widor and Guilmant, those two great chiefs of the French school of organists," testifies Vieme, modestly excluding his own name. "In addition to Marcel Duppe's consummate execution of the great masters he has his original and unique imagination, a freshness of conception and a richness of expression combined with an entire modern sense. He has realized the supreme type of the perfect organist such as the great men of the past dreamed of."

M. Duppe will play once in Victoria at the Metropolitan Church on Saturday next, November 18.

CHINESE PLAY AT VARIETY THEATRE

"The Butterfly Cup" is the name of an interesting production staged by a full company of Chinese stars, just recently arrived from the Orient, at the Variety Theatre this week.

The play was presented to a full house last night, and will be repeated this evening, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

Everything about the play is Oriental, scenery, theme, music and language, and as the production is sought to present as in the Orient, a section of the theatre has been set aside for those who care to witness the play. The costumes are of the highest order, and the scenery and setting is very pretty.

Local Chinese residents are delighted that they should have an opportunity of witnessing one of their star companies in the theatrical productions here. It was last July when they enjoyed a treat of this nature, and on that occasion the charming little Chinese girl, Kwang Ting Lin, was the leading lady. She has been on the coast since and is again taking part in the present production but not as the leading lady because the new arrivals brought their leading lady with them. Young Chow Moy, the leading lady in "The Butterfly Cup," has had very wide experience in Chinese theatricals and she and her company will prove big drawing cards for the Variety this week.

The performance begins at 7 o'clock and lasts till midnight. They are twenty-five people in the company, and they act their parts in a very capable and natural manner.

Fat That Shows Soon Disappears

Prominent fat that comes and stays where it is not needed is a burden, a hindrance to activity, a curb upon pleasure. You can take off the fat where it shows by taking after each meal and at bedtime, one Lamona Prescription Tablet. These little tablets are as effective and harmless as the famous prescription from which they take their name. Buy and try a case to-day. All druggists the world over sell them at one dollar for a case or you can order them direct from the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. You can't buy any good-bye to dieting, exercise and fat. (Adv.)

GENERAL DEPRESSION IN WALL STREET

(By Burdick Bros., Ltd.)

New York, Nov. 14.—From the opening bell until the close prices throughout the list were very reactionary. Long stocks were dumped on the market in some instances, and the break gained momentum as the session went along. Closing figures were practically the lows for the day, and no attempt was noticeable on the part of shorts to cover.

TO-DAY'S TRADING IN WINNIPEG MARKETS

Winnipeg, Nov. 14.—Firm cables and buying by exporters resulted in an active wheat market here to-day and at the high point for the season. The November contract had gained 1/4 from Monday's close with December relatively as strong. Exporters were in the market for cash wheat, November delivery and for the first ten days of December. A premium of six or seven cents is being quoted for wheat in spot position for the first ten days of December, being practically equal to the November price.

BOVRIL SENDS YOU A WIRELESS

THE very fragrance of Bovril arising from the cup sends a message which excites your appetite. And as soon as the savoury taste reaches your palate Bovril calls forth the digestive juices which make you enjoy your food and give you power to assimilate it.

That is why Bovril—whether taken as soup before meals or used in the cooking—makes your food so much more nourishing. Indeed the body-building powers of Bovril have been proved to be 10 to 20 times the amount of Bovril taken.

"DIRTY MILK STILL SOLD IN VICTORIA. COUNCIL IS WARNED"

Aldermen to Get Statistics in Preparation For Prosecutions

Dirty milk is still being sold in Victoria, Alderman E. S. Woodward warned the City Council last night after he had examined a report filed by City Health Officer Dr. A. R. Price.

"I find here records of five samples of dirty milk and one fairly clean," said Alderman Woodward. "For that reason I think we should again call the attention of the medical health officer to the necessity of taking legal proceedings."

Alderman Woodward referred to the case of J. Culling, whose milk, he said, had been reported as being dirty.

He said that this man had been before the police magistrate before for selling dirty milk. He seemed to be "Dutch by nationality and dirty by habit," said Alderman Woodward.

"This is a very serious matter," Alderman Woodward asserted. "The whole question should be very thoroughly gone into. I have raised the question month after month. If a few of these people were brought before the magistrate it might be the end of the sale of dirty milk."

"Alderman Woodward must live on milk," Alderman Gillespie remarked. He suggested that the Health Officer compile figures showing the dairies that sold dirty milk continually so that prosecutions could be started. He said that tests of milk were often a matter of luck.

The Council decided to ask Dr. Price to prepare further statistics which could form the basis of possible legal proceedings against sellers of dirty milk.

DOES NOT MARRY WIFE'S RELATIONS, MR. BOWSER SAYS

Wants Husbands Protected From Forced Support of Indigent Mothers-in-Law

Manson Bill to Make Children Aid in Keep of Parents in Distress Gets Support

With Mr. Bowser protesting against daughters being included, Attorney-General Manson's bill to provide for the maintenance of parents by their children went through the committee stage of the second reading unchanged in the Legislature late yesterday.

Mr. Bowser declared that it would be most unfair to include daughters as well as sons under the bill as a daughter might be pretty well married and her husband have a good percentage of this world's goods and it would be unfair for her to be haled into court because of her husband's financial straits.

"There is no precedent that when a man marries he marries all his wife's relatives," Mr. Bowser said. "We have heard a great deal about mothers-in-law, but now the Attorney-General brings in legislation which means that we must look after our mothers-in-law."

Mr. Bowser declared that this law would give a police officer who had a spite against a girl to bring her into court and if she were a poor girl working in a store and not able to meet the levy, have her committed to jail.

"We can well leave it to the natural affection of sons and daughters to see that their parents are not suffering," he added.

Attorney-General Manson explained that the bill says the magistrate may compel a daughter out of her own means to contribute to the upkeep of her parents, but cannot force her to draw on her husband's earnings.

"This bill arises out of the necessity once in a while of making ungrateful children do what they should do," Mr. Manson said. "It has been found in Ontario that as a result of placing this statute on the books, that a number of children who had been ungrateful and hard-hearted immediately agreed to do their duty."

He referred to what he termed a particularly disgraceful case in B.C. where two sons, who can well afford to have not been taking care of their mother who is 81 years of age. He also explained that under the bill nothing interferes with the first claim of the wife and children, and the mother and father coming next.

Mr. Manson also said that legislation similar in whole or in part has been passed by Manitoba, Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Alberta and Quebec.

Mr. Bowser moved that the application to daughters be cut from the bill.

This was defeated after Mr. Manson pointed out that women to-day are practically on a parity with men and that they are more on a parity now as regards property in wills. He declared that the women to whom this act would apply would be few in number, as "woman's chief characteristic is regard and love for parents."

ATTACKS SPONSORS OF CASE AGAINST COUNCIL MEMBERS

Todd Urges City Pay Expenses of Mayor and Aldermen For Law Suit

"Lunacy," Woodward Calls Editorial on Case; Defer New Spending Plan

People who were responsible for the recent legal proceedings against Mayor William Marchant and members of the civic finance committee in connection with the payment of $100 to Police Commissioner W. E. Stansland were bitterly assailed by Alderman E. S. Woodward at the City Council meeting last night. Alderman Todd said that if such people would direct their energies in useful channels instead of causing trouble the city would be much better for their work.

"I have served on this Council for many years and on the finance committee on many occasions and I understand its work," said Alderman Todd. "As a heavy taxpayer I have always looked upon the committee as a very valuable safeguard to the finances of the city and to the taxpayers' pockets. During my years on the Council, including the present year, I have had the utmost confidence in the integrity of the committee. As a member of the Council and a citizen I regret strongly the incidents that have happened during the last few weeks in connection with finance committee matters."

Misapply Their Energies

"It is very much to be regretted that some of our citizens so often misapply their energies. If they would be equally industrious in advancing the city and supporting the men whom they elected and who are giving their time so generously to the city's purposes—and the same thing applies to provincial affairs—the city situation and the provincial situation would be much better than they are to-day."

"To move a vote of confidence in the finance committee would be almost an insult. But so far as I am concerned, every dollar that those four gentlemen have spent as a result of the persecution they have suffered will be paid by the taxpayers of Victoria. I hope that a bill covering their expenses will be passed by the Council and that we have power to pay it."

"The public looks upon the finance committee as a safeguard," Alderman Patrick agreed. "While the committee was smarting under a just grievance Alderman Patrick said the Council should take plenty of time to consider the proposal that the present system, whereby the committee approves all expenditures, should be scrapped. The proposal was too important to be rushed through, he said."

Most Regrettable

Alderman E. S. Woodward, chairman of the finance committee, produced a clipping of an editorial which, he said, had appeared in The Colonist recently. "This is most regrettable—I might use a stronger word," he said. The editorial said the finance committee had committed an "error of judgment" in connection with the Stansland grant and yet, Alderman Woodward declared, the finance committee had never passed on the grant at all. The editorial said that the punishment "suffered by the committee had been sufficient."

"Punishment for failure to pass judgment on something we had no opportunity to pass judgment on? This sort of talk is pure lunacy."

"I appreciate Alderman Todd's remarks and concur therein," was the Mayor's only comment on the recent proceedings against him.

The Council deferred action on a by-law which would remove from the finance committee the duty of approving each individual expenditure, provided it is within the scope of the annual estimate and is approved by the proper officer.

ISLAND MINERAL SURVEY BY C.P.R. TO BE COMPLETED IN 1923, BEATTY TELLS SLOAN

Survey by the Canadian Pacific Railway of the mineral resources in the railway belt of Vancouver Island, preparatory to the development of these resources, will be completed during 1923, according to assurances from the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, informed the Legislature.

This survey, which was started about two years ago, was the result of action taken by Mr. Sloan to get the preliminary work done so that development would not be further delayed.

Under the original grant to the railway company, gold and silver were reserved to the crown, but the base metals, such as copper, lead and zinc and also coal and non-metallic commercial substances went to the railway. This means that prospectors working the area had to deal with both the Government and the railway company.

When Mr. Sloan took action two years ago, he pointed out that this dust control was impeding the development of the area and took steps to eliminate it in favor of complete provincial control. To reach a basis on which intelligent negotiations could be conducted for relinquishing these rights by the railway company, the company agreed to make a survey to see just what it had.

When the matter came before the Legislature yesterday as a result of inquiries made by Kenneth Duncan, independent member for Cowichan, Mr. Sloan said that it was discussed by him with President E. W. Beatty, of the Canadian Pacific Railway during his recent visit to Victoria.

"Assurances were received by me that satisfactory progress is being made in the preliminary mineral survey of the E. & N. land grant, President Beatty stating that this survey may be expected to be completed during 1923," Mr. Sloan said. "Negotiations between the Province and the company, having in view the elimination of now existing dual control of minerals within this land grant, then will be resumed."

ORIENTAL LAND CONTROL HERE WORST PROBLEM, DUNCAN TELLS HOUSE

The most serious aspect of the Oriental question as it faces British Columbia to-day is that which has to do with the fact that the areas of land the Chinese and Japanese control are increasing from year to year, Kenneth Duncan, independent member for Duncan told the Legislature yesterday.

"The farmers are asking that something be done to restrict that," Mr. Duncan said.

He pointed out that in this respect the Bowser amendment to the original Sloan motion calling for complete prohibition of Asiatic immigration was what was more nearly required as it covers the land-owning problem which the Sloan resolution does not. Mr. Duncan, objected, however, to the clause in the Bowser amendment proposing that the Dominion Government be asked to make any treaty or arrangement with any Asiatic power should submit it to the Legislature of British Columbia for approval. He said that it could not be hoped that the Dominion Government before passing any measure like this for the whole of Canada would consent to submit it to any one Province. He said that he would vote for the Bowser amendment aimed against land holding by Orientals if that particular section were eliminated, as he declared that it would only be asking "something impossible of the Dominion Government."

"I cannot conceive of that Government agreeing to any proposition that would restrict its action by having to refer it to any Province," Mr. Duncan said.

Attorney-General Manson adjourned the debate.

NAPIER LIQUOR BOARD INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL? ISSUE PUT BEFORE HOUSE

Whether or not Col. Ross Napier, who conducted private investigations for the Government into the operations of certain liquor stores, should be called before the public accounts committee, came up in the Legislature as a result of the Private Bills Committee turning down the request of Mr. Bowser for the secret information.

J. A. Buckham, chairman, asked the House for instructions and Attorney-General Manson, read a statement, in effect that the work done by Col. Napier was of a confidential nature and his reports were certainly not public property. This practice was followed by all governments, he explained, and it would be unwise to have some of the information given out.

R. H. Pooley, Conservative opposition member of the committee, submitted a resolution asking that Col. Napier be summoned to appear. Speaker Pauline said it would be necessary for the member's motion to be placed on the order paper for the customary two days.

Mr. Bowser maintained that the Premier was thus holding up and "barking" the work of the committee. There was no reason why the committee should not have the fullest assistance, but if the Premier cared to take the responsibility let him do so.

"I don't need any advice from my honorable friend regarding my duty, and when I do need advice I will go to the source where I can get it," replied the Government leader with some heat. He said the committee had lots of other witnesses to call and it was not necessary to have Col. Napier appear for a few days.

Mr. Bowser explained that he was anxious to have Col. Napier give information regarding liquor stores from the Main and Pender Street stores in Vancouver.

SEEK BRIGHT MINDS TO HELP UNRAVEL P.G.E. PROBLEMS

Government Increasing Board of Directors From Three to Five

Mr. Bowser Suggests H. G. Perry of Prince George For Place on Directorate

To have the advantage of increased advice, the board of directors of the P. G. E. is being increased from three to five, the Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Railways, told the Legislature yesterday when the bill providing for the increase came up for second reading.

"There might be some man of influence or large business ability in this country who will accept a position on this board," Dr. MacLean said. "To have such a matter as the P. G. E. handed by three men is a very great responsibility."

Mr. Bowser declared that so far he was disappointed in the new minister of railways as he was still in the fog as regards questions of policy.

"The ex-minister of railways always had the courage of his convictions and knew what he was going to do even if he had to muddle through," Mr. Bowser said referring to the Premier. "Now we have a new minister who can't make up his mind on anything. My own idea is that the Premier has not left the board and does not propose to let the caucus kick him off. This may be the back-door method of getting my honorable friend back on the board."

Mr. Bowser said that perhaps the suggestion of the Legislature might be that H. G. Perry, member for Port George, should be on the board.

Mr. Perry: I should think so.

Mr. Bowser: We would like to get back to where we were before, where there was a finality about the P. G. E. board, where it was a one-man board, when the Premier was the whole board and the whole P. G. E. Railway, subject to the Northern Construction Co. That is one thing I want to give him credit for: The ex-Attorney-General and the Minister of Finance took very little interest
