Re:Alleged Violations of Election
Law in Ehime Prefecture.

Home Ministry,
August 7, 1947.

A report of investigations into the above is as follows:

1. Shigetada Miyada:

That he made door-to-door visits throughout Toyooka, Nakayamacho, Iyo-gun, during the last ten days of April, and, presenting 'sake' to the voters, bought them off, is not true, and there is no rumour to that effect, either.

2. Ryoei Senba:

That he gave ¥50 to ¥200 to each voter to buy off his vote and spent more than ¥20,000 is not true, and there is no rumour to that effect, either.

3. Umeyoshi Hamada:

That he is a purgee is true, but that he was active in the recent election for the village assembly is not true. In addition, Asajiro Ikeda was a member of Yokusankai-Kyoryokukai of Onsen-gun, but this fact does not affect his qualifications as a candidate, because members of Kyoryoku-kai do not fall under purge directive. However, as no mention was made of the fact in his questionnaire, investigation is now being made as to whether he omitted it intentionally or not.

There is nothing available to prove the alleged fact that Shigetada Miyada made door-to-door visits with Yoshie Kamemoto and distributed 'sake' among voters to buy them off, and there is no rumour to that effect, either. He is not a purgee.

4. There is nothing available to prove the alleged fact that Shigetada Miyada and Fukumatsu Matsumoto received ¥50,000 from Mozaemon Morihira as his canvassers and spent it for buying off votes in Tobe-machi, Hirotamura and Haramachimura. They never visited those places during the election season.
5. Tadaichi Goda is now an official of the city office of Niihama. He was director of the Adults Imperial Assistant Association of Shingomura, Niihama, from March, 1943, to April, 1944, and vice-chief of the same from April, 1944, to the end of the war, but it is not true that he and some associates wrote in blood "Down with the English and Americans". He is now a member of the district Welfare Commissioner, but as he does not come under purge directive, his appointment is considered to be all right.

LOCAL GOVT. DIV.

9 June 1947

SUBJECT: Alleged Violations of Election Laws in Ehime Prefecture

TO : J. C. L. O.

1. Tadashi Miyada, Member of the Town Assembly, Mommae, Nakayama-cho, Iyo-gun.

Alleged that he committed election violations be making door-to-door visits throughout Toyooka district of Nakayama-cho, during the last ten days of April. He distributed 'sake' among the voters and demanded their votes. He was a Yokusan Giin (Assembly member elected on the Imperial Rule Assistance Association ticket) and reportedly very militaristic in his activities.

2. Ryoei Semba, Member of the Town Assembly, Nonaka, Nakayama, Iyo-gun.

Alleged that he distributed through his several canvassers, Y50 to Y200 to each voter to buy off his vote. The sum of money is believed to be Y20,000 in all.

3. Umeyoshi Hamada, living at Oura, Higashinakajima-mura, a purgee, was active in village assembly member election in favor of Asajiro Ikeda. Ikeda held an important pole in the village in connection with Yokusan-Kai, and fearing lest he should be affected by the fact he intentionally omitted the fact in his questionnaire, thus succeeding in getting a seat in the village assembly.

4. Shigetada Miyata, Nakayama-cho Assembly Member

In the last election, together with Yoshie Kamemoto, he is alleged to have distributed a bottle of crude 'sake' to every house in order to buy off votes. During the war he is reported to have been a local leader of the Yokusan Kai.

5. Allegations submitted regarding an election in Nakayama-Cho. Shigetada Miyata and Fukumatsu Matsumoto are said to have received Y500,000 from Mozaemon Morihira, candidate for ken assembly and to have spent it for buying-off votes in Hirota-Mura, Tobe and Haramachi. Members of the Youth Association ~~x~~ were entertained with 'sake'. In Nakayama-cho canvassers could not go wherever they liked. Almost at every entrance to a Buraku, a strong youth stood at guard lest any canvassers of undesirable candidates should enter the village.

6. Tadaichi Goda, reportedly poll supervisor in Niihama City.

Alleged to have been a chairman of the Adults Imperial Assistant Association during the war; on about January 1946 it is reported he and some associates wrote in blood "down with the English and Americans." It is believed that he concealed his work in the Association when applying as poll supervisor. Presently he is a village member of the District Welfare Commissioner (Minsei-Iin); a public position in which writ of appointment is issued by the Welfare Department.

NAME: _____

RANK: _____

ORGANIZATION: _____

Tokyo, 12 May 1947.

To: His Excellency,
Field-Marshall MacArthur,
Supreme Commander of the Allied Occupation Forces.

STATEMENT

Your Excellency,

I respectfully beg to state that we Japanese nationals all alike have been deeply moved by the consideration of Your Excellency being taken in fostering and stabilizing democracy in Japan.

Now, allow me to point out to Your Excellency, in the following, the irrational case which happened in the recent election for Members of Parliament in my electoral district, and this I sincerely wish you to have corrected, as it should be:

The alleged case involves:

Mr. Matsujiro Yamamoto,
Daza Futatsumura, Gokasho-mura, Shimoniikawa-gun,
Toyama Prefecture
Candidate for M.P. officially recognized by Social Democratic Party in the 1st Electoral District of Toyama Prefecture
(but failed to be returned to the House)
who was formerly Head of Gokasho Villege and who was formerly Chief of Gokasho Villege Branch of the Association for supporting Imperial Rule.

The above named, according to the register of Chiefs of Towns and Villeges, available for inspection at the Toyama Prefectural Government Office, should have resigned from his post as Chief of Gokasho Villege as of 5 March 1941, while he should have retained the position of Gokashomura Branch of the Association for supporting the Imperial Rule from 24 December 1940 to 5 March 1941, according to the record mentioning the names of Chiefs of various public associations, also available for inspection at the same office. Notwithstanding this, in his application for screening of eligibility was stated the date of his resignation from office as Chief of Gokasho Villege as of 10 December 1940. Further, by making out his personal history falsely that as long as he remained in office as Chief of Gokasho Villege Branch of the Association for supporting Imperial Rule, he did not act as Chief of Gokasho Villege, he came to get a certificate for eligibility. No doubt this constituted the action of "giving a false information" in regard to the most important item that was necessary for judging eligibility. His application for screening of eligibility he made out, on being aware of the fact that giving a false information leads to a penal servitude or imprisonment for a period of less than 3 years and at the same time disqualifies himself to stand a candidate for M.P. and on pledging that his statement was correct.

While Mr. Akira Yamamoto, Chief of the Investigation Section of the Home Affairs Department of the Toyama Prefectural Government Office, was aware of the said facts at the very moment the said Yamamoto's application for screening of eligibility was sent in, and while he declared definitely that he would report it to the Central Commission for Screening Eligibility for Personnel for Public Services, he utterly neglected to take any timely processings. It was only on 7 May or after the election was over, that he was judged to be "disqualified". As it was, and further his villege bordering the town in which I live, I got the votes in my constituency greatly encroached upon by him as a consequence. This incident had not only upset, to my embarrassment, my calculation of votes - expected to get 16,000 votes altogether - , but brought about a grave influence on the election in the 1st Electoral District of Toyama Prefecture as a whole.

Such an election as this in which Mr. Matsujiro Yamamoto who was rejected as disqualified, joined as a candidate, shall be denounced as void, as a matter of course, and I firmly believe that as far as the 1st Electoral District of Toyama Prefecture is concerned, re-election for M.P. should be carried out on that score.

By putting before you the matter, as it stands, I should appreciate it very much if you would kindly give your due instructions to the right quarter on it.

Yours sincerely,

Tokutaro Shimizu.

Tokutaro Shimizu
Candidate officially recognized by
Democratic Party in last election,
410 Tomari, Tomari-machi,
Shimoniikawa-gun, Toyama-ken

Election Returns Indicate Victory For Conservatives

Former Envoys To U.S. Elected On Independent Ticket In Sunday Voting

By ANDREW HEADLAND
Staff Writer

On the basis of preliminary returns, Conservative Party representatives won an overwhelming victory in Japan's first free Upper House election which was held on Sunday.

Socialists put up a strong showing, but Communists so far have failed to win a single seat. Of 111 persons known to be definitely elected, 14 were Independents; 14 Democrats; 12 Liberals; 12 Socialists; three Cooperatives, and five, minor parties.

In a report of those probably elected, Asahi, leading Tokyo newspaper, credited Independents with 41 seats; Liberals, 28; Socialists, 27; Democrats, 22; and Cooperatives, six. Minor parties were also alloted six.

Two Women Elected

Two women, one the wife of Rikizo Hirano, formerly a top Social Democrat leader, and presently a Lower House candidate, were elected.

Three ex-diplomats, including two former ambassadors to the United States, were among Independent Party candidates elected, indicating, according to Asahi, that well-known personalities hold a decided edge in competing for the 250 councillor seats.

These three former diplomats are Tsuneo Matsudaira and Katsuji Debuchi, both one-time ambassadors to the United States; and Naotake Sato, former ambassador to Russia.

Speculations appearing in the Japanese press are to the effect that since Matsudaira, Sato, and Debuchi are all Independents, there is a possibility of one becoming Japan's next foreign minister. Under the new constitution, the foreign minister is chosen from among Diet representatives. Further, each of the three men has been proposed as a possible political party president.

See New Foreign Minister

Liberal circles have mentioned Matsudaira as a possible successor to Prime Minister Yoshida for party president, while both Cooperatives and Democrats are known
