THE PEDLAR'S SONG.

WILL you buy any tape,
Or lace for your cape,
My dainty duck, my dear-a ;
Any silk, any 'thread,
Any toys for your head,
Of the newest and finest wear-a ?
Come to the Pedlar,
Money's a medlar,
That doth utter all men's ware-a.

Little Woman.

THERE was a little Woman,
As I have heard tell,

VII.

Going to Market.

She went to market,

Her eggs for to sell:

Handwritten text, likely a title or description, located below the illustration. The text is extremely faint and illegible.

Market.

She went to market,
All on a market-day,

Napping.

And she fell asleep
On the King's highway.

Job

Job was a man of integrity and piety.

XIV.

Pedlar.

By came a Pedlar,
His name it was Stout,
And he cut her petticoats
All round about :

Sly-boots.

He cut her petticoats
Up to her knees,
Which made the little Woman
Begin for to freeze.

Goodness mercy on me,
Sure this is none of I!

Little Dog.

If I be I,
As I do hope I be,
I have a little dog at home,
And he knows me.
