THE following Work was undertaken Chiefly for the Promotion of Trade in the many Countries where the Malayo Language is Spoke, which your Honours having peruſed in Manuſcript, were pleaſed to approve of; and to Incourage the Publiſhing of it: Therefore I could Judge none ſo Proper to Patroniſe the enſuing Work, as your Honours, to whom it is Humbly Dedicated, by

Your Honours moſt Humble Servant

THE PREFACE.

THE Peninſula beyond Ganges ſtretching down to Johor, which is the extream Southern Point, and is the moſt Southern Point of Land in Aſia, is generally called and known by the name of the Malayo Country, and very probably with great Reaſon, it retaining to this day the Malayo Language, as the Mother Tongue, and general Language of the Country. Whereas in all the Iſlands of Sumatra, Java, Borneo, Maccaſſer, Balee, Cumbava, Sallayer, Bootoon, Booro, Ceram, the Molucas, and Innumerable other Iſlands, the Malayo Language is received and generally uſed in all the Trading Ports of thoſe Iſlands, only as the Trading Language, moſt of thoſe Iſlands having a peculiar Language of their own: Nay on ſome of the greater Iſlands, (as particularly on Borneo) there is ſeveral different Nations and Languages, with ſeveral of which I have converſed. But I muſt tell you, that the Malayo Language ſpoken in the Iſlands, is ſomewhat different from the true Malayo ſpoken in the Malayo Country, altho not ſo much, but to be eaſily underſtood by each other. The Malayo ſpoken in the Iſlands is called Baſa dagang, that is to ſay, the Merchants or Trading Language, and is not ſo well eſteemed as the true Malayo.

The Inhabitants of thoſe Iſlands are ſuppoſed to proceed originally from the Malayo Country, as being the neareſt Continent, from which the Iſlands proceed in a conſtant Progreſſion, innummerably diſperſed all over thoſe Southern and Eaſtern-Seas to New Guinea, part of Hollandia Nova, and from thence by that wonderful large Iſland of Hollandia Nova, which reaches to Forty four Degrees, South Latitude, not far to the Eaſtward of which Southern Point is other Land, which probably may be part of Terra Auſtralis, and likely to reach near to Terra del fuego the moſt Southern part of America, as yet known to us, and by this way 'tis not improbable America came to be peopled, as ſome have not without great Reaſon conjectured.

As

As to the Religion of the Malayo's, they are now Mahometans, but they seem to have been Anciently meer Pagans, having not in their Language, the name of God, or Angels, or Church, or Devil, except what's borrowed out of the Arabick Tongue, from whom also they have received many other Words. And thence it is, (viz. from the Alcoran) that they have their Letters, having had anciently none of their own, but have used the Arabian Letters, excepting only such as are Guttural, and of difficult sound; the Malayo Language being of plain sound and easie Pronounciation, and on the contrary, for some sounds not in the Arabick, but proper only to the Malayo Tongue, they have bin forced to add some few of their own, as appears in the end of the Alphabet; some few words they have taken from the Indostan and Persian; as for Wheat, Bread, &c. things not growing or made in their Country, but brought to them from Indostan, Persia, or Arabia, and they together with the thing, received the Country-Name it came from.

But to return to my purpose; I am to tell you, that by Nineteen Years continuance in East-India wholly spent in Navigation and Trading in most places of those Countries, and much of that time in the Malayo Countries, Sumatra, Borneo, Bantam, Batavia, and other parts of Java, by my Conversation and Trading with the Inhabitants of which places, I did Furnish my self with so much of the Malayo Language as did enable me to Negociate my Affairs, and Converse with those people without the assistance of a Prevaricating Interpreter, as they commonly are.

In the Year one Thousand six Hundred Eighty eight, I embarked at Fort St. George, as a Passenger on the Bangala Merchant, bound for England, which proving a long Voyage, and I being out of Imployment, did at my leisure time, set down all that came into my Memory of the Malayo Language; which together with some helps that I have attained since, has furnished me with so much of that Language, as I think may be of great use to Trade and Conversation in the Malayo Country, or any of the South-Sea Islands, in which Countries so great a part of the Trade of India is negociated and capable of being much Improved, especially to this Nation, who I hope, will not be unmindful of so Valuable a part of that Trade; but as we may by convenient Settlements in those Southern Seas share with the Dutch, the Profits thereof; and I finding so very few English Men that have attained any tollerable Knowledge in the Malayo Tongue, so absolutely necessary to Trade in those Southern Seas, and that there is no Book of this kind published in English, to help the attaining that Language; These Considerations, I say, has imboldened me to Publish the insuing Dictionary, which I am sensibe has many Imperfections, ctions, I having had very little help to assist me, and not having had the opportunity of Conversation with any Malayo, since I begun this Work, nor in several Years before.

That the ensuing work may become the more useful to my Country Men, for whom it is designed, I thought my self obliged to give some account how I have Spell'd the Malayo Words, with our Letters, that they may be the less liable to be mistaken in their Pronunciation: And this I do for the following Reason.

Tho the spelling of every Language, which is written in its own Native Character ought to be the same, which the best Authors who have wrote in that Language have observ'd, in regard those who were Masters of the Tongue, must needs know best the force of their own Letters, and with what Letters to express the sounds of their several words, and in this respect their writings must be our Rule, the Observation of which being that which Grammarians call Orthography.

But in writing any Language in a Character, which is altogether a Stranger to it, and only proper to some other Tongue, as if Hebrew or Arabick was to be written in English Letters, there this Rule wholly fails us. And therefore where this is done, its the business of him that Composes a Book, or writes but a Sentence, to set down the words of the Forreign Tongue in such Letters of his own, as may best express the true sounds of the Language which he writes. As for Example, if I was to write these two Arabick Word ابونا, which is in the English Character Ab boona, that is Our Father, and so if Our Father was wrote in the Arabick Character, it must be thus exprest ابونا. This I intimate, in regard this Rule altho it be Just and Reasonable it should be most strictly observ'd; yet in all the Histories and Books of Travels, which I have met with that have been written in English, either through ignorance, carelessness, or a senceless following the corrupt Copy of Strangers, it has been hardly taken notice of: So that those Writers, when they have delivered us either the names of Persons or Places, or some Proverb or Sentence in the Language of those People, to which we are Strangers both to Tongue and Character (and therefore they have done it in our Letters,) they have performed it so slightly, not to say worse, that the English Reader having read the words according as they were spell'd in our Letters and Pronunciation, has no more pronounced the Language, or the true sound of it, than the Jargon of one of our Children of two Years old, is the true Eloquent Sound or Just Pronunciation of the English Tongue, and this has proceeded not from his fault in reading, but from the Authors in writing those Foreign Words so perversely.

This

This I could prove in many Inſtances, and therefore that (as much as may be) I may avoid this Error, which I complain of in others, I deſire that they who intend to uſe the following Dictionary, will take notice what Rules I have obliged my ſelf to follow in ſpelling the Malayo Words in our Character, which are theſe that follow:

(1.) In general, I have endeavour'd throughout the whole Book, to expreſs the Malayo words agreable to our true Engliſh Spelling, by giving the Vowels and Conſonants the ſame Sounds which we obſerve in reading and writing the Engliſh Tongue, without the leaſt regard to any other Language whatſoever.

(2.) Take notice that the [a] where it has no mark is to be ſounded as we Pronounce it in Man, Can, Fan.

(3.) Where the [a] is to be ſounded broader as in [Rābā] Bāpā] [Āwa] it is then marked with a long ſtroak over head [ā] according as the Latin Grammar teaches to make long Syllables, and it is to be ſounded as we do the [a] in Shall, Fall, Maul.

(4.) The [e] is to be ſounded as in Engliſh words, and where its marked long over head, there the Accent is to be laid on that Syllable as in [Sēēmoot] the Syllables [Sē] [lē] is to be ſounded long as the [e] in the Latin words Erēmus, Docēbo, or as the Syllable [re] in the Engliſh words, Regard, Require.

(5.) The [e] Final, or at the end of any word, is not to be ſounded, but ſerves as in Engliſh words to draw out the Syllable longer, as in the words [Pohone] [Mohone,] which words conſiſts of two and not three Syllables, as [Po-hone] [Mo-hone] and the laſt Syllable [hone] is ſounded as we pronounce the mock Iriſh Lamentation O hone O hone.

(6.) When any words are ended with double [e] or [ee] as in [Jarree] [Nantee,] which words conſiſts of two Syllables as [Jar-ree] [Nan-tee] the accent lies on the laſt [e] and the laſt Syllables, [ree] [tee] muſt be ſounded as the Engliſh words Me, See.

(7.) When the [i] is marked long as in [Tītah] [Tīang] it is then to be ſounded as [y] and the Syllable reſts on that Letter, as in Title, in all other caſes, as in Engliſh.

(8.) The ſingle [o] is ſounded as we uſually do, as in [Sōbat] [Hōbat] the firſt Syllable [Sō] has the ſame ſound as the Engliſh Mono-Syllable So: But where the double [o] or [oo] is uſed, which is very frequent in this Language, according as I have wrote it, I deſire the Reader would carefully obſerve (ſince indeed here lies the greateſt difficulty in Pronunciation) that they are ſounded full, but ſhorter than generally we ſound the [oo] in Engliſh, and has near the ſame ſound as the [U] in Latin, as its ſounded by the Germans, Danes, and I think all other Europeans. unleſs the Engliſh, as in Ubi, Una.

Thus

Thus in the word [Oojong] the firſt Syllable [Oo] has the ſame ſound as we give to the Syllable [Ou] in the Engliſh word Ouze, or Mud.

So the word [Tooah] the firſt Syllable [Too] has the ſame ſound with the Engliſh Monoſyllable, Too, as Too much

In brief its ſounded as we do the [oo] in the Engliſh word [Troop,] or in the word [Soop] when we ſpeak that word after the French way as a [Soop] or ſtewed-Meat.

(9.) The [u] has the ſame ſound as in all Engliſh words, as in [Juree] which the Malayo Pronounce juſt as we do the Engliſh word, Jury, of Twelve Men.

(10.) The [v] Conſonant has its own proper ſound as in Engliſh, as in [Bava] which is pronounced as the Engliſh word Bavin.

(11.) The [y] is always ſounded as a Conſonant as in [Bañyak] [Miñyak] and is ſounded as in the Engliſh words, Yawn, Your.

If the [y] be found at the end of a word, as in [Moolay] [Toonay] it muſt not be ſounded like [e] as is uſually in many Engliſh words, ending with [y] but is to be ſounded broad, as in the Engliſh words, Lay, Pay.

Where the [y] is found marked with a long ſtroke over head as in [Ayer] [Ayam] the Syllable reſts on the [y] and is to be pronounced as the [y] in the Engliſh word [Ay] alias yes.

(12.) When two Vowels come together, as in [Main] [Lain] they are to be pronounced [Ma-in] [La-in,] and where ſuch a long ſtroke is found over any Letter, the ſound of the Syllable is to reſt on that Letter, as [Ingin] [Tangan] are to be read [Ing-in] [Tang-an.]

(13.) the Dipthongs every where ought to be pronounced according to their true Engliſh ſound, and to avoid confuſion, I have omitted all improper ones; and as much as poſſible all thoſe of difficulty.

(14.) [Awn] is uſed at the end of many words, as in [Caſsēawn] [Moodawn] the [awn] is to be pronounced as in the Engliſh words, Lawn, Fawn.

(15.) [Ch] is always to be ſounded as in the Engliſh words, Child, Chip.

(16.) The ſingle Letters [c] and [k] being of the ſame ſound, perhaps may be often uſed indifferently.

(17.) The [g] is always ſounded as in the Engliſh words Gather, Gammon, Get, Geld, Girl, Give, Go, Gone, Gum, Gun, but is never uſed as in the Engliſh words, Gentile, Ginger, for in all ſuch ſounds I have uſed the [j] Conſonant, ſo that the word [Pēgee] is by no means to be pronounced [Pējee] but [Pēgee] giving to the [g] the ſound of the Gamma.

(18.) The Vowels in thoſe words which ſeem to have in them improper Dipthongs are all ſounded diſtinctly thus, [Mañgālēat] is four Syllables [Mañ-gā-lē-at] and ſo of the reſt.

(19.) When any words ends with [more] [dore] as [Timmore] [Tedore] which conſiſts only of two Syllables, as [Tim-more] [Tē-dore] then the laſt Syllable is to be pronounced as the Engliſh words [More] [Sore.]

If theſe directions be but carefully obſerv'd, I do not doubt but that the Reader, tho he never heard a word of Malayo ſpoken, yet will Pronounce the Language exactly, with its true Accent; which as its not difficult to be attain'd, ſo its perhaps eaſier to us than to other Nations, in reſpect of Pronounciation, there being no ſounds in it, but what will very well fit an Engliſh Mouth.

Where you find theſe Letters apart [ar] following the word, as in [Nabbee ar] it denotes the foregoing word to be Arabick, many of which words are uſed by the Malayo's ſince the Mahometan Religion has prevailed in thoſe Countries, nay for ſeveral matters, eſpecially it relating to Religion, there is no word to ſignifie it by, in the Malayo Language.

In the Phraſes or Sentences, perhaps the Engliſh may ſeem not very properly worded, which is cauſed by my bringing it to Correſpond, as near as the ſence would bear word for word to the Malayo, that thereby the Learner may the better compare them.

If the Reader ſeeks the Malayo word anſwering to any Engliſh word, in many places the true force of the word will be the better underſtood by turning to the Malayo word anſwering the Engliſh word. As for Example, I would know the Malayo word for [Diſcloſe] to that I find anſwering in the Engliſh part, [Tēlēlēcan] then turning to the Malayo part, and anſwering to [Tēlēlēcan] I find Diſcloſe, Uncover, Make bare, and ſo on the contrary, the true meaning of the Engliſh word anſwering to a Malayo word is ſometimes better to be underſtood, by turning to that word in the Engliſh part. As for Example, I would know the Engliſh word for [Faraĉt] to that I find anſwering in the Malayo part [Difference] then turning to the Engliſh part, and anſwering to Difference, I find [Faraĉt] is a Difference or Diſtance in Price or Value or goodneſs.

The Reader is deſired to take notice that the following Rule is obſerv'd in this work, viz. look in the Malayo part for the word [Nēgree] the next Line under it is wrote only [attas angin] with a long ſtroke before it, but is to be Read [Nēgree attas angin] and in like manner the Initial word is to be added in all places where there is ſuch a long ſtroke ſet before the Word or Sentence, but where no ſuch long ſtroke is uſed, there the Initial word is not to be uſed.

The PREFACE.

I do acknowledged my ſelf obliged to ſome helps I have attained for ſeveral Malayo words in the following work; for the truth of which I will not be anſwerable, but thought fitting on the Authority I had, rather to inſert than omit them.

I have not inſerted the Names of the Twelve Moons or Months of the Malayo Year, in the following Dictionary by reaſon they keep no conſtant Correſpondency with our Months, and for that Reaſon have annexed a Table of Time for 33 Years to come, to which I refer the Reader for the names of the Moons.

Some perhaps will think I have been too triffling in the foregoing Rules, giving in ſome places Directions where no body could miſtake, but I hope this will excuſe me, that 'tis better to be too Plain than too Obſcure, and I believe will not be eſteemed a fault by the Learners of the Language, to whom nothing can be made too plain.

I do not queſtion but any ingenious Reader, upon peruſing the following work and conſidering that there was no Book of this kind extant in Engliſh to aſſiſt me, together with the little other help I had in it, but will in ſome meaſure be ſenſible of the great Labour I had in reducing the Malayo words into an Alphabetical order, in Spelling the ſaid words with proper Letters according to the Engliſh Pronounciation and in applying the moſt apt Sentences, the better to give the Reader the true meaning of many words. And this Laborious Task I have undertaken, not out of any Proſpect of Gain that I could ever expect by the Sale of the Book, for that it will bought by few, beſides thoſe who are deſigned to thoſe Countries where the Malayo Language is ſpoken, and by the Old and New Eaſt-India Companies, both which have been pleaſed to incourage the printing of it, but it was done out of a ſincere deſire to ſerve my Country, by giving my Country-Men all the helps my attainment in this Language has made me capable of, which, altho I am ſenſible is attained with many Imperfections, yet will I doubt not, be a great Aſſiſtance to the Learners of this ſo eaſie, Diffuſive, and (as it may be made) Profitable Language to England in general, and to thoſe Perſons in Particular who ſhall Trade to, or Travel the Malayo Countries. And that it may have thoſe Effects is the Hearty Deſires of Thomas Bowrey.

Grammar Rules

FOR THE

Malayo Language.

HAVING thus Finiſhed my Dictionary for the Malayo Language, I thought it neceſſary to add a ſhort Eſſay by way of Grammar, and this I have endeavoured to do, by laying down ſome brief Rules, which being obſerv'd by thoſe who attempt the Knowledge and learning of this Tongue it will much facilitate and further their Progreſs in the undertaking.

But in regard the Nature of a Grammar muſt exceedingly vary in every Language according to the particular Language to which it is adapted; ſince the ſame Rules for one Tongue bear no manner of Proportion unto another, unleſs there be a near Affinity between the one and the other, I therefore was diſcouraged about the Method, eſpecially having no light from any Predeceſſor, having nothing in this kind that ever was Attempted by any Engliſh Man, that has gone before me that I know of; the Dutch, I confeſs, have done ſome things by way of Dictionary, Dialogues, and Grammar; they have alſo Tranſlated the New Teſtament (a Religious and moſt commendable undertaking) into this Tongue; but as to giving Rules for the ſpeaking, or true Pronouncing of it, I think I may ſay without the ſtain of Vanity, that no Perſon has yet endeavour'd to do it: This I here mention, to crave an Excuſe for thoſe things wherein I ſhall be found deficient, in regard I hope it will be allowed, that he that makes the firſt Attempt of a Diſcovery, may without the Charge either of Negligence or Ignorance be Pardon'd, if he leave ſome things to be better obſerv'd by thoſe who ſucceed him.

What

JA

What Method I ſhould uſe in laying down Rules for this Language, did for ſome time excerciſe my thoughts, but at laſt I was reſol'v'd to follow as near as I could the Latin Grammar, or the Accidence, which is learned by all Children in our Schools, as the firſt introduction to the Latin Tongue. And tho I think this ſo far from being the beſt Method, that I judge it far otherwiſe, yet that which prevailed with me to uſe it was this Conſideration: viz.

Almoſt all Perſons among us have ſome Knowledge of the Latin Grammar, eſpecially all thoſe whoſe Education has been any thing liberal and Ingenious. The diviſions of the parts of Speech, the Declining of Nouns and the forming of Verbs, &c. are things which are ſo well Riveted into their Memories, that they never forget them, and therefore they will naturally endeavour to Reduce any Foreign Language to theſe Rules: and if they are willing to Inform themſelves of any Mode of Speech, they will be apt to ask Queſtions which are dictated by the Remembrance of thoſe Grammar Rules. I ſhall not ſpend time to prove this in regard I believe on my very Stating this Matter, every Perſon that Reads this will allow it to be true; and that (if he has had any Experience of the Learning a Forreign Tongue) it was his own Practice; For this Reaſon I have as well as I could, reduced this Specimen of Grammar to the Rules following.

I begin with Nouns, which are either Subſtantive or Adjectives, And as the Latins do frequently put the Adjective after the Subſtantive, the Malayos do always ſo; as,

Ōran, A Man.	Ōran ācal, a Wiſe Man.
Cooda, A Horſe.	Cooda gaja, a Strong Horſe.
Rooma, A Houſe.	Roome kēcheel, a Little houſe.
Pōhone, A Tree.	Pōhone tingee, a Tall tree.

Numbers of Nouns.

The Plural Number is ſometimes expreſt by doubling the Singular, as

Ōran, a Man, or Humane Perſon.	Ōran ōran, Men or Humane Perſons.
Cooda, a Horſe.	Cooda Cooda, Horſes.
Bātoo, a Stone.	Bātoo bātoo, Stones.

But

But when the Number is expreſt, then the ſpecies is named only Once, as Cooda, a Horſe. Cooda ſapooloo ēcor, ten Horſes.

Cooda banyak, many Horſes.

Bātoo, a Stone. Bātoo dua pooloo bātoo, twenty Stones
Bātoo sēdēkit, a few Stones.

Caſes.

This Language admits of no variety of Terminations, either in Nouns or Verbs, and therefore one may ſay that all the Parts of their Speech are Undeclined, as its in Engliſh and other Modern Tongues, and the Caſes of their Nouns are alſo expreſt by Particular words, Signifying [Of, To, The, O, &c.] as for Example.

Singular number.	Plural number.
Derree Pōhone, Of a Tree.	Derree Pōhone pōhone, Of Trees.
Ācan Pōhone, To a Tree.	Ācan Pōhone pōhone, To Trees.
Ēang Pōhone, The Tree.	Ēang Pōhone pōhone, The Trees.
Hey Pōhone, O Tree.	Hey Pōhone pōhone, O Trees.
Dālam Pōhone, In a Tree.	Dālam Pōhone pōhone, In Trees.

Prepoſitions ſerving to the Ablative Caſe, will be found in the Dictionary under their proper Heads.

Genders.

They have (like unto the Engliſh) Words which expreſs the Male and Female, which diſtinguiſh the Genders of which they are Sencible of but Two, viz. The Maſculine and the Feminine, unleſs I add Stones and Inanimate things as the Neuter, Thus Ōran, Signifies a Humane Perſon.

Ōran lakkee, a Male Humane Perſon, or a Man.
Ōran parampoan, a Female Humane Perſon, or a Woman.
Cooda, Signifies the Genus of Horſes.
Cooda jantan, a Male Horſe, or a Stone-Horſe.
Cooda bētīna, a Female Horſe, or a Mare.
Āyam, Signifies the Genus of Poultry.
Āyam jantan, a Cock.

Ayam bētīna, a Hen.
Anjing, Signifies the Genus of Dogs.
Anjing jantan, a Male Dog, or Dog.
Anjing bētīna, a Female Dog, or a Bitch.

By the way, obſerve that [Lakkee] is a Word of Excellency peculiar to expreſs the Male of Humane perſons, as [Parampoan] is uſed in the ſame manner for the Female, and are never apply'd to a Bird, or a Beaſt. As on the contrary, the Words [jantan and Bētina] are Words of Inferiority, and us'd to expreſs the Male and Female of all other Creatures except Man, as being eſteem'd not Noble enough to be apply'd to Humanity; and therefore to ſay [Ōran jantan] for a Male, Humane Perſon, or a Man, would be extreamly improper, and alſo equally ſo, to ſay [Cooda lakkee] for a Stone-Horſe.

Declenſions, I have already obſerv'd they have none in their Nouns, or Verbs. And as to the Compariſons of Adjectives, they are thus expreſt.

(1.) The Poſitive by the Word it ſelf, as Teggar, Hard.
Loomboot, Soft.
Pootee, White.
Ētam, Black.

(2.) The Comparative Degree is expreſt by the Word [Lebbee] which ſignifies More, as Lebbee teggar, More Hard, or Harder.
Lebbee Loomboot, More Soft, or Softer.

(3.) The Superlative Degree is expreſt by either the Word [Ter] which ſignifies moſt, or elſe by the Circumlocution of [Derree pada sāmoa] which ſignifies Moſt of all, as Teggar, Hard.
Terteggar, Hardeſt, or Teggar derree pada sāmoa, Hardeſt of all.
Bāick, Good.
Lebbee bāick, Better, or as if one ſhould ſay, More good.
Ter bāick, Beſt, or Moſt good, Or elſe Bāick derree pada sāmoa, Beſt of all.
Loomboot, Soft.
Lebbee loomboot, Softer, or More ſoft.
Ter loombcot, Softeſt, or Moſt ſoft, Or elſe Loomboot derree pada Sāmoa, Softeſt of all.

Pronouns.

Āko, I.
Joo, Thou.
Dea, He or She.
Kitta ſindirree, I my ſelf.
Ētoo, That.
Ēnee, This.
Kitta poonea, My.
Tuan poonea, Thy.
Dea poonea, His.
Cāmee poonea, Ours.
Cāmoo poonea, Yours.
Deōran poonea, Theirs, &c.

Perſons are thus expreſt.

Āko, I.
Joo, Thou.
Dea, He or She.
Cāmee, We.
Cāmoo, Ye.
Deōran, They.

The Second Perſon has ſeveral Words to expreſs it by, according to the Quality of the Perſon ſpoken to; as to a Perſon of Quality or Superiour, tis proper to ſay [Tuan] Thou or You, to an Equal [Joo] Thou or You, to a Servant or Inferiour, [Packānēra] Thou or You.

A Verb.

I ſhall conſider Verbs, either as Active or Paſſive; and ſince they want Terminations, as before was obſerv'd, it will appear that both the Voices, The Moods and Tenſes are diſtinguiſht by particular Particles, expreſſive of either the Voice, the Mood, or the Tenſe: Thus, the Verb in the Active Voice is only expreſt: In the Paſſive, the Signification is intimated as ſuch by the Particle [ber] or [ta] as for Example,

JA

Āko caſſee, I Love. In the Paſſive Voice, Āko ſooda ber caſſee, I am Loved.
Āko ājar, I Teach. Āko ſooda ber ājar, I am Taught.
Āko ſooda ta caſſee, I am Loved.

Tenſes.

The Tenſes are Comprehended in theſe Three, viz. The Preſent Tenſe, the Preter Tenſe and the Future Tenſe.

Moods

As to Moods, they are expreſt by ſignificant Words; but that I may the better explain the whole: I ſhall ſet down an Example in both Active and Paſſive Voices, throughout all the Moods and Tenſes that this Language is Capable of; as follows.

Active voice.

Indicative Mood. Preſent Tenſe. Poocool, to Beat.

Singular.
Āko Poocool, I do Beat.
Joo Poocool, Thou doſt Beat.

jaddee la cāmoo berpoocool, Be ye beaten.
Bear deōran jaddee berpoocool, Let them be beaten.

Optative

Optative Mood.

De bree can Allah sāya jaddee berpoocool, God grant I am beaten.

Potential.

Sāya bōlee jaddee berpoocool, I can be beaten.

Infinitve.

De poocool, To be beaten, Is beaten.

I need not Multiply Examples, for he that obſerves how this Verb is declin'd (if I may call that a declining which does not admit of any difference in Termination) may eaſily form any other, as

Active Voice.

Āko bācha, I do read.
Āko ſooda bācha, I did or have read.
Āko maoo bācha, I will read.

Imperative Mood

Bācha la Joo, Read thou.

And ſo of the reſt.

Participles

By placing the Participle [ba] before any Verb, it become a Participle of the Preſent-tenſe, as

Bācha, to Read.	Ba bācha, Reading.
Dungar, to Hear.	Ba dungar, Hearing.
Kēna, to Apply.	Ba kēna, Applying.

The

The Particle [ber] or [ta] plac'd before the Verb, turns it into a Participle of the Preter-tenſe, as

Kēra, to Think.	Ber kēra or Tā kēra, Thought, Did think.
Killip, to Bind as a book.	Berkillip or Ta killip, Bound as a book.
Coompool, to Gather.	Ber coompool or Ta coompool, Gathered.

And here obſerve that all paſſive Verbs (juſt as in the Engliſh) are made up of Participles of the Preter-tenſe, as thus.

Āko ſooda Ta pooocool, is, I am beaten, equal with Āko ſooda Berpoocool, I am beaten.

As to Adverbs, Conjunctions, Prepoſitions and Interjections, I think that in the Latin Grammar, they rather perplex then inform the Learner, I ſhall therefore take little notice of them here, but leave the Reader to look them out in the Dictionary.

Verbals.

The addition of the Particle [awn] to the end of any Verb will make a Noun, expreſſing the action of that Verb, as.

Sooca, to be Glad.	Soocaawn, Gladneſs.
Mābooc, to be Drunk.	Mābooocawn, Drunkenneſs.

The particle [juree] placed before a Verb, turns the Verb into a Nominal, expreſſing the Actor of the Action which the Verb relates to, as

Coolittee, to Skin.	Juree coolittee, a Skinner.
Baſſo, to Waſh.	Juree baſſo, a Waſher.
Larree, to Run.	Juree larree, a Runner.
Cāta, to Speak.	Juree cāta, a Speaker.

The Particles [pem, pen, pēnī, peng] are oftentimes uſed to the ſame purpoſe, as

Chooree, to Steal.	Penchooree, a Thief or Stealer.
Bree, to Give.	Pembree, a Giver.

Soorat,

Soorat, to Write.	Pēnīoorat, a Writer.
Ēbor, to Comfort.	Pengēbor, a Comforter.

Theſe particles have not only all of them the ſame Signification but are alſo indeed the ſame word and only varied according as the Verb begins with either a Vowel or a Conſonant, with a harſher or elſe a ſofter Letter and according to the initial Letter ſo is either the Particle [pem, pen, pēnī, peng] adapted for to give a ſmoothneſs to the Lauguage, as for Example,

Mācan, to eat.	Pemmācan, a Eater.
Dooſta, to Ly.	Pendooſta, a Lyer.

Where its eaſie to obſerve, that the Particle is fitted to the initial Letter of the Verb in order to prevent a gaping in the Pronounciation and a harſhneſs in the Sound, for had [pen] been ſet before the Verb [Mācan] and ſo been [Pen mācan] or [Pem] before [Dooſta] and ſo been [Pemdooſta] both the one and the other had loſt that ſoftneſs on the Ear and eaſineſs in Pronounciation which now they retain.

But perhaps the Learner may here enquire to what Verbs he ſhould apply the one Particle and to what the other, i. e. When is [pen] When [pem] When [pēnī] or When [peng;] to this I anſwer [peng] is generally (if not always) uſed before ſuch Verbs as begin with Vowels, or with the Letter G as Artee, to Underſtand.	Pengartee, a Underſtander.

Ēcot, to Follow.	Pengēcot, a Follower.
Irrop, to Sip.	Pengirrop, a Sipper.
Oocoor, to Meaſure.	Pengoocoor, a Meaſurer.
Gālee, to Dig.	Pengālee, a Digger.

In Verbs begining with the Letters S or T, the S or T is left out, Euphoniæ gratia, for the ſake of an eaſie and ſoft Sound and Pronounciation, and then in thoſe that begin with S [pēnī] is uſed, and in thoſe with T [pen] as.

Soorat, to Write.	Penīoorat, a Writer.
Tarrick, to Hawl.	Penarrick, a Hawler.

[Pem] is generally uſed with Verbs begining with the Letters B M as [Pen] is with the Verbs which begin with C D G K, as bōhoong,

JA 250

Bōhoong, to Cheat, Deceive.	Pem bōhoong, a Deceiver.
Mācan, to Eat.	Pem mācan, a Eater.
Cāta, to Speak.	Pen cāta, a Speaker.
Dooſta, to Lie.	Pen dooſta, a Liar.
Gēling, to Roll.	Pen gēling, a Roller.
Kāil, a Angle for Fiſh.	Pen kāil, a Angler.

[Me, Mem, Men, Meng, Mēnī] are Expletives frequently ſet before Verbs, and ſeem to give an Elegancy to the Word, rather than any Addition to its Signification; as

Lāloo, to Depart.	or	Mēlāloo, to Depart.
Māſooc, to Enter.	or	Mēmāſooc, to Enter.
Bāgee ācan, to Divide.	or	Membāgee ācan, to Divide.
Dāpat, Found.	or	Mendāpat, Found.
Abiſcan, Make an end.	or	Mengabiſcan, Make an end.
Āco, to Acknowledge.	or	Mēnīāco, to Acknowledge.

In Verbs beginning with Vowels, the Particle [Meng] is uſed, as

Ampoon, to Forgive.	or	Meng ampoon, to Forgive.
Ēcal, to Curl.	or	Meng ēcal, to Curl.
Iſſee, to Fill.	or	Meng iſſee, to Fill.
Oobattee, to apply Salve to.	or	Meng oobattee, to apply Salve to.

But in Verbs beginning with S or T, the S or T is left out, Euphoniæ gratia; and then with thoſe that begin with S [Mēnī] is uſed, and in thoſe with T [Mem] as

Sāpoo, to Sweep.	or	Mēnī āpoo, to Sweep.
Tiñgal, Leave behind.	or	Mēñ iñgal, Leave behind.

In Verbs beginning with P the P is left out and [Mem] is uſed as,

Pañgil, to Call.	or	Mem añgil, to Call.
Pandang, to Stare on.	or	Mem andang, to Stare on.

Verbs that begin with B [Mem] is always ſet before him as.

Bēſar can, to Magnifie,	or	Mem bēſar can, to Magnifie.
Byſee can, to Trim.	or	Mem byſee can, to Trim.

There

There are ſome other Compoſitions of like Nature in both Nouns and Verbs which the Studious of this Language will ſoon diſcover; I ſhall therefore take notice of but one Particle more which is often joyned to Verbs in the Active Voice and then Paſs on, and that is the Particle [ācan] or ſometimes [can] the word ſignifies [to] as [ācan ōran] to a Man, but its often added to Verbs, One would think needleſsly, yet it gives a peculiar Elegancy in this Language. as Mācan, to Eat. Āko maoo mācan ācan rootee ētoo, I will eat that bread.

Minnoom, to Drink. Āko maoo Minnoom can āngoor ētoo, I will drink that wine.

If it be uſed in the Imperative Mood [la] which is the Imperative note, is put between the Verb and [ācan] as Mācan la ācan rootee ētoo, Eat that bread.

Minnoom la ācan āngoor ētoo, Drink that wine.

Adverbs.

Adverbs of time ending in [ly] are expreſt by [Tiop tiop] ſet before the Noun, as

Jam, an Hour.	Tiop tiop jam, Hourly.
Arree, a Day.	Tiop tiop arree, Daily.
Boolon, a Month.	Tiop tiop boolon, Monthly.
Taūon, a Year.	Tiop tiop taūon, Yearly.

Adjectives of diminution in reſpect of Quality are expreſt by the word [Sēdēkit] as Pootee, White.	Pootee Sēdēkit, Whitiſh, or a little white.

Ētam, Black.	Ētam Sēdēkit, Blackiſh, or a little black.

The young of any living Creature whatſoever is expreſt by adding the word [anak] to the Noun that expreſſes the kind of Creature that is mentioned, as

Ōran, a Humane Perſon.	Anak ōran, a Child, or the young of a humane perſon.
Cooda, a Horſe.	Anak cooda, a Colt.
Doomba, a Sheep.	Anak doomba, a Lamb.
Anjing, a Dog.	Anak anjing, a Puppy.

Numbers.

As to Numbering, there are ſome things peculiar to this Tongue both as to their Naming and Reckoning of things; I ſhall therefore briefly take notice of this, and ſo Conclude; but that I may do this the more intelligibly, I ſhall firſt ſet down their Numbers, as Follows.

1. Sātoo, or Sa.	21. Dua poolao sātoo.
2. Dua.	22. Dua pooloo dua.
3. Tēga.	23. Dea pooloo tēga.
4. Ampat.	24. Dua pooloo ampat.
5. Lema.	25. Dua pooloo lēma.
6. Nam.	26. Dua pooloo nam.
7. Toojoo.	27. Dua pooloo toojoo.
8. Dēlāpan.	28. Dua pooloo dēlāpan.
9. Sambēlan.	29. Dua pooloo ſambēlan.
10. Sapooloo.	30. Tēga pooloo.
11. Sablas.	40. Ampat poolo.
12. Duablas.	50. Lēma pooloo.
13. Tēga blas.	60. Nam pooloo.
14. Ampat blas.	70. Toojoo pooloo.
15. Lēma blas.	80. Dēlāpan pooloo.
16. Nam blas.	90. Sambēlan pooloo.
17. Toojoo blas.	100. Rātoos, or ſa Rātoos.
18. Dēlāpan blas.	1000. Rēboo, or ſa Rēboo.
19. Sambēlan blas.	10000. Laxa, or ſa Laxa.
20. Dua pooloo.	100000. Keetee, or ſa Keetee.

¼ Soocoo, or ſa Soocoo.	200. Dua rātoos.
½ Tenga.	2000. Dua rēboo.
¾ Tēga ſoocoo.	3000. Tega rēboo.

Fractions of Numbers, or thoſe common Parts of Integers, which are moſt familiar to us, they Expreſs thus;

Soocoo, a Quarter.
Tenga, Half.
Tēga ſoocoo, Three Quarters.
Sātoo ſa ſoocoo, One and a Quarter.
Dua tēga ſoocoo, Two and Three Quarters.

But

But then they ſay

Tenga dua, One and a half.
Tenga tega, Two and a half, and ſo on; Which is as if they ſhould ſay Two leſs a half, Three leſs a half; for tho' the Word leſs is not Expreſt, yet its underſtood: But in all other broken Numbers except the half, they Reckon as we do.

In numbring of things, they have expreſs Words for the ſeveral kinds of things ſo number'd, which they always repeat after the Number, as for Example;

Oran, Signifies Humane kind.	Oran ſa oran, One Humane Perſon.
Oran lakkee, a Man, or Male human kind.	Oran lakkee ſa oran, One Man.
Oran parampoan, a Woman.	Oran parampoan dua oran, Two Women.
Oran anak, a Child.	Oran anak tega oran, three Children.

Where its to be obſerv'd that the Word [Oran] is ſtill repeated after the Number.

To Denominate all other living Creatures, they uſe the Word [Ecor] as,

Cooda, a Horſe.	Cooda ampat ecor, Four Horſes.
Doomba, a Sheep.	Doomba lema ecor, Five Sheep.
Binnatang, a Beaſt.	Binnatang nam ecor, Six Beaſts.
Booroong, a Bird.	Booroong toojoo ecor, Seven Birds.
Ecan, a Fiſh.	Ecan delapan ecor, Eight Fiſhes.

Where its to be obſerv'd that the Word [Ecor] is ſtill repeated after the Number, as before.

Obſerve the Word [Sa] in numbering, is us'd both for [One] and alſo for the Particle [a] as the note of a Subſtantive; as,

Gaja, a Elephant. Gaja ſa ecor, One Elephant, or a Elephant.

To expreſs a Natural entire ſolid body, they add the Word [Batoo] after the Number; as,

Bātoo, a Stone.	Bāteo ſa Bātoo, One, or A Stone.
Giggee, a Tooth.	Giggee ſa pooloo bātoo, Ten Teeth.

To expreſs Artificial Things, which are Compact of ſolid Materials: they add the Word [Booa] after the Number; as,

Cōta, a Caſtle.	Cōta dua pooloo booa, Twenty Caſtles.
Rooma, a Houſe.	Rooma tēga pooloo booa, Thirty Houſes.
Cāpal, a Ship.	Cāpal ampat pooloo booa, Forty Ships.

To expreſs Vegetables, they add the Word [Bidjee] after the Number, as Pōhone, a Tree.	Pōhone lēma pooloo bidjee, Fifty Trees.

Roompoot bādooree, a Brier.	Roompoot bādooree nam pooloo bidjee, Sixty Briers.

But to all Fruits, they alſo prefix the Word [Booa] which Signifies Fruits, as

Pēſang, a Plantain.	Booa pēſang toojoo pooloo bidjee, Seventy Plantains.
Dēlēma or Booa dēlēma, a Pomgranate.	Booa dēlēma dēlāpan pooloo bidjee, Eighty Pomgranates.

To expreſs any thing that grows Naturaly thin, they add the Particle [ley] after the Number, as

Daūon, a Leaf.	Daūon sambēlan pooloo ley, Ninety Leaves.
Coolit, a Skin, or Shell.	Coolit ſo rātoos ley, One Hundred Skins.

Artificial Things that are thin, have the Word [kēping] ſet after the Number, as,

Cartas, Paper.	Cartas dua rātoos kēping, Two Hundred Sheets of Paper.
Pēdang, a Sword.	Pēdang tēga rātoos kēping, Three Hundred Swords.

I have now finiſhed what I propos'd, viz. To give a ſhort Specimen of Grammar, and tho' it may perhaps be in ſome Things imperfect; yet, I doubt not but its ſo full, that any Learner may by obſerving theſe Directions, ſoon attain to a Facility in this eaſie Language.

Malayos,

Malayo's, and all other Mahometans, their Manner of Computation of Time.

THE wiſer ſort of Arabians having made Ware with Mahomet and his followers, in the year of Chriſt 622, Mahomet was forced to fly or depart Mecha and got to Medena, but he afterwards prevailing, ſettled his Epocha from the time of his flight from Mecha, and named it Hegira, from the Arabian word Hegirathi, which ſignifies a Flight or Departure; the year to conſiſt of Twelve Moons, and to begin with the Moon named by the Arabians Moohāram in the ſaid year of Chriſt 622, July 16th. being Friday.

The Malayo's having generally received the Mahometan Faith did (as all other Nations, have done who are of that Faith) receive there with their Epocha and manner of Computation of Time as aforeſaid; the names of the Twelve Moons are as followeth.

1 Moohāram.	5 Joomad ool awal.	9 Ramālan or Ramazaan.
2 Tsāfar.	6 Joomad ool ākir.	10 Sawal.
3 Rābee ool awal.	7 Rajabi.	11 Doolcaidat.
4 Rābee ool ākir.	8 Sāban.	12 Dool hajat.

Their Moons or Months begin when the New Moon is firſt ſeen, the day after being accounted the firſt day of the Moon or Month, but if the weather be cloudy, they then compute 29 or 30 days from the preceeding Moon, to begin the next, by which means the firſt day of ever Moon or Month of the Mahometans falls out about 11 days ſooner every year then it was the preceeding Solar year, and ſo conſequently their Lunar year begins about 11 days ſooner then in the preceeding Solar year, as for Example.

The Moon Mooharam begins, or is firſt ſeen in 1700, June the 8.
The Moon Mooharam begins, or is firſt ſeen in 1701 May the 28.

Differences 11 days.

And ſo by that Rule accounting for every year and, allowing 12 days to one Year in 19, which is the ſame as our Epact, the time of each Moon or Months of the Mahometans may at any time be found.

For the reaſon aforeſaid, I could not ſet the names of the Malayo Moons in the foregoing Dictionary to Corriſpond with our Months, and becauſe the Names of the Mahometan Moons with a ſmall allowance for Accent, and alſo this ſame Manner of Computation is uſed in Turkey, Ægypt, Morocco, Arabia, India, All over the South-Sea Ilands and Malayo Countries, and in general in all Mahometan Countries. I have therefore added hereto a Table of the Years of the Hegira and the Moons with their Correſpondency with our Solar Years and Month for 33 Years to come as followeth.

Note. The foregoing Tables for the begining or first seeing the Moons, is Calculated for two days after the change of each Moon, according to common Calculation by the Epact, which sometimes differ near 24 hours from the true time of the Moons Change, or likewise a clear Skie, or Cloudy Weather, may sometime make one day difference sooner or later, in the beginning of the Moon, according to the Mahometan Account, therefore the Reader by taking notice of the day the Moon is first seen, or if not Cloudy might be seen, may easily regulate that difference and number the days of the Moon from that time: And may depend that the time fixed by these Tables, for the first seeing each Moon, will always be within one day of the Truth.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed by thy Name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven, Give us this day our Daily bread, And forgive us our Treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that Treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil, For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
