POINTERS FOR VOTERS

GIVEN BY JUDGE LOUIS W. MYERS OF SUPERIOR COURT CONCERNING PRIMARY

Our primary election laws have been changed so frequently and so radically in this state that much confusion exists among the voters as to their provisions. I have been asked to furnish in simple language answers to some of the questions most frequently asked by the voters in this connection.

The following rules, by reason of their brevity of statement, are not absolutely accurate in all respects, but are sufficiently so I think for practical purposes.

Who Are Entitled to Vote
All citizens of the United States over the age of twenty-one, who have resided in this state one year, in the county ninety days and in the precinct thirty days, next before the date of election, who have duly registered since Jan. 1st, 1914, and who have not moved outside of the precinct since registering. (Naturalized citizens must have been admitted ninety days prior to election.)

Non-Partisan Voters May Vote at the Primary
Under all former primary laws, there was no provision for a non-partisan ballot, and the result was that all voters who had declined or failed to state their party affiliation were disfranchised at the primary election.

Under the present law the names of all candidates for county and township offices, in addition to those for all judicial and school offices, will be printed on a separate non-partisan ballot, which will be given to all voters at the primaries who have not registered their party affiliations. These same names will also be printed in separate columns on each of the party ballots.

The Polls Will Be Open Thirteen Hours
The polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. Voters who are at the polls and in line waiting their turn at 7 p. m. will be entitled to cast their votes.

How to Vote
Get your voting number from the printed voting list, which will be posted outside the polling place. Entering the polling place give your number to the clerks and sign the roster of voters, being careful to write your name and address just as you did when you registered. Take the ballot which will be handed you into one of the booths and mark it by placing a cross opposite the name of each candidate for whom you wish to vote. Then fold it so that the names are concealed and the number on the back can be torn off, and hand it to the officer at the ballot box, giving him your name.

Writing in Names
If you desire to vote for any candidate whose name is not on the ballot, you can do so by writing in his name in the blank space which appears under the designation of that office upon the ballot.

Use the Rubber Stamp
Be sure to use the rubber stamp found in the booth for the purpose of making the crosses. Do not make any mark upon the ballot with pen or pencil except in writing in names, or you will invalidate your ballot.

Spoiled Ballots
If by mistake you make a mark on the ballot where you did not intend to, fold it and return it to the ballot clerk and receive from him a fresh ballot.

How Many to Vote For
Vote for as many candidates for each office as there are places to be filled and no more. This number you will find indicated on the ballot following the designation of each office by the words "Vote for one" or "Vote for two" (or more as the case may be).

For example, there are ten judges of the superior court to be elected, and you may vote for ten, or any less number, but if you vote for more your vote will not be counted at all for this office.

Mark Your Sample Ballot
I feel that the best advice I can give the voters is the following: Before going to the polls take the sample ballot which you will receive through the mails, and, taking plenty of time, mark it carefully the way you intend to vote. Then take it to the polls with you and mark your official ballot to correspond with it. This will serve two good purposes. It will avoid waste of time at the polling place, which is an important factor, and it will decrease the danger of mistakes in marking your ballot.

Don't Fail to Vote
It is to the interest of the state that each election held should register the will of all the electors, not merely a small portion of them. If you are not personally interested in

FORM BOOSTER CLUB

THOMAS LEE WOOLWINE CLUB IS ORGANIZED BY LOCAL PEOPLE

An enthusiastic group of citizens, representing all parts of Glendale, met at the residence of I. H. Russell, 343 North Maryland avenue, Saturday evening for the purpose of furthering the candidacy of Thomas Lee Woolwine for district attorney.

The following officers were elected: Col. Thos. C. Thornton, president; Mrs. P. A. C. Moore, vice-president; Mrs. Mary W. Edwards, secretary and treasurer. The following were appointed as committeemen to assist in organization and precinct work: C. L. Peckham, R. M. Jackson, Mrs. C. C. Butterfield, R. P. McMullin, Mrs. Chas. Grist, T. D. Ogg, J. N. McGillis, J. W. Durham.

Many prominent local citizens are members of the Woolwine county executive committee, including Mattison B. Jones, John W. Usilton, I. H. Russell, Mrs. Aletia Goode, Charles Grist, J. N. McGillis, Mary H. Gridley-Brady, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, P. A. C. Moore, L. W. Killian, N. C. Kelley, Frank L. Muhleman and E. D. Goode.

Final arrangements were made for a large mass meeting to be held Saturday evening, August 22nd, at the high school, when Thomas Lee Woolwine will be the principal speaker. Present indications show a large majority of Glendale voters supporting Mr. Woolwine.

The executive committee will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Mary W. Edwards, 1411 West Sixth street.

GOOD ROADS LEGISLATION

The American Automobile Association of Washington, D. C., is taking an active interest in the election of congressmen favorable to the good roads movement throughout the United States.

Mr. A. G. Batchelder of Washington, chairman of the executive committee of the automobile association, states: "I have no hesitation in suggesting to you that if there is any frank in which you can facilitate Mr. Frank C. Roberts' nomination in the ninth district it would simply be working for the man who believes in the right kind of road legislation, and whose vote will come in mighty good when we get to work in next winter's session. He is a man who will be of great assistance to the good roads movement in the house of representatives."

OUR EASTERN FRIENDS

We will say to our eastern friends who are particularly fond of figs that Southern California is noted for fig growing. Many residents of Glendale have a few fig trees in their dooryard and the yield this season is abundant. J. N. McGillis of 205 Lomita avenue has trees that he says are producing $12 worth of figs, counting the fruit at five cents per pound.

WOMAN CANDIDATE FOR CONSTABLE

Although she is one of only a score or so of women in the entire district, Mrs. Estelle McCarthy formally announces that she is a candidate for constable in the tenth township of Fresno county. Mrs. McCarthy is a cook at a ranch in the foothills of the Sierra Nevadas. In addition to being wild and mountainous, her territory is one of the roughest and toughest in California. "I'm going to cover the entire township on horseback before election," Mrs. McCarthy declared, "and I expect to pledge every vote before election day."

DON'T BE BACKWARD

The News will appreciate the favor if friends, patrons and residents of this city kindly telephone to this office personal, social and other items of local interest. If friends are visiting you, let us know about it. If you are going away for a visit, tell us of it. If you know of some occurrence in your locality that will make an item of interest, advise us of it. All these things help in the making of a good local newspaper.

any candidate, that is all the more reason why you should not neglect to vote. Your vote in that case will be most apt to be an impartial one, because it will be disinterested. The welfare of the community will be best promoted by the votes of the disinterested electors, whose only interest in the result is the advancement of that welfare.

OLD WORLD WAR NEWS

JAPAN ISSUES ULTIMATUM

A grave development in the European struggle is Japan's ultimatum to Germany expressed in the following terms:

"We consider it highly important and necessary in the present situation to take measures to remove the causes of all disturbances of the peace in the Far East and to safeguard the general interests as contemplated by the agreement of alliance between Japan and Great Britain.

"In order to secure a firm and enduring peace in Eastern Asia, the establishment of which is the aim of the said agreement, the imperial Japanese government sincerely believes it to be its duty to give the advice to the imperial German government to carry out the following two propositions:

"First—To withdraw immediately from Japanese and Chinese waters German men-of-war and armed vessels of all kinds and to disarm at once those which cannot be so withdrawn.

"Second—To deliver on a date not later than September 15 to the imperial Japanese authorities, without condition or compensation, the entire leased territory of Kiau-Chau with a view to the eventual restoration of the same to China.

"The imperial Japanese government announces at the same time that in the event of it not receiving by noon on August 23, 1914, an answer from the imperial German government signifying its unconditional acceptance of the above advice offered by the imperial Japanese government, Japan will be compelled to take such action as it may deem necessary to meet the situation."

The battle on which hangs the fight in Europe is now on. The assaults and bombardments by the Germans are incessant. The French are reported to have swept the eastern border of their country free of invaders and have cleared the way for an attack on Strassburg, the capital of the province of Alsace.

The mobilization of the Russian army is now complete and that country is ready to assume the offensive, parts of the army already having crossed the Austrian frontier.

Two French military aviators attempted the destruction of the dirigible balloon shed at Metz in the province of Alsace. A terrific fire was directed on the aviators, but they hurled bombs into the fortress and while smoke obscured their view, they believed they had achieved their purpose and returned safely to Verdun.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Mr. Francis' sermon Sunday morning showed the power of God to save the real believer, but only if the heart be right and the faith sincere. He said the reason that the nations of Europe are plunged into war is that their leaders have not "thought right." Instead of working to get their people to observe the Golden Rule, they have been working to build up great armaments for conquest or defense. They are now getting results right in line with their thinking.

By the way, Rev. N. J. Wright offered the prayer at this service, and it was one which deserved to be thundered around the world because of its anathemas against war, and its petitions to God that he would stay the hands which are at the throats of their brothers.

The attendance at the Bible school was nearly two hundred and the men's class had thirty-five present to twenty-nine for the women. Both these classes give promise of having a very large attendance as soon as vacation season is over. A group picture of the men's class appears in Sunday's "Lookout." Extra copies can be had if desired.

A meeting of the officers, teachers and class officers of the Bible school is called for this evening at the church. Mrs. Jackson is anxious to have nearly all these present.

On Wednesday evening Dr. Dungan will give a lecture at the church on the principal theme of "California Dry," but which is expected to consist also of some parting words of advice and instruction to his friends for their good during his absence in the East. The professor and Mrs. Dungan expect to leave for "the Springs, of Arkansas in a very short time, with the hope that they will be of great benefit to the doctor's health. As his stay will be indefinite, no doubt a very large number of his friends will be present Wednesday evening. After the lecture a social time will be enjoyed and light refreshments will be served.

The Endeavorers have a treat in store for the congregation for next

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING

A representative of each of the young people's societies of Glendale will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at H. A. Wilson's office, 912 West Broadway, to make necessary arrangements about the dry campaign.

A. F. PRIEST SUCCESSFUL HUNTER

Mr. A. F. Priest, Mr. Paul B. Peterson and Mr. Winifred Spink returned Sunday from the Calabasas country, bringing with them a two-pronged 175-pound deer. The party left this city Friday in order to be in the woods when the deer season opened on Saturday. On Saturday evening Mr. Priest had the good fortune to bring down a fine specimen and reached home in good time Sunday with their quarry.

This is the first report we have had this season from Glendale hunters who have succeeded in bringing down deer, but the season has just opened and no doubt there will be many of the pretty little animals brought low before its close.

Y. P. B.

The Y. P. B. will meet for a business and social evening at the home of Miss Eusebia Farrant, 421 East Colorado boulevard, tonight. A full attendance is desired.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES GIVE SPECIAL SERVICE AT CASA VERDUGO

A special missionary service and one of great interest was held at the Casa Verdugo M. E. church Sunday night when Dr. and Mrs. Rice, returned missionaries from Brazil, addressed the congregation in regard to the work in South America. Mr. and Mrs. Rice spent twelve years in Buenos Ayres and six years in Chili under the Methodist missionary board. They have a wonderful knowledge of conditions down there and were able to bring the subject home to their listeners very forcibly. Mrs. Woodcock of Eagle Rock, also a returned missionary, organized a Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of twenty members from the women of the Casa Verdugo M. E. church. This organization will meet in the near future. This speaks well for the church and the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen of Ramona Acres were visitors at the morning service at Casa Verdugo M. E. church Sunday. Rev. M. K. Stone, pastor of the church, was their former pastor at Ramona Acres.

A committee of North Glendale ladies carried to a most successful conclusion a delightful social affair in the form of a benefit dance at Butler's hall on Saturday evening. About 125 couples were present, among the number being many North Glendale people, while many others motored out from Los Angeles. The scene was a most entrancing one, as the beautifully gowned ladies moved about the prettily decorated ballroom. A candy booth presided over by several pretty girls in pretty gowns was a popular place during the evening and there were many other attractive features. The affair was a success from every viewpoint and the committee are delighted beyond words at the very substantial fund they have secured for a worthy cause, as well as the social success they achieved.

Miss Goldie Drake of 1657 Ruth street is spending a week in Gardena as the guest of her uncle, Mr. C. L. Closson and family of that place.

Mrs. Margaret Glenn of North Brand boulevard was the guest of Mrs. C. H. McKeever of Hollywood during the past week.

Mr. A. N. Dimick of 1000 North Central avenue came home Saturday night from a ten days' hunting trip in the San Bernardino mountains. The party whom Mr. Dimick was with were very successful, bringing home a fine buck as evidence, besides enjoying a feast of game while in camp.

Miss Ruth Browne of 1620 Stocker street, with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bourne of Sycamore street, Mrs. Bourne's mother, Mrs. McDonald of Eagle Rock, Miss Mazie McDonald and Mrs. Milford and son, Mr. Albert Milford, were a merry party who left Saturday evening for Balboa Beach, where they will enjoy a week's outing.

MOONLIGHT MUSICALS

PARENT-TEACHER FEDERATION PLANS BENEFIT TO BE GIVEN SEPT. 4

The presidents of the various Parent-Teacher Associations met at the home of Dr. Jessie A. Russell, 343 North Maryland avenue, Saturday afternoon to plan for an entertainment for the benefit of the Glendale Parent-Teacher Federation. Mrs. Chas. H. Toll has offered the use of her beautiful grounds, and the committee has arranged for a "moonlight musical" to be given there on the evening of September 4th, when the splendid lighting system of the Toll grounds, together with the light from the full moon, will furnish an ideal setting for this entertainment. This promises to be an unique entertainment and will be the first of the kind ever given in Glendale.

The committee on general arrangements appointed by Mrs. Toll is as follows: Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Mrs. Jessie Mitchell, Mrs. N. C. Kelley, Mrs. Eulalie Andersen, Mrs. Grace Bayley, Mrs. H. W. Yarick. Mrs. F. S. McKee will have charge of the tickets and will be assisted by a committee of seven from each association. These tickets will be placed on sale Wednesday of this week. Admission to the grounds, including concert, will be 25 cents. Special arrangements will be made for transportation at a nominal fee.

Mr. and Mrs. Toll and family are now at Lake Tahoe, but will be at home the week preceding the musical.

ANOTHER SHAKESPEARE CLUB

A number of local young people met one evening last week at the home of Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, 1550 Myrtle street, where a Young People's Shakespeare Club was organized and an interesting evening enjoyed.

Under the personal direction of Mrs. Sloan this club will take up for study and presentation popular books of that well-known and thoroughly enjoyed author of long ago, but before going into the serious undertaking a topping comedy entitled "Garrotters," by William Dean Howells, will be produced before the public, all the present club members to appear in the cast.

The work to be done by this newly organized circle will be in the interest of the Glendale public library and any money taken in as the result of their conscientious work will be contributed to the library fund.

Before leaving those present were served to delicious iced punch and cake, generously supplied by the enthusiastic hostess, who will direct the young people in all their undertakings.

UNIQUE SURPRISE

A very unique surprise was planned by Miss Winifred Taylor as a goodbye party for Miss Gladys Lampert of 403 West Fifth street. The invitations named the hour of eight and "a treasure for treasure box." At the appointed time the girls rushed through the door to the music room, where some unseen hand had rolled a beautiful cedar chest and raised the lid. As they joined hands and danced around the box, they sang and dropped their treasures in. Just as they finished the boys gave a rousing yell of "What's the matter with Gladys? She's all right! Gladys! Gladys!" Then the usual greetings occurred.

Some very beautiful musical numbers were given by George Ketterling and Miss Grace Shropshire.

At 10:30 Miss Taylor invited the crowd to follow her and she led them to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Freeman, where a quaint old-fashioned lunch was served without plates, knives, forks or spoons.

The color scheme was orange, green and white. After the guest of honor and the hostess had been toasted many times, the crowd went back to the Lampert home, where a drawing contest ended the evening's pleasure. Miss Vivian Engle being the recipient of the first prize, and Mr. Ketterling the proud winner of the "booby."

Miss Lampert leaves Monday for a new home in Los Angeles, where she will enter the School of Manual Arts.

Those invited were George Grist, Ralph Tipton, John Kline, Charles Shropshire, Melvin Moore, George Ketterling, C. C. Riggs, Geo. L. Potter, Bud Pierce, L. T. Chandler and the Misses Grace Shropshire, Marlon Carmichael, Esther Grist, Vivian Engle, Winnifred Iochar, Emalee Burton, Zella Burton, Elecia Kelly, Winifred Taylor.

BIG DEMAND FOR RAISINS

The very active demand for raisins in the last few days, due to the stopping of the world's shipping, is a striking object lesson of the serious competitor foreign raisins are to our own product. Especially strong has the demand been for Thompsons and Sultanas, the seedless form of raisin that receives the strongest competition from the Zante currant. The lowering of the tariff on raisins has greatly increased importations, but the effect was not so instantly and dramatically felt until importations suddenly became impossible. Then there was at once a clamor for domestic raisins.

Of course, the raisin growers do not want a world war to continue simply to boost raisins, but the situation does strikingly illustrate the value of a protective tariff to California growers.

It is not improbable that the general domestic use of California raisins—the result of the paralysis of shipping—will result in a permanently enlarged field. In the first place users will find that they are the equal, if not the superior, of over-sea raisins, and the market once acquired will be held. This would be certainly the case if the protective tariff were restored.

WOMEN SHOULD DRESS PROPER

A dress demonstration for women was held at the Seventh Day Adventist camp ground the other day by Dr. Belle Wood-Comstock, superintendent of the nurse's training class at Glendale sanitarium. She said women should be as healthful and strong as men, for being naturally temperate and leading a clean life, there is no reason why she should not be strong and well. Errors in dress and improper diet cause most of the disease, she said.

She demonstrated health waists as a substitute for corsets, said all the clothing should be supported from the shoulders, and that two inches of space should be left about the waist for breathing. "The woman who dresses rightly from childhood up and has proper exercise will have a perfect form," she said.

HEAVEN AND MISSOURI

A Missourian tells of the objections interposed by a man in that state to the presence of a local exporter, who wished to offer prayer when preparations were under way to hang a horse thief in the old days.

"This prayer of yours," said the objector, "may be all right as a supplication. Understand me, I have no objection to the prayer as a prayer, but it's inconsistent to pray at this time and place."

"I can't see that," said the preacher. "This man is about to be launched into eternity. So he should be comforted and his soul saved if possible."

"Saved, nothing," said the objector. "You want to send a petition to get this man into heaven when we are hanging him because he isn't fit to live in the state of Missouri."

A POPULAR PERSON

The conductor of a western freight train saw a tramp stealing a ride on one of the forward cars. He told a brakeman in the caboose to go up and put the man off at the first stop. When the brakeman approached the tramp, the latter waved a big revolver and told him to get away.

"Did you get rid of him?" the conductor asked when the train was under motion again.

"I hadn't the heart," was the reply. "He turned out to be an old school friend of mine."

"I'll take care of him," said the conductor, as he started over the top of the cars.

When the train had again started the brakeman came and said:

"Well, is he off?"

"No; he turned out to be an old school friend of mine, too," replied the conductor.

FATHER!

On a Sunday evening little Willie was taken to church by his mother and father.

"Mamma," said little Willie, when they had returned to their own happy home, "is it true what the preacher said about some of the heathen not wearing any clothes?"

"Yes, my dear," answered mamma, "it is unfortunately too true."

"Then, mamma," was the rather surprising rejoinder of Willie, "what was the use of papa putting that button in the collection box?"

Several years ago a newspaper publisher of Des Moines, Iowa, said he would like very much to publish a paper in accordance with his own notion. To do this successfully he said it would be necessary for him to have his publication headquarters on a great high tower beyond the reach of human beings. Such being the condition he would talk fearlessly through the columns of his paper.

WHY JOHN C. CLINE SHOULD BE SHERIFF

He has lived in Los Angeles 45 years and everybody is familiar with his clean public record.

In 1894 as sheriff he handled the great American Railway Union strike without the aid of the militia, by appointing special deputies from the ranks of labor, to prevent disorder and the destruction of property. Thus in his wisdom demonstrating that men in any walk of life, put upon their honor, will observe their trust.

MRS. HEWES ENTERTAINS GLENDALE AND TROPICO FRIENDS

A most delightful evening of cards was enjoyed by a number of Glendale and Tropic people Friday evening of last week when as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hewes of Hillcrest drive, Los Angeles, the following tried their luck at Five Hundred:

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Payne, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Willis M. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Woolsey, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. McKenney, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Westlake, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cross, Mrs. W. A. Austin, and Mr. Charles McKenney.

A varied and gorgeous assortment of monstrous dahlias were used in converting the rooms into a mass of bloom, these same flowers having been reproduced in water color tints on the attractive score cards used.

Mrs. O. E. Clemens, Mrs. Herman Payne, Mr. W. M. Kimball and Mr. D. H. Smith were awarded ladies' and gentlemen's first and second prizes, respectively, and Mrs. C. H. Woolsey and Mr. Charles McKenney received consolations for lowest scores.

Refreshments followed and were as delicious as they were elaborate.

There is talk of shirtwaists of uniform style for policemen, and again it may be asked, why not? Custom has inured us to worse things in styles than policemen in uniform shirtwaists.

Saturday noon a luncheon was given by the Misses Toll to bring together old friends of their niece, Miss Grace Lainhart. Several friends from Los Angeles, with Miss B. L. Field, who is an old schoolmate of Miss Lainhart, enjoyed their hospitality.

VETERANS ATTEND ENCAMPMENT

Members of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., have returned from their annual outing at Huntington Beach, where the Southern California Veterans' Association held their twenty-seventh annual encampment. They report the finest time they ever had.

Over two thousand people were encamped there, including many members of the W. R. C. and wives of the veterans. The memorial service held Sunday was one of the most beautiful ever held by the association. The names of 213 veterans who have passed to the eternal camping ground during the past year were read.

In recent years since many of the veterans have given up active work, the encampment has been more and more of a pleasant social gathering since more of the members are able to go and stay during the full term. The Glendale Post always maintains headquarters and a goodly number of the members were in attendance this year.

EHMKE SIGNED BY NATIONALS

Howard Ehmke, the pitching sensation of the 1914 Coast League race, will join the Washington club of the American league at the close of the present season. Hen Berry, owner and high mogul of all the Angels, announced Sunday that Ehmke had been purchased by the Nationals, but that he would finish out the season with his club.

Ehmke started out his career by winning eight straight games. Then he hit a tremendous slump and began skidding. Many of those games, however, were of the hard luck brand. The men against him were twirling in shut-out style.

But in last week's double header he came back and held the Tigers helpless for the eleven innings he was on the mound.

He promises to be worthy of being on the same team with Walter Johnson, the greatest of them all.

TROPICO

The many friends of A. V. Dunsmore of Los Angeles, who for the past twenty years or more has been connected with the distribution department of the Los Angeles Times, will regret to learn that Mr. Dunsmore suffered an apoplectic stroke last Thursday. Fortunately for Mr. Dunsmore and family he was overcome while at his home on Stichel street in Los Angeles. His condition is very serious and much solicitude is expressed by his many friends in Tropic and Glendale, who remember Mr. Dunsmore as a genial and jovial man who always greeted one with a cheery smile.

Joseph V. Griffin, commander of N. P. Banks Post, Sons of Veterans Camp, of Tropic, has returned from a few days' visit at Huntington Beach where he attended the Southern California Veterans' Association, which is encamped there. Friday night's entertainment was in charge of S. W. Rosencranz Camp of Los Angeles. Joseph Griffin, who appeared on the program in songs and monologues, made the hit of the evening and added fresh laurels to the many that have been won by this recently organized camp.

Russell Harrison, who was so seriously injured Friday by being struck by a motor bus at the corner of Sixth street and Gladys avenue, Los Angeles, while riding his wheel, is resting very comfortably. Young Harrison was removed to the receiving hospital in Los Angeles, where after his injuries were administered to he was removed to the Tropic hospital. The pelvic bone was not broken, as was feared at first.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Phillips, their son, Thomas Phillips, and two charming daughters, Miss Elizabeth and Miss Catherine Phillips, who have been residing on Laurel street the past two years, have moved to Glendale, where they will reside on East Fifth street. Mr. Phillips and his interesting family will be missed by a large circle of Tropic friends.

Mrs. A. H. Gaarder and children have returned from a two weeks' sojourn at the beach.

Mrs. W. R. Barnes and Mrs. Walter Barnes of Pasadena and Wiley R. Cooper of Los Angeles were the weekend guests of Mrs. David H. Imler and family of West Park avenue.

R. N. Taylor, past commander of N. P. Banks Post of Tropic and Glendale, returned to Huntington Beach this morning to remain until the close of the Southern California Veterans' Association encampment, which is holding a ten days' outing at Huntington Beach.

Optimism is commendable, but persons who can take a hopeful view of the situation as now disclosed must be visionary to the verge of insanity.—San Diego Union.

Do You?

Occasionally a man or secretary of a club, lodge or society, asks "Do you do job printing?" Our answer is emphatic and unequivocal. It is—

FAMILY REUNION

Not having seen one another for twentylong years, Mrs. James Dale, of 1527 Ivy street, and Mrs. F. E. Thorpe of 214 South Kenwood street—both sisters and residents of Glendale—more than enjoyed the recent visit of their sisters, Mrs. G. W. Fenno and Mrs. W. H. Bass, who have now returned to their homes in Bakersfield.

Sunday a merry all-day picnic and noon luncheon was enjoyed on the sands at Venice, all present having been related distantly or otherwise. Those who motored to the seashore to participate in this large family reunion, as it were, were Mr. and Mrs. James Dale, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Thorpe and children of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fenno, Mr. and Mrs. LaChance of Bakersfield, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kent and baby of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steck of Los Angeles, Mrs. Allan Howard of Garden Grove, Cal., and Mrs. W. H. Bass and little daughter of Bakersfield.

BIT BY SCORPION

This morning about 10 o'clock something resembling a streak of lightning passed eastward on Broadway and officers at the police station vowed vengeance on the reckless motorcyclist. Further up the street Officer Faacks succeeded in stopping the speeder and learning that he had ample cause for hurry, allowed him to proceed on his way without an invitation to pay a visit to Judge Whomes. The speeder proved to be E. A. Shultz of La Canada, who had been cleaning off a vacant lot on Broadway, west of Brand, when he was bit in the hand by a scorpion. He immediately started posthaste for a doctor's office. When stopped by the officer his hand was very badly swollen and looked pretty serious. A physician dressed his hand and announces that there will be no danger from the poison.

FINE PICTURES AT GLENDALE THEATER TONIGHT

Since changing management last week a new ventilation system has been installed at the Glendale theater and five reels of the best Universal films are being shown nightly. Tonight's bill will include the Animated Weekly of Current Events, the interesting two-reel drama, "Sealed Orders"; a laughable comedy, "Such a Villain," and a touching drama entitled "The Baby's Doll."

Just as everybody was beginning to take easier breaths, hoping that the worst was over in Mexico, at least for a time, hades breaks loose again, down there. Peace hasn't much show anywhere, any more, except in the United States.

VISITORS ENJOY ROUND OF PLEASURE

Since their arrival in Glendale the Misses Ethel Hayden and Belle Hedge of Des Moines, Iowa, have been enjoying one continual round of pleasure of parties, dinners, motor trips and theaters, with many more delights to be crowded into the short time between now and Friday, when they expect to leave via the Canadian Pacific for their eastern home.

These two delighted and popular visitors are guests in the home of Miss Hedge's sister, Mrs. Karl Reinhart, 1443 Lomita avenue, who has generously spared nothing in contributing toward her guests' "good times."

Last week's festivities included among other things a pink and white dinner party with Mrs. Reinhart as hostess, a motor trip to the various beaches with luncheon at Hotel Virginia, Long Beach; a day spent with friends at La Crescenta, an afternoon tea given by Los Angeles friends at Hotel Alexandria, followed by dinner at one of the popular downtown cafes and the Orpheum; a dinner dance at Beverly Hills, a luncheon given Saturday by Mrs. Frank Richardson in her home on Kenwood street.

For this affair the charming hostess used a glowing shower of crimson carnations and fern, with all the table appointments and place cards to correspond. Besides the honored guests, Mrs. Reinhart and Mrs. Richardson, Glendale ladies present were Mrs. Ed Halstead and Mrs. Ruth Head.

Sunday a picnic in Newhall pass was greatly enjoyed, the sixteen who engaged in the fetes of the day having been conveyed to the choice picnic grounds in a large auto truck belonging to the Richardson Transfer company.

This week promises to bring forth many more happy moments, but the day is yet young, so we will wait until the morrow before telling any more tales out of school, so to speak.

LUNCHEON FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Beautiful in all its appointments and also very significant of the occasion was the elaborate 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon party given last Saturday by Miss Julia Byloff in honor of Miss Dorothy Carey, a near Los Angeles bride-to-be.

The happy affair took place in the attractive Brand boulevard home of Miss Byloff's sister, Mrs. Allen Boyce, who charmingly assisted the dainty hostess during the course of events.

All the appointments, both on the table and throughout the house, were in delicate tints of pink, Cecil Bruner roses and fern having graced the table at which the delicious four-course collation was served. Tiny favors and hand-adorned cards were also introduced and headed places set for the honoree, Miss Carey, and Miss Elisa Jangochian, Miss Roxie Jamgochian, Miss Amy Bowerfind, Miss Lydia Payro, Miss Helen Carey, Miss Agnes Rigali, Miss Marie Rigali, of Tropico, Miss Pearl Herrendon of Hollywood, Miss Hazel Ryland, Miss Helen Ferman of Los Angeles, Mrs. Boyce and the hostess.

The afternoon was devoted to an impromptu program given by the talented guests, who were most generous in their contributions and more than enjoyed by all.

THREE MEN AT WORK

There was great excitement among the merchants on Brand boulevard this morning when three able-bodied Mexicans appeared to take up the work of ballasting the P. E. track between Second and Sixth streets, the work having been dropped several days ago. It is estimated that if the company keeps all of three men on the job, the work will be completed not later than 1920. This is an unlooked-for condition of affairs as only last week hope for the completion of the work was abandoned. Years hence, when the roadbed and right-of-way are paved, we will wonder why we ever doubted that the P. E. was progressive.

GREAT MASS MEETING

West Glendale Methodist church, Pacific avenue and West Fifth street. Rev. F. G. Stevens, pastor of Lake avenue Methodist church of Pasadena, will speak on the "California Dry Question."

The meeting is held under the auspices of the Methodist Brotherhood of West Glendale church and will be an open meeting, to which the ladies are invited. Everybody in the community will be expected to attend. Good music by the men's chorus. Good fellowship. A welcome to you.

DAINTY LUNCHEON

Miss Isabel Barrett had for her house guest the past week Miss Mabel McFadden of Los Angeles, in whose honor she entertained at a dainty 4 o'clock luncheon Sunday afternoon. Those present were Miss Bessie Wright, Miss Mabel McFadden, Mr. W. Hansen of Los Angeles and Mr. H. Birkshier of Los Angeles. The hostess was ably assisted in entertaining by Miss Marion Carmichael of 433 Cedar street. The house decorations were of fern and red cut flowers effectively arranged.

There are a great many things more pleasant than being an American tourist in Europe, at this juncture.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Berries should never be hulled until just before the meal. Otherwise they lose much of their freshness and taste.

Never keep pastry in the ice box, as it soon becomes soggy.

A wet towel spread over the top of the ice box before the lid is closed will keep out the hot air and lessen the ice bill.

All acid drinks, such as lemonade or fruit punch, should never be mixed or served in a metal pitcher. Use a glass or china one.

To prevent hard crust forming on a pan of boiled mush, rub the top with lard while still warm.

YAWNING

When a man is tired he stretches his arms and legs and yawns. Birds and animals, so far as possible, follow his example. Birds spread their feathers and yawn. They open their mouths slowly till they are round, the bones of the head seem to loosen and the gills open.

What is the use of telling all the boys in the United States that they may be president some day when all hands want two terms.

London has 19,000 policemen and Sylvia can back them all off the board.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.
