

BIG FUTURE PLANNED

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE HOLD AN INTERESTING SESSION

What will likely be considered an historic meeting was held in the Union high school Tuesday evening, when the Sons and Daughters of the British Empire met to adopt their constitution and receive reports of committees. The following preamble and objects of this society suggest the nature and scope of its work:

Preamble—"We, British born, with all those of like loyal British sympathies awakened by the present crisis of the British empire, affirm our high regard for the justice of Briton's cause and the beneficence of British civilization. We further declare that all people born on British soil, whatever their citizenship or place of abode, should band themselves together in order that they may render to the British empire all help compatible with their honor. We, therefore, organize this society to express and make practical application of these exalted convictions.

Objects—"The objects of this society shall be intellectual, social and patriotic fellowship; response to legitimate appeals for relief of suffering comrades; the promotion of the English language and civilization; the adjustment of world problems according to the standards of British democracy, and the fixed policy of a definite campaign of world-wide publicity for the promotion of the civilization of the English speaking people."

The report of the relief committee was inspiring. Clothes and food to the value of eleven hundred dollars have been collected and forwarded. Incorporated in the report was a beautiful letter from Arthur Letts of Los Angeles, sent in connection with a handsome donation of flannel to be made by the ladies of the society into baby garments. Mrs. O. A. Lane is the chairman of this committee. The social committee was highly commended for the good service rendered up to date and the future plans of this able committee suggest big things for the society. John Henry Troy was unanimously elected field secretary.

The constitution of the Sons and Daughters of the British Empire will be printed and copies given upon request. Address all communications to Mr. Henry Hale, corresponding secretary, 1416 Patterson avenue, Glendale.

The following financial statement was submitted by the treasurer, Mr. John A. Cole:

Amount pledged, $476.22.
Amount collected, $412.72.
Now due, $63.50.
Forwarded for British relief, $360.00.
Printing, etc., $14.25.
Cash in bank, $38.47.
Total, $412.72.

DR. MILLS ADDRESSES CLUB

At the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club held in Masonic temple Tuesday, Dr. Mills in the course of his talk on cards, brought in the question of amusements for the young people of the town, and stated that there was a great deal of agitation over the moving picture shows being open on Sunday. He gave it as his opinion that if the pictures could be controlled and the right sort of thing shown on Sunday, it would not be so bad, but that it seems we cannot control them on week days, and therefore they could not be controlled on Sundays, and he is against having the shows open on Sundays. From the applause it would seem that the greater part of the club agreed with Dr. Mills.

Dr. Mills also spoke very interestingly on the park question. Mrs. Toll's address on the local charity organization was splendid. Glendale seems to be fully awake to the fact that such an organization is needed here in order to prevent duplication of some cases and allowing others to go without attention, which will be the case so long as such matters are not handled in a systematic and organized manner.

The music rendered by Miss Hilda Brown, violinist, and Miss Cecile Gillespie, pianist, during the refreshments, was very beautiful and thoroughly appreciated by all present.

BOARD MEETING

There was an interesting session of the Sunday school board of the West Glendale M. E. church in the church parlors Tuesday evening. Sixteen members of the board were present. Annual reports from the different sections of the Sunday school were read, showing the school to be in a flourishing condition. A number of questions were discussed pertaining to the good of the children and the furtherance of the Lord's work.

SINS OF OMISSION

VOICE YOUR SENTIMENTS IN LETTER TO GLENDALE CITY TRUSTEES

In answer to the article in the Glendale Evening News in defense of Sunday moving picture shows, written by the owner of one of the moving picture parlors of Glendale, I wish to say that there is nothing in this world, perhaps, so outlandish as a misfit—everything has its place, and when it is taken out of its place it causes discord, often resulting in disaster.

While the motion picture is a help or hindrance to humanity according to the quality of the pictures shown, it, like everything else, has its place, and that place is not on the Lord's day, and when it is made a part of Sunday observance, it simply means that for the sake of a dollar one man or a set of men are willing to interfere with the best part of mankind by making the day of rest and worship into a gala day.

Only by seeing where we are and what we are can we improve ourselves, and the human race improves only as its individual members improve, and if Sunday afternoon, God's time for sober thought, quiet rest to both body and brain, when we are to read and rest or walk and ride in God's sunshine, is to be broken into by the moving picture show, it means that God's blessings to Glendale will be withheld, for even though we do not attend, if we, as Christian people, do not rise up and voice our sentiments, we are equally as bad as those who go to the show.

The Bible speaks very plainly of sins of omission as well as those of commission. If I may be allowed space for a suggestion, it would be this: "That every man and woman in Glendale who knows from past experience just what Sunday picture shows will do to the moral tone of our fair city, either tonight or tomorrow night call over the telephone or write a letter to the trustees or some one of the trustees of our city offering their protest."

Why should we allow this to go on? But if we sit still and raise no objections, we can prepare for a setback to our present advancement, and the merchants and property holders will be the first to suffer. We welcome any and all business enterprises to Glendale and bid them God speed so long as they do business in an honorable way, but when they want to damage our fair name for the sake of a few dollars, then it is up to the citizenship of Glendale to stop it, and here seems to be a splendid opportunity to defend our rights.

Adv. L. C. LEEDS.

PROF. KRINBILL REFUSES OFFER

Glendale people will be interested in the announcement that Prof. Clarence E. Krinbill, formerly a resident of this city and who still has a music class here, has been tendered the position of organist of the First Methodist church of Los Angeles, with strong inducements. This position was left vacant by the resignation of the talented young organist, Clyde Collison, who goes to accept a position with the Glenwood Mission Inn. The offer came to Mr. Krinbill unsolicited, although there were hundreds of applications.

The Christian church of Long Beach, of which Mr. Krinbill has been organist, immediately took steps to retain him, with the result that he refused the very flattering offer from the Los Angeles church.

NEW CLUB MEMBERS

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Tuesday Afternoon club held on Tuesday at the Masonic temple, Mrs. Benjamin F. McLouth of 117 South Louise street was elected to membership in the club. The application of Mrs. Vivian R. Webb was also received. The Tuesday Afternoon club is proud not only of the talented women who are already her members, but of these gifted women as well who are seeking admission into the club.

CLUB MEETING

The Tropico Bridge Luncheon club met with Mrs. Charles Barker of 115 South Glendale avenue this week. Mrs. Barker's home was beautifully decorated with Chinese lilies and ferns and a dainty three-course lunch was served at 1 o'clock, after which the ladies played bridge, the prize, two beautiful Nippon cups and saucers, being won by Mrs. Clarence Good. The special guests of the day were Mrs. Harry Coleman of Detroit and Mrs. Clarence Good of Glendale. Others present besides the hostess were Mrs. O. M. Richardson, Mrs. Chas. M. Turk, Mrs. Wm. Mabry, Mrs. Lee Bancroft, Mrs. Wm. Harvey and Mrs. Arthur Lewis.

HAVE YOU A HOBBY?

POULTRY BUSINESS PROFITABLE AND ALSO A PLEASANT PASTIME

The man, woman or child who does not have a hobby of some kind must be a queer sort of a person, indeed. Where can one look for a more interesting pastime than the raising of poultry? We all need something to do in which we can feel an interest outside of our regular business or vocation. To the person who has never kept even a few fowls would be surprised how much pleasure it is to build pens, to select the pens for breeding, to watch the little ones grow and busy themselves scratching among the chaff and chirping about the yard as if the whole world depended upon their activity.

Most hobbies are expensive and are carried on frequently without any hope or prospect of gaining any returns. But as a rule, with poultry, it is different. Most any variety of poultry, carefully bred and cared for, will not only prove a pleasure, but in most cases a profit also.

Poultry for the home use in the village, suburban home or as a business, brings greater returns than most anything else for the amount invested. But few persons realize the magnitude of the poultry industry and look upon it in a small way, suitable for women only, and yet it is true that many women make greater returns from their flocks of three or four hundred hens than the husband saves by working for day wages.

To make poultry raising a profitable as well as a pleasant occupation, one must have, first, proper equipment, as it is very evident that birds will not do well if not properly housed and cared for; second, a uniform flock of chickens selected according to the purpose for which you are working. In selecting a breed or variety, it is very necessary that you select the breed that is your preference, as one will take more pride in taking care of the kind he fancies, thereby getting better results than he would by handling a mixture, for it is the real poultry fancier who makes the greatest success in the poultry business, and after one starts in the poultry business he soon finds out that there is more to be done in order to get the best results than merely throwing corn to the hens of a morning and gathering the eggs at night.

FAMILY REUNION

The Presbyterian family will hold a reunion at their home on the corner of Broadway and Cedar streets on Thursday evening. This reunion is held in honor of the members who have recently come into the family. Dinner will be served at 6:30, when three hundred members of one family will sit down at the tables and break bread together. The older members of the family have provided an especially interesting evening's entertainment for their guests. Occidental college has loaned her Girls' Glee club and there will be good cheer, warm fellowship and enjoyment for all.

Those for whom the reunion is held are: Mr. and Mrs. W. Blakemore, Mrs. J. R. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cowles, Master P. Edmonds, Mrs. N. Frantz, Miss C. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Grafious, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lyon, Mr. A. Lyon, Miss M. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lynn, Miss M. Nevin, Mr. W. Richards, Miss R. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tooker, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Widney, Master C. H. Widney and Miss A. E. Widney.

PEOPLE APPRECIATE EFFORTS

The management of the Glendale Evening News has gone to the expense of installing a complete publishing and printing plant and employs persons of superior ability in all departments, which makes it possible to give citizens of this community service equal to that given in cities of five times the population.

This fact of enterprise on our part is appreciated by a large number of business men and citizens who are quick to realize that such advantages are a wonderful aid to the advancement of the city. These people show their appreciation by liberally patronizing our publishing and printing departments.

HUMANE FARMERS

Those Fairbury, Nebraska, farmers who refused to sell their horses to the fighting armies in Europe have their heads screwed on about right. The farmer who thinks no more of his horses than to sell them to be shot, with no other incentive save the price, is unworthy of his high calling. He should apply for admission to the meat trust.

GREAT PRIZE CONTEST

EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN COUNTY HAS CHANCE TO WIN $100

Every man, woman or child in Los Angeles county has a chance to earn $100 for merely writing a letter. The talked-of contest of the 1915 general committee has begun and will be open until March 15.

Besides the first prize there are other awards of $75, $50, $25 and fifty prizes of $5 each—a total of $500. These are offered for the best letters written to any resident outside the state setting forth the desirability of their attending the San Diego and San Francisco expositions and visiting Los Angeles county, the gateway to both great fairs.

The rules of the contest are so simple that a child in school has an equal chance with grown persons. Letters with a punch, the kind that reach under the skin, are the sort that will be written. The idea is to make every resident of the county a booster for the community.

There is much to write about, but the letters must be short and to the point. No letter may be longer than 200 words. The conditions are not hard to comply with, and it is expected that the large number of prizes will prove an attraction for many.

Following are the rules that must be observed by everyone in the contest:

1. All contestants are required to write a letter, not exceeding 200 words in length, longhand or type-written, to a friend, relative, acquaintance, or known person, who is not a resident of the state of California.

2. Enclose that letter and one exact copy thereof in an unsealed envelope, which must be addressed to the party to whom the letter is written, and affix a two-cent postage stamp to the envelope.

3. Enclose this letter in a separate envelope and mail or deliver to the 1915 general committee, room 205 Chamber of Commerce building, Los Angeles, where a postal card, printed by the 1915 general committee, will be enclosed in each letter that is mailed, calling for reply from the party addressed. Enclose also, unattached, a one-cent postage stamp to be affixed to the postal card in order to insure a prompt reply to the letter.

4. The committee will, upon receipt of writer's letter, file the copy enclosed and give same a serial number; also similarly numbering the reply postal card in the letter, seal the letter and mail to party to whom envelope is addressed.

In order to secure the prizes, the best letters submitted require that the reply postal cards be returned from the persons addressed in order to complete the requirements of the committee of award.

5. The prizes will be awarded only to the persons writing the best letters embodying the best arguments why people should visit "Los Angeles—the Gateway to the Expositions," also the San Francisco and San Diego expositions, and know the delightful state of California.

6. The judges will be appointed by the chairman of the 1915 general committee, the chairman of the board of supervisors of Los Angeles county and the mayor of the city of Los Angeles, and they will reserve the right to reject any or all letters submitted if in their opinion same do not merit acceptance.

7. Contest commences at once and closes March 15, 1915, after which date no letters will be received in competition. Open to every man, woman and child in Los Angeles county. Number of letters that may be written by any one person not limited.

8. All copies of letters submitted are to remain the property of the committee for such disposition as they may see fit, they to eliminate all identification marks.

MRS. EARL STANZA

Mrs. Helen McLean Stanza, wife of Earl G. Stanza, passed away Tuesday morning, January 12, at her home, 1637 Oak street, Glendale, at two o'clock, after a long illness of tuberculosis, aged 24 years and 10 days. She was born at Taylorville, Ills., and had resided in Glendale since May 1, 1913. Her mother, Mrs. J. B. McLean of East St. Louis, Ills., had been at her bedside for some time. The deceased was a member of the Grace Presbyterian church of St. Louis.

The body is at the Jewel City undertaking parlors awaiting shipment the latter part of this week to Hillsboro, Ills., for interment. Mr. Stanza and Mrs. McLean will accompany the remains east. There will be no services in Glendale.

OXMAN'S INSANITY PLEA

PUBLIC MUST BE PROTECTED FROM BULLETS OF DARE-DEVILS AND THUGS

An attempt is being made to prove that young Oxnam, who a few weeks ago shot and killed Alexander of Los Angeles, is crazy. Such absurdity! It would seem at first thought to any intelligent person that the man who shoots another is crazy, but if the honest, law-abiding people of this country are to be protected from the bullets of a lot of dare-devils, no excuses of "crazy" can be listened to in an instance like Oxnam's.

He is a vicious boy—he is an outlaw. He likely inherited his devilish spirit, and in a sense is not responsible, but a strict enforcement of the law is all that will bring such brutish beings to their senses. They are sorry for the wrong they have done only when they are behind the bars. They are more to be dreaded than the skulking, treacherous Indian.

The punishment meted out to Oxnam should not be considered in a sense of being a settlement of the great crime he committed, for it is not possible to subject such a wretch to torture that would atone for all the suffering and agonies he brought to the Alexander home.

The speedy trial and prompt execution of this desperado will serve as a warning to others of his class who are yet at large, and refrain from committing terrible crimes only because they fear the dangling hangman's rope.

Oxnam is guilty of murdering Alexander, and why make an expensive long trial out of it? There is no living being that can honestly say a word in his behalf. Relatives may be justly sorry, but the time for them to have been busy in looking after the interests of the boy was before he began his criminal career. They have awakened to the sense of their duty when it is too late.

Who is the just judge who can sit hour after hour and listen to the silly excuses of insanity that are being presented in this case? Where is the lawyer that has any honesty or integrity who will attempt to produce such weak argument?

All of this nonsense only adds notoriety to the criminal and is an incentive for other weak-minded dare-devils to go forth and seek just such notoriety.

The procedure in the Oxnam case and hundreds like it should be, first, arrest; second, prove guilt; third, execute. No pictures of criminal published after the arrest. No words of sympathy from limelight women as was the instance in the Fariss case. The brief course of procedure should be followed not for the purpose of getting even with the criminal, but for the purpose of serving as a warning to the hold-up men and murderers who are pleased with the notoriety they get through the courts and city papers.

The time has come when a Bostonick, Bundy and Oxnam get more publicity than presidents, governors, kings and queens. Police court publicity is the kind of publicity these crime seekers want.

Courts, sensational city newspapers and a certain class of the general public are responsible for much of the crime committed.

ORANGE SHOW IS TO PROMOTE BY-PRODUCTS

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 13.—The promotion of the citrus by-products industry, which the growers of California expect to see prosper, will be a big feature of the national orange show, which is to be held here February 17-24.

During the last year the manufacture of citrus by-products has been placed on a higher standard than before, but the industry has by no means reached the development that it will.

During the national orange show exhibits of by-products will be shown by manufacturers. In addition to the manufacturers, the citrus fruit growers have invited housewives to display their kitchen products from oranges and lemons and the domestic science classes of various educational institutions of the state will likewise display their work in citrus by-products.

Prizes are offered in all three branches of the by-products department. In every manner possible the manufacture of citrus by-products is to be encouraged by the national orange show, at which many thousands of people will be shown how the orange and lemon can be made into various table desserts.

The citrus fruit men see a big field for manufacturers in the industry, and one that will become of vast importance to the state.—Pacific Fruit World.

DELIGHTFUL FUNCTION

SONS OF VETERANS OFFICERS-ELECT ARE INSTALLED—OTHER ITEMS

The initiation and installation of N. P. Banks Sons of Veterans Camp, which was held at G. A. R. hall on Tuesday night, was one of the most delightful social functions given by the Camp. Many members of N. P. Banks Post and Corps were present, which added to the pleasures as well as gave zest and encouragement to the Sons.

Charles C. Hapgood and Dr. W. C. Mabry were initiated and became members of N. P. Banks Camp previous to the beautiful and impressive installation ceremonies. Lieut. B. I. Davis and Guide F. A. Paugh of Camp W. S. Rosencranz of Los Angeles, installed the officers-elect. Joseph V. Griffin was installed as commander, Robert Danner, senior vice-commander; Harry Meyers, junior vice-commander; J. A. Durham, patriotic instructor; Guy Pixley, guide; DeLos Jones, color bearer; E. D. Johnson, inner guard; Burt F. Burlingham, chaplain; Harold Adams, secretary; W. A. Goss, treasurer; Robert McGee, Arthur J. Van Wie and Joseph A. DeMuth, camp council.

A company of Sons of Veterans Reserves was organized and E. D. Johnson was elected second lieutenant. They were mustered in by Commander George O. Lockwood. Following these ceremonies speeches were made by Capt. George O. Lockwood, Dr. W. C. Mabry and C. C. Hapgood, Commander Joseph V. Griffin presiding as toastmaster. To the strains of martial music rendered by Miss Florence Chadwick, the members of N. P. Banks Post and Corps, as the guests of the Camp, marched to the banquet room, where refreshments were served. The hall was gaily decorated in the national emblem and on the handsome altar the open Bible with the drawn swords under the folds of Old Glory presented an inspiring picture for the large assemblage. Many guests were present from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Mary Chadwick, president of the Tropico branch of the Parent-Teacher association, assisted by Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, is arranging to give a most excellent program on Tuesday, January 19th, in the auditorium of the Cerritos street school building. Several most interesting speakers have been secured to assist on the program. The fathers and mothers of the pupils will be the guests of the association Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Chandler, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Chandler of Elizabeth Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Bullis of North Central avenue, Tropico, have returned from San Diego, where they motored the latter part of the week. That these motorists enjoyed the delightful motor trip and the exposition goes without saying.

At a meeting of the Tropico Library association held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Griswold Tuesday evening, the following directors were chosen for the ensuing year: Mr. Dwight Griswold, Mrs. Wesley H. Bullis, Mrs. Charles A. Barker, Mrs. Frank E. Peters, Mrs. Hal H. Davenport, Mrs. Dwight Griswold, Mrs. A. W. Collins, Mrs. Ernest J. Morgan and Mrs. Joseph H. Webster.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Chas. M. Turk, chairman of the music study section of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon club, the meeting of this section which was arranged to be held at her home on Glendale avenue Thursday afternoon has been postponed.

Mrs. Charles Findley and Miss Cora Hickman were guests of the Friday Morning club Tuesday afternoon as representatives of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon club at the anniversary celebration of Madame Severance's birthday.

Mr. J. J. Law, father of Mrs. Jas. R. Maxwell, who has been quite ill at his home on Palmer avenue, is slowly convalescing.

Mrs. Frank I. Marsh of North Central avenue was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wyckoff of Burbank on Wednesday.

TOURNAMENT LEAVES BALANCE

The Pasadena Rose Tournament association reports that after settling all bills in connection with the recent tournament, they will have left in the treasury $2000. The gate receipts at Tournament park on New Year's day were $9000. The $2000 surplus will be used in carrying on and preparing for the next tournament. The association is jubilant over the success of this year's affair.

TO ORGANIZE WESTERNERS

A body of horsemen to be known as "the Westerners," will be organized under the 1915 general committee of Los Angeles county to act as escorts of honor to noted visitors and the numerous conventions that will meet here this year. These horsemen will wear sombreros, buckskin chaps, blue shirts and red bandanas, bringing to mind those picturesque and romantic days of early California. The idea has met with great enthusiasm and men from all walks of life are enlisting.

Real cowboys and amateurs will comprise the body. Citizens in all walks of life have offered to enlist. Some of them have not been in the saddle for years. Others, now prominent business and professional men, in their younger days rode the ranges and are confident they still retain their skill in the saddle.

"The moving picture companies, all of whom carry large staffs of cowboys for their wild west productions, are interested and want to come into the organization. That means that we will have hundreds of professional cowboys at our disposal," says Motley H. Flint, chairman of the committee.

The United States has the courage and the wisdom to keep itself thoroughly prepared for peace with all the world. Had it not been actuated by this form of courage and wisdom, this country probably would have been engaged in war today.

The music for the evening was furnished by Mr. Waldon and Mr. Lynch. "THE SPOILERS" AT MAJESTIC PICTURE HOUSE

A special attraction is holding the attention of theater goers at the Majestic, 1105 West Broadway, which will be shown today and tomorrow—matinees at 2 p. m. and 6:45 and 8:45 each evening. It is the nine-reel feature picture of Rex Beach's great novel, "The Spoilers," with William Farnum and Kathryn Williams playing the leads.

This picture is fresh from long runs in New York City and Chicago. The picture presents the most stubborn, strenuous and exciting fight ever pictured—the acme of realism. A thrilling story of strong men battling for supremacy with all their power of mind and muscle. In the picture there is a whole town dynamited and a volcanic earthquake. It is certainly a picture with a punch, and said by hundreds to be absolutely the best picture they ever had the opportunity of witnessing. Following is a synopsis of the story:

Glenister and Dextry, co-owners of the "Midas," the richest mine in Alaska, after celebrating their good fortune, leave Nome to spend the winter in the states, but before leaving, Glenister arrives at an understanding with and bids good-bye to Cherry Malotte, a dance-hall girl, who has become interested in him. Before their return to Alaska in the following spring a plot is hatched in Washington, D. C., to juggle the Alaskan land laws in such a manner as to rob all the rich miners of their property and to that end a corrupt judge is appointed with instructions to obey the orders of Alex McNamara, the genius of the entire conspiracy.

Big, moving, masterful and wholesome in its human interests, thrilling in interest, absorbing in situation and powerful in progression, this picture, rugged romance of Alaska has a love story with splendid imagination that grips and holds the sympathies.

KNOWING WHY

"What is that thing?" she asked, pointing with her dainty parasol.

"That," answered the guide, "is an engine boiler."

She was an up-to-date young lady and at once became interested.

"And why do they boil engines?" she inquired again.

"To make the engine tender," politely replied the resourceful guide.—Pennsylvania Punchbowl.

HE GOT THERE

The man was reading the front page of the newspaper as he walked across the busy street.

Just then a street car bumped into the man.

But he missed the story.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NEW YORK ATHENIANS

"So you come from New York?" said an English lady to a traveling American. "I supposed, of course, you came from Boston?"

"Why did you think that?" inquired the New York lady.

"Because I supposed all cultivated and intelligent Americans came from Boston."

"But what in the world made you think that?" was the natural question.

"Oh, I don't know exactly. I think it was a Boston lady who told me."—Christian Register.

The City Beautiful association, through their program committee, is arranging for an entertainment to be given in the near future. It is hoped to have Mr. Payne here to speak, and the money received from this will go towards the City Beautiful fund.
Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger had a delightful little visit with her cousin, Mr. Harry Catlin of London, England, who was passing through Glendale on his way to Japan and stopped over one day to see Mrs. Hunchberger, whom he had not seen for six years.
Mr. C. L. Clark of 201 Central avenue created an original diversion for a number of Glendale's rising generation during the vacation just terminated. On several days he might have been seen towing a number of model autos behind his big Lozier. Mr. Clark took the boys to many places in the vicinity, among them being Montrose, Eagle Rock and Pasadena.
An all-day meeting of Chapter A-H, P. E. O., was held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Webster, 147 West Park avenue, on Monday, January 11th. sister, Miss Esther McFarland, of Chicago, who expect to spend the winter with Mrs. Preston and enjoy the Southern California climate. The ladies are delighted with what they have seen of our country and are looking forward to a pleasant visit.

FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS JOIN IN SURPRISE

One of the happiest affairs of the past week was on Sunday, when a party of old friends and neighbors went over to Burbank and surprised Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Colton, the occasion being Mrs. Colton's 77th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Colton are pioneer residents of Glendale, having lived for years at what is now the corner of Pacific avenue and Colorado boulevard.
The party left early in the forenoon, arriving in Burbank in time to prepare the bounteous dinner they had brought with them, and the tables were spread on the lawn and were loaded with almost everything that is good to eat. Dinner out of doors on the tenth of January is not a possible feat in many places. Mrs. Colton cut the great birthday cake on which had been placed sixteen candles, the guests declaring that she was only "sweet sixteen."
Mrs. Colton was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1838, and came to California when she was a very small child, so she has seen this great country develop from a wild and almost uncivilized condition into its present cultured and beautiful wonder—a state that can maintain two world's fairs at the same time and have both of them successful. Mrs. Colton is the mother of eleven children, seven of whom are now living. She comes from a long lived family, having had several relatives who lived to be a hundred years old and one who lived to a hundred and five. There were four generations represented at the party on Sunday.
Among those present were Mrs. Colton's daughter, Mrs. Sellers, and her little daughter Ione of Los Angeles; also Mrs. Colton's granddaughter, Mrs. Peter Pinoche, and three children of Glendale; Mrs. Kate Manford and two daughters, Mrs. A. L. Fisk and Mrs. E. C. Copeland; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Darling, Mrs. Stepler, Miss Annette Gilardy, Marvin Fisk, Robert Copeland, Geo. Case and Buddy Copeland.

As the year brought so much tragedy and woe, Mother Earth took the precaution to hang a horseshoe over the door during the dawning of this New Year. Let us hope that 1915 will bring the good mother more good luck than did 1914.

THE REASON WHY
Do you know that practically every article of your wearing apparel was sewn on a SINGER Machine? Department Stores use SINGER Machines in their Factories and Fitting Rooms.
Ask your modiste, your corsetiere, your shoemaker, your furrier, what sewing machines they use. They will say "THE SINGER." "There's a reason"—superior excellence.
Possibly you have an old sewing machine or one that is not satisfactory. Do you know that a fair allowance will be made for it in exchange for an up-to-date SINGER at the Singer Store, 1020 West Broadway? E. J. Upham, Sunset phone 656W.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Los Angeles Eucalyptus Company postponed by action of its Board of Directors from Saturday, January 9th, 1915, will be held on Wednesday, January 27th, 1915, at seven thirty o'clock p. m., at Room 307 Exchange Building, northeast corner of Third and Hill Streets, Los Angeles, California, at which time and place the annual election of officers of the corporation will be held. At this meeting it will be necessary for the stockholders to pass upon several matters of vital importance to the corporation, including the financing of its operations and the future policy of the corporation as to the management and disposition of its present property holdings.
Dated January 11th, 1915.
(Seal) CHARLES L. CHANDLER, Secretary.

UNCOMPLETED TASK IN THE CANAL ZONE

Opening of the Panama canal to the merchantmen of the world may satisfy those directly interested in ocean transportation, yet the fact is that much remains to be done on the isthmus before the entire scheme of transformation can be declared finished. The cutting of the stupendous ditch between the Atlantic and the Pacific was the main feature to stir the imagination, but as the men who did the digging disappear, and others, charged with the handling of the craft through the canal, take their positions here and there, it must come home that in all big undertakings for a definite purpose the spectacular must finally give way to the useful.

Since the practicability of the Panama canal has been established, those entrusted with the care of that great enterprise are now turning their attention to the beautification of the zone and the terminals. An instance may be cited in the work accomplished at Balboa, where a noted landscape architect and city planner has just completed a task of importance to the canal section. Balboa has risen from almost nothing, and now has become the headquarters for the Panama canal government on the Pacific side of the isthmus. To make a city where jungle growth and sand wastes comprised the main features was a task far different from planning where civilizing influences already are at work. As now built, Balboa not only honors that Vasco Nunez de Balboa, who first discovered the Pacific ocean, but it is a credit to the artistic landscape worker who after eighteen months sees his task accomplished.

The commission which is to supervise the beautification of the canal embankments will do well not to overlook the tropical features of Panama. In general, it will be necessary to clear away much underbrush and other growth that might interfere with the work for which the canal was constructed. Still, it may be possible to retain many of those natural features that will give the traveler the impression that this part of America is worth seeing for its own sake. A certain amount of rough landscape along the Panama canal may add much to the charm of the whole zone country. The park that is most like a forest often proves the greatest attraction, and in beautifying the canal territory the natural features should, we think, be conserved where this is practicable.—Christian Science Monitor.

THE CUP THAT CHEERS

The coffee and tea merchants of Los Angeles, in making up their books for the year 1914, find that there were sold in this city during that year of coffee and tea a total of 6,250,000 pounds, representing an expenditure of $2,210,000. Coffee is the great beverage of the people, the total amount sold here coming to 5,500,000 pounds, leaving only 750,000 pounds to go to the account of tea. People drink good coffee and good tea here, too, for the average prices paid are 32 cents for the coffee and 60 cents for the tea per pound. The good people, whether temperance advocates or those who believe in a glass of wine once in a while, seem to like their coffee hot and strong. The merchants say that from a pound of coffee the people of the city produce only forty cups, where a pound of tea will make 200 cups. Figuring on the population of the city, the consumption per capita is eleven pounds of coffee and one and one-half pounds of tea. Some of the tea runs as high as $3 a pound—the most popular kinds used in the city being basket-fired Japan and Oolong. The finest teas come from the island of Formosa, and Formosa Oolong is a very celebrated variety of tea. This island was ceded to Japan by China after the war between the two countries.—L. A. Times.

THOSE AWFUL AUTO TAGS

Not content with visiting an unjust and highly burdensome license tax upon automobiles, on top of the personal tax which includes them, the still further hardship is superimposed of requiring owners to purchase and display upon their cars a snuff-colored monstrosity bearing the license number.
Taxation is bad enough, in all conscience, and supertaxation is vexatious to the point of distraction, but when is added to these the requirement that a license number of an unspeakable color be conspicuously displayed upon one's car, prosecution has reached the limit.
For the last of these burdens there is no excuse. With all the beautiful tints and shades of the spectrum to choose from, it is inexcusable that a color should be chosen that resembles a cross between loose mud and the yolk of an antique egg.
And this is a matter for serious consideration. Automobiles command a handsome price, no small portion of which is exacted for the art values included in the commodity. In cars of all prices conscientious care is bestowed in shaping and coloring the finished product so as to satisfy the canons of artistic sense in style and form and color. No incongruities of the general scheme in any of these elements is permissible. To avoid them artists are employed and the most painstaking study bestowed. No dealer would be so bold as to offer a car which was offensive in any of these particulars.
But in the presence of the California state license department all considerations save that of the sordid kind are forgotten. Even the color chosen for the license tag is suggestive of old gold that needs laundering, and the design is such as would wreck the sale of a box car. Withal else the magnitude of these offensive tags is only exceeded by that of a full-grown billboard.

It is perhaps too much to expect of the license department that a license tag of comely proportion and non-fight-producing color and design be provided by it, but some device less maddening than the 1915 tags might reasonably be expected. A car with one of them tied to it isn't worth more than 50 per cent of what it is worth with the tag removed.—Santa Monica Outlook.

Official Premium List and Rules Governing First Annual Show Glendale-Tropico P. & P. S. A. To Be Held January 18, 19, 20, 1915, San Fernando Blvd., Tropico

THE GLENDALE-TROPICO EXHIBIT

C. D. LUEDKE

As it is a well known fact that the Tropico-Glendale-Burbank section is noted for its High Scoring Show Birds and well equipped Poultry Plants, how natural that this section should have its own Poultry Association.

The Exhibitors from our home section have taken their specimens of Poultry, Pigeons and Pet Stock to shows throughout the State, returning with Cups, Ribbons and Special Prizes.

In the rear of many of our pretty homes are exhibits that have never been in a show-room that will score with many of the best. The local public is anxious to see these specimens, and it is the general desire that every breeder will be represented at the coming show.

Ribbons and Special Prizes will be given for all novice classes, so each exhibitor has an even chance to win the blue.

Come in, Fellow Breeder of Poultry, Pigeons and Pet Stock, and surprise the visitors with our high-class show. It is often asked, "Why does poultry do so well and why do so many of the best prizes go to the Tropico-Glendale-Burbank section?" In answer we would state, "The best of care is given the stock."

The location of the valley, the absence of high winds, in fact, the unsurpassed climate, where the greater part of the year one can enjoy the freedom of out-door life, and last, but not least, our pure water flowing but a few miles from the mountains, combine to supply man, beast and bird with the proper elements to satisfy every longing, desired of Nature. Why shouldn't Birds and Stock thrive? Why shouldn't the Glendale-Tropico-Poultry and Pet Stock Association be a winner?

The merchants and citizens of Glendale and Tropico have very generously donated the following Special Prizes for classes designated:

DIVORCE MADE EASY

Judge Mahon of Sutter county is announced to be one of the latest recruits to the "divorce-made-easy" forces. He would also do away with the divorce courts and thus save all the time, trouble and expense which now attend the legal amputating process. The system he proposes to substitute for the one now in use is a model of simplicity and will doubtless commend itself at the first glance to those upon whom the chains of wedlock weigh heavily.

According to the ever veracious reporter, the judge would have a coupon attached to every marriage license. This coupon would be open to use by either of the contracting parties whenever the strain became too great to be further borne. All the plaintiff would have to do would be to fill out the cause of complaint, answer the queries included on the coupon, and then file the paper with the county recorder. This would complete the transaction and the one would be twain henceforth and forever after, unless they changed their minds.

A question as to what the poor lawyers would do when this important source of revenue was cut off did not even cause a ripple on the judicial mind. He seemed to feel that most attorneys would be pleased to be relieved of these cases and said: "Why, nowadays divorces are becoming so common that they cannot charge but a nominal fee and they wouldn't miss that."

So far the recipients of these fees have not been heard from on this more or less important phase of the question.

Another reason given by the judge for advocating this reform is its undoubted effect upon the present high cost of living. It has come to a pass where divorces are included in the annual budgets of many of our American families and, as a matter of course, all are anxious to learn of new ways for cutting expenses. According to the plan stated the cost of the entire proceedings would be but a single dollar and the author suggests a further reduction by fixing the marriage fee at three dollars with the divorce coupon attached.
