PRIZES WORTH $20 AWARDED FRIDAY

NO. 4 AND 292 DRAWN AT ROYAL THEATER IN BIG PRIZE CAMPAIGN OF SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION.

Mrs. A. Veglia and J. A. Knocks were the holders of the lucky numbers which drew the South San Francisco Merchants' Association prizes at the Royal Theater last Friday evening. The numbers were 4 and 292. Mrs. Veglia and Mr. Knocks are thus the richer now by $10 each for making purchases of members of the association. Merchandise orders to the amount of $10 each were given the lucky ones.

The prize-giving campaign now under way in this city under the auspices of the Merchants' Association is "going big." On every hand one hears people discussing it, and in every store of the association members customers are asking for the little blue coupons that cost nothing but mean so much. Remember, you get a coupon with every purchase of 25 cents or over, and every coupon secured puts you that much nearer the weekly prize or the series of big prizes to be given away free at Christmas time.

For the benefit of those who have not yet looked into the plan or begun saving coupons, it is here set forth again.

THE PLAN

With each purchase of 25 cents or more at any of the stores listed below you will receive a blue coupon stating the amount of the purchase. When you have $10 worth of these coupons, exchange them at any of these stores for a numbered certificate. This certificate has a numbered stub which you should tear off and deposit in the locked box at Scampini's confectionery store. Hold the main part of the certificate yourself. Friday evening the locked box will be taken to the Royal Theater and one of the stubs drawn. The holder of the corresponding ticket will be presented with merchandise orders to the amount of $10, these orders having exactly the same value in making purchases at any one of the stores listed as ten $1 bills would have.

Another thing should be carefully noted. Whether or not you are the holder of a certificate drawing one of the prizes to be given at frequent intervals during the fall, you should hold the main part of your certificate, for the ones having the most of these will be given a number of large prizes at Christmas time. All the way through the coupon plan works to the benefit of the buyers, while costing them nothing. Look on the store windows when shopping for the sign which says "WE GIVE SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION COUPONS." Then, when making a purchase, if the clerk forgets to give you the coupons ask for them. They will be promptly forthcoming.

There was a large gathering at the Royal Theater last Friday evening to see the drawing. Judge E. E. Cunningham gave an address, in which he urged residents of this city to patronize the merchants of the town. Miss Amelia Da Egato favored the audience with a vocal selection, which elicited much applause. Then the drawing was held, a little girl from the audience taking the two numbered stubs from the box.

Another drawing will be held at the Royal tomorrow (Friday) night. If you are holding any certificates be sure to put the stub in the box before that time. Perhaps you have a number of the blue coupons, in which case a few more purchases before Friday evening may bring you one of the numbered $10 certificates and the lucky number at the drawing. It is certainly worth trying for.

Here are the merchants who are now giving away the coupons:

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR ELECTROLIERS

H. C. Reed Co. Successful Bidders for Street Lighting System at Monday's City Meeting.

The contract for the installation of the electrolier lighting system for the business district of this city was let at Monday evening's meeting of the city trustees, the successful bidder being the H. C. Reed Company, its figure being $14,066.60. There were six bids received for the work, the prices ranging from that of the Reed company up to $19,480. The bidders and their bids for the furnishing of the supplies and the installation of the system were as follows:

H. C. Reed Co.	$14,066.60
F. E. Newberry Electric Co.	17,046.66
Mutte Electric Mfg. Co.	17,512.89
M. E. Ryan	18,614.12
C. F. Schurk	19,275.25
Atlas Electric Co.	19,480.32

All bids were made on the work divided into nine different units, the totals being as given above. It is expected that the work of installing the new lights will begin soon.

All members of the board of trustees were present when Chairman G. W. Holston called the board to order.

A letter was received from Mrs. Carrie Winterhalter calling attention to the fact that pupils from the Martin school are running considerable danger of being run down on San Bruno road near the school, as autos usually travel rapidly past this point. The letter asked that safety signals be installed on the road at this point. The matter was referred to the city marshal.

A report from Fire Chief B. H. Trux showed eight fires in this city last month, all showing little or no damage with the exception of the fire at the Western Pipe and Steel Company's plant, which destroyed part of a pier.

After the auditing of a number of bills against the city treasury, the board adjourned at shortly after 9 o'clock.

MISS MYRTLE VACCARI TO BE MARRIED SATURDAY

Miss Myrtle Vaccari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vaccari, for many years residents of this city but now living in San Jose, will be married here Saturday of this week. The bridegroom will be Edward J. Madigan of San Francisco. The news of the approaching wedding came out a few days ago when Miss Vaccari resigned from her position in the local office of the W. P. Fuller Company.

Miss Myrtle Vaccari is well known in South San Francisco, where she was born twenty years ago. Since her parents moved to San Jose recently Miss Vaccari has been staying with Mrs. L. Thomas on Grand avenue.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. C. L. Peck at St. Paul's Methodist Church. The young people plan to make their future home at Hollywood, Calif.

MRS. AMELIA PODESTA DIES SUDDENLY TODAY

SAN MATEO VOTES FOR BEAUTIFUL PARK

Bond Issue for $80,000 Carries by Majority of 4 to 1.

By a majority of about 4 to 1 San Mateo voted Tuesday for a bond issue of $80,000 to purchase the beautiful Kohl estate for a public park. In each of the city's five precincts the bonds carried 4 to 1, with the exception of one precinct, and here the majority was only slightly less.

The purchase price of the Kohl estate is $75,000. Of the $5000 surplus voted for, $4000 will be expended in arranging the grounds suitably for public park purposes, and the remaining $1000 will be spent in remodeling and improving the corporation yard. It is stated emphatically there will be no unnecessary delays in getting the newly acquired acreage in shape for a grand opening. The Peninsula Choral Society's production of the religious oratorio, "Elijah," on Sunday, October 1st, will be the first large event to be held there.

The bonds just voted on will be sold as soon as the city board of trustees complete the official canvass of the votes, and actual work in clearing the property of superfluous undergrowth and laying out of certain details such as the children's playground and amphitheater will begin in the near future. The bonds, bearing 5 1/2 per cent, will be issued in denominations as determined by the city board of trustees, and bonds to the amount of $2000 will mature each year for forty years.

It is reported that the Frederick Kohl estate is one of the most beautiful spots of its size in California. It is filled with magnificent trees and is largely in its natural state. The resulting city park, it is believed, will be one of the finest in the entire West.

J. W. COLEBERG DELIVERS ADDRESS AT CONVENTION

City Attorney J. W. Coleberg of this city was one of the speakers Wednesday at the convention of the League of California Municipalities, now in session at Palo Alto. Mr. Coleberg's subject was "The Model Tax Ordinance."

FLOYD JOHNSON WINS ANOTHER FIGHT IN N. Y.

Big Fellow Knocks Out Harry Williams; Gets Much Publicity.

Floyd Johnson, local pugilist and heavyweight champion aspirant, who is now in New York, added another scalp to his string Monday evening when he knocked out Harry Williams of Bridgeport, Conn., in the ninth round of a twelve-round fight. Williams was considered a tough man and his defeat gives Johnson another boost upward.

Johnson is coming in for much publicity in metropolitan publications of late. The latest is a picture of the big chap in the September 8th American Pictorial Magazine of New York and a column write-up in the Hearst newspapers last Monday by Damon Runyon, the famous sport writer, who has given Johnson considerable publicity before. In Monday's story Runyon tells of seeing Johnson at Stillman's gymnasium in New York watching Jack Dempsey box. Runyon has much to say by way of comparing the two men. He says: "Side by side, the two young Westerners, Dempsey and Johnson, presented a striking picture. Both are Irish descent, but Dempsey is very dark, and Johnson is very fair.

"Dempsey was born in Colorado, Johnson in the neighboring state of Iowa. They are about the same height and about the same weight, but Johnson's legs seem bulkier than Dempsey's. Much of Jack's weight is above his waist line, and he has trim, tapering legs.

"However, Johnson will probably trim off to a neater shape as he gets older and his weight settles. Dempsey is grace personified in and out of the ring, while Johnson, with the awkwardness of youth still on, is more graceful in the ring than out of it.

"Dempsey asked Johnson to box with him Friday, but Cook explained that Floyd has a sore shoulder as the result of his bout with Joe McCann over in Newark Monday night, and would not be able to do justice to himself even in a sparring contest."

DIRECTORS OF DIST. ORDER SURVEY MADE

Meeting in San Francisco Results in Location of Route and in Ordering of Final Survey.

Another step toward the completion of the highway-transbay bridge project was taken in San Francisco at the meeting of the directors held recently. At this meeting the three directors, Supervisor John MacBain, representing San Mateo county, and Supervisors Richard J. Welch and J. Emmet Hayden, representing San Francisco, were present, as was District Attorney Franklin Swart of this county, legal adviser for the highway-bridge district. One result of the meeting was the definite fixing of the route the highway is to take.

According to reports of the meeting there was some slight difference of opinion among the directors as to the exact location of the proposed highway, but these differences were finally ironed out and the route agreed upon.

Instructions were issued to the engineers to complete a definite preliminary survey immediately, and this work will start within the next few days. The work will be done by a representative of the State Highway Commission and Assistant City Engineer Clyde Healey of San Francisco and County Surveyor George A. Kneese of San Mateo county, it is believed. It is understood that the route agreed upon is practically the same as that recommended by the State Highway Commission in its original report, following the bay line as closely as possible from South San Francisco to Burlingame, passing in front of Pacific City, and swinging around to the present county highway east of the railroad at Beresford. At a point south of the Greater San Francisco speedway the route swings to the left and runs in a straight line to a point on the outskirts of Redwood City, from which point it is proposed to connect with the Middlefield road and also construct the approaches to the bridge.

The present survey is provided for in a tax levy in San Mateo county, the San Francisco funds to be provided out of the general fund budget. Approximately $225,000 has been provided for the survey and acquiring of rights of way.

ENTIRE CHANGE IN PERSONNEL AT P. O.

That there will be an entire change in the personnel of the force at the local postoffice, beginning with October 1st, has become apparent. A few days ago L. G. Hardy, who takes charge as postmaster of the independent office, beginning with September 28th, received word that a force of experienced men would be supplied him from the San Francisco office at least temporarily and until the new office is in thorough running order. O. Campbell, the present superintendent of the office, leaves October 1st. Mr. Campbell will have a three weeks' vacation before taking up his duties at the San Francisco office, to which he is to return. J. J. Jones, for years a carrier in this city, has already been transferred to a clerkship in San Francisco. Fred W. Wessenberg, present assistant to the local postmaster, will also be transferred to the San Francisco office, as will William Geertz, who has been a carrier here with Mr. Jones. J. A. Stone was transferred here from San Francisco as a carrier this week, and Mr. Stone will probably remain under the new regime. In addition, it is expected that another carrier and an assistant postmaster will be appointed from the San Francisco postoffice.

CAMP WAGON BURNS.

The fire department was called to a fire near the corner of San Bruno and Grand avenues Wednesday evening about 6 o'clock. The fire was in a camp wagon standing on vacant ground near the old city jail. It started from an oil stove and most of the wagon and part of the body was consumed before the blaze was extinguished.

Life may be a picnic, but like all picnics it has a plenty of dirt.

SUPERVISORS' MEETING AT REDWOOD

COUNTY BOARD HOLDS ITS REGULAR SESSION WITH TWO MEMBERS ABSENT; MATTERS OF ROUTINE GROUND OUT.

The county supervisors met in regular session at Redwood City Monday, and although Supervisors John MacBain and Thomas Hickey were absent the usual routine of business was gone through with.

A communication was received from the State Board of Health regarding plans for the construction of the tuberculosis pavilion at the hospital, calling attention to the requirements of the law in such cases and suggesting that the plans and specifications be submitted to the board for approval before ordering the work done. This communication was ordered filed until a future date, and the matter will be taken up with the architect, W. H. Toepeke.

A claim of Mrs. B. A. Griffith against the county library fund was ordered paid on motion of Supervisor Francis, seconded by Supervisor Rosalie M. Brown.

Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney appeared before the board and asked permission to leave his office to collect taxes in outlying districts of the county and in the principal incorporated cities. This is the usual custom of the tax collector, and is done to accommodate taxpayers who are unable to call at the office in Redwood City. The permission was granted by the board on motion.

Plans and specifications for the construction of a box culvert at Corte Madera creek where that creek crosses Fitzpatrick road leading from Menlo Park to Alpine, were presented by County Surveyor George A. Kneese. These plans were accepted by the board, and the clerk instructed to advertise for bids for the work, which it was specified is to be paid for out of the third district road fund.

County Surveyor George A. Kneese also addressed the board in regard to a census of automobiles, trucks, etc., which the California Bureau of Public Works desires for state statistics. The bureau has requested the assistance of the different counties in making the census. This matter was continued until the meeting of October 2d, when it will be taken up further.

The board again took up the recommendation of the County Social Service Commission covering the amount of money necessary for the operation of the commission during the coming year and ordered the same accepted. This matter was continued from the last meeting. The recommendation includes an increase of salary for the executive secretary and for the office secretary.

Complying with the request of the board, District Attorney Franklin Swart presented an opinion regarding the authority of the board to construct sidewalks, safety stations and curbing along the state highway at Belmont, a petition having been presented by Belmont residents asking that such work be done. Swart advised the board that it was in its power to order the work done, and that it could be paid for out of the district road fund, out of the general fund or on the district assessment plan at the discretion of the board. In order that this matter could be discussed at a full meeting of the board, it was continued until September 25th, when a special meeting will be held.

In answer to a request for an opinion regarding the installation of service for electric lighting at Beresford, District Attorney Swart informed the board that his opinion would be of no value as the matter was entirely in the hands of the State Railroad Commission, and that it gave the Pacific Gas and Electric Company the right to refuse service to isolated districts unless the residents of such districts would pay for the cost of the running of the lines. Supervisor Rosalie M. Brown stated that others had been supplied in the near vicinity, and

HERE'S A WAY TO GET MANY MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION COUPONS

We refer, of course, to the prize coupons given away by members of the South San Francisco Merchants' Association. These coupons cost you nothing, being given away with each purchase of 25 cents or over, but when exchanged for number-bearing certificates give you a chance at the liberal prizes to be awarded the holders of lucky numbers. If you are paid up, send The Enterprise to some friend for six months or for one year and get the coupons that may win you one of the prizes to be given every two weeks, or will give you a big start toward the certificates that may capture one of the big prizes for you later on. Two yearly subscriptions will cost you $5, and The Enterprise will present you with a $10 certificate. This, too, in addition to the tickets that will admit two persons each to popular San Francisco theaters. Can you imagine anything more liberal? At your Finger Tips

THERE IS GREAT PLEASURE on cold, frosty mornings in just reaching out from your warm bed to press a button and start heat on its way up from the basement. This comfort is a constant delight in homes that are equipped with electrically-controlled gas furnaces.

Gas furnaces supply clean, fresh air through pipes to all the rooms of your house. No heat escapes into the basement, and the incoming air never comes in contact with the gas flame or fumes.

The electrical control of gas furnaces enables you to get low heat, medium heat, or high heat by pressing one or two buttons.

Tell us how many rooms you have to heat, and we will tell you what size furnace you need, what it will cost, etc. Thousands of these furnaces are in daily use in California. Some of them are in your neighborhood. Ask us where they are.

PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR COLMA COMMUNITY HOUSE

We have during the past weeks endeavored to interest the residents and well-wishers of Colma in our Community Center. It is imperative that a large sum be raised in order to materialize this new building.

It will be 60 feet by 100 feet. The sub-basement will contain a club room for boys 30 feet by 30 feet and one similar in size for the girls. This will take up the front half of the entire basement; the rear half will be divided into separate compartments, one for men and the other for women, and each will contain paraphernalia rooms, locker rooms, and showers with conveniences.

On the main floor of the building there will be a lobby, check rooms and conveniences, for men on one side and women on the other, also stairways leading up to a balcony, both to the right and left. In the center of the main floor, 40 feet by 60 feet, will be hardwood flooring suitable for basket-ball and all manner of gymnasium stunts and also for dancing. Ten feet on the sides and end toward the entrance will be ordinary tongue and groove flooring. At the rear of the building will be the stage, with an opening 26 feet wide and 17 feet high. The depth will be 20 feet. Above the entrance end on both sides of the hall will be the balcony, also two rooms that can be used for offices, etc.

The main portion of the building will be open to the roof, which will be carried on trusses, so as to give ample space for athletic stunts.

This main floor can be used for many purposes and will have a large seating capacity.

This gives a general outline of the structure, and in a few days subscription papers will be circulated, as we hope that every one living in this community will wish to share in this undertaking.

We are also at this time going to ask the several large corporations who employ many of our citizens to help us in this cause, knowing that in raising the standard of citizens we are bettering the quality of their employees.

MRS. PAUL BLANK, MUCH-LOVED WOMAN, PASSES TO REST

The residents of South San Francisco were deeply shocked last Friday to learn of the death of Mrs. Paul P. Blank of this city. Mrs. Blank had lived here for sixteen years and was a woman of high character, loved and respected by all who knew her. The great profusion of beautiful floral offerings and the large number of sorrowing friends who attended the funeral and later followed the body to its last resting place all bore witness to the high esteem in which the young matron was held.

Mrs. Blank was born in Philadelphia thirty years ago. Her mother died when she was little more than a baby. She lived in that city until she was 5 years of age, then came to California around the Horn with her father. She lived at Redwood City with the family of Judge G. H. Buck for a number of years. Mrs. Blank had lived in South San Francisco since she was 14 years of age. Here she married Paul Blank in September, 1914. Of this union two children were born, Paul P. Blank Jr., now 5 years of age, and the infant son, Francis Ernest Blank. Both children survive with their father.

Mrs. Blank died last Friday morning. The funeral was held Monday morning in charge of S. Nieri, with a high requiem mass at All Souls' Church. The interment was at Holy Cross Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

To every person comes a time when sorrow descends like a cloud over his life. I have just had this experience in the death of my beloved wife. Through the gloom there is one ray of light, the kindness of the many friends who made my sorrow their own. Though words are cold and dull to express the gratitude I feel, yet my full heart demands that to the best of my ability I convey thanks to all those who by expressions of sympathy, kindly assistance and beautiful floral offerings did all they could to lighten my sorrow. These friends were many, and my heartfelt gratitude goes out to all and especially to the employees of the Pacific Coast Steel Company, to my fellow workmen of the open-hearth department at the steel mill, to the local lodge of Moose, to Father J. P. Moran and to Mr. S. Nieri. PAUL P. BLANK.

Sunday evening was an unfortunate one for many motorists who happened to be in the vicinity of Redwood City after dark. Officers of the state motor vehicle department stopped over 150 drivers on the highway in the southern part of the county at that time and ordered them to appear in the justice court at Redwood. And all on account of improper adjustment of their headlights. Some were too bright, some had the dimmers upside down, some lights were not deflected down on the road.

NEWSPAPERS' COMPETITION

It is remarkable the extent to which many business men in the smaller towns are prone to follow strange gods in advertising. The newspaper is always with them and that is probably why they do not half appreciate its value.

The latest competitor of the town newspaper is the moving picture interests. The old-time "still" has been proven a failure. But the new plan includes an actual movie. Clever salesmen invade the town and, working on a percentage basis with the theater man, sell a movie proposition to the local merchant.

Compare it with the advertising in the newspaper. The buyer wants to know something of price, of quality, of the general description of the hat or shoes or clothing he or she will probably buy.

CONGRATULATIONS TO SAN MATEO

The progressive city of San Mateo took a long step forward Tuesday when its citizens voted by an overwhelming majority to purchase the beautiful Kohl estate for a city park.

This is a good indication. This fine park will be a subject of pride, not only to San Mateo but to the entire peninsula. It speaks forcefully for the spirit of progress in evidence on every hand in this region.

Parks are an inestimable asset to any city. Our own town of South San Francisco is sadly in need of one. San Mateo is setting a pace that every town on the peninsula would do well to heed.

The Enterprise extends congratulations to San Mateo and its citizens.

Wedding bells ring merrily, but the siren of the divorce court is the one that makes the big noise.

Be an expert at one thing and the world will forgive you for what you don't know about the rest.

The fellow who puts himself "in the hands of his friends" often finds it a hell of a job to get out.

Give your neighbor credit for keeping a secret. He hasn't told what he knows about you.

Every person lies at one time or another. We can't sleep standing.

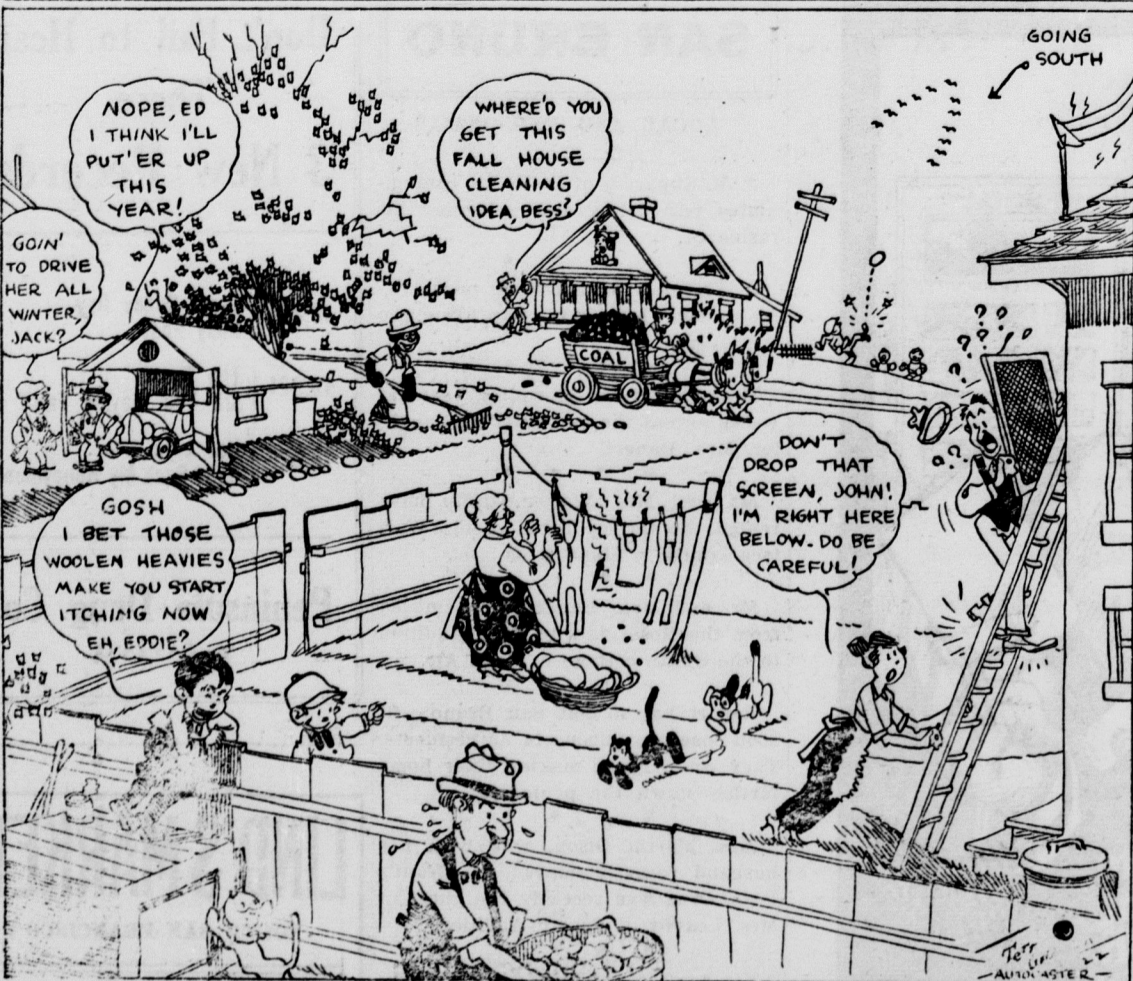

FINGERPRINT BOSSY'S NOSE

Gone are the days when the old ranch smells of burning flesh as the boys stamp home the brand of "Circle X." No more will bossy have to submit to a painful week as an owner's brand of her hip heels. Because, it has been discovered that a cow's nose, like human finger tips, are no two alike. In the east, dairymen are jinking bossy's nose—finger-printing her as shown in the picture—and filing the identification prints for any future needs.

IT'S IN THE AIR

Punchettes

FALSE HOPE

Sin on every side is growing bolder, and the very delusion contained in the statement, "The world is growing better," is of satanic origin, and is for the purpose of putting to sleep the forces of righteousness.

Human nature is incapable of moral improvement by any human process known to mankind. The only thing within the power of God that can change human nature is regeneration. Reformation cannot affect its character.

The good are getting better, but the bad are getting worse. The ungenerated, the unwashed, the unsaved are more skilled, subtle, and powerful in the practices of sin than ever before in the history of the world.

The corrupt are becoming more scientific in their corruption, and more determined to practice corruption.

There are three great stubborn facts confronting us. FIRST—The fact of sin. It is the most stubborn fact, the most awful fact, and the most destructive fact in the universe.

SECOND—The fact of salvation. There would be no salvation if we were not lost. You can't save something that hasn't been lost. The salvation provided by the blood of Christ is the only fact that is constructive, redemptive, and recreative.

THIRD—The stubborn fact of depraved, lost human nature. This great entity known as sinful man cannot be improved by external processes; he cannot be redeemed by education or evolution, or any other of the delusions. He can be saved only by the regenerating act of the Holy Ghost.

It is the duty of the church and of every minister of the gospel to preach the awfulness of sin, the absolute certainty and power of salvation, the judgment that awaits the unrepentant, and to denounce with all the power possible the hellish delusion that the world is growing better.

Awake! Strike! Preach! And reach the unsaved, for they are growing worse—not better.

Poem by UNCLE JOHN

My little niece has bobbed her hair—which makes her look a trifle queer about her upper story. . . . For she was mighty well supplied with what we call the woman's pride, in fact, her crownin' glory. . . . I couldn't say that she's improved, by whackin' off the curls I loved—BOBBED it makes her look so sassy! But—when she had 'em off a spell, she may look sweeter—who can tell?—or, mebbe, twice as classy!

PROMINENT ATTORNEY DIES IN SAN FRANCISCO

Albert Raymond, prominent lawyer of San Francisco and for many years attorney for the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company, died in San Francisco today (Thursday). Mr. Raymond was a member of the firm of Lillenthal, McKinstry, Raymond, Haber & Firebaugh, and was prominent in business and social circles in San Francisco.

Not only are you "never too old to learn," but when you are unwilling to learn, it's a sure sign you are very old or are eighteen.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY for 1922

WHEN you get a sliver in your finger it's likely to cause trouble if it's left there. As a matter of fact, after a time old mother nature sooner or later will force it out whether it likes it or not. It just don't belong there. One way or another it's got to get back to where it came from.

CAN COOK HAM AND CABBAGE

American Queen of Beauty for 1922 Knows Kitchen

Ohio Girl's Triumph

SPECIAL TO THE ENTERPRISE
By Robert Fuller
Autocaster Service

Atlantic City, N. J.—Being beautiful does not take all of one's time. One can be beautiful and still be quite intimate with kitchen utensils. Mary Katherine Campbell of Columbus, Ohio, says so—and Mary ought to know.

Miss Campbell is a 16-year-old school girl and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Campbell. She has just been crowned Queen of American Beauty for 1922. She prides herself that she can cook a well-seasoned dish of ham and cabbage.

Miss Campbell was picked as America's most beautiful girl from a group of 170 prize winners representing as many different towns and cities in the United States.

The competition was the annual Beauty Pageant at Atlantic City. She was entered as Miss Columbus.

Her Ideal Man

Miss Campbell is a wholesome, mid-Western miss just out of high school. She swims, rides, dances and helps mother cook. She is 5 feet 5 inches in height and weighs 133 pounds.

Marriage, she blushing admits, is at least four years away—although she confessed seven proposals already.

The man of her dreams—well, he should be tall, slightly interested in athletics, good-humored, and not too handsome. He can be either rich or poor—if she loves him.

New American Type

Coles Phillips, famous American illustrator and artist, and one of the judges in the contest, said of Miss Campbell:

"Years ago the nation was thrilled by the so-called Gibson Girl. In the last few years two types of beauty have usurped her place. These are the type that Flo Ziegfeld has exploited, and the Mary Pickford type. "Neither of these girls in my opinion really typifies the American girl. Instead I should say she more nearly approximates Miss Campbell's appearance. The type I mean is rather tall, with straight lines, broad shoulders, a free swing to her body, and a clear, intelligent face. She is rather athletic.

PRETTIEST GIRL IN UNITED STATES

Mary Katherine Campbell, of Columbus, Ohio, was crowned National Beauty Queen for 1922 in the Annual Pageant at Atlantic City. She is 16 years old, 5 feet 5 inches in height, and weighs 133 pounds. She swims, rides, dances—and goes to school. She triumphed over 170 other American beauty winners from as many different towns and cities in the U. S.

"As a matter of fact, measurements mean really nothing. Proportion is much more important. At any rate, the type I have described is seen to the highest degree in Miss Campbell. Artists, by the way, say that the type is produced most generally in the Middle West. The beauties were judged from three points—in evening gown, bathing suit and general appearance."

TWO WANTED FOR BEATING MAN GIVE THEMSELVES UP

Joseph Cucchi and Reno Trevagrino, two men for whom a warrant was issued by Judge W. J. Smith last week charging them with beating and seriously injuring Victor Trevagrino, brother of one of the two, appeared before Judge Smith voluntarily this week. He placed them under $2000 bonds pending their hearing. The beating of Trevagrino occurred at a saloon in Millbrae about two weeks ago, and the man spent several days in the hospital as a result of injuries received.

OLDSMOBILE POWER

It is gratifying to a motorist to know that his car has power and plenty of it. And that is one of the most notable features of the performance of the Oldsmobile Four—its proven power.

But it is a good car to own for many other reasons—its beauty of line and smart appearance; its speed, when needed; its known economy and its absolute reliability.

You can't make a mistake when you invest in an Oldsmobile!

COMPLAINS ABOUT POOR TELEPHONE SERVICE

Editor Enterprise: I am taking my pen in hand to complain about the poor telephone service we get in this city. It may be as poor in other places, too. Of that I cannot judge, but at least I know it is poor enough here. My telephone has been out of order most of the time for two weeks. I have to pay the service charge whether I have a usable telephone or not, so I am simply out the money this two weeks has cost me. There are other things about the service that might be mentioned, such as slowness of connections, etc., but I for one would try to put up with everything else, exasperating as it might be, if only my phone were kept in order.

Yours truly,
PRO BONO PUBLICO.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS BOOK REVIEW BY LIBRARIAN

The South San Francisco Woman's Club held its first meeting of the season last Thursday afternoon at Metropolitan Hall, the executive committee acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Caroline Coffinberry, local librarian, gave a book review which proved both valuable and interesting. It is planned by the club to have Mrs. Coffinberry give a similar review of new literature each month. A class in current events is also being planned for. The club, at a request from the California Federation of Clubs, endorsed the Wright act, the soldiers' bonus bill and the community property law. At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in October.

AIRPLANE EXPRESS FROM S. F. TO THE VALLEY

Airplane express became a fact Wednesday when the Pacific States Express filed with the Railroad Commission tariffs and schedules for such service between San Francisco and Modesto. This is the first service of its kind in this state and the second in the United States, according to the promoters. Varney planes will be used and the service will start with one round trip daily. It is planned to extend air delivery to Stockton and Fresno. The rate is given as 35 cents a pound or fraction thereof, with a minimum charge of $1. The company plans to carry chiefly emergency matters, specializing in auto and machinery parts.

REMEMBER BROWN is not a QUITTER

To benefit the two incumbent candidates for Justice of the Peace—no doubt—I have been ORDERED to "Lay Down."

For the honor of my family and my loyalty to the 798 friends who voluntarily and so splendidly gave me the Nomination at the Primary, Aug. 29, 1922, in spite of the tremendous influence against me, I WILL NOT QUIT—win or lose.

The enormity of this effort to control the Judiciary, the only protection the people have, is of the most vital interest to every good citizen of California. Very respectfully,
J. L. BROWN.

THE SPIRIT OF '22-'23

There is nothing better in a school than what we call class spirit. The school that possesses it will never be satisfied to lag behind, either in scholarship, which is of course the most important, or school activities, which are good for us physically. Therefore let us get together and do everything we can to keep up that spirit for the honor of our school.

Now is the time to start, as this is the beginning of a new school term.

LOW FRESHMEN CLASS

The low freshmen class held its first meeting Tuesday, September 20th, for the purpose of choosing class officers.

The following were elected: Everett Rolif, president; Dorothy Hein, vice-president; Dora Cattalini, secretary; Georgian Knock, treasurer; James Dunn and Lois Aylsworth, executive board; Myrtle James, Blue and White reporter.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

A regular meeting of the Girls' League was called to order on Wednesday afternoon by President Lillah Brown.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted.

A vigilance committee, composed of a representative from each class, is to try to eliminate petty pilfering which has been taking place in the high school.

A letter was read from the Girls' League of San Mateo high school, inviting our league to be present at a meeting of the leagues of the bay counties which is to be held at their high school.

It was decided that an album should be kept of the activities of the league.

The question of pins was brought up and a committee will be appointed to look into the same.

4th of the Seven Points of Supremacy "Heavy Soles"

The Heavy Grain Leather Soles Give Longer Wear

The heavy outsoles on Edmonds "Foot-Fitter" Shoes are cut from over-weight oak leather—the best that can be bought. They are tough and staunch yet pliable enough to let you walk naturally. You will find that it is almost impossible to wear them through.

Even the insoles are cut from outside leather which is 40 per cent heavier than generally found in other makes of shoes. There is practically half an inch of solid leather between your feet and the sidewalk.

You will find that you will get greater shoe mileage from "Foot-Fitters" than you have been accustomed to from other makes. At the same time you will enjoy perfect fit, comfort and conservative style. A visit to our store will mean a saving on your shoe bill. Come in any time.

Check the Costs

Know How Much You Save by Painting Now to Save Repairs

COMPARE the prices of lumber and paint. They will show you how expensive it is to let buildings rot for lack of the protection of paint.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of valuable buildings are wasting today at a rapid rate, because they have not been painted when they needed it. Paint now. Save repairs.

The utmost economy in painting results from the use of a high quality product at the time it is needed. The best paint spreads easily—it saves labor cost. It covers a larger area per gallon than "cheap" paint.

But most important, the best paint serves five or more years longer than "cheap" paint.

It's economy, then, to paint when your property needs it—without delay—and to use the best paint.

The best paints are scientific in formula and preparation. We've made them for 73 years—to meet the weather conditions in the West.

The best materials—PIONEER WHITE LEAD, pure linseed oil, pure zinc and pure colors—are combined in Fuller's Paints in scientifically exact proportions with long-time skill.

PALESTINE

Where the Children of Israel Crossed the Jordan.

(Prepared by the National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C.)

Palestine, home of Christianity, the British mandate for which has just been formally approved by the council of the League of Nations, has probably never been better described than by the late Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States. In a communication to the National Geographic Society, he wrote of the Holy Land as follows:

Palestine is a tiny little country. Though the traveler's handbooks prepare him to find it small, it surprises him by being smaller than he expected. Taking it as the region between the Mediterranean on the west and the Jordan and Dead sea on the east, from the spurs of Lebanon and Hermon on the north to the desert at Beersheba on the south, it is only 110 miles long and from 50 to 60 broad—that is to say, it is smaller than New Jersey, whose area is 7,500 square miles.

Of this region large parts did not really belong to ancient Israel. Their hold on the southern and northern districts was but slight, while in the southwest a wide, rich plain along the Mediterranean was occupied by the warlike Philistines, who were sometimes more than a match for the Hebrew armies. Israel had, in fact, little more than the hill country, which lay between the Jordan on the east and the maritime plain on the west. King David, in the days of his power, looked down from the hill cities of Benjamin, just north of Jerusalem, upon Philistine enemies only 25 miles off, on the one side, and looked across the Jordan to Moabite enemies about as far off on the other.

Nearly all the events in the history of Israel that are recorded in the Old Testament happened within a territory no bigger than the state of Connecticut, whose area is 4,800 square miles; and into hardly any other country has there been crowded from the days of Abraham till our own so much history—that is to say, so many events that have been recorded and deserve to be recorded in the annals of mankind.

Its Smallness is Visible.

Nor is it only that Palestine is really a small country. The traveler constantly feels as he moves about that it is a small country. From the heights a few miles north of Jerusalem he sees, looking northward, a far-off summit carrying snow for eight months in the year. It is Hermon, nearly 10,000 feet high—Hermon, whose fountains feed the rivers of Damascus. But Hermon is outside the territory of Israel altogether, standing in the land of the Syrians; so, too, it is of Lebanon. We are apt to think of that mountain mass as within the country, because it is also frequently mentioned in the Psalms and the Prophets, but the two ranges of Lebanon also rise beyond the frontiers of Israel, lying between the Syrians of Damascus and the Phoenicians of the West.

Palestine is a country poor in any natural resources. There are practically no minerals, no coal, no iron, no copper, no silver, though recently some oil has been discovered in the Jordan valley. Neither are there any large forests, and though the land may have been better wooded in the days of Joshua than it is now, there is little reason to think that the woods were of trees sufficiently large to constitute a source of wealth. A comparatively small area is fit for tillage.

To an Arab tribe that had wandered through a barren wilderness for 40 weary years, Canaan may well have seemed a delightful possession; but many a county in Iowa, many a department in France, could raise more grain or wine than all the Holy Land.

There is one stretch of fertile, level land 20 miles long and from 3 to 6 miles wide—the Plain of Esdraelon. But with this exception it is only in the bottoms and on the lower slopes of a few valleys, chiefly in the territory of Ephraim from Bethel northward and along the shores of the Bay of Acre, that one sees cornfields and olive yards and orchards. Little wine is now grown.

Such wealth as the country has consists in its pastures, and the expression "a land flowing with milk and honey" appropriately describes the best it has to offer, for sheep and goats can thrive on the thin herbage that covers the hills, and the numerous aromatic plants furnish plenty of excellent food for the bees; but it is nearly all thin pasture, for the land is dry and the soil mostly shallow. The sheep and goats vastly outnumber the oxen. Woody Bashan, on the east side of Jordan, is still the region where one must look for the strong bulls.

Palestine is not a beautiful country. The classical scholar finds charms everywhere in Greece, a land consecrated to him by the genius of poets and philosophers, although a great part of Greece is painfully dry and bare. So, too, the traveler who brings a mind suffused by reverence and piety to spots hallowed by religious associations sees the landscapes of the Holy Land through a golden haze that makes them lovely. But the scenery of the Holy Land, taken as a whole, is inferior, both in form and in color, to that of northern and middle Italy, to that of Norway and Scotland, to that of the coasts of Asia Minor, to that of many parts of California and Washington.

The hills are flat-topped ridges, with a monotonous sky line, very few of them showing any distinctive shape. Not a peak anywhere, and Tabor the only summit recognizable by its form. They are all composed of gray or reddish-gray limestone, bare of wood, and often too stony for tillage. Between the stones or piles or rock there are low shrubs, and in the few weeks of spring masses of brilliant flowers give rich hues to the landscape; but for the rest of the year all is gray or brown. The grass is withered away or is scorched brown, and scarcely any foliage is seen on the tops or upper slopes of the rolling hills. It is only in some of the valleys that one finds villages nestling among olive groves and orchards where plums and peach and almond blossoms make spring lovely.

Few Wells and Springs.

Arid indeed is the land. The traveler says with the psalmist: "My soul longs in a dry, parched land, wherein no water is." Wells are few, springs still fewer, and of brooks there are practically none, for the stony channels at the bottom of the gullies have no water except after a winter rain-storm. There may probably have been a more copious rainfall 20 or 30 centuries ago, when more woods clothed the hillsides, and the country would then have been more pleasing to Northern eyes, to which mountains are dear because rills make music and green boughs wave in the wind.

To this general description there are certain exceptions which must not be forgotten. The high ridge of Mount Carmel rises grandly from the sea, and on its land side breaks down in bold declivities and deep gullies upon the valley through which the Kishon, an almost perennial stream, finds its way to the Bay of Acre. Here, upon the slopes of a long ridge, on the other side of the Kishon, there is a wilder-ling forest of ancient holm oaks, all the more beautiful because it is the one considerable stretch of natural wood in the whole country west of Jordan.

If Palestine is not a land of natural wealth nor a land of natural beauty, what is it? What are the impressions which the traveler who tries to see it exactly as it is carries away with him? Roughly summed up, they are these: Stones, caves, tombs, ruins, battlefields, sites hallowed by traditions—all bathed in an atmosphere of legend and marvel.

Never was there a country, not being an absolute desert, so stony. The hillsides seem one mass of loose rocks, larger or smaller. The olive yards and vineyards are full of stones. Even the cornfields (except in the alluvial soil of the plain of Esdraelon and along the sandy coast) seem to have more pebbles than earth, so that one wonders how crops so good as one sometimes sees can spring up. Caves are everywhere, for limestone is the prevailing rock, and it is the rock in which the percolation of rain makes clefts and hollows and caverns most frequent.

Father—That's a cow, sonny.
"And what's that on his head?"
"Those are horns."
They turned around and the cow moored.
Boy—Which horn did he blow then, dad?

Not Knicker, Our Guess.
"She has refused my suit!" the hero on the stage exclaimed dramatically.
"Mother," loudly whispered a little boy in the audience, "what does he want her to wear his clothes for?"

Yes, Indeed.
"The new neighbors are certainly up to the minute."
"Why?"
"They sent in this afternoon to borrow our radio set."

ENTERPRISE AD BRINGS VERY PROMPT RESULTS Mrs. Caroline Coffinberry, librarian at the local public library, has always been a diligent reader of The Enterprise and one of this newspaper's warmest friends. Lately she became an enthusiastic booster for its want ad column and the results that a little want ad brings forth. Recently Mrs. Coffinberry put a little advertisement in the want ad column to the effect that a certain book had disappeared from the library and its return would be much appreciated. Within a few days after the appearance of the little ad the missing book suddenly appeared again on a shelf in the library where it had been placed by the person who had been holding it. In the meantime, the popular librarian states, many persons spoke to her about seeing the ad in The Enterprise. Certainly it pays to make your wants known through The Enterprise. Ask Mrs. Coffinberry. She has had indisputable proof.

LARGE DAMAGES AWARDED AGAINST INSURANCE COMPANY

The auto accident in which Ray Doty was killed on the highway near Tanforan, April 22, 1921, gave rise to a lawsuit against the International Indemnity Company in which a judgment for $17,500 was awarded to Daniel Doty, the dead youth's father. The judgment was given by Judge G. H. Cabaniss of San Francisco Saturday. The driver of the death car was Victor Seller.

The company had insured A. Victor Seller against automobile accidents. Seller's machine collided with the Doty car, killing Roy Doty and severely injuring his mother, Mrs. Elsie Doty. A third car, property of M. A. Lyons, 444 Fourth avenue, San Francisco, in which the Lyons family was riding, was also badly damaged, but its occupants escaped unhurt.

Seller was arrested and charged with manslaughter, also with driving an automobile while intoxicated. He was tried in Judge George H. Buck's court at Redwood City and found guilty of manslaughter by the jury, and not guilty on the intoxication charge.

The case has been appealed, and Seller is at liberty on bonds. The insurance company refused to pay Doty's claim, contending that Seller was intoxicated. Judge Cabaniss held, however, that Seller's acquittal on the charge after trial before a jury was sufficient proof that he was not intoxicated, and ordered the company to pay Doty the sum of $17,500.

BABY DIES FROM BURNS RECEIVED IN AUTO CRASH

Margaret Macauley, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Macauley, 667 Howard street, San Francisco, died at the Mills Memorial Hospital Friday afternoon from burns received in an accident near San Bruno early Thursday morning of last week, when the boiler of a steam automobile in which she was riding with her parents exploded, following a collision with an auto truck.

Mrs. Macauley, mother of the child, was scalded by the explosion, which occurred when the Macauley car struck the rear end of a truck belonging to the San Francisco-San Jose Produce Transportation Company, it was reported. The accident happened on the San Francisco highway near "Portuguese Hill," according to police reports.
