DAILY PROCEEDINGS
—OF—
Detroit Annual Conference
1915

SIXTIETH SESSION

FIRST DAY.

Wednesday Morning, September 15, 1915.

Opening Session—The sixtieth session of the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was opened by Bishop William Burt at 8:30 o'clock. Hymn 560 was announced and heartily sung, after which Timothy Edwards and C. M. Thompson led in fervent prayer. "More Love to Thee" was then sung, and the Bishop read several Scripture selections from Paul's Epistles, bearing upon the sacramental service.

Sacramental Service—The Bishop invited the District Superintendents and E. D. Dimond, the pastor of the local Church to the altar, and they assisted in the administration of the Lord's Supper.

Memorial Services—C. M. Thompson, Chairman of the Committee on Memoirs, came to the chair and read brief obituary notices of deceased Ministers and Ministers' wives. Samuel Gilchriese, at the special request of the family, spoke briefly concerning J. P. Cooper. A. W. Stalker gave the annual memorial address, and inspired the Conference with a truly great and comforting utterance.

Roll Call—H. Addis Leeson, Secretary of the last Conference, called the roll and the following 197 answered their names:

Presidency of Bishop Burt—W. H. Rider and W. J. Balmer both presented resolutions concerning the presidency of Bishop Burt. They were unanimously adopted and are as follows:

Whereas, Bishop William Burt, D. D., LL. D., has presided at the Detroit Conference for three consecutive sessions, and

Whereas, the fact of such presidency and administration in this and other Conferences in this Episcopal area marks an event of important historical character, and

Whereas, the four years of our beloved Bishop's administration have witnessed great progress in all material and spiritual interests of the church, and our personal relations and fellowship have been of the most delightful character; therefore

Resolved, first, concerning this plan of Episcopal administration, as already unanimously on record, the Detroit Conference expresses its approval and admiration of it as conserving the highest interests of the church, and respectfully requests the General Conference in no way to recede from this plan, but that, in the light of the experience of the past quadrennium, and the godly counsel of the church, the plan be more and more perfected to meet the practical demands of our work.

Resolved, second, that we welcome Bishop Burt most cordially to this, the third consecutive session of his presidency, and while we would extend a welcome and pledge our loyal support to any member of the Board of Bishops who might be assigned to the presidency of the Detroit Conference, we would be greatly pleased if the present administration continued through another quadrennium.

GEO. ELLIOTT,
A. W. STALKER.

Resolution of Appreciation and Welcome—The Detroit Annual Conference in its 60th Session assembled, being the third of the presidency of Bishop William Burt, D. D. LL. D., takes pleasure in adopting the following resolution:

We would place on record our high esteem of him whom we delight to call the First Methodist Bishop of Rome, Italy, and the organizer of the European Central Conference, co-ordinating all our Methodist forces among the several nations of Europe.

We would express our deep regret at the continuance of the devastating war, desolating the interests of our Churches there established, as well as the people and nations concerned, in which desolating circumstances several members of our beloved Bishop's own family are involved, and would therefore join with him in earnest prayer for the speedy return of peace.

We would further record our appreciation of his repeated personal visitation of our Charges, Districts and Conferences, and of his patient consideration, wise counsel, and gracious administration of all our interests.

Respectfully submitted,
W. J. BALMER.

Rules for Election—Samuel Gilchrise offered the following rules to govern the election of delegates to the General Conference, and they were adopted:

Rule 1. There shall be two sets of tellers, to consist of two from each district and two at large.

Rule 2. The Bishop shall request all persons not entitled to vote to retire from the bar of the Conference, and he shall carefully explain these rules to the Conference.

Rule 3. When the vote is being taken the members of the Conference shall be required to rise, and the ballots shall be collected, beginning at the front of the Church. As they are collected those voting shall be seated.

Rule 4. Each ballot shall contain only the required number of delegates to be elected; if less the ballot shall be rejected; if more the ballot shall be rejected. It shall require two-fifths of the Conference to elect.

Rule 5. If a ballot shall contain the name of a person not a member of the Conference the whole ballot shall be rejected.

Rule 6. In counting the ballots, where there is confusion in names the ballot shall be rejected; but when it is clear that the ballot is for the person intended, though the names be incorrectly spelled or the initial not exactly right, the ballot shall be counted. (Explanation: Suppose there are two members of the Conference named Doe, John and William. If the ballot shall read Brother, it shall be rejected; or if Mr. Doe, it shall be rejected. But if there is only one Doe in the Conference and the ballot should be written Mr. or Brother Doe, it should be counted for Doe, even if the initials or surname were not exactly correct, it being clear that it was intended for the said Doe.)

Rule 7. Balloting shall proceed at each session or adjourned session until the number of delegates required shall be chosen: and if more than the required number shall receive sufficient ballots to elect, those receiving the highest number shall be the delegates.

Rule 8. The tellers shall not reveal the result of the ballot, except in open conference.

Signed, S. M. Gilchriese, Geo. Elliott and seven others.

Introduction—Bishop Theodore Henderson was introduced and addressed the Conference in the interest of the Evangelistic Forward Movement.

Sale of Lot—C. B. Allen moved that the Conference authorize the sale of the lot on Redford Circuit, known as the Bell Branch site, and the Conference Secretary and District Superintendent be authorized to sign the deed. It was carried.

Announcements—The announcements were made and the Conference adjourned to meet at 2:30 p. m. Dr. George Elliott was requested by the Bishop to preside. Bishop Henderson pronounced the benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Monday, September 20, 1915.

Opening Exercises—Geo. Elliott took the chair for the afternoon session, which was opened by singing "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah." J. S. Steininger led in prayer. "Draw Me Nearer" was then sung.

Auditing—Grant Perkins read the report of the Auditing Committee. (See report.) Adopted.

Bureau of Transportation—C. M. Thompson moved that the report of the Bureau of Transportation be accepted and placed on file. Adopted.

Sunday Schools—H. R. Beatty read the Sunday School report. Adopted. (See report.)

Financial Report—Erwin King read the report of the Financial Secretary. Adopted. (See report.)

Connectional Interests—George Hill read the report of the Connectional Interests Committee. Adopted. (See report.)

Introduction—Frank B. Bachelor, Executive Secretary of Layman's Missionary Movement of Detroit District was introduced and addressed the Conference.

Resolution—H. L. Smith presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we have heard the report of Mr. Bachelor, the Executive Secretary of the Layman's Missionary Movement of Detroit District, with great pleasure.

Resolved, That we do hereby promise the most enthusiastic support and co-operation in making the convention in Detroit and the follow up work most practical and intense in promoting a real and abiding missionary activity.

(Signed):

H. LESTER SMITH and
FRANK N. MINER.

Recommendation to General Conference—The following proposition, presented by Frank N. Miner, was recommended to be sent to the General Conference for its favorable consideration:

111. Transfer of Membership.

Par. 55. Sec. 1. When an acceptable member of the Church changes his residence from one Pastoral charge to another, his membership in our Church shall change with his residence and he shall be transferred as follows: The Pastor, or if there is no Pastor, the District Superintendent, shall send to the Pastor (or in case of a city having more than one Pastoral charge, to the District Superintendent), of the charge within which the member has taken his residence, a certificate of transfer in the following form (within three months of the change of residence):

"This is to certify that A. B. is an acceptable member of the.....Methodist Episcopal Church, in, and by virtue of his change of residence he is hereby transferred to the membership of the..... Methodist Episcopal Church in..... The date of this transfer is....., 19...."

(The principle here involved is that the member has united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and not merely with a particular society of the same.)

Sec. 2. Provided, any member, thus changing his residence and wishing to retain and maintain his membership within the Pastoral charge from which he is taking his residence, may do so by signing and presenting the following statement to the Pastor:

"To the Pastor of.....Methodist Episcopal Church in.....: Inasmuch as the undersigned is removing from the bounds of this pastoral charge, and said removal carries with it my church membership, unless requesting in writing that the membership be not changed, I hereby make formal request that my present membership be not changed for one year from date....., 19.....
"Signed....."

Sec. 3. All such members shall be enrolled as associate members within the pastoral charge where they reside, but shall not be included in the membership count for that pastoral charge. They shall be included in the membership where their active membership is retained.

(The time of "one year from date" will necessitate the church and the absent member keeping in touch with each other, otherwise his membership will automatically be changed to the pastoral charge wherein is his residence.)

Sec. 4. (Omitted.)

Sec. 5. (As it is now.)

Sec. 6. (As it is now.)

Sec. 7. A certificate of admission to membership shall be given to each person uniting with the Methodist Episcopal Church from probation or on confession of faith.

("From probation" shall include all who are received into our membership without a certificate from some other Church. "Confession of faith" shall include all who are received into our membership from some other Evangelical Church.)

Bureau of Transportation—E. R. Rice presented the report of the Bureau of Transportation. Adopted. (See report.)

Historical Society—The report of the Special Historical Society Committee was read by S. D. Eva and adopted. (See report.)

Those nominated for its officers were: Seth Reed, President; J. E. Jacklin, Vice-president; W. W. Washburn, Vice-president; King Beach, Recording Secretary; J. E. Mealley, Treasurer; and S. D. Eva, Corresponding Secretary and Historian. They were duly elected.

Resolution—George Elliott read the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we request the Board of Examiners in connection with the same Board of the Michigan Conference to suggest annually a brief course of post-graduate study, and that those taking such course be invited to attend the Michigan Institute and Examinations of the Undergraduates.

Seth Reed Takes Chair—Dr. Seth Reed was called to the chair while George Elliott presented the report of the Committee on Memorials to the General Conference.

The following Memorials received the favorable action of the Conference:

First: That concerning the readjustment of the distribution of the dividends of the Book Concern to the Annual Conferences.

Second: The Memorial of the Montana Conference in regard to the making of the Episcopal areas, coterminous with the General Conference Districts.

Third: The Memorial of the Detroit Conference in regard to the appropriation of funds to the State University Centers.

Fourth: The Memorial of the Colorado Conference in reference to the disfranchisement of Conference Members, who are employed in Mission Conferences.

Fifth: The Memorial of the Port Huron District Ministerial Association with regard to a Public Church Meeting in connection with the fourth quarterly Conference.

Sixth: The Memorial of the West Ohio Conference in regard to the organic Union of Methodism was passed in a modified form.

Resumes the Chair—George Elliott resumes the chair.

Report of Registrar—Frank N. Miner presented the financial report of the office of Registrar. The report was accepted and placed on file.

Official Journal—A. W. Stalker moved that the Minutes be the Official Journal of the Conference Session and that the Secretary be authorized to edit the reports.

Educational Report—Frank N. Field presented the report of the Committee on Education, and it was adopted. (See report.)

Epworth League Report—Ernest Akin read the report for the Committee on Epworth League and it was adopted. (See report.)

Asbury Centennial—On the motion of George Elliott, the Conference concurred in the plan to observe a Francis Asbury Centennial on the appropriate Sunday in the coming year.

Adjournment—On motion the Conference adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock p. m. Seth Reed pronounced the benediction.

Monday Evening, September 20, 1915.

Opening Exercises—Hymn, "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing," was announced by Bishop Burt and heartily sung. S. G. Gillette led in prayer.

Journal Read—The proceedings of the morning and afternoon sessions were read, corrected and approved.

Resolution—George Elliott presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

That the Detroit Annual Conference memorializes the General Conference to consider, and if found practicable, prepare a plan for admission of laymen as delegates in the Annual Conferences of our Church.

Episcopal Residence—The following action introduced by George Elliott, was adopted:

First—We record our approval to the "Areal" system of Episcopal jurisdiction and demand its continuance, with such changes and improvements as experience may suggest.

Second—We concur in the memorial of the Michigan Conference in asking the selection of the Metropolitan city of Detroit as an Episcopal residence and the center of a new Episcopal area.

Third—We heartily request the assignment of Bishop William Burt to the Episcopal area of which this Conference is a part. We are prompted in this request by the achievements during the past quadrennium won by his inspiring leadership and wise administration.

Moral Reform—George Elliott presented the report of the Committee on Social Service and Moral Reform, which was adopted. He nominated J. G. Haller and H. A. Field as Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, and they were elected.

Collection for Janitor—A collection, amounting to $25.29, was taken for the janitor.

Question of Privilege—A. W. Stalker, under a question of privilege, spoke concerning the work of the church with the Methodist students of Ann Arbor, and the Conference pledged itself to hearty co-operation in the special collection for the Wesleyan Guild.

Statistician—Albert Balgooyan read the report of the statistician. It was adopted. (See report.)

Treasurer—E. W. Exelby read the Treasurer's report, which was accepted.

Examiners Nominated—John R. Gregory and Oscar T. Olson were appointed by the Bishop to the Board of Examiners.

Resolution—Frank N. Miner presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, our brother, D. H. Glass, is closing his second year as Superintendent of Sunday Schools of the Detroit Conference.

Resolved, That we hereby record our appreciation of his equipment for this work in his knowledge, both of the young mind and of the wisest methods for its religious instruction; and our appreciation of his convention work, which has resulted in the improvement of the teaching force of our Sunday School, and in the adoption of more effective methods of work, and

Resolved, That we trust opportunities will open for the use of his gifts and experience by both Sunday Schools and Sunday School Institutes.

A. W. STALKER,
H. LESTER SMITH,
FRANK N. MINER,
GEO. L. DURR.

Committee on Resolutions—J. G. Haller read the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted by a rising vote. (See report.)

Secretary Endowment Fund—L. E. Lovejoy moved that the Bishop be requested to appoint Earl R. Rice, Secretary of the Permanent Endowment Fund, for the Conference claimants. Carried.

Missionary Appropriations—The Missionary appropriations were read by A. B. Leonard. Adopted.

Board of Foreign Missions—A. B. Leonard read the nominations for the Foreign and Home Missionary Committees. Adopted.

Request for Home Missionary Moneys—A. B. Leonard read the requests for the Missionary appropriations for the coming year. Adopted. Dr. Stalker moved, as an amendment to these requests, that $800.00 be added to the Missionary appropriations for student support at Ann Arbor.

Geo. Elliott moved that after the reading of the Journal and appropriate devotional exercises and the reading of the appointments, the Conference stand adjourned sine die.

We hereby certify that the above is a correct record of the Sixtieth Session of the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Tuesday Evening—Epworth League.

The Epworth League Anniversary was observed on the eve of the Assembly of the Conference. A large number of men of the Conference and young people were in attendance. Earl Rice presided. R. D. Hopkins read the Scriptures and led in prayer. The Aeolian Quartette rendered vocal music and Dr. Wilbur F. Sheridan, General Secretary of the Epworth League, gave the address of the evening. Following the formal program, the Lapeer Avenue League tendered the Conference visitors a reception in the parlors of the Church.

Wednesday Morning—Memorial Services.

Following the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, Calvin M. Thompson, Chairman of the Committee on Memoirs, came to the platform, and after the singing of a hymn and prayer by A. B. Leonard, brief obituaries of deceased ministers and ministers' wives were read by the chairman. S. M. Gilchriese, by request of the family, reviewed the ministry of Judson P. Cooper. Standing in the pulpit once occupied by his sainted father, A. W. Stalker of Ann Arbor gave the annual memorial address, revealing in eloquent speech our common inheritance from the fathers and the blessed assurance of immortality. The Charles Wesley Club sang "Good Night" and Bishop Burt pronounced the benediction.

Wednesday Morning—Memorial Services.

Following the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, Calvin M. Thompson, Chairman of the Committee on Memoirs, came to the platform, and after the singing of a hymn and prayer by A. B. Leonard, brief obituaries of deceased ministers and ministers' wives were read by the chairman. S. M. Gilchriese, by request of the family, reviewed the ministry of Judson P. Cooper. Standing in the pulpit once occupied by his sainted father, A. W. Stalker of Ann Arbor gave the annual memorial address, revealing in eloquent speech our common inheritance from the fathers and the blessed assurance of immortality. The Charles Wesley Club sang "Good Night" and Bishop Burt pronounced the benediction.

Wednesday Afternoon.

The Conference Anniversary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was held at 2:30. Mrs. Geo. O. Robinson of Detroit presided. W. M. Ward led in prayer. William E. Brown read a selection from his own poems, with musical accompaniment, entitled "The Legend of the River." The Misses Wilson and Arnot of Port Huron sang "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." Mrs. Wilbur Thirkield, National President of the W. H. M. S., gave the address, which reviewed the work being done by the society and the problems of our social life, in which womanhood is vitally interested.

Wednesday Evening.

Sermon by Dr. M. S. Rice. An audience which filled the Church assembled at 7:30 to hear this popular preacher. C. E. Wakefield presided. George G. Hicks led in prayer and the Charles Wesley Club rendered two selections. Taking "Job, the Righteous Man," as his theme, Dr. Rice held the close interest of his hearers, closing with a fervent appeal to those apart from God to call upon the Father for help into the life of righteousness.

American Bible Society.

This anniversary followed that of the W. H. M. S., Wednesday afternoon. W. H. MacClenthen of Pontiac presided. James Chapman led in singing Hymn No. 1, "Jesus the Name That Charms Our Fears," and Sanford McDonald led in prayer. Dr. Kirkbride of Chicago gave the address, which was full of very illuminating facts respecting the activities of the Bible Society.

Thursday Afternoon—The Board of Foreign Missions.

The anniversary of this Board occupied the first hour Thursday afternoon. A. W. Stalker of Ann Arbor presided. Norman LaMarche sang a solo, "This Is My Task." Bishop Frank W. Warne of India featured the program with a strong address, descriptive of missionary activities and triumphs in his great field, together with illustrations of self-sacrificing devotion to service in India and America. The latter had special reference to the late Lizzie Johnson of Illinois. A quilt, the work of her hands while a helpless invalid was exhibited and the story of her life work made a deep impression upon the great audience.

Church Publicity—Elmer Lynn Williams.

Substituting for Christian F. Reisner of New York, who could not come, Elmer Lynn Williams of Grace Church, Chicago, followed Bishop Warne, Thursday afternoon, with a thrilling, soul-stirring revelation of his methods and activity in his great down town parish. Because of the intense heat this meeting was held in the open air in front of the Church. The Charles Wesley Club sang and Dr. George Elliott introduced Dr. Williams.

Orpheus Society Concert.

The Concert given by the Orpheus Society, Thursday evening, was a great event. The Orpheus Society is the choir of the Lapeer Avenue Church and demonstrated not only its efficiency as a choral society, but also its claim to be the largest choir in Michigan Methodism. It has an enrollment of 72 members. Prof. R. V. Stratton is the popular organist and choirmaster.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

Mrs. Elmer Houser of Detroit presided at the anniversary of this Society on Friday afternoon. H. Lester Smith announced hymn 653 and after singing he led in prayer. Norman La-Marche sang a solo, "Love Divine." With a brief reference to the achievements of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mrs. Houser introduced Dr. Isaac Headland, late of China, who addressed the large audience present on "Some By-Products of Missions," closing with the recital of remarkable incidents of sixteen years of service in China.

The Board of Education.

Through the pressure of many events ample time was not afforded the representative of the Board of Education for the complete presentation of his theme. J. E. Mealley presided. The Charles Wesley Club sang a selection and George Franklin Ream was introduced. He briefly reviewed the world's needs and America's opportunity to minister to the satisfying of that need and the place of our Board of Education in developing the leadership adequate to the demands of tomorrow.

Endowment Fund for Conference Claimants.

Partaking both of the nature of an anniversary and a session of the Conference, this meeting was one of the greatest events of Conference week.

The members of the Lay Electoral Conference were welcomed in joint session with the Annual Conference and the capacity of the building was taxed by the immense audience present. Dr. F. L. Keeney, representing the General Conference Board of Claimants, was introduced and gave an address in the interest of the Permanent Endowment Fund.

A. L. Parker, a distinguished Layman of Detroit, was spokesman for the Lay Electoral Conference and offered the recommendations of the Laymen respecting the campaign for the raising of $250,000.00 in the Conference for the Permanent Endowment Fund. The Charles Wesley Club sang "That Beautiful Land." The Bishop then introduced Dr. M. S. Rice, who made the final address of the evening. With surpassing eloquence the great preacher traced the compensations of a Methodist preacher's life in the influences for righteousness radiating from his ministry and strongly emphasized that a minister's first thought should be, not the material compensation he was to receive, but what was the maximum of service he could render to the uplift of the people to whom he was sent as a minister of Christ. He urged that if the movement toward a better care in old age was to be realized it must be through the demonstration of the minister's unselfish devotion to his task. The address made a most profound impression upon both ministers and laymen.

Saturday—Annual Dinner, Brotherhood of Retired Ministers.

The Brotherhood of Retired Ministers, their wives and the widows of deceased ministers enjoyed their annual reunion and dinner Saturday at noon.

There was an attendance of forty-six. Following the very sumptuous repast, J. M. Gordon acted as toastmaster, and an interesting program was presented. Dr. Seth Reed gave the address, David B. Millar and others added to the pleasure of the hour with song.

At the business session, J. M. Gordon was elected President; R. Woodhams, Vice-president; J. B. Oliver, Secretary, and N. N. Clark, Treasurer.

Saturday—The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

Dr. George Elliott presided, and after devotional services, introduced Dr. A. G. Kynett of Philadelphia, Recording Secretary of the Board, who, in the course of a very able address, set forth the claims of this great Board to strong recognition by the Church. It was shown that in the lifetime of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, 20,000 Methodist Episcopal Churches had been erected, of which number 17,000 had received assistance from the Board. Following the address of Dr. Kynett, Dr. Elliott introduced Dr. Harris Franklin Rall, Professor in Garrett Biblical Institute, who gave an address on Social Service.

Saturday Evening—Missionary Sermon.

The former custom of having a Missionary sermon preached before the Annual Conference which was discontinued for some years was revived by Bishop Burt. Saturday evening was set apart for this service. Dr. E. M. Moore presided; Dr. Stanley Shaw led in prayer, the Charles Wesley Club sang two numbers and the chairman introduced Dr. H. Lester Smith of Central Church, Detroit, as the preacher appointed by the Bishop. Dr. Smith took for his text, the great commission voiced by our Lord in the last chapter of Matthew and delivered a stirring sermon emphasizing the present Kingship of Christ, His right to issue the great commission and the wonderful promise contained in the text.

Sunday Services.

The Love Feast at 9:00 o'clock led by Dr. Seth Reed was a session of blessing replete with Christian reminiscence and testimony.

The pulpits of the Evangelical Churches of Port Huron and Sarnia, Ontario, welcomed representative men of the Conference.

At Lapeer Avenue Church Pastor E. D. Dimond assisted by Drs. Seth Reed and Wm. Balmer conducted the morning worship. Bishop Burt preached the sermon which was an exposition of II Corinthians 5:20. The Bishop laid emphasis upon the Deity of Jesus; the supernatural in the Gospel. He deplored the tendency of departing from central things and to lay stress upon by-products of the Gospel. The supreme need of the soul is reconciliation with God. The part in the service taken by the magnificent choir of the Conference Church was highly commended by the Bishop and received the hearty appreciation of the Conference.

The Anniversary of the Freedman's Aid Society was held at 2:00 o'clock. Dr. Wm. Dawe presided and Dr. P. J. Maveety, Corresponding Secretary of the Freedman's Society gave the address. Immediately following Dr. W. R. Fruit took the chair and after devotions Professor H. F. Rall of Garrett Biblical Institute was introduced and addressed the great audience present on the subject: "A Social Creed."

At 4:00 o'clock the impressive service of ordination was conducted by Bishop Burt and the District Superintendents present. Eleven Elders and thirteen Deacons were ordained. The Bishop also consecrated Miss Mable Briggs of Detroit as a Deaconess.

At the evening hour of worship the audience which taxed the capacity of the church assembled to hear Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, Chairman of the General Conference Commission on Evangelism. In a sermon of great power, the Bishop impressed the obligation to give Christ's call the first place in the choice of a life work. He closed with a consecration service, calling upon ministers and all parents present to dedicate their children to the service of Christ and young people to yield their lives in whole hearted consecration to Christ's service anywhere in the world. A great number responded to each call.

Boat Ride Friday Evening.

The Business Men's Association of Port Huron tendered the Conference a boat ride on the lake early Friday evening. A large number of the members availed themselves of the opportunity and enjoyed an hour's cruise.

Memoirs

REV. WILLIAM BIGELOW POPE

Rev. William Bigelow Pope passed peacefully to his reward from his home in Monroe, Mich., August 4, 1915. He was born in Monroeville, Ohio, July 3, 1857. He was descended from a line of ministerial ancestry of the finest stock. His mother was the daughter of Rev. Russell Bigelow, the hero of Edward Eggleston's book, "The Circuit Rider." His father was Rev. Thomas Pope, of the Central Ohio conference. His three brothers, Russell B., Parker P. and Jackson T. Pope, were all ministers of the gospel and members of the same Ohio conference.

February 1, 1883, Rev. W. B. Pope married the talented and versatile cousin of Bishop McCabe, Miss Anna McCabe, of Sydney, Ohio. Their home life was very happy. The same purposes and the same ideals moved them both. He found in his life companion a worthy and congenial helpmate. Mrs. Pope and three children survive, Mrs. A. M. Highly and Miriam Anna, of Monroe, and James Harland, of Los Angeles. Just a few days before his death Mr. Pope received news that the latter had been admitted to the bar as an attorney at law in California.

Rev. William B. Pope received his academic training at Berea College, Ohio Wesleyan University and Boston Theological Seminary. Upon his graduation from the seminary he was called to the frontier work of the ministry in Michigan. It was his intention to unite with the older Ohio conference of which his father and brothers were members, but desirous of giving his services in the field of greatest need he joined the Detroit conference and accepted work in the frontier districts. He built churches at Gaylord and Vanderbilt, and later served important churches in Bay City and Detroit. From First church, Bay City, he went to the superintendency of Sault Ste. Marie district. He was too generous of his strength in this unlimited field, and his health failed. During the days of his superannuation he made his home in Monroe among the many friends he had made while pastor. His many years of effective ministry reflected the brilliant stock from which he sprung. His days of superannuation were spent in quiet retirement. With a sweet and gracious spirit he surrendered his life work and adjusted himself to new and strange conditions. At the same time he never lost his keen interest in the brethren and the churches and work of the conference. He maintained this interest unabated to the last and died thoroughly conversant with the larger movements of the church militant. His relationship to the local church was most cordial and helpful. He worked effectively and yet quietly and modestly.

On Monday Brother Pope was seized with pains in the region of the abdomen. On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock he was operated upon, and there was discovered adhesions of long standing and a general state of peritonitis. He rallied from the shock of the operation, but passed away peacefully at 3:30 on the afternoon of the same day. A private funeral was held at the house on Friday at 3:00 p. m., Aug. 6. A large number of intimate friends attended this memorial service. Rev. Walter H. Smith, pastor, officiated. Text, 2 Tim. 1:12, "I know whom I have believed."

Life's rich commitments as revealed by death, and life's splendid consummations in the hour of restoration. Internment was made at Sydney, Ohio. The personalities of earth are a marvelous gift, but blessed be the Lord for the sanctified personalities of heaven. William B. Pope was no stranger when he passed the gates ajar.

WALTER H. SMITH.

REV. W. W. BENSON

Rev. W. W. Benson was born in Darlington, Ontario, March 26, 1836. His parents were farmers; he received his education in the Canadian country schools and upon this foundation built his later study after entering the ministry. The university of experience on the Canadian frontier was his alma mater.

He was admitted to the ministry and ordained by the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada and remained with this branch for twenty-five years. Upon the consummation of union of Canadian Methodism, he came in 1882 and united with the Detroit conference.

His first appointment in Detroit conference was at Caro, with the late Dr. Smart and his presiding elder. He remained one year and then served the following charges: Utica, two years; Corunna, two years; Chesaning, two years; Morrice, five years; Byron, three years; Owosso (Asbury Park), three years; Napoleon, one year; Bennington, four years. He then retired and made his home in Morrice, in 1905.

On February 23, 1911, he suffered a stroke of paralysis, but recovered sufficiently to enable him to get around the house by using a cane. He had another slight stroke December 3, 1914, and in falling broke his hip. After suffering somewhat severely, he passed peacefully to rest December 12, 1914, at 4:30 a. m.

He was married in Canada on April 13, 1860, to Miss Maria Arnott, who has always been his loving helpmeet and constant inspiration. They celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage in Morrice, April 13, 1910.

He leaves to mourn besides his widow, two daughters, Mrs. B. E. Pratt and Mrs. G. C. Love, of Morrice and one son, A. F. Benson, of Minneapolis, Minn.

He was an earnest, faithful preacher of the gospel and a staunch believer in the Methodist doctrines of repentance, conversion and the witness of the Spirit. Greatly beloved by the people among whom he labored, he was used by God for the salvation of many souls, and the building up of many others into a higher Christian experience. In disposition he was kindly and gentle, and will long be remembered for his patience and tenderness.

He was ready for the call of his Father and has now passed onward to receive the full rewards of his faithful ministry.

The funeral services were held in the home at Morrice and were in charge of the pastor, who was assisted by Revs. A. B. Leonard, C. M. Thompson, N. Dickey, J. D. Young and J. B. Wallace.

Revs. Thompson and Dickey spoke very earnestly and touchingly of the help their association with him had been to them. Interment was at Corunna.

REV. JUDSON P. COOPER

Rev. Judson Phillip Cooper, who was completing his third year as pastor of the Asbury Church, Owosso, passed away suddenly at the parsonage, at about 10 o'clock June 2. He had been suffering with nephritis for several years and sustained a slight stroke of apoplexy, February 9. Later he suffered a nervous breakdown, but because of his rugged constitution, it was believed that he would recover. He was confined to his bed only two days. He felt considerably improved and was able to leave the bed and sit in a chair in the bed room. His wife was with him and was supporting him in her arms when he gasped and expired.

Rev. Judson Phillip Cooper, who was completing his third year as pastor of the Asbury Church, Owosso, passed away suddenly at the parsonage, at about 10 o'clock June 2. He had been suffering with nephritis for several years and sustained a slight stroke of apoplexy, February 9. Later he suffered a nervous breakdown, but because of his rugged constitution, it was believed that he would recover. He was confined to his bed only two days. He felt considerably improved and was able to leave the bed and sit in a chair in the bed room. His wife was with him and was supporting him in her arms when he gasped and expired.

Mr. Cooper was born in Smithville, Ontario, March 2, fifty-five years ago. When sixteen years old, his mother died and the family circle was broken. He removed four years later to Michigan, taking up his home with a sister, Mrs. Mary Quick, in Tuscola county. Previous to this time he was graduated from a high school in Ontario and was converted at a Baptist revival service. He later united with the Methodist church.

He first fitted himself for the ministry by taking the conference course of study. He was ordained and his work was assistant to Rev. Samuel Gilchriese, pastor at Cass City. His first charge was at Bridgeport.

Having saved sufficient money to place him in the Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ill., he studied there a year and a half and from school went to Nebraska and South Dakota.

Twenty-one years ago he returned to Michigan and was pastor at Bennington and Pittsburg for a year, Asbury church in Saginaw for one year and then he took up a year's work in the Mt. Vernon Seminary at Boston, Mass. On June 24 he was united in marriage to Miss Amelia Brueck and at the following conference he was assigned to the pastorate of Woodside Ave. church, Bay City, where he spent three years. He was pastor at West Branch a year, two years at Walled Lake. The family then returned to Evanston, Ill., where after two years' study he graduated from the Biblical Institute in 1904. For three years he was pastor Caseville, two at Armada and three at Washington Avenue, Port Huron. He then moved to Owosso.

He had made many staunch friends and the most profound sympathy of the community has been manifested during his illness. He was an earnest and tireless worker for his church and a man of deep religious conviction, who practiced what he preached.

Surviving are the widow, three children, Foss, Frederick and Charlotta, who reside at home, one brother and three sisters.

The funeral services were held at Asbury church and the body taken to Saginaw for interment. Dr. A. B. Leonard, district superintendent, officiated, assisted by other Methodist pastors.

MRS. MARY MCKIM LEWIS

Mrs. Mary McKim Lewis, wife of our brother, the Rev. Benjamin F. Lewis, was born Jan. 2, 1847 in Ontario, Canada, near the village of Nepanee. She was married to Rev. B. F. Lewis in 1887 and is the mother of two sons, Rowland M. and Archibald M.

Mrs. Lewis died on Sunday morning, Sept. 12 and funeral services were conducted by Dr. H. Lester Smith, assisted by Drs. Springer, Washburn and Oliver.

MRS. W. W. BENSON

Maria Arnott was born in Clark, Canada, July 26, 1839. Her girlhood days were spent on her parents' farm. She was married to Rev. William W. Benson April 13, 1859, and for more than fifty years shared with him the joys and trials of minister's life.

They came to the Detroit conference in 1882 and for twenty-five years served various charges faithfully.

They located in Morrice to spend their declining years in 1905, and on April 13, 1909, they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. She had been confined to the house for over four years, but was able to get about indoors a little until the morning of her death. She survived her husband only two months and twenty-six days, passing to rest on the evening of March 8, 1915, at the age of 75 years and 7 months. She is survived by three children, Mrs. G. C. Love, Antrim; Mrs. Minnie Pratt, Morrice and Mr. Arthur Benson, Minneapolis, Minn.

Sister Benson will be remembered for her noble heartedness, kindly disposition and firm, abiding faith in the Father's care and love. She missed her husband intensely, and though she nobly bore the brief separation, it undoubtedly hastened her end, and now they, who were almost lifelong companions, are sharing the blessings of the Father's house in a joy that knows no end. We miss their cheery spirit and companionship, but we rejoice in their example and influence.

The funeral took place at the home on the 11th, conducted by the pastor, assisted by Rev. A. B. Leonard. Interment was at the family burying place, Corunna.

S. A. CAREY.

MRS. LUCINA C. WAIT RICHARDS.

Mrs. Lucina C. Wait Richards was born in the state of New York in 1825, spending her younger days near Manchester, Mich., and while teaching school near Saline became acquainted with the late Rev. A. J. Richards, then a young farmer. She became his wife and they remained on the farm some fifteen years, when her husband entered the ministry. Her earnest religious nature enabled her to readily adapt herself to the work of a pastor's wife, and she enjoyed its labors and its privileges, and was a real helpmate to her husband.

Her two children, N. A. Richards, of Saginaw, and Mrs. J. E. Whalen, of Sault Ste. Marie, and her half-sister, Mrs. Sarah McCord, of Manchester, survive her and remember her with gratitude for her noble life and strength of character.

She spent her last few years with her son and died at Saginaw, Oct. 12, 1914, after a very brief illness.

REV. JOHN M. WILSON

Rev. John M. Wilson was born in Scotland and died at his home, 56 Van Court Avenue, Detroit, Mich., Saturday, December 12, 1914. He was converted at twenty-one and soon after began work for the Lord as a Sunday School teacher and occasional preacher in the mission rooms. In this work he was so successful that frequently he was urged to try and enter college with the view of becoming a minister of the gospel. This, for a long time, he was unable to do, partly because he did not feel qualified for such an office and partly because of the lack of means. His wish was to become a city missionary, and probably such would have been, but for the fact that the Lord, who was calling him to the work of the ministry, opened up the way in such a manner that he felt satisfied and glad to give up a good business position and enter upon what was to be his life's work. He had long had a desire to visit the United States and after several years' work in Scotland the way was opened for his coming to this country, which he did in 1887, arriving with his wife in Detroit in the fall of that year.

That year he was sent as supply to Iosco and Marion; in 1888 he was appointed to Delray, where he remained two years. While there the lot on which the old church stood was sold for a sum that enabled the trustees to buy three lots on the Dearborn road, move the church building and build the present parsonage, there being no house for the preacher's family, except a rented one. So carefully and cautiously did he arrange the details in connection with the removal of the church and the building of the parsonage, that the whole was finished free from debt. His other charges were Carleton and Scofield, one year; Weston, one year; Unionville and Sebewaing, three years; Troy, two years; Millington, three years; Bennington, one year; La Porte, two years; Salem, one year; Farmington, one year; Utica, three years; Watrousville, one year. While at Millington the old church edifice, that had done duty for a number of years, was sold, and the present one was erected. On account of ill-health he became a superannuate in 1909.

He was an earnest, faithful preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ. During his ministry many were converted and believers were strengthened and built up in their holy faith. He was a plain, unostentatious man and never courted popularity, but was well pleased to be a servant of the church, and as such he sought to do all the good he could to as many as he could.

And now he has gone to be with that Saviour and Friend he loved and served so long. He has left behind a wife, who has labored with him these many years on the charges he served, and a son, Henry F. Wilson, whom he hopes to meet again in the better land.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, at Fourteenth Avenue church, where he had worshipped during his residence in Detroit. They were in charge of the pastor, Rev. L. E. Lovejoy, assisted by Revs. I. E. Springer, C. B. Allen, J. E. Jacklin and P. I. Osborn. Dr. Lovejoy read the foregoing biographical sketch and paid fitting tribute to Brother Wilson's worth, from a favorite text of his, 1 Tim. 1:15. Burial was at Greenwood cemetery.

MRS. W. W. WASHBURN

Cleora Augusta Town was born in Ypsilanti seventy-five years ago last January (1915). Her father was a physician of wide practice and greatly interested in the church. Cleora was converted in a revival and united with the church when she was twelve years of age, and from that time to the day of her death maintained her faith in Jesus. She was an apt scholar and graduated from the Ypsilanti high school in the notable days when Joseph Estabrook was principal. On Dec. 25, 1866, she was married to W. W. Washburn, the wedding taking place at the old homestead, Rev. J. S. Smart officiating. Her husband was then superintendent of the public schools at Adrian, having accepted this situation about the middle of his senior year at Ann Arbor. At the end of the next school year, Mr. Washburn accepted the position of president of the State University of Minnesota. At the close of the second year here he felt such a drawing to the ministry that he resigned his promising position and returned to Michigan to enter the pastorate on a widespread circuit with a meagre salary. There is nothing strange about this for a man who heard the divine call, but for his companion to make the change and submit to the loss and deprivation of so many things that had made up and enriched her life, and to do this cheerfully, required a degree of consecration, which marks her a true heroine.

As a minister's wife she was especially capable in guiding seeking souls to the place of peace and blessing. Another feature of her Christian life was her interest in and work in behalf of the missionary cause, both foreign and home. She took an active interest both in the local and district societies and regretfully ceased her active work in behalf of this great cause. But she had to the last the willing spirit which is so pleasing to the Master. So we may be sure she had his approval. "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

REV. STEPHEN POLKINGHORNE

Stephen Polkinghorne was born in Tregajorran, near Camborne, Cornwall, England, Nov. 21, 1851. He was converted and joined the Wesleyan Church when fourteen years of age. His zeal for the cause of Christ, and his recognized usefulness in the church led to his being granted a local preacher's license at an early age, a position he worthily filled until he joined the traveling ministry. Owing to the disturbed industrial conditions, he decided to come to America, where he believed an opening could quickly be found. Circumstances justified his faith, for he was in this country but a few months before he was given the supply pastorate of Central Mine and Phoenix.

His first regular appointment was L'Anse, which he served two years. His next appointment was National Mine and Stoneville, after which he was appointed to Central Mine for three years and then to Bessemer. After this his appointments were Ontonagan, one year; Iron Mountain, three years; Manistique, five years; Ishpeming, six years; Lake Linden, three years; Kearsarge, five years; and Pewabic, two and one-half years.

After his pastorate at Manistique he took a year's vacation and spent the time visiting with his wife his old home in England.

One of the best commentaries on the beauty of his character and his efficiency as a pastor is the length of his later appointments and the further fact, well known to his friends, that usually the last year of his pastorates was the best.

He was married to Julia Rich, also a native of England, at Central Mine, March 1, 1889, with whom he lived in the sweetest, happiest relations till the day of his death. From this union three children were born. One died in infancy, the other two, Ada and Wilfred, are now living at home to cheer and gladden their widowed mother's heart.

Brother Polkinghorne was one of the most perfect of Christians and a faithful and efficient minister of Jesus Christ. Modest, patient, sweet-spirited, unselfish, his example, possibly more than his preaching, led people in the holy way. He continued a thorough student throughout his entire life. No papers were listened to with more interest at preachers' meetings and conventions than those prepared by him. In theology he was conservative. But he was in no sense behind the times. He was effective to the last.

Both ministers and laity in the upper peninsula, where his entire ministerial life had been spent, deeply mourn for him, but are happy in the thought that he has gone to an abundant reward.

He left his earthly home in the early hours of June 1, 1915. His disease had been such as to take all his strength and he complained of being "so tired." But on this night he was permitted to sleep and slept on until his physical life had ebbed away and his soul had left for the mansions above. His funeral was held in Pewabic church June 3, being in charge of the writer, who was assisted by eighteen ministers of the district. His body lies in beautiful Forest Hill cemetery, Houghton. The influence of his noble life abides with the people where he lived, labored, loved and died.

Peacefully and without a struggle, after an illness of four months, having been stricken with paralysis Sunday morning, Nov. 22, Julia Ross Gordon, wife of Rev. JULIA ROSS GORDON

Peacefully and without a struggle, after an illness of four months, having been stricken with paralysis Sunday morning, Nov. 22, Julia Ross Gordon, wife of Rev. John Miles Gordon, an honored member of the Detroit Conference, passed from this earthly life to the life beyond on Friday afternoon, March 12.

Nelson and Mary Ann Ross, father and mother of Mrs. Gordon, were among the early Methodist pioneers of Wayne county, having settled in the township of Redford in 1833. Their home was the place sought for by the itinerant preacher for whom there was always a welcome and entertainment without money and without price. The Ross home was known by Methodists far and near, and it was in this blessed Christian home that Mrs. Gordon was raised, and at a camp meeting held in the township of Southfield on the old Farmington circuit she was happily converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

December 30, 1856 she was united in marriage with John Miles Gordon, four children having been given them, one of whom died in infancy, and the oldest son, a prominent railroad man in Mexico, died nine years since of yellow fever. The other two are Frank L. Gordon, of this city, and Mrs. J. Emory Williamson, well known in the work of Central Church.

Tuesday afternoon, March 16, the funeral services were held in the home, 615 Fourteenth Ave., conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. Lester Smith, assisted by Bishop F. D. Leete, Rev. C. B. Allen and Rev. I. E. Springer. Mrs. Eugene Bresler most feelingly sang the hymn of such blessed memory, in connection with Mrs. Gordon's sickness—"Jesus lover of my soul."

Covered over with the beautiful floral offerings, the love tokens of family and friends, all that was mortal of our sister was laid away in the family lot in beautiful Grand Lawn Cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

Thus there has passed from our sight, but not from our hearts, a rarely beautiful and consecrated Christian life. Her life was a blessing to the church during the fifty-eight years in which she as the wife of a Methodist minister served her Lord and his church.

REV. HARRY GILLINGHAM

Rev. Harry Gillingham was born in Chettle, County of Dorset, England, June 9, 1856. He lived with his parents until the age of eighteen, when he emigrated to Canada. He settled in Goderich Township, Huron County, Ontario, and was converted the same year under the labors of Revs. Laird and Smith, members of the London Conference. Uniting with the Methodist Church, he was appointed class leader and local preacher. In August, 1884, he moved to Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and through the earnest solicitation of friends was persuaded to prepare for the ministry. He entered the Detroit Conference in the year 1891, and served the following charges: Hermansville, Pickford, L'Anse, Atlantic Mine and Rockland, removing to Compton, Calif. in 1906. In 1908 he served as pastor of Madera charge, Fresno District, for one year; returning to Compton, where he made his permanent church home.

He was married Dec. 19, 1894, in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., to Miss Jennie Drummond. There were five children born of this union: Robert Cameron, Otto Ninde, Gerald Stokes, Harry Raymond, and Margaret Grace.

Brother Gillingham heroically gave up his life by drowning in the flood waters near Compton, Calif., Feb. 21, 1914, while endeavoring to save those who were in danger.

The following account of the funeral is given by Rev. F. A. Leak:

"Sunday afternoon, Mar. 1, 1914, memorial services were held in the M. E. Church, Compton. The church was crowded to almost its capacity with friends and acquaintances of the deceased, a large number coming from Wilmington to attend the services. The choir sang so beautifully three of Brother Gillingham's favorite hymns, and a prayer was offered by Rev. Carey Willet of the Baptist Church. Scripture reading by Rev. Evans of the Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, a short sketch of Mr. Gillingham's life was given by Rev. F. A. Leak, pastor of the Methodist Church and Rev. E. Sedweek, a former acquaintance and co-worker with Brother Gillingham in Detroit Conference, spoke very beautifully of him and his past life. The service closed with a tribute by Dr. H. W. Peck, Superintendent of the Los Angeles district."

The relation of the writer as a brother pastor on the same district and later as his presiding elder, furnished the opportunities for a somewhat intimate acquaintance with Brother Gillingham. He was ever a diligent, capable pastor and preacher. He studied his people and their interests, and then, by earnest and wise efforts, brought things to pass. Increased membership, revivals and improved church property were evidences of his faith and industry on all the charges he served in the Detroit Conference of which he is an honored member. Greatly improved church property at Atlantic Mine and a commodious new church edifice at Rockland are outstanding monuments of his taste and industry. He was a true, genuine, manly man in all the relations of life; and as a man of affairs generally. He could be depended upon. And his love for God and humanity is seen in that he gave his life to the benevolent work of the Christian ministry and in the final act of loving heroism in which he laid down his life. I loved him as a friend and brother and his sudden death gave me great sadness. I shall cherish his memory as a sacred treasure and will ever pray that God's infinite love may sustain the sorrowing, devoted wife and the splendid sons and little daughter, so full of future promise. "The path of sorrow, and that path alone, leads to the land where sorrow is unknown."

MRS. ANN ARTLEY GEE

Mrs. Ann Artley Gee, wife of Rev. Alexander Gee of the Detroit Conference, was born in Canton Twp., Wayne county, July 9, 1838 and died at her home in Ypsilanti, November 21, 1914 in the serenity and ripeness of a beautiful Christian old age.

Sister Gee was the eldest of a family of seven children born to John and Alzina Artley, pioneers of the township of Canton. She was married to Rev. Alexander Gee, May 10, 1855 and at once entered upon the active life of an itinerant's wife, sharing the joys and sacrifices of that most important station in the days when it involved much of hardship and called for sterling fidelity and heroism.

Brother and Sister Gee labored together in the regular work of the ministry until 1878, when failing health compelled him to take a superannuate relation. They lived first at Carleton, later at Pontiac, where Brother Gee died in 1896 and then Sister Gee came to Ypsilanti and lived with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Johnson, until her death which followed a partial stroke of paralysis and a lingering period of feebleness and trying helplessness. Sister Gee is survived by two sons, Prof. Gee of the city schools of Detroit and Chas. Gee, editor in Grandville, Mich. and Mrs. Mary Johnson, of Ypsilanti.

Sister Gee was a modest, quiet, lovable woman. She possessed in high degree the simple, substantial graces of the Christian faith and practice. She identified herself in hearty loyalty to such organizations as the Women's Missionary Societies and the Women's Christian Temperance Union and above all to the church, which she loved with a deep and abiding love.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. Stalker, of Ann Arbor, in the absence of her pastor, Dr. Leeson, who was engaged in conducting another funeral. The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery in Pontiac, beside the body of her husband.

CARRIE M. CLARK

Carrie M. Clark, wife of Rev. N. Norton Clark, was born in Richmond, Ohio, Aug. 17, 1844 and died at their home in Petersburg, Mich., Monday, Mar. 22, 1915. Sister Clark had been in failing health for several years, but a rugged constitution had resisted and retarded the encroachment of disease.

In 1910, after a long and successful ministry, Brother Clark entered the retired ranks. A year or so later he built a very comfortable home in the village of Petersburg, where he had formerly served as pastor, and here the happy pair were enjoying a quiet eventide among old and cherished friends.

At the time of their marriage Brother Clark was a merchant in Ohio. Thence he entered Garrett Biblical Institute, graduating in 1872 and joining the Detroit Conference.

In the thirty-eight years of his active ministry, Sister Clark was his constant companion in labor abundant. She touched the life of the church in all its manifold activities; and her touch blessed and helped, while the parsonage home over which she presided in queenly grace offered a hospitality which none who have enjoyed it can ever forget. Two sons, Harlon G., of Petersburg and Mial V., of Detroit, survive their mother. The intense and self-sacrificing devotion of mother to sons and of sons to mother was notable.

The funeral service we held in the church of Petersburg, Mar. 25, 1915. Rev. T. B. McGee, a close friend of the family, gave the principal address. Others assisting were Brothers Greenwood and Priestley, the pastor, A. Balgooyan and the writer. The interment was at Blissfield.

MRS. ELLEN J. CURTIS

May 16, 1914, in Petersburg, Mich., Mrs. Ellen J. Curtis, highly respected, was called to rest. She was born in Nichols, N. Y., Oct. 30, 1835. She was united in marriage April 18, 1877, by Rev. A. N. Hazen to Rev. David A. Curtis, an honored member of the Detroit conference. This happy union was severed by his death March 5, 1905. Mrs. Curtis was a charter member of the W. C. T. U. of Petersburg, organized twenty-eight years ago. One month after the death of her brother, James Dunham, Mrs. Frances Hyers, a cousin residing in New York, came to her assistance, and tenderly and lovingly gave her the best of care, which, with the ever ready hands of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dunham, was a benediction even to the brink of the grave. Mrs. Curtis was converted about forty years ago, identified herself with the Methodist Episcopal Church and was faithful.

Her funeral was largely attended and an appropriate address was given by Rev. D. H. Ramsdell, D. D., who in his early ministry was one in the family. The following ministers acted as pallbearers, each taking some part in the service: Rev. A. Balgooyan, Rev. N. Norton Clark, Rev. T. A. Greenwood, Rev. J. S. Priestley, Rev. I. N. Wilson and Rev. F. J. Clifford. All that is mortal now rests in Pleasant View cemetery to wait the call of our Lord.

N. NORTON CLARK.

MRS. GRANT PERKINS

Life is not measured by years. Some who leave this world after a brief stay bequeath impressions for good beyond the common measure. It was so with the subject of this sketch. Only a little more than twenty-seven years were given to her on earth, but she so early and so fully gave herself to the best pursuits that a multitude will hold her memory sacred. Victoria McDaniel was born in Dallas, Texas October 11, 1887, and at about her ninth year the family settled in Louisville, Ky., where she grew up.

She was married to Rev. Grant Perkins, December 26, 1907 and went to grace the parsonage home of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church in Covington, Ky., where her husband was pastor. In September, 1909, they were transferred to Detroit conference and stationed at Onaway, where their two children, Paul Milburn and John Shepherd, were born. In September, 1911, the conference appointment placed them at Vassar, where two happy and useful years were spent. In September, 1913, Orion became their field and here her work on earth ended.

For about four years she had suffered from an ailment which necessitated surgical work in the fall of 1911, and a second operation in January, 1915, which was followed a few days later by her death, which occurred at the Grace Hospital in Detroit, Wednesday, January 27, 1915.

Very early in life she gave her heart to God and became an active worker in the Methodist Episcopal church. Her girlhood days were spent in the Junior League, the Queen Esther Circle, the Epworth League and the Sunday School. Her early womanhood found her accepting the uncertainties and responsibilities of the Methodist itinerancy and in this, as in her other relations to the church, she was unswervingly faithful. She was a woman of culture and refinement and a musician of rare ability. In her girlhood she served as organist in all departments of the church to which she belonged, and at nineteen years of age was called to preside at the great organ of the church of which she was a member, where she handled the finest instrument in the city. In her work as a pastor's wife her exceptional musical talents were gladly and cheerfully given to the service of the church. Her playing was the delight of all and her services were rendered without affectation or desire for recognition or reward. In spirit she was as unaffected and simple as a child, pride, selfishness and self assertion having no place in her thought. In her case artistic tastes and attainments did not militate against a true and beautiful domesticity, for as a wife and mother she was of the truest and best. Although of slender build and often suffering, she was tirelessly industrious and so full of cheerful courage as to inspire all about her with the spirit of service. She seemed to be a stranger to fear, and when she found that she was going from earth before her husband and mother could reach her, she simply said: "Tell them goodbye, I am going," and was gone.

Funeral services were held at Orion church January 28, in charge of District Superintendent C. B. Allen, assisted by several other ministers. The precious dust from which the gentle spirit had gone was taken to Louisville, Ky., where a public service was held in her home church and interment was made in the beautiful Cave Hill cemetery.

C. W. BALDWIN.

MRS. C. A. LOHNES

The departure of Mrs. C. A. Lohnes from the parsonage home in Gaylord, June 23, 1915, pained many hearts in many homes, where with her husband she had ministered during a number of pastorates. She was one of God's blessed women, whose life was dedicated to the high and holy task of making attractive and Christian the place where the preacher lives. Always considerate of her husband's mission, and anxious to help him in every way, in a quiet and unassuming way she made large contribution to the progress of the cause of Jesus, to whom she had given her heart at nineteen years of age. For sixteen years she and Brother Lohnes lived in sweet companionship. Some years after the adopted daughter came to live with them, two children, a son and a daughter, were born to them, who with the husband now walk in the shadow. She was brought to her old home in Dryden, where she was married, and where she began her Christian life. The services were held in the church, June 26. The superintendent of Flint district, assisted by Brothers Wood, Perkins, Ward and Thomas, conducted the burial service.

Because of the remembrance of her faith, her beautiful Christian life, the promise and presence of her Saviour who had spoken to her and to them of hope, home and heaven, it seemed but the coronation of another of the queenly women who preside over the thousands of Methodist parsonages over the world.

Our bereaved brother and his family have the sympathy and prayers of his brother ministers in this great sorrow.

"Out of the shadows of night
The world rolls into light;
It is daylight everywhere."

MRS. A. L. BUTLER

Mrs. A. L. Butler died at her parsonage home in Standish, May 3 1915, a short time after a serious operation, which at first appeared to be successful. She had been sick only a few weeks and until a few days prior to her death it was not considered serious.

Mrs. Butler has endeared herself not only to members of the church of which her husband was pastor, but to all the people, for her kind, gentle ways. She was an ardent Christian worker and a great help to her husband.

Her maiden name was Frances Walton. She was born in Metamora, February 25, 1881. After attending the local schools she graduated from the central high school in Detroit. She was married to A. L. Butler twelve years ago. She graced the parsonage with genuine womanliness and sincere love. Only those who knew her best and enjoyed her pure, sweet Christian life and unbounded faith in God can understand the loss.

After reading by Brother Bacon, of Midland and prayer by Alvin Doten, of Long Rapids, the body was taken on the train to Thomas, her childhood home, where a short service was conducted by Brother J. S. West and the writer. Burial in Oakwood cemetery.

ALVIN S. DOTEN.

MRS. NATHANIEL DICKIE

Margaret Iler, wife of Nathaniel Dickie, our beloved brother in the ministry, exchanged earth for heaven June 9, 1915, after a long life of noble service and helpful ministry. Born on June 1, 1848, at Essex, Ontario. She began a Christian career early, uniting with the Methodist Church of Canada while yet a girl. It can be truthfully said that her whole life was given to the Master and his church.

In 1872 she linked her life in love and marriage to Nathaniel Dickie then a minister of the Canadian Methodist Church. In 1883, she accompanied her preacher-husband to Michigan where he united with the Detroit Conference, beginning his work at Cass City. With him she bore the heat and burden of the day and fulfilled a long, useful ministry.

Her religion was not a churchly thing, but shone with brightness and cheer everywhere, particularly at the family hearth, where her children could see its radiance and enjoy its beauty. Ever young in spirit she was a companion to her daughters, sharing their pleasures and hopes; she never outgrew her girlhood. Some three years ago she was stricken with apoplexy, which caused her to be entirely dependent upon her family, who cared for her most tenderly. Through the years of helplessness her spirit was patient, her faith bright and her hope undimmed. In 1914, they came to Marine City, Mich., where Brother Dickie purchased a home and where together they rested and regaled themselves with the joys of a quiet life. Five children blessed their union, two of whom awaited her in heaven and three gave her comfort and companionship on earth: Mrs. F. W. Dakin, Dansville; Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Vassar; Miss Neva Isa, Marine City.

The funeral was held at Marine City on June 11, where the interment took place. Brother Dickie and his family were greatly cheered by the presence and words of brethren present at the funeral. Brothers W. J. Balmer, W. B. Weaver, J. E. Mealley, W. E. Brown, S. Jennings, W. M. Ward, C. E. Benson, B. E. Allen, H. Felton, Jr., J. E. White and the pastor shared in the conduct of the service at the house, church and grave-side. Our brother bears himself with the courage of a man of faith and is waiting patiently the coming of the morning when the Father will restore to him the beloved companion whose departure leaves him lonely, but not comfortless.

Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare past;
The battle fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last.

NELLIE CLARK DUNNING

Into the eternal rest which God has prepared for them that love Him, Nellie Clark Dunning has triumphantly entered. Life began with her under the best of Christian surroundings. Her parents, Stillman and Miranda Clark, were devout people. At nine years of age she definitely gave Christ her heart. She carefully prepared herself for her life work by attending the public schools near her home, and later finished her education at Kalamazoo. From thence she went out as a school teacher, and in this capacity was efficient, not only as a teacher, but shed a radiance among her pupils which added greatly to the building up of their character.

While teaching at Vernon, Shiawassee county, she met and married W. E. Dunning. Shortly after this event Mr. Dunning entered the Detroit Conference. Through all the years of his ministry she was his most efficient helper. Cultured in every way, a keen reader of human nature, intensely sympathetic and a woman of unusually well balanced mind and a personality most pleasing, she proved to be a most successful minister's wife. After their retirement from active work, her interest in the temperance, missionary and local church activities was increasing. She was president of the W. C. T. U. at Albion and Perry, and also president of the W. F. M. S. at Perry. Her chief legacy to her son and daughters is a great and loving motherhood, the remembrances of which cannot help but make an undying impression upon them as the years go by; like Abel, she being dead, yet speaketh.

The sentiments expressed in these brief words afford only a glimpse into her radiant, white soul. She lived as the constant proof of what Divine Grace coupled with a willing human heart can do. We shall rejoice in that we were ever permitted to know her on earth, and shall run our race with the greater patience because she has entered the City of God.

CONFERENCE BURIAL LOTS

Two cemetery lots are held in the name of the Detroit Annual Conference. One at Glenwood Cemetery, Flint, with one vacant burial, and one in the Forest Lawn Cemetery at Saginaw with three vacancies. These are available for members of the conference and their families in especial circumstances of need.

Annual Conference Sessions

Set off from the Michigan Conference by the General Conference of 1856.

REPORT OF THE BUREAU OF TRANSPORTATION.

The work of this Bureau has been eminently successful this year. Every man has paid his assessments to date and we shall be able to close with a balance of $135.76. With economy we have been able to use a lower rate than formerly, and as in former years have paid the traveling expenses of our Retired Brethren. We confidently believe that our work has passed the experimental stage and is now on a permanent basis. We respectfully submit the following financial statement:

AUDITING ACCOUNTS.

We, your committee beg to report that the Home Missionary accounts of each of the District Superintendents, the accounts of the Conference Treasurer, the Bureau of Transportation and the itemized accounts of the Financial Secretary have been audited and hereby certify that they are correct.

GRANT PERKINS,
R. J. CHASE,
JOHN RICHARDS.

SUPERANNUATED PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society was called to order by President C. W. Baldwin at 11:45 o'clock, Thursday morning, September 16th, 1915 at the seat of the Detroit Annual Conference in First Church, Port Huron, Michigan. In the absence of the Secretary-Treasurer, John Sweet, John E. Mealley was elected Secretary pro tem. The report of the Trustee's Annual Meeting was read and its recommendations were approved and adopted. The following officers were elected: President, Luther E. Lovejoy; Vice-President, W. G. Nixon; Secretary-Treasurer, C. W. Baldwin; Auditors, E. D. Dimond, John E. Mealley; Investment Committee, C. W. Baldwin, J. E. Jacklin, W. G. Nixon.

COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

It is with much satisfaction that we note the following facts. During the past four years the number of members received into the Church from the Sunday School is more than 100,000 in excess of the total increase in the membership of the Church. In our own Conference, our Sunday School membership has, in the past year, increased 5,447.

We highly appreciate the attention given us by the Sunday School Board of Chicago and assure them of our continued hearty support. We would recommend better Sunday School facilities in our Church buildings, the training of an efficient corps of teachers and the largest possible effort for the conserving of the young life to the Kingdom of God.

ERNEST BROWN,
E. A. CROSS,
L. H. STEVENS.

REPORT OF PARSONAGE COMMITTEE.

We note with dissatisfaction that about 82 of the Charges of the Conference have Parsonages and hope the percentage may increase.

We wish to call the attention of the Churches to the necessity of placing in the Parsonage the heavy furniture, so difficult and expensive to move, and suggest that all Charges make a systematic effort to do so. We further suggest that the Parsonage Committees of the local Churches make plans for Parsonage furnishing covering a period of years, adding year by year in intelligent and systematic manner the furniture it is wise and possible to obtain.

REPORT OF THE DETROIT CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD.

Another year of the Deaconess work in the Detroit Conference has passed into history and it has been a good year, a year of harmony and efficiency in all of the departments of our activities. The new administration under the direction of Superintendent Miss H. Sophie Sprague has been even more successful than we anticipated one year ago in our report. The work is rapidly expanding. We have been forced to enlarge our quarters for the accommodation of our deaconesses. This coming conference year we shall occupy both numbers 40 and 50 Selden Avenue and our force of workers will be considerably increased.

The following Deaconesses now constitute our home and their licenses have been renewed: Miss H. Sophie Sprague, Superintendent, the Misses Ella M. Bateman, Mabel M. Biggs, Kate A. Blackburn, Rosa M. Bradley, Cora A. Coyle, Mary J. Harrison, Ethel Herren, Deborah B. Kerfoot, Ella M. Lathrop, Alice B. Shirey, Nellie O. Stevens, Edith A. Wilsey. The new Deaconesses for the coming year are: The Misses Teresa Lanyon who comes to us from Barre, Vt., Gladys Plauts, from the Kansas City Training School and Sarah Walburn, from the Lucy Webb Hayes Training School of Washington, D. C. During the past year the Misses Stevens and Bateman have worked in connection with the Tillman Avenue Settlement, the Misses Blackburn and Harrison with the Fort Street Mission, the other Deaconesses are Parish Workers.

Our most efficient Treasurer, Mr. John Skeeman, has furnished me with the following statement of our resources and liabilities:

Real Estate, 50 Selden Avenue	$12,500
Real Estate, 40 Selden Avenue	6,500
House Furniture	1,130
Tillman Avenue Settlement House	12,000
Mortgage, W. Crispen and Wife	1,370
Endowment Fund	1,850	$35,350.00

The following are the sources of income for the support of our Deaconess Home:

Receipts from the Detroit Methodist Churches	$3575.00
Detroit Conference Woman's Home Missionary Society, ½ City Dues	478.00
Woman's Home Missionary Society (Tillman Set. Re-embursed)	437.00
Rentals	628.00
Receipts from Individuals and Societies.	878.00

President of the Detroit Conference Deaconess Board.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Realizing its importance in relation to the work of the church and to the extension of Christ's kingdom, we pledge the continuance of our loyalty to the ideals and standards of Christian education historic in Methodism.

ALBION COLLEGE.

We gladly note the continued and growing usefulness of our own college at Albion and commend Albion College to our young people and all Michigan Methodism. The addition to the equipment by the new Physical Laboratory building now in process of construction will open the way to still larger opportunities.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

All three of our theological seminaries, "Drew," "Garrett" and "Boston," report growing prosperity and wise plans for the future usefulness in meeting the needs of candidates for the ministry.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

1. The co-operation of our Board of Education with our schools in standardizing curricula, faculties, plants, equipment and endowment has been eminently helpful.

2. Its action at its recent annual meeting authorizing a Director of Religious Work for our institutions of learning is especially commendable.

3. Its thorough and far reaching "Survey" of educational conditions throughout the country now in progress, promises much for the Board's coming semi-centennial forward movement.

4. The Children's Day Collection, which has aided from the beginning 22,984 students—2,189 last year, and this year 2,288—continues increasingly helpful and efficient.

5. We commend and approve the apportionment by the General Conference Commission on Finance of the One Public Educational Collection, 80 per cent at the order of the Conference and 20 per cent for the Board of Education.

TRUSTEES OF ALBION COLLEGE.

The terms of D. H. Ramsdell and D. M. Christian as Trustees of Albion College expire at this time and we nominate as their successors, respectively, for three years, D. H. Ramsdell of Ann Arbor, and A. F. Knobloch of Detroit.

VISITORS TO INSTITUTIONS.

To Albion College—John E. Mealley, Oscar T. Olson.
Drew Theological Seminary—Luther E. Lovejoy, King .D. Beach.

Garrett Biblical Institute—N. Norton Clark, W. E. Brown.
Boston Theological Seminary—Walter R. Fruit, Frank N. Miner.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE OLD PEOPLE'S HOME.

The past year has been the best one in the history of our Home. Only one member of the family has died and seven new ones have been received. Present number thirty-seven.

A detached addition, 74 feet by 36, two stories high, containing 24 dwelling rooms has been built at the south end of the main building, to which it is connected by a two story corridor. It adds materially to the beauty and dignity of the Home and greatly increases the capacity. The cost of this new building is slightly above $18,000 and of this $15,500 has been secured. For the means with which to furnish this new addition we feel compelled to appeal to the women of our Conference through their Aid Societies and we ask pastors to second this appeal.

We are constantly seeking to increase our Endowment Fund and have added to it since a year ago, gifts, legacies and other money to the amount of $4,000. It is now $36,500.

The admission fees are kept in a fund separate from all other funds and are used only to a limited and fixed per cent yearly and are never exhausted until the respective members of the family die. There is now in this fund $27,000.

The yearly expenses of the Home are about $7,000. A little over $5,000 of this is obtained from admission fees and from interest on Endowment funds and a little less than $2,000 from Church collections. Heretofore this current expense fund has been overdrawn by amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1,600 at the opening of our Conference Session and in no year, prior to this, have the cash collections brought by pastors to Conference been sufficiently large to offset this overdraft. The Home has begun each year in the past with a handicap of debt. But this year, at the opening of our present Conference Session, this fund was in arrears only about $900, and the Conference Treasurer has in hand for the Home collections which foot up to about $1,100. For the first time the home will begin a new year without debt and with a small surplus.

The size of the Home family will be increased by one half this fall; the expenses will be raised nearly proportionately; in round numbers they will be $10,000. Our ability to provide daily bread for 55 aged men and women will be severely strained. We ask our pastors and our churches to hold steady and true in their support, for the time being, until the Endowment Fund can be duly strengthened.

The term of office of Trustees J. E. Jacklin, C. W. Baldwin, C. B. Allen, D. H. Glass, H. T. Dennis and B. D. York expire with this session of Conference and their re-election is recommended.

J. E. JACKLIN,
Cor. Sec'y.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Committee on Resolutions presented a suitable report expressing the gratification of the Conference in the presence and administration of Bishop Burt and the contributions of all those who made the fine program of the week possible. It recommended the observance of a Memorial Day in the churches in honor of our deceased ministers and a suitable decoration of the graves of deceased members of the Conference.

The report called attention to the death of candidates for the ministry of our church from our own families and pointed out the need of a more liberal and secure compensation for the service of the minister, in order that the church can command its best young life for the leadership.

Complimentary words for the pastor, Rev. E. D. Dimond, and all his co-workers in the fine entertainment of the Conference, were included in the report, which was presented by Rev. J. G. Haller.

SOCIAL SERVICE AND MORAL REFORM.

The supreme mission of the church is to realize the Kingdom of God on earth. While its method must always be that of individual regeneration, there is great reason to doubt the reality of that personal piety which finds no expression in social service. The program of Jesus includes the salvation of business from baseness, of politics from pollution and society from selfishness.

The social order is a divine institution. The state is not secular but sacred. We therefore reaffirm our adherence to the Social Creed of the churches as announced by our own General Conference. The church of Christ must always be for souls as against things, and sympathize with the spirit of the great social movement for restricting to just limits the rightful rewards of capital and for conserving for public welfare the bounty of nature.

We are in sympathy with the legislative program which includes the conservation of natural resources, reduction of hours of toil, workingman's compensation laws, the fight against occupational disease, the abolition of child labor, safeguarding women in industrial employment and the recovery of one day's rest in seven for every toiler of whatever trade.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE.

As disciples of the Prince of Peace we are opposed to that most colossal of crimes—war. We denounce the policy of so-called preparedness as false and as for the most part promulgated by those who are actuated by professional or commercial interests. We favor the creation of a World Tribunal to which shall be submitted all questions of international dispute, and pledge anew our loyalty to the present national administration in its high peace ideals, and the prophetic possibility of such an exalted conception of nonresistance as shall be a final death blow to the crime of war.

We plead for the larger observance and sanctity of the Lord's Day not only the keeping it from desecration by the ungodly but for its more faithful use by christian people in loyalty to the institutions of worship.

We pledge unrelenting warfare against the arch enemy of all good institutions and purity of life—the legalized, open saloon. And concur in the findings of scientific investigators that the only means of dealing with the social vice is its complete and final extirpation and the only final constructive policy for the purity of the home and individual that of a revival of a true family religion.

Signed,

GEORGE ELLIOTT.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONNECTIONAL INTERESTS.

The Methodist Episcopal Church is thoroughly organized for the purpose of teaching and preaching the everlasting Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in the world.

The Board of Foreign Missions—The population of the world is estimated to be fifteen hundred millions and one thousand millions are still unevangelized. Never has the non-christian world been so responsive to the appeals of the Gospel as now. We must pledge ourselves anew to this work that our church may worthily perform its part in world-wide evangelism. We recognize in the Women's Foreign Missionary Society a valuable auxiliary agency in the Missionary enterprise of the church.

The Board of Home Missions—In the Home Mission field the need is urgent and the opportunity great. The Commission on Evangelism has set a goal before the church in the recommendations concerning the forward movement. These recommendations are comprehensive, clear, and thoroughly in line with the spirit of Methodism.

We recommend that each pastor and district superintendent give serious consideration to the movement, become familiar with its purposes and swing the church into step with this march to the goal. The speediest way to evangelize the world is to Christianize America.

The Freedman's Aid Society—The work of the Freedman's Aid Society has been carried on through the past year in twenty-two schools with 372 teachers, and 6,961 students. It has been a year of unusual difficulty and stress to the schools, because of special industrial conditions in the south. We therefore recommend that each pastor take special pains to present the work of the Freedman's Aid Society to his congregation, and to obtain an increase in the collections over the preceding year.

The Board of Sunday Schools—We rejoice that our churches are becoming more alive to the importance of training the child for Christ and the church. We recognize the work of the Board of Sunday Schools as a safe and inspiring leader in this great work.

We heartily commend the work of our Deaconess Society. There are now 49 Deaconess Homes, 25 hospitals and 10 missions; in these and other ways this society is doing a splendid work in the towns and cities of our country.

The Book Concern has prospered during the year and has declared a dividend of three hundred thousand dollars. We recommend to our preachers and people a renewed and increased loyalty to the publications of our own house.

We congratulate the publishing agents on being awarded two prizes at the Panama Exposition, one for quality and workmanship in binding and printing, and the other for the quality and circulation of Sunday School supplies.

We rejoice that it is the aim of the Conference to create an endowment fund of $250,000.00 for the support of our Conference Claimants.

Respectfully submitted by the Committee,
GEORGE HILL,
GEO. W. OLMSTEAD,
B. E. ALLEN.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE COMMITTEE.

Your committee is pleased to report a most gratifying growth in League interests and membership throughout the Conference.

The Epworth League is our best field for the training of leaders. And from its circle of activity we draw recruits for the Ministry and for our Official Membership. The Epworth League Institutes and Conventions have proven to be of great value in promoting League efficiency. The Junior phase of our work merits the attention of our ministers.

A campaign now under way to solicit the interest and aid of Michigan Epworthians in the work of the Lunda Field in central Africa, which is directed by Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Springer is earnestly commended to our pastors as a great opportunity for developing the Missionary activity of our young people.

The Official Journal of our Young People's Society, the Epworth Herald, is a publication which may be made of great worth to all of our Epworth Leagues, and we respectfully suggest that attention be given to its circulation among our people.

"The Win-my-chum Movement" will inaugurate a two weeks' campaign in November, which will be of such importance that we respectfully urge that our churches fall into line with the movement. Its opportunity as a soul-winning campaign will be of incalculable value in the training of our young people.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT, which is to be conducted in our Church in 1915-1916, and which has set for its goal 250,000 net gain in membership, 500,000 enrolled in Time Legion and 1,000 young people dedicated to special Christian service as a life work, is a movement demanding the utmost co-operation of our pastors.

We urge the pastors to secure the necessary literature for the promotion of this movement among the young people such as "Time Legion and Life Covenant Pledge Cards" and other special publications from the Commission on Evangelism.

J. H. OATEY,
S. D. EVA,
R. E. AKIN.

CONSTITUTION OF THE DETROIT CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Rules of Order

Adopted in 1869, Modified in 1875, and Adopted at Each Session Since.

1. The Conference shall meet at 8½ o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourn at its discretion.
 2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned. The first half hour of the session shall be devoted to religious services, and thereafter the journals of the preceding day shall be read and approved.
 3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.
 4. He shall appoint all Committees, not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one Committee at the same time.
 5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.
 6. When a motion, resolution, or report presented is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before action or amendment.
 7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz.: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a Committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.
 8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.
 9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.
 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
 11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.
 12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.
 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.
 14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuses him.
 15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.
 16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.
 17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.
 18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise, ten days in advance, if practicable, so that the accused may have an opportunity for defense.
 19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.
 20. Two-thirds of the members present, and voting, may order the previous question on a pending motion.
- [A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table.]

Regulations

ADMISSION AND PROMOTIONS.

1. The Conference has voted that the District Superintendents present as candidates for admission on trial into the Conference the names of only such persons as have attained the equivalent of a twelve grade high school education.

(See Discipline Par. 567, Sec. 2.)

2. Each candidate for admission on trial, for admission into full membership, or for ordination as a local Deacon or a local Elder, must appear before the Committee on Ministerial Equipment during the first days of the Conference Session.

3. According to the ruling of the Bishop no person can be received on trial nor elected to orders while conditioned in any study. See also Discipline paragraphs 549, sections 1 and 2, and 567, sections 1 and 2. No person will be recommended by the Board to pass from the studies of one year into those of the next year if conditioned on more than one study unless three-fourths of the Board present shall vote for such advancement.

CREDITS.

4. All certificates of credit as provided for in the Discipline (Par. 668, Sec. 1, 4, 5 and 6) should be sent direct to the Registrar early in the year.

5. All requests for credit as provided for in the Discipline (Par. 568, sections 2 and 3) should be sent to the Examiners in the respective subjects, who will forward same together with their recommendations to the Registrar. These requests must be made at least four weeks before Conference in order to secure satisfactory adjustment.

THE EXAMINATIONS.

6. There are three examinations during the year. The first is on the last Tuesday in April; the second on the first Tuesday in August, and the third on the Tuesday before Conference convenes. The places of holding the first and second will be announced in the Michigan Christian Advocate at least two weeks previous to the examination.

7. All candidates are required to appear at the first and second or mid-year examinations or furnish a satisfactory excuse to the Chairman of the Board. Candidates must write upon the subjects in the order given and as prescribed in the above plan. (See also Discipline paragraph 569, section 6.)

8. All who fail to qualify for advancement are required to meet the Board in person or if not in attendance on Conference to send to the Registrar a written explanation. The Board wishes to keep in close touch with all undergraduates and assist them whenever possible.

9. In case any candidate fails in examination on any subject the Board shall review his record for final marking. The candidate may appear before the Board in person if he so desire.

10. All examinations shall take place in the presence of a member of the Board or other supervisor appointed by the Chairman. Said Supervisor shall collect the fees, papers, sermons and essays and forward them immediately to the Registrar. He shall see that no papers are signed and that the duplicate record slip is properly filled out and attached to each paper.

THE EXAMINER.

11. Each Examiner shall prepare and send to the Chairman at least one month before the April examination two different sets of at least ten questions on each subject assigned him; one set to be used at the mid-year examination and the other to be used at the Conference examination (Disc. p. 569, sec. 3.)

12. Each Examiner is expected to furnish such information and suggestions concerning the books or subjects assigned him as will be most helpful to the students preparing for the examination. Students are invited to consult personally or by letter with the examiners concerning any difficulties connected with the respective studies.

13. The Examiner shall grade and mark the papers, essays and sermons on a scale of 100, and the candidate must attain a standing of 70 in order to pass. After the Examiner has reported his markings to the Registrar he shall have no authority to change the marking without consent of the Board.

14. The Registrar is authorized to give to each student receiving a passing mark of 70 an additional 5 per cent on all examinations taken at the regular April and August examinations and at the Summer School Assembly.

SERMONS AND ESSAYS.

15. Sermons and essays should be handed in at the April Examination or at the very latest one month before the Conference session. Papers sent in after the August Examination cannot receive the additional 5 per cent.

16. Sermons, essays and examination papers shall not be signed, but to each a duplicate record slip properly filled out should be attached. The Registrar shall forward all papers to the proper examiner without the candidate's name, but identified by the number corresponding to the number of the candidate's name on the Registrar's record. All papers shall be the property of the examiners.

17. Sermons and essays must not contain more than 1,500 nor less than 800 words and must be written on light weight paper, size 5½ in. by 8½ in. written on one side only.

18. Each candidate shall file with the Registrar not later than the Tuesday before Conference convenes a statement that he has read all the books "to be read." No substitutes for books to be read will be accepted.

19. By order of the Conference each candidate is required to pay annually, at his first examination, a fee of one dollar. Unless the fee is paid no papers of the candidate can be forwarded by the Registrar to the several Examiners.

20. All who have taken examinations during the year are requested to meet the Registrar at 4 p. m., on opening day of Conference to see if all credits are in and on Saturday at 2 p. m., to get final standings from Registrar's record.

21. The Board heartily endorses the Summer School Assembly of undergraduates and urges every undergraduate of Detroit Conference to avail himself of these opportunities. The studies in the above plan marked with a star (*) can be taken at the Assembly which meets at Albion College after Commencement. Watch Advocate for announcements.

A Great Song Book

Hundreds have already written us that "Songs for Service" is the superior of any gospel songbook they have ever met up with. Its 288 pages sparkle with bright, new, snappy songs—songs that have been tested—that are unusually effective—songs such as have made previous Rodeheaver songbooks so wonderfully popular.

Songs for Service

is the best songbook that has yet been issued by The Rodeheaver Co.—no higher praise can be given. It is the book used exclusively in the "Billy" Sunday campaigns.

CHURCH INSURANCE NOW IN OUR SEVENTEENTH YEAR

Since the General Conference of 1890 authorized this organization for the protection of our people upon the easiest terms consistent with safety of Methodist Churches, Parsonages, Schools, Household Effects and Libraries of our members against FIRE, LIGHTNING and TORNADOES, we have written policies amounting to more than ONE HUNDRED THIRTY MILLION DOLLARS ($130,000,000) over THIRTY FIVE MILLION DOLLARS ($35,000,000) of which it now is more.

During this time losses paid have amounted to over NINE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS ($900,000), NOT ONE DOLLAR OF WHICH WAS EVER OVER AND UNPAID.

Premiums collected in annual installments, thus bringing the expense into the yearly budget, which is more convenient and equitable than to pay a large lump sum in advance for a term of years. We accept premium for the five years covered by policies, when desired, and allow special discount to those of dividends, but recommend annual installments.

Profits divided among policy-holders when money has earned them.
NO ASSESSMENTS.

The close of each year has found us rendering a larger service than ever before.
