WHERE WILL HUNS MAKE NEXT ATTEMPT?

Reported Big Guns Have Been Sent to Front West of Warsaw

SEVERAL TRAINS SAID TO HAVE LEFT ESSEN

Austria and Germany Willing to Make Peace With Serbia?

London, June 25.—There is a pause at the present moment on both battlefronts on the continent. The British public, with breathless expectancy, awaits the next move. It is conceded that this move is Germany's, and that it may be against either Warsaw, Paris or Calais.

The reported activity of the Germans in the Argonne may indicate a drive on Paris, but the closing of the Belgian frontier may mean the transfer of veterans from the eastern front for another attempt to break through to the English Channel.

Many persons, however, believe that no great offensive movement will be attempted along the western front until another effort has been made to reach Warsaw, against which position the Germans are said to be sending big guns from Essen.

No great activity is to be noted along any of the minor fronts. The Italians are engaged in consolidating the positions they have won along the river Isonzo. From the Dardanelles come reports of enormous losses suffered by the Turks in defending the peninsula.

The question of munitions still is absorbing public attention in the British Isles. The House of Commons has been assured by Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, that Great Britain has sufficient high explosives for her own use, and that she need have no concern over her food supplies, but that the need of shells still is acute.

London, June 25.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that several trains loaded with heavy guns have left Essen for the German front on the Ruzsa river in Poland, where it is believed they will be used in an attempt to advance against Warsaw.

Since the fall of Lemberg, military experts in London have expressed the belief that the Austro-German allies would attempt to continue their drive and capture Warsaw, the capital of Poland.

On previous occasions the Germans have hammered their way to a point almost within artillery range of Warsaw but have been driven back by the forces under the able direction of Grand Duke Nicholas.

Paris, June 25.—The Temps has received a dispatch from Petrograd saying that it has been learned there on excellent authority that Austria and Germany have proposed a separate peace for Serbia, offering the latter all of Albania, the rectification of the Serbo-Bosnian frontier and a guarantee of territorial integrity.

TWO JAPANESE OFFICERS COMMITTED HARI-KARI

Would Not Suffer Dishonor of Falling Into Enemy's Hands at Lemberg.

Tokio, June 25.—Major Nakagima and Captain Hassimoto, Japanese officers fighting with the Russian army at Lemberg, committed hari-kari when the Galician capital fell rather than suffer what they considered the dishonor of being made prisoners of war, according to official advices from Petrograd.

Hari-kari is a Japanese method of committing suicide formerly widely practiced by military officers. In the days of the old Samurai system officers usually killed themselves when it became necessary to surrender the troops under them.

DUTCH VESSEL SUNK IN GULF OF BOTHNIA

Stockholm, June 25.—The Dutch steamship Ceres was sunk either by a mine or a torpedo in the Gulf of Bothnia yesterday, according to advices received here today. Twenty-five members of the crew were saved. The captain states that he distinctly saw a torpedo boat before the Ceres was sunk, but was unable to make out its nationality.

London, June 25.—A dispatch received here from Stockholm says that the Dutch steamship Ceres, from Amsterdam for Lubeck, Sweden, was sunk as the result of striking a mine near Soderhamn, in the Gulf of Bothnia. The crew was saved.

NORTH BANK CLEARED OF ENEMY'S FORCES

Russian Lines Along Dniester River Unbroken; Linsingen Still Trying

Petrograd, June 25.—The north bank of the Dniester river has been cleared of all Germans, according to an official announcement made here. In the Martynov region the Russian forces have captured the remnants of the German force trapped on the Dniester's north bank when General von Linsingen was hurled back.

In spite of the setback administered to the Germans in the early stages of the fighting, General von Linsingen is continuing his attempts to cross the river, and a terrific battle is in progress to-day. The Russian commander is sacrificing thousands of men in what so far has been a futile attempt to gain a foothold on the north bank of the Dniester, with Warsaw as his objective. In spite of the ferocity of the drive, the Russian lines are holding, and it is believed in official circles here that General von Linsingen has been checked definitely.

The latest official report from Grand Duke Nicholas records successes at several points along the front extending from the Baltic provinces to Bukovina, but admits success for the Germans in the valley of the Orzyz river, in Poland, where the Russians have evacuated fortifications destroyed by the Germans. His report also indicates that while the Germans are on the offensive along the fronts in Poland and Galicia, they have not been successful in their efforts to smash the Slav lines at any point.

ALEXANDER KENEALY IS DEAD IN LONDON

Editor of Daily Mirror Since 1904; Well Known in Field of Journalism.

London, June 25.—Alexander Kenealy, editor of the London Daily Mirror, died to-day at the age of 51 years.

Mr. Kenealy, born in Sussex, Eng., devoted all his life to journalism. He joined the staff of the New York Herald in 1882 and represented that paper on Rear-Admiral Peary's first Arctic expedition. He became a member of the staff of the New York World in 1895 and was its correspondent with the American fleet in the Spanish war.

Mr. Kenealy began newspaper work in London as news editor of the Daily Express in 1901. Three years later he went to the Daily Mirror. Under the name of "The Preposterous Yankee," he wrote "The Letters of Alphonse le Mouton."

FIFTY GERMAN SOLDIERS WERE KILLED BY BOMBS

London, June 25.—Bombs dropped by British aviators near Roulers, Belgium, caused the explosion of a large ammunition depot and also resulted in the killing of fifty German soldiers who were loading an ammunition train, according to a Central News dispatch from Rotterdam.

CANADIAN TROOPS IN ACTION AGAIN

London, June 25.—Canadian troops once again were called upon to show their superiority over the Germans, and once more succeeded. They were sent into action at a point near La Bassée in a three-day battle lasting from June 15 to June 17, and captured four lines of trenches, according to an announcement made here to-day. Later a portion of the trenches was abandoned.

EXPECTED BILL WILL BE PASSED QUICKLY

Measure Will Provide for Registration of Workers in British Isles

London, June 25.—No more important step has been taken since the formation of the coalition government than that indicated by the announcement made yesterday in the House of Commons that the bill for the formation of a national register of workers will be introduced next Tuesday. It shows quite plainly that the government at last is in deadly earnest about the war.

The bill is almost certain to be an "agreed" measure and should be passed through both houses in a very brief time. The government anticipates that no difficulty will be met in gathering the returns. The details of the bill will not be made known until Tuesday. It will provide for a complete registration within definite age limits of the men—and, it is hoped, the women—of the country with full information as to age, occupation and capacity for service.

GUNS AND AMMUNITION NEEDED, DECLARES TIMES

London, June 25.—The Times editorially says: "We publish to-day a gigantic list of 264 casualties among officers alone. These losses, for the most part, occurred in obscure encounters, of which the very names are unknown to us."

"Our actual position is that very little progress is being made against the enemy. A certain number of Germans are being killed, which is satisfactory, although generally accomplished at a high price."

"The broad and dominating fact is that there is no immediate prospect of a decisive German withdrawal, and it is to be expected that the British army cannot fulfil its share of the war effort until it has larger supplies of big guns, high explosives and machine guns."

SEAPORT CAPTURED BY MONTENEGRIN FORCES

Rome, June 25.—The Montenegrin forces have occupied the Albanian port of San Giovanni di Medua, on the Adriatic Sea, according to dispatches received here to-day.

CALL FOR PEACE IN NAME OF HUMANITY

Socialists of Germany Wish Kaiser's Government to Take First Step

Berlin, June 25.—The managing committee of the Social Democratic party of Germany has caused to be published in the Vorwaerts a full page appeal for peace.

The interesting document declares that the people want peace, and, in the name of humanity calls upon the government to make known its readiness to enter negotiations.

The appeal is published under the heading: "Social Democracy and Peace." It begins with a reference to the facts that the Socialists foresaw the war, that they worked in vain for an international understanding, and that when war did come they placed themselves at the disposal of the fatherland. It then refers to the declaration of the party in the Reichstag on August 4, 1914, which ran in part: "We demand, as soon as safety has been secured and our opponents are inclined to peace, that the war be brought to an end through a peace which will make possible friendships with neighboring nations."

The appeal closes with these words: "The managing committee (Vorwaerts) of the Social Democratic party always has been opposed to a policy of conquest. We now raise anew our sharpest protest against every effort and every proclamation of the purpose of which is the annexation of foreign territory and the oppression of other nations—efforts and proclamations which have become public in Germany particularly through the demands of great economic associations, as well as through the speeches of leading non-Socialist politicians."

"Even the recital of such efforts serves further to postpone that peace which is warmly desired by the whole nation. The people want peace. If this war, which daily demands new sacrifices, is not to draw itself out needlessly, to endure until the full exhaustion of all the nations in it, one of the participating powers must offer the hand of peace. Germany, who, attacked by greatly superior forces, thus far has defended herself victoriously against all her enemies, brought their starvation plans to naught and demonstrated that she is unconquerable, should take the first step to bring about peace."

"In the name of humanity and Kultur, and supported by the favorable military situation brought about by the bravery of our comrades in arms, we demand of the government that it make known its readiness to enter peace negotiations, and to take an end to this bloody conflict."

"We expect our Socialist comrades in other belligerent lands to exert their influence on their own governments in this same sense."

Washington, June 25.—Official advices to-day report a smashing defeat of General Gonzales and the Carranza army advancing on Mexico City by the Zapata forces. General Carranza has ordered all available rolling stock from Vera Cruz toward the capital to aid in the retreat, and in an effort to save Gonzales and his army.

MOVED BACK TO THE TCHATALJA LINES?

Reported That Turkish Forces Have Been Withdrawn From Adrianople

STRUGGLE IN GALICIA HOLDS CHIEF INTEREST

Brief Review of Latest Statements Issued by Nations at War

London, June 25.—The Turkish forces have evacuated Adrianople and withdrawn to Tchatalja lines, according to a Central News dispatch received here to-day from Rome.

In view of the fact that previous dispatches had told of the Turks strengthening Adrianople, the report is accepted here with the greatest reserve.

London, June 25.—Increasing pressure by the Italians against the Austrian fronts along the Isonzo river and in the Trentino, and continued heavy fighting between the German allies and the Russians along the Dniester were the outstanding features to-day of the war. On the western front success in a drive by Canadian troops against the Germans was recorded, and the British were credited with having blown up a great ammunition depot near Roulers with great losses to the Germans in men and munitions.

Interest still was strongest among military observers, however, in the great Germanic-Russian struggle. British experts saw confirmation of their former views of Russia's power in the admitted reverses suffered by the armies of the Kaiser along the Dniester, and the reported capture of a part of General von Linsingen's army was taken as showing that the ability of the Russian forces to strike back against the advancing Germans still was unimpaired. The German successes in the Orzyz river section of Poland were not believed here to have been of such a nature as to affect seriously the Russian front, as Grand Duke Nicholas' ability to hold his armies together and fight a retreating battle was considered to have been proved abundantly.

Reports that the Turkish forces had evacuated Adrianople and withdrawn to the Tchatalja lines were accepted with reserve here. It was considered, however, that should they prove true it would mean that the menace of Roumanian and Bulgarian participation in the war was recognized in Constantinople as being nearer than has appeared evident in previous news received by the public here.

The following is a summary of the announcements made during the past 24 hours by the war offices of the several nations at war:

British, French and Belgian—Artillery combats along the western front and continued steady pressure by the French in the Vosges and toward Lille were reported. British aviators blew up a big ammunition depot near Roulers, Belgium, and it was stated that the Canadian troops had captured four lines of German trenches some days ago near La Bassée. The French repulsed a hot German attack near Helouan, in the Vosges. Admitted that

NOT BEING CONSIDERED.

Washington, June 25.—The United States is not considering placing an embargo on shipments to any belligerent country. This was stated officially to-day at the state department as a result of published reports that an embargo on all shipments of American products to the British Isles was likely in retaliation for interference by the British with American trade with neutrals.

Paris, June 25.—The war office issued the following statement this afternoon:

"Considering the front as a whole, last night passed with relative quiet. North of Arras there is nothing to report, with the exception of some infantry engagements, accompanied by a lively cannonading, between the Souchez sugar refinery and the national highway between Bethune and Arras."

"Our progress has been checked by the condition of the ground, which, in certain places, has been rendered almost impassable by storms."

"On the Champagne front and in the Argonne the fighting with mines has been going on to our advantage."

Paris, June 25.—Minister of War Millerand announced yesterday that the observance of July 14, the French national holiday commemorating the fall of the Bastille, will not be marked by a review at Longchamps of the troops of the Paris garrison, which hitherto has been a feature of the annual celebration. This decision was reached in view of the exigencies of the war.

"Our reconnaissances, extending beyond the front in the Tyrol-Trentino region, in Cadore and Carliola, indicate increased activity on the part of the enemy in the work of reinforcing and placing new batteries. We are frustrating this work by the efficient fire of our artillery and the bold operations of small detachments."

"In Carniola on the night of June 24-25 the enemy vainly renewed his attacks against our line from Valgrande to Valpiccolo."

"Our operations along the Isonzo are being developed methodically in spite of the manifold natural difficulties of the ground."

ARTILLERY DUEL TO THE NORTH OF ARRAS

French Official Report; Gun Which Has Been Shelling Dunkirk Has Been Located

Paris, June 26.—The war office issued the following communication last night:

"Of the region to the north of Arras there is only to report to-day a violent cannonade to the south of Souchez and to the north of Neuville, and an engagement with grenades to the east of 'The Labyrinth'."

"At La Boisselle (to the east of Albert) the enemy has exploded two mines without result."

"Between the Oise and the Aisne there has been artillery firing in the region of Quenneviers."

"To the west of the Argonne a few engagements with grenades enabled us to make some slight progress."

"In the Vosges a German attack at Helgenfret was repulsed. In the course of the counter-attack which we made on June 23 in the region of Sande Sapt, we captured four machine guns and a large quantity of rifle cartridges and grenades."

Havre, June 26.—The gun which has been shelling Dunkirk has been located. The Germans placed it further back than on the previous occasion, but the French heavy pieces can cope with it easily."

"The German weapon is said to be a naval gun of 280mm. calibre, fired with a maximum charge. The sole object of its employment is to terrify the inhabitants, for the military result is nil."

London, June 26.—"The Belgian frontier was closed again on Friday, indicating a large influx of troops from the east," says the Rotterdam correspondent of The Daily Mail.

MADE FRESH ATTEMPT TO CROSS DNIESTER

Despite Heavy Losses Germans and Austrians Tried Again; Russian Report

Petrograd, June 26.—The following Russian official statement was given out last night:

"During the course of the night of June 24 and the whole of the following day, in the Shavl region, an artillery duel proceeded, with advance guard encounters, on the front of Latskov-Popeliari and along the right bank of the Niemen river. To the west of the middle Niemen the German offensive during the night between the Kovno-Wirballen railway and the Analmava marshes was repulsed."

"On the Narow front the fighting was confined to sharp artillery firing and local outpost encounters. The firing was most violent during the night of the 21st in the district of the Omulew and Orzye valleys. After artillery preparation, the Germans took the offensive along these rivers, but were stopped. In this action we took in the Omulew section eighty prisoners, but in the Orzye valley we were forced to give way. One of our works was completely destroyed by the enemy's fire."

"On the Vistula front, south of the Pilica, the enemy yesterday thrice attempted to make headway west of Cooless, but were repulsed with great losses."

"On the Tanew front, in the direction of Zolkiew and Lemberg, there was no important change. The enemy attempted to attack us along the railway leading from Lemberg to Kamacka and Brzezany."

"On the Dniester river, during the night of the 23rd, we drove back beyond the river the remainder of the Germans who had crossed the previous day in the Kosanyi district. In the region of Martovce, on the evening of the 23rd, we captured the remnants of the enemy who had crossed the Dniester—fifteen officers and about 700 men. Notwithstanding the disastrous results of these crossings, the Germans and Austrians attempted the very same night to throw their forces across the Dniester by bridges constructed south of Bukasowice, they having crossed previously only near the village of Roudsviany. The fighting continues."

"On the rest of the Dniester front below the points mentioned there is no change."

Vienna, June 26.—The following official communication was issued yesterday:

"Between Hallez and Zurawno (in Galicia) fighting is proceeding. Counter-attacks by the Russians on the north bank of the Dniester have been repulsed. Our attack is progressing."

"Advancing from Zydzaczow yesterday we captured Chodorow. Otherwise the situation on the Dniester is unchanged, as is the case with the situation east of Lemberg, near Rawa Ruska and on the Tanew (to the northwest of Lemberg)."

"In Poland the allied troops are pursuing the Russians, who are retreating toward Zawichost, Ozarow and Siemno."

CHARGED WITH HAVING KILLED THREE WIVES

London, June 26.—The trial of George Joseph Smith, indicted on a charge of having murdered his three wives by drowning them in bathtubs, entered its second stage yesterday, the evidence relating to the death of Beatrice Mundy having been completed. The last witness in this connection was a Portsmouth banker who testified that the prisoner had opened an account in the name of Smith. This money, the judge pointed out to the jury, had been obtained by the defendant in the name of 'Williams' from the sale of Beatrice Mundy's estate, according to testimony.

"We now begin the Alice Burnham story," remarked the judge, alluding to the second alleged victim. The first witness in this connection was an insurance agent from Southampton where Smith was introduced to Miss Burnham. The testimony showed that she had taken out $5,000 worth of life insurance for the benefit of her mother.

"Next day," the witness said, "Smith married Miss Burnham."

THE BABBLINGS OF THE KREUZ ZEITUNG

London, June 26.—The Kreuz Zeitung attacks the Lokal Correspondenz Agency because it might not be wise to question whether it might not be wise politically to grant the request of the United States that submarines refrain from attacking vessels upon which Americans are passengers.

The Kreuz Zeitung says it could hardly believe its eyes when it read the article and adds: "To give such a guarantee simply would permit the shipment of further war munitions under cover of a few American passengers."

The Kreuz Zeitung's article generally is a repetition of what has been formerly expressed by itself and by the Tages Zeitung and newspapers of a similar kind.

AN ATTEMPT AT MEAFORD.

Meaford, Ont., June 26.—Some persons attempted to set fire to the army here. A can filled with kerosene, saturated with coal oil, and a fuse with the end burned off, were found on the ledge of the cellar window on the east side of the building, along with some stacks of kindling wood. Apparently the fire had failed to get a proper start, as only the end of the fuse was burned.

MORE FALSEHOODS STATED BY SAVAGES

Huns Repeat Baseless Charge That Allies Were First to Use Gases

Berlin, June 26.—A semi-official statement has been issued explaining and defending the use of asphyxiating gases by the Germans.

The first point made is that the British and French employed such gases before the Germans, and in addition to the early statements of the German official war report concerning such alleged use, the statement now cites the text of a communication said to have been issued by the French ministry of war describing two sorts of projectiles designed to produce a stifling gas and the mode of their usage. This communication is said to have been dated February 21, before the Germans employed gas in their attack upon Ypres.

This circular, which, it is claimed, emanated from the French war ministry, is headed "Remarks upon projectiles with stifling gases," and says among other things:

"So-called projectiles with stifling gases produced in our central workshop contain a fluid which pours out after explosion, gases which inflame the eyes, nose and throat. There are two sorts thereof, hand grenades and cartridges."

The circular then purports to describe both kinds of projectiles, remarking: "The purpose of the hand grenade is to make the vicinity and place where it is exploded untenable. Its effectiveness is materially decreased by a strong wind."

"The cartridges are intended for use at a greater distance than the grenades. They can be thrown or fired from a pocket pistol. They have the same purposes as the grenades, but owing to the small amount of fluid they should be fired in considerable numbers."

Under the heading "Precautionary measures to be employed in attacks in which projectiles with stifling gases are thrown," the circular says the vapors caused by such projectiles will not prove fatal, at least, in small quantities, and that their effects will be only of temporary duration, depending upon atmospheric conditions. The attacking troops, it adds, should be provided with protective glasses and instructed that the unpleasant sensations in the nose and throat are not dangerous and will not be permanent.

The German statement refers to alleged reports published in American newspapers that the Lusitania carried 25,000 pounds of tetra-chloride of tin consigned to the French government and intended for the production of asphyxiating gases. Speaking of alleged efforts to arouse American opinion against Germany for her use of gas, the statement says the provision against the use of gas in The Hague convention, adopted against the votes of the American delegates, was added to the protocol of the meeting, that it had not been proved that shells with asphyxiating gases were an inhuman or unnecessarily cruel method of war.

The German statement finally compares the use of gas with the inundation of fighting areas, instancing the flooding of Neuport by the Belgians some time ago, and argues that both methods are equally humane and that an enemy merely needs to withdraw to escape their effects.

NOTE SENT TO HUNS HAS ANNOYED TURKS

London, June 26.—Dispatches state that Americans in the streets of Constantinople are being threatened by the Turkish population through indignation over the American note to Germany with reference to the use of submarines. The Americans are not being distinguished from British people and several have been in serious peril. It is not stated in the dispatches that any Americans actually have suffered as a result of the actions of the excited Turkish mobs.

SAYS BRITISH WILL HAVE THEIR TURN

Walter Runciman States Forces on Continent Are Prepared to Meet Any Attack.

London, June 26.—"In Flanders we have made provision for defence however great the attack. Our numbers there are adequate for any task, and our turn will come." Thus spoke Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, in an address at West Hartlepool on Thursday night.

"We are learning now," Mr. Runciman added, "how to deal with the submarine menace, and it is truer now than when the statement was made in April that we have enough explosives for our own use. We also are overcoming our shortage of munitions."

In a later speech Mr. Runciman reviewed the food situation. He declared that the government was prepared to take drastic steps to prevent the exportation of the people's needs for private gain. He warned millers that the price of flour must be reduced.

Mr. Runciman declared that despite all the efforts of the government there was certain to be a shortage of meat, and that every man, woman and child must eat two pounds less per month.

Touching on the coal situation, Mr. Runciman announced that prices "must be reduced forthwith." Summing up regarding food, the president of the board of trade said: "The government does not want to be forced into taking over the whole food supply of the population."

FIRMS PAYING MORE THAN THE GOVERNMENT

Philadelphia, June 26.—Scores of skilled workmen are leaving the employ of the government arsenal at Frankford to accept positions with private concerns which are supplying orders for munitions of war for the European belligerents. For the first time in years the arsenal is suffering from a shortage of employees, and officials fear the situation may become serious. The men declare they have been given three-year contracts with the private firms at wages far in excess of those paid by the government.

MANY LOST THEIR LIVES WHEN PIER BROKE DOWN

Petrograd, June 26.—A dispatch received here from Kazan, in European Russia, 400 miles east of Moscow, sets forth that upwards of 100 lost their lives as the result of the collapse of a river pier at a local pleasure garden.

The last steamer returning to the city was to leave the garden at midnight. Many holiday-makers, men, women and children, were forcing their way in the darkness to the boat over the flimsy pier when the structure collapsed. Virtually everybody was thrown into the water.

Blood Thin and Weak Too Nervous to Sleep

Here is Another Case in Which Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Proved Its Great Reconstructive Influence

Thin blood and exhausted nerves usually go together. A considerable portion of the blood is constantly consumed in keeping up the vitality of the nervous system. Once the blood is deficient, either in quantity or quality, the nerves suffer and bodily pains result. The indications in some cases, while in others weakness, nervousness, irritability and sleeplessness are the most marked symptoms.

Mrs. R. F. Catlin, Elm Springs, Sask., writes: "For years I was troubled with nervousness, and could not sleep nights. Also had lack of color as a result of the blood being thin and weak. My husband saw Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advertised, and got some for me, and wanted me to try it. I did so, and it has proven a wonderful help to me. By enriching the blood, it has restored color to my face and has built up the nervous system so that I rest and sleep well. It is a pleasure to recommend so excellent a medicine."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food goes direct to the formation of pure, rich blood, and for this reason is the most certain means of increasing the quality as well as the quantity of blood in the human system. The feeble, wasted nerves are restored, and through the nervous system every organ and member of the body.

You will be surprised at the way this food cures puts new strength and vitality into the weakened body. And the best of it is that the benefits are both thorough and lasting. In this the Nerve Food differs from mere stimulating medicines which give rise to false hope and when discontinued leave you as weak as before. Put this great restorative treatment to the test and prove its merits in your own case. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50. All dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

SAYS NO MONEY WAS PAID AS COMMISSION

Sir Richard McBride Gives Evidence Regarding Purchase of Submarines

Ottawa, June 25.—Sir Richard McBride took the stand at a late hour yesterday afternoon before Sir Charles Davidson, the commissioner who is investigating war purchases. Sir Richard stated that he had seized the opportunity to make a statement concerning the purchase of two submarines from the Seattle Construction & Drydock company, just before the declaration of war last August. He declared that he felt the step which he had taken was entirely warranted, and was willing to take the full responsibility.

"Because of the existence in local waters of two German warships," said Sir Richard, "and the defenceless nature of our coast cities, there was a great deal of nervous tension among our people. It appeared to me that something should be done to afford some protection for our coast cities. We are 3,000 miles from our coast. It is not always easy to get immediate connection. I, therefore, undertook upon my own responsibility, to purchase these vessels, and I intended to have the province of British Columbia foot the bill, if, in its wisdom the federal government considered the step to have been unwise."

"It is difficult," continued Sir Richard, "to make the people of Ottawa understand the undefended condition of our coast. This is not the occasion to talk of defence, but I have expressed myself freely at other times."

The price paid was $1,150,000. Capt. Logan had made the purchase from Mr. Patterson, of the Seattle company.

"The statement has been made through the auditor-general," continued Sir Richard, "that the transaction was a suspicious one. I want to say that anything so circulated through that official is unfounded. It has been said that the vessels are inefficient. Lieut. Jones and Commander Keyes had inspected the vessels, and both had declared that they were highly efficient and up-to-date. The vessels now are in Esquimaux harbor and open for the inspection of any unbiased person."

As to the question of price, he had been able to gauge it only from a conversation with Lieutenant Picher, who had told him that a similar vessel in England would cost $710,000.

Through some misunderstanding G. H. Barnard, M. P. for Victoria, had heard during a long distance conversation with Seattle that the vessels could be obtained for $375,000 each.

"With two cities threatened by a hostile fleet," said Sir Richard, "we could not hesitate about the price. Capt. Logan, of Lloyds, had gone to Seattle and negotiated the price. He reported over the long distance telephone that they could be procured for $1,150,000."

Sir Richard declared that the Chilean government, for whom they had been built, had failed to pay the money, and that this was the reason why they had been disposed of. He did not know what the contract price with the Chilean government was, but Mr. Patterson, of the Seattle company, said the price was reasonable.

"Was anything paid as commission or for campaign funds?" asked the commissioner.

"Not one cent, directly or indirectly," answered Sir Richard.

The witness stated that the ships had been secured several hours before war was declared. Later an investigation had been instituted by the United States department of state, at the instigation of the German embassy, to find if there had been a breach of neutrality.

The auditor-general was asked whether he desired to ask any questions. He stated that he was satisfied with what Mr. Thompson had asked, but believed that Mr. Patterson, from whom the vessels had been purchased, should have been brought to Canada to testify. He declared that his action in investigating the circumstances of the purchase was warranted by certain suspicions voiced abroad, by the statements in the Seattle papers and by private statements made to him by individuals. It was his duty as auditor-general to look into the matter under these circumstances.

Sir Richard interrupted here.

"It is enough to discourage a man from giving service to his country," he declared with heat, "when one finds men, through political bias and partisanship, imputing all sorts of underhand and damnable motives."

"Do you include me among those?" asked the auditor-general, dryly.

"I hope not," said Sir Richard. It was decided to ask Mr. Patterson to appear, and also to secure a statement from the company by which the boats were designed.

DECLARES FRANCE WILL KEEP HER VOW

M. Ribot, Minister of Finance, Says She Will Go on to the End

Paris, June 25.—Alexandre Ribot, French minister of finance, in a speech in the chamber of deputies yesterday on the bill appropriating 5,500,000,000 francs ($1,120,000,000) for the three months beginning July 1, said he considered the necessity of France buying as little abroad for the requirements of war as possible. This plan, he asserted, would be one of the most important economies for the country. It would tend to facilitate exchange, although up to the present there had not been the least monetary depreciation. French credit was intact, and France felt no embarrassment regarding all her requirements.

M. Ribot said that in April public subscriptions had amounted to 995,000,000 francs ($199,000,000) and that in May the public had taken over 1,007,000,000 francs ($201,400,000) in national bonds. The minister, in measured and sober language, said he could affirm once more that the people of France would go on to the end, no matter how long the war might last, and that in the midst of her difficulties France had taken a vow which she would keep.

The country, he declared, would reject indignantly anyone displaying weakness for an instant.

The deputies more than once rose to their feet as a mark of respect, applauding the speaker.

Upon his finishing the explanation of the bill, M. Ribot was surrounded by his ministerial colleagues and others, many of whom had been his political opponents for years, all offering congratulations, while the members of the chamber stood and tendered him an ovation.

The bill was passed almost unanimously by the chamber. The vote was 492 to 1.

What Thin Folks Should Do To Gain Weight

Physician's Advice For Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women.

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs who, having tried advertised flesh-makers, food-fads, physical culture stunts and rub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long skinniness and think nothing will make them fatter. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered regenerative force makes fat grow after years of thinness, and is also unequal for repairing the waste of sickness or faulty digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable discovery is called Sargol. Six strength-giving, fat-producing, blood-purifying ingredients have been combined in this peerless preparation, which is endorsed by eminent physicians and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

A month's systematic use of Sargol should produce flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by supplying highly concentrated fats to the blood. Increased nourishment is obtained from the food eaten, and the additional fats that thin people need are provided. D. E. Campbell and other leading druggists supply Sargol and say there is a large demand for it.

While this new preparation, has given splendid results as a nerve-tonic and vitalizer, it should not be used by nervous people unless they wish to gain at least ten pounds of flesh.

BEFORE THE COMMISSION.

Taking advantage of Sir Richard McBride's presence in Ottawa the recently-organized royal commission appointed to investigate war purchases examined him yesterday relative to the transaction in submarines. If the report of his evidence as published in the local morning paper is correct he made a number of statements strangely at variance with the record, incidentally conflicting with the story told by Mr. Barnard in the House of Commons.

He declared that the Chilean government, for whom the boats were built, had failed to pay for them and that was the reason why they were otherwise disposed of. That assertion is incorrect. The Chilean government, according to the usual practice, had paid for the two craft on progress estimates, and under the terms of the contract this amount, together with damages, would have had to be refunded to Chile within two weeks after the official rejection of the boats or their non-delivery. Sir Richard knows, or ought to know, that shipbuilders or contractors for all large works are paid as the work progresses and do not have to wait for their money in a lump sum until the contract is finished. In this connection we may observe that about the time the Chilean government awarded the contract for the two submarines it also placed an order with the Armstrongs for two 20,000-ton dreadnoughts, each to be armed with ten 14-inch guns. Those ships were completed and almost all paid for last year, but upon the outbreak of war they were taken over by the British admiralty, which duly compensated the South American state.

"On the question of price," runs the report of the Premier's evidence, "he could only gauge it from a conversation with Lieutenant Plicher, who had told him that a similar vessel in England would cost $710,000." The tender of the Electric Boat Company, of New Jersey, which sub-let the contract to the Seattle Drydock & Construction Company, was $387,000 each, or $774,000 for the two. Therefore, for $387,000 there can be built in Seattle a submarine that would cost $710,000 if constructed in England. In fact, according to this extraordinary assertion, two submarines can be completed in Seattle for a sum comparatively little more than one of exactly the same class would cost in England. This is utter nonsense, as much so as the remark of J. V. Patterson, president of the Seattle company which built the two vessels, that they were better products of their class than could be turned out in Europe. It is quite probable that Lieutenant Plicher informed Sir Richard that the two boats he was purchasing for $1,150,000 could be built in England for $710,000, and according to the admiralty estimates of 1912-13, even that would have erred on the side of extravagance.

Sir Richard said he did not know what the contract price with the Chilean government was, but J. V. Patterson, of the building company in Seattle, said it was "reasonable." Why did the Premier not ask the head of the Seattle firm what the figure was? He is probably the only man in British Columbia who would not have found that out before he agreed upon a figure for the purchase of the boats for Canada. He could have done so by a question from Captain Plaza, or the Electric Boat Company, the Seattle contractors, or from the British consul at Valparaiso in a few hours. In that case he could have driven a better bargain for Canada than $1,150,000 for two boats built for Chile for $774,000.

So many extraordinary statements have been made in defence of this transaction that it is very essential that the royal commission should investigate it fully. The evidence of all connected with the matter should be taken and representatives of the shipbuilding firms interested should be invited to give testimony. The public would like to hear from the gentleman who said that submarines which were built in Seattle for Chile for $387,000 each and which the Premier purchased for $710,000 each would cost $710,000 apiece if built in England. We also should like to hear Mr. Patterson, of the Seattle company, explain how he arrived at the conclusion, expressed in his letter last spring, that the two submarines built by his firm were superior to any of the same class constructed in Europe.

A LESSON IN PRODUCTION.

There is a silver lining on the cloud of depression that hangs over this part of British Columbia. People, wise after the event, have told us that the era of speculation is over and that now we must set about the task of production. Necessity, more powerful than logic, has compelled at least a portion of our people to give attention to the words of our belatedly wise men. Take a concrete case which affords an illustration of what can be done on a part of Vancouver Island in the line of production, and we trust profitable production. The Gordon Head district has shipped eight carloads of strawberries during the season to outside points in addition to meeting the local demand for this variety of fruit. Double the quantity could have been disposed of had it been available. There is abundance of competition, of course, in the strawberry industry on the Pacific coast, but the quality of the Gordon Head product is so superior that it commands any market conveniently accessible. In flavor and color it is not excelled, according to competent authorities, by any berry grown in the most famous beds of the world. The fame of the district being definitely established, we have no doubt it will profit handsomely in the future by extension of the area of production. And there is possibly nothing peculiar to the soil and climate of the Gordon Head district that is not to be found in numerous other sections of this island. Furthermore, there are many things other than land values and strawberries that intelligent application and patient industry can produce from the soil of Vancouver Island.

TOBACCO AND CRANKS.

A short time ago the Toronto Methodist Conference adopted a resolution deploring the "wholesale manner in which response is being made to the pressure of certain interests in sending tobacco and kindred supplies to the soldiers, knowing that many whose lips were pure before have been led to the habit, which otherwise might have been avoided."

The best answer the people of Toronto can make to this is to continue sending tobacco to the soldiers as long as they want it. Field-marshals, generals, subalterns and privates in all the armies use it; the brave men who are laying down their lives for our liberties, including, of course, the liberties of the members of the Toronto Methodist Conference, are constantly asking for it. It affords them relief from the fearful strain upon their nerves, relief that has saved a considerable proportion of them from the straight-jacket and the insane asylum, and we may be excused, perhaps, if we insist that even the desirability of preserving the spirit of abstinence in non-users of tobacco is a secondary consideration to the necessity of safeguarding the mental poise of our soldiers.

Why not pass a resolution deploring the use of tea and coffee in the trenches? They are nerve stimulants. There are many soldiers, no doubt, who refuse to touch meat, being disciples in this respect of the immortal Horace Fletcher, Wu Ting-Fang and Bernard Shaw. Why not assist their heroic abstinence by eliminating meat from the army commissariat? It is difficult to understand, too, why the conference should confine its anti-tobacco propaganda to the seat of war. The lips that have been undecified by the use of tobacco are subjected to the same danger on the streets of the fair city of Toronto, while there are few pews in the churches of which Lady Nicotine is not an occupant in some form or other.

Wars are abnormal. All the conditions in it and appertaining to it are abnormal. Young men, even those who would shrink from the use of tobacco, are compelled to do things to which standards of peace do not apply. They are under a terrible strain, they are suffering from wounds and dying that the world may be freed of the curse which has made this war possible. These men should be treated with relief and solace in its use. To others doctors administer bromides. Let us give them what they want as long as it does not imperil the cause for which they are fighting, and nobody who knows anything about it has arisen to declare that our prospects are endangered by the use of tobacco among the troops. We need have no fear for the future of the brave men who are ready to pay the last full measure of devotion to the cause we know to be honorable and right, whether they perish or survive. A fitting commentary on the resolution adopted by the Toronto Methodist Conference may be found in a number of letters from the front. In these the writers declare that they have discovered that chewing tobacco helps them to combat the deadly effect of the German asphyxiating gas. If there is anything in that theory we cannot send too much tobacco to the front, and in such circumstances it would be highly desirable in the interests of the men themselves as well as the cause for which they are fighting that even those whose lips have not known the use of tobacco so far should learn to chew it or anything else that would save them from the horrible death which follows gas poisoning.

PROSPECTS.

If we believed the London Times we would be forced to the melancholy conclusion that the war would last for years. It declares that there is no immediate prospect of the Germans being driven within their own frontiers, and that while on the west the allies are faced with the probability of a prolonged and unprogressive campaign, the Russians will not be in a position to assume the offensive for several months.

When we recall the fact that the military expert of the Times last summer predicted the Russian occupation of Berlin in three months we need not feel very profoundly convinced of the accuracy of his latest prophecy. As a matter of fact neither the London Times critic nor any other observer in the belligerent countries for that matter can be regarded as a safe prophet, even if his forecast is disinterested, which, in the case of the London daily, it is not. Northcliffe, finding his campaign against Kitchener very damaging to his profits, has mounted another horse, conscription, and we may expect many dismal pictures of the outlook from that source.

Neutral observers familiar with conditions in all the warring countries see most of the game, for they have a bird's-eye view of it on a big scale. They are largely of the opinion that when the Germans have to retire to their own frontiers the German organization will collapse. Certainly Germany's financial credit system will topple over and the whole elaborate internal structure, whose only foundation is confidence of victory, will fall to pieces. Of course the allies are not permitting that possibility to influence their military preparations, but nevertheless we know from the manoeuvres of German diplomacy and the desperate character of German warfare that it strongly exists.

Rudyard Kipling is of the opinion that Germany will bleed to death on her present lines, particularly in the west. Dispatches from Amsterdam indicate that she is about to accelerate the process by making another attempt to smash her way to Calais. This onslaught probably will be the most extensive movement she has undertaken in that direction in point of numbers, but it cannot be as formidable as the attempt last October, for at that time not only did her forces outnumber their opponents by four to one, but they comprised the pick of her first-line troops, most of whom have disappeared. On that narrow front Britain, France and Belgium have massed an enormous army with line upon line of defensive positions equipped with guns of all descriptions, and we are confident the enemy will find the line impregnable. We are confident, too, that it will be Germany's final desperate throw in the west.

Reading the evidence given by Sir Richard before the royal commission at Ottawa yesterday, it occurs to us that the Premier must have been irritated about something. Why he should have been in such a fretful frame of mind we do not know. He has had something that would have been delightful to most people, a prolonged and pleasant trip without any personal necessity of counting the cost. Yet Sir Richard appears to have been ruffled in mind about several things. He took a sly fling at the Ottawa government for neglecting to provide for the protection of this coast and reflected bitterly upon the disposition of the public not to accept without question all of the statements he and his friends may make respecting the disposition of public moneys. Sir Richard, in point of fact, seems to regard an auditor-general as an impertinent sort of personage with a very inconvenient disposition to probe into matters which can be of no particular concern to the public. He would prefer to have things at Ottawa conducted on a different basis, say, for instance, as they are managed in British Columbia, when the auditor is not over inquisitive and where a public accounts committee merely exists and hardly ever meets.

Sir Richard McBride is reported as stating before the royal commission at Ottawa that through some misunderstanding Mr. Barnard had heard over the long-distance telephone that the submarines could be obtained for $375,000 each. This does not agree with Mr. Barnard's statement in the House of Commons. The latter said that

There is no Coal so good as Captain Logan, who had met Mr. Burrell and himself (Mr. Barnard) on an appointment arranged by Sir Richard, had told them that he thought the price would be $375,000, but that upon telephoning to Seattle the captain learned that the figure would be $575,000 each.

Sir Richard has been converted on the naval question again. He now favors protection for the Pacific Coast, and yesterday plaintively told the royal commission that it was difficult to get Ottawa to appreciate the situation. Undoubtedly. But we recall that when Laurier endeavored to provide for the protection of this coast Sir Richard McBride and his friends fought the proposition tooth and nail. They derided the idea of stationing cruisers of the class of the Sydney, Glasgow or Newcastle class on the coast, and stigmatized them as "tin-pots." They also sneered at the Rainbow, although they knew she was acquired for training purposes only.

Indications point to Bulgaria cutting the knot of the Balkan complication. The dispatch from Athens stating that Sofia had called reservists in Greece to the colors is highly significant. It is not improbable that the diplomacy of the allies has achieved another triumph. Bulgarian intervention would be of enormous advantage to the quadruple entente at this juncture. It would mean the early end of Turkey.

counter-attacks at the Ban de Sapt, recently captured by the Germans, have failed. Heavy artillery firing reported between the Oise and the Aisne, especially near Queennevillers.

Infantry engagements, accompanied by lively cannonade, between Roubaix sugar refinery and Bethune-Arras road. Operations hindered by condition of ground following storms.

Russian—Official reports declare that the German allies in no place have succeeded in breaking the Russian lines along the Dniester or in Poland, though in the Orzy valley the Germans compelled the Russians to retire. To offset this, there were victories along the Dniester. There the Germans still are attacking, but unavailingly. Announcement of several successes along the eastern front has been made by Grand Duke Nicholas. It is stated unofficially that the Russians will make further retirements, if necessary, the purpose being to punish the Germans heavily in their frontal attacks.

German—Berlin claimed a success at Stegna, but admits being forced from the village of Kopaczyska. Progress was claimed for the attacks along the Dniester, notably at Chodorow, where the Teutonic allies hold the village dictate that within two weeks Roumania will strike at the southeastern flank of the Teutonic allies. King Constantine of Greece is better and is expected to fight hard to preserve neutrality. The Turkish forces in Adrianople are reported to have retreated to the lines of Tchatalja. No activities at the Dardanelles reported.

"What's in a Name?" asks Shakespeare

THERE is one name at least—"The Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada"—that is significant, for among all the Canadian legal reserve companies, it is the only one organized on the mutual principle.

In a Mutual Company there is no stock, there are no special dividends; the policyholders are credited with the whole surplus. It is co-operative and economical life insurance—"straight from manufacturer to consumer."

FORD CAR COURT JEST

Magistrate Skeptical of its Minimum Speed Even With a Cylinder Out of Duty.

The "little old Ford" as a subject of jest has long been a stand-by of the vaudeville stage, but it has now invaded the police court, where care of every description find mention through the carelessness of owners with the regulations governing motor traffic. This morning E. E. Greenshaw was a defendant, charged with driving his car at over fifteen miles an hour on Quadra street on the evening of Saturday last. Not having a speedometer on his car he did not undertake to deny positively that he had not been going at a faster rate of speed than is allowed, but he did not think he was doing so.

Mounted Constable Palmer put the speed of the car at the time it crossed Hillside avenue at twenty-five miles an hour, and before it got to Topaz avenue it was going beyond that, he said. Mr. Greenshaw ventured, as a prime reason why the car could not have been going at an excessive speed, that it was a Ford, and that the engine was running on three cylinders only, and he had to fix the other when he got home.

"We know what some of these rejuvenated Ford cars can do," remarked the court, assessing a fine of ten dollars.

BEAUTIFUL GROUNDS LENT

Gonzales Chapter Garden Fair Will Take place on Tuesday at Mrs. David Rogers' Residence.

With such beautiful grounds at their disposal as those kindly offered by Mrs. David Rogers at her residence, 1069 Beach drive, the fête to be held under the auspices of the Gonzales Chapter, I. O. D. E., next Tuesday afternoon should be a complete success. The event, which will be open between the hours of 3 and 7 p. m., has the distinguished patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Bernard, Captain Allen and the officers of H. M. S. Kent.

Quite apart from the pleasure to be found in roaming round the grounds themselves, visitors will be entertained with a chamber concert at which three well known artists, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Baird and Mr. Trethewey, will appear. This concert will take place in the house between the hours of 3.30 and 4.30, and will be an artistic treat. From 4.30 until 7.30 guests will have the opportunity to dance, those intending to do so being asked to bring their dancing shoes. Mr. Heaton will supply the music for this part of the proceedings.

In the gardens will be found all manner of diversion—fortune-telling, clock golf, a miniature rifle range, bowling and many other attractions for which prizes have been donated by various members of the chapter. Tea will be served from four o'clock onwards, and there will be ice-cream and berries and cream for those who like these delicacies.

Part of the proceeds of the undertaking are to be given to the Red Cross funds.

MILK VENDORS MUST SECURE LICENSES

Notice is Given of New Regulation; Effective July 15

Notice is given that the Milk Regulation by-law, passed more than twelve months ago, will be put in force on July 15. The by-law provides for the establishment of a licensing system. The preliminary to the issue of the license will be a certificate from the inspector of the provincial department of agriculture that the herds are free from the diseases specified in the Contagious Diseases (Animals) act. The possession of a government certificate will not be forced at this time, the city health department being temporarily satisfied with a certificate from an expert as to the character of the herd. It will probably be four months before all the herds have been inspected by the government official, and the formal certificate can be awarded. However, sufficient inspection has now been completed to enable the by-law to be brought in force.

There are a number of stringent clauses, but it is not proposed to enforce them in such a manner as to make the milk business difficult to carry on. One phase, however, which will be insisted upon, will be the carriage of milk in a covered wagon.

The new by-law was framed after careful investigation into the circumstances of the supply here, and also the position in neighboring cities, in pursuance of the provincial legislation passed to that end.

In future any person desiring a license to sell milk in the city is to make application in writing, the application to be lodged with the city health department. Persons selling milk or cream without a license will be liable to prosecution.

There is a two-fold reason why it is not proposed to enforce all the clauses of the by-law. In the first place the supervision of the industry in its entirety would involve the appointment of an inspector having jurisdiction over the milk industry alone, and no provision has been made in the civic estimates for this purpose. The other is that some of the clauses, if they were to be enforced to-day, would inevitably put the small dairymen out of business, as these men would not have the capital available to bring their premises up to the standard laid down in the by-law. Therefore it is the intention to interpret the by-law in a liberal spirit, and put no harsh restrictions which would raise the price, already high, of milk by retail to the consumer.

NEW LADY PRINCIPAL FOR TRAFALGAR INSTITUTE

Miss M. E. Windsor Comes to Trafalgar Institute.

The trustees of the Trafalgar Institute at their quarterly meeting held on the 19th of June confirmed the appointment, as lady principal, of Miss Mary Elizabeth Windsor, formerly Winkworth Scholar of Newnham College, Cambridge, and at present head mistress of the High School for Girls, Ludlow, Shropshire, England.

Miss Windsor succeeds Miss Hardy, who has, owing to private reasons, resigned the appointment, which she has held for the past two years, and is returning to live in England. After talking honors in the mathematical tripos at Cambridge, Miss Windsor spent several years in obtaining educational experience both in England and in Canada. She was for three years head mistress of the Ladies' College, at Halifax, N. S., where she proved most capable and successful, and a splendid organizer. She is an M. A. of Trinity College, Dublin, the degree which is given to all women who pass the Cambridge Tripos. Her testimonials and references show that she is well known as a lady of high attainments and of very high character. The institute will re-open on Tuesday, the 14th of September.

St. Mary's church, Saanichton, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon last, when the Rev. H. T. Archibald united in marriage Edna Catherine, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. John, of Saanichton, and Lee Nathaniel Moxley, of Victoria, B. C. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very sweet and girlish in a gown of champagne colored charmeuse, with which she wore a long tulle veil and a chaplet of orange blossoms. She also carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Jessie John, wearing a gown of heavy white crepe de chine and a long tulle veil, was the bridesmaid. The groom was of pink Killarney roses. The best man was J. Armstrong, Miss Edith Yeo, of Victoria, presided at the organ, playing the "Bridal Chorus" from the church, and the bride entered the church, and "Mendelssohn's Wedding March," as the bridal party were leaving. During the signing of the register the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, "Hillcrest Farm," the house being very attractively decorated with banks of garden flowers. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl sunburst pendant; to the bridesmaid a silver mesh hand-bag; and to the best man a pair of gold cuff links. Mr. and Mrs. Moxley were the

ROBERT DOLLAR SHIPS TO FLY UNION JACK

San Francisco, June 26.—The Robert Dollar company, steamship owner, with headquarters in this city, yesterday announced that its vessels would change their registry to sail under the British flag on account of the new La Follette-Furusest Seamen's act, which goes into effect at the end of the year. Robert Dollar, president of the company, is on his way to Vancouver, it is announced, to arrange for the transfer.

Stanley Dollar, second vice-president of the company, says that there is an equal chance that the company will move its headquarters from San Francisco to Vancouver. He adds that only one of the company's vessels, the McVieville Dollar, is now engaged in coastwise trade, the others, the Stanley, Grace and Robert Dollar and the Mackinnon, being under foreign charter. The clause of the bill to which the company objects, and on account of which the Pacific Mail Steamship company also says it will withdraw its vessels, is that which provides that all vessels under American registry must carry crews seventy-five per cent of whom speak the same language as the captain and other officers.

DECLARES GOOD DIVIDEND

Seattle, Wash., June 26.—Directors of the Alaska Steamship company, at a meeting held in Seattle yesterday, declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent, and a special extra dividend of 5 per cent, payable June 30. With the dividend of 1 1/2 per cent, paid in March, this makes a total of 8 per cent, declared on the company's stock during the current year. As a result of the action of the directors taken yesterday a total of $195,000 will be paid to stockholders of the Alaska Steamship company next Wednesday.

The prosperous condition of the corporation is due to the heavy movement of freight and passengers to Southeastern and Southwestern Alaska, but more particularly to the new traffic resulting from the commencement of work on the federal railway in the north.

HARRISON LINER ON LAST LEG OF VOYAGE

Merchant Duo To-morrow Night or Monday Morning; Discoverer Ordered Here.

Either late Sunday night or early Monday morning the Harrison liner Merchant will arrive at the ocean docks from Liverpool. This morning Harold Cove, local agent of the line, received word stating that the vessel cleared from San Francisco on Thursday at midnight. The weather off the coast at present is very strong, but it is expected that the ship will make the run in three days.

No time will be lost in getting the ship away from this port as the Harrison line is rushing its boats along as rapidly as possible. A start will be made on her cargo on Monday morning, and it is expected that she will proceed to Vancouver early in the afternoon. The Merchant has several hundred tons of cargo for Victoria, including the shipment of water pipe for the Saanich municipality. Although the Harrison steamship Student is still on the Sound loading cargo for the United Kingdom, a full cargo is awaiting for the Merchant. The rush of freight from this coast to the old land is tremendous, and there is not sufficient tonnage to handle it. The Harrison company is dispatching ships as fast as possible, but it suffers certain restrictions through the workings of the admiralty.

Discoverer Coming.
 Word came through this morning that the steamship Discoverer had been appointed to succeed the Crown of Seville in the Panama service. The Spectator was to have taken the July sailing from Liverpool, but was ordered into a different service. The Discoverer was here about six months ago. An extra ship is to be worked into the homeward schedule of the Harrison line, and will assist somewhat in relieving the freight pressure. The steamship Crown of Galicia, which has been in the service of the admiralty for some time, will arrive on the coast about the middle of August to load for Liverpool. Where she is coming from is not known. A full cargo will be billed for her. The Galicia was a supply ship for Rear-Admiral Sir Christopher Cradock's ill-fated fleet, and she was at one time reported sunk by the Germans. She has performed invaluable service to the country and Capt. Halliday, her master, has been commended by the admiralty on three different occasions.

MEXICO MARU LOOKED FOR ON HOLIDAY NEXT WEEK

R. P. Rithet & Co., local agents for the Osaka line, were advised this morning that the steamship Mexico Maru, Capt. Kobayashi, sailed from Yokohama on June 17, and is due to arrive here on July 2. She will more than likely make port the day before, for to make things interesting for shipping men on the holiday. The Mexico has 66 passengers all told and about 30 will disembark at this port. She carries 900 tons of cargo for British Columbia ports.

WEATHERWAX FORCED INTO HONOLULU FOR REPAIRS

Heavy weather damaged the little schooner J. M. Weatherwax on her run from Victoria to Sydney, N.S.W., and forced Capt. Ayres to run into Honolulu for repairs. A cablegram from the Hawaiian port states that the windjammer reached there on Wednesday last. She left the Royal Roads on May 31 loaded with 550,000 feet of lumber from the Chemainus mills. She is a very small schooner, and evidently fared badly in the heavy weather between here and the islands.

EXCESSIVE TRAVEL CAUSE OF CHANGE

Pacific Coast S. S. Co. Replies to Criticism Made on Change of Vessels

In reply to a host of criticism which has been done at them for withdrawing the steamships President and Governor from the Victoria-Frisco service and employing the Umatilla and City of Puebla, the Pacific Coast Steamship company has written a letter of explanation. The company attempts to justify their action through the excessive passenger travel which they have to care for, but intimate that as soon as there is only enough business to warrant the operation of the big ships, then the President and Governor will resume their calls at this port.

At the present time travel is very heavy, and the company argues that it is only a business move that they should employ all their ships on the most suitable schedule. The President, Governor and Congress are maintaining a semi-weekly service between Seattle and California ports, while the Umatilla and City of Puebla are making the calls at Victoria.

The announcement of the substitution of the smaller boat for the more palatial craft was not well received here. Following criticism in the press, the board of trade wrote to the company and expressed their displeasure at the action of the company. The public may not be aware of the fact that the Pacific Coast Steamship company is drawing a Canadian subsidy, but nevertheless it receives $3,000 every year for maintaining a weekly service between this port and the Golden Gate. The company has also been granted a concession by the Victoria pilots, and only pays half pilotage. This is a concession made to no other steamship company operating ships in and out of this port.

It is believed that travel will remain heavy until the end of August. As soon as there is a dropping off in the number of travellers the Pacific Coast will make another business move and the Umatilla and City of Puebla, and the President and Governor will call at this port as they did up to a few weeks ago.

PUEBLA TWO DAYS LATE.

Through some unknown cause the Pacific Coast steamship City of Puebla, Capt. Hannah, will be nearly two days late arriving here from San Francisco. She left the Golden Gate this morning at 4 o'clock and is expected here some time on Monday afternoon. The Puebla was scheduled to dock to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

CAPTAINS ASSIGNED TO WHALING BOATS

Masters Appointed for Five of the Craft; First Boats Leaving Monday or Tuesday

Captains for the five whalers which are to sail from Victoria next week for the Kuyquot and Naden Harbor stations, have been signed on. Announcement was made this morning that the following assignments have been made to the vessels:
 Capt. Harry Balcom, the Green.
 Capt. Willis Balcom, the Black.
 Capt. William Heater, the William Grant.
 Capt. John Anderson, the Blue.
 Capt. John Christian, the White.

It was expected that the first of the fleet would get away to-day or to-morrow, but it will be Monday or Tuesday before they have the last of their stores aboard, and their crews signed. Three of the whalers will proceed to Kuyquot, and the other two will fish out of Naden Harbor. As soon as the weather in the north becomes settled a third whaler will be dispatched to that station.
 Kuyquot turned in the best catch of the four stations last year, and there is no doubt but that it will be high-lier this season. The whales are reported in large numbers off the West Coast of Vancouver Island, and the three whalers should make a big catch. Naden Harbor has always ranked well. There is every probability that the Rose Harbor station will be opened up later, in which case two other whalers will be overhauled and outfitted.
 Yesterday the whalers Green and Black were lowered from the Victoria Machinery Depot's slip, and the William Grant and Blue were hauled out to have their hulls scraped and painted. The Moran is on Turpel's slip.

 The officers of the company also informed Mr. Mears that a representative of the company will shortly visit Seattle in the interests of the new line.

SHIP STUCK ON WAYS MARRING LAUNCHING

Manila Maru Refused to Leave Slips at Nagasaki; Took Water on Second Attempt

Failure attended the first efforts of the builders to launch the new Osaka liner, Manila Maru, at Nagasaki on May 26, according to information just received by the Times from the Orient. An enormous crowd gathered at the Mitsui Bishi shipyards, including Dr. Mano, president of the Imperial Kiushu University, and Mr. Hori, president of the O. S. K., but when the signal was given for releasing the ship, she refused to move. The christening had been performed, and the sticking of the giant craft was a source of much disappointment to those who had gathered, and of humiliation to the builders.
 If there is one thing which any shipyard hates to have to its discredit, it is to have a ship "stick" on the launching day. It is not often that a yard experiences such a deplorable event, but nevertheless they crop up at intervals in every yard. Sticking is something which every yard tries to avoid, but which cannot be foreseen.
 A second attempt to launch the craft on June 9 was successful. The Manila is now in the water, and work on completing the ship is being rushed to completion. The new craft has a displacement of 18,900 tons, and a gross tonnage of 19,900 tons. She will have a speed of 17 knots, and will cross the Pacific from Yokohama in twelve days. A great deal of saloon accommodation is being provided in the ship, and she will handle approximately 19,000 tons of cargo.

Here in November.
 The Manila Maru will arrive in Victoria on her maiden voyage on November 2. She is scheduled to leave Yokohama for Hongkong on September 22. The Manila is replacing the steamship Panama Maru in the trans-Pacific service, upon the return of that vessel to Yokohama on her next voyage.
 Last year the Osaka liner awarded contracts for two new liners, and the first of these was launched at Kobe the middle of May. The Hawaii will be the first to arrive at Victoria, and according to the present schedule she is due to berth on August 21. The Hawaii Maru replaced the steamship Seattle Maru, which left here yesterday, upon her arrival at Yokohama on July 14.

Spec Harkness and Willard Melke will work for the visitors. Marty Nye may shake up his batting order to get better results. The second game will start at six o'clock, the teams playing at Everett to-morrow in a postponed fixture.

Muggsy McGraw has been tipped off to the abundance of money that the Northwestern league possesses this year, and he is sending Scout Kinsella out to this league to look over the budding stars. Kinsella, whom Larry McLean attempted to beat up a couple of weeks ago, is the gum-shoe agent who will give the local boys the once over. Kinsella has been tipped off to a couple of real starry players, and will look over McKenry and Kelly while here. He is also after Ken Williams, the rangy Spokane outfielder. Cincinnati has filed an offer for one of the Victoria players, but no action will be taken by the Northwestern league until it is decided whether or not to keep the club here.

Archie Byler, catcher for the Aberdeen baseball team, who has been laid up with a bad carbuncle on his neck for four days, is up and around again. What is known as auto-intoxication set in, causing the top of his head to swell badly, but the heading of the tumor is lessening the swelling.

Johnny Hanley says: "I know an umpire who says 'em as he sees 'em, but he never sees 'em."

Tiny Leonard refused to ride downtown in a jitney that was marked, "Will Stop Anywhere." "You had only to take one look at the car to believe the sign," said Tiny.

Spokane, June 26.—The Seattle team will play two games here Sunday, playing off one game that was tied in Seattle. Owing to the lateness of the Spokane train arriving in Seattle Monday morning the team will be unable to reach Vancouver in time for a game there Monday, and will play Monday's game with Vancouver in Seattle, both teams leaving Monday night for Vancouver.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 26.—Officials of the Western League decided yesterday to complete the season's schedule. Announcement was made also that there would be no reductions of salaries. It was revealed that every club was a heavy loser on the season thus far. The officials met to consider finances.

Lefty Woods, a Tacoma boy who has shown considerable class as a pitcher, is to be given a chance by Victoria. He was with that club earlier in the year, but was dropped to allow the team to get inside the fourteen-man limit. The club needs a southpaw and Nye thinks Woods will deliver the goods.

Aberdeen and Victoria will play at Everett Sunday. The game that was forfeited to Aberdeen when Victoria's uniforms failed to arrive at Aberdeen in time for the game several weeks ago, was ordered played over, by President Blewett, and it will be staged at Everett, which is neutral territory.

Tacoma, June 26.—By releasing Roy Davis, second string catcher, yesterday, the Tigers are down to within two of the lowest number of men ever carried on a Tacoma league baseball team, thirteen. To-day it is expected the directors will meet and top off the head of one more player, making the club roster twelve, but one more than the famous Tacoma Coast League team of 1906, which consisted of eleven players. By these changes in Tacoma and elsewhere in the league it is hoped that all the clubs can pull through the season.

The Tacoma club of 1906 with Russ Hall made a record of winning 27 out of 36 games played. Perle Casey, manager of the series here this week with Vancouver, was then playing with Fresno; Cliff Blankenship was the Tacoma catcher and Terry McKune shortstop. Unless injuries occur the club will be able to shift along with its twelfth men, and if worst comes to worst, Hall says that Stokke and Johnson can take turns in the catcher's box.

LEAFS BOOTED AND "MAC" WAS WILD

Victoria Beaten in One-Sided Exhibition Yesterday; But- ler Had Homer

Aberdeen stepped into the lead in the local series at the ball park last night when they walloped Big Frank McKenry to all corners of the park, the final count being 19 to 1. The Leafs could do little with the offerings of Harry Hughes, and the latter's sensational support nipped several promising batting rallies in the bud. It was a game in which a pretty fair hurler outclassed a grand pitcher who was wild as a hawk. McKenry has barrels of "stuff," but he could not control the sphere, and was continually in trouble. The win gave Aberdeen an edge on the series, and Victoria must win both games this afternoon to win from the visitors.

Not only was McKenry shooting "em wide of the plate, but his support was very ragged. Twice did the big pitcher let thrown balls get away from him on possible put outs that would have cut off runs, while his infield wobbled badly. Kelly had two punk boots that were costly, the Leafs giving Aberdeen an eight run lead in the first four innings that the Victoria club could never overcome. The locals appeared handicapped at the plate in the pitcher's ten Maple Leafs being stranded on the bags. Perhaps the general disorganization of the club was brought about by the presence of the fall sex in the stands, but at any rate the Leafs did look bad yesterday, though McKenry finished his game in fine style, going like a big leaguer at the close.

Errors cost two runs in the second inning. Kippert singled and was sacrificed to second. Ward flew out, but Vance was hit by McKenry. Kippert stole third, and went on to Kelly's wide heave to Menges. Hughes hit to Menges, who threw the ball into the dirt at first. Vance scoring. In the third, McKenry's wildness cost four more runs. Henry walked and Bennett sacrificed. Murphy walked, and Kippert pounded the ball over the fence for three runs. Ward and Vance singled in a row, the former scoring on a wild pitch. Giddings singled to start the fourth, and Henry bunted him to second. Bennett doubled to right, scoring Giddings. He advanced on an infield out, and scored on a passed ball, when McKenry crossed Haworth at the plate. In the eighth Vance singled, and went to second on Kelly's error. He scored on Giddings' single. Henry was hit by McKenry, and Giddings scored on Bennett's drive through the infield.

Victoria's lone counter was chalked up in the sixth when Butler opened with a home run. In the fifth Victoria had three singles in a row, but could not score, while two were left stranded in the seventh, after a walk and Butler's double placed runners on second and third. In the eighth and ninth we also had runners stranded on the bags. The Leafs hit Hughes hard, but time and again the Aberdeen outfield raked long flies off the fence. Murphy robbing Kelly of a triple in the seventh with two on the bags by a sensational one-handed catch.

Spokane, June 26.—Spokane buried Seattle under an avalanche of runs yesterday, winning from the rat-rodgers by a score of 14 to 4. Bunching hits off Miller and weak fielding by the visitors made run-getting easy. The Indians ran bases like wild men on Cadman, pilfering nine sacks. Three hits and two errors in the fifth gave the visitors three runs.

Tacoma, June 26.—Tacoma went into second place in the league yesterday by defeating Vancouver 9 to 4. Arlett, Vancouver's new pitcher, was wild, and after Jimmy Clark failed to check the Tigers, President Brown of the Beavers himself took the mound for the last two innings, mowing down the locals in order.

FINAL APPEAL FOR FUNDS MADE LEAGUE DIRECTORS MEET TO-MORROW

Boosters' Club Require Addi- tional Subscriptions to Keep Club Here

Victoria's fate as a member of the Northwestern league will be settled to-morrow, when a meeting of the directors will be held in Seattle. President E. L. Blewett stated to the Times this morning that he was satisfied that the team will remain here for the better part of next week, and if the Boosters' club cannot then make arrangements to keep the club in Victoria, the league will probably place the team at Everett. President Blewett arrived in the capital this morning from Seattle and will spend the day endeavoring to arrange for the financing of the club. He stated that the team will play next week against Tacoma, and it is upon this series that the success of the Boosters' efforts depend. The club did not draw very well in the week just closed, and the fans must do better if they wish to keep the team here. Such is the ultimatum handed out by President Blewett.

Tacoma, June 26.—Yesterday's competition in the 15th annual tournament of the Pacific Northwest Golf association saw the elimination of the last of the California aspirants for the sectional championship. SPokane IS AFTER THE NORTHWESTERN PENNANT

"I have a much stronger ball club than last year and when my pitching staff finally rounds into form, the Indians will get into the first division to stick." Such is Mgr. Wicker's opinion of the Spokane club of 1915. "We weeded out a lot of old ball players last fall," states Wicker, "and I think that we have a faster team right to-day when Spokane has ever before boasted of Victoria has a fighting ball club and I believe that the pennant fight will be a close one, both of these clubs up there in the final chase."

money will be turned over to a local bank as a guarantee that the Victoria franchise will be kept here. The Boosters' club will hold another meeting to-day to consider the matter of a field day for the benefit of the ball club, and it is expected that a big gathering of baseball fans will turn out to assist in keeping Victoria to the fore in Northwestern league baseball. Quite a few prizes have been promised the Boosters' club for the sports' day, and a varied program will be put on. P. R. Allen, of the Allen Stock company, and one of the finest baseball boosters in the city, has come forward with an offer to stage a benefit performance for the ball club, and his offer will be accepted. A certain percentage of the proceeds will go towards the ball club as Mr. Allen realizes the advertising value of a baseball franchise to the city.

BEACON HILL WON AGAIN FROM VICS. IN CLOSE FINISH

Beacon Hill took a firm grip on first place in the Intermediate league series by downing the Victorians on the North Ward diamond last evening in a loosely played game, 12 to 9. Neither team played good ball the grounds being in very poor shape. Up to the seventh inning the Hills led 12 to 3 but the Vics bunched a few hits, which, combined with errors, gave them six runs. Paul Slater pitched a nice game up to the seventh inning, when he weakened.

LOCAL TWELVE IS LOOKING FOR WIN

Harry Coutts Shapes Up as Shifty Home Player

That the Victoria lacrosse club, with the addition of Joe Dakers and Harry Coutts stands a fine chance of winning from New Westminster at the Royal City on Dominion Day, is the opinion of the local rail birds who have witnessed the workouts of the Victoria twelve this week. President Christopher appears to have gathered together a remarkably fine aggregation, and with the men working hard it will not be far lack of condition that they are beaten in their quest of the Mann cup. Victoria has never had a better chance than this year to win the coveted trophy, and it is up to the fans to support this club.

Coutts will add a lot of "pep" to the home, while Dakers' appearance on the defence means that this department of the club will be improved twenty-five per cent. The Victoria club is better balanced right now than it has been for years. The locals have always been weak in attack, but this year the defect appears to have been remedied. Petticrew, Baker, McCarter and McDougall provide a flying squadron that will get a lot of goals for any club, and if the defence can do their share of the work at the Royal City the chances of a Victoria win are very bright.

Vancouver, June 25.—There will be no more postponements of scheduled professional lacrosse games this season. Con. Jones, president of the Vancouver club, says he will not call off any more and Manager Kellington of the Salmonbellies announces that his club will not depart from the established rule at all. So to-day's game at Athletic park will take place no matter what the weather. It ranks as a Westminster home game.

The Vancouver team had another fine workout Thursday evening, and the Salmonbellies on Saturday. So far as confidence goes, however, the former manager of the world's champions, Al Kellington declares that the players are in better trim now than any time the last couple of seasons and he predicts a sure victory for his crew.

At the opening of the season there was a tentative agreement to let the Mutual Brokers, the largest concern in the line on the continent, have five cars of berries, but the most significant large a shipment could be made. In the result there were eight cars of strawberries sent from the district to Calgary, and in every case the price realized was one that will give the growers a fair return upon their investment.

SUGGEST USE OF ISOLATION HOSPITAL

Deputation From Medical Society Seeks Provision for Treatment for Drug Users

After hearing a deputation from the Victoria Medical Society on the evils of the drug habits, its hold over its victims and the necessity for some institution in which cases could be treated, the city council in committee yesterday afternoon undertook to examine the feasibility of a suggestion made by Dr. Raynor, and referred to the health committee for a report the suggestion that part of the isolation hospital should be set aside for the purpose.

In introducing the subject Dr. Raynor pointed out that the medical profession here had tried to cope with the situation, and in order to avoid prescriptions being issued by a number of medical men for the same patient, an arrangement had been made to register cases with the city health officer, Dr. G. A. B. Hall. The system had proved to be rather burdensome on the city health officer. A special meeting of the society had recently been held, and it was decided that the only way in some special place, sent to the public nuisance, and would have to be discharged long before any successful treatment could be carried out. The question then arose, what was to be done with these patients, a great many of whom were without means. They could not be forced on the street. The doctor said the society felt that the government should handle the matter, but meanwhile it was probable the government would do nothing, and something ought to be done at once of a temporary character. After quoting experiences which had come under the doctor's notice in Victoria, Dr. Raynor stated that the society proposed the council would be able to place a building at the isolation hospital at their disposal.

After Dr. Grant had briefly spoken, Dr. Ernest Hall claimed that to treat these people through police court proceedings was an outrage. The great majority were anxious to break away from their bad habits. "This point," he said, "I want to bring before you is that if any municipality takes money from the sale of any drug which causes the deterioration of the race, I think that the municipality has a moral obligation, to try to provide for the treatment of those who suffer from the result." He suggested that there should be a ward set aside, and expressed the opinion that with treatment for a time the craving could be eradicated. They had no more right to send these poor people to jail than to send an epileptic case.

He expressed the fear that with the strict law now in vogue on the American side, it was possible this country would be flooded with cases of drug users.

Dr. Grant alluded to experience in Montreal, where he said street vendors supplied patients with morphine and cocaine injections within an hour of their coming out of hospital.

Dr. Miller, secretary of the society, alluded to what had been done in other cities, and particularly in Glasgow. The mayor and some of the aldermen expressed the opinion that the rules for the supply of drugs should be more rigorously observed. After Aldermen McNeill and McCandless had stated their views that permanent attention should come in a government institution, reference to the health committee for a report was not resisted.

TRIP TO OBSERVATORY

Public Invited to Visit Little Saanich Mountain on Tuesday, July 6.

A trip to the site of the new observatory on Little Saanich mountain is being organized by Publicity Commissioner Cuthbert for Tuesday, July 6, with a view to familiarizing the public with the reasons which led to the choice of Victoria as the most suitable place in the Dominion for astronomical work. The mayor and council, the provincial minister of public works, Dr. Plaskett, the astronomer who will be in charge of the work here; members of the V. & I. Development association, and members of other public bodies will be invited. All citizens who have motor cars which they are willing to lend for the occasion are asked to do so.

There is no doubt that the establishment of the observatory here will be quite an advertisement for the city and its climate, and in literature to be issued by the association shortly this tribute to the clearness of the atmosphere and the equable temperature of Victoria will be dwelt on.

A. SHERET
 Extract From "BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL" March 23, 1907.

"A Most Valuable Food"
 At a time when the preparation of artificial foodstuffs is causing more attention than ever before, and when new forms of easily assimilable fat to take the place of cod-liver oil are being frequently brought to the notice of the medical profession, it is desirable that some of the older forms of administering natural fats should not be lost sight of. Among natural fats, butter is the first place for nutritive value, and when combined with a suitable soluble carbohydrate, a most valuable food is produced.

THE BUTTER SCOOTCH which Messrs. Callard & Bowser (Duke's Road, Buxton Road, W. G.) have prepared for fifty years is such a article, which has the great advantage of being palatable, so palatable in fact, that children are more likely to use it than any other natural fat. This SCOOTCH is intended to contain 11 per cent. of fat and 53.3 per cent. of sugar, and the result of an analysis which we have made recently of specimens substantially conforming to these figures; further chemical examination of the fat extracted showed it to be genuine butter fat. This concoction can therefore be recommended, not only as a harmless sweetener, but also as a very useful addition to the diet in suitable cases.

WILL CLOSE ROAD TO THROUGH TRAFFIC

North Quadra Street is Not Available After To-morrow, as Paving Commences

The commencement of grading for the Saanich paving contract will take place on Monday, and as already announced a contract has been let to Jones & Rant, Ltd., for the portion of Quadra street from the city boundary at Toimie avenue to the Cedar Hill cross road. The section along the Saanich road from that point to Royal Oak will be done by day labor. When grading operations have progressed a short distance, the paving contractors, the Warren Construction company, will begin with laying the bituminous surface. Jones & Rant's contract calls for completion of the grading within 45 days.

LAY OVER WORK

Streets Committee Delays Action on Grahame Street.

At the meeting of the streets committee of the city council yesterday afternoon further protests against the paving of Prior street were read. A counter petition favoring the laying of the sidewalks was also presented. The aldermen decided to close the by-law. As the laying of the sidewalks on the street is not provided for in the by-law, this work will be done under the initiative plan. Work on Grahame street, between Bay street and Hillside avenue, will be delayed for a week. The other portion, from Hillside avenue to Summit avenue, will be finished. Half the aldermen wanted the former section to be done at once, and half favored delay, hence the postponement. Alderman McNeill expressed the opinion that it was a dog in the manger policy for owners on improved streets, who owned property on other streets, to prevent local improvement work, which was supported by resident owners proceeding on those streets. Alderman Todd declared that this piecemeal policy of local improvement was impossible to operate, the city engineer having no definite policy thereby in carrying on his programme of paving. It was unfair to the department to leave conditions in the form they are. The mayor believed the city should carry through its programme, and avoid interest and other charges, which were mounting up on unfinished work, and which would have to be liquidated. Alderman McCandless deprecated the council forcing on the owners work which could not be paid for at present.

APPEAL COURT CASES

Judgment Reserved in Page and Bela Singh Cases; Hearing Mauvais Against Tervo.

The appeal court will on Monday continue to hear arguments in the appeal of Mauvais against Tervo in which plaintiff is the appellant. The appeal is from judgment of Chief Justice Hunter, who, at the trial in the supreme court could find no authority that the court may allow a claim for rescission of a contract, and at the same time make an order for compensation in favor of the defendant. According to the evidence plaintiff bought from defendant land on Fortage inlet whereon he proposed to build an hotel. The vendor told him before the sale there was no encumbrance against the land "not even the scratch of a pen." The plaintiff made a search but was not informed either at the registry office or by the Registrar of the existence of a mortgage. The Northern Railway company had filed a route plan on the property. He said that it was no use for hotel purposes. Plaintiff, after getting the property, sold some of the standing timber, and the judge therefore found it impossible to place the parties in their former positions. The court has reserved judgment in Page against Page and in Rex against Bela Singh, in which the court asked for a direction to the trial judge to state a case for the opinion of the appeal court.

DOMINION ASTRONOMER TELLS OF JUPITER

Dr. J. S. Plaskett, F. R. G. S., Gives Interesting Talk to Astronomical Society

Members of the Victoria Centre of the Royal Astronomical Society enjoyed a rare treat last evening when Dr. J. S. Plaskett, F. R. G. S., Dominion astronomer, addressed them on the subject of the largest planet of the solar system, Jupiter. A. W. McCurdy, president of the local society, was in the chair, the meeting, by special courtesy of F. Napier Denison, superintendent, taking place at the observatory on Gonzalez Heights. The talk was more or less informal in character, Dr. Plaskett, who modestly claimed not to be an authority on the subject, giving a most entertaining discourse and replying to numerous questions. The part played by photography in discovering five more moons belonging to the planet than the four found by Galileo three hundred years ago was a revelation to many present. The large red spot, which has been observed from time to time but never satisfactorily explained, was also referred to, and the length of the planet's year (owing to its revolution round the sun covering a period of nearly twelve of the earth's years) was recalled. Toward the close of his talk Dr. Plaskett took his audience for a voyage among the stars, in the course of which he pointed out that while astronomers generally believed that our universe was travelling in one direction that observations revealed a contra-motion in other stars, whose aggregate motion was directly opposed to that of the system to which the earth belongs. So noticeable was this, in fact, that it seemed like the meeting of two universes in space. In conclusion the lecturer told briefly something of the work which would be done at the big observatory at Little Saanich mountain when the gigantic telescope is in place. A very cordial resolution of appreciation to Dr. Plaskett was passed, on motion of C. H. Lugin, seconded by H. Napier Denison, after which the visitors were taken over the building, seeing the seismograph recently installed and other interesting instruments. With the assistance of the telescope Dr. Plaskett pointed out some of the interesting heavenly bodies to those who visited the dome at the observatory.

ANTIPON IN CANADA

Spreading the Fame of the Great British Specific For Rapid Fat-Reduction.

The burden of obesity is so distressing and so unproportionate, and is generally so difficult to get rid of with any degree of permanence, that the introduction to Canada of the famous British Specific Antipon will be welcome in many quarters. The preparation is not unknown here already, but the obstacles in the way of its supply to the general public were necessarily great. All difficulties are now removed. Ere the important discovery of Antipon the treatments usually employed for the reduction of weight included starvation dietary rules, sweating and purging, together with mineral drugging. All these things are weakening in the extreme, and, when obstinately persisted in, ruinous to the constitution. Antipon is diametrically opposed to such drastic methods. It is the shorter the South African war will be, but the body must be amply nourished at the same time. Now, Antipon not only rapidly eliminates the excess of fat, but overcomes the unfortunate tendency to "run to fat." Ample wholesome food therefore becomes Antipon's strength-giving ally, and there is no need to dread that the extra-nourishment taken will bring about a re-development of excessive fatty tissue. Every trace of Antipon is a sure step in the direction of the recovery of beauty of form and vigorous nervous energy. The decrease of weight is not a tedious process. Within twenty-four hours of the first dose there is a reduction varying, according to individual conditions, between 8 oz. to 2 lb. The scale will be the unerring recorder. The daily decrease is eminently satisfactory. When normal weight and symmetrical proportions are regained the treatment is no longer necessary. Antipon contains only the most harmless vegetable substances in solution, the liquid being in appearance like a light red wine. It is palatable, refreshing and slightly tart, and never occasions any unpleasant reactionary effects. Antipon can be obtained at all drug stores, from stock or to order, or in case of any difficulty, a large case will be forwarded direct from the Antipon Laboratories, Store street, London, W. C., Eng. carriage paid, on receipt of remittance for $5.11.

JITNEY REGULATIONS

No Action Will Be Taken; Rules to Be Respected. Following allusion to the jitney traffic in city council yesterday, the legislative committee received a deputation from the Victoria Jitney association with regard to regulation of traffic. The members of the association presented a copy of a resolution passed at its last meeting, limiting the amount of accommodation to be accorded in automobiles, according to registered capacity.

The committee will answer Mr. Lea, who lodged the complaint about breach of street regulations with the city council, that the association will limit overcrowding, and recommend to the council on Monday that no action in the way of framing additional restrictions should be framed at this time.

MORE FORMS AVAILABLE

Municipal Bureau Will Receive Applications for Registrations Till Experts Arrive.

The British mission of inquiry into labor supply for munitions of war continued a personal examination of applicants to-day.

On their departure from the city Messrs. Barnes and Windham will make Victoria their headquarters, while working through the smaller towns of the province. A number of the local applications have, as elsewhere, been ruled out as being unsuitable for the character of the work required. Those who have not been rejected on the preliminary examination will be tested by the committee of experts now touring the Dominion, who will be here early next month.

The percentage of those permitted for further examination is better here than has been the case elsewhere, nearly 50 per cent. being received from the list of the Trades and Labor council.

The superintendent of the municipal labor bureau has received an additional list of forms, and will take registrations of further applicants until the experts arrive here later on. The figures are too uncertain at present to say what total percentage will be accepted from this district.
