we delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to bispheme. CHAPTER 2.1 Lexhort therefore, that, first of all, susplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; 2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all glodiness and honesty. 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; 4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ, Jesus, 6 Who gave himself a nascon for all, to be testified in due time. 7 Whereunto 1 am ordained a preaches, and an opacity of the come of the com
