STRANDING OF MONTEREY.

The Captain's Certificate Has Been Suspended for Six Months.

London, Nov. 28.—The board of trade inquiry into the stranding of the British steamer Monterey off the Island of Magellan on July 15th, has resulted in the suspension of Capt. William's certificate for six months, the ground being that he failed to verify the position of the Monterey by the use of the lead line, and continued going ahead at full speed in a dense fog.

Professor Girard, geologist, and three other French officials have visited the Soufrière volcano. They found the crater steaming only through fissures and the lake quiet.

Cripple Creek, Col., Nov. 28.—The coroner's jury has returned a verdict to the effect that it is unable to determine the cause of the explosion in the Vindicator mine last Friday, in which Supt. McCormick and Shift Boss Beck lost their lives. After the verdict was announced the Elks Lodge of Cripple Creek offered a reward of $500 for the conviction of the persons responsible for the explosion. McCormick was a member of the Elks Lodge.

GOVERNMENT'S PLAN INCREASES TAXES

Railway Assessments Increased Over Three-Fold--Rebates for Timber Manufactured Into Lumber in Province.

The government yesterday afternoon introducing the financial bills to increase provided the means of ascertaining the general policy of the ministry respecting the question of the finances. The bills will require careful consideration by the members, and an explanation of the working of them before the changes can be fully ascertained.

The method of reducing the financial distress, about which so much has been said, is set forth in the first place by the bill providing for the borrowing of $1,000,000. It is proposed to do this by the sale of debentures bearing interest at not more than 5 per cent. Out of the general revenue 10 per cent. of the amount is to be set aside annually for ten years, for the purpose of redemption. At the end of ten years the whole amount of the debentures shall have been repaid.

The money so borrowed is to be applied as follows, according to the bill: The repayment of money advances obtained by way of overdraft from any bank within the province, exclusive of any overdraft specially arranged for on "dying account"; the completion of the New Westminster bridge, and for such other requirements of the government as may be authorized.

The new assessment act contains sufficient food for several study. There is considerable in it which is entirely as it was before; considerable readjustment has taken place, and there is likewise considerable which is new.

Under the new act, among the exemptions is that of income up to $1,000, as in the old. Personal property, including household effects, etc., is to be exempted from taxation up to $1,000, instead of $800 as formerly.

The new schedule of general taxation is given as follows:

On Real Estate—One per cent. on the assessed value of real estate other than wild land.

On Wild Land—Three per cent. on the assessed value of wild land.

On Personal Property—One per cent. on the assessed value of all personal property.

On Income—On so much of the income of every person (subject to the deductions allowed in this act and in the schedule of forms to this act) as exceeds one thousand dollars within the following classifications: upon such excess the rates shall be as follows, namely:

Class A—On one thousand dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars, one and one-half per cent. up to five thousand dollars, and two and one-half per cent. on the next five thousand dollars.

Class B—On ten thousand dollars; and not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, two and one-half per cent. up to ten thousand dollars, and three per cent. on the next ten thousand dollars.

Class C—On twenty thousand dollars, and upwards, three per cent. up to twenty thousand dollars, and three and one-half per cent. on the remainder.

Provided always, that if the above taxes are paid on or before the 30th day of June in each year, but not otherwise, the assessor or collector is hereby authorized to allow to every taxpayer a discount at the rate of ten per cent upon the amount so paid by him for the current year's taxes only. All arrears must be paid in full without discount.

Under the old act the taxes were collected under the following schedule:

On Real Estate—Four-fifths of one per cent. on the assessed value of real estate other than wild land.

On Wild Land—Three per cent. on the assessed value of wild land.

On Personal Property—Three-quarters of one per cent. on the assessed value of personal property.

On Income—On so much of the income of any person as exceeds one thousand dollars in accordance with the following classifications: upon such excess the rates shall be as follows:

Class A—On one thousand dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars, one and one-half per cent. up to five thousand dollars, and two and one-half per cent. on the remainder.

Class B—On ten thousand dollars; and not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, two and one-half per cent. up to ten thousand dollars, and three per cent. on the next ten thousand dollars.

Class C—On twenty thousand dollars, and upwards, three per cent. up to twenty thousand dollars, and three and one-half per cent. on the remainder.

Provided always, that if the above taxes are paid on or before the 30th day of June in each year, but not otherwise, the assessor or collector is hereby authorized to allow to every taxpayer a discount at the rate of ten per cent upon the amount so paid by him for the current year's taxes only. to and operated from each separate opening, tunnel or shaft of a coal mine, and shall be limited to an acre not exceeding ten acres for every one thousand tons of coal taken annually therefrom, and upon which taxes payable under this act have been paid in each year."

The new Railway Assessment Act provides for a rate on the leases, or the taxation of these transportation companies. While under the present act the assessment of the railway companies is fixed at $3,000 per mile of track, under the new proposal it will be increased to $7,000 a mile.

Every railway company is to be liable for the taxes fixed under the Assessment Act upon the assessed value of its property.

It is also provided that the railway companies shall be liable for the taxes levied under the Assessment Act upon lands held under the Land Grant or Subsidy Act of the province.

Street railways operated by electricity are to be exempted.

The amendments to the Land Act deal with the subject of timber. One feature of it is an increase in the annual rental of 10 cents an acre. This, however, is subject to a reduction to the old figure of 15 cents upon the lumber being manufactured on the property. The section reads in part as follows:

"Leases of unpre-empted crown timber lands may be offered to public competition, and may be granted by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to the person or corporation who has tendered the highest cash bid for a period not to exceed twenty-one years for the purpose of cutting sales timber lumber subject to the payment of a royalty of fifty cents per thousand feet of lumber cut on the state measurement of the logs cut, on the leased premises, and to the payment in advance of an amount equivalent of twenty-five cents per acre. Provided, that when the lessee shall be the owner of a properly equipped sawmill appurtenant to the leasehold and capable of cutting not less than one thousand feet of lumber in inch boards per day of twelve hours for each and every four hundred acres of land included in each lease, and shall keep such sawmill running for at least six months in every year, entitling not less than the said capacity, the annual rental shall be reduced to 15 cents an acre."

The new act has increased the stated taxes on real estate and on personal property, but a ten per cent. reduction is made for those paying before June 30th. The general trend of the new bill is to increase the taxes, but in some instances five cents per acre. Provided, that when the lessee shall be the owner of a properly equipped sawmill appurtenant to the leasehold and capable of cutting not less than one thousand feet of lumber in inch boards per day of twelve hours for each and every four hundred acres of land included in each lease, and shall keep such sawmill running for at least six months in every year, entitling not less than the said capacity, the annual rental shall be reduced to 15 cents an acre."

The bill in this particular aims at reducing the abuses in connection with foreign mill men towing logs out of the province for cutting into lumber.

Special timber leases for logging purposes will not be granted for more than 640 acres, to be granted for not more than five years at the following rates: One year, $100; two years, $120; three years, $140; four years, $160; and five years, $180. Provision is made for the collection of a royalty of fifty cents a thousand board measurement and 25 cents a cord for wood.

Another clause in the same measure will have its effect upon timber lands in the railway belt on this island, as it provides for a tax on all timber cut in the province except those on which a royalty is paid. This tax varies according to length and diameter up to 24 inches. On grade one it varies from $2 to $4 a thousand. On grade two from $1.50 to $3; and on grade three from $1 to $2.50. For logs over 24 inches in diameter and up to 48 inches, there is an additional tax varying in the first grade from 20 cents to $1.50; on grade two from 15 cents to 25 cents to 75 cents.

On piles, poles and curbs timbers there is a tax of one cent a foot to 2½ cents, and on piles of over 12 inches diameter from $2 to $4 a thousand. It manufactured in the province this tax also is remitted, excepting one-quarter of a cent a foot. On shingle bolts, the tax is $1 a cord, with a rebate of 20 cents if manufactured in the province.

It is provided under this section affecting royalties and taxes that "Artificialers" who are pre-emptors of crown lands, who have occupied their pre-emption claims for two years, who have had the said claim surveyed, and who have taken out certificates of improvement, shall be exempt from payment of royalty or tax upon cordwood cut from their pre-emption claims for sale."

The bill will afford the opportunity for probably the most interesting part of the debate in the legislature this year.

BOARD DISCUSSED SEALING INDUSTRY

A LIVELY MEETING HELD LAST EVENING

Question of Company Selling Out Its Interests Came in for Much Debate.

Debate on the subject of the sealing industry grew exceedingly warm at the special meeting of the board of trade last night. The motion before the meeting was as follows:

That this board is of opinion that no time should be lost in impressing upon the provincial government the necessity of safeguarding the citizens' interests, and should express in no uncertain terms against the company's proposal giving up its rights which would tend to the partial or total abolition of the rights of sealing to British subjects.

A. J. Morley spoke at some length to the resolution. He argued that the suspension of the industry for ten or twelve years on the strength of a proposition to buy out present vested interests would mean the breaking up of the business. He referred to certain advances made by the Americans to secure the business; to the secrecy of the negotiations, which he characterized as dangerous to the public welfare; considered the Federal government was not sufficiently alive to the value of the industry; that the board of trade had not been sufficiently vigilant in the past; and that on no consideration should the citizens allow the industry to pass wholly out of their possession. Mr. Morley then moved the motion mentioned.

C. Spencer seconded the resolution, and wished to emphasize the importance of the sealing trade to retailers. As was known the Americans would stop at nothing, and everything should be done to keep the industry flourishing.

Mr. Morley then rose to have the following amendment substituted for his motion:

Whereas the Victoria B. C. Board of Trade has reason to believe that powerful interests are in sympathy and character being brought to bear upon the Imperial and Dominion governments to secure the abolition of pelagic sealing under the British flag;

That whereas the sealing industry being of great importance as a source of revenue to the city of Victoria, its abolition would prove a serious blow to the business interests of the city;

Be it therefore resolved, That the Victoria B. C. Board of Trade does hereby urge upon the Imperial, Dominion and Provincial governments the greatest necessity of taking steps to prevent any party from securing the sealing industry, and that this board most earnestly protests against consideration being given to any proposal whatever that shall tend toward the abolition of the rights of sealing.

It further resolved, That copies of this preamble and resolution be sent to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, to the colonial secretary of the Imperial government, to the Hon. Richard McBride, and to each Victoria member of the Canadian Parliament, to the governments, and that the Provincial government be urged to do all in its power to further safeguard the interests of Victoria and the province.

J. J. Shalross proposed, "we had an amendment on the order paper which should take precedence."

His amendment was as follows:

The words following the word "that" he omitted from the preamble read, "and the following words substituted, 'this meeting endorses the action of the council in supporting the petition of the Victoria Sealing Company, and that the further consideration of the sealing question be adjourned until the end of the year.'

The motion being left to the meeting Mr. Morley's amendment for consideration was carried by a large majority.

Mr. Shalross spoke at some length on his amendment. He contended that the government of Ottawa had every information on the sealing business; as it had time and again sent out experts to investigate and study it. He considered, therefore, if it were ill-advised to discuss in public detail a company's business when negotiations were going on. Mr. Shalross was going beyond the subject matter before the meeting.

The chairman thought that Mr. Shalross had a right to use any argument he might see fit.

D. W. Higgins maintained that Mr. Shalross' point was well taken.

After some further discussion Mr.

Baby Costs Too Much

When the price paid is the mother's health and happiness. The father doesn't realize as he romps with the child what years of wifely suffering must be set against the baby's laughter.

Chronic invalidism is a high price to pay for the painful joy of maternity, yet it is at such a cost that many a woman becomes a mother. Such a price is too much, because it is more than nature asks.

By the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription maternity is made practically painless, and a quick convalescence is assured in almost every case.

"I am pleased to give you my best regards and wish I could find words strong enough to express my thanks to you for referring to me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

writes Mrs. Wesley Guy of Victoria, Box 6. "For eight years after my little boy was born I suffered with female weakness also soreness in ovaries, especially on my right side, and I suffered from constipation. I did not know what I was going to do. Tried several doctors, but derived no benefit until I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Had great relief and strength. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Antiseptic and Healing Substances, when I first used them, were so helpful. If anyone wishes to write me I am glad to do so."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss; therefore, accept no substitute.

MURDERS AND ROBBERIES.

Bandits Added to List of Victims Before Surrendering to Police.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Chained wrists to wrist, their hair matted with dried blood, their clothing covered with dust and dirt, two boys, Peter Niedermair and Harvey Vandyne, sat tonight, in the presence of Mayor Harrison and Chief of Police O'Neill, calmly confessing to their share in a three months' career of crime which has included nine murders, the wounding of five other men and a long series of robberies.

The two young bandits, neither of whom is over 21 years of age, told their companion, Emil Roessi, who is older, were captured near Liverpool, Ind., to-day after a fight in which they fought against policemen, railroad detectives, railroad laborers and farmers. One man was killed, another fatally injured, and all three of the young bandits were wounded.

The three were wanted by the police for complicity in the murders at the Chicago car barns of the Chicago City Railroad Company, on August 30th, when two men were killed, a third badly wounded and $2,250 stolen from the company. Gustave Marx, who last Saturday night murdered Officer John Quinn when the policeman endeavored to place him under arrest, confessed after his capture that he is company with three men had committed the crimes at the car barns.

Word was brought to the police last night that men answering the description of Vandyne, Niedermair and Roessi were living in a dugout.

M. Higgins asked for more time to consider the matter. Things had been brought out in the debate which he did not know before. He, therefore, moved the adjournment of the debate to December 4th.

E. V. Bowdell, who arrived late, thought the question too important a one to be decided hastily. To him now the whole matter resolved itself into this: Would it be best in view of a good arrangement being reached for the company to sell out its rights for the temporary cessation of the industry, or would it be better that the sentimental view of continuing it for the reasons offered should prevail?

Mr. Higgins asked for more time to consider the matter. Things had been brought out in the debate which he did not know before. He, therefore, moved the adjournment of the debate to December 4th.

E. V. Bowdell, who arrived late, thought the question too important a one to be decided hastily. To him now the whole matter resolved itself into this: Would it be best in view of a good arrangement being reached for the company to sell out its rights for the temporary cessation of the industry, or would it be better that the sentimental view of continuing it for the reasons offered should prevail?

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE

GOVERNMENT BILLS ARE BROUGHT DOWN

He also was glad that there were no labor troubles in the province. He represented a constituency of laboring men, and he wished to serve them. They should seek to harmonize the interests of labor and capital in every way, and uphold British Columbia. He wished to see that the adjustment of differences between the provinces and the Dominion were being settled with little friction. It reflected much to the credit of the members of the local government that this condition existed.

Referring to the Alaskan boundary question, he said that its solution had brought up the necessity for a northern railway. It might, therefore, be a blessing in disguise, and that while the award might not have been perfectly agreeable to all, yet it might result in the building of this much-needed railway, and therefore be for the advantage of British Columbia.

He congratulated the government upon its immigration acts being so successful in the direction intended.

In concluding, he called for united action on the part of the opposition and the independent members in the efforts which the government were putting forth to settle financial matters.

Jas. A. Macdonald, amid applause, moved the adjournment of the debate. The motion carried.

Second Reading.

The amendment to the Evidence Act, introduced by the Attorney-General, was read a second time, and will be committed at the next sitting of the House.

Government Bills.

The Minister of Finance announced a message from His Honor, to the effect that the financial policy of the administration gives the members an opportunity to consider them before the House meets again on Monday. These assist to explain the policy alluded to in the speech, and will form the basis for probably the most interesting part of the debate of the present session. With these bills in the hands of the members the debate on the address may become a very exciting one.

The bill was reported to the House and read a first time.

Following this several bills were introduced by message from His Honor, and after being reported were read a first time, and ordered to be put down for the second reading at the next sitting. The measures so introduced were as follows:

Assessment Act, 1903; Railway Assessment Act, 1903; Coal Tax Act, 1900; Amendment Act, 1903; Land Act Amendment Act, 1903; Coal Mines Amendment Act, 1903.

The House then adjourned until 2 o'clock Monday.

Noice of Motion.

Asks for Explanation.

Jas. A. Macdonald immediately after the opening asked for an explanation from the Premier of the recent changes made in the government, and especially pertaining to the reasons why the member for Nelson was passed over.

Premier McBride replying, said that it was a subject of considerable notoriety that the member of Nelson was mentioned for a cabinet position. He was not prepared at that time to say anything. When the proper time came he would take the House into his confidence. It was not now the time to elaborate upon that subject.

Debate on Address.

Harry Wright, in rising to move the address in reply to the speech of His Honor, was greeted with applause. He referred to himself as the youngest member in the legislature. It was perhaps only fitting that he should, therefore, as a supporter of the youngest Premier in the history of the province, "get the ball rolling." He alluded to the necessity for strengthening the finances of the province out. Everyone should unite in helping in this. He did not wish to reflect upon past governments, but they made great expenditure for too small a show.

The government, he thought, had taken the proper course in affairs. It would be out of the question to float a loan in the London market at the present time. The money was available in Canada, and the government proposed to get it from that source. He paid a tribute to the ability of the Finance Minister, who had won an enviable position in his administration of financial matters.

The Assessment Act should be amended so that more should be derived from the lands than was now done. The railways also could stand for greater demands in assisting the revenue of the province. Most of the lines had been largely assisted from the government.

The reform in the civil service had been conducted impartially, and he believed it would be agreeable to the country.

Referring to the settlement of the Alaskan boundary question, he pointed out that it would probably result in the building of a railway line through the northern part of the province, and thus do much to open that section up.

No labor trouble now exists in any part of the province, for which he believed they all were thankful.

W. R. Ross of Fernie, was likewise apprised in rising to second the address. He lamented the condition in which the finances had drifted. He felt thankful that he had had nothing to do with the creation of these conditions.

The legislators assembled were, however, to evolve order out of the situation. The opposition he trusted, would assist in this. The House looked like a business gathering, and he believed they would

THE HOSPITAL BALL

Will Be Held on Wednesday, December 3rd—Preparations Dispersed by Women's Auxiliary.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital, took place this week at the city hall. There were in attendance president, vice-president, six members and the two secretaries.

The final arrangements for the annual hospital ball were made, the date fixed being Wednesday, December 3rd. The ball will be fancy dress and galico, with the alternative of pompadour and Windsor uniform. Fancy dress, however, is not compulsory. The tickets will be $2.50 for gentlemen and $2 for ladies, and will be on sale immediately. It is hoped that many friends will take advantage of this additional attraction to the usual Christmas festivities, and that the ball will be very generously patronized by Victorians. A strong committee of gentlemen will be invited to assist the ladies in the work of preparation.

The visiting committee, Mrs. Cardew and Mrs. C. W. Rhodes, reported that the matron had no requisitions this month. A sum of money was voted to provide Christmas cheer for the patients within the hospital at Christmastide. The Daughters of Pitt have undertaken the Christmas trees in the ward.

Committees for the month's sewing (Mrs. MacLean, chairman), were appointed as follows: Monday, November 30th, Mrs. Thomas Lee, Mrs. Sally December 14th, Mrs. Cardew and Mrs. Daly. To cut out and distribute various jackets for the women's ward, the following were appointed: Mrs. Frank Huntington, Mrs. Stadthagen, Mrs. Daly and Mrs. Hassell.

It was decided that a special meeting should be called as the date for the ball approaches to discuss arrangements.

The meeting then stood adjourned until Tuesday, January 26th.

I'll then direct you to a druggist near your neighbor perhaps. I'll arrange with that druggist to let you have six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month on trial. Then if it succeeds you will stand the cost—$5.50 won't you?

Remember, I have made this offer for five years. And for five years I have shown that 39 of each 40 who accepted my offer have paid. They need not have paid. Do you think they would had it failed?

The one in each 40 was not dishonest, either. With him I failed. And I admitted the failure, too.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

Can't cure Cancer—no medicine can. There must be some failures.

But then the loss is mine. Invariably I ask the druggist to bill the cost to me.

Neither is this philanthropy.

I am not giving something for nothing.

I can afford to treat those few at my expense.

The 39 cured ones tell others of my success. Quite naturally they recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative to ailing friends.

And this is my gain.

This accounts partly for my having the largest medical practice of any physician in America.

Thousands are writing me because of the help I have brought to their friends. And you in turn, will tell a sick friend, when I have also helped you.

Even the fourth one when I failed—is my friend, for I did for him the utmost that medicine could do.

He, too, says to his neighbors, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative. If it fails it is free.

How I Can Do This:

I treat the inside nerves. The nerves that give power and strength to the vital organs. Others—even specialists—treat the organs themselves, not the nerves that control these organs. That is treating the effect—not the cause.

This is my discovery.

For 30 years in hospitals and at bed-sides, I searched for what I last found. In this way my prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—was perfected.

My Books, shown below, tell of my achievements. An achievement is of no value until the people are permitted to benefit by it.

A GANG OF PLUNGERS.

The McBride government deserves commendation for the courage it is showing in grappling with the financial crisis in the province. The drastic nature of the measure introduced, in the House yesterday indicated the belief of the ministers in the reality of the crisis notwithstanding the deprecations of its origin in this city. Whether the ministers are also to be commended for the judgment and sagacity they have shown in taking such sweeping changes in the assessment laws and great increases in taxation remains to be proved. We are gratified a large body of people will arise and tell them they have acted properly.

This Times is not disposed to offer what has been termed "factional opposition" to Mr. McBride and his colleagues. We have been predicting with regularity for a number of years that the day would come when the people of this province would be compelled to pay for their inaction of self-seeking shameless ministers in corrupt governments. The day of reckoning is here, and the people can calculate for themselves the amounts in which they will be mulcted, if the McBride measures become law, in order to restore the overdone equilibrium.

A good deal of research would be involved in arriving at even an approximate idea of the changes contemplated, and the additional taxation involved under the proposed amendments. Comparisons of the existing acts with the proposed measures indicate that the income tax is to be increased one-half of one per cent, under the substance in which the vast majority of the taxpayers are interested. The personal property assessment is also to be augmented by one-quarter of one per cent, with an increase in the value of property exempted. The real property tax, the sources of the province's largest amount of revenue next to timber royalties and leases, is to be increased by one-fifth. These are the measures in which the great bulk of the people are interested. The government also possesses the power to increase the revenue tax to five dollars, and we suppose, in view of its extremity, it will not hesitate to exercise its powers to the utmost.

As we have said, the government must be prepared to encounter a very pronounced public opinion on this matter, and to satisfy the proving that such heavy increases are necessary.

There are increases all along the assimilation line. The railways are to be made heavy contributors to the provincial exchequer. Financial corporations are to share in the general increase of taxation. New regulations are to be brought into force with regard to the cutting, manufacture and export of timber. The example of the wicked Ross government of Ontario is to be followed in compelling the manufacture within the province of logs into lumber. It is anticipated that the new regulations will strict rather a hard blow at large private lumber companies.

The explanations of the ministers will probably clear away the mists and give the public a clear insight into the workings of the various measures.

The government may be of the opinion that it is showing unexampled courage in thus closing with the crisis. We do not know what the thoughts of the opposition are, but we think we could make a shrewd guess.

UNDER WHICH FLAG?

"A revision of the tariff is universally demanded, and is imperatively necessary. Do we understand that the Conservative party in the West is committed to the foregoing dictum? Because demands which are universal are very sweeping in their scope. If the demand for tariff revision were universal the agitation would be apparent in the public places where men assemble. There is no evidence of such a demand in this neighborhood. The people appear to be very well pleased with the conditions. They are not vehemently demanding a change."

We believe we may safely say the sentiment of every other section of the Dominion. And if there were a universal demand for a change the people would be very unreasonable. Thoughtless and forgetful of their experience of less than a decade ago.

It is not disputed by the Conservative party, nor by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the two bodies which are assuming to give voice to the universal demand for a change, that Canada is at the present time, and has been for half a dozen years, not only one of the most prosperous countries in the world, but actually the most favored nation engaged in the struggle for a liveli-ing. But then it is said we are menaced by the dark cloud of industrial adversity that hangs over the United States. We must take measures to break the storm before it crosses the border. The Manufacturers' Association makes no mystery about what it wants. Through its press, publishing paper it told the people of the East a week ago that a tariff which would give the manufacturers of Canada as efficient protection as the Dingell law gives the infant industries of the United States would be the only measure that would give entire satisfaction to the struggling industries of Canada. Mr. Drummond says his association does not demand that we shall bury the Dingell act. It will be satisfied with protection as efficient as that afforded by the law of the immortal Dingell.

It is claimed, as usual, in discussing the attitude of the Dominion government, that it is committed to the principle in its fiscal policy. We suppose there is a principle underlying the present tariff. That much ought in fairness to be conceded. Probably Sir Wilfrid Laurier would not deny that experience has suggested the advisability of changes in our tariff. But the people of the country as a whole are fairly well to do. They are working to better advantage than their neighbors, whether those neighbors be favored with a measure of protection amounting to almost absolute exclusion or are struggling along under "free trade as they have it in England." Therefore tariff changes are not urgently needed nor is she denied for them universal. The organ that talks in that way has fallen into an evil habit of exaggeration which destroys the weight of its arguments.

What we should like to know in connection with this question is whether the Conservative party agrees with the demands of the Manufacturers' Association that the Canadian tariff shall be made to conform with the standards set by one Nelson Dingell. It is important that the people be enlightened upon that point. Because we understand that the Conservative party is now committed to the British preference of the Laurier government, and it would be interesting to know whether the preference, as they would amend it, would bear any resemblance to the preference that would be accorded by the Manufacturers' Association. That association has assured Mr. Chamberlain of its support, and Mr. Foster, a prominent Conservative, is speaking in Great Britain in favor of the policy of Chamberlain.

We know beyond peradventure that the people of the West approve very strongly of the British preference, and that consumers in all parts of the country feel it with great favor. What would be the effect of the adoption of the scale of duties advocated by the Manufacturers' Association, a scale that we suppose has been endorsed by the Conservative party, upon the preferential rates of duty? Be it remembered that the manufacturers, notwithstanding their assurances to Chamberlain, have not suggested that coincident with the increases in the general tariff the preferential schedules should be altered in order to guarantee that the duties on British goods should not be increased also. Not at all. They are willing to continue the preference if it be made non-effective—if it does not prefer.

An expert has made a calculation as to the effect of the Canadian tariff as the manufacturers would have it. He finds that the greater portion of the woollen goods bought are now imported from Great Britain. Provided the preference remained, as at present, 35½ per cent, and the scale of duties were increased to the figure demanded by the manufacturers, the duty paid by the British goods would be about 54 per cent; instead of 23½. Would this shake the preference of "real value to Great Britain"? This season of the year is opportune for a discussion as to the effect which will be produced in the price of woollen underwear by an increase of 130 per cent, in the duty now levied upon these goods. The ratio on other lines would be about the same. The passage of such measures would have a splendid effect upon the present Imperialistic movement, would it not? At the same time, for a great political party to commit itself to—

The well-being of the people of Canada in every sense is dependent upon the development of closer relations with the Mother Country. This is the object the Liberal government has been striving for in the cheapening of postage, the improvement of the means of communication and the inauguration of the preferential policy. The attitude of the Conservative party indicates an exactly contrary purpose. The people cannot be deceived by the appeals to national prejudices.

EXPANSION OF AN IDEA.

The news of the New Zealand preference to the products of the British Empire, whether central or colonial, was received in Ottawa with great satisfaction. The alacrity all the colonies are showing in following the example set by the Dominion government is a strong tribute to the political discernment of the Laurier government. Hon. Wm. Paterson, Minister of Customs, said on receipt of the news of the passage of the New Zealand preferential measure, that the department had not yet been officially advised as to the details of new tariff, but he had no doubt, judging from the press report of the changes, that the new rate of duties giving a preference to certain classes of Canadian as against foreign goods would result in an increase of trade between the Dominion and New Zealand.

It is expected that under the operation of the act the trade of Canada with the South Seas Colony will greatly increase, to the immense benefit of Pacific coast points.

Canada will, under the new tariff, enjoy a preference in New Zealand of 20 per cent., as against the United States and other foreign countries, in the item of bicycle parts, rubber boots and printing paper, the duty on boots and shoes from Canada will be 23½ per cent. and 33½ per cent. from foreign countries on bicycles and carriages, 20 per cent., as against 30 per cent., canned fish 4 cents per pound, against 6 cents; furniture, 25 per cent., as against 37½ per cent.

As the Canadian preference would be extended to New Zealand in consideration of this favorable tariff legislation, Mr. Paterson said that question would have to be considered. Action would have to be taken under the Customs Act amendment of 1898, under which our British preferential tariff of unequal induction is extended to "any British colony or possession." The customs tariff of which is on the whole, as favorable to Canada as the British preferential tariff is to such colony or possession." As New Zealand is making no reduction in her existing tariff under the strict interpretation of the Canadian Act her products will be no more entitled to the preference than they have been all along, but the fact that a preference is being given to this country in common with the rest of the Empire by means of increasing the duties against foreign articles will doubtless cause the Dominion government to interpret the preferential clause of the Customs Act broadly enough to enable this country to reciprocate New Zealand's friendly legislation.

Mr. Paterson evidently entertains this view, although he did not express it in terms. He, however, said the subject would be taken up, and referred to council as soon as an official report upon the New Zealand tariff changes had been received from Mr. Lark, our commercial representative in that colony.

Trade returns for the fiscal year, 1903, shortly to be published in the trade and navigation report will show that Canada exported to New Zealand during the year goods to the value of $450,567, while we imported in return New Zea-

Speak gently to the little child; Its love-be sure to gain; Teach it in accents soft and mild, It may not long remain.

Speak gently to the young; for they Will have enough to bear; Pass through this life as best they may, 'Tis full of anxious care.

Speak gently to the aged one, Give her no careworn heart; Whose sands of life are nearly run, Let us such peace depart.

Speak gently, kindly to the poor; Let no harsh tone be heard; They have enough they must endure, Without an unkind word.

Speak gently, kindly to the erring; know They must have faltered in vain; Perchance unkindness made them so; O, win them back again.

If Ann goes to the theatre in a carriage, carries a bouquet of roses, and has supper afterward, what does Charley get a week?

THOUGHT SHE SAID PYJAMAS.

New York Tribune. Walter Camp, the athletic adviser of Yale University, was recently entertaining a gathering of his undergraduate friends with experiences of his own.

He told of a dinner where a charming young woman was seated next to an exceedingly deaf old man. She had done her best to interest him, but had found it necessary to shout out each remark unto the third and fourth narration before the old man could catch the point.

So the time dragged along, till the dinner was over and the fruit was passed.

The young woman determined to make a final effort at being agreeable, so she threw her voice into saying:

"Do you like bananas?"

"How's that?" asked her neighbor in a surprised tone.

"Do you like bananas?" she repeated.

"Well, my dear," he replied, "so long as you have introduced the topic, I will say that I much prefer the old-fashioned nightshirt."

ANOTHER CANDIDATE FOR THE MAYORALTY

Charles E. Redfern Has Announced His Intention of Standing - First Aspirant for Alderman.

Another candidate for the mayoralty has announced himself. This is Chas. E. Redfern, who informed the Times yesterday that he had "determined to enter the field in the approaching municipal contest." He also stated that had Mayor McCandless decided to offer himself for another year he would not oppose him, but in view of His Worship's fixed determination to retire at the expiration of his present term he intended to stand. Mr. Redfern has had wide experience in the municipal government of this city, having occupied the chief magisterial chair on four occasions, serving for the first time in 1883, then 1897, 1898 and 1899.

This will make two aspirants for the mayoralty, who have definitely announced themselves. Ald. Barnard was first in the field, having made his announcement through the Times on Thursday. There is still considerable time before nomination day, and several other candidates may present themselves. The names of Ald. Graham and H. D. Helmcken, K. C., have been mentioned, but so far neither of these gentlemen has expressed his intention of standing.

One candidate for alderman has announced himself, Thos. L. Worthington, formerly representative for Central Ward, having stated his intention of standing for South Ward. Some of the present aldermen were interrogated along this line by the Times this morning, but none cared to say just now whether he would come out or not.

At the A. O. U. W. hall on Wednesday, December 2nd, the Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 1429, will hold its regular meeting. Officers will be elected for the ensuing term. A cordial invitation is extended to all local Orangemen to present.

The Rawei will make their last appearance to-night in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and will combine with all their programmes in one grand spectacular presentation of Maori-land, which is beyond doubt a most delightful entertainment. The general admission will be 25 cents.

The display of native costumes, singing of Maori songs, telling of native stories, pathetic and humorous, by the Maoris to-night in Y. M. C. A. auditorium together with a brilliant exhibit of New Zealand scenery, will comprise the delightful entertainment by Mr. and Mrs. Rawei. Each child attending the Maori entertainment to-morrow at 3 o'clock will be presented with a piece of native tapa cloth as a souvenir by the Raweis.

"Mr. Pickwick," De Wolf Hopper's new musical production of the famous Charles Dickens classic, will be seen at the Victoria on Monday next. The company includes besides Mr. Hopper, Digby Bell, Louis Payne, J. K. Adams, George Chapman, Augustus Collett, Guy Barretto, George Roland, G. B. Williams, F. R. Willing, Margaret Clark, Grace Wallace, Laura Joyce Bell, Vivian Adelin, Florine Murray, Nellie Victoria, Felice Robinson and an ensemble of twenty.

Rawei will be the attraction at the meeting, for men only tomorrow at 4 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building. He will sing, tell something of the moral condition of his own people and present a few light some of his best views. This will be a good opportunity for those who could not attend the recitals during the week.

Two junior matches were played this morning at the Caledonia grounds.

They were between the North Ward and South Park school fifteens, and the Collegiate and High school teams. The result of the former was a draw, neither side scoring.

The High school team won against the Collegiates by a score of 13 to nothing. From the start to the finish the match was warmly contested, and was more even than the score indicates.

In the first half eight points were scored by the High school, two tries being made and one converted. One try was secured in the second half, which was converted.

For the High school the two Sargents were most prominent, and for the Collegiates Messrs. Todd and Fair put up a good game.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cured Him.

Terrible Lengths, to Which Dyspepsia Will Go, Unless Promptly Checked.

After and Cured.

"My case was an exception one of Chronic Dyspepsia," I doctored for it for nearly twenty years," writes Jackson Johnson, of Norham, Ont. "About two years ago I was taken with Diarrhoea which became chronic and continued for almost nine months, during which time my bowels became so sore and my back so lame that I could hardly turn myself in bed and it was with great difficulty that I could stand, down or rise up.

"I continued to grow weaker and was at length confined to bed for a time. A person who was using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets induced me to try them, and continuing their use I have steadily improved till now I am in comparatively good health. I thank Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets for taking me from the brink of the grave."

Your Indigestion may be just starting. But if Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure such severe cases as Mr. Jackson's how much more easily will they cure yours? If you cure yours now it will never get to the terrible stage Mr. Jackson's did.
