MUSSOLINI SAYS ITALIAN NATION MUST BE READY FOR WAR

Rome, April 2.—The age-old adage "In time of peace prepare for war," was the gist of a speech delivered in the Senate yesterday by Premier Mussolini in the course of discussion of the question of the reorganization of the Italian army.

Mussolini expressed the belief that there were more to come and he asked the senators if they really thought the Great War which drenched Europe in blood for four years was the last one. The response was "No."

"I note that you all seem to be of the same opinion," continued the Premier. "For all wars may be explained historically, yet the why of war, which has followed human society since its origin, has never been explained and apparently must be put into the domain of unexplained matters."

"We must prepare in time, the present time, and for that purpose increase to the limit of human possibility that which I call the warlike efficiency of the nation.

"That efficiency comes through the combination of all forces. Historic and actual warlike efficiency depends upon co-ordinating military, economic, moral and industrial efficiency. It depends upon the harmonious co-ordination of the efficiency of the army with the efficiency of the navy and the efficiency of the air service."

"This warlike preparedness of each of these three branches of arms depends upon the harmonic co-ordination and employment of three fundamentals—officers, soldiers, machines." Successful passage of the army bill appeared threatened by strong criticisms from Italy's most prominent military leaders, and the senate vote on the measure was postponed on the request of Premier Mussolini. A revived measure, he promised, would be presented later. The Premier had already decided not to make the vote a question of confidence. He went on to say that national defence must be studied from a technical, not a political viewpoint. Therefore, as this measure threatened to become a political measure, the Government preferred to postpone action for the present.

MANITOBA PIONEERS HONORED BY M.P.P.'S

Winnipeg, April 2.—The members of the Legislature of Manitoba suspended the rules yesterday to participate in an event which it is believed sets a precedent in parliamentary history—a tribute to a pioneer.

Shortly after the House had assembled for the afternoon session a white-haired, stockily-built man entered the Chamber and falteringly walked to the Distinguished Visitors' Gallery, to the right of the Speaker.

QUESTIONS ABOUT VANCOUVER HARBOR

Ottawa, April 2.—Questions about the purchase by the Vancouver Harbor Commission of a piece of waterfront in Vancouver, adjoining the No. 1 Harbor Board elevator, were asked in the House yesterday afternoon by George Black, Conservative, Yukon.

He was informed the Commission had bought for $225,000 the property comprising 115,000 square feet above high-water and 74,912 below high-water mark. It had never been offered to the Commission for $275,000. Half the property above high-water mark had been eventually leased to R. H. Gale, acting for the Terminal Grain Company, at a rental of $2,560 for the first year. Then

FREER TRADE REDUCING ADVERSE BALANCE

WE ARE NOW BEING told that the King Government is tolerating and encouraging Canada to build up the large export trade balance of the United States and that it is being done at the expense of Canadian industry.

In the year 1920 Canada imported from the United States goods to the value of $801,097,318 and exported to that country goods to the value of $464,028,183.

In the following year, the ratio was $856,176,820 in imports to $542,322,967 of exports. In 1921 the figures were $515,058,196 for imports and $292,588,643 for exports.

THE MARK'S EXIT ON TWO OR THREE occasions during the last twelve months The Times has warned the people of this city against buying German marks in the hope that one day they would be comparatively valuable and net their owners considerable profit.

It was good advice; but it is no secret that the bait contained in circulars which have smothered the country from time to time looked very dainty and appetizing to quite a number of people who may now turn in their marks and get a modest "two-bits" for every 1,000,000,000,000 they own.

When a contemporary thus reminds us that during the last ten years Canada has bought goods from the United States to a value largely in excess of the value of Canadian goods sold to that country it ignores the fact that the adverse balance was piled up under the high tariff policies of the Borden-Meighen Government and that the improvement actually began in earnest—and is still continuing—under the policies of the present Administration.

As the cost of the implements of production used in the development of the basic resources of the country are reduced, so that the newcomer can be given a more ready opportunity to wrest the wealth from the land, the forest, the mine, and the sea, the dependence of Canada for much that she still buys from other countries—and particularly from her southern neighbor—will be proportionately reduced.

MUSSOLINI RATTLES THE SWORD AGAIN

IT WOULD BE SURPRISING if Premier Mussolini did not expect another war. He represents a system which depends upon force and when he asked the Italian Chamber of Deputies yesterday whether its members expected the war which came to an end in 1918 to be the last, it was a foregone conclusion that they would answer in the negative.

Mussolini is not alone in his repetition of the wicked old formula—"wouldst thou have peace, prepare for war." In one or two other European countries that cry has by no means lost all its appeal. But few people who respond to it stop to think that preparation for war is much more than the piling up of munitions, or guns, or aircraft, or chemicals for the manufacture of poison gas.

tics, pointed out recently, it is also "the training of large numbers of human beings in the use of these agencies of destruction," and the inevitable result is the creation of living machines, "with minds and impulses of their own, all tending towards the day when they shall go into action."

Here is the obvious proof that to prepare for war is to insure war—not peace. Even if the German Emperor had not wanted war at the end of July, 1914, it is highly probable that no force could have held in check the machine which he and his helpers had made mighty and powerful.

Mussolini is making his contribution to the thought of war in his own country. He is using the spoken word to encourage it. His actions and the decrees of the Government over which he presides assist him to recreate popularity for the use of force. Happily, for Italy especially, there is still enough Liberal sentiment to discredit his espousal of the old and vicious formula.

It is a good advice; but it is no secret that the bait contained in circulars which have smothered the country from time to time looked very dainty and appetizing to quite a number of people who may now turn in their marks and get a modest "two-bits" for every 1,000,000,000,000 they own.

THE MONEY LENDER

THOSE GENTLEMEN who are just itching to lend you money and become your friend for life do not use the mails of Canada anything like as much as they do in Great Britain.

For we are not pans and barrels nor even posters of the fire and torch bearers," says Emerson "but torches of the fire, made of it." If whoever created this world can be compared to the sun or to a ball of fire, we are sparks from Him.

Fire has two purposes in the world. It destroys and it also creates. While it burns down houses and cities and property of one kind and another, it is also under every boiler and creates heat for our houses, power for our railroads and electric lights. It is the source of most everything we make.

DR. FRANK CRANE

ON Children of the Fire

FOR we are not pans and barrels nor even posters of the fire and torch bearers," says Emerson "but torches of the fire, made of it." If whoever created this world can be compared to the sun or to a ball of fire, we are sparks from Him.

Fire has two purposes in the world. It destroys and it also creates. While it burns down houses and cities and property of one kind and another, it is also under every boiler and creates heat for our houses, power for our railroads and electric lights. It is the source of most everything we make.

In fact man's distinction is that he is a fire making animal. The legend that Prometheus brought fire from the gods and gave it to man illustrates that man's greatest possession is fire. No beast can make it. By virtue of it man frights and rules the beastly world. Whoever discovered fire discovered the greatest instrumentality to human progress.

The reason why we believe in a kindly God and not in a cruel fate, as the ancients did, nor in gods who make sport of their subjects, is that we ourselves are part of the fire. We can control matter. We can control animals. For man was given dominion over every other living thing.

In man is the creative force. He does as he pleases and knows that he can do what he pleases. This spark in man is greater than anything else in the universe. As you stand on the bank of the river in winter, you see great ice-floes coming down like continents. Slowly they slide by as this revolving globe flows through space.

One spark in one of these ice-floes is like Chicago, which contains two and a half million people. Any one of these people is more important than the whole continent. It is said that a man is really worth only $18.00; that is, the margin in his life can be sold for only $18.00. Yet man is greater than continents, because continents move impotently and cannot change their course one hair's breadth, while man has a spark of the divine fire, or the will.

The Chinese have a proverb: "A great army can be robbed of its leader, but one poor man cannot be robbed of his free will. Which is as much as to say that a man can alter his own destiny, while a continent cannot." In all this universe there is nothing so wonderful as ourselves. We are children of the fire.

We make institutions and think they are greater than men, but other men come along and unmake them. We crystallize the white passions of men into states and nations, but the red passions of men after a while dissolve them. Nothing is so great as the humanities.

Words of Wise Men It is far easier to know men than to know man. There is merit without elevation, but there is no elevation without merit.

MURILLO (Bartolome Estaban) Noted Spanish painter, mainly of religious subjects, died at Seville on April 3, 1862. His death was the result of a fall from a scaffold, while painting in the church of the Capuchins.

HEALTHY DISEASE Vaccination Article 2 The influence of efficient vaccination in preventing smallpox is exactly defined in the following statement:—"The evidence of the power of vaccination on smallpox is probably as great as, if not greater than, can be advanced in support of any proposition outside the domain of the exact sciences. Indeed, when all the variabilities of the human body, which is the subject of protection and the possible variations in the power and activity of the protective agency, are taken into account, the proof of the value of vaccination, both in volume and completeness is very remarkable."

Bank of Montreal Branches WILL BE AMALGAMATED SOON Large Addition to Commodious Premises Provides for Accommodation for Three Downtown Branches; Concentration to Supply Best Possible Service at Least Cost.

The Government Street branch of the Bank of Montreal will be transferred, at the end of the present month, to the new and commodious banking premises at the corner of Douglas and Yates Streets where accommodation for the bank's three downtown branches has been provided by the erection of a large addition, completed a year ago.

The original building was designed by E. M. Rattenbury, of Victoria, and the same design has been carried out in the addition. Newcastle Island stone, steel and reinforced concrete are the materials used and the building is fireproof throughout. The banking room is attractive and well lighted and ventilated; convenient and modern in every respect.

By concentration it is hoped that the best possible banking service can be supplied at the least cost to the public. A similar policy is being employed elsewhere. In Vancouver the combined businesses of the Bank of Montreal, Bank of British North America, Merchants Bank and Montreal Bank will shortly be accommodated in the splendid new quarters being constructed on Granville Street.

E. W. McMullen, manager of the Douglas Street branch, will continue in charge in Victoria.

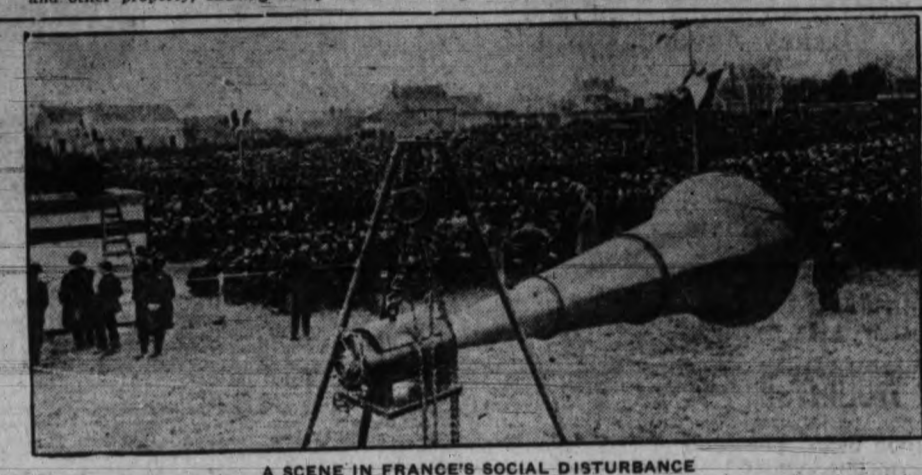

TO SEARCH LAUNCH

Vancouver, April 3.—Fearing a man sleeping aboard was trapped in a launch which foundered in False Creek last night, Harbor Board officials are standing by the sunken craft until the tide falls sufficiently to make a search of the launch. The launch was moored alongside the Vulcan Iron Works on Industrial Island, and it is thought she was moored too tightly and that as the tide rose she heeled over and filled.

The contingent of Tel El Mahuta Temple No. 155, D.O.K.K., which left here on Tuesday last to pay a visit to Port Angeles, Wash., arrived back and reported that they had visited the Olympic Club, which is an adjunct to this temple, and that there will be a class of Tyros for the coming ceremonial which will be held in Victoria in May next. The reception arrangements by the lodge and the Port Angeles Club were highly commended. The members of this club together with the assistance of the Victoria contingent staged a grand street parade of a spectacular appearance with a comic band all members from the Victoria Temple taking over the Temple regalia and costumes for the occasion. The affair ended with a good concert by local talent and dancing up to the early hours of the morning. Refreshments were served during the evening. During the afternoon the visiting brothers were entertained to a sixty mile auto drive to the lakes, making a call at Singer's Resort on Lake Crescent.

WEATHER FORECASTS
NEED REPORTS FROM DISTANT CONTINENTS

Washington, April 3.—Two additional observation stations, located probably in America and Asia, and accurate recording of the sun's changes of radiation over a period of years will be necessary. In the opinion of Dr. C. G. Abbot, assistant secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and director of its astrophysical observatory, to determine the exact extent of which weather depends upon solar changes.

The sun's heat, Dr. Abbot believes, governs the earth's temperature and rainfall, and a change in it must modify these. The astrophysical observatory began with the problem in 1902, commencing to observe solar radiation in Washington, but the impure atmosphere here necessitated its removal. The institution now maintains observing stations at Mount Harquá Hills, in Arizona, which has been continuously occupied since October, 1920, and on Mount Montezuma, nearly 10,000 feet high and about twelve miles from Phoenix, in the alkali desert of Chile.

IN CLOUDLESS REGIONS
Two additional first-rate stations are desirable, Dr. Abbot believes, at well separated points in cloudless regions, where winter observations might be more favorable. Due to lack of funds at the present time, the Smithsonian Institution is unable to undertake this programme. Before selecting sites for the proposed new solar observing stations, Dr. Abbot thinks $5,000 would be needed to make a preliminary survey. For each new station it would require from $10,000 to $15,000 for original installation, and from $2,000 to $12,000 annually for continuous operation, depending on location.

DAILY REPORTS
During the past year the institution has received reports from Arizona and Chile stations each day a report of solar observations of the day preceding. These have been made the basis of forecasts of the temperature of New York City for several days in advance. Mathematical methods, Dr. Abbot said, show that these forecasts "indicate some degree of real prevision, based on the solar observations, even to five days in advance." A continuation of this work is intended.

TRADERS OF PACIFIC WILL WALK BUSINESS AT SEATTLE IN JUNE

Twelfth National Foreign Trade Convention of U.S. to Be Held Then

New York, April 3.—United States business bonds with the Orient, where United States foreign trade has increased by 400 per cent since 1912, will be further strengthened this year by the coming of delegations from the foreign nations bordering on the Pacific to the Twelfth National Foreign Trade Convention, which is to be held in Seattle, Washington, June 15 and 16, according to an announcement given out by the National Foreign Trade Council. Founded in 1914, the council is now to hold the first of its yearly conventions in the Pacific Northwest. The theme will be "Foreign Trade Essential to Prosperity."

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
As a practical means of extending and improving the foreign trade of the United States, which exceeded $2,000,000,000 in 1924, the forthcoming convention will embrace all markets where this business may be increased. Export managers, sales managers, exporters and importers, foreign department executives of banks, credit managers and educators will hold group sessions within the convention, and both foreign delegates and United States delegates in active business abroad will take special charge of a series of group conferences devoted to better selling methods, credit and financing, shipping and advertising.

PERIOD OF GROWTH
The convention this year will meet in the centre of the most rapidly growing foreign-trade district, the Seattle customs district, of which Seattle is the chief port, has increased its foreign trade exports of the last four years from $175,000,000 to $425,000,000. The Puget Sound region is growing in population at five times the pace of the United States as a whole. Already Seattle ranks second to New York in the number of passengers entering the United States, through airport cities, more than seventy per cent of the raw silk entering the United States and eighty per cent of all transpacific mail move through the city, while the corresponding production in other commodities of foreign trade give the Washington customs district first rank in total value of imports and exports of the United States customs districts on the Pacific Coast.

TO TOUR CITIES
Delegates to the convention, including the representatives of the 14 Pacific countries, China, Japan, India, Straits Settlements, Dutch East Indies and the Philippines, will be invited to view the site of this growth at first hand and to take part in the tour to other cities of the Pacific Northwest, particularly Portland, Tacoma, and Spokane, as guests of the local Chambers of Commerce.

CHURCH UNION BILL
TERMS ARE OPPOSED

Presbyterian Anti-Unionists in Ontario Dissatisfied With Measure Before Legislature

Toronto, April 3.—Anti-Unionists, it is reported are very much dissatisfied with the Church Union Bill as accepted by the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature of Ontario, and are suggesting legal action, carried perhaps to the Privy Council in London, to secure more favorable terms than the proposed bill calls for. A meeting has been called for by all the non-concurring Presbyterians to discuss probable procedure.

Three Towns Ready To Enter New Loop in Eastern Hockey

Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa Will Put Teams in New Organization

Ottawa After Joliat and Boucher of Canadiens; New York to Enter Club

Montreal, April 2.—The Gazette in its sporting columns to-day says: "Definite applications for franchises in the proposed new professional international hockey league were received by the promoters of the venture yesterday from Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa interests, according to Eddie Livingston, moving spirit behind the new project. Livingston stated that the Montreal application was signed by Nelsy Lalonde, who proposes to operate a team in Montreal, composed largely of French-Canadian players. Lalonde claims to have proper financial backing. The Ottawa application, states the Toronto promoter, came from an association which he claims has obtained the franchises at Day's Arena. The Ottawa promoter planned to install an artificial ice plant.

"Livingstone further adds that the Ottawa is after Aurel Joliat and Billy Boucher of the Canadiens, and are confident of getting them for their team next season.

"Regarding the statement of T. J. Duggan, president of the New York Club, that New York would be the National Hockey League, Livingston stated that the new loop would have a team in the United States metropolis whether Duggan comes in or not. In Toronto, arrangements have been completed for an artificial ice plant, which will be installed in a remodelled building with a capacity of 16,000."

MAINLAND SCHOOL TEAM CANNOT COME DOWNS TO SMALLPOX

Owing to the smallpox epidemic in Vancouver, the King Edward High School basketball team will not come over to play Victoria for the B.C. High School basketball championship, and all games scheduled for Saturday evening at the Victoria High School gymnasium have been cancelled.

The mainland team is willing to make the trip, but the local health officer has placed a ban on all teams from Vancouver. This means that the handsome Thompson Cup, symbol of the B.C. High School basketball title, will remain in Vancouver for at least another year.

The local team has been practicing hard for the past few months and is terribly disappointed over the news. The boys felt sure they could have given Vancouver a good run for the championship.

It may be too much to hope for, but I know we all wish that Victoria had a championship team or not I trust that the people of Victoria will be very glad to see that he has done in the latter part of this season. The Patricks have done a great deal for us here, and sometimes I do not think we appreciate it.

It's all over now. The last words of commendation have been paid by a grateful city, the hockey patients are once again normal in pulse, breath and temperature and the gallant band of Cougars which brought the world's championship to Victoria is breaking up and heading for the scenes of Summer activities. Last night the Victory Banquet was held at the Chamber of Commerce and proved an outstanding success. It was one of the most delightful affairs of its kind ever held in the city and demonstrated how much the city appreciated the efforts of Lester Patrick and his charges.

A. E. Humphries, who acted as chairman of the citizens' committee, and his wife, presided at the banquet, and in his remarks paid eloquent tribute to the success of the Victoria Hockey Club under the skillful leadership of Lester Patrick.

Efforts Being Made to Bring Them Together in Real Championship Bout

Lewis Offers to Put up Diamond Belt; Munn Wants to Wrestle in Kansas

Chicago, April 2.—Billy Sandow, manager of Ed (Strangler) Lewis, the former world's heavyweight wrestling champion, last night signed with Floyd Fitzsimmons, owner of the boxing arena at Michigan City, Ind., to meet Wayne (Big) Munn, heavyweight titleholder, in a match to a finish for a purse of $50,000.

The contest, if Munn accepts, will be staged in the sky-blue open air arenas on the afternoon of May 30, Decoration Day.

Fitzsimmons said he hoped to sign Gabe Kauffman, manager of Ed (Strangler) Lewis, as his opponent in the match, but he would sign articles as quickly as he could to get Lewis back to Chicago to meet Munn.

The Michigan City promoter posted $30,000 in cash with a Chicago bank yesterday to post an additional $20,000 the first week in May and the remaining $20,000 twenty-four hours before the men go into the ring.

In addition to the $60,000 guarantee, Fitzsimmons' proposal stipulates that the wrestlers shall have sixty per cent of the receipts, with the balance divided in accordance with any agreement reached by the wrestlers. Fitzsimmons believes that Munn, as champion, will receive the prize money, but will divide the purse in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

WILL TURN OVER BELT

Sandow accepted Fitzsimmons' terms in a telegram from Kansas City. He assured Fitzsimmons that he would sign articles as quickly as he could to get Lewis back to Chicago to meet Munn.

Bays Will Battle United Services For Island Title

Final Rugby Game of Season Will be Staged at Willows Oval To-morrow

Both Clubs at Full Strength; Services Have Improved; Decision Expected

Another winter sport will end to-morrow afternoon when the curtain will be dropped on rugby. The U.L.A. and the United Services will meet in the final game of the season at the Willows oval to decide the senior rugby championship of Vancouver Island. The Cowichan Trophy, at present held by the Bays, will be presented to the winner. The kickoff will be at 3 o'clock.

Last Saturday at Duncan these teams played to a scoreless draw, but it is expected that a decision will be reached to-morrow. Both fifteen are anxious to wind up the season and hang up their rugby togs for the year.

The Bays do not propose to take any chances to-morrow. They will field their strongest side which defeated the Vancouver Rowing Club in the final of the B.C. championship. The Bays were guilty of over-confidence last Saturday and did not take the U.S. team as seriously as they might have. The Services are playing better rugby now than at any time during the season and will be expected to put on top form to-day.

Big CROWD EXPECTED

It is expected that a big crowd will be on hand to see the teams play. The Bays hope to keep the trophy by a narrow margin while the U.S. say they have a nice place in which to house it for a year.

Gordon Campbell will be in charge of the game.

The teams will be: United Services: Holmes, Putman, Freeman, Russell, Grant, Ewell, Hart, Steele, Donald, Bennett, Wood, and Godfrey, Wingert and Parka. J.B.A.A.: Boss' Johnson; Bendrodt, Willis, W. Brynjolfsson and Johns; Coakley and Lock; McMillan, Miller, J. Johnson, Watson, Smith, Porteous, "Cotton" Brynjolfsson and Mawhood.

ATTITUDE OF EAST AND WEST TO WOMAN IS THEME OF PICTURE

The strange contrast between Occidental and Oriental regard of women is brought into high relief in First National's latest picture, "The Man Desires," showing at the Capitol Theatre.

Occidental chivalry demands that the woman must be protected at all costs. But in the Orient, where many scenes of the picture's scenes are laid, the honor of a man is of more worth than the love of a woman.

"Satin-Glo" Week

A Special Offer Saturday

Satin-Glo is never sold at less than the regular retail price except at such times as this when reduced for a special purpose and for a limited period. Try SATIN-GLO again under this easy offer.

YOUR OWN EXPERIENCE WITH SATIN-GLO WILL MAKE YOU TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OFFER

Most folks have used Satin-Glo and know it's good and have been waiting for this offer. If you haven't used it, read its many uses and colors, and easy application.

BRING THE COUPONS attached to the Satin-Glo Circular sent to you recently and buy your Satin-Glo—less the face value of your coupon. It washes with soap and water.

Satin-Glo is like liquid satin. It brushes on easily and does not show the brush marks, like flat wall paint or kalsomine, and it dries overnight.

- Ivory, cream, deep cream, light tan, brown, French grey, salmon pink, turquoise blue, green and white.

Satin-Glo is the proper coating for new woodwork in new houses, because it gives the much-desired finish and color and sanitation without complicated directions.

Satin-Glo needs no undercoating, simply one can and one brush. Any amateur can do a perfect piece of work on any surface.

Satin-Glo can be mixed with Bapeo floor varnish to form a permanent, hard-drying gloss enamel of the shade desired that is much easier to brush on than ordinary enamel.

DR. KING TELLS COMMONS OF B.C.'S PROGRESS

Minister of Public Works Scores Conservatives For Their Gloomy Talk

T. G. McBride, Cariboo, Advocates Naval Defence For Ports of Province

Ottawa, April 3.—The lowering of the tariff on machinery used in the lumbering industry had undoubtedly been of great benefit to British Columbia, said Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, last evening, in addressing the Commons during the budget debate.

IMPROVEMENT OBSERVED

He dealt with a number of industries which had shown marked improvement in recent years. He wished to dispel the picture of gloom drawn by some of the Conservative members as to conditions in British Columbia. The province from which he came was making excellent progress.

Dr. King was satisfied that in so far as British Columbia was concerned, with its liberal endowment of basic industries, the Government's tariff policy was sound.

The Prime Minister had been charged with not saying the same things in Eastern Canada that he had said in the West. Such charges were not true. Probably no Prime Minister had ever been better received in Western Canada than Premier King on his last tour.

Dr. King believed the country as a whole was satisfied the Government should continue its work.

PUBLIC WORKS

Dr. King said the speech just delivered by Hon. R. J. Manion, Conservative, Fort William, was "a real campaign speech." Dr. Manion had intimated there was extravagance in connection with the public works, why not be fair? To-day the department was administering and carrying on the public works of the country at half the appropriation voted in 1914.

COMMISSIONS WORK

Dr. Manion had offered criticism of two of the commissions appointed by the Government—the Grain Commission and the Pulpwood Commission. The Grain Commission had been established, said Dr. King, in response to numerous demands from the prairies and allegations that the circumstances connected with the marketing of Canadian grain required investigation. The Government hoped that out of the report of that commission would come legislation which would cure some of the things complained of. Similarly, the report of the Pulpwood Commission also might prove valuable.

He defended the action of the Government in sending three of the party whips to Wembley at an expenditure of $4,500.

Dr. King said Dr. Manion had been a supporter of the mistakes of both Liberal and Conservative governments. "Therefore, he has a double disability in that respect."

Dr. King said the Conservatives had gold-bricked the people of Canada in 1911, but, having been once bitten, the people would now be twice shy.

REFINING OF METALS

He charged that during their administration Conservatives had not made one effort to further industries for the refining of metals, while under the bounty policy of the Liberal Government Canada was now competing in the world's markets.

T. G. MCBRIDE SPOKE

T. G. McBride, Progressive, Cariboo, congratulated the Government on bringing down a budget which was "far more acceptable than the House had reason to expect."

There had been talk in Canada that this Government was drifting toward annexation. No one except "the skimmed milk type of politicians" would make such statements. The United States was being pointed to as an ideal country. Dr. Manion had said it was a splendid example and had held up Britain and Canada as examples of distress. The late Samuel Gompers, labor leader in the United States, had stated last November there were 2,000,000 unemployed in that country. Mr. McBride gave instances of the prosperity which Vancouver was enjoying. He said 2,000 homes had been built in Greater Vancouver in 1924. It had been one of the greatest years in the history of the city.

JAPANESE QUESTION

Speaking of the Japanese problem, Mr. McBride asked why Canada should allow young Orientals to be educated at the expense of taxpayers.

TURBINE FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.—This turbine casting, seventeen feet high, weighing seventy tons, is to become part of the gigantic power plant at Wilson Dam, Muscle Shoals. From the foundry at Wheeling, W. Va., to its destination the route was carefully calculated and tunnels measured to avoid those that were too small.

ers. The Government should definitely stop them. If the Japanese had any self-respect they would not force themselves into this country. There were enough white people here to run the country as it was, he said, and when the Lord made the yellow and white races, he put the Pacific Ocean between them.

Mr. McBride advocated naval defence for Pacific ports. Even to remain neutral, naval defence would be necessary.

PEACE RIVER PROBLEM

As one step toward a solution of the Peace River transportation problem, Mr. McBride suggested that the Government should complete the line from Spirit River to Pouce Coupe, a distance of fifty-four miles over which grading was complete, and then extend it another ten miles into the Peace River Block, connecting that line up with the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway, and providing an outlet to the seaboard. The Peace River country might then be left for a while to show what its possibilities were before further construction.

Mr. McBride said he had seen granaries in the Peace River district to which extensions had been built yearly, and which contained as much as three years' crops. Men grew grain there because they liked it, and stored it, awaiting transportation facilities. They went to the coast to earn a little money to carry on with during the winter.

COST OF GOODS

Whether the tariff was high or low in Canada the Government should see to it that Canadian manufacturers sold their goods as cheaply as similar goods could be purchased in the United States. In any case, farmers got no benefit under protection.

If the tariff was to be kept up, a higher tariff should be placed on eggs coming into Canada, Mr. McBride thought.

Mr. McBride condemned the practice of giving assisted passages to immigrants who were unsuited to farm work. He had seen cases in British Columbia of young men being brought over and left to wander back to the cities, seeking jobs because they could not earn a living.

RAILROAD RATES

The problem of railway rates could be partly solved, Mr. McBride said, by raising freight rates ten per cent on both Canadian railways, and then taxing receipts from this source nine per cent.

Roch Lanctot, Liberal, La Prairie, Naperville, Que., advocated selling the ships of the Government Merchant Marine if a buyer could be found.

A. J. Doucet, Conservative, Kent, N.B., was speaking when the House rose.

A STORY WITHOUT WORDS

Books

This "younger generation" that we hear so much about seems to have been eternal.

Take, for instance, the story of Jonah.

To the average person Jonah suggests nothing more than a whale. But Robert Nathan, a most adroit and original young writer, has written a tale of purest fantasy, humor, and gentle irony entitled "Jonah" (McBride) in which we find symbols for the flapper, the dreamer, the mercenary and other well-known persons of the present time.

Thus we find Jonah setting forth as prophet, only to run into arguments now to be heard between fundamentalists and modernists. Here he might be any young man in any generation espousing a "cause" and quite intolerant to any viewpoint. But he meets Judith and once she has snuggled under his arm he is ready to forsake prophesy and make his way in the world. But Ahab, her uncle, sells her to the rich Hiram of Tory and Jonah comes to curse God. Here there takes place a heavenly discourse in which Moses contends that Jonah "seems to lack character" and while a gentle and forgiving God agrees, he adds: "Yet he expects something from Me. For of appalling knowingness who talk and act with utmost frankness. And there is Louis Dodd, the young composer, who has no patience with respectability and who finds himself married to Florence Churchill, brought up in circumspect and sheltered English society. Dodd is thrown into a smug English musical and social set that he abhors.

He and Florence are drifting apart when Theresa Sanger, the constant nymph, comes to live with them. Theresa is a vivid and amazing character, perfectly drawn, who combines the innocent child with sophistication and gypsy abandon. Tragedy inevitably comes—and of course it strikes the pathetically worldly child, Theresa.

It is, to the person interested in writing, a fine bit of work. To the person interested in morals it will be "another of those things."

"The Smith boy who used to work for you wants me to give him a job. Is he steady?"

"Well, if he was any staidler he'd be motionless."

HARTFORD'S GREATEST THRILL—Crowds jam the streets of this conservative old city as the closed car (indicated by arrow) bearing Gerald Chapman, master desperado and $2,000,000 train robber drives from the courthouse.

of "vulgar" will be heard in the land. Miss Kennedy introduces us to one Albert Sanger, musical genius, with a family of children quite pagan and of appalling knowingness who talk and act with utmost frankness. And there is Louis Dodd, the young composer, who has no patience with respectability and who finds himself married to Florence Churchill, brought up in circumspect and sheltered English society. Dodd is thrown into a smug English musical and social set that he abhors.

PANTORIUM CLEANERS ERECT NEW BUILDING

Five New Quarters Have Been Built at Corner of Fort and Quadra Streets

Fifteen years ago the Pantorium Dye Works established a business on Fort Street. Later they moved to 251 Cook Street, where they were located for a short time. Owing to their increasing business they found it necessary to move to larger quarters at 350 Cook Street which location they have occupied for the past six years. In this building was established the most modern equipment possible to obtain at that time, which helped with their untiring efforts to serve the citizens of Victoria, with the finest quality of work known to the dry cleaning industry.

During these years business kept on increasing until their present location was not large enough to accommodate its immediate needs. So the management decided to build on the corner of Fort and Quadra Streets. Luney Brothers, the well-known contractors who have the building completed in another week. The structure is a magnificent one story building and nothing has been overlooked in the plan, to make it one of the finest buildings of its kind, in the Northwest.

In equipping the building, the owners have not spared expense to secure the latest machinery used in the dry cleaning business.

The first Valeria Service in British Columbia will be placed in this new building. This system of pressing has long been in use by the largest clothing manufacturers of America but only recently has it been introduced to the dry cleaning business. This service consists of six machines, one knit for every part of a suit or garment and is a much improved method over the old way pressed by a collar press, the shoulder by a shoulder press and the curves of the chest and waist by a front forming press. The trousers are shaped on a trouser press which means when a garment is pressed by the Valeria Method it is shaped the way it was manufactured.

Among the dry-cleaning machines is included the continuous classification system. This is a wonderful advancement on the old system and assures that the naptha used in the

STRIKE SETTLEMENT NOVA SCOTIA'S NEED

William Duff, M.P., Explains
His View of Coal Mine
Dispute

Ottawa, April 2.—"I made absolutely no criticism in the course of my speech in the House of Commons of the splendid work being done by the estimable clergy of Nova Scotia or of the other admirable citizens of my province in regard to relief activities among the striking miners and their families in the Cape Breton coal areas," declared William Duff, M.P. for Lunenburg, N.S., in commenting on press dispatches from Halifax.

"The clergy of my province deserve the highest credit for their efforts. I simply criticized uncollected outside interference such as had been aired in the House the previous day by Miss Agnes MacPhail, member for Southeast Grey. At no time have I ever suggested criticism of any member of any religion or of any other citizen of Nova Scotia for going to the assistance of these miners."

"What I said and what I intended to say was that it was a Nova Scotia matter first and that under the Nova Scotia law, the municipalities have full power to assist in the relief work, and that by making such an assessment the British Empire Steel Corporation would have to pay about seventy per cent. of the total amount required."

"This is too large a question for us to solve our conscience by subscribing simply to support accounts to help the distressed people in Cape Breton. What the Nova Scotia Federal members have been trying to do, and I am sure, the provincial administration is also trying, is to get this strike settled at the earliest possible moment so the miners can get back to work and support their families. I am sure that the people of Nova Scotia, including the miners, back this stand."

INQUIRY SUGGESTED

In the Commons yesterday afternoon Hon. R. J. Manion, Conservative, Port William, criticized Mr. Duff for criticizing Miss MacPhail's statements in his speech on Wednesday. It was "a rather severe attack and did not do justice to himself or to Miss MacPhail," said Dr. Manion.

"Carried," interjected Mr. Duff. Dr. Manion suggested that it might be wise for the Government to make a thorough investigation with a view to assistance, particularly as aid had been given readily to Japan and other places in times of disaster.

Halifax, April 2.—Dealing with William Duff's statement in the House of Commons that the people of Nova Scotia resented outside help for the Cape Breton miners' dependents and that conditions were not serious.

R. H. Murray, K.C., of Halifax, who recently investigated in the mining districts of Nova Scotia, in a statement, said:

"There is no other place to which the needy miners can reluctantly turn than to the good hearted people of Canada. No shop can give the assistance as those merchants are on the verge of bankruptcy."

G. M. Daley, secretary of the Halifax Unemployed Miners Relief Committee, in a statement, said in part:

"The Halifax Relief Committee, composed of representative citizens, after the fullest and most careful investigation, is in a position to state that but for the relief rendered by the citizens of Ottawa—and other parts of Canada and the United States—great numbers of helpless men, women and children in Cape Breton would have died of starvation during the last three weeks."

Aerial Forest Patrols Increased; More B.C. Fisheries Protection Work

Ottawa, April 2.—Surveys covering approximately 80,000 square miles will be undertaken by the Royal Canadian Air Force this year in conjunction with the topographical survey branch of the Department of the Interior. As well as photography work for survey purposes, the force will do considerable work in the photographing of Canadian historical sites.

The forest patrol areas for the detection of forest fires have been extended this year. This season's work, the most extensive ever undertaken by the air force, will be carried on in all the provinces except Prince Edward Island.

A new feature will be a survey going down the Nelson River to Port Nelson along the Hudson Bay coast and up the Churchill.

PARK PHOTOGRAPHS

In Alberta, Jasper Park and the Brazeau Forest Reserve will be photographed, and the Victoria, Port Assiniboine and Red Deer sectional surveys will be included. An area near Stewart, B.C., will be taken.

The forest patrols will be spread largely over Northern Manitoba this year, while further west patrols will cover the eastern slope of the Rockies and the whole of the Clearwater fisheries.

The fisheries protection work along the Northern British Columbia coast will be extended this season.

The survey work, it is understood, will commence late this month.

Relief Measures For Eskimo Tribes

Ottawa, April 2.—The Minister of the Interior in sending Commissioner Mackenzie of the Yukon staff to make a personal investigation into conditions of distress among the Eskimos and Indians in the Far North.

While unconfirmed stories of cannibalism among them are thought to have little foundation, there is no doubt many are suffering, because, since the introduction of firearms the destruction of wild life has been very extensive, and also because the Eskimos will not leave the shore to hunt in the woods.

Commissioner Mackenzie will investigate the situation in the whole territory and supplement an inquiry by another officer, who spent the winter there. He will investigate conflicting stories as to the extent of the distress and advise as to which of several suggested relief measures is desirable.

"It is the noblest mood that takes least hold on anger; those faint hearts that hold least fire are faint to show it first."

CHEQUES NOT HELD TO UPSET TAX PLAN

R. W. Breadner Testifies Before Commons Committee About Income Tax

Ottawa, April 2.—R. W. Breadner, Commissioner of Taxation, denied before the Public Accounts Committee of the House yesterday that cheques had ever been held by the Department of Finance to permit citizens to escape income tax duty.

The committee, in its inquiry into the methods in which the business profits and income tax, especially in the case of large companies, have been assessed and collected, had received a number of allegations submitted by W. C. Good, Progressive, Brant, Ontario.

Cheques, Mr. Breadner said, had not been held for any other reason than to ascertain the correct assessment. Nor had there ever been any reduction in assessment to give an unfair advantage to any taxpayer.

$7,000,000 OUTSTANDING

Questioned further as to whether there were any "unreasonable" irregularities as between the taxpayers and the department, Mr. Breadner said there were none. Of the $24,000,000 assessed in income taxes, only $7,000,000 were outstanding. Of the $17,000,000 business profits tax assessed, all but $2,000,000 had been collected.

A further question by H. B. Hanson, York-Sunbury, as to whether there had been any usual transactions in the case of a mining company, Mr. Breadner said, "Emphatically, no."

The committee spent more than an hour discussing the propriety of Mr. Good beginning his cross-examination of Mr. Breadner without giving the committee some specific charge to investigate. Mr. Good declined to make any charge. When the committee adjourned until after Easter, it had adopted a motion that Mr. Good should "reduce to writing" the basis and purport of his cross-examination before the inquiry would be proceeded with.

THE ALLEGATIONS

Mr. Good submitted the following allegations:

2. In another firm, assessments were decreased by some $14,000.

3. No interest was charged on unpaid cheques for four years.

4. A notice of assessment was held from July 17 until December 27.

5. On the recommendation of a certain gentleman, the assessment of a Western firm was reduced from $26,000 to $20,000.

6. The assessment of another Western firm was reduced from $63,000 to $4,000.

PROTESTS VOICED

Mr. Good in submitting his allegations, pointed out that he made no charges that they were true. He was submitting information received. This brought protests from both Liberal and Conservative members of the committee.

Chairman Hance, Logan said he surely must not advance any kind of allegation which might be the wild rumor, without having any evidence and later held that it would be unfair to the officials of the Finance Department to stop the inquiry at its present stage. Mr. Good, the chairman added, had made rather serious charges in his allegations.

SECRECY CLAUSE

Asked about the secrecy clause in the Tax Act, Mr. Breadner said he believed there would be less accuracy and honesty on the part of citizens making declaration of their income and business profits if the secrecy clause were removed. He did

"There's a strange goin' on here, Mr. Innes," he said, shaking his head. "Somethin' goin' to happen, sure. You ain't got notice that the big clock in the hall is stopped, I reckon?"

TIMES CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

On the words used here! Take twenty-two vertical and twenty-seven horizontal, for instance. To help you solve them, I may say that the letter at which these cross is K, and the first letter of each is S. That ought to help.

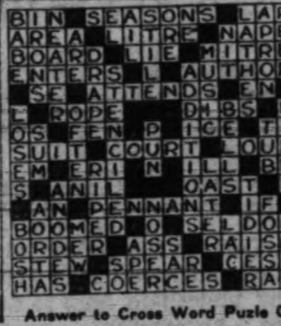

Cross-word Puzzle 0218

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Every number in this form represents the beginning of a word, reading either horizontally or vertically. If there is a black square to the left of the number, the word is horizontal; if above it, the word is vertical. The same number may occur in both a horizontal and a vertical position. The definitions for the correct words to fill the form are found below, with numbers corresponding to those on the form. Run through the definitions till you find one that you recognize, and fill it in its proper place on the form, one letter for each white square. This will furnish several cross-clues to the words lacking with it at right angles. Continue in this manner till the form is completely filled. If you have solved the puzzle correctly, it should read both horizontally and vertically, with words corresponding to the definitions. The correct solution of to-day's puzzle will be printed in the next issue of The Times.

Answer to Cross Word Puzzle 0217

BEDTIME STORY Uncle Wiggily's Hole

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. By HOWARD R. GARIS

Once upon a time, when Sammie and Susie Littlehale, the rabbit boy and girl, were playing with Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, in the woods, the animal children saw an old stump, with a number of holes in different places on the rough bark.

Tommy Kat printed his name over the stump hole.

"Oh, what a nice old stump!" cried Susie. "It's like the postoffice, with little holes for windows, where you can put different kinds of stamps," said her brother.

"One, two, three, four, five holes!" counted Johnnie, the squirrel. "That's one apiece and one left over," added his brother Billie. "Let's each choose a hole for ourselves and

"Now, let's go and tell Uncle Wiggily about our hole," suggested Susie, when they had finished playing for the day. "Oh, Uncle Wiggily, we found a lovely hole in a stump for you!" chattered Billie, when the four animal children called on the bunny gentleman in his bushytail. "What? When you want to give us lollypops or gum drops you can leave them in your hole in the stump and we'll get them off for you," said Sammie. "Will you? That's fine!" laughed the bunny uncle. And he really did put good things to eat in the stump hole, from time to time. So the animal boys and girls got the habit of calling it "Uncle Wiggily's Hole."

For many days Uncle Wiggily left little treats in his hole for the animal children. They would reach their paws down inside the hole whenever they passed the stump, and nearly always they would pull out a bit of candy, an apple or perhaps a penny. One day the Fussy Fox happened to pass the Jolly old stump. He saw the openings in it and read the sign "Uncle Wiggily's Hole."

"Oh, ho!" said the Fox to himself. "The old rabbit is trying to fool me. That's why I haven't seen him lately. He's living in this hole instead of his bungalow. But I'll soon have him out."

Then, thinking Uncle Wiggily was down inside the hole marked with his name, the Fox reached his paw in crying: "Come on out! I've got you!" But of course Uncle Wiggily wasn't there, so the Fox didn't get him. "He must be away down at the bottom of the hole," said the bad chap to himself. "But I'll get him!"

Standing on his tiptoes, the Fox reached down as far as he could—away, away down, until his paw was stuck inside the stump so far that he couldn't pull it out again—it was caught fast at the bottom of the hole where there was a crack in the wood. "Ouchie! Wowchie! Let go of me, Uncle Wiggily! Let go!" howled the Fox. "I guess you've caught me instead of me catching you! Let go!" But Uncle Wiggily wasn't in the hole to let go, so he couldn't help the Fox any. And there the bad chap had to stay caught, until the Police Dog happened to pass and, seeing the bad chap, arrested him, and took him off to jail, getting his paw loose with the corkscrew.

And as the Fox was being taken off to jail, along came the bunny gentleman with a bag of gum drops which he put in the stump hole for the animal children. So, after all, something good came out of the rabbit's hole that day. And if the head of the stairs doesn't try to hang his pat on our dog's tail when he wants to wag it, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's bow and arrow.

Tea as a Beverage

Tea first became known in China nearly 3000 years before Christ. In that country tea was greatly prized, both for its remarkable qualities as a beverage and for the almost religious ceremony attached to the drinking of it. Up to the sixth century, tea was used only for medicinal purposes. Even in the seventeenth century it cost $25.00 to $50.00 per pound. All tea caddies were constantly kept under lock and key. Today when even fine quality like "SALADA" costs less than one-third of a cent per cup, it is not surprising that the consumption of tea is increasing tremendously.

CANADIAN POULTRY AT EMPIRE FAIR

Ottawa, April 2.—One of the new exhibits this year at the British Empire Exhibition will be one of Canadian live poultry. This exhibit will be put on by the Dominion Department of Agriculture in conjunction with the Canadian National Poultry Record Association and the Record of Performance Breeders' Association. Birds will be selected chiefly from the Pedigreed—Record of Performance and registered flocks, with a few specimens of the popular standard breeds. They will be assembled in Ottawa and inspected by a competent committee before shipped. In addition to the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley, it is hoped it will be possible to show Canadian poultry at many of the larger agricultural exhibitions held throughout Great Britain. Those birds exhibited at Wembley will be shown in the British Poultry Industry Building where space has been procured for this purpose. READY TO SELL.

Canada is now in a position to sell foundation stock which has been carefully bred under the Record of Performance and Registration Policies, and no other country is able to offer breeding stock for sale that is backed by official records embodying qualities which are somewhat beyond the attainments of private breeders.

A great many sales have already been made to the United States and other countries, and judging by the reception which was accorded the Canadian poultry exhibited last year at the World Poultry Congress in Barcelona, Spain, and later at the British Empire Exhibition, there is every reason to believe the exhibition of live poultry this year will result in the establishing of an export trade between Canada and Great Britain.

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, April 3 (By R. P. Clark & Co. Limited)—The turnover was very much smaller in volume and price changes carried no particular significance.

New York, April 3 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's Direct Pit Street Wire Service)—The general stock market edition to-day says: Speculative sentiment was in a confused state to-day.

With a better feeling existing as a result of this indifference to developments in the grain pit, the general list made a gratifying response to the increase in the price of wheat.

Another bullish point was a drop in call money to 1 1/2% which followed at atmosphere of relative cheerfulness in the financial district.

Oil shares displayed the best group behavior. Their action was taken as indicating long pull buying rather than trading positions.

Weakness in francs, which declined seven points to 211 cents, depressed by the French Cabinet crisis, was used by professionals as a pretext for further selling on the short side in the late morning.

Motors continued responsive to the confidence regarding the industry's outlook inspired by the Dodge Brothers' purchase for such a huge cash consideration of $14,000,000.

Chicago, April 3 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Wheat: The drastic slump in coarse grains was largely responsible for a renewal of liquidation in wheat as the buying demand was limited even at the declining General news counted for little to-day and there was nothing to create any greater confidence in prices.

EUROPEAN MARKETS WEAK AT START BUT CLOSE UP

London, April 3.—The break yesterday in the Chicago wheat market unsettled both the London Baltic Grain market and the Liverpool options market at the outset this morning.

A better tone developed later, the options recovering most of their decline, while in the Baltic dealings several parcels were bought at prices a shade above the opening.

Winnipeg, April 3.—A combination of bearish forces acted as a battering ram in smashing down grain prices on the Winnipeg Exchange to-day. Wheat and rye suffered the heaviest loss in to-day's debacle, the May future declining 9 cents from the high point, while rye skidded 10 cents below yesterday's figures.

During the closing stages of the session the market recovered some of its loss, May closing at 138 1/2, July for the first time passed the nearby future, finishing at 139 1/2, 4 1/2 under the close of Thursday, and October was down 2 cents at 123 1/2.

The market opened with sentiment fairly strong but the gradual withdrawal of buying support precipitated a sudden reversal over large areas. This also was a bearish factor. The undertone to the market does not appear very strong to-night and unless buying power develops the general opinion is that prices will work lower yet.

Winnipeg, April 3 (By R. P. Clark & Co. Ltd.)—Wheat: The undertone to the market does not appear very strong to-night and unless buying power develops the general opinion is that prices will work lower yet.

Coarse grains: Oats and rye continued to follow the action of wheat and with little or no support from any direction, drastic declines were recorded, oats closing 2 1/2 cents and rye nine cents down for the May futures, the barley market gave a better account of itself, prices holding steady, there being an excellent class of buying against export sales.

WORLD'S TROUBLES BOOST SILVER PRICE; B.C. WILL BENEFIT BY FIRM MARKETS

By Times Staff Representative

Ottawa, April 3.—Canada's silver industry is beginning to profit by the ill winds which do no one any good outside this country. Unsatisfactory economic conditions in many parts of the world are contributing to the upward tendency of silver prices, all of which helps Canadian mining, according to figures just released by the Dominion Board of statistics. And this, of course, is of particular interest to British Columbia where big silver mining developments are under way. What is better still, the official figures forecast a continued firmness in the silver market, which is all to the good so far as British Columbia is concerned.

Monsoons in India, earthquakes in Japan and economic troubles in Russia and China all contribute to the rise in silver prices last year, the new statistics show. The average price of silver during 1924 was 67 cents per ounce, 1 1/2 cents higher than the 1923 figure and 7 1/4 cents higher than pre-war prices. This rise is due to many causes. India, for instance, has increased its reserve of coined rupees. In China, ravaged by civil war, systematic hoarding of coinage has been going on, and this, of course, has increased the demand for silver coins. India and China, in fact, absorb from one-third to one-half of the world's total silver output.

The United States Government, too, is buying more silver, and some central banks have increased their silver holdings. Under the Pittman Act the United States in wartime was authorized to melt down silver coins and sell them as bullion to the British Government. This was done to the extent of $270,000,000. As prices dropped in the post-war years the United States bought up silver to bring its supply back to normal. There will be a further purchase of 15,000,000 fine ounces soon.

The highest factor in boosting the silver market last year, however, was active European buying. Several countries made considerable purchases to re-establish a subsidiary coinage. While Russia was probably the largest purchaser, Germany, Australia, Romania and other European countries also bought large quantities of silver.—B.H.

NEW HIGH GOLD OUTPUT RECORD SET BY S. AFRICA

Washington, April 3.—South Africa which for many years has been responsible for half the world's gold production, set a new output record during 1924.

U.S. Commerce Department figures put the total production for the year at 9,587,534 ounces, which compares with a previous high record made in 1916, of 9,372,726 ounces. The value of the 1924 production was in excess of $190,000,000 and represented three-fifths of the world's total for the year.

One of the South African producing mines is now the deepest in the world, ore being taken from a level 7,000 feet below the surface.

FIFTY OFFICIALS FAIL TO ANSWER MEMBER'S QUERY

By Times Staff Representative Ottawa, April 2.—Inquisitive members of Parliament sometimes know not what they ask when filling the order paper with questions about every conceivable thing. The other day someone asked for copies of correspondence between any individual and the Government concerning the retirement of a Government employee. The member finally got an answer—a pile of Vellum letter sheets embossed with the crests of seventeen Government departments. On each of them was the report that there had been no such correspondence as had been asked for. Fifty Government officials' time was taken up investigating the matter.

Those Spring Skin Worries

IN the Spring-time many of us are sorely troubled because, with Winter's impurities still in the blood, our skin gets off-colour.

Pimples, irritating patches and blotches may either be little local disturbances, or if you are out-of-luck, harbingers of eczema, psoriasis, or other serious trouble.

Don't worry over what may happen. Start now and coax your skin back to health with nightly dressings of Zam-Buk. This famous herbal balm exerts a soothing and purifying influence far below the surface trouble.

Soreness, irritation and impurity are all quickly removed by Zam-Buk. It makes the skin wonderfully clear and healthy.

When "spring-cleaning" keep Zam-Buk always handy. It ends the pain and danger of cuts, scratches and abrasions and prevents sore hands. Also valuable as a remedy for boils, abscesses, poisoned wounds, ulcers, piles, burns, scalds, etc.

FIFTH RIFLEMEN ANTICIPATE BIG SEASON AHEAD

Annual Meeting Expects Renewed Interest With Return of Scientific Sights

Consistent progress in marksmanship, by younger shots of the Fifth Regiment Rifle Association, during the range season of 1924, was shown by the report presented to the annual meeting of the association last Monday evening at the Armouries.

Major M. Kirkpatrick Crockett acted as chairman of the meeting, which was attended by over twenty members of the association. Col. J. C. Harris presented the medals, trophies and spoons won by the riflemen.

Salient features of Secretary Morry's report showed that, while no large scores were made, and no possible were registered at any range during the season, the association is developing much new material which bids fair to be of great value to the Fifth Regiment in the next few years.

APERTURES THIS YEAR

The lack of authority to use aperture sights was credited with the comparatively slender attendance at the weekly shoots, and the authorization of these sights for the coming year is expected to make a vital change in the season now commencing.

SPOON WINNERS

Three more spoons were won in 1924 than in the previous year, the successful marksmen being: Bdr. A. H. Rudge 5, Gr. E. R. Simmonds 3 and bronze medal, Major F. Richardson 1 and silver medal, Lance-Serjt. F. Richardson, P. Pagett, B.S.M.S. Boden, Bdr. Houlden and O.R.S. A. G. Morry 1 spoon each.

Scoring showed improvement as the season advanced, Bdr. Rudge, Gnr. Johnson and Simmonds advanced from C to B, Bdr. Rudge and Simmonds resting into B class early in the season.

Very few members of the Fifth Regiment Association attended the B.C.R.A. at Heale, those who took part were not very successful.

Major F. Richardson, though very unwell, went to Heale as a representative of the 5th Regiment C.G.A. and reached the finals of the King's prize. During the Heale meet he was successful in winning the following: King's badge, N.I.A. bronze and colonial badge.

COMING PROGRAMME

For the coming season it has been suggested that matches of ten rounds be fired at each range, instead of seven as heretofore, for the reason that during 1925 ten-shot matches will be the rule at all Provincial and Dominion meets.

It has also been suggested that long range practice be held on alternate weeks, long range competitions will prevail during the B.C.R.A. meet.

R.M. Hatcher was selected to represent the 5th Regiment C.G.A. at Ottawa.

Col. J. C. Harris was elected president of the association for the year; Major Fred Richardson, O.B.E., was elected first vice-president, and Capt. Alex. Maclean was chosen as second vice-president.

TORONTO COMPANY IS AWARDED $680,000

Massey-Harris Firm Successful in Its War Claim Against Hungary

Toronto, April 2.—The Massey-Harris Company of Toronto has been awarded the full amount of its claims against the Hungarian Government arising from the Great War. Thomas Bradshaw of the company confirms a cable announcing the award has been made by the tribunal composed of three judges representing Holland, Hungary and Britain, respectively. The amount, including interest, is $680,000.

When the Great War broke out the Massey-Harris Company's business in Hungary was put in charge of a Hungarian controller, who settled up its affairs and invested the proceeds in Hungarian war bonds. After the war these bonds were worthless, and the company entered action under the peace treaty for recovery of the amount due it.

DECLARES ONTARIO NEEDS IMMIGRANTS

Manion Urges Government to Send Newcomers to Area North of Lake Superior

Ottawa, April 2.—Hon. R. J. Manion, Conservative, Fort William, addressing the Commons yesterday afternoon during the budget debate, said Canada had millions of acres in Quebec, Ontario and the Maritime Provinces to be developed. There was a stretch of country between North Bay, Ontario, and the Manitoba boundary line as large as the British Isles and Germany, with national resources of all kinds. This area formed the gap between the East and the West. He thought the Government might endeavor to bridge that gap, where now approximately only 150,000 persons resided, instead of sending all immigrants to the prairie provinces.

FOOD IMPORTS

Dr. Manion declared that, according to official figures furnished, $150,000,000 had been spent in one year on farm products imported into Canada, which could have been produced here.

Canada was suffering from a lack of a protective and stable tariff, and its condition compared unfavorably with that of the United States. What was the reason? Taxation here was much higher than it was in the country to the South, and the tariff in the United States was about twice as high as it was in Canada on practically all lines.

What was required here was a "cool head and a strong hand."

If the 7,000,000 people of Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia were to have the protection they wished for, and that protection was to weigh heavily around the neck of the three prairie provinces, then these provinces should receive some compensation in return. Dr. Manion thought:

"Great Britain was having difficulty in these days in holding its ship building trade under free trade policy, he said.

"Who profits from the tariff policy of the present?" asked Dr. Manion.

"The agricultural people of this country," interjected J. F. Johnston, Progressive whip.

What was required in Canada, said Dr. Manion, was economic handling of affairs, a stable tariff policy high enough to allow industries to carry on, an efficient immigration policy and a wise railway

SURPLUS OR DEFICIT

Dr. Manion contended that the yearly railway debt should be taken into consideration in deciding whether Canada had a surplus or a deficit. According to the Acting Minister of Finance's own figures, Canada this year really had a deficit of $52,000,000.

COST OF LIVING

The Speech from the Throne, said Dr. Manion, had laid stress on the necessity of a reduction in the cost of living, yet, according to figures furnished, officially, from May, 1924, to February last, there had been an increase in that period of 7.1 in the index figure.

COMMISSION INQUIRIES

Dr. Manion charged the Government with expending money on unnecessary things. The Pulpwood Commission and the Grain Commission had cost the country approximately $250,000, and had given very little result. As the Government had appointed numerous other commissions, he ventured to suggest that well over $1,000,000 had been expended in this way.
