

NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY STANDARD.

... the National Anti-Slavery Standard, published weekly, for the purpose of disseminating information, and promoting the interests of the African race, and of the oppressed and degraded millions of the African race, who are held in bondage by the cruel and oppressive slave system of the United States of America.

Letters from Great South.

Dear friends, I have received your kind and interesting letter, and am glad to hear that you are all well, and that you are still engaged in the noble cause of the African race. I am sure that your efforts will be successful, and that you will be able to do much good for your fellow-men.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Tales of Oppression.
I have just received your interesting tale, and am glad to hear that you are still engaged in the noble cause of the African race. I am sure that your efforts will be successful, and that you will be able to do much good for your fellow-men.

Anti-Slavery Convention at Montreal.

I was sent to the Anti-Slavery Convention at Montreal, on the 25th of November, and was much pleased to meet with so many friends, and to hear of the success of our efforts. I am sure that our cause will be successful, and that we will be able to do much good for our fellow-men.

NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY STANDARD.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1840.

Disfranchisement at the South.
I have just received your interesting tale, and am glad to hear that you are still engaged in the noble cause of the African race. I am sure that your efforts will be successful, and that you will be able to do much good for your fellow-men.

Disfranchisement at the South.
I have just received your interesting tale, and am glad to hear that you are still engaged in the noble cause of the African race. I am sure that your efforts will be successful, and that you will be able to do much good for your fellow-men.

The British Slave Trade.
I have just received your interesting tale, and am glad to hear that you are still engaged in the noble cause of the African race. I am sure that your efforts will be successful, and that you will be able to do much good for your fellow-men.

Voting for Bury and Kerle.
I have just received your interesting tale, and am glad to hear that you are still engaged in the noble cause of the African race. I am sure that your efforts will be successful, and that you will be able to do much good for your fellow-men.

