NARRATIVE SUMMARY

UNCLASSIFIED

(S) The Battalion continued to support III MAF operations in the I Corps Tactical Zone with the collection, processing and reporting of Signal Intelligence. The six task organized platoons provided immediate tactical support to Regimental and Division Headquarters. Second echelon reporting was provided by the Battalion Operations Control Platoon to III MAF in Danang. Direct Support Teams (DST) were active in Operation Dewey Canyon which ended on 18 March and Operation Purple Martin from 21 to 30 March. Operation Taylor Common was supported by the First Platoon until 8 March when it was terminated.

(S) Transmission Security Monitoring in support of III MAF continued throughout the period with 194 violations noted in 118,920 messages that were monitored. Serious violations/compromises were spot reported direct to the unit involved. 860 man-hours were devoted to transmission security during this period. Lectures were presented by the Platoon Commanders as requested by the supported commander.

(S) Short Range Direction Finding was utilized with a total of 159 fixes resulting from the nets. The VHF Direction Finding netted a total of 69 fixes during the same month. The primary source of Direction Finding continued to be the airborne platforms of the Army and Air Force working in conjunction with 1st Radio Battalion platoons and Army units on the ground. As a result of these efforts, a total of 4,040 fixes were passed to tactical commanders.
