REPORT OF THE COUNCIL.

AS READ AT THE ANNUAL MEETING, FEBRUARY 21ST, 1887.

THE Council of the Zoological & Acclimatisation Society has the honor to submit its twenty-third Annual Report to the subscribers.

The past year has again been one of progress. It was mentioned in last year's Report that it was intended to send the Assistant Director to England and the Continent for fresh attractions. He returned to the Colony in August, having been very successful in his purchases, and sent or brought out a pair of Wapiti Deer, a pair of Llamas, a Guanaco, a Tapir, a Mouflon, a pair of Zebras, several trotting Cattle from Ceylon, a pair of Yaks, a pair of Ibex, several pairs of curious Goats, a pair of Viscachás, and a number of Birds, he also purchased a pair of Bactrian double-humped Camels, but these are still to arrive, and are shortly expected. Other purchases have been made from time to time from vessels arriving from Singapore, the last being four pairs of beautiful Crowned Goura Pigeons, from New Guinea, a pair of Cassowaries, and a Tangalung. It will be seen that the Society's collection is yearly increasing and extending, and no opportunity will be lost to further add to its interest. It has been stated that the aim of the Council and the Directors is to make the Melbourne Zoological Gardens the equal and the friendly rival of the splendid garden of a similar character to be found in many of the great cities of Europe and America, and the Council is glad to report that they are steadily advancing in that direction. During the past few months a substantial and well arranged reptile-house has been erected; a very ornamental rockery and pond has also been constructed opposite the bear house; the new Refreshment Room has been enlarged and improved; and the old Refreshment Room near the main gates has been added to and converted into a milk-house, where fresh milk from the cow can be obtained at a small charge; and a new and commodious shed has been erected on the Elephant walk. The improvements effected during the past year have been of a permanent character, as well as ornamental.

The Continental Concerts, under the same management as last season, have been again continued. The music, under Mr. Siede's direction, is excellent, and visitors are loud in their praise, but still on the whole the attendance has so far been rather disappointing.

Steps will be taken in view of the intended International Exhibition to be held in Melbourne next year to make the Gardens as attractive as possible, especially with regard to the Fauna of Australia, which it is intended to increase. A varied and well arranged collection of the Australian Fauna will have a great interest to European visitors. It is also intended before the opening of the Exhibition to re-establish the Native Encampment in the Gardens, as such an exhibit will be interesting to the many scientific men who will doubtless visit the Colonies next year. All the details of the encampment of the aborigines who possessed the country where Melbourne now stands when the white men first arrived will be faithfully carried out.

During the year about 80,000 full tickets have been sold at the gates, which, including children, would give an attendance for the year of over 100,000. The attendance on Sunday being free, still continues very large, and probably reaches 200,000 in the year or a total of over 300,000 visitors.

It is fully expected that when the Brunswick and Coburg tramway, with a Branch to the Gardens is finished and at work, that there will be a large accession of visitors to the Gardens as at present there is some little inconvenience in reaching them, especially on public holidays. The completion of the Clifton Hill Railway line, will, it is hoped also be the means of increasing the numbers of visitors as it will not only bring a new district into communication with the Gardens, but it will largely increase the number of trains from Spencer Street Station.

The work of Acclimatisation in the past year has been principally confined to the distribution of Trout. Sir Samuel Wilson's agent, Mr. Archibald Fischen, was good enough to present the Society with the large amount of 13,000 fry, these together with some hatched at the Zoological Gardens from Tasmanian ova has enabled the Society to distribute 16,000.

The following is a list of the rivers and creeks stocked last season, and the number of fry placed in each:—

The Avon River	3,600	...	Gippsland Streams.
Tyers River	900	...	Do. do.
Morwell River	600	...	Do. do.
Macalister River	600	...	Do. do.

16,000

The Council desires to cordially thank the retiring President, the Honble. C. J. Jenner, for his services during his term of office; and also the Honry. Treasurer, Mr. Purchas. The Council desires to recognise the valuable services rendered to the Society by the Director and Assistant Director. The Honry. Prosector, Mr. A. H. S. Lucas, and the Honry. Veterinary Surgeon, Mr. T. Kendall, have, as usual, been very attentive to the duties pertaining to their respective offices.

The Society has lost several valuable animals by death during the past year—a Tapir, three Orang-utans, a young Lioness and an Ostrich being the most valuable. The mortality in the Melbourne Gardens, although considerable, is much below that which takes place in European Zoological Gardens, where the stock has to be kept in artificially heated houses all the long winter through.

The meeting will now have to elect a President, two vice Presidents and an Hon. Treasurer for the ensuing year.

Messrs. Godfrey, Ryan, and Bruce being the three members who have attended the fewest number of meetings therefore retire, but are eligible for re-election.

The Balance-sheets for the year, audited by Messrs. Langton and Holmes, are laid before the meeting, and show the receipts to have been, including Bank Balance of £1,485, on 1st January—£6,518 9s. 10d. and the expenditure £7,217 3s. 7d.

The officers for the ensuing year were then elected with the following result:—President, C. M. Officer, Esq., M.P.; Vice Presidents, the Hon. C. J. Jenner, G. Bruce, Esq.; Hon. Treasurer, Albert Purchas, Esq.; Members of Council, F. R. Godfrey, Esq.; C. Ryan, Esq. were re-elected.
