CARVELL HAS JOINED CABINET; BALLANTYNE MINISTER OF MARINE

New Brunswick Representative Sworn in as Minister of Public Works; Either Premier Murray or Maclean Will Be Minister of Labor

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Frank B. Carvell definitely joined the Union Government shortly after 1 o'clock to-day. He was sworn in as Minister of Public Works, the portfolio taken by Colonel C. C. Ballantyne last week, the first Liberal to enter the new Government. Colonel Ballantyne now becomes Minister of Marine and Fisheries, the portfolio vacated by Hon. J. D. Hazen. Announcement of the changes was made after a meeting of the Cabinet this forenoon. Mr. Carvell will be the only representative of the Province of New Brunswick in the Cabinet. In the late Commons he sat as Liberal member for Carleton, N. B.

He was one of the first considered in connection with the Union Government proposal when it was first mooted some months ago.

There were no definite developments to-day in regard to the representation of Nova Scotia in the Union Government. The belief continues to prevail, however, that either Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia, or A. K. Maclean, former junior member for Halifax, will become Minister of Labor.

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—The Winnipeg Free Press carries the following from its Ottawa correspondent:

"The general principle agreed upon is that in carrying out the forthcoming Dominion election there shall be as far as possible even-handed justice for Liberals and Conservatives. The Government influence will only go for Union Government candidates as against anti-Union Government candidates, and in cases where two Union Government candidates are running in the same constituency they will be left to fight it out themselves.

"One important benefit of union and non-partisan government is already manifested—the patronage burden is being lifted from the shoulders of the Ministers. There is a ready answer for all seeking the influence of their geographical Minister to do something affecting another Department of State. The answer is that patronage has been cut out and that each Department head must decide questions of policy and appointment solely in the interests of state."

The Ridings.
Ottawa, Oct. 13.—The probable effect of the formation of a Union Government on the nominations is a matter of much speculation. There has been no official intimation from Government sources as to what plan it is proposed to adopt and it is understood that the Conservative and Liberal members of the Cabinet have not discussed the matter except in a general way and with the understanding the preference will be given to sitting member of either party in each case in the event of his declaring willingness to support the Union Government. In vacant constituencies, including the newly-created constituencies in the West, Unionist candidates will be nominated in the usual way to oppose straight Liberal or Independent candidates. It is fully realized that the constituencies where both parties already have nominated candidates both of whom would be willing to support the Government, complications will arise which will have to be straightened out.

Where They Will Stand.
Ottawa, Oct. 13.—The Ottawa Evening Citizen says that in the approaching election Hon. N. W. Rowell will run in one of the Toronto ridings; Hon. T. A. Crear probably will replace Hon. W. J. Roche as member for Marquette; Hon. A. L. Sifton will contest Battle River; Hon. J. A. Calder will run in Regina and Hon. C. C. Ballantyne in the St. George-St. Lawrence division of Montreal.

When the date of the election is fixed or earlier the Government will issue a manifesto setting forth its position.

Back to Halifax.
Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia, left Ottawa this afternoon for Halifax. It is not expected that any definite decision with regard to his acceptance of a portfolio in the Union Government will be reached for the next few days.

BATTLE NOW BETWEEN TIRPITZ AND MOST OF GERMAN PEOPLE

Amsterdam, Oct. 13.—Deputy Mammant, of the Progressive People's Party, said in the German Reichstag on October 9:

"Since the end of 1914 Germany has had two Governments, the Bethmann-Hollweg Government and the Tirpitz Government. There was a long time when neither the Kaiser nor Parliament could see a decisive distinction between the Bethmann-Hollweg and the Tirpitz Governments or venture to make one. From this dualism resulted in the army, among the authorities, newspapers of the Empire and among the people. The two Governments were restless with one another. To-day the battle is between Tirpitz and the majority of the German nation."

Capelle's Downfall Is Added Proof of Failure of U Boats

Washington, Oct. 13.—News of the resignation of Vice-Admiral von Capelle as German Minister of Marine was gladly received in Washington, because it was interpreted as another proof of the failure of the German submarine campaign. It had been expected for some time that von Capelle would lose his official head because of the failure of the submarines to starve and bring Britain to her knees before the end of the summer.

Britain Now Ready to Send Airmen to Bomb German Towns

London, Oct. 13.—The newspapers here suggest that the Government is ready to begin carrying out reprisal air raids on Germany. This belief is based on the assignment of Lieut-General David Henderson, Director-General of Military Aeronautics, to special work and the sending of Major-General W. Brancker, Director of Air Organization for the army to a command abroad.

GERMAN TROOPS LAND ON OESEL AND DAGO ISLANDS; RUSSIANS ARE RESISTING

London, Oct. 13.—While the British offensive has come to a momentary pause with the gains effected yesterday everywhere held, a situation latent with possibilities has developed on the Russian front. The landing of German troops on the islands of Oesel and Dago, at the mouth of the Gulf of Riga, is reported to-day from Petrograd. From the shore's edge at Hapsal, opposite Dago Island, a railroad runs direct to Reval, the Russian naval base on the Gulf of Finland, and thence on to Petrograd.

The islands in question have themselves been bases of no little importance to the Russians, especially for aeroplane activities. It has been realized that their seizure undoubtedly would hamper Russian naval scouting work and effectually close the Gulf of Riga to Russian use and apparently offer an excellent starting point for a land expedition for Petrograd, if one should be contemplated by the German command. The lateness of the season has seemed to preclude any attempt by the Teutons to make a drive toward Petrograd this year.

It has been pointed out, however, that such a move probably could be carried out with comparative ease at present with the Russian armies in their admittedly disorganized state, whereas next Spring there is governmental promise of a Russian military regeneration after a winter's organizing work along new lines.

Russian Report.
Petrograd, October 13.—The Germans landed detachments yesterday on the coast of the Gulf of Tagalah, on the north of Oesel Island, and near the village of Sero, on the southern part of Dago Island, the War Office here announced to-day. The Russian coast batteries were silenced by German dreadnoughts.

MICHAELIS AT TETHER'S END MUST RESIGN AS CHANCELLOR

Copenhagen, Oct. 13.—The German Reichstag adjourned leaving behind it a latent crisis which political observers believe will lead sooner or later to the retirement of Dr. Michaelis, the Chancellor, who will find himself without a following. Although other parties are less actively in opposition to Dr. Michaelis than the Socialists, not a voice has been raised against the Vorwaerts' slogan "Michaelis must go."

Recent arrivals here from Berlin report that the current gossip there is that Michaelis can scarcely last a month. The Chancellor's blunder in springing the disclosures of the naval plot against which, according to the National Zeitung, he was strongly advised, and his failure to make headway against the Reichstag majority, appear to have lost him the Conservative and Pan-German support.

The speeches at the concluding session of the Reichstag must be read in the light of the expectation that the days of Michaelis are numbered. The speech of the Radical Deputy, Hausmann, contained passages intended to launch the candidacy of Prince von Euelow, which still is being pressed as vigorously as possible.

Must Resign.
London, Oct. 13.—A dispatch to The Telegraph from Amsterdam says The Rheinische Westfalishe Zeitung declares it understands that the German Socialists have informed Chancellor Michaelis they will not vote for the December credits unless he resigns.

The newspapers say the Chancellor received the party leaders last Wednesday and that they explained to him the feelings of the public with regard to his maintenance of power. Many German newspapers received here express the belief the future of Chancellor Michaelis will not be decided until Kaiser Wilhelm returns to Berlin at the end of October.

Absolutely Incapable.
Amsterdam, Oct. 13.—A Berlin dispatch received here says that at the meeting of the German Reichstag on Thursday Georg Ledebour, Social Democratic leader, was called to order

PREVENTING HOLLAND ASSISTING GERMAN ENEMY MATERIALS FOR DEFENCES VIA HOLLAND

Why Britain Has Cut Off Holland's Cable Communications

ENEMY MATERIALS FOR DEFENCES VIA HOLLAND

London, Oct. 13.—The prohibition of all commercial cable communication with Holland until such time as The Netherlands Government places an absolute restriction on the transit of sand and gravel and scrap metals through Holland from Germany to Belgium was explained to a representative of the Associated Press to-day by Lord Robert Cecil, the Minister of Blockade.

"The Dutch in recent months," he said, "have been allowing the Germans to transport across Dutch waterways from Germany to Belgium vast quantities of gravel and sand. The total was out of all proportion to that transported in peace time, and there is not the slightest doubt that the Germans are making direct use of this to our detriment. The Germans are using enormous quantities of concrete in 'pill boxes,' dugouts and in many other ways."

Enormous quantities. "The Dutch do not claim that the Germans should be allowed to transport materials for this war concrete through Dutch territory, but they say the Germans have given them assurance that all this material is being employed in strictly civil pursuits. I have no doubt that the Germans have given such assurances, and there may be some juggling by which they are able to submit paper proofs. But we have this fact—enormous quantities of concrete are being used at the front and enormous quantities of concrete materials are going into the war zone through Holland."

"We made repeated diplomatic complaints with no result until we finally decided, inasmuch as the Dutch have no right to use our cables except as a matter of courtesy, that we should say to the Dutch that we cannot see a way to permit them the further use of our cables until something is done about the transportation of concrete materials."

"That is where the matter stands at present."
Dutch Statement.
The Hague, Oct. 13.—The Dutch Foreign Office to-day issued the following statement concerning the prohibition of the use of British cables by Holland:

"The Netherlands Government can satisfy the British desire to stop the transit of sand and gravel to Belgium only when the British Government can show, despite the declarations of the German authorities and the investigations of Dutch officers, that the materials are used for war purposes. The Dutch Minister at London has been instructed to ask the British Government to communicate any proofs it may possess in this regard."

LAURIER'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE CHANGES

Matter of Deep Interest to All Canadians, Says Toronto Globe

Toronto, Oct. 13.—Discussing Sir Wilfrid Laurier's position with regard to the new regime, the Toronto Globe says editorially:

"The position of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his attitude toward the new developments will be a matter of deep interest to all Canadians. He has announced through the Canadian Liberal Monthly that if returned to power his policy would be, first, a supreme effort by a systematic and thorough national war organization to secure a voluntary enlistment the necessary number of recruits; second, a referendum if this effort should fail; third, the acceptance of the verdict in every part of Canada; if the vote should favor conscription; fourth, a resumption of recruiting efforts if conscription be negated. This means that the operation of the Military Service Act would cease pending referendum, even if only a portion of the first draft of 100,000 had been called to the colors before election, as probably will be the case. Not many candidates outside of Quebec will frankly support this programme. It may safely be assumed, however, that in the next Parliament, if Sir Wilfrid is not able to form an administration of his own, he will be a friendly and helpful critic of the Union Government in all its war measures, except insofar as they conflict with his ideas on conscription."

VISCOUNT GREY WILL VISIT THIS CONTINENT

London, Oct. 13.—The London Globe says it is understood that Viscount Grey, former Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, will visit America.

RAIN CONTINUING IN FLANDERS; NO EFFORT BY ENEMY, HAIG SAYS

British in Positions Won Yesterday; On Aisne Front Germans Made Attempts; Were Beaten by French; Artillery Fighting Near Verdun

London, Oct. 13.—On the Flanders front the heavy rain which stopped Field-Marshal Haig's drive before all his objectives had been attained was continuing to-day, increasing the depth of the sticky mud through which the British have been struggling in their advances. The mud evidently is hampering the Germans equally, for they failed to deliver a counter-attack during the night.

On the French front the chief activities have been in the Aisne region. The German Crown Prince made several attacks last night on French positions on this front. He was met with effective resistance by General Petain's forces, however, and all the assaults were repulsed.

The text of Field-Marshal Haig's report to-day follows:

"There was a heavy rain throughout the night, which still is continuing. No counter-attacks by the enemy have developed thus far on the battlefield. On the rest of our front there is nothing to report."
Freflich Report.

Paris, Oct. 13.—The War Office here reported this afternoon:

"On the front north of the Aisne River German troops during the night delivered several attacks against our positions in the sector between Hurtebise and Chevreux. Notwithstanding the violence of his efforts, the enemy was able only to gain a footing momentarily in our advanced line at one point. West of the Hurtebise monument and south of La Royere we dispersed German detachments which were attempting to approach our lines. "On the right bank of the Meuse River (Verdun front) there was heavy artillery fighting in the region of Chameu Wood.

"There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front."
German Statement.

Berlin, Oct. 13.—The British gain in Flanders yesterday amounted altogether to about one and one-fifth kilometres at two points, where the German lines were broken into, the War Office here announces. The British are said to have suffered heavy losses.

Much Pomp in Cairo at the New Sultan's Accession to Throne

Cairo, Egypt, Oct. 11.—Delayed—the accession of the new Sultan of Egypt, Ahmed Fuad, was marked to-day by great pomp and ceremony. He rode in an open carriage, accompanied by the Premier, through flag-bedecked streets. The equipage was escorted by Egyptian cavalry and the streets were lined with British and Australian infantry as a guard of honor, while guns boomed and the great crowds cheered.

SWEDES WOULD KEEP ON AIDING GERMAN WISH TO CONTINUE SUPPLYING THE TEUTONS WITH IRON ORE

Stockholm, Oct. 13.—Statements from Washington alleging the existence of a secret agreement under which Sweden is obliged to export iron ore to Germany caused surprise here, but a representative of the Associated Press was informed to-day that no such agreement exists. The only agreements affecting iron ore have been published, and none specify any particular country to which the ore may be exported.

The Graensberg Company, which controls virtually the whole Swedish iron and steel trade, has an agreement with the Swedish Government specifying the amount of ore the company is permitted to export. M. Miller, director of the Graensberg Company, said to the writer yesterday:

"There are many reasons why we can not discontinue exporting ore to Germany. They are sound business and economic reasons, utterly unconnected with political questions or sympathies with one or the other belligerent."

"Firstly, we are bound to the German importers by long term contracts, the violation of which would entail heavy damages in addition to the loss of trade and profits. Secondly, there is the question of the fate of our 30,000 employees if the German trade were stopped. Thirdly, our 10,000 shareholders throughout the kingdom must be considered. We should be only too glad to sell to the United States or Britain, or anybody, especially as the present market prices are considerably higher than the German contract price. Tonnage difficulty makes it impossible for Britain and the United States to replace Germany as a customer."

Sweden is dependent on Germany for coal and potash and many other necessities for the country's trade, many of which are unobtainable elsewhere. But quite apart from these reasons, Sweden of all parties are united and resolute in opposing any attempt to force them to break trade relations with any country, or what many fear is that it is intended for the purpose of compelling Sweden to abandon her neutrality. This feeling is constantly voiced in public and in the press.

Recent declarations of Conservative, Liberal and Socialist leaders were firm that Sweden must maintain neutrality.

BRITISH SUCCESS IN EAST AFRICAN FIELD

Important Junction Point on Flank of Enemy's Retreat Occupied

London, Oct. 13.—Occupation by British troops of an important junction point flanking the German line of retreat in German East Africa was announced in an official report to-day on the operations in that area. The report reads:

"In the Mbemkuru Valley area on Thursday our right column, advancing from Kilwa, having moved southwest up the valley to Miemba and thence southeast, occupied Rupunda, an important junction of the tracks at the northwestern end of the Mueira Plateau and on the flank of the line of retreat of the enemy's main body, whose rearguard is being pressed by British troops moving south from Napungu. The rapidity of our advance apparently surprised the enemy, who was making for Rupunda.

"In the western area a strong enemy detachment was dislodged from positions overlooking the Luwegu River drift near Opolinda 253 mile south of Mahong, and it has retired six miles in a northeasterly direction."

ANNIVERSARY OF CANADIANS' LANDING IN UNITED KINGDOM

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—The third anniversary of the landing of the First Canadian Contingent in England will be celebrated on Sunday evening next by a meeting in the Regent Theatre under the auspices of the Great War Veterans' Association of Ottawa. Ralph Connor (Major Gordon), who is at present in Ottawa, will be the principal speaker. Mayor Fisher will preside.

SIR JOHN SIMON IS BRITISH OFFICER NOW

London, Oct. 13.—Sir John Simon, former Attorney-General, The London Daily Mail announces, has been given a commission in the army and has joined the British forces in France. Sir John gives up a legal practice said to be worth £20,000 a year.

STRONG POINTS TAKEN DESPITE BAD WEATHER

Haig's Men Wrested More
Ground From Germans
in Belgium

London, Oct. 13.—The following report from Field-Marshal Haig was issued here last night:

"Notwithstanding the heavy rain which fell during the night, our troops succeeded in forming up for an attack, which was launched at 5.25 o'clock this morning. Progress was made along the entire front, which extended from the Ypres-Roulers railway, on the south, to our junction with the French on the southern edge of Houthulst Forest.

"On the whole of this front a large number of defended localities, woods and concreted strong points were captured by us, together with a number of prisoners. The fighting was especially severe on the slopes of Quin Ridge, west of Passchendaele, and on the main ridge itself south of that village. A heavy rain again set in during the morning after a brief interval of fine weather, and has continued with increasing violence throughout the day and impeded our progress. It was decided in consequence not to make any further effort to reach our final objectives.

"The number of prisoners taken by us during the day is approximately 500."

Aerial Work.
An official communication dealing with aviation issued last evening said:

"On Thursday every opportunity was taken by our aeroplanes to reconnoitre enemy positions and carry on artillery and photographic work during the intervals of clear weather. A large number of bombs were dropped by our machines on hostile billets, and machine gun-fire was operated from low altitudes upon German infantry in their trenches. One hostile machine was brought down yesterday in combat and another was shot down by our infantry. Two other enemy machines were driven down out of control.

"Five of our aeroplanes are missing."

French Report.
Paris, Oct. 13.—An official report issued here last night said:

"During the day the artillery was very active in the sector of Moulin-de-Lafaux and in the region of Craonne.

"Further information concerning the enemy's surprise attacks last night in the region of Souain and Auberville which we repulsed shows that they were carried out by heavy effectives and were preceded by a bombardment of 36 hours. Three attacks were made by groups of detachments of about 140 men each, including shock troops and pioneers. They were received by our artillery fire and the fire of machine guns. These attacks resulted in lively engagements in which we clearly showed our superiority. The enemy left 10 prisoners in our hands. The enemy's losses were heavy."

German Statement.
Berlin, Oct. 13.—An official statement issued here last night said:

"On the Langemarck-Zonnebeke front in Flanders the battle is still in full swing. To the north of Poelcapelle and to the southwest of Passchendaele the fighting still goes on at some places where the English penetrated our lines."

Laughed at Leader.
London, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from British Headquarters in France and Belgium to Reuter's says that a prisoner from the 72nd German Infantry Reserve, in describing the discipline of his corps, declared that before the battle last Tuesday the regimental commander addressed his troops with the warning that anyone who held back would be shot. The only answer was a general groaning, swelling into derisive laughter, upon which the commander rode away.

ENTENTE BARRIER ACROSS BALKANS
To Thwart German Designs
After War; a Greek Professor Speaks

Athens, Oct. 12.—Via London, Oct. 13.—(By the Associated Press).—If the Turk is to leave Europe, as the Entente Powers have required in their war terms, then there is a well-defined belief in the Balkans that two results will occur of high importance to Greece and all Europe:

First—That the Greek inevitably will succeed the Turk throughout Thrace and in the whole region down to the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

Second—That a new zone of territory friendly to the Entente will thus be stretched horizontally straight across the Balkans as a barrier to the German dream of making the Balkans a German high road to the Orient.

Professor Andreade, of the University of Athens, one of the foremost authorities on international affairs relating to the Balkans, holds this view, and in the course of a talk he explained how these two results would naturally come about in the final peace adjustment, by reason of the principle of nationalities now accepted by the Entente as a basis for territorial readjustment.

Professor Andreade, who is a specialist on the extent of Greek citizenship beyond the Greek frontiers—in Macedonia and the other Balkan lands, in Turkey, Syria and Asia Minor—pointed out the great importance of Greeks in the regions to be evacuated by the Turks if they are to leave Europe.

350,000 in Constantinople. The whole Vilyet, or Province, of Adrianople, extending from the Balkans down to Constantinople, he declared, is as much Greek as it is Turk, and with the Turks out it is practically all Greek. "Even Constantinople," he said, "is a Greek city—the largest of Greek cities—with a population of 350,000 Greeks. That gives an idea of the extent of Greek citizenship in all this section down to the Straits, which will have to be considered on the basis of nationality and race when the Turk leaves Europe.

"That is why I say," added Prof. Andreade, "that if the Turk is to withdraw, the principle of nationality, which recognizes the racial condition of a community, will lead to the recognition of Greek paramount influence in that section. Thus far the principle of nationality has been ignored and violated in all Balkan settlements and force has prevailed. Austria and Bulgaria have not occupied any of the territory annexed in recent years by reason that their race or nationality prevailed in these sections, but solely by reason of their military force. That has been the cause of the endless wars in the Balkans, for people are never satisfied when their race is ignored and they are attached to a foreign conqueror by force."

Barriers.
Professor Andreade, referring to the Balkan map, showed how the readjustment of Balkan boundaries, based on nationalities, would interpose two barriers to German expansion toward Asia Minor and the Orient, one the Greek zone across Thrace and the other the Serb-Romanian link of territory which lies as a dam between Hungary and Bulgaria. This Serb-Romanian link is only fifty miles across, but with Roumania getting the Banat region, to which Professor Andreade says she is entitled by the principle of nationality, this Entente link will be 150 miles across.

"And thus Entente Europe can accomplish what it chiefly seeks in the Balkans," said Professor Andreade, "friendly Entente zones intercepting the natural route of German expansion toward the Orient, and this can be accomplished, not by force, but by the principle of nationality now accepted by the Entente Powers."

EXPLOIT OF TWO BRITISH AIRMEN

Germans Did Not Catch Them;
British Blew Germans Up

London, Oct. 13.—"Two of our fellows had a rather startling adventure in France, the other day," said a wounded British aeroplane pilot. "They left their aerodrome for a patrol stunt over the German lines. They saw something doing in the rear of the enemy lines and flew down to have a closer look, and they came under the fire of some 'archies.' Of course they paid little attention to the fire until a direct hit smashed their engine, and the pilot had barely time to turn the 'bus' for home when most of the engine fell clear. He didn't lose control, but planned down as much in the direction of the British line as he could. They came to earth with a bit of a crash inside the German lines, but neither the pilot nor his observer was hurt. They nipped out of the ruined 'bus' pretty quickly and started running in the direction of the British trenches.

"There didn't seem to be any Germans about where they came down and after running for some time they dropped to have a breather. While they lay on the ground out of breath they spotted a sort of erection affair, covered with camouflage. They crept up closer and got near enough to hear Germans talking, but not near enough to be spotted. It was a gun-pit, and a jolly big one at that, so they squatted there and made a sketch map of it, with a bearing, or two to get the proper range.

"After that they crept and ran and crawled until they got to the bank of a nearby canal. They hid to swim for it and they took off as much damage as they could—stripped to their shirts, and one of them stuck the sketch in his tobacco pouch to keep it from getting soaked. Then they started to swim for it. As they left the bank a couple of German snipers got a bead on them and they had just time to locate the beggars hiding in sunken barrels before they dived for it. They swam under water, coming up for a breather now and then, with the Germans blazing away all the time.

"When they got to the other side, there was a bit of a slope to get up and then one of our own sentries started to fire at them. They didn't want to kick up too much of a row and he piped by the Germans after getting so far, but they managed by signals to show that the sniper chap had made a mistake and they got through all right.

"The first thing they did while still dressed only in wet shirts, was to get on the 'phone to our heavies, and by the help of the infantry O. C.'s map to give the exact location of that big gun-pit, as well as the two barrels. Next thing that happened was a series of direct hits on that gun emplacement, and the two snipers' barrels went sky-high. It was a complete wash-out for the Germans."

VON CAPELLE, GERMAN MINISTER OF MARINE, FORCED TO RESIGN

Amsterdam, Oct. 13.—Vice-Admiral von Capelle, German Minister of Marine, has resigned, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung.

Vice-Admiral Eduard von Capelle was one of the administrative directors in the German Ministry of Marine before the war, and had served as a captain at sea. In March, 1916, he succeeded Admiral von Tirpitz as Imperial Minister of the Navy. Several times since then von Capelle has appeared before the Reichstag with optimistic statements regarding the progress of the unrestricted submarine campaign, as late as August 26, 1917, defending the U boat policy of his predecessor and himself at a meeting of the main committee of the Reichstag.

HANNA'S APPEAL TO COAST FISHERMEN

Vancouver, Oct. 13.—Dean Klink, of the University of British Columbia and provincial secretary of the Production, Conservation and Food Control Committee, has received the following telegram from Food Controller Hanna, addressed to the fishermen of British Columbia:

"Greater production of our fisheries is absolutely essential to meet the needs of Canada and of the Empire. Canada must continue to export meats and dairy products to the utmost limit. The only adequate reserve of fish foods is in our fisheries. To organize for maximum production so that the depleted larders of our Allies may be supplied by our exports and so that Canada will be plentifully supplied by our united and unremitting efforts, is the duty of everyone identified with the fishing industry. Every additional pound produced beyond ordinary domestic requirements will release a corresponding amount of meat for those doing our fighting. It is your duty and privilege to do this work in the same spirit of patriotism that inspires your kinsmen and comrades at the front. Canada knows your response to this appeal will be in keeping with the higher traditions of your calling.

"No more urgent imperial duty could be assigned you than helping to avert a calamitous shortage of food supplies. Do not waste edible fish.

(Signed) "W. J. HANNA."

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY VANCOUVER LIBERALS

Vancouver, Oct. 13.—At the annual meeting of the Vancouver City and District Liberal Association here two resolutions were unanimously passed, one reaffirming allegiance to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the other refusing to countenance any Coalition Government led by Sir Robert Borden. The first read:

"That there is not now and never has been in the mind of any real, genuine and unqualified Liberal in this association or this country at any moment a single doubt as to the distinguished leadership of the grand old Liberal party in this present campaign and we here again at this annual meeting renew our pledge and allegiance to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, greatest of Canadian statesmen, and our confidence that he may again soon and long conduct the Government of Canada honestly and unite a prosperous country and so effectively help to win the war."

The other emphasizes that the Liberals of Greater Vancouver will not support any coalition of the Liberals and Conservatives "under Sir Robert Borden and Sir Thomas White."

ITALIAN REPORT.

Rome, Oct. 13.—The War Office here reported last night:

"There was bad weather to-day on the whole front. We damaged enemy saps in the Travinigolo Valley with a well-timed explosion. There was somewhat intense activity of the artillery in the Lagarino Valley and north of Tolmino, where moving columns of motor lorries were dispersed."

Do Your Ears Ring With Head Noises?

Tells Simple, Harmless Way to Overcome This Trouble at Home and Improve Hearing 100 Per Cent. in Many Instances

Thousands of people are constantly troubled with buzzing, ringing, rumbling or hissing noises in their head and ears, are hard of hearing and fear the day when partial or total deafness may be their lot.

Such cases, even though of long standing, are not hopeless, as a simple home prescription used daily has shown it possible in many instances to overcome the head and ear noises in less than ten days and to restore clear, distinct hearing in less than thirty.

Get from any druggist 1 oz. Parmit (double strength) which costs about 50 cents. Take this home and add to it 3 pint of hot water and 4 oz. granulated sugar. Stir until dissolved and then take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmit is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

NOTE.—While Parmit is widely used in the treatment of catarrh people who suffer from head noises or defective hearing should be certain to get it in the special (double strength) form especially designed for treating such cases.

TWENTY-SEVEN CENTS A POUND FOR WATER

Former Employee of Davies Company Gives Evidence at Toronto

Toronto, Oct. 12.—"Take care of the pickle. It is worth 25 to 27 cents a pound. The British Government should know more than to pay 2 to 27 cents a pound for salt water." "Pickle" is the salt water pork is cured in.

J. T. Wardle, who was in charge of the export department of the William Davies Company at Montreal until August 25 last, swore at the Government investigation here that he had been instructed as above by John Cringan, official auditor of the company. Mr. Wardle said this remark had been a sore point with him as a patriotic man and a Britisher. He soon afterward left the company's service and took certain papers with him.

Mr. Cringan, called as a witness, denied making any such statement, but

Gall Stones REMOVED IN 24 HOURS WITHOUT ANY PAIN WHATSOEVER

INDIGESTION, Stomach and Liver Disorders, Appendicitis, Peritonitis, and Kidney Stones are often caused by Gall Stones, which is a dangerous complaint and misleading persons to believe that they have stomach trouble, chronic dyspepsia and indigestion, until those had attacks of Gall Stone Colic appear; then they realize what is the trouble. Ninety out of every hundred persons who have Gall Stones don't know it. Procedure today and avoid an operation. Can be obtained at admitted having had some conversation with Wardle over the export business.

Mr. Wardle then was recalled and declared again that Mr. Cringan had thus spoken and that he also had said: "I think it is a shame that the people should have to pay such high prices." The examination of Mr. Wardle had largely to do with the curing process. He explained that he had received daily instructions from the Toronto office of the company.

War-Time Trade.

Recalled to the stand, E. C. Fox, the general manager of the Davies Company, made the statement that practically all the profits had been made out of the war-time export trade, and not out of the pockets of the individual householder. This declaration was made by the official on Chairman Henderson asking for an explanation of an elaborate statement in regard to the cost of hogs converted into bacon.

The examination of witness was mainly in connection with the increased cost of the product, and it was shown that since the war began the retail price of best bacon had risen steadily from 27 to 59 cents a pound. At the latter price, witnesses in the provision business maintained, the yield to retailers was only 7 per cent. They claimed that in order to make a reasonable profit, 50 cents should be the selling price. It also was brought out that during the last two years there had been a great decrease in the sale of what retailers term luxuries.

THE LEADERSHIP OF THE ONTARIO LIBERALS

Toronto, Oct. 13.—A rumor here is to the effect that Nelson Parliament, M. P. for Prince Edward, is the most likely choice to succeed N. W. Rowell as leader of the Ontario Liberals. William Proudfoot, Huron Centre; Hartley Dewart and C. M. Bowman also are spoken of as possibilities.

A NANAIMO DEATH.

Nanaimo, Oct. 13.—The death occurred here last evening of Mrs. James Menzies, aged 58. She was a native of Scotland. Aside from her husband, five sons, two of whom are in the army, and one convalescent at Esquimaux Military Hospital from wounds received in action, and three daughters, including Mrs. McCortindale, whose husband was killed in action a year ago, survive her.

MONTAGU EXPLAINS PLANS FOR INDIA

British Government Purposes to Grant Larger Measure of Self-Government

London, Oct. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Plans formulated by the British Government for granting a larger measure of self-government to the people of India have been explained to a correspondent of The Associated Press by Rt. Hon. Edwin S. Montagu, Secretary of State for India, who said: "My forthcoming journey to India is the direct outcome of the Government's announcement in Parliament that its policy in India is to develop self-governing institutions with a view to the progressive realization of representative government.

"Do not misunderstand me. This ideal of ours must be approached by easy stages. The man who thinks that home rule for India is a practical policy is either wholly ignorant of the situation or desigingly mischievous. Steps toward responsible government will be taken at different rates by different parts of India. Great provinces will fit themselves for it at different times. But the great thing is that we are going ahead firmly on the path toward the end which we all, British and Indians alike, desire.

"The measures that we adopt must be adequate. They must show real progress. War's year upheaval has stirred all peoples, not only in Russia, not only in Western Europe, but in China and India as well. Everybody wants to be assured that the world, his own little world, as well as the big world, is a better world after the war. India, equally with the rest of the world, has a right to demand progress, and real progress.

Real Progress.

"So we are adopting the direct and business-like method, and I am going to India to consult with the people there and bring back the results of my conferences and inquiries to be put before Parliament as the basis for a law which shall mean progress in its widest and best sense.

"We have set ourselves avowedly to the enormous task of improving the conditions and life of the people, to guarding them against famine and against wars external and internal so that they might live and learn and develop their great resources unhindered and in peace.

"One of the most striking evidences of our work in India is found in our irrigation enterprises, which are even vaster than the greatest of American irrigation exploits, and which have reclaimed literally thousands of square miles of desert. But it is still a country of poverty. The majority of the people live on a few rupees a month, and it takes three rupees to make a dollar. Their country has vast resources awaiting development, but the people are still very poor. Only about ten per cent of the population can read and write.

"India's greatest terror, the spectre of famine, which a generation ago meant hundreds of thousands of deaths, now mean only discomfort and strain. As we have conquered famine, so we shall surmount the educational difficulties.

"Electoral bodies have sprung up and there are in most provinces to-day councils which have power to pass resolutions and act in an advisory capacity, although they have little responsibility of real power. The members of these legislative units have little responsibility of real power. The members of these legislative units have begun to tire of a situation in which they are little more than debaters, and we shall be glad to provide food for this developing civic appetite.

"To-day the British people have begun to realize that India has proved herself worthy of a larger part in the Imperial plan. India is now assured of a place in all future Imperial War Conferences.

"Further steps toward responsible government will be taken as a result of my trip to India—steps which I trust will be convincing and satisfying to the great body of educated public opinion in that country."

WOUNDED IN FRANCE.

London, Oct. 13.—McLaine of Lochbule, has been wounded for the second time in France, where he is serving as a major in the British army. He attracted attention in 1913 when he appeared on the vaudeville stage in New York under his Christian name of Kenneth Douglas Lorne in order to obtain money to pay taxes and other duties against his estate in Scotland.

To keep this from rusting, it is a good plan to place them near the fire after they have been washed and dried.

HOW GERMAN TROOPS ARE BEING USED UP

London, Oct. 13.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—Reuter's correspondent at British Headquarters in France telegraphs:

"The following interesting report is given as an example of how the enemy troops are being used up: "Case of the 24th Prussian Division—This unit was raised in January and sent to the West front in April, to the northwest of St. Quentin. It was immediately heavily attacked by the British. These soldiers of the 1918 class were badly shaken by a heavy bombardment, which caused heavy casualties, while one regiment lost many prisoners. The division appeared in September on the Ypres front, being thrown into counter-attacks on September 19, and being repulsed. Again on September 26 some elements of the same division were completely shattered. The result is that this division exists only in name.

"Several of the officers who were not trusted by the non-commissioned officers have retired. This is interesting because it is a reminder that the old German officer class has almost entirely been used up."

CHARGE ON GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—The Board of Grain Supervisors of Canada has issued the following orders:

"That upon all wheat purchased by or for the flour mills in Canada between October 4, 1917, and August 31, 1918, both dates inclusive, there shall be paid by the purchaser to the Board of Grain Supervisors for Canada the sum of 2 1/2 cents a bushel, and Order No. 8 of the Board, issued on September 15, 1917, be amended accordingly.

"That the monies collected pursuant to this order shall form part of the fund provided for by Order No. 9 of the Board, and out of the said fund there shall be paid, in addition to the carrying charges and administrative expenses mentioned in said Order No. 9, such carrying charges as are fixed by order of the Board on wheat from the Western inspection division, held by or for Eastern millers in store east of Port Arthur during the closed season of navigation, in Canadian public or terminal elevators, or winter storage boats at Eastern Canadian lake ports, insofar as such wheat is held by or for such millers to satisfy their milling requirements."

NO DIVIDEND.

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—There will be no dividend declared on a large portion of the stock of the Grand Trunk Railway this year, according to Alfred W. Smithers, chairman of the system, in an interview he granted when passing through this city on his way East, following a trip of inspection with other directors and officials over the Grand Trunk Pacific to the Pacific Coast.

VEREGIN SAYS TWO DOUKHOBOR SECTS

Holds One Liable to Military Service and Other Not

Veregin, Sask., Oct. 13.—There are two distinct sects of Doukhobors in Canada, the members of one of which have firearms in their houses, eat meat and drink wine, while the others do none of these things, and do not belong to any empire in existence, but belong to all empires, recognizing all people as brothers, according to Peter Veregin, leader of the latter sect of Doukhobors, who has written to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa.

"In view of the announcement of the Canadian Military Service Act, I consider it necessary to explain to you the condition of the Doukhobors," he says. "At the present time the Doukhobors are divided into two parties. One party still is following its previous principles. The principles are not to have firearms, not to eat meat, not to drink wine, not to smoke tobacco, not to belong to any empire in existence, and, therefore, this party carries the name 'The Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood.' In other words, those people belong to all empires, recognizing all people as brothers, and therefore cannot be subject to any one empire in any case, because this would be to transgress the principles of the Universal Brotherhood.

"When the Doukhobors came to Canada the Government granted homesteads of 160 acres of land to each man, and when the question arose of becoming British subjects for these homesteads the Doukhobors refused to do so, and for this reason they lost the land, amounting to about $10,000,000, as the Government took back the land.

British Subjects.

"The other party accepted the homesteads and became British subjects, and now they have firearms in their houses and shoot wild animals and fowls; also they kill domestic stock and eat meat, drink wine, smoke and chew tobacco and openly laugh at the Doukhobor religion, and therefore the Government of Canada, because the question as to military service should carefully distinguish between the two parties.

"At the present time, I, Peter V. Veregin, the representative of the Doukhobor community, entirely do not recognize the second party as Doukhobors, and consider that these people must be liable to be conscripted for military service on the same basis as other citizens of Canada, because the members of this party have free homesteads of Dominion land and became British subjects for this particular land, and have firearms in their homes and therefore they have to defend the Crown of the British Empire the same as all other citizens of Canada."

Mr. Veregin adds the request that the Minister bring this letter before Parliament in order that the two parties of Doukhobors will not be mixed.

CENSORS ATTACKED BY GERMAN DEPUTY

Relations Between Military Leaders and Unions Growing Worse, Reichstag Informed

Amsterdam, Oct. 13.—During the debate on the censorship in the German Reichstag on Thursday, says a Berlin dispatch, Deputy Heinrich Mueller said:

"We are reminded of the worst times of the old Roman Empire in Germany. We are suffocated under a heap of official perceptions of mock justice, injustice and arbitrariness. People sigh 'Who will free us from this deluge of evil paper?' Confidence is ruined by the manner in which the state of siege is exerted.

"Homogeneity is lacking in the Imperial leadership and the higher military leadership. The relations between the general command and the trade unions is becoming worse and worse. It is a scandal how the pacifist leaders are deprived of all their rights at a time when great confessions are being made of the Government's pacifism."

After a strong criticism of the methods of the official press bureau, the speaker continued:

"It was not lack of men, but of equipment, that was responsible for the outcome of the Battle of the Marne. It looks as if there were elements in Germany working for an open conflict between the Government and Parliament."

Deputy Arrested.

Amsterdam, Oct. 13.—Herr Stedthagen, an Independent Socialist, disclosed in the German Reichstag on Thursday that Frau Zietz, a German woman, had been arrested in connection with the recent mutiny in the fleet.

Wilhelm Dittmann, a Socialist, said that Deputy Hecke had been placed under arrest for one day after a meeting at Kiel had been dispersed.

D'ANNUNZIO PLANNED RAID ON CATTARO

Rome, Oct. 13.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, who was lately promoted to be a major, organized and directed the recent air raid over Cattaro, which, after Pola, is the greatest Austrian stronghold on the Adriatic. No dangerous Italian raid has occurred since the beginning of the war in which he has not taken part. This time he planned one of the most daring expeditions undertaken, both because of the distance to be covered and the formidable defenses protecting Cattaro.

A NEW PEER.

London, Oct. 13.—It is announced that Sir Francis Haywood, a Civil Lord of the Admiralty and secretary of the Irish Convention, has been made a peer.

SIFTON RESIGNS.

Edmonton, Oct. 13.—Hon. A. L. Sifton, Premier of Alberta, telegraphed his resignation to the Lieutenant-Governor here from Ottawa last night.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONS PROGRESS IN CHINA

Rev. John Goforth, Who Went to Honan Thirty Years Ago, is Now Here

After a year's furlough in Toronto, Rev. John Goforth, who thirty years ago went out—a pioneer missionary from the Presbyterian Church of Canada to North Honan, is returning to China to resume his work. He and Mrs. Goforth reached Victoria yesterday afternoon and will remain here until their ship sails, filling in the interim by addressing various meetings in the city.

Mr. Goforth is an enthusiast in his calling. Fortunately he has lived over a period sufficiently long to see the fruits of missionary labor in the Far East. Frankly, he seems more depressed by the aspect of things in the Occident than in the part of the Orient where he "carries on." Relatively, Christianity has progressed more in China than in Canada.

"Interest in foreign missions, however, is increasing in the two western provinces of the Dominion," he remarked after referring to the thirty or more meetings which he had addressed in Alberta and British Columbia within the last few weeks. Particularly was this true of Alberta, where it was never difficult to get a big audience to listen to the story of mission work in the Orient. But from the practical standpoint interest would still have to be regarded as low. One could judge by the giving.

Missions Progress.

With headquarters at Chang-te-fu, North Honan, about 350 miles south of Peking on the Peking-Hankow railway, Mr. Goforth travels backwards and forwards over a wide area, practically to all parts of China. Between times he and the rest of the mission workers devote themselves to a "little" field comprising some seven or eight hundred villages. He himself was the first Christian missionary to go to North Honan, and has seen the attitude of open opposition disappear to be succeeded by a cordial friendliness which seems to be only short of an actual wholesale acceptance of the missionary teachings.

"In the early days the scholars opposed us at every step. We were often met with open hostility. The proud unapproachable manner which marked their manner in the old days has now gone, and it is no uncommon thing for us to be invited into the high schools to talk to the boys. There is no land on earth more open or so encouraging for missionary work as China. One can go anywhere without hindrance, and crowds can be got to listen. Even the robbers are friendly," summarized Mr. Goforth.

"The Canadian Presbyterian mission in Honan is responsible for about eight millions of people. The entire missionary staff, male and female, only numbers about 65 or 70 persons. Think of the whole population of Canada, depending on 60 or 70 ministers for the spreading of the Gospel! Fourteen or fifteen of our missionaries have gone to France as interpreters for the coolies taken by the British Government since the war. Without such interpreters, the coolies would be very difficult to manage."

Coolies From North.

Asked as to the number of coolies who had been taken by the Government, he said that it was many tens of thousands, all taken from the northern provinces where the men are big and well-fitted for the sort of heavy work which will be required of them.

"The effect of the Christian missions is changing China altogether," he continued. "There is wonderful freedom of religion in that country to-day. And Christians are to be found among the leaders in the Chinese parliament is a Christian, the president and vice-president, the minister of education, admirals and generals and leading influential men in politics, commerce and education are avowed Christians. Mr. Wong, manager of the greatest railway system in China, is a Christian. More than this, the influence of Christianity is greater than Christianity itself. Many are moved by its teachings, but are not avowed Christians." Mr. Goforth mentioned that the Y. M. C. A. at Peking numbered 2,500 in its membership.

Change Due to Missions.

"It was through the mission schools that China got her education in modern ideals and western ideas. It was not, as some claim, the commercial influence." Mr. Goforth referred with gratification to the recent complete stoppage of the opium traffic. This led him to speak anew of the need of missions in a country which was bound, in any event, sooner or later to come under western influence.

"To give China a civilization divorced of Christianity would be a most fatal blunder," he asserted. "Invidious counter-influences were already at work as it was. From Japan was pouring in the literature of Darwinism. Even from America and Europe were coming educationists who were not Christian in anything but civilization."

"I consider that the church in Canada is not in the spiritual state which it should be. The same tendency which brought on the war in Germany has also been at work in Canada, Great Britain and the United States. But one grand thing about the war is that it has brought out the best that is in us. I am hoping that men will come back to the Bible and to Bible teachings: 'Live and let live; do unto others as you would have them do unto you.'"

Best To-day.

"All our missionaries out there are full of hope. The cause of Christianity is better than it has ever before been in my thirty years in China. Only we have too few workers," he added in conclusion.

Mr. Goforth, who is accompanied by his wife—who has addressed about 250 meetings since they came to Canada—will speak at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning, and in the evening will be at the First Presbyterian Church. In the afternoon he will speak to the children and grown-ups at St. Paul's.

Monday evening he will be in the Tabernacle. On Wednesday night he will speak at St. Andrew's on the Korean Revival, one of the wonderful movements in connection with the missionary work in the Far East. On Thursday he will be at Nanaimo, and on Friday next will be back in Victoria.

Social & Personal

Mrs. Ralph Smith returned to Vancouver on Thursday from a three weeks' visit in Eastern Canada.

Mrs. J. Lott, formerly Mrs. Addie Dayton, will be at home to her friends at 1525 Vining Street, Wednesday afternoon of next week.

Benedict Bantly has returned to Victoria after an extended visit to the principal musical institutions of the Eastern and Southern States.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rogers and Miss Kathleen Rogers, of Thurlow Street, Vancouver, have returned home from a trip to Victoria and Seattle.

Mrs. J. Wilson Miller and family, of Winnipeg, who have been spending the past few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Scott, Tennyson Road, have taken a residence for the winter and are "at home" at 524 Cecilia Street.

Lady May, wife of Sir Francis H. May, British Governor and Vice-Admiral at Hongkong, and Miss May have returned to Victoria from Seattle, Washington, where they have been staying at the Washington Annex. Lady May, with her husband and daughter, has been visiting at the Oak Bay Hotel the greater part of the summer.

A very enjoyable whist drive was held by the Daughters of England, Lodge Penrose, in the A. O. F. Hall, Broad Street, on Thursday night. After an exciting and closely-contested game of twenty hands, the following were declared the winners: Ladies, 1st, Miss White, 142; 2nd, Mrs. Berryman, 132; 3rd, Mrs. Harrison, 111. Gentlemen, 1st, Mr. Wyman, 144; 2nd, Mr. C. Dodson, 138; 3rd, Mr. Stafford, 114. Before dispersing light refreshments were handed round.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. Stewart-Gall, Shaughnessy Heights, Vancouver, the marriage took place on Thursday of Mrs. Doris Semmens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sayer Smith, well-known pioneer residents of that city, and Mr. John McGregor, of Glasgow, Scotland. Rev. Dr. R. J. Wilson performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives. After the ceremony Mr and Mrs. McGregor left for Victoria, where the honeymoon is being passed. On their return they will take up their residence in Vancouver.

At Christ Church Cathedral yesterday the marriage was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Columbia of Phillipa Despard, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Pemberton, of "Mount Joy," Fowl Bay Road, and Lieut. H. Cuthbert Holmes, of the Irish Guards, son of Mr. William Cuthbert Holmes, of Millstream, B. C., formerly of the Indian Civil Service. White chrysantheums and ivy formed the arch under which the bridal couple stood during the ceremony, and beautiful autumn foliage was used in the decoration of the church. Only immediate relatives and very intimate friends of the principals were present. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked beautiful in a robe of white, charming with court train of white and gold brocade, and a veil of rare old lace, a family heirloom. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds. The bridesmaids, both sisters of the bride, were the Misses Armine and Mab Pemberton, the former wearing an attractive frock of mauve Georgette crepe and the latter a dainty dress of white crepe de chine. The bouquets were of pink carnations. Mr. Lindley Crease acted as best man. The organist, Mr. J. E. Watson, Mus. Doc., presided at the organ and played the Mendelssohn Wedding March while the bridal party left the church. There was a reception later at the home of the bride's parents, and subsequently Lieut. and Mrs. Holmes left for their honeymoon. The bridegroom, who was wounded in action last November and arrived home last March on extended leave, expects to leave shortly to rejoin his old regiment at the front.

How to Save Wheat, Beef and Bacon for the Men at the Front; Issued From the Office of the Food Controller for Canada.

MENU FOR SATURDAY, Breakfast.

Cornmeal Porridge—Milk—Sugar
Ham Omelet—Brown Bread—Toast—Coffee
Dinner.

Roast Veal—Cooked Tomatoes
Baked Potatoes
Apple Tapioca Pudding—Milk
Supper (or Luncheon).

Escalloped Potatoes—Bran Gems
Honey Bread—Butter
Tea—Milk—Sugar

The recipes for Apple Tapioca Pudding, Escalloped Potatoes and Bran Gems, mentioned above, are as follows:

Apple Tapioca Pudding—
1 cup pear or 1 cup minute tapioca.
Cold water.
2 cups boiling water.
1 teaspoon salt.
7 sour apples.
1 cup sugar.

Soak the tapioca an hour, and cook it in a double boiler. Pare and slice the apples and arrange in a buttered pudding dish. Add the sugar, pour over the tapioca, and bake in a moderate oven until the apples are soft. Serve with sugar and cream. Minute tapioca requires no soaking.

Escalloped Potatoes—
Butter a baking dish well. Put in a layer of potatoes, sliced thinly. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and dredge with flour. Repeat. Add milk until it may be seen through the top layer. Add bits of butter. Bake in the oven until the potato is soft.

Bran Gems—
1 cup of flour.
1 cup sour milk.
1/2 cup molasses.
1 teaspoon soda.
1 teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons melted dripping.

Mix and sift dry ingredients; add milk to molasses, and combine mixture; then add butter.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S COLOR COMPETITION

Seventh Instalment of Interesting Contest for the Youngsters

On page 5 of this issue will be found the seventh instalment of The Times painting competition. These advertisements, reproduced in outline, represent twelve well-known firms of Victoria and British Columbia, and the object of the competition is to color these advertisements so as to faithfully reproduce the actual appearance of the original. This full page will appear every Saturday for three more weeks. Each week cash prizes to the amount of $15.00 (fifteen dollars) will be awarded by The Times, divided as follows: First prize, $10; second prize, $5; third prize, $1; fourth prize, $1.

The entire page must be kept intact, and every advertisement colored—not merely one, or a few—in order to qualify for the prizes mentioned.

The rules of the competition are as follows:

All school children of Victoria and Vancouver Island are eligible.

All work must be in The Times office not later than Saturday of each week, except in the case of out-of-town competitors, whose work will be accepted on the Monday following.

Children must write name, address, age and name of school on margin of page.

A child having once secured one of the prizes will not be eligible for further prizes.

For the guidance of the children, the following remarks should be noted:

The actual colors of the Brackman-Ker rolled oat sack must be reproduced. B & K rolled oats are so popular with children that the latter will have no difficulty in obtaining sacks as samples.

The design for Butter-Nut Bread will be found on the Butter-Nut bread wagon, which are familiar sights on the streets of Victoria; or, if application is made to Rennie & Taylor at their Fernwood bakery, children may be able to obtain copies of the Butter-Nut bread postcards, on which the design is reproduced. Be careful to get the exact colors.

Anti-Combine Baking Powder is sold by Copar & Young, opposite The Times office. Here, again, be careful to exactly copy the original.

The coloring of the design for the Diggon Printing Co., 794 Yates Street, is left to the taste of the contestants. See what you can do with it.

One of the packages of Braid's Beat Tea is easily procurable. Be sure to get the exact colors.

Jameson's Coffee is also easily obtainable. The original colors are to be reproduced.

White Swan Washing Powder is made in Victoria by W. J. Pendray & Sons, Ltd., and can be obtained at all grocers. Copy the original.

The Victoria Steam Laundry's wagon is to be seen here, there and everywhere. Watch for it. Color the name carefully.

The New Method Laundry's pennant will be found, in colors, on all the company's sales slips. Get your mother to send her laundry to the New Method and then you will get one. The New Method trade mark can be colored to suit the contestant's fancy.

The Standard Steam Laundry design may be colored according to the judgment of the competitor.

The actual colors of the Vancouver Milling Company's Royal Standard flour sack must be reproduced.

Kirkham's Reception Brand of Coffee is easily obtainable. Be sure to faithfully copy the original.

If in doubt, call at The Times office and get further information.

VALUE OF LIBRARIES SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

Provincial Librarian Gave Interesting Talk at Normal School Yesterday

"The work in my hand," said E. O. S. Scholefield, the Provincial Librarian, while addressing the students of the Normal School yesterday, "came out of a ravished Belgian library; it was sent to me by a friend in the trenches who took it from a German." The massive volume was a misal of the year 1500 and the librarian dwelt upon the destruction of the University Library of Louvain which contained hundreds of such treasures. It was upon the value of libraries that Mr. Scholefield spoke and he dealt with books of all time from neolithic memorials via clay tablets and cylinders of Babylon and Assyria to Egyptian records.

Publishers were also mentioned and Mr. Scholefield said that the very first of whom there was any record was also an undertaker. The volume he published was "The Book of the Dead." Copies were sold to the mourners as well as placed in the coffin of the departed as a sort of passport to the next world. The Bible, he said, did not contain the name of any single publisher, although "of the making of books" there was no end and an aggrieved author had once said that Barabbas was in the book trade.

Roman Booksellers' Row.

Turning to classical times the lecturer quoted authors to the effect that the bibliomane flourished and that the "get up" of a book was often prized more than its contents. Often book production in Roman days he made the statement that it cost less then to produce a book than is the case at the present time. In the busy shops of the Roman "Booksellers' Row" could be seen armies of slaves whose labors made it possible for a book to be placed on the market in twenty-four hours after the author had finished it. Editions were of from four hundred to one thousand copies. Such "books" were more like the wall maps of the present day and consisted, he said, of a series of skins wound upon two rollers.

Buck and Doe for Books.

Mr. Scholefield traced the "book industry" from the days of ancient Rome down to the Caxton period and showed how the author and publisher conducted their business. He said that printing had been in existence at least twenty years on the continent of Europe when Caxton opened his shop at the Red Pale in Westminster. With Caxton began modern bookbinding and Mr. Scholefield described his bargain with a noble Lord who agreed to take a reasonable quantity of a certain work and to furnish the printer for the rest of his life with a buck in summer and a doe in winter. Proceeding, the speaker reached the comparatively modern days of the first printer to "The King's Most Excellent Majesty."

FRUIT AND FARM MAGAZINE.

The current British Columbia Fruit and Farm Magazine is a brightly written and attractively produced publication for the agriculturist and fruit-grower of the province. It deals with the interests of both in comprehensive fashion, and besides topics exclusively pertaining to the farm it includes many household features which make it a welcome arrival in the home. Especially does it interest itself in those questions which are all-important to the man on the land, but which are all too seldom ventilated in print.

The October issue is of special interest. One of the chief articles gives the view of Dean Kinick, of the British Columbia University, on "The Problem of Country Life." Dean Kinick, as a prominent agriculturist, has many things to say that are of practical value. How to encourage young people to get "back to the land" is attractively dealt with in another article which lays emphasis especially on the value of the school garden in awakening a desire for country life. Other features include "The Uses of Fertilizers on the Farm," by Dr. F. T. Shutt; "The Best Method of Growing Alfalfa," by Prof. Thomas Shaw; "The Eradication of Weeds," by John Adams, assistant Dominion botanist, as well as the customary sections dealing with women's interests, bee-keeping, poultry raising, etc. The whole issue should make a special appeal to the farmer.

Warned This Captain That the Kidneys Were Responsible for His Pains and Aches—Freed of Pain and Suffering by a Well-Known Medicine

Hereford, Que., Oct. 12.—Captain Peabody is well known all through this section, and his cure by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has aroused great interest in this great medicine.

The Captain had been suffering for a long time, and could never get any treatment to afford lasting relief until he began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Captain A. Peabody, Hereford, Que., writes: "For years I suffered from indigestion, rheumatism and neuralgia. Lightning-like pains would shoot all through my body, and I also had severe pains over my left kidney and through the hips. I doctored for years and tried all kinds of remedies, but the only result was money spent without relief. At last I read in Dr. Chase's Almanac of the Kidney-Liver Pills and decided to try them. One box made such a change that I sent for five more. Before I had finished them the pains in my kidneys and hips had disappeared, and I was clear of those sharp, shooting pains through the body—I still take these Pills occasionally to keep my bowels regular, and would not be without them, as I have them to thank for my cure.

"I can also speak highly of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powder and Linseed and Turpentine. The former cured me of catarrh in the head, which caused frequent headaches. I am completely cured of this now, and breathe freely as when a boy. The Linseed and Turpentine proved of great benefit for a bad cough which bothered me continually for three winters. Last winter I took one bottle of the Linseed and Turpentine, and have not been bothered with a cough since."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Don't be talked into accepting anything said to be just as good. Imitations and substitutes only disappoint.

HUGE EXPENDITURE AT COPPER MOUNTAIN

General Manager Lachmund Says Funds Are Available to Proceed With Developments

The $2,500,000 bond issue of the Canada Copper Corporation for the development of the company's property at Copper Mountain in the Similkameen, has been placed on a basis of fifty-fifty with two large houses in New York, General Manager Oscar Lachmund announces. Mr. Lachmund is in the city on business.

This paves the way for the important development work contemplated. The plans provide to expend the bond issue in the further development of the mine, and the construction of a concentrating mill to handle eventually 3,000 tons of ore per day. An experimental mill has already been in operation.

"There are ten million tons in sight," he stated last evening, "as proved by drilling and development work, and the estimate of the probable ore runs to five million tons more. We have already spent a million and a quarter of dollars on the property, and by the time the plant is in full operation we shall approximate to what Thomas W. Lawson defined as a real copper mine requires to make it productive.

Branch Railway.

"The company has been in negotiation with the Kettle Valley Railway for a branch line to Princeton, about 12 miles long, a power transmission line having already been constructed from that town." In explaining the proposals of the company Mr. Lachmund stated that the concentrating mill and the mines would be a considerable distance apart, and therefore the employees will be somewhat scattered, ultimately numbering some 600 men.

He was not yet prepared to discuss the marketing of the concentrates. The whole of this development work will occupy about two years, Mr. Lachmund stated. He said the company could face a drop in copper prices with confidence, as the estimates of cost of production had been worked out for so large a tonnage of low grade ore as to give an ample margin.

Shortage of Coke.

At Greenwood the company has been rather handicapped, he stated, by shortage of coke for the smelter, that

STANFIELD'S

Unshrinkable UNDERWEAR

Made and Worn by Two Generations

Over a quarter of a century ago the late C. E. Stanfield, Pioneer underwear manufacturer of Truro, N.S., discovered a way to prevent woolen underwear from shrinking—by the radical but sensible plan of taking the shrink out of the wool before it went to the knitting machines.

His secret process at once overcame the one fault of woolen underwear, and started a keen and steadily growing demand for the Stanfield's product.

From the very first, the sterling quality of Stanfield's Underwear, as proved by wear and washing, has been its most prominent feature. It actually DOES NOT SHRINK, "full up" nor mat—and on the basis of length of service it is the best value offered in underwear.

Not content with superior quality, Stanfield's give wearers all the little niceties that make undergarments luxurious. Among the newer improvements are the wonderfully handy Adjustable Combinations and Adjustable Sleepers for growing children. Simply moving the buttons on the waist allows for two to three years' growth, and the detachable lower part is a great convenience.

The Canada Copper Corporation is better known to mining men under the old name of the British Columbia Copper Co., Ltd. The Canada Corporation purchased last March the assets and properties of the latter company, formerly the operating company, the shareholders of the B. C. Company having ratified the sale. The Canada Corporation exchanged one of its shares for two of the B. C. Company shares, gradually in course of time absorbing the capital stock of the British Columbia Copper Company. The headquarters are in New York.

Here is a new Mark Twain story that sounds as if it actually might have happened. It is reprinted by The New York Times. It dates back to the period when Mark was living in Hartford, on the next black from Hartford Beecher Stowe and her husband, Professor Stowe. One cold and blustery winter morning, after an unusually heavy snowstorm, a neighbor, meeting Mark on the street, slowly ploughing his way through the drifts, with a corncob pipe in his mouth and

In the Interests of Policyholders Only

Referring to the mutualization of one of the giant American companies, now in progress, the "Life Insurance Independent" has this to say:

"The assurance that this society will now be placed in a position where it is certain to be managed in the future, as at present, in the interests only of its policyholders, is the one thing essential to the greater and finer growth of this institution."

Under the mutual system, the administration will be devoted solely to the policyholders' interest to-morrow as well as to-day, because the executive are directly responsible to the policyholders.

That this is true is confirmed by the fact that mutual companies have practically a perfect record of solvency reaching back over the last one hundred and fifty years.

The Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada is the only company ever founded in the Dominion on the mutual or co-operative basis—the most democratic, the most economical, the safest and the most popular form of life insurance.

a snowshovel over his shoulder, asked him where he was bound. "Oh, just around the block—an errand of mercy," drawled Mark, removing his pipe from between his teeth and pointing over his shoulder with the stem of it. "Mrs. Stowe has just telephoned me that Professor Stowe is under the weather this morning, and I'm on my way around there to shove him out!"

CONCERT TO-MORROW TO AID RED CROSS

Mrs. Plumtre Will Speak at Royal Victoria Theatre

The Fifth Regiment band concerts last winter reached the zenith of their popularity, and the announcement that Bandmaster Smith and his musicians will give a programme at the Royal Victoria Theatre to-morrow evening at 8.45 in aid of the Red Cross should draw a bumper house. The band is lent for the occasion by kind permission of Lieut.-Col. Angus and officers of the regiment, and has prepared a programme appropriate to the occasion. No more rousing call to arms has ever been written than Handel's immortal "Honor and Arms," a number which will be played during the evening. Mrs. Macdonald Fahey, the vocalist for the evening, has included "La Marseillaise," the stirring hymn of the French Republic, among her numbers. The feature of the evening, however, will be the address by Mrs. H. P. Plumtre, corresponding secretary of the headquarters branch of the Canadian Red Cross at Toronto. "The Red Cross" is the subject which she has chosen, and something very stimulating as well as interesting may be anticipated from this splendid patriotic worker and gifted speaker.

The following is the programme in full:

1. March—"The K. of P."...Williams
2. Overture—"Rosenmunde"...Schubert
3. Vocal solo—"Hear Ye Israel"..... Mendelssohn
Mrs. Macdonald Fahey.
4. Grand Fantasia—"America Forever"..... Moses Tobiari
5. Address—"The Red Cross"..... Mrs. H. P. Plumtre.
6. Vocal solo—"La Marseillaise"..... Mrs. Macdonald Fahey.
7. Air—"Honor and Arms".....Handel
8. Grand military fantasia—"Our Soldiers"..... Moore

A number of very interesting meetings have been arranged in connection with the visit of Rev. J. and Mrs. Goforth, who are returning at the end of a year's furlough to their missionary work in North Honan, China, and will spend several days in the city before their ship sails.

To-morrow Mr. Goforth will speak at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock in the morning, and at 7 o'clock in the evening at the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Goforth will speak in Knox Church at 11 a. m., and in St. Paul's Church at 7 p. m., and at the latter church Mr. Goforth will speak to the young people in the afternoon.

Monday meetings have also been arranged. Mrs. Goforth will address a meeting in the First Presbyterian Church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, her topic to be "Open Doors in China." Mr. Goforth will speak at Dr. Oliver's Tabernacle at 7.30, his theme to be "Overflow," in which he will tell instances of the Holy Spirit's power.

Super-Golf Is Now Played Many Americans Are Expert

One Scottish Journalist Thinks States Has Strong Rivals for Old Country Golfers; Excellent Play in Recent U. S. Tournament

There is an old story that the ordinary golfer—the man or woman for that matter, who takes a pleasure out of the game and does not concern himself with the overbearing scientific side touches—will at some time or another catch up to or even defeat "bogey." He will immediately perceive in himself a veritable Vardon. There will have been during that particular round a really nifty mashie shot, remembered as one to cultivate. Then, again, a new look hold will have been tried and to that in part will the achievement have been attributed. For his next round those innovations were put into action, but, alas! they failed to work. These are the moments in the life of a golfer when vocabularies expand and "new thoughts" are born. Nevertheless they teach their lesson. There is gradually borne in upon the smiter of the little white "pill" that his "bogey" round was a snare. His new-fangled shots got away clean in the fairway and his approaches were similarly lucky. The super element, however, is produced no more by natural surroundings than he is by innovations from the inexperienced. To play classic golf—if the term is not a misnomer—the groundwork must be correct. Distance must be sacrificed at first to the clean drive. To the patient student, then, practically everything is possible on the average links.

It is true, that often a golfer attains perfection—at least once in his career. That is to say the ordinary good player. The professional must do so.

72-Hole Record.

James Barnes—Long Jim of Whitemarsh Valley—established a new 72-hole competitive record of 233 strokes in the recent Western Golf Association open championship, says a writer in The New York Times. He made four rounds of eighteen holes in one stroke better than 71 for each round. He had a 57 for the first eighteen holes of this round, which supplied another record for Chicago enthusiasts to gaze at. He led a field of the finest artisans of the links and in doing so played super-golf. Barnes was a good golfer when he came from England to the United States. He grew up on the links, learned to erase the faults of lost motion, dug deep into the knowledge of pitch and putt until he knew just what should be done and how to do it. During his years in America he has been on or near a course almost every daylight minute of the time. He practices daily. And best of all, he is quartered at one of America's sportiest courses, Whitemarsh Valley. He can be expected to play perfectly any time he starts around a course, and in fact it is unusual if he does not.

Perfect Golf.

Every course in this or any other country is laid out similarly. That is, there are certain hazards placed between tee and cup. Only these obstacles can prevent perfect play. It is possible to learn the difficulties of every course and also to know where to play and where not to play a ball. All details must be mastered, but they can be mastered. Once they are acquired, perfect golf results. Barnes is ten perfect. Others are perfect only occasionally—perhaps only once in many years. But everybody has his chance. That's the fascination of the game.

It is an axiom among golfers that good courses make good golf. Sometimes a liberal expenditure of money will provide a good course, but not always. At any rate, American sportsmen have not placed much of a check on their bank rolls to bring about good golfing conditions. That the ever-increasing number of links of championship rating, or links of 6,200 yards or more in length, has developed the American game to its present high standard must be admitted.

Indispensable to Existence.

Many of the professionals of America came from the Dundee-section of Scotland, where a golf course is considered indispensable to the existence of the people. Along the foreshore and around the Firth to the Fife shire coast, practically every foot of the shore line has been claimed for golf. Every village boy learns the talk of golf in his cradle, and as soon as he is old enough he takes to the links. It is no wonder that Great Britain has had the call on golf.

Recently a Scottish journalist was comparing American golf with that of his native land, and he was firm in his belief that America now had players of enough ability to invade England and take down the British amateur as well as the British open title. He opined that American golf as portrayed by Chick Evans, Francis Ouimet, Jerome D. Travers, Jack Hutchinson, Walter H. Hagen, and James Barnes need not ask for any handicap from the best British can offer.

Would Lift Championships.

"Give me plenty of money and full sway as to my selection of American golfers, and I promise to life both British championships within three years," said he. "If I could take Ouimet, Evans, and Travers to England with the intention of winning the British all-comers amateur title and with the know-edge that if we failed this year we could come back the next, the mental attitude of the players would be vastly different from what it was on the last occasion, the three entered the British amateur event. When Evans, Ouimet, and Travers journeyed to England the last time they were not in the best condition. They tried to do too much in a short time. The consequence was that each was eliminated in the early rounds. England has a lot of good amateurs, but none better than the trio of American leaders.

"My opinion is that America is rapidly gaining the upper hand in golf, and more through the constant improvement of the course than through the competitive play."

Professionals Improved.

It is certain that there has been a vast improvement in the professional game on this side of the water. Many of the amateurs, too, have developed rapidly. Probably Eddie Loos, the young professional of the Philadelphia Country Club, has climbed to the front rank more quickly than any other man. He was caddy at Van Cortlandt Park before entering the ranks of instructors. At the Shawnee open a few months ago, Loos and Hutchinson were paired to play in the final eighteen holes, and, of course, attracted the gallery. Both had done exceptionally well for 54 holes, and headed for home on the first round, each with a chance to win the tournament. For seventeen holes they played at even 4 and drove for the eighteenth on exactly even terms. Loos was unfortunate in getting into a pit, which guards the sloping eighteenth green, and although his pitch out was remarkably accurate, he missed the putt for his 4 and had to be content with a 73 for the round. Hutchinson got his 4, and incidentally won the tournament, with 292 for the four trips around the course.

Hutchinson and Loos have made General Parr and Colonel Hovey unhappy for the greater part of the year. Hutchinson was born in Scotland, but he learned the art of golf in the States.

Outside of a few younger players, the American amateur game has not improved a great deal this summer. Most observers believe that the lack of tournament competition can be blamed for this. Bobby Jones, the youthful Atlanta, who acquired the Southern amateur championship during the summer, probably established himself as the most improved amateur. His game during the Professional Golfers' Association team matches stood out. He met and defeated on even terms Fred McLeod, of Columbia, former national champion; Emmett French, of York, and Cyril Walker, of Shickamaxon, three professionals who have been near the top in America for some time. Jones, of course, made his big bid for fame last year, when he astonished a lot of experts in the national championship at Merion, but he never achieved such greatness as over the Baltusrol, Swinow, and Garden City courses during the team matches. American golf is improving and becoming a more popular sport every day. Courses are being built for public, semi-public, and private uses. The game already has lost its exclusiveness, and is daily attracting the bulk of the people. Maybe that is one of the reasons why such remarkable improvement in the play is being noted.

DUCK SEASON WILL OPEN ON MONDAY

Fowl May Be Shot From October 15 Until Closing Days of February

With the advent of Monday, October 15, duck hunting will be ushered into the category available for Vancouver Island sportsmen. Ducks have been in season for some weeks throughout parts of the mainland, including Vancouver district and the Delta of the Fraser, but Monday next is the first day on which it will be lawful to shoot waterfowl in and about Vancouver Island courses. In addition to ducks will be included geese (except brant), sandpiper, snipe, plover, curlew, sandhill crane, rail and coot. The season will extend from October 15 to February 28, both dates inclusive.

There has been considerable speculation locally with regard to the results that may be attained by hunters who take advantage of the early portion of the season. The weather this fall has been exceptionally fine, and the birds have had but little difficulty in finding plenty of food without resorting to the necessity of invading the inner bays and arms. It may thus be expected that those sportsmen who determine to be successful will in all probability have to work for their game. It is a generally accepted fact among duck hunters that the more inclement the weather the brighter are their prospects of taking a goodly bag. Relying on this factor will be of little use this season as the conditions have been anything but stormy or cold.

There are almost innumerable districts bordering the Island where in past seasons duck hunting has been carried on with gratifying results. Sooke, Cowichan Bay, Sidney and Claquet are among the more important, and if more wintry conditions prevail during the next few weeks these resorts may be expected to abound with such members of the fowl tribe as mallards, widgeon, pintail, teal, blue bills and butter balls. The two last named are habitual frequenters of the salt water.

Mainland hunters are preparing for the opening of the pheasant shooting season in the Vancouver district next Monday, and as only six days are allowed in the Delta district this year it is expected that full advantage will be taken of them. Monday until Saturday is the full extent of the Vancouver season, while in Chilliwack district thirty days will be allowed.

BROWN SUES FEDS FOR BACK SALARY WHICH HE CLAIMS

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Seeking to recover $4,000 alleged to be due him in back salary, Mordecai Brown, the three-fingered pitcher, has filed suit in the United States District Court here for that appointment of a receiver for the defunct Federal League.

Louis J. Behan, counsel for Brown, said that when the Federal League signed a peace agreement with organized baseball the league's assets were distributed among the clubs of the National and American Leagues. Brown wants these assets collected and a receiver appointed for them. Charles H. Weoghanan, president of the Chicago Nationals, who owned the Chicago franchise of the Federal League, and P. D. Ball, president of the St. Louis Americans, are among the twenty-nine persons named as defendants. Ball was president of the St. Louis Federals. Officials of all Federal League clubs also are named as defendants.

Brown deserted organized baseball and signed a three-year contract at a salary of $7,500 a year to manage the St. Louis Federals. He subsequently was released, and the league, it is claimed, agreed to meet the obligations of his contract.

Brown pitched for the Columbus club of the American Association during the past season.

OCTOBER EVENTS IN PUGILISTIC ANNALS

1905—Ed. Williams defeated Bill Lang in twenty rounds at Melbourne.
1906—Jim Barry knocked out Boxer Boyd in four rounds at Yazoo City, Miss.
1906—Johnny Coulton knocked out Ralph Grant in four rounds at Davenport, Ia.
1910—Leo Houck knocked out Tommy Quill in eight rounds at Boston.
1910—Leach Cross outpointed Jack Dorman in ten rounds at New York.

WRESTLER IS ILL

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Frank Gotch, for years world's champion wrestler, is seriously ill in this city. Gotch, accompanied by Mrs. Gotch, arrived here on their way to Hot Springs, Ark. He became suddenly ill. It was said that he was suffering from an obscure kidney ailment.

CHANGES OCCUPATION

"Mysterious" Billy Smith, former welterweight champion of the world, will become a shipbuilder as soon as the present strike of shipyard workers in Portland is settled. Smith followed the shipbuilding trade years ago at St. John, N. B., before he entered the ring.

VANCOUVER ATHLETES HIT BY PROCLAMATION

Terminal City Clubs May Find It Impossible to Continue Operations

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 12.—British Columbia's first quota, enforcement of the conscription bill, will wreak havoc in the ranks of every sporting organization in British Columbia, according to leaders of the various clubs, who have been taking a census of men eligible for army service. A proclamation calling every young man in Canada, between the ages of 20 and 34 years to the colors was issued to-day. Fifteen hundred are to be taken in the first call and will be in uniform next month, and the remainder will be taken up at the rate of 600 per month.

Practically every club in the Vancouver district football league will lose players, some of them losing as many as five of their regulars, while local amateur baseball clubs are also hard hit. During the past month many athletes have gone before the examining board and to be called. Amateur hockey clubs have withheld action in connection with organization awaiting the first call as it is believed that the draft will practically make it impossible for some of the clubs to operate this season.

So far as the Vancouver club, of the P.C.H.A., is concerned only two players, Moynes and Whalen, will be affected by the first call. All of the other players are married and come in class 2, which may not be called up for six months or later.

MOTORCYCLE RACER IS KILLED OVERSEAS

Flight-Lieut. Charles O. Rayner, Well-Known Here, Falls Fighting Huns

Friends of the deceased officer here have received the bare intelligence, without any details, that Flight-Lieut. Charles O. Rayner has been killed, it is assumed, while taking part in helping to ward off a raid from German airmen over the North Sea. It is only two months since he left Canada, and he had only been a few days at the French base before meeting death.

Always keenly interested in sports, especially motorcycle racing, he won a large number of the most important races, being well-known in this respect in Victoria. He came from England to British Columbia twelve years ago, and for some time, was employed as a fruit inspector by the Provincial Government, with headquarters here, living at the Y. M. C. A. He resigned his Government appointment to enter the mainland aeronautics school, at which he was later made an instructor. His father, Sergt. Rayner, after being very successful in recruiting for various military units on the mainland, is now with the British recruiting mission at Los Angeles. Two brothers are overseas, and one with the United States army. His mother had lived in Vancouver for the last twelve years, and is now with her husband at Los Angeles. A sister lives in Mexico.

BUYING BONDS

Spokane, Oct. 12.—The principals of the Walter Miller-Eddie O'Connell wrestling match last October 29 will receive their share of the box office receipts in the form of Liberty bonds. It was announced recently by Thomas Belknap, who is managing the match, both have agreed to this arrangement, he said.

The local Elks Lodge has subscribed for $15,000 worth of Liberty bonds, the Odd Fellows for $5,000 worth, and the Knights of Columbus for $1,000 worth.

High School Activities

Gymnastic Display to Be Feature Event; "The Camosun" Preparing for First Issue; Cadet Corps Shoot Attended by Junior Students

At the last meeting of the Beta Delta Society, which took place on Thursday, an excellent debate was heard on the subject, "Resolved, That Russia Should Adopt a Republican Form of Government." Knapton and Yeo upheld the affirmative, while C. Campbell and Hutchinson argued that a limited monarchy would be preferable to a republic. Although the affirmative presented their case very well and adroitly refuted many of their opponents' points, the negative won by a very small margin, there being only three marks between the two teams. After the debate the following were elected to represent their years on the executive: C. Campbell, Senior Matriculation; McIntosh, Junior Matriculation; McDonald, Junior, and Keen, Preliminary. Before the meeting adjourned, Messrs. Andrews and Grant, of the faculty, congratulated the speakers on their ability in public speaking.

On Wednesday a meeting of the last three years was held in the auditorium when nominations were made for the pupil members of the central committee of the Athletic Association. Following this, the question of organizing the Matriculation classes was taken up and it was proposed to unite the Senior and Junior Matrics. In the organization, but this was voted down by a large majority. On Friday the Junior Matriculants again met and elected the following officers for the year: Daniels, president; Miss Drury, vice-president; and Dickinson, secretary-treasurer.

Physical Drill Display.

High School students are looking forward with pleasure to the evenings of October 25 and 27, when a gymnastic exhibition will be given in the school gymnasium, the proceeds of which will be donated to the Victoria High School Patriotic Fund. The programme promises to be more varied and entertaining than those of the excellent displays rendered last year, which were so well received by all interested in the Victoria High School.

The arrangements, as last year, are in charge of Miss Jarvis and Sergeants Hutchinson, who have decided on the following procedure: The first event will be free movements by the girls followed by a quaint Derbyshire Morris dance in which the performers will dress in picturesque Old Country costumes. Next the boys will demonstrate their prowess in physical drill, acquired by weeks of arduous prac-

FRISCO AGAIN WINS GAME FROM PORTLAND

Team From Golden Gate City Still Holds Supreme Position

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.

Portland	92	90	.506
Salt Lake	92	91	.506
Oakland	92	102	.479
Vernon	77	118	.398

Salt Lake City, Oct. 12.—Bradley Hogg won his tenth straight here when he beat Salt Lake. "The game was the best played of the present series, both clubs playing errorless baseball. Salt Lake threatened in several innings, but sensational catches by Maggett and Meusel prevented runs. Crandall hit a home run. The score: R. H. E.
Los Angeles ..... 4 13 0
Salt Lake ..... 2 8 0

Batteries—Hogg and Boles; Evans and Hannah.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—The Seals won a featureless game from Portland, the latter having to change batteries. A game an one-half now separate the Seals and Angels in the pennant race. Score: R. H. E.
Portland ..... 1 8 5
San Francisco ..... 5 8 0

Batteries—Penner, Dailey and Baldwin; Lee, Baum and Baker.

Los Angeles, Oct. 12.—Although Mitchell, of Vernon, allowed Oakland only three hits, he was bested. The Oaks scored the lone run in the eighth inning on a two-base hit, a "fielder's choice" and two bases on balls. Score: R. H. E.
Oakland ..... 1 2 0
Vernon ..... 0 7 1

Batteries—Goodbred and Mitsu; Mitchell and Cook.

VANCOUVER GOLFERS ARE NOW ACTIVE IN FALL TOURNAMENTS

This afternoon on the links of the Vancouver Golf Club a golf match of 20 players a side is being pulled off, after which the winning team will be entertained to a supper by the losers. The teams were selected by Captain Gellyly and Vice-Captain Thomson at a meeting held yesterday. Handicaps will be allowed.

The Shaughnessy ladies' golf competition for possession of the president's prize cup was won by Mrs. Symes after a hard struggle with Mrs. Elkins. The finalists played to a tie on Tuesday, which was featured by the brilliant play in the second half by Mrs. Symes, who at one time was five holes down. The battle was an evenly contested one, with the winner just having an edge on her opponent.

The ladies' foursomes were played at Burquitlam on Tuesday. Mrs. McQuarrie and Mrs. Rhodes captured the first prize, while Mrs. Gellyly and Mrs. Sharpe came in second. This is a semi-annual event with the ladies of the Vancouver Golf and Country Club, and Tuesday's matches as usual created quite a lot of interest. It is a handicap medal play tournament, the members choosing their own partners and opponents.

SAANICH MUNICIPALITY POUND SALE

I shall sell by public auction at the Pound, on Cedar Hill Road, on Monday, October 15, 1917, at 11 a. m. the following described animals: One black cow, with bell on; one brown cow, with bell on; one black heifer, about 2 years; one Holstein heifer, about 2 1/2 years; one Holstein heifer, yearling; if not redeemed before that date and the Pound charges paid.

H. LITTLE,
Pound Keeper.

The dainty Irish jig, performed by girls in the green attire of Erin, should prove, perhaps, the most popular on the programme, although the exponents of the "country dance" will wear the pretty rustic costumes of England. The first-half of an exciting basketball game will then be played between picked teams from the school. The "pyramids" in particular will doubtless afford the most spectacular sight. After complicated fancy skipping by the girls, the second-half of the basketball game will be played. The folk dance, immediately following, will probably rival in popularity the Classical Dance which is presented by girls dressed as Greek sylphs in the graceful, flowing garments of ancient Thessaly. The boys' military training will be given ample scope in the cadet drill while the girls' martial ability will be evidenced in tactical marching. At the conclusion of this long and interesting programme a Red Cross flag in the proper colors will be formed by all the performers.

The Camosun, which is universally regarded as one of the most important factors of the school life—is about to commence its work for the year. It is expected that the campaign for subscriptions will start next week, but as yet the editorial staff of the paper has not been appointed. The business managers, however, have commenced their annual canvass for advertisements. It is probable that the first issue of the paper, which is eagerly awaited by the students, will appear about the middle of November.

GIANT SPAN ACROSS ST. LAWRENCE RIVER

HISTORY OF FAMOUS BRIDGE AT QUEBEC

Gigantic Project Just Completed Was First Outlined in Year 1853

CANTILEVER SPAN WAS BOLTED DOWN SEPT. 20

The greatest bridge engineering scheme ever attempted in Canada was successfully completed last month when the great cantilever span forming the last link of the Quebec bridge was hoisted into its final resting place.

The project was first discussed in 1853, but for one reason or another it was not until 1897 that a really serious endeavor was made. It took four years from the reorganization of the old company to the letting of the contracts, and six years later the bridge, when nearly half completed, collapsed. The Dominion Government then took the matter in hand and after nearly three years of investigation, over six years of construction work, and the expenditure of about $12,000,000, the structure is now in the last stages of completion.

A New York engineer, named Serrill in 1853 made surveys and prepared plans for a railway bridge, on the suspension principle, to be located near the site of the present bridge. The estimated cost was $3,000,000. Whether the cost was considered too great an obstacle, or whether it was a lack of courage on the part of engineers, nothing further was done, and the first bridge erected across the St. Lawrence was built at Montreal by the Grand Trunk Railway. This was the Victoria tubular bridge, opened for traffic in 1869, and built by Robert Stephenson on the model of one he had previously erected over the Menai Straits, on the line to Holyhead, Wales, and a few years earlier the suspension bridge was built across the Niagara River, also for railway purposes. The project for building a bridge at Quebec to connect that city with the south shore of the St. Lawrence lay dormant until 1882, when M. W. Baby obtained a charter to erect a bridge. He had associated with him A. L. Light, a well-known engineer, who interested some of the engineers of the then newly completed Forth Bridge in the undertaking.

The idea then advanced was to erect a bridge on the cantilever plan, which the erection of the Forth bridge had demonstrated to be the last word in big bridge designing. This second proposal also failed to get beyond the project stage.

The third attempt was made in 1887, when the Dominion Parliament incorporated the Quebec Bridge Co., with an authorized capital of $1,000,000, to build a bridge across the St. Lawrence at or near Quebec, to build one or more lines of railway to connect with the bridge, to connect it with existing or future lines of railway, and provide for vehicle and foot passengers crossing the bridge. The provisional directors were: Hon. J. G. Ross, Lieut. Col. Rhodes, R. R. Dobell, Thos. McGreevy, Lieut.-Col. J. B. Forsyth, G. Lemoine, E. Chimoie, H. M. Price, J. I. Turle and C. Duquet.

The company's powers were extended in 1891, and in 1897 they were revived and confirmed, new interests led by S. N. Parent, then Mayor of Quebec, and afterwards Premier of the Province, having obtained control of the company. U. Barthe became secretary of the company, and United States capitalists were interested.

A New York engineer undertook the designing of the bridge, and E. A. Hoare was chief engineer in charge of all local work. The same site as the present bridge is built on was selected and together with the plans were approved by order-in-council on May 16, 1898. The plans provided for a cantilever structure, composed of two approach spans of 220 feet each, two anchor spans of 300 feet each, and a centre span of 1,800 feet from centre to centre of the piers, the under side of the bridge to be 150 feet above high water. The bridge was to provide a double track railway, two lines of electric railway, and two ordinary roads for vehicle and foot passengers.

Subsidy Granted. In 1899 the Dominion Parliament granted a subsidy of $1,000,000 towards the erection of the bridge, and in the following year one-third of this amount was allocated to the substructure and approaches, and two-thirds to the superstructure. On November 12, 1899, a contract under this legislation was signed between the company and the Railway Department. Three tenders were received early in 1900 for the building of the bridge, that recommended for adoption being $2,600,000, exclusive of approaches, which were estimated to cost an additional $400,000. The contract for the erection of the piers and abutments was let in April, 1900, to W. Davis & Son, Cardinal, Ont., at an estimated cost of $1,000,000, the work to be completed within two years.

First Caisson. Work was started on the substructure in August, 1900, the estimated quantity of masonry required to be put in place being 500,000 cubic yards. The preliminary work took up the whole of the summer and the autumn, and it was not until the spring of 1901 that the first caisson for the erection of the north pier was got into position. The contractors for the superstructure organized the Phoenix Bridge Company, of Phoenixville, Pa., to fabricate the steel work and to erect it. In 1901 that company began operations at the mill in rolling the steel and at the bridge in doing other preliminary work, and the actual construction work was started on the north side of the river in the summer of 1902.

During the summer shifting sand was struck at the corner of the caisson for the south pier, resulting in delay to the work owing to the fact that the foundations had to be carried to a greater depth than anticipated in order to secure stability. The substructure work was completed at the end of 1902, and from that time forward the erection of the steel work went on apace, and was carried on without interruption until August 29, 1907, when over 1,300 feet of the steel work had been erected from the south end. This comprised the anchor span, and practically one-half of the central span, reaching out to within about 100 feet of what would have been the centre of the completed bridge.

The whole of the completed structure collapsed, occasioning the death of 65 men who were working on it. The Dominion Government appointed a commission to investigate the cause of the collapse, and after a lengthy hearing of expert evidence, the commissioners came to the conclusion that the accident was caused by a defect in one of the chords.

The next stage in the history of the matter was the determination to take over the bridge undertaking and to carry it to a completion as a Dominion Government work.

Prominent Engineers. The design of the bridge was placed in the hands of a commission consisting of H. E. Vautlet, a former C.P.R. chief engineer; M. Fitzmaurice, chief engineer of the London County Council, and one of the construction engineers of the Forth Bridge; and R. Moleski, Chicago. They prepared plans, which were made public in February, 1910, and which provided for the reduction of the main span from 1,800 to 1,758 feet, with the necessary readjustment of the anchor and shore spans. The new plans necessitated the rearrangement of the substructure, and a contract was let to M. P. & J. T. Davis. Bridge builders were asked to tender on the engineers' design, but were given permission to submit designs of their own if they so desired. Several alternative designs were submitted, and after some time the composition of the engineers' commission having been changed by the retirement of Mr. Fitzmaurice, who felt his duties to have been accomplished by the submission of the plan, and the resignation of H. E. Vautlet, who was succeeded as chairman by C. N. Monsarratt, formerly bridge engineer, C.P.R.—one of the designs submitted by the St. Lawrence Bridge Co., Montreal, was accepted.

The plan provided for a central span of 1,800 ft., carrying a railway track and two 4 ft. sidewalks. The cost of this bridge was estimated at $8,650,000. It is of the K web system in the cantilever and anchor arms, the suspended span being a modified Pratt. All members in the anchor arm and those immediately over the main pier, as well as the floor system, are carbon steel, the cantilever arms and suspended span being of nickel steel. The top chords are composed of built up riveted members extending over one full truss panel or two floor panels. The design has a 1,800 ft. channel span, as in the old bridge. The suspended span is 640 ft. long, 110 ft. deep at the centre, and 70 ft. deep at each end. The cantilever arms are 530 ft. long, 70 ft. deep at the end and 310 ft. high over the main post. The anchor arms are 515 ft. long. The trusses are 33 ft. apart, and there is a clear headroom of 150 ft. above extreme high water.

The train load allowed for on each track is equivalent to two E-40 locomotives followed by a train load of 5,000 lb. per linear foot of track. The contracting company was a combination of the Dominion Bridge Co. and the Canadian Bridge Co.

Work was started promptly by the contractors, both for the substructure and for the superstructure, and everything went on so successfully that the St. Lawrence Bridge Company expected to complete its work at the end of 1916—earlier than was estimated. September 11, 1916, was set for floating out the suspended member of the central span. The first part of this work had been successfully completed, and the 640 ft. long span had been raised several feet when, owing, as was afterwards ascertained, to the failure of a portion of one of the castings in the hoisting apparatus, the span slipped, crumpled up and fell to the bottom of the river. The fullest investigation was made into the matter, and it was found that there was no defect in the span, or in the plan, and that the other sections of the bridge had received no damage from the accident. The company immediately put in hand the fabrication of the steel for a new span and to prepare for its being got into position. This was done and the new span was ready for erection at the time of the September high tides this year.

Method of Erection. The method of erection was not changed except that extra precautions were taken in connection with the manufacture and getting in place of the hoisting apparatus, etc. A large number of men were arranged for at the lifting jacks and at other points, and it was decided to raise the span only 2 ft. at each lift, instead of 4 ft., as was done in 1916. The scows bearing the span were towed out of Sillery basin on September 17 at 5.10 a.m. and reached the bridge at 7.53, and the lifting operations were begun at 9.45.

The span weighed about 5,600 tons, and this weight had to be raised so that there would be a clearance of 150 ft. at high water, thus the height to be raised would be 150 ft., less the height of the scows and the supports thereon. The hoisting proceeded steadily and with but two interruptions, once on September 18 by a slight fog, and again on the following day by high wind.

Final Lift. The final lift was completed September 20, at 2.19 p.m., after which the bolting of the span into place was taken in hand. The work of laying the floor of the span and placing the rails for traffic will be proceeded with at once, and it is expected that it will be completed in two months, and the bridge formally opened for traffic about the middle of November.

The work of raising the span into position was supervised by Phelps Johnson, President, St. Lawrence Bridge Co.; G. H. Dugan, Chief Engineer; G. F. Porter, Construction Engineer; S. P. Mitchell, Consulting Engineer; W. B. Fortune, General Superintendent, and C. N. Monsarratt, Chairman of the Quebec Bridge Commission.

CAN BE SAVED AND CURED OF DRINK

Good News to Mothers, Wives, Sisters.

To have seen one you love, going down this road to ruin, and to have heard him try to laugh and joke away your fears, while you watched the drink habit fasten on him; to have known suffering and to have borne a sorrow to which physical pain is nothing. And when at last he comes to that turn in the road that, sooner or later must come, and wakes to the fact that he is a slave to the drink you think everything will come right. He will fight the habit and you will help him escape it; but he can not do it. Drink has undermined his constitution, inflamed his stomach and nerves until the craving must be satisfied. And after you have hoped and then despaired more times than you can count you realize that he must be helped. The diseased condition of the stomach and nerves must be cured by something that will soothe the inflamed stomach and quiet the shaking nerves, removing all taint for liquor.

My marvelous remedy—Samarin Prescription—has done this for hundreds of cases in Canada. It can be given with or without the patient's knowledge as it is tasteless and odorless and quickly dissolves in liquid or food. Read what it did for Mrs. G., of Vancouver:

"I was so anxious to get my husband cured that I went up to Harrison's Drug Store and got your Remedy there. I had no trouble giving it without his knowledge. I greatly thank you for all the peace and happiness that it has brought already into my home. The cost was nothing according to what he would spend in drinking. The cure of drink was putting me into my grave, but now I feel happy. May the Lord be with you and help you in curing the evil. I don't want my name published."

FREE—SEND NO MONEY. I will send free trial package and booklet giving full particulars, testimonials, etc., to any sufferer or friend who wishes to help. Write to-day. Plain sealed package. Correspondence sacredly confidential. E. R. HERD, Samarin Remedy Co., 14219 Mutual Street, Toronto, Can. Also for sale by Hall & Co., Drugists, 792 Yates street, Victoria, B. C.

"Let Me Help You Carry the Burden, Mother"

"If Canada fails us in October, we must curtail many of our activities."

Sir ARTHUR STANLEY, Chairman, Executive Committee, British Red Cross.

It now costs $300,000.00 a week to carry on the work of the British Red Cross, or $16,000,000.00 a year.

Every minute of the day and night it costs $30 to minister to the sick and wounded and dying.

Last year Canada's magnificent contribution paid for the entire work of the British Red Cross for nearly seven weeks.

This year, in view of the greater need, it is earnestly and confidently hoped that Canada's contributions will be as great proportionately as the magnificent offering of last year.

Our trust is, that the Citizens of Canada will give generously to this noble cause on—

A Few Facts about British Red Cross Work.

The British Red Cross Society is the only institution which carries voluntary aid to the Sick and Wounded of the British forces on land and sea in every region of the War. Its work is therefore the concern of all classes of British subjects, whether living in the British Isles, in the Dominions and Colonies beyond the seas, or in foreign countries.

FOG IS THE WORST IN SEVERAL YEARS

Coast Navigation Aids Use Up Year's Supply of Distillate in Three Months

Not for the past seven or eight years has such an extended period of fog been experienced along the coastline, according to shipping men who should be in a position to know.

The motor-driven fog-horns located at various lighthouse stations dotted along the rock-bound coastline have been working overtime, penetrating the soupy atmosphere with dreary groans.

The fog-horns stationed at Carmanah Point, Pachena and Cape Beale have been sounding so continuously that these aids to navigation have actually used up a full year's supply of distillate in the past three months and have sent out the S.O.S. call for more.

FOURTEEN PLATES REQUIRE ATTENTION

Damage to Norwegian Steamer Niels Nielsen is Located Fore and Aft

The Niels Nielsen repair contract calls for the treatment of fourteen plates. Six of the affected plates are so badly damaged that they have to be replaced by new ones.

The Niels Nielsen was floated into the Esquimalt graving basin yesterday morning following her arrival from Seattle. She displaced a lot of water and the basin was quickly pumped out.

The tearing off of the damaged plates is now in progress, a big force of workmen being assigned to the job. The damage was sustained recently when the Niels Nielsen came in contact with a submerged rock off Point Wilson.

WASP TURNED TURTLE ON ATLANTIC SEABOARD

The steam schooner Wasp, formerly of Seattle, which aroused considerable suspicion on the Pacific Coast when she sailed from Puget Sound in September, 1916, for Gulf ports with a German crew, is reported to have turned turtle off Pensacola, Fla., and may be a total loss.

PACIFIC STEAMSHIP CO. TAKES OVER NORWOOD

In an effort to clean up the salmon pack of Alaska, the Pacific Steamship Company has added another chartered vessel to its fleet. The company has chartered the Pacific American Fisheries steamer Norwood for one or more trips to Alaska.

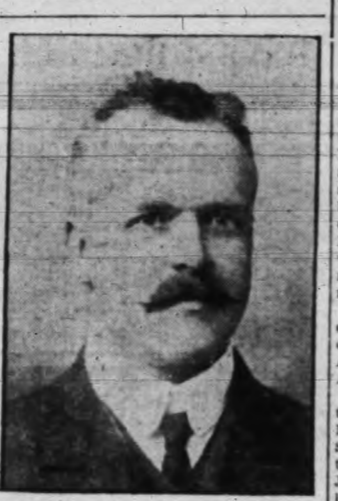

HUNS TAKE BRITISH SKIPPERS CAPTIVE

Capt. R. Gasper, Brother of Local Man, Now Held a Prisoner in Germany

STEAMER SERAPIS WAS SUNK WITHOUT WARNING

Others Were Left to Fate; Second Mate Clung to Planks 21 Hours

Hun submarine commanders for some months past have been taking captive the captains and mates of all British merchant vessels having the misfortune to fall the prey of enemy divers at sea. This fact has been confirmed on numerous occasions when masters of offshore vessels visiting this coast have discussed enemy submarine operations.

CAPT. ROBERT GASPER

commanding officer of the submarine goes alongside the lifeboats that have been hurriedly put afloat and demands that the skipper, and in some cases the chief officer, board the submarine, which then promptly submerges, leaving the remainder of the crew to reach safety as best they can or sink in the attempt.

Cases have been proven where the whole of the ship's crew, or as many as could be accommodated, have been forced to climb upon the slimy plates forming the deck of the submarine, which has then dived, leaving the unfortunate seamen struggling in the water. Irrefutable evidence of the practice of the German commanders in seizing British skippers and taking them back to Germany as prisoners of war has been received by George Grant, of 1165 Oxford Street, Circulation Manager of The Times, and brother-in-law of Capt. Robert Gasper, of the British steamer Serapis, whose vessel was torpedoed on June 26, and who was taken prisoner by the Germans.

Left Men in Water. A letter received by Mr. Grant, giving details of the incident, says in part: "The Serapis was torpedoed on the 26th of June, 149 miles off the west coast of Ireland, without warning and sank in a minute. The crew had to take to the water and an hour after the ship had disappeared the submarine came along and took Capt. Gasper and the chief officer on board, leaving the rest in the water. The engineering staff were killed by the explosion of the torpedo which struck amidships. The only survivor, the second mate, was picked up by one of our submarines after being 21 hours on a few planks."

Just prior to being taken prisoner, Capt. Gasper had left the Clyde in command of the Serapis, and when four days out picked up 71 men and three boats on the Atlantic, took them back to port and was away again just two days when his own vessel was sent to the bottom. Capt. Gasper's relatives have since learned that he is a prisoner at Brandenburg, Germany.

On the voyage prior to losing, his ship and being taken prisoner, Capt. Gasper carried from Italy to England a cargo of 90,000 barrels of grapes for hospital distribution. In a previous letter he says: "I was proud of that cargo."

The Serapis was a vessel of 1,192 net tons registered and was owned by Cross & Co., of Quayside, Newcastle-on-Tyne. Capt. Gasper's home is at Glasgow. Private Jack Gasper, Capt. Gasper's brother, left his farm in Ontario and went overseas with the 25th Canadian, and made the supreme sacrifice in France about the time his brother's ship was torpedoed. Lance-Corporal T. H. Grant, who left here with the 102d battalion, and who is now serving with the 14th Field Ambulance, is a nephew.

POPULAR RATES WILL SOON BE EFFECTIVE

Pacific Steamship Company Announces Reduction of Fares

The announcement is made by the Pacific Steamship Company, operating the fine steamships President and Governor between Victoria and California ports, in addition to other steamships direct from Seattle, that effective on November 1, special round-trip tourist rates will be put in force to all points in California.

Fred O. Finn, local city ticket agent, has been advised that these winter excursion fares will remain in force from November 1 to February 28, 1918. The round trip fare from Victoria to San Francisco will be $35; to Los Angeles and Long Beach, $50; and to San Diego, $54. This means an approximate reduction of $5 on the existing rates.

STATES TO RESTORE SHIP TO TRICOLOR

Seattle, Oct. 12.—In line with the historic friendship between the two nations, the United States Shipping Board has restored the commandeered Seattle-built steamship Lieut. Demissies to the French flag, turning the big cargo carrier over to R. Neveu, consulting engineer of the Messageries Maritimes of Marseilles, France. Neveu arrived in Seattle recently in connection with the negotiations for the return of the vessel to French register.

No news in regard to the transfer is obtainable in Government circles, but ever since the vessel was launched, August 16, it has been understood that America would relinquish the ship. The Demissies is one of two $3,000,000 steel steamships purchased by Mitsui & Company, of Japan, from the Skinner & Eddy Corporation, when they were taking form in the ways, the Japanese concern paying approximately $5,000,000 for the two vessels.

GERMAN OFFICER SWEEPED OFF DECK

An Atlantic Port of the United States, Oct. 12.—Twenty-six members of the crew of the steamship New Orleans, wrecked off the Virginia coast in a heavy blow Wednesday, were brought here to-day by a vessel which picked them up just after their ship went down. Harry L. Kehlmann, the first officer, a native of Germany, was swept off the after-deck and drowned.

C.P.R. RELIEF SAILINGS.

The relief sailings in connection with the operation of the C.P.R. coastal fleet are set for next week as follows: The steamer Princess Alice will take the 11.45 p.m. sailing to Vancouver on Tuesday and Wednesday; Princess Adelaide the 4.30 p.m. sailing for Seattle on Tuesday and Wednesday; Princess Charlotte the 2 p.m. sailing to Vancouver on Wednesday. All vessels will resume their regular services on Thursday.

GALE ON GREAT LAKES.

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 12.—Many boats are kept tied up here as a result of a fifty-mile gale which swept Lake Superior yesterday. Only a few managed to clear and but thirteen arrived. The temperature registered 29 degrees.

LAST DAWSON STEAMER.

Dawson, Oct. 12.—The last steamer from Dawson for White Horse is expected to sail on Monday next. This is an exceptionally mild autumn in the North. There is not a sign of ice on the Yukon River yet above Dawson or in this vicinity.

TORONTO'S REQUEST.

Toronto, Oct. 12.—A deputation from the Toronto Board of Health, with Chief Constable Henry Grassett, Captain Sinclair and Dr. Gordon Bates, waited on the Ontario Government this morning to ask that venereal diseases be put in the same category as other contagious diseases, under the same legislation as regards necessity of being reported. The Premier assured them the matter would get serious consideration and the deputation got a very favorable reception.

LOSS OF $275,000.

New York, Oct. 12.—Fire destroyed part of the plant of the British-American Chemical Company in Queensborough to-day with a property loss estimated at $275,000. An explosion occurred in a still containing acid.

NEW OPPORTUNITY FOR FISHING INDUSTRIES

Government Will Pay Two-Thirds Transportation, on All Save Two-Kinds

That great interest will be manifested in the action of the Food Controller by the fishermen of British Columbia, is the opinion formed by J. P. Babcock, Assistant Commissioner of Fisheries of the Provincial Government, from the information contained in a telegram received from Ottawa this morning. He was notified that a Dominion Order-in-Council had been passed in which authority has been given that on and after October 15, payment will be made by the Government of two-thirds of all transportation charges on frozen and smoked fish, excepting halibut and grayfish, no matter by what means or in what quantities they are forwarded from ports in British Columbia to points in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Heretofore the Government has been paying one-third of the express charges on lots of less than a carload. That was originally arranged to permit the man in a small way of business competing with the shipper of large consignments. It has developed at Prince Rupert that men refuse to bring in any fish but halibut, now fetching between twelve and a half and sixteen cents per pound. This was brought about by the fact that no more than four and a half cents was possible for the black and red cod.

Even the limited amount of black and red cod handled found a limited market since it would not pay to ship it to the Northwest on account of the icing, packing and transportation charges. The figure was of course prohibitive. The Provincial Government, through the Fisheries Department, subsequent to the visit of the Dominion Fisheries Commission, deemed it time to make some representations to the Food Controller in an effort to relieve the situation.

NEW CABINET IN CHILE

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 12.—A new Cabinet has been formed to succeed that headed by Ismael Ecoconal, which resigned July 24. Eduardo Suarez Mujica, the new Minister of Foreign Affairs, formerly was Chilean Ambassador to the United States.

ARCTIC BISHOP HAS NO TIDINGS OF STEFANSSON

Dawson, Y. T., Oct. 12.—Bishop Stringer, who left here last June, has returned to Dawson after visiting Arctic Coast points as far east as Cape Bathurst. He came back to Hazelton Island, which he left in August. At that time there were no indications of Stefansson since Wilkins left him east of Bank's Land in March, 1916.

There is no more striking personality in France than M. Paul Painleve, who was invited to form a French Ministry in place of M. Ribot's Cabinet. When a little over four months ago he became War Minister, he entered office attached to no particular group, and quickly won the respect of all by his high competence, his intensive work, and the sincerity of his utterances.

under the Ministry of War. At its head is a distinguished chemist, M. Jules Louis Breton, Deputy for the Cher, and a former co-worker with M. Painleve.

An Efficient Air Service.

In another branch of army administration, that of military aeronautics, M. Painleve has likewise placed an expert in Mr. Daniel Vincent, who is a practical aviator. The Minister has re-established this post as an Under Secretaryship of State, which, owing to the criticism it excited, had been suppressed. M. Painleve's insistence in absolute efficiency and the employment of the highest talent in war led him to refuse a Cabinet post under M. Briand when he reconstructed his Ministry at the end of last year. He considered that there must be science, prudence and vigor in the higher command. Even eminent services in the past could not condone a lack of initiative. This uncompromising attitude does not make for political popularity, but M. Painleve floats above party on the wings of patriotism.

The figure is appropriate, for M. Painleve flew in the early days of aviation. He was a companion of Wilbur Wright in his experimental flights in France, and was one of the first to see that the future of flying was bound up with the progress of the military art. M. Painleve goes frequently to the front, and has managed to become popular with the army as well as with Parliament. Still in the prime of life, he has been deputy for seven years. A former professor of mathematics at the Sorbonne, he fits represents the constituency of the Latin Quarter, where is the University of Paris.

Confirmation and Thangs-giving.

Wants to Farm Near Salt Water.—A letter has been sent on by the Department of Agriculture through the Deputy Minister to the Victoria and Island Development Association, to send literature to a lady in New York who wants to settle down after her husband, who is at sea in connection with the war, on Vancouver Island. She wishes to be located near a naval port, so that there is good prospect of having her settled in this district.

HOW NAVAL "FLIES" STUNG THE TURKS

Part Played by Little Tigris Gunboats in Taking of Bagdad

AMAZING ADVENTURES OF H. M. S. FIREFLY

The story of the part taken by a British flotilla of gunboats in the capture of Bagdad adds a brilliant chapter to our naval annals, says The London Chronicle. It is told in the report, published in The Gazette, by Captain Wilfrid Nunn, upon whom the command unexpectedly devolved, and who, says Admiral Sir R. Wemyss in his covering despatch, has "shown a very remarkable capacity for command."

The names of the gunboats (the stinging flies of the navy) which took part in the operations are: Moth, Butterfly, Snakefly, Gadfly, Mayfly, Firefly, Scotsman, Tarantula, Gnat, Sawfly, Greenfly, Stonefly, Waterfly, Grayfly, Flycatcher, Mantle, Firefly, as will be seen from the narrative of the operations, has a remarkable record and will take her place among ships that have made history.

On the Road to Bagdad. Captain Nunn describes the successful assault of the formidable Sannaiyat position, ending in "a general retreat which developed later into a rout." Kut was reached on February 25, and Captain Nunn himself hoisted the Union Jack over the town.

The same morning the "flies" of the navy pressed on up the Tigris in pursuit of the retreating Turkish army. Small the small craft were abreast of our infantry, and a battle was begun and continued all day. The enemy opened an accurate fire with field batteries and 5.6 howitzers, and all our ships were hit with splinters of shell, but luckily no serious damage was done.

Bahallah was the next enemy town captured. Beyond the town several gunboats were seen, among them H.M.S. Firefly, which had to be abandoned on December 1, 1915, when her boiler was disabled by a shell and our force was surrounded. The part taken in the further operations by Firefly is best described in Captain Nunn's own words:

Firefly's Good Shooting. "We shortly afterwards got into gun range of the small shipping and opened a heavy fire, particularly on Firefly and the armed enemy ship Pioneer, who both replied. The Firefly made some good shooting at us with her four-inch gun.

"The enemy were firing at us from three directions, and on approaching Nahr Kellak-bend I observed a large body of enemy on the left bank at the head of the loop in the river, and gave orders for all guns to be fixed on them. They proved to be a strong rearguard, and opened on us with field and machine guns and heavy rifle fire. At this close range there were casualties in all ships, who were all hit many times, but our guns must have caused immense damage to the enemy, as we were at one time firing six-inch guns into them at about 400 to 500 yards.

"Besides the Turkish artillery there were a large number of enemy with rifles and machine guns behind the bend at a range of about 100 yards from the ships. In the act of turning round the enemy shots came from all directions, and casualties of Moth, which came last in the line, were particularly severe. There were casualties in all three ships.

Moth Hit Eight Times. "Moth was hit eight times by shell. The quartermaster and pilot in the conning tower of H. M. S. Mantle were killed, but the prompt action of her captain saved her from running ashore. I consider that the excellent spirit of the men and skilful handling of the ships by their captains in a difficult and unknown shallow river were most praiseworthy.

"We thus passed the enemy rearguard, and large numbers of the rearguard were killed. The quick landing relief you get from this excellent cough syrup will really surprise you. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Cough Nearly Gone in 24 Hours

That's the usual experience with this home-made remedy. Cough little-try it.

Anyone who tries this pleasant tasting home-made cough syrup, will quickly understand why it is used in more homes in the United States and Canada than any other cough remedy. The way it takes hold of an obstinate cough, giving immediate relief, will make you regret that you never tried it before. It is a truly dependable cough remedy that should be kept handy in every home, to use at the first sign of a cough during the night or day time.

Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth). Pour this into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 55 cents and you have 16 ounces of the most effective remedy you ever used.

The quick, lasting relief you get from this excellent cough syrup will really surprise you. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask for 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

treating Turkish army were on our starboard beam. I opened rapid fire from all guns that would bear (this included heavy and light guns, pom-poms, maxims and rifles) and at this short range we did enormous execution, the enemy being too demoralized to reply, except in a very few cases.

Gun Teams Shot Down. "We were also able to shoot down some of their gun teams, which they deserted, and several guns thus fell into the hands of our forces when going over this ground.

"The vessels ahead were now in easy range, and several small craft stopped and surrendered, including the armed tug Sumana, which we had left at Kut during the siege, and had been captured at the fall of that place.

"About 5.20 p.m. the large Turkish steamer Basra surrendered when brought to by a shell from H.M.S. Tarantula, which had, I was afterwards informed, killed and wounded some German machine gunners. The Firefly kept up a heavy fire from her 4-inch gun, but our reply began to tell on her, and, having been hit several times, she ran into the bank and fell into our hands.

"The Pioneer having been badly hit by Mantle was in flames near her, and some barges laden with munitions in the vicinity.

"The Turks had endeavored to set fire to the Firefly's magazine, but we were able to put it out and took possession of her at once, and I put a prize crew on board and hoisted the White Ensign.

"Darkness now came on, and I considered it inadvisable to go on further, as we were far ahead of our troops. I placed Lieut. John P. Bradley, R.N.R. (of H.M.S. Prosperine) in temporary command of Firefly, with a small crew, and we moved out of the way of the burning Pioneer, anchored for the night, and buried our men who had been killed."

How from this time position after position was captured is vividly described. The Bagdad railway was seized on Sunday, March 11, and then Captain Nunn's gunboat flotilla, which included Firefly, with minesweepers ahead, proceeded up river and arrived at the citadel at Bagdad at 3.40 in the afternoon of that day.

"Accompanying the despatch is a list of awards to officers and men who figured prominently in the Bagdad operations, headed by the name of Captain Nunn, who receives the C.B.

DISOBEDIENCE BRINGS PAINFUL RESULTS

Dr. Oliver Enlists Sympathy of Youthful Audience Telling How He Was "Spanked"

The message of Dr. French E. Oliver, at the "Oliver Tabernacle," was addressed, last night, particularly to the children who, with the ladies present, formed the big proportion of the audience, and, appropriately, the address largely consisted of anecdotes, all timed to bring home moral lessons to the hearts of the young.

Whether through the slight fog, or as a result of his continuous speaking efforts of the last two weeks, the author-lecturer-evangelist suffered from a huskiness the strength of which, however, was quite successfully neutralized by his very deliberate enunciation of the very long words, making him easy to follow, despite his vocal handicap.

His subject was taken from the verse in Ecclesiastes commencing "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." He described processes of human development, and referred, very scientifically, to sensitive convolutions, speech centres, and brain cells, by the automatic assistance of which the young baby got to know the difference between sound and personality. Those who "remembered their Creator in the days of their youth" would find the remembrance to be permanent, and boys and girls, started in life in that way, would have their spiritual destiny determined for all time.

Right Boy Was Missing. Anecdotal illustrations given started with the funny story of the teacher who "primed" the first and second boys in a class with their answers to questions of the examiner who was to visit them. In answer to the question "Who made you?" the first boy was to answer, "God," and the second boy was to say "The Devil," when asked who was the enemy of mankind.

"The boys got their answers down in good shape," said Dr. Oliver, "but it happened that the first boy slid out of the class, unknown to his teacher, and when the then remaining first boy was asked the first boy's question, sticking to instructions, he answered 'The Devil.' 'That's all wrong,' insisted the teacher. 'No,' replied the lad, 'the boy God made has just gone out.'"

An affecting story of a converted bartender was followed by a still more fearful one of a wreck on a storm-tossed sea, neither of which, however, held the more youthful portion of the audience anything like as much as the account of how the author-lecturer-evangelist, in his very young and bad days before he attained these distinctions, was "spanked" by his stern parent for going out hunting one morning, despite his father's refused consent, the boys and girls present appreciating the confession of his subsequent "sore" feeling. This very personal touch was given by the lecturer to illustrate the fact that it did not pay to disobey.

The recounting of the converted bartender and wreck anecdotes were preludes to prayer, in which the doctor alluded to the inner appeal to penitents, and gave an invitation to the young to make the definite enlistment, there and then. Those who went up (whether previously "saved" or not, there was no evidence to judge) were greeted by hearty hand-shakes from the lecturer.

To all to whom these presents shall come, or whom the same may in anywise concern—GREETING:

A Proclamation calling out the men comprised in Class 1 as described by the Military Service Act, 1917.

E. J. Keenan
The Deputy Minister of Justice, Canada

WHEREAS it is provided by our Militia Act of Canada, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, chapter 41, Section 69, that our Governor-General of Canada in Council may place our militia of Canada or any part thereof on active service anywhere in Canada, and also beyond for the defence thereof, at any time when it appears advisable so to do by reason of emergency;

And Whereas that part of our militia of Canada known as the Canadian Expeditionary Force is now engaged in active service overseas for the defence and security of Canada, the preservation of our Empire and of human liberty; and it is necessary owing to the emergencies of the war to provide re-enforcements for our said Expeditionary Force in addition to those whose inclination or circumstances have permitted them to volunteer;

And Whereas by reason of the large number of men who have already left agricultural and industrial pursuits in our Dominion of Canada in order to join our Expeditionary Force as volunteers, and by reason of the necessity of maintaining under these conditions the productiveness or output of agriculture and industry in our said Dominion, we have determined by and with the advice and consent of our Senate and House of Commons of Canada that it is expedient to secure the men so required, not by ballot as provided by our said Militia Act, but by selective draft; such re-enforcement, under the provisions of the Military Service Act, 1917, hereinafter referred to, not to exceed one hundred thousand men;

And Whereas it is accordingly enacted in and by the provisions of an Act of our Parliament of Canada, holden in the 7th and 8th years of our reign, and known as the Military Service Act, 1917, that every one of our male subjects who comes within one of the classes described and intended by the said Act shall be liable to be called out on active service in our Canadian Expeditionary Force for the defence of Canada, either within or beyond Canada; and that his service shall be for the duration of the present war and demobilization after the conclusion of the war;

And Whereas the men who are under the provisions of the said last mentioned Act, liable to be called out, are comprised in six classes of which Class 1 is, by the provisions of the said Act, defined to consist of all our male subjects, ordinarily, or at any time since the 4th day of August, 1914, resident in Canada, who have attained the age of twenty years, who were born not earlier than the year 1883, and were on the 6th day of July, 1917, unmarried, or are widowers but have no child, and who are not within any of the following enumerated

EXCEPTIONS:—

1. Members of our regular, or reserve, or auxiliary forces, as defined by our Army Act.
2. Members of our military forces raised by the Governments of any of our other dominions or by our Government of India.
3. Men serving in our Royal Navy, or in our Royal Marines, or in our Naval Service of Canada, and members of our Canadian Expeditionary Force.
4. Men who have since August 4th, 1914, served in our Military or Naval Forces, or in those of our allies, in any theatre of actual war, and have been honourably discharged therefrom.
5. Clergy, including members of any recognized order of an exclusively religious character, and ministers of all religious denominations existing in Canada at the date of the passing of our said Military Service Act.
6. Those persons exempted from military service by Order in Council of August 13th, 1873, and by Order in Council of December 6th, 1898;

And Whereas it is moreover provided by our said Military Service Act that our Governor-General of Canada in Council may from time to time by proclamation call out on active service as aforesaid any class of men in the said Act described, and that all men within the class so called out shall, from the date of such proclamation, be deemed to be soldiers enlisted in the military service of Canada and subject to military law, save as in the said Act otherwise provided; and that the men so called out shall report and shall be placed on active service in the Canadian Expeditionary Force as may be set out in such proclamation or in regulations; but that they shall, until so placed on active service, be deemed to be on leave of absence without pay;

And Whereas it is also provided by the said Act that at any time before a date to be fixed by proclamation an application may be made, by or in respect of any man in the class to be called out, to one of our local tribunals, established in the manner provided by the said Act in the province in which such man ordinarily resides, for a certificate of exemption from service upon any of the following

GROUND OF EXEMPTION:—

- (a) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in military service, be engaged in other work in which he is habitually engaged;
- (b) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in military service, be engaged in other work in which he wishes to be engaged and for which he has special qualifications;
- (c) That it is expedient in the national interest that, instead of being employed in military service, he should continue to be educated or trained for any work for which he is then being educated or trained;
- (d) That serious hardship would ensue, if the man were placed on active service, owing to his exceptional financial or business obligations or domestic position;
- (e) Ill health or infirmity;
- (f) That he conscientiously objects to the undertaking of combatant service and is prohibited from so doing by the tenets and articles of faith, in effect on the sixth day of July, 1917, of any organized religious denomination existing and well recognized in Canada at such date, and to which he in good faith belongs;

And that if any of the grounds of such application be established, a certificate of exemption shall be granted to such man.

And Whereas more over it is enacted in and by the provisions of an Act of our Parliament of Canada holden in the 7th and 8th years of our reign, and known as the War Time Elections Act, that certain persons thereby disqualified from voting, with such of their sons as on polling day are not of legal age, shall be exempt from combatant military and naval service;

And Whereas it is further provided by our said Military Service Act that applications for exemption from service shall be determined by our said local tribunals, subject to appeal as in the said Act provided, and that any man, by or in respect of whom an application for exemption from service is made, shall, so long as such application or any appeal in connection therewith is pending, and during the currency of any exemption granted him, be deemed to be on leave of absence without pay;

And Whereas our Governor-General of Canada in Council has determined to call out upon active service as aforesaid the men included in Class 1 as in the said Act and hereinbefore defined or described;

Now Therefore Know Ye that we do hereby call out the said Class 1, comprising the men in our said Military Service Act, 1917, and hereinbefore defined or described as to the said class belonging, on active service in our Canadian Expeditionary Force for the defence of Canada, either within or beyond Canada, as we may, in the command or direction of our Military Forces, hereafter order or direct.

And we do hereby strictly command, require and enjoin that each man who is a member of the said class shall, on or before the 10th day of November, 1917, in the prescribed form and manner, report himself for military service, unless application for his exemption shall then have been made by him or by another person entitled to apply on his behalf; wherein our loving subjects, members of the said class, are especially charged not to fail, since not only do their loyalty and allegiance require and impose the obligation of careful and implicit obedience to these our strict commands and injunctions, but moreover, lest our loving subjects should be ignorant of the consequences which will ensue if they fail to report within the time limited as aforesaid, we do hereby forewarn and admonish them that any one who is hereby called out, and who without reasonable excuse fails to report as aforesaid, shall thereby commit an offence, for which he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for any term not exceeding five years with hard labour, and he shall nevertheless, if we so require, be compelled to serve immediately in our said Expeditionary Force.

And we do hereby proclaim and announce that for the greater convenience of our subjects, we have directed that prescribed forms, for reporting for service, and for application for exemption from service, may, at any time on or before the said 10th day of November, 1917, be obtained at any post office in our Dominion of Canada; and that reports for service and applications for exemption from service, if obtained at any of our said post offices and properly executed, shall be forwarded by our postmaster at the post office from which the same are obtained to their proper destination as by our regulations prescribed, free of postage or any other charge.

And we do further inform and notify our loving subjects that local tribunals have been established in convenient localities throughout our Dominion of Canada for the hearing of applications for exemption from service upon any of the statutory grounds, as hereinbefore set out; that these our local tribunals so established will begin to sit in the discharge of their duties on the 8th day of November, 1917, and that they will continue to sit from day to day thereafter, as may be necessary or convenient, at such times and places as shall be duly notified, until all applications for exemption from service shall have been heard and disposed of; also that men belonging to the class hereby called out who have not previously to the said 8th day of November, 1917, reported for service, or forwarded applications for exemption through any of our post offices as aforesaid, may make applications in person for exemption from service to any of our said tribunals, on the 8th, 9th or 10th day of November, 1917.

And we do hereby moreover notify and inform our loving subjects who are within the class hereby called out, that if, on or before the 10th day of November, 1917, they report themselves for military service, or if, on or before that day, application for exemption from service be made by them or on their behalf, they will not be required to report for duty, or be placed upon active service as aforesaid, until a day, not earlier than the 10th day of December, 1917, which will, by our registrar for the province in which they reported or applied, be notified to them in writing by registered post at their respective addresses as given in their reports for service, or applications for exemption from service, or at such substituted addresses as they may have respectively signified to our said registrar; and we do hereby inform, forewarn and admonish the men belonging to the class hereby called out that if any of them shall, without just and sufficient cause, fail to report for duty at the time and place required by notice in writing so posted, or shall fail to report for duty as otherwise by law required, he shall be subject to the procedure, pains and penalties by law prescribed as against military deserters.

Of all of which our loving subjects, and all others whom these presents may concern, are hereby required to take notice, rendering strict obedience to and compliance with all these our commands, directions and requirements, and governing themselves accordingly.

In Testimony Whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Our Right Trusty and Right Entirely Beloved Cousin and Counsellor, Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, Marquess of Hartington, Earl of Devonshire, Earl of Burlington, Baron Cavendish of Hardwicke, Baron Cavendish of Keighley, Knight of Our Most Noble Order of the Garter; One of Our Most Honourable Privy Council; Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Knight Grand Cross of Our Royal Victorian Order; Governor General and Commander-in-Chief of Our Dominion of Canada.

At Our Government House, in Our City of OTTAWA, this TWELFTH day of OCTOBER, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the eighth year of Our Reign.

By Command, Thomas Mulloy
Under-Secretary of State.

RALPH CONNOR WAS GUEST AT OTTAWA

Spoke at Dinner Tendered by Borden and New Ministers

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Major C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) was entertained at dinner last evening by Sir Robert Borden and the members of the new National Government.

During the course of the evening Sir Robert made reference to the soldiers of Canada at the front and paid high tribute to the men who have given their lives for the cause, and to the men who are still on the firing line and those going.

In replying, Major Gordon stated that it was a great day in the history of Canada—a day that would be referred to as one of the greatest days. All these days were great because of their relation to the great war and the widening issues.

It was hard for members to break with their leader and their old friends, but they could not forget the thousands that had severed their connection with all that they held dear—their families and homes, their wives and children. All this had been sacrificed for the great cause for which they were fighting.

FRENCH DIPLOMACY OF THE BEST TYPE; SPEECH BY BRIAND

Paris, Oct. 12.—Delayed.—The diplomacy of France was defended eloquently by former Premier Briand in the Chamber of Deputies to-day during an interpellation on French diplomacy during the war. M. Briand said that the work of the French diplomats must be judged by the results of Germany's ultra modern diplomacy, which had brought the brand of infamy on that country's name.

White Sox Overcame Three-run Lead; Used Four Pitchers; Game at Windy City To-day Was Featured by Heavy Slugging; Giants' Game Struggle

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Oct. 13.—In one of the stormiest games played in a world's series, the Chicago White Sox came from behind to-day when defeat stared them in the face and beat the New York Giants by a score of 8 to 5. The champions of the National League got away to a flying start and hammered "Rob" Russell out of the box, then falling upon Cicotte, who relieved him. The Sox used four pitchers during the game.

Sallee, the Giants' hurler, held the Chicagoans well in hand until the seventh inning and from there on they batted him to all parts of the field. Both teams fielded wretchedly at times.

Just how the Sox upset the Giants when things looked rosy for the National Leaguers can be discerned in the following box score:

First Inning.
First half—Burns walked on four pitched balls. Herzog singled to right field and Burns dashed to third. Cicotte and Williams are now warming up. Burns scored on Kauff's two-base hit to the right field fence. Herzog going to third. Russell was taken from the box at this stage and Cicotte was sent in. Cicotte had only a few seconds to warm up in the outfield before taking his place on the rubber. The crowd booed Zimmerman. Weaver took Zimmerman's hot grounder and Herzog was run down between third and home, the play being Weaver to Schalk. Kauff moved on to third. McMullin took Fletcher's hot smash and threw to Schalk, who touched off Kauff as he slid into the plate. Robertson took Thorpe's place at the bat. Robertson struck out. Zimmerman scored on Robertson's single to centre. On Felsch's throw to the plate Fletcher went to third and Robertson to second. Cicotte threw out Holke at first. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

Second half—Fletcher got Weaver's smash and threw him out. Schalk up. Fletcher also threw out Schalk. Cicotte walked. Sallee worked a cross fire ball all through the inning. J. Collins fouled out to Rariden. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning.
First half—Zimmerman tipped his cap when the crowd jeered him. Zimmerman got a Texas Leaguer into right centre. Felsch lost the ball in the sun. Zimmerman was almost caught off first and run down, but

Second half—Fletcher and Manager Rowland had an argument on the field. Faber went into the box for Chicago. Herzog got on three pitched balls. Faber tossed out Kauff and the crowd was in an uproar. The crowd rode Zimmerman. Zimmerman lined to J. Collins. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second half—J. Collins got a Texas Leaguer to right. McMullin sacrificed, Zimmerman to Holke. The official scorer now gives the error to Herzog in the seventh inning. J. Collins scored on E. Collins' single to centre. On the hit-and-run play Jackson singled to right, E. Collins going to third. Robertson threw to third base to Zimmerman, who threw wildly to second to get Jackson, and E. Collins scored on an error, and Jackson went to third. Sallee was taken from the box. Perritt went into the box for New York. Jackson scored on Felsch's single to centre. Gandil fled to Burns. Felsch was out stealing. Rariden to Fletcher. Three runs, four hits, one error.

Fourth Inning.
First half—Rariden singled past Cicotte. Sallee forced Rariden at second. Gandil to Fletcher. Burns walked, hitting on the knuckle ball for the third strike. Weaver made a bobble on Herzog's grounder, Sallee moving on to second. Collins threw out Kauff at first. No runs, one hit, one error.

Second half—Fletcher got Weaver's smash and threw him out. Schalk up. Fletcher also threw out Schalk. Cicotte walked. Sallee worked a cross fire ball all through the inning. J. Collins fouled out to Rariden. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning.

TRAINING OF CANADA'S DISABLED SOLDIERS

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—W. Segsworth, of the vocational training branch of the Military Hospitals Commission, left for the West last night. Mr. Segsworth, whose offer of his services to the Commission in connection with the problem of re-educating disabled soldiers for industry was accepted recently, is giving special attention to the organization of manufacturers and other employers for co-operation with the Military Hospitals Commission. He will visit all the Commission's institutions and the principal industrial centres in the four Western provinces.

It is stated at the Commission's office that the disabled men are responsible everywhere in the West to the opportunities for improvement offered by the vocational training classes, and it is probable that immediate extension will have to be made at several centres, especially in British Columbia.

FIGHT PROPOSAL TO RAISE FREIGHT RATES

Calgary, Oct. 13.—To join with the Calgary and other Western Boards of Trade in fighting the proposed general advance of 1 to 6 cents a hundredweight in freight rates on all rail traffic, Secretary A. E. Boyle, of the Winnipeg Board of Trade, arrived in this city to-day. Mr. Boyle held a conference with the railway committee of the local Board of Trade and plans were laid to fight the proposal at the Railway Commission hearing here on Monday.

The Western Boards of Trade are contending that the argument of the railways that the all-rail rate must be raised to maintain the difference existing between the all-rail and rail-and-water rate is an absurd one. They hold that an abnormal condition in transportation exists on the lakes at the present time which resulted in the rail and water rate being raised last summer. No such condition exists in the case of the all-rail rate, they say.

SENATOR LAIRD HAS LOST SON AT FRONT

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Senator Henry Laird, of Regina, this morning received word that his son, Lieut. H. W. Laird, of the Royal Flying Corps, had been killed in action on October 8. The Senator received the information in a message from Regina, where word had been received from the Imperial authorities.

The naval service branch also reported the following casualties in the air service this morning: Killed—Flight Sub-Lieut. Melville C. Wood, Winnipeg; Flight Sub-Lieut. Langley Frank W. Smith, Toronto.

AUSTRIAN BUDGET; ATTITUDE OF POLES

Amsterdam, Oct. 13.—The Budget Committee of the Austrian Lower House, according to a dispatch from Vienna, has passed a provisional six-months' budget, including an authorization to the Government to raise war credits up to 3,000,000,000 crowns. The budget also includes a supplementary motion by the Socialist party authorizing the Government to use 100,000,000 crowns for the improvement of the conditions of railway men.

Before the vote was taken the Polish leader said that owing to assurances given by the Government, the Poles would support the budget.

War Veterans Discuss Important Questions With Cabinet Ministers

The Land Settlement, Representation on Commissions, Civil Service Employment, Establishment of Industries and Financial Matters Dealt With by Delegation

The representatives of the Great War Veterans of British Columbia assured the members of the cabinet of the Provincial Government this morning that they appeared before them in the spirit of toleration, with antagonism and an unearned "red rag" reputation relegated to the background.

Many Practical Suggestions. The Hon. John Oliver complimented the representatives of the Great War Veterans' Association on the clear and concise manner in which their representations had been made.

Aims and Objects. The delegation was introduced by D. Laughnan, president of the provincial branch of the Great War Veterans' Association.

Land Settlement. While H. W. Hart, vice-president of the provincial branch of the association, had not any concrete scheme to lay before the cabinet, he had prepared a number of suggestions which he considered might prove the basis for reflection when the Government took action in regard to agricultural matters as affecting the returned soldier.

Modus Operandi. Suitable areas should be selected, he said, by agricultural experts in different parts of the province, adjacent to transportation, and surveyed into blocks of various dimensions, in accordance with the nature of the farming to be carried on.

tion in the labor market of the man who had returned even only partially disabled was described by Mr. Duggan in convincing terms.

He maintained that a good number of the non-productive convalescent homes and the attendant cost could be closed, the men taken from them and the cost of their maintenance devoted to the scheme he had in mind.

Civil Service Employment. The positions in the gift of the Provincial Government such as that of Game Warden, Fire Warden, men in the Public Works Department, and in special duties such as collectors of fuel taxes, etc., could be filled generally by returned men, said W. Drinnan, ex-president of the provincial branch of the G. W. V. A.

Finance. "It is about the easiest thing to ask for and the most difficult to get," was the manner in which Delegate, McSweeney introduced the subject of finance to the Ministers.

Community Settlement. "Men who already possess homesteads and desire to return to them, or who wish to locate in some place other than a community settlement should receive," he said, "the necessary financial assistance, but every endeavor should be made to persuade those who do not already own land to join a community settlement."

Representation on Commissions. The citizens' committee working under the jurisdiction of the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission had done their best and they had in the majority of cases done very well indeed, said H. W. Lees, secretary of the provincial branch of the Great War Veterans' Association.

Explained Settlement Act. Hon. John Oliver fully explained the Land Settlement and Development Act and showed the possibilities it held as a means of great assistance to the returned man to follow rural pursuits.

Not as Bad as That. Little likelihood exists of the possibility becoming a fact, and it is highly probable that it would take a war even greater than this one before the spectacle would be witnessed, but nevertheless, it is true that several of the officials of the Supreme Court here are commenting on the chance of the judges of the Supreme Court and the Appeal Court—even including the Chief Justice—being seen in their shirt-sleeves "helping out" the attenuated staff of the Supreme and County Court Registries.

NEW TREATMENT THAT KNOCKS RHEUMATISM. Up in Syracuse, N. Y., a treatment for rheumatism has been found that hundreds of users say is a wonder, reporting cases that seem little short of miraculous.

50c Box Free to Any Sufferer. The treatment first introduced by Mr. Delano is so good that its owner wants everybody who suffers from rheumatism or who has a friend so afflicted, to get a free 50c. package from him to prove just what it will do in every case before a penny is spent.

MAJ. L. W. S. COCKBURN BECOMES LIEUT.-COL.

Officer Commanding R. C. Garrison Artillery at Esquimalt Receives Promotion

The following military orders are issued by authority of Major-General R. G. Edwards Leckie, C.M.G., G.O.C.: Major L. W. S. Cockburn, the Royal Canadian Artillery, is granted the local rank of lieutenant-colonel, whilst performing the duties of officer commanding the Royal Canadian Garrison Artillery, Esquimalt, B. NOT AS BAD AS THAT

Shortage of Supreme Court Clerks Won't Cause Judges Additional Duties.

Little likelihood exists of the possibility becoming a fact, and it is highly probable that it would take a war even greater than this one before the spectacle would be witnessed, but nevertheless, it is true that several of the officials of the Supreme Court here are commenting on the chance of the judges of the Supreme Court and the Appeal Court—even including the Chief Justice—being seen in their shirt-sleeves "helping out" the attenuated staff of the Supreme and County Court Registries.

In common with other Canadians, even though less dignified, the judges of the Supreme Court would, probably, be not one whit behind other citizens of the Dominion in "doing their bit" whatever might be the particular field of duty on which they might be called upon to take their stand.

The fact of the matter is that there is at present severe shortage of officials in the Supreme and County Court Registries, due to the fact that three of its clerks have recently resigned, being extremely inadequate for the very qualified positions they filled. With the departure yesterday of A. M. D. Fairbairn, clerk of the Supreme and County Court Registry, which followed that of Mr. Barnes, a clerk and deputy registrar in the Supreme Court Registry, two weeks ago, and that of Mr. Weston, on September 7, the remaining members of the staff are having the time of their lives attending to the duties devolving on the department.

received from applicants for vacant positions, but these are, perhaps, not easy to fill on account of the necessity that the gentlemen appointed shall have the necessary experience.

FEW REGISTERED FOR MILITARY SERVICE

Cards Filled Out at Intervals During Morning but No Rush

Although the two sets of cards, one for filing reports for service, and the other for exemption applications, arrived in the city this morning by the boat from Vancouver, and were available when the Post Office opened, no immediate rush, states Postmaster Bishop, was experienced during the opening hours, nor indeed, during the early part of the day, the majority of the public interested probably not being aware that the cards had been received.

The demand, however, was a steady one, with three or four applicants coming in at a time, and it was an easy matter for the Post Office officials to deal with the callers without disgruntling or causing any inconvenience to the ordinary business of the department.

No cards are allowed to be taken away from the Post Office. Any applicant can be given a card. Identification is not necessary. When the applicant has filled up his card, which he must do in the building, he hands it to the postmaster, who gives him a receipt, stating that the man in question has filled up the Government form.

The Post Office hours for dealing with the matters connected with these cards will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, Sundays excepted.

IN NEW PREMISES

Model Blouse Company, Removed to 736 Yates Street, Formerly Opening Monday.

Blouses to order or "a la carte" is the system on which the Model Blouse Company has built up its business to the present dimensions, dimensions which have at last become so great that it was impossible to confine them in the premises at 755 Yates Street.

"Orders taken on one day can be filled the next," pronounced Miss Grice in a business like way when asked how long it took them to put out work. This is a very satisfactory promise, for it is usually the case in these days that ladies do not think very far ahead in the matter of dress, and things are almost invariably wanted in a hurry.

Miss Grice gave a brief forecast of the season's vogue in blouses. Flesh, maize, and white are to be the popular colors. Sleeves are to be long, with soft dressy cuff effects, and narrower collars. In the matter of materials Georgette crepe will no doubt dominate all other choices for preference, although crepe de chine and China silk will also be sold.

Several examples of the more simply designed blouses, some of almost tailored severity, were shown. The material counts for much in the effect, however. While in the heavy Jap or China silk the result was a serviceable smart sports blouse in the Georgette crepe it lent itself to more refined uses, and suggestions of how to convert a little waist of this kind into a dinner blouse by means of a dainty underslip and a knot of lace or colored ribbon at the throat are readily given by the expert saleswoman.

One of the things which the Model Blouse Company specializes in is the making of little underslips of the kind, and in great variety are to be found separate collars of Georgette crepe prettily embroidered by hand, to be worn with the one-piece frocks which are now so much the vogue. Dupli-cates are avoided in the better class of things.

OBITUARY RECORD

The funeral of the late Catherine Doris Newburn took place this morning from the B. C. Funeral Parlors at 1830, Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick officiating. The pallbearers were Messrs. Earl Moore, Robt. Macdonald, Andrew Moffat, and Arthur King. There was a large attendance, and numerous beautiful flowers. The hymns were "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Shall We Gather at the River?"

The death occurred on Thursday at James Island, of Louis Montemurri, aged 52 years, a native of Italy and a resident of Victoria for the past seven years. Deceased was employed by the Canadian Explosives Company, and had been at James Island for 18 months. He is survived by his wife in Italy. The remains are reposing at the Thomson Funeral Parlors, 827 Pandora Avenue, pending arrangements for the funeral, which will be announced later.

WATER NOTICE.

TAKE NOTICE that Arthur Richard Wolfenden, whose address is 822 Government Street, Victoria, B.C., will apply for a license to take and use 25 acre feet per annum of water out of Metehoon Creek, also known as Witty Creek, which flows southeasterly and drains into Whitty's Lagoon, Metehoon District.

The water will be diverted from the stream at a point just above the Falls and will be used for domestic and irrigation purposes on the land described as Lot 3, of part of Sections 44 and 45, Esquimalt District, Map 1793. This notice was posted on the grounds on the 13th day of October, 1917. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto, and to the Water Act, will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Victoria. Objections to the applications may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, within 30 days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper. The date of the first application of this notice is October 13th, 1917.

LAND REGISTRY ACT.

Notice Under Section 36. TAKE NOTICE that an application has been made to register Charles Thomas Erant as the owner in fee-simple under two Tax Sale Deeds, in the name of the Corporation of the Township of Esquimalt to Charles Thomas Erant, bearing date the 26th day of September, A.D. 1917, in pursuance of a Tax Sale held by said Collector on or about the 1st day of September, 1916, of all and singular certain parcel or tract of land and premises situated, lying, and being in the District of Esquimalt, in the Province of British Columbia, more particularly known and described as Lots Thirty-two (32) and Thirty-three (33), of Section Twenty-six (26), Map 424.

You and those claiming through or under you, and all persons claiming any interest in the said land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of the "Land Registry Act" are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within 30 days of the service of this notice upon you. Otherwise you and each of you will be forever estopped and barred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the said land, and I shall register the said Charles Thomas Erant.

Dated at the Land Registry Office at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 9th day of October, A.D. 1917.

MAJOR W. A. BISHOP STIRRED ALL GOTHAM

Career Nearly Ended Just Before He Received Leave; Brilliant Record

Major W. A. Bishop, V. C., M. C., D. S. O., the young Canadian airman on whose breast King George recently pinned the three most coveted of soldiers' distinctions, has arrived in Canada and prior to leaving New York, to which port he sailed from England, he addressed the Canadian Club. In a letter just received by his uncle, Mr. Bishop, of the Bishop Hardware Company, of Oak Bay, the daring young airman said that just before he received his leave he drove no less than nine Hun to earth in two hours and fell 4,000 feet with his own machine afloat. Fortunately he alighted within the British lines unhurt.

Slip of a Boy.
Of his lecture before the Canadian Club a New York dispatch reads: "A mere slip of a boy, looking not all of his twenty-three years, and weighing not much more than 100 pounds, stood before 300 members and guests of the Canadian Club at a dinner in his honor to-night at the Hotel Baltimore, and told how in 110 fights in five months he brought down 47 German aeroplanes. He was Major W. A. Bishop, of Owen Sound, Ont., a member of the Royal Flying Corps, who left the front two weeks ago, bringing back the Victoria Cross and a string of other decorations, and the reputation of having downed more Hun flyers than any other British aviator.

"Looking like a college freshman, he told of his exploits in a manner as cool as if he were reciting a lesson in a classroom. He said that the greatest thing about air fighting was to get bullets into the heads of the Hun flyers—not one bullet, but 'hunks of 'em.' If one brought them down in flames, he said, one was lucky, because the job was complete.

"Major Bishop received an ovation that made the fervid reception given to P. O'Connor's denunciation of unpatriotic Irishmen seem tame indeed.

"He surprised his hearers by telling them that of late days most of the fighting was done at altitudes of 22,000 feet and more.

"Then," he said, "there is always the danger of being attacked from above."

"In telling of the work of the airman who register artillery work, he said that one accomplished airman could register the work of eight batteries of the artillery.

"Bombing is an interesting part of our work," he explained. "First, all the bombing was done from a height of about 12,000 feet. In the battle of the Somme some great airman missed a bridge with two of his three bombs at a height of 12,000 feet. Then he flew down to about 200 feet and blew up the bridge with his last bomb. Now we all do it."

"He said that the danger in dropping bombs during an attack at low level was 'awful,' because the airman stood the risk of being hit by his own soldiers' fire as well as by the enemy's. In picturing the terrific damage to machines and men, he said his squadron of eighteen airmen used fifty planes in two or three days."

GEORGE HERBERT STEWART

Another native son of Victoria has been accepted for service with the Royal Flying Corps in the person of George Herbert Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart, of Cumberland, formerly of this city.
For the past three and a half years Mr. Stewart has been engaged as accountant in the Department of Agriculture.

Education at the Public and High Schools of this city, Mr. Stewart is twenty-five years of age, and in athletic circles he will be remembered for his prowess on the tennis court and the lacrosse field.

Before completing his schooling he took a special course in accountancy at McGill, knowledge which has been practically applied during his period of service with the Government.

RED CROSS WORK

A Five Hundred tournament will be held on Saturday, October 20, at 8.15 p.m., in the Gorge Branch Red Cross workroom, corner of Tillikum Road and Obed Avenue. Tickets (twenty-five cents each) are now purchasable. The branch gratefully acknowledges a cheque for $24 from the Gorge Red Cross Tennis Club, per Mrs. Hodgkinson.

A very successful bridge party was given by Mrs. Philip Goeppel and Mrs. A. Oates at the home of the latter, Hampshire Road, on Wednesday last. A Doulton vase given by Miss M. Millburn was also raffled. Thirty-six dollars has been handed to Mr. Clayton, secretary of the Oak Bay Red Cross, for the Red Cross and $15 for Prisoners-of-War Fund. A valuable "Coalpot" teapot has been given to Mr. Goeppel for the above funds and can be seen at the Superfluties Shop, Belmont House.

James Bay Branch.
On Saturday, October 27, through the hospitality and kindness of Mrs. Burge, a social evening of bridge and five hundred will be held at the James Bay Hotel in aid of the funds of the James Bay branch of the Red Cross. Separate rooms have been arranged by Mrs. Burge, so that no confusion will result between the players of bridge and five hundred. An enjoyable evening is assured. The arrangements for the games are in the very capable hands of Mrs. T. H. Leeming. Light refreshments will be served during the evening. Tables can now be secured by applying to Mrs. Leeming, phone 547, or to the Red Cross Rooms, phone 3208R. These social evenings will be continued monthly during the long winter evenings.

The winning number for the skates raffled this week is 530, and the skates can be had by presenting the ticket at the rooms.
Donations as follows are acknowledged: For the raffle table, a canisole top from Miss F. Handford and a brooch from a friend; three face cloths from Mrs. Mallindaine, old linen from Mrs. R. McDonald, tins from Walter Harris.
The convener has called a special business meeting at the rooms, 218 Morrison Street, for Monday evening next, 8 p.m. It is hoped all members will make an effort to be present as business of importance will be submitted.

North Ward Branch.
The monthly meeting of the branch was held in the rooms on Monday, October 15, at 8 p.m. It is hoped that there will be a full attendance of the committee.

The lucky number for the beautiful flet centrepiece raffled on Thursday evening was 979.
A very pleasant and profitable evening was spent at the 500 party on Thursday evening and $17.50 was added to the funds. The convener of the Entertainment Committee, Mrs. Fulton, phone 2810L, would be pleased to receive donations of prizes or money towards prizes, for these parties, which are held bi-weekly in the rooms, Scott Building.

The committee wishes to thank Mrs. Adams, 2515 Government Street, for the donation of a handsome worked cushion to be raffled in aid of the funds.
Big Game Bag.—Mr. Gordon, a prominent lawyer in Regina, has been in Cassiar hunting big game. He shot three moose, three goats, three grizzlies and several sheep.

INTERESTING TALK ON "BETTER BABIES"

Garden City Women's Institute Hear Dr. Helen Ryan on Subject

"Better Babies" was the subject of an address delivered by Dr. Helen Ryan at the regular meeting of the Garden City Women's Institute held at the rooms of the organization on Wednesday afternoon last. The topic was dealt with in a most practical and interesting fashion, Dr. Ryan choosing to discuss infant mortality, dealing fully at the same time with statistics and causes. She laid particular emphasis on the need for adequate care to be taken of the feeble-minded.

She was able to give very valuable information regarding the necessity of operation for children suffering from removable physical defects and her observations on the subject—generally were of considerable interest both to the parent and anyone mindful of the child welfare movement. Dr. Ryan was accorded a hearty vote of thanks and at the conclusion of her remarks an informal social was held during which refreshments were dispensed.

The September report of the Red Cross committee in charge of Mrs. Lee was submitted to the meeting, and the following articles were contributed to the work: 25 pairs of socks, 48 day-shirts, 48 pyjamas, and $100. Mrs. Rogers' committee was responsible for: 13 day shirts, 17 pyjamas, 54 abdominal bandages and 20 pairs of socks.

Mail Service.
Mrs. P. C. Coates introduced a motion urging that the postmaster be approached in regard to the route of the rural mail carrier. The request suggests that the mail bags be delivered at Marigold Post Office on the carrier's return trip from the city instead of making his rounds of the district first. It is pointed out that by so doing scarcely more than five minutes extra time would be involved while the residents would get their mail at least an hour earlier.

Facilities are also asked for in the matter of registered letters, postal notes, etc., to enable residents to send and receive any money from Marigold P. O. instead of having to go to the city. The motion was carried, Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Berkhill forming a committee to deal with the matter.

Children's Teeth.
A resolution was moved by the secretary reciting that "Whereas the condition of the teeth of the school children had a direct bearing upon the general health, and whereas some parents found it impossible to pay full fees for this work, that in the interests of the future men and women we ask the Dental Society of Victoria to make some arrangements whereby the children of Saanich may receive the necessary treatment at not too great a cost." The motion was seconded by Mrs. Hall and carried.

It was reported to the meeting that eight dentists had been approached and that, without exception had each consented to give half a day a month and that no doubt the remainder would do likewise. At the meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses to be held in Tolmie School on Monday evening next full particulars of the work now being carried out would be given. Miss Helen Stewart is expected to address the Institute members on Wednesday, November 14.

Strike Settled.—The strike of the miners at Greenhill mines, near Blairmore, which resulted from trouble over pillar work, a purely local controversy, has been settled and the men are back at work.

The sire of these is the celebrated Colony Cornucopia King.

This is one of the most important offerings of highly-bred registered Holstein cattle ever offered to the public. The breeding of these animals includes the blood of the most famous strains of high-producing families. Owing to the departure of the Rev. Father McDonnell for the Front, no attempt has been made to establish records, though the animals have been well kept, and with their breeding should be wonderful producers if given an opportunity in proper hands.

This Farm is situated one mile north of Chemainus on the E. & N. Railway, Vancouver Island, B.C. Trains leave Victoria at 9 a.m. and Nanaimo at 8.30 a.m. Take train to Chemainus Station. Terms of sale, cash.

Any further particulars can be had from MAYNARD & SONS, Auctioneers, 726 View Street, Victoria, B.C.
