NOVELLO'S EDITION.

Boyce's Collection of Cathedral Music.

The Precursors of Cathedrals, and the Directors of Choirs in "Churches where they sing," are respectfully informed that Dr. Boyce's Work, which has long been considered the most complete and useful collection of English Church Music, is now published in a variety of forms to suit every requirement. The contents and the succession of the pieces accord precisely with the original copy, as published by Dr. Boyce, so that Cathedral Choirs, &c., already in possession of copies, may increase their number in full confidence of the new ones corresponding in every respect. The new editions may be specified as follows, viz:—

I.—THE VOCAL SCORE has been reprinted, in its integrity, from Boyce; to which a separate Accompaniment for the Organ has been added under each score by VINCENT NOVELLO. In 3 volumes, bound in whole cloth, 42s. each.

II.—THE SEPARATE VOCAL PARTS for each of the four voices, Treble, Alto, Tenor, and Bass, are printed so that one set may serve for eight or twelve persons. The economy of these parts will be readily appreciated for the use of Choirs, or where numerous singers have to be supplied with copies. Price of each Vocal Part, bound in whole cloth, 25s.

III.—THE SEPARATE ORGAN PART (in 2 vols., price 21s. each,) with the words in full between the Treble and Bass staff, will be found useful to those who wish these compositions as Organ Voluntaries; or for those who already possess the old Vocal Score, and to whom playing from score is inconvenient.

It is believed that in many Cathedrals the habit still prevails of making Manuscript Parts from the Vocal Scores; but this must arise from its not being known that good printed copies can now be purchased at less cost than the blank paper to make these manuscripts upon; or in other words, it requires 3s. 6d. worth of blank paper to contain 3s. of printed music at the present reduced prices.

London: Published by J. ALFRED NOVELLO, at the London Sacred Music Warehouses, 69, Dean-street, Soho, and 24, Poultry, City.

All Orders should express "NOVELLO'S EDITIONS" to ensure the right Music being sent.

Letter-Press Printing in every variety.

J. ALFRED NOVELLO would respectfully announce, that having a carefully-organized Printing Office, he is enabled to execute orders for every variety of Letter-Press Printing; and he trusts he may safely point to the various works published by himself, during the last three years, as favourable specimens in that department; all these—the Cheap Oratorios, and other moveable music-type works, their covers, the large posting and other announcement bills, the "Musical Times," his catalogues, &c., having been the produce of his own press.

The unusual attention given at his Office to Moveable Music-types, and the beauty of the Music Founts, which belong exclusively to himself, secure to his patrons advantages in this particular branch which no other Printer can offer. His new Semi-Nonpareil Music-type is especially adapted for Thematique Catalogues or Indexes, from the boldness of its face and the smallness of the space it occupies.

Concert Announcements and Programmes are not only printed on the most reasonable terms, but J. A. N.'s establishment, as connected with music, offers particular facilities to concert givers. Specimens of Book-work, Color-printing, and the terms for every variety of Letter-press Printing, can be obtained at 69, Dean-street, Soho.

What's That? A Stop Polka, by MONTGOMERY.—Price Two Shillings.

"What's That?" is the title of a new and remarkably good Polka, which was recently performed at "The Palace," without a name; for it is an easier task to compose a Polka than to find an appropriate title for it when written:—the "femininities" are all "used up," from Diana the goddess down to Dolly the dairy-maid; every "Pet" has her Polka—gems, jewels, stars, flowers, insects, animals, all have lent their names; indeed, every noun in the language has been appropriated as the title of a Polka—and so it happened that Montgomery's capital Polka was played at the Palace without a name:—an illustrious personage, struck with the beauty of the music, exclaimed "What's that?" "A Polka by Montgomery," was the reply. "And a very pretty one, too," was the rejoinder.

The publisher, on being informed of the fact, thought "What's That" would be quite as good a name for a Polka as "The Elephant" or "The Firefly," and certainly not so vulgar as "The Row," so he determined that "What's That" should be the title; this Polka will soon be on every barrel-organ in the universe—played in every "Court" and alley in Europe—and no doubt the universal enquiry of every man, woman, and child, on first hearing its enchanting strain, will be, "What's That?" The Composer has immortalized himself by this production, it will endure for all time; and if Messrs. Cocks & Co. do not claim a copyright *in the idea—the manuscript of the "What's That" Polka shall be solemnly deposited in the coffin of "Old Time," whenever that respectable gentleman gives the Publisher an opportunity of attending his funeral.—Vide "The Times," April 1st, Last Year of the First Half of the Nineteenth Century.

London: Charles Jefferys, 21, Soho-square.

* The late Johann Strauss (according to Messrs. Cocks & Co.) desired that the MSS. of his last jig and polka should be buried with him!
