Easy Reading Lessons.

It is a fine day,	Wash your hands,
Can we go out,	Comb out your hair.
John, get your hat,	Clean your shoes well.
Let us take a walk,	Now sit down by me,
Give me my hoop,	I will play a tune,
I can run fast,	You may sing a song,
Jane, take your kite,	Be a good child,
This is my ball,	Love and fear GOD .

THE GOOD GIRL.

When a good girl is at school, she will mind her book, and try to learn to spell and read well, and not play in school time; and when she goes to church, she will sit, kneel, or stand still; and when she comes home, she will read God's word, or some good book, that God may bless her.

Easy Reading Lessons.

Be not wise in thine own eyes,
Stand in awe and sin not,
All things are of God,
Be wise, O ye kings,
Can you be good and great,
Do good to all men,
End your days with prayer,
Fear God and keep his law,
God is King of all the earth.

The Good Boy at the Table.

A good boy will always come to the table with clean hands and face, and will say his grace. He will wait till his Papa serves him, and not talk, even if he should be the last served. He will not take hold of the bread or meat with his hands, but will use his knife and fork. Neither will he lean over the table, but sit nearly upright; and keep his arms close to his sides. It is not good for health, to eat too much or too fast; therefore eat slowly, and give thanks to God for all things.

HOW TO GET KNOWLEDGE.

Look at that large garden! The gardiner has dug it all over with a spade. How did he contrive to get through so much work? I will tell you ; he did it by digging one spadeful at a time. What a high house that is on the other side of the road! there are five rows of windows in it, one above another. What a number of bricks it must have taken to build! Do you wonder how the builders raised it up so high? This is the way they did it; they put on one brick at a time. Here comes a Wagon-load of coals in sacks! what a great weight it must be! How could the men lift such a heap of coal into the wagon? If they had tried to do it all at once, they could not have done it; but they did it by lifting up one sack at a time.

Now if the garden has been dug, the house built, and the wagon loaded, so easily you will do well to pursue a similar course Learn one lesson at a time; that is the way to grow wise, and that is the way to get knowledge easily.

A Morning Song.

My God, who mak'st the sun to know
His proper hour to rise,
And, to give light to all below,
Doth send him round the skies.

When from the chambers of the east
His morning race begins.
He never tires, nor stops to rest,
But round the world he shines.

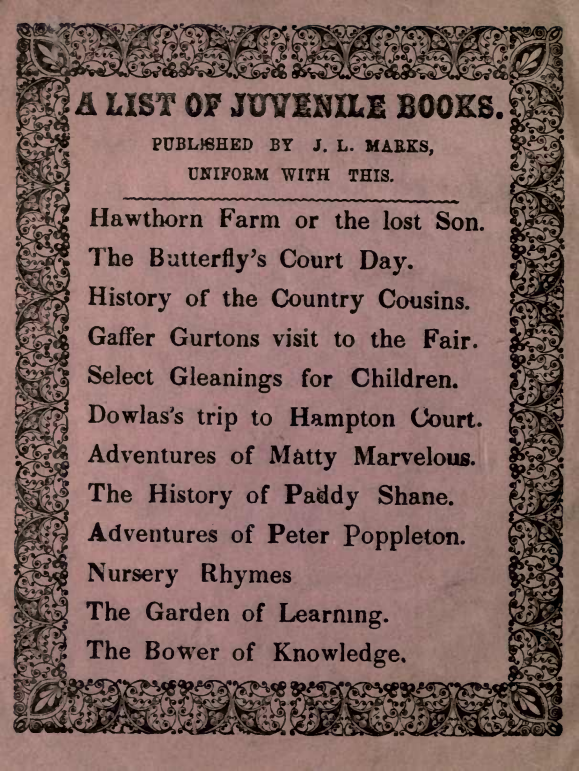

So, like the sun, would I fulfil
The business of the day;
Begin my work betimes, and still
March on my heavenly way.

Give me, O Lord, thy early grace.
Nor let my soul complain,
That the young morning of my days,
Has all been spent in vain.

Grace Before Meat.

Pray God, bless it to me, Amen
Pray God, bless it to me, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

A decorative border with intricate floral and scrollwork patterns surrounds the text.
