

FATAL ACCIDENT TO NARBERTH MAN

Automobile Strikes Tree and Death Results in Hospital

William Humphries, of 225 Woodbine avenue, Narberth, was fatally injured early on Tuesday morning, when the automobile he was driving crashed into a tree on City Line, opposite the Presbyterian Home.

Mr. Humphries was returning to Narberth, and evidently was blinded by an approaching car, which caused him to turn from the road.

He was found semi-conscious sitting by the roadside, by his brother-in-law, James Scanlan, of Narberth, who happened to be traveling over the road taken by Humphries, two hours later.

Scanlan took the injured man to Dr. Hoffman's office in Narberth, who found that Mr. Humphries was seriously injured, and took him to the Bryn Mawr Hospital, where Humphries died early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Humphries was in the employ of James A. Ladd, of Narberth, and was well known in this community. His death is greatly felt by a large number of Narberth's citizens. He leaves a wife and nine children.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The regular meeting of the Boy Scouts was held Friday, March 9. Cummer led the meeting in the absence of Donald Faile, who was elected to lead the meeting.

The meeting was opened as usual and we were glad to see Paul Braden back after his attack of chicken-pox.

A committee of three, one from each patrol, was elected to bring articles of interest to Boy Scouts found in the newspapers to the scout meetings.

Mr. Cole told us that the mother of Mr. Gara, Scout Commissioner, had had a bad fall and because of this Mr. Gara was unable to attend the scout meeting. The scouts then decided to go as a body to Mr. Gara's house to express the sympathy of the Boy Scouts. The meeting then adjourned and the decision mentioned above was carried out.

There was a hike Saturday afternoon attended by about six scouts and the assistant scoutmaster.

The Flying Eagle Patrol held a meeting at the home of Taylor Fairies on Thursday evening. The Flying Eagle Patrol accepts with pleasure and with confidence in winning, the challenge of the Kangaroo Patrol to hold a race to Valley Forge and return. The Kangaroos are to hike, starting one hour ahead of the Flying Eagles, who will travel on bicycles; the Kangaroos of course being disqualified if they "jump" instead of hike, as the Flying Eagles know the jumping power of Kangaroos. The Flying Eagles, of course, will also be disqualified if they use their wings instead of wheels. The editor is afraid the Flying Eagles will confuse their wings with their wheels, as both words begin with w.

Next Meeting Special

All Boy Scouts are requested to be present as Mr. Arthur Chauker will be present to deliver a short talk at the next meeting Friday, March 16.

On account of the demand for tickets, the "Seniors" Producing Company will give two performances with their big "Vodvil" and moving picture show, Friday night, March 16. First show 7.30 P. M. Doors open 7 sharp. Popular prices.

ENTERTAINMENT IN ST. MARGARET HALL

Unusual Program—Many Prominent Stars to Take Part

The advertising columns of this issue carry an announcement of a most unusual entertainment to be held in St. Margaret Hall on next Monday evening, March 19th, at 8 o'clock. The program is of a most interesting and comprehensive nature, and the advance sale of tickets indicates that Narberth people are alert for an evening of quality diversion. Charley Dooin, the former manager of the Phillies, will make his first appearance here, and the program generally contains names which are widely known in Philadelphia and elsewhere. During the week it is reported that two orders, each calling for fifty tickets, have come from the city, and a second printing of tickets has been made necessary by the demand generally. The patriotic demonstration with which the performance will be concluded, will place Narberth on record in a most commendable fashion, and for this reason alone a banner attendance should be expected. Tickets are on sale at Fiedler's and Howard's.

COMMUNITY CLUB NOTES

On Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Imogene Oakley gave a talk on civics to a good sized audience. It was most interesting, and many valuable suggestions were given as to bettering the conditions of our town through the civic department of the club of which Mrs. H. R. Cook, Jr., is the chairman.

Through the co-operation of the Civic Association and the civic department of our club, we will soon have a new station, have our garbage, ashes, etc., all carried away to a destructor, consequently no dirt on the streets. Mosquitoes, flies and sparrows under pressure will gradually cease to exist, our dogs and cats will be confined to our own yard, the barking and otherwise annoying dogs gotten rid of. All stray cats will be chloroformed, and all noises such as unnecessary automobile noises, hurdy gurdys, rag men and church bells will be eliminated.

By persistence, even the smoke nuisance can be done away with.

The next meeting of the club will be on Tuesday, March the 20th, at 3 o'clock. The subject for the day will be "Food Conditions, Past and Present," by Mrs. W. S. Lee. Mrs. Lee is a very interesting personage and will give some very useful information. Come and bring your friends.

HON. LEVIN IRVING HANDY'S LECTURE

On Friday evening, Hon. Levin Irving Handy, ex-Congressman of Delaware, lectured at the public school to a very appreciative audience on "Triumphant Living."

Mr. Handy is one of the most entertaining speakers of the day. He kept the audience in peals of laughter most of the time. His subject was most interesting and soul-inspiring, and the pathos, intermingled with the witty remarks, delighted his hearers.

Mr. Handy impresses you at once with his wonderful personality, and those who did not hear him, missed one of the greatest treats Narberth has ever given.

TO THE BUSINESS MEN

Your attention is called to the opportunity you have of making shipments to out of town patrons by mail, using the C. O. D. system for making collection of the amount due. We are prepared at the postoffice to receive and forward to any postoffice in the United States articles of almost every kind, making collection at the office of addressee and return the money for the goods to the shipper. By this method you may extend your trade in a safe and satisfactory manner. Give it a trial and take advantage of its benefits as thousands of tradesmen are doing. This method could well be utilized by producers in making shipments to consumers.

Y. M. C. A. BIRTHDAY PARTY

Enjoyed by a Large Company of Our Home Town Residents

(By One Who Was There)

The Y. M. C. A. birthday party of last Thursday evening, is now a thing of the past and an event long to be pleasantly remembered by a host of Narberthites which taxed the room to its utmost capacity. Every chair in the building was in use, together with about one hundred borrowed from the fire department, for which we wish to publicly thank them. We were compelled to ask the boys to sit in the window sills, and regardless of this, at least a score of men, together with nearly all of the auxiliary women, stood all evening.

The entertainment was arranged with music and recitations suggestive of each month, and after our genial president, Mr. H. S. Hopper, had welcomed everyone, in his usual pleasing manner, our high school girls, all becomingly attired in white, represented January with New Year's songs; March, with an Irish melody; June, with the wedding march, and December with Christmas carols.

Mr. Samuel Foster, who proved himself to be a very interesting master of ceremonies, tried to make us believe that February was the most important month, simply because it was his birth month, as well as that of Washington and Lincoln, and as he brought his argument to a close, he compelled us all to at least be friendly with February, as we sang together "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

Mrs. Dudley E. Wilkie introduced us to Spring, with her rendition of Rubenstein's "Voices of the Woods," in her usual charming manner.

None of us will soon forget Mrs. Herbert Clegg's description of a colored choir's Easter gowns (in April) and as she carried us through their preparation we could all picture that dusky quartette facing the congregation on Easter morning, and hear them burst into song. Every one thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Clegg, and we certainly hope to have her with us again. At this instant Mr. Geo. Abele quieted and soothed every nerve with the very sweet tones of his cello, putting us in just the proper mood to enter the threshold of May with Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Hill, as they sang in a most effective manner, "A Madrigal in May."

In July, Mr. Emmett proved that he is most popular with the school set, and at the close of his patriotic remarks, as he asked us to sing a verse, every boy and girl certainly did what he requested, with pleasure.

Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, Jr., took August with Toss's "Goodbye," and as we listened to her particularly sweet and sympathetic "Goodbye to Summer" most of us gave a sigh of relief that she was not really singing the truth, and that we are about to welcome summer instead of leaving it.

Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, Jr., took us back to our school days (September) as she described a boy reciting "Barbara Fretchie," and it was certainly a scream. There is only one complaint to make about Mrs. Pattison, and that is that her first number was entirely too short and she had no encore. We are delighted to remember that she resides in our home town, and that we will have the pleasure of hearing her again. I pitied the boy, for as I listened I was carried back to my first and only school recitation, and the thought of it makes me nervous yet.

And now we come to October, for which month we had been waiting with much pleasure all evening. The words, "Vandersloot, basso" suggest a treat not often enjoyed in the Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. Vandersloot's magnificent tonal qualities, combined with a perfect enunciation, temperament, charming personality, and art.

EDITORIAL

Residents of Haverford avenue were invited to attend a recent meeting of Council to listen to a discussion on the resurfacing of the roadway, from Narberth avenue to Montgomery avenue. It was announced that residents on the southside of Haverford avenue had nearly all agreed to pay the cost of laying a gutter and curb on that side. Residents on the northside were also almost unanimous in agreeing to do the work where it has not yet been done. Council then announced that bids would be invited from contractors to do the work at one time, and then the work on the roadway will proceed at once. It is expected to have this done before the expiration of the coming summer. It is needless to say that everybody will be rejoiced at having this long-neglected avenue put in good repair.

The Merion Civic Association last week took a very practical step towards reducing the high cost of living. The Woman's Committee of that organization, Mrs. Frederick W. Rockwell, chairman, discussed a plan presented by Rev. F. J. Langdon, of Miami, Fla., whereby all "special services" in the marketing of food products are to be eliminated. The ladies co-operating in this movement agree to take a certain quantity of specified products weekly, paying cash, and calling for the articles themselves. Delivery, wrapping and packing charges will be saved. Prices will be fixed on the basis of cost at the farm, plus actual cost of freight. Mrs. Nana Foster Dubbel, 321 Beacon lane, Merion, will be in charge of the Merion branch of the organization.

Recently an article appeared in Our Town calling for the co-operation of the Narberth Civic Association in securing a better railroad station for Narberth. The officers of the association will gladly co-operate, but they need the backing of a very active membership. This is quite lacking at the present time. The meetings of the association are attended by very few, and very few residents think it worth while to pay the annual dues of one dollar. Nothing can be done without friends and without the moral backing of large numbers. The Merion Civic Association has an enthusiastic membership, and a good bank balance. If every household in Narberth contributed a dollar annually for membership in the association, and another dollar to help pay for the printing of Our Town, much more would be accomplished. Many good plans are discussed at the directors' meetings, and abandoned for lack of funds. We often hear the question, "Why don't they do so and so?" but the questioner never attends meetings, nor contributes anything. What are YOU going to do about it?

COMMUNICATIONS

To the Editor of Our Town:

Recently the writer, desiring to convey to a large business concern in a Northern New York town the idea that Narberth was a community of some import, employed the simple method of sending them copies of two or three issues of Our Town. The following note was received from the general manager:

"The writer has looked over the papers which you sent us and is glad to note that you have a good live bunch at Narberth, and any time that we can be of service to you we hope that you will get in touch with us."
Citizen.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The post office force appreciates the commendatory article in the editorial section of Our Town last week. We also desire to express our appreciation of the co-operation of so many of our patrons who help us in many ways to make the very active and growing post office business at Narberth satisfactory.

Postmaster and Clerks.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Our home town has been shaken By the mighty hand of God, And many souls have followed The path their fathers trod; They have laid their sins on Jesus Through the winning power of prayer, He has given them salvation, And His glory they will share.

The tabernacle's shipped away, The man of God has gone; But the campaign is not ended yet— The work will still go on; Tho' the Christians must be faithful, And each one do their part, By prayer or deed, or word, To win some precious heart.

God bless the faithful messenger, And all his party, too; With those who labored prayerfully The work to carry through; And may Our Town remember For many and many a day The saint of God who tarried here, And then passed on his way.
Saved.

WHO IS THE CUB?

(By the Village Poet)

Who is the Cub and where does he dwell?
What is his visage and who can tell Whether he's aged and wrinkled and gray,
Or whether he's youthful and giddy and gay?

Into these secrets it's useless to pry,
For the Cub is a wise and a wonderful guy.
He's as clever a friend as you'd care to meet;
As a cub reporter he cannot be beat.
So the next time you meet this elusive Cub,
Just step up beside him and give him a rub,
And ask him the name of the new village poet,
And make him confess that he doesn't know it.

CUB DISCUSSES VARIOUS TOPICS

Replies to E. A. M.—Other Topics of Interest—Society News, With Apologies to Betty Baxter

To the Editor of Our Town:

"E. A. M." takes me to task for accusing womankind of wearing straw hats and slippers in cold weather and velvet hats and furs in August, but I notice he doesn't deny the allegation. He says we men wear B. V. D.'s in winter, but that argument only proves the superiority of man. If he or I wore B. V. D.'s in winter, the most sensible thing we could wear over them would be fur overcoats. Speaking for myself in this particular, I haven't any fur overcoat.

But "E. A. M." old scout, I say, "give them the vote anyway." They can't do any worse with it than a good many we know. By the way, how can a cub of any kind be old?

Just for the sake of "advertising their business and not for profit" a philanthropic outfit in the West invites you to send them ten cents and write to five of your friends to also send ten cents each, etc.—you know the endless chain gag. For the dime you get a silk petticoat. That is, you are supposed to. If the postal authorities hadn't put the kibosh on the thing, the local stock of ten cent pieces would have been very much lower than it is to-day. How about it, sisters?

Fred Walzer called it Coffee Pot Park. Alas, now it's in the soup.

Wonder how it is that the man who says, "The farmer's life is the life for me" is never seen on the 6.29. Look for him going to his job about the time a farmer has done half a day's work. The above is dedicated to the Stove League which meets at the fire house.

Hard to believe, but true just the same. W. John Debris was parading the streets last Sunday in his tennis togs. After watching his game last year, I can understand his desire to get in some early practice, but this isn't Florida, Wilberforce, my dear.

During the recent coal shortage, one of our local dealers was heard to ask, "Shall I arm my wagons for defense?" The question is referred to President Wilson and the Current Topics Club of Narberth.

Mr. and Mrs. Sponge, after spending a week—and nothing else—and having been royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Goodthing on Mapleside avenue, have returned to their home in Pennsylvania. The Goodthings have postponed buying that new rug they need so badly.

Miss Yvette O'Toole gave a dance at her home on Windsex avenue last week. Among those present were Mr. Jones and wife, Mrs. Smith and husband, Yvette's brother Mike and some more. Refreshments in the form of thimbles filled with ice cream, wafers and pickles were served to those with the longest reach. The dancing was thoroughly enjoyed by those looking on the porch and smoked cigarettes and Dad's six-for-a-quarters. Through the kind-

Don't Treat Yourself Like A Bug, Mister Man!

Time was when most men looked askance at any masculine practice which savored of the boudoir. They couldn't see it at all—and couldn't see those who did. But nowadays the chap who does not primp a bit yields more than an edge to the fellow who does—yields in money as well as in healthful wholesomeness! For it can't be gainsaid that a conservative use of masculine toilet refinements has a distinct money-value—it's bound to produce a get-there spirit, a better stride—an everlasting feeling of cheerfulness and content—not to mention the Ponce de Leon effect. And such things must certainly help to keep you in the race—unquestionably they play their part in the workaday game. Here are some of the fixin's every live one should have:

A bottle of a good, virile tonic for the old head—Westphal's is excellent. A massage cream for the semi-weekly face-rub—Pompeian is the best known, and probably as good as any. After shaving a 50-50 solution of Witch Hazel and Bay Rum, or, if you prefer something with more bite, Pinaud's Lilac. Mennen's Cream seems to have the call for making lather—there's no doubt it's good. For the shampoo, try the Palmolive solution—much more refreshing and effective than the old way. And powders which won't let on you used them! Your outfit is waiting for you—better send for it at once.

Church Notes
The prayer meeting room was crowded again last Wednesday evening and a most helpful hour was spent together. Let us keep up this splendid enthusiasm.
March 25 has been set apart as "Decision Day" in the Sunday school. Dr. W. B. Anderson will address the school on that occasion. He will also speak at the "teachers' supper" on the preceding Thursday evening.
The Ladies' Aid Society are planning for a "mite box" social on Friday evening, March 23.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE NARBERTH HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI
There were eight (8) members of the Narberth High School Alumni Association at the Handy lecture last Friday evening, which is one-fifth (1-5) of the entire membership of the association. Where were the rest? Where is the school spirit which exists (?) among the alumni members? If the Executive Committee of the association announced that there would be a dance after the lecture, probably every member would turn out in full force. Some good common sense and advice, such as Mr. Handy gave us last Friday, is needed by every member of our association. Won't each member exert every possible effort to be present at the next lecture on April 6?
Executive Committee of N. H. S. A. A.

TENNIS PLAYERS, ATTENTION!
Hey, you members of the Narberth Tennis Association, have you notified W. J. Kirkpatrick that you will be at Elm Hall Saturday evening, March 24, to attend the annual dinner, meeting and dance of the association? If you haven't, drop him a post card immediately.
Dinner at 7, meeting at 8, and dancing at 9. Important matters to be discussed at the business meeting.

THE FIRESIDE

A dinner party was given on Monday evening in honor of the birthday of Mr. Hervey C. Keim, of Dudley avenue. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Smedley, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce I. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Keim, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws, and Mr. and Mrs. Hervey C. Keim.
Mr. Joseph O. Kerbaugh, of Bryn Mawr, desires to express his thanks to the many residents of Lower Merion and other sections of Montgomery county who supported his application for the appointment to fill the vacancy on the Board of County Commissioners caused by the death of Mr. George Sullivan.

On Friday evening Miss Virginia Downes entertained the Delta Sigma Sorority. The evening was spent very pleasantly, especially at the end, when the refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Mildred Harris, Miss Augusta Witherow, Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Madelyn McCoy, Miss Marion Trotter and Miss Agnes Rose.
Calling attention to the wastefulness of the people of this State, as far as their treatment of the forests is concerned, Governor Brumbaugh in a proclamation names April 13 and April 27 as spring arbor days. He advocates the general planting of trees not only on the devastated hillsides, but also about the school houses, other public buildings and along the highways.

William Warner Harper, of Chestnut Hill, owner of the Andora Nurseries, has been appointed by Judges Swartz and Miller, of the Court of Common Pleas of the county, a member of the Board of County Commissioners to fill the vacancy in the board, caused by the death of George Sullivan, late of Lower Merion. Mr. Harper's appointment is for the unexpired term, or until January 1, 1920.

Mr. James Egan, of Grayling avenue, returned last week from Europe where he has been on a business trip. He sailed on the Finland, the last American line boat to pass through the danger zone. The Finland is now tied up with the rest of the American line fleet in New York. Mr. Egan spent several weeks in Paris and London. He is the millinery buyer for Strawbridge & Clothier.

SCHOOL NOTES

Freshmen Notes
We are glad to see Paul Braden back again. He has been absent for three weeks with the chicken-pox.

That game between the Freshmen girls and the eighth grade was a farce. The eighth grade "kids" quit just as our team was getting started. They were supposed to play ten minutes and they only played eight. What do you call that?

William (Bill) Bones) has blood poison in his left hand.

Don't forget the Senior movies Friday night. Tickets for sale by any of the Freshmen.

There were two Freshmen boys whose knees were shaking when they had to give a peculiar kind of speech on the platform in the Assembly.

Junior Notes
Everybody was glad to welcome Nellie Cook back from Baltimore, Md.

Thursday afternoon the Junior girls led the Sophomores a merry chase in basket ball, but they failed to catch us. The score was 19-9.

A number of the Junior girls were glad to accompany the team to Lansdale. They wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Emmett for the fine time they had.

The Junior girls have challenged the Senior girls to a game of basket ball and since they have accepted we have invested in white kid gloves.

Senior Notes
Don't forget the Senior movies this Friday night. For tickets apply to any member of the Senior Class or at the office.

Sixth Grade
Those who had a perfect record in spelling for the fifth month are: Wayne Bond, David Casey, Charlotte Hillegas, Henry Muller, Ilma Scott and Ruth Smith.

Athletic Notes
The Narberth girls returned with happy faces from their trip to Lansdale last Friday. "Aha!" some one says, "Narberth won by a big score!" "On the contrary," we answer, "Narberth was defeated." "Then why smiling faces?" is the question, and then the story leaked out. The girls' team, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Emmett and with the consent of Mr. Melchior and our parents, we had a very good supper at Norristown after the Lansdale game, although we discovered that the rolls were not like mother used to make. See Ruth Haws and Bill Durbin!
After the meal we went to the High School gymnasium and cheered the Narberth boys in their game with Norristown. Ask the boys if we didn't make noise. We even gave the Norristown people a treat in the musical line between the halves of the game!

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Emmett everybody had a wonderful, and as Mr. Melchior would say, "profitable" time, but in spite of seeing larger and newer High Schools we came home feeling more proud of our own and what she stands for than before.
To return to the game: although we were defeated, we don't feel at all disgraced, because we put up a snappy battle and had it not been for the low ceiling of the Lansdale floor we would certainly have won. The score was 18-8 at the end of the first half in Lansdale's favor, and then in the second half we outplayed them and made the score 24-23.

School Notes
Thanks is due the girls of the eighth grade for their contribution of $4.35 to the Athletic Association.
The school library has been given a thorough overhauling and is being catalogued in such a manner as to make it more useful to the student body. This has meant many hours of tedious work. Most of it has been done by Augusta Witherow to whom we owe our thanks. We also appreciate the time given to this work last spring by Margaret Eyre.

"Do Your Best" is a motto that Mr. Melchior reports having seen printed in large type upon the bulletin boards of the Gary schools.

We wonder if the older pupils ponder over the excellent short mottoes to be found on our bulletin boards?

The second grade hour for dismissal will from now on be the same as last year, 1.30 P. M. During the first semester the schedule did not permit the retention of the entire grade until this hour. Parents will welcome this extra time given to their children.

Jack Lapp, formerly one of Connie Mack's regular catchers and for several seasons with the Athletics, has been sent to the minors. The Chicago White Sox who secured Lapp from Connie in 1915, have announced his release to the Columbus team of the American Association. Lapp, when with the Athletics, was considered one of the most reliable backstops in the league, and there was much criticism when Connie let him go to Chicago. Lapp began his base ball career as a member of the Berwyn team of the Main Line League. He then resided with his parents at Berwyn.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
