The Hon. J. A. Macdonald, Chief Justice of the Court of Appeal and Administrator of the Province, at 3 o'clock this afternoon formally opened the British Columbia Legislature. It is the third session of the fifteenth Parliament of the Province.

Speech From Throne

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislature: I welcome you to the Third Session of the Fifteenth Parliament of British Columbia.

Since you last met, Their Excellencies the Governor-General of Canada and Lady Byng have visited the Province and have been most loyally welcomed at all points.

During the period since your last Session, continued representations have been made to the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners for the reduction of railway transportation rates, and for the entire removal of the discriminatory mountain scale which has been in force for many years in the Province.

I am glad to state that a considerable reduction in general rates has been obtained, and that the excess of mountain over prairie rates has been reduced by the Government to preserve in its efforts for the entire removal of the excess mountain rates.

After a tour over the line with General Manager Buckworth, whose management he warmly praises, he comes back with a strong opposition to disposal of the undertaking to any other interest. Particularly he believes that the province would be justified in extending the line from Squamish to North Vancouver, or into Vancouver direct, even if an additional expenditure of $2,000,000 was entailed thereby.

It is a matter of regret that the application of the Government to secure the prohibition of the importation of liquor into British Columbia, except by the Canadian Eastern Railway, did not receive the approval of the Canadian Senate.

It is the intention of the Government again to apply to the Dominion Parliament for the powers desired.

It will be satisfactory for you to know that the opinion of the Minister of Finance in his March, 1921, Budget Speech, respecting the stabilizing of rates of exchange between Canada and the United States, has been more than justified, that the exchange is now at par, and that the market for our long-term funding bonds has very materially improved.

Substantial progress has been made with the raising and the assessment of Crown-granted lands for the purpose of equalizing taxation.

Reports upon the condition and prospects of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway will be placed before you.

Satisfactory arrangements have been made for a committee of the Statutes of British Columbia.

Substantial and gratifying progress has been made with the work of reclamation of Sumas Prairie lands.

The Government is taking steps to ascertain the value, for University purposes, of the lands mentioned in section 7, subsection 2, chapter 59 of the Statutes of 1917, and how said lands may best be dealt with to produce the maximum value.

Bills will be submitted for your approval: For the purpose of ratifying an agreement between the Dominion and the Province providing for a survey of the iron-ore resources of British Columbia.

For the consolidation and revision of the "Public Schools Act". For the consolidation of the Statutes relating to public printing.

For the amendment of the "Workmen's Compensation Act" providing additional safeguards against fire.

For amending the "Forest Act" providing additional safeguards against fire.

For further amendments in leaving to you deliberation of the "Government Liqueur Act".

Copies of Balance-sheets and Statements prepared by the Auditor of the operation of the "Government Liqueur Act" will shortly be placed before you.

The Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure prepared with due regard to economy and to the necessities of the Province, will be submitted for your approval.

Members of the Legislature: I am confident that you will apply your best endeavors to the solution of the problems before you, and I pray the blessing of Providence on your labors.

Appealing for a more optimistic outlook on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway situation, C. P. W. Schwengers, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, told the directors at their meeting this afternoon that there is an immense amount of bill-founded criticism and a general misconception of the road and its possibilities.

MAYOR AND THREE ALDERMEN ARE SENT FOR TRIAL

Bail Allowed Pending Trial in Higher Court

Holding that there was a case to answer, the magistrate today committed Mayor Marchant and three members of the Finance Committee for trial by a higher court on a joint charge of disobeying a Provincial Statute, laid under the Criminal Code.

The case arose out of authorizing a cheque for $100 to Police Commissioner Staneland for traveling expenses.

In a brief oral judgment given in the afternoon by Justice Magistrate Day, he held that a prima facie case had been presented to him in the evidence.

"I have given very careful consideration to the matter before me," said the Magistrate, "the defendants have not consented to a summary trial before me therefore I am not satisfied with jurisdiction to try the case. It is my duty, if there is a case for trial by a higher court."

"The facts are not in dispute; but I think the facts, as shown in the evidence, would indicate a prima facie case to answer, if there is a case for trial by a higher court."

"The accused refused to answer the charge, when the charge was read, H. W. Davey, also for the accused, and Frank Higgins, K. C., the latter for the prosecution remained silent, the Court proceeding."

"The accused will be committed, then, for trial by higher court, and I will take their personal recognizances in the sum of $100 each that they will appear to answer the charge against them before a higher court. They were brought here on summons, and I think their personal recognizances sufficient, the sum stated. I will have the clerk to extend the evidence at once so that there will be no delay," concluded Magistrate Day.

TRANQUILITY IS BONAR LAW'S AIM

British Study New Premier's Tendencies Described As Thoughtful Steadfast Sincere Man

London, Oct. 30.—(Associated Press)—Not the least part of the political campaign will be devoted to an appraisal of the new Premier, and Bonar Law has been singled out by his partisans to champion the cause of tranquility and safety first.

In high political quarters it is declared that if tranquility is what the nation wants, it must be conceded that a better man could not be chosen to carry out this desire. These quarters assert that however much his friends and enemies disagree on Bonar Law's other personal characteristics, they are united in agreeing that he represents steadfastness, straightforwardness, stability and sincerity—that he has all the attributes of tranquility.

Too Far, Perhaps. There seems to be a considerable element of the population, however, not confined to the opposing party, which harbors the belief that under Bonar Law's leadership the pendulum may swing too far in the other direction, and that fear that this may result in stable tranquility, but in unwelcome political lethargy, or even positive reaction.

This feeling was humorously given voice to the other day by Mr. Lloyd George himself. While attending an oyster bake given in his honor, he remarked: "I am very fond of oysters and of all other mollusks who are exponents of tranquility."

There are, however, many who are not so easily satisfied with the Premier's quietness, but nevertheless admit that this is one of his outstanding characteristics. They point out that his bent for quietly studying out problems is illustrated by the fact that he is an ardent lover of chess. When he declines to play a game, he is usually international chess tournament, he paid tribute to the keen analytical minds represented among the contestants. Mr. Bonar Law also plays an efficient golf game, but his devotion to this pastime is measured principally by the physical benefits he derives from it.

Born in Canada of Scottish parents, Bonar Law came to Glasgow as a boy. Later he was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by Glasgow University, and was destined to be a lawyer before he entered political life. He was not considered unusually brilliant as a student, but was a representative of the type of sturdy intellectuality. Although not a magnetic speaker, he always has been interested in affairs of state and has never been averse to holding political prestige.

Keen Darts. Lloyd George was never in a more pugacious and raking mood than at present. His keenest darts are aimed at Bonar Law and his Ministry of peers and Under-Secretaries. Winston Churchill and Lord Birkenhead, twins of the new Centre Party if it ever emerges, are not less effectively criticized against Bonar Law's followers, who have no comparable platform geniuses to reply to them at the moment. Therefore, the issue really rests upon the true or false diagnosis that Britain wants peace and quietude, with a healing policy and no heroics at home or abroad. This week will help decide, hot milk? This week will help decide, hot milk?

SUCCESS OF FASCISTI PUTS NEW CABINET IN POWER IN ITALY

Mussolini Is Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Seven Fascisti, Five Nationalists, One Democrat and One Man of Popular Party In Ministry.

Paris, Oct. 30.—Benito Mussolini has formed a Ministry for Italy with himself as Premier and Minister of the Interior and of Foreign Affairs, according to Rome advices this evening. General Diaz is Minister of War and Vice-Admiral Di Reva Minister of Marine.

The Cabinet, as its makeup is indicated in the advices, comprises seven Fascisti, five Nationalists, one Democrat and one representative of the Popular Party.

An earlier Rome dispatch than the Paris dispatch above said: Benito Mussolini, leader of the Fascisti, called by King Victor Emmanuel to form a Cabinet, arrived in Rome to-day. The crowds thronging the neighborhood of the railway terminal gave him an enthusiastic welcome. Mussolini left immediately for the Quirinal, where he was given an audience by the King.

The capital was lavishly decorated with flags to-day, but calm was being maintained.

No Alliances. Mussolini declared "the Fascist must go into power without alliances with another party, but granting some portfolios outside the Fascist party."

The revolt against the "politicians" long ago begun by the Fascisti, many of them vigorous young veterans of the World War, was crowned with success yesterday when King Victor Emmanuel, greatly moved, embraced Deputy Di Vecchio, TRANQUILITY IS BONAR LAW'S AIM (Continued from page 1) obvious quality. Although, as he declared, his—and Lloyd George's—policy is a sound one, the prevailing opinion is that there will be a wide choice at the polls between the two personalities.

NO NICKNAMES FOR BONAR LAW Although Mr. Lloyd George has been given endearing nicknames by his friends and crisp epithets have been hurled at him by his enemies, nobody, as one of the newspapers has asserted, has dared to name Bonar Law. The new Premier is said always to have liked a taste of power and position, but he has no lover of heavy responsibility, in fact, hitherto he has always shunned it.

CIRCUMSTANCES DICTATED COURSE Some of Bonar Law's critics have expressed wonder why, after having been Lloyd George's chief supporter so long, he could have been the leader in the former Premier's downfall.

A MAN OF FEW SOCIAL ACTIVITIES The new Premier, to use the British phrase, "does not go in" for the social life of his country. He is a man of few social activities.

BEAVERBROOK'S SHARE DISCUSSED He Had Much to Do With Election of Bonar Law In Limelight As Canadian Behind Scenes in Britain

Special to The Times. London, Oct. 30.—The new Government is a Bonar Law-Lord Beaverbrook Government, and although Lord Beaverbrook may remain behind the scenes, it will be his decision which will count.

A Large Share. It was certainly Beaverbrook who brought Bonar Law forward as a compromise leader of the Conservative Party, which, with Lord Austen Chamberlain, was disputing for the chief place.

Five Canadian By-Elections Writs Are Issued For Contests December 4 Ottawa, Oct. 30.—(Canadian Press)—Writs have been issued for the holding of by-elections on December 4, with nominations on November 20, in five vacant constituencies.

PENSIONS Premier Bonar Law found it necessary to take steps to apprehension alleged to have been spread by the Labor Party to the effect that abolition of the post of Pensions Minister would be desirable.

Nerves So Bad That She Would Sit and Cry

Mrs. Mary Hocking, Madoc, Ont., writes: "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a wonderful lot of good. I suffered from general weakness and was so run down and my heart and nerves were in such bad shape that I would sit down and cry and not know what I was crying about. I also used to have weak spells. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am real well now. I shall always keep a box of the Nerve Food in the house, and recommend them to my friends; they are a wonderful medicine."

UNVEIL WAR MEMORIAL SOON

Courtenay's Commemoration on Sunday Week

Courtenay, Oct. 30.—At a joint meeting of the Courtenay War Memorial Committee and the Executive of the Courtenay G.W.V.A., the programme for the unveiling of the War Memorial Cairn was planned. It was decided that for the convenience of everyone the unveiling should take place on Sunday, Nov. 12, the holiday nearest to Armistice Day. Nov. 11 in afternoon every man who has seen service in the army or navy is urged to attend a parade which will form up at the G.W.V.A. Hall at 1:30 and leave for the memorial for Sandwick at two o'clock. The invitation is general and every man who ever wore the King's uniform should turn out to pay this tribute of respect to those who served, but did not return. Uniforms will not be worn, but those who have medals are asked to wear them. The Master of Ceremonies is Col. G. R. Bates, president of the Courtenay G.W.V.A., and he will direct the parade. The unveiling ceremony which will be very simple, will be undertaken by Col. Warden, D.S.O., who organized and trained the 102nd Bn. and led them overseas.

Charles Simms, Mayor of Courtenay, will also be asked to speak, and Capt. G. R. Bates, president of the only ex-service organization in the district, and the clergy of the valley. The only uniform will be those of four men in khaki who will be posted with fixed bayonets at the four corners of the Memorial while the ceremony is in progress. Poppy Day will be Nov. 11, Armistice Day, and the Women's Auxiliary of the G.W.V.A. are going to sell poppies made by the widows of France, to all who will buy. It is hoped that Col. Warden will be able to come on Friday, Nov. 10, to deliver his address "Experience With the Hush-Hush Expedition in Persia." Thanks to the generous donation of the I.O.D.E., the work that has been performed on the Cairn to date can now be paid for and last Saturday the executive of the G.W.V.A. avoided a hundred dollars to be expended in further beautifying it, the work to be left in the hands of S. H. Hopkins.

This will not be until after the arrival of Sir Henry Thornton.

MONEY ORDER FRAUDS REPORTED

Crooks Have Been Operating in Canada

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—(Canadian Press).—Crooks have been raising money orders on such a scale as to necessitate a general warning by the Post Office Department. The public is warned that money orders should not be cashed for unidentified strangers, particularly orders made payable at other places than the Department offices. In a majority of cases, the frauds have been perpetrated through the crooks purchasing money orders for afterwards raising the amounts and obtaining payment through business firms cashing the orders. Post Office Department officials are conducting investigations to ascertain the exact amount of the frauds.

BEFORE BABY COMES

Watchful Care Necessary

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine and should be taken by the expectant mother. It will assist her in keeping well and strong. This is very necessary, not only for her own comfort but for the future. Read the experience of Mrs. Barton of New Brunswick, and please bear in mind that every letter published recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is genuine and unsolicited. They are expressions of gratitude from women.

Cumberland Bay, N. B.—"I was troubled with weak feelings, headache, all the time, a cough, fainting spells and pains in my back and side. I could not do a single bit of work and had to be helped out to the hammock where I lay in the fresh air from morning until night and I had to be carried up and down stairs. After other medicines had failed a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she said it was excellent for anyone in the family way. Before the first bottle was taken I could walk alone and as I kept on with it I got stronger, until I was able to do all my work. My baby is now six weeks old and is a fat healthy fellow. I am sure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for me and I recommend it."—Mrs. MURRAY J. BARTON, R. R. No. 1, Cumberland Bay, N. B.

TWO CASTLES IN IRELAND BURNED

Antrim and Lydican Castles Destroyed

Belfast, Oct. 30.—Antrim Castle, near Lough Neagh, the home of Viscount Massereene, Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister of Northern Ireland, was completely destroyed by fire yesterday morning. A maid servant perished in the flames and others of the household had narrow escapes. Miss Grace d'Arcy, daughter of the Most Rev. Charles Frederick d'Arcy, Protestant Primate of All Ireland, was forced to leap from a window to escape flames.

Among other guests of Viscount Massereene was Maj.-Gen. Cameron commanding the forces in Ulster. Antrim Castle was built by Sir Hugh Clouthworthy, an officer of Queen Elizabeth's time.

Viscount Massereene is a descendant of the Speaker of the old Irish House of Commons. Lydican Castle, in County Galway, built in Cromwellian days, also was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The men kept the family occupying the castle under armed guard in an out-house during the fire. Republican forces, who came on the scene, helped to save some of the furniture in the castle. The fire is said to have been due to trouble between agriculturists and the owners of the estate.

Militia Department Regrets Departure of Deputy Minister

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—The regret which is felt by officials and staff of the Militia Department at parting with the late General Sir Eugene Fiset, for the last twenty years Deputy Minister of the Department, and the kind wishes which follow him received a most emphatic emphasis Saturday when a gathering representative of all ranks met and presented Sir Eugene and Lady Fiset with a beautiful tea and coffee service. General Fiset was being forced to relinquish his post as Deputy Minister of Militia by ill-health, and has been granted a year's leave of absence.

LABOR PARTY READY FOR BATTLE IN BIG WAR CHEST

To Fight on Extended Front With Nearly 500 Candidates

London, Oct. 26.—"Many rumors have been circulated as to the intentions of the Labor party with regard to the next general election," Egerton Wake, national agent of the party, states in an interview he has given out. "Financial difficulties have been hinted at, but the party and its affiliated bodies have conserved their political funds, despite the economic pressure of the present trade depression, and the party is ready with the sinews of war whenever the election may come."

A recent statement was made that the National Executive was considering the winning down of the number of candidates with a view to affording opportunities for candidates of another party. This is the reverse of the policy of the party in an extended front, and encouragement is being given to every constituency where organization of the resources are available to promote candidatures. The Labor party has been making preparations for a general election ever since 1918. It has concentrated on the development of constituency organization throughout the country.

At the last general election there were 361 candidates. At the present moment there are over 400 endorsed candidates in the constituency, and there are at least another 50 candidates in negotiation with candidates, while there are a further number of constituencies who are developing their organization and resources with the intention of securing candidatures if the time before an election will allow. "The country has been divided into organizing districts, and district organizers and women organizers have been appointed for each district while assistance is also rendered by a staff of propagandists. Full-time agents have been appointed in at least half of the constituencies where candidates have been selected, and in the remainder part-time agents and voluntary workers have been qualifying for active work. There are, at the present moment, at least 2,400 local Labor parties of one kind and another, and 800 women sections (with 30,000 members) in connection with these parties.

The Candidates. About half of the candidates are the nominees of the trade unions, and all the well-known industrial leaders will be starting in the next election. A further fifty are the nominees of the Independent Labor party, and these include J. Ramsay MacDonald, Philip Snowden, A. G. Walkden, and many other well-known Labor men. In addition to the nominees of the various societies affiliated to the Labor party, the constituency parties have selected on their own responsibility a larger proportion of the candidates, and probably at least 150 of the candidates will be the direct nominees of the local parties, who will be responsible for the financing of the contests. These candidates include the so-called intellectual of the party, a term which is not regarded with favor within the party itself, as all the Labor candidates stand on equal terms and for the same principles and policy.

Out of the 75 Labor members in the present House of Commons, 71 will be seeking re-election, and in the remaining four constituencies Labor will be put forward to retain the seat. The fact that the Labor party is not a narrow class movement is emphasized by the various types of candidates. The list of candidates includes officers of the army and navy, well known literary men, doctors, Free Church ministers, and quite a number of scientists. The party are putting forward their candidates in association with the Labor party, and there are at present 100 of these before the constituencies. Women candidates also figure in the list. Miss Margaret Bondfield, who is the leading woman trade unionist since the lamented death of Miss MacArthur, is the candidate for Northampton, and Dr. Ethel Dentham, Mrs. Ayrton Gould, and Miss Pictou-Turbeville will be fighting in the new member constituencies of North Ilstington and Lambeth respectively. Mrs. Margaret Pease is contesting East Surrey, and Miss Susan Lawrence, who works on the London County Council is well known, will seek election for North-east Ham. Mrs. Barton, who is running under the auspices of the Co-operative party, will be contesting the Birmingham constituency of King's Norton, while several other constituencies have women candidates under consideration.

Protection For Young Girls, Emily Murphy's Plea

Montreal, Oct. 30.—Automobile jostling as a lure to the ruin of young girls was referred to by Judge Emily Murphy, of Edmonton, as constituting a necessity for legislation when she addressed a large gathering of the Social Workers' Club here Saturday. "We want your help on this subject," she said. "We are working on it in Alberta. Our desire is to have motor cars in the streets declared public places within the meaning of the Criminal Code. Many of these cars are moving houses of prostitution."

J. S. Woodsworth, M. P. for Centre Winnipeg, who was another speaker, said that just as medicine and surgery had made progress from dealing with disease to preventing it, so social maladies should be studied and the community should aim at prevention rather than amelioration.

London, Oct. 30.—(Canadian Press Cable).—Medical authorities are trying to trace the origin of the outbreak of smallpox which has occurred in a workhouse in Poplar. Already about twenty cases have been reported, but the outbreak is not regarded with alarm, as the cases reported are outside the institution. Also the cold weather prevailing is likely to hamper its spread.

ITALY'S KU-KLUX-KLAN.

Italy is witnessing strange developments. A self-constituted body has virtually chased the Government out of office. The King has been compelled to call upon the leader of the Fascisti to form a new Administration.

The outstanding feature in the chain of events which has led to the success of the Fascisti is the reduction of the Government to a state of utter impotency. It does not necessarily follow that this extraordinary method of giving an Administration its marching orders will be a bad thing for Italy under the peculiar circumstances which are now apparent.

Having gained power Mussolini may be able to restrain the more ardent of his followers and descend to constitutional procedure and justify the means he has employed to fight the communistic menace. If the more responsible elements which he has gathered round him are not sailing under false colors, and are determined to see that the organization's sudden rise to complete power in the land shall not set the stage for a dictatorship, serious consequences may be averted.

This is the most hopeful view that can be taken of the situation. Power such as has been given to Mussolini usually results in complete political intoxication. In that case the country would exchange Bolshevik anarchy for Fascisti tyranny. Russia furnishes no parallel for Italy. The revolution of 1917 was brought about by the masses. But if Italy shall descend into the horrors of civil war it will be the work of the classes led by a party which has usurped the powers of constituted authority in order to employ its own methods to exterminate a condition to which it objects.

It is elemental to suggest that the action of the Fascisti is a challenge to democratic progress. For purposes of comparison it may well be described as Italy's Ku-Klux-Klan. Where is the difference between it and the organization which still exists in some parts of the United States? It is obviously an experiment in which no part of the world can afford to indulge. It is the first direct move towards civil war. If Italy escapes it will be through the restraint of her loyal citizens.

REGISTER TO-DAY.

If this year's municipal electoral roll does not contain a record number of names it will not be the fault of the Victoria Gyro Club. For more than a month this enterprising and public-spirited organization has worked hard and spent its own money in an endeavor to surpass its registration accomplishments of last year. So far there is every prospect of that highly satisfactory figure being beaten. But there is only one more day left for the campaign. The list closes tomorrow night. That being the case we would urge all those who have not done so either to phone the Gyro headquarters and ask for a notary to call and take the necessary oath and obtain the requisite signature, or to attend at the City Hall for the same purpose. The eligible voter who does not register will not be able to exercise his or her franchise at the municipal elections in December. Having voted under the road tax qualification last year means nothing. This list is compiled annually and serves for one election only.

A WIDE-OPEN POLICY.

When Mr. Pattullo says that Canada needs a wide-open immigration policy, with certain well-defined but not irksome restrictions—he gives expression to national necessity. We are not in a position to pick and choose. We cannot afford to demand that every immigrant shall be possessed of sufficient means to support him for any special length of time. Our object must be to tell the plain truth to the people from those countries that are likely to give us the most virile settlers.

There will be misfits. Hundreds will drift about from place to place. Square pegs will try to fit into round holes. But this is not to say that a wide-open policy would be a bad thing for the country. Not every settler who came to Canada during the record immigration years in- stantly found his proper niche. There were those who came under the description of "fair average" and not a few were able to fish out of water for years after their arrival. But these people found their level. Most of them are still with us and have become useful citizens.

Every possible care should be taken to point out to every intending settler that no job awaits him except in certain spheres of activity. He should be told that his way may be long and toilsome; but that at the end of his labors is something worth while. No healthy man will starve. And if the average migrant is prepared to come to Canada and dig his way to a job and ultimate independence he would be a poor Canadian who would say him nay.

Let the men with capital come by all means. The more of that class the more employment for those whose period of leisure may not extend with comfort beyond a few days or weeks. But there is no finer job-making "plant" in the world than this country. In that spirit must our new settlers come. That condition is the concomitant of a wide-open policy.

WHAT IS UTAH'S TROUBLE?

Some official or officials connected with one of the leading railways in the State of Utah is either living in the past or is poorly served by his newsagent. From a narrative related by a Victoria tourist we gather that Canadian money on at least one railway system is shunned as if it were tainted. Not even after expressing his willingness to take ninety cents for a dollar could this much perplexed traveler negotiate for a berth and meals.

No doubt the officials of the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association will send a few recent issues of Canadian and American newspapers to the head offices of the company owning and operating the line in question. Or perhaps it has dawned upon the official responsible for issuing the order complained of that the Canadian dollar is actually worth more than one hundred cents across the line at the present time.

CONSTITUTION APPROVED.

Recent political developments and the interesting party turmoil which are engaging the attention of the people in Great Britain have somewhat detracted from the orderly but highly important events which have been taking place in Dublin.

During the early part of last week the Dail Eireann voted its approval of the organic law under which Southern Ireland obtains her freedom and will henceforward conduct her affairs in manner similar to that employed by other self-governing nations within the British Empire.

It was a foregone conclusion that little stood in the way of the final act of the Provisional Government. But it is eminently satisfactory that the closing stages of the more or less formal debate upon the clauses of the constitution should have been conducted in an atmosphere of optimism and good feeling. As soon as the new British Parliament has ratified it Southern Ireland will be free to work out her own salvation in her own way.

Little import need be attached to the diversion recently created by de Valera. There is a considerable difference between the process of setting up a second Dail Eireann and that of making headway with such lawless operations as it might inaugurate. Meanwhile the Free State authorities expect to bring the country back to peaceful conditions in a short time.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Labor in Britain seems to have started the electorate with its manifesto. Viewed from this distance it looks as if some of the planks in the platform will divert votes to other parties.

THE INTERURBAN SCHEDULE

To the Editor:—May I ask, through the medium of your valuable paper, who the inspired genius is who compiled the new interurban train schedule? Does he (for I presume the party is a man) ever think that there are some mothers who have small children of school age whom she has to see off to school in time for nine o'clock and then has all her work to do along with the children's washing and get the dinner ready for twelve o'clock, and who used to be able to get into Victoria by 1:30, do her shopping and return by the train leaving at 3:30, and so be in time to get the supper ready, and that now she cannot get a train between the one arriving Victoria at 1:45 a.m. and the one arriving 4:15? When does he think she is ever to get any shopping done? The B.C.E.R. which prides itself on being such a convenience to the public, does not make any reduction in its fares. I notice to correspond with the inconvenience which this miserable change entails.

SUFFERER.

THE CHOSEN PEOPLE.

To the Editor:—I notice an interesting account of Dean Coleman's address in your issue of to-day. May I venture to comment briefly on one sentence contained therein. Dean Coleman is reported as saying: "The idea of Great Britain and the United States assuming that they were a sort of chosen people was a pagan notion." Dean Coleman rather reminds me of the expert theologians who flourished in our Lord's day. Those men were so busy looking for the temporal glories promised in Scripture to God's chosen people, the Children of Israel, that they failed to see that Christ's spiritual kingdom had, according to their own Scripture, to be set up first.

In these days the position is exactly reversed, the expert theologians are so busy preaching Christ's spiritual kingdom (which, of course, we all admit is transcendently the most important) that they utterly fail to see that the great temporal blessings and world power that was to be the temporal heritage of God's chosen people is being fulfilled under their very noses.

DEAN COLEMAN'S ADDRESS

To the Editor:—Permit me to make a few observations in regard to an address delivered by Dean Coleman on "Religion and Citizenship" which appeared in your issue of the 25th inst.

The learned professor appears to have given most of his attention to the religious side of his subject. "The Altar rail," and "other worldliness," were held up to ridicule, because, said he, "such beliefs cut the nerve of Social Endeavor." His appeal was for " sane and rational view of religion." I take issue with Dean Coleman when he makes such sweeping statements, because if followed to their logical conclusion the work of such men as Moody, Spurgeon, Torrey, John McNeill, Crosby and Hunter, and many others, was a mistake. Doubtless some mistakes may have been made, but I venture to say that tens of thousands have been led into the Kingdom through the instrumentality of these men. May I ask who are the men that have moved the world nearer to God? Certainly not those who have allowed themselves to be carried away with German rationalism, nor with the Darwinian theory of evolution.

said, that the chief concern of people like such as yours was in "making their own ascension robes." I resent such a limitation, which is directed at those who hold the prevalent view of our Lord's return. It is a well known fact, that the greatest moral reforms have followed religious revivals, and that such revivals were conducted by men who held the views so distasteful to the "moderns." What has "Modernism" to its credit? Has it sent men and women to the mission fields? Has it increased the attendance at church services? Alas, alas, how pathetic the appeal for men for the ministry, etc. The time was, when the gospel was preached with true evangelical fervor, that men and women were offering themselves for the mission fields in such numbers, that the churches were unable to send them, but it is not so to-day, and the reason is not hard to find. "By their fruits ye shall know them." One would have supposed that Professor Coleman would have referred to some of the evils in our civic and rational life, and suggested some ways by which we might hope to raise the standard of citizenship, but no, not a word as to that, his chief concern appears to have been to plead for rationalism, and where possible, to cast reflections on those who accept what the Bible clearly teaches in regard to the "Blessed Hope." Man made—philosophy changes with the changing years, but the word of God abideth forever.

LAST YEAR'S TOTAL AHEAD AS FINISH OF RACE IS NEAR

Registrations Lose Lead Over 1921 as Pace Quickens on Home Stretch

Voters' List Closes at City Hall To-morrow Afternoon at Five o'Clock

With only two days more to go the registration total by Saturday night had fallen behind the 1921 figures for the first time since October 11, the pace of the home stretch proving too fast, but the Gyro Club is hopeful that the citizens will rally to the call of civic duty to-day and to-morrow in sufficient numbers to provide the 753 registrations still required to make the total for October larger than that of the same month last year.

Registration will close to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock at the City Hall, which will be open this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock to accommodate the public.

Once more the inconvenience and the risk of a last-minute attempt to register is urged upon the public. The law requires the closing of the voters' list at 5 o'clock on October 31, and if a crowd is waiting to register at that time, it will be doomed to disappointment.

On Saturday the registrations numbered 75, bringing the total up to 1318 to date, as compared with 1,372 for the same period last year. On the last two days of registration in 1921 the totals were 261 and 437, bringing the registrations for the month up to 2,076.

Any firm desiring to have employees registered is asked to telephone number 1,076, the office of P. R. Brown & Sons, Broad Street, where arrangements for the visit of a notary public can be made.

In addition to the City Hall, registrations are being taken at the office of P. R. Brown & Sons.

GAN LIGHT SAANICH FOR THREE MILLS FOR THREE YEARS Complete Rural Street Lighting Scheme to Cost $85,000

A three-year lease of less than three mills on all the land in Saanich will provide the capital cost of a first-class rural street lighting scheme, the Municipal Council discovered on Saturday afternoon when examining plans and data compiled by the British Columbia Electric Railway Co., Ltd.

Proposals submitted fell into three classes: (a) a complete scheme for 141 lights, with a total capacity of 666 lamps, all operated at one unit, to cost $35,000; (b) two circuits, serving all Saanich south of Royal Oak, with 533 lights, at a cost of $64,848; and (c) the same scheme supplemented by a Saanich clock-operated circuit, to cost $74,748.

None of these proposals would give household lighting, but the Council considered the residents would secure service at less cost, as the lighting poles would be available for domestic service lines.

Councillors noted that only one-third the lights provided would be necessary at first, and as each light eliminated would cut down the initial cost by $25, it was considered a well planned scheme would be acceptable to the ratepayers.

Councillor McWilliam considered the Council should bring the question before the ratepayers, but Councillors Vantreigh and Brooks declared an essential success to be inclusion of provision for domestic lighting at reasonable cost.

Reeve Watson and Councillors McWilliam and Macneil were then appointed a committee to take up the aspect of service with the Electric Company.

At present Saanich is paying about $100 per month for British electric lights, and the reduction expected is indicated by the company's estimate that, when all the lights are in operation the power cost will be $120 per hour.

DEFINITE POLICY WANTED

"While we are divided into two classes broadly, those who are co-operators with the Government, and have our representatives in the legislative councils and assemblies, and the non-co-operators who are under the ban of the Government, those of us who support the British authorities want some assurance that the promises which have been made will be implemented in order to satisfy our constituents, and prevent them going over to the large body of ignorant halting opinion from which the ranks of agitation have been recruited in recent years.

British Ministers have not been clear how far the policy of self-government is to be aided, and none of the British political change statements that a firmer policy is to be adopted towards India makes us wonder whether it will be a policy which will consolidate non-co-operation, rather than an expansion of the Montagu-Chelmsford plan."

IN POLICE COURT
Charged with being drunk in public, as a second offence under the Government Liquor Act, Herbert Houslow paid $200 with the option of two months in jail, in the city police court to-day. James Armstrong, charged on remand with theft, was further retained for medical examination. Samuel Watson, charged with speeding, was fined $10. The accused asked the constable who stopped him to define "speed," himself giving the definition "the amount of motion in a given time." "Speedometers were only mechanically correct and meant as a guide," continued the accused, who, however, maintained that his speedometer had not registered over the required limit. Joseph Burns, similarly charged, was dismissed with a warning. He had no speedometer at all and was frank to say so, the court giving the accused the benefit of the doubt. Jun Wing, charged with being in possession of gear used generally for smoking opium, was fined $25 and costs.

NEWS IN BRIEF
Uplands water service to Cadboro Bay residents will be discontinued shortly, the Saanich Council finding its new installation sufficient. The Uplands Company will be thanked for its help in the past few years.
The postponed meeting of the Victoria Police Commission will be held to-morrow evening, when a large number of items of general business will be brought before the Commission.
The foundations of the old Johnson Street bridge will be blasted away during the next day or two and then it will be possible to start actual installation of the northern section of the new bridge. It was announced at the City Engineer's department to-day.

Church Anniversary.—The name of the organist, Percy Fletcher, M. A. Canby, was inadvertently omitted from the programme of music to be rendered at the Church of Our Lord on Wednesday, November 1. Mr. Fletcher will preside at the organ, and play all accompaniments.
The regular week-end community concert conducted by the Fifth Regiment, C. G. A., at the Armory on Saturday night was attended by over 1,500 people who watched the James Bay Methodist basketball team defeat the Hudson's Bay team, 48 to 18. Dancing was indulged in for the remainder of the evening.
Fifteen miles of water main have been added to the Saanich system since the commencement of the year, the Saanich Council was informed on Saturday. The Ward Three extension cost $168,000, the labor cost being $19,375. Commenting on the fact that only ten miles had been expected to be laid, Councillor McWilliam declared "this is a most satisfactory state of affairs."

Saanich loses credit for 1,000 in-batters, the actual total being 10,534, according to a correction which Census Superintendent Charles S. Price on Saturday sent to the Municipal Council. He stated that Ward Five had only 800 residents when the enumeration was made, while data supplied the Council by Ottawa had set this figure at 1,900.
Sewer service for Saanich residences on streets served by Oak Bay mains will probably be available shortly. Reeve Watson informed the Saanich Council on Saturday that the Oak Bay Council would give connection to property owners paying frontage. The Council instructed the Reeve and Clerk to draw up an agreement acceptable to the Oak Bay authorities.
Telegraphic advices from San Francisco of Saturday's date state that William Senior, formerly of 532 McPherson Avenue in this city, was beaten into insensibility by a thug while lying on the beach at the Southern resort. His assailant crept up from behind and beat him on the head with a section of gas pipe. No motive for the assault has been learned.
No Saanich liquor profits will be paid over to St. Joseph's Hospital, the Council decided on Saturday, when a formal request for a share was made by the hospital. The amount now held in the special fund for St. Joseph's Hospital is $10,691, and a letter from Attorney-General Mason suggests that if the Council pays half to the Royal Jubilee Hospital and shows the uses of the money, approval would be granted.

Many drainage and flooding complaints came before the Saanich Council on Saturday, chiefly beyond the control of the Council as originating on private lands. The Council will apply to the Legislature to secure to Saanich power to control the watercourses in the municipality. "We will never get anywhere until we have the power," commented Reeve Watson.
Trade opportunities with Mexico were before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at to-day's luncheon. A suggestion by Hugh Dalton, of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, that a delegation of Canadian business men should tour Mexico, was well received. The proposal was laid over for a week, pending inquiry into the number of Victoria merchants who would join such an excursion.
Lake Hill jitney services were criticized as inadequate, at Saturday's session of the Saanich Council. It was stated that much of the trouble has been caused by jitney-men congregating at the Lake Hill terminus, the services of the highway instead of travelling the highway in the service of waiting patrons. Cadboro Bay residents protested against interference with the service they have hitherto had from Mr. Soday, recently charged in the police court with a jitney by-law. No action was taken in view of the court proceedings being still undecided.

The Kiwanis Club luncheon to-morrow at the Dominion Hotel, will bear a Halloween atmosphere, with days of their youth, gates hoist high and mischief rampant. Major-Bullock-Webster will speak on "The Advantages of Preparation for Public Speaking." He will outline to the Swansians some of the pitfalls to be avoided by the budding orator. The club trio will aid the orchestra in music making, and it is hinted that an attendance-prize will await some lucky member.
The work of fitting out the service truck of the fire department on the new Bickle chassis proceeded at the head-quarters of the fire department. It is mounted on four wheels, which is expected, will make for its ease of action on turns. The new gear is being adapted to carry out the regular work of what is known as the "service truck," a combination ladder gear.

The Five Rays Club of Victoria, Chapter No. 17, Order of Eastern Star, has completed arrangements for the fancy dress Halloween dance being held under its auspices to-morrow night at the Knights of Pythias Hall. Prizes are being awarded for the best Halloween costumes, but fancy dress is optional. The orchestra will furnish the music and the catering is in the hands of the members. All those who held invitations for last year's dances are invited to attend. Proceeds in aid of Jubilee Hospital.
Carl J. Pandray brought to the attention of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce the removal of the D.G.S. "Malaspina" from Victoria to Vancouver, and the resultant removal of 27 families to the mainland. "The loss of thirty families by this action of the Fisheries Department is just the sort of thing for this Chamber to take up," he remarked. The Malaspina is a fisheries protection cruiser, and much of her work is connected with the West Coast of Vancouver Island, the directors were informed. A committee will make inquiries on which to base a formal protest to Ottawa.

Water meter rent in Saanich was debated by the Council on Saturday without result, when Clerk Cowper reported that nearly all the $36,000 worth of instruments have been installed. The law requires charges for meters, but by a resolution of the Council this was suspended as unfair while some users had meters and others had none. Councillors Macneil and Vantright opposed any change being made. Much damage has been done by children who with rocks have smashed large numbers of meters. The cost is a serious matter, and the police have been instructed to take action, the Council planning to compel parents to pay for the damage done by their children.

CORPORATION FINED HEAVILY UNDER ACT
Fine of $1,000 on Vancouver Co. For Possession of Unsealed Liquor Here
The Davis Liquor Company, Ltd., of Vancouver, was fined $1,000 in city police court to-day. The Liquor Control Board consented to the withdrawal of two charges against the accused, and accepted a plea of guilty on the third remaining count, that of being unlawfully in possession of unsealed liquor lodged at a Victoria warehouse.
H. H. Shandley, for the accused, tendered a plea of not guilty on the count stated. R. C. Brethour for the prosecution announced that the Attorney-General had consented to the withdrawal mentioned.
Magistrate Jay imposed the statutory fine of $1,000 on the corporation for its first offence under that section of the Government Liquor Act.

MAJOR STRIVES TO STOP INFLEX OF UNEMPLOYED
No Work Nor Aid For Idle Here, He Tells Labor Department
Mayor William Marchant conferred at length to-day with J. D. McNiven, Deputy Minister of Labor, in an effort to stop the drift of unemployed men from the interior areas adjoined by Coast cities and particularly to Victoria.
"We want it known that while Victoria is anxious to have people come here to make their homes we cannot provide work for nor help idle unemployed men," the Mayor declared. "The City is determined not to extend any aid to unemployed men and only to the married men who can show that they have been living here a year. As there is no private employment offering here idle men will be wise not to come to Vancouver Island."
The Provincial Department of Labor is doing everything in its power to prevent idle men from other districts flocking to the Coast. Mr. McNiven assured the Mayor to-day.

SUGGEST VOTE ON CENTRE SCHEME
Chamber of Commerce Discusses Vote on Ownership Plan
A meeting between the City Council, the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Amusement Centre Committee, to discuss the advisability of submitting a plebiscite to the ratepayers to discover their preference for municipal or private financing of the proposed Centre, will be asked by the Chamber of Commerce directors decided this afternoon at their weekly luncheon at David Spencer's, Ltd.
Mr. Cross suggested that the plebiscite proposal should contain two alternatives for the voters to consider: (A) Do you favor civic financing for the Amusement Centre as outlined for the present stadium site and (B) Do you prefer the leasing for sixty years of the Stadium Site to a private corporation pledged to erect a Centre at a cost of not less than $500,000 and to its adequate operation and maintenance for not less than twenty years, during which period the Centre would be tax free.
In laying his proposition before the Chamber of Commerce Directorate to-day, Mr. Cross said that while the general theory of public ownership was widely supported, there were many residents in opposition to any further increase of the civic debt at the present time.
It was to discover the strength of this sentiment among the silent voters of the city, that the proposal for a plebiscite was broached, he explained.

MR. PRINGLE SPEAKS ON PRIVATE BILL
City Solicitor Addresses Club on New Legislation to Be Sought
H. S. Pringle, City Solicitor, was the speaker at the luncheon of the Gyro Club to-day. He outlined the private Bill which Victoria will attempt to put through the Private Bills Committee at the present session of the Legislature.
The purpose of the new Bill was to increase the revenue for carrying on the city's business and to secure a more equitable method of raising that money, Mr. Pringle stated. It would bring relief to the overburdened taxpayer. The speaker pointed out that there was a time when the city's taxpayers could not go in paying taxes, and the result was that when that time was passed property reverted to the city. The measure to be introduced would tend to prevent this reversion.
Mr. Pringle dwelt on the clauses dealing with the system for the payment of the payment of taxes, business tax, tax on horses, amusement tax and elimination of the requirement for offers for parcels of reverted land.
Gyro Newton Pullen reported on the progress of the Gel-A-Vote campaign, and called for a big effort to-morrow to surpass the total reached last year.
Gyro Alex Straith won the golf tournament conducted by the Club yesterday at the Uplands course.

It will be alleged that Antipas assisted Rigas in the perpetration of the alleged offence, by cashing and changing some of the money which the prosecution will declare that he handled.
Mr. Corley pointed out that if the complaints were due to post office delays there would be a prompt remedy, but he feared the origin to be due to late arrival of steamers from the north, which would cut into the time allowed for sorting letters from the smaller centres of Atlin as to make it impossible to avoid delay. He promised every effort would be made to remedy matters.
The Chamber of Commerce will be well settled in their reconstructed quarters in the Arcade Building by the first week of December, it is announced. Already many applications for the use of the large auditorium have been received.

Problem of Late Steamers Worries Both Delegation and Officials
A delegation from the Chamber of Commerce, composed of R. W. Mayhew, A. E. Ormond and A. E. Maclean—this morning waited on Post Office Inspector J. B. Corley and urged the need of greater consideration by Vancouver post office workers for mails from northern points to be transhipped to Victoria.
It was stated that undue delays occurring in transshipment of mail was greatly handicapping Victoria merchants in their conduct of speedy business with northern points.

STEINWAY
The Instrument of the Immortals
SOMETIMES one hears a man or a woman say, "It is the dream of my life to own a Steinway, but I am afraid it is beyond my means." It is usual in life that the finest things are the most costly, and it is not unnatural for people to think that the Steinway is more costly than it is.
It is well known that the Steinway has been the chosen piano of the masters, from Liszt and Rubinstein to Paderewski, Rachmaninoff and Hofmann. This continuity of preference for the Steinway has been brought about by the inherited ideal of the Steinway family. They have looked upon the making of pianos as an art rather than a business. It has been their ideal to make the finest piano that can be made, and to give it to the world at the lowest possible cost. Thus it is that when you inquire from us the cost of a Steinway piano, the figures come as an agreeable surprise.
The Chamber of Commerce will be well settled in their reconstructed quarters in the Arcade Building by the first week of December, it is announced. Already many applications for the use of the large auditorium have been received.

Flock of Surprises In English Soccer

Liverpool Defeat at Hands of Cardiff City Nearly Cost It Loss of First Division Leadership—West Bromwich Turns in Another Big Score—Stokes a Surprise

London, Oct. 30.—(By Canadian Press Cable.) Saturday's football action in the English top division was a surprise, while heavy scoring was the order of the day. Some of the most successful teams playing met defeat, notably Liverpool, the First Division champions, who were soundly beaten by Cardiff. The Welsh side achieved this success after suffering six successive defeats, although close observers must have felt that a first-class club like Cardiff would be bound to recover eventually. The score was 3-0.

Another surprise was the 5-1 eclipse of Hotspar by West Bromwich who, a fortnight ago, defeated Arsenal 7 to 0. Tottenham were also beaten, their heavy reverse suffered in some years.

Stokes Rally in Time.

The real sensation was Stoke's 4-0 defeat of Sheffield United. The position of the former club at the bottom, with only five points for 12 matches, was getting desperate but their great rally should afford much encouragement.

Chelsea did well to draw with Sunderland and though sharing the spoils, did Liverpool a good turn, for a victory against Sunderland would have enabled them to displace Liverpool at the head of the table.

In the second division, Crystal Palace have not yet won a match this season. Westham and Clapton are now neighbors in the relegation same.

Watford's advance was the feature of the Southern section of the Third League. They are now second in the table and close to the heels of Plymouth.

The Normal School, which was reported to have a lot of green material at the opening of the season, seemed to have developed the said shamrock-colored lads very quickly. West Expected To Repeat This Year

Defeat of Metropolis by Sons of England on Saturday Puts Last Year's First Division Champions Well Out in Front—Crusaders Gain Their First Point

Although the season has only been operating for five weeks it begins to look as though Victoria West, last year's First Division champions, will repeat again this winter. The Wests are going great guns and appears to be the only team that has not suffered to any extent from the troubles which have assailed the other teams in the competition.

SMOKY HARRIS

Yancouver, Oct. 30.—Fred "Smoky" Harris, one of the four players who started in the P.C.H.A. when the ice sport was first introduced here in 1912 and who will be back in the game this season, has signed a 1922-23 contract with Vancouver. It was announced on Saturday, Harris is rail-roading on the O. & W. line out of Portland, and for a time it was feared that he would be unable to obtain leave of absence, but at the request of the P.C.H.A., President J. D. Farrell, of the railway company, has consented to Harris playing hockey this winter without jeopardizing his standing in the railway job.

"CROSSROADS OF NEW YORK" HERE

Mack Sennett Feature to Occupy Royal Screen

Not satisfied with having won the title of King of Comedy, Mack Sennett has set out to conquer the field of comedy drama. Only a few months ago he won spurs with the notable "Molly O" and now he has followed this up with "The Crossroads of New York," six reel comedy-melodrama with not less than twelve well known players in the cast.

"The Crossroads of New York," released through Associated First National Pictures, Inc., opened its run at the Royal Victoria Theatre today. The plot concerns Mitchell Hint, who like young Lochinvar, comes out of the West to make his fortune in the big city of the East. Unlike Lochinvar, however, young Michael has no steed, so instead of joining the mounted police he seeks a position with the street cleaning department. His wealthy uncle becomes enmeshed with a Broadway vampire and flees to distant parts from which rumors of his untimely death make Michael the possessor of a large fortune.

The young millionaire finds true love, but it runs pretty roughly. The vampire who had fleeced his uncle seems to be about to take him into camp also; but at the psychological moment the uncle reappears. Rumors of his death were, it appears, premature. Then the story follows an exciting kidnapping scene that throws the stock market into a turmoil as the big magnate disappears and his favorite stock is hammered down until it looks like a well worn thumb tack. Young Michael dashes to the fray and effects a sensational rescue that saves the situation and brings him untold wealth and the girl of his choice.

The plot is developed in straight dramatic fashion with many unexpected angles and a typical Sennett sting of comedy relief. It has the added advantage of an unusually capable cast. George K. Arthur, Kathryn McGuire play the two leading roles. Herbert Standing, accomplished character actor, does a heavy part in fine style. Edna Gray Terry, Peery, Billie Bevan, Dot Farley, Ed die Gibbon, Charles Murray, Mildred June, Ben Deely and Robert Cain make up the even dozen popular players in the cast. The picture was directed by F. Richard Jones as a successor to his "Molly O," and the story is an original written by Mack Sennett himself.

GRIFFITH PICTURE ON CAPITOL SCREEN

"Way Down East" Will Be Magnet For Large Crowds

Ordinarily it would appear unnecessary to tell the story of "Way Down East," the play having been shown each season for the last twenty-two years, but the fact that it is to be presented in photodrama form at the Capitol Theatre to-day for a week's run, and in such form elaborated to an unusual extent by David W. Griffith, makes the re-telling of the tale at once interesting and, perhaps, even timely to the theatre goer who practically knows the play by heart.

Mr. Griffith has extended the original story, has added to it and thrown about it a myriad of striking scenes and spectacular episodes, all of which give an excuse for the master producer of screen classics. In this connection it may be well to emphasize the scenes and incidents that the motion picture producer has found lacking in the original work.

Anna Moore, a slip of a girl, is despatched by her mother from their humble home in rural New England to the Boston-home of wealthy relatives to lay before the fact that they are in dire straits for funds. The girl falters at telling the nature of her errand, an eccentric aunt happens along, takes a whim to dress her in fine clothes and introduce her to society. Her simple beauty attracts the youths of this new circle and one particular son of wealth sees an opportunity for fresh conquest. He tricks the girl into a mock marriage and after a brief honeymoon sends her back home, pledged to keep the secret as he pleads news of the marriage will prevent him from securing funds at the time. She has said nothing about the money needed at home, thinking, naturally that with her rich husband there will be no necessity for calling on the relatives for help.

After a patient wait at home she sends for her husband to tell him the news. He comes, she imparts the tender information of an impending event—the most sacred in the life of a woman. In a rage he blurts out that they are not married and stalks out. The girl's mother dies suddenly and she flees her native village and seeks refuge in a distant inn where her baby is born. With the death of her child, Anna is sternly told her presence is not desired at the inn and she sets onward into a grab world to seek a livelihood. Thus she comes to the home of Squire Bartlett and is engaged as a domestic amid simple folk who look upon domestics as part of the family. There springs up between Anna and the son of the house, Charles Maligne directed the picture, which was filmed in the Jackson Hole cattle country of Wyoming. Following the completion of the ranch

A wagging tongue brings to feminine ears in the village the news of Anna's shame. Learning it, Squire Bartlett, enraged, orders the girl from his home and she is driven out in the night during a blizzard. Before leaving, she denounced the man who betrayed her and at a time when he is an honored guest in the very home she is driven from. The son, David, defies his father and pursues the girl through the raging snowstorm. She wanders through the faw to the frozen river's surface and is caught in the crash of an ice-break-up. Her rescue by the hero just as she is to be carried in the mass of churning ice over the falls is the climax of a thrilling scene which has seldom been equaled in any screen production.

The striking scenes of spectacular splendor were not shown in the stage drama and practically all of the compelling episodes which Mr. Griffith visualizes in this gigantic production were only referred to in dialogue in the piece that has toured the country for these past twenty-two years.

Lillian Gish portrays Anna in this remarkable photodrama and her performance has placed her in the foremost rank of emotional actresses on the screen. Richard Barthelmess is the David of the Griffith production; Lowell Sherman the villainous Lennox Sanderson and Burr McIntosh, the stern Squire Bartlett. Others in the cast are Kate Bruce, Creighton Hale, Vivian Ogden, Edgar Nelson, Mary Hay, George Neville, Mrs. Morgan Belmont and Porter Strong. In addition, there are Josephine Bernard, Patricia Pruett, Florence Short, Mrs. David Landau, Emily Fitzroy, Myrtle Sutch and a host of others.

PARAMOUNT FILMS CLYDE FITCH PLAY

"The Cowboy and the Girl" at the Dominion

The late Clyde Fitch, dramatist, whose play, "The Woman in the Case," was adapted to Paramount Pictures as a stellar vehicle for Betty Compton under the title, "The Law and the Woman," also wrote "The Cowboy and the Girl," which has been pictured by Paramount with Mary Miles Minter and Tom Moore in the leading roles. Mr. Moore is the "dude" cowboy and Miss Minter is the lady whose unhappy marital affairs result in a great deal of trouble ere she finds the road to happiness.

Charles Maigne directed the picture, which was filmed in the Jackson Hole cattle country of Wyoming. Following the completion of the ranch shots, the company returned to Hollywood, where the interior scenes were photographed. Patricia Palmer, Viora Daniel, Robert Schable, Leonard Clapham, Guy Oliver and Robert Mack are in the cast. The picture will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all this week.

A romantic and exciting tale of the west, this play offers great opportunities as well for comedy. The idea of cowpunchers on motorcycles trying to rope steers, a modern idea of ranching, with filing systems and the like; the rancher who dresses like a gentleman of fashion—all supply delightful moments which contrast with the tragedy at the end and the trial which results in the vindication of the hero from complicity in the killing at a dance of the worthless husband. Julien Josephson, who scenarized "The Old Homestead," also wrote the continuity for "The Cowboy and the Lady."

GIRL GUIDE FILM TO BE SHOWN SOON AT VARIETY THEATRE

A Girl Guide film will be shown at the Variety Theatre from November 6 to 11, with Saturday matinee at popular prices. The film shows the work of Girl Guides and a story runs through it which is most interesting for adults as well as children. Any one who wishes to know anything of Guide activities should not miss this opportunity of seeing what a Guide does in England. The scenery is most beautiful, and everything we have heard of in the film has been good. Any financial result will be given to the provincial fund for starting new companies and assisting those already going.

THANKSGIVING ATTRACTION READY

"Every Girl" Is Big Musical Comedy Offering

Stage director McKnight declares she is destined to be a great actress for she has everything, face, figure, temperament and courage. Mary Ince said with eyes that are very brown and laden with the light of wisdom, "I have ambitions that are going to keep me in the theatre for a good many years to come and dreams that lead right to the stellar rung of the old ladder they call success."

Mary is one of those dainty dancing girls in "Every Girl" Company, the big musical comedy hit. Miss Ince is one of a score of beautiful girls who dazzle the eyes in gowns that are gorgeous, and some gowns that are more scant than gorgeous. In either garb she is described in the vernacular as being a surefire knockout.

Tom McKnight, stage director of the "Every Girl" Company has been studying the characteristics of show girls for a good many years, and one of his favorite indoor sports is to provide the destiny "dope" for those under his immediate command.

Will Be Great Actress

"I should say that Mary will be a great actress in the legitimate some of these days," said Mr. Bennett. "She has everything—face, figure, temperament and courage. She'll get along. There isn't any doubt of it. Mary who means nothing in my young life, you understand, is one of those girls that couldn't possibly be kept in the background for a long period. Some girls live and die in the chorus. Others—and Mary is one of them—simply forge ahead by sheer force of mentality and aptitude that all the king's horses and all the king's men can't counteract."

"Every Girl" will be at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 6, 7 and 8, with Monday Thanksgiving Day matinee.

"SHAME" OFFERED AT COLUMBIA

All Week Engagement Depicts Alaska Story

"Shame," the William Fox special which created a sensation in New York, has been booked by Manager Clark of the Columbia Theatre and will be shown for six days, beginning to-day.

This is an announcement of importance, for the picture is conceded to be one of the biggest of the year. Its power of appeal was tested at a prominent Broadway theatre, where it drew large crowds at every performance and made a tremendous impression.

"Shame" is the story of a young man, David Fielding, born in an alien land, who is brought back to the family home in San Francisco as a child after his father's tragic death. He inherits his grandfather's enormous wealth and becomes head of the big shipping interests. He marries a beautiful and talented woman, and is expecting paternity. Life, so far, has been kind to young Fielding.

From the country where the young shipping magnate was born comes a trader of evil reputation, who had been balked in some of his nefarious schemes by David's father. He finds the son and in revenge tells him he is a half-caste, son of William Fielding and a native woman in the far-away country. The trader threatens to tell the story unless David agrees to enter into a huge smuggling enterprise. David refuses indignantly, and laughs at the story of mixed blood. The thought preys upon him, however, and finally drives him to take his infant child and flee from civilization to the snowfields of Alaska. There he battles with a wolf and experiences other wild adventures. The mystery of his life is cleared in startling fashion.

"Shame" was directed by Emmett J. Flynn.

Playhouse to Return to Potted Opera

After the two weeks of successful farce Mr. Reginald N. Hincks will return to the potted opera which proved so popular since the opening of the Playhouse with his new company. The opera chosen for this, the seventh show, is the Wizard of the Nile, and while perhaps it is not so well-known as some of the other offerings it is one that does not need to take second place to any of the

Mr. Hincks with his usual genius for casting and producing has gathered a cast well suited to the particular parts to which they are allotted and includes besides the popular leads Eva Hart and Ernie Fetch, some of Victoria's best talent, in Miss Marie McLaughlin, Mrs. Styles Shel, Agnes Stuart-Robertson, Gipsy Switzer, Bob Webb, Dave Dumbleton, Reginald Hincks and Jack Gillan. There are no less than seventeen beautiful song numbers in the piece all linked up with a clever plot and dialogue that makes for one of the brightest shows ever offered here.

Included in the first part of the bill in addition to songs by Miss Marie McLaughlin who it will be remembered, scored such a success in The Country Girl, and Bob Webb, the well-known comedian, is a fifteen-minute playlet entitled "A Shot in the Dark." This is an extremely humorous sketch and included in the cast are: T. J. Goddard, Angus Stuart-Robertson, Dave Dumbleton and Vivian Coombe.

Playhouse Show Number Seven will open on Wednesday night and will continue throughout the week. The box office is now open for advance reservations.

KING GEORGE AND QUEEN RETURN TO BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Princess Mary Is Guest With Husband at Lonsdale's Party

London, Oct. 30.—The King and Queen with their courts returned from Balmoral to Buckingham Palace, and the former spent a few days in Newmarket before returning to town again Friday. The Earl and Countess of Lonsdale gave a small party at their house in Newmarket for Princess Mary and her husband, Lord Lascelles, who remained with them until their return to Chesterfield House on Friday. The Princess is now devoting much of her time shopping for her new home at Goldborough Hall, which she hopes to be able to occupy early in November.

The Duke of York was unable to attend the races, as he departed for Bucharest Monday in order to represent the King at the coronation of the King and Queen of Rumania. This is the second time in the last few months that the Duke has been in the Balkans, his previous visit being on the occasion of the wedding of the King Alexander of Serbia.

Four notable weddings took place Wednesday, two in town and two in the country. Ambassador and Mrs. Harvey, the Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Okamoto, the Italian Ambassador and Donna de Martino all attended the ceremony when Miss Rosetta Glover, daughter of the late Captain Sir John Glover, married Mr. James Griffith Fairfax. Sir George Younger escorted the bride up the aisle, and her mother, Lady Glover, gave her in marriage. She wore a cream georgette gown trimmed with point lace, with a pearl girle and a diamond sapphire and pink pearl necklace, the latter being the gift of the bridegroom.

Lady Alma Stopford, daughter of the Earl Courtown, was married to Lieutenant Colonel Geoffrey L. Hoare, C.B.E. Lord and Lady Radnor's son, Viscount Folkestone, married Miss Helena Adeane at Brabraham, Cambridge, the home of the bride, and many notable guests were at the ceremony and reception, among them being Lady Wemyss, Lady Grey of Fallodon, aunts of the bride; Lord and Lady Sandwich, Lady Mary Strickland, Lady Hardwicke, Sir Bernard and the Hon. Lady Mallet. The bride had two pages and seven bridesmaids, in white and silver and yellow and blue. She wore an Italian gown in silver brocade with a double-train.

Five little children in Joshua Reynolds dresses of white muslin with mob caps trimmed with blue ribbons attended Lady Eleanor Byng at her marriage to Henry Atkinson. The bride is the widow of the Hon. Lionel Byng and sister of the late Earl of Suffolk. Her dress was of green georgette, trimmed with crystal beads. The Countess of Strafford, Lady Elizabeth, Lady Mary Byng, Lady Joan Mulholland, Major and Lady Agnes Poynter were among the guests. Lord and Lady Forchester have just left London for India, where they expect to remain some months. Lord Forchester is the son and heir of the Earl of Carnarvon and his marriage to Catherine Wendell was an important social affair last season.

Saturday last was the opening of the exhibition of the works of Walter Tittle, the American portraitist, at the Leicester galleries, and the show has been drawing a great number of people.

A MOVING PICTURE OF THE WEST

Sensational Trial of a Popular Character; Mr. Wheatman's Peccadilloes; Indiscretions of a Judge; Phenomenal Procession; Introducing Mr. Cwt and His Family.

By Howard Angus Kennedy.

The Lie Factory is working overtime. It is always busy, and when the boss hears we've earned a little extra cash he puts on double shifts to get it away from us.

Is it wheat we grow? Then here you are, Mr. Wheatman. "Mummy wheat," "Three-Thousand-year-old Wonder," "raised from grain discovered in Tombs of Egyptian Kings," "Miraculous yielder," "No. 1 grain recovered from an ancient tomb has ever sprouted, thought the experiment has often been tried. But the experiment of this 'plant' on the farmer has so often succeeded, to the amazing tune of $10 a bushel, that Saskatchewan University has to learn the warning farmers against it. Not only is its pedigree a fake, but our standard wheats beat it hollow, both in quantity and quality.

"We are as God made us," Mr. Finnigan pleaded. "No," said modest Mr. Dooley, "let's take a little of the blame ourselves." "Well, let it pass. A little goes a long way."

Ever Wrestle With Mr. CWT? Before making any confessions, however, let me gently slip under your eye one mild extenuatory statistic, "a little fact of the largest size," and ask if you honestly think you could have done better?

Did you ever lift a hundred-pound sack of wheat, or say flour or anything else? If not, try—and carry it up to the top of the City Hall tower if you have such a thing in your town) after the elevator man has quit. Then you will really know the meaning of a hundred pounds, and will never lose your respect for the gentleman known to the trade by the cute little pet name of Cwt.

Now imagine our little rural community of 1,250,000 in the Prairie provinces—far less than the combined population of two Eastern cities, Montreal and Toronto—driving by for your inspection with the wheat they have raised this year. If every man, woman and child were pressed into the service, infants from their cradles and invalids from their beds, and if each of them drove a wagon holding 42 of Mr. Cwt., each wagon would have to have three more, just as full, trailing driverless behind. Or if only the men came, who actually raised the crop, they would have to drive about twenty waggon loads or 2,100,000,000 pounds weight of the finest wheat in the world. And if they wanted to show the other grains they have raised this year, they would have to bring along about 4,842,000 waggon loads of oats, 100,000 of barley, 671,000 of rye and 72,000 waggon loads of so close together that they couldn't cross the street between them, the procession would be about 45,000 miles long.

Mother Earth could tie a girdle around her waist with this string and have spare ends left long enough to trip over. If she wanted a good long scarf, she could call for another procession, of all Western hay, potatoes and trifles. And all this the one year's crop—"to be continued in our next."

Conjure up in your mind a picture of that tremendous regular yearly procession and you'll get the idea of what the young man of the West is doing. It will also be better able to imagine what a Western grain crop means to the East—the millions of dollars it pours into the homes of people making farm implements, and hardware, and dry goods and clothing, and the rail and ship workers, and many other classes. At one little Saskatchewan town, and not in a good grain district either, I found that 24 Ontario binders had been sold this year, for about $5,500.

Respected Citizen in the Dock Let us now pick up our Western Wheat again. A heavy subject? Yes, I told you so—2,000 pounds to the ton. I can't serve it as light as the pastry, it makes, but just try this little dish. You may call it "Crime of Wheat."

Picture, please—sensational trial scene. Court thronged with Youth Beauty and the rest. National hero, Jim Wheatman, charged with picking his own pocket and goodness knows what. Prisoner looks cheerful enough and healthy, with that school-girl complexion, but walks with a limp.

"Your Honor," says counsel for defence, "I object to the prisoner being put on trial on account of his vast services to the country."

The Judge—"For that, the Court awards him a vote of the next suit for better pay. But—a man might earn our gratitude by inventing a motor to run without gasoline, but we should hardly pay him with a license to exceed the speed limit." Objection overruled.

First charge—That prisoner takes up too much grain that where grain alone is raised the population is kept down, and what the country most needs is more population.

Second charge—That prisoner has files, parasites, and what not. Letting machinery run down, too, with careless handling and exposure. Buying machinery beyond the farm's requirements, or beyond the man's capacity to handle it. Swallowing swindlers. Buying dear, and selling cheap. The market's not to blame for the whole of that, I can tell you.

"Cutting grain too ripe, so a lot of it threshes itself. Making poor stooks. Leaving them unstacked, where there is no certainty of early threshing, so the land can't be fall ploughed. Leaving straw piles in the middle of the field, so their old bottoms hinder cultivation.

"Cutting hay too late; or leaving it to spoil. Making poor stacks, so that both top and bottom are wasted."

"Selling grain in small lots for the bottom price, instead of making up a car-load with neighbors. Not taking advantage of the Grain Act, to check under-grading by elevators. Not shipping to concerns that will check official grading too."

Prisoner (the Judge having stopped to draw breath) "Your Honor, most of the men you have in mind would do better if they could afford it—if they had a little more time, and money, and maybe, in some cases, energy."

Judge—"Which means, I'm afraid, that they've bitten off more than they can chew, and can't digest it. Even so, if they would only putter up enough energy for five minutes' violent-thinking, say once a day, they'd soon see where they could save time and money."

"My word, but there's a great chance for the man who'll come in now, and start with a clean sheet, and learn by our mistakes as well as by our achievements! There's no land in the world with such a chance for the man who keeps his eyes open and does half-way right."

"But that's enough. There's a lot of people who might be in the dock with you, for helping you to get into trouble. . . . Well, they say if we all got what we deserve the hangman would have a busy time. . . . Let's call it a day. . . . You're a good sort of fellow, Wheatman—come along home to dinner. . . . What's that? Forget to sentence you, did I?—Well, since guilty, but don't do it again!"

NOT MUCH HOPE. A very absent-minded man was dining out. "My daughter, you know," said his hostess, "married a struggling man. Life has been one long struggle for them, too, ever since."

"Perhaps he'll get away one day," answered the absent-minded man.

"Perhaps he'll get away one day," answered the absent-minded man.

Prisoner pleads ignorance. Had heard that the country was created for one big wheatfield. He had lost heavily by going into districts which proved unsuitable.

Judge—"The country has lost heavily, too. We are all to blame; we were all ignorant. But some of us have a little excuse for our ignorance. Our government people should have started a thorough soil and climate survey forty years ago—and they are just beginning now."

A voice at the back of the court—"The only excuse men have for running a government is that apes would do no better."

Judge—"Turn that woman out."

Third charge—That prisoner is robbing the country, taking everything out of the soil and putting nothing back.

Prisoner—"Everybody told me the fertility of the soil was inexhaustible."

Judge—"Everybody stopped saying it long ago, except the parrot. In large districts the soil is so rich that you might take a few generations to exhaust it, though it would be impoverished long before. But a few generations are only as a day, in a country's life. When they are ended the West will still be only beginning. We are starving our grandchildren to fatten ourselves."

Counsel for defence urges in excuse that authorities still differ as to the value of the various remedies proposed; and no way has been yet found to replace all the plant food we are taking out of the soil through our grain.

Judge—"That's no excuse for not replacing as much as you can. This thing has got to stop. Look how the yield per acre is falling already. And the actual loss is bigger than that shows, because the new and improved varieties of wheat naturally get more bushels out of the acre."

Fourth charge—That prisoner grows weeds, which spread all over the neighborhood.

Evidence—More than 130,000,000 pounds of weed-seed found in grain reaching Lake Superior in a year. Loss to farmers and grain handlers over $200,000. Railway freight, of course, paid on the whole mixture of weeds and grain alike.

Prisoner sadly observes that he is the worst sufferer; he has to pay the freight. Thresherman shouldn't have let the stuff through.

Thresherman steps forward. Says he can't help it, with his machine, not at the price, anyway. He hears of some new device that will do the trick, and maybe he'll adopt it.

Judge—"That's all very well, but the best way to avoid trouble from weeds is not to grow them. I've seen a 40' 60' bank with weeds, the man had to cut and rake and burn them before he could start ploughing for what he called Summer-fallow! Another man I've seen simply ploughing the weeds under, at the end of July, too, when their seeds were good and ripe. . . ."

"You say you're the worst sufferer. We want to see you stop suffering."

"A big region of this country was just everlastingly made for growing wheat, as sure as my scalp was made for growing hair—though neither of them is quite keeping up its yield. I don't want to see that region dropping wheat as its main crop—though I do hate to see a grain-grower driving into town for store milk and eggs and vegetables, for lack of a cow, a garden or a hen."

Prisoner was understood to say it wasn't him—or he.

Judge—"Perhaps not; but a lot of your tribe do. . . . Taking for granted, now, that you are stuck to wheat; the sooner you start some simple crop rotation, the better it will be for the wheat itself, let alone the other benefits you can reckon on."

"Just because grain is the biggest business of the West, and what the West has got the biggest name for, we want to see it as successful as it can be made. We want to see the leaks plugged that run away with so much of its profit and vitality."

"Here are a few of the scores of leaks I've seen myself in many parts of the West, some dribbling and some pouring out a continual stream of waste and loss—not on wheat farms alone, by any means."

"Choosing wrong land and wrong crops for the land chosen. Breaking late; breaking badly."

"Using too much seed. Using poor and untested seed. Using seed without fanning out the weeds; letting weeds starve the grain by stealing its food and moisture. Using seed without testing it for smut. Not seeding in time; for here it's 'better never than late.'"

"Not using manure when it's fresh, or foot using it at all. Putting it on at the wrong time, or in the wrong place. Spreading it unevenly."

"Not cultivating right. Not taking the trouble to find out and practise just the sort of cultivation the farm needs. Ploughing too shallow; ploughing too deep; cutting live too late; cultivating too much; cultivating all the fibre out, and leaving the soil so fine it blows away and takes the young crop with it."

Prisoner—"I'm planting trees now, your honor, for wind-breaks—got 2,000 from Indian Head last year, and they've grown five feet already."

Judge—"Nothing personal in my remarks. Maybe you're the man we're always looking for, that never did a wrong thing. Prove that, and we'll send you around for exhibition in the next 'Perfect Farmer Train.' . . ."

Fact is, we've a great lot of farmers all over the country setting fine examples—which their next-door neighbors don't follow. Result? One man's farm is a melon—the next man's, a lemon. You can make either word you like, of the same letters.

"Trees, I think you can see a tree is a waste of eyesight, to say the least. . . ."

"But here are a few more ways I see men spoiling their chances: 'Leaving fences unrepaired, and gates open, for horses and cattle to walk in and take toll of the crop. Leaving gophers and mice to multiply and take another toll—at least 25 per cent, on some farms I've seen. . . ."

"Letting horses run down, through over-work, ill-feeding, collar sores,

Excerpts From the New York Newspapers on D. W. Griffith's "Way Down East"

"The patrons shrieked and roared. They had witnessed the most sensational photoplay climax that ever aroused a cataclysm of emotions. Enough to raise the hair on a man's head and raise the man out of his seat."—Herald.

"Big thrills and river ice crash. The most thrilling scene ever shown on the screen. The suspense is overwhelming, partly because the onlookers realize that there is no fake about it. Mr. Griffith produces pictures of startling beauty that suggest famous landscapes painted by masters."—Evening Telegram.

"The audience received a thrill the like of which has not been felt since the Clansmen rode over the hills in 'The Birth of a Nation!' To describe the acting of Lillian Gish would be to open the columns to all the superlatives in the language. Pandemonium broke loose. The theatre resounded to cheers, whistles and yells of delight. A series of pictures that might well hang on any wall."—Evening Mail.

"D. W. Griffith has climbed to new heights of achievement in 'Way Down East.' Audience cheered the sensational scenes. . . . No one overacted and every one in the carefully selected company is true to type."—Sun.

"When the stupendous ice scenes were shown the theatre rocked with applause. Never in our five years' experience with motion pictures have we seen such a demonstration. It is difficult to write without dealing almost entirely in superlatives."—Harriette Underhill, Tribune.

CALORIC

THE ORIGINAL PIPELESS FURNACE TRIPLE-CASING PATENT

If you are planning to build a home—of any size up to 18 rooms—you should certainly permit us to give you full particulars about the "Caloric" Furnace.

We have installed more than a hundred Caloric Furnaces in Victoria homes and the satisfaction these furnaces are giving is demonstrated by the many letters of appreciation which we have received. Here is an extract from one of these letters:

"This furnace has kept a seven-room house comfortably warm from Oct. 1, 1920, to Feb. 15, 1921, on exactly three tons of lump coal."

Every Caloric Furnace is warranted to save 1-3 to 1-2 of your fuel bills.
