Funds for Red Cross

The money box of Carmel's Red Cross chapter is well replenished as the result of Saturday's masque ball, given by the Manzanita Club. The organization spared no expense to insure everyone in attendance an enjoyable time.

With the exception of the masks worn, the affair was more in the nature of a fancy dress event than of a representation of characters. Mrs. H. M. Bremner, as a Spanish cigarette-seller, was awarded the lady's prize, and "Bob" Leidig and "Scotty" Graham, as a bear and his master, took the gentleman's prizes. The prizes were in the form of Thrift Stamps.

The committee in charge is indebted to Mrs. E. K. de Sabla for able assistance.

Results of Our Municipal Election

Mrs. E. K. de Sabla, present incumbent, received the highest vote—161—for City Trustee; next came Willim T. Kibbler, with 144; incumbent D. W. W. Johnson and Courtland J. Arne each polled 112 votes for third place.

With 131 votes, to 72 for J. E. Nichols, Mrs. Grace P. Wickham was elected City Clerk, and L. S. Slevin, without opposition, succeeds himself.

The law provides that the Board of Trustees call a special election to decide a tie, and this will probably be done shortly.

Carry On! The Monterey County Board of Supervisors have purchased $50,000 of the Third Liberty Loan bonds.

Mrs. A. V. Cotton, who has been in southern California for some time, plans to return to Carmel this month.

Phil Wilson Jr. is another Carmel boy in the military service of Uncle Sam. He has joined the Coast Artillery and is located near Galveston, Texas.

Fred Search came down from Mare Island to visit his folks, and to be among those present at the masque ball.

The first Third Liberty Loan bond sold in Carmel was purchased at the Pine Cone office on Saturday.

Joseph Hitchcock Sr. will leave shortly for Dos Palos, Merced county, where he will be employed by the Miller & Lux corporation.

Walter Hass, well-known S. F. candy man, with his wife and child, came to Carmel for a brief stay last Saturday.

Miss Kate M. Miles, who has resided here for a number of years, will shortly leave for Cleveland, Ohio, there to make her home. Her large circle of friends here will miss her.

"Fighting Starvation in Belgium" is the title of Professor Vernon Kellogg's book just issued by Doubleday, Page.

The local school trustees, remembering that they were once kids themselves, declared a holiday last Tuesday, to allow the children to attend the circus.

Mrs. P. C. Stohr and her daughter, artists, former Carmel sojourners, are again here for a visit. They occupy the Parkes-Vincent cottage.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

All Americans Can Serve

Every man, woman and child in this country, who wants to serve the country, can serve it and serve it in a very simple and effective way, says Secretary McAdoo.

That service is to lend your money to the government. Every 25 cents loaned to the government is a help at this time and practically every man, woman and child, by making some trifling sacrifice, some denial of a pleasure, or giving up some indulgence, can render the government that support.

Help for Belgian Babies

Saturday's local flower sale to raise funds for the Belgian babies was a great success. Headquarters for supplies were established at the Pine Cone office, and from 1 till 6 o'clock the little lassies fairly "button-holed" everyone in town. The receipts were over $50. Miss Cora A. Burns, in charge of the affair, was ably assisted by a number of ladies.

Liberty Loan Rally at Manzanita Theatre Tomorrow Evening

Musical Notes

The coming of Micha Elman to San Francisco for two concerts on the 14th and 21st of this month, calls attention to the arrival in this country of Leopold Auer, tutor of "wonder children," musical geniuses — Elman, Zimbalist, Jascha Heifetz, and to one of our "melting pot" wonders of New York's East Side, the little Rumanian Jew, Max Rosen. Auer has offered to give lessons to Karl Kristiansen, Miss Francesca Bendeke's pupil, if he is allowed to enter America, our ports having been closed two days after Auer sailed from Norway.

It was this same Karl who played for Jacques Thibaud, and following upon this, Thibaud advised Miss Bendeke to write up her methods, which resulted in the lady's sojourn in Carmel, for that particular purpose.

Cesar Cui, belonging to the early school of Russian composers, has died within the month. His father was a French officer who was left in Moscow following the retreat of Napoleon. To many of us Carmelites he is known by Elman's or Zimbalist's records of the "Orientale," or possibly we have heard Frederick Preston Search play it as an encore. To the younger Carmel music students the name Cui is indissolubly linked with Mother Carrington's studio.

"A Night Off"

Graciously and patriotically the Arts and Crafts Club, which had selected the night of April 12 for the production of Augustin Daly's comedy "A Night Off," gave way for the Liberty Loan Rally. Friday evening, April 19, at the Marzanita Theatre, is now the time and place for the show. Artists Morgan and Vachell have about completed the new scenery which is to be used.

$1.50 pays for the Pine Cone for a year. Send it to a relative or a friend who is interested in Carmel and its doings.

What Our Library is Doing

The following report for March is made by Mrs. Sydney Yard, Librarian:

Books entered, 12—by purchase 5, by gift 7.

Total number of volumes in the Library, 3747.

New card holders added, 14.

Circulation—Fiction, 560; non-fiction, 85; Juvenile, 152; magazines, 126; total 923.

Our Money

The March report of County Auditor A. G. Winckler and Treasurer James Taylor shows the following amounts on hand: Sunset school bonds, $682.49; Carmelo road fund, $—; Sanitary expense, $1189.53; Sanitary bond, $2241.73.

What Does "War Time" Mean To You

Are you complaining because "war time" means coal shortage; less sugar in your coffee; bad business; less money than you think you ought to make?

What about the boys who are fighting for you in France?

For you—a little economy and deprivation. For them the trenches; the pitiless storms of rain and sleet; the ceaseless deafening bombardment of the guns; hunger, cold and fever; wounds and death.

That you may dwell in peace, plenty, and security, they sacrifice everything, give everything, brave everything, and face a nameless grave with a smile and a song.

What are you doing, or giving, or sacrificing for them?

The Third Liberty Loan

is your opportunity to prove the patriotism that is in your heart and on your lips.

Your opportunity to show yourself worthy of the heroism, the devotion, the self-renunciation of your soldiers and sailors.

Your opportunity to share, in some small degree, the sufferings of those who stand ready to make the supreme sacrifice for you.

All you can do is little enough. You simply lend your money. Do it, and be glad that you can do so much and sorry you can do no more.

WEEKLY GREETING

It is not enough that we are truthful; we must cherish and carry out high purposes to be truthful about.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS

Let the City Trustees at least do something about putting Ocean Avenue in shape.

Tim Reardon, President of the Board of Public Works of San Francisco, has nothing on Tom Reardon, Recorder of Carmel-by-the-Sea. By the way, Tom held Court in the barber shop the other day.

Prof. V. L. Kellogg's book tells, among other things, how ten million Belgians were fed at the rate of eight cents per day a person.

No man has a right to seek election to the Legislature this year without declaring himself on the Federal Amendment for Prohibition. Ten State Legislatures have already ratified. What will California do? What will Monterey County do? Speak up, Mr. Martin.

Garrick's Temple Is To Be a Dramatic Club

Garrick's villa at Hampton, England, which is to be converted into a dramatic club after the war, is a house with a history.

It was purchased in 1745 by David Garrick, who commissioned Robert Adam, the architect, to design a new front and enlarge the front. Garrick occupied the villa until his death in 1779. After that his widow continued to reside there. When she died, in 1822, the villa passed into other hands.

Among its more recent occupants has been Sir Clifton Robinson.

During Garrick's lifetime the villa was famous for its social parties and entertainments. Most of the great authors, actors and artists of the period met, at some time or other, within its walls. Doctor Johnson was enchanted with the house, and once said to Garrick:

"Ah, David, it is the leaving of such places that makes a deathbed so terrible."

Within the grounds, and only a few feet from the river frontage, is the small rotunda still known as "Garrick's Temple." It was erected by the great actor as a memorial to Shakespeare, and a statue of Shakespeare, by Roubillac, was placed within it. Some years ago the statue was removed to the hall of the British Museum.—Ex.

Edward B. Dunham Missing Property Transactions

Edward Boyd Dunham of Berkeley, Western manager of the Pacific Cotton Mills of New York, with offices in the Postal Telegraph Building, San Francisco, disappeared after taking the ten o'clock train at Monterey on Wednesday morning, March 27th.

It is presumed that he went through to San Francisco, arriving there at four o'clock, thence taking the ferry to Sausalito, wher he posted a letter to his wife.

Mr. Dunham was on a ranch in Monterey county, slowly recovering from a nervous breakdown which he suffered last August. It is feared that he may have been stricken with amnesia, and that he may be wandering about somewhere in California, or that he may possibly have taken the train for Portland or Salt Lake City.

Mr. Dunham is middle aged, short of stature, weighing about 140 pounds; is bald and slightly grey at the temples and smooth shaven. He has brown eyes. He wore a dark blue suit, black shoes, green fedora hat and a grey overcoat.

Mrs. Dunham has asked the aid of the police in finding her husband.

Anyone having information as to his whereabouts please notify the Carmel Pine Cone, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif.
