ESTIMATING TOTAL GERMAN PAYMENTS

French Attempt to Compute Amount of Reparations Experts' Plan Would Yield Some Say France Would Receive Less Than 21,000,000,000 Gold Marks

Paris, April 16.—Now that the first impressions of the reparation experts' reports have passed, the French people are beginning to figure what this country may expect to receive under the plan outlined.

Some profess to find that a settlement on the basis of the plan would give France total payments at present values of less than 21,000,000,000 gold marks. The opposition to Poincaré is taking up these figures and dwelling upon what is called "another annihilation of France's claims."

France, under the London schedule of payments, would receive 26,000,000,000 gold marks on the first two years of bonds, with a contingent interest in the balance of 80,000,000,000 marks.

NOT REDUCED
Premier Poincaré, in a campaign speech last night, said the experts had estimated Germany's capacity to pay for only a few years to come and had not diminished the amount which would be required to pay eventually.

The Figaro and the new radical organ Quotidien say machinery for collection of reparations is provided by the plan only during a period that, under the schedule of payments fixed by the experts, would yield about 40,000,000,000 marks. The cost of occupying the Rhineland must be deducted from it, so France's share would amount to considerably less than 20,000,000,000 marks if Germany paid all that the experts demand. These papers say:

NOTHING FOR DEBTS
The opposition says that at the present rate of reparations France is likely to receive a value of something like 60,000,000,000 marks. The experts' plan is what has already been done in construction and leaving nothing for pensions or the French debts to the United States and Great Britain.

READY TO NEGOTIATE
Paris, April 16.—The German note in reply to the Reparations Commission's invitation for German representatives to sit on the expert committee's report was handed to the commission at 5:55 o'clock this evening.

The German reply was declared by the German War Burden Commission to be an unconditional acceptance of the reparations plan as a basis for negotiations, looking to a final settlement of the reparations question.

APRIL BLIZZARD IN CENTRAL CANADA

Fifteen and a Half Inches of Snow in the Brandon Region

Telegraph Wires East and South of Winnipeg Broken; Streams Rise

Winnipeg, April 16.—Western Ontario, Manitoba and many districts in Southeastern Saskatchewan were to-day in the grip of one of the worst April blizzards experienced in recent years. Brandon reports a fifteen-inch fall of snow during the past forty-eight hours, while around the head of the Great Lakes heavy snow general last night and to-day. The blizzard, which later turned to sleet and is still continuing.

As a result of the storm Winnipeg was isolated from eastern Canada and the South, all telegraph wires going down under the weight of sleet and wet snow.

Weather reports received by railroad officials this morning indicated the storm east of Winnipeg was abating somewhat, with the temperatures generally above the freezing point.

RECORD BROKEN
Brandon, Man., April 16.—Fifteen and one-half inches of snow fell in this district during the last forty-eight hours. This was the heaviest snowfall recorded in April of any year and brings the total snowfall for the winter up to fifty-three inches. Last year up to a similar date the snowfall totalled fifty-nine and a half inches. High temperatures prevailed during the storm, which played havoc with country roads and delayed seeding for ten days or two weeks.

Sloughs in the country are running full and if the run-off from the present storm is rapid there will be some slight flooding in certain districts. There is also a possibility of a rise in the Assiniboine River as the ice has not yet broken up.

British Ministry Ready for Conference on Disarmament

London, April 16.—Premier MacDonald, replying to-day to a speech in the House of Commons by Major-General J. E. B. Seely, former President of the Air Council, who advocated that the Premier call an international conference for air disarmament, declared he would welcome an invitation by any other power to take up the whole question of armaments.

Since the Washington Armament Treaty was signed Great Britain has laid down but one submarine as compared, so far as is known here, with six light cruisers, seventeen destroyers and thirteen submarines by Japan. This information was given to a questioner in the House of Commons to-day by Charles Ammon, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty.

JAPANESE PREMIER EXPRESSES REGRET CONGRESS OF THE U.S. HAS DECLARED FOR EXCLUSION

Tokio, April 16.—Premier Kiyouira, in a statement to United States newspaper correspondents to-day, expressed deep regret "that the Congress of the United States has seen fit to deal with us Japanese so drastically."

Washington, April 16.—By a vote of seventy-one to four the Senate to-day reaffirmed its approval of the Japanese exclusion provision in the Immigration Bill.

The action was taken merely as a formality. Yesterday's Senate action was without a record vote and some Senators desired to have their positions formally recorded by a roll call.

Chamber of Commerce Ballots Must Be Returned To-night
Primary ballots sent out to Chamber of Commerce members to name ten directors to be elected must be returned by 6 o'clock to-night. Twenty names will be selected from those nominated and further ballots will then be sent out on which the final vote will be taken.

TO BE READY FOR SUMMER TRAVEL
C.P.R. Marine Building Expected to be in Service
So satisfactory has been the progress on the Marine Building for the B. C. Coast Service of the Canadian Pacific Railway that it is expected to turn the building over from the contractors to the company by July 1, in time for the Summer traffic.

This announcement was made to-day by C. E. Stockhill, assistant to the vice-president of the C.P.R. for western lines, after an inspection of the building by the Capt. J. W. Troup, manager of the Coast Service.

SUMMER TRAVEL
Mr. Stockhill arrived in the city this morning to spend a few hours before leaving for Winnipeg to reach home in time for Easter. He said the contractors promised possession of the whole building by the beginning of July, but at any rate the ground floor section would be ready for the convenience of Summer travel.

A large movement of persons to western Canada from the United States is forecasted by agents of the Canadian Pacific Railway. According to estimates made when the executive officers of the company met recently in Quebec City, the number being larger than is usually the case at this period of the year. Mr. Stockhill, in referring to this situation, indicated that the bookings for the mountain resorts are also very satisfactory.

The company is laying plans in connection with its tourists for a long time ahead, and in this connection he mentioned the good progress made on the vessels building for the Coast service in the Old Country, which, barring industrial disputes, would be ready for the 1925 season, and also the decision to continue the Bellingham Ferry from Sidney, a service which will open on regular schedule on May 20.

Mr. Stockhill talked with various officials of the company during his visit, including H. E. Healey, general superintendent of the Esquimalt and Bellingham Ferry.

He has been on the coast for a few days in connection with a periodical inspection.

WINS PRIZE
Quebec, April 16.—Arthur Cormier, twenty-two years of age, of Cosaguette, N.B., a first-year medical student at Laval University, has been awarded a special bibliography jury prize by a special committee of the University. He has won the prize awarded by a special bibliography jury representing some twenty countries, sitting in Paris.

TESTIFIED AT ONTARIO INQUIRY; T. W. MCGARRY

The Ontario finance inquiry is still in progress. Mr. McGarry, one of the witnesses to-day, was Provincial Treasurer in the Hebert Government.

BRITISH LIBERALS DEBATE ATTITUDE TOWARD LABOR

Hostile Acts of Followers of MacDonald Cause M.P.'s to Consult Constituents

London, April 16.—The complaints which have been frequently heard of late among the Liberals of deliberate hostilities by the Laborites both in the House of Commons and their constituencies—crystallized yesterday at a private meeting of the Liberal Party.

Former Premier Lloyd George is reported to have voiced resentment at the alleged Labor antagonism which, he said, had been repeatedly evidenced by contempt toward the Liberals in the Commons and in attacks throughout the country. Former Premier Asquith, leader of the party, who presided, is understood to have endorsed Lloyd George's criticisms, which were also reiterated by many other members. It was decided that the Easter vacation should be used by the members of the party to consult their constituents with regard to the Labor attitude, to the end that notes might be compiled on the re-assembling of Parliament.

The feeling of the Liberals in this matter is generally one of grievance, their attitude being that their party put the Laborites in power and, as a result, they have been subjected to a treatment, the "ingratitude" of the Laborites, therefore, rankles.

MAY BE A DIVISION
Some of the political writers say as a result of the ill-feeling may be a split in the Liberal Party, as those who are determined not to continue "playing the Socialist game" are considering the formation of a new political group and the throwing of their weight against the Government in the Commons with the idea of forcing the Government out.

COURTNEY INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON

Witnesses Will Tell of Shooting and Killing of S. Teed and Mrs. Corbett

Ten Witnesses Heard Last Night; Alfred Corbett Hinted He Was Threatened

Courtenay, B.C., April 16.—With the evidence of ten witnesses already on record, the inquest on the bodies of Spence Teed and Mrs. Alfred Corbett, shot to death in the Corbett restaurant here last Sunday afternoon, will be resumed at 2.30 this afternoon, to which hour it was adjourned by Coroner Butters after a hearing last night which lasted from 7.30 till 10.15 o'clock. (Continued on page 2.)

Gunn Leads New Labor Cabinet in South Australia

Adelaide, Australia, April 16 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).—Following the resignation on Saturday of the Ministry of Sir P. N. Barwell, a new Ministry has been formed in South Australia by Leader Gunn of the Labor Party, which, as a result of the recent election, controls twenty-six of the forty-six seats.

Mr. Gunn becomes Premier and also will for the present perform the duties of Treasurer and Minister of Irrigation and Repatriation.

Man Who Took Part in Queenstown Murders in Custody

Dublin, April 16.—Patrick Connan, twenty-five, of Tipperary, surrendered to civil guards at Drogheda last night, declaring he was implicated in the shooting of the British soldiers at Queenstown on March 21. Connan later was brought to Dublin and it is stated the police have obtained some important clues from him.

GENERAL ELECTION IN GERMANY IS REPORTED PUT OFF TILL DAY OF POLLING IN FRANCE, MAY 11

London, April 16.—It is reported the German Government has postponed the Reichstag elections from May 4 to May 11, says a Reuter dispatch from Berlin to-day.

The reported change, according to the message, is on the ground that as the elections are expected to result in a swing toward the Conservative side, it is desirable the French elections should not be influenced by any such movement, as they would be if the elections were held on the date originally fixed.

The French elections are set for May 11.

Death Sentences For Wreckers of Banks Are Urged

London, Ont., April 16.—J. Donohue, a local lawyer, has written the Minister of Justice asking that the category of offences be drastically amended to permit capital punishment for bank wreckers.

"By what mental gymnastics can the offence of bank wrecking be glorified so as not to come within the category of offences punishable with death?" he asks. "Have there not been suicides, premature deaths and families made destitute as a result of these failures?"

Anatole France Is Eighty To-day

Tours, France, April 16.—Anatole France, dean of French men of letters and prince of prose stylists, celebrated his eightieth birthday by working just as hard as usual to-day.

Telegrams and letters of congratulation poured into the author's country home from all quarters of the globe.

Candidate Named By Conservatives Of Omineca Area

Police—Rupert, April 16.—S. Coker, a farmer of Vanderhoof, has been nominated by a Conservative convention held at Burns Lake to carry the Conservative banner in the Omineca riding in the coming provincial general election. Mr. Coker will oppose Attorney-General A. M. Manson.

EVIDENCE AT THE HOME BANK INQUIRY SHOWS THE WESTERN DIRECTORS VOICED PROTESTS

Ottawa, April 15 (Canadian Press).—Documentary evidence showing that the three western directors of the Home Bank in 1916, Hon. T. A. Crerar, John Kennedy and John Perse, protested repeatedly against certain transactions of the bank, was presented at the opening sitting of the Home Bank Royal Commission here this morning.

Correspondence which passed between the western directors and the general manager and certain of the eastern directors was read by B. J. Roberts, secretary of the Finance Department, from the departmental files. This showed that during the latter part of 1915 and 1916 the western directors were much exercised over some of the bank's transactions. They even went so far as to state they might bring a motion for an injunction against the Minister of Finance in regard to the condition of the bank.

A large part of the correspondence developed over a loan to the Prudential Trust Company, Montreal, which the western directors evidently regarded with a great deal of suspicion. The western men asked repeatedly for information regarding this loan.

DEMANDED EXPLANATION
"When it developed that the loan was to the New Orleans and Southern Railway and not to the Prudential Trust Company, Mr. Crerar, in a letter to the general manager of the bank, expressed the surprise of

WARSHIP SAVES MISSING U.S. AIRMAN AND BRITISH PLANE REACHES ATHENS

Major Martin and Sergt. Harvey Picked Up in Portage Bay, Alaska Peninsula, by Destroyer; Other Three U.S. Planes at Chignik; Stuart MacLaren Piloted British World Plane Successfully From Corfu to Athens

Bremerton, Wash., April 16.—The destroyer Hull rescued Major Frederick L. Martin and Sergeant Alva Harvey in Portage Bay at 11.34 this morning, according to a wireless report received here from the Hull.

Their aeroplane, one of the four United States army planes engaged in a flight around the world, was forced down yesterday at Portage Bay while on the way from Seward to Chignik. The other three planes reached Chignik, which is 120 miles west of Portage Bay.

SCENE OF EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE

Thousands of People Are Expected to Attend Unique Ceremony at Daybreak

Event Will be Photographed By Big Film Companies

Those in charge of arrangements for the Easter Sunrise service on Mount Tolmie scheduled for Sunday confidently expect from four to eight thousand people to attend if the weather is propitious. A platform has been erected by the Victoria-Saanich Parks Committee which will be used for the service.

SHRINE BAND
The Gizeh Temple Shrine Band will lead the music, together with a large vested choir. A large electric amplifier will be erected on Saturday evening by Vancouver and Victoria experts. It is estimated that no matter how immense the crowd everyone will be able to hear perfectly.

Eight thousand souvenir-booklet programmes of eight pages will be distributed to the pilgrims and the printed programme will include the Easter responsive reading, the Gloria Patri, the Apostles Creed and other ritualistic features. Those in charge of the service have been careful to keep from the service anything that will offend the tastes of any sect or religious order. The whole tone of the service will meet the universal taste of most Christian people. Portions of the service to be recited by the people will be in black type in the programmes.

The Saanich Council has been preparing the road up the mount so that automobiles may be driven up and over the summit with passengers. A large cross has been made which will be erected, and will face the sun so that a dazzling effect will be produced. This will be staged at the highest point on the mount which is at the back of the platform. The crowd will gather in front of the cross.

Pilgrims to the Mount will receive a souvenir programme on ascending the mount. Sixty ushers will distribute these.

Major Martin and Sergt. Harvey Picked Up in Portage Bay, Alaska Peninsula, by Destroyer; Other Three U.S. Planes at Chignik; Stuart MacLaren Piloted British World Plane Successfully From Corfu to Athens

Bremerton, Wash., April 16.—The destroyer Hull rescued Major Frederick L. Martin and Sergeant Alva Harvey in Portage Bay at 11.34 this morning, according to a wireless report received here from the Hull.

Their aeroplane, one of the four United States army planes engaged in a flight around the world, was forced down yesterday at Portage Bay while on the way from Seward to Chignik. The other three planes reached Chignik, which is 120 miles west of Portage Bay.

A dispatch from Chignik said the three aviators who arrived there had fought their way through snow squalls and high winds from Seward, 450 miles to the east. The men showed every sign of fatigue, but when no report had been received by 9 o'clock from the commander of the expedition, Major Frederick L. Martin, of whom they lost sight near Kialagvik Bay, in the Alaska Peninsula 120 miles east of here, they set to work on their machines in order to return in search of him.

BRITISH WORLD AEROPLANE TO-DAY REACHED ATHENS

Athens, April 16.—A Stuart MacLaren and his two companions of the British round-the-world party, who were forced to descend near Corfu March 31 by a defective engine, resumed their flight to-day and landed at the Phaleron aerodrome here this afternoon. A new motor for the aeroplane was sent from England to Corfu.

Pacific Lighterage Company Employees in Auto Were Robbed To-day

Seattle, April 16.—Four bandits in an automobile stopped another machine carrying Earl Adde, paymaster, and Thos. Waldal, accountant of the Pacific Lighterage Company, here to-day and escaped with $5,500, payroll funds.

Shortly before the holdup the police received a call from a woman saying a druggist in another neighborhood had been robbed. Police reserves hurried to the druggist, but found no trouble there. Chief William M. Severns stated the call undoubtedly was a decoy. He expressed the opinion that the robbers were the same believed to have been led by a woman, who held up the Citizens' Bank in Anacortes Monday and escaped with $15,000.

ONTARIO EXTENDS ITS WORK FOR BOYS

E. W. Beatty Tells Meeting in Toronto About Shawbridge Farm in Quebec

Better Opportunity in Life For Under-Privileged Boys is the Purpose

Toronto, April 15.—About 700 members of various social service clubs of this city and Hamilton were present at a luncheon given by the Ontario Provincial Government at the King Edward Hotel here yesterday. The gathering was arranged for the purpose of furthering the proposed home for under-privileged boys which the Provincial Government proposes to establish near Bowmanville and the guest and chief speaker was E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who came from Montreal to tell of the work which has been done at the Shawbridge Boys' Home, which is the president and one of the most active supporters.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Premier of Ontario, presided, which he outlined the work it was proposed to undertake. He said that the problem of the under-privileged boy was at the foot of account has been connected with social welfare and that in solving it the Government would be laying the basis of the future progress of the province.

Mr. Ferguson stated the Government was prepared to back the work to the limit.

Judge Mott of the Juvenile Court also told of the work done at Shawbridge, in Quebec.

BEATTY'S REMARKS

"Up to now in Canada," said Mr. Beatty, "the problem of the under-privileged boy has been largely a question relating to the cities and little or no account has been taken of those numerous cases developed in outlying smaller districts where there is not the same opportunity for development as in the cities. The opportunity for impairment of the fibre, both mental and physical, through force of environment, intermarriage and other causes. In the cities the situation comes home to a greater number of people because of delinquencies which call for judicial or parental action.

"The system of helping under-privileged boys which has been established in Quebec is the outcropping of individual effort combined with Government support.

A MODERATE START

"Some years ago a few well-disposed citizens of Shawbridge, Quebec, secured a moderate grant from the Government and the farm being ideally located, they were able, with public support, to carry on in a moderate way at the start, and later with more Government support. Hand farms which assist the individual, to extend the scope of the work to such an extent that it has now reached substantial proportions. It is a provincial institution to the extent that it takes care of boys committed by the Juvenile Court for minor or serious offences. It is a private institution to the extent that it receives the bulk of its financial assistance from individuals and companies. It is a training school, an educational institution, a farm and a hospital. It is administered by a board of directors comprising fifteen of the best known business and professional men in Montreal. The work of the board is divided between committees—administrative, farm operations and follow-up work. The farm is presided over by one of the best experts in America. The purpose of the business board is to obtain public confidence, public support and to give the requisite supervision to the farm and school. This has been found to work successfully and it prevents anything in the nature of the farm or school entering into the work of the farm, which is so common in institutions scattered about the country.

WORK OF CORRECTION

"The most important branch of the technical side of the work undoubtedly is character study, research and criminological data obtained by the observation of experts of the development of the individual boy and the putting into effect of measures designed to correct individual delinquency. This is done on a scientific basis to a degree and in which there has been great development in recent years.

"The second important part of the work is the following up of each boy after his discharge from the institution and we first take his place in the world with the ambition to justify himself as a good citizen. In this respect the big brother movement, the Kiwanians and the Rotarians are giving great assistance in Montreal.

BUSINESS MEN'S AID

"If I might offer a suggestion," concluded Mr. Beatty, "it would be that the Government should call for and receive the assistance of men in business life who should bring to bear upon the administration the results of their wide business experience and give also by their occasional presence at the farm the inspiration and personal contact, which I am convinced is one of the most powerful influences in the development of any boy's character."

CUT FEWER LOGS

Vancouver, April 15.—The British Columbia Logging Association decided at a meeting here to curtail production by one-third, it was announced to-day. This policy was adopted because of the decrease in Japanese orders.

Laura Bossie GRANTED DIVORCE

Vancouver, April 15.—A divorce granted Harvey Bossie of Victoria in 1915 in Washington state was obtained by misrepresentation, stated Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald, who yesterday, upon the petition of the wife, Laura Bossie, granted her an absolute decree dissolving a marriage solemnized here December 18, 1911.

SEARCH IS MADE FOR BANDITS ON WHIDBY ISLAND

Citizens' Bank in Anacortes Robbed of Between $18,000 and $23,000

Police Say Band of Thugs Was Directed by a Woman

Anacortes, Wash., April 15.—Search for three bandits who on Monday robbed the Citizens' Bank here of $18,000 to $23,000 in a spectacular holdup turned to-day to Whidby Island, a large one separated by a narrow channel from Pidalgo Island, on which Anacortes is situated.

Officials engaged in the hunt said the robbers apparently were directed by a woman. A woman of medium height dressed as for a long tramp was seen before the holdup talking to three men in a restaurant at Mount Vernon, seventeen miles east of here, and on the mainland. The holdup band was believed to have spent Sunday night in a hotel at Mount Vernon.

The men noticed in Mount Vernon carried a heavy bag and Sunday night spent much time in close conference.

Premier Asks Commons to Extend Easter Holiday by Two Days

Ottawa, April 16 (Canadian Press)—If the House of Commons approves, the Easter adjournment will be extended two days. Instead of re-assembling next Tuesday, as originally intended, the House will meet a week from to-morrow. Premier King gave notice last evening that he would move that the period of the adjournment be extended. He referred to the fact that the Progressives' members had been invited by the Governments of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia to visit the Maritime Provinces and that it would be difficult for them to get back to the capital by Tuesday.

The Government would also welcome the extension, he said.

SPEEDING UP

A speeding-up of work for the session is indicated in a motion by the Premier to give Government business precedence on Wednesdays after next week. Wednesday is now the only private members' day of the week. If the motion carries, Government business will have precedence on all days.

QUAKES RECORDED IN OLD COUNTRY

Centre Put at From 600 to 8,000 Miles From British Isles

London, April 15.—While the seismographs at Eskdalemuir, Scotland, have been on the jump during the last week recording several tremors and quakes, mostly of a minor nature, at distances estimated from 600 to 8,000 miles, the British Isles themselves have remained unshaken.

The Government meteorological department said to-day there was no record on the seismographs of any earth disturbances in Great Britain during the past few days and there were no indications such as usually appear prior to local tremors that anything but peace and quiet below the surface will be experienced in these parts in the near future. Their statement was prompted by queries from abroad based on reports that there had been a pronounced recurrence of the tremors of early April experienced in spots in northern and eastern England.

As far as the more distant disturbances are concerned, the authorities say the activity shown by the instruments is exceptional as compared with the records shown for the last ten years.

ACCESSORIES for the Easter Costume

Among the smart accessories to wear with the new Spring costumes are Gay Silk Scarfs, Bright colored Hankies, Under-the-Arm Bags, Tom Thumb Umbrellas and Smart Neckwear. All these will be found in our extensive displays of new accessories.

GLOVES Easter time is Glove time and you will find all the latest Glove modes in silk fabric and kid on display in our Glove Section. In such well-known makes as Trefousse, Dent's, Perrin's, Kayser etc. Buy your Easter Gloves at Campbell's.

SILK HOSIERY You will find all the fashionable shades in fine silk Hosiery to match your shoes in the Hosiery Section—and at just the prices you want to pay. Choose from these well known lines. Kayser Holeproof, Venus, Luxite, Crown Brand, etc.

NECKWEAR The new Suit Costume gives precedence to many new neckwear fashions such as Lacy Cascades and Vests, Peter Pan Sets, Lace Collar and Cuff Sets, etc. Our showing features the latest neckwear novelties and we invite you to inspect them.

SEE THE NEW TOM THUMB UMBRELLAS Little wonder that women want to carry these new Umbrellas, rain or shine. They are so lovely; in black, navy, brown, purple, grey and tan, with decorative handles and tips. $4.25 to $11.50

A Remarkable Showing of Easter Fashions

Coats, Suits and Frocks Essential garments for Easter and the days to follow are the Coat, the Suit and the Street-Frocks. The Coat must be swagger; the Suit boyish tailored and the Frock very chic. Your clothes must express your personality not by color, but because of certain distinction of style. Campbell's apparel is fashioned with just that thought in mind—correct in style and reasonable in price.

Special for Easter Week!
New Spring Suits of All-Wool Tricotine
To Sell at $35.00, $39.00 and $45.00

Featuring this week a very special showing of Women's and Misses' New Spring Suits of all wool tricotine in tailored and semi-tailored styles. Presenting very unusual values at $35.00, $39.00 and $45.00. There are many smart styles to select from in navy, sand, bark, etc.

These suits are perfectly tailored. The Coats are lined with good wearing silks and you will agree that these smart Suits are really splendid value at these popular prices.

National lines. Except for one day last year, when the harvesters were on the road, yesterday's arrivals constitute a record for immigrant arrivals at one station as far as the West is concerned. In fact old-timers present at the station said they could not remember such a number arriving at one station in two special trains on the same day.

The major part of the new settlers consisted of central Europeans, not more than eight per cent of the whole being British.

FARM CREDIT PLAN SUGGESTED

Ottawa, April 16 (Canadian Press)—Organization of agricultural credits for short terms and long terms to permit the financing of Canadian farmers is recommended in a report on agricultural credits submitted to the Minister of Finance by Dr. H. M. Tory and tabled in the House of Commons.

Dr. Tory, who is President of the University of Alberta, was appointed some time ago by the Federal Government to make a study of agricultural credits.

Dr. Tory does not specially recommend a government system of credits, but says that if some central organization can not be created as it has been in some states of the Union, then perhaps Government organization may be necessary.

Ottawa, April 16.—There was a family gathering of the Government supporters in Parliament yesterday to discuss the budget. The announcement of policy made by the Acting Minister of Finance is understood to have been received enthusiastically by the great mass of the members, but it is reported there may be few who will not support the changes.

The main subject on which discussion is expected is the reduction

MINISTERS SUPPORT BIBLE READING

Nanaimo, April 15.—The following resolution was passed by the local Ministerial Association on Monday:

Resolved, that the Ministerial Association of Nanaimo go on record as favoring the introduction of Bible reading in the public and high schools, such reading to be selected by a committee appointed by the Department of Education and representatives of all religious bodies of British Columbia.

"And be it further resolved that these readings be taken without comment or explanation by the teacher."

MORE UNITY

THE movement sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce to ensure more unity between Victoria and the neighboring municipalities in dealing with matters of common interest has had a good start.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

CONSERVATIVES in the House of Commons are displaying an unwonted zeal for economy these days. Not having to do the cutting themselves they are keen to have somebody else do it.

It may surprise our readers to learn that the largest increases in the public debt were made after the war by the gentlemen who have now become such zealous advocates of retrenchment.

ADVERTISING CANADA'S OPPORTUNITIES

WESTERN CANADA will not be harmed in any way as a result of the figures which the United States tariff commission used in order to get the American import duty on wheat raised from thirty cents to forty-two cents a bushel.

The Commission after gathering evidence throughout the West reported that it costs forty-two cents a bushel less to raise wheat in Western Canada than in United States, and that it costs $1.04 less to produce one hundred pounds of flour in Canada than in United States.

YOUTH, CRIME, ENVIRONMENT

IN passing the sentence of death on four young men in Brooklyn the other day, the presiding judge of the supreme court uttered words that carry an appeal to men and women in communities far and near.

More than eighty per cent. of criminals are less than twenty-five years of age.

If the people of this city ask why so many youths become criminals I can tell them. Youthful offenders have committed crimes because they had bad associates and were not under the proper influences in the years when their boyhood was turning into manhood.

This condition is a challenge first to the home, then to the church, the school and through the various institutional agencies to the manhood of each community.

German emigration is increasing fast. In 1919 the total of emigrants was only 3,000. In 1922 it was 27,000 and last year it jumped to 120,000.

WATCH BRITISH COLUMBIA

REASONS that Roger Babson, the business statistician of Boston, gives why his American financial clients should "watch British Columbia," are important to British Columbians in forming their opinions as to the immediate outlook in this Province.

Mr. Babson in his latest analysis points out that the chart of business in Canada to-day shows activity at five per cent. below normal, while business in the United States is at three per cent. above normal.

"Western Canada," he says, "has been the slowest to recover from the post-war slump. But for the first time in four years business is now looking up in this great empire."

He finds agricultural conditions here good, mining more active, and fishing satisfactory. Building operations throughout the West have been above the average, with a preponderance of contracts in British Columbia.

Of the Western part of the Prairies, with their record wheat crop of the last season, he reports that improved conditions have resulted in a quickening of retail trade, a strengthening of the banking situation and a better feeling generally.

"It seems almost ridiculous to treat these great provinces with only a few words of comment," he adds. "But they are so vast that their very greatness causes one to hesitate in making forecasts."

HIGHWAY BILLBOARDS' DOOM

BECAUSE British Columbia boasts of the beauty of the scenery of an untamed nature along its tourist highways—scenery such as is to be found only in few parts of the continent so readily accessible—is all the more reason why there should be endorsement for the campaign of the Automobile Club of B.C. for removal of billboards and other advertising signs which now disfigure most of the main roads.

Headed by the Standard Oil Company, fifteen of the largest national advertisers in the United States, have announced that they are abolishing billboard publicity. They find much of it poor business as it tends to offend lovers of natural scenic beauty.

Not only should their example be followed in British Columbia, but there is need here of a clean-up of old signs which have become dilapidated and more marred than ever to the scenery. They seem to greet one at almost every turn in the road.

There are Halls of Fame for public men, but some places are beginning to feel the need of a Hall of Infamy.

The cast is getting so heavy with villains in that Ontario inquiry that the public would like a little comic relief.

Motor car manufacturers seem determined to find the saturation point in the public's buying capacity, which has been eluding the makers year after year since the war.

The world has become nearly numbed with catastrophes during the last decade, but it can still remember the shock it experienced in the happy pre-war days twelve years ago last night, when the news was flashed of the sinking of the Titanic with the death of 1,500 persons and only 705 saved.

Doctor Frank Crane on "The Tyranny of Youth"

THIS overestimate of youth is a phrase of the past.

Youth is the time of enthusiasms, bright hopes and hot desires. The tendency of the immature mind is to consider these things the best part of existence.

If we are fortunate enough to acquire wisdom as we grow older we find that contentment does not lodge in these things, but is a prize to be gained by the normal use of our will, our intelligence and our skill in self-mastery.

The sentiment which crops out so often in poetry and in novels that the joy of life's morning is all that's worth while is closely akin to cynicism.

For it leads to cynicism and to despair when the early period is once past.

The impression you get from the average novel is that the interesting part of life is over when the young people are married and done for.

As a matter of fact, the best part of life ought to be after fifty.

We begin life as young animals. We ought to wind it up as great spirits. And age is better than youth, precisely as the life of the spirit is better than the life of the flesh; precisely as an intelligent human being ought to be happier than an unthinking animal.

An item in the paper some time ago stated that Jackie Coogan, the eight-year-old star of the cinema who appeared with Charlie Chaplin in "The Kid," for fifty thousand dollars a year, hopes to retire at the age of fifteen.

This is the logical conclusion of that silly worship of youth and all things young that characterizes America.

The average American family is dominated by the children.

This is bad for them and for everybody else. It makes them intolerant, selfish and disagreeable. And it reduces their parent to a state of peonage.

It is not a choice between whether one shall be happy when he is old or when he is young; it is rather an intelligent taking up of the problem how so to govern the pleasures of all our days with temperance as to make one's whole life worth while.

Cartiers Third Voyage

HE Just Escapes Having Sieur de Roberval Inflicted on Him as Chief; But Roberval Is Delayed and Turns Pirate on French and English Ships

IN October, 1640, Jacques Cartier, master mariner of St. Malo in France, discoverer and explorer of the St. Lawrence, was by the King of France, Louis XIII., commissioned to further explore the lands which he had opened up, and there to found a colony.

Roberval was commissioned in high-flown language as "Lord of Norembega, Viceroy and Lieutenant-General in Canada, Hochelaga, Saguenay, Newfoundland, Belle Isle, Capruat, Labrador, the Great Bay and Baccalaos."

CARTIER had his ships all complete and waiting in the harbor at St. Malo by the first of May. There was lacking only the armament and ammunition which it was Roberval's part to supply.

Meanwhile, Roberval, who was to have followed his lieutenant swiftly, was unable or unwilling to complete his preparations at all that summer.

At last, on April 16, 1642, the wayward and undependable Roberval did set sail with three ships which carried two hundred colonists including both sexes.

HOME WEDDING WAS PRETTY CEREMONY

Nuptials Last Night of Miss Katie Boorman and Mr. L. Gosse

A very pretty wedding took place last night at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. E. Whittaker, Balmoral Road, when the Rev. Dr. Campbell united in marriage Katie Evelyn Boorman, only daughter of the late Mr. W. W. Boorman and of Mrs. A. E. Whittaker, Balmoral Road, and Mr. Lewis Gosse, third son of Captain and Mrs. J. Gosse, 225 Belleville St. The ceremony was performed in the drawing-room under an arch of greenery from which was suspended a large floral bell, white potted plants and cut flowers were artistically arranged throughout the room. The bride, who was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. A. E. Whittaker, looked charming in a gown of powder blue Canton crepe, simply fashioned and embroidered with blue steel beads and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in her coiffure. Her only attendant was Miss Mildred Russell, who looked fascinating in a lawn Canton crepe costume. The groom was supported by Miss Dorothy Morton, who also played the Wedding March as the bridal party entered the drawing-room.

A delicious buffet supper was served in the dining-room, which for the occasion was in a color scheme of blue and gold. Streamers in these shades formed a canopy over the table, which was covered with a three-tier wedding cake, surrounded by bowls of daffodils and blue candles in bronze sconces.

The following friends of the bride assisted in serving: The Misses J. Homans, Edith Parsell, Marguerita Hicks, Alice Fidler, Della Fair, Evelyn Macdonald, Dorothy and Gertrude Gosse, Quida Beacham and Florence Russell.
Among the many beautiful wedding gifts was a set of flat Community silver, presented by the members of the commercial staff of the B.C. Telephone Company of which the bride has been a member for a number of years, and a set of aluminum ware from the employees of the Union Oil Company, with which company the groom is associated.
On their return from the honeymoon, which is to be spent in Vancouver and the Sound cities, Mr. and Mrs. Gosse will reside in Cowper Apartments, Menzies Street. Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beacham and daughter of Chemainus, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Dougan of Cobble Hill, Captain and Mrs. T. S. Gunn of Vancouver, Captain and Mrs. J. Gosse of Vancouver, Dr. and Mrs. Homer Alexander of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Strang of Vancouver, Captain and Mrs. J. F. Gosse of Colwood, Mrs. A. D. Looze of Seattle, Mr. R. Sparks of Vancouver and Mr. R. Gosse and daughter of Rossland.

The West End W.C.T.U. will hold its monthly business meeting on Thursday, April 17 at 2:30 p.m. in Wesley Church parlour.
Spring Carnival and Dance—At its meeting last evening the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E. made arrangements for its Spring carnival and dance to be held at the Armories on May 2 in aid of its milk fund. The chapter gratefully received a cheque of $60 from Mrs. O. M. Jones towards the milk fund. Mrs. J. Gosse gave an interesting resume of the annual meeting of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E.

AMPUTATION CLUB'S TAG DAY SATURDAY

Taggers who are assisting on corners early on Saturday morning may secure their boxes on Thursday afternoon between 3:30 and 5 o'clock at the headquarters, Melrose Company, Fort Street, or at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning. The appeal for funds is being made on behalf of the Amputation Association, whose membership consists solely of men who have lost a limb or limbs in the Great War. The I.O.D.E. is convening the tag day and the entire proceeds will be used for the benefit of the men who are in straitened circumstances through lack of steady employment and also for the maintenance of club rooms which have provided a central meeting place for these comrades in affliction.

luncheon at the Criterion Restaurant, when distinguished speakers give addresses.

Victorians will be interested to learn of the success of a young Canadian artist, Mr. Robin Watt, M.C. formerly of this city, who has just had a portrait accepted for this year's Salon. Mr. Watt has had a studio in Paris all winter, and has executed a number of commissions there, many of them portraits of children in sanguine. Several of these were shown at the annual exhibition of the Club Winter Exhibition, and were commented upon very favorably by the Paris press. The Salon picture is a pasty of a negro chef in one of the famous Latin quarter cabarets. Mr. Watt's friend are naturally pleased, as this is the first time that he has sent anything to the Salon, and he completed only last June his three years at the Slade School of Fine Arts in London. It will be remembered that Mr. Watt was mentioned four times in the war, was mentioned in dispatches, won the Military Cross and Bar, and was for a time A.D.C. (General) Sir Arthur Currie. It was not until he resigned from his regiment, the Green Howards, in 1920, that he began to study art.

Mr. Wilfred Gibson has sold his Summer cottage at Langford Lake to Mrs. Currie of Victoria.

SOCIAL FEATURES AT W.I. CONVENTION

Women's Institute Annual Gathering Changed to April 22, 23 and 24

In order that the rural women may have an opportunity of hearing Dr. John Adams of England and other outstanding speakers who will be in Vancouver in connection with the B.C. Teachers' Federation convention, the date of the annual convention of the Women's Institutes in the mainland city has been changed to April 22, 23 and 24. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Provincial Normal School.

Numerous social functions have been arranged in connection with the convention to provide diversions from the more serious matters on the agenda. As evidence of the attention which is being paid by Vancouver to this gathering of rural women is the luncheon which the Mayor and City Council will tender to the Institute delegates in the new pavilion in Stanley Park on Tuesday. After the luncheon the delegates will be conveyed in cars by the Kiwanis Club to the curb market, then on to Kerrisdale to inspect the site for the proposed Women's Institute (Orthopaedic Hospital for crippled children of British Columbia. From this point the delegates will be driven out to Point Grey to inspect the new University buildings.

Wednesday's programme includes a luncheon at the Vancouver Hotel where the delegates will be the guests of the B.C. Products Bureau. On the same evening there will be a joint banquet with the Parent-Teachers' Federation delegates. On Thursday the delegates will be the guests of the British Columbia Institute of the University of British Columbia. On Friday the delegates will be the guests of the Victoria University of the Arts and Sciences.

Harold Nelson Shaw and Mrs. H. McGregor of Penikese.

Some interesting sidelights on the customs of the Blackfeet Indians were shown to the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon by Canon Stocken, who has come to Victoria to spend his declining years after forty years in missionary work among this tribe.

The speaker gave an interesting review of the tradition of the Indians from the days when the imminence of the war-like Cree, Sioux and other aggressive tribes had caused continual fighting to later years when the appointment of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police to patrol the reserves had achieved such a salutary effect as to gradually result in a complete change of habit among the tribes.

From a nomadic life they had settled down into a peaceful, law-abiding existence. Canon Stocken paid a sincere tribute to the R.N.W.M.P. for its splendid work among the Indians, who held the force in the highest respect, he said. Canon Stocken at one point in his address spoke of the benefits of Christianity among the Blackfeet, declaring that one of the happiest results was the happier position of the women. He spoke in the highest terms of Chief Little Walker and his wife, Namo, who have been recent visitors to the Coast. Dr. the former he said, "Paul was no ordinary type of Indian, for even in my earliest acquaintance with him I was amazed with the spiritual perception and keen intelligence of the man."

Miss Gladys Thorpe was the soloist of the afternoon, her two delightful solos being much appreciated. The attention of the meeting was called by the president to the bridge and mah jong party which the club will hold in aid of its bursary fund at the

Hudson's Bay Company

INCORPORATED 2ND MAY, 1670

Municipalities Will Co-operate, But Are Against Amalgamation

Reeves Are Ready to Work in Harmony for the Development of District But Opposed to Greater Victoria Scheme

Preliminary plans for closer co-operation between Victoria and the municipalities of Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt for the development of the district were made at a meeting held last night at the Chamber of Commerce presided over by the president of the Chamber, C. P. W. Schwengers, and attended by Reeves of the municipalities and others interested. A municipal committee of the Chamber of Commerce was formed, of which the Reeves will be members and the suggestion that the Reeves be made ex officio members of the board of directors of the Chamber was also favored. The committee was made a permanent committee and a request was made that they put their suggestions for co-operation in writing and they will be taken up seriously at a future meeting of the committee. Mr. Schwengers at the outset explained that the meeting was not called to further a Greater Victoria scheme but to create greater harmony between the city and the municipalities on the island for the development of the whole district. The Greater Victoria scheme, however, crept into the discussion and it was apparent that the Reeves had come with a firm decision to voice their objection to an amalgamation with Victoria.

Mr. Schwengers referred to the petition which called for an effort to get the different municipalities into closer co-operation and alignment, and called for an informal discussion and exchange of ideas.

Mayor Hayward moved and Alderman Todd seconded that Mr. Schwengers be made permanent chairman of the committee.

TO CLEAR THE AIR

At the outset opposition to a Greater Victoria scheme was voiced by Reeve Macnicol, who said it was not advisable for people to be under the impression that a greater Victoria scheme. While they were willing to discuss means of co-operation between the municipalities the representatives could not put themselves in the position of working for a greater Victoria scheme at present.

F. B. Pemberton urged co-operation effort to exploit local productions. If this community spirit could be imbued all round there was no doubt they would have a greater Victoria. Storekeepers, he protested, did not take sufficient interest in the origin of the goods they sold.

EQUAL RATES

The chairman spoke of the necessity of equal rates on water, light and power for the development of this section of the island. He suggested that the subject be discussed under different heads and touched upon the importance of the tourist trade.

Saanich Peninsula could be developed much more rapidly under different conditions. The lack of an adequate water supply had undoubtedly held back progress in fruit raising, he said. He believed he was right in saying Saanich was less prosperous now than it was ten years ago. He also suggested they consider the development of Victoria and Oak Bay as residential districts.

A COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Victoria, Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt should cultivate the same spirit that had developed in Los Angeles, said C. P. Hill. He urged that local districts should be set aside for a unanimous co-operative effort for development. "If a man comes to Victoria," he said, "and chooses Saanich, all say Saanich and pull for Saanich, and bring him to this part of the country. Four years ago he would have been knocking the district in which they lived. He referred to the extra number of people who came to Victoria during the last tourist season. "Yes," he said, "if you talk to merchants on the business of last year you will find them pessimistic. The prices of real estate must be advanced before the district could have prosperity, and to do this they must get rid of the property which the city was carrying and which was keeping the price down, by syndicating it or some other system."

He also protested Victoria had not talked about itself enough. The world was full of people with their purse in their hands looking for a good climate, he said after speaking in the highest terms of the city from a residential standpoint.

HIGH TAXATION

During discussion on why people choose other cities before Victoria, the opinion was expressed that the two greatest deterrents were provincial and civic taxes.

Reference to amalgamation led Reeve Macnicol to remark: "I don't think you will get amalgamation until taxes are equal."

Mr. Schwengers promptly remarked that that was a question which would have to be worked out. It was one of the details which could be worked out, and was a problem capable of solution.

"As long as Victoria has a forty mill rate and Saanich a twenty-five mill rate you cannot convince Saanich on a Greater Victoria," said Reeve Macnicol.

During a discussion on advertising the city Mr. Wilson claimed Victoria should advertise itself as a resort for the four summer months and concentrate on those months. "It's no good advertising as an all year round resort," he protested.

Mr. Schwengers expressed the opinion that there was not the slightest doubt that Victoria was due for a record tourist season. The problem was to keep them here when they of Greater Victoria propaganda. Reeve Hewlett stated that in making the motion he had no Greater Victoria activities in mind.

Councillor Nicol of Esquimalt spoke in favor of co-operation of the municipalities to bring industries to the district.

Mr. Schwengers repeated that this was a matter for adjustment by taxation zones, as referred to by the mayor.

Esquimalt was a small compact municipality of only 1,500 acres, where working men had built their homes, which could be run very cheaply, and they said they take a chance of increasing taxes, said Mr. Lockley.

COST OF GOVERNMENT

One city with an set of officials could be run with at least fifty per cent less overhead than Mr. Wilson, who declared growing taxes were crowding out all but the old people, who could not get out.

R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., believed that no progress would be made with a Greater Victoria scheme in the shadow. The bugbear of taxation was so great that people would fight shy of anything which might raise the tax rate, even half a mill.

Community boosting should be encouraged, he said. There was too much knocking, and some of the banks, he declared, were the biggest knockers they had.

OAK BAY'S POSITION

Reeve Hewlett advocated a municipal committee of the Chamber of Commerce comprised of the Reeves and a councillor of each municipality. They did not get together often enough to discuss municipal problems. In the meantime people could be educated with regard to amalgamation, if amalgamation were necessary. They had to educate themselves on this point before they could educate the ratepayers.

Mr. Schwengers said that he had suggested to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce that the mayors and Reeves be made ex officio members of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Pull approval of the suggestion was expressed by those present.

Reeve Hewlett's suggestion for the formation of a municipal committee of the Chamber of Commerce was also adopted. Reeve Macnicol insisted that this committee steer clear of propaganda for an amalgamation of the four districts the sooner we lend our efforts in another direction the better. They could forget boundary lines to co-operate for the good of the whole district, but he declared with emphasis it was the height of folly to talk amalgamation at the present time. "It hurts me to say this with Alderman Todd present, but he knows it too," said the Reeve.

How can you tell the people of Esquimalt with a 22.50 mill tax rate that it is to their advantage to join hands with the city of Victoria and become Victoria citizens? he asked.

The Greater Victoria Water Scheme, he said, was regarded as only the thin edge of the wedge.

Mr. Schwengers repeated that this was a matter for adjustment by taxation zones, as referred to by the mayor.

NEWSPAPER MEN WILL COME HERE

Publishers and Editors Have Victoria Visit on Itinerary

As a part of the programme of entertainment which the delegates to the convention of the Canadian Daily Newspaper Association and the Canadian Press have had planned for them during their sojourn in Vancouver, an excursion to Victoria has been arranged. The party of visitors, which will come here June 7, is composed of over 100 newspaper publishers and editors, as well as representatives from the Canadian press. Almost every daily paper in Canada will have a representative with this party.

On May 24 a special train carrying the delegates will leave Toronto, and will travel by the Canadian National to Prince Rupert, where they will then take the steamer for Vancouver. During their stay of four days in Vancouver the publishers and editors will go into business sessions regularly, but once the routine of the convention is finished they will come here to enjoy the numerous features for the entertainment of visitors for which the city is renowned.

A garden party will be held in their honor at Government House, and they will be guests at a ball given in their honor at the Empress Hotel. The party will visit the Gordon Head and Saanich strawberry farms, also the famous Butchart gardens for a peek at the flowery beauty of that spot of grandeur.

FIVE CHILDREN WERE BURNED TO DEATH

Bridgport, Conn., April 15.—Trapped in their bedrooms by flames that quickly destroyed their home, five children aged from eight to fourteen are believed to have been burned to death last night. The bodies of two have been recovered.

WOMAN LOST LIFE IN MONTREAL FIRE

Montreal, April 15.—Miss Beatrice Phillips, forty-six, was found dead on the top floor of an apartment house in the downtown section of this city after a fire had occurred there late yesterday. The body was badly burned and only by a deformity of the leg could it be recognized.

Montreal Business Man is Visitor

The aggressive attitude of the Californians after business was a surprise to Robert Havire of the well known firm of Brodie & Havire, flour merchants of Montreal, who arrived at the Empress Hotel Monday with Mrs. Havire.

Mr. and Mrs. Havire have made an extended stay in Southern California, chiefly at San Diego, and found many Canadians there. He says the real estate men, and in fact any one with anything to sell keep a close watch on visitors, with the idea of getting them to invest in local enterprises. The practice of the banks in advertising they had secured a number of new accounts from the various states indicated how closely they watched the movement of people with money who came to the cities as winter visitors.

Mr. Havire indicated that his visit was entirely for the purpose of pleasure, and he therefore did not wish to discuss business affairs.

PAYMENT EXPECTED

Washington, April 15.—President Coolidge hopes the Dawes report will result in the settlement by the Allied Powers of the German reparations question. It is his understanding, it was made known yesterday that acceptance of the Dawes report will not affect payment by Germany of money due the United States for maintenance in Germany of its military forces which remained in the Rhineland after the armistice.

"Yes, Sir, these brown shoes have discolored, haven't they, but then you have been using unsuitable and probably inferior dressing. Take my advice and use only 'NUGGET' Dark Brown Polish, it keeps shoes in condition and restores them to an even tone when they are rubbed or knocked."

Made in Black, Tan, Toney Red, and Dark Brown. Also White Dressing (cake) and White Cleaner (liquid).

Announcement!

All our offices will be closed tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon. Eighteen hundred and eighty-two years ago to-morrow at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, our Lord died at the Antitypal Passover Lamb. The night preceding His crucifixion, after He had partaken of the Passover Supper with His Disciples, He instituted the Memorial of His own death, which He designed His followers to keep each year, on the Passover date—the 14th day of Nisan. His words are "This do in remembrance of Me." The Standard Bible Students desire to follow the Lord's injunction and set apart this 14th day of Nisan for religious services and meditation.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Workmen's Compensation Board met here yesterday to dispose of several cases, and then went on to Duncan, Ladysmith and Nanaimo.

A roof fire at 329 Simcoe Street gave firemen a brisk tussle in a high wind at 1:25 p.m. to-day. The flames were brought under control without major damage.

There will be no change in the street railway and interurban schedules during the Easter holidays. The usual week day schedules will be in operation all day Good Friday and Easter Monday.

Residence permits have been issued for 904 Southgate Street, for C. C. Godson, for a house costing $2,500, and for R. Boscene for a house on Cedar Hill Road costing $1,500, and for garages for A. Hunt at 107 Wellington Avenue, and also at 539 Montreal Street.

Failure of a safety razor blade to sever the main arteries in his wrists, say the police, frustrated an attempt by Lester Baines, a patient of the Jubilee Hospital, to commit suicide at 10 o'clock last night. Mr. Baines, according to the police, had previously made threats against his life and last night washed both wrists. Dr. W. Duck attended, describing the gashes as slight.

The second proceedings in Victoria under the act providing for the maintenance of unmarried mothers opened in the city police court this morning when a young man faced a charge of failure to support an unmarried girl and her two children. The act was passed at a recent session of the Legislature. The proceedings, in camera, were remanded for hearing on Wednesday next.

The board of management of the Corporation of British Columbia Land Surveyors have been holding an examination at their offices in the Gore Block, 1219 Langley Street, during the past eight days at which the following young men have qualified to take commissions as B.C. land surveyors: G. F. Fountain, Vancouver; Andrew Hunter, New Westminster; H. Lloyd Johnston, Vancouver; and Edward R. Foster, Nanaimo.

The Gorge Park will be open for the Easter holidays, Friday and Monday inclusive, with big attractions. While this is not the official opening of the park, it was thought that many people, especially children, would appreciate the opportunity of spending the holidays out of doors in the sheltered surroundings afforded by the Gorge Park. The official opening for the season will take place on May 24.

Officials of the Veterans' Transport Workers' Association, the new longshore body, appeared in County Court to-day to refute a suggestion advanced by J. H. Elmestey, defendant in the action of Hansen versus Elmestey, that they had advanced him money. B. Hansen, dispatching secretary of the longshore association, plaintiff, described his action in advancing $25 to the defendant as a personal loan. Defendant held it to be a part payment of the $100,000 secretarial services. The hearing continues with G. A. Cameron for the plaintiff, and L. C. Mills for the defence.

A lucid explanation of the Pensions Act and the operations of the Federal Appeal Board was given by G. H. Seeger, solicitor-advocate for Vancouver Island, in a talk to the Great War Veterans Association last night, the president, Comrade George Ingledew, presiding. Many of the complaints regarding pensions were not chargeable to the S.C.R. but to the Pension Act, he said. He also protested that the scope of the Federal appeal board was too limited. The road race was discussed at the conclusion of the address and all members of the committee were asked to be at the club quarters at 9:45 Friday. The entry list will remain open until to-morrow evening.

Organized Sidney Club.—The regular meeting of the Women's Liberal Conservative Club was held at headquarters on Tuesday evening, Miss G. L. Patterson, secretary of the club, occupied the chair, giving an account of a recent visit to Sidney, where she organized a Women's Liberal-Conservative Club among the women of that district. She reported a well-attended meeting and much interest shown in political matters by the members of this new club. Canon Hinchliffe, M.P.E., gave a most interesting and instructive talk pointing out the difference between the terms "initiative" and "referendum" and "plebiscite." Major Lyons, the president of the association, also gave a brief address. Plans were made for a bridge and mah jong party to be held on May 6.

Afternoon Sketch Club Exhibit.—A most interesting exhibition of the work of local artists was opened yesterday at the Arts and Crafts Club headquarters, Union Bank Building. It represents the work of the Afternoon Sketch Club and includes a number of sketches from life by the members of this little coterie, as well as various collections of craft work. Mrs. Paetz, well-known for her miniature work, presided over the exhibit. Mrs. Loveland, Miss Kitto, Mrs. N. P. Shaw, Miss Woodward, Miss Lettice, Miss Grease, Mr. Fripp and Mr. T. Gore were among the exhibitors. Mrs. Young is showing a collection of hand-painted china. Mrs. Dennis Harris has an entry of Vancouver Island woolen goods. Miss Harris a plaster cast portrait in bas relief, and Miss Kitto is also showing a display of art-craft work. The exhibition will be open again to-morrow and is well worth a visit.

WILL RETURN TO OLD COUNTRY

Tom Richardson, former Labor M.P. in the British House of Commons for Whitehaven, who was active in labor circles in British Columbia since he took up residence at South Vancouver, expects to leave for England shortly to reside. His elder sons will remain in the Province. Mrs. Richardson and the youngest boy accompany him to the Old Country.

Mr. Richardson has frequently spoken here on political and prohibition questions. He has been a candidate both for the Legislature and for the House of Commons in the Federated Labor interest during his residence in the Province.

Mr. Richardson was a leading member of the miners' federation in the Old Country before he entered the House of Commons in 1910, holding his seat until the dissolution of 1918.

SOUTH SAANICH FARMERS' INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the South Saanich Farmers' Institute will be held at the Temperance Hall, Keating, on Thursday evening, April 17, at 8:30 o'clock sharp.

W. Downes of the Department of Agriculture will give an illustrated lantern lecture on fruit and vegetable insects.

The last mid-week Lenten service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Princess Avenue and Chambers Street, will be held to-night at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be illustrated with thirty lantern slides, and some of the outstanding scenes in the last days of Christ will be accompanied by selections of famous music which they have inspired.

TRAFFIC BUREAU SEEKS ACTION ON CROW'S NEST PASS

Point Out How Agreement Renewal Would Effect Province

Premier Oliver's memorandum setting forth in a concise and clear manner the effects the Crow's Nest Pass agreement will have on the business of the Province was again brought to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce to-day by E. V. Ablett, manager of the Freight Traffic Bureau of the Associated Boards of Trade of British Columbia.

The matter is being brought to the attention of all boards throughout the Province by the bureau, which points out that unless further measures are taken by Parliament in order that this session the agreement will automatically come into effect on July 6 of this year.

The restoration of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement rates will add to the unjust discrimination operating against British Columbia. The Premier claims. He urges representations be made to the Dominion Government and to the British Columbia members of Parliament in order that they may secure views on permitting these discriminating rates to become effective.

The communication was referred to the freight rates committee.

It was suggested that instead of calling for the abrogation of the agreement British Columbia should call for the same rates as applied to the other provinces.

If the agreement was suspended until the mountain scale was put into force, said President Schweegers, it would be an incentive for the other western provinces to work for a mountain scale. He was asked to write the Premier to this effect.

NO MOVE MADE ON FISHERIES OFFICE

Department Will Consider Protests Before Removal From Vancouver

No definite action with regard to the removal of the office of chief inspector of fisheries from Vancouver to Prince Rupert has been taken by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, the Chamber of Commerce to-day advised in a letter from J. A. Gardin, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who wrote to say that he had received a great many letters on the subject and he intended to make a thorough study of the situation and to listen to any representations which might be made before a final decision is arrived at.

TOO MANY SIGNS ON CITY HOUSES

Is Bad Advertisement For Victoria, Realtors Believe

Members of the Real Estate Board discussed the question of sign placement on properties for sale in Victoria and surrounding municipalities, and the consensus of opinion deplored the existing conditions which allowed firms to place as many signs, although the property was only upon their general listings. It was suggested by several members that only one sign should be permitted to place signs, but P. R. Brown explained that if realtors did not advertise in this way it would induce the owners to put their own signs out.

"I firmly believe that it will be detrimental to readers if they continue to place signs when they have not exclusive listings. It is well to have signs on vacant properties," said H. L. Patterson, secretary of the board. "But a great number of these placards, placed by various firms, lead to loss to the dealers and disconcert and inconvenience to buyers."

It was the opinion of those present that the placing of signs on properties, except in the case of exclusive listings, was detrimental to the success of the profession and to the interests of the public. A resolution was put to the board and carried unanimously.

E. L. Gaines of Seattle, it was announced, will be a public member under the auspices of the Real Estate Board, on April 24, in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium during the evening. Mr. Gaines will speak on "Zoning and Town Planning" and has some very interesting and instructive suggestions, illustrated with lantern slides, to offer the Victoria public. The Mayor and Council of Victoria and representatives from outside municipalities, as well as Government members, will be invited to his meeting. Mr. Gaines is an expert in his line and has won recognition as such in the United States.

This service will also form one of the usual Lenten ones of the church, being combined with the Guild for this week. Mr. Fritchard can be consulted at 1124 Richardson Street, between 4 and 6 o'clock on the same day, on matters of interest and help required by members of the Guild.

A dance will be held at the Keating Hall on Easter Monday evening, when Hot's three-piece orchestra will provide the music. There will be a waltzing competition with prizes for the best waltzers.

A special meeting of Ward Four Saanich ratepayers is called for Thursday evening, April 17, at 8 o'clock at Marigold to consider taxation on improvements. Ratepayers from other wards are invited to attend.

PASSPORTS GIVE GREATER FREEDOM ENGLISH CLAIMS

Without Them Canadians Would Find Entry More Difficult

It would not be to the general advantage or the interests of passengers themselves to dispense with present passport requirements from British subjects traveling from Canada to England, it was stated to the Chamber of Commerce directors to-day in a letter received from Sir Joseph Pope, Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs. The Chamber recently protested against the necessity of the passports on the grounds that it was a war measure, should now be eliminated, and should not be a barrier to the free movement of the writer stated that the requirements were called for by the Imperial Government and not by the Canadian authorities. Last September the Imperial Government replied to the request of the Canadian authorities that this obligation be dispensed with, pointing out that if British subjects going to England were to be excused from obtaining passports they would find themselves subjected to more inconvenience at the port of arrival than they have experienced in obtaining British passports at the outset. Whereas, under the present system they pass freely into England on showing passports, they would without passports have to be examined closely and possibly at considerable length in order to establish their claims to be British subjects.

EXEMPTION LIST ALMOST CONCLUDED

Twenty additional plans will be presented to the second sitting of the special committee on church sites exemption, which will be held at the City Hall to-morrow afternoon. At the first sitting sixteen plans were taken in hand, and approved, and as the total number stands at forty-five, it will be seen that the work of the committee has made good progress. Those plans which under the Victoria City Act of last session have to be registered in the Victoria Land Registry office are being taken in hand, and the necessity of registration where the whole of the site is exempt, as is the case in a few instances, in connection with the latter plans, will be merely filed with the assessor for reference.

It is understood the committee does not contemplate changing the policy of Sunday school exemption when the building is physically detached from the church, as the latter plan more than the Sunday school building away from the church being taxable as has been done hitherto under the compromise reached temporarily after the famous lawsuit of the Bishop of Victoria versus the City.

There will be a meeting of the Reverted Lands Committee of the Council to-morrow afternoon, at which time the growing list of matters which has been awaiting attention will be taken up.

Redraft of the estimates, covering all points taken up, and special marking of those yet to be decided, has been commenced to-day by Comptroller Macdonald. It is hoped to have the matter finally dealt with next Tuesday evening.

GIRLS' CORNER CLUB

There will be no meeting of the Girls' Corner Club this week on account of the Easter holidays. The club will reopen Thursday, April 24.

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multifid cocoanut oil shampoo, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Multifid at any drug store, and a few pence will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonsful of Multifid is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Multifid. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package. (Adv.)

MISS MORIALD'S QUEEN CANDIDATE

City Hall Employees Have Choice of Both Personality and Experience

The female employees at the City Hall selected by secret ballot a stenographer to the city comptroller as their candidate for Miss Queen, and Miss Moriald was only too happy late yesterday to convey the selection, but she is one of the few selection, as not only has Miss Queen an attractive personality, but she is one of the few girls with an experience of the duties, having accompanied the City Hall queen to the coronation ceremonies a year ago.

She becomes the fourth candidate in the field, the departments of State, Commerce, Benevolence, and Agriculture being represented, with a choice for the Queen of Progress to be made by the Retail Merchants Association this evening.

Popular Songs In Advertising

"A very famous and, at the same time, very cynical writer, has advanced the bon mot that 'a public man is never truly great until the cartoonists deem him worthy of caricature.' If this is carried to its logical conclusion, then it may be that a song is never truly popular until it has induced someone to write a parody on it, which, of course, is an excellent thing for song writer and publisher because he wanted a parody is certain to add increasing vogue to the popular song.

In similar vein, the famous Henry Ford is said to have stated that he did not care what newspapers, cartoonists, vaudeville performers and song writers said about the Ford car as long as it was being advertised. It was the advertising he wanted. A number of lifting, lifting, whistling songs have lately formed the basis of a clever advertising campaign. Using such favorites as "Last Night on the Back Porch," "Cut Yourself a Piece of Cake," "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean," "Yes, We Have No Bananas," and "That Old Gang of Mine," and many others, the parodies are clever enough to remind one of Millbank cigarettes whenever the songs are sung or played.

TELLS DIRECTORS OF CONFERENCE WITH REEVES

Resolutions Passed Last Night Approved by Chamber of Commerce

The President of the Chamber of Commerce, C. P. W. Schweegers, reported to the directors to-day on the conference held last night with the Reeves and representatives of the municipalities of Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt. The two resolutions passed at the conference were presented and adopted after some discussion.

The first called for the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce to invite the Mayor of Victoria and the three Reeves of the adjoining municipalities to become ex-officio members of the directorate.

MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE

The other resolution which was moved by Reeve Hewlett and seconded by Reeve Macnicol, read "That His Worship the Mayor and one Alderman of Victoria, the Reeves and one Councillor from each of the adjoining municipalities constitute a special committee to be known as the municipal committee of Bureau of the Chamber, this mainly for the purpose of strengthening the co-operation between municipalities and not, at the present time, with the view in mind of working on a Greater Victoria project. And that the approval of the Board be sought to this proposal.

Point Out How Agreement Renewal Would Effect Province

Premier Oliver's memorandum setting forth in a concise and clear manner the effects the Crow's Nest Pass agreement will have on the business of the Province was again brought to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce to-day by E. V. Ablett, manager of the Freight Traffic Bureau of the Associated Boards of Trade of British Columbia.

The matter is being brought to the attention of all boards throughout the Province by the bureau, which points out that unless further measures are taken by Parliament in order that this session the agreement will automatically come into effect on July 6 of this year.

The restoration of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement rates will add to the unjust discrimination operating against British Columbia. The Premier claims. He urges representations be made to the Dominion Government and to the British Columbia members of Parliament in order that they may secure views on permitting these discriminating rates to become effective.

The communication was referred to the freight rates committee.

It was suggested that instead of calling for the abrogation of the agreement British Columbia should call for the same rates as applied to the other provinces.

If the agreement was suspended until the mountain scale was put into force, said President Schweegers, it would be an incentive for the other western provinces to work for a mountain scale. He was asked to write the Premier to this effect.

Old Favorites Open Season in Rare Old Style

Walter Johnson Pitches His 101st Shutout Against the Athletics

Sisler Returns to Game in Sensational Manner; Attendance Records Fall

New York, April 16.—Old favorites started well in the opening big league baseball games yesterday.

Walter Johnson's feat at Washington, where he pitched his 101st shutout victory against the Philadelphia Athletics, winning four to nothing, was rivalled by George Sisler, the great St. Louis American manager, who after a season's layoff with defective vision, yesterday was largely responsible for his team's seven-to-three victory over Chicago.

Babe Ruth did not hit a home run, but he started the world's champion New York Yankees rally in the ninth inning which brought his team from the rear and led to their two to one victory over the Boston Americans.

MEET BALL WELL Cy Williams, the National League homerun king, tuned up with three singles.

Harry Hellman, American League champion batsman, started with an average .400 and Rogers Hornsby, his National League rival, chalked up .30. Ty Cobb batted .233 and saved his team's game with a sensational catch.

Although Johnson's four-hit game against Philadelphia was the best pitching performance, Bob Shawkey, of the Yankees, held Boston to two hits in seven innings, until removed for a pinch hitter, Howard Ehmke, who opposed him, allowed the world's champions only five hits, two of which came in the sixth inning.

RECORD CROWDS Real baseball weather came to the aid of the major league yesterday in ceremonies and brought out more than 25,000 and Rogers Hornsby, National League and American Association.

The two major leagues drew an attendance of approximately 217,000, the American League attracting 112,000 and the National League 105,000.

The American Association drew 10,000 fans, a total for the two majors and the association of 269,000.

The New York Nationals with an attendance of 44,000 broke open records and Cincinnati with an attendance of approximately 38,000 shattered all attendance records.

BIG GUNS PRESENT President Coolidge and K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, were among the first day fans, the president witnessing the Washington game and Commissioner Landis seeing the St. Louis contest.

AMERICAN LEAGUE At Detroit, 20,000; at Chicago, 28,000; at Boston, 25,000; at Washington, 25,000. Total, 112,000.

Only One Outside Soccer Team Here During Holidays

Duncan Will Oppose Veterans on Easter Monday; Five Other Games on Card

Two Games Scheduled For Friday With Three Others Saturday; Teams Busy

One outside football team will be in town during the Eastern holidays, the Duncan eleven coming down to fulfil an engagement with the Veterans at the Royal Athletic Park on Monday.

While not a top-notch club, the up-lander can give a good account of themselves and showed the Veterans a few tricks in their first game at Duncan a few weeks back.

The Veterans have had to crowd in this game. They are scheduled to play on both Good Friday and Saturday and, with the third game on Monday, they will have their fill of soccer by the time they get back.

CROWDED WITH GAMES The Veterans are bringing Duncan on their own account. The Victoria and District Football Association refused to entertain any proposition for a visit from an outside team owing to the fact that the series for the Combination and Brown cups must be finished before the first Saturday in May. As a result all available dates between now and that time will be crowded with soccer games.

The following games are scheduled for the holidays: GOOD FRIDAY. This winner 10.30 a.m.—Veterans vs. Victoria Wests, at the Royal Athletic Park. Referee, Payne.

3 p.m.—Sons of England vs. North Wards, at the Royal Athletic Park. Referee, Alcock. SATURDAY. 2.30 p.m.—Sons of England vs. Veterans at the Royal Athletic Park. Referee, Payne. 4.00 p.m.—Esquimalt vs. Moose at the Royal Athletic Park. Referee, Ockwell. 8 p.m.—North Wards vs. Hudson's Bay at Beacon Hill. Referee, Alcock.

Both game on Good Friday will be staged in the Brown Cup series, while Saturday's fixtures will be in the Combination series.

The Veterans and Sons of England have to figure in two games on succeeding days. The Wests and Veterans are playing off the tie game which resulted several weeks ago in the Brown Cup.

Enter the field with the victor of the Sons-Ward game.

Australian Olympic Team Will Be Made Up of 37 Athletes

Honolulu, April 16.—Frank Beauregard, captain of the Australian Olympic swimmers, arrived here yesterday aboard the steamer Sonoma from Australia on route to San Francisco and Fair. He plans to swim at San Francisco on April 23, and later at Los Angeles and other points east to New York.

The eight clubs are preparing for a vigorous flag hunt, seven of them intent upon breaking Baltimore's five-year pennant monopoly, one of the most brilliant achievements on record in baseball.

The Orioles, despite loss of Max Baer, the Athletics, and Walsh to New York, are favored to add to their string of successes, but keen opposition is expected from Buffalo, Rochester, Toronto and Reading with Syracuse looming as a dark horse.

Newark and Jersey City are not expected to prove first division contenders.

The season will open with Buffalo at Baltimore; Toronto at Newark; Rochester at Jersey City and Syracuse at Reading. The northern end of the wheel will open on April 30 with the same teams as opponents.

Whether British Columbia will have any swimming representatives at the Olympic team depends upon how much money the individual clubs can raise to send their talent to Winnipeg for the try-outs.

Victoria is anxious to have Audrey Griffin along, while Vancouver is keen on getting a chance for Church Hills and Lillian Broadfoot.

The B. C. Swimming Association, however, has no money to finance a trip for these swimmers, and unless the clubs can find the money, the athletes must stay at home. It is possible that in Victoria the clubs may rally behind a movement to send Audrey Griffin to Winnipeg. It is believed that she will have no trouble catching a place on the team if she is sent.

At the annual meeting of the B.C. branch "Ebb" Hildebrand resigned as president, and H. Collings, president of the Elks Swimming Club, was elected to take his place.

Vernon, who has been secretary-treasurer for some years, was re-elected to the post.

Owing to the lack of finances the branch did not step out to defend the championship this year. The officials were instructed to ask for the 440-yard race for ladies, while the 100-yard race for men has a Dominion championship set for junior water polo teams.

The allotment of British Columbia clubs has not been made yet. None of the clubs have organized for the season as yet, and have not decided upon what titles they should like to have at stake at their gala.

LANDS 'K.O. PUNCH San Antonio, Tex., April 16.—Pascal Colletti, of New Orleans, knocked out Kid Pancho, flyweight champion of Mexico, in the fourth round of their scheduled twelve-round bout here last night.

SALT LAKE, April 16.—Seattle-Salt Lake game postponed, wet grounds. AMERICAN ASSOCIATION At Columbus 6, Kansas City 2. At Toledo 5, Milwaukee 0. At Louisville 6, St. Paul 4. At Indianapolis 10, Minneapolis 2.

Heroes Fade Quickly in Baseball--For Instance, Take a Look at What Happened to This Trio

ELMER SMITH BY BILLY EVANS

Heroes are made and fade quickly in baseball. Harken back to the world series of 1920 for proof.

The fifth game of that series between Brooklyn and Cleveland was the most remarkable contests have ever seen. It will go down in baseball history as one of the most unusual games ever played.

Cleveland won the game, 3 to 1. The score would make it seem that it lacked thrills, yet the contrary was true. It was a contest that fairly bristled with brilliant plays and record-breaking feats.

The three heroes of that game were Cleveland players, Pitcher Jim Bagby, outfielder Elmer Smith and Second Baseman Bill Wambagans.

Pitcher Jim Bagby won that game by the lopsided score of 3 to 1, despite the fact that Brooklyn made 13 hits, one more than Cleveland. In addition, Bagby deserved a shutout, which would have been a fitting tribute to a great game.

SATURDAY BROOKLYN'S LONE RUN OF THE GAME came with two down in the ninth. A dinky infield grounder that should have been an easy out, had bound at the last moment, causing First Baseman "Doc" Johnston to fumble it just long enough to permit the batsman to reach first and the runner to score.

In the fourth inning of the game, with two on the bases, Bagby hit a home run, a very unusual happening for a pitcher, particularly in a world series. That home run put the picture as far as Cleveland is concerned.

The career of the baseball star is briefly. Heroes are made and fade quickly in the great pastime.

What about these three heroes, Cleveland's popular idols of 1920? Bill Wambagans was recently sent to Boston as the central figure in the deal that brought George Burns to Cleveland.

Jim Bagby was cast adrift a year ago. Taken on by Pittsburg for a trial he was given one game, a complete release near the close of the season. Elmer Smith was traded to Boston, later he became a member of the New York Yankees, only recently he was sent to the minors.

The three heroes passed out of the picture as far as Cleveland is concerned.

The career of the baseball star is briefly. Heroes are made and fade quickly in the great pastime.

International Ball League to Get Away To-day

After Stormy Winter Season Teams Are Going Out to Upset Baltimore

New York, April 16.—The International Ball League is getting away to-day for the 1924 season, the thirty-third in the history of the circuit.

After a stormy winter season centered chiefly about control of the Newark franchise and drafting of the league's 162-game schedule, the eight clubs are prepared for a vigorous flag hunt, seven of them intent upon breaking Baltimore's five-year pennant monopoly, one of the most brilliant achievements on record in baseball.

The Orioles, despite loss of Max Baer, the Athletics, and Walsh to New York, are favored to add to their string of successes, but keen opposition is expected from Buffalo, Rochester, Toronto and Reading with Syracuse looming as a dark horse.

Newark and Jersey City are not expected to prove first division contenders.

The season will open with Buffalo at Baltimore; Toronto at Newark; Rochester at Jersey City and Syracuse at Reading. The northern end of the wheel will open on April 30 with the same teams as opponents.

Whether British Columbia will have any swimming representatives at the Olympic team depends upon how much money the individual clubs can raise to send their talent to Winnipeg for the try-outs.

Victoria is anxious to have Audrey Griffin along, while Vancouver is keen on getting a chance for Church Hills and Lillian Broadfoot.

The B. C. Swimming Association, however, has no money to finance a trip for these swimmers, and unless the clubs can find the money, the athletes must stay at home. It is possible that in Victoria the clubs may rally behind a movement to send Audrey Griffin to Winnipeg. It is believed that she will have no trouble catching a place on the team if she is sent.

At the annual meeting of the B.C. branch "Ebb" Hildebrand resigned as president, and H. Collings, president of the Elks Swimming Club, was elected to take his place.

Vernon, who has been secretary-treasurer for some years, was re-elected to the post.

Owing to the lack of finances the branch did not step out to defend the championship this year. The officials were instructed to ask for the 440-yard race for ladies, while the 100-yard race for men has a Dominion championship set for junior water polo teams.

The allotment of British Columbia clubs has not been made yet. None of the clubs have organized for the season as yet, and have not decided upon what titles they should like to have at stake at their gala.

Greatest Football Game in History of Province Looked For

LadySmith, April 16.—The stage is all set for one of the toughest football games in history when LadySmith meet St. Andrews of Vancouver, in a provincial game, at Nanaimo on Saturday at 4 o'clock. It will be remembered when these teams met at Vancouver two weeks ago that the game was a draw, one all, the referee calling the game off on account of the condition of the field, which was like a duck pond, caused by the continuous rainfall.

LadySmith will be minus one of their backs, Geo. Anderson and one of their forwards, Harry Chapman, both of whom left with the all-star team for Australia, but will have the services of their little center forward, Tuffy Davies, who is back again in town, and will be in the line-up.

Heroes Fade Quickly in Baseball--For Instance, Take a Look at What Happened to This Trio

BILL WAMBAGANS

Heroes are made and fade quickly in baseball. Harken back to the world series of 1920 for proof.

The fifth game of that series between Brooklyn and Cleveland was the most remarkable contests have ever seen. It will go down in baseball history as one of the most unusual games ever played.

Cleveland won the game, 3 to 1. The score would make it seem that it lacked thrills, yet the contrary was true. It was a contest that fairly bristled with brilliant plays and record-breaking feats.

The three heroes of that game were Cleveland players, Pitcher Jim Bagby, outfielder Elmer Smith and Second Baseman Bill Wambagans.

Pitcher Jim Bagby won that game by the lopsided score of 3 to 1, despite the fact that Brooklyn made 13 hits, one more than Cleveland. In addition, Bagby deserved a shutout, which would have been a fitting tribute to a great game.

SATURDAY BROOKLYN'S LONE RUN OF THE GAME came with two down in the ninth. A dinky infield grounder that should have been an easy out, had bound at the last moment, causing First Baseman "Doc" Johnston to fumble it just long enough to permit the batsman to reach first and the runner to score.

In the fourth inning of the game, with two on the bases, Bagby hit a home run, a very unusual happening for a pitcher, particularly in a world series. That home run put the picture as far as Cleveland is concerned.

The career of the baseball star is briefly. Heroes are made and fade quickly in the great pastime.

What about these three heroes, Cleveland's popular idols of 1920? Bill Wambagans was recently sent to Boston as the central figure in the deal that brought George Burns to Cleveland.

Jim Bagby was cast adrift a year ago. Taken on by Pittsburg for a trial he was given one game, a complete release near the close of the season. Elmer Smith was traded to Boston, later he became a member of the New York Yankees, only recently he was sent to the minors.

The three heroes passed out of the picture as far as Cleveland is concerned.

La Rocque's work in "The Ten Commandments," in which he is a featured player, has more than brought him into popular favor during the past month. Ricardo Cortez and Allan Simpson have leading

The secret of perpetual youth is not such an impossible secret, in the opinion of Viola Dana, Metro's irrefragable star, whose newest Metro picture, "Rouged Lips," is coming to Columbia Theatre to-day. It is within the grasp of anyone and moreover, Ponce de Leon, the Spanish explorer, made his mistake in thinking the fountain of youth a spatial thing instead of an attitude toward life.

This is how Miss Dana sees it: "Youth, which is only another name for freshness, buoyancy, health is possible to all. Exercise and the out-of-doors are the open sesame. I came to this conclusion through

The director's voice was raised in gentle protest. It's Frank Uron speaking to Mary Miles Minter at the Reelart Studio.

"But, Miss Minter, those are supposed to be full milk cans and yet you toss them around as though they weighed about two pounds. Grab them desperately and lift them slowly, strainingly, onto the wagon."

"Try and do it," Mary retorts. "They're so hot you could fry eggs on them."

"And it was a fact. The big cans standing in the California sun had become so torrid as to burn when touched. A little cooling with wet rags—and the star proceeded with a scene where, as a little drudge in a Dutch Pennsylvania community, she throws milk cans up on a truck and does other work ordinarily allotted only to men."

This was during the filming of "Milk," the new Mary Miles Minter Reelart picture now at the playhouse Theatre.

"Women Who Give"
Proves Once More
Value of Self-Help

"Women Who Give," the Metro picture now playing at the Capitol Theatre, marks the fourth independent unit production that Reginald Barker has directed for Louis B. Mayer, the other three being "Hearts Aflame," "The Eternal Struggle" and "Pleasure Mad."

Mr. Barker's rise from an obscure extra on the stage, working for $3.50 a week, to the position of stage producer and director for Henry Miller, before he was twenty-one, reads like a fairy tale to the average moviegoer. He started in a play of his own. At seventeen he was stage-manager and actor with a traveling company. He directed his first "real play" when he was eighteen years old. When he was nineteen he signed and posed one of the leading roles in "The Great Divide" for Henry Miller.

Desirous of learning the film business from the ground up, Mr. Barker became an apprentice for Thomas Ince. Shortly thereafter he was given the opportunity to direct a picture, and he made good from the start. Some of the pictures over which he has wielded his megaphone are "The Storm" and "The Old Nest."

Mr. Barker has become in film circles as "Realism Barker" because he never fakes a scene. "Women Who Give" is no exception to the present he has established for himself part of his company 10,000 miles to Newfoundland to film the storm scenes for the shipwreck sequence, and the fight with a giant swordfish.

"Women Who Give" was adapted to the screen by Bernard McConville and G. G. Hill from Sarah P. Lee, Len Green's famous story, "Cape Cod Folks." A. P. Younger wrote the scenario and Percy Hilburn photographed the picture.

Pantages Vaudeville Here

There are few comedians in vaudeville whose comedy is so true that they can stay on the stage for fifteen minutes and say nothing, yet with their droll antics keep their spectators in continuous mirth throughout the period. One of these rare persons is Joe Jackson, the incomparable tramp who by mere gesture can bring a house down with laughter, and this silent and retiring Joe Jackson is in Victoria to-day heading a bill of exceptional interest at Pantages Theatre.

Joe Jackson is to the vaudeville stage what Charles Chaplin is to the movies, and there is not such a great difference between Joe Jackson, the vaudeville fun-maker, and Joe Jackson the moving picture comedian, for no silent drama was ever funnier than the silent picture during which the imitator Joe "does his stuff."

To the moving picture manner of doing things is futile. He is one of those persons who forces the critic to seek refuge in the phrase that he must be seen to be believed.

There is lots of fun in this week's Pan bill, which is the first to be presented here since last Fall. The large attendance at last night's show demonstrates the popularity of Joe vaudeville here, and there is little doubt that the performance of last term and evening and those of tomorrow will be well patronized. There are two shows nightly, at 7 and 9 respectively.

Orville Stamm and girls presents a novel act of unusual beauty and entertainment. Stamm is "a strong man," but very different from the usual type, for he shows notable skill as a dancer and singer as well as in his feats of strength. He is ably assisted by a quintette of pretty girls who are made captive by this "Love Pirate" on his treasure island, and entertain the audience with a series of attractive dances.

Dave Harris, who is supported by a small company, shows himself to be one of vaudeville's most clever players, for not only has he a pleasing voice and a clever way of telling his stories, but he is a master of nearly a dozen musical instruments which he plays to good effect during his appearance.

"Bird Seed" is the title of an amusing little act staged by Wallace and May. It contains an abundance of smart repartee, a few songs and some novel sketches.

Torino offers a wonderful demonstration of juggling. He is said to be the greatest juggler of the celebrated Paul Cinqvevall, and there is no doubt that he was an apt pupil.

A century comedy completes the bill.

Betty Balfour
Pleases Many
at the Royal

The Royal Theatre is presenting Betty Balfour, the Mary Pickford of England, in her latest comedy, "Wee MacGregor's Sweetheart."

Miss Balfour needs very little introduction to the people of Victoria as her four comedies have been away above the average. It is an all-English production, using Glasgow as the stage with its queer "bitches" and funny "coves."

It gives Miss Balfour an opportunity to do some of the finest comedy work that has yet been done. In these days good comedies are scarce but this is one that should please all.

Patrons Praise
Hincks' Efforts
at the Playhouse

Last week a patron of the Playhouse who has attended this company's performances which have been given under the present management, gave voluntarily his reason for attending so regularly. It was this: "The company has spurred the company on to fresh efforts, and the result is 'the best yet' this week in the form of 'The Barber and the Baronet.' There is not a moment in the whole comedy production which is not crammed full of fun and tuneful music, and Mr. Hincks is to be congratulated on what is very reasonably the best comedy."

There is also an exceptionally fine picture this week namely, "Tillie," featuring that charming actress Mary Miles Minter. The comedy drama which brings out the very finest of her histrionic abilities. The two reel comedy, "Pum Crazy," is really too funny for words and affords a fitting conclusion to a fine entertainment.

When the advance sale opens at the Royal Theatre next Friday morning for the engagement of Sir John Martin-Harvey and his London company, which commences Monday evening April 21, it is expected that all of the season's records will go by the board as the advance mail order demand has been greater than any other attraction that has visited Victoria this season.

For the premier performance of the local engagement on Monday evening Sir John has selected a favorite of his Canadian tour, Charles Hannan's adaptation of the famous novel by P. Marlon Crawford "A Cigarette Maker's Romance." On Tuesday evening, with a matinee on Wednesday "Oedipus Rex," the play in which Sir John scored such an astounding success in New York last Fall at the Century Theatre, will be given, followed on Thursday evening by "Hamlet." On Saturday Sir John will make his farewell appearance in "The Breed of the Treshams" which has long been a favorite with local playgoers.

JAPAN AGREEMENT

Comox-Alberni M.P. Tells

Says Canada Should Follow
Course Adopted by the United States

Ottawa, April 16.—A. W. Neill, Independent member for Comox-Alberni, speaking in the budget debate in the Commons yesterday afternoon, dealt with the Oriental question. He said the present restrictions were adequate, judging from results to keep out any great number of Chinese immigrants.

He regretted the restrictions made last year in respect of Chinese could not have been extended to Japanese. He was tired of hearing about the "grave international complications" which Japan was wont to threaten when restriction was mooted. Why should Japan not recognize Canada's right to restrict the influx of people whose living standard was lower than Canadians, just as Japan restricts the immigration of Chinese and Koreans because their standard of living was lower?

THE AGREEMENT
The "Gentlemen's Agreement" of 1907 in regard to Japanese immigration had been much misunderstood, Mr. Neill quoted from Hansard of 1912, which gave the regulations forming the basis of the agreement admitting previous resident Japanese, personal or domestic servants, contract employees, brought in by Japanese farmers to the limit of five to ten laborers per 100 acres. The later correspondence dealing with the agreement it was stated the Japanese Government did not contemplate that the immigration into Canada should exceed 400 annually. The only binding clause in the entire agreement was "Do not contemplate," said Mr. Neill. It was an example of the evils of a practically unwritten agreement.

Mr. Neill quoted from a pamphlet issued by the Japanese Consul-General in 1922 which stated 1,115 Japanese domestic servants had entered Canada between 1908 and 1921. The Canadian census returns covering the same period showed that 110 Japanese domestic servants had entered the country. It showed how impossible it was to tell how many were entering the country when the figures of the Governments differed.

IN UNITED STATES
He said that under an exclusion law in the United States the Chinese population had declined fifty per cent, while under a "Gentlemen's Agreement" similar to that of Canada the Japanese population had increased by 25,000. Gentlemen's agreements were failures in both countries. He was unable to prove that the Japanese Government had been a party to fraud in this connection, but that did not apply to the Japanese nationals. The net result of the agreement in Canada had been an increase of 100 per cent in the Japanese population, accompanied by the entry of a disproportionate number of Japanese women, which, in the end, would mean a rapid growth of Japanese population.

Mr. Neill maintained that under the existing law the Canadian Minister of Immigration had the right to exclude Japanese and he declared the Government had made a mistake when it had failed to denounce the "Gentlemen's Agreement" with Japan. He was aware that the number under the agreement had been reduced to 150, but he hoped they would follow the example of the United States and adopt a policy of exclusion.

PAPER INDUSTRY
Mr. Neill asked why the paper making industry had been overlooked by the Government when reducing the tariff on implements of production. Paper making was an important industry in British Columbia and it would have been quite in order to do something for it, either by rebate of the sales tax or reduction in the tariff on the machinery which the manufacturers used, nearly all of which came from the United States.

He was sorry there was no reference to a treaty with Australia in the budget speech. He assumed there would have been some reference to it if negotiations had been successful. Such a treaty would be of great benefit to British Columbia.

The successful bid was $8.13 payable in Canada only, and $8.53 payable in New York and Canada. The issue is to cover civic improvements.

A White Clay

Which France perfected gave me perennial youth
By Edna Wallace Hopper

I am the most talked-of woman in America, because of perennial youth. After forty years as a stage star, I look like a girl of nineteen.

Many years ago I became the rage of New York. I made myself a queen of beauties. I did that, and I kept that beauty, by some aids that France supplied me.

Now I am taking time in a busy life to supply those helps to other women, and tell the facts about them.

Old clays and new
Many years ago France taught me the use of clay. Then clays were crude and muddy, as many clays are still. But the "made famous beauties" of the women who employed them, since then, French experts have perfected clay. The clay I now use is white, refined and dainty. It has added factors which bring ten-fold effects.

A beauty essential
Clay is a beauty essential. Years ago, when few women used it, those few became famous for beauty. Now in every crowd you see multiplied beauty, marvelous youth, all due to the use of clay.

Clay purges the skin of all that clogs it—the causes of sallowness, blackheads and blemishes. It brings the blood to the skin to nourish and revive it. The result is that rosy afterglow which so amazes and delights.

It renews the skin and firms it. It combats all lines and wrinkles, reduces enlarged pores. Many users, in thirty minutes, seem to drop ten years.

No girl can look her best, no woman can keep her youth, without the use of clay.

But primitive clays are out-of-date. Use the best that science knows. I have arranged to supply you the very type I use.

Edna Wallace Hopper's White Youth Clay is supplied by Owl Drug Co. Also my Youth Cream, which should follow clay. Also my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each. If you live out of town, order by mail.

Let me aid you to new beauty and new youth. To all the joys these helps have brought to me. Start today with my Youth Clay and see the change to-morrow. Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

Your Family

A mother and children bereft of home is life's most pitiful drama.

It is enacted all too often because life insurance had not been provided.

Government statistics show that "ninety-five per cent of men at age sixty are dependent." Other men die without leaving anything for the support of their families.

Life insurance has been evolved so that a man may arrange his life's program to provide for his family. It is scientific, safe and sound.

Hanscom, general passenger agent of the Admiral Oriental line at Seattle, accompanied by Mrs. Hanscom, was in the city to-day to meet the President McKinley, due here this afternoon from the Orient. Mr. Hapscom came to Victoria on the President Madison, which left for the Orient last night. He will return to Seattle aboard the President McKinley.

The Border Line freighter Fulton, which went aground in Tacoma Harbor yesterday, was floated at high tide this morning according to a wire received by McTavish Brothers, the local agents. The Fulton had been lodged in the harbor for twenty-four hours before she floated again. No damage was discovered to the vessel. The Fulton went ashore owing to a miscalculation on the part of the master during a dense fog.

WILL BE PLACED VICTORIA-CALIFORNIA SERVICE IN MAY

THIRD VESSEL PLACED ON VICTORIA-CALIFORNIA RUN

Ss. Dorothy Alexander Will Operate With Ruth and Emma Alexander on New California Schedule, Calling at Victoria; Increased Passenger Travel From California to Victoria and Puget Sound Ports Reason For Change in Company's Policy; New Schedule Effective May 1

Three ships will operate in the Victoria-California service, it was announced this morning by W. M. Allan, local representative of the Pacific Steamship Company, who is in receipt of a letter from E. G. McMeiken, passenger traffic manager, stating that the Dorothy Alexander will be withdrawn from the Portland-San Francisco run and placed on the Victoria-California route. Increased passenger and cargo movement from California to Victoria and Puget Sound ports are the reasons given for augmenting the service.

The letter states that the Dorothy Alexander will make her final sailing from Portland to San Francisco April 18 and will then be transferred to the Puget Sound-California route, taking the place of the Admiral Farragut, which will operate on the Portland-San Francisco run.

An approximate schedule has already been arranged for the Dorothy Alexander, but a more definite one is expected at a later date. The schedule is as follows:
Leaves Seattle May 1 and 11 o'clock at night arriving at Victoria 7 o'clock the next morning. May 2, leaving Victoria at 9 o'clock on the Friday morning she will arrive at San Francisco 12 o'clock Sunday morning. May 4, leaving the next day at 12 o'clock noon for Los Angeles arriving at the latter port 1 p.m. on Tuesday May 6. On the return trip, the Dorothy Alexander will leave Los Angeles midnight on May 6 and will arrive at Victoria 6 o'clock Thursday morning May 8. She will leave that port 8 o'clock in the evening of the same day and will arrive at Victoria 6 o'clock Thursday morning May 9. She will leave that port 8 o'clock in the evening of the same day and will arrive at Victoria 6 o'clock Thursday morning May 10 and will leave the same night for Seattle arriving at that port the following morning, May 11.

This gives a schedule of one sailing to California every Sunday and one sailing every second Friday from Victoria. It also gives a similar schedule from California to Victoria, there being an arrival from southern ports every Thursday night and every other Saturday night.

There will be three lines operating in the California service in May, the Dorothy Alexander, Ruth Alexander and Emma Alexander.

It was stated at the local office this morning that the trend of passenger traffic was turning toward the North and that it was quite obvious that the company officials had made the change owing to the demand for accommodations on the Victoria and Puget Sound ports.

H.M.C.S. Thiepval Arrives at Kiska

The H.M.C.S. Thiepval has arrived at Kiska Island, according to radio advice received here today. She makes up her schedule in the voyage from Atka Island to Kiska Island. Prior to this she had been stormbound and was behind schedule. At the present rate of traveling she will make Yokohama, her final destination, by May 1. She has several other ships in the Port Angeles-Victoria route, the world's aviators. Fuel will be left at Kiska Island for the aviators who will pass along this route in making the Pacific jump.

NORTHERN PACIFIC REDUCE ACCIDENTS

The Northern Pacific is trying to break all its safety records in 1924. Accidents were reduced nearly one-half in January this year over the previous January, according to the report for January just issued by the Northern Pacific.

During the previous January there were 177 injuries, of which 163 were to employees and fourteen to non-employees. Last January there were 101 injuries, of which eighty-three were to employees and eighteen to non-employees.

In January, 1923, there were sixty-seven accidents for every 10,000 men employed in operating the Northern Pacific, but in January 1924, there were only thirty-nine accidents for every 10,000 men.

The total of 135 accidents were reported for January this year as compared to 214 in the same month a year ago. On several divisions the accident rate was more than cut in half. The divisions making the best showings for the month were Fargo, Dakota; Yellowstone, Montana; and Seattle.

In January, 1923, there were sixteen accidents for every 10,000 men employed in operating the Northern Pacific, but in January 1924, there were only nine accidents for every 10,000 men.

EXPECT TO DOUBLE SHIPPING FIGURES

San Francisco Makes Good Start; Three Alexander Ships in Port

San Francisco, April 16.—If the present ratio of ship movements in the port of San Francisco continues throughout this year the business of the port will be double that of last year, according to a statement made by Charles H. Spear, yesterday president of the state Board of Harbor Commissioners. Compared with 1,737 vessels handled in all in 1923, Spear pointed out that 714 vessels had arrived and departed in January, February and March of 1924.

Three of the Alexander family of ships, the Ruth Alexander, Emma Alexander and Dorothy Alexander, were in port here together yesterday for probably the last time for several months. Starting Thursday April 24, the Dorothy Alexander will depart for the San Francisco-Portland run for the Puget Sound-California run, trading with the Admiral Farragut.

George H. Rilly, who has been with the General Steamship Corporation here has been made manager of the chartering department of the Pacific European line, it was announced yesterday. Headquarters for the new line will be opened here Monday.

The F. K. K. liner Tenny Maru sailed from Seattle yesterday, exactly on schedule time. She brought 254 passengers and 2,827 tons of general cargo. A little later the Pacific Mail liner President Pierce sailed for the Orient with a large passenger list and cargo and the Venezuela of the same line, pulled out with passengers and freight for New York via the Panama Canal.

Formation of the San Juan Tugboat Company of Seattle to operate in the general towing business on Puget Sound was announced yesterday by Captain William P. Thornton, manager of the new concern.

Two vessels of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, the steamships Discoverer and Pioneer, which wintered here, sailed yesterday for Alaskan waters.

The Discoverer left for southwestern Alaska to begin surveys in the vicinity of Kodiak Island, near Cook Inlet. The Pioneer was bound for False Pass, a strait at the western end of the Alaska Peninsula.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR BUILDING OF NEW FERRY SLIP

Herman Hoaglund Awarded Contract; Work Will Commence Soon

The contract for the building of the new Puget Sound Navigation Company's ferry slip in the Inner Harbor has been awarded, it was definitely learned this morning, to Herman Hoaglund, Everett contractor.

Mr. Hoaglund arrived in the city this afternoon to look over the site and work is expected to be started either the end of this week or the beginning of next week.

The Victoria Tug Company's tug Spray took a scow load of cross-ties from Seattle yesterday for use in construction of the ferry slip.

The ferry slip will be used by the Olympic in the Port Angeles-Victoria service. Work will be rushed right ahead. It is understood that the outstanding question about a roadway has been settled, as the grade will be cut to the lowest minimum by the use of this road.

SEATTLE SHIPPING

Seattle, April 15.—On her first visit to Puget Sound the Matson Navigation Company's freighter Mauna Ala arrived yesterday and started loading cargo for the Hawaiian Islands. She will take out one of the largest shipments of hay and grain ever loaded in a ship bound from Seattle to Hawaii.

In the intercoastal service of the Munson-McCormick Steamship Company, the freighter Munro arrived yesterday, and, after discharging 1,500 tons of general cargo from Atlantic ports, started loading lumber for the return voyage.

At a regular meeting of the northern district of the Pacific westbound conference, held here yesterday, a new schedule of rates on lumber was adopted to be effective until August 1.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS CAME BY EVOLUTION STATESMAN INSISTS

The question has often been asked, "How has it come about that there is a League of Nations, how is it constituted, and for what purpose?" Right Hon. Sir George E. Foster, P.C.M.G., answers these questions in his usual clear-cut and precise style, with clarity and exactness.

"It is not," he says, "as some critics say, the work of a group of cranks and faddists, evolved from the fanciful and fanatic brains of a few impractical and inexperienced enthusiasts. It is not the sole conception of President Wilson, imposed by his superior pressure upon an unwilling and unsympathetic world, through their representatives assembled at the Peace Conference at Paris in 1919."

"It is, rather, an evolution in the processes of international relationships, of slow growth through long ages, which finally ripened to fulfillment under the impelling objective presented by the bloody and destructive results of the great world war.

"Serious and long-visioned men have been found, in former periods of the world's history, who questioned the efficacy of the method heretofore in vogue for the settlement of international differences by brute force, and longed to substitute therefor the less costly and destructive procedure of conference, arbitration, and judicial tribunals, acquiesced in by national agreement and association. And especially during the last half-century have men's minds turned in that direction, in the United States, in Great Britain and other foremost nations, and many were the measures proposed and discussed. Then came the Great War, with its unparalleled destruction of accumulated wealth, and its amazing slaughter and mutilation of the choicest of the world's manhood.

"When, therefore, the representatives of the nations met at the Peace Conference in Paris in January, 1919, to settle the terms of peace, the awful object lesson stared them in the face and seared itself on their hearts.

"Ten million men, the flower of the nations engaged, had perished on the fields of battle; 20,000,000 men, the flower of these same nations, were left as casualties, mutilated, shell-shocked, shattered in physical, mental and moral fibre—a vast trust of broken humanity left to the care of the charity and love of sorrowing survivors.

"Plagues, pestilence, famine, disorders innumerable, mental and moral breakdown, with all their sad consequences, followed in the trail of that war, whilst incalculable financial and economic burdens were left for this and succeeding generations to bear and to solve, with privations and sufferings unimaginable during the long period necessary therefor.

"Is it any wonder that the first question asked at the Peace Conference was 'Is there not a better way of settling international differences than by the old methods of force and war?' 'Is it not our first duty to find, if possible, that way, and to make it effective?' It was generally felt that civilization could not face such another war and survive.

"Under this impulse the first action taken at the Peace Conference was to introduce a resolution affirming the necessity of an Association, or League of Nations, and to appoint a representative committee to draw up and present to the conference a plan or covenant to this end. This resolution was passed unanimously on January 25, 1919. The committee appointed thereunder consisted of nineteen members, chosen from eleven of the chief allied nations engaged in the war, and at the head, as its chairman, was President Wilson. Probably no more experienced and practical men could have been appointed, and none further removed from the category of weak-minded and faddists.

"This committee held ten sessions, examined every phase of the question, and on February 14, presented a unanimous draft plan, or covenant, which was approved and published to the world, and comments and suggestions invited thereon. Then representatives of the neutral nations of Europe were invited and appeared before the committee and gave their views. Thereafter the committee reviewed the whole matter, original draft and suggested amendments, and on April 28 submitted its final report, which was unanimously adopted by the Peace Conference and became 'The Covenant of the League of Nations.' This covenant was embodied in, and became a part of, every treaty made with the enemy nations.

"The above simple recital effectually answers the light assertions of ill-informed critics, who affirm that the League of Nations is the concoction of weak-minded enthusiasts and faddists.

"The League of Nations was, in effect, a long overdue answer to the prayer of the ages for a better method than war to settle disputes among nations, a response to the universal cry of humanity for delivery from the destruction of wealth, the slaughter of untold millions of strong men and the incalculable sufferings of countless women and children everywhere as a result of the old methods.

"It is the embodiment of a new gospel of international relations in a sane and practical bond of co-operation and goodwill, and open to all the nations of the world.

"It is the logical evolution of human progress from the past era of settlements of individual tribal and national differences by force, when in the most trivial matters for adjustment, Might stood for Right, and the weaker went to the wall. By a long and tedious process progress was made from that era to the advanced era of to-day, when differences between individuals in a nation, personal, legal and sectional, are settled by conference, arbitration and courts of law, and Right is upheld against brute force and Might. It is an attempt to carry this development of peaceful settlement into international relations, and adjust disputes and differences by conference, arbitration, a permanent tribunal of international justice, and the united agreement and goodwill co-operation of all nations in an association voluntarily entered into for that purpose.

THE HOUSE OF SERVICE

Cor. Johnson and Broad Street Phone 7781

pose. Surely it is the very essence of practical commonsense applied to international relations.

"Having briefly answered the question of 'Why?' let us as briefly answer the question as to 'How' the League is constituted.

"It is a voluntary association of nations which subscribe to certain obligations and duties set forth in the twenty-six articles of the covenant of the League.

"The preamble of the covenant is as follows:

"The High Contracting Parties: In order to promote international co-operation and to achieve international peace and security by the acceptance of obligations not to resort to war; by the prescription of open, just and honorable relations between nations; by the firm establishment of the understandings of international law as the actual rule of conduct among Governments; and by the maintenance of justice and scrupulous respect for all treaty obligations in the dealings of organized peoples with one another, agree to conclude the Covenant of the League of Nations.

"A consideration of this pledge shows its high purpose, and the reasonable and practical methods by which it is to be achieved. International co-operation is the line of action, international peace and security the end to be attained. Before the nations pledge themselves not to resort to war, to maintain open, just and honorable relations with each other, and to respect treaty obligations in their dealings one with another.

"Surely no conception could be nobler or more sensible, and surely no one can say that humanity is incapable of its attainment and should not at once begin the task of achieving it.

"To that covenant fourteen nations set their hands and seal on January 10, 1919, when they deposited their ratification of the Treaty of Versailles in the French Foreign Office in Paris. This then became the natal day of the League. Before the first meeting of the assembly in November, 1920, forty-five nations had assumed the obligations of the covenant and became members of the League.

"Thereafter nations desirous of joining the League obtained membership under the following clause of article one of the covenant:

"Any fully self-governing State, Dominion or Colony, not named in the annex, may become a member of the League if its admission is agreed to by two-thirds of the Assembly, provided that it shall give effective guarantees of its sincere intention to observe its international obligations, and shall accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the League in regard to its military, naval and air forces and armaments.

"Under this article Austria, Albania, Bulgaria, Finland and Luxembourg were admitted to membership by the first Assembly in 1920, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania by the second Assembly in 1921, Hungary by the third Assembly in 1922 and the Irish Free State and Abyssinia by the fourth Assembly in 1923.

"There are, therefore, fifty-four out of the total number of world nations belonging to the League, and these comprise more than three-quarters of the area and population of the world.

"The countries still outside the League are the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Afghanistan, Mexico, Rumania, Turkey, Germany and the United States.

"Of these Turkey has agreed to make application for membership after the ratification of the treaty of Lausanne. Germany will no doubt be admitted as soon as the present abnormal economic and political situation is settled. Russia has so far been antagonistic and ineligible due to her peculiar political constitution, whilst the United States, owing to unfortunate party differences, has not so far seen her way clear to enter the League.

"But, though not within the League, the vast majority of the people of the United States are heart and soul in unison with its ideals, love peace and hate war, and in many ways are now co-operating officially and otherwise with its activities. The late President Harding shortly before his death submitted to the Senate a recommendation for the entry of the United States into the League. The Permanent Court of International Justice, and the present President Coolidge has followed the example of his predecessor.

"It took the United States two years and a half to come to a decision to enter the Great War. But in the end she gave her powerful support to the cause of human freedom and just dealing.

"So in this great movement for world peace and the outlawry of war the sympathies of her people are overwhelmingly for peace and against war. Time and patience will surely effect the necessary co-operation.

"Meanwhile the League work goes on, and the League plan is demonstrating its growing effectiveness. The headquarters of the League is Geneva, where its Council and Assembly meet, and its Secretariat is located.

"Tell the room-seeker all about your room—and get a new tenant."

LAST MINUTE NEWS ON STOCKS AND FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

New York, April 16, 1924. The market displayed an improved tone to-day and it was quite evident that short covering was in evidence by the element which has recently been acting on the selling side of the market.

The President's remarks expressing confidence in the general business situation had a helpful effect on sentiment. Oil figures for the week showed a decline in production, particularly in the Powell Field and this quite naturally imparted a better tone to the oil group.

The Iron Age reported that incoming business in the U.S. Steel Corporation for the first half of April was somewhat larger than the average for March and pointed out that the main cause was a demand from automobile manufacturing sources.

The market to-day gave signs of being in a rather well sold out condition and we think that prices should prove sensitive to any new developments of a constructive character.

DAVIS GAINS IN STOCKS. (By T. A. Bond.) The stock market is having a leisurely and cautious rally. Traders tried to uncover a few more stocks this morning, which in the opinion of good market observers, afforded opportunity for covering shorts in the main section of the list.

BRITAIN'S BIG BUILDING PROJECT AN OPPORTUNITY FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA

Member of Chamber of Commerce Urges That Every Effort Be Made to Secure Business Offered by Erection of 2,500,000 Homes

Pointing out to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce that Great Britain is seriously considering the building of 2,500,000 homes, A. J. Watson cited this as an opportunity for British Columbia to secure a big volume of the lumber business that such an extensive construction programme offered.

He further urged pressure be brought to bear on the right quarters in London. It had been suggested that 50,000 of these homes be built this year, and he proposed the Victoria Chamber of Commerce forward strong resolutions to the Agent-General in London and to any other individuals or organizations which could point out the advantageous conditions of the lumber industry in British Columbia.

On the motion of Alderman Todd, seconded by B. C. Nicholas, the action suggested by Mr. Watson was followed by the president who also asked to write to Sir Henry Thornton and E. W. Beatty, K.C., advising them of what the chamber is endeavoring to do.

President McKinley Due This Afternoon

The Admiral Oriental liner President McKinley was due to make quarantine at 3 o'clock this afternoon and is expected to dock at the Ocean Point docks at 4.30 o'clock. The vessel has nearly 600 passengers aboard. In addition she has a capacity cargo including 2,500 bales of silk and 3,000 bales of wool.

DEPORTED AFTER LONG RESIDENCE

Chong Tong, in B.C. Forty-Four Years, Must Return to China. Had Narcotic Drugs in Possession; Decision by Chief Justice Hunter.

Vancouver, April 16.—Chong Tong, after residing in British Columbia since the Spring of 1880, must go back to his native land as a result of a decision handed down by Chief Justice Hunter yesterday afternoon upon a habeas corpus application made by Stuart Henderson of Victoria.

U. S. Fleet May Visit Australia in 1925 Summer

Washington, April 16.—A proposal to send the battle fleet in the Pacific and auxiliary craft on a cruise to Australia in July, 1925, is under consideration at the Navy Department.

REFUSES TO APPEAR AT U.S. INQUIRY

Mrs. Georgina Hamon Rohr Will Not go From Chicago to Washington. The bank was insolvent at the time of the first complaint, but nevertheless it was allowed to continue in business for seven years, he said.

EXTRADITION OF TWO MEN ASKED

Vancouver, April 16.—Evidence is being heard by Magistrate H. O. Alexander for the purpose of extraditing from Seattle Charles Finger and P. Kelly. The charge against the men who are now under arrest in Seattle is that on August 11 last at Hope B.C. they had stolen a quantity of sixty-three cases of whiskey and six barrels of beer belonging to the Independent Exporters' Corporation.

"THE FAR WEST COAST"

By V. L. DENTON

The "Far West Coast" was written in order to combine within one cover, the records scattered through the pages of many different books, books for the most part now out of print. Other books of ponderous size and costly, tell bits of the story here and there. This book was written to be a help to those who are interested in knowing more about the men who found our shores, charted our inlets and developed the first business ventures in the land of New Albion.

DIGGS WITNESS AT ONTARIO INQUIRY

Former Minister of Highways Tells of Profit on Government Bonds. Says He Made a Bad Investment of $10,000; Ledger Sheets Missing.

Toronto, April 16.—After the Public Accounts Committee of the Ontario Legislature had listened to the testimony of A. E. Nash of the Clarkson firm, who gave a report of his investigation of the books of the firm with which George Harris, of Hamilton, was connected, P. C. Biggs, who is Minister of Highways during the Drury administration, this afternoon volunteered to give evidence regarding his connection with one of the firms mentioned by Mr. Nash.

TOTAL YEARLY OUTLAY DECREASES

Hon. J. E. Sinclair Compares Government's Course With That of Preceding Ministry. Ottawa, April 16.—Speaking in debate on the budget in the House yesterday afternoon, Hon. J. E. Sinclair, Minister without portfolio, compared the expenditures of the Liberal Government with those of the previous Government during the last year of its administration.

PAGES MISSING

Mr. Biggs said he was sorry ledger sheets were missing as stated by Mr. Nash, as they showed stock dealings similar to those already before the committee. The Chief Justice ruled that where a man is being held on a deportation warrant he cannot go behind that warrant and inquire into the merits of the case.

Mr. Biggs said he had continued to do business with the various firms of Harris up to 1923. He said you have a talk with Harris on how to arrange this Provincial Securities" asked Mr. Price.

Disappointed in Love, Frenchman Wrecked Aeroplane

Troyes, France, April 16.—The course of true love not running smooth enough for a sergeant mechanic attached to the Belledue aviation detachment to end his days in a novel and heroic manner. Although his knowledge of piloting was purely theoretical, he resolved to fly to a height and then leap into space. Accordingly, he started up a machine and got into the pilot's seat, but only succeeded in crashing and smashing the plane.

The Renting Season is Never Over! Some people imagine that there are but two real renting seasons each year, and that it is useless to try to find tenants at other times.

But people are renting homes and business places every day. And the advertised properties are the ones that figure in these transactions.

Truly, the renting season is over—for unadvertised houses and apartments. But it is still fairly active for those landlords who utilize the classified columns persistently.

The readers of this newspaper seek for the most part to rent a house or store instead of another in the store's advertising. If the reason appeals to the self-interest of the advertiser, it will be deciding.

On view to-morrow morning from 10 o'clock. For further particulars apply to The Auctioneer Stewart Williams & Co.

SAYS TRADE TREATY WITH FRANCE ERROR
J. D. Chaplin, Ontario M.P., Claims Canada Has Lost Much Revenue
 Ottawa, April 16.—J. D. Chaplin, Conservative member of Parliament, speaking in the budget debate in the Commons last night, said he came from a border constituency where the farmers' health is in a bad way. The United States agriculturists, United States fruits came into Canada a month before Canadian fruits had ripened, and spoiled the early market for Canadian produce. The same thing applied to eggs from the United States. These were sold at fancy prices in the Canadian market before the domestic market was opened. Why, he asked, should the United States be allowed to reap this extra profit?
 Mr. Chaplin said Mr. Lapointe, the Minister of Justice, had told the House the French treaty was working well. He was not opposed to a treaty with France or any other country as long as it was fair and reasonable, but this treaty was the reverse of that. The loss of revenue during the first year ended January 31, 1924, due to the French treaty on imports from France and three other of the nine countries participating in its tariff reductions under the free-trade agreement, Mr. Chaplin gave as follows:
 On imports from France, $257,204; from Belgium, $140,895; from Japan, $52,000; from Norway, $20,000. This was a total loss of $611,099, or an average loss per month of $122,200. He estimated on this basis that the loss for twelve months would be $1,464,000.
 In addition to this there was a loss of revenue on domestic produce, a mistake under which wines were admitted to Canada at a duty of fifteen cents a gallon, he said, while the same wines paid thirty cents a gallon in France.

NEVER OVERATE OR INDULGED at the wrong time, we would probably hear very little about acid stomach from otherwise healthy people.
 "Acid stomach" and "heartburn" are the terms commonly used to describe the condition known to doctors as "hyperacidity."
 The symptoms are varied. The most common are a feeling of fullness and weight in the abdomen, eructation of gas and food after eating, headache and sickness at the stomach.
 People who are subject to hyperacidity are those who eat too much, which food causes the condition. And yet they go on eating it.
 Nervousness is an important factor in producing hyperacidity. The constant worry and anxiety which you are nervously tired, overworked or overexcited. If, in this condition you eat hurriedly, carelessly or too much, heartburn is likely to be the result. There could hardly be a better formula for bringing on an attack of heartburn than to bolt a dinner of rich foods at the end of a weary day, and then hurry right off in a frenzy of excitement to keep another appointment.
 Constipation is nearly always a symptom of hyperacidity. Indeed, it is probably one of the causes of it. You cannot hope to cure the hyperacidity until the constipation has been relieved.
 Hyperacidity is sometimes a symptom of ulcer of the stomach or of other organic diseases. In such cases, however, there is usually pain, in addition to the other symptoms. The immediate discomfort of an attack is relieved by vomiting. Take a teaspoonful of soda in a glassful of water. If this does not give relief, you can take an emetic, such as a teaspoonful of mustard flour in a glassful of warm water, containing a little cayenne pepper.
 The first step in correcting the condition is to regulate the diet. Limit rich foods, such as pastries and fried foods, and limit the amount of fats and starches. Eat plenty of green vegetables and steamed fruits.
 If regulation of the diet will not do this at once, take for a time a teaspoonful of mineral oil each morning half an hour before breakfast or three hours after the evening meal.
 A teaspoonful of baking soda to a glassful of water before each meal, for a few days, will be helpful.

UNCLE WIGGILY MENDS HIS CRUTCH
 (Copyright, 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate)
 By Howard R. Garis
 "Well, we shall both be going out to-day," said the rabbit. "Uncle Wiggily in the hollow stump bungalow soon after breakfast one morning."
 "Both going out—what do you mean?" asked the bunny uncle.
 "I am going to the movie pictures with Mrs. Whiskers," said the rabbit. "I am going to the movie pictures with Mrs. Whiskers. Of course we are going window-shopping first, to look at new hats. But after that we are going to the movies. And I suppose you will be going out to look for an adventure, as you always do. You may be going, but I am not," said Mr. Longears.
 "Why, whatever is the matter?" cried Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "Aren't you well?"
 "Oh, yes," laughed the bunny with a jolly little twinkle of his little pink nose. "But I am going to stay at home to-day to mend my crutch. You may go to the movies, however."
 "Oh, in your lovely red, white and blue striped, rheumatism-crutch broken, the one I knawed for you out of a cornstalk?" asked Nurse Jane. "The bunny. I leaned on 'em hard while jumping over a mud puddle the other day. Now I must mend my crutch."
 "But do you know how?" asked Nurse Jane. "Had you not better send it to Grandpa Whackum, the best of gentleman carpenters?"
 "Oh, no, I can fix it," said the rabbit. "I will take a hammer, some nails and two sticks of wood. I will make a piece of wood on either side of my crutch where it is broken. So I wish you luck," spoke Nurse Jane as she tied a new pink ribbon on her tall so she would look stylish going to the movies. "Thank you," said Uncle Wiggily. "When his mustache lady housekeeper had left the bunny got out a hammer, some nails, bits of wood

RECONSTRUCTION OF FARMERS' UNION LOCALS PLANNED
 Special to The Times
 Duncun, April 15.—An adjourned meeting was held on Saturday evening in the Agricultural Hall, Duncun, to consider resolutions from the farmers' locals.
 Four resolutions were submitted with regard to the reconstruction of the locals of the farmers' union. It was decided to reconstruct under the name of the Cowichan Farmers' Union, and the present officers were asked to retain office, until such time as delegates from the newly organized locals are appointed, and a meeting can be held.
 A meeting was held on Monday afternoon in the agricultural office to discuss ways and means for the formation of a canny and jam factory to take care of part of the small fruit crop of this district. Resolutions were taken to further the project and a circular letter will be sent out. It was suggested that a joint stock company be formed, and efforts will be made to raise the necessary capital.
 The second found in the competition for the cup presented by Mrs. J. S. Robinson, being played on the Cowichan golf links, resulted as follows:
 Mrs. Hicks defeated Miss K. Powell 2 and 1.
 Mrs. G. A. Price defeated Mrs. G. G. Shure and 5.
 Mrs. Corfield defeated Miss Clark 5 and 4.
 Mrs. Radford defeated Miss Benzie by default.
 Mrs. W. B. Harper defeated Mrs. K. P. Duncun 5 and 4.
 Miss Gibb defeated Mrs. M. M. Wallis and 5.
 Mrs. Wallis defeated Miss K. Robertson 1 up.
 There will be a club competition against Bogey on Friday, a 9 v. 9 teams of the Cowichan Golf Club. Those who have so far signified their intention of playing are Messrs. W. L. B. Young, H. Smith, H. Peterson, L. H. Helen, W. B. Harper, A. D. Radford, C. McCullagh, D. Robertson, S. Wright, J. Fox, E. W. Carr-Hilton, G. G. Shure, W. B. Powell, H. T. Reed, J. G. Somerville and Geo. RECONSTRUCTION OF FARMERS' UNION LOCALS PLANNED
 Special to The Times
 Duncun, April 15.—An adjourned meeting was held on Saturday evening in the Agricultural Hall, Duncun, to consider resolutions from the farmers' locals.
 Four resolutions were submitted with regard to the reconstruction of the locals of the farmers' union. It was decided to reconstruct under the name of the Cowichan Farmers' Union, and the present officers were asked to retain office, until such time as delegates from the newly organized locals are appointed, and a meeting can be held.
 A meeting was held on Monday afternoon in the agricultural office to discuss ways and means for the formation of a canny and jam factory to take care of part of the small fruit crop of this district. Resolutions were taken to further the project and a circular letter will be sent out. It was suggested that a joint stock company be formed, and efforts will be made to raise the necessary capital.

FORMER TREASURER ENDED HIS LIFE

San Jose, Calif., April 16.—James Taylor, for twenty-four years the treasurer of Monterey County, who was removed by the court five months ago after embezzlement charges had been brought against him, shot and killed himself yesterday in a bathroom in a San Jose hotel. He had registered at the hotel from Salinas yesterday morning. An alleged embezzlement of $7,000 of county funds was charged to Taylor a year ago. He was tried, but the jury disagreed. Later the court suspended him from office.

FLYING MEN AT VANCOUVER

Commemorate Creation of Air Force as Third Arm of British Services

The constitution of the Royal Air Force as the third arm of His Majesty's forces was celebrated in its twelfth anniversary by a gathering of 100 aviators at the Jericho Beach Federal Air Station on Sunday. Fifty pilots with overseas service and distinguished flying records were numbered among those present at the invitation of the reunion committee in charge of the affair.

Drawn by lot, twelve visitors were taken into the air by a vintage specially placed at the disposal of the hosts for the purpose. The gathering had two aims. The first was the commemoration of the creation by Royal Warrant of the Royal Flying Corps and the R.N.A.S., later amalgamated into the Royal Air Force. Its second, and continuing, aim was the mastering of flying men and those interested in flying for the purpose of forming an Air Force Club.

AIR FORCE CLUB
 The club, it is planned, will be formed under conditions acceptable to the Royal Canadian Air Force, recently brought into being as a special wing of Canada's defence forces. Further meetings are to be held to advance the project. Particulars may be had from Leonard Miller, late captain—Fifty-fifth Squadron, R.A.F., at 1411 Dominion Building, Vancouver.

Under the present regulations the Royal Canadian Air Force, depending on a parliamentary vote for the number of its personnel, will have a small permanent force and a large volunteer force operated under a control similar to the Canadian Active Militia.

The permanent flying wing of the service will be used in the roll of instructors to the volunteer units, and the whole subject to perpetual training. The details of the service are not yet complete but a general synopsis of the regulations may be seen in The Canada Gazette of March 15, which contains a reprint of the "K. R. and O." of the Royal Canadian Air Force.

UNEMPLOYMENT ACT

London, April 16.—The Unemployment Insurance Bill, which had been passed by the House of Commons, was read a third time in the House of Lords yesterday and received the royal assent. The bill extends the period for which unemployment benefits may be paid this year at an estimated additional cost of between £2,000,000 and £2,250,000 to be met out of the unemployment fund.

MAKES SUGGESTIONS FOR LOCAL CAMP

FRANK GATES

Mr. Gates, who has had charge of the automobile camp at Seattle for the past two years, has commented on the improvements at the Curtis Point Automobile Camp during the occasion of his visit here this week. While Mr. Gates, who has taken an active interest in the development of the camp here from its inception, will not be in charge of the camp at Seattle this year, he promises to continue to assist the movement of motorists this way. He indicated to the trustees several ways in which the present camp could be improved by the introduction of accessories now available in most up-to-date camps.

POLE LINES ON STREET ERECTED WITH CAUTION

B.C. Telephone Company Replies to Shelbourne Street Criticism

That the erection of poles on Shelbourne Street by the B. C. Telephone Company recently has injured the possibilities of that street as a memorial avenue, as was suggested in the city council Monday night, is challenged at the office of the telephone company.

It is pointed out that the B. C. Electric wires already on the street with poles having lines at the carrying light to Gordon Head, and that the telephone poles erected in connection with the development of the Gordon Head exchange are much smaller. Both have been erected with a view to the ultimate boulevarding of the thoroughfare, and when the trees grow up they will be completely hidden.

The location was approved by the Sanitary Council, it being recognized that the company could not give the service from Cedar Hill Road to the area east of Shelbourne Street without having poles on the avenue itself.

G. H. Halse, secretary-treasurer of the B. C. Telephone Company, who was here yesterday, on his attention being called to the subject issued a statement to The Times that the company had done everything it could to meet the desires of municipal and other bodies in not placing unsightly poles at unseemly places. As the public of Victoria knew, Mr. Halse said, he had personally taken a lead in installing the expensive underground conduit system now in use in this city. So far as the existing poles were concerned, conduits were beyond the reasonable needs of the district, and no one could legitimately blame either company for failing to keep in mind the ultimate destiny of the avenue.

NORTHERN INDIANS OF NOMADIC TYPE

Among the most isolated of the aborigines of the province are the tribes in the Stikine territory, including some seven bands and according to the report of Agent W. Scott Simpson, all these Indians, who number 548, hunt and trap for a living. The Atlin and Teslin band and the Tahltans of Telegraph Creek are more in contact with the whites and can therefore supplement their source of livelihood by other occupations, such as wood cutting, working on pack trains, boats, freighting with dog teams, in winter working in mines and acting as guides to big game hunting parties. Last summer some men were engaged by the Provincial Government in building a wagon road from Telegraph Creek to the head of Dease Lake.

Mr. Scott Simpson says there are some good buildings belonging to Indians in the town of Telegraph Creek, while the Atlin and Teslin band are not so well housed as the Tahltan band. The Indians of the latter live all the year in tents, and room over vast distances as they live in the open they are not subject to the same diseases which have been so prejudicial to the Indians living on the edge of civilization.

In spite of their nomadic character, the Indians are living peacefully with their white neighbors and, owing to their isolation, do not have the opportunity to secure liquor like other districts. Mr. Scott Simpson reports that the fur catch this winter has been very small, but game is everywhere very plentiful. It is expected that the navigation of the Stikine will be resumed shortly.

PROCEED WITH TELEPHONE LINE

Campbell River Extension Will be Opened in June

It is expected to open the extension of the B. C. Telephone Company's line from Courtenay to Campbell River in June, according to G. H. Halse, secretary-treasurer of the company, who was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Halse says the trunk line will be carried the thirty miles between the two places, and the connection with the existing local system will be made at the Willow Hotel at Campbell River. In practice practically the same policy will be adopted as in the case of Cowichan toll line to the lake, and then a local system provides for the subscribers in that area. A course of this character was inaugurated at Parksville before the company took it over. Mr. Halse points out that a somewhat similar plan has been adopted on the lower mainland at Mission and Chilliwack.

Poles are being delivered for constructing have already been made with experienced persons. At present the only telephonic connection between Courtenay and Campbell River is available at night and on holidays, by cutting in on the Dominion telegraph line between the two points.

The Verdict of a Capable, Unbiased Jury

Tire Repairmen who see tires at their worst give overwhelming endorsement of Goodyear Cords

NO man knows tires better than the tire repairman. He sees them at their worst. He tears them down—rips off the tread—examines the carcass. He talks about tires to tire users continually. He finds out what service each tire has given. To 126 tire repairmen—from Halifax to Vancouver—we submitted this question: "By what percentage do you think the mileage of Goodyear All-Weather Cords exceeds the mileage of the next best tire?"

80% Say Goodyear Cord Best Tire on Market
 The average percentage by which Goodyear Cord Tires excel any other cord tires sold on the Canadian market is 25.81%, as given by exactly 100 of the 126 tire experts. Nineteen of the 126 say Goodyear Cords are equal to any other tire, and only 7 place any other tire ahead of the Goodyear Cord.
 An overwhelming endorsement of Goodyear Tires by those who know.

Go To Your Selected Dealer
 Let him show you the Goodyear Tires which are making these remarkable records. He has Goodyear Tires at various prices to fit your needs. His stock is complete, fresh and fairly-priced. He is one of 2,500 dealers specially selected out of 10,000 to sell Goodyear Tires because his service is good.
