Trade, reg.

"CITE ICBA 516 Information received from ESS, GHQ, indicates that trade representatives are not eligible to leave Japan and reenter without applying for reinstatement through the State Department in Washington whereas service representatives may leave and re enter the country at any time. Service representatives are defined as persons who are not here to trade but to manage or otherwise administer properties or interests of commercial companies and or foreign countries. You are directed to disseminate this information to all units of your command.
