

Partnership Contract

GLAM-Wiki PROJECT ECA-USP LIBRARY

The GLAM (Galleries, Libraries, Archives & Museums) Project is focused on the improvement of the covering of the content in the Wikimedia projects, from arts, culture and education related themes in partnership with educational or cultural institutions.

The Escola de Comunicações e Artes of the Universidade de São Paulo (ECA-USP), the ECA Library located at ECA-USP and the Wiki Movement Brazil (WMB) commemorate in this document a partnership in building the ECA-USP Library GLAM-Wiki Project.

As a member of the GLAM Projects in the lusophone Wikipedia, ECA Library, with the institutional support of ECA-USP, has the intention to develop and coordinate actions that contribute for the broadening of the free access to information in Communications and Arts, and furthermore be active in surplus activities related to the development and improvement of library practices in the Wiki universe.

The Wiki Movement Brazil association, an established and experienced group of users and supporters of the GLAM Projects, will take responsibility for the technical support of the tools and methodologies needed for the development of the activities.

IN AGREEMENT, this partnership is signed:

São Paulo, June 29th, 2020.

Eduardo Henrique
Soares Monteiro
Director of ECA-USP

Cecília Moraes Silva
Chief Technician of the Library and Documentation
Service - ECA-USP

João Alexandre Peschanski
President of Wiki
Movimento Brasil