VIGOROUS REACTION AGAINST TORIES FOLLOWS DECLARATION OPPOSING WEST'S RATE CLAIMS

Conservative Leader Trying to Square Himself With Montreal Friends, Oliver Charges; Pooley Seeks to Explain Away Revulsion of Feeling Against His Chief's "Utterly Indefensible Concessions" Speech; Railways Assert Railway Board Order Fully Obeyed; Investigation Ordered.

Developments which have marked the Federal election campaign in Western Canada as a clear-cut fight between supporters of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen and those who are battling for the reduction of Western transportation costs, followed one another in swift succession to-day. These developments were:

- 1. Premier Oliver's written charge that Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen is attempting to square himself with the big interests of Montreal by his amazing declaration that the West has already been given "utterly indefensible" rate concessions. 2. The assertion of Canadian Railways that they have already given the Western grain movement all the rate reductions ordered by the Railway Board—a statement emphatically denied by the British Columbia Government. 3. Announcement that Provincial Government experts would start an immediate checking up of rate schedules to find out exactly how much of a rate reduction this Province is entitled to under the Railway Board's equalization order. 4. The issuance of a statement by R. H. Pooley, Provincial Government Conservative Leader, seeking to show that when Mr. Meighen referred to "utterly indefensible" rate concessions granted to the West, he did not mean to be unfavorable to the West at all.

To-day found the Conservative Party in British Columbia in an uproar over Mr. Meighen's astounding declaration against Western freight rate reductions. Conservative leaders here and on the mainland, viewing the profound effect of Mr. Meighen's declaration, realize that they have got to overcome this feeling to hold their strength in British Columbia. It is expected that within the next twenty-four hours the Conservative Party will be in possession of some of the most interesting news under the Government Liquor Act was heard in the Burnaby police court yesterday, when points were raised by counsel for the prosecution regarding the legality of sales of beer "for export" by the Westminster Brewery Company to other than firms licensed by the Provincial Government to export liquor.

Magistrate J. Stuart Jamieson adjourned the case till Saturday for the production of the Federal license under which the company manufactures beer. The case arose from the seizure by Chief Constable W. J. Devitt of 1,500 (Concluded on page 2)

Wife Committed Previously; Man Killed Was Clayton McMullin

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 17.—Arthur Janisse, charged with murder as a result of the slaying of Clayton McMullin, a battery service station proprietor, was committed here to-day for trial by Magistrate W. E. Gundy. Mrs. Janisse, the man's wife, was sent up for trial several weeks ago. Barrister James Clark, counsel for the Janisses, as it stood, suggested two women—the wife of the accused and the wife of McMullin—had been deeply wronged by the slain man. Magistrate Gundy said it was not outside of human experience that a man whose wife had been wronged should seek revenge. WIDOW MADE STATEMENT For the first time since the slaying Mrs. McMullin, widow of the slain man, made a statement. Telling of a meeting she and her husband had with the Janisses July 28 at a street (Concluded on page 2)

CHINESE HOLD TO THEORY OF TWO MURDERS

Insist Slayer of Wah at Large Despite Suicide Verdict

Jury Finds Wong Chow Ended Own Life With Bullet

Despite the contention of local Chinese that Wong Chow alleged slayer of Wah Low Fong, was a victim of foul play, a coroner's jury this morning after a few minutes deliberation returned a verdict of suicide.

Following the shooting of Wah Monday night Wong was found in a deserted wood-yard on Store Street with a gaping bullet wound in his head and a gun severed in his hand.

Some Chinese in Victoria contend that Wong Chow is not Wah's killer. To prove their assertion that they believe in the innocence of Wong Chow, the Hook Sing Tong has offered $1,000 reward for information, which will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who shot Wah.

FEDERAL FIGHT DRAWS MORE B.C. MEN INTO FIELD

Stevens Renominated in Vancouver; Ladner Finally Consents to Run Again

Cariboo Liberals Nominate Straight Liberal Candidate Against McBride

The last twenty-four hours saw the entry of a number of new candidates into the arena of the Federal election. As a result of nominating conventions held last night the end of this week will see almost all constituencies in British Columbia ready for the fray.

Mainland Conservatives were busy last night with the renomination of Hon. H. H. Stevens, in Vancouver Centre. Mr. Stevens is a former member of the Meighen Government and his chief aides in the House of Commons.

Conservatives in Vancouver in supporting Mr. Stevens will have to overcome several serious obstacles. One is Mr. Stevens' unpopularity with the wing of the party which stuck to the old chief, W. J. Bowser, throughout the Provincial election, when Mr. Stevens was charged with secretly siding with the abortive Provincial Party. Mr. Stevens split with the Bowser followers, both when he unsuccessfully sought to wrest the provincial leadership from Mr. Bowser at the Provincial convention, and when he was elected to the office of Premier.

It was rumored to-day some interesting developments in this connection might be expected in a few days and that before long effective steps to provide larger facilities for cattle transport at lower cost might be taken.

CHRISTIAN REFUGEES ARRIVING IN IRAK

Formal Complaint was Made by Nations Council in Geneva on Tuesday that Turkish soldiers had removed Christian inhabitants from villages in the Mosul territory, sovereignty over which is claimed by both Turkey and the British mandate state of Irak. The Turkish spokesman said the British charges could not be true, as there had been no Christians in the territory in question for the last year.

SHIPPING LINES REFUSE TO CUT CATTLE RATES

Canadian North Atlantic Companies Inform Government no Reduction is Planned

Export Trade to Britain Affected; Important Developments Now Predicted

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—The Winnipeg Free Press to-day carried the following Ottawa dispatch: "All hope of reduction by the Canadian member lines of the North Atlantic Conference of the transport rates for cattle to British ports have again been blasted. During the past few days there have been exchanges of views between the steamship concerns in Montreal and the Federal Government, the former seeking information as to the probability of views between the steamship export so provision for cargo space might be made.

"In all the communications sent to Montreal by Government officials it was made clear the possible increase in the number of export cattle would largely depend upon the extent to which the steamship companies would reduce their rates. It was suggested that if the rate were reduced to $15 a head there would be a real stimulus to cattle raisers to produce cargoes. The steamship companies, however, repeatedly declared they could not afford to cut the rate, as the number of cattle per cargo was uncertain, and there was the necessity of returning westward with little or no cargo.

It was rumored to-day some interesting developments in this connection might be expected in a few days and that before long effective steps to provide larger facilities for cattle transport at lower cost might be taken.

HEAVY HAINS ON PRAIRIES UNTIMELY. Threshing Operations in Large Areas of Plains Country Interrupted. Weather Continues Favorable in Edmonton District and Work Goes on.

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—Unfavorable weather throughout the prairie region to-day resulted in a general interruption of harvesting operations. While Saskatchewan and Manitoba were drenched, Southern Alberta came within the area of precipitation, districts around Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and Cardston receiving an untimely soaking. The present wet spell has somewhat reduced prospects of good yields at many points. Low temperatures, which in some districts have gone below the freezing mark, are causing deterioration of grades, while many farmers report their wheat sprouting in the sheaf.

Continued cool weather is predicted by the weather bureau here. THRESHING CONTINUES. Edmonton, Sept. 17.—Although rain and snow have been threatened for the past two days in the Edmonton district, the weather gave indications of clearing to-day and the farmers have not been interrupted in their threshing, which is general throughout the district.

VIGOROUS REACTION AGAINST TORIES FOLLOWS DECLARATION OPPOSING WEST'S RATE CLAIMS. (Continued from page 1) EXPERTS DIFFER. White the rate question thus emerged as the effective issue of the campaign in British Columbia, rate experts are disputing over the precise effect of the government's proposed recent equalization order. Canadian railways have reduced the grain rate from Edmonton and Calgary to a half-cent per hundred pounds, and one-half cent, while the Provincial Government claims that the reduction should be from two and a half cents per hundred pounds, to one and one-half cents.

CLARK MAY QUIT. In Burrard, however, where the convention is to be held on Friday night, there is a pronounced rumor that Brig-Gen. J. A. Clark, M.P., may withdraw. One of the active members of the party who believes that General Clark's candidature is not in the interests of the party stated that the member had given a pledge to a group of prominent Conservatives about three weeks ago that he would not run unless asked to do so by the Burrard section of the Central Conservative executive. It is claimed that a majority of that executive are now pledged to the candidacy of W. E. Hamilton.

PEOPLES ARE URGED TO OUTLAW WAR

Mr. Justice Murphy Makes Plea at Vancouver International Kiwanis Banquet

Says Citizens of Canada and U.S. Should Unite to Banish Scourge

Vancouver, Sept. 17.—With a plea for the uniting of the sovereign nations of the world to make war an outlaw, Mr. Justice Denis Murphy of the Supreme Court of British Columbia was the principal speaker at the Kiwanis banquet here last night which marked the close of the day of the dedication and unveiling of the Harding Goodwill Memorial in Stanley Park.

Before representatives of the governments of the United States and Canada, international officers of Kiwanis and representatives of leading public bodies of the city, Mr. Justice Murphy deplored any suggestion that the people of the United States and Canada should sit idly by and do nothing to prevent a recurrence of that fearful thing called "war."

UNITY IS NEEDED. "Let us as Canadians and Americans bind ourselves with right thinking men and women of the world and so act as international delegates from the thing called 'war' down to the uttermost depths of Hell," he declared.

It was not by formal treaties that war would be prevented, but by the wise thought and actions of the people of the nations toward the outlawing of such strife. The banquet was the concluding event of the annual convention of the Pacific Northwest Rotary District. Kiwanians from both sides of the international border being present.

PREMIER PRAISES SOOKE EXHIBIT AT FAIR OPENING

Says Work and Spirit Shown Much Like That of Early Settlers Here

Interesting Displays Attract Visitors; Everything From Gold to Gingham Shown

Before a crowd numbering close upon two hundred, pressing forward along the narrow lanes between exhibits in the Sooke Hall yesterday afternoon, Premier John Oliver opened the Sooke District Fall Fair and Flower Show. The Premier, accompanied by members of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce viewed with interest the wealth of field and garden produce which weighted the display benches.

STIMULATES CHILDREN

"I am pleased to see the splendid results of the children's efforts. The fact that their work is put on exhibit certainly stimulates them to better work. No country is spending a greater amount than British Columbia for education. This sort of work shows these children are being taught something useful."

GIVES ENCOURAGEMENT

"I know some of the farmers are having a tough time just at present," said the Premier, "but out here there is a good climate and a fair soil, and many have already attained success. If you feed the land and cultivate it intelligently it will feed you." He concluded, "Amid a round of loud applause Premier Oliver declared the fair formally open."

The Farmer's Personal Interest

It has come to be conceded that Pacific Milk is the best in Canada. Climatic conditions have something to do with it but the chief reason is the real and personal interest of every farmer. While all milk is tested time and again, it is not really necessary for them only send their best to the factory.

MR. MEIGHEN'S BLOOMER

MR. MEIGHEN TOLD A

Halifax audience on Tuesday that the West had obtained a measure of relief in respect of freight rates which was "utterly indefensible." This means that the leader of the Conservative Party in Canada would continue the discrimination against the westward movement of grain to Vancouver and Victoria. He would prevent the expansion of Vancouver. He would put obstacles in Victoria's progress towards establishment as a grain-distributing point. It is nothing to him that the taxpayers of this city approved a taxation exemption bylaw in connection with an elevator site by the largest majority ever recorded for a similar proposal. He hit British Columbia. It was a slam at Victoria as well as Vancouver.

What other interpretation can be put upon Mr. Meighen's statement? His policy is clear. He came out in his true colors. What does he care about the West? Of course he must be embarrassing to local Conservatives. Imagine Dr. Tolmie and Mr. Dickie greeting such a pronouncement from a Victoria platform with cheers! What do the Vancouver members think about it? How does Mr. Stevens reconcile his congratulatory communication to Mr. Oliver with his leader's opinion of the relief the West has recently obtained? Small wonder that Mr. Pooley should try to put a better complexion on the Halifax speech. But the fact remains, and the local Tory leader merely emphasized it, that Mr. Meighen said the measure of relief which the West has now obtained is "utterly indefensible."

The people of Victoria should ponder well over Mr. Meighen's statement. It will be another story when the Conservative leader comes to address the electors of this city. He would no more think of telling a Victoria or a Vancouver audience that the West has obtained relief that is "utterly indefensible" than he would of jumping off the memorial tower of the House of Commons at Ottawa. No, when he comes West his tune will be a different one. But it should be remembered that at Halifax he was himself. That is his policy. The West must continue to pay tribute to the East.

THE U.S. ACTS

THE UNITED STATES Government has disposed of the peculiar case of Mr. Saklatvala by announcing its decision to refuse him admission to the republic. The authorities at Washington are of the opinion that his general conduct in Great Britain, the inflammatory nature of his public utterances, can be taken as an indication of the course he would follow as a member of the British delegation to the Interparliamentary Union gatherings which are to be held in the American capital next month. Their view is probably correct and it may be that such discord as he might be able to create will be avoided if he is not given the opportunity to preach his own particular doctrines before the distinguished audiences of which the Union meetings are assured. At the same time, we are constrained to suggest that, commencing with the refusal of three members of the British House of Commons to make the trip in company with their Communist colleague, now followed by the official action of the United States Government, North Battersa's representative at Westminster has been given a prominence and endowed with an influence to which he is no more entitled than any other of his "red" tribe. If he had been permitted to attend the sessions of the Union it would have been a simple matter to have dealt with him as the occasion demanded. And it is altogether likely that his communitistic ardor would have been considerably dampened in the practical atmosphere in which important international questions will be discussed. To the advertising he has now gratuitously received, however, he will add the pose of a martyr and trade upon it.

REGISTER NOW

THOSE QUALIFIED VOTERS who did not vote at the last provincial election and have not taken the trouble to re-register since will have to see that their names are placed on the electoral roll before the end of this month if they desire to vote at the Federal general election on October 29. Several thousand voters in this riding failed to apply for reinstatement while the lists were open some time ago; but that privilege may now be exercised. It should be understood that September 30 is the last day for re-registration. The duties of citizenship demand that all those who are not on the register get on at once.

CATTLE RATES AND A LITTLE HISTORY

ACCORDING TO THE Manitoba Free Press the steamship companies steadily refuse to reduce the cost of carrying cattle from this country to British ports on the other side of the Atlantic. The Government has informed the Canadian members of the Conference that if the present charge of twenty dollars per head could be reduced to fifteen dollars per head, there would be a real stimulus to cattle raisers to produce the cargo necessary for profitable transportation operations. But the companies are adamant on the point and say they can not afford to make the reduction. Our Winnipeg contemporary suggests, however, that interesting developments in this connection may be expected in a few days and that "before long effective steps to provide larger facilities for cattle transport at lower cost might be taken."

It will be recalled that when Dr. Tolmie was Minister of Agriculture in the Meighen Government he went to Great Britain and tendered evidence to the Finlay Commission which was at that time investigating the British embargo against the admission of Canadian cattle to the Old Country. His evidence supported the view generally held in Canada that if there were any justification for the original sanitary regulation, which closed the British market to our stockmen for more than thirty years, it had long ago given place to economic considerations closely resembling protection for the home cattleman. And when the Commission presented its findings and formally, without any sort of reservation, gave Canadian cattle the cleanest possible bill of health, it was only natural that Dr. Tolmie should express his unequalled pleasure at the bright prospect which the subsequent legislation in the British House would open up for the stockraisers of this Dominion. It was hailed as a triumph, as indeed it was, and more especially appreciated by Canada as a whole because the increased United States tariff had slowed up cattle exports to that country. Dr. Tolmie predicted a new and prosperous era for the stockman of this Dominion.

That was the Dr. Tolmie of a few years ago. When Dr. Grisdale, the present Deputy Minister of Agriculture, told the McMaster Committee which examined the Petersen shipping contract that there was no earthly reason why the shipping rates for cattle across the Atlantic should not be reduced from twenty dollars to fifteen dollars per head we do not recollect that the Federal member for Victoria lent his voice to this claim in an effort to improve the business of the country in which he took a part in assisting to restore while he was a Cabinet Minister. In fact Dr. Tolmie, following blindly the instructions of his leader, frowned upon any suggestion of interference with the operations of the North Atlantic Shipping Conference. Since then he has gone further than that. Only the other day he described the Petersen contract as "the half-baked idea of the King Government." But what does it matter whether the Canadian stockman can do business with Britain at a fair profit or on the very narrow margin which the present Atlantic rate determines so long as "special privilege" can continue to enjoy its advantages? In short, Dr. Tolmie pleaded for the removal of the embargo, and he is now opposed to a rate-reducing policy that would make its removal really profitable for Canadian stockmen.

WHO'S WHO IN HISTORY TO-DAY

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

DOMITIAN Roman emperor, was murdered on September 18, A.D. He was the second son of Vespasian and the brother of Titus, whom he succeeded. The early years of his reign were spent in warfare and the later years were marked by cruelty and tyranny. His death is said to have been brought about at the instance of the emperor Domitia and several officers of the court, who were in fear of their lives.

LOUIS VII (Surnamed "The Young" and "The Pious"), king of France, died on September 18, 1180. He ascended the throne at the age of seven, and ten years later took part in the second Crusade. He divorced his wife, Eleanor of Poitou, who in the same year was married to Henry of Anjou, afterward Henry II of England.

SAMUEL JOHNSON Celebrated English lexicographer, essayist and poet, was born at Litchfield, England, on September 18, 1709. Uncouth in appearance and manner, he nevertheless exercised a commanding influence over English literature, his good opinion being sought by most writers of his day. His chief works are a dictionary of the English language, "Rasselas" (written in the evenings of one week), and "Vanity of Human Wishes," a poem. He is best known through the "Lives" by James Boswell, who recorded minutely his sayings and doings.

DION BOUCAULT Anglo-American dramatist, manager, and actor, died in New York City on September 18, 1880. He married Agnes Robertson, an actress of note, but separated from her many years later, declaring that he had never been legally married. Among his plays are "London Assurance," "Colleen Bawn," and a version of "Rip Van Winkle."

WORDS OF WISE MEN

TWENTY PERSONS HURT

Rochester, N.Y., Sept. 17.—Twenty persons were hurt, several of them seriously, when a Rochester, Lockport and Buffalo interurban car struck a freight car on the same line a few miles outside of Brockport yesterday. The passenger car was on its way to this city when the accident occurred.

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication should be clearly and legibly written. The longer an article the more the chance of error. All communications must bear the name and address of the writer, but not for publication unless the writer desires it. No responsibility is assumed by the paper for MSS. submitted to the Editor.

ORPHANAGE POUND DAY

To the Editor:—Did you, Mr. or Mrs. Reader, when you were a little boy or girl wish and wish that you could work in a candy store, so that you could have all the candy you wanted? Or perhaps it was peanuts and popcorn you liked so well.

Up at the Orphanage on Friday the ladies in charge are going to have a "Pound Party." That means, of course, that pounds and pounds of potatoes, flour, tea, sugar and the like will be sent to the big house on the hill. These things are necessary and the sacks of oatmeal will be made into porridge that will make good red blood.

But could we not send enough of the "trimmings" to make the children themselves happy as well as comfortable? They are such well-behaved and nicely trained youngsters.

They are never neglected, we know. But they have no mothers or fathers to give them the little things that mean so much to children, and they are very appreciative young folks.

They are sure of a big supply of the groceries they need in a box or order to be well nourished. Suppose you send a box of chocolates and a bag of peanuts with our sack of flour.

This is just a suggestion from a "FRIEND OF CHILDREN."

REPLY TO MR. BARNJUM

To the Editor:—Mr. Barnjum's reply to my article pleases me well, for it corroborates just what I said.

He quoted from Sir John Willison to the effect that when raw materials are exported from a country they are followed by an exodus of the inhabitants to the place where they are manufactured. I asked whether this had occurred in regard to the exports of American raw cotton. Mr. Barnjum retorts that "immigration is never drawn to countries where the standard of living and wages are lower. Exactly."

What causes immigration is not just the export of raw materials, as Mr. Barnjum—following Sir John Willison—has suggested. Nor will it be stopped simply by an embargo on raw material export. It depends on quite complex conditions.

Groundless general statements of this sort about cause and effect are just samples of the sort of propaganda. Emigration from this Province, as from England to the United States, is due—as my critic now says—to the lure of a better wage.

It is due to the mill owners of our pulpwood. Mr. Barnjum, to make good his case, must show that keeping pulpwood in this Province would make wages rise. What he offers in proof is his own statement, without any real evidence, that the supply of this material in the Province is "totally inadequate to the demand."

Why, then, are not the mill owners buying it in large quantities? They will do so, he hints, if they can get an embargo imposed, and there will then be vast new projects to give employment. In short, if they can get the produce of woodland lots forced down in price by Government interference, these philanthropists will show their zeal for the Province by buying it in large quantities. We have seen such philanthropy before.

ECONOMIST.

TEN PER CENT. TAX REDUCTION

To the Editor:—Reverting again to the question of tax reduction for 1926 and thereafter, let me point out that the plan outlined whereby this boon may be obtained is not a risk, nor breaks any well-established rule of finance.

It is proposed simply to make lesser collections for sinking funds than are at present set out in the by-laws until the year 1943, when we shall make larger collections for sinking funds than required, and so repair the deficiency in a similar ratio. By this means it is possible—as set out in my former letter—to make a reduction in real estate taxes of ten per cent. Is it not wiser to try and carry this out? Presuming there is a recovery in real estate demand, which appears probable at present, the revenue derived from this source will be earmarked for sinking funds, so as to lessen the deficiency that may arise, and possibly may be sufficient to prevent all deficiency.

Let it be understood also, that during the period mentioned, 1925 to 1943, the city will have reduced its gross liabilities from $1,453,681 down to $2,787,862, which is a reduction of $5,738,209.

For the proposals made, clearly lays down the principle that no further borrowing will be undertaken until the sinking funds shall be fully restored. If, therefore, sales of re-verted lands shall at any time replenish the sinking funds to par, then the usual methods of finance will again be resumed.

Let me further point out that this will place no burdens on the next generation that would be unfair or unjust. The improvements or public works for which the bond issues were made will be fully operative when the taxpayers, in 1944 and after, will be required to shoulder a higher rate than otherwise they would do, if the tax reduction takes place.

For instance, the water works for which we owe $2,983,125, will be as valuable as ever in its history. The sewers and surface drains bond issues amounting to $2,596,632, will not lose one jot of value to the citizens when 1944 arrives. The school buildings, for which we borrowed $1,354,948, will be all liquidated by 1938, except two small loans, and will be practically useless as when built. So also with our bridges loans.

I wish I could forget the ghastly blunder of the Johnson Street bridge, against which I vainly protested—yet the $41,000, which this enterprise compelled us to borrow, will have been paid for long before its usefulness will have passed, and so on. The future citizen, the boys of to-day, will have a tremendously lightened load to carry from 1943 to 1957 than we, their fathers, have to bear to-day, and practically all of the public services represented by these loans will still be in running order.

Mr. Editor, I submit that the practical exigencies of the tax situation require that relief should be given, and we are not in doing so, placing any greater burden upon our citizens than they should reasonably be asked to bear.

Lastly, is not the land reversion for the past few years a plain intimation to the City Council that the tax rates are too high for either speculation or investment. Victoria City is not alone in the tide of land reversion, Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt tell the same monotonous tale, and whilst I think that there are sound reasons for optimism and hope, yet the actual facts of a large tax sale of lands this year in each and every municipality demand that stern measures be taken so as to rearrange the burden and lighten the peak load for the next few years.

Let the slogan be: Ten per cent. tax reduction, or... please fill in the blank, for words fail me.

W. MARCHANT, Alderman.

PREMIER KING SPOKE IN ST. PETERS, N.S.

Pointed Out That Under Liberal Rule Canada's Trade Has Grown

St. Peter's, N.S., Sept. 17.—Continuing his Maritime campaign by addressing an open air meeting by the seashore here yesterday, Premier King emphasized, as he had at Amherst, that in the development of export trade lay the way of the Maritime Provinces.

"What you need," he said, "is to have a lowering of ocean freight rates on your products. We had to have courage to attack the problem. We have not solved it yet, but want to keep at it."

On the tariff he urged that higher protection would mean higher prices and here he made a special appeal to women. Were they, he asked, prepared to support Mr. Meighen and thus increase the prices of things used in the home?

He pointed out that under Liberal rule trade had already been developed. The Prime Minister predicted that the retirement of the United Farmers of Ontario from the Federal campaign would mean the election of a larger number of Liberals Ontario rural ridings. He was also confident the Government would capture a number of seats in the West.

WOMEN DRIVERS RESENT CHARGES

More Careful Than Men at Steering Wheel, They Say. Toronto, Sept. 17 (By Canadian Press).—Compulsory driving permits for all motorists in Ontario will soon be the rule, such legislation having been forecasted by the powers that be. Magistrate Cohen's recent statement "There are too many women drivers. They should never allow a woman to drive without a certificate" is objected to strongly by a writer of an article who says, "Official statistics are very much in favor of the woman driver."

James Island News

Soccer fans will see an outside team in action in the first division this year as the result of a decision reached by the lower island football association last night when it was decided to accept the entry of James Island.

This will make six teams in the league and with the island eleven eleven competition should be keen. It is expected the clubs will be evenly matched this season.

The first division will get under way on Saturday, September 26, and the drawing for the three games will take place at the meeting of Association next Monday night.

Three teams are expected to compete in the Junior Football League this year, while at least two will be entered in the juvenile league.

At present the Veterans, Saanich Thistles and Esquimalt United, have identified their intention of taking part in the Junior League. It is thought that The Colonist may also enter an eleven.

The Juvenile League only two entries, Oaklands and Foul Bay, have been received.

Entries will close next Tuesday, and they must be in the hands of the president of the two leagues, Percy Payne, by that date.

The Junior League matches will commence on Saturday, September 26, while the juvenile teams will not get started until October 3.

North Okanagan Fair is Success

Vernon, B.C., Sept. 17.—The North Okanagan fair, which was opened yesterday by Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Provincial Minister of Public Works, proved very successful despite the recent burning of the buildings and a dry season.

Dr. Sutherland said it was important to see to the roads for the purpose of marketing the produce of the country, as well as for tourists. He also said the Government was giving attention to the needs of the mining industry, which he said, as it was encouraged would bring better markets for the farmers and prosperity to all.

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL Vancouver, Sept. 17.—A verdict of accidental death was brought in at the coroner's jury which sat at the city morgue yesterday afternoon and inquired into the circumstances surrounding the fatal injury of W. Lovelock, struck down by a runaway automobile yesterday afternoon. No blame was attached to Mrs. W. H. Foulks, driver of the car, who had parked her machine while she went into a bank.

AT THE THEATRES

SHOWING THE TOWN IS DEMONSTRATED BY REGINALD DENNY

That there are more ways than one of seeing the sights of the town is illustrated in Reginald Denny's latest laughing success, "I'll Show You the Town," the Universal-Jewel feature now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

The days of the hackney coach, omnibus and rubberneck-wagon have gone and even a more modern vehicle than taxicabs has come to take their place. The aeroplane is at last coming into its own and, according to the pilots of the air, the flying machine outstrips all competitors in point of absolute efficiency.

In "I'll Show You the Town," the screen version of Elmer Davis' screamingly funny story, Reginald Denny is cast in the role of a young college professor who is placed in the predicament of having to show the sights of the town to an extremely homesy, but wealthy widow who is on a short visit to the metropolis from her provincial home. Denny has but thirty minutes in which to accomplish this tour of the town. The widow, Agnes Cleveger, played by Clary Fitzgerald, had never been up in an aeroplane and wasn't overjoyed for the experience. Be that as it may the flight over the metropolis furnishes a full share of whole hearted laughs and

Capitol—"I'll Show You the Town."
Columbia—"His Pal."
Dominion—"Black Cyclone."
Coliseum—"The Arrival of Kitty."

is one of the outstanding situations in the production.

Incidentally, a sightseeing tour by aeroplane has since been conceded to be not only efficient, but extremely practical. Five minutes in the air and the Widow Cleveger saw the town and all its sights. Marian Nixon, Edward Kimball, Lillian Tashman, Hayden Stevenson, Martin Livingston, Neely Edwards, William A. Carroll, Martha Mattox, Helen Greens and Lionel Bramham are in the supporting cast.

"His Pal" was directed by the production.

Admirers of Tom Mix, with the inseparable Tony and the more recent opportunity to see their favorite in a new picture with "His Pals" at the Columbia Theatre to-day. In this, his latest vehicle he appears as Dave Deering a happy-go-lucky wandering prospector, a lover of his horse Tony, and later a dog Duke, that he finds sorely wanted. From this point the story moves with intensified action, with many realistic scenes, one vivid feature being a real forest fire. It is an ideal vehicle for Mix.

"His Pals" was directed by J. G. Blystone for William Fox and was adapted from "Sonny," the popular novel by Virginia Hudson Brightman.

WILD HORSE IS REDEEMED BY HUMANE TREATMENT

Rex, the king of wild horses, starred by Hal Roach in "Black Cyclone," a new photodrama of the Nevada hill country showing now at the Dominion Theatre, is the finest example living 40-day of a magnificent beast, viciously tempered by early influences, being redeemed by kindness and made to serve a worthwhile purpose in life.

As "Casey Jones" he was chained in a stall in Colorado because he was a killer of men—until Hal Roach's scouts discovered the black stallion and brought him out of his prison. Treated in the right way by Carl Morrison, noted horse trainer, and his brother, he gave evidence in a short time of becoming a prize animal. Fred Jackman, who directed him last year in "The King of Wild Horses," which created a sensation, and also in "Black Cyclone," by spirit without viciousness that he has ever seen.

SPECIAL PROGRAMME AT DOMINION TO-NIGHT

"Three Songs From Eiland" (Felix)
"Woodland Pictures" (Fletcher)

Another musical item of exceptional interest is the engagement of Miss Ada Wise, Victoria's gold medalist soprano. Miss Wise will render a special programme of song selections including such favorites as "An Irish Love Song," and "Out of the Dusk to You." The comedy, Dominion News, and Felix cartoon will also be interpreted by the Dominion orchestra.

Judges Name Winners In "I'll Show You the Town" Capitol Picture Contest

Judging from the excitement that Reginald Denny has created at the Capitol this week in his great picture "I'll Show You the Town," half Victoria wants to act as a guide in showing the sights to the other half. From a pile of letters in The Times contest for the best 250-word essay on "I'll Show You the Town," the committee of judges made their selection last night.

The film which undoubtedly will establish itself as a unique standard for photography and beauty of dramatic setting.

An unusual feature in the making of "Folly of Vanity" was the fact that two directors combined their efforts in the work. Maurice Elvey, the noted English producer, whom William Fox imported to this country recently, and Henry Otto, director of "Dante's Inferno," were the two men responsible for the excellence of the film.

BEN LYON WAS PARTICIPANT IN SCREEN WEDDING

Ben Lyon has always wanted a screen wedding. He has often been a "married man," but without the trimmings. But, until "The Necessary Evil," in which he is to be seen with Viola Dana in their latest First National feature at the Playhouse Theatre this week, did he get his wish. And after he got it he didn't want it. "The Necessary Evil" is an adaptation of Stephen Vincent Benet's magazine story, "Uriah's Son." It was produced for First National by Earl Hudson and was directed by George Archbald. In the supporting cast are Frank Mayo, Gladys Brock, Thomas Holding, Mary Thurman, Arthur Housman and Betty Jewel.

Big City Bad Place For Automobile Now

New York, Sept. 17.—The ordinary citizen just trying to get along can console himself at the lack of an automobile more easily here than almost anywhere else. He can tell himself, with sincerity, that he wouldn't know what to do with a car if he had it. If he lives in downtown Manhattan the argument is more convincing, for traffic congestion between home and the open road is the sort of thing to break a driver's heart.

One motorist—a woman—keeps her car over in Jersey near one of the tubes. She uses the subway or occasionally a taxicab for all practical purposes. Then of an evening or for the week-end she goes to her car and takes it spinning through the country on accessible roads which erase all thought of the city.

Another car owner, and there are many like him, keeps an automobile as an investment and has a driver operate it for hire on a fifty-fifty basis. But the arrangement is more profitable for the driver than for the owner. And the owner never gets a ride.

JAILED FOR PERJURY

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—One year in jail was imposed yesterday on Patrick and Archibald Henri, brothers, for perjury in giving evidence during the hearing of a liquor charge here recently. In passing sentences Magistrate St. Hugh John Macdonald declared the practice of perjury was becoming too prevalent and was seriously hampering the authorities in their efforts to enforce the law.

Uncle Wiggily picked some of the morning glories.

all day. At night they curl tightly shut, as if to hide their beauty from the dark. But when the sun shines again the petals unfold and the flowers open again.

It was nearly night when Buzzer flew inside the morning glory. And night came while the big bee slept. So that when the flower opened, as pink petals doors, the bee was shut up inside.

Now it was about this time in the early evening when the morning glories closed and closed that Uncle Wiggily's wife sent the bunny gentleman out in the field to gather a little bouquet.

"Some company is coming to tea," explained Mrs. Longears, and I want a bouquet for the table."

So Uncle Wiggily picked many blossoms and at last he came to the morning glory vine, the flowers of which were closed for the sun was almost setting now.

"Those morning glories aren't very pretty now," said the rabbit to himself, "but if I take them home, and put them in water to-morrow they will open when they see the sun shining, and they will be beautiful." Having picked for his wife a bouquet of other flowers that remained open by night, as well as by day, Uncle Wiggily gathered some of the pink, closed morning glories for himself. And in one of those he picked was Buzzer, the bumbler.

On the way home with his two bouquets, Uncle Wiggily suddenly felt a movement inside the closed pink flower.

"Hello!" cried the bunny. "What is this? Is any one in there?"

"I am!" answered Buzzer, who was now awake. "I'm shut in the pink flower and I can't get out! Please help me!"

"Well," said Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his nose. "It would be a pity to untwist the morning glory to let you out. I would tear the tender flower. How would it do for you to sleep there until morning, when the flower will open with the rising sun, and you can then crawl out? Meanwhile you will be safe in my bungalow."

"That's all right," said Buzzer from inside the closed morning glory. So Uncle Wiggily put the pink flower, containing the bee, in a vase on the window, where the rising sun would shine on it and open it early in the morning.

All the bunnies in the hollow stump bungalow slept peacefully through the night. But early in the morning the Fussy Fox crept out of its den.

"I will crawl in Uncle Wiggily's

As stated above Manager Denham will announce the winners at the Capitol to-night.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Pink Flowers

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
(By Howard R. Garcia)

Buzzer, the big, yellow bumble bee, was flying around in the woods and fields. From some flowers he gathered honey to take back to the nest where, in the winter, when no flowers bloomed, he and the other bumblebees would have something to eat. From a pink flower Buzzer gathered, on his fuzzy, hairy legs, the yellow dust called pollen, and from this he made wax cups, which held the honey until he wanted to eat it.

"Well, this looks like a good flower to crawl into," said Buzzer to himself as he flew near a pink morning glory blossom. "I ought to get a lot of honey juice here, and a little of the sweet juice before filling his sac with what remained to carry it back to the nest. For though flower juice is sweet, the bees make it sweeter and thicker by changing it into honey when they reach their homes."

After Buzzer had sipped the sweet juice of the morning glory, the bumbler felt a bit tired and sleepy. So he nestled down in the very bottom of the pink blossom cup and, before he knew it, he was fast asleep.

Now several stories are not like other flowers. They do not remain wide open, like the face of a clock,

Cup Custard
1/2 cup St. Charles Milk, 1/2 cup water, 1 egg beaten, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, nutmeg and vanilla.

It was a big task for the judges. Twenty were selected from the pile of prospective winners. The twenty were so close that it was hard to separate them. Then it was discovered that in their anxiety to out-do Buzzer Denny, the "Show the Town" at the Capitol this week, some of the twenty had exceeded the 250-word limit, and that put them out of the race.

Spanish Cream
1 1/2 cups St. Charles Milk, diluted with 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 1/2 tablespoons granulated gelatine, 1 tablespoon vanilla.

Let gelatine stand in the milk for five minutes, then scald the mixture. Combine egg yolks, sugar and salt with the scalded milk and cook until slightly thickened like a custard. Then stir mixture into egg whites beaten stiff; add vanilla. Turn into individual moulds which have been dipped in cold water and when set, unmold and serve with light cream, or preserved fruit.

Prune Snow
1/2 cup St. Charles Milk, 1/2 cup water, 1 pint well cooked, pitted prunes, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 teaspoon butter, 2 egg whites, 1/2 cup powdered sugar.

Combine the prunes, milk, granulated sugar and butter in a shallow baking dish. Make a meringue of the two egg whites and powdered sugar, spread it over prunes, place in very slow oven; bake fifteen to twenty minutes, when milk will be absorbed by prunes and the meringue a delicate brown.

window, before he is up, and nibble him!" barked the Fox. But he tried to crawl in the window on the sill of which was the pink flower. And just then the morning glory opened, as the sun shone on it, and out flew Buzzer.

"Oh ho!" sang the bee as he saw the Fox. "You are here for no good, I am sure!" And Buzzer stung the fox on his nose, so the bad chap ran away howling.

"Just my luck! Just my luck! Oh, what a pain on my beezee!"

So it all happened for the best, you see, and if the ocean will wave some sea foam at the fish hawk, and sprinkle salt on the lettuce tail, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the bird bath.

Recommend Care In Prevention of Smuggling Goods

The Retail Executive of the Chamber of Commerce appointed J. W. Maynard as chairman for the ensuing year, and H. S. Stevenson as sub-chairman, at a meeting held this morning in the Chamber of Commerce committee room. Among other matters considered was the smuggling problem as it affects Canada, and goods coming into this country.

Recommendations will be made that more publicity should be given to the amendment to the Customs Act, which restricts all goods coming into Canada, whether dutiable or free, to be reported at the nearest Customs house. Senator Willis Hopes U.S. Will Join World Court

Vancouver, Sept. 17.—United States Senator Frank B. Senator Willis is himself a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, the distinguished chairman of that committee, for whom I have great respect and personal affection, thinks he is able to ride roughshod over the sentiments of English-speaking people everywhere, but particularly in Canada and the United States, when he starts it in the Senate, he will find he is going to have a pretty lively contest on his hands," the senator declared.

"I am only one member of the Senate committee, I can not prophesy with accuracy as to what will be done, but I have every confidence Harding's dying wish for entrance into the World Court will be gratified."

Charge of Fraud is Heard in Saskatoon

D. McConnell Defends Himself in Wheat Belt Packing Company Case

Saskatoon, Sept. 17.—After hearing witnesses daily since Monday morning, the prosecution this morning completed its case against Douglas McConnell, Saskatoon, according to figures released by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau this morning. Out of this total number 45,000 were released by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau this morning, $10,000, came without motors.

Last year 300,000 visitors visited the city, while in 1923 there were 250,000.

The majority of the tourists who came here this season signified their intention of coming back next year and staying for a longer period. They were also great in requests for duplicate information pamphlets to give to their friends. A great many inquiries were also received regarding Victoria's winter climate, which is a new feature.

Many of the visitors also stated they were coming back to this city to live. The business knowledge is being every day from all points of the continent requesting information regarding the value of real estate. People are seeking knowledge with a view of settling on the island.

Baroness Orczy Here Next Week

John H. Reid and Raymond J. Priest, the chief promoters of the concern, who were brought back from Victoria to answer charges in the same connection, were prosecuted witnesses at the present trial. Priest was brought back some months ago, while Reid was arrested and brought back here this month. Priest was tried before Mr. McCreary, and is disposed of, while Reid has not yet been given a preliminary hearing.

The McConnell trial may be completed by the end of the week.

Nearly $50,000 of the funds subscribed to the Wheat Belt Company vanished in the promotion stages, it is charged.

Medium Faces Test on Stage in Pittsburg

Pittsburg, Sept. 17.—Rev. Alice S. Dooley, pastor of the Pittsburg Church of Divine Healing, announced she had accepted a challenge by Harry Houdini, the magician, to prove herself a medium, and her test would be made to-night on the stage of a theatre where Houdini is appearing.

The conditions for the test provide that the woman must answer in three quarters of an hour, a series of separate sealed envelopes with a cord through each of the envelopes.

Houdini has offered a prize of $10,000 to any medium who successfully meets the conditions. Other prizes offered by scientific publications and organizations would bring the total to $30,000.

PROMOTION OF GUIDES

The Sixth Victoria, St. George's School, Company had its first meeting since the Summer vacation on Tuesday, September 15, when the parents and friends of the Guides were invited to inspect the new school improvements, and incidentally the company's smart display of company drill and inspection by the officers was given, and the following promotions made known: To be acting lieutenant, Mary Campbell; to be patrol leaders, Mary Bastin, Clair Wilson; to be patrol second, E. Gale.

MAYOR LOSES LITTLE TIME STARTING ADVERTISING PLAN

Will Make Personal Drive For Financial Support by Business Concerns

Mayor Carl Pendray has in preparation the advertising he proposes shall be inserted in Prairie newspapers during the next few months. As soon as the Convention of the Union of Municipalities concludes, next week, he will commence a personal campaign, among the city's business men directly benefited, for contributions towards the cost.

The City Council recently approved of Mayor Pendray's proposals for advertising city owned lands among the farming communities of Western Canada and voted to contribute $250 from the Greater Victoria appropriation to cover one-half the charges estimated. The remainder of the required $500 must be contributed by the real estate operators, restaurants and hotels, taxi-cab and bus operators and others expected to gain from the influx of visitors.

Mayor Pendray will be supported in his campaign for contributions by the Victoria Publicity Bureau and prominent members of the Real Estate Board.

A point of unusual interest in the advertising is the offer of refund of railway fare to visitors, to all purchasers, at list prices, of city owned lots above a minimum valuation.

Mayor Pendray anticipates that the city will gain collectively the sale of at least two hundred properties, while the offer of refunds to buyers will prove the final attraction impelling hundreds of farmers, on vacation, to come to Victoria and spend at least some time and money in the city.

WIDOW IS IN JAIL

Seattle, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Tom Marks was in the county jail here to-day weeping and mourning for her husband, a wife-beater and a former convict, whom she killed yesterday with a paring knife.

Mrs. Marks's body showed marks of several beatings she had received from him.

"Don't know just what happened," she said. "I had a little paring knife in my hand, I was sore, and we went to bed. He threw me away from him after a bit and went into the living room. CO-OPERATION AT COLISEUM BRINGS COMPANY SUCCESS

Cordial co-operation of all the members of the company is responsible for the success of the Coliseum shows, manager Frank Allwood remarks in speaking of the popular players who have won their way into the hearts of Victoria audiences. "Actors and actresses are well known to be extremely sensitive as to the place they secure in the spotlight or the part they are given in a play," he says, "but at the Coliseum we are in the happy position of being free from all the little troubles that so often create discord in a stock company. As a result some weeks you will see a player in the star role. The next week a new star appears. This applies both to the lady members and the gentlemen of the company."

"With many companies that would be impossible although for the audience it is much more entertaining. We are in the happy position where every member of the company is quite ready to sink his or her identity to help in the success of the shows, and this enables us to give our audiences variety and surprises which are essential when the same players appear week after week. It also gives the members of the company the opportunity to appeal to their following, and you will be surprised how certain individuals in a stage have their own particular section of admirers in front."

"One week one lady member of the company will appear in a role for which she is particularly suited, and the mail box will be filled with complimentary letters for her. Another week another member will win the honors."

"It is interesting to note what touches the fancy of the audience."

Victoria Rotarians Have Big Task Ahead Next Year

Kenneth Ferguson Congratulated Upon Kiwanis Honor Accorded

To-day's Rotary luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce was featured by reports by President R. W. Mayhew and Secretary J. Goodlake upon the annual district meeting of club executives, held at Everett on Monday and Tuesday last.

From advice there given him by other club officers, Secretary Goodlake anticipated attendance of at least 2,000 Rotarians at the 1926 District Conference, to be held here next Summer. President Mayhew stated that a surplus of $1,700 is in hand from the Portland convention held recently, and will be available to support the Victoria programme.

NOT ANY NOVELTY

H. P. Johnson, introducing a series of brief speakers on the objectives of Rotary, pointed out that the Rotary idea is not as new as has been thought, Boswell having recorded, in 1764, the meetings of Dr. Johnson, David Garrick and others, in London, at weekly sessions of the "Rota Club," so called because the chair was taken by rotation of the members each week.

Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, C. Shephard, Percy Scudlark and Herbert Kent supported Mr. Johnson in outlining various aspects of Rotary.

As an example to the other members, President Mayhew suspended the singing of "O Canada" until commencement of the business programme, the late-comers, a large percentage of the attendance, being put through the ordeal of standing and answering as the names were read out by Sergeant-at-Arms Herbert Kent.

The Rotary Club tendered congratulations to Kenneth Ferguson upon his election as District Governor of the Pacific Northwest Kiwanis Clubs.

Yorkshire Cricket Champs For Fourth Consecutive Year

Fourteenth Time in Thirty-Two Years That Yorkshire Has Won County Honors

Hobbs Leads Batsmen by Big Margin; Parker of Gloucester Is Best Bowler

London, Sept. 17 (Canadian Press Cable)—For the fourth consecutive season and the fourteenth time Yorkshire is the champion county, the first-class cricket averages for this season show:

Jack Hobbs of Surrey, by a big margin, is the leading batsman, and Charles Parker of Gloucester, the best bowler. Hobbs scored 3,024 runs during the summer.

This year marks the fourteenth time in thirty-two years that Yorkshire has produced the champion county team.

Jack Hobbs, whose batting average is eleven points higher than the second leading batsman, was second in the table last year, Sandham heading the table then. In this season's figures Hendren, Holmes and Woolley are second, third and fourth (last year respectively) third, fourth, fifth and fourth; Sandham, fifth, and Sutcliffe sixth, as last year.

A. W. Carr, the amateur, has moved up to eighth place from twenty-second, and Russell comes ninth, was twenty-sixth last season. Ernest Tyldesley is tenth, last year being eighth.

PARKER MOVED UP LONG WAY

Parker of Gloucester moved up from eighth position in the table of leading bowlers last year to first this year. Tate and Richard Tyldesley have improved from fourth and fifth last year to second and third this season, while last season's leading bowler, Macaulay, is shown fourth this year.

J. C. White, the amateur, is the fifth leading bowler this season, having improved from twelfth place last year, to the sixth bowler, Root, with fifteenth last season. Richmond, who did not figure at all last season, is ninth, while Kilner, a member of the English eleven that toured Australia last winter and was last season's second leading bowler, is tenth.

London, Sept. 17.—Rain caused the abandonment of the concluding fixture of the cricket season between Yorkshire, the champion county, and the Rest of England, played at the Oval. The Rest scored 241 and four wickets, declared, their opponents replying with 212 and 112 for three wickets. Rain stopped play at this point.

Champion's Style Makes Great Hit With Local Fans

Foley Worked Out Last Night Before Great Crowd; Mascot Shows Off To-night

Great Battle Looked For at Arena To-morrow Night; Fine Supporting Card

Fans packed the Metropolis billiard rooms last night to see Vic Foley in action. It is claimed that never before in Victoria has such a crowd turned out to see the principal in a headline bout.

Mascot, Foley's challenger in the ten round mill at the Arena to-morrow night for the impressive bantamweight championship belt which now reposes in the window of the Empire Realty Company, arrived in the city this afternoon and will work out at the Metropolis to-night and this will give the fight lovers a chance to see both men in training before the step into the ring for the big contest.

Foley, from whom great things were expected, exceeded expectations. He wore eighteen-ounce gloves and his headgear, and had Al Davies and Co Lewis as sparring partners. The little champion, standing not much over five feet, is a mass of springing activity and grace. His admirers swear that no ballet star has so many steps or is so accurate as the bantamweight king. Not much of an effective fighter, every step is accurate to a fraction of an inch. He is a two-handed fighter, with both gloves going continuously, and his sparring partners were thankful for the well padded mitts when openings were left and the fists crashed.

Foley's life is mapped out on the subject of keeping fit. The primrose path means nothing to him. His first inquiries when he hit the city were regarding golf courses. All the time he can spare from routine work he will spend at Colwood with his manager, Jack Allen.

The referee question is still unsolved. Tommie Moore, Perry Queenan, Dick Wylie, Al Davies, Joe Bayle, George Addison and W. A. Bastone are the names that have been mentioned. Most of them have yet to be named from V. K. Gray, Frank Stevenson, G. Bolton, Albert Jones, Frank Day and E. H. Fisher.

A LENGTHY CARD

In their enthusiasm to make the subject of the forty of a championship night the promoters have apparently over-reached themselves. The card is good and has been arranged to feature the introduction of Nannaimo and Seattle boys but it runs to over forty rounds if they go to the limit. Here is how it is set out:

90-lb. Class, three rounds—"Tubby" Stephens, Victoria West vs. Bobby Jackson, North Ward.

145-lb. Class, four rounds—Frank Wheldon vs. Billy O'Conner.

90-lb. Class, four rounds—Albie Davies vs. Jumbo Davies.

145-lb. Class, four rounds—Dave Lewis, Victoria vs. Young Henderson, Nannaimo.

110-lb. Class, four rounds—Jackie Holliday, Vancouver vs. Seattle contestant.

165-lb. Class, four rounds—Sam McFee vs. J. A. McAllister.

125-lb. Class, four rounds—Tommy Pelding, Victoria vs. Billy Townsend, Nannaimo.

120-lb. Class, four rounds—Danny Pascoe vs. Trade Brooks, Vancouver.

Main event, Canadian Bantamweight Championship, ten rounds—Vic Foley, Vancouver, champ, vs. Billy Mascot, Portland, Ore., challenger.

At New York—R. H. E. Cleveland ..... 0 8 1

New York—R. H. E. Miller and Myatt; Shocker and Bengough.

Second game—R. H. E. Cleveland ..... 3 5 0

New York—R. H. E. Batteries—Speece and Myatt; Penrock and Luebbe.

At Philadelphia—R. H. E. Philadelphia ..... 1 8 1

Batteries—Lyons, Kerr and Crouse; Rommel and Cochrane.

Second game—R. H. E. Chicago ..... 6 11 1

The rugby season is away! The picture shows the first workout of the Argonaut Rowing Club rugby squad of Toronto, when the members of last year's team put all newcomers through a rough and ready initiation ceremony. ## Equal Number Of Canadian and U.S. Women In Running

Each Country Has Four Players in Semi-finals of Golf Championship

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—The twentieth annual Canadian ladies' open golf championship has been narrowed down to a straight international contest between the United States and Canada, and of the eight players who won their second round matches today, four were from each country.

In the third round to-day two Canadians clash in one match and two Americans meet in the other, while in the other two, both in the lower half of the draw, the United States-Canada contest will be carried on.

When the play started yesterday there were nine Canadians and seven Americans in the running and the United States won three of the five international matches of the second round. There was only one upset to the play, the victory of Mrs. Maude

Think Dominions Should Be Heard In Rugby Matters

Split Occurs in Old Country Rugby Union on This Point; Ask For Suggestions

London, Sept. 17 (Canadian Press Cable)—In a signed article to the Rugby Union Annual, Rowland Hill, ex-president of the Rugby Union, confirms the existence of a split between the English and Scottish members of the international board on the question of giving the Dominions a bigger voice in the control of the game.

Mr. Hill states that he approved the proposal put forward at a meeting of the board regarding the formation of an advisory board consisting of representatives of the fourth home unions and the New Zealand and South African Rugby Unions. He was deeply disappointed that the board had not given effect to this and pointed out that the Dominions had already represented the union.

The committee earnestly invites the Dominions to send any suggestion they have in the confident hope that they will be carefully considered. Mr. Hill also advocates a trial here of the Australian and New Zealand rule which penalizes the side finding touch outside their own twenty-five yard line.

The foregoing dispatch is of special interest to Canadians in view of the strong efforts being made at present to revise the Rugby Code in the Dominion, where the Maoris, who toured the United Kingdom in the 'eighties of the last century, Canada was the first Dominion to send a representative team to Old Country about twenty-five years ago. The game was then supplanted in Canada, except in the Maritimes and British Columbia, where the original rugby code continues to flourish. Some efforts are being made this year to strengthen the game in the central provinces.

There is no national union in Canada although practically all the clubs playing rugby are affiliated with the Rugby Union of Great Britain.

Pictorial Golf Instruction

By H. B. Martin

Keep Head Down In Making Shots

IN PLAYING OVER A SANDTRAP MAKE SURE THAT THE CLUB DOES THE WORK

One of the easiest shots in golf appears the most difficult to the average player. Here is a picture of Walter Hagen playing over a trap, that would be difficult for nine out of ten who often are confronted with this same shot and are at a loss to know how to manage it.

The secret is in making the club do the work. If one practiced this pitch every day on ground that was straight away with no bunkers or traps the chances are that he would be able to perform the feat nine out of ten times. When a trap faces the ordinary golfer there is a difference. But it is only a mental difference. The player sometimes forgets and lifts his head and automatically the club comes up and the ball half topped lands in the trap instead of clearing it.

Be sure to keep the head down and send the club through on a straight line. One can see by the picture here that Hagen has done this and that the shot has been a success.

STAPLES-DAVIES BICYCLE RACE AT HILL WEDNESDAY

"Chuck" Staples of Victoria and Jim Davies of Vancouver will race next Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to decide the holder of the Moody Cup, which has been put up by Dr. Glendon Moody of Vancouver for a fifteen-mile race around Beacon Hill.

On Labor Day the race was officially held but, owing to a confusion in the time, no winner was declared. Staples and Davies were ordered to race again.

The Victoria Cycle Club has arranged to hold the race at a time which will ensure a good crowd. The trophy is now gaining in popularity all over the continent and spectators gather in large numbers at all races here.

Staples is favored to beat Davies. In a race in Vancouver two weeks ago Staples defeated Davies and captured another cup donated by Dr. Moody.

Lacoste and Alonzo Only Outsiders In Court Semi-finals

Anderson and Borotra Eliminated in U.S. Championship; Big Surprises

Forest Hills, Sept. 17.—Jean Borotra, hero of France's gallant but crushing defeat yesterday at the hands of R. Norris Williams, veteran captain of America's Davis Cup forces, Williams, making comeback which lifts him to a strong contending position in the national singles championship for the first time in several years, outgained and outplayed Lacoste to score the outstanding triumph of the day at 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

It took Williams less than an hour to turn back the agile Frenchman, who lacked at any stage the fiery aggressiveness and accuracy which characterized his victories in the Davis Cup challenge round.

It was a bad day for the foreign contingent as a whole. The last two Japanese representatives, S. Onda and Takekichi Harada, were put out along with James O. Anderson, Australian captain, who fell a victim to the American Johnstone's chop strokes while Rene Lacoste, France's Wimbledon champion, was forced to five sensational sets before he downed Brian Norton, 6-4, 2-5, 8-6, 3-6, 8-6, in the most exciting encounter of the afternoon.

AMERICANS WIN EASILY

America's forces dominated their matches in decisive fashion. In addition to Williams' decisive victory, Wm. Johnston and Vincent Richards, two outstanding native contenders for the crown, advanced without serious opposition, all scoring straight set victories.

Richards, playing as he pleased, disposed of the Japanese, Onda, in sweeping fashion.

Manuel Alonso of Spain, the only other foreign victor, advanced at the expense of Alfred H. Chapin Jr. of Springfield, Mass., in straight sets.

The eight survivors will meet in the quarter final to-day on the following schedule:

Tilden vs. Wallace Johnstone. Kinsey vs. Williams. William Johnston vs. Alonzo. Richards vs. Lacoste.

Lawn Bowling

The cup presented by J. M. Boyd for competition between members and friends of the Burnside Lawn Bowling Club was produced in many good games. Out of twenty-five entries the finish was of a very unusual character, the two players who emerged to face each other in the final being Johnstone Sr. and Johnstone Jr.

J. R. Johnstone is a bowler of some experience, but his son Peter is enjoying his first season on the green. The younger player has shown himself to be an apt pupil. The final game was a very uphill fight for the elder player. Right from the start Peter took the lead, and maintained it to the finish, the score standing 13 to 15 in his favor. The cup will be presented at the social to be held in the club room on October 3.

Next Saturday afternoon the members of both the ladies' and the men's clubs will gather in force for the last time this season.

American Amateur Golf Team to Visit England Next Year

New York, Sept. 17.—Defence of the Walker Cup, international amateur golf trophy, will take the victorious American team to England next year if plans of United States Golf Association officials materialize. As the scene of the next matches, the famous Muirfield links of England are under consideration.

Several new faces are expected in the American team as a result of the rise of young players to prominence in the recent amateur championship.

BEATEN IN STRAIGHT FALLS

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 17.—Matty Matsuda of Japan, wrid's welterweight wrestling champion, successfully defended his title here last night by downing Joe Silvio of Boston, in straight falls, the first in forty-nine minutes and the second in 21.

L. Tait Returns From Winnipeg Meeting

After having represented British Columbia at the meeting of the Canadian Lacrosse Association in Winnipeg Leonard Tait returned home yesterday. He states that fine results were obtained and that everything looks fine for the complete return of the national pastime.

Spencers Victors In Final Game For Ball Championship

Defeated Sidney 9-6 and Won Commercial League Title, McGavin Cup

Fine Pitching of Donaldson, Coupled With Sidney's Errors, Responsible For Win

Playing a splendid brand of ball behind the fine pitching of Dave Donaldson, Spencer's won the Commercial League ball championship at the Royal Athletic Park yesterday afternoon by defeating Sidney by the score of 9-6. The game was a hard-fought battle, the millmen putting up a great fight before yielding to defeat.

As a result of their victory the departmentals gained possession of the McGavin Cup. The trophy was presented to them after the game by Jim Rutledge.

Dave Donaldson twirled a fine game for the winners, allowing ten hits while he struck out no less than fourteen batters. In his last ten games Donaldson has won nine and led one which is a most creditable record.

Williams hurled a good game for Sidney but his teammates let him down in the pinches. Most of his runs scored by Spencer's were on errors. The millmen faltered no less than nine times. Williams allowed eight scattered hits while he fanned seven.

Spencer's opened the scoring in the first inning when a single and two errors accounted for two runs. Sidney drove one runner home in the second, Simpson scoring on Barry's error in left field. Spencer's added another in the third on two wild throws and a bobble.

SIDNEY EVEN UP

Four clean singles gave the departmentals a couple more tallies in the fifth but the suburbanites came right back and in the sixth scored three innings they touched Donaldson up for six hits which earned them four runs, tying up the score five-all.

Spencer's scored three winning runs in the eighth inning when three errors and two singles netted them four counters.

Stein, Hunter and Egan Win Matches In Cal. Tournament

Bullock-Webster, Title-holder, Beaten by Frank Dolph of Portland

Del Monte, Cal., Sept. 17.—Capt. A. Bullock-Webster, formerly of New Zealand and now a golfing star of Hollywood, lost his title as state amateur golf champion yesterday in a match with twenty-year-old Frank Dolph, straight putting pride of Portland, Oregon. The score of six and five was indicative of the fact that Webster was playing below his usual form, while Dolph was over-looking no opportunities to improve his game.

The game was in match play in the California amateur golf championship tournament. Charles Chung, keen-eyed young Chinese player from Honolulu, was eliminated by Max Behr, Los Angeles, a leading figure in national golf affairs for the past decade, by 2 and 1.

Wall Street TO-DAY

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, Sept. 17 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—A wave of outside buying carried the general market forward in the forenoon trading but the fresh bulge in quotation seemed to attract abundant selling. It was evident that some large operators were selling on the strong spots. The day's news budget carried many constructive features. Car loadings figures of late have been extremely large and it looks as though August railroad exhibits will be much better.

There is no denying the many constructive influences are confronting markets in addition to the anticipations of more favorable developments in not distant future. With minor interruptions of short duration stock markets with few exceptions have been on the upgrade for a rather extended period and is quite likely that prices will react. It would not be surprising if many departments continued strong, but advise caution on the bulges.

New York, Sept. 17 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's direct Wall Street wire)—The evening stock market edition of The Wall Street Journal says: Heavy rains came in today's market after further aggressive advances in the morning ledgers. Before the general list turned reactionary, Tuesday's reaction brought about some correction of technical conditions. But this movement was brief and was followed by vigorous resumption of operations for the week practically the entire industrial list.

Spirited buying activities spread to fresh stocks and new highs on the current advance were reached by a broad group of representative issues. Shattuck was one exception to the general trend, dipping nearly two points to 79 1/2, on announcement that negotiations for the acquisition of the Huyler Chain of stores had been discontinued.

Kelsey Wheel reached new high ground on the move at 102, on reports that some consideration will be given in the near future to retiring the outstanding $2,220,400 preferred, leaving 100,000 common shares only outstanding. When such action is taken, bankers believe the company will distribute to the common some of its large surplus, which amounts to $400,000.

General Motors climb above 100 presented the novel situation of simultaneous buying by insiders and the "outsider"—W. C. Durant. But Durant seemed to have the better part of the argument in that case, as he began buying first. It is estimated that Durant's present General Motors holdings total about 50,000 shares.

Trading showed a marked tendency to turn dull after further price reactions in the early afternoon. This absence of important pressure encouraged constructive operations in special stocks which attracted considerable aggressiveness in the rubber shares and some of the equipment issues. American Car and Foundry took up the points to 124, on buying attributed to uptown people. Pullman's rise of fourteen points to 173 1/2 was accompanied by reports that a capital readjustment would be effected, embracing a split-up of the present shares on a four-for-one basis with a $2 dividend on the new shares.

Time money against stock exchange collaterals is more freely offered. But rates are unchanged.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, Sept. 17 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The market was generally in higher ground throughout and failed to maintain best levels. Sentiment was badly mixed. Houses with eastern connections bought on early dips and later operators were in with absorbing orders. The character of news was such as to make the bull element timid.

Southwestern markets were relatively firm with a few points, apparently reflecting some betterment in the milling trade, but aside from this there was little incentive to support the market.

Cables again report that Russia is offering wheat freely and shipments this week, while smaller than the previous week, are quite fair with the country compared with that of the country's clearances a year ago. We continue to advise a trading position.

WHEAT URGE PRICE STABILIZATION ON RETAILER'S GOODS

J. T. Crowder on Tour of Canada Talking to Business Men of Whole Dominion. Washington, Sept. 17.—Department of Agriculture states that the wheat crop in twenty-four countries of the northern hemisphere reported up to September 9, amounts to 2,433,000,000 bushels compared with 2,202,000,000 bushels for the same countries last year.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, Sept. 17 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The market was generally in higher ground throughout and failed to maintain best levels. Sentiment was badly mixed. Houses with eastern connections bought on early dips and later operators were in with absorbing orders.

Automobiles Boost Sales of Bicycles

Detroit, Sept. 17.—General Motors Company vice president says popularity of automobile has increased bicycle sales 15 per cent to 25 per cent as many of the workers in getting from crowded city sections to parking spaces.

Chicago, Sept. 17 (By B.C. Bond Corporation's direct pit wire)—Wheat: Market averaged higher on buying by houses with eastern connections. Shorts also covered on the way up. Local sentiment, however,

WINNIPEG GRAIN

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—A heavy market firm in tone, but narrow in range, featured trading on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange to-day. Throughout the session prices remained fairly stable with an extreme fluctuation of approximately 1 1/2 cents.

Fractional advances were scored in every position with October and November gaining 1/2 cent to close at the same level of 134 1/2. December at 131 1/2 was up 1/2 cent and May 1/2 cent higher at 136 1/2. A moderate volume of export business imparted firmness to the market while reports of continued bad weather in Alberta exerted a bullish influence.

Liverpool cables closed fractionally higher. Lack of demand in oats and barley resulted in a slight price decline in these commodities. Rye and flax were relatively stronger.

Winnipeg, Sept. 17 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Wheat—Wet weather over the Canadian West and probably showers, unsettled weather, the next few days brought in some short covering at to-day's opening and prices were from 1/2 to 3/4 higher. Early cables were steady and closed firm. At the close a net advance of 1/4 to 3/4 on wheat the close was weak on all grades.

There was free hedging selling on bulges and exporters appeared on the buying side on dips under these conditions. Market had a narrow range although there was a big broad range in Winnipeg. There is no news on wheat to bull on at present.

Receipts are large and of excellent quality about 80% of wheat being in three top grades. There was further drop in spreads on the top grades line. Lower and off grades of wheat were firm but scarcity of offerings. Advise a trading attitude on wheat.

Barley—Followed action of wheat but showed independent weakness in last hour being influenced by weakness in corn. Barley receipts heavy with large trade in cash and futures. Selling scattered.

Flax—Extremely dull and sold off to close. Receipts are large and of excellent quality about 80% of wheat being in three top grades.

Winnipeg, Sept. 17 (By B.C. Bond Corporation's direct pit wire)—Wheat held steady with fair sales of buying by houses, with American and Eastern connections. Also further covering by short.

Reported fair business passing in export circles, Manitoba by U.K. and Continent. Sentiment remains bearish. Believe trading position advisable, at present, with sales confined to bulges and advantage taken of all breaks to make purchases. Demand for cash fair with offerings increasing in daily supplies and holding steady, in sympathy with wheat, meeting with fair class of buying by cash interests. Selling scattered.

Wheat—Open High Low Close. Sept. 17, 134 1/2, 135, 134 1/2, 134 1/2. Oct. 131 1/2, 132, 131 1/2, 131 1/2.

Elihu Root Will Address Union of Parliamentarians

Washington, Sept. 17.—Only five citizens of the United States hold life membership in the Interparliamentary Union, which is to meet here early in October.

It is reported that the attitude of public men as business men favored the motives of his campaign. In a recent telegram received from the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, he read as follows: "There is nothing in the 'Combine' Bill which makes a common price illegal. The whole offense lies in the action being taken to operate to the detriment of the public interest of the public."

A subsequent letter from the Premier lauded the plan of price stabilization on articles. The manufacturer would set the price. Mr. Crowder explained to-day the retailer could do nothing but accept. The public was protected, for the price would be stamped on the article bought. Infringement of rules might be prevented by a boycott of the retailer breaking them.

William D. B. Ainey of Harrisburg, Pa., now chairman of the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission, is another of those who have been particularly honored by the union, for his work in the international field, notably in the Far East.

Representative Burton of Ohio, the only man in the present House who has had service in the Senate, and a member of the American group of the Interparliamentary Union, has been exalted to life membership in its rolls. He is the only member to have served in both branches of the legislature.

John Warren Keifer of Springfield, Ohio, a former Speaker of the House, was also exalted to life membership where the Union in 1904 held its only previous meeting in the western hemisphere, are the other men of the United States who enjoy life membership in the organization.

"We mapped geographically and topographically 1,000 square miles of wholly unexplored country. One of the purposes of the exploration was to determine the source of the oil rather than whether it could be produced in paying quantities."

"We travelled 1,000 miles over trails by dog team and 600 miles by canoe. Our report will be made to the U.S. Geological Survey, Washington, this Winter."

SENATOR BOSTOCK ADDRESSES LEAGUE

Geneva, Sept. 17 (Canadian Press Cable via Toronto). Senator Hewitt Bostock of Canada, addressing the League of Nations, explained the position of Canada in regard to the Geneva protocol on peace and disarmament. He said Canada was unable to ratify the protocol, for though she favored the principle of arbitration and disarmament, her peculiar position made it impossible for the Dominion to accept the protocol. He quoted a statement made by the Premier King early this year on the subject, concluding that Canada had full sympathy with the League and would co-operate in all efforts of the League tending to promote the welfare of mankind.

Calliopes Enter Campaign in N.Y. Mayoralty Race

New York, Sept. 17.—Politicians, at least, take their politics seriously, and nowhere more so than in this city, which is supposed to regard all things with intelligent disregard.

The city just now is undergoing the pain of selecting a mayor. There are on exhibition, in consequence, dozens of devices which might serve as local color for a political novel of the hitherland a generation ago.

THE NEW GUEST

Patterson saw instantly that Cartwright did not recognize him. He could hardly have expected him to after that one brief, casual meeting several years before. In fact, if he had not been aware of the situation first, it was hardly likely that he would have identified Cartwright as the man who had eloped with his friend's wife.

Cartwright had grown heavier. His cheeks sagged a little. His expression was more weary and the droop of his heavy eyelids was pronounced.

The months on the Riviera, with only Madge for a companion, hiding from possible encounters with acquaintances, avoiding the attention of the press, had told upon him. A great deal of his jaunty and poise was gone. There was about him a slight air of apprehension, a suggestion of being perpetually on guard.

Throughout the breakfast which they had together, he remained aloof and quiet and Madge Patterson.

Later in the garden, when he was alone with Madge de Marzel, Patterson said frankly:

"Madame, I have met your guests before. I am afraid I don't understand the situation here very well. I think it would be better if you went away for four or five weeks. Americans say, 'put my foot in it.'"

She raised a protesting hand.

"Mais non, mon grand ami! Do not misunderstand. I am fully aware of the past of my guests and of their present strange relationship. Mademoiselle Fleming has explained everything to me. There is no false impression."

"But may I ask you frankly, Madame? Why is Miss Fleming here with them?"

The little Marquis shrugged.

"That you would not understand, being only a man. But perhaps if you stay, she may tell you herself. She is a very wonderful girl, my little Patricia."

"I agree with you, Madame, little as I know her. I saw her photograph years ago on my friend—Bannister's desk. He told me she was the best friend he had ever had."

"Ah, she has proved her friendship. If he could only know how her loyalty has extended, even beyond death."

Patterson's eyes rested reflectively on the Nastasia that swung gently at anchor in the harbor.

"I have half a mind to send the boat on," he said slowly. "My guests can cruise without me. They are comfortably provided for. The situation here interests me. I'd like to get to the bottom of it."

A tiny smile touched the Marquis's lips. She nodded her little head complacently as if she saw some wish of hers coming true.

"A very good idea, mon ami! I shall be happy to have you join my little house party."

Patterson regarded that, however. He insisted that it would be better for him to put up at the hotel.

"It would only cause embarrassment if I stopped with you. I am not clever at deception. Sooner or later I would be bound to give away. The fact that I know who Mrs. Bannister and Cartwright are."

He went back to his yacht that afternoon and gathered together the necessary luggage for a sojourn on land.

At five o'clock, when the sun was dipping low in the West and the sea beyond the line of breakers was calm and golden, the Nastasia lifted anchor and glided out of the harbor, leaving behind her the sea-gull to which Madame de Marzel had likened her. Her owner watched her from the balcony outside his room at the hotel where he sat with a pipe between his lips, ruminating on the strange events which had brought together in this distant part of the world, four people whose lives were linked by scandal and tragedy.

At Madame de Marzel's insistence, he dined at the villa that evening. After coffee, he drew Patricia to the garden and having encoined her in a secluded spot, safe from interruption, he made full confession.

A FRESH INTEREST

"So you knew from the first who we were?" Patricia raised-astonished eyes to Patterson.

"Most anxious to meet Mrs. Bannister for half an hour several years ago and Cartwright the same evening at Paul's bachelor dinner. But neither are types, which one readily forgets—and besides the story of their elopement and the tragedy of my memory. It was a simple matter to put two and two together."

"But you said just now that you knew me, too," Patricia was quick.

"Surely we have never met before."

He turned his eyes toward the moonlit sea, and his smile was inscrutable.

"Some day I may be able to tell you how I identified you, why I remembered you. But I'm afraid you would only laugh at me now."

She shrugged.

"As you please," was her indifferent answer, but she added: "Tell me, Mr. Patterson, you were a friend of Paul Bannister's, what do you think can be done about this sorry situation?"

"It's pretty bad, isn't it?" he acknowledged. "Forgive me if I don't fully understand what drags you into it."

"I dragged myself involuntarily," she told him frankly. "In view of the way things turned out—Paul's suicide and the coming to light of the scandal—I scarcely know now what real hope I had of averting trouble, or why I remain here. Except for one reason and that is Madge. You see, Mr. Patterson, my affection for her has lasted for many years, since the days when we were schoolgirls together. If loyalty is the basis of true friendship, then one's affection cannot die simply because a friend has done wrong, made a bitter mistake. I understand Madge's nature better than anyone in the world, much better than Paul ever did. She is reckless, impulsive, spoiled. Nothing has been denied her. But she is young and beautiful and very lovable at times. I believe that there is still a chance that her future may be saved. And that is why I am still here, hoping to force her to do the right thing when the time comes and now allow herself to be dragged into the mire."

"You're a brick!" he said warmly, admiration in his eyes.

She shook her head sadly.

"It's a ridiculous figure, I'm afraid—a self-appointed champion to eloping lovers! And I've turned their romantic gesture into rather a farce, too. I'm hardly sorry for that. But what the end is—she broke off with a shrug.

"Mrs. Cartwright refuses to divorce her husband."

"Absolutely. Mrs. Cartwright will never change, I'm afraid. She has scruples against divorce and there are her children."

They were silent for awhile, each thinking of the hopeless tangle, into which an overmastering passion had plunged four lives—five, if Patricia were counted.

"May I stay here for awhile, with your permission, Miss Fleming?" Patterson asked at last. "Not that I'll be any help, but the affair has engaged my interest—not an idle, curious interest, you understand, but a personal one because of my friendship with Bannister."

Life will be pleasant to have a com-patriot with us," she answered smilingly. "Madame de Marzel and I have avoided all Americans for a reason which must be obvious to you. And Madge and Mr. Cartwright have, on several occasions, the bitter experience of being cut dead by acquaintances whom they've run across at Cannes."

So Tony Patterson became a part of the strange, little company that occupied the pretty villa above the sea. Though he insisted upon keeping his quarters at the hotel, he spent the greater part of each day and every evening at the villa.

Madge was entranced. From the first, she had been intensely attracted to Patterson, even on the night she had met him just before her wedding. But to find him here, extraordinarily good looking, charming, cultured, gravely courteous, was like finding manna in the wilderness. Madame de Marzel's villa had long since palled on her. It was too quiet, too secluded. The romance of the adventure was flagging. Cartwright was growing less lover like, more and more irritable, fuming at a situation which, for once in his life, he couldn't control.

They had ceased driving to Cannes for lunch and too many Americans were encountered there. The episode of the Bradleys was repeated several times, before Madge abandoned her stubborn resolve to force the world to accept her because she was beautiful and charming and daring.

The only homage she received, now, was the questionable homage of wordings as declassées as herself and Cartwright. These people, existing on the precarious border between daring and downright social oblivion, fawned upon her, because she was still young and fresh and Cartwright had money.

When Patterson appeared on the scene, Madge set about deliberately to fascinate him.

A corn isn't just a local pain. The tiny nerves beneath it are on the "main trunk line," linked with all the nerve centers of the system. . . . C.P.R. GRAIN LOADINGS SHOW RECORD TOTALS
Movement of Grain Has Surpassed All Previous Records in History of Road

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—All Canadian grain receipts were broken on the Western lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway during the first fifteen days of this month. The amount of grain marketed and loaded during this period has already exceeded the unprecedented figures of the famous crop of 1915, and the previous grain record of the road, which was made in 1923, has now been exceeded by 2,356,430 bushels.
During the last eleven working days 23,424,463 bushels of wheat and 5,602,167 bushels of other grains have been marketed and loaded on Western lines of the Canadian Pacific, making a total of 29,026,630 bushels.
COLOSSAL TOTALS
No similar figures in the history of railroading has produced such colossal figures as these.
In the same period of this month 12,488 cars of wheat and 2,776 cars of other grains have been loaded, making a total of 15,264 cars and 21,424,607 bushels of grain.
This grain has been loaded in eleven working days at the rate of 1,387 cars per day, or slightly more than one car loaded per minute.
The nearest previous record for grain marketing was made in 1923, when the Canadian Pacific marketed 20,000,000 bushels, with 3,758 cars employed.

Melbourne, Australia, Sept. 17.—Thirty-three overseas vessels of a total tonnage of 225,574 are lying idle in Australian ports. A sensation has been caused by cablegrams from England that liners might cease running to Australia so long as the seamen's strike continued.

Durban, S.A., Sept. 17.—Acting on instruction from Pretoria, the police have informed the captains of ships whose crews are on strike they are acting illegally in refusing to feed the strikers. The Government, they were further informed, will hold the owners responsible for expenditures incurred in feeding the men forced ashore.

Yacht Search Is in Dispute
Honolulu, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Jeannette Hyde, collector of customs, yesterday made public a statement answering the resolution adopted by the Kaneohe Yacht Club, in which that organization deplored the practice of searching registered yachts which plainly are not engaged in illicit traffic in liquors or other contraband.
The club's action was taken following the seizure of eighty bottles of liquor from the yacht Eloise, which had put in at Honolulu while bound from Tahiti to San Francisco.
Mrs. Hyde said yachtsmen enjoyed certain privileges in bringing their craft into ports of the United States, but that "these privileges can not be used to mask outright violations of the law."

DR. J. S. PLASKETT GIVES LECTURE ON TOUR OF EUROPE
Popularity of Astrophysical Director Demonstrated by Crowded Hall
Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, before a crowded gathering at the Memorial Hall last night, gave an interesting illustrated lecture on his recent tour of England and the European continent.

A large number of people who desired to hear Dr. Plaskett were turned away from the hall, which was crowded to the doors.
A two-fold interest in the lecture drew the gathering, the first to show appreciation of the many honors conferred on Dr. Plaskett during his visit to Great Britain, and the second the desire to hear his impressions and to see the lantern slides.
Hearty applause greeted the speaker on his being introduced by Dean Quinlan.
All through his lecture, Dr. Plaskett showed a persistent love for England and things British, and a pride in the history of England and the achievements of the Motherland.
The address commenced with an interesting trip to some of the cathedrals of England, which were also graphically illustrated by lantern slides. Among those shown were Liverpool Cathedral, much of which is already completed and in use; Lichfield Cathedral; Exeter; St. Paul's, Salisbury, Ely, Westminster Abbey, York Minster.
"I think the cathedrals of England appeared to me more than those we saw on the Continent," said Dr. Plaskett when he came to describe Notre Dame, Malines, Antwerp and other French and Belgian cathedrals which he had photographed during his tour of the continent.
"The House of Parliament occupies one of the finest sites in London," he stated. "In itself the building is very dignified, as are its surroundings, in every way it is highly worthy of Canada's aspirations."
Pictures were thrown on the screen showing the heavy traffic in London, wonderfully controlled.
In connection with views of the Parliament Buildings, Westminster Abbey, Dr. Plaskett commented that it gave Britisher a feeling of both reverence and pride to walk about London with the great historic associations of St. Stephen's, Westminster Abbey, St. Margaret's, the Tower and St. Paul's.
"Side trips" had been made to Devon and Cornwall. Beautiful slides were shown of Ilfracombe, Clovelly, Lynmouth and Lynton, Penzance, Land's End, St. Ives, Plymouth.
In talking of his travels in the continent Dr. Plaskett said he had been forced to make a very unfavorable contrast between the Channel steamers and the fine boats running between Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle.
For Dr. Plaskett, Paris had not the attraction of London and he qualified the statement by saying he would sooner stay a day in London than a week in Paris. He was greatly impressed by the industry of the Belgians, the whole of Belgium seeming like one big market garden.
A trip to Holland had introduced him to Amsterdam, the Hague, and picturesque Volendam, where he had seen the people in their centuries-old costumes.
In conclusion, Dr. Plaskett touched briefly on Cambridge, where he stayed for a week or so while attending the sessions of the Astronomical Society. Although he had been too busy with lectures to do much sightseeing, he had brought away a few beautiful photographs of some of the colleges, and these were shown to the audience. There were also two or three pictures of parts of Scotland which he and Mrs. Plaskett, who accompanied him on his trip, had visited before they sailed for Canada.

BARQUENTINE WILL LOAD LUMBER HERE
To Sail For Mauritius With Lumber From This Coast
One of the few liners to touch the port within recent months is the Forest Dream, due here the middle of next week to pick up a portion of a heavy lumber shipment for the Mauritius.
The barquentine Forest Dream was owned formerly by the Grays Harbor Motorship Corporation and lay for some time with the remainder of the former Forest line fleet in Lake Union. She was sold recently to interests who were unable to secure charter loadings to fit their plans in the shipment of 2,000,000 feet of lumber to Port Louis.
Her call here next week is to the order of the Imported Hardwoods Company, Vancouver. The Forest Dream is a barquentine of 1,427 tons register, built at Aberdeen in 1913, as were many of the Lake Union fleet of sailers. She is 242 feet long, 44 feet in beam and of 18 feet depth of hold.

SUPPORT IS URGED FOR Lord's Day Alliance
Toronto, Sept. 17.—Rev. E. A. Henry, addressing the first meeting of the Toronto Central Presbytery of the United Church, yesterday declared the work of the Lord's Day Alliance was now menaced as never before, due largely to the increased use of automobiles on Sunday, which tended to rob the churches of attendance and support. He stated the alliance was made a plea to the churches in this province to rally to the task of wiping it out. Dr. Henry suggested support for the alliance should be provided for in the budget of the United Church.
The presbytery did not endorse that proposal, but decided to send on Dr. Henry's suggestion to the conference for its consideration. A resolution was passed, however, favoring support and co-operation with the alliance in a drive to wipe out the deficit.
