Appeal of the Belgian Workmen
In Belgium to the Workmen of all Nations.

In the name of the international solidarity of workmen, the working classes in Belgium, menaced by slavery, deportation, and forced labour for the enemy, now address their supreme appeal for energetic and efficacious assistance to the working classes of the world.

We do not ask for words of sympathy, but for deeds.

You are men, you will understand us.

Our position is desperate.

Germany, as you know, attacked and terrorised Belgium in 1914, because she defended the rights of her neutrality, her oath and her honor.

Since then, Germany has made Belgium suffer martyrdom. She has made Belgium a prison; the front is armed against the Belgians as if it were a battle front; there are trenches, barbed wire with electric currents, machine guns and artilleries. All our constitutional liberties are abolished by a most arbitrary policy, without limit and without pity.

These acts have been committed against persons; the following will show you those that have been committed against the property of the country.

Germany has condemned her victim to pay an immense war levy which already amounts to more than a thousand million francs (40 millions sterling), and which is augmenting at the rate of 50 million francs a month (2 millions sterling). She has carried off and transported into Germany, by pillage, confiscation, requisition and forced sales, foodstuffs and merchandise, consisting of both agricultural and industrial produce, to the value of more than 5,000 million francs (200 million pounds sterling). At the same time she has seized and sent into Germany the greater part of the raw products in our factories, the machinery and all accessories; she has thus stopped our industry and "caused an almost general and enforced state of idleness of the working classes."

For nearly two years the Germans have kept up this "plague of idleness," up till the present day — October, 1916 — when Germany, lacking labor, has drawn on Belgium for the working power of which she has such pressing need.

WORKMEN.

Yes, the Germans have caused the enforced idleness in Belgium and have maintained it for their own profit by refusing to allow England, who had agreed to send raw material into the country, the proper diplomatic control to prevent the products being seized by Germany; by preventing by terrible edicts the Belgian Commercial Councils, the Belgian Workmen's associations and Belgian authorities from giving work to the men in need of it, from attending to their professional education, or from employing them in works of public utility. In this way FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND WORKMEN HAVE BEEN THROWN OUT OF WORK AND KEPT IN A STATE OF ENFORCED IDLENESS.

LA MENTALITE ALLEMANDE.

est au premier chef un sujet actuel dont autre ne le saurait être davantage. L'étude du Teutonisme nous présente bien plus encore comme un sujet permanent et capital.

Le problème en face duquel ce sujet nous place, théorique au premier abord, est en réalité d'ordre essentiellement pratique, puisqu'il s'agit avant tout d'assurer pour l'avenir, pour l'heure déjà, notre tranquillité, en la garantissant contre le retour des horreurs que "l'interne puissance allemande," suivant le mot de lord Rosebery, a déchainées. Il s'agit de faire obstacle aux entreprises inspirées par l'esprit teutonique, et de mettre un terme définitif à ses agressions continues contre la liberté des peuples, le droit et la civilisation. Établir le compte exact de cet esprit, dresser le tableau de ses caractères, de ses viruléités, de ses actes, devient dès lors une nécessité qui s'impose. M. Flaubert a dit excellentement: "Il nous importe de remonter aux sources de cette barbarie et de cette débâcle, d'en délimiter l'étendue, d'en sonder la profondeur, d'établir le départ des responsabilités individuelles ou collectives, à la fois pour nous gouverner au milieu des événements qui sévissent et pour envisager quelle paix salutaire pourra mettre fin à jamais."

REOUVERTURE DE LA CURE D'EAU.

La cure d'eau est de nouveau en opération, et spéciale à retrouver des malades. Sa réputation du passé est une garantie pour l'avenir. Comme des forces étranges ont empêché le travail de la cure d'eau, il a été nécessaire de faire des travaux importants et coûteux pour la faire fonctionner à nouveau.
