It is talked and said that there are a great many of Eastern social and business men, who are opposed to division. It has been supposed that in a public meeting they would be shown to the contrary.

Liquor officers had James Lynch before the court at Quincy yesterday for keeping liquor in a room, and for a fine of $50. The judge gave him a fine of $50.

The column under this title will be given to the management of the paper district disclaim all responsibility for any errors expressed.

Mr. Chairman, since I have been a member of this house, I have repeatedly heard the merchants, bankers and business men say themselves in a southern sky when earthquake, fire, or famine, or flood overtake any section of the country, north or south, where do they go for help? Who pray to, or to what deity?

There are members on this floor who will remember the time when the banks, when every merchant kept a bank-note detector as big as a bible, and looked through it every time they took a string bill to the bank and the bank would not take it unless it was counterfeited on that bank; and then he was in no way sure, for the bank might have suspended or failed since the book was issued.

Another peculiarity of the situation was that the value of a man's pocketbook changed every time he crossed a State line. My father went from Massachusetts to Indiana, where I was born. When he got there he paid 10 cents to have the money which he brought with him changed to money that he could use in South Bend. When he left there and returned to Massachusetts he again paid 10 cents to have the money changed in Indiana reduced to Massachusetts money.

Mr. Chairman, I will vote against the pending bill or the substitute offered by the chairman of the committee because I consider it a long step in the direction of a return to the condition of things that I have described and in the red-log and wild-cat banks of antebellum times.

THIS? Merry and Long Beach. Also, a variety of Boys' Vermont TURKEYS, EGGS, NUTS, etc. 'Gent's and Children's' LL, East Weymouth.

WATCH YOUR WATCH. It is really one of the most wonderful achievements of human ingenuity. It doesn't take a large can of oil to lubricate it either, it just requires 1.10 of a drop of oil the entire watch for a year's service. But it has mighty great need of that 1.10 of a drop. Now don't let it go uncare for until the delicate pivots are worn by dirt, and beg to be cleaned and oiled anew, but take it to C. H. TINKHAM, South Weymouth, Mass., every eighteen months for its rejuvenation. The price? Not the lowest, but the least that good honest work affords. Maybe after a little experience you will conclude it is the cheapest in the end.

South Weymouth Items. —The social event of the season, and the first one of the year 1905, will take place next week Friday evening, when the first annual subscription concert and ball of the Norfolk Cycle club will be held in Fog's Opera house. A large committee has been at work for the past month, making the arrangements which are nearly completed. There has been some misunderstanding in regard to the invitations not being sent to town. These invitations are sent only to members and out-of-town friends. This does not bar any from attending, because the public is cordially invited. Dancing tickets are for sale at the following prices: $2.00 for a couple, $1.00 for a single. The concert will begin at 7.45 o'clock. The balcony has been reserved, and tickets may be procured at the drug store of H. Nash at the following prices: First two rows, seventy-five cents, next two rows, fifty cents, and the remainder at twenty-five cents. Music for dancing will be furnished by Peter's orchestra of best calibre. This orchestra is considered to be one of the best that can be secured. Everything tends towards a most successful party. No expense has been spared in the following: —The Ten Young Ladies of South Weymouth who spent a week at Fort Point last summer held a reunion at the home of Mrs. Bertha Tirrell, on Monday, Jan. 2, 1905. After partaking of a beautiful repast, the following lines were read by one of the number: BOSTON, Jan. 1, 1905. DEAR MISS TIRRELL: Being a reporter, and out of health, I thought I would like to send you a note. Where I could rest, reading and then a book. So I travelled as far as old Weymouth town. To that part called Fort Point, of great note. And stopped at the Bowen House, a quiet retreat, very pleasantly located, also very neat. You during the summer of eighteen months ago. When most of the cottages were filled along the shore. But you in particular was my attention drawn. I think I was called "Smith cottage" with flowers on the lawn. Dame rector said "I was filled with ten school girls. He did not guess right, she did not go near him. There were twenty in number, but I think I know much they knew I could not be contained in one big shoe. Such a joyful set never again will see. Always on a promenade alone, by the open shore. And the concerts which they gave in the evening. Called forth many a listener, the music was so rare. On two alternate evenings, jaysons feasts were given to which all the make came, they were held. And such reports, sixteen courses, I think in all. I think I shall never see you again, only time itself will tell. Often some were out strolling with paper and pencil in hand. I wondered if they were letter writing, or only what they called the latest fashion. But he had called every teacher, to see if he could not help them. So I jumped at the conclusion, was letter writing without fail. Their friends, a host in number, often came to call, but occasionally found some departed even to slumber land. I think, generally speaking, they must have been entertaining and bright. For one dared to stay even until midnight. Now the names of these maidens were a sore puzzle to me. But I finally found that one signed herself H. H. T. I studied the list, and I think I know in all. And came to the conclusion it must be Tirrell or Thayer. So I interviewed a reporter from the south part of the town. And received in answer, the names of you all. Always on a promenade alone, by the open shore. But as to all that happened in that short week of your stay. It would take most a life's time to write out, and even make quite a play.

Weymouth Local. —There will be an important meeting at the hall of the Engine house, this Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock, in answer to a call by prominent citizens of this ward to oppose town division, which, it is believed, will be injurious to the town's welfare. —Last week the members of the choir connected with the Union Congregational church of Weymouth and Brantree, presented the choir-master, Mr. John H. Otterson, with a very handsome etching in appreciation of his services as music director. The choir is composed of about thirty young people and Mr. Otterson has given much time and attention to their proper training for Sunday services. —The Literary circle met last Tuesday evening with Mrs. Jennie B. Worster and although the evening was a stormy one there was an excellent attendance, twenty-five members being present. After the business of the evening was concluded the programme for the evening was entered upon, the first number being a paper on "Confederates" by Helen A. Gospe. Mrs. Fred Cook had an article on "The Jesuit Missions in California and Mexico," which was interesting and ten questions were asked. The compulsory education law was distributed to members at the previous meeting, were answered and proved a source of instruction. After an intermission the members continued the reading of "Twelfth Night" and at the conclusion a musical programme was given. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 22, at 7.30 o'clock. —The Ladies' Committee Improvement association held the date of their counting for the 11th, 12th, and 13th of February, and are working hard to make it a success. The entertainments are in rehearsal and will first class. Let all interested in the work feel that they each have some duty to perform. This work is each year left for a few to carry on, and the Ladies' Committee have been generous with money still without the annual fair would accomplish but little. —At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union National bank held Tuesday afternoon the following board of directors was elected: Francis Ambler, Geo. M., Howard Poole; S. W., Joseph Sampson; J. W., Elbert H. Treat; Treas., John M. Walsh; Secy., Allen Bowditch; Trustees, David J. Pierce, John E. Hunt and Joel F. Sheppard. —A notice has been heard from Dennis Carroll of West Quincy, who went suddenly insane while on a visit to his brother in this town ten days ago. Word has been received from the police in several of the adjoining towns that a man answering the description of Carroll had been seen in those towns, but on investigation in all the cases it was found that he was somebody else. There are a great many people who think he may have fallen or jumped into the river, as cries were heard in that direction on the evening of his disappearance, but a strict search in that vicinity failed to find any trace of anyone. —The new factory of Fred Cate on Richmond street is nearly ready for occupancy. Workmen are this week putting in a new engine and boiler and piping the building. The engine is 10-horse power and the boiler is 12-horse power. Mr. Cate expects to get into the new factory a week from Monday. He is at the present time rushing with orders and intends doing a very largely increased business when he gets into the new shop. They are at the present time turning out over 100 dozen wrappers per day. —The newly elected officers of Safety League, 122 West Quincy, in order of Installation, will be installed Tuesday, Jan. 22, by District Deputy A. M. Hamblett of Brockton and suite. —Sundays morning at Trinity church, Weymouth, Rev. William Hyde will preach on "The Visit of the Wise Men to the Star of Bethlehem." Has Reached Such a State of Perfection That it is a Veritable Encyclopedia of Facts, Statistics and Events Brought Down to January First, 1895.

THE 1895 volume is a whole library in itself. One can hardly think of a question it cannot answer. It tells all about party platforms, election statistics, the new tariff, regions of the earth, population every where, state and government statistics, occupations of men, foreign matters, literature, science and education. It is...

 The second and last week of the "Dragon's Daughter" begins Monday evening, Jan. 14. Boston takes leave of Daisy Louisa "Daughter" in a sumptuous manner in regard to costumes, properties, calculation, and scenic effects. The "Dragon's Daughter" was written and composed by the original scenic artist, and is an adaptation of the original scenic text. Mr. Parley is known as a very talented musician, having written many songs that have been widely popular. The cast, both from a lyrical and dramatic standpoint, has been carefully selected. It is the following named singers and actresses who have been engaged in the past made reputations for themselves in this city. They are Louise, Martha Black, Jennie, Edith, Margaret Conover, Jay Taylor, William Wally, Harry Brown, Harold, James, and others. All Our Organs are designed by Nature to fulfil some purpose. A wise man takes warning of danger when any of them acts irregularly. The Kidneys are small and obscure, but very important to health and happiness. Any derangement of the Urinary organs should at once receive attention; if not, a general disturbance of the system will follow. That will regulate the action of the Kidneys, and save these painful results, is shown beyond doubt by thousands of cases.

Dana's Sarsaparilla
 The Kind That Cures
 MR. ALFRED HOWARD of NEWBURYPORT, MASS., was a sufferer for some years with his Kidneys. He says he could get no relief until he used DANA'S. The disease had run along until his appetite and digestion were affected, and it needed a prompt and thorough remedy. He improved with the first bottle, and so quickly did DANA'S perform its task that after the third bottle he found his troubles CURED.
 See that you get DANA'S.

WATCH YOUR WATCH.

It is really one of the most wonderful achievements of human ingenuity. It doesn't take a large can of oil to lubricate it either. It just requires 1-10 of a drop of oil the entire watch for a year's service. But it has mighty good need of that 1-10 of a drop. Now don't let it go unrecared for until the delicate pivots are worn by dirt, and beg to be cleaned and oiled anew, but take it to every eighteen months for its rejuvenation.

The price? Not the lowest, but the least that good honest work affords. Maybe after a little experience you will conclude it is the cheapest in the end.

At the annual meeting of the South Weymouth Savings bank, the following officers were elected for the year 1905: Joseph Dyer, president; J. M. Whitcomb and A. B. Raymond, vice-presidents; Joseph Dyer, Thomas J. Nash, Josiah Martin, H. Wilbur Dyer, Almon B. Raymond, Francis H. Fearing, John M. Joy, Arthur C. Head, Prince H. Tirrell, James Moore, Alvin Hollis, Edwidge Nash, Ellis J. Picher, Gordon Willis, A. Elliot Vining, Almon B. Raymond, J. L. Wentworth, trustees; W. Hersey and J. M. Whitcomb, directors. The bank has a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $24,000. A dividend of 2 1/2 per cent was declared. Miss L. L. Whitman has been appointed assistant treasurer.

The annual installation of the officers of Wildley Lodge No. 21, I. O. O. F., will take place at the regular meeting of the lodge next Monday evening, 10 p. m. W. W. Hersey will do the work of installation. Supper will be served at 7:45 o'clock. Brothers are requested to bring cake and pie. It is hoped that all the members of the lodge will be present.

The preparations for the first annual subscription party of the Norfolk Cyclists club are completed and tonight will witness one of the grandest social events ever attempted in this town. The party will be held in the Opera house and the stage and private boxes will be decorated by the club. The program will consist of a grand display of flowers will be sent out. The program will consist of selections by the Madrigal quartette of the Boston Conservatory of Music; soprano and bass solos by members of the quartette; mandolin solos and readings; selections by the orchestra; and a concert and trombone solo. Mr. Chas. E. Hollis playing the cornet. The music for dancing will be furnished by Peter's orchestra of Boston, the best that can be secured. The floor will be in charge of the president of the club, Edward B. Nevin, aided by a large corps of assistants. Everything points to a grand success. If you are not there you will miss a good time.

The bowling committee at the Norfolk Cyclists club is busy at work making up the final matches. It is understood that there are to be eight teams. Suitable prizes will be offered to the winning team and for individual work. A schedule will be published in a few days.

Clarence Howe has recently had a tumor removed from his face. The operation was most successfully performed by Dr. Chase of East Weymouth. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Joy and Miss Minnie Joy will leave next Friday for Riverside, Cal. They go by the Southern Pacific route. Something a little outside of the regular routine of business took place at the regular monthly meeting of O. Cushing Hose 5 held last week Tuesday evening. When the evening Fred W. Lund, clerk and steward of the company, who was recently married, was presented with a handsome willow rocker, the gift of his brother members. In the absence of the foreman, the presentation speech was made by Daniel Hart, assistant foreman. The affair was a complete surprise.

Parties have been in town a number of times this week searching for Mrs. James Munroe, wife of James A. Munroe of Rockland, who left her home last Sunday morning and has not returned. A woman answering her description was seen wandering aimlessly about town, but as yet the search for her has been fruitless. Doubtless she is expressing as to her being alive at this time.

Miss Jennie Steiman of Randolph street, was taking a vacation in the asylum last week by Officer Geo. W. Conant. She has been out of health for sometime, and the doctor upon examining her pronounced her insane.

The question has been asked recently of our citizens "Why has there been no action taken by the State officers or the officers of Hingham in regard to the illegal shooting affray that occurred a short time ago?" An account of this affair was given in the Boston papers at the time and the State officer in this vicinity and the Hingham officers were notified. The State officer viewed the place where the shooting occurred and that is all we hear about it. Our local officers were at the scene immediately and Officer Allen possesses one of the bullets that was fired. They were powerless to act as the shooting occurred over the Hingham line. It was known at the time who the parties were and it is said by those who know that they could have been easily secured, but they were not and now the question is asked, why were they not? What is the good of having a state officer if he does not take action in such a case as this?

Our town was left in darkness last Tuesday evening. Did the electric lighting people think that the moon would appear early on that evening and we would not need the lights or was there something the matter with the wires and machinery? The new tax collector, M. E. Hawes, appointed to collect the unpaid taxes of 1904, was at the store of Gordon Willis, yesterday ascertaining who had paid and who had not.

The members of the Y. P. C. U., connected with the Universalist church held a "hostess" party in the vestry last Tuesday evening.

Miss Grace W. Joy takes part in a dramatic production in Norwell next Thursday evening.

The coal in the shed at the pumping station caught fire last Tuesday and it took about three hours, with a large stream of water, to extinguish it. The coal used in the Cumberland variety, and the cause of the fire was spontaneous combustion. When discovered, the fire was near the bottom of a large heap, which necessitated some shoveling before the water could be turned on, after which the nozzle was run into the middle of the remainder and the water turned on for three hours.

Considerable commotion has been heard recently in regard to the dog station at the Randolph street crossing of the N. Y. N. H. & H. railroad and the manner in which the dogmas has been attended to by the duties. It is claimed by some who know of the occurrence, that recently two trains passed in succession without the crossing being flagged. "And the flagman, who was on duty," he is known to have been in a condition which would not warrant his appearance at that time. Not alone, but in company with others, inside the little houses. Now it is dangerous to the safety of the public, and the officials of the road, who attend to such matters should inquire into this case and see that it does not occur again. Many lives have been lost by a flagman not attending to his duty.

Weymouth Centre.

The Centre is improving without a doubt. With the car houses completed by the electric railway companies and the cars running from different directions it will present a busy and civilized appearance. But there is still a chance for more improvements. We want a good dry goods store, a restaurant and a variety of other things.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cushing died early Wednesday morning of whooping cough.

George W. Tucker, formerly of this place, has entered Quincy University where he will pursue a course of study.

The Braintrust and Weymouth Street Cycle club will begin next Monday evening, teams 1 and 2 being the contestants. The schedule, in printed form, will appear in a few days.

In the billiard, pool and whist tournament, the games between the Norfolk Cyclists and Union Athletic clubs at Abington last Wednesday evening, one team won at billiards and whist both were drawn at pool. The next games will be played here, next Wednesday evening, between the local teams and those from the Whitman club.

COUNTY AND COURT MATTERS.
DORCHESTER, Mass., Jan. 16, 1905.—In the Norfolk Insolvency Court at Dedham to-day a receiver was appointed in the case of an adjourned third meeting was held and continued for a hearing before Judge Hartman.

The present session of the will of Robert Elmer Morrison, late of Braintree, Sarah R. Morrison, executrix, bond $38,000, was allowed.

The present account of Amos W. Stearns, as executor of the will of James P. Thorneike, late of Braintree, for $98,197.27, was allowed.

In the Norfolk Superior Civil Court at Dedham, before Judge Dunbar, a verdict for the defendant town was directed by the court in the case of Henry C. Gardner versus the town of Weymouth. The case had been tried once before. Gardner, the plaintiff asked $4000 damages from the town for personal injury. A plank bridge, called, extending over the gutter to the street proper, collapsed, throwing him from his seat and with force enough to fracture his hip.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane of the middle ear. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and tubular inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh of the middle ear. The Ladies Circle will meet next Tuesday evening, Jan. 22, with Mrs. Fred Cook, at her residence on Summer street. The notice in the paper last week read that the quotations would be something about the head and body of late and it was voted at the last meeting, that the quotations should be from the writings of Gen. Lewis Wallace.

The storm of Wednesday did not keep the ladies of the Cemetery Improvement association away from the regular meeting which was held with Mrs. M. C. Nash on Front street. The fair that they were working for is held at hand, and a special meeting will be held with Mrs. William Thayer on Broad street Wednesday, Jan. 23rd at 2:30 p. m. A full attendance is desired.

George C. Torrey of South Weymouth has purchased the Insurance Agency formerly conducted by J. B. Denbroeder and will extend to the patrons of the latter every attention that their interests may require.

The annual meeting of the Monksiguet Yacht club was held on Monday evening at the winter quarters in the savings bank building and there was a large attendance of the members. In the absence of Commodore, the president of the club, J. P. Sheppard presided. The reports of the secretary, treasurer and various committees were read and accepted. The treasurer's report showed the receipts to be $874, and the expenditures $400, leaving a balance of $474 in the treasury. The club debt has also been reduced $100 the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ryder of Newport, N. H., have been the guests of the family of Ezra F. Tirrell for two weeks.

Mrs. Lydia A. Bates is visiting friends in Duxbury and Kingston for two weeks.

An Italian family residing on Middle street kept a dog that is considered dangerous by passers-by. It has bitten several people and also damaged their clothing. A young lady was terribly frightened recently, as she was passing on the street near the house the animal ran at her barking and growling and bellowing like a dog. Such a dog should not be allowed to run at large.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Reis was cheered by the advent of a daughter, yesterday.

Democratic Town Committee.
The Democratic Town Committee met at the Town hall last Thursday evening and was presided over by H. A. Casarri, chairman, chairman; Truman R. Newell, vice-chairman, and Morris H. Grasey, secretary and treasurer.

North High Notes.
Fifteen members of the freshman class at the North High school were named alphabetically, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Abbott at their home on Richmond street, Tuesday evening. The event was a very successful one. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott proposes to entertain the remainder of the class at some future time.

At the last meeting of the foot ball team the record in the team's progress was considered satisfactory that the present captain and the manager, Joseph Manion and Harry Wortner, were unanimously re-elected.

The seniors held a class meeting Wednesday and discussed the subject of photographs of the members, which has been customary to have taken for some years past. It was voted to hold a class reunion this year and a committee of three was appointed by the chair to secure terms from the various photographers.
