14th March 1869.

My dear Sir.

I have yours of the 8th, and am very glad to have so hearty a response from so far away as Indiana. It has been suggested that the article should be issued as a
"document",—and the matter is now under
Mr. Harrison.

consideration. If it is thought wise to issue
it, you shall receive the copies of which you speak.

I should be very glad to know your estimate of the strength of the Vermont division at the West. — and whatever you may send me, letters or papers.
Please address to North Shore, Staten Island.

share which you mention as already sent, I have failed to receive.

I am sure that it is of you that my friend Mr. Norton has spoken to me, he is one of my dearest friends, and one of the noblest & best of men.

Very truly Yours
G. W. Curtis.
