THE DAILY BEE.

[From the Premisson's Magnisse.]
FREEMANOS IN THE CARDET.—We are kindly parmitted to lay the following inheresting letter before our readers. It is in answer to aprivate mote from the M. W. Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Massandhusetts, inquiring as to the probability of the President and the Chinete being present at the innegaration of the statue of Gen. Warren on the 17th instit is probably known to most of our readers that Gen. Cass is a Past Grand Master of the irrand Lodge of Michigan, and is therefore sell qualified to speak of the character and endencies of the institution and its principles. President Buchmann is also a Past Raster of a Ladge at Lancaster oity. Pennsylvania, the Vice President, Rom. Mr. Brack. The vice President, Rom. Mr. Brack. The vice President, Rom. Mr. Brack. The Composition, Kentneky, and the principles of the Order in Georgia. We are not informed in this parcicular, as to the other members of the Cabinet. It is, however, in view of the fart that so many of the government are Massans, to be deeply regreeted that his engagements will deprive the Brothern here of the pleasure of paying their respects to the President on the 11th, as they had hoped to do:
Wassinsoron Cirr, May 15, 1837. The President recognizes Enrique F. Allen as Committee C pleasure.

I am glad to learn that the Massachusertilly is doing so well in Massachusetta. Is in a green spot for the eye to rest upon. I consider the institution admirably calculated to soften the sajertites of life and to encourage a spirit of phitaithorpy and good feeling among nations and individuals.

I am, dear sir, truly yours.

LEWIS CASS.
