

DENSMORE, CAPT. E. S.
CALHOUN TIMES NOV, 17, 1892

Captain E. S. Densmore, chief door-keeper of the white house, died at Washington Sunday morning of Bright's disease. He was a faithful and valued officer and had an extensive acquaintance with public men. NOV 17, 1892